Witless and charmless perversion of a sex satire in which the point (if any) was that the nymphet gladly surrendered herself to all the gentlemen for their own good. A star cast flounders helplessly in a morass of bad taste, bad film-making, and boredom.
w Buck Henry novel Terry Southern
d Christian Marquand ph Giuseppe Rotunno m Dave Grusin ☆ Ewa Aulin, Richard Burton, Marlon Brando, James Coburn, Walter Matthau, Charles Aznavour, John Huston, Elsa Martinelli, Ringo Starr, John Astin
'Hippy psychedelics are laid on with the self-destroying effect of an overdose of garlic.' – MFB
'As an emetic, liquor is dandy, but Candy is quicker.' – John Simon
'More is never enough.'

Candy ★ (5)
Australia 2006 108m
ICA/Paradigm Hyde Films/Margaret Fink Films/Sherman Pictures (Margaret Fink, Emile Sherman)

A young couple slide into penury and squalor after they both become addicted to heroin.
Well played but unremittingly grim tale of blighted youth of a kind seen too many times before.
wd Neil Armfield novel Luke Davies
ph Garry Phillips m Paul Charlier pd Robert Cousins ad Laurie Faen
ed Dany Cooper
☆ Heath Ledger (Dan), Abbie Cornish (Candy Wyatt), Geoffrey Rush (Casper), Tony Martin (Jim Wyatt), Noni Hazlehurst (Elaine Wyatt), Tom Budge (Schumann)
'Doesn't reinvent the needle, but certainly sharpens it.' – Joe Morgenstern, Wall Street Journal

Candy Mountain ★
Switzerland/France/Canada 1987 92m
Eastmancolor
Oasis/Xanadu/Films Plant Chant/Films Vision 4 (Ruth Waldburger)

An enterprising musician goes in search of a reclusive guitar-maker.
An occasionally engaging road movie, accompanied by many songs, of an innocent being taken for a ride, literally and metaphorically.
w Rudy Wurlitzer d Robert Frank, Rudy Wurlitzer ph Pio Corradi m Dr John, David Johansen, Leon Redbone and others
ed Jennifer Auge
☆ Kevin J. O'Connor, Harris Yulin, Tom Waits, Bulle Ogier, Roberts Blossom, Leon Redbone, Dr John, Rita McNeil, Joe Strummer, Laurie Metcalf

Candy or Mint: see Caluga o Menta

Candyman ★
US 1992 93m DeLuxe
Columbia TriStar/Polygram/Propaganda (Steve Golin, Sigurjon Sighvatsson, Alan Poul)

An anthropology student becomes convinced of the reality of a mythical hook-handed serial killer, the son of a murdered slave.
Effective horror that manages not only to be scary but also delivers a parable on contemporary attitudes to race and sex.
wd Bernard Rose story The Forbidden by Clive Barker ph Anthony B. Richmond
m Philip Glass pd Jane Ann Stewart
ed Dan Rae sp Image Animation
☆ Virginia Madsen, Tony Todd, Xander Berkeley, Kasi Lemmons, Vanessa Williams, DeJuan Guy, Michael Culkin, Stanley DeSantis, Gilbert Lewis
'An upper-register horror item that delivers the requisite shocks and gore but doesn't cheat or cop out.' – Variety

Candyman: Farewell to the Flesh
US 1995 94m DeLuxe
Polygram/Propaganda (Sigurjon Sighvatsson, Gregg D. Fienberg)

A teacher discovers that the Candyman has been conjured into life once again, after her brother is accused of murdering an expert on the legend.
At its second outing, the urban myth of a hook-handed victim of injustice has deteriorated into just another slasher movie.
w Rand Ravich, Mark Kruger story Clive Barker d Bill Condon ph Tobias Schliessler m Philip Glass pd Barry Robison ed Virginia Katz cos Bruce Finlayson
☆ Tony Todd, Kelly Rowan, Timothy Carhart, Veronica Cartwright (Octavia), William O'Leary, Fay Hauser, Bill Nunn, Joshua Gibran Mayweather
'Still delivers a requisite number of shocks to satisfy the core cult that propelled the original to hitdom.' – Variety
'Eleven dead bodies. One dead cat. No breasts. Hand hacked off. One bar-room brawl, with head through mirror. Multiple hooks through the breast, with spurtin' gouts. Multiple killer-bee attacks, with facial goo ... Four stars. Joe Bob says check it out.' – Joe Bob Briggs

O'Cangaceiro: see The Bandit

Cannery Row
US 1982 120m Metrocolor
MGM/Michael Philips

Incidents in the life of a 1940s marine biologist who lives on the waterfront with bums and floozies.
Badly out of its time, this curious attempt at sentimental realism was long in the works but emerged as a bloodless, stultifying entertainment.
wd David S. Ward novel John Steinbeck
ph Sven Nykvist m Jack Nitzsche
pd Richard MacDonald ed David Bretherton
☆ Nick Nolte, Debra Winger, Audra Lindley, Frank McRae, M. Emmet Walsh, John Huston (narrator)
'Another MGM item in which the entertainment values are difficult to locate.' – Variety † Raquel Welch, originally cast for the Winger role, was fired in mid-production.

Cannibal Girls
Canada 1972 84m Eastmancolor
Target/Scary Pictures (Daniel Goldberg)

A couple whose car breaks down check into a motel in a small town where the inhabitants are cannibals.
Standard undistinguished and improvised horror fare, influenced by George Romero's Night of the Living Dead and itself an influence on The Texas Chainsaw Massacre.
The film is not helped by the gimmick of a buzzer that sounds just before shock scenes and a bell that signals when the horror is over.
w Robert Sandler d Ivan Reitman
ph Robert Saad m Doug Riley ed Daniel Goldberg sp Richard Whyte, Michael Lotosky ☆ Eugene Levy, Andrea Martin, Ronald Ulrich, Randall Carpenter, Bonnie Neilson, Mira Pawluk
'Aggravatingly hammy and corny.' – MFB

Cannibal Man (dubbed)
Spain 1972 120m colour
Atlas (Joe Truchado)

original title: La Semana del Asesino
aka: The Apartment on the 13th Floor; Week of the Killer
A slaughterhouse worker embarks on a killing spree to cover up his murder of a taxi driver during an argument over the fare.
An unconvincing psychological thriller. Cannibalism plays no part in the movie, other than indirectly, when human remains are fed with other meat into a machine for making soup.
w Eloy de la Iglesia, Anthony Fos, Robert H. Oliver d Eloy de la Iglesia ph Raul Artigot
m Fernando G. Morcillo ed Joe Louis Martinez sp Baquero
☆ Vincent Parra, Emma Cohen, Eusebio Poncela, Vicky Lagos, Lola Herrera
† The English video release was cut to 92m.

'All Singing! All Dancing! All Flesh Eating!'

Cannibal! The Musical
US 1996 105m colour
Troma/Avenging Conscience/Cannibal (Ian Hardin, Alexandra Kelly, Jason McHugh, Trey Parker, Matthew Stone)

aka: Alferd Packer: The Musical
In the 1880s, an imprisoned goldminer tells a female reporter how he was accused of cannibalism in Colorado.
Claiming to be a restoration of a 1954 film with violent scenes 'edited out for your viewing pleasure', this deliberately amateurish movie begins and ends with an excess of gore played for comedy; in between there are moments of the ghoulish humour better known from Stone and Parker's TV series South Park.
wd Trey Parker ph Robert Muratore, Chris Graves m Trey Parker, Rich Sanders
m/ly Trey Parker pd David Hedge ed Ian Hardin ☆ Juan Schwartz, Ian Hardin, Matt Stone, Jon Hegel, Jason McHugh, Dian Bachar, Toddy Walters, Robert Muratore, Stan Brakhage

Cannon for Cordoba
US 1970 104m DeLuxe Panavision
UA/Mirisch (Stephen Kandel, Vincent Fennelly)

In 1912, the Mexican bandit Cordoba is outgunned and outwitted by a US army captain.
Fast-moving but rather uninteresting action adventure.
w Stephen Kandel d Paul Wendkos
ph Antonio Macasoli m Elmer Bernstein
ad José Maria Tapiador ed Walter Hanneman
☆ George Peppard (Capt. Rod Douglas), Raf Vallone (Cordoba), Giovanna Ralli (Leonora Cristobal), Pete Duel (Andy Rice), Don Gordon (Sgt Jackson Harkness), Nico Minardos (Peter Andros), John Russell (Brig. Gen. John J. Pershing), Francine York (Sophia)
'It remains a B film, but an unusually watchable one.' – Tom Milne, MFB

'A free-wheeling, stunt-studded, dented and demented story of a road racer without rules.'

Cannonball

US/Hong Kong 1976 93m Metrocolor
Harbor/Shaw Brothers (Samuel W. Gelfman)

GB title: Carquake

Aggressive drivers compete in the Trans-American Grand Prix.

The plot is a thin excuse for multiple pile-ups and other road disasters. Moments amuse, but the violence quickly palls.

w Paul Bartel, Donald C. Simpson d Paul Bartel ph Tak Fujimoto m David A. Axelrod

☆ David Carradine, Bill McKinney, Veronica Hamel, Gerrit Graham, Judy Canova

Cannonball Fever: see Speed Zone

The Cannonball Run

US 1980 95m Technicolor
Golden Harvest (Albert S. Ruddy)

The adventures of ill-assorted contestants in the illegal Cannonball coast-to-coast race.

Well-known stars are all at sea in this comedy/disaster extravaganza, which seems to have begun as a joke rather than a script.

w Brock Yates d Hal Needham ph Michael Butler md Al Capps

☆ Burt Reynolds, Roger Moore, Farrah Fawcett, Dom DeLuise, Dean Martin, Sammy Davis Jnr, Adrienne Barbeau, Jack Elam, Bert Convy, Jamie Farr, Peter Fonda, Molly Picon, Bianca Jagger

'Lacking any recognizable plot or characterization, or indeed incidental invention, it merely offers a parade of inept whimsy and lame intra-mural reference.' – Tim Pulleine, MFB

'Moviegoers who relish the screech of tyres taking a fast turn on a narrow bend should have a whale of a time.' – Daily Mail

Cannonball Run II

US 1983 108m Technicolor
Golden Harvest/Warner (Albert S. Ruddy)

An Arab sheik puts up a million-dollar prize for the Cannonball Run.

Dispirited rehash of number one, with poor technique and non-performances by stars who should have known better than to get involved.

w Hal Needham, Albert S. Ruddy, Harvey Miller d Hal Needham ph Nick McLean m Al Capps ad Thomas E. Azzari ed William Gordean, Carl Kress

☆ Burt Reynolds, Dom DeLuise, Sammy Davis Jnr, Dean Martin, Jamie Farr, Telly Savalas, Shirley MacLaine, Frank Sinatra, Susan Anton, Catherine Bach, Richard Kiel, Tim Conway, Sid Caesar, Don Knotts, Ricardo Montalban and also Jim Nabors, Henry Silva

Canon City ★

US 1948 82m bw
Eagle Lion/Bryan Foy (Robert T. Kane)

Convicts break out of the Colorado State Prison.

Minor semi-documentary melodrama, quite effectively presented.

wd Crane Wilbur ph John Alton

☆ Scott Brady, Jeff Corey, Whit Bissell, Stanley Clements, DeForest Kelley

Can't Buy Me Love

US 1987 94m colour
Warner/Touchstone (Thom Mount)

A wimp hires a popular cheerleader to be his girlfriend for a month to improve his social standing.

Predictable comedy aimed at a teenage audience, and they are welcome to it.

w Michael Swerdlick d James Foley ph Peter Lyons Collister m Robert Folk pd Donald Light-Harris ed Jeff Gourson

☆ Patrick Dempsey, Amanda Peterson, Courtney Gains, Seth Green, Tina Caspary, Devin Devasquez, Darcy de Moss, Eric Bruskotter

'Yesterday's history. Tomorrow's the future. Tonight's the party.'

Can't Hardly Wait

US 1998 98m Technicolor
Columbia/Tall Trees

At a wild party to celebrate graduation from high school, a shy youth approaches the girl he loves, who has just broken up with her boyfriend.

Noisy lowbrow comedy of American school life, unlikely to interest anyone who's not an adolescent of limited horizons.

wd Harry Elfton, Deborah Kaplan ph Lloyd Ahern m David Kitay, Matthew Sweet pd Marcia Hinds-Johnson ed Michael Jablow

☆ Jennifer Love Hewitt, Ethan Embry, Charlie Korsmo, Lauren Ambrose, Seth Green, Peter Facinelli, Adam Hann-Byrd

'A mediocre attempt to recapture the exuberance and candid portraiture of such high school movie classics as American Graffiti.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety

Can't Help Singing ★

US 1944 90m Technicolor
Universal (Frank Ross)

A Washington heiress chases her army lieutenant lover across the Wild West to California.

Lively star musical which could have used a little more wit in its lighthearted script.

w Lewis Foster, Frank Ryan d Frank Ryan ph Woody Bredell, W. Howard Greene m/ly Jerome Kern, E. Y. Harburg md Jerome Kern, Hans Salter ed Ted J. Kent

☆ Deanna Durbin, David Bruce, Robert Paige, Akim Tamiroff, Leonid Kinskey, Ray Collins, Thomas Gomez

'This could have been a beautiful and gay picture, but it is made without much feeling for beauty or gaiety.' – James Agee

'She can carry a simple part charmingly; she looks very well; her manners are impeccable; and she can sing a role just short of grand opera better than any actress on the screen.' – Observer

♫ 'Elbow Room'; 'Any Moment Now'; 'Californ-i-ay'; 'Swing Your Sweetheart round the Fire'; 'Finale Ultimo'

Jerome Kern, Hans Salter; song 'More and More'

Can't Stop the Music

US 1980 124m Metrocolor
Panavision
EMI/Allan Carr

A Greenwich Village pop group hits the bigtime.

Curiously old-fashioned youth musical, unwisely touted as something special, which it wasn't.

w Bronte Woodward, Allan Carr d Nancy Walker ph Bill Butler m Jacques Morali

☆ The Village People, Valerie Perrine, Paul Sand, Bruce Jenner, Tammy Grimes, June Havoc, Barbara Rush, Jack Weston

'The hype disaster of the 80s, a grisly rehash of the let's-start-a-group-of-our-own plot, peopled with butch gay stereotypes of both sexes pretending to be straight. The pervasive tackiness is unrelieved.' – Time Out

'Desperately knowing about the eighties but fixed remorselessly in a time warp of fifties hokum.' – Guardian

'All noise, lights, slogans, movement and dazzle, like a 124m commercial devoted to selling you a product you can't use.' – Sunday Times

'One doesn't watch it, one is attacked by it.' – New England Entertainment Digest

'Considering the low level of wit, perhaps the Village People should consider renaming themselves the Village Idiots.' – Los Angeles Magazine

'This shamefully tacky musical extravaganza fails on every aesthetic level.' – Los Angeles Herald Examiner

'A forced marriage between the worst of sitcom plotting and the highest of high camp production numbers.' – New West

Cantata de Chile ★

Cuba 1976 119m colour
ICAIC (Orlando de La Huerta, Camilo Vives)

Revolutionary history of Cuba, told from a Marxist viewpoint.

An ambitious, epic mix of realism, symbolic action, songs and poems, intermixed with scenes of appalling violence, and filmed with exuberance and panache. But two hours in the company of excessively noble peasants is too much.

wd Humberto Solas ph Jorge Herrera m Leo Brouwer pd Fedora Robles ed Nelson L. Rodriguez

☆ Nelson Villagra, Shenda Roman, Eric Heresmann

A Canterbury Tale ★★

GB 1944 124m bw
Rank/Archers (Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger)

A batty magistrate is unmasked by a land girl, an army sergeant and a GI.

Curious would-be propaganda piece with Old England bathed in a roseate wartime glow, but the plot seems to have little to do with Chaucer. Indeed, quite what Powell and Pressburger thought they were up to is hard to fathom, but the detail is interesting.

wd Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger ph Erwin Hillier

☆ Eric Portman, Sheila Sim, John Sweet, Dennis Price, Esmond Knight, Charles Hawtrey, Hay Petrie, George Merritt, Edward Rigby

'To most people the intentions of the filmmakers remained highly mysterious; nor did this picture of the British administration of justice commend itself to the authorities, who showed some reluctance to encourage its export to our allies.' – Basil Wright, 1972

The Canterbury Tales

Italy/France 1971 109m Technicolor
UA/PEA/PAA (Alberto Grimaldi)

Medieval pilgrims amuse each other by telling stories on the way to Canterbury.

A sweaty selection of the tales in their more prurient aspects; even (or especially) with a Chaplinesque interlude, it soon becomes obvious that Pasolini has no understanding of English humour.

wd Pier Paolo Pasolini, after Chaucer ph Tonino Delli Colli m Ennio Morricone

☆ Pier Paolo Pasolini (Chaucer), Hugh Griffith, Laura Betti, Tom Baker, Ninetto Davoli, Franco Citti, Robin Askwith

'Caricature Chaucer, with pilgrims losing the way to Canterbury amid a forest of male genitalia.' – Sight and Sound

'The vivid depiction of taboo subjects emerges less as an affirmation of the Chaucerian belief that all human activity lies within the artist's scope, than as a bludgeoning over-emphasis on physical appetite as man's primal motive for action.' – Nigel Andrews, MFB

The Canterville Ghost ★

US 1944 95m bw
MGM (Arthur Field)

The young girl heiress of an English castle introduces GIs to the resident ghost.

Leaden comedy a long way after Oscar Wilde, sunk by slow script and direction, but partly salvaged by the respective roguishness and infant charm of its stars.

w Edwin Blum d Jules Dassin ph Robert Planck m George Bassman

☆ Charles Laughton, Margaret O'Brien, Robert Young, William Gargan, Rags Ragland, Peter Lawford, Una O'Connor, Mike Mazurki

† In the mid 1970s, a television version starring David Niven was made by HTV. Another TV version followed in 1996, starring Patrick Stewart and Neve Campbell.

Canyon Pass: see Raton Pass

Canyon Passage ★

US 1946 99m Technicolor
Universal (Walter Wanger)

In the 1850s along the pioneering tracks the west's first towns were being built...

Simple, scrappy but generally pleasing film which gives a vivid picture of pioneering life while minimizing its hardships.

w Ernest Pascal, William Fosche d Jacques Tourneur ph Edward Cronjager m Frank Skinner m/ly Jack Brooks, Hoagy Carmichael ad John B. Goodman, Richard H. Riedel ed Milton Carruth

☆ Dana Andrews, Patricia Roc, Hoagy Carmichael, Brian Donlevy, Susan Hayward, Ward Bond, Andy Devine, Lloyd Bridges

'Miles of beautiful scenery, lavishly punctuated with rough-and-tumble episodes, moments of tender romance and a smattering of folk customs.' – New York Times

song 'Ole Buttermilk Sky' (m/ly Hoagy Carmichael, Jack Brooks)

Cape Fear

US 1961 106m bw
U-I/Melville-Talbot (Sy Bartlett)

An ex-convict blames a lawyer for his sentence and threatens to rape the lawyer's wife.

Unpleasant and drawn out suspenser with characters of cardboard and situations from stock.

w James R. Webb novel The Executioners by John D. MacDonald d J. Lee-Thompson ph Sam Leavitt m Bernard Herrmann ad Robert Boyle, Alexander Golitzen ed George Tomasini

☆ Gregory Peck (Sam Bowden), Robert Mitchum (Max Cady), Polly Bergen (Peggy Bowden), Martin Balsam (Mark Dutton), Lori Martin (Nancy Bowden), Jack Kruschen (Dave Grafton), Telly Savalas (Charles Sievers), Barrie Chase (Diane Taylor)

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'There is nothing in the dark that isn't there in the light. Except fear.'

Cape Fear ★★★

US 1991 128m Technicolor Panavision
Universal/Amblin/Cappa/Tribeca (Barbara de Fina)

A psychopathic ex-convict returns to threaten the family of the lawyer who unsuccessfully defended him on a charge of rape.
A remake superior to the original, a grimly effective thriller, filled with a sense of brooding menace.
w Wesley Strick novel The Executioners by John D. MacDonald screenplay James R. Webb d Martin Scorsese ph Freddie Francis m Bernard Herrmann md Elmer Bernstein pd Henry Bumstead ad Jack G. Taylor Jr. ed Thelma Schoonmaker
☆ Robert DeNiro (Max Cady), Nick Nolte (Sam Bowden), Jessica Lange (Leigh Bowden), Juliette Lewis (Danielle Bowden), Joe Don Baker (Claude Kersek), Robert Mitchum (Lieutenant Elgart), Gregory Peck (Lee Heller), Martin Balsam (Judge), Illeana Douglas (Lori Davis)
'A highly potent thriller that will strike fear into the hearts of a sizable public.' – Variety
'The film begins as it goes on; undeviatingly and unrelievedly brutal. This said, I must admit I mistrust myself for admiring it so much. For more than two hours it puts one's moral conscience under assault, not just one's nerves.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard
'A picture whose sole aim is to give its audience huge, bowel-loosening shocks; the veneer of moral seriousness and psychological complexity that Scorsese brings to the enterprise feels like an attempt to convince himself that he's not doing what he's doing ... This is Scorsese's worst picture – an ugly, incoherent piece of work.' – New Yorker
'Have our lives truly become so hollow that this kind of unapologetic bludgeoning of our sensibilities passes for jolly weekend entertainment?' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times
'I'm glad I saw the film. I found it as gripping and offensive as Scorsese intended. But, apart from de Niro's transcendent performance, I'm not sure I'd want to see it again.' – Ian Johnstone, Sunday Times
† Gregory Peck, Robert Mitchum and Martin Balsam all featured in the 1962 version, as did Bernard Herrmann's score.
Robert DeNiro, Juliette Lewis

The Caper of the Golden Bulls

US 1966 104m Pathécolor
Embassy (Clarence Greene)

GB title: Carnival of Thieves
Ex-air-aces rob banks in order to pay for the restoration of a French cathedral they had to bomb; to avoid incrimination they are blackmailed into doing one last job in Pamplona.
Ingeniously plotted, flatly executed suspenser set in Pamplona during the bull run.
w Ed Waters, William Moessinger novel William P. McGivern d Russel Rouse ph Hal Stine m Vic Mizzy
☆ Stephen Boyd, Giovanna Ralli, Yvette Mimieux, Walter Slezak, Vito Scotti

Capetown Affair

US/South Africa 1967 100m DeLuxe
TCF/Killarney (Robert D. Webb)

A pickpocket on a South African bus steals a purse containing secret microfilm.
Flatulent remake of Pickup on South Street with nothing but the unfamiliar locale to recommend it.
w Harold Medford, Samuel Fuller d Robert D. Webb ph David Millin m Bob Adams
☆ James Brolin, Jacqueline Bisset, Claire Trevor, Bob Courtney, Jon Whiteley

'The man who made the twenties roar! Now, after 45 years, his true story can be told!'

Capone

US 1975 101m DeLuxe
TCF/Santa Fe (Roger Corman)

The rise and fall of Chicago's most famous gangster.
Exploitation version of the Capone story, with the emphasis on unpleasant violence.
w Howard Browne d Steve Carver ph Vilis Lapenieks m David Grisman
☆ Ben Gazzara, Sylvester Stallone, Susan Blakely, Harry Guardino, John Cassavetes, John Davis Chandler, Peter Maloney, Royal Dano † See also: Al Capone.

Capone's Boys: see Al's Lads

Le Caporal Epinglé: see The Vanishing Corporal

Capote ★★★★ (9)

US/Canada 2005 114m DeLuxe
Columbia TriStar/United Artists/Sony Pictures Classics/Cooper's Town/A-Line/Infinity (Caroline Baron, William Vince, Michael Ohoven)

Truman Capote re-invents himself as a writer by researching a 'nonfiction novel' about the brutal killing of a family in Kansas.
Intriguing, engrossing drama of a writer finding himself, and losing his soul in the process, especially notable for Hoffman's uncanny performance as Capote.
w Dan Futterman book Gerald Clarke d Bennett Miller ph Adam Kimmel m Mychael Danna pd Jess Gonchor ed Christopher Tellefsen cos Kasia Walicka-Maimone
☆ Philip Seymour Hoffman (Truman Capote), Catherine Keener (Nelle Harper Lee), Clifton Collins Jnr (Perry Smith), Chris Cooper (Alvin Dewey), Bruce Greenwood (Jack Dunphy), Bob Balaban (William Shawn), Amy Ryan (Mary Dewey), Mark Pellegrino (Dick Hickock)
'The most intelligent, detailed, and absorbing film ever made about a writer's working method and character – in this case, a mixed quiver of strength, guile, malice, and mendacity.' – David Denby, New Yorker
Philip Seymour Hoffman
picture; Bennett Miller; Dan Futterman; Catherine Keener Philip Seymour Hoffman

Caprice ★

US 1967 98m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF/Aaron Rosenberg, Marty Melcher

A career girl investigating the death of her boss discovers that a cosmetics empire is the front for international drug smuggling.
Incoherent kaleidoscope which switches from farce to suspense and Bond-style action, scattering in-jokes along the way. Bits of it however are funny, and it looks good.
w Jay Jayson, Frank Tashlin d Frank Tashlin ph Leon Shamroy (who also appears) m Frank de Vol
☆ Doris Day, Richard Harris, Edward Mulhare, Ray Walston, Jack Kruschen, Lilia Skala, Irene Tsu, Michael Romanoff, Michael J. Pollard

Capricious Summer ★

Czechoslovakia 1968 75m Eastmancolor
Ceskoslovensky Film (Jan Libora)

The beautiful assistant of a wandering tightrope walker sets up sexual tensions when they stop at a sleepy riverside town.
Amusing little period comedy in a period setting.
wd Jiri Menzel ph Jaromir Sofr m Jiri Sust ☆ Rudolf Hrusinsky, Vlastimil Brodsky, Frantisek Rehak, Jana Drchalova, Jiri Menzel

'The mission was a sham. The murders were real.'

Capricorn One

US 1978 128m CFI color Panavision
Associated General/Lew Grade (Paul N. Lazarus III)

A reporter discovers that the first manned space flight to Mars was a hoax.
Smartly packaged topical adventure thriller rather marred by its all star cast.
wd Peter Hyams ph Bill Butler m Jerry Goldsmith pd Albert Brenner
☆ Elliott Gould, James Brolin, Brenda Vaccaro, Sam Waterston, O. J. Simpson, Hal Holbrook, Telly Savalas, Karen Black, David Huddleston
'After weighing in with some Watergate/Bernstein pretensions, the makers then opt for boring, Bondish derring-do.' – Sight and Sound

Captain America

US 1989 97m Eastmancolor
Castle/21st Century/Marvel/Jadran Film (Menahem Golan)

Frozen in the ice for decades, Captain America is freed to battle against an arch-criminal The Red Skull.
Comic-book nonsense, half-heartedly presented.
w Stephen Tolkin d Albert Pyun ph Philip Alan Waters m Barry Goldberg ed David Reale
☆ Matt Salinger, Ronny Cox, Ned Beatty, Darren McGavin, Michael Nouri, Melinda Dillon, Francesca Neri, Bill Mumy, Kim Gillingham
'It comprises reams of tedious exposition interlarded with out-dated heroics.' – MFB

Captain Apache

US/Spain 1971 94m Technicolor 'Scope
Benmar (Milton Sperling, Philip Yordan, Irving Lerner)

An Indian serving with US army intelligence tracks down a gun runner.
An old formula tarted up with the new violence. Very ho-hum.
w Philip Yordan, Milton Sperling novel S. E. Whitman d Alexander Singer ph John Cabrera m Dolores Claman
☆ Lee Van Cleef, Carroll Baker, Stuart Whitman, Percy Herbert, Tony Vogel

Captain Applejack

US 1931 70m bw
Warner

A timid man turns the tables on crooks who plan to find treasure beneath his ancestral home.
Early talkie version of a well-worn play previously filmed in 1923.
w Maude Fulton novel Ambrose Applejohn's Adventure by Walter Hackett d Hobart Henley ☆ John Halliday, Kay Strozzi, Arthur Edmund Carewe, Mary Brian, Louise Closser Hale

Captain Bill

GB 1935 81m bw
Leslie Fuller (Joe Rock)

A bargee saves a schoolmistress from trouble with crooks.
By reputation the best of its star's modest comedies, which have not yet been rediscovered.
w Val Valentine, Syd Courtenay and George Harris d Ralph Ceder
☆ Leslie Fuller, Georgie Harris, Judy Kelly, Hal Gordon, O. B. Clarence

Captain Blackjack

US/France 1952 90m bw Alsa/Jungla (Julien Duvivier)
aka: Blackjack

A Riviera socialite pretends to be an undercover agent but is really a smuggler; she is unmasked by a doctor who is really a detective.
Trashy hodgepodge with a remarkable cast of ageing stars.
w Julien Duvivier, Charles Spaak, Michael Pertwee story Robert Gaillard d Julien Duvivier ph André Thomas m Joseph Kosma
☆ George Sanders, Agnes Moorehead, Herbert Marshall, Patricia Roc, Marcel Dalio, Howard Vernon, Dennis Wyndham
† The film was meant to take eight weeks to shoot; instead, it took seven months, which is why Sanders, who ate too much out of boredom, is thin in some scenes and fat in others. The stars were to be paid out of the film's receipts and, as a result, earned no money from the picture.

'A million dollars worth of adventure! To do justice in words to its fascination is impossible!'
'His sword carved his name across the continents – and his glory across the seas!'

Captain Blood ★★

US 1935 119m bw
Warner (Harry Joe Brown)

A young British surgeon, wrongly condemned by Judge Jeffreys for helping rebels, escapes and becomes a Caribbean pirate.
Modestly produced but quite exhilarating pirate adventure notable for making a star of Errol Flynn. Direction makes the most of very limited production values.
w Casey Robinson novel Rafael Sabatini d Michael Curtiz ph Hal Mohr m Erich Wolfgang Korngold ad Anton Grot
☆ Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland, Basil Rathbone, Lionel Atwill, Guy Kibbee, Ross Alexander, Henry Stephenson, Forrester Harvey, Hobart Cavanaugh, Donald Meek
'A lavish, swashbuckling saga of the Spanish Main ... it can't fail at the wickets.' – Variety
'Here is a fine spirited mix-up with clothes and wigs which sometimes hark back to the sixteenth century and sometimes forward to the period of Wolfe ... one is quite prepared for the culminating moment when the Union Jack breaks proudly, anachronistically forth at Peter Blood's masthead.' – Graham Greene
'Magnificently photographed, lavishly produced, and directed with consummate skill.' – Picturegoer
best picture

Captain Blood, Fugitive: see Captain Pirate

Captain Boycott

GB 1947 93m bw
GFD/Individual (Frank Launder, Sidney Gilliat)
In 1880, poor Irish farmers rebel against their tyrannical English landlords.
Modest historical drama in which a splendid cast is rather subdued.
w Wolfgang Wilhelm, Frank Launder, Paul Vincent Carroll, Patrick Campbell novel Philip Rooney d Frank Launder ph Wilkie Cooper m William Alwyn ad Edward Carrick ed Thelma Myers cos Sophie Harris
☆ Stewart Granger (Hugh Davin), Kathleen Ryan (Anne Killain), Alastair Sim (Father McKeogh), Robert Donat (cameo) (Parnell), Cecil Parker (Captain Boycott), Mervyn Johns (Watty Connell), Noel Purcell (Daniel McGinty), Niall MacGinnis (Mark Killain), Maureen Delany (Mrs Davin), Eddie Byrne (Sean Kerin), Liam Redmond (Martin Egan), Maurice Denham (Lt-Col Strickland), Bernadette O'Farrell (Mrs Fagan)

'It is said that no actor can survive playing opposite a child or a dog. Let me add here that it is just as lethal playing with the Abbey Players. Apart from being able to act you off the stage, they can also drink you under the table.' – Sidney Gilliat, 1982

Captain Carey USA

US 1950 83m bw
Paramount (Richard Maibaum)
GB title: After Midnight
After the war, a military officer returns to an Italian village to expose the informer who betrayed his comrades.
Muddled and rather boring melodrama with a labyrinthine plot which seems to have stultified all concerned. It did produce a hit song, 'Mona Lisa'.
w Robert Thoeren novel Dishonoured by Martha Albrand d Mitchell Leisen
ph John F. Seitz m Hugo Friedhofer
☆ Alan Ladd, Francis Lederer, Wanda Hendrix, Joseph Calleia, Celia Lovsky, Angela Clarke, Jane Nigh, Frank Puglia, Luis Alberni
♪ song 'Mona Lisa' (m/ly Ray Evans, Jay Livingston)

Captain Caution

US 1940 84m bw
Hal Roach
In 1812, a girl takes over her dead father's ship and fights the British.
Lively though unconvincing adventure with emphasis on comedy.
w Grover Jones novel Kenneth Roberts
d Richard Wallace ph Norbert Brodine
m Phil Ohman
☆ Victor Mature, Louise Platt, Bruce Cabot, Leo Carrillo, Robert Barrat, Vivienne Osborne, Alan Ladd

Captain Clegg ★

GB 1962 82m Technicolor
Universal/Hammer (John Temple-Smith)
US title: Night Creatures
The vicar of an 18th-century village in Romney Marsh is really a retired pirate, now doing a little smuggling on the side.
Mild remake of Dr Syn with a few moments of violence added; watchable for those who like totally predictable plot development.
w John Elder (Anthony Hinds) d Peter Graham Scott ph Arthur Grant m Don Banks ad Bernard Robinson, Don Mingaye ed James Needs, Eric Boyd-Perkins
☆ Peter Cushing, Patrick Allen, Michael Ripper, Oliver Reed, Derek Francis, Milton Reid, Martin Benson, David Lodge, Yvonne Romain

Captain Corelli's Mandolin

US/France/GB 2001 131m DeLuxe
Panavision
UIP/Miramax Films/Universal Working Title/StudioCanal/Free Range (Tim Bevan, Eric Fellner, Kevin Loader, Mark Huffam)
During the Second World War on the island of Cephalonia, a Greek woman is torn between her love for a fisherman and an opera-loving Italian soldier.
Unsatisfactory adaptation of a best-selling novel, with a clash of accents among the multi-national cast and an unconvincing performance from Cage as the gentle Italian officer.
w Shawn Slovo wd John Madden novel Louis de Bernières ph John Toll
m Stephen Warbeck pd Jim Clay ed Mick Audsley cos Alexandra Byrne
☆ Nicolas Cage (Capt Antonio Corelli), Penelope Cruz (Pelagia), John Hurt (Dr Iannis), Christian Bale (Mandras), David Morrissey (Capt Gunter Weber), Irene Pappas (Drosoula), Piero Maggio (Carlo), Patrick Malahide (Col Barge), Stamatis (Gerasimos Skiadaresis)

'A holiday romance with silly voices... What a droopy, disappointing film this is.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'A cinematic box of chocolates. It looks good and has yummy moments, but leaves you wanting something more substantial.' – Angie Errigo, Empire

Captain Eddie

US 1945 107m bw
TCF/Eureka
Eddie Rickenbacker, adrift on a life raft after a plane crash in the Pacific, thinks back on his adventurous life in aviation.
Flat and surprisingly poorly made biopic with little to hold the attention.
w John Tucker Battle d Lloyd Bacon
ph Joe MacDonald m Cyril Mockridge
☆ Fred MacMurray, Lynn Bari, Thomas Mitchell, Lloyd Nolan, Charles Bickford

Captain from Castile

US 1947 140m Technicolor
TCF (Lamar Trotti)
A young 15th-century Spaniard hopes for fame and fortune in the New World.
Rather empty and boring adventure epic from a bestseller; high production values produce moments of interest.
w Lamar Trotti novel Samuel Shellabarger
d Henry King ph Charles Clarke, Arthur E. Arling m Alfred Newman ad Richard Day, James Basevi
☆ Tyrone Power, Jean Peters, Lee J. Cobb, Cesar Romero, John Sutton, Antonio Moreno, Thomas Gomez, Alan Mowbray, Barbara Lawrence, George Zucco, Roy Roberts, Marc Lawrence

'The first few reels have flow and a kind of boy's-book splendour; the rest is locomotor ataxia.' – James Agee
♪ Alfred Newman

The Captain Hates the Sea ★

US 1934 92m bw
Columbia
Crime and comedy on an ocean voyage.
Zany, rather endearing comedy which gave the star his last role.
w Wallace Smith d Lewis Milestone
ph Joseph August
☆ John Gilbert, Victor McLaglen, Walter Connolly, Alison Skipworth, Wynne Gibson, Helen Vinson, Leon Errol, Walter Catlett, Donald Meek, Arthur Treacher, Akim Tamiroff

'A fine cast, excellent comedy relief and expert direction.'–Variety
'The best neglected picture in two years.' – Otis Ferguson, 1936

Captain Horatio Hornblower RN

GB 1951 117m Technicolor
Warner (Raoul Walsh)
Events from the adventure novels about a 19th-century sailor who outwits the Spaniards and the French and marries his admiral's widow.
Sprawling, plotless sea saga with the cast ill at ease in highly unconvincing sets: no air seems to blow across the decks of the Lydia.
w Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts, Aeneas Mackenzie novels C. S. Forester d Raoul Walsh ph Guy Green m Robert Farnon
ad Tom Morahan
☆ Gregory Peck, Virginia Mayo, Robert Beatty, James Robertson Justice, Terence Morgan, Moultrie Kelsall, Richard Hearne, Denis O'Dea

'No point makes a strong enough impression to suggest a main line of criticism.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

The Captain Is a Lady ★

US 1940 63m bw
MGM
A sea captain is forced by ill-fortune to send his wife to an old ladies' home, but he dresses as a woman to be with her.
Absurd-sounding comedy not without a certain lunatic charm.
w Harry Clork play Rachel Crothers
d Robert Sinclair
☆ Charles Coburn, Billie Burke, Beulah Bondi, Dan Dailey, Virginia Grey, Helen Broderick, Helen Westley

Captain Jack

GB 1998 100m colour
Feature Film/Captain Jack (John Goldschmidt)
A sailor sets out on an unseaworthy vessel with an amateur crew to commemorate the 200th anniversary of a voyage from Whitby to the Arctic.
Ramshackle drama, based on a real incident, that unsuccessfully attempts to revive the style of Ealing comedies.
w Jack Rosenthal article Nick Davies
d Robert Young ph John McGlashan
m Richard Harvey pd Simon Holland
ed Edward Mansell
☆ Bob Hoskins, Sadie Frost, Gemma Jones, Anna Massey, Peter McDonald, David Troughton, Maureen Lipman, Patrick Malahide, Michelle Dotrice

'The result is ham-fisted and more than a little irritating.' – Empire

Captain January ★

US 1936 74m bw
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)
A little girl is rescued from a shipwreck by a lighthouse keeper.
Standard Shirley Temple vehicle with pleasing dialogue and numbers.
w Sam Hellman, Gladys Lehman, Harry Tugend novel Laura E. Richards d David Butler ph John F. Seitz m Louis Silvers
m/ly Lew Pollack, Sidney Mitchell, Jack Yellen
☆ Shirley Temple, Guy Kibbee, Buddy Ebsen, Slim Summerville, June Lang, Sara Haden, Jane Darwell

'Sentimental, a little depraved, with an appeal interestingly decadent.' – Graham Greene

Captain Kidd

US 1945 90m bw
Benedict Bogeaus
A pirate tricks King William III into giving him royal orders, but enemies he believes dead return to see him hanged.
Rather poorly produced vehicle for a star who however rants and raves to some effect.
w Norman Reilly Raine d Rowland V. Lee ph Archie Stout m Werner Janssen
☆ Charles Laughton, Randolph Scott, Barbara Britton, Reginald Owen, John Carradine, Gilbert Roland, Sheldon Leonard
♪ Werner Janssen

Captain Kidd and the Slave Girl

US 1954 82m CFI color
Reliance/UA
A scheming earl reprieves Captain Kidd so that he can steal his treasure.
Cut-price swashbuckler with more vigour than some.
w Aubrey Wisberg, Jack Pollexfen d Lew Landers
☆ Anthony Dexter, Eva Gabor, Alan Hale Jnr, James Seay

Captain Kronos, Vampire Hunter ★

GB 1973 91m colour
Hammer (Albert Fennell, Brian Clemens)
The title explains almost all; in this case he tackles an old vampire crone who becomes young when she sucks blood.
Lively horror yarn with amusing asides.
wd Brian Clemens ph Ian Wilson
m Laurie Johnson pd Robert Jones
ed James Needs
☆ Horst Janson, John Carson, Shane Briant, Caroline Munro, John Cater, Wanda Ventham

Captain Lightfoot

US 1955 92m Technicolor
Cinemascope
U-I (Ross Hunter)
Adventures of a 19th-century Irish rebel.
Dullish adventure story with the star ill at ease.
w W. R. Burnett, Oscar Brodney
d Douglas Sirk ph Irving Glassberg
m Hans Salter
☆ Rock Hudson, Barbara Rush, Jeff Morrow, Kathleen Ryan, Finlay Currie, Denis O'Dea, Geoffrey Toone

Captain Moonlight: see D'Ye Ken John Peel?

Captain Nemo and the Underwater City

GB 1969 106m Metrocolor
Panavision
MGM/Omnia (Steven Pallos, Bertram Ostrer)
Six survivors from an Atlantic shipwreck are picked up by a mysterious submarine and have adventures in a spectacular underwater city.
Further adventures of Jules Verne's engaging Victorian character from Twenty Thousand Leagues under the Sea. Here however the general production values are stolid rather than solid, and the script makes heavy weather.
w Pip Baker, Jane Baker, R. Wright Campbell d James Hill ph Alan Hume, Egil Woxholt m Walter Stott ad Bill Andrews
☆ Robert Ryan, Chuck Connors, Bill

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♪ Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Fraser, Kenneth Connor, Nanette Newman, John Turner, Luciana Paluzzi, Allan Cuthbertson

Captain Newman MD ★

US 1963 126m Eastmancolor
Universal-Brentwood-Reynard (Robert Arthur)

At an army air base during World War II, a psychiatrist has varied success with his patients.
A decidedly curious comedy drama on the fringe of bad taste; it should have turned out better than it does, but will entertain those who like hospital heroics drenched in bittersweet sentimentality.
w Richard L. Breen, Phoebe and Henry Ephron novel Leo Rosten d David Miller ph Russell Metty m Joseph Gershenson
☆ Gregory Peck, Tony Curtis, Angie Dickinson, Eddie Albert, Bobby Darin, James Gregory, Jane Withers, Bethel Leslie, Robert Duvall, Larry Storch, Robert F. Simon, Dick Sargent
🎗 script; Bobby Darin

'Passions run hot and blood runs cold!'

Captain Pirate

US 1952 85m Technicolor
Columbia (Harry Joe Brown)
GB title: Captain Blood, Fugitive

A reformed pirate, accused of sacking Cartagena, returns to piracy to discover the perpetrators.
Lively buccaneering programmer with an adequate budget and plenty of high spirits.
w Robert Libbott, Frank Burt, John Meredyth Lucas novel Captain Blood Returns by Rafael Sabatini d Ralph Murphy ph Charles Lawton Jnr m George Duning
☆ Louis Hayward, Patricia Medina, John Sutton, George Givot, Rex Evans, Ted de Corsia, Charles Irwin

'The only thing Martin wanted was a nice, quiet family vacation. Instead, he got ... Captain Ron.'

Captain Ron

US 1992 100m Technicolor
Touchstone/Touchwood Pacific Partners I (David Permut, Paige Simpson)

An American family inherits an ancient yacht in the Caribbean and hire a dubious one-eyed captain to help them sail it back to the States.
Tedious and indifferently acted comedy, in which the jokes consist of people either falling over or falling into the water.
w John Dwyer, Thom Eberhardt d Thom Eberhardt ph Daryn Okada m Nicholas Pike pd William F. Matthews ed Tina Hirsch
☆ Kurt Russell, Martin Short, Mary Kay Place, Benjamin Salisbury, Meadow Sisto, Paul Anka
'Inoffensive but unexciting.' – Variety
† The film was released direct to video in Britain.

Captain Scarlett

US 1952 75m Technicolor
UA/Craftsman (Howard Dimsdale)

After the Napoleonic wars, southern France is in need of a protector against the villainous Duke of Corlaine. Captain Scarlett rides into action...
Robin Hood in all but name, an old tale retold without much flair.
w Howard Dimsdale d Thomas Carr ph Charles Carbajal m Elias Breeskin ☆ Richard Greene, Leonora Amar, Nedrick Young, Eduardo Noriega

Captain Sinbad ★

US/Germany 1963 88m
Eastmancolor Wonderscope
King Brothers

Sinbad returns to Baristan and by means of magic deposes a sultan.
Rather splendid adventure fantasy with a European flavour, good trick effects and full-blooded performances.
w Samuel B. West, Harry Relis (Ian McLellan Hunter, Guy Endore) d Byron Haskin ph Gunther Senftleben, Eugen Shuftan m Michel Michelet ad Werner and Isabell Schlicting sp Tom Howard
☆ Guy Williams, Pedro Armendariz, Heidi Bruhl, Abraham Sofaer
† The script was written under psuedonyms because of the blacklist.

Captains Courageous ★★

US 1937 116m bw
MGM (Louis D. Lighton)

A spoiled rich boy falls off a cruise liner and lives for a while among fisherfolk who teach him how to live.
Semi-classic Hollywood family film which is not all that enjoyable while it's on but is certainly a good example of the prestige picture of the thirties. (It also happened to be good box-office.)
w John Lee Mahin, Marc Connelly, Dale Van Every novel Rudyard Kipling d Victor Fleming ph Harold Rosson m Franz Waxman ed Elmo Veron
☆ Spencer Tracy, Lionel Barrymore, Freddie Bartholomew, Mickey Rooney, Melvyn Douglas, Charley Grapewin, Christian Rub, John Carradine, Walter Kingsford, Leo G. Carroll, Charles Trowbridge
'Will not have to go begging for patronage ... one of the best pictures of the sea ever made.' – Variety
'Another of those grand jobs of movie-making we have come to expect from Hollywood's most profligate studio.' – Frank S. Nugent, New York Times
† 1977 brought a TV movie remake, as did 1995, both inferior to the movie.
🎗 Spencer Tracy
🎗 best picture; script; editing

Captains of the Clouds

US 1942 113m Technicolor
Warner (Hal B. Wallis, William Cagney)

A flippant Canadian Air Force pilot proves his worth under fire.
Recruiting poster heroics, reasonably well done but lacking the vital spark.
w Arthur T. Horman, Richard Macaulay, Norman Reilly Raine d Michael Curtiz ph Sol Polito, Wilfrid M. Cline m Max Steiner ad Ted Smith
☆ James Cagney, Dennis Morgan, Brenda Marshall, George Tobias, Alan Hale, Reginald Gardiner, Reginald Denny, Paul Cavanagh, Clem Bevans, J. M. Kerrigan
'Pure tribute to the unchanging forcefulness of James Cagney.' – New York Post
🎗 Sol Polito, Wilfrid M. Cline; Ted Smith

The Captain's Paradise ★

GB 1953 89m bw
BL/London (Anthony Kimmins)

The captain of a steamer plying between Gibraltar and Tangier has a wife in each port, one to suit each of his personalities.
Over-dry comedy in which the idea is much funnier than the script. One is left with the memory of a pleasant star performance.
w Alec Coppel, Nicholas Phipps d Anthony Kimmins ph Ted Scaife m Malcolm Arnold
☆ Alec Guinness, Celia Johnson, Yvonne de Carlo, Charles Goldner, Miles Malleson, Bill Fraser, Nicholas Phipps, Ferdy Mayne, George Benson
🎗 original story (Alec Coppel)

The Captain's Table ★

GB 1958 89m Eastmancolor
Rank (Joseph Janni)

A cargo skipper is given command of a luxury liner and has to watch his manners.
Lively adaptation of a frivolous book of obvious jokes, most of which come up quite funny amid the luxurious surroundings.
w John Whiting, Bryan Forbes, Nicholas Phipps novel Richard Gordon d Jack Lee ph Christopher Challis m Frank Cordell
☆ John Gregson, Peggy Cummins, Donald Sinden, Reginald Beckwith, Nadia Gray, Richard Wattis, Maurice Denham, Nicholas Phipps, Joan Sims, Miles Malleson

La Captive

France/Belgium 2000 112m colour
Artificial Eye/GeminiArte France/Paradise (Paulo Branco)

aka: The Captive

A rich, young, asthmatic man stalks his girlfriend to ensure that she remains faithful to him.
Stiflingly claustrophobic study of an obsessionally possessive person that becomes a trial to watch.
w Chantal Akerman, Eric de Kuyper inspired by La Prisonnière by Marcel Proust d Chantal Akerman ph Sabine Lancelin ad Christian Marti ed Claire Atherton cos Nathalie du Roscoat ☆ Stanislas Merhar (Simon), Sylvie Testud (Ariane), Olivia Bonamy (Andrée), Liliane Rovere (Françoise), Françoise Bertin (Grandmother), Aurore Clément (Lea)
'Feels like an authentic art-house movie brought out of the 1960s deep freeze and only partially thawed' – Alexander Walker

The Captive City ★★

US 1951 91m bw
UA/Aspen (Theron Warth)

Small-town corruption imposed by the Mafia is revealed by a crusading editor who defies threats to his wife and family and tells all to the Kefauver Commission.
Excellent documentary melodrama made in a style then original, also notable for use of the Hoge deep focus lens.
w Karl Lamb, Alvin Josephy Jnr d Robert Wise ph Lee Garmes m Jerome Moross
☆ John Forsythe, Joan Camden, Harold J. Kennedy, Marjorie Crossland, Victor Sutherland, Ray Teal, Martin Milner, Hal K. Dawson

The Captive City

Italy 1963 110m bw
Paramount
Italian title: La Città Prigionera

Rebels keep an assorted group of people captive in an Athens hotel.
Dim would-be thriller which rambles on far too long.
w Guy Elmes, Eric Bercovici, Marc Brandel novel John Appleby d Joseph Anthony ☆ David Niven, Lea Massari, Ben Gazzara, Daniela Rocca, Martin Balsam, Michael Craig, Percy Herbert

La Captive du Desert

France 1990 101m colour
Artificial Eye/La Sept/Roger Diamantis/St-André-des-Arts/Jean-Bernard Fetoux/SGGC/Jean-Luc Larguler/Titane (Pascale Dauman, Jean-Luc Ormires)

A Frenchwoman is held captive in the desert by nomadic tribesmen.
A minimalist movie, based on a true story, with little dialogue or action but a great deal of sand.
wd Raymond Depardon ph Raymond Depardon m Jean-Jacques Lemtre ed Roger Ikhief, Camille Cotte, Pascale Charolais
☆ Sandrine Bonnaire, Dobi Kor, Fadi Taha, Dobi Wachink, Badei Barka
'Half the audience with whom I watched the film left before the end while the other half remained, fascinated by the vividness of the photography and the highly personal nature of the film. It is one of those in which nothing, and everything, happens.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

The Captive Heart ★★

GB 1946 108m bw
Ealing (Michael Relph)

Stories of life among British officers in a German POW camp, especially of a Czech who has stolen the papers of a dead Britisher.
Archetypal POW drama lacing an almost poetic treatment with humour and melodrama.
w Angus MacPhail, Guy Morgan story Patrick Kirwan d Basil Dearden ph Douglas Slocombe m Alan Rawsthorne ad Michael Relph
☆ Michael Redgrave, Jack Warner, Basil Radford, Mervyn Johns, Jimmy Hanley, Gordon Jackson, Ralph Michael, Derek Bond, Karel Stepanek, Guy Middleton, Jack Lambert, Gladys Henson, Rachel Kempson, Meriel Forbes
'A warm, emotional, intensely human document, entitled to rate among the best twenty films of the last ten years.' – News of the World

Captive Hearts: see Fire with Fire (1986)

Captive Hearts

US 1987 97m Metrocolor
MGM/Kurissama (John A. Kuri)

Rescued from instant execution and put to work by the headman of a remote village after being shot down over Japan in 1944, an American soldier falls in love with a local woman.
Simple-minded romance that lacks dramatic impetus or interest.
w Patrick N. Morita, John A. Kuri story The Hawk by Sargon Tamimi d Paul Almond ph Thomas Vamos m Osamu Kitajima pd François de Lucy, Steve Sardanis ed Yurij Luhovy
☆ Noriyuki (Pat) Morita, Chris Makepeace, Michael Sarrazin, Mari Sato, Seth Sakai, Denis Akiyama

'A human form with animal instincts!'

Captive Wild Woman

US 1943 60m bw
Universal

A doctor finds a way of developing the glands of an ape and turning it into a beautiful girl.
Lamebrain horror item which amazingly spawned two sequels, Jungle Woman (1944) and Jungle Captive (1945).
w Griffin Jay, Henry Sucher d Edward Dmytryk ed Milton Carruth ☆ Evelyn Ankers, Acquanetta, John Carradine, Martha Vickers, Milburn Stone

Captives

GB 1994 100m Rank Colour
Entertainment/BBC/Distant Horizon (David M. Thompson)

A female dentist is blackmailed after she begins an affair with a convicted murderer.
An oddly unconvincing melodrama, in which the contrivances of the plot prevent the development of character.
w Frank Deasy d Angela Pope ph Remi Adefarasin m Colin Towns pd Stuart Walker ed Dave King
☆ Julia Ormond, Tim Roth, Richard Hawley, Jeff Nuttall, Kenneth Cope, Keith Allen, Bill Moody, Peter Capaldi

'A botched job, with many an unfilled plot cavity.' – Guardian

Captivity ②

US/Russia 2007 84m
Optimum Releasing/Lionsgate/After Dark Films/Foresight Unlimited/RAMCO (Mark Damon, Sergei Konov, Gary Mehlman, Leonid Minkovski)

A fashion model is kidnapped and held hostage in a cellar where she is subjected to a series of fiendish tortures by a masked tormentor.
Sadistic, morally vacant horror in the vein of Saw and Hostel (both qv); one expects more from this director.
w Larry Cohen, Joseph Tura d Roland Joffe ph Daniel C. Pearl m Marco Beltrami pd Addis Gadzhiyev ad Ernesto Solo ed Richard Nord
☆ Elisha Cuthbert (Jennifer Tree), Daniel Gillies (Gary), Pruitt Taylor Vince (Ben), Michael Harney (Bettiger), Laz Alonso (Disantos), Chrysta Olson (Mary)
† The film's advertising campaign, which showed the lead character being abducted, confined and tortured, was withdrawn following widespread complaints. US distributor Lionsgate later apologised, claiming the images had been released in error.

The Capture

US 1950 91m bw
RKO/Showtime (Niven Busch)

On the run from the police, a former oil company field boss explains to a priest how he, by accident, came to be a fugitive.
Run-of-the-mill melodrama, all talk and no action.
w Niven Busch d John Sturges
ph Edward Cronjager m Daniele Amfitheatrof pd William E. Flannery ☆ Lew Ayres, Teresa Wright, Victor Jory, Jacqueline White, Victor Hunt, Edwin Rand, Duncan Renaldo

Captured

US 1933 72m bw
Warner

A prisoner-of-war discovers that his best friend was his wife's lover.
Turgid and heavy-going early variation on a theme which would become very familiar indeed; the stars couldn't save it.
w Edward Chodorov novel Sir Philip Gibbs d Roy Del Ruth ☆ Leslie Howard, Paul Lukas, Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Margaret Lindsay, J. Carrol Naish, Arthur Hohl

'Too many obviously adverse ingredients, chiefly story, to chalk this one up as a winner ... at best its earnings shape up as spotty.' – Variety

'Is it a phantom, a demon, or the devil himself?'

The Car

US 1977 98m Technicolor Panavision
Universal (Marvin Birdt, Elliot Silverstein)

A small south-western town is terrorized by a driverless car which may be a creation of the devil.
Silly suspenser with a draggy midsection.
w Dennis Shryack, Michael Butler, Lane Slate d Elliot Silverstein ph Gerald Hirschfeld m Leonard Rosenman
☆ James Brolin, Kathleen Lloyd, John Marley, John Rubinstein, R.G. Armstrong

The Car Keys ②

France 2003 90m colour
Tartan/Laurent Baffie

original title: Les Clefs de Bagnole

A French actor has trouble making a film about a man who loses his car keys and then finds them 90 minutes later in his other pocket.
A film within a film that consists of a string of unrelated jokes and visual gags, of which only a very few are even slightly amusing.
wd Laurent Baffie ph Philippe Vene
m Raymond Pipin ad Baptiste Glayman
ed Anne Lafarge
☆ Laurent Baffie (Laurent), Daniel Russo (Daniel)

'This overly whimsical opus tickles and irritates in roughly equal measure.' – Mark Kermode, Observer

Car of Dreams

GB 1935 72m bw
Gaumont British (Michael Balcon)

A rich man's son buys a car for one of his father's factory girls.
Silly comedy with sillier music, remade from a German original.
w Austin Melford d Austin Melford, Graham Cutts ph Mutz Greenbaum
m Mischa Spoliansky ad Alfred Junge
☆ John Mills, Grete Mosheim, Mark Lester, Robertson Hare, Norah Howard

Car Trouble

GB 1986 93m colour
Thorn EMI/GTO/Goldfarb (Howard Malin, Gregory J. DeSantis)

A woman having an affair with a car salesman finds herself sexually locked to him in her husband's new vehicle.
This weird premise for a comedy rings up remarkably few laughs.
w James Whaley, A. J. Tipping d David Green ph Michael Garfath ☆ Julie Walters, Ian Charleson, Stratford Johns, Vincenzo Ricotta

Car Wash

US 1976 96m Technicolor
Universal

Various eccentrics congregate around the Dee Luxe Car Wash.
Zany ethnic (black) comedy with little rhyme or reason in its development but a certain vigour in some of its sketches. A subsequent TV series didn't last.
w Joel Schumacher d Michael Schultz
☆ Franklyn Ajaye, Sully Boyar, Richard Pryor, Ivan Dixon, Antonio Fargas, Tracy Reed

'Its specialty is yanking laughs by having blacks do dirtier versions of the standard pranks that naughty kids used to do in comedies.' – Pauline Kael

Carandiru ★

Brazil/US 2003 145m colour
ColumbiaTriStar/HB/Globo/Br Petrobas (Hector Babenco)

A doctor works in a Brazilian prison where the violent, overcrowded inmates finally explode in a riot that is quelled by a police massacre, leaving more than a hundred of them dead.
Episodic drama, based on fact, that compassionately explores individual lives reduced to a horrific existence.
w Victor Nava, Hector Babenco, Fernando Bonassi book Carandiru Station by Drauzio Varella. d Hector Babenco ph Walter Carvalho m Andre Abujarrura pd Clovis Bueno ed Mauro Alice
☆ Luiz Carlos Vasconcelos (Doctor), Milhem Cortaz (Dagge), Milton Goncalves (Chico), Ivan de Almeida (Ebony), Ailton Graca (Highness), Aida Lerner (Rosirene), Rodrigo Santoro (Lady Di)

'As we become immersed in the codes of the prison community, the film feels like a dysfunctional domestic drama, a trashy telenovella with added weaponry – which, in fact, is not entirely a bad thing.' – Wendy Ide, Times

Caravaggio ★

GB 1986 89m Technicolor
BFI/Channel 4/Nicholas Ward-Jackson (Sarah Radclyffe)

An imaginary biopic of the Italian painter who died in 1610, with emphasis on homosexual models, a variety of scandals, and jokey anachronisms.
A classic for the gay crowd; something of a mystery for everyone else.
wd Derek Jarman ph Gabriel Beristain
m Simon Fisher Turner pd Christopher Hobbs
☆ Nigel Terry, Sean Bean, Garry Cooper, Spencer Leigh

'It rises above its financial restrictions to prove that less can be a lot more.' – Variety

Caravan

GB 1946 122m bw
Gainsborough (Harold Huth)

A young man on a mission in Spain is left for dead by emissaries of his rival in love; he is nursed back to health by a gypsy girl who falls in love with him.
Artificial, romantic, high-flown period tosh without the courage of its lack of convictions. At the time, an exhibitor's dream.
w Roland Pertwee novel Lady Eleanor Smith d Arthur Crabtree ph Stephen Dade
☆ Stewart Granger, Jean Kent, Anne Crawford, Robert Helpmann, Dennis Price, Gerard Heinz, Enid Stamp-Taylor, David Horne, John Salew

Caravan: see Himalaya (1999)

Caravan to Vaccares

GB/France 1974 98m Eastmancolor Panavision
Crowndale (Geoffrey Reeve)

An American drifter on the Riviera is employed to escort a mysterious Hungarian to New York.
Lumpy Alistair MacLean action thriller, all a bit déjà vu.
w Paul Wheeler d Geoffrey Reeve ph Frederic Tammes m Stanley Myers
☆ David Birney, Charlotte Rampling, Michel Lonsdale, Marcel Bozzuffi, Michael Bryant

'An undernourished plot advanced only by a series of venerable clichés.' – MFB
'The biggest load of schoolboy hokum since Boy's Own Paper ceased circulation.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

Caravans

US/Iran 1978 123m Technicolor Panavision
Ibex/FIDCI (Elmo Williams)

In the Middle East in 1948, a junior diplomat is sent to bring back the daughter of a US politician, who has married an Arab, left him, and joined a Bedouin caravan.
Curiously halting succession of pretty pictures and not much plot; what there is tends to take second place to philosophy and eastern promise.
w Nancy Voyles Crawford, Thomas A. MacMahon, Lorraine Williams novel James Michener d James Fargo
ph Douglas Slocombe m Mike Batt
☆ Anthony Quinn, Michael Sarrazin, Jennifer O'Neill, Christopher Lee, Joseph Cotten, Barry Sullivan, Jeremy Kemp

'A tiresome exercise in anti-climax.' – Tim Pulleine, MFB

† The film cost 14 million dollars and is said to have been financed by the Shah of Iran.

Carbine Williams

US 1952 93m bw
MGM (Armand Deutsch)

An imprisoned bootlegger perfects a new gun and is pardoned.
Flat fictionalization of a true story, with the star miscast.
w Art Cohn d Richard Thorpe
ph William Mellor m Conrad Salinger
☆ James Stewart, Jean Hagen, Wendell Corey, Carl Benton Reid, Paul Stewart, Otto Hulett, James Arness

Carbon Copy

US 1981 91m Metrocolor Panavision
Hemdale/RKO (Stanley Shapiro, Carter de Haven)

An executive is shocked when his long-lost son turns out to be black.
Stale comedy. The producers clearly think the basic idea worth ramming home a score of times; the characterization is thin and the production undernourished.
w Stanley Shapiro d Michael Schultz
ph Fred J. Koenekamp m Bill Conti
☆ George Segal, Susan Saint James, Jack Warden, Dick Martin, Denzel Washington, Paul Winfield

'It makes Guess Who's Coming to Dinner? look like a tract for the nineties.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'He's the cheekiest man in town!'

The Card ★★

GB 1952 91m bw
Rank/British Film Makers (John Bryan)

US title: The Promoter

A bright young clerk from the potteries finds many ingenious ways of improving his bank account and his place in society.
Pleasing period comedy with the star in a made-to-measure role and excellent production values.
w Eric Ambler novel Arnold Bennett d Ronald Neame ph Oswald Morris
m William Alwyn ad T. Hopwell Ash
☆ Alec Guinness, Glynis Johns, Petula Clark, Valerie Hobson, Edward Chapman, Veronica Turleigh, Gibb McLaughlin, Frank Pettingell

Card of Fate: see Le Grand Jeu

Cardboard Cavalier ★

GB 1949 96m bw
Rank/Two Cities (Walter Forde)

In Cromwellian England, royalists commission a barrow boy to carry a secret letter. Helped by Nell Gwynn, he succeeds after encounters with a castle ghost and custard pies.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

A pantomime crossed with an Aldwych farce in a period setting. It failed at the time but now seems a brave try, with nice judgment all round.
w Noel Langley d Walter Forde ph Jack Hildyard m Lambert Williamson
☆ Sid Field, Margaret Lockwood, Mary Clare, Jerry Desmonde, Claude Hulbert, Irene Handl, Brian Worth, Edmund Willard (Cromwell)

Cardiac Arrest
US 1980 80m DeLuxe
Film Ventures (Richard Helzberg)
A murderer in San Francisco cuts out the hearts of his victims.
Trivial slasher movie.
☆ Gerry Goodrow, Mike Chan, Max Gail, Susan O'Connell, Ray Reinhardt

Cardigan's Last Case: see State's Attorney

The Cardinal ★
US 1963 175m Technicolor Panavision 70
Gamma/Otto Preminger
A 1917 ordinand becomes a Boston curate, a fighter of the Ku Klux Klan, a Rome diplomat, and finally gets a cardinal's hat.
Heavy-going documentary melodrama with many interesting sequences marred by lack of cohesion, too much grabbing at world problems, and over-sensational personal asides.
w Robert Dozier novel Henry Morton Robinson d Otto Preminger ph Leon Shamroy m Jerome Moross pd Lyle Wheeler titles Saul Bass
☆ Tom Tryon, Carol Lynley, Dorothy Gish, Maggie MacNamara, Cecil Kellaway, John Saxon, John Huston, Robert Morse, Burgess Meredith, Jill Haworth, Raf Vallone, Tullio Carminati, Ossie Davis, Chill Wills, Arthur Hunnicutt and also Murray Hamilton, Patrick O'Neal, Romy Schneider
'Very probably the last word in glossy dishonesty posturing as serious art.' – John Simon
'Mere and sheer wide screen Technicolor movie.' – Stanley Kauffmann
Otto Preminger; Leon Shamroy; John Huston

'To thwart a king's passion, he gambled the fate of a nation!'

Cardinal Richelieu ★
US 1935 83m bw
20th Century (Darryl F. Zanuck)
Fictionalized biography of the unscrupulous cardinal who was the grey eminence behind Louis XIII.
One of George Arliss's better star vehicles, with not much conviction but excellent production values.
w Maude Howell, Cameron Rogers, W. P. Lipscomb play Edward Bulwer-Lytton d Rowland V. Lee ph Peverell Marley m Alfred Newman ed Sherman Todd
☆ George Arliss (Cardinal Richelieu), Maureen O'Sullivan (Lenore), Edward Arnold (King Louis), Cesar Romero (Andre de Pons), Douglass Dumbrille (Baradas), Violet Kemble-Cooper (Queen Marie), Katherine Alexander (Queen Anne)
'In selecting the churchly cardinal of Bulwer-Lytton rather than the cavalier-cardinal beloved of Dumas, they have lost romance and dash but gained compensating dignity ... a fine technical production.' – Variety † Nunnally Johnson, who wrote the original script, asked for his name to be removed from the credits because he objected to the way Arliss rewrote his lines.

The Care Bears' Adventure In Wonderland!
Canada 1987 75m colour
Fox/Nelvana Productions (Michael Hirsch, Patrick Loubert, Clive A. Smith)
The Care Bears go through the looking glass with Alice.
Undemanding and uninteresting whimsy for the under-sixes.
w Susi Snooks, John DeKlein story Peter Sauder d Raymond Jafelice m Trish Cullen, John Sebastian ☆ Featuring the voices of Colin Fox, Bob Dermer, Eva Almos, Dan Hennessy, Jim Henshaw

The Care Bears Movie
US 1985 75m colour
Nelvana (Michael Hirsch, Patrick Loubert, Clive Smith)
Magical bears combat an evil spirit who aims to make everybody miserable.
Cartoon feature, sluggishly animated and narrated, with appeal to nobody over five years old. Produced as a back-up to a range of toys.
w Peter Sauder d Arna Selznick m John Sebastian ☆ Featuring the voices of Mickey Rooney, Georgia Engel, Harry Dean Stanton

Care of the Spitfire Grill: see The Spitfire Grill

Career ★
US 1959 105m bw
Paramount/Hal B. Wallis (Paul Nathan)
An actor from the midwest finally gets his chance in New York.
A location melodrama with the feel of a documentary, well played but slow and rather indeterminate.
w James Lee play James Lee d Joseph Anthony ph Joseph LaShelle m Franz Waxman
☆ Anthony Franciosa, Dean Martin, Shirley MacLaine, Carolyn Jones, Joan Blackman, Robert Middleton, Frank McHugh, Donna Douglas
Joseph LaShelle

Career Girls ★ 6
GB 1997 87m Metrocolor
Film Four/Thin Man/Matrix (Simon Channing-Williams)
Two flatmates who studied at the North London Polytechnic meet again 10 years later to recall their past times together.
With a cast twitching away like contestants at a St Vitus's dance marathon, this is an intensely caricatured, unenlightening account of student life and its aftermath.
wd Mike Leigh ph Dick Pope
m Marianne Jean-Baptiste, Tony Remy pd Eve Stewart ed Robin Sales
☆ Katrin Cartlidge, Lynda Steadman, Kate Byers, Mark Benton, Andy Serkis, Joe Tucker, Margot Stanley, Michael Hay
'A masterly observation of the foibles of the human condition, rendered with an incisive bite and delivered with a boisterous wit.' – Christopher Hemblade, Empire
'Manages to be bleak, lightweight and histrionic at the same time. Even Leigh aficionados might balk at such relentless toothlessness.' – John Diamond, New Statesman

Career Opportunities
US 1991 85m DeLuxe Panavision
Universal/Hughes Entertainment (John Hughes, A. Hunt Lowry)
A young nightwatchman outwits thieves trying to rob a department store.
Tired teen comedy that runs out of jokes long before the end.
w John Hughes d Bryan Gordon ph Don McAlpine m Thomas Newman pd Paul Sylbert ed Glenn Farr, Peck Prior ☆ Frank Whaley, Jennifer Connelly, Dermot Mulroney, Kieran Mulroney, John M. Jackson, Jenny O'Hara, Noble Willingham, Barry Corbin, John Candy (uncredited)
'Plenty of absorbing characters, smart, snappy dialog and delightful stretches of comic foolery.' – Variety

Carefree ★
US 1938 85m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)
A humourless lawyer sends his undecided girlfriend to an alienist, with whom she falls in love.
Slight, frothy comedy musical; quite palatable, but it signalled the end of the Astaire-Rogers series.
w Allan Scott, Ernest Pagano d Mark Sandrich ph Robert de Grasse m/ly Irving Berlin md Victor Baravalle ch Hermes Pan ad Van Nest Polglase
☆ Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers, Ralph Bellamy, Luella Gear, Clarence Kolb, Jack Carson, Franklin Pangborn, Walter Kingsford, Hattie McDaniel
'Perhaps their poorest musical ... a disappointing story and the stars alone may save it.' – Variety
♫ 'I Used to Be Colour Blind'; 'The Yam'; 'The Night Is Filled with Music'
Victor Baravalle; Van Nest Polglase; song 'Change Partners'

Careful
Canada 1992 100m colour
ICA/Greg and Tracy Film Ministry (Greg Klymkiw, Tracy Traeger)
Sex and death engulf two families living in constant danger of being killed by Alpine avalanches.
A deliberately over-the-top melodramatic concoction, a heady stew of rape, incest, requited and unrequited love, a deformed child kept hidden in an attic and ghosts bringing warnings of doom. It's a low-budget camp extravaganza that can amuse, but can as easily infuriate by its knowing air.
w George Toles, Guy Maddin d Guy Maddin ph Guy Maddin m John McCulloch pd Guy Maddin ed Guy Maddin
☆ Kyle McCulloch, Gosia Dobrowolska, Sarah Neville, Brent Neale, Paul Cox, Victor Cowie, Jackie Burroughs
'In a film which can afford real animals but not real mountains, a couple of goats running up a slope – swathed in dry ice, shot in purple or blue monochrome and captioned to tell us the altitude – stand in for the Alps.' – Claire Monk, Sight and Sound

Careful, Soft Shoulder ★
US 1942 69m bw
TCF (Walter Morosco)
A Washington socialite becomes a spy for both sides.
Modest, slightly unusual second feature which over the years has gathered for itself more reputation than it really deserves.
wd Oliver H. P. Garrett ph Charles Clarke m Leigh Harline, Emil Newman ☆ Virginia Bruce, James Ellison, Aubrey Mather, Sheila Ryan, Ralph Byrd

Careless Lady
US 1932 76m bw
Fox
A young girl from the country pretends to be a married society woman and finds herself with a husband she doesn't want.
It was the scriptwriter who was careless: the story doesn't make much sense.
w Guy Bolton story Reita Lambert d Kenneth MacKenna
☆ Joan Bennett, John Boles, Minna Gombell, Weldon Heyburn, Raul Roulien, Fortunio Bonanova, Josephine Hull
'Reaching house averages will be beyond expectations regardless of campaign.' – Variety

The Caretaker ★
GB 1964 105m bw
Caretaker Films (Michael Birkett)
US title: The Guest
Two brothers invite a revolting tramp to share their attic.
Rather doleful filming of the fashionable play with its non-plot, irregular conceits and interesting interplay of character. It remains a theatrical experience.
w Harold Pinter d Clive Donner
ph Nicolas Roeg m Ron Grainer
☆ Alan Bates, Robert Shaw, Donald Pleasence

'Now the screen tells what makes a woman – and what breaks her!'

The Caretakers ★
US 1963 97m bw
UA/Hall Bartlett
GB title: Borderlines
The interrelationship of several cases in a state mental hospital.
Rather hysterical melodrama, lacking in the stature required for its subject, but sometimes perversely entertaining.
w Henry F. Greenberg novel Daniel Telfer d Hall Bartlett ph Lucien Ballard
m Elmer Bernstein
☆ Polly Bergen, Robert Stack, Joan Crawford, Diane McBain, Janis Paige, Van Williams, Robert Vaughn, Herbert Marshall, Constance Ford
Lucien Ballard

The Carey Treatment ★
US 1972 101m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM (William Belasco)
A Boston pathologist investigating the death of an abortion victim becomes the potential murder victim of a father turned killer.
Pretentious thriller with a tendency to make moral points among the bloodshed; vigorously but variably made.
w James P. Bonner (Irving Ravetch, Harriet Frank Jnr, John D. F. Black) novel A Case of Need by Jeffrey Hudson (Michael Crichton) d Blake Edwards ph Frank Stanley m Roy Budd
☆ James Coburn, Jennifer O'Neill, Skye Aubrey, Pat Hingle, Dan O'Herlihy, Elizabeth Allen, Alex Dreier, Regis Toomey

Cargo of Innocents: see Stand By for Action

Cargo to Capetown
US 1950 84m bw
Columbia
A merchant ship captain shanghais his friend on a long voyage.

Routine, competently staged thick ear.
w Lionel Houser d Earl McEvoy ☆ Broderick Crawford, John Ireland, Ellen Drew, Edgar Buchanan, Ted de Corsia

Caribbean
US 1952 94m Technicolor
Paramount/Pine-Thomas (William H. Pine, William C. Thomas)
GB title: Caribbean Gold
An 18th-century pirate captures the nephew of his old enemy.
Adequate but not very exciting swashbuckler with fair production values.
w Frank L. Moss, Edward Ludwig
d Edward Ludwig ph Lionel Lindon
m Lucien Cailliet
☆ John Payne, Arlene Dahl, Cedric Hardwicke, Francis L. Sullivan, Dennis Hoey

Caribbean Gold: see Caribbean

The Caribbean Mystery
US 1945 65m bw
William Girard/TCF
A retired cop investigates the disappearance of several geologists on an oil company payroll.
Modest mystery, previously filmed as Murder in Trinidad.
w W. Scott Darling novel John W. Vandercook d Robert Webb
☆ James Dunn, Sheila Ryan, Edward Ryan, Jackie Paley, Reed Hadley

The Cariboo Trail
US 1950 80m Cinecolor
TCF (Nat Holt)
A cattle rancher from Montana takes his cows along when he goes prospecting for gold in British Columbia.
In its brief length, it manages to cram just about every standard Western ingredient – cowboys and Indians, fist and gun fights, cows and gold, a wicked town boss and a glamorous saloon owner – without displaying any originality; its underlying theme, the appropriation of Indian lands, no longer seems as heroic as it once did.
w Frank Gruber story John Rhodes Sturdy
d Edwin L. Marin ph Fred Jackman
m Paul Sawtell ad Arthur Lonergan
ed Philip Martin
☆ Randolph Scott, George 'Gabby' Hayes, Bill Williams, Victor Jory, Karin Booth, Dale Robertson

'A dream called freedom. A nightmare called Nicaragua.'

Carla's Song ★
GB/Germany/Spain 1996 125m
Metrocolor
Polygram/Channel 4/GFF/Parallax/Road Movies/Tornasol (Sally Hibbin)
In the mid-80s, a Glaswegian bus driver falls in love with a Nicaraguan woman and returns with her to her homeland in search of her missing boyfriend.
A political and personal drama played out against the civil war in Nicaragua, it too often lapses into confused agitprop to convince an audience of its relevance or point.
w Paul Laverty d Ken Loach ph Barry Ackroyd m George Fenton pd Martin Johnson ed Jonathan Morris ☆ Robert Carlyle, Oyanka Cabezas, Scott Glenn, Salvador Espinoza, Louise Goodall, Richard Loza, Gary Lewis
'What the film clearly intends is a lest-we-forget drama, and this is an angry film, understandably so. But, strangely, the angrier it gets, the less effective it becomes.' – Derek Malcolm

Carlito's Way ★
US 1993 145m DeLuxe Panavision
Universal (Martin Bregman, Willi Baer, Michael A. Bregman)
A drug dealer finds it tough when he tries to go straight.
A good, if unoriginal, gangster movie with some action sequences that add a little distinction; it would benefit, though, from being shorter.
w David Koepp novels Carlito's Way, After Hours by Edwin Torres d Brian de Palma ph Stephen H. Burum m Patrick Doyle
pd Richard Sylbert ed Bill Pankow, Kristina Boden
☆ Al Pacino, Sean Penn, Penelope Ann Miller, John Leguizamo, Ingrid Rogers, Luis Guzman, James Rebhorn, Viggo Mortensen
'Handsomely made, expertly directed and colorfully acted, it should satisfy action buffs and slightly more sophisticated audiences.' – Variety
'An old-style gangster movie with some neat contemporary knobs on.' – Derek Malcolm

Carlton-Browne of the FO
GB 1958 88m bw
British Lion/Charter Films (John Boulting)
US title: Man in a Cocked Hat
When valuable mineral deposits are found in a small British colony, the diplomat sent to cement good relations does quite the reverse.
Hit-or-miss farcical comedy several rungs below the Ealing style, with all concerned in poor form.
wd Jeffrey Dell, Roy Boulting ph Max Greene m John Addison ☆ Terry-Thomas, Peter Sellers, Ian Bannen, Thorley Walters, Raymond Huntley, John Le Mesurier, Luciana Paluzzi, Miles Malleson, Kynaston Reeves, Marie Lohr

Carmen ★★
Spain 1983 101m Eastmancolor
Emiliano Piedra Productions/Television Española (Emiliano Piedra)
A rehearsal for the ballet Carmen finds dancers playing out in reality the parts of the drama.
Enjoyable but exhausting melodrama with elements of The Red Shoes; meticulous choreography and direction are its chief assets.
w Carlos Saura, Antonio Gades novel Prosper Mérimée d Carlos Saura ph Teo Escamilla m Paco de Lucia ad Felix Murcia ed Pedro del Rey
☆ Antonio Gades, Laura del Sol, Paco de Lucia, Cristina Hoyos
'Extremely enjoyable, but lacks the edge that would make it in any way compelling.' – Jill Forbes, MFB
best foreign film
best foreign film

Carmen ★★
Italy/France 1984 152m Eastmancolor
Panavision
Opera/Gaumont (Patrice Ledoux)
A luxuriantly filmed version of Bizet's opera, generally received with critical rapture.
d Francesco Rosi ph Pasqualino de Santis
pd Enrico Job
☆ Julia Migenes-Johnson, Placido Domingo, Ruggero Raimondi
† Silent versions stretch back to 1915 – that one starred Geraldine Farrar the opera singer (in a silent movie, by producer Cecil B. de Mille's whim).

Carmen Jones ★
US 1954 105m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Otto Preminger)
A factory girl marries a soldier, and is strangled by him for infidelity.
Black American updating of Bizet's opera, not really satisfactory but given full marks for trying, though the main singing is dubbed and the effect remains doggedly theatrical.
w Harry Kleiner d Otto Preminger
ph Sam Leavitt md Herschel Burke Gilbert
ly Oscar Hammerstein II titles Saul Bass
☆ Dorothy Dandridge, Harry Belafonte, Pearl Bailey, Olga James, Joe Adams, Roy Glenn, Nick Stewart, Diahann Carroll, Brock Peters
'All one regrets is that the director has been unable to impose a unifying style on this promising material.' – Gavin Lambert
† Joe Adams's vocals were dubbed by Marvin Hayes, Harry Belafonte's by LeVerne Hutcherson, Diahann Carroll's by Bernice Peterson, and Dorothy Dandridge's by Marilyn Horne.
Herschel Burke Gilbert; Dorothy Dandridge

Carmin Profond: see Deep Crimson

Carnage: see A Bay of Blood

Carnages ★★ (7)
France/Belgium/Spain/Switzerland 2002
133m colour
Tartan/Balthazar/Oasis/Need/PCT/Studio Canal/France 3/RTBF/La Television Suisse Romande (Jerome Dopffer)
GB and US title: Carnage
After a young matador is gored in the ring, the bull is killed and its parts distributed to various people around Europe.
Although sometimes straining to give a unity to its various stories, this is often engaging and always interesting filmmaking, with an eye for telling detail.
wd Delphine Gleize ph Crystel Fournier
m Eric Neveux ad Andre Fonsny
ed Francois Quiquere
☆ Chiara Mastroianni (Carlotta), Angela Molina (Alicia), Jeanne Lucia Sanchez (Betty Lio), Esther Gorintin (Rosie), Maryline Even (Lucie), Clovis Cornillac (Alexis), Feodor Atkine (Paco)
'A bright and nervy achievement.' – Michael Atkinson, Village Voice
'Basically, this is an elegantly packaged load of old bull.' – David Rooney, Variety

Carnal Knowledge ★
US 1971 97m Technicolor Panavision
Avco Embassy/Icarus (Mike Nichols)
A college student embarks on an enthusiastic and varied sex life but by middle age is bored and empty.
Hampered by an unsuitable wide screen, this pretentious but fragmented comedy drama is embarrassingly conscious of its own daring in subject and language, and good performances are weighed down by an unsubtle script and tricksy direction.
w Jules Feiffer d Mike Nichols ph Giuseppe Rotunno m various songs
pd Richard Sylbert
☆ Jack Nicholson, Arthur Garfunkel, Candice Bergen, Ann-Margret, Rita Moreno
Ann-Margret

Carne Tremula: see Live Flesh

Carnegie Hall
US 1947 134m bw
Federal Films (Boris Morros, William Le Baron)
The story of New York's music centre, based on a fiction about a cleaner who finally becomes a concert organizer when her son is a famous pianist.
Slim and risible excuse for a classical concert, featuring among others Bruno Walter, Leopold Stokowski, Artur Rubinstein, Jascha Heifetz, Lily Pons, Rise Stevens, Ezio Pinza, Jan Peerce, Harry James, Vaughn Monroe and the New York Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra.
w Karl Kamb d Edgar G. Ulmer
ph William Miller
☆ Marsha Hunt, William Prince, Frank McHugh, Martha O'Driscoll
'The thickest and sourest mess of musical mulligatawny I have yet had to sit down to.' – James Agee

Un Carnet de Bal ★★
France 1937 135m bw
Lévy/Strauss/Sigma
aka: Life Dances On
A rich widow seeks her partners at a ball she remembers from her youth, finding that they are all failures and the ball a village hop.
Considering its fame, this is a lumpy porridge of a picture, good in parts but often slow, pretentious and banal. Its gallery of actors is, however, unique.
w Jean Sarment, Pierre Wolff, Bernard Zimmer, Henri Jeanson, Julien Duvivier
d Julien Duvivier ph Michel Kelber, Philippe Agostini m Maurice Jaubert ☆ Marie Bell, Françoise Rosay, Louis Jouvet, Raimu, Harry Baur, Fernandel, Pierre Blanchar
'Recent winner of the Mussolini Cup is loaded with top names, but it is not the film of the year ... it tries to take in too much and takes too long to put across.' – Variety
† The film's international success took Duvivier to Hollywood, where he half-remade it as Lydia and went on to other multi-story films such as Tales of Manhattan and Flesh and Fantasy.

Les Carnets de Major Thompson: see The Diary of Major Thompson

Carnival
US 1934 77m bw
Columbia
A widowed puppeteer takes custody of his child, which is sought by the maternal grandfather, and seeks anonymity in a circus.
Curious sentimental melodrama with the stars shown in an unusual light.
w Robert Riskin d Walter Lang
☆ Lee Tracy, Jimmy Durante, Sally Eilers, Dickie Walters, Thomas Jackson, Florence Rice, Lucille Ball
'This should hold its own, though it probably will not climb to big grosses.' – Variety

Carnival
GB 1946 93m bw
Rank/Two Cities (John Sutro, William Sassoon)
In the 1890s, a ballet dancer marries a dour Cornish farmer, who shoots her when her erstwhile lover comes after her.
Flimsy screen version of a solidly old-fashioned romantic drama.
w Eric Maschwitz novel Compton Mackenzie d Stanley Haynes ph Guy Green

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

☆ Sally Gray, Michael Wilding, Bernard Miles, Cathleen Nesbitt, Stanley Holloway, Jean Kent, Nancy Price, Hazel Court, Brenda Bruce, Catherine Lacey

† The story was previously filmed in 1931, as Dance Pretty Lady, with Ann Casson and Carl Harbord. The 1931 film Carnival, with Matheson Lang, is based on a story identical to Men Are Not Gods and A Double Life: an actor becomes obsessed with the part of Othello and strangles his wife.

Carnival in Costa Rica

US 1947 97m Technicolor
TCF (William A. Bacher)

A young Costa Rican, engaged to an American singer, returns home to find that his parents expect him to marry his childhood sweetheart.

Decidedly rundown musical in which incessant carnival largely supplants the wispy plot.

w John Larkin, Samuel Hoffenstein, Elizabeth Reinhardt d Gregory Ratoff ph Harry Jackson m/ly Harry Ruby, Ernesto Lecuona ch Leonid Massine

☆ Dick Haymes, Vera-Ellen, Celeste Holm, J. Carrol Naish, Cesar Romero

Carnival in Flanders: see La Kermesse Héroïque

'Is there death after life?'

Carnival of Souls

US 1962 80m bw
Herts-Lion (Herk Harvey)

After an accident, a lady ghost emerges to become the new church organist.

Absurd but occasionally compelling independently made horror film which would have been better in half-hour form.

w John Clifford d Herk Harvey ph Maurice Prather m Gene Moore ed Dan Palmquist, Bill de Jarnette

☆ Candace Hilligoss, Herk Harvey, Francis Feist, Sidney Berger

'Has the power to detach you from your surroundings and put you in the middle of its own distinctive nowhere.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker

† Made in Kansas, allegedly for less than 100,000 dollars.

Carnival of Terror: see The Funhouse

Carnival of Thieves: see The Caper of the Golden Bulls

Carnival Story

US/Germany 1954 95m Technicolor
The King Brothers

A starving girl becomes a trapezist at a German circus and stirs up jealousy among her partners.

Bleak reworking of The Three Maxims (qv), reworked again with more expertise in Trapeze (qv); this version is a cheap and unattractive co-production.

w Kurt Neumann, Hans Jacoby d Kurt Neumann ph Ernest Haller m Willy Schmidt-Gentner

☆ Anne Baxter, Steve Cochran, Lyle Bettger, George Nader, Jay C. Flippen

'63 million years ago they ruled the Earth. They're back, and it's no theme park!'

Carnosaur

US 1993 83m Foto-Kem
New Horizons (Mike Elliott)

A scientist breeds giant meat-eating mutant chickens in an attempt to recreate dinosaurs and replace humans by a kinder species.

Cheap attempt to cash in on the Jurassic Park craze from Roger Corman's outfit, recast as a conventional, gory, monster-on-the-loose, mad-scientist horror pic: nasty, brutish and, fortunately, short.

wd Adam Simon novel Harry Adam Knight (John Brosnan) ph Keith Holland m Nigel Holton pd Aaron Osborne ed Richard Genter sp John Buechler, Magical Media Industries, Alan Lasky

☆ Diane Ladd, Raphael Sbarge, Jennifer Runyon, Harrison Page, Ned Bellamy, Clint Howard

'This breezy outing is a not-very-filling popcorn treat. Predictably plotted with bargain-basement effects, it's a serviceable programmer.' – Variety

Carny

US 1980 105m Technicolor
Lorimar/Jonathan Taplin (Robbie Robertson)

Three wacky characters join a travelling carnival.

Sordid, sexy melodrama which seems to be doing a Jules and Jim with no holds barred. Not badly made, but full of people one would cross the road to avoid.

w Thomas Baum story Phoebe Kaylor, Robert Kaylor, Robbie Robertson d Robert Kaylor ph Harry Stradling Jnr m Alex North

☆ Gary Busey, Jodie Foster, Robbie Robertson, Kenneth McMillan, Meg Foster, Elisha Cook Jnr, Fred Ward

'Too dark and turbulent a vision to be palatable to a large public.' – Variety

Caro Diario: see Dear Diary

Carolina

US 1934 85m bw
Fox (Darryl F. Zanuck)
GB title: House of Connelly

A Yankee farmer's daughter falls in love with a Southern plantation owner.

Mildly pleasing period piece.

w Reginald Berkeley play The House of Connelly by Paul Green d Henry King ph Hal Mohr m Louis de Francesco

☆ Janet Gaynor, Lionel Barrymore, Robert Young, Henrietta Crosman, Mona Barrie, Richard Cromwell, Stepin Fetchit

'An arresting saga of a proud old southern family that starts out threateningly strong but peters to the point where it misses being another State Fair.' – Variety

Caroline Chérie

France 1951 115m approx bw
SNEG/Cinéphonie

Adventures of an attractive and willing young French girl in the days of the revolution.

A cheerful French imitation of Forever Amber; witless and not very entertaining despite good period sense and a certain amount of self-mockery.

w Jean Anouilh novel Cécil Saint-Laurent d Richard Poitier ph Maurice Barry m Georges Auric

☆ Martine Carol, Jacques Dacqmine, Marie Déa, Paul Bernard, Pierre Cressoy

† After several sequels, a colour remake appeared in 1967.

'More than your eyes have ever seen!'

Carousel ★

US 1956 128m Eastmancolor Cinemascope 55
TCF (Henry Ephron)

A ne'er-do-well dies while committing a holdup. Fifteen years later he returns from heaven to set his family's affairs in order.

Based on a fantasy play with an honourable history, this super-wide-screen version of an effective stage musical is hollow and boring, a humourless whimsy in which even the songs seem an intrusion.

w Phoebe and Henry Ephron, from the musical based on Ferenc Molnar's play Liliom d Henry King ph Charles G. Clarke m/ly Rodgers and Hammerstein ch Rod Alexander, Agnes de Mille

☆ Gordon MacRae, Shirley Jones, Cameron Mitchell, Gene Lockhart, Barbara Ruick, Robert Rounseville

'This is adult entertainment!'

The Carpetbaggers ★★

US 1964 150m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount/Embassy (Joseph E. Levine)

A young playboy inherits an aircraft business, becomes a megalomaniac tycoon, and moves to Hollywood in his search for power.

Enjoyable pulp fiction clearly suggested by the career of Howard Hughes. Lashings of old-fashioned melodrama, quite well pointed by all concerned.

w John Michael Hayes novel Harold Robbins d Edward Dmytryk ph Joseph MacDonald m Elmer Bernstein ad Hal Pereira, Walter Tyler

☆ George Peppard, Carroll Baker, Alan Ladd, Martin Balsam, Bob Cummings, Martha Hyer, Elizabeth Ashley, Lew Ayres, Ralph Taeger, Archie Moore, Leif Erickson, Audrey Totter

'One of those elaborate conjuring tricks in which yards and yards of coloured ribbon are spread all over the stage merely to prove that the conjuror has nothing up his sleeve.' – Tom Milne

† It was Ladd's last film.

'A dad in a hurry. A man on the run. And five kids with an attitude.'

Carpool

US 1996 119m Technicolor
Warner/Regency (Arnon Milchan, Michael Nathanson)

A harassed businessman, together with a car load of children is taken hostage by an incompetent armed robber.

Dumb, ramshackle comedy, of infantile adults and precocious children, that is a pain to sit through.

w Don Rhymer d Arthur Hiller ph David M. Walsh m John Debney pd James D. Vance ed William Reynolds, L. James Langlois

☆ Tom Arnold (Franklin Laszlo), David Paymer (David Paymer), Rhea Perlman (Martha), Kim Coates (Det Erdman), Obba Babatundé (Jeffery), Rachel Leigh Cook (Kayla), Micah Gardener (Bucky Miller), Jordan Blake Warkol (Travis), Rod Steiger (Mr Hammerman)

† Tom Arnold was awarded a Golden Raspberry as worst actor of the year for his performance.

Carquake: see Cannonball

Carrefour ★

France 1938 75m bw
BUP Tuscherer

A French manufacturer, wounded during the war, finds himself the centre of blackmail plots.

Intriguing melodrama which was later rather flatly remade in Hollywood as Crossroads.

w Hans Kofka d Curtis Bernhardt

☆ Charles Vanel, Jules Berry, Suzy Prim, Tania Fedor

'One of the best French films of the late season, and worthy of American attention.' – Variety

Carrie ★★

US 1952 122m bw
Paramount (William Wyler)

In the early 1900s a country girl comes to Chicago, loses her innocence and goes on the stage, meanwhile reducing a wealthy restaurant manager to penury through love for her.

A famous satirical novel is softened into an unwieldy narrative with scarcely enough dramatic power to sustain interest despite splendid production values. Heavy pre-release cuts remain obvious, and the general effect is depressing; but it is very good to look at.

w Ruth and Augustus Goetz novel Sister Carrie by Theodore Dreiser d William Wyler ph Victor Milner m David Raksin ad Hal Pereira, Roland Anderson

☆ Laurence Olivier, Jennifer Jones, Miriam Hopkins, Eddie Albert, Basil Ruysdael, Ray Teal, Barry Kelley, Mary Murphy

'Olivier is so impassioned and so painfully touching that everything else in the movie, including the girl whose story it's meant to be, fades into insignificance.' – Variety

'They shot the later episodes for the strongest dramatic effect only, despite the fact that the story had stopped following a melodramatic line and become a sociological study ... each additional episode exploits the audience's hope that things will be brought to a satisfactory conclusion, but they never are.' – Films in Review

♙ art direction

Carrie ★

US 1976 98m MGM-DeLuxe
UA/Red Bank (Paul Monash)

A repressed teenager with remarkable mental powers takes a macabre revenge on classmates who taunt and persecute her.

Stylish but unattractive shocker which works its way up to a fine climax of gore and frenzy, and takes care to provide a final frisson just when the audience thinks it can safely go home.

w Lawrence D. Cohen novel Stephen King d Brian de Palma ph Mario Tosi m Pino Donaggio ad Jack Fisk ed Paul Hirsch

☆ Sissy Spacek, Piper Laurie, Amy Irving, William Katt, John Travolta, Betty Buckley, Nancy Allen, P. J. Soles

'Combining Gothic horror, offhand misogyny and an air of studied triviality, Carrie is de Palma's most enjoyable movie in a long while, and also his silliest.' – Janet Maslin, Newsweek

'The horror is effective only once, and the attempts at humour are never very successful and come almost when one is inclined to be moved by somebody's plight, so that the non-jokes yield authentic bad taste.' – John Simon, New York

♙ Sissy Spacek; Piper Laurie

'No man is safe from temptation...'

Carried Away ★

US 1995 108m Alpha Cine
First Independent/Cinetel (Lisa Hansen, Paul Hertzberg)

GB title: Acts of Love

In a small Texan town, a middle-aged schoolteacher is seduced by a teenaged schoolgirl.

Slow-paced story of restricted lives, carrying some convincing emotion owing to Hopper's performance as a downtrodden man discovering a renewed enthusiasm for life.
w Ed Jones novel Farmer by Jim Harrison d Bruno Barreto ph Declan Quinn m Bruce Broughton pd Peter Paul Raubertas ed Bruce Cannon
☆ Dennis Hopper, Amy Irving, Amy Locane, Julie Harris, Gary Busey, Hal Holbrook, Christopher Pettiet
'The film wins out through refreshing performances and a vibrant irresistible charm.' – Empire

The Carriers Are Waiting: see Les Convoyeurs Attendent

'A Love Story So Unusual It Has To Be True'

Carrington ★
GB/France 1995 120m Technicolor
Polygram/Freeway/Shedlo/Dora (Ronald Shedlo, John McGrath)
A woman artist falls in love with the writer Lytton Strachey, a homosexual, and he with her.
The tangled love-life of the Bloomsbury group is exhibited in one of its more curious relationships, for the couple's love survived Carrington's marriage and she ended her life following Strachey's death; despite the film's title, it is Strachey who dominates the film, partly owing to a miscast and querulous Emma Thompson, but also because Carrington remains a cipher throughout, seen only in relationship to the men in her life.
wd Christopher Hampton book Lytton Strachey by Michael Holroyd ph Denis Lenoir m Michael Nyman pd Caroline Amies ed George Akers
☆ Emma Thompson (Carrington), Jonathan Pryce (Lytton Strachey), Steven Waddington (Ralph Partridge), Samuel West (Gerald Brenan), Rufus Sewell (Mark Gertler), Penelope Wilton (Lady Ottoline Morrell), Janet McTeer (Vanessa Bell), Peter Blythe (Philip Morrell)
'Prettily dressed, but cinematically stilted, and makes its characters' anguish and chatter seem ultimately of little consequence.' – Geoff Brown, The Times
'Emerges as an unsentimental salute to unselfish love and friendship.' – Stephen Farber, Movieline
'What the film wants to pass off as a dangerous liaison looks more like the ultimate in safe sex.' – Entertainment Weekly
† The film won the Special Jury Prize and Jonathan Pryce the Best Actor award at the 1995 Cannes Film Festival. It was originally to have been directed by Herbert Ross, and then by Mike Newell. Hampton wrote his original script in the mid-70s.

Carrington VC ★
GB 1954 106m bw
British Lion/Romulus (Teddy Baird)
US title: Court Martial
An army major is courtmartialled for embezzling mess funds.
Good courtroom drama with a few plot surprises, convincing characters, and very serviceable acting and direction.
w John Hunter play Dorothy and Campbell Christie d Anthony Asquith ph Desmond Dickinson
☆ David Niven, Margaret Leighton, Noelle Middleton, Laurence Naismith, Clive Morton, Mark Dignam, Allan Cuthbertson, Victor Maddern, John Glyn-Jones, Raymond Francis, Newton Blick, John Chandos

Le Carrosse d'Or: see The Golden Coach

Carry Me Back
New Zealand 1982 90m colour
Kiwi Films/New Zealand Film Commission (Graeme Cowley)
Two sons attempt to smuggle their father's corpse from the city to their farm in order to benefit from his will.
Blackish comedy of mishaps and misfits that occasionally amuses.
w Derek Morton, Keith Aberdein, John Reid story Joy Cowley d John Reid ph Graeme Cowley m Tim Bridgewater, James Hall ad Jim Barr ed Simon Reece, Michael Horton ☆ Grant Tilley, Kelly Johnson, Dorothy McKegg, Derek Hardwick, Joanne Mildenhall

Carry On Abroad ★
GB 1972 88m Eastmancolor
Fox-Rank/Peter Rogers
A couple who go on a package holiday to Spain find that their hotel is still being built and there is a staff of no more than three.
Every opportunity for bathroom jokes is relished in what is otherwise an average effort.
w Talbot Rothwell d Gerald Thomas ph Alan Hume m Eric Rogers ad Lionel Couch ed Alfred Roome
☆ Sidney James, Kenneth Williams, Charles Hawtrey, Joan Sims, Bernard Bresslaw, Barbara Windsor, Kenneth Connor, Peter Butterworth, Jimmy Logan, June Whitfield, Hattie Jacques
'Travelling well-trodden paths of slapstick, double entendre and nudging innuendo.' – Nigel Andrews

Carry On Admiral
GB 1957 83m bw Spectascope
George Minter
aka: The Ship Was Loaded
In a drunken moment, an MP changes clothes with a naval officer and is forced to adopt his friend's identity aboard ship.
Bland and undemanding farce, taken at a too-leisurely pace.
wd Val Guest play Off the Record by Ian Hay, Stephen King-Hall ph Arthur Grant m Philip Green
☆ David Tomlinson, Peggy Cummins, Ronald Shiner, Brian Reece, A. E. Matthews, Joan Sims, Ronald Adam, Alfie Bass
† The film has no connection with the long-running Carry On series.

Carry On Again Doctor
GB 1969 89m Eastmancolor
Rank/Adder (Peter Rogers)
A doctor, exiled to a tropical island, returns to Britain with a special slimming cure.
A slight air of desperation hangs over the often-used setting of a hospital, and most of the jokes remain in intensive care.
w Talbot Rothwell d Gerald Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Eric Rogers pd Jack Blezard ed Alfred Roome
☆ Sidney James, Kenneth Williams, Jim Dale, Charles Hawtrey, Joan Sims, Barbara Windsor, Hattie Jacques, Patsy Rowlands, Peter Butterworth, Pat Coombs
'Perhaps the team go that much further than ever before. Their fans will be delighted; those who aren't won't care.' – Richard Davis, Films and Filming

Carry On at Your Convenience
GB 1971 90m Eastmancolor
Rank/Peter Rogers
A union leader at the firm of W. A. Boggs, makers of fine toiletware, keeps ordering the workers to come out on strike.
No toilet joke is left unplumbed here, and the result is dire.
w Talbot Rothwell d Gerald Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Eric Rogers ed Alfred Roome
☆ Sidney James, Kenneth Williams, Charles Hawtrey, Joan Sims, Bernard Bresslaw, Hattie Jacques, Kenneth Cope, Patsy Rowlands, Jacki Piper, Richard O'Callaghan
'One of the least funny of this staggeringly successful series.' – Eric Braun
'Even more scrappily assembled than usual and, with the exception of a fairly amusing parody of sex education films, the level of humour, though noticeably cleaner than of late, is still rock bottom.' – David McGillivray

Carry On Behind ★★
GB 1975 90m Eastmancolor
Fox-Rank/Peter Rogers
Archaeologists arrive to search for Roman remains at a caravan site full of holiday-makers.
One of the best of the series and certainly the last watchable film the team produced.
w Dave Freeman d Gerald Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Eric Rogers ed Alfred Roome
☆ Elke Sommer, Kenneth Williams, Joan Sims, Bernard Bresslaw, Kenneth Connor, Peter Butterworth, Jack Douglas, Windsor Davies, Liz Fraser, Patsy Rowlands
'Emerges as the most consistently funny Carry On in many years ... a strong vein of comedy is mined from the simple situation of campsite overcrowding, with some of the best sight gags involving a lugubrious Irish wolf-hound and a foul-mouthed mynah bird.' – Verina Glaessner, MFB

Carry On Cabby ★
GB 1963 91m bw
Anglo Amalgamated/Peter Rogers
The neglected wife of the owner of a taxi firm sets up a rival firm with women drivers.
A deft farcical battle of the sexes.
w Talbot Rothwell d Gerald Thomas ph Alan Hume m Eric Rogers ed Archie Ludski ☆ Sidney James, Charles Hawtrey, Kenneth Connor, Hattie Jacques, Esma Cannon, Liz Fraser, Bill Owen, Milo O'Shea, Jim Dale
'The golden formula of the Carry On series is back with a bang.' – Variety

Carry On Camping ★
GB 1969 88m Eastmancolor
Rank/Peter Rogers
Two men take their girlfriends on holiday to a nudist camp in the hope that it will make them less inhibited.
A partly successful attempt to provide the characters with fewer sexual repressions than usual.
w Talbot Rothwell d Gerald Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Eric Rogers ad Lionel Couch ed Alfred Roome
☆ Sidney James, Kenneth Williams, Joan Sims, Charles Hawtrey, Terry Scott, Barbara Windsor
'Suffers somewhat in comparison to some of its predecessors in that it lacks a storyline, however slim.' – Variety

Carry On Cleo ★
GB 1964 92m Eastmancolor
Anglo Amalgamated/Peter Rogers
Ancient Britons are captured by the Romans while Mark Antony carries on with Cleopatra.
Sporadically amusing parody of the Elizabeth Taylor epic, though it should have been much funnier.
w Talbot Rothwell d Gerald Thomas ph Alan Hume m Eric Rogers ad Bert Davey ed Archie Ludski
☆ Sidney James, Kenneth Williams, Charles Hawtrey, Joan Sims, Kenneth Connor, Jim Dale, Amanda Barrie, E. V. H. Emmett, Sheila Hancock, Jon Pertwee
'Gags, both verbal and visual, suffer from repetition.' – Variety
† As a result of a court case for breach of copyright brought by Twentieth Century-Fox, the film's poster, which parodied the advertising for Cleopatra, had to be withdrawn.

'Up your anchor for a well crewed voyage!!'

Carry On Columbus
GB 1992 91m colour
Island World/Comedy House/Peter Rogers (John Goldstone)
Columbus's voyage to find a route to the East is sabotaged by spies in the pay of the Sultan of Turkey.
Ill-starred attempt, with a succession of single entendres and some inept performances, to revive a tired old formula.
w Dave Freeman d Gerald Thomas ph Alan Hume m John Du Prez pd Harry Pottle ed Chris Blunden
☆ Jim Dale, Bernard Cribbins, Maureen Lipman, Peter Richardson, Rik Mayall, Alexei Sayle, Charles Fleischer, Larry Miller, Leslie Phillips, Julian Clary, Sara Crowe, Rebecca Lacey, Nigel Planer, June Whitfield, Richard Wilson
'Painfully unfunny, lacking imagination and energy.' – Philip French, Observer

Carry On Constable ★
GB 1960 86m bw
Anglo Amalgamated/Peter Rogers
Four new and inept constables report for duty at their local police station.
In part a parody of the popular TV series Dixon of Dock Green and moderately amusing despite the absence of a plot.
w Norman Hudis story Brock Williams d Gerald Thomas ph Ted Scaife m Bruce Montgomery ad Carmen Dillon ed John ☆ Sidney James, Kenneth Williams, Charles Hawtrey, Joan Sims, Kenneth Connor, Eric Barker, Leslie Phillips, Hattie Jacques, Shirley Eaton, Cyril Chamberlain, Irene Handl, Esma Cannon, Freddie Mills
'Simply an anthology of police gags and situations.' – Variety

'How The West Was Lost!!'

Carry On Cowboy ★★
GB 1965 95m Eastmancolor
Anglo Amalgamated/Peter Rogers
A sanitary engineer is given the task of cleaning up a town being terrorized by outlaws.
Amusing parody of High Noon and other classic Westerns.
w Talbot Rothwell d Gerald Thomas ph Alan Hume m Eric Rogers ad Bert Davey ed Rod Keys

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

☆ Sidney James, Kenneth Williams, Charles Hawtrey, Joan Sims, Jim Dale, Percy Herbert, Angela Douglas, Bernard Bresslaw, Peter Butterworth, Jon Pertwee

'Less a string of irrelevant situations than usual, giving the team more opportunity for comedy thesping.' – Variety

Carry On Cruising

GB 1962 89m Eastmancolor
Anglo Amalgamated/Peter Rogers

The captain of a cruise liner finds his peace of mind threatened by new crew members and tourists.

Weak comedy that doesn't seem to know where it's going.

w Norman Hudis story Eric Barker d Gerald Thomas ph Alan Hume m Bruce Montgomery, Douglas Gamley ad Carmen Dillon ed John Shirley

☆ Sidney James, Kenneth Williams, Kenneth Connor, Liz Fraser, Dilys Laye, Esma Cannon, Lance Percival, Ronnie Stevens, Cyril Chamberlain, Anton Rodgers

'Direction by Gerald Thomas is boisterously effective.' – Variety

Carry On Dick

GB 1974 91m Eastmancolor
Rank/Peter Rogers

Bow Street Runners ask a village clergyman to help them catch the highwayman Dick Turpin, better known as Big Dick.

Inspiration flags in a comedy where both cast and director seem hardly interested in what they were doing, probably because they had been doing it for too long.

w Talbot Rothwell story Lawrie Wyman, George Evans d Gerald Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Eric Rogers ed Alfred Roome

☆ Sidney James, Kenneth Williams, Kenneth Connor, Barbara Windsor, Hattie Jacques, Bernard Bresslaw, Joan Sims, Peter Butterworth, Jack Douglas, Patsy Rowlands, Bill Maynard

'These tireless upholders of the "saucy" postcard tradition soldier on with their perennial rib-poking, elbow-nudging, albeit scarcely jaw-breaking esprit ... Maybe their continuing appeal is beyond criticism – or according to taste, beneath it.' – Nigel Gearing, MFB

'The script is utterly banal. It is incredible that human minds can put such muck on to paper.' – Kenneth Williams

Carry On Doctor ★

GB 1968 94m Eastmancolor
Rank/Peter Rogers

Hospital patients revolt against a tyrannical matron when their favourite doctor is sacked.

Occasionally amusing farce.

w Talbot Rothwell d Gerald Thomas ph Alan Hume m Eric Rogers ed Alfred Roome

☆ Frankie Howerd, Sidney James, Kenneth Williams, Jim Dale, Charles Hawtrey, Joan Sims, Barbara Windsor, Hattie Jacques, Anita Harris, Bernard Bresslaw, Peter Butterworth

'Usual unabashed mixture of double-meanings, down-to-earth vulgarity, blue jokes.' – Variety

Carry On – Don't Lose Your Head

GB 1966 90m Eastmancolor
Rank/Peter Rogers

aka: Don't Lose Your Head

A foppish Briton, the Black Fingernail, rescues French aristocrats from the guillotine during the French Revolution.

A limp parody of The Scarlet Pimpernel causes no more than a few chuckles.

w Talbot Rothwell d Gerald Thomas ph Alan Hume m Eric Rogers ed Rod Keys

☆ Sidney James, Kenneth Williams, Jim Dale, Charles Hawtrey, Joan Sims, Peter Butterworth, Dany Robin, Peter Gilmore

'A crazy debauch of duelling, doublecrossing and disaster. The troupers jump through their well-known hoops with agility.' – Variety

Carry On Emmannuelle

GB 1978 88m Technicolor
Hemdale/Peter Rogers

The wife of an impotent French ambassador to England seduces every man she meets.

A doomed attempt to update the formula for more sexually permissive times that resulted in the worst of the series, and the last for fourteen years, until it was revived in 1992.

w Lance Peters d Gerald Thomas ph Alan Hume m Eric Rogers ad Jack Shampan ed Peter Boita

☆ Suzanne Danielle, Kenneth Williams, Kenneth Connor, Jack Douglas, Joan Sims, Peter Butterworth, Larry Dann, Beryl Reid, Eric Barker

'This one is rude, certainly, but the relentless phallic innuendo is as labored as makers' determination to show nothing to worry the censor. Leaden comic timing...' – Variety

'It's rather like watching endearing elderly relatives disgracing themselves at a party.' – Andy Medhurst, Sight and Sound

Carry On England

GB 1976 89m colour
Rank/Peter Rogers

In 1940 the men and women who form an experimental anti-aircraft battery prefer to make love rather than war, to the annoyance of their new commanding officer.

One of the weakest of the series and a sign that the series was running out of energy, unable to find suitable replacements for its usual team and handicapped more than usual by a weak script.

w Jack Seddon, David Pursall d Gerald Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Max Harris ad Lionel Couch ed Richard Marden

☆ Kenneth Connor, Windsor Davies, Patrick Mower, Judy Geeson, Jack Douglas, Diane Langton, Melvyn Hayes, Joan Sims, Peter Jones, Peter Butterworth, David Lodge

'Suffers from a particularly unfortunate hangup. It's not funny.' – Variety

'The laboured puns and overacting are as tiresome as ever.' – MFB

Carry On – Follow That Camel

GB 1966 90m Eastmancolor
Rank/Peter Rogers

aka: Follow That Camel

An English gentleman, accused of behaving badly at cricket, joins the Foreign Legion to regain his honour.

An ill-match between American and English styles of vaudeville and music-hall humour results in a direly unamusing movie.

w Talbot Rothwell d Gerald Thomas ph Alan Hume m Eric Rogers ed Alfred Roome

☆ Phil Silvers, Kenneth Williams, Jim Dale, Charles Hawtrey, Joan Sims, Peter Butterworth, Anita Harris, Bernard Bresslaw, Angela Douglas, Peter Gilmore

'It all works with considerable bounce, with elements of parody of Beau Geste-style movies for those alert to them. All the regular comics are on first-rate form.' – Variety

Carry On Girls

GB 1973 88m Eastmancolor
Fox-Rank/Peter Rogers

The organizer of a seaside beauty contest annoys the local members of the Women's Liberation movement.

Below average romp.

w Talbot Rothwell d Gerald Thomas ph Alan Hume m Eric Rogers ad Robert Jones ed Alfred Roome

☆ Sidney James (Sidney Fiddler), Kenneth Connor (Frederick Bumble), Joan Sims (Connie Philpotts), Barbara Windsor (Hope Springs), Bernard Bresslaw (Peter Potter), Peter Butterworth (Admiral), June Whitfield (Augusta Prodworthy), Jack Douglas (William), Patsy Rowlands (Mildred Bumble), Valerie Leon (Paula Perkins), Joan Hickson (Mrs Dukes), David Lodge (Police Inspector), Sally Geeson (Debra), Robin Askwith (Larry), Jimmy Logan (Cecil Gaybody)

'Herculean efforts on the part of the entire cast do eventually pull off (in the context, I must insist this is not meant as a double entendre) some fairly effective slapstick.' – Eric Braun

'Thriving as ever on the sexual repression of its audience, Talbot Rothwell's windy, radio-style script ... turns out the routine quota of puns on such words as bang, boob, bed, bust, bristol and bash, and makes such weary labour of it that every joke can be heard creaking into place long before the arrival of the punch-line.' – Gareth Jones, MFB

'A Great Guy With His Chopper!'

Carry On Henry ★★

GB 1971 89m Eastmancolor
Rank/Adder (Peter Rogers)

US title: Carry On Henry VIII

King Henry tries to get rid of his wife when he discovers she smells of garlic.

A coarsely successful parody of Anne of the Thousand Days and other period films.

w Talbot Rothwell d Gerald Thomas ph Alan Hume m Eric Rogers ed Alfred Roome

☆ Sidney James, Kenneth Williams, Charles Hawtrey, Joan Sims, Terry Scott, Barbara Windsor, Kenneth Connor, Peter Butterworth, Peter Gilmore, Patsy Rowlands

'They have managed to come up with a bit of a winner ... there is a delicious send up of that most boring and perennial line of cinematic yawns, the historical romance.' – Peter Buckley

'The cast is the familiar stock company at full force; the script is from Talbot Rothwell at his most characteristic; and the film is at any rate better looking than most of its shoe-string predecessors.' – John Pidgeon, MFB

'I read the script of Carry On Henry and I think it's abysmal.' – Kenneth Williams, 1970

'We saw the TV and it was Carry On Henry ... amazing how well this was made! Everyone in it was competent and the sheer look of the thing was very professional.' – Kenneth Williams, 1979

'ITV showed Carry On Henry. Oh dear! It was so bad in places ... truly chronic dialogue ... dreadful acting. Sid James had never been quite as bad as this. A collection of such rubbish you're amazed it could ever have been stuck together. Only an audience of illiterates could ever have found this tripe amusing.' – Kenneth Williams, 1988

Carry On Jack

GB 1964 91m Eastmancolor
Anglo Amalgamated/Peter Rogers

US title: Carry On Venus

A midshipman finds himself at the mercy of a bullying captain and they are both put overboard after a mutiny.

Salty but unamusing parody of Mutiny on The Bounty and other sea-faring sagas.

w Talbot Rothwell d Gerald Thomas ph Alan Hume m Eric Rogers ad Jack Shampan ed Archie Ludski

☆ Bernard Cribbins, Kenneth Williams, Charles Hawtrey, Juliet Mills, Donald Houston, Percy Herbert, Peter Gilmore, Jim Dale, Anton Rodgers, Cecil Parker, Patrick Cargill

'Gerald Thomas steers his cast through a maze of mixups and misadventures.' – Variety

Carry On Loving

GB 1970 88m Eastmancolor
Rank/Adder (Peter Rogers)

Assorted misfits try their luck at a computer dating agency.

Limp comedy for which the regulars show little enthusiasm.

w Talbot Rothwell d Gerald Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Eric Rogers ad Lionel Couch ed Alfred Roome

☆ Sidney James, Kenneth Williams, Charles Hawtrey, Joan Sims, Terry Scott, Hattie Jacques, Richard O'Callaghan, Bernard Bresslaw, Jacki Piper, Imogen Hassall, Patsy Rowlands, Bill Maynard

'Full of tired jokes, obvious situations and ludicrous performances, we have all been here at least three times before, but the crew have a way of working over the old material.' – Peter Buckley, Films and Filming

'Scrapings from the bottom of Talbot Rothwell's barrel of well-worn double entendre, delivered with mechanical efficiency by an equally well-worn cast.' – MFB

Carry On Matron ★

GB 1972 87m Eastmancolor
Rank/Peter Rogers

A con man persuades his son to dress as a nurse in order to infiltrate a maternity hospital to steal contraceptive pills.

Intermittently amusing comedy.

w Talbot Rothwell d Gerald Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Eric Rogers ad Lionel Couch ed Alfred Roome

☆ Sidney James, Kenneth Williams, Charles Hawtrey, Joan Sims, Hattie Jacques, Bernard Bresslaw, Terry Scott, Kenneth Cope, Barbara Windsor, Kenneth Connor, Jacki Piper, Patsy Rowlands, Jack Douglas

'A largely successful if slightly patchy addition to the series; its comic highlight involves Sid James, required to assume a medical alias, introducing himself as "Dr Zhivago".' – Kenneth Thompson, MFB

Carry On Nurse ★★

GB 1959 86m bw
Anglo Amalgamated/Peter Rogers

Male patients in a hospital rebel against the dictatorial matron.

The first true Carry On, done when the whole notion was still fresh and the cast responded with glee to its crudities.
w Norman Hudis story Patrick Cargill, Jack Searle d Gerald Thomas ph Reg Wyer m Bruce Montgomery ad Alex Vetchinsky ed John Shirley ☆ Shirley Eaton, Kenneth Williams, Charles Hawtrey, Hattie Jacques, Joan Sims, Kenneth Connor, Terence Longdon, Bill Owen, Leslie Phillips, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Irene Handl
'The yocks come thick and fast.' – Variety
'A seaside postcard come to life, a shameless procession of vulgarities. Utterly irresistible.' – Andy Medhurst, Sight and Sound
† The film topped the box-office in Britain and was surprisingly successful in the US where it ran for two-and-a-half years.

Carry On Regardless
GB 1961 90m bw
Anglo Amalgamated/Peter Rogers
A group of incompetent unemployed join an odd-job agency.
Less a film than a series of sketches, which are very variable in quality.
w Norman Hudis d Gerald Thomas ph Alan Hume m Bruce Montgomery ed John Shirley ☆ Sidney James, Kenneth Williams, Charles Hawtrey, Joan Sims, Kenneth Connor, Bill Owen, Liz Fraser, Terence Longdon, Esma Cannon, Hattie Jacques, Fenella Fielding
'Ingenuity of scriptwriter Norman Hudis is sometimes a bit strained, but he has come up with some sound comedy situations.' – Variety

Carry On Screaming ★
GB 1966 97m Eastmancolor
Anglo Amalgamated/Peter Rogers
Police investigate a mad doctor and his sister, who are turning young women into mannequins.
A send-up of Hammer horrors that manages to emulate the garishness of the originals.
w Talbot Rothwell d Gerald Thomas ph Alan Hume m Eric Rogers ed Rod Keys
☆ Harry H. Corbett, Kenneth Williams, Jim Dale, Charles Hawtrey, Fenella Fielding, Joan Sims, Angela Douglas, Bernard Bresslaw, Peter Butterworth, Jon Pertwee
'Puts the skids under horror pix. Snag is that most horror films themselves teeter on the edge of parody and it is rather tough trying to burlesque a parody.' – Variety

Carry On Sergeant
GB 1958 83m bw
Anglo Amalgamated/Insignia (Peter Rogers)
An army training sergeant accepts a bet that his last platoon of raw recruits will win the Star Squad award.
Shabby farce with humdrum script and slack direction, saved by energetic performances.
w Norman Hudis play The Bull Boys by R. F. Delderfield d Gerald Thomas ph Peter Hennessy m Bruce Montgomery
☆ Bob Monkhouse, William Hartnell, Kenneth Williams, Charles Hawtrey, Shirley Eaton, Eric Barker, Dora Bryan, Bill Owen, Kenneth Connor

'They're At It Again – O.O.O.H!'

Carry On Spying
GB 1964 87m bw
Anglo Amalgamated/Peter Rogers
British spies are sent to recapture a secret formula stolen by the Society for the Total Extinction of Non-Conforming Humans, otherwise known as Stench.
A feeble parody of the Bond films.
w Talbot Rothwell, Sid Colin d Gerald Thomas ph Alan Hume m Eric Rogers ed Archie Ludski
☆ Kenneth Williams, Bernard Cribbins, Charles Hawtrey, Barbara Windsor, Eric Pohlmann, Eric Barker, Dilys Laye, Jim Dale, Richard Wattis
'A dazzling return to form, milking every last drop from the ripe targets of espionage in general and Bond in particular.' – Andy Medhurst, Sight and Sound

Carry On Teacher ★
GB 1959 86m bw
Anglo Amalgamated/Peter Rogers
Pupils at a school sabotage the headmaster's attempts to get another job because they don't want to lose him.
Amiable comedy that is less frenetic than many in the series, and all the better for it.
w Norman Hudis d Gerald Thomas ph Reginald Wyer m Bruce Montgomery ed John Shirley ☆ Ted Ray, Kenneth Williams, Charles Hawtrey, Leslie Phillips, Joan Sims, Kenneth Connor, Hattie Jacques, Rosalind Knight, Cyril Chamberlain
'The laughs come readily.' – Variety

Carry On up the Jungle
GB 1970 89m Eastmancolor
Rank/Peter Rogers
An ornithologist journeys to Africa in search of the rare Oozulum bird.
A tired parody of Tarzan and jungle films; the jokes get lost in the undergrowth.
w Talbot Rothwell d Gerald Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Eric Rogers ad Alex Vetchinsky ed Alfred Roome
☆ Frankie Howerd, Sidney James, Charles Hawtrey, Joan Sims, Terry Scott, Kenneth Connor, Bernard Bresslaw, Jacki Piper
'The film is an assured success.' – Films and Filming

Carry On up the Khyber ★★★
GB 1968 88m Eastmancolor
Rank/Adder (Peter Rogers)
A Scots regiment, the Third Foot and Mouth, fails to defend British interests in India.
The best of the series, a wonderfully vulgar and ripe low comedy on an imperial theme.
w Talbot Rothwell d Gerald Thomas ph Alan Hume m Eric Rogers ad Alex Vetchinsky ed Alfred Roome
☆ Sidney James (Sir Sidney Ruff-Diamond), Kenneth Williams (Khasi of Kalabar), Charles Hawtrey (Pvt. James Widdle), Joan Sims (Lady Ruff-Diamond), Roy Castle (Capt. Keene), Bernard Bresslaw (Bungdit Din), Peter Butterworth (The Missionary), Terry Scott (Sgt. Maj. MacNutt), Angela Douglas (Princess Jelhi), Cardew Robinson (The Fakir), Julian Holloway (Maj. Shorthouse), Peter Gilmore (Ginger)
'Continues to rely primarily on low-comedy visual and verbal gag situations for its yocks.' – Variety
† The movie was filmed in Wales.

Carry On Venus: see Carry On Jack

'Ahhh…it's got that new movie smell.'

Cars ★★ (7)
US 2006 121m
Buena Vista International/Disney/Pixar (Darla K. Anderson)
In a fantasy world without humans, where every character is a motor vehicle, Lightning McQueen, an arrogant stock car, cares only about winning and little for others. On the way to a big race, he gets trapped in a small, sleepy town, and re-evaluates his life.
A story in which common decency trumps naked ambition, and the philosophy that winning is everything gets firmly put in its place. One of those rare animation films that adults and children alike can enjoy, if for different reasons: kids will be amused by the characters and jokes, while grown-ups may reflect on its melancholy nostalgia for the values of a bygone age. Some lovely visual touches, typical of Pixar: cloud formations resembling car parts, and a pile of tyres on the forecourt of a garage 'owned' by an Italian car, stacked like the Leaning Tower of Pisa.
w Dan Fogelman, John Lasseter, Joe Ranft, Kiel Murray, Phil Lorin, Jorgen Klubien d John Lasseter ph Jeremy Lasky, Jean-Claude Kalache m Randy Newman pd William Cone, Bob Pauley ed Ken Schretzmann
☆ Owen Wilson (Lightning McQueen), Paul Newman (Doc Hudson), Bonnie Hunt (Sally Carrera), Larry the Cable Guy (Mater), Tony Shalhoub (Luigi), Cheech Marin (Ramone)
'If Cars is something of a letdown, that is not because of the moral messages that it delivers, but because of the heavy hand with which it cranks them out.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker
† The voice of the Ferrari in the film was dubbed by Formula 1 ace Michael Schumacher.
John Lasseter (best animated feature film); Randy Newman (original song – Our Town)

The Cars that Ate Paris ★
Australia 1974 88m Eastmancolor Panavision
Saltpan/AFDC/Royce Smeal (Jim and Howard McElroy)
Car travellers become victims of a small town whose youthful inhabitants live on the pickings of engineered road accidents.
Another small town with a guilty secret, in this case more suitable to a half-hour than a feature, but with rewarding attention to detail.
wd Peter Weir ph John McLean m Bruce Smeaton
☆ Terry Camilleri, John Meillon, Melissa Jaffa, Kevin Miles

Carson City ★
US 1952 87m Warnercolor
Warner (David Weisbart)
A stagecoach service suffers from bandit raids, so a local banker finances a railroad.
Agreeably conventional Western with plenty of reliable plot and a satisfactory outcome for the goodies.
w Sloan Nibley, Winston Miller d André de Toth ph John Boyle m David Buttolph ☆ Randolph Scott, Raymond Massey, Lucille Norman, Richard Webb, James Millican, Larry Keating, George Cleveland

Cartouche
Italy/US 1954 85m approx bw Venturini/RKO (John Nasht)
A French prince clears himself of a murder charge and brings the villain to book.
Flat costume drama.
w Louis Stevens, Tullio Pinelli d Steve Sekely, Gianni Vernuccio ph Massimo Dallamano m Bruce Montgomery
☆ Richard Basehart, Patricia Roc, Massimo Serato, Akim Tamiroff

Cartouche ★★
France/Italy 1961 114m Eastmancolor Dyaliscope
Ariane/Filmsonor/Vides (Georges Danciger) aka: Swords of Blood
An 18th-century cooper's son becomes a quick-witted and gallant thief.
Slightly bitter fairy tale based on a French legend, vigorously encompassing tragedy, farce, violence and high-flown adventure.
w Daniel Boulanger, Philippe de Broca d Philippe de Broca ph Christian Matras m Georges Delerue
☆ Jean-Paul Belmondo, Claudia Cardinale, Odile Versois, Marcel Dalio, Philippe Lemaire, Jean Rochefort
'A tour de force of virtuosity.' – Peter John Dyer, MFB

Carve Her Name with Pride ★
GB 1958 119m bw
Rank/Keyboard (Daniel M. Angel)
In 1940, the young British widow of a French officer is enlisted as a spy, and after various adventures dies before a German firing squad.
Slightly muddled if ultimately moving biopic in which initial light comedy gives way to romance, documentary, character study, blazing war action and finally tragedy. Generally well made.
w Vernon Harris, Lewis Gilbert book R. J. Minney d Lewis Gilbert ph John Wilcox m William Alwyn
☆ Virginia McKenna (Violette Szabo), Paul Scofield, Jack Warner, Sydney Tafler, Denise Grey, Alain Saury, Maurice Ronet, Nicole Stéphane, Noel Willman, Bill Owen, William Mervyn, Anne Leon
'What is missing is the deeply charged passion which would have gone beyond the quietly decent statement intermittently achieved.' – John Gillett

La Casa del Angel: see The House of the Angel

'As big and timely a picture as ever you've seen! You can tell by the cast it's important! gripping! big!'

Casablanca ★★★★
US 1942 102m bw
Warner (Hal B. Wallis)
Rick's Café in Casablanca is a centre for war refugees awaiting visas for America. Rick abandons his cynicism to help an old love escape the Nazis with her underground leader husband.
Cinema par excellence: a studio-bound Hollywood melodrama which after various chances just fell together impeccably into one of the outstanding entertainment experiences of cinema history, with romance, intrigue, excitement, suspense and humour cunningly deployed by master technicians and a perfect cast.
w Julius J. Epstein, Philip G. Epstein, Howard Koch play Everybody Comes to Rick's by

Murray Burnett, Joan Alison d Michael Curtiz ph Arthur Edeson m Max Steiner ed Owen Marks
☆ Humphrey Bogart (Rick Blaine), Ingrid Bergman (Ilse Lund), Paul Henreid (Victor Laszlo), Claude Rains (Captain Louis Renault), Sydney Greenstreet (Ferrari), Peter Lorre (Ugarte), S. Z. Sakall (Carl), Conrad Veidt (Major Strasser), Dooley Wilson (Sam), Marcel Dalio (Croupier), Joy Page, John Qualen, Ludwig Stossel, Leonid Kinskey, Helmut Dantine and also Ilka Gruning RICK: 'I stick out my neck for nobody. I'm the only cause I'm interested in.'
LOUIS: 'How extravagant you are, throwing away women like that. Someday they may be scarce.'
RICK: 'Ilse, I'm no good at being noble, but it doesn't take much to see that the problems of three little people don't amount to a hill of beans in this crazy world. Someday you'll understand that. Not now. Here's looking at you, kid.'
RICK: 'I came to Casablanca for the waters.'
LOUIS: 'What waters? We're in the desert.'
RICK: 'I was misinformed.'
RICK: 'Louis, I think this is the beginning of a beautiful friendship.'
'A picture which makes the spine tingle and the heart take a leap ... they have so combined sentiment, humour and pathos with taut melodrama and bristling intrigue that the result is a highly entertaining and even inspiring film.' – New York Times
'Its humour is what really saves it, being a mixture of Central European irony of attack and racy Broadway-Hollywood Boulevard cynicism.' – Herman G. Weinberg
'The happiest of happy accidents, and the most decisive exception to the auteur theory.' – Andrew Sarris, 1968
'A film which seems to have been frozen in time ... the sum of its many marvellous parts far exceeds the whole.' – NFT, 1974
'It's far from a great film, but it has an appealingly schlocky romanticism, and you're never really pressed to take its melodramatic twists and turns seriously.' – Pauline Kael, 70s
† Originally named for the leads were Ronald Reagan, Ann Sheridan and Dennis Morgan
†† A Region 1 and 2 two-disc special edition DVD includes a commentary by critic Roger Ebert, and by author-historian Rudy Behlme, ten minutes of newly found deleted scenes and outtakes, and two documentaries, a Looney Tunes homage, Carrotblanca, and an audio radio production by the three stars.
♫ 'As Time Goes By', 'Knock on Wood' best picture; Julius J. and Philip G. Epstein, Howard Koch; Michael Curtiz Arthur Edeson; Max Steiner; Humphrey Bogart; Claude Rains; Owen Marks

Casanova

Italy 1976 163m Technicolor Scope
TCF/PEA (Alberto Grimaldi)
aka: Fellini's Casanova
Episodes from the life of the 18th-century libertine, in the course of which he seduces, among others, a nun, a mechanical doll, and a hunchbacked nymphomaniac.
A curiously rarefied spectacle which seldom comes to anything like life and despite its vast expense seems more likely to provoke yawns than lust.
w Federico Fellini, Bernardino Zapponi d Federico Fellini ph Giuseppe Rotunno m Nino Rota pd Danilo Donati, Federico Fellini
☆ Donald Sutherland, Tina Aumont, Cicely Browne, Carmen Scarpitta
'It may well be the most ponderous specimen of imaginative vacuity ever devised.' – John Simon, New York
'I distinctly remember walking out of Casanova well before the end.' – Luis Buñuel
script
Danilo Donati

'A partially true story about lies told, virtue lost and love found.'

Casanova ★ ⑤

US 2005 112m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Mark Gordon, Betsy Beers, Leslie Holleran)
Casanova woos a philosophical woman while trying to avoid the attentions of the Inquisition.
A high-spirited, broadly comic romp around Venice.
w Jeffrey Hatcher, Kimberly Simi, Michael Christofer d Lasse Hallström ph Oliver Stapleton m Antoine Desplat pd David Gropman ed Andrew Mondshein cos Jenny Beavan
☆ Heath Ledger (Giacomo Casanova), Sienna Miller (Francesca Bruni), Jeremy Irons (Bishop Pucci), Oliver Platt (Papprizzio), Lena Olin (Andrea Bruni), Omid Djalili (Donato), Ken Stott (Dalfonso)
'Auds with a love for bigscreen entertainment should respond to this generous-hearted movie.' – Derek Elley, Variety
'Not only fetters the randy Venetian in political correctness, it condemns him to dwell inside the modern equivalent of a bad Shakespeare play.' – Desson Thomson, Washington Post

Casanova Brown

US 1944 99m bw
International/Christie (Nunnally Johnson)
Just as his divorce comes through, a man discovers that his wife is pregnant.
Very mild star comedy which tiptoes round its subject.
w Nunnally Johnson play Bachelor Father by Floyd Dell, Thomas Mitchell d Sam Wood ph John F. Seitz m Arthur Lange ad Perry Ferguson
☆ Gary Cooper, Teresa Wright, Frank Morgan, Anita Louise, Patricia Collinge, Edmund Breon, Jill Esmond, Isobel Elsom, Mary Treen, Halliwell Hobbes
'There is so much clowning with so little subject that one is exposed to the impression that anything went for a laugh.' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times
† A remake of Little Accident (qv).
Arthur Lange; Perry Ferguson

Casanova in Burlesque

US 1944 74m bw
Republic
A professor has a secret summer life as a burlesque performer.
Unusual, amiable comedy.
w Frank Gill d Leslie Goodwins
☆ Joe E. Brown, June Havoc

Casanova's Big Night

US 1954 86m Technicolor
Paramount (Paul Jones)
In old Italy, the great lover is fleeing from his creditors and changes places with a tailor's apprentice.
The last of Bob Hope's big-budget, big-studio burlesques is a lumbering vehicle which wastes its star cast and mistimes its laughs. Joan Fontaine is an unhappy comedy foil.
w Hal Kanter, Edmund Hartmann d Norman Z. McLeod ph Lionel Lindon m Lyn Murray
☆ Bob Hope, Joan Fontaine, Basil Rathbone, Vincent Price, Audrey Dalton, Hugh Marlowe, John Carradine, Primo Carnera, Arnold Moss, Lon Chaney Jnr

Casbah

US 1948 94m bw
Universal (Erik Charell)
Remake of Algiers (qv) with songs added.
Not too bad in the circumstances, but a wholly artificial exercise, and another version was really not needed. The sets seem overlit and claustrophobic.
w Ladislaus Bus-Fekete, Arnold Manoff novel Detective Ashelbe musical Erik Charell d John Berry ph Irving Glassberg m/ly Harold Arlen, Leo Robin ☆ Tony Martin, Yvonne de Carlo, Marta Toren, Peter Lorre, Hugo Haas song 'For Every Man There's a Woman'

The Case against Brooklyn

US 1958 81m bw
Charles H. Schneer/Columbia
An undercover cop smashes a gambling syndicate.
Competent second feature treatment of a story we have heard somewhere before.
w Raymond T. Marcus (Bernard Gordon, Julian Zimet) story Daniel B. Ullman d Paul Wendkos
☆ Darren McGavin, Maggie Hayes, Warren Stevens, Emile Meyer, Nestor Paiva
† Gordon and Zimet wrote the script under a pseudonym because they were blacklisted at the time.

The Case of Charles Peace

GB 1949 88m bw
John Argyle
The story of a burglar and murderer of the 1870s whose career caught the public fancy.
Antediluvian and largely fictitious treatment of a Victorian cause célèbre.
w Doris Davison, Norman Lee d Norman Lee
☆ Michael Martin Harvey, Chili Bouchier, Valentine Dyall, Bruce Belfrage, Ronald Adam

The Case of Mrs Pembroke: see Two Against the World

The Case of the Black Cat

US 1936 66m bw
Warner
An old man is murdered after changing his will: Perry Mason investigates.
One of the better tales of the lawyer sleuth.
w F. Hugh Herbert d William McGann
☆ Ricardo Cortez, Harry Davenport, June Travis, Jane Bryan

The Case of the Curious Bride

US 1935 80m bw
Warner
Perry Mason helps a woman who is being blackmailed by her 'dead' husband.
Smoothish mystery.
w Tom Reed story Erle Stanley Gardner d Michael Curtiz
☆ Warren William, Margaret Lindsay, Donald Woods, Claire Dodd, Allen Jenkins, Errol Flynn

The Case of the Frightened Lady

GB 1940 81m bw
Pennant
A dowager knows that her son is mad and tries to prevent him from strangling his cousin.
Quite a lively suspenser of its time.
w Edward Dryhurst novel Edgar Wallace d George King ☆ Marius Goring, Penelope Dudley Ward, Helen Haye, Patrick Barr, Felix Aylmer
† A previous version was released in 1932 as The Frightened Lady (qv).

The Case of the Howling Dog

US 1934 75m bw
Warner
Two men claim the same woman as their wife.
Adequate Perry Mason mystery.
w Ben Markson story Erle Stanley Gardner d Alan Crosland
☆ Warren William, Mary Astor, Allen Jenkins, Grant Mitchell, Helen Trenholme, Dorothy Tree

The Case of the Lucky Legs

US 1935 77m bw
Warner
Perry Mason chases a beauty contest promoter who skips town with the winnings.
Fair lighthearted mystery, with a somewhat dissipated sleuth.
w Ben Markson, Brown Holmes story Erle Stanley Gardner d Archie Mayo
☆ Warren William, Genevieve Tobin, Allen Jenkins, Patricia Ellis, Lyle Talbot, Barton MacLane
'An admirable film.' – Graham Greene

The Case of the Missing Blonde: see Lady in the Morgue

The Case of the Stuttering Bishop

US 1937 70m bw
Warner
Perry Mason investigates an heiress who may be an impostor.
Thin mystery with another different star in the lead.
w Don Ryan, Kenneth Gamet story Erle Stanley Gardner d William Clemens ☆ Donald Woods, Ann Dvorak, Anne Nagel, Linda Perry

The Case of the Velvet Claws

US 1936 63m bw
Warner
Perry Mason's honeymoon is postponed when he finds himself on a murder charge.
Moderate light-hearted mystery, but they should have awarded prizes to anyone who could explain the title.
w Tom Reed story Erle Stanley Gardner d William Clemens
☆ Warren William, Claire Dodd, Wini Shaw, Gordon Elliott, Addison Richards

Casey's Shadow

US 1978 116m Metrocolor Panavision
Columbia/Ray Stark (Michael Levee)
A Cajun family in New Mexico breeds a champion horse which wins the annual race.
Shades of Maryland: an old-fashioned movie of the kind which absolutely nobody should want to revive, at least not so ineptly or at such length.

w Carol Sobieski story Ruidoso by John McPhee d Martin Ritt ph John A. Alonzo m Patrick Williams
☆ Walter Matthau, Alexis Smith, Robert Webber, Murray Hamilton, Andrew A. Rubin, Stephan Burns, Michael Hershewe

CASH see WHITE'S

Cash and Carry: see Ringside Maisie

Cash McCall

US 1960 102m Technicolor
Warner (Henry Blanke)
A Napoleon of the stock market gets into trouble for the first time when love interferes with business.
Slightly unusual comedy drama, quite sharply made and played, but not adding up to much.
w Lenore Coffee, Marion Hargrove novel Cameron Hawley d Joseph Pevney ph George Folsey m Max Steiner
☆ James Garner, Natalie Wood, Nina Foch, Dean Jagger, E. G. Marshall, Henry Jones, Otto Kruger, Roland Winters

Cash on Demand ★

GB 1963 86m bw
Columbia/Woodpecker/Hammer (Michael Carreras)
A fussy bank manager outwits a classy robber.
Quietly effective suspenser with an admirable middle-aged cast and no love interest.
w Lewis Greifer, David T. Chantler TV play Jacques Gillies d Quentin Lawrence ph Arthur Grant m Wilfred Josephs
☆ Peter Cushing, André Morell, Richard Vernon, Norman Bird, Edith Sharpe

Casino ★★★

US 1995 178m Technicolor Super 35
Universal/Syalis/Legende/De Fina/Cappa (Barbara de Fina)
A gambler who is put in charge of a Las Vegas casino by the Mafia runs into trouble when he tries to run the business honestly and falls in love with a call-girl.
Deft, involving and intriguing depiction of the inescapable corruption of the spirit, in a city built on greed. It begins in a leisurely, documentary style before focusing on individuals as flawed as the system they operate and as expendable as the chips they bet.
w Nicholas Pileggi, Martin Scorsese book Nicholas Pileggi d Martin Scorsese ph Robert Richardson pd Dante Ferretti ad Jack G. Taylor Jr. ed Thelma Schoonmaker
☆ Robert DeNiro (Sam 'Ace' Rothstein), Sharon Stone (Ginger McKenna), Joe Pesci (Nicky Santoro), James Woods (Lester Diamond), Don Rickles (Billy Sherbert), Alan King (Andy Stone), Kevin Pollak (Phillip Green), L. Q. Jones (Pat Webb), Dick Smothers (Senator)
'I simply can't see any urgent reason for Casino to exist. Scorsese has always been a master of camera movement, but here the camera is just going through the motions.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times
'It doesn't seem too much to ask, in exchange for three hours of our lives, to be offered an emotion less tainted than watching nasty people fall foul of one another.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent
'A must-see for cinema-savvy audiences.' – Variety
♪ Sharon Stone

Casino de Paree: see Go Into Your Dance

The Casino Murder Case

US 1935 85m bw
MGM
Philo Vance solves a murder in a family of neurotics.
Rather heavy-going detection.
w Florence Ryerson, Edgar Allan Woolf story S. A. Van Dine d Edwin Marin ph Charles Clarke ed Conrad A. Nervig
☆ Paul Lukas, Rosalind Russell, Eric Blore, Donald Cook, Louise Fazenda, Ted Healy, Isabel Jewell, Leo G. Carroll

Casino Royale

GB 1967 130m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/Famous Artists (Charles K. Feldman, Jerry Bresler)
The heads of the allied spy forces call Sir James Bond out of retirement to fight the power of SMERSH.
Woeful all-star kaleidoscope, a way-out spoof which generates far fewer laughs than the original. One of the most shameless wastes of time and talent in screen history.
w Wolf Mankowitz, John Law, Michael Sayers novel Ian Fleming d John Huston, Ken Hughes, Val Guest, Robert Parrish, Joe McGrath, Richard Talmadge ph Jack Hildyard, John Wilcox, Nicolas Roeg m Burt Bacharach pd Michael Stringer ed Bill Lenny cos Julie Harris
☆ David Niven (Sir James Bond), Deborah Kerr (Agent Mimi), Orson Welles (Le Chiffre), Peter Sellers (Evelyn Tremble), Ursula Andress (Vesper Lynd), Woody Allen (Jimmy Bond), William Holden (Ransome), Charles Boyer (Le Grand), John Huston (McTarry), Joanna Pettet (Mata Bond), Daliah Lavi (The Detainer), Kurt Kasznar (Smernov), Jacqueline Bisset (Miss Goodthighs), Derek Nimmo (Hadley), George Raft (Himself) and also Terence Cooper (James Bond), Ronnie Corbett (Polo), Peter O'Toole, Jean-Paul Belmondo (French Legionnaire, Geoffrey Bayldon (Q), Duncan Macrae (Inspector Mathis), Barbara Bouchet (Moneypenny)
'One of those wild wacky extravaganzas in which the audience is expected to have a great time because everybody making the film did. It seldom works out that way, and certainly doesn't here.' – John Russell Taylor
'The dialogue is witless and unhampered by taste, and the interminable finale is a collection of clichés in a brawl involving the cavalry, parachuted Indians, split-second appearances by George Raft and Jean-Paul Belmondo, every variety of mayhem, and Woody Allen burping radiation as a walking atom bomb.' – Judith Crist
'The worst film I ever enjoyed.' – Donald Zec
♪ song 'The Look of Love' (m Burt Bacharach, ly Hal David)

Casino Royale ★★ (9)

UK/US/Czech Republic/Germany 2006 144m
Sony/Eon/Stillking//Babelsberg Film (Michael G. Wilson, Barbara Broccoli)
MI6 despatch James Bond to track down and destroy a villain named Le Chiffre, a banker to terrorist organisations. The chase continues over three continents.
The best Bond film since Sean Connery bowed out from the role, and in Daniel Craig, a saviour for a tired franchise that creatively had long overstayed its welcome. Casino Royale strips away the flippancy and infantilism that had dogged Bond movies for years, and restores a touch of welcome cruelty and toughness. Craig, a ruthless, stripped-down, modern Bond, rises above the role's stereotypical traps. The script manages to be coherent while still finding room for splendid stunt-driven set-pieces, notably one on a Madagascar construction site. The opening scene – a bloody murder in a public lavatory – sets the mood, and a grim torture scene confirms this is not for the kids or for the squeamish. Still, here is a Bond film of which Ian Fleming himself might have approved.
w Neal Purvis, Robert Wade, Paul Haggis novel Ian Fleming d Martin Campbell ph Phil Meheux m David Arnold pd Peter Lamont ad Dominic Masters, Steven Lawrence, Peter Francis, Alan Tomkins, Fred Hole ed Stuart Baird
☆ Daniel Craig (James Bond), Eva Green (Vesper Lynd), Mads Mikkelsen (Le Chiffre), Giancarlo Giannini (Mathis), Jeffrey Wright (Felix Leiter), Judi Dench (M)
BOND: 'Vodka Martini.'
WAITER: 'Shaken or stirred?'
BOND: 'Do I look like I give a damn?'
'Contrary to pre-release nay-sayers, Daniel Craig has done more with James Bond in one film than some previous stars have done in multiple reprises. This is terrific stuff, again positioning 007 as the action franchise to beat.' – Kim Newman, Empire
'There's clearly life in the old dog yet.' – Tom Charity, CNN. com
† The last remaining Bond novel by Fleming to be filmed by Eon Productions. Casino Royale (qv) was previously made in 1967, in a poorly received version starring David Niven and Deborah Kerr.
Sound (Ian Munro, Eddy Joseph, Mike Prestwood Smith, Martin Cantwell, Mark Taylor)

'No Such Things As Ghosts?'

Casper

US 1995 100m DeLuxe
UIP/Amblin/Harvey (Colin Wilson)
A greedy woman searches for treasure in a haunted house, with the aid of an expert in ghosts and his teenage daughter.
An unpleasant attempt to revive a comic-book character, both sickly with sentiment and tasteless in its attitudes to life and death; the special effects are spectacular, though.
w Sherri Stoner, Deanna Oliver story Casper the Friendly Ghost by Joseph Oriolo, Seymour Rait d Brad Silberling ph Dean Cundey m James Horner pd Leslie Dilley ed Michael Kahn sp Michael Lantieri
☆ Christina Ricci, Bill Pullman, Cathy Moriarty, Eric Idle and also the voices of Malachi Pearson, Joe Nipote, Joe Alaskey, Brad Garrett
'Attempts, with a host of clever special effects, to be both wise and innocent as well as funny and scary. But it is outrageously sentimental; half of the fun of the piece is buried in buttery popcorn covering.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
'Purest ectoplasmic slush.' – Sunday Times
† The film took more than $277m at the box-office worldwide
†† In 1997 came a prequel, Casper, a Spirited Beginning, which was released direct to video and aimed at a young audience.

Casque d'Or ★★★

France 1952 96m bw
Speva/Paris (Robert Hakim)
aka: Golden Marie
1898. In the Paris slums, an Apache finds passionate love but is executed for murder.
A tragic romance which on its first release seemed bathed in a golden glow and is certainly an impeccable piece of film-making.
w Jacques Becker, Jacques Companeez d Jacques Becker ph Robert Le Fèbvre m Georges Van Parys ed Marguerite Renoir
☆ Simone Signoret (Marie), Serge Reggiani (Manda), Claude Dauphin (Felix Leca), Raymond Bussières (Raymond), Gaston Modot (Danard)
'Takes its place alongside Le Jour Se Lève among the masterpieces of the French cinema.' – Karel Reisz
'A screen alive with sensuousness and luminous figures.' – Dilys Powell
Simone Signoret

Cass Timberlane ★

US 1947 119m bw
MGM (Arthur Hornblow Jnr)
A judge marries a working-class girl, who is unsettled at first but finally comes to realize her good fortune.
Solid drama with an understanding star performance and good production values.
w Donald Ogden Stewart novel Sinclair Lewis d George Sidney ph Robert Planck m Roy Webb
☆ Spencer Tracy, Lana Turner, Zachary Scott, Tom Drake, Mary Astor, Albert Dekker, Selena Royle, Josephine Hutchinson, Margaret Lindsay

Cassandra

Australia 1987 93m colour
Parallel (Trevor Lucas)
A young woman's nightmares of murder begin to turn into reality.
Spooky little chiller with a certain amount of suspense but not much substance.
w Colin Eggleston, John Ruane, Chris Fitchett d Colin Eggleston ph Garry Wapshott m Trevor Lucas, Ian Mason pd Stewart Burnside ed Josephine Cook ☆ Shane Briant, Briony Behets, Kit Taylor, Lee James, Susan Barling, Tim Burns, Tessa Humphries

The Cassandra Crossing

GB/Italy/West Germany 1976 129m
Technicolor Panavision
AGF/CCC/International Cine (Lew Grade, Carlo Ponti)
A terrorist carrying a deadly plague virus boards a transcontinental train.
Disaster spectacular with a number of fashionable interests but no observable filmmaking technique.
w Tom Mankiewicz, Robert Katz, George Pan Cosmatos d George Pan Cosmatos ph Ennio Guarnieri m Jerry Goldsmith pd Aurelio Crugnola
☆ Sophia Loren, Richard Harris, Ava Gardner, Burt Lancaster, Martin Sheen, Ingrid Thulin, Lee Strasberg, John Phillip Law, Lionel Stander, Ann Turkel, O. J. Simpson, Alida Valli

La Casse: see The Burglars

'Reincarnated with an invincible body to fight an iron devil. If Casshern does not do it, who will?'

Casshern ★

Japan 2004 142m colour 'Scope
Casshern Partners (Toshiaki Wakabayashi, Hideshi Miyajima, Toshiharu Ozawa)
In an apocalyptic future, a genetic experiment goes wrong and produces a race of mutants who plan to destroy the human race with a robot army.

Of interest mainly for its often astonishing visuals – like Sky Captain and The World of Tomorrow (qv), it was filmed using blue screen techniques with animation and backgrounds added in post-production to the live action. But, ultimately, all that effort is wasted on what is predictable comic-book stuff.
w Kazuaki Kiriya, Shotaro Suga, Dai Sato animated TV series Shinzo ningen Casshern d Kazuaki Kiriya ph Kazuaki Kiriya, Shozo Morishita m Shiro Sagisu pd Yuji Hayashida
☆ Yusuke Iseya (Tetsuya Azuma/Casshern), Kumiko Aso (Luna Kozuki), Toshiaki Karasawa (Brai), Akira Terao (Prof Kotaro Azuma), Kanako Higuchi (Midori Azuma), Fumiyo Kohinata (Dr Kozuki)
'Draws on a thousand years of Asian and European culture and a hundred years of cinema in a rollercoaster ride of the imagination.' – Derek Elley, Variety
'Only headbangingly hardcore anime fans could really be interested in this interminably dull science-fiction monolith.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Cast a Dark Shadow ★
GB 1955 82m bw
Frobisher/Daniel M. Angel (Herbert Mason)
A wife-murderer marries an ex-barmaid and tries again.
Unambitious but enjoyable melodrama, well acted though with directorial opportunities missed.
w John Cresswell play Murder Mistaken by Janet Green d Lewis Gilbert ph Jack Asher m Antony Hopkins ☆ Dirk Bogarde, Margaret Lockwood, Kay Walsh, Kathleen Harrison, Robert Flemyng, Mona Washbourne, Walter Hudd

'Outnumbered – unarmed – unprepared – they hurled back their answer in flesh and flame!'

Cast a Giant Shadow ★
US 1966 141m DeLuxe Panavision
UA/Mirisch/Llenroc/Batjac (Melville Shavelson)
An American military lawyer and ex-colonel goes to Israel in 1947 to help in the fight against the Arabs.
Spectacular war biopic with all concerned in good form but lacking the clarity and narrative control of a real smash.
w Melville Shavelson, from Ted Berkman's biography of Col. David Marcus d Melville Shavelson ph Aldo Tonti m Elmer Bernstein pd Michael Stringer
☆ Kirk Douglas, Angie Dickinson, Senta Berger, Luther Adler, Stathis Giallelis, Chaim Topol, John Wayne, Frank Sinatra, Yul Brynner, James Donald, Gordon Jackson, Michael Hordern, Gary Merrill, Allan Cuthbertson, Jeremy Kemp

Cast a Long Shadow
US 1959 82m bw
Mirisch/UA
A hard-drinking drifter thinks he may be the illegitimate son of a dead cattle baron.
Would-be psychological Western with not enough going for it.
w Martin M. Goldsmith, John McGreevey novel Wayne D. Overholser d Thomas Carr ☆ Audie Murphy, John Dehner, Terry Moore, James Best, Denver Pyle

'At the edge of the world, his journey begins.'

Cast Away ★★
US 2000 144m DeLuxe
TCF/Dreamworks (Steve Starkey, Tom Hanks, Robert Zemeckis, Jack Rapke)
Marooned on an uninhabited tropical island, a FedEx executive discovers that delivering parcels on time is not the sole purpose of life.
A movie that is less interested in exploring the consequences of the isolation of a hyperactive manager than in demonstrating the ability of its star to hold an audience on his own, with no more than a charismatic volleyball for company; Hanks manages it well, even though the movie cheats by dealing with despair only in retrospect.
w William Broyles Jnr d Robert Zemeckis ph Don Burgess m Alan Silvestri pd Rick Carter ed Arthur Schmidt
☆ Tom Hanks (Chuck Noland), Helen Hunt (Kelly Frears), Nick Searcy (Stan), Lari White (Bettina Peterson), Michael Forest (Pilot Jack), Viveka Davis (Pilot Gwen)
'As compelling a cinematic adventure as any Hollywood has produced... awes us with its sheer oceanic sweep and its cosmic apprehension of human insignificance.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times
'This is just deeply silly.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
Tom Hanks; sound (Randy Thom, Tom Johnson, Dennis Sands, William B. Kaplan)

Cast Iron: see The Virtuous Sin

Castaway
GB 1986 118m Fujicolour
Cannon/United British Artists (Rick McCallum)
A bored London girl answers an ad placed by a man who wants a wife to take to a tropical island for a year; but he expects sex and she doesn't.
Extended absurdity uncharacteristic of its director.
w Allan Scott book Lucy Irvine d Nicolas Roeg ph Harvey Harrison m Stanley Myers pd Andrew Sanders ed Tony Lawson
☆ Oliver Reed, Amanda Donohoe, Georgina Hale
'Prospects are good for those interested in beautiful scenery and naked bodies.' – Daily Variety

The Castaway Cowboy ★
US 1974 91m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Ron Miller, Winston Hibler)
In 1850, a Shanghaied sailor on Hawaii helps a lady potato farmer to turn her land into a cattle ranch.
Unexciting and unexceptional family fare.
w Don Tait d Vincent McEveety
ph Andrew Jackson m Robert F. Brunner
☆ James Garner, Vera Miles, Robert Culp, Eric Shea, Elizabeth Smith

The Castle
West Germany 1969 93m colour
Maximilian Schell/Alfa/Glarus/Rudolf Noelte
A surveyor is summoned to a remote castle but prevented by the villagers from getting there.
Attempt, partly successful, to film an unfinished Kafka obscurity. Marks all round for trying.
wd Rudolf Noelte
☆ Maximilian Schell, Cordula Trantow, Trudik Daniel, Franz Misar

The Castle ★
Australia 1997 85m Cinevex
UIP/Village Roadshow/Working Dog/Frontline TV (Debra Choate)
A dim-witted family, living happily at the edge of an airport, fights the government's plan to extend the runways by demolishing its home.
Low-budget comedy of victory for the little man, enjoyable in its ramshackle way.
w Rob Sitch, Santo Cilauro, Tom Gleisner, Jane Kennedy d Rob Sitch ph Miriana Marusic m Craig Harnath pd Carrie Kennedy ed Wayne Hyett
☆ Michael Caton, Anne Tenney, Sophie Lee, Anthony Simcoe, Stephen Curry, Wayne Hope, Eric Bana, Tiriel Mora, Charles (Bud) Tingwell, Robyn Nevin, Costas Kilias
'Inanity elevated to a jubilantly funny and optimistic fable, beautifully acted with unflagging sincerity.' – Angie Errigo, Empire

Castle Freak
US/Italy 1994 95m colour
Full Moon (Maurizio Maggi)
An American family inherit an Italian castle with a grisly secret.
Ineffectual horror that fails to generate much suspense.
w Dennis Paoli d Stuart Gordon ph Mario Vulpiani m Richard Band
ad Frank Vanorio ed Bert Glastein
☆ Jeffrey Combs, Barbara Crampton, Jonathan Fuller, Jessica Dollarhide, Massimo Sarchielli, Elizabeth Kaza, Luca Zingaretti, Helen Stirling

Castle in the Air
GB 1952 90m bw
Hallmark/ABP
A nobleman fails to turn his castle into a hotel but hopes to sell it to the Coal Board.
Topical comedy which sparkled rather more on the stage.
w Alan Melville, Edward Dryhurst play Alan Melville d Henry Cass
☆ David Tomlinson, Helen Cherry, Margaret Rutherford, Barbara Kelly, A. E. Matthews, Pat Dainton, Brian Oulton, Ewan Roberts

Castle in the Desert ★
US 1942 62m bw
TCF
Murders take place at the remote castle of an eccentric millionaire.
One of the sharpest Charlie Chan mysteries, with a lively plot and some good lines.
w John Larkin d Harry Lachman
☆ Sidney Toler, Arleen Whelan, Richard Derr, Douglass Dumbrille, Henry Daniell, Steve Geray, Sen Yung, Ethel Griffies, Milton Parsons

'A one-eyed major and his oddball heroes fight a twentieth-century war in a tenth-century castle!'

Castle Keep ★
US 1969 107m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/Filmways (Martin Ransohoff, John Calley)
During World War II seven battle-weary American soldiers occupy a 10th-century castle filled with art treasures, then die defending it. Or are they dead all the time?
The film version of this fantastic novel never seems quite sure, and the uncertainty finally deadens it despite careful work all round.
w Daniel Taradash, David Rayfiel novel William Eastlake d Sydney Pollack ph Henri Decaë m Michel Legrand
☆ Burt Lancaster, Peter Falk, Jean Pierre Aumont, Patrick O'Neal, Al Freeman Jnr, Scott Wilson, Tony Bill, Bruce Dern, Astrid Heeren

The Castle of Cagliostro ★
Japan 1980 102m colour
Tokyo Movie Shinsha (Tetsuo Katayama) original title: Rupan Sansei: Kariosutoro No Shiro
An inventive thief and his companions rescue a princess from a marriage to a wicked count and solve an ancient mystery.
Engaging animated fantasy, based on a best-selling comic-book and a long running TV show, that has some exciting moments.
w Hayao Miyazachi, Haruya Yamazaki comic book Monkey Punch d Hayao Miyazaki ph Hirotaka Takahashi m Yuji Ohno ad Shichiro Kobayashi ed Masatoshi Tsurubuchi animation director Yasuo Ohtsuka
☆ voices of: Yasuo Yamada (Arsene Lupin III), Eiko Masuyama (Fujiko Mine), Kiyoshi Kobayashi (Daisuke Jigen), Goro Naya (Inspector Zenigata), Sumi Shimamoto (Lady Clarisse), Taro Ishida (Count Cagliostro)
† The DVD release includes the subtitled Japanese version and one dubbed into English.

Castle of Evil
US 1966 81m Eastmancolor
NTA
A disfigured industrialist summons six people to a remote Caribbean island for the reading of his will.
Tedious variation on Ten Little Niggers and The Cat and the Canary, with horror asides and the lowest of budgets.
w Charles A. Wallace d Francis D. Lyon
☆ Virginia Mayo, Scott Brady, David Brian, Lisa Gaye, Hugh Marlowe

Castle of Fu Manchu
West Germany/Spain/Italy/GB 1968 92m Eastmancolor
Terra Filmkunst/Balcazar/Italian International/Towers of London
The yellow peril wrecks an ocean-going liner by turning water into ice, and keeps the inventor a prisoner.
Extraordinarily tatty entry in a series which started off well. (See Fu Manchu for list.)
w Harry Alan Towers d Jesús Franco ph Manuel Merino m Carlo Camilleri
☆ Christopher Lee, Richard Greene, Howard Marion Crawford, Gunther Stoll, Maria Perschy

Castle of the Doomed: see Kiss Me Monster

Castle on the Hudson ★
US 1940 77m bw
Warner (Sam Bischoff)
GB title: Years without Days
A hardened criminal is not helped by his years in prison.
Adequate, gloomy remake of Twenty Thousand Years in Sing Sing.
w Seton I. Miller, Brown Holmes, Courteney Terrett d Anatole Litvak
ph Arthur Edeson m Adolph Deutsch
☆ John Garfield, Pat O'Brien, Ann Sheridan, Burgess Meredith, Jerome Cowan, Henry O'Neill, Guinn Williams, John Litel

Casual Sex?

US 1988 97m colour
Universal/Jascat (Ilona Herzberg, Sheldon Kahn)

Two women, one promiscuous, the other prim, who are both scared of being single, find true love at a health resort.
Based on a stage musical and transferred to the screen without songs, it is an inconsequential jejune look at sexual relationships, full of direct-to-camera monologues that are at best coy and often embarrassing.
w Wendy Goldman, Judy Toll play book and lyrics Wendy Goldman, Judy Toll, music Alan Axelrod d Genevieve Robert ph Rolf Kestermann m Van Dyke Parks pd Randy Ser ed Sheldon Kahn, Donn Cambern
☆ Lea Thompson, Victoria Jackson, Stephen Shellen, Jerry Levine, Mary Gross, Peter Dvorsky, Andrew Dice Clay

'Even in war... murder is murder.'

Casualties of War ★

US 1989 113m DeLuxe Panavision
Columbia TriStar (Art Linson)

In Vietnam, a soldier is horrified when others kidnap and rape a village girl.
Simple minded, melodramatic account of a true incident.
w David Rabe book Daniel Lang d Brian de Palma ph Stephen H. Burum m Ennio Morricone pd Wolf Kroeger ed Bill Pankow
☆ Michael J. Fox, Sean Penn, Don Harvey, John C. Reilly, John Leguizamo, Thuy Thu Le, Erik King, Jack Gwaltney
'This new film is the kind that makes you feel protective. When you leave the theatre, you'll probably find that you're not ready to talk about it. You may also find it hard to talk lightly about anything.' – Pauline Kael

The Cat ★

France 1973 88m colour
Raymond Danon

After twenty-five years of marriage an embittered trapeze star and her husband simply don't talk to each other.
Absorbing drama for two characters, brilliantly acted, but with a somewhat unsatisfactory conclusion.
w Pascal Jardin d Pierre Granier-Deferre
☆ Jean Gabin, Simone Signoret

Cat and Mouse ★

GB 1958 79m bw
Eros/Anvil (Paul Rotha)

The daughter of a man executed for murder is threatened by criminals seeking hidden loot.
Interesting rather than exciting second feature thriller directed by a documentary maker.
wd Paul Rotha novel Michael Halliday ph Wolfgang Suschitzky
☆ Lee Patterson, Ann Sears, Hilton Edwards, Victor Maddern, George Rose, Roddy McMillan

The Cat and the Canary ★★

US 1927 84m (24 fps) bw silent
Universal

Greedy relatives assemble in an old house to hear an eccentric's will, and a young girl's sanity is threatened.
Archetypal spooky house comedy horror, here given an immensely stylish production which influenced Hollywood through the thirties and was spoofed in The Old Dark House.
w Alfred Cohn, Robert F. Hill play John Willard d Paul Leni ph Gilbert Warrenton ad Charles D. Hall
☆ Creighton Hale, Laura La Plante, Forrest Stanley, Tully Marshall, Flora Finch, Gertrude Astor, Arthur Carewe

The Cat and the Canary ★★

US 1939 72m bw
Paramount (Arthur Hornblow Jnr)

Ten years after the death of an eccentric millionaire, relatives gather at his home for the reading of his will.
The comedy-thriller par excellence, with Bob Hope fresh and sympathetic in his first big star part. A superbly staged remake, briskly paced, perfectly cast and lusciously photographed.
w Walter de Leon, Lynn Starling d Elliott Nugent ph Charles Lang m Dr Ernst Toch ad Hans Dreier, Robert Usher ed Archie Marshek
☆ Bob Hope (Wally Campbell), Paulette Goddard (Joyce Norman), Gale Sondergaard (Miss Lu), Douglass Montgomery (Charlie Wilder), John Beal (Fred Blythe), George Zucco (Lawyer Crosby), Nydia Westman (Cicily), Elizabeth Patterson (Aunt Susan), John Wray (Hendricks)
CICILY: 'Do you believe people come back from the dead?'
WALLY: 'You mean like Republicans?'
CICILY: 'Don't these big empty houses scare you?'
WALLY: 'Not me, I was in vaudeville.'
WALLY: 'I get goose pimples. Even my goose pimples have goose pimples.'
'The objective is carried out briskly and to our complete satisfaction.' – New York Times
'A top programmer for upper-bracket bookings in the keys, and will hit a consistent stride down the line in the subsequents.' – Variety
'Beautifully shot, intelligently constructed.' – Peter John Dyer, 1966

The Cat and the Canary

GB 1979 98m Technicolor
Gala/Grenadier (Richard Gordon)

Relatives gather at a haunted house to hear the tape-recorded will of an eccentric millionaire.
An overpoweringly cast but half-heartedly scripted remake, which after a spirited beginning bores more than it thrills.
wd Radley Metzger ph Alex Thomson m Steven Cagan ☆ Honor Blackman, Michael Callan, Edward Fox, Wendy Hiller, Beatrix Lehmann, Olivia Hussey, Daniel Massey, Carol Lynley, Peter McEnery, Wilfrid Hyde-White
'So mechanically are characters shunted through the indistinguishable rooms and corridors that one is surprised not to see the parquet marked off in neat little squares, as on a Cluedo board.' – Gilbert Adair, MFB

The Cat and the Fiddle

US 1933 90m bw (colour sequence)
MGM (William K. Howard)

In a taxi in Brussels, a leading lady of Broadway musicals meets a European composer.
Very lightweight musical comedy.
w Sam and Bella Spewack stageshow Jerome Kern, Otto Harbach d William K. Howard ph Harold Rosson, Charles Clarke md Herbert Stothart ad Alexander Toluboff ed Frank Hull ☆ Jeanette MacDonald, Ramon Novarro, Charles Butterworth, Frank Morgan, Jean Hersholt, Vivienne Segal, Henry Armetta
'The only thing remaining of merit is the music.' – Variety

Cat Ballou ★★

US 1965 96m Technicolor
Columbia (Harold Hecht)

Young Catherine Ballou hires a drunken gunfighter to protect her father from a vicious gunman, but despite her efforts he is shot, so she turns outlaw.
Sometimes lively, sometimes somnolent Western spoof which considering the talent involved should have been funnier than it is. The linking ballad helps.
w Walter Newman, Frank R. Pierson novel Roy Chanslor d Elliot Silverstein ph Jack Marta m Frank de Vol
☆ Jane Fonda, Lee Marvin, Michael Callan, Dwayne Hickman, Nat King Cole, Stubby Kaye, Tom Nardini, John Marley, Reginald Denny
'Uneven, lumpy, coy and obvious.' – Pauline Kael
'The ultimate American spoof of the American Western, done with a judicious restraint and sly satire and, above all, a consistency all too rarely found in Hollywood.' – Judith Crist
Lee Marvin
Walter Newman, Frank R. Pierson; Frank de Vol; song 'The Ballad of Cat Ballou' (m Jerry Livingston, ly Mack David)
BAFTA Lee Marvin

Cat Chaser

US 1988 98m Technicolor
Whiskers Productions (Peter A. Davis, William Panzer)

A motel owner becomes involved with an old girlfriend, who is now married to an exiled Dominican thug who keeps a fortune in banknotes in a secret hiding place.
Another botched attempt to find the cinematic equivalent to Leonard's tense, witty novels, not helped by an obtrusive voice-over.
w James Borelli, Elmore Leonard novel Elmore Leonard d Abel Ferrara ph Anthony B. Richmond m Chick Corea pd Dan Leigh ed Anthony Redman ☆ Peter Weller, Kelly McGillis, Charles Durning, Frederic Forrest, Tomas Milian, Juan Fernandez, Phil Leeds, Kelly Jo Minter, Tony Bolano

The Cat Creeps ★

US 1930 71m bw
Universal

After relatives gather for the reading of a millionaire's will, attempts are made to send mad the girl who stands to inherit everything.
A sound remake of the 1927 Cat and the Canary. Not too bad on its own account.
w Gladys Lehman, William Hurlbut d Rupert Julian ☆ Helen Twelvetrees, Raymond Hackett, Neil Hamilton, Jean Hersholt, Montagu Love, Blanche Friderici, Elizabeth Patterson, Theodore von Eltz, Lilyan Tashman, Lawrence Grant

The Cat Creeps

US 1946 58m bw
Universal

A reporter and photographer solve a murder and uncover missing millions.
Terrible programme filler, nothing to do with the earlier movie of the same name that was a version of The Cat and the Canary.
w Edward Dein, Jerry Warner d Erle C. Kenton
☆ Noah Beery Jnr, Lois Collier, Paul Kelly, Douglass Dumbrille, Rose Hobart, Jonathan Hale

The Cat from Outer Space

US 1978 103m Technicolor
Walt Disney Productions (Ron Miller)

A superintelligent extraterrestrial cat is forced to land on Earth for running repairs.
Fairly modest studio offering which pleased its intended market but could have been sharper.
w Ted Key d Norman Tokar ph Charles F. Wheeler m Lalo Schifrin sp Eustace Lycett, Art Cruickshank, Danny Dee
☆ Ken Berry, Roddy McDowall, Sandy Duncan, Harry Morgan, McLean Stevenson, Jesse White, Alan Young, Hans Conried

The Cat in the Hat: see Dr Seuss' The Cat in the Hat

Cat o' Nine Tails

Italy/France/Germany 1971 112m
Technicolor Technoscope
Spettacoli/Mondial/Terra/Labrador (Salvatore Argento)

A blind reporter overhears an industrial espionage plot that turns into murder.
Smart surface mechanics camouflage poor storytelling.
wd Dario Argento story Dario Argento, Luigi Collo, Dardano Sacchetti ph Enrico Menczer m Ennio Morricone ad Carlo Leva ed Franco Fraticelli
☆ Karl Malden, James Franciscus, Catherine Spaak
'The sort of thriller where professional expertise amd a certain visual elegance struggle to give "tone" and "style" to blandly undistinguished material.' – Richard Combs, MFB

'All the sultry drama of Tennessee Williams' Pulitzer Prize winning play is now on the screen!'

Cat on a Hot Tin Roof ★★

US 1958 108m Metrocolor
MGM/Avon (Lawrence Weingarten)

A rich plantation owner, dying of cancer, finds his two sons unsatisfactory: one is a conniver, the other a neurotic who refuses to sleep with his wife.
Slightly bowdlerized version of Tennessee Williams's most straightforward melodrama, watchable for the acting but still basically a theatrical experience.
w Richard Brooks, James Poe play Tennessee Williams d Richard Brooks ph William Daniels m uncredited
☆ Paul Newman, Burl Ives, Elizabeth Taylor, Jack Carson, Judith Anderson, Madeleine Sherwood, Larry Gates
BIG DADDY: 'Truth is pain and sweat and paying bills and making love to a woman that you don't love any more. Truth is dreams that don't come true and nobody prints your name in the paper until you die.'
MAGGIE: 'Win what? What is the victory of a cat on a hot tin roof?'
BRICK: 'Just staying on it, I guess.'
Academy Award best picture; Richard Brooks, James Poe; Richard Brooks (as director); William Daniels; Paul Newman; Elizabeth Taylor

'Kiss me and I'll claw you to death!'

Cat People ★★

US 1942 73m bw
RKO (Val Lewton)

A beautiful Yugoslavian girl believes she can turn into a panther; before she is found mysteriously dead, several of her acquaintances are attacked by such a beast.

The first of Lewton's famous horror series for RKO is a slow starter but has some notable suspense sequences. It was also the first monster film to refrain from showing its monster.
w De Witt Bodeen d Jacques Tourneur
ph Nicholas Musuraca m Roy Webb
☆ Simone Simon, Kent Smith, Tom Conway, Jane Randolph, Jack Holt
'(Lewton) revolutionized scare movies with suggestion, imaginative sound effects and camera angles, leaving everything to the fear-filled imagination.' – Pauline Kael, 1968
† Curse of the Cat People (qv) was a very unrelated sequel.

'An Erotic Fantasy For The Animal In Us All.'

Cat People

US 1982 118m Technicolor
Universal (Charles Fries)

A kinky version of the 1942 horrorpic. The feline lady now has an incestuous relationship with her brother, only changes after sex, and then must kill to become human again. (It is therefore safe to mate only with relatives.)
One presumes that among the eroticism and bloodlust a statement is being made, but it is never evident.
w Alan Ormsby d Paul Schrader ph John Bailey m Giorgio Moroder ed Jacqueline Cambas sp Tom Burman, Albert Whitlock visual consultant Ferdinando Scarfiotti ☆ Nastassja Kinski, Malcolm McDowell, John Heard, Annette O'Toole, Ruby Dee, Ed Begley Jnr
'The final impression is of a phantasmagoric indulgence in sound and vision by a filmmaker who fears sex and is excited by violence.' – Sunday Times
'The hobgoblins of an actual horror movie aren't easily translatable into the demons that haunt a Schrader hero on his way to a religious transcendence that is also a renunciation.' – Richard Combs, MFB

'Journey to another land'

The Cat Returns ★★

Japan/US 2002 75m colour
Optimum/Studio Ghibli (Hayao Miyazaki)

original title: Neko no Ongaeshi
A cat-loving high school student discovers that the king of cats wants her to marry his son.
Charming, well-animated fable that will appeal to adults as well as children.
w Reiko Yoshida manga Aoi Hiragi
d Hiroyuki Morita ń Yoji Nomi
ed Megumi Uchida character creation Satoko Morikawa ☆ voices of: Chizuru Ikewaki, Yoshihiko Hakamada, Kumiko Okae, Tetsuro Tanba
'It's drawn with a beautiful simplicity and, like other productions of the celebrated Studio Ghibli, is much influenced by Alice's Adventures in Wonderland.' – Phillip French, Observer
† A dubbed version features the voices of Anne Hathaway, Tim Curry, Elliott Gould and Peter Boyle.

The Cat that Hated People ★★

US 1948 7m Technicolor
MGM

A weary Manhattan cat rockets to the moon but finds it even noisier and is glad to come home.
Violent but dazzlingly inventive cartoon from this madcap director; a little classic of its kind.
w Heck Allen d Tex Avery

'See: The Lost City Of Love-Starved Cat-Women!'

Cat Women of the Moon

US 1953 63m bw 3D
Three Dimensional Pictures (Jack Rabin, Al Zimbalist)

aka: Rocket to the Moon
Five American astronauts find the moon inhabited solely by ravenous cat women.
One of the top claimants to film history's booby prize, along with such other space fiction entrants as Fire Maidens from Outer Space, Plan 9 from Outer Space and Santa Claus Conquers the Martians. It has more than a chance.
w Roy Hamilton story Jack Rabin, Al Zimbalist d Arthur Hilton ph William Whitley ad William Glasgow ed John Bushelman
☆ Sonny Tufts (Laird Grainger), Victor Jory (Kip Reissner), Marie Windsor (Helen Salinger), William Phipps (Doug Smith), Douglas Fowley (Walt Walters)
'The special effects look like they came free with a cornflakes packet.' – The Dark Side
† A risible low-budget remake, Missile to the Moon, (qv) appeared in 1959.

Catch 22 ★

US 1970 122m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount/Filmways (John Calley, Martin Ransohoff)

At a US Air Force base in the Mediterranean during World War II, one by one the officers are distressingly killed; a survivor paddles towards neutral Sweden.
Intensely black comedy, more so than M*A*S*H and less funny, effectively mordant in places but too grisly and missing several tricks.
w Buck Henry novel Joseph Heller
d Mike Nichols ph David Watkin m none pd Richard Sylbert
☆ Alan Arkin, Martin Balsam, Richard Benjamin, Art Garfunkel, Jack Gilford, Buck Henry, Bob Newhart, Anthony Perkins, Paula Prentiss, Jon Voight, Martin Sheen, Orson Welles
'There are startling effects and good revue touches here and there, but the picture keeps going on and on, as if it were determined to impress us.' – New Yorker, 1977
'As hot and heavy as the original was cool and light.' – Richard Schickel
'It goes on so long that it cancels itself out, even out of people's memories; it was long awaited and then forgotten almost instantly.' – Pauline Kael
'Dr Strangelove out of Alice in Wonderland.' – Daily Mail

'The spark that ignites us unites us.'

Catch A Fire ★ ⑦

UK/US/France 2006 101m
Universal/Working Title/Mirage (Tim Bevan, Eric Fellner, Anthony Minghella, Robyn Slovo)

During the apartheid era, Patrick Chamusso, a peaceable South African oil worker, is arrested as a suspected ANC saboteur and interrogated by an anti-Communist security officer. Chamusso joins the ANC's military wing.
A decent film with its heart in the right place isn't the same as an engaging story or a plausible thriller, and Catch A Fire strives to be all of these things with limited success. Derek Luke finds some shades of grey in his character, but Tim Robbins struggles with the thankless role of a fascistic torturer. An underpowered film about an important issue.
w Shawn Slovo d Phillip Noyce ph Ron Fortunato, Garry Phillips m Philip Miller pd Johnny Breedt ed Jill Bilcock
☆ Tim Robbins (Colonel Nic Vos), Derek Luke (Patrick Chamusso), Bonnie Henna (Precious Chamusso), Mncedisi Shabangu (Zuko September)
† Screenwriter Shawn Slovo is the daughter of Joe Slovo, a prominent figure in the ANC who served in Nelson Mandela's government.

Catch and Release ②

US 2007 111m
Sony Pictures/Columbia Pictures/Relativity Media (Jenno Topping)

A young woman rebuilds her life after her fiancé's death with the help of his friends.
Mawkish romantic comedy that struggles to recover from its downbeat beginning. Kevin Smith's robust supporting performance is a plus.
wd Susannah Grant ph John Lindley
m BT (Brian Wayne Transeau), Tommy Stinson pd Brent Thomas ad Shannon Grover ed Anne V Coates ☆ Jennifer Garner (Gray Wheeler), Timothy Olyphant (Fritz), Kevin Smith (Sam), Sam Jaeger (Dennis), Juliette Lewis (Maureen Monette), Fiona Shaw (Ellen Douglas)
'A romantic comedy-drama with little comedy, no drama and less romance than your average YouTube video.' – Michael Booth, Denver Post

Catch Me a Spy

GB 1971 94m Technicolor
Rank/Ludgate/Capitol/Films de la Pleiade (Steven Pallos)

A British agent smuggling Russian manuscripts into England falls for the wife of a Russian spy and finally gets his money as well.
Complex, patchy comedy thriller with dispirited action scenes in Bucharest and Scotland. Technical credits rather dim.
w Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais novel George Marton, Tibor Meray d Dick Clement ph Christopher Challis m Claude Bolling ad Carmen Dillon
ed John Bloom
☆ Kirk Douglas, Trevor Howard, Tom Courtenay, Marlene Jobert, Patrick Mower, Bernadette Lafont, Bernard Blier

Catch Me If You Can

US 1989 105m Foto-Kem
Medusa/Management Company Entertainment Group/Sterling Entertainment (Jonathan D. Krane)

A high-school student becomes a champion drag-racer to prevent his school from closing through lack of funds.
A drive-in movie for undemanding adolescents.
wd Stephen Sommers ph Ronn Schmidt
m Tangerine Dream ad Stuart Blatt
ed Bob Ducsay
☆ Matt Lattanzi, Loryn Locklin, Grant Heslov, Billy Morrissette, M. Emmet Walsh

'The true story of a real fake.'

Catch Me If You Can ★★

US 2002 141m Technicolor
DreamWorks/Amblin/Kemp/Splendid (Steven Spielberg, Walter F. Parkes)

A young con-man lives a life of fraud as a pilot, doctor, lawyer and forger, while keeping one step ahead of an FBI agent.
Based on a true story, an entertaining comedy about a teenager trying on different identities to see which one fits; at half-an-hour shorter, it would have been a better movie, but it will still leave you smiling.
w Jeff Nathanson book Frank W. Abagnale with Stan Redding d Steven Spielberg ph Janusz Kaminski m John Williams
pd Jeannine Oppewall ed Michael Kahn
☆ Leonardo DiCaprio (Frank Abagnale Jnr), Tom Hanks (Carl Hanratty), Christopher Walken (Frank Abagnale), Martin Sheen (Roger Strong), Nathalie Baye (Paula Abagnale), Amy Adams (Brenda Strong), James Brolin (Jack Barnes)
'Deeply moving, quite wonderfully acted coming-of-age black comedy, packed with equal measures of pathos and plain fun.' – Mark Dinning, Empire
'Gently funny, sweetly adventurous film that makes you feel genuinely good, that is to say, entirely unconned by false sentiment or sharp, overmanipulative Hollywood practices.' – Richard Shickel, Time
Christopher Walken; John Williams
Christopher Walken

Catch My Soul

US 1973 95m DeLuxe
Fox-Rank/Metromedia (Richard Rosenbloom, Jack Good)

A black evangelist, led astray by a member of his congregation possessed by a demon, becomes jealous of his wife and murders her.
A rock and country musical version of Othello, in which the tragic original is trivialized to the point of boredom.
w Jack Good musical play Jack Good from Shakespeare's Othello d Patrick McGoohan ph Conrad Hall m Paul Glass m/ly Tony Joe White, Jack Good md Delaney Bramlett pd Tex Reed ed Sid Levin ☆ Richie Havens (Othello), Lance LeGault (Iago), Season Hubley (Desdemona), Tony Joe White (Cassio), Susan Tyrrell (Emilia)
'A sort of comic strip travesty of the play.' – Tom Milne, MFB
♫ Othello; Wash Us Clean; Catch My Soul; Working on a Building; Open Our Eyes; Looking Back; Eat the Bread, Drink the Wine; That's What God Said; Chug a Lug; I Found Jesus; Run Shaker Life; Book of Prophecy; Lust of the Blood; Tickle His Fancy; Put Out the Light

Catch Us If You Can

GB 1965 91m bw
Anglo Amalgamated/Bruton (David Deutsch)

US title: Having a Wild Weekend
Freelance stuntmen have various adventures in the west of England.
The first film of a pretentious director is a bright but wearisomely high-spirited imitation of A Hard Day's Night.
w Peter Nichols d John Boorman
ph Manny Wynn m Dave Clark
☆ The Dave Clark Five, Barbara Ferris, David Lodge, Robin Bailey, Yootha Joyce
'An uneven script, rather uncertainly making its point about disillusionment and capitulation to the sham; but – like Mr Boorman's direction – at its best well worth your attention.' – Dilys Powell

'When murder is your business, you'd better not fall in love with your work.'

Catchfire

US 1989 99m CFI color
Vestron/Precision Films/Mack-Taylor Productions (Dick Clark, Dan Paulson)

A female artist who witnessed a Mafia killing falls in love with the man sent to murder her.
Unbelievable, though occasionally enjoyable, thriller.
w Rachel Kronstadt Mann, Ann Louise Bardach d Alan Smithee (Dennis Hopper) ph Ed Lachman m Curt Sobel pd Ron Foreman ed David Rawlins
☆ Dennis Hopper, Jodie Foster, Dean Stockwell, Vincent Price, John Turturro, Joe Pesci, Fred Ward, Julie Adams, G. Anthony Sirico

The Catered Affair ★
US 1956 93m bw
MGM (Sam Zimbalist)
GB title: Wedding Breakfast
When the daughter of a New York taxi driver gets married, her mother insists on a bigger function than they can afford.
Rather heavy-going comedy with amusing dialogue, from the period when Hollywood was seizing on TV plays like Marty and Twelve Angry Men.
w Gore Vidal TV play Paddy Chayefsky d Richard Brooks ph John Alton m André Previn ☆ Bette Davis, Ernest Borgnine, Debbie Reynolds, Barry Fitzgerald, Rod Taylor, Robert Simon, Madge Kennedy, Dorothy Stickney

Catherine the Great ★
GB 1934 93m bw
London Films/Alexander Korda
aka: The Rise of Catherine the Great
How Catherine married the mad prince and slowly conquered the Russian court.
Dated but well acted and written account, sober by comparison with The Scarlet Empress which came out at the same time.
w Lajos Biro, Arthur Wimperis, Marjorie Deans play The Czarina by Melchior Lengyel, Lajos Biro d Paul Czinner ph Georges Périnal, Robert Lapresle m Ernest Toch md Muir Mathieson ad Vincent Korda ed Harold Young ☆ Elisabeth Bergner, Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Flora Robson, Gerald du Maurier, Irene Vanbrugh, Griffith Jones, Joan Gardner, Diana Napier
'It rates no raves but is a good piece of merchandise.' – Variety
† The style is typified by a speech given to Grand Duke Peter: 'If she wasn't on the throne she'd be on the street.'

Catholic Boys: see Heaven Help Us

Cathy Tippel: see Keetje Tippel

Catlow ★
GB 1971 101m Metrocolor
MGM/Euan Lloyd
A likeable outlaw tries to avoid problems while recovering his hidden gold.
Light-hearted, cheerfully cast, fast-moving, Spanish-located Western.
w Scot Finch, J. J. Griffith novel Louis L'Amour d Sam Wanamaker ph Ted Scaife m Roy Budd ☆ Yul Brynner, Leonard Nimoy, Richard Crenna, Daliah Lavi, Jo Ann Pflug, Jeff Corey, Bessie Love, David Ladd

Catman of Paris
US 1946 63m bw
Republic (Marek M. Libkov)
An amnesia victim may be the mad killer who prowls the boulevards.
Poverty Row thriller with a few sharp moments.
w Sherman Lowe d Lesley Selander
☆ Carl Esmond, Lenore Aubert, Adele Mara, Douglass Dumbrille, Gerald Mohr, Fritz Feld
'Settings have solid mahogany look but the script has only a literate veneer.' – Variety

'Things Are Gonna Get Hairy.'

Cats & Dogs
US 2001 87m Technicolor
Warner/Village Roadshow/NPV/Mad Chance/Zide/Perry
A Persian cat's plans to take over the world are foiled by a puppy.
Dull and dogged movie, eager to please but unable to inspire affection, and fatally hampered by a silly script.
w John Requa, Glenn Ficarra d Lawrence Guterman ph Julio Macat m John Debney pd James Bissell ed Michael A. Stevenson, Rick W. Finney sp Jim Henson's Creature Shop; Rhythm & Hues; Tippett Studio
☆ Jeff Goldblum (Professor Brody), Elizabeth Perkins (Mrs Brody), Miriam Margolyes (Sophie), Alexander Pollock (Scott Brody), voices of: Tobey Maguire (Lou), Alec Baldwin (Butch), Sean Hayes (Mr Tinkles), Susan Sarandon (Ivy), Joe Pantoliano (Peek), Michael Clarke Duncan (Sam), Jon Lovitz (Calico), Charlton Heston (The Mastiff)
'An exhausting experience for anyone over 10.' – Rob Mackie, Guardian
'A half-digested hairball of a movie.' – Leslie Felperin, Sight and Sound

Cat's Eye
US 1985 93m Technicolor J-D-C Scope
Famous Films/Dino de Laurentiis (Martha J. Schumacher)
Three semi-horror stories linked by a cat.
This omnibus is weak in every department.
w Stephen King d Lewis Teague ph Jack Cardiff m Alan Silvestri pd Giorgio Postiglione ☆ Drew Barrymore, James Woods, Alan King, Kenneth McMillan, Robert Hays, Candy Clark, James Naughton
'It creeps in on foggy feet.' – Variety

'The Whisper Told Most Often...'

The Cat's Meow ★ (5)
Germany/GB 2001 110m colour
Lions Gate/CP Medien/Dan (Kim Bieber, Carol Lewis, Dieter Meyer, Julie Baines)
A birthday celebration on board William Randolph Hearst's yacht ends in tragedy with the death of film director Thomas Ince.
Uninvolving and hectic account, based on gossip, of the possible murder of Ince on a star-studded cruise. Apart from an occasional tart dialogue exchange, it lacks conviction and conveys little sense of the period or of the personalities involved.
w Steven Peros play Steven Peros d Peter Bogdanovich ph Bruno Delbonnel pd Jean-Vincent Puzos ed Edward Norris
☆ Kirsten Dunst (Marion Davies), Cary Elwes (Thomas Ince), Edward Herrmann (William Randolph Hearst), Eddie Izzard (Charlie Chaplin), Joanna Lumley (Elinor Glyn), Victor Slezak (George Thomas), Jennifer Tilly (Louella Parsons), James Laurenson (Dr Goodman)
'Beautifully crafted, lightweight work .' – Philip French, Observer
'Tiresome and tone-deaf.' – Richard Schickel, Time
† Worthwhile extras on the Region 1 and 2 DVD releases include audio commentary by Peter Bogdanovich and a Chaplin short. The Region 2 release also has an audio commentary by Eddie Izzard, Joanna Lumley and Ronan Vibert.

The Cat's Paw ★
US 1936 101m bw
Harold Lloyd
The son of a Chinese missionary returns home and finds himself in the middle of a Tong war.
Very moderate star comedy from the time when he was considering himself a character comedian rather than a slapstick ace.
w Harold Lloyd, Sam Taylor story Clarence Budington Kelland d Sam Taylor
☆ Harold Lloyd, George Barbier, Una Merkel, Nat Pendleton, Grant Mitchell, Vince Barnett
'The picture gets its laughs all right, but it approaches them at a crawl.' – Variety

Cattle Annie and Little Britches
US 1980 98m CFI color
Hemdale/UATC (Rupert Hitzig, Alan King)
In 1893, two girls head west in search of adventure.
Rather winsome family Western, with too little real action and too much romping about.
w Robert Ward, David Eyre novel Robert Ward d Lamont Johnson ph Larry Pizer m Sanh Berti, Tom Slocum ☆ Burt Lancaster, John Savage, Rod Steiger, Diane Lane, Amanda Plummer, Scott Glenn, Steven Ford
'Its storyline meanders and it never clinches any central conflict. But it has qualities of feeling that grab-'em movies can't approach.' – Peter Rainer, Los Angeles Herald Examiner

Cattle Drive
US 1951 78m Technicolor
Universal-International (Aaron Rosenberg)
The spoiled teenage son of a magnate finds humanity and friendship with a cowhand during a cattle drive.
Captains Courageous out west, not badly done.
w Jack Natteford, Lillie Hayward d Kurt Neumann ☆ Joel McCrea, Dean Stockwell, Chill Wills, Leon Ames, Bob Steele

Cattle Empire
US 1958 82m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Robert Stabler)
A trail boss out of prison gets a new assignment and signs up helpers who had previously made life difficult for him.
Fair general Western, entirely dependent on its star.
w Endre Bohem, Eric Norden d Charles Marquis Warren ph Brydon Baker m Paul Sawtell, Bert Shefter
☆ Joel McCrea, Gloria Talbott, Don Haggerty, Phyllis Coates, Paul Brinegar

Cattle King
US 1963 90m Metrocolor
MGM/Missouri (Nat Holt)
GB title: Guns of Wyoming
A big rancher opposes a cattle trail and starts a range war.
Moderately expert but very familiar star Western.
w Thomas Thompson d Tay Garnett ph William E. Snyder m Paul Sawtell
☆ Robert Taylor, Joan Caulfield, Robert Middleton, Robert Loggia, Larry Gates, Malcolm Atterbury

Cattle Queen of Montana
US 1954 88m Technicolor
RKO/Benedict Bogeaus
A tough woman inherits her father's rangeland and resists cattle rustlers.
A Western which runs in predictable grooves, and could have done with more vigour.
w Robert Blees, Howard Estabrook story Robert Blackburn d Allan Dwan ph John Alton md Louis Forbes
☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Ronald Reagan, Gene Evans, Lance Fuller, Anthony Caruso, Jack Elam

Catwoman
US/Australia 2004 101m Technicolor 'Scope
Warner/Village Roadshow (Denise Di Novi, Edward L. McDonnell)
An advertising artist, left for dead by thugs employed by her vicious boss, is transformed into a woman with the abilities, and moral sense, of a cat.
Limply scripted, ludicrous comic book nonsense, taken too seriously by everyone concerned, especially its director, who tries for sophistication and misses by a kilometre.
w John Brancato, Michael Ferris, John Rogers characters created for DC Comics by Bob Kane d Pitof ph Thierry Arbogast m Klaus Badelt ch Anne Fletcher pd Bill Brzeski ed Sylvie Landra
☆ Halle Berry (Patience Philips/Catwoman), Benjamin Bratt (Tom Lone), Sharon Stone (Laurel Hedare), Lambert Wilson (George Hedare), Frances Conroy (Ophelia Powers), Alex Borstein (Sally)
'I want to thank Warner Brothers for casting me in this piece of shit.' – Halle Berry, on accepting the Golden Raspberry as worst actress of the year
'I wouldn't call Catwoman incompetent, yet it has no visual grandeur, and very little surprise; you can tick off the story beats as if they'd been graphed.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly
'It goes down (and comes back up) like a hairball.' – Desson Thomson, Washington Post
'An odd, idiosyncratic movie – dark in look and dark in spirit – that plays as a kind of pop culture investigation into the meaning of feminism and the options open to women in the modern world.' – Mick LaSalle, San Francisco Chronicle

Caught!
US 1931 71m bw
Paramount
A US cavalry officer discovers that Calamity Jane is his mother.
Curious mother-love Western.
w Agnes Brand Leahy, Keene Thompson, Sam and Bella Spewack d Edward Sloman
☆ Richard Arlen, Louise Dresser, Frances Dee

Caught ★
US 1948 88m bw
Enterprise (Wolfgang Reinhardt)
The ill-treated wife of a vicious millionaire leaves him for a doctor, but finds she is to have the millionaire's baby.
Pretentious film noir, rather typical of its time, with much talent squandered on a very boring plot.
w Arthur Laurents novel Wild Calendar by Libbie Block d Max Ophüls ph Lee

Garmes m Frederick Hollander ed Robert Parrish
☆ James Mason (the doctor), Robert Ryan (the millionaire), Barbara Bel Geddes, Natalie Schafer, Curt Bois
'The script presents us with a full quota of standard Hollywood paper-backed characters, who move around, for the most part, against stage sets about as stimulating as scenes drawn in soap on a barroom mirror.' – John McCarten, New Yorker

Caught

US 1995 109m DuArt
Cinehaus/DuArt/Circle Films (Richard Brick, Irwin Young)

Tensions within a Hispanic family explode after an Irish drifter moves in.
A thriller that works a few variations on a familiar theme, but lacks the style to capture and maintain an audience's interest.
w Edward Pomerantz novel Into It by Edward Pomerantz d Robert M. Young ph Michael Barrow m Chris Botti pd Hilary Rosenfeld ed Norman Buckley
☆ Edward James Olmos, Maria Conchita Alonso, Arie Verveen, Steven Schub, Bitty Schram, Shawn Elliott

Caught in the Act

GB 1996 97m colour
Midsummer (Christopher Milburn)

Smitten by a theatrical agent, a young woman persaudes her two equally unmusical friends to form a singing group to perform on his talent show.
Feeble comedy that never rises above sitcom predictability.
w Caroline Hill, Mark Greenstreet d Mark Greenstreet ph David Evans m Simon May pd James Hendy ed Nick Arthurs
☆ Sara Crowe (Lucinda), Annette Badland (Katherine), Nadia Sawalha (Amanda), Paul Shelley (Neville Goodenough), Leslie Phillips (Sydney Fisher), Guy Henry (Algie), Tim McMullan (Pip), Gerard Kelly (Ronnie Rich), Nickolas Grace (Melvin), Gaye Brown (Maureen Riley)

Caught in the Draft ★★

US 1941 82m bw
Paramount (B. G. de Sylva)

A nervous film star cannot avoid being drafted into the army.
Sprightly comedy from the star's best period, with gags and supporting cast well up to form.
w Harry Tugend d David Butler ph Karl Struss m Victor Young ☆ Bob Hope, Lynne Overman, Dorothy Lamour, Clarence Kolb, Eddie Bracken, Paul Hurst, Irving Bacon

Caught Plastered

US 1931 68m bw
RKO

In helping an old lady save her drug store, two hams get mixed up with bootleggers.
Tedious star farce.
w Ralph Spence, Douglas MacLean d William Seiter
☆ Bert Wheeler, Robert Woolsey, Dorothy Lee, Lucy Beaumont, Jason Robards 'Best for combo and three-dayers.' – Variety

Caught Short

US 1930 75m approx bw
Cosmopolitan/MGM

Feuding boarding house landladies play the stock market – and win.
Lumbering comedy which marked the first big success for the team of Dressler and Moran.
w Willard Mack, Robert Hopkins d Charles Reisner
☆ Marie Dressler, Polly Moran, Charles Morton, Anita Page
'A gold mine ... the apex of the career of this pair of sublimated film-makers ... a box office smash for all classes anywhere.' – Variety † A credit reads: Story suggested by Eddie Cantor's gag book.

'This game has only two rules. Do or die.'

Caught Up ★

US 1998 97m DeLuxe
Heller Highwater/Live/Mediaworks

A former convict forms a relationship with a duplicitous woman when a hitman opens fire on them both.
Enjoyable, slickly directed modern excursion into film noir, set among the black community of South Central Los Angeles.
wd Darin Scott ph Thomas Callaway m Marc Bonilla pd Terrence Foster ed Charles Bornstein ☆ Cynda Williams, Bokeem Woodbine, Joseph Lindsey, Clifton Powell, Basil Wallace, Tony Todd, LL Cool J, Snoop Doggy Dog, Jeffrey Combs
'An engrossing, skillful yarn that takes its protag on a twisted path of murder, deceit, treachery and passion.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

Cauldron of Blood

Spain/US 1968 97m Eastmancolor Panoramica
Tigon/Hispamer/Robert D. Weinbach

aka: Blind Man's Bluff

A sculptor, blinded in a car crash, is unaware that his wife has turned killer to keep him supplied with the skeletons he uses in his work.
Dreary horror movie that is interesting only for the presence of Karloff, and even he seems to wish himself elsewhere.
w John Melson, Edward Mann, José Luis Bayonas d Edward Mann (Santos Alcocer) ph Francisco Sempere m Ray Ellis ad Gil Parrondo ed J. Antonio Rojo sp Thierre Pathé
☆ Boris Karloff, Viveca Lindfors, Jean-Pierre Aumont, Jacqui Speed
'Its heavy Freudian symbolism becomes almost laughable in conjunction with the wooden dialogue and ludicrous situations.' – David Pirie, MFB
† The film was cut to 87m for its British release.

Cause for Alarm ★

US 1951 74m bw
MGM (Tom Lewis)

A housewife tries frantically to retrieve a posted letter containing manufactured evidence which may put her on a murder charge.
Minor-league suspenser, watchable but disappointingly handled.
w Mel Dinelli, Tom Lewis d Tay Garnett ph Joe Ruttenberg m André Previn ☆ Loretta Young, Barry Sullivan, Bruce Cowling, Margalo Gillmore, Irving Bacon

'A love that suffered and rose triumphant above the crushing events of this modern age! The march of time measured by a mother's heart!'

Cavalcade ★★

US 1933 109m bw
Fox (Winfield Sheehan)

The story of an upper-class English family between the Boer War and World War I.
Rather static version of the famous stage spectacular, very similar in setting and style to TV's later Upstairs Downstairs. Good performances, flat handling.
w Reginald Berkeley play Noël Coward d Frank Lloyd ph Ernest Palmer m Louis de Francesco ad William Darling war scenes William Cameron Menzies ☆ Clive Brook, Diana Wynyard, Ursula Jeans, Herbert Mundin, Una O'Connor, Irene Browne, Merle Tottenham, Beryl Mercer, Frank Lawton, Billy Bevan
'Dignified and beautiful spectacle that will demand respect.' – Variety
'If there is anything that moves the ordinary American to uncontrollable tears, it is the plight – the constant plight – of dear old England ... a superlative newsreel, forcibly strengthened by factual scenes, good music, and wonderful photography.' – Pare Lorentz
'Greater even than Birth of a Nation!' – Louella Parsons
'An orgy of British self-congratulation.' – Pauline Kael, 70s
♟ best picture; Frank Lloyd; William Darling ♙ Diana Wynyard

Cavale: see Trilogy

'There are places man was never meant to go.'

The Cave ③

US/Australia 2005 97m colour
Columbia TriStar/Screen Gems/Lakeshore/Cinerenta (Richard Wright, Michael Ohoven, Tom Rosenberg, Gary Lucchesi, Andrew Mason)

Explorers of a cave in Romania find something nasty lurking in its depths.
Standard monster movie that owes a considerable debt to Alien.
w Michael Steinberg, Tegan West d Bruce Hunt ph Ross Emery m Johnny Klimek, Reinhold Heil pd Pier Luigi Basile ed Brian Berdan sp creature designer: Patrick Tatopoulos
☆ Cole Hauser (Jack), Morris Chestnut (Top Buchanan), Eddie Cibrian (Tyler), Rick Ravanello (Briggs), Marcel Iures (Dr Nicolai), Kieran Darcy-Smith (Strode), Lena Headey (Kathryn), Piper Perabo (Charlie)
'The screenplay is thin, the dialogue lacks nuance and the acting is often laughable.' – Claudia Puig, USA Today

The Cave Dwellers: see One Million BC

Cave of Outlaws

US 1951 76m Technicolor
Universal-International (Leonard Goldstein)

After 15 years in prison, a bandit finds that locals are determined to relieve him of the fortune in gold he is alleged to have stolen and hidden in a cave.
Modest Western with an interesting view on celebrity and small town greed; it gains novelty value from scenes shot in the Carlsbad Caverns in New Mexico.
w Elizabeth Wilson d William Castle ph Irving Glassberg md Joseph Gershenson ad Bernard Herzbrun, Nathan Juran ed Edward Curtiss
☆ Macdonald Carey (Pete Carver), Alexis Smith (Liz Trent), Edgar Buchanan (Dobbs), Victor Jory (Ben Cross), Hugh O'Brian (Garth), Houseley Stevenson (Cooley), Hugh Sanders, Raymond Bond, Robert Osterloh

Cave of the Yellow Dog ★★ ⑧

Mongolia/Germany 2005 93m
Tartan/Schesch Filmproduktion (Stephan Schesch)

German theatrical title: Die Hohle des gelben Hundes

The six year old daughter of a nomadic family of Mongolian sheepherders brings home a stray dog. But her father is worried that it may have been running with wolves who kill the family's sheep.
Aside from the cute, adorable children at the centre of the film, this is a subtle story of a harsh culture on Mongolia's remote steppes threatened by progress. A scene of the family packing up their yurt and moving on is masterfully realised.
wd Byambasuren Davaa ph Daniel Schonauer m Ganpurev Dagvan ed Sarah Clara Weber ☆ Urjindorj Batchuluun (Father), Buyandulam Batchuluun (Mother), Nansal Batchuluun (Nansal), Nansalmaa Batchhuluun (Nansalmaa)
'More successful as a documentary than as a drama, this offers a gently absorbing glimpse into nomadic Mongolian life.' – Anna Smith, Empire

Caveman

US 1981 91m Technicolor
UA (Lawrence Turman, David Foster)

Adventures of a prehistoric man.
Witless farrago of puns and farts on a lower level than Mel Brooks, if such a thing were possible.
w Rudy de Luca, Carl Gottlieb d Carl Gottlieb ph Alan Hume m Lalo Schifrin pd Philip M. Jefferies ed Gene Fowler ☆ Ringo Starr, Dennis Quaid, Jack Gilford, Barbara Bach, Avery Schreiber
'Too gross and leery for children and not nearly sprightly or sly enough for adults.' – Daily Mail
'Worth about half an hour of anybody's time. Unfortunately it runs 97 minutes.' – Guardian

El Cazador de la Muerte: see Deathstalker

Cease Fire

US 1985 97m Continental Color
Double Helix/Cineworld (William Grefe)

Ex-Vietnam vets in Miami have trouble getting work and forgetting the past.
Honest but predictable drama from behind the headlines.
w George Fernandez play Vietnam Trilogy by George Fernandez d David Nutter ph Henning Schellerup m Gary Fry ad Alan Avchen ed Julio Chaves
☆ Don Johnson, Lisa Blount, Robert F. Lyons, Richard Chaves, Rick Richards

'Long Live Guerilla Film Making!'
'Punish Bad Cinema!'

Cecil B. Demented ★

US 2000 88m colour
Artisan/Canal+/Polar (John Fielder, Joe Caracciolo Jr, Mark Tarlov)

A guerilla filmmaker kidnaps a Hollywood star and forces her to appear in his subversive picture.
A movie that is really no better than the flicks it satirises, but some fun can be had along the way.
wd John Waters ph Robert Stevens m Basil Poledouris, Zoe Poledouris pd Vincent Peranio ed Jeffrey Wolf
☆ Melanie Griffith (Honey Whitlock), Stephen Dorff (Cecil B. Demented), Alicia Witt (Cherish), Larry Giliard Jnr (Lewis), Maggie Gyllenhaal (Petie), Eric M. Barry (Fidget), Zenzele Uzoma (Chardonnay),

Erika Lynn Rupli (Pam), Harriet Dodge (Dinah), Adrian Grenier (Lyle), Jack Noseworthy (Rodney), Mink Stole (Mrs Mallory), Ricki Lake (Libby), Patricia Hearst (Fidget's Mom), Eric Roberts (Honey's Ex-husband)

'You don't have to be the kind of middle-aged gay film buff who lives in Brighton with a poodle called Baby Jane to love this movie, but it would help.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times

'A strange air of pointlessness pervades this film, mostly aiming pseudo-satire at non-targets.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Ceiling Zero ★

US 1935 95m bw
Warner/Cosmopolitan (Harry Joe Brown)

Amorous and airborne adventures of an irresponsible but brilliant civil airlines pilot.
Splendid star vehicle which turns maudlin in the last reel but until then provides crackling entertainment.
w Frank 'Spig' Wead play Frank Wead
d Howard Hawks ph Arthur Edeson
☆ James Cagney, Pat O'Brien, June Travis, Stuart Erwin, Henry Wadsworth, Isabel Jewell, Barton MacLane

'An entertainment wallop of extraordinary power.' – Variety

'The best of all airplane pictures.' – Otis Ferguson, 1939

'Directed at a breakneck pace which emphasizes its lean fibre and its concentration on the essentials of its theme.' – Andrew Sarris, 1963

† Remade in 1939 as International Squadron.

Cela s'appelle l'Aurore ★

France/Italy 1955 108m bw
Marceau/Laetitia

A Corsican company doctor falls for a young widow while his wife is on holiday, and events lead to tragedy.
Efficient melodrama, given an extra dimension by its auteur.
w Luis Buñuel, Jean Ferry novel Emmanuel Robles d Luis Buñuel
ph Robert Le Fèbvre m Joseph Kosma ☆ Georges Marchal, Lucia Bose, Gianni Esposito, Julien Bertheau, Henri Nassiet

The Celebration: see Festen

'A new comedy about people who will do anything to get famous ... or stay famous.'

Celebrity ★

US 1998 113m bw
Buena Vista/Sweetland (Jean Doumanian)

After a marital break-up, a promiscuous journalist and his insecure former wife look for love.
With the neurotic centre of energy being occupied by both Branagh and Davis, Allen's on-screen presence is much missed here, while on the other side of the camera he recycles his usual attitudes to relationships without much apparent enthusiasm but with the occasional good joke.
wd Woody Allen ph Sven Nykvist
pd Santo Loquasto ed Susan E. Morse
☆ Hank Azaria, Kenneth Branagh, Judy Davis, Leonardo DiCaprio, Melanie Griffith, Famke Janssen, Michael Lerner, Joe Mantegna, Bebe Neuwirth, Winona Ryder, Charlize Theron

'Annoyingly mannered in performance as well as tiresomely familiar in the way it trots out its angst-ridden urban characters' problems.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Céleste

West Germany 1981 106m Eastmancolor
Artificial Eye/Pelemele/Bayerische Rundfunk (Eleonore Adlon)

Proust's housekeeper recalls their life together.
Stifling, slow-moving account, likely to interest only admirers of the author.
wd Percy Adlon book Monsieur Proust by Céleste Albaret ph Jürgen Martin, Horst Becker, Helmo Sahliger, Hermann Ramelow
m Cesar Franck ad Hans Gailling
ed Clara Fabry
☆ Eva Mattes, Jürgen Arndt, Norbert Wartha, Wolf Euba, Joseph Manoth, Leo Bardischewski

Celia

GB 1949 67m bw
Exclusive/Hammer (Anthony Hinds)

An impecunious actress becomes a temporary private eye investigating the case of a rich aunt who marries a man young enough to be her son and refuses to meet her relatives.
Mildly amusing, cheaply made comedy thriller, based on a BBC radio serial by Mason.
w A. R. Rawlinson, Edward J. Mason, Francis Searle, Roy Plomley d Francis Searle ph Cedric Williams md Frank Spencer, Rupert Grayson ad Denis Wreford ed R. C. Cox
☆ Hy Hazell, Bruce Lester, John Bailey, Joan Hickson, Elsie Wagstaff

Celia ★

Australia 1988 103m colour
BCB/Seon (Timothy White, Gordon Glenn)

Grieving over the death of her grandmother and caught up in political and sexual acrimony that she doesn't understand, a nine-year old girl retreats into a fantasy world of childish violence.
Unconvincing tale of a child's development, warped by the red-baiting, rabbit-hating suburban Australian society of the 1950s.
wd Ann Turner ph Geoffrey Simpson
m Chris Neal pd Peta Lawson ed Ken Sallows ☆ Rebecca Smart, Nicholas Eadie, Victoria Longley, Mary-Anne Fahey

Celine and Julie Go Boating ★

France 1974 192m Eastmancolor
Les Films du Losange (Barbet Schroeder)

Two girls change the outcome of a drama played daily in a haunted house.
Odd, dreamlike, absurdly long and semi-improvisational mood piece, with reverberations from Alice in Wonderland and Orphée. Not an unpleasant experience, but sometimes a tiresome one.
w Eduardo de Gregorio, Juliet Berto, Dominique Labourier, Bulle Ogier, Marie-France Pisier, Jacques Rivette, partly suggested by two stories by Henry James d Jacques Rivette ph Jacques Renard
m Jean-Marie Senia
☆ Juliet Berto, Dominique Labourier, Bulle Ogier, Marie-France Pisier, Barbet Schroeder

'Rivette uncannily combines slapstick, suspense and tears in his most watchable assault on the narrative form.' – Jan Dawson

† Shot in 16mm.

'Enter the mind of a killer.'

The Cell ★

US 2000 107m DeLuxe
New Line/Radical Media (Julio Caro, Eric McLeod)

A child psychotherapist goes inside the mind of a comatose serial killer to discover where he has hidden his latest victim.
Deliriously daft thriller that uses its minimal narrative as an excuse for over-indulgence in digital imagery that ransacks the furthest reaches of psychedelia before subsiding into banality; it is ideal viewing for those with short attention spans.
w Mark Protosevich d Tarsem ph Paul Laufer m Howard Shore pd Tom Foden ed Paul Rubell, Robert Duffy cos Eiko Ishioka, April Napier
☆ Jennifer Lopez (Catherine Deane), Vince Vaughn (Peter Novak), Vincent D'Onofrio (Carl Stargher), Jake Weber (Gordon Ramsey), Dylan Baker (Henry West), Marianne Jean-Baptiste (Dr Miriam Kent), James Gammon (Teddy Lee), Tara Subkoff (Julia Hickson), Colton James (Edward Baines), Patrick Bauchau (Lucien Baines), Gareth Williams (Stargher's Father)

'So cool to the touch that it could be kept in your grocer's freezer' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

'Contains images the likes of which you won't have seen before–and, unless Tarsem learns a little self-control and improves his story-telling skills, you probably won't see again.' – Empire

♗ make-up (Michele Burke, Edouard Henriques)

Cell 2455 Death Row

US 1955 77m bw
Columbia (Wallace MacDonald)

A convicted murderer staves off execution with appeal after appeal.
Cheap run-off of the case of Caryl Chessman, who was executed ten years after his trial for rape and murder. Retold in a 1977 TV movie, Kill Me If You Can.
w Jack de Witt book Caryl Chessman
d Fred F. Sears ph Fred Jackman Jnr md Mischa Bakaleinikoff
☆ William Campbell, Kathryn Grant, Harvey Stephens, Marian Carr, Vince Edwards

Cello

South Korea 2005 94m colour
Tube (Park Sung-do)

original title: Chello hongmijoo ilga salinsagan
A cello teacher's life spirals out of control after she is involved in a car crash.
Derivative horror that mixes many familiar elements from recent Asian movies but over-eggs the pudding by providing, apart from a predictable twist at the end, characters who include a vengeful student, an unbalanced sister-in-law, a mute, autistic child and a creepy, mute housekeeper.
wd Lee Woo-chul ph Kwon Young-chul
m Lee Han-na pd Kim Jong-woo ed Kim Young-soo ☆ Jung Ho-bin (Jun-ki), Park Da-An (Kim Tae-yeon), Sung Hyun-a (Hong Min-ju)

'If the signal dies so does she.'

Cellular

US/Germany 2004 94m DeLuxe
Panavision
Entertainment/Electric Entertainment (Dean Devlin, Lauren Lloyd)

A teenager receives a call on his phone from a kidnapped woman and attempts to rescue her with the aid of a cop who is about to retire.
Fast-moving but implausible and illogical thriller about a hero who has to break the law in order to save a woman from crooks.
w Chris Morgan story Larry Cohen
d David R. Ellis ph Gary Capo m John Ottman pd Jaymes Hinkle ed Eric Sears
☆ Kim Basinger (Jessica Martin), Chris Evans (Ryan), Jason Statham (Ethan), Eric Christian Olsen (Chad), Matt McColm (Deason), Noah Emmerich (Jack Tanner), William H. Macy (Mooney)

'Because plot is the sum total here, the alarming holes, inconsistencies and impossibilities in Chris Morgan's script corrode this drama of distress.' – Robert Koehler, Variety

The Celluloid Closet ★★

US 1995 101m colour
Electric/Reflective/Telling Pictures/HBO/Channel 4/ZD (Rob Epstein, Jeffrey Friedman)

A documentary, illustrated with interviews and excerpts from films, about the way homosexuals have been presented in Hollywood movies.
An interesting and provocative examination of Hollywood attitudes towards sexuality, though it never quite gets to grips with how far movies reflect and influence the attitudes of a wider society.
w Rob Epstein, Jeffrey Friedman, Sharon Wood, Armistead Maupin book Vito Russo
d Rob Epstein, Jeffrey Friedman ph Nancy Schreiber m Carter Burwell ad Scott Chambliss ed Jeffrey Friedman, Arnold Glassman
☆ Tony Curtis, Armistead Maupin, Susie Bright, Whoopi Goldberg, Quentin Crisp, Harvey Fierstein, Arthur Laurents, Gore Vidal, Farley Granger, Paul Rudnick, Shirley MacLaine, Tom Hanks, John Schlesinger, Lily Tomlin (narrator)

'Fascinating, insightful, often funny.' – George Perry

Celtic Pride

US 1996 91m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Hollywood/Caravan (Roger Birnbaum)

Two basketball fans kidnap the star player from a rival team so that their own team can win an important game.
A comedy, of working-class passion for sporting heroes, which does not travel well.
w Judd Apatow d Tom De Cerchio
ph Oliver Wood m Basil Poledouris pd Stephen Marsh ed Hubert de la Bouillerie
☆ Damon Wayans, Daniel Stern, Dan Aykroyd, Gail O'Grady, Adam Hendershott, Paul Guilfoyle

'An uneven but largely likeable basketball-themed comedy.' – Variety

Celui Qui Doit Mourir: see He Who Must Die

'Love Knows No Limits.'

The Cement Garden ★

GB/Germany/France 1993 105m colour
Metro Tartan/Constantin/Torii/Sylvia Montalti/Laurentic (Bee Gilbert, Ene Vanaveski)

After their parents die, a teenage boy and girl, while trying to look after their younger brothers and sisters, begin an incestuous affair.
A cool, distanced and unsettling account of adolescent angst and sexuality, notable for some excellent acting.
wd Andrew Birkin novel Ian McEwan

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆Cast in approximate order of importance · †Points of interest · ♫Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

ph Stephen Blackman m Edward Shearmur pd Bernd Lepel ed Toby Tremlett

☆ Andrew Robertson, Charlotte Gainsbourg, Alice Coulthard, Ned Birkin, Sinead Cusack, Hanns Zischler, Jochen Horst, Gareth Brown, William Hootkins

'Neither a black comedy nor a horror story, but a delicate and beautifully filmed and performed account of the innocence and confusions of youth, within an adult world, unlikely to be mature enough to comprehend it.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

† Birkin won the award for best director at the Berlin Film Festival.

Cemetery Man ★

France/Italy 1994 100m Eastmancolor Technovision
KG/Canal+/Audifilm/Urania (Tilde Corsi, Gianni Romoli, Michele Soavi)

original title: Dellamorte Dellamore

The watchman at a cemetery where the dead rise from their graves after seven days begins an affair with a beautiful young widow when she visits her newly buried husband.

A horror film that is more original than most, as it veers between elegance and extreme goriness, eroticism and necrophilia, camp humour and sudden shock, coarseness and mysticism. It is not, however, for the squeamish.

w Gianni Romoli novel Tiziano Sclavi d Michele Soavi ph Mauro Marchetti m Manuel de Sica pd Antonello Geleng ed Franco Fraticelli sp Sergio Stivaletti

☆ Rupert Everett, François Hadji-Lazaro, Anna Falci, Mickey Knox, Fabiana Formica, Clive Riche, Katja Anton, Stefano Masciarelli

'A hip, offbeat horror item floating on a bed of dark philosophy.' – Variety

Centennial Summer ★★

US 1946 102m Technicolor
TCF (Otto Preminger)

A Philadelphia family responds to the Great Exposition of 1876.

Pleasing family comedy with music, the kind of harmless competence Hollywood used to throw off with ease but can no longer manage.

w Michael Kanin novel Albert E. Idell d Otto Preminger ph Ernest Palmer m Alfred Newman m/ly Jerome Kern, Oscar Hammerstein II, E. Y. Harburg, Leo Robin

☆ Jeanne Crain, Cornel Wilde, Linda Darnell, William Eythe, Walter Brennan, Constance Bennett, Dorothy Gish

† Jeanne Crain's songs were dubbed by Louanne Hogan.

Alfred Newman; song 'All Through the Day' (m Jerome Kern, ly Oscar Hammerstein II)

The Center of the World

US 2001 88m colour
Momentum/Redeemable Features (Peter Newman, Wayne Wang)

GB title: The Centre of the World

An internet millionaire and a stripper spend a dirty weekend in Las Vegas.

Filmed in muddy digital video, this murky study of the commercialisation of relationships irritates more than it enlightens.

w Ellen Benjamin Wong d Wayne Wang ph Mauro Fiore pd Donald Graham Burt ed Lee Percy

☆ Peter Sarsgaard (Richard Longman), Molly Parker (Florence), Carla Gugino (Jerri), Balthazar Getty (Brian Pivano)

'A movie that illustrates what I've already noted... Namely how the sewage of pornographic movies is now infiltrating mainstream cinema.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

'Even at their sweatiest and most naked, the characters never exhale the humidity of real life. Instead they breathe the thin, parched air of an abstract, literary point of view that can only touch life by condescending to it.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

'Life Doesn't Hold Tryouts.'

Center Stage

US/Germany 2000 116m DeLuxe Panavision
Columbia (Laurence Mark)

The trials, tribulations and triumphs of students at the American Ballet Academy in New York.

Even non-dancers will find this offstage and backstage story familiar from A Chorus Line, The Turning Point and dozens of other movies: all the old clichés are dusted off and given another glamorous outing.

w Carol Heikkinen d Nicholas Hytner ph Geoffrey Simpson m George Fenton ch Susan Stroman, Christopher Wheeldon pd David Gropman ed Tariq Anwar cos Ruth Myers

☆ Amanda Schull (Jody), Zoe Saldana (Eva), Susan May Pratt (Maureen), Peter Gallagher (Jonathan), Donna Murphy (Juliette), Debra Monk (Nancy), Ethan Stiefel (Cooper), Sascha Radetsky (Charlie), Julie Kent (Kathleen), Ilia Kulik (Sergei), Eion Bailey (Jim), Shakiem Evans (Erik), Elizabeth Hubbard (Joan Miller), Victor Anthony (Thomas)

'Terrible, yet it's such fun that its clichés and unintentional hilarity cease to matter after a while.' – Empire

Central Airport

US 1933 75m bw
Warner

After the war the only job an ace pilot can get is as 'chauffeur' to a lady parachutist.

Rather stiff romantic drama with aeronautics thrown in.

w Rian James, James Seymour story Hawk's Mate by Jack Moffitt d William A. Wellman ph Sid Hickox md Leo F. Forbstein ad Jack Okey ed James Morley

☆ Richard Barthelmess, Sally Eilers, Tom Brown, Glenda Farrell, Harold Huber

'The aerial excitement should bring sufficient response to bring it over to the right side of the box office.' – Variety

Central Do Brasil: see Central Station

Central Park

US 1932 57m bw
Warner

Stories of life in New York's park.

Nifty portmanteau which moves fast and does not bore.

w Ward Morehouse, Earl Baldwin d John Adolfi

☆ Joan Blondell, Guy Kibbee, Wallace Ford, Henry B. Walthall, Patricia Ellis, Spencer Charters

Central Station ★★★

Brazil/France 1998 110m colour
'Scope
MACT/Videofilms/Riofilme/Canal+ (Arthur Cohn, Martine de Clermont-Tonnerre)

original title: Central Do Brasil

A cynical elderly former schoolteacher accompanies a young boy across Brazil in search of his father.

A delight – a charming, but tough, study in loss and redemption, wise, witty and compassionate without losing touch with the harsher realities of life.

w João Emanuel Carneiro, Marcos Bernstein idea Walter Salles d Walter Salles ph Walter Carvalho m Antonio Pinto, Jaques Morelembaum pd Cassio Amarante, Carla Caffe ed Isabelle Rathery, Felipe Lacerda

☆ Fernanda Montenegro (Dora), Marilia Pera (Irene), Vinicius de Oliveira (Josue), Soia Lira (Ana), Othon Bastos (Bastos), Otavio Augusto (Pedrao), Stela Freitas (Yolanda), Matheus Nachtergaele (Isaias), Caio Junqueria (Moises)

'A melancholy Brazilian road movie shot through with gently stressed cultural commentary.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'Shrewd, tough and big-hearted.' – David Denby, New Yorker

† A Region 1 DVD has commentary by Walter Salles, Fernanda Montenegro, and Arthur Cohn.

foreign-language film; Fernanda Montenegro foreign-language film

Century ★

GB 1994 112m colour
Electric/BBC/Beambright (Therese Pickard)

At the end of the 19th century, a Jewish doctor goes to work at a research institute where the doctor in charge is sterilizing poor women to prevent them breeding.

An interesting drama of the beginning of the 20th century, but one that often seems too diagrammatic in its concerns to be convincing.

wd Stephen Poliakoff ph Witold Stok m Michael Gibbs pd Michael Pickwoad ed Michael Parkinson

☆ Charles Dance, Clive Owen, Miranda Richardson, Robert Stephens, Joan Hickson, Lena Headey, Neil Stuke, Liza Walker

'Deserves to be celebrated for its effortless integration of contemporary issues – immigration, genetic engineering in the broadest sense of that phrase – with a convincing historical story.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

'While rarely less than intelligent and provocative, Century is frequently implausible – dramatically, psychologically and historically.' – Philip French, Observer

Le Cercle Rouge: see The Red Circle

La Cérémonie ★★

France/Germany 1995 112m colour
Gala/MK2/France3/Prokino/Olga/ZDF (Marin Karmitz)

aka: A Judgement in Stone

Two women, an illiterate new housekeeper to a wealthy couple and the local postmistress, form a close friendship and begin to resent those in authority over them.

A deft psychological thriller, sympathetic towards its apparently servile rebels, and enjoying the way that its middle-class characters get their come-uppance.

w Claude Chabrol, Caroline Eliacheff novel A Judgement in Stone by Ruth Rendell d Claude Chabrol ph Bernard Zitzermann m Matthieu Chabrol ad Daniel Mercier ed Monique Fardoulis

☆ Sandrine Bonnaire, Isabelle Huppert, Jean-Pierre Cassel, Jacqueline Bisset, Virginie Ledoyen, Jean-François Perrier

'Deliriously nasty.' – Sunday Times

The Ceremony

US/Spain 1963 107m bw
UA/Magla (Laurence Harvey)

In a Tangier jail, a bank robber awaits the firing squad, but he and his brother have an escape plan.

Murky and pretentious melodrama with aspirations to high style and symbolism. A bore.

w Ben Barzman novel Frederic Grendel d Laurence Harvey ph Oswald Morris m Gerard Schurmann

☆ Laurence Harvey, Sarah Miles, Robert Walker, John Ireland, Ross Martin, Lee Patterson, Jack MacGowran, Murray Melvin, Fernando Rey

A Certain Smile ★

US 1958 105m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
TCF (Henry Ephron)

A girl student falls in love with her philandering uncle.

Another sordid novella by Françoise Sagan (see Bonjour Tristesse*), transformed by Hollywood into a glowing romantic saga of life among the Riviera rich. On this level, very competent.*

w Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett d Jean Negulesco ph Milton Krasner m Alfred Newman ad Lyle R. Wheeler, John DeCuir

☆ Christine Carere, Rossano Brazzi, Joan Fontaine, Bradford Dillman, Eduard Franz, Kathryn Givney, Steve Geray

title song (m Sammy Fain, ly Paul Francis Webster); art direction

Cervantes

Spain/Italy/France 1968 119m Eastmancolor Supertotalvision
Prisma/Protor/Procinex (Alexander Salkind)

US title: The Young Rebel

Cervantes, an assistant papal envoy, helps persuade Philip of Spain to join the Holy League, then turns soldier and has various adventures.

Rather boring spectacular with conventional set-pieces.

w Enrique Llovet, Enrico Bomba novel Bruno Frank d Vincent Sherman ph Edmond Richard m Jean Ledrut ad Enrique Alarcon, Luciano De Nardi ed Margarita Ochoa

☆ Horst Buchholz (Miguel de Cervantes), Gina Lollobrigida (Giulia), Louis Jourdan (Cardinal Acquaviva), José Ferrer (Hassam Bey), Fernando Rey (King Philip II of Spain), Francisco Rabal (Rodrigo de Cervantes), Soledad Miranda (Nessa), Maurice de Canonge (Antonio Casa)

César ★★★★

France 1936 117m bw
La Société des Films Marcel Pagnol

A son sets out to find his real father, who returns home after 20 years of unhappy exile.

The triumphant climax of Pagnol's trilogy, marked with the same wit, warmth and humanity as the previous episodes.

wd Marcel Pagnol ph Willy m Vincent Scotto ad Galibert ed Suzanne de Troeye, Jeanette Ginestet

☆ Raimu (Cesar Olivier), Orane Demazis (Fanny), Pierre Fresnay (Marius), Fernard Charpin (Honore Panisse), André Fouché (Cesariot), Alida Rouffe (Honorine Cabinis), Robert Vattier (M. Brun), Auguste Mouriès, Milly Mathis (Aunt Claudine

Foulon), Maupi (Chauffeur), Edouard Delmont (Dr. Felicien Venelle), Paul Dulac (Felix Escartefigue)
† This was the third film in Pagnol's Marseilles trilogy, following Marius and Fanny (qqv).

César and Rosalie ★

France/Italy/West Germany 1972 105m Eastmancolor
Fildebroc/UPS/Mega Paramount/Orion (Michèle de Broca)

A divorcee living with a rich merchant becomes attracted to a young artist. Unexpectedly, the two become friends...
Wryly amusing comedy for adults.
w Jean-Loup Dabadie, Claude Sautet d Claude Sautet ph Jean Boffety m Philippe Sarde
☆ Yves Montand, Romy Schneider, Sami Frey, Umberto Orsini

C'est arrivé près de chez vous: see Man Bites Dog

C'est la Vie ★

France 1990 96m colour Panavision
Electric/Contemporary/Alexandre/SGGC/A2/CNC (Alexandre Arcady) original title: La Baule-les pins

During a summer holiday, two sisters are onlookers at the end of their parents' marriage as their mother begins a romance with a younger man.
A slight domestic tale, but filmed with some charm and humour.
w Diane Kurys, Alain Le Henry d Diane Kurys ph Giuseppe Lanci m Philippe Sarde ad Tony Egry ed Raymonde Guyot
☆ Nathalie Baye, Richard Berry, Zabou, Jean-Pierre Bacri, Vincent Lindon, Valéria Bruni-Tedeschi, Didier Benureau, Julie Bataille, Candice Lefranc

Ceux Qui M';aiment Prendront le Train: see Those Who Love Me Can Take the train

Chacun cherche son chat: see When the Cat's Away

Chad Hanna ★

US 1940 86m Technicolor
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck, Nunnally Johnson)

Life in a New York state circus in the 1840s.
Mild romantic drama from a bestseller; local colour excellent, dramatic interest thin.
w Nunnally Johnson novel Red Wheels Rolling by Walter D. Edmonds d Henry King ph Ernest Palmer m David Buttolph
☆ Henry Fonda, Dorothy Lamour, Linda Darnell, Guy Kibbee, Jane Darwell, John Carradine, Ted North, Roscoe Ates

The Chain ★

GB 1984 100m Eastmancolor
Quintet/County Bank/Channel 4 (Victor Glynn)

Seven groups of people, corresponding to the seven deadly sins, are involved in a house-moving chain.
Rather tedious and predictable 'all star' comedy with effective moments but no narrative command.
w Jack Rosenthal d Jack Gold
ph Wolfgang Suschitzky m Stanley Myers ☆ Denis Lawson, Maurice Denham, Nigel Hawthorne, Billie Whitelaw, Judy Parfitt, Leo McKern, Warren Mitchell, Gary Waldhorn, Anna Massey

Chain Lightning

US 1950 94m bw
Warner (Anthony Veiller)

After World War II a bomber pilot learns how to control the new jets.
Absolutely routine romance and heroics.
w Liam O'Brien, Vincent Evans story J. Redmond Prior (Lester Cole) d Stuart Heisler ph Ernest Haller m David Buttolph
☆ Humphrey Bogart, Eleanor Parker, Raymond Massey, Richard Whorf, James Brown, Roy Roberts, Morris Ankrum
† Lester Cole used a pseudonym because he was blacklisted at the time.

Chain of Desire

US 1992 107m Technicolor
Distant Horizon/Anant Singh (Brian Cox)

Sexual permutations link a group of 14 people.
A bisexual updating of La Ronde for the AIDS generation, among people given over to the kinkier forms of sex; for all that its treatment tends to the unsophisticated and lacks any sense of irony.
wd Temistocles Lopez ph Nancy Schreiber m Nathan Birnbaum pd Scott Chambliss ed Suzanne Fenn
☆ Linda Fiorentino, Elias Koteas, Tim Guinee, Grace Zabriskie, Assumpta Serna, Patrick Bauchau, Seymour Cassel, Malcolm McDowell

'An uneven but alluringly sexy melodrama that gets better as it goes along.' – Variety
'Avoid.' – Empire

The Chain Reaction

Australia 1980 90m colour
Palm Beach (David Elfick)

aka: Nuclear Run

A scientist dying from a fatal dose of radiation in an accident at a nuclear plant attempts to warn the public of the danger they face from contaminated water.
Paranoid thriller that tries too hard to conjure up a sinister atmosphere of multinational conspiracies; with its mute assassin, amnesiac scientist and interminable car chases, it swiftly becomes absurd.
wd Ian Barry ph Russell Boyd m Andrew Thomas Wilson ad Graham Walker
ed Tim Wellburn
☆ Steve Bisley, Arna-Maria Winchester, Ross Thompson, Ralph Cotterill, Hugh Keays-Byrne, Lorna Lesley, Richard Moir
† George Miller, director of Mad Max, was responsible for second-unit direction.

Chain Reaction

US 1996 106m colour Panavision
TCF/Zanuck Co./Chicago Pacific (Arne L. Schmidt, Andrew Davis)

After discovering how to make limitless energy from water, scientists go on the run from secret agents who plan to kill them.
In the tradition of recent action movies, the narrative is paranoid and impenetrable, and the action is spectacular; but it's a chase movie that leads nowhere interesting.
w Josh Friedman, J. F. Lawton, Michael Bortman d Andrew Davis ph Frank Tidy m Jerry Goldsmith pd Maher Ahmad ed Donald Brochu, Dov Hoenig, Arthur Schmidt sp Digital Domain
☆ Keanu Reeves, Morgan Freeman, Rachel Weisz, Fred Ward, Brian Cox, Kevin Dunn, Joanna Cassidy, Chelcie Ross

'One attends this sort of claptrap for the delights of overscaled technological barbarism; and indeed the exploding megatonnage in the opening and closing sequences is shot and edited to knock you out of your seat.' – Peter Matthews, Sight and Sound

Chaindance

Canada 1991 110m colour
R&R/Telefilm Canada/BC (Richard Davis)

An armed robber in a tough prison learns the error of his ways after being involved in a rehabilitation programme, working in a home for the handicapped.
Often brutal drama that, in trying to avoid sentimentality, ascends into heated melodrama and loses credibility.
w Alan Aylward, Michael Ironside d Allan A. Goldstein ph Tobias Schliessler m Graeme Coleman pd Phil Schmidt ed Allan Lee ☆ Michael Ironside, Rae Dawn Chong, Brad Dourif, Bruce Glover, Ken Pogue, Sheila Moore, Leslie Carlson

'When she's in his arms, it's the grandest thrill the screen can give!'

Chained ★

US 1934 77m bw
MGM (Hunt Stromberg)

A devoted wife has a shipboard romance with another man.
Moderate star romantic drama.
w John Lee Mahin d Clarence Brown ph George Folsey m Herbert Stothart
☆ Joan Crawford, Clark Gable, Otto Kruger, Stuart Erwin, Una O'Connor, Akim Tamiroff

'Simple in story and unoriginal in idea, its weight is in words rather than action and dramatic potency.' – Variety

Chained for Life

US 1950 70m bw
Classic films

One of two girl Siamese twins is accused of murder.
Real life freak show starring the English Hilton twins (1908–64) who were joined at the hip. Hard to watch because of the subject but otherwise a routine lower-case effort.
w Nat Tanchuck d Harry Fraser
☆ Violet and Daisy Hilton, Allen Jenkins

Chained to Yesterday: see Limbo

The Chairman: see The Most Dangerous Man in the World

Chairman of the Board

US 1998 95m colour Panavision
Trimark/101st Street (Peter M. Lenkov, Rupert Harvey)

A mad inventor helps an old man and inherits a multimillion-dollar corporation, causing annoyance to the man's heirs and associates.
Broad comedy by a gadget-obsessed stand-up comedian, whose appeal does not travel well.
w Al Septien, Turi Meyer, Alex Zamm d Alex Zamm ph David Lewis m Chris Hajian pd Aaron Osborne ed Jim Hill
☆ Carrot Top, Courtney Thorne-Smith, Larry Miller, Raquel Welch, Mystro Clark, Jack Plotnick, Jack Warden, M. Emmet Walsh

'Peppered with the comic's signature gag inventions and enough fart jokes to keep your average 11-year-old in hysterics.' – Glenn Lovell, Variety

A Chairy Tale ★★

Canada 1957 10m bw
National Film Board of Canada

A young man finds that a kitchen chair is unwilling for him to sit on it, but they arrive at a compromise.
The simplest and most effective of fantasies is told at somewhat excessive length but remains among its director's more memorable creations.
wd Norman McLaren
☆ Claude Jutra

The Chalk Garden ★

GB 1964 106m Technicolor
U-I/Quota Rentals (Ross Hunter)

The governess in a melancholy household has an effect on the lives of her aged employer and the young granddaughter.
Sub-Chekhovian drama in a house by the sea, flattened by routine handling into something much less interesting than it was on the stage.
w John Michael Hayes novel Enid Bagnold d Ronald Neame ph Arthur Ibbetson m Malcolm Arnold
☆ Edith Evans, Deborah Kerr, Hayley Mills, John Mills, Felix Aylmer, Elizabeth Sellars, Lally Bowers, Toke Townley

'Crashing symbolism, cracker-motto sententiousness.' – MFB
Edith Evans

The Challenge

US 1948 69m bw
Reliance (TCF)

Bulldog Drummond solves the mystery of a yacht which is stolen after its owner is murdered.
Modest addition to a long-running series.
w Frank Gruber, Irving Elman d Jean Yarbrough
☆ Tom Conway, June Vincent, Richard Stapley

The Challenge

GB 1960 89m bw
John Temple-Smith/Alexandra

US title: It Takes a Thief

In search of buried loot, a lady gangster kidnaps a convict's son.
Murky and unsympathetic melodrama.
wd John Gilling
☆ Jayne Mansfield, Anthony Quayle, Carl Mohner, Barbara Mullen, Peter Reynolds, Dermot Walsh

The Challenge

US 1982 112m Eastmancolor
CBS Theatrical Film Group (Lyle Poncher, Robert L. Rosen, Ron Beckman)

An American boxer in Japan becomes involved in a feud between two brothers.
Belated martial arts saga with a good deal of head-lopping and plenty of pretensions but no apparent message to spike its dismal entertainment values.
w Richard Maxwell, John Sayles d John Frankenheimer ph Kozo Okazaki m Jerry Goldsmith pd Yoshiyuki Ishida ed Jack Wheeler
☆ Scott Glenn, Toshiro Mifune, Donna Kei Benz, Atsuo Nakamura, Calvin Young, Clyde Kusatsu

'Ridiculous, demeaning stuff.' – Guardian

A Challenge for Robin Hood ★

GB 1967 96m Technicolor
Hammer (Clifford Parkes)

A retelling of the original Robin Hood legend.
Unassuming, lively, predictable adventure hokum.
w Peter Bryan d C. M. Pennington-Richards ph Arthur Grant m Gary Hughes ☆ Barrie Ingham, James Hayter, Leon

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Greene, John Arnatt, Peter Blythe, Gay Hamilton, William Squire

'Daring! Dangerous! Death-Defying!'

Challenge to Lassie ★

US 1949 76m Technicolor
MGM (Robert Sisk)

In Edinburgh in the 1860s, a sheepdog keeps vigil over the grave of its dead master.
Well-made sentimental tale, inspired by the story of Greyfriars Bobbie (which was later filmed), though it's possible that its winsome charm may no longer find a receptive audience.
w William Ludwig novel Greyfriars Bobby by Eleanor Atkinson d Richard Thorpe ph Charles Schoenbaum m André Previn ad Cedric Gibbons, Eddie Imazu ed George White
☆ Edmund Gwenn, Donald Crisp, Geraldine Brooks, Reginald Owen, Alan Webb, Ross Ford, Henry Stephenson, Alan Napier, Sara Allgood, Lassie
† Eleanor Atkinson's novel, originally about a Skye terrier, was also filmed in 1961 as Greyfriars Bobby (qv).

The Chamber ★

US 1996 110m DeLuxe Panavision
Universal/Imagine/Brian Grazer/Davis Entertainment (John Davis, Brian Grazer, Ron Howard)

A young lawyer, whose father killed himself, tries to prevent his grandfather, convicted of a racist atrocity, from being executed.
Unconvincing and rather plodding drama, though Hackman's performance almost manages to keep one's interest alive.
w William Goldman, Chris Reese novel John Grisham d James Foley ph Ian Baker m Carter Burwell pd David Brisbin ed Mark Warner
☆ Chris O'Donnell, Gene Hackman, Faye Dunaway, Robert Prosky, Lela Rochon, Raymond Barry, Bo Jackson, David Marshall Grant, Nicholas Pryor, Harve Presnell
'An intelligently proficient thriller that works more effectively as a family drama than a legal thriller.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety † Grisham was paid $3.7m for his story outline, before writing the novel. The film cost around $45m and took $14.5m at the US box-office.

Chamber of Horrors: see The Door with Seven Locks (1940)

'The unspeakable vengeance of the crazed Baltimore strangler!'

Chamber of Horrors

US 1966 99m Warnercolor
Warner (Hy Averback)

A maniacal murderer is finally trapped by two amateur criminologists who run a wax museum in Baltimore.
Zany horror thriller originally meant for TV; it turned out a shade too harrowing. Advertised as 'the picture with the Fear Flasher and the Horror Horn', shock gimmicks which proved much more startling than the crude events they heralded.
w Stephen Kandel d Hy Averback ph Richard Kline m William Lava
☆ Patrick O'Neal, Cesare Danova, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Laura Devon, Patrice Wymore, Suzy Parker, Jeanette Nolan, Tony Curtis

Chamber of Tortures: see Baron Blood

La Chambre des Officiers ★★

France 2001 134m colour
Optimum/ARP/France2/Canal+ (Michele and Laurent Petin)

GB title: The Officers' Ward

Disfigured by an exploding bomb during the First World War, a young officer spends five years in hospital and tries to come to terms with his scarred face.
Moving, understated account of the traumas of physical deformity and their effect on disfigured and the wider world.
wd François Dupeyron novel La Chambre des officiers by Marc Dugain ph Tetsuo Nagata m Arvo Part ad Patrick Durand ed Dominique Faysse sp make-up fx: Dominique Colladant
☆ Eric Caravaca (Adrien), Denis Podalydes (Henri), Gregori Derangere (Pierre), Sabine Azema (Anais), Andre Dussollier (The Surgeon), Marguerite (Isabelle Renauld), Geraldine Pailhas (Clemence), Jean-Michel Portal (Alain)
'A gem of a movie by any standards...superbly furnished, passionately acted, and exquisitely photographed and lit.' – Peter Bradshaw,Guardian

'Don't fail to get a ringside seat!'
'The knockout picture of the year!'

The Champ ★

US 1931 87m bw
MGM (Harry Rapf)

A young boy has faith in a washed-up prizefighter.
Maudlin drama, highly commercial in its day and a box-office tonic for its two stars. Remade as The Clown (qv).
w Leonard Praskins, Frances Marion d King Vidor ph Gordon Avil ☆ Wallace Beery, Jackie Cooper, Irene Rich, Roscoe Ates, Edward Brophy
'This picture will hit 'em all, large or small, and that means lots of money.' – Variety original story (Frances Marion); Wallace Beery best picture; King Vidor

The Champ ★

US 1979 122m Metrocolor
MGM (Dyson Lovell)

A remake of the 1931 movie of a boy's belief in a washed-up fighter, with Florida racetrack asides.
A lush version, so little updated in mood that its tearfulness seems to have strayed from another age.
w Walter Newman d Franco Zeffirelli ph Fred J. Koenekamp m Dave Grusin pd Herman A. Blumenthal
☆ Jon Voight, Faye Dunaway, Ricky Schroder, Jack Warden, Arthur Hill, Strother Martin, Joan Blondell, Elisha Cook
Dave Grusin

Champagne ★

GB 1928 90m (24 fps) bw silent
BIP (John Maxwell)

A millionaire pretends to be bankrupt so that his daughter won't marry.
Tedious comedy drama with very few of the master's touches.
w Eliot Stannard, Walter C. Mycroft, Alfred Hitchcock d Alfred Hitchcock ph Jack Cox
☆ Betty Balfour, Jean Bradin, Gordon Harker, Theodore von Alten
'Dreadful.' – Alfred Hitchcock

Champagne Charlie

US 1936 60m bw
TCF (Edward T. Lowe)

A gambler double-crosses the gangsters who financed him to seduce and marry an heiress.
Efficient, fast-moving 'B'-movie thriller.
w Allen Rivkin d James Tinling ph Daniel B. Clark md Samuel Kaylin ad Duncan Cramer, Lewis Creber ed Nick de Maggio
☆ Paul Cavanagh, Helen Wood, Thomas Beck, Minna Gombell, Herbert Mundin, Noel Madison

Champagne Charlie ★

GB 1944 107m bw
Ealing (John Croydon)

The life of Victorian music hall singer George Leybourne and his rivalry with the Great Vance.
Careful period reconstruction and good songs and acting are somehow nullified by unsympathetic handling and photography.
w Austin Melford, Angus Macphail, John Dighton d Alberto Cavalcanti ph Wilkie Cooper md Ernest Irving ad Michael Relph
☆ Tommy Trinder, Stanley Holloway, Betty Warren, Austin Trevor, Jean Kent, Guy Middleton, Frederick Piper, Harry Fowler, James Robertson Justice
'Cavalcanti's taste for the bizarre and the vigour of the performances make it something more than a museum piece.' – Time Out, 1984

Champagne for Caesar ★

US 1950 99m bw
Cardinal (George Moskov)

A self-confessed genius with a grudge against a soap company determines to win astronomical sums on its weekly radio quiz.
Agreeable, mildly satirical star comedy which tends to peter out halfway.
w Hans Jacoby, Fred Brady d Richard Whorf ph Paul Ivano m Dimitri Tiomkin
☆ Ronald Colman, Vincent Price, Celeste Holm, Barbara Britton, Art Linkletter

Champagne for Everybody: see Here Come the Girls

The Champagne Murders

France 1967 107m Techniscope
Universal (France) (Jacques Natteau) original title: Le Scandale

A disturbed champagne millionaire thinks he may be a murderer.
Complex but uninvolving mystery story in which the director's eye seems to be more on satire than on narrative.
w Claude Brûlé, Derek Prouse, Paul Gégauff story William Benjamin d Claude Chabrol ph Jean Rabier m Pierre Jansen ad Rino Mondellini ed Jacques Gaillard
☆ Anthony Perkins, Maurice Ronet, Stéphane Audran, Yvonne Furneaux, Suzanne Lloyd

'As gay and sparkling as a champagne cocktail!'

Champagne Waltz

US 1937 90m bw
Paramount (Harlan Thompson)

A press agent takes a swing band to Vienna.
Rather tedious romantic comedy with music.
w Don Hartman, Frank Butler story Billy Wilder, H. S. Kraft d A. Edward Sutherland ph William Mellor ed Paul Weatherwax
☆ Fred MacMurray, Gladys Swarthout, Jack Oakie
'On the slow side, but should do fairly.' – Variety

'This is the only sport in the world where two guys get paid for doing something they'd be arrested for if they got drunk and did it for nothing.'

Champion ★★

US 1949 99m bw
Stanley Kramer

An ambitious prizefighter alienates his friends and family, and dies of injuries received in the ring.
Interesting exposé of the fight racket, presented in good cinematic style and acted with great bravura.
w Carl Foreman story Ring Lardner d Mark Robson ph Franz Planer m Dimitri Tiomkin ed Harry Gerstad
☆ Kirk Douglas, Arthur Kennedy, Marilyn Maxwell, Paul Stewart, Ruth Roman, Lola Albright, Luis Van Rooten
'Even though the film isn't up to the material on which it is based, it still has a good many points to recommend it.' – John McCarten, New Yorker
Harry Gerstad
Carl Foreman; Franz Planer; Dimitri Tiomkin; Kirk Douglas; Arthur Kennedy

Champions ★

GB 1983 115m colour
Embassy/Archerwest/Ladbroke/United British Artists (Peter Shaw, Eva Monley)

A leading jockey develops cancer and his horse receives a leg injury, but both survive to win the Grand National.
Gruelling factual story which could have done with a little more drama, not to mention a more sympathetic hero.
w Evan Jones book Bob Champion, Jonathan Powell d John Irvin ph Ronnie Taylor m Carl Davis
☆ John Hurt, Edward Woodward, Ben Johnson, Jan Francis, Peter Barkworth, Ann Bell, Judy Parfitt
'It ignores any inner aspect, the better to concentrate on tearjerking externals.' – Tom Milne, MFB
'Told as an indecent tearjerker, directed with the discretion of a rampaging steamroller.' – Sight and Sound

Champions: see The Mighty Ducks (1992)

Chan Is Missing ★

US 1981 80m bw
Wayne Wang Productions/Wayne Wang

In San Francisco, two Chinese-American cab drivers search for a friend who has disappeared with $4,000 of their money.
Rambling but engaging in its different perspective on America.
w Isaac Cronin, Wayne Wang, Terrel Seltzer d Wayne Wang ph Michael Chin m Robert Kikuchi-Yngojo
☆ Wood Moy, Marc Hayashi, Lauren Chew, Peter Wang, George Woo

Chance Meeting: see The Young Lovers (1954)

Chance Meeting: see Blind Date (1959)

Chance of a Lifetime ★

GB 1950 93m bw
Pilgrim Pictures (Bernard Miles)

The owner of a small engineering works, impatient with the unionism of his men, gives them a chance to run the factory themselves.
Quiet comedy-drama on sub-Ealing lines;

always interesting, it never quite catches fire despite a reliable cast.
w Walter Greenwood, Bernard Miles d Bernard Miles ph Eric Cross ☆ Bernard Miles, Basil Radford, Niall MacGinnis, Geoffrey Keen, Julien Mitchell, Josephine Wilson, Kenneth More, Hattie Jacques
'The film's triumph lies in the integrity with which it draws its picture of factory life and it is flawlessly acted.' – The Times
'It held me from beginning to end. I found it amusing, exciting and at times moving enough to raise some embarrassing and surreptitious tears.' – Milton Shulman
'British workmen are shown for the first time as characters, not comic caricatures. They are authentic, breezy and warm, sympathetically played by comparatively fresh actors.' – Richard Winnington
† The major circuits in Britain refused to give a showing to this independent movie, which was made at a cost of £150,000, on the grounds that it wasn't entertaining. They were forced to do so after its director appealed to the Film Selection Committee.

Chance or Coincidence ★
France/Canada 1998 121m colour Panavision
Films13/TFI/SDA/UGC/Neuilly/FCC (Claude Lelouch) original title: Hasards ou Coincidences
A man becomes infatuated with a ballerina he sees on some stolen video-tapes.
A melodramatic narrative, of loss and grief, betrayal and unexpected love, all hinging on unlikely accidents, is offset by some luxuriant scene-setting; the result is a feast for the eyes, but not the mind.
wd Claude Lelouch ph Pierre-William Glenn m Francis Lai, Claude Bolling ch Richard Wherlock ed Hélène du Luze
☆ Alessandra Martines (Myriam Lini), Pierre Arditi (Pierre Turi), Marc Hollonge (Marc Deschamps), Laurent Hilaire (Laurent), Véronique Moreau (Catherine Desvilles), Patrick Labbé (Michel Bonhomme), Geoffrey Holder (Gerry), Luigi Bonino (Mauro Lini)
'Full of staggering images as well as entrancing techniques to constantly engage the audience.' – Alan Jones, Film Review

Chances ★
US 1931 72m bw
Warner
In wartime London, two soldiers on leave fall for the same girl.
Unexpectedly sensitive and pleasing romance, generally well handled.
w Waldemar Young novel Hamilton Gibbs d Allan Dwan ☆ Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Anthony Bushell, Rose Hobart
'Enough contributing sidelights to keep the emphasis away from the combat ... should be pleasant b.o.' – Variety

Chances Are
US 1989 108m Metrocolor
Tri-Star (Mike Lobell)
A widow realizes that her daughter's boyfriend is the reincarnation of her dead husband.
Excessively contrived romantic comedy; we have all been here before and there is nothing noteworthy about this particular variation on a familiar theme.
w Perry Howze, Randy Howze d Emile Ardolino ph William A. Fraker m Maurice Jarre pd Dennis Washington ed Harry Keramidas
☆ Cybill Shepherd, Robert Downey Jnr, Ryan O'Neal, Mary Stewart Masterson, Christopher McDonald, Josef Sommer, Joe Grifasi, Henderson Forsythe
♪ song 'Chances Are' (m/l Tom Snow, Dean Pitchford)

Chandler
US 1971 88m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM
An ex-private eye becomes a security guard and an alcoholic but even worse befalls when he agrees to keep an eye on a government witness.
Downbeat, generally unamusing and little seen piece of thick ear which harks back unsuccessfully to the forties.
w John Sacret Young d Paul Magwood
☆ Warren Oates, Leslie Caron, Alex Dreier, Mitchell Ryan, Gordon Pinsent, Charles McGraw, Richard Loo, Walter Burke, Gloria Grahame, Royal Dano, Scatman Crothers

Chandu the Magician ★
US 1932 74m bw
Fox
A spiritualist battles against a madman with a death ray which could destroy the world.
Rather dim serial-like thriller, with interesting talent not at its best.
w Philip Klein, Barry Conners d Marcel Varnel, William Cameron Menzies ph James Wong Howe m Louis de Francesco
☆ Edmund Lowe, Bela Lugosi, Irene Ware, Herbert Mundin, Henry B. Walthall † Sequels (whittled down from serials) include The Return of Chandu and Chandu and the Magic Isle.

Chanel Solitaire
France/GB 1981 124m colour
Gardenia/Todrest (Larry G. Spangler)
Fashion designer Coco Chanel thinks back on her long career.
Moderately elegant but frigid autobiopic with very little entertainment value.
w Julian More novel Claude Dulay d George Kaczender ph Ricardo Aronovich m Jean Musy
☆ Marie-France Pisier, Timothy Dalton, Rutger Hauer, Karen Black, Brigitte Fossey
'The producer says the film is devoted to providing what every woman wants – men, money, jewellery, castles, caviare, champagne and love, love, love. I never realized they could be so boring.' – Sunday Times

Chang ★★
US 1927 71m (24 fps) bw silent
Paramount
The life of a rice-grower in Thailand.
Influential but now rather boring documentary with animal interest.
wd/ph/ed Merian C. Cooper, Ernest B. Schoedsack
'I can remember no more terrible adventure in the kinema than the moment in the middle of Chang when suddenly the curtains divide, and the screen seems to swell and tremble and burst its bounds, and the great herd of elephants comes trampling out of the picture and bears down upon us in a multitude of tossing trunks and angry feet.' – C. A. Lejeune
♪ Unique and Artistic Picture

Change of Habit
US 1969 97m colour
Universal
A young doctor working in a ghetto has his opinions changed by three nuns.
A notably unsuccessful attempt by a star to change his image. w James Lee, S. S. Schweitzer, Eric Bercovici d William Graham ph Russell Metty m Billy Goldenberg ad Alexander Golitzen ed Douglas Stewart
☆ Elvis Presley, Mary Tyler Moore, Barbara McNair, Ed Asner, Leora Dana, Jane Elliot, Robert Emhardt

Change of Heart
US 1937 65m bw
TCF (Sol M. Wurtzel)
A bored man and wife go their separate ways but are eventually reconciled.
Bright little comedy on a tired old theme.
w Frances Hyland, Albert Ray d James Tinling
☆ Michael Whalen, Gloria Stuart, Lyle Talbot, Jane Darwell
'More originality, freshness of treatment and solid entertainment than in half the more expensive efforts from the Hollywood studios.' – Variety

Change of Heart: see Hit Parade of 1943 (1943)

Change of Mind
US 1969 98m Eastmancolor
Sagittarius (Seeleg Lester, Richard Wesson)
The life of a liberal white DA can only be 'saved' by transplanting his brain into the body of a dead black man.
Fantasy melodrama with a social conscience, about a half-and-half which is acceptable to neither whites nor blacks. Very obvious and rather boring.
w Seeleg Lester, Richard Wesson d Robert Stevens ph Arthur J. Ornitz m Duke Ellington
☆ Raymond St Jacques, Susan Oliver, Janet McLachlan, Leslie Nielsen

A Change of Seasons
US 1980 102m DeLuxe
TCF/Martin Ransohoff/Film Finance Group Ltd
A college professor takes a mistress and his wife retaliates.
Zestless and unhumorous rehash of Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? and Bob and Carol and Ted and Alice. Not a new thought anywhere.
w Erich Segal, Ronni Kern, Fred Segal d Richard Lang ph Philip Lathrop m Henry Mancini pd Bill Kenney
☆ Shirley MacLaine, Anthony Hopkins, Bo Derek, Michael Brandon, Mary Beth Hurt, Ed Winter
'A tired rehash of themes that might have been provocative a decade ago ... it would take a Lubitsch to do justice to the incredibly tangled relationships.' – Variety
'The situation soon melts into a gooey mess, like a Mars bar left too long in a trouser pocket.' – Sunday Times

The Changeling
Canada 1979 107m colour Panavision
Chessman Palk Productions (Joel B. Michaels, Garth H. Drabinsky)
A widowed academic takes on an old house haunted by the spirit of a murdered child.
Tedious and not very brief, this uninspired ghost story comes very late in the horror stakes and contains very little to make one care about its outcome.
w William Gray, Diana Maddox d Peter Medak ph John Coquillon m Rick Wilkins ☆ George C. Scott, Melvyn Douglas, Trish Van Devere, John Colicos, Jean Marsh, Barry Morse
'None of its most eerily untoward occurrences proceed from any spectral intervention, but from the worst abuses of Peter Medak's infuriatingly fidgety camera.' – Gilbert Adair, MFB

Changing Habits
US 1997 95m colour
Teagarden/Initial (Abra Edelman, James Dodson)
An unhappy, shoplifting artist is given a room at a convent, where she secretly paints a mural in an abandoned chapel.
A film about a woman's journey in search of her identity; only the very patient would wish to accompany her.
w Scott Davis Jones d Lynn Roth ph Michael Mayers m David McHugh pd Dena Roth, Gail Bennett ed Susan Godfrey, Clayton Halsey
☆ Moira Kelly, Christopher Lloyd, Dylan Walsh, Shelley Duvall, Bob Gunton, Marissa Ribisif, Anne Hanley, Frances Bay, Eileen Brennan, Teri Garr
'Never locates the charm and depth it hopes for, thanks largely to an unappealingly conceived protagonist.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety

'One Wrong Turn Deserves Another.'

Changing Lanes ★
US 2002 99m DeLuxe Panavision
Paramount (Scott Rudin)
Two men – one an ambitious, high-flying lawyer, the other an insurance salesman and recovering alcoholic – become locked in an escalating battle to do the other down after they are involved in a traffic accident.
A story of urban rancour and impatience that begins by exploring moral dilemmas before declining into Hollywood-style saccharine redemption.
w Chap Taylor, Michael Tolkin d Roger Michell ph Salvatore Totino m David Arnold pd Kristi Zea ed Christopher Tellefsen cos Ann Roth
☆ Ben Affleck (Gavin Banek), Samuel L. Jackson (Doyle Gipson), Toni Collette (Michelle), Sydney Pollack (Delano), William Hurt (Sponsor), Amanda Peet (Cynthia Banek), Richard Jenkins (Walter Arnell), Kim Staunton (Valerie Gipson), John Benjamin Hickey (Carlyle), Jennifer Dundas Lowe (Mina Dunne), Dylan Baker (Finch), Matt Malloy (Ron Cabot)
'Combines a knack for storytelling with a rare instinct for exploring ideas within the framework of a major, star-driven Hollywood movie.' – Robert Koehler, Variety
'The final effect is like having two guys yelling in your face for two hours.' – Peter Travers, Rolling Stone

The Chant of Jimmie Blacksmith ★★★★
Australia 1978 122m Eastmancolor Panavision
Film House (Fred Schepisi)
In 1900, a half-caste mingles with high-class whites, goes berserk, and slaughters several of them with an axe.
A powerful film on the tragedy of an outcast at home in no society, torn between the world he has lost and the one he cannot gain. The violence is shocking, as it is meant to be. It is one of the great achievements of Australian cinema.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♪ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

wd Fred Schepisi novel Thomas Keneally
ph Ian Baker m Bruce Smeaton
pd Wendy Dickson ed Brian Cavanagh
☆ Tommy Lewis (Jimmie Blacksmith), Ray Barrett (Constable Farrell), Jack Thompson (Rev. Neville), Freddy Reynolds (Mort), Angela Punch McGregor (Gilda), Steve Dodds (Tabidgi), Peter Carroll (McCready)
'One of the greatest pieces of political film making I know, because it doesn't impose rhetorical nobility on its characters or twist their lives into social statement.' – Stephen Schiff
'This is a large scale film – a visually, impassioned epic.' – Pauline Kael
'A big film intended for a big audience. On its own terms, it is a powerful indictment of the insidious, pervasive canker of white racism.' – David Wilson, Sight and Sound

'When the system breaks down... someone is about to get rich.'

Chaos
Canada/GB/US 2006 98m colour
Mobius/Chaos (Huw Penalt Jones, Gavin Wilding, Michael Derbas)
An eager young detective is teamed with a tough veteran, back after being suspended for a shooting in which a hostage was killed, to solve a daring bank robbery.
Standard ingredients of a cop thriller – implausible car crashes and chases, violent explosions, gun and fist fights – make a watchable movie, though its intellectual dressing of chaos theory does not disguise its predictability.
wd Tony Giglio ph Richard Greatrex
m Trevor Jones pd Chris August ed Sean Barton
☆ Jason Statham (Quentin Conners), Ryan Phillippe (Shane Dekker), Wesley Snipes (E. Lorenz), Henry Czerny (Capt. Jenkins), Justine Waddell ('Teddy' Galloway), Nicholas Lea (Vincent)

Chapayev ★
USSR 1934 94m bw
Lenfilm
Exploits of a Red Army commander during the 1919 battles.
Moderately striking propaganda piece.
wd Sergei and Georgy Vasiliev
ph Alexander Sigayev m Gavril Popov
☆ Boris Babochkin, B. Blinov, Leonid Kmit
'Easily the best film turned out in Russia since sound.' – Variety

Un Chapeau de Paille d'Italie: see An Italian Straw Hat

'He made the whole world laugh and cry. He will again.'
'Everyone has a wild side. Even a legend.'

Chaplin ★★
GB 1992 145m Technicolor
Guild/Lambeth/Carolco/Studio Canal (Richard Attenborough, Mario Kassar)
In old age, Charlie Chaplin tells the story of his life to a biographer – from his early childhood to his Hollywood triumphs, his exile from America and his honorary Oscar in 1972.
Somewhat stolid biopic that tries to cram in too much of a long life, but which has a fascinating story to tell and often tells it well; it might have been better had it been longer.
w William Boyd, Bryan Forbes, William Goldman book My Autobiography by Charles Chaplin; Chaplin – His Life and Art by David Robinson story Diana Hawkins
d Richard Attenborough ph Sven Nykvist
m John Barry pd Stuart Craig ed Anne V. Coates
☆ Robert Downey Jnr, Dan Aykroyd, Geraldine Chaplin, Kevin Dunn, Anthony Hopkins, Milla Jovovich, Kevin Kline, Diane Lane, Penelope Ann Miller, Paul Rhys, John Thaw, Marisa Tomei, Nancy Travis, James Woods
'Old-fashioned bio-pic does an inadequate job of getting beneath the skin of one of the most famous Englishmen of the century.' – Iain Johnstone, Sunday Times
Robert Downey Jnr; Stuart Craig; John Barry
Robert Downey Jnr

The Chapman Report
US 1962 125m Technicolor
Warner/Darryl F. Zanuck (Richard D. Zanuck)
Dr Chapman conducts a study of female sex behaviour in an American suburb.
Influenced by the Kinsey report, this melodramatic compendium takes itself far too seriously, and the director's smooth style is barely in evidence.
w Wyatt Cooper, Don M. Mankiewicz novel Irving Wallace d George Cukor
ph Harold Lipstein m Leonard Rosenman
☆ Shelley Winters, Claire Bloom, Glynis Johns, Efrem Zimbalist Jnr, Jane Fonda, Ray Danton, Ty Hardin, Andrew Duggan, John Dehner, Henry Daniell, Corey Allen, Harold J. Stone
'We had a preview which went very well, and then it was sent over to Mr Zanuck, who did what I thought was a most horrendous job of cutting it up.' – George Cukor

Chapter Two
US 1979 127m Metrocolor
Columbia/Rastar (Margaret Booth)
A widowed novelist reluctantly embarks on an affair with a divorcee.
Simon in sad mood means that the wisecracks are still there but the pauses between them are longer. The thin but heavy-going plot finally militates against enthusiasm.
w Neil Simon d Robert Moore ph David M. Walsh, Richard Kratina m Marvin Hamlisch pd Gene Callahan
☆ James Caan, Marsha Mason, Joseph Bologna, Valerie Harper, Alan Fudge
'The regular Neil Simon Broadway takeaway for people who watch movies with their ears. Over two hours of theatrical smart talk and unfailing wit-under-pressure as Simon-surrogate Caan and the real Mrs Simon swap marital repartee in front of a reverent camera.' – Time Out
'All the couple have to do is swap wisecracks and nurse their rather pretty emotional bruises.' – Observer
'More than two hours of discussions, arguments, debates, reconciliations and accusations that quickly become tedious.' – Roger Ebert
Marsha Mason

Character ★★
Netherlands 1997 125m colour
Gala/Almerica/NPS Made (Laurens Geels)
original title: Karakter
A grasping bailiff persecutes his illegimate son, an unsuccessful businessman.
Powerful, downbeat, Oedipal drama of obsession in a period setting.
w Mike van Diem, Laurens Geels, Ruud van Megen novel Karakter by F. Bordewijk
d Mike van Diem ph Rogier Stoffers
m Het Paleis van Boem pd Jelier & Schaaf ed Jessica de Koning
☆ Jan Decleir, Fedja van Huêt, Betty Schuurman, Tamar van den Dop, Victor Löw, Hans Kesting
'Turgid, interminable ... strong on atmosphere but surprisingly weak on variation in tone.' – James Cameron-Wilson, Film Review
foreign language film

Charade
US 1952 83m bw
Portland (James Mason)
Three stories conceived and produced by the stars.
Everything about this triptych is on the dull side, and Mason himself later regretted embarking on it.
w James and Pamela Mason d Roy Kellino
☆ James Mason, Pamela Mason, Scott Forbes, Paul Cavanagh, Bruce Lester
† Roy Kellino was Pamela Mason's first husband.

'You can expect the unexpected when they play...'

Charade ★★
US 1963 113m Technicolor
Universal/Stanley Donen
A Parisienne finds her husband murdered. Four strange men are after her, and she is helped by a handsome stranger ... but is he hero, spy or murderer?
Smoothly satisfying sub-Hitchcock nonsense, effective both as black romantic comedy and macabre farce.
w Peter Stone d Stanley Donen ph Charles Lang Jnr m Henry Mancini ☆ Cary Grant, Audrey Hepburn, Walter Matthau, James Coburn, George Kennedy, Ned Glass, Jacques Marin
'One hesitates to be uncharitable to a film like Charade, which seeks only to provide a little innocent merriment and make a pot of money ... Of itself, it is a stylish and amusing melodrama, but in the context of the bloodlust that seems unloosed in our land it is as sinister as the villains who stalk Miss Hepburn through the cobbled streets of Paris.' – Arthur Knight † Cary Grant conceals his age of sixty by taking a shower fully clothed.
song 'Charade' (m Henry Mancini, ly Johnny Mercer)
Audrey Hepburn

Charge!: see À L'attaque!

The Charge at Feather River ★
US 1953 96m Warnercolor
Warner (David Weisbart)
An army platoon composed of men from the guardhouse tries to rescue two women kidnapped by Indians.
Formula Western distinguished by 3-D photography, probably the best to be achieved in the brief life of the medium. Warnerphonic sound was less successfully added; the sum total would be trying for nervous people.
w James R. Webb d Gordon Douglas ph Peverell Marley m Max Steiner
☆ Guy Madison, Frank Lovejoy, Vera Miles, Helen Westcott, Dick Wesson, Onslow Stevens, Steve Brodie
'From the start we are involved in a whirl of frenzied activity: a cavalry charge, knife throwing, sabre practice, flaming arrows – not a trick missed.' – MFB

The Charge Is Murder: see Twilight of Honor

'The reckless lancers sweep on and on – so that a woman's heart might not be broken! You're not fighting a single legion – you're fighting the entire British army, Surat Khan!'

The Charge of the Light Brigade ★★★
US 1936 115m bw
Warner (Hal B. Wallis, Sam Bischoff)
An army officer deliberately starts the Balaclava charge to even an old score with Surat Khan, who's on the other side.
Though allegedly 'based on the poem by Alfred Lord Tennyson', this is no more than a travesty of history, most of it taking place in India. As pure entertainment however it is a most superior slice of Hollywood hokum and the film which set the seal on Errol Flynn's superstardom.
w Michel Jacoby, Rowland Leigh
d Michael Curtiz ph Sol Polito, Fred Jackman m Max Steiner md Leo Forbstein ad John Hughes ed George Amy ☆ Errol Flynn (Major Geoffrey Vickers), Olivia de Havilland (Elsa Campbell), Patric Knowles (Capt. Perry Vickers), Donald Crisp (Col Campbell), David Niven (Capt. Randall), Henry Stephenson (Sir Charles Macefield), Nigel Bruce (Sir Benjamin Warrenton), C. Henry Gordon (Surat Kahn), Spring Byington (Lady Octavia Warrenton), E. E. Clive (Sir Humphrey Harcourt), Robert Barrat (Count Igor Volonoff), J. Carrol Naish (Subahdar-Major Puran Singh)
'When the noble six hundred, lances level and stirrups touching, pace, canter and, finally, charge down the mile-long valley, with the enemy guns tearing great holes in their ranks, you are a dead stock if your pulses don't thunder and your heart quicken perceptibly. This scene may be villainous history, but it is magnificent cinema, timed, shot, and cut with brilliance. It only cramps the patriotic effect a trifle that the Union Jack, nine times out of ten in the picture, is shown resolutely flying upside down.' – C. A. Lejeune
Max Steiner

The Charge of the Light Brigade ★
GB 1968 141m DeLuxe Panavision
UA/Woodfall (Neil Hartley)
An historical fantasia with comic, sociological and cartoon embellishments.
This version for the swinging sixties has a few splendid moments but apes Tom Jones all too obviously and leaves audiences with an even dimmer view of history than they started with.
w Charles Wood d Tony Richardson ph David Watkin, Peter Suschitzky m John Addison ad Edward Marshall animation Richard Williams
☆ Trevor Howard, John Gielgud, David Hemmings, Vanessa Redgrave, Jill Bennett, Harry Andrews, Peter Bowles, Mark Burns
'Considering the lucid book on which it is largely based, it is almost as inexcusably muddled as the British commanders at Balaclava.' – John Simon
'The point of the film is to recreate mid-Victorian England in spirit and detail.' – Stanley Kauffmann
'Notions for at least three interesting films are on view ... what seems signally lacking is a guiding hand, an overriding purpose.' – John Coleman

'This epic has so little feeling for the courage that went with the idiocies of the past that it diminishes itself along with its targets.' – Pauline Kael

'Two men chasing dreams of glory!'

Chariots of Fire ★★★

GB 1981 121m colour
TCF/Allied Stars/Enigma (David Puttnam)

In the 1924 Paris Olympics, a Jew and a Scotsman run for Britain.

A film of subtle qualities, rather like those of a BBC classic serial. Probably not quite worth the adulation it received, but full of pleasant romantic touches and sharp glimpses of the wider issues involved.

w Colin Welland d Hugh Hudson ph David Watkin m Vangelis ad Roger Hall, Jonathan Amberston, Len Huntingford, Andrew Sanders, Anna Ridley ed Terry Rawlings cos Milena Canonero

☆ Ben Cross (Harold Abrahams), Ian Charleson (Eric Liddell), Nigel Havers (Lord Andrew Lindsay), Nicholas Farrell (Aubrey Montague), Daniel Gerroll (Henry Stallard), Cheryl Campbell (Jennie Liddell), Alice Krige (Sybil Gordon), John Gielgud (Master of Trinity), Lindsay Anderson (Master of Caius), Nigel Davenport (Lord Birkenhead), Ian Holm (Sam Mussabini), Patrick Magee (Lord Cadogan)

'The whole contradictory bundle is unexpectedly watchable.' – Jo Imeson, MFB

'A piece of technological lyricism held together by the glue of simple-minded heroic sentiment.' – Pauline Kael

'A hymn to the human spirit as if scored by Barry Manilow.' – Richard Corliss, Film Comment

best picture; Colin Welland; Vangelis; Milena Canonero

Hugh Hudson; Terry Rawlings; Ian Holm

best picture; Ian Holm; Milena Canonero

Charles and Lucie ★

France 1979 97m colour
Avon/Cythere Films/Films de La Chouette/Antenne 2 (Claude Makovski) original title: Charles et Lucie

An antique dealer and a singer, both down on their luck, are the victims of a confidence trick.

An enjoyable divertissement.

w Jean Chapot d Nelly Kaplan ph Gilbert Sandoz m Pierre Perret ed Nelly Kaplan, Jean Chapot

☆ Daniel Ceccaldi, Ginette Garcin, Jean-Marie Proslier, Samson Fainsilber, Georges Claisse, Guy Grosso

Charley and the Angel ★

US 1974 93m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Bill Anderson)

A small-town sporting goods storekeeper in the thirties escapes death three times and finds an impatient angel waiting for him.

Mild sentimental whimsy on the lines of On Borrowed Time, but with a happy ending and attractive period trappings.

w Roswell Rogers novel The Golden Evenings of Summer by Will Stanton d Vincent McEveety ph Charles F. Wheeler m Buddy Baker ad John B. Mansbridge ed Ray de Leuw, Bob Bring

☆ Fred MacMurray, Cloris Leachman, Harry Morgan, Kurt Russell, Kathleen Cody, Edward Andrews, Barbara Nichols

Charley Moon ★

GB 1956 92m Eastmancolor
Colin Lesslie, Aubrey Baring

A music hall comic becomes swollen-headed but returns to his home village and marries his childhood sweetheart.

Faltering musical lacking the gusto of its background, but providing a generally believable impression of life on the halls.

novel Reginald Arkell d Guy Hamilton ph Jack Hildyard m Francis Chagrin w/ songs Leslie Bricusse

☆ Max Bygraves, Dennis Price, Michael Medwin, Florence Desmond, Shirley Eaton, Patricia Driscoll, Reginald Beckwith

'When he runs out of dumb luck he always has genius to fall back on!'

Charley Varrick ★★★

US 1973 111m Technicolor Panavision
Universal (Don Siegel)

A bank robber discovers he has stolen Mafia money, and devises a clever scheme to get himself off the hook.

Sharp, smart, well-observed but implausible thriller, astringently handled and agreeably set in Californian backlands. Accomplished, forgettable entertainment.

w Howard Rodman, Dean Riesner novel The Looters by John Reese d Don Siegel ph Michael Butler m Lalo Schifrin ad Fernando Carrere ed Frank Morriss

☆ Walter Matthau (Charley Varrick), Joe Don Baker (Molly), Felicia Farr (Sybil Fort), Andy Robinson (Harman Sullivan), John Vernon (Maynard Boyle), Sheree North (Jewell Everett), Norman Fell (Mr. Garfinkle)

'It proves there is nothing wrong with an auteur director that a good script can't cure.' – Stanley Kauffmann

'The narrative line is clean and direct, the characterizations economical and functional, and the triumph of intelligence gloriously satisfying.' – Andrew Sarris

Walter Matthau

Charley's American Aunt: see Charley's Aunt

Charley's Aunt ★★

US 1941 81m bw
TCF (William Perlberg)
GB title: Charley's American Aunt

For complicated reasons, an Oxford undergraduate has to impersonate his friend's rich aunt from Brazil (where the nuts come from).

Very adequate version of the Victorian farce, with all concerned in excellent form.

w George Seaton play Brandon Thomas d Archie Mayo ph Peverell Marley m Alfred Newman ad Richard Day, Nathan Juran

☆ Jack Benny, Kay Francis, James Ellison, Anne Baxter, Laird Cregar, Edmund Gwenn, Reginald Owen, Richard Haydn, Arleen Whelan, Ernest Cossart

† See also: Where's Charley?

Charley's Big-Hearted Aunt

GB 1940 76m bw
Gainsborough (Edward Black)

A student is forced to impersonate his wealthy friend's Brazilian aunt.

Rather disappointing British version of the famous farce, dully assembled and rather unsuitably cast.

w Marriott Edgar, Val Guest d Walter Forde ph Jack Cox

☆ Arthur Askey, Phyllis Calvert, Moore Marriott, Graham Moffatt, Richard Murdoch, Jeanne de Casalis, J. H. Roberts, Felix Aylmer, Wally Patch

'In the 60s, London was ruled by two gangs: The Krays... and The Richardsons... led by the notorious Charlie'

Charlie

GB 2003 94m colour
Entertainment/Midas (Tim Ireland, Malcolm Needs)

In London in the mid 60s, a gangster looks back on his life, while standing trial at the Old Bailey.

Biopic of a poor boy who grew up to control South London with an iron fist, done in a generic fashion so that it seems just another violent B movie.

wd Malcolm Needs ph Zoran Veljkovic m Stephen W. Parsons pd Andrea Christelis ed Toby Yates, Jeremy Gibbs

☆ Luke Goss (Charlie Richardson), Steven Berkoff (Charlie Richardson Senior), Leslie Grantham (Richard Waldeck), Anita Dobson (Mrs Richardson), Nicole Sherwin (Jean Le Grange), Marius Weyers (General Van den Bergh)

'It's disheartening to watch a film simultaneously portraying its subject as a sadistic crook and decrying the legal system that convicts him.' – Independent

'Willy Wonka is semi-sweet and nuts'

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory ★★ (8)

GB/US/Australia 2005 115m Technicolor
Warner/Village Roadshow/Plan B (Richard D. Zanuck, Brad Grey)

A poor, young boy wins a tour around a mysterious chocolate factory, accompanied by its even more mysterious owner.

Truer in spirit to Dahl's often mean-minded original than the first screen adaptation, but one in which art direction overwhelms the story and Johnny Depp's performance, which is another of his exercises in fey and slighty sinister eccentricity.

w John August book Roald Dahl d Tim Burton ph Philippe Rousselot m Danny Elfman ch Francesca Jaynes pd Alex McDowell ed Chris Lebenzon cos Gabriella Pescucci

☆ Johnny Depp (Willy Wonka), Freddie Highmore (Charlie Bucket), David Kelly (Grandpa Joe), Helena Bonham Carter (Mrs Bucket), Noah Taylor (Mr Bucket), Missi Pyle (Mrs Beauregarde), James Fox (Mr Salt), Christopher Lee (Dr Wonka), Deep Roy (Oompa-Loompas)

'A fair number of grown-ups might find themselves becoming more preoccupied by film's inscrutable subtext than by the repetitive story itself.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'Altogether a delight, an enchanting, ambiguous moral fable that provides more than eye candy and is likely to satisfy most members of the family.' – Phillip French, Observer

† See also an earlier version, Willie Wonka and the Chocolate Factory.

Gabriella Pescucci

Charlie Bubbles ★★★

GB 1968 91m Technicolor
Universal/ Memorial (Michael Medwin, George Pitcher)

A successful novelist loathes the pointlessness of the good life and tries unsuccessfully to return to his northern working class background.

A little arid and slow in its early stages, and with an extraordinary end (our hero escapes by air balloon), this is nevertheless a fascinating, fragmentary character study with a host of wry comedy touches and nimbly sketched characters; in its unassuming way it indicts many of the symbols people lived by in the sixties.

w Shelagh Delaney d Albert Finney ph Peter Suschitzky m Mischa Donat ad Edward Marshall ed Fergus McDonell

☆ Albert Finney (Charlie Bubbles), Billie Whitelaw (Lottie Bubbles), Liza Minnelli (Eliza), Colin Blakely (Smokey Pickles), Timothy Garland (Jack Bubbles), Diana Coupland (Maud), Alan Lake (Airman), Yootha Joyce (Woman in Cafe), Joe Gladwin (Hotel Waiter)

'A modest thing, but like all good work in minor keys it has a way of haunting the memory.' – Richard Schickel

'The supreme deadweight is Liza Minnelli, whose screen debut proves easily the most inauspicious since Turhan Bey's.' – John Simon

Billie Whitelaw

Charlie Chan

The Oriental detective created by Earl Derr Biggers began his film career as a minor character (played by George Kuwa) in a 1926 serial called HOUSE WITHOUT A KEY. In 1928 Kamiyama Sojin had a bigger role in THE CHINESE PARROT, but in 1929 E. L. Park did almost nothing in BEHIND THAT CURTAIN. In 1931 however began the fully-fledged Chan movies, which entertained a generation. Chan, based on a real-life Chinese detective named Chang Apana, became a citizen of Honolulu and was developed as a polite family man, aided by his impulsive number one or number two son (out of a family of fourteen), in solving murder puzzles. He had a treasury of aphorisms (a whole book of which has been published), and his technique was to gather all the suspects into one room before unmasking one as the murderer. The films built to a peak around 1936–9, but tailed off disastrously in the mid-forties. They were never noted for production values, but many retain interest for their scripts, their puzzles, and their casts of budding stars, as well as the central character. This is a complete list:

For Fox (later Twentieth Century Fox), with Warner Oland as Chan:

1931 Charlie Chan Carries On*, The Black Camel

1932 Charlie Chan's Chance

1933 Charlie Chan's Greatest Case

1934 Charlie Chan's Courage, Charlie Chan in London

1935 Charlie Chan in Paris*, Charlie Chan in Egypt, Charlie Chan in Shanghai

1936 Charlie Chan's Secret*, Charlie Chan at the Circus*, Charlie Chan at the Race Track, Charlie Chan at the Opera

1937 Charlie Chan at the Olympics, Charlie Chan on Broadway*, Charlie Chan at Monte Carlo

For Twentieth Century Fox, with Sidney Toler:

1938 Charlie Chan in Honolulu

1939 Charlie Chan in Reno, Charlie Chan on Treasure Island, City of Darkness

1940 Charlie Chan in Panama, Charlie Chan's Murder Cruise, Charlie Chan at the Wax Museum*, Murder over New York

1941 Dead Men Tell, Charlie Chan in Rio, Castle in the Desert*

For Monogram, with Sidney Toler:

1944 Charlie Chan in the Secret Service, The Chinese Cat, Black Magic

1945 The Scarlet Clue, The Jade Mask, Shanghai Cobra, Red Dragon
1946 Shadows over Chinatown, Dangerous Money
1947 The Trap
For Monogram, with Roland Winters:
1947 The Chinese Ring
1948 Docks of New Orleans, Shanghai Chest, The Golden Eye, The Feathered Serpent
1949 Sky Dragon
† In the late fifties J. Carrol Naish appeared in a half-hour TV series as Chan, but the episodes were dull. In 1971 Universal tried to revive the character in a 96-minute pilot film Happiness is a Warm Clue, but Ross Martin was woefully miscast. See also below.

Charlie Chan and the Curse of the Dragon Queen

US 1980 95m CFI color
UA/American Cinema/Jerry Sherlock

The villainous Dragon Queen puts a curse on Chan and his descendants, and works it out some years later in San Francisco.
The targets in this spoof are somewhat elementary (the sinister housekeeper is Mrs Danvers, the wheelchair-bound butler Gillespie) and almost all the jokes fall flat on their faces.
w Stan Burns, David Axelrod d Clive Donner ph Paul Lohmann m Patrick Williams
☆ Peter Ustinov, Angie Dickinson, Richard Hatch, Brian Keith, Roddy McDowall, Rachel Roberts, Johnny Sekka, Michelle Pfeiffer

Charlie McCarthy, Detective

US 1939 65m bw
Universal

Ventriloquist Edgar Bergen helps to solve a murder.
Slightly tiresome mystery comedy with no real place for the wisecracking dummy.
w Edward Eliscu d Frank Tuttle
☆ Edgar Bergen, Robert Cummings, Constance Moore, John Sutton, Louis Calhern, Edgar Kennedy, Samuel S. Hinds, Warren Hymer, Harold Huber
'Looks like a corner-cutter ... will have to struggle as top half of the duallers.' – Variety

Charlie the Lonesome Cougar*

US 1967 75m colour
Disney

The growing-up of a cougar.
Amiable true-life adventure.
w Jack Speirs d Winston Hibler

'Get some action.'

Charlie's Angels ★

US 2000 98m DeLuxe Panavision
Columbia/Flower Films/Tall Trees (Leonard Goldberg, Drew Barrymore, Nancy Juvonen)

Three female crime fighter thwart an attempt to murder their boss.
Light-hearted, hyper-kinetic version of the 70s TV series, though its insistence on 'female empowerment' amounts to no more than its stars' ability to do high kicks on wires and look good in skin-tight clothing.
w Ryan Rowe, Ed Solomon, John August TV series created by Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts d McG ph Russell Carpenter m Edward Shearmur pd J. Michael Riva ed Wayne Wahrman, Peter Teschner sp martial fx: Cheung-Yan Yuen
☆ Cameron Diaz (Natalie), Drew Barrymore (Dylan), Lucy Liu (Alex), Bill Murray (Bosley), Sam Rockwell (Eric Knox), Tim Curry (Roger Corwin), Kelly Lynch (Vivian Wood), Crispin Glover (Thin Man), Matt LeBlanc (Jason), LL Cool J (Mr Jones), Tom Green (Chad), Luke Wilson (Pete), John Forsythe (Voice of Charlie)
'Its delight in the powerfulness of femininity does mark it out from all those action pictures where machismo is the governing religion.' – Andy Medhurst, Sight and Sound

Charlie's Angels: Full Throttle ④

US 2003 111m DeLuxe Panavision
Columbia TriStar/Flower Films/Tall Trees/Wonderland (Leonard Goldberg, Drew Barrymore, Nancy Juvonen)

The angels go after two rings that reveal the whereabouts of everyone in the witness protection programme.
Loud and frenetic action movie that is over-insistent on what fun it all is.
w John August, Cormac and Marianne Wibberley d McG ph Russell Carpenter m Edward Shearmur pd J. Michael Riva ed Wayne Wahrman
☆ Cameron Diaz (Natalie), Drew Barrymore (Dylan), Lucy Lu (Alex), John Forsythe (Voice of Charlie), Bernie Mac (Jimmy Bosley), Crispin Glover (Thin Man), Justin Theroux (Seamus O'Grady), Robert Patrick (Ray Carter), Demi Moore (Madison Lee), John Cleese (Mr Munday), Matt LeBlanc (Jason), Carrie Fisher (Mother Superior)
'The title refers to the speed with which the film is cut by its director, a specialist in music videos. It could also apply to what otherwise peaceable folk might want to do should they get their hands around his throat.' – Philip French, Observer
'The movie is immensely pleased with itself, in the manner of adorable kids who know they can get away with anything.' – David Denby, New Yorker

Charlotte

France/Italy/West Germany 1974 103m Eastmancolor
New Realm/Claude Capra/Sedimo/Gerico/TIT (Roger Vadim) original title: La Jeune Fille Assassinée

An author investigates the unsolved murder of a former lover, a police chief's promiscuous daughter, at the invitation of a rich German who claims to have killed her.
A glossy, essentially trivial mix of sex and murder.
wd Roger Vadim ph William Glenn m Mike Oldfield ed Victoria Mercanton ☆ Sirpa Lane, Michel Duchaussoy, Mathieu Carrière, Roger Vadim, Alexandre Astruc
† The film was cut to 99m on its British release.

'The story of an extraordinary woman in an extraordinary time.'

Charlotte Gray

GB/Australia 2001 121m Technicolor
Warner/FilmFour/Senator/Ecosse/Pod (Sarah Curtis, Douglas Rae. Executive producers, Paul Webster, Robert Bernstein, Hanno Huth)

During the Second World War, a young Scots woman volunteers to be a spy in France, where she becomes involved with a local resistance worker.
Curiously leaden adaptation of a best-selling novel, stressing Blanchett's glamour and with its cast speaking English with funny French accents, so emphasising the unreality of it all.
w Jeremy Brock novel Sebastian Faulks d Gillian Armstrong ph Dion Beebe m Stephen Warbeck pd Joseph Bennett ed Nicholas Beauman cos Janty Yates
☆ Cate Blanchett (Charlotte Gray), Billy Crudup (Julien Levade), Michael Gambon (Levade), Rupert Penry-Jones (Peter Gregory), Anton Lesser (Renech), James Fleet (Richard Cannerley), Ron Cook (Mirabel), Jack Shepherd (Pichon), Nicholas Farrell (Mr Jackson)
'A movie that looks great, is well-acted, and tells a story that you can't believe for a moment.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
'The movie works so diligently to convey a spirit of heroic uplift and fails so completely that it feels like a tragic misfire.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

'Help is coming from above.'

Charlotte's Web ⑦

Germany/US 2006 96m
Paramount/Paramount Pictures/Walden Media/Kerner Entertainment/Nickelodeon Movies (Jordan Kerner)

A kindly spider helps a pig escape the butcher's axe, much to the delight of the little girl who owns him.
Live-action version of the much-loved novel with talking animals a la Babe (qv) and knowing humour supplanting the original's wholesomeness.
w Susannah Grant, Karey Kirkpatrick novel E. B. White d Gary Winick ph Seamus McGarvey m Danny Elfman pd Stuart Wurtzel ad Tom Nursey ed Susan Littenberg, Sabrina Plisco
☆ Dakota Fanning (Fern Arable), and voices of Julia Roberts (Charlotte), Steve Buscemi (Templeton), John Cleese (Samuel), Robert Redford (Ike), Kathy Bates (Bitsy)
'This highly polished picture is superficially faithful, even reverential to its source, but evinces neither imagination nor a personality of its own.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'It's a movie that might just inspire E. B. White, up in literary heaven, to wipe away a tear of gratitude.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

Charlotte's Web

US 1972 96m Technicolor
Sagittarius/Hanna-Barbera

Farmyard animals who sense their fate are stimulated and encouraged by a resourceful spider.
Interesting but overlong and rather plodding version of a stylish book for children; the animation has no style at all.
w Earl Hamner Jnr novel E. B. White d Charles A. Nichols, Iwao Takamoto m/ly Richard and Robert Sherman md Irwin Kostal
☆ Featuring the voices of Debbie Reynolds, Henry Gibson, Paul Lynde, Martha Scott, Agnes Moorehead

Charly ★

US 1968 106m Techniscope
Selmur/Robertson Associates (Ralph Nelson)

New methods of surgery cure a mentally retarded young man, who becomes a genius, but the effects wear off.
Smooth, unconvincing, rather pointless fantasy which ultimately leaves a bad taste in the mouth.
w Stirling Silliphant novel Flowers for Algernon by Daniel Keyes d Ralph Nelson ph Arthur J. Ornitz m Ravi Shankar
☆ Cliff Robertson, Claire Bloom, Leon Janney, Lilia Skala
'The most distressing thing about Charly is not its ticklish subject, nor yet its clumsily modish surface, but its insistent, persistent sentimentality.' – Tom Milne
Cliff Robertson

Charmant Garçons: see Too Many Lovers

Le Charme Discret de la Bourgeoisie: see The Discreet Charm of the Bourgeoisie

Charro

US 1969 98m Technicolor Panavision
National General (Charles Marquis Warren)

A reformed outlaw is framed for the theft of a cannon.
Dismal Western with a singing star playing straight. A bad experience.
wd Charles Marquis Warren ph Ellsworth Fredricks m Hugo Montenegro ☆ Elvis Presley, Ina Balin, Barbara Werle, Lynn Kellogg, Victor French, Solomon Sturges

Chartroose Caboose

US 1960 76m Eastmancolor Panavision
Red-Bill/U-I

A runaway couple take refuge with a retired train conductor in his converted rolling stock home.
Old-fashioned to the point of seeming half-witted, this comedy has little to offer but geniality.
w Rod Peterson d William Reynolds
☆ Molly Bee, Ben Cooper, Edgar Buchanan, O. Z. Whitehead, Slim Pickens

Charulata ★

India 1964 117m bw
RDP (R. D. Pansal)
aka: The Lonely Wife

In Calcutta in the 1880s, the neglected wife of a wealthy newspaper editor turns to her husband's cousin for the love she craves.
A sombre story of repressed passion and domestic tragedy, but told at a too leisurely pace so that the tensions slacken and thin.
wd Satyajit Ray novella Nastanirh by Rabindranath Tagore ph Subrata Mitra m Satyajit Ray ad Bansi Chandragupta ed Dulal Dutta ☆ Soumitra Chatterjee, Madhabi Mukherjee, Sailen Mukherjee, Syamal Ghosal, Gitali Roy, Bholanath Koyal, Suku Mukherjee, Dilip Bose
'Ray's most nearly flawless film ... a flowing opulent tale that seems to be lit from the inside like a velvet-lined carriage with a lantern in it rocked by a hot monsoon wind.' – Penelope Gilliatt, New Yorker
'Unutterably boring.' – John Simon
† Ray had to take care in photographing Madhabi Mukherjee in order to conceal the fact that her lower teeth were in poor condition and stained black.

The Chase ★

US 1947 84m bw
Nero Pictures (Seymour Nebenzal)

A shell-shocked ex-serviceman foils a criminal and falls for his wife.
Weird Cuban-set film noir with a strange cast and stranger atmosphere. A genuine bomb, but worth a look for its pretensions, its cast, and its trick ending.
w Philip Yordan novel The Black Path of Fear by Cornell Woolrich d Arthur Ripley ph Franz Planer m Michel Michelet

☆ Robert Cummings, Michèle Morgan, Peter Lorre, Steve Cochran, Lloyd Corrigan, Jack Holt

The Chase ★

US 1966 135m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/Sam Spiegel

When a convict escapes and heads for his small Texas home town, almost all the inhabitants are affected in one way or another.
Expensive but shoddy essay in sex and violence, with Brando as a masochistic sheriff lording it over Peyton-Place-in-all-but-name. Literate moments do not atone for the general pretentiousness, and we have all been here once too often.
w Lillian Hellman novel Horton Foote d Arthur Penn ph Joseph LaShelle m John Barry pd Richard Day
☆ Marlon Brando, Jane Fonda, Robert Redford, Angie Dickinson, Janice Rule, James Fox, Robert Duvall, E. G. Marshall, Miriam Hopkins, Henry Hull

'The worst thing that has happened to movies since Lassie played a war veteran with amnesia.' – Rex Reed
'Considering all the talent connected with it, it is hard to imagine how The Chase went so haywire.' – Philip T. Hartung

'Life can be Hell loving in the fast lane...'
'A high-speed romance.'

The Chase

US 1994 88m colour
TCF/Hercules (Brad Wyman, Cassian Elwes)

An escaped prisoner kidnaps a glamorous heiress and heads for Mexico in her car chased by police and journalists.
This is a hectic, jokey journey to nowhere in particular, with nothing to engage the eye or mind along the way.
wd Adam Rifkin ph Alan Jones m Richard Gibbs pd Sherman Williams ed Peter Schink
☆ Charlie Sheen, Kristy Swanson, Henry Rollins, Josh Mostel, Ray Wise, Wayne Grace, Rocky Carroll, Miles Dougal

'A romantic road movie of acute banality. A film which relies more heavily on its music score and its stars to carry it through. I doubt if either will be enough.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Chase a Crooked Shadow ★★

GB 1957 87m bw
ABP/Associated Dragon Films (Douglas Fairbanks Jnr)

An heiress finds her home invaded by a stranger posing as her dead brother.
Tricksy, lightly controlled suspense melodrama with a perfectly fair surprise ending. Handling equivocal but competent.
w David D. Osborn, Charles Sinclair d Michael Anderson ph Erwin Hillier m Matyas Seiber
☆ Richard Todd, Anne Baxter, Faith Brook, Herbert Lom, Alexander Knox, Alan Tilvern

'It'll lead the wisest guessers up the garden and give them the surprise of their life!' – Kine Weekly
† The plot was borrowed from an episode in The Whistler TV series, and later reversed for a 1975 TV film, One of my Wives is Missing.

'It was supposed to be a routine prison transfer. But this was no ordinary prisoner.'

Chasers

US 1994 101m Technicolor
Warner/Morgan Creek (James G. Robinson)

A glamorous woman uses her sex-appeal to outwit the two men who are escorting her to a naval prison.
Uninteresting comedy, with thinly realized characters, contrived situations, and only the occasional eccentric moment from its minor characters to give it any life.
w Joe Batteer, John Rice d Dennis Hopper ph Ueli Steiger m Dwight Yoakam, Peter Anderson pd Robert Pearson ed Christian A. Wagner
☆ Tom Berenger, William McNamara, Erika Eleniak, Crispin Glover, Dean Stockwell, Gary Busey, Seymour Cassel, Frederic Forrest, Matthew Glave, Marilu Henner, Dennis Hopper

'Mangy, dimwitted gender switch on The Last Detail.' – Variety

'Sex Is Easy. Love Is Hard.'

Chasing Amy ★★ ⑦

US 1997 111m Technicolor
Metrodome/Miramax/View Askew (Scott Mosier)

A comic-book artist is attracted to a lesbian with wide sexual experience.
Enjoyable, often witty low-budget movie about the complexities of love and friendship.
wd Kevin Smith ph David Klein m David Pirner pd Robert 'Ratface' Holtzman ed Kevin Sith, Scott Mosier
☆ Ben Affleck, Joey Lauren Adams, Jason Lee, Dwight Ewell, Jason Mewes, Kevin Smith

'Fundamentally amusing and appealing.' – Variety
† The film was made for $250,000
†† The credits include the dedication: 'To the critics who hated our last flick – all is forgiven.'

Chasing Dreams

US 1982 105m CFI color
Nascent (Therese Conte, David G. Brown)

A shy youth with family problems and a handicapped brother discovers that he has a gift for playing baseball.
Sentimental family drama that is unlikely to stir any interest outside its home country.
w David G. Brown d Sean Roche ph Connie Holt m Gregory Conte pd Bobbi Peterson Himber ed Jerry Weldon, Robert Sinise
☆ David G. Brown, John Fife, Jim Shane, Matthew Clark, Lisa Kingston, Kevin Costner

Chasing the Deer

GB 1994 97m colour
Feature Film/Cromwell/La Mancha (Bob Carruthers)

A father and son find themselves, by force of circumstances, on opposite sides at the Battle of Culloden in 1746, when Bonnie Prince Charlie's Jacobite forces were defeated by the Duke of Cumberland.
Rather like the rebellion it celebrates, a gallant failure; it looks good but sadly lacks inspiration.
w Jerome Vincent, Bob Carruthers, Steve Gillham d Graham Holloway ph Alan M. Trow m John Wetton ed Patrick Moore
☆ Brian Blessed, Iain Cuthbertson, Fish, Matthew Zajax, Sandy Welch, Brian Donald, Peter Gordon, Lynn Ferguson

'You do need scale and a certain directorial flair. It's the lack of that which makes this properly sincere film into what is essentially a bit of a plod.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
† The producers raised much of the film's budget of £460,000 by offering roles as extras to those who invested in it.

Chasing Yesterday

US 1935 78m bw
RKO

An elderly archaeologist seeks to renew his lost youth through the daughter of the woman he once loved but lost.
Slow and old-fashioned melodrama.
w Francis E. Faragoh novel The Crime of Sylvestre Bonnard by Anatole France d George Nicholls Jnr
☆ O. P. Heggie, Anne Shirley, Elizabeth Patterson, Helen Westley, John Qualen, Etienne Girardot

'Prospects not bright.' – Variety

Chastnaya Zhizn: see Private Life

Le Château de Ma Mère ★

France 1990 98m Eastmancolor
Gaumont/Gueville/TF1 (Marc Goldstaub, Guy Azzi)

aka: My Mother's Castle

A novelist and film-maker remembers his childhood holidays spent among the hills of Provence.
Slow-paced, soft-centred account of a blissful past; nostalgia is laid on with a trowel.
w Jérôme Tonnerre, Yves Robert autobiography Marcel Pagnol d Yves Robert ph Robert Alazraki m Vladimir Cosma ad Jacques Dugied ed Pierre Gillette
☆ Philippe Caubère, Nathalie Roussel, Didier Pain, Thérèse Liotard, Julien Ciamaca, Victorien Delamare, Joris Molinas, Julie Timmerman, Jean Carmet, Jean Rochefort, Georges Wilson, Jean-Pierre Darras (as narrator)
† A sequel to La Gloire de Mon Papa (qv).

Chato's Land

GB 1971 100m Technicolor
UA/Scimitar (Michael Winner)

An Apache half-breed kills a man in self-defence, subsequently eluding and destroying the sheriff's posse.
Exhaustingly violent Western in which the audience is spared no gory detail; efficiently put together for those who like this kind of fracas.
w Gerald Wilson d Michael Winner ph Robert Paynter m Jerry Fielding ☆ Charles Bronson, Jack Palance, Richard Basehart, James Whitmore, Simon Oakland, Richard Jordan, Ralph Waite, Victor French, Lee Patterson

Chattahoochee

US 1989 97m TVC Color
Hemdale (Aaron and Faye Schwab)

In the mid-1950s a veteran of the Korean War suffers a breakdown and is sent to a decaying, violent mental hospital.
Downbeat and depressing.
w James Hicks d Mick Jackson ph Andrew Dunn m John Keane pd Joseph T. Garrity ed Don Fairservice
☆ Gary Oldman, Dennis Hopper, Frances McDormand, Pamela Reed, Ned Beatty, M. Emmet Walsh

Chatterbox

US 1935 68m bw
RKO

A country maiden aspires to the stage.
Mildly likeable comedy for family audiences.
w Sam Mintz play David Carb d George Nicholls Jnr
☆ Anne Shirley, Phillips Holmes, Edward Ellis, Erik Rhodes, Margaret Hamilton, Granville Bates

'Discounting the nice job all around, the picture isn't there.' – Variety

Che?: see What?

'With a dream of justice, he created a nightmare of violence!'

Che!

US 1969 94m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF (Sy Bartlett)

Fidel Castro is helped in his subversion of Batista's Cuban regime by an Argentinian doctor named Che Guevara.
Fictionalized biography, and a dull one, of a man who became a myth.
w Michael Wilson, Sy Bartlett d Richard Fleischer ph Charles Wheeler m Lalo Schifrin ☆ Omar Sharif, Jack Palance (Castro), Cesare Danova, Robert Loggia, Woody Strode, Barbara Luna

'It goes at the pace of a drugged ox, and hasn't an ounce of political or historical sense in its nut.' – New Yorker

The Cheap Detective

US 1978 92m Metrocolor Panavision
Columbia/Ray Stark

Forties private eye Lou Peckinpaugh is involved in a complex case with echoes of Casablanca, The Big Sleep, The Maltese Falcon and Farewell My Lovely.
Lame spoof which might have seemed funnier on a small screen in black and white; as it is, the strain is evident and desperate.
w Neil Simon d Robert Moore ph John A. Alonzo m Patrick Williams
☆ Peter Falk (Lou Peckinpaugh/Humphrey Bogart), John Houseman (Jasper Blubber/Sydney Greenstreet), Nicol Williamson (Colonel Schlissel/Conrad Veidt), Louise Fletcher (Marlene Duchard/Ingrid Bergman), Fernando Lamas (Paul Duchard/Paul Henreid), Madeline Kahn (Mrs Montenegro/ Mary Astor), Dom DeLuise (Pepe Damascus/Peter Lorre), Paul Williams (Boy/Elisha Cook), Marsha Mason (Georgia Merke/Gladys George), Ann-Margret (Jezebel Dezire/Claire Trevor), Eileen Brennan (Betty DeBoop/Lauren Bacall), Stockard Channing (Bess/Lee Patrick), Sid Caesar (Ezra Dezire/Miles Mander), Scatman Crothers (Tinker/Dooley Wilson), Phil Silvers (Hoppy) and also Abe Vigoda, Vic Tayback, James Coco, James Cromwell

'Frankly they did this sort of thing just as well, and a lot more quickly, on The Carol Burnett Show.' – Richard Schickel, Time
'There is about enough talent around for a twenty-minute sketch at the Edinburgh fringe.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
† The film was a follow-up to the not much more effective but at least more controlled Murder by Death.

Cheap Killers

Hong Kong 1998 99m colour
Jing's Production Ltd (Jing Wong)

original title: Yue Doh Laai Yue Ying Hung

Two top hit men for the triads become fugitives, fleeing from other killers after they are betrayed by their boss.
Slick, violent gangster movie with a homo-erotic subtext; the bond of brotherhood and loyalty between its two brutal protagonists is not enough to evoke sympathy for their plight.
w Jing Wong d Clarence Ford (Fok Yiu-leung) ph Fung Yuen Man m EMP

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

ad Raymond Kwok ed Marco Mak
☆ Sunny Chan (Yat-Tiu), Alex Fong (Sam Cool), Kathy Chau (Ling), Stephen Fung (Sunny), Henry Fong (Doctrine King), Michael Ian Lambert (Blond)

'He's the New Father of His Country!'

Cheaper by the Dozen ★★

US 1950 86m Technicolor
TCF (Lamar Trotti)

Efficiency expert Frank Gilbreth and his wife Lillian have twelve children, a fact which requires mathematical conduct of all their lives.
Amusing family comedy set in the twenties, unconvincing in detail though based on a book by two of the children. A great commercial success and a Hollywood myth-maker. Sequel: Belles on their Toes (qv).
w Lamar Trotti book Frank B. Gilbreth Jnr, Ernestine Gilbreth Carey d Walter Lang ph Leon Shamroy m Cyril Mockridge md Lionel Newman ad Lyle Wheeler, Leland Fuller
☆ Clifton Webb, Myrna Loy, Jeanne Crain, Edgar Buchanan, Barbara Bates, Betty Lynn, Mildred Natwick, Sara Allgood

'Growing pains? They've got twelve of them!'

Cheaper by the Dozen ④

US 2003 98m DeLuxe
TCF (Robert Simonds, Michael Barnathan, Ben Myron)

A husband and wife and their twelve children find life difficult after they move from the country to a big city.
Gruesome mix of sentimentality, vomit jokes and dull performances.
w Sam Harper, Joel Cohen, Alec Sokolow book Frank Bunker Gilbreth Jnr, Ernestine Gilbreth Carey story Craig Titley d Shawn Levy ph Jonathan Brown m Christophe Beck pd Nina Ruscio ed George Folsey
☆ Steve Martin (Tom Baker), Bonnie Hunt (Kate Baker), Piper Perabo (Nora Baker), Tom Welling (Charlie Baker), Hilary Duff (Lorraine Baker)
'Unfortunately knows no tone between schmaltzy/gooey and slapstick/gross-out.' – Robert Koehler, Variety

'Same Big Family... Even Bigger Adventure.'

Cheaper by the Dozen 2 ②

US 2005 94m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/21 Laps (Shawn Levy, Ben Myron)

On vacation, two large families compete against one other.
Another needless sequel, with the same dreary mixture as before.
w Sam Harper novel 'Cheaper by the Dozen' by Frank Bunker Gilbreth Jnr, Ernestine Gilbreth Carey d Adam Shankman ph Peter James m John Debney pd Cary White ed Christopher Greenbury, Matthew Cassel
☆ Steve Martin (Tom Baker), Eugene Levy (Jimmy Murtaugh), Bonnie Hunt (Kate Baker), Tom Welling (Charlie Baker), Piper Perabo (Nora Baker-McNulty), Carmen Electra (Sarina Murtaugh)
'There's something pernicious about a toxic mix of sitcom and snickering sex jokes getting packaged and effectively sold as wholesome fun for the family.' – Peter Travers, Rolling Stone

The Cheat ★

US 1915 95m (16 fps) bw silent
Famous Players Lasky/Paramount

A society lady borrows from a rich Japanese, and he brands her when she refuses to become his mistress.
Hoary melodrama which caused a sensation in its day.
w Hector Turnbull d Cecil B. de Mille ph Alvin Wyckoff
☆ Fanny Ward, Jack Dean, Sessue Hayakawa, James Neill † Remade in 1923 by George Fitzmaurice, in 1931 by George Abbott, and in 1937 (in France, as Forfaiture) by Marcel L'Herbier.

The Cheaters ★

US 1945 86m bw
Republic

A selfish and ostentatious family is reformed by the ministrations of a down-and-out actor.
Fairly engaging variation on The Passing of the Third Floor Back, with sweetness and light brought into people's lives by a fireside recital of A Christmas Carol.
w Frances Hyland d Joseph Kane ph Reggie Lanning m Walter Scharf
☆ Joseph Schildkraut, Billie Burke, Eugene Pallette, Ona Munson, Raymond Walburn

Check and Double Check

US 1930 71m bw
RKO

Comic adventures of a couple of black handymen.
Feeble comedy notable only for the film appearance of radio's immensely popular Amos 'n' Andy, played by white actors in blackface.
w Bert Kalmar, Harry Ruby, J. Walter Ruben d Melville Brown ph William Marshall m Max Steiner
☆ Freeman F. Gosden, Charles V. Correll, Sue Carol, Charles Morton, Irene Rich, Ralf Harolde, Duke Ellington and his Orchestra
'The best picture for children ever put on the screen ... as a freak talking picture it's in the money immediately.' – Variety

Checkers

US 1937 79m bw
TCF

The niece of a ne'er-do-well horse owner brings him success.
One of the most successful vehicles of Shirley Temple's arch rival.
w Lynn Root, Frank Fenton, Karen de Wolf play Rida Johnson Young d H. Bruce Humberstone ☆ Jane Withers, Stuart Erwin, Una Merkel, Marvin Stephens, Andrew Tombes, Minor Watson
'Will delight the moppet's following ... due for heavy dual booking.' – Variety

Checking Out

GB 1988 95m Technicolor Super 35
Virgin/Handmade (Ben Myron)

A successful advertising man becomes a hypochondriac after the sudden death of a friend.
Mildly amusing comedy.
w Joe Eszterhas d David Leland ph Ian Wilson m Carter Burwell pd Barbara Ling ed Lee Percy ☆ Jeff Daniels, Melanie Mayron, Michael Tucker, Kathleen York, Ann Magnuson, Allan Harvey, Jo Harvey Allen, Ian Wolfe

Checkpoint ★

GB 1956 84m Eastmancolor
Rank (Betty Box)

A tycoon sends an industrial spy to Italy in search of new motor racing car designs.
Acceptable hokum, cleanly assembled, with motor race highlights.
w Robin Estridge d Ralph Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Bruce Montgomery
☆ Anthony Steel, Stanley Baker, James Robertson Justice, Odile Versois, Maurice Denham, Michael Medwin, Lee Patterson

Cheech and Chong: Still Smokin'

US 1983 92m colour
Paramount/Cheech & Chong's Comedy Film Festival Number One Inc (Peter MacGregor-Scott)

Two slobbish comedians attend a Burt Reynolds-Dolly Parton film festival in Amsterdam.
Dreary, plotless exercise in futility that reaches its nadir in excerpts from the duo's concert performance.
w Thomas Chong, Cheech Marin d Thomas Chong ph Harvey Harrison m George A. Clinton ad Ruud Van Dijk ed David Ramirez, James Coblenz
☆ Cheech Marin, Thomas Chong, Hans Man In't Veld, Carol Van Herwijnen, Shireen Strocker, Susan Hahn

Cheech and Chong's Next Movie

US 1980 95m Technicolor
Howard Brown/Universal

GB title: High Encounters of the Ultimate Kind
Two dopers have various rude adventures.
Totally repulsive comedy which gives a bad name to self-indulgence.
w Cheech Marin, Thomas Chong d Thomas Chong
☆ Cheech Marin, Thomas Chong, Evelyn Guerrero, Betty Kennedy, Sy Kramer

Cheech and Chong's The Corsican Brothers

US 1984 90m colour
Orion (Peter MacGregor-Scott)

Twin brothers run amuck during the French Revolution.
Coarse and unfunny parody of a swashbuckling adventure.
w Cheech Marin, Thomas Chong d Thomas Chong ph Harvey Harrison m GEO ad Daniel Budin ed Tom Avildsen
☆ Cheech Marin, Thomas Chong, Roy Dotrice, Shelby Fiddis, Rikki Marin, Edie McClurg, Rae Dawn Chong, Robbi Chong

Cheer Boys Cheer

GB 1939 84m bw
ATP (Michael Balcon)

Brewery owners hate each other but their children fall in love.
A highly predictable plot provides some incidental pleasures in this modest precursor of the Ealing comedies.
w Roger MacDougall, Allan MacKinnon story Ian Dalrymple, Donald Bull d Walter Forde ph Ronald Neame, Gordon Dines md Ernest Irving ad Wilfred Shingleton ed Ray Pitt ☆ Nova Pilbeam, Edmund Gwenn, Jimmy O'Dea, Moore Marriott, Graham Moffatt, C. V. France, Alexander Knox

Cheer Up!

GB 1936 72m bw
Associated British/Stanley Lupino

An unemployed actor is mistaken for a millionaire by an out-of-work actress.
Jolly though undistinguished musical, hampered by its low humour and lower budget.
w Michael Barringer story Stanley Lupino d Leo Mittler ph Curt Courant m/ly Billy Mayerl, Val Guest, Noel Gay, Frank Eyton, Stanley Lupino, Desmond Carter md Percy Mackey ad J. Elder Wills ed Sam Simmonds, Ronald Deeming
☆ Stanley Lupino, Sally Gray, Roddy Hughes, Wyn Weaver, Marjorie Chard, Ernest Sefton, Gerald Barry, Kenneth Kove, Doris Rogers, Arthur Rigby

Cheers for Miss Bishop ★

US 1941 94m bw
UA (Richard A. Rowland)

The life of a schoolmistress in a small mid-western town.
Acceptable sentimental hokum, quite pleasantly done.
w Adelaide Heilbron novel Bess Streeter Aldrich d Tay Garnett ph Hal Mohr m Edward Ward
☆ Martha Scott, William Gargan, Edmund Gwenn, Sterling Holloway, Sidney Blackmer, Mary Anderson, Dorothy Peterson
Edward Ward

Cheetah

US 1984 84m Metrocolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Robert Halmi)

Two American teenagers, who spend six months in Africa with their parents, rescue and rear a cheetah cub.
Bland and innocuous entertainment aimed at children, but too tame to hold their interest for long.
w Erik Tarloff, John Cotter, Griff du Rhone book The Cheetahs by Alan Caillou d Jeff Blyth ph Tom Burstyn m Bruce Rowland pd Jane Cavedon ed Eric Albertson ☆ Keith Coogan, Lucy Deakins, Timothy Landfield, Breon Gorman, Collin Mothupi

Chello hongmijoo ilga salinsagan: see Cello

Chelovek sKinoapparatom: see The Man with the Movie Camera

The Chelsea Girls ★★

US 1966 255m bw/colour
Andy Warhol

Episodic look at life in a series of hotel rooms, consisting of unedited conversations between spaced-out individuals – the Pope of Greenwich Village hearing confessions and losing his temper, a drug dealer talking to a customer as she injects them both, a woman being reduced to tears by aggressive questioning, a mother chastising her son, a dancer stripping as he talks about his desires, and so on.
Shown on a double screen, with two different rooms visible at a time, but only one conversation audible, this was the film which, more than any other, brought the underground to public attention. It has worn less well than some of Morrissey and Warhol's other work but survives as a monument of sorts, exactly capturing the sights and sounds of a particular era despite its technical shortcomings.
d Paul Morrissey ph Andy Warhol m The Velvet Underground
☆ Marie Mencken, Mary Woronov, Gerard Malanga, International Velvet, Ingrid Superstar, Ondine, Mario Montez, Eric Emerson, Nico, Brigid Polk
'An epic movie-novel.' – Jonas Mekas
'Warhol's people are more real than real because the camera encourages their exhibitionism. They are all "performing" because their lives are one long performance and their party is never over.' – Andrew Sarris, Village Voice

'It has come time to wag a warning finger at Andy Warhol and his underground friends and tell them politely but firmly that they are pushing a reckless thing too far.' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times
'A three and a half hour cesspool of vulgarity and talentless confusion which is about as interesting as the inside of a toilet bowl.' – Rex Reed
† The film, which cost less than $3,000 to make, took more than $300,000 in its first six months.

Chère Inconnue: see I Sent a Letter To My Love

Cherry 2000
US 1988 93m DeLuxe
Orion (Edward R. Pressman, Caldecot Chubb)
In the year 2017 after his robotic sex-toy breaks down, a man discovers human romance when he hires a female mercenary to obtain the spare part he needs to repair it from a heavily guarded desert warehouse.
Post-apocalyptic fantasy of a familiar kind, silly but enjoyable if you are in a tolerant enough mood to accept Melanie Griffith as the female equivalent of Mad Max.
w Michael Almereyda story Lloyd Fonvielle d Steve de Jarnatt ph Jacques Haitkin m Basil Poledouris pd John J. Moore ed Edward Abroms, Duwayne Dunham ☆ Melanie Griffith, David Andrews, Ben Johnson, Brion James, Tim Thomerson, Harry Carey Jnr, Pamela Gidley
† The film was made in 1985.

'At Virgin High... it's put out or die...'

Cherry Falls
US 1999 92m DeLuxe
Entertainment/Rogue/Industry Entertainment/Fresh Produce (Marshall Persinger, Eli Selden)
In Cherry Falls, Virginia, a serial killer picks chaste adolescents as victims.
This reverses the usual slasher movie tradition of killing those who indulge in sex, but otherwise offers the traditional gore mixed in with a little obvious black humour.
w Ken Selden d Geoffrey Wright ph Anthony Richmond m Walter Wersowa pd Marek Dobrowolsky ed John F. Link, Russ DeNove cos Louise Frogley
☆ Michael Biehn (Sheriff Brent Marken), Brittany Murphy (Jody Marken), Jay Mohr (Leonard Marliston), Gabriel Mann (Kenny), Joe Inscoe (Tom Sisler), Keram Malicki-Sanchez (Timmy), Natalie Ramsey (Sandy), Candy Clark (Marge Marken), Amanda Anka (Mina), Clementine Ford (Annette)
'This is so-so, a watchable hark back to the slew of early '80s slasher fare.' – Mark Dinning, Empire

Cherry, Harry and Raquel!
US 1969 71m colour
Panamint/Eve (Russ Meyer)
A crooked sheriff gets his come-uppance.
Little more than a series of violent or sexual incidents, which only have a vague connection with each other; as with Meyer's other films, there's time to contemplate why his characters are always so angry with each other.
w Tom Wolfe, Russ Meyer d Russ Meyer ph Russ Meyer m William Loose ed Russ Meyer, Richard S. Brummer
☆ Larissa Ely, Linda Ashton, Charles Napier, Bert Santos, Franklin H. Bolger, Astrid Lillimor, John Milo

The Cherry Picker
GB 1972 92m Eastmancolor
Fox-Rank/Elsinore (Peter Curran, Derek Kavanagh)
The rich, hippy son of an American tycoon loses his appetite for the sybaritic life.
Typical British product of its time, a failed attempt to mix sex and satire; what we get instead is a cheap-looking movie with a confused narrative and an uncertain tone.
wd Peter Curran novel Pick Up Sticks by Mickey Phillips ph Billy Jordan m Bill McGuffie pd Frank White ed Jack Knight
☆ Lulu, Bob Sherman, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Spike Milligan, Patrick Cargill, Robert Hutton, Priscilla Morgan, Jack Hulbert, Terry-Thomas
'The film dithers over an inadequately scripted and crudely shot narrative that might be charitably described as "rambling" or "picaresque".' – MFB

Chess Fever ★
USSR 1925 20m (24 fps) bw silent
Mezhrabpom-Russ
A chess fanatic is so absorbed that he misses his wedding.
Spirited visual comedy which still raises the intended laughs.
w Nikolai Shpikovsky d Nikolai Shpikovsky, Vsevolod Pudovkin
☆ Vladimir Fogel, Anna Zemtsova

The Chess Players ★
India 1977 129m Eastmancolor
Devki Chitra (Suresh Jindal)
original title: Shatranj Ke Khilari
In 1856 Lucknow, two noblemen are more interested in playing chess than in their state's imminent annexation by the British.
Patchy but frequently charming historical piece with more specifically Indian elements than are usual from its director.
wd Satyajit Ray story Prem Chand m Satyajit Ray ad Bansi Chandragupta ed Dulal Dutta ☆ Sanjeev Kumar, Saeed Jaffrey, Richard Attenborough, Amjad Khan

Le Cheval d'Orgueil: see The Proud Ones

Cheyenne
US 1947 100m bw
Warner
later retitled: The Wyoming Kid
A gambler turns lawman, catches a robber and marries his wife.
Rather sluggish Western which later inspired a long-running TV series.
w Alan Le May, Thames Williamson d Raoul Walsh ☆ Dennis Morgan, Bruce Bennett, Jane Wyman, Arthur Kennedy, Janis Paige, Alan Hale

Cheyenne Autumn ★
US 1964 170m Technicolor Panavision 70
Warner/Ford-Smith (Bernard Smith)
In the 1860s, Cheyenne Indians are moved to a new reservation 1500 miles away; wanting aid, they begin a trek back home, and various battles follow.
Dispirited, shapeless John Ford Western with little of the master's touch; good to look at, however, with effective cameos, notably an irrelevant and out-of-key comic one featuring James Stewart as Wyatt Earp.
w James R. Webb novel Mari Sandoz d John Ford ph William H. Clothier m Alex North ad Richard Day ed Otho Lovering
☆ Richard Widmark, Carroll Baker, Karl Malden, Dolores del Rio, Sal Mineo, Edward G. Robinson, James Stewart, Ricardo Montalban, Gilbert Roland, Arthur Kennedy, Patrick Wayne, Elizabeth Allen, Victor Jory, John Carradine, Mike Mazurki and also John Qualen, George O'Brien
'Although one would like to praise the film for its high-minded aims, it is hard to forget how ponderous and disjointed it is.' – Moira Walsh
'The acting is bad, the dialogue trite and predictable, the pace funereal, the structure fragmented and the climaxes puny.' – Stanley Kauffmann
William H. Clothier

The Cheyenne Social Club ★
US 1970 102m Technicolor Panavision
National General (James Lee Barrett, Gene Kelly)
Two itinerant cowboys inherit a high-class brothel.
Disappointing star comedy Western with pleasing moments and a lively climactic shootout. Perhaps the girls are just a shade too winsome.
w James Lee Barrett d Gene Kelly ph William H. Clothier m Walter Scharf
☆ James Stewart, Henry Fonda, Shirley Jones, Sue Ane Langdon, Robert Middleton, Arch Johnson
'Co-starring Shirley Jones and Rigor Mortis, who enters early and stays through the very last scene.' – Rex Reed

Chi L'ha Vista Morire?: see Who Saw Her Die?

Chi sei?: see Devil within Her

Le Chiavi Di Casa: see The Keys to the House

'If you can't be famous...be infamous.'

Chicago ★★
US/Germany 2002 113m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Miramax /Producer Circle (Martin Richards)
In Chicago of the 1920s a singer and a showgirl both enjoy a brief notoriety and rivalry when each is tried for murder.
A clever screenplay that treats the songs as moments of fantasy and wish fulfillment, and slick direction make for a diverting, cynical account of short-lived celebrity and the collusions between the media and its stars; it is let down by the singing and dancing, which rarely rise above the competent.
w Bill Condon musical play Bob Fosse, Fred Ebb play Maurine Dallas Watkins d Rob Marshall ph Dion Beebe m Danny Elfman m/ly John Kander, Fred Ebb ch Rob Marshall pd John Myhre ed Martin Walsh cos Colleen Atwood
☆ Catherine Zeta Jones (Velma Kelly), Renee Zellweger (Roxie Hart), Richard Gere (Billy Flynn), Queen Latifah (Matron 'Mama' Morton), John C. Reilly (Amos Hart), Christine Baranski (Mary Sunshine), Lucy Liu (Kitty), Taye Diggs (Bandleader), Colm Feore (Martin Harrison), Dominic West (Fred Casely)
'It's rare to find a picture as exuberant, as shallow -- and as exuberant about its shallowness.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times
'A shallow work without a true moral framework, it sees the world as a posturing showbusiness arena, a stage for celebrities to briefly strut their stuff and go on their way.' – Philip French, Observer
'the net effect of the incessant dazzle is depressing.' – Stanley Kaufmann, New Republic
† Maurine Watkins' play was first filmed in 1927 with Phyllis Haver, and again in 1942 as Roxie Hart, starring Ginger Rogers.
♫ 'And All That Jazz'; 'When You're Good to Mama'; 'Cell Block Tango'; 'Roxie'; 'Me and My Baby'; 'Razzle Dazzle'; 'Funny Honey'; 'All I Care About Is Love'; 'We Both Reached For the Gun'; 'I Can't Do It Alone'; 'Mr Cellophane'; 'Nowadays'; 'I Move On'.
picture; Catherine Zeta-Jones; John Myhre (with Gordon Sim); Colleen Atwood; Martin Walsh; sound (Michael Minkler, Dominic Tavella, David Lee)
Bill Condon; Rob Marshall; Renée Zellweger; John C. Reilly; Queen Latifah; Dion Beebe; song 'I Move On' (m John Kander, l Fred Ebb)
Catherine Zeta-Jones; sound (Michael Minkler, Dominic Tavella, David Lee, Maurice Schell)

Chicago Calling ★
US 1951 75m bw
UA/Arrowhead/Joseph Justman (Peter Berneis)
A drunk cannot pay his phone bill and is waiting for a vital call about his daughter's involvement in a car crash.
Moderate, location-shot minor melodrama with a few good ideas.
w John Reinhardt, Peter Berneis d John Reinhardt ph Robert de Grasse m Heinz Roemheld
☆ Dan Duryea, Mary Anderson, Gordon Gebert, Ross Elliott

Chicago, Chicago: see Gaily, Gaily

Chicago Confidential
US 1957 74m bw
Peerless/UA
A gambling syndicate takes over a labour union and frames its incorruptible president for murder.
Very routine gangster potboiler.
w Raymond T. Marcus (Bernard Gordon) story Hugh King book Jack Lait, Lee Mortimer d Sidney Salkow
☆ Brian Keith, Beverly Garland, Dick Foran, Elisha Cook Jnr
† Bernard Gordon wrote the script under a pseudonym because he was blacklisted at the time.

Chicago Deadline
US 1949 87m bw
Paramount (Robert Fellows)
A reporter researches the life of a lonely girl who died of tuberculosis.
Flat star vehicle consisting mainly of overplayed cameos.
w Warren Duff, Tiffany Thayer d Lewis Allen ph John F. Seitz m Victor Young ☆ Alan Ladd, Donna Reed, June Havoc, Berry Kroeger, Arthur Kennedy, Gavin Muir, Shepperd Strudwick † Remade as the TV pilot of The Name of the Game.

'Where desire has no limits ... Fantasies become dangerous realities!'

Chicago Joe and the Showgirl
GB 1989 103m colour
Palace/New Line/Polygram/Working Title/BSB (Tim Bevan)
During the Second World War, an American deserter and his English girlfriend, a stripper, enhance their affair by committing a series of crimes.
Based on actual events, but a movie that

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

rarely seems more than a laboured fantasy and one that the public ignored.
w David Yallop d Bernard Rose ph Mike Southon m Hans Zimmer, Shirley Walker pd Gemma Jackson ed Dan Rae
☆ Kiefer Sutherland, Emily Lloyd, Patsy Kensit

Chicago Masquerade: see Little Egypt

Chicago Syndicate
US 1955 86m bw
Clover/Columbia

A young accountant breaks up an outwardly respectable crime syndicate.
Formula racket-busting melodrama.
w Joseph Hoffman d Fred F. Sears
☆ Dennis O'Keefe, Abbe Lane, Paul Stewart, Xavier Cugat, Alison Haynes

The Chicken Chronicles
US 1977 94m CFI color
Chicken Enterprises/Avco Embassy

Problems of a teenager in an American small town.
Extremely boring comedy drama, obsessed with sex and lacking background détail.
w Paul Diamond d Francis Simon
☆ Phil Silvers, Ed Lauter, Steve Guttenberg, Meredith Baer, Lisa Reeves

Chicken Every Sunday ★
US 1949 94m bw
TCF

The Hefferans have run a boarding house for twenty years, but dad's wild schemes run away with any possible profit.
Archetypal, folksy, American small-town chronicle, reasonably well made, for an audience that later watched The Waltons.
w George Seaton, Valentine Davies
d George Seaton ph Harry Jackson
m Alfred Newman
☆ Dan Dailey, Celeste Holm, Colleen Townsend, Alan Young, Natalie Wood

'The end is near'
Chicken Little ③
US 2005 80m colour
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Randy Fullmer)

Townspeople ignore a young chicken who warns of an alien invasion.
Unattractive animation with dull characters, an uninteresting narrative that depends on references and parodies of other movies, and no wit.
w Steve Bencich, Ron J. Friedman, Ron Anderson story Mark Dindal, Mark Kennedy d Mark Dindal m John Debney pd David Womersley ed Dan Molina
☆ Zach Braff (Chicken Little), Garry Marshall (Buck Cluck), Joan Cusack (Abby Mallard), Steve Zahn (Runt of the Litter), Amy Sedaris (Foxy Loxy), Don Knotts (Mayor Turkey Lurkey), Harry Shearer (Dog Announcer), Patrick Stewart (Mr Woolensworth)
'A terrible movie - a hectic, uninspired pastiche of catchphrases and clichés.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times
† A 3-D version of the film was also given a limited release.

'This Ain't No Chick Flick'
Chicken Run ★★★
US/GB 2000 85m Technicolor
Pathé/DreamWorks, Aardman (Peter Lord, David Sproxton, Nick Park)

A circus rooster helps organise chickens to escape the jail-like farm where they face certain death in an automated pie-making machine.
In part a parody of prisoner-of-war films such as The Great Escape, which will mean little to its intended audience, this gradually develops a comic momentum and absurdity all of its own, with a quaint handmade charm that proves irresistible.
w Karey Kirkpatrick story Peter Lord, Nick Park d Peter Lord, Nick Park ph Dave Alex Riddett, Tristan Oliver, Frank Passingham m John Powell, Harry Gregson-Williams pd Phil Lewis ad Tim Farrington ed Mark Solomon
☆ voices of: Mel Gibson (Rocky), Julia Sawalha (Ginger), Miranda Richardson (Mrs Tweedy), Jane Horrocks (Babs), Lynn Ferguson (Mac), Imelda Staunton (Bunty), Benjamin Whitrow (Fowler), Tony Haygarth (Mr Tweedy), Timothy Spall (Nick), Phil Daniels (Fetcher)
'Always engaging, full of bright humor, marvelous stop-motion work with Plasticine figures, dramatic conflict and wonderfully nuanced characterizations.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'A smart mix of nostalgia, sweetness and flip modernity in design and dialogue.' – Angie Errigo, Empire
'Pretty modest fare, with nothing like the style and invention of the Toy Story films.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Chicken Tikka Massala
GB 2004 96m colour
Film Incubation/Medtia Media/B2B TV Network (Sanjay Tandon, Rony Ghosh)

In Preston, a gay Asian man and his English lover scheme to avoid his marriage, arranged by his oblivious parents.
Obvious comedy that sticks to familiar sitcom routines and situations borrowed from better films..
w Roopesh Parekh story Sanjay Tandon, Rony Ghosh d Harmage Singh Kalirai ph Mike Muschamp m Jasmine Eden, Illegal Demo, Pravin Manai pd Mark Leeming ed Zoran Trajkovic
☆ Chris Bisson (Jimi Chopra), Saeed Jaffrey (C. P. Chopra), Sally Bankes (Vanessa), Peter Ash (Jack), Zohra Segal (Grandmother)
'Decent enough British farce with plenty of laughs, even if the gaps in between them are a bit long.' – David Edwards, Daily Mirror

Chickens Come Home ★
US 1931 30m bw
Hal Roach

Stan helps his boss Ollie to evade the attentions of an old flame.
Rather heavy and untypical, but mainly very enjoyable star comedy, a remake of Love 'Em and Weep in which all three leading players had appeared four years earlier in different roles.
w H. M. Walker story Hal Roach d James W. Horne ph Art Lloyd, Jack Stevens ed Richard Currier
☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, James Finlayson, Mae Busch, Thelma Todd

The Chief
US 1933 80m bw
MGM
GB title: My Old Man's a Fireman

A fireman's son becomes a Bowery candidate for alderman.
Feeble comedy with the star ill at ease.
w Arthur Caesar, A. E. Hopkins d Charles F. Riesner
☆ Ed Wynn, Dorothy Mackaill, Charles 'Chic' Sale, William Boyd, George Givot, C. Henry Gordon
'With the radio draw angle discarded it is weak entertainment.' – Variety

Chief Crazy Horse
US 1954 86m Technicolor
Cinemascope
U-I (William Alland)
GB title: Valley of Fury

The tribal problems of the Indian chief who defeated Custer at Little Big Horn.
Competent pro-Indian Western.
w Franklin Coen, Gerald Drayson Adams d George Sherman ph Harold Lipstein m Frank Skinner
☆ Victor Mature, Suzan Ball, John Lund, Ray Danton, Keith Larsen, Paul Guilfoyle, David Janssen

Un Chien Andalou ★
France 1928 17m bw silent
Luis Buñuel

Famous surrealist short which includes dead donkeys on pianos and starts with a woman's eyeball being cut by a razor blade.
It had meaning for its makers, but very few other people saw anything in it but sensationalism.
w Luis Buñuel, Salvador Dali d Luis Buñuel ph Albert Dubergen ed Luis Buñuel
☆ Simone Mareuil, Pierre Batcheff, Jaime Miravilles, Salvador Dali, Luis Buñuel

La Chienne ★
France 1931 85m bw
Braunberger-Richebé

A bank clerk falls for a prostitute and later kills her; her pimp is executed for the crime and the bank clerk becomes a tramp.
Heavy-going, old-fashioned melodrama with some interesting detail.
wd Jean Renoir novel Georges de la Fouchardière ph Theodor Sparkuhl, Roger Hubert ☆ Michel Simon, Janie Marèze, Georges Flament, Jean Gehret
'If the English translation of the title is unfit to print, the film's dialogue cannot be translated into English. Okay for sophisticated audiences that look for a taste of spice in a ritzy spot.' – Variety † Remade as Scarlet Street (qv).

La Chiesa: see The Church

Le Chignon D'Olga ★★
France 2001 95m colour
Artificial Eye/Artcam,StudioCanal,France 3 (Joel Frages, Elise Jalladeau, Arnauld de Battice, Sylvain Goldberg)

GB title: Olga's Chignon
In a small French town, an unhappy teenager becomes obsessed with a young woman who works in a bookshop.
Charming, quietly intelligent account of loss and the search for love.
wd Jérôme Bonnell ph Pascale Lagriffoul m Schubert, Debussy et al pd Benoit Béchet ed Ludo Troch
☆ Hubert Benhamdine (Julien), Nathalie Boutefeu (Alice), Serge Riaboukine (Gilles), Florence Loiret Caille (Emma), Delphine Rollin (Olga), Marc Citti (Pascal), Nicole (Valérie Stroh)
'Light, neatly plotted film, predictable, but truthful.' – Philip French, Observer

Chihwaseon ★★ ⑦
Republic of Korea 2002 117m colour
Pathé/Taehung/MVP (Lee Tae-Won)

GB title: Drunk on Women and Poetry
In South Korea, a rebellious orphan overcomes difficulties and grows up to be an acclaimed artist, but rejects fame.
Exuberant, episodic biopic of an impassioned non-conformist, in opposition to the art of his time but often confined by his working-class beginnings and drunken outbursts.
w Kim Young-Oak, Im Kwon-Taek d Im Kwon-Taek ph Jung Il-Sung pd Ju Byoung-Do ed Choi Kwang-Jin
☆ Choi Min-Sik (Jang Seung-Up/Ohwon), Ahn Sung-Ki (Kim Byung-Moon), You Ho-Jeong (Mae-Hyang), Kim Yeo-Jin (Jin-Hong), Son Ye-Jin (So-Woon), Han Myoung-Gu (Lee Eung-Heon)
'A binding strength of the film is the performance of Choi Min-Sik as Ohwon: far from any fake-Barrymore antics, he makes us feel that we are intruding on the heat and genius of a man for whom life – existence as is possible in the world – is insufficient.' – Stanley Kauffmann, New Republic † Jang Seung-Up, who took the name of Ohwon, was born in 1843 and disappeared in 1897. A child prodigy, he became one of Korea's most respected artists, though refusing to conform to the aristocratic pretensions of the time. Little is know of his life, other than, according to Im Kwon-Taek, he was a genius who liked women and boozing.

Chik Yeung Tin Sai: see So Close

The Child ★★★ ⑦
France/Belgium 2005 96m colour
Artificial Eye/Diaphana/Cineart/Les Films du Fleuve/Archipel 35/RTBF/Scope/ARTE France (Jean-Pierre Dardenne, Luc Dardenne, Denis Freyd)

original title: L'Enfant
In a Belgian industrial town a petty thief decides to sell it for adoption to the highest bidder after his young girlfriend has a baby.
Compelling, at times harrowing drama, concerned with immaturity and the possibilities of redemption, shot in a documentary style with a handheld camera.
wd Jean-Pierre Dardenne, Luc Dardenne ph Alain Marcoen ed Marie-Helene Dozo ☆ Jeremie Renier (Bruno), Deborah Francois (Sonia), Jeremie Segard (Steve), Fabrizio Rongione (Young Thug), Olivier Gourmet (Plainclothes Officer)
'An example of how cinema has the power to convince, to move and to compel with the fewest possible material resources.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'For all its seeming simplicity, this is an emotionally and intellectually complex film that holds the viewer in a grip as tight as any classic thriller you can name.' – Glenn Kenny, Premiere
† The film won the Palme D'Or at the 2005 Cannes Film Festival.

Child in the House
GB 1956 88m bw
Eros/Golden Era (Ben Fisz)

When her mother is ill and her father in hiding from the police, a 12-year-old girl goes to stay with her fussy uncle and aunt.
Modest family drama of the novelette type in which adult problems are put right by the wisdom of a child.
wd Cy Endfield novel Janet McNeill ph Otto Heller m Mario Nascimbene ad Ken Adam ☆ Eric Portman, Phyllis Calvert, Stanley Baker, Mandy Miller, Dora Bryan, Joan Hickson, Victor Maddern, Percy Herbert

A Child Is Born

US 1939 79m bw
Warner (Sam Bischoff)
A slice of life in the maternity ward.
Adequately dramatic sequence of cameos, with mothers-to-be including a gangster's moll: a remake of Life Begins (qv).
w Robert Rossen play Mary M. Axelson d Lloyd Bacon ph Charles Rosher m Heinz Roemheld
☆ Geraldine Fitzgerald, Jeffrey Lynn, Gladys George, Gale Page, Spring Byington, Henry O'Neill, John Litel, Gloria Holden, Eve Arden, Nanette Fabares, Hobart Cavanaugh, Johnny Downs, Johnnie Davis

A Child Is Waiting ★★

US 1963 104m bw
UA/Stanley Kramer
A mixed-up spinster joins the staff of a school for mentally handicapped children.
Worthy semi-documentary marred by having a normal boy play the central character (albeit very well). A little over-dramatized but cogent and unsentimental.
w Abby Mann d John Cassavetes
ph Joseph LaShelle m Ernest Gold ☆ Burt Lancaster, Judy Garland, Bruce Ritchey, Steven Hill, Gena Rowlands, Paul Stewart, Lawrence Tierney

The Children ★

GB/West Germany 1990 115m colour
Isolde/Arbo Film & Maran/Channel 4 (Andrew Montgomery)
Returning from Brazil to marry a rich widow, an engineer finds his plans disrupted when he becomes guardian to the boisterous children of an old friend.
A leisurely account of thwarted love, held together by Kingsley's strong central performance of repressed emotion.
w Timberlake Wertenbaker novel Edith Wharton d Tony Palmer ph Nic Knowland m Benjamin Britten, Samuel Barber, Vaughan Williams, Evelyn Glennie pd Chris Bradley, Paul Templeman
☆ Ben Kingsley, Kim Novak, Siri Neal, Geraldine Chaplin, Joe Don Baker, Britt Ekland, Karen Black, Donald Sinden, Robert Stephens, Rupert Graves, Rosemary Leach

Children of a Lesser God ★

US 1986 110m Film Lab Color
Paramount (Burt Sugarman, Patrick Palmer)
A deaf woman falls in love with her speech therapist.
Sluggish adaptation of a play which meant more on the stage.
w Hesper Anderson, Mark Medoff play Mark Medoff d Randa Haines ph John Seale m Michael Convertino pd Gene Callahan ed Lisa Fruchtman
☆ William Hurt, Marlee Matlin, Piper Laurie, Philip Bosco Marlee Matlin
best picture; William Hurt; Piper Laurie; screenplay

Children of Chance

GB/Italy 1949 99m bw
British Lion/Ortus/Lux (John Sutro, Ludovico Toeplitz)
At the end of the Second World War, a woman on the island of Ischia discovers that her savings, which she sent to her village priest for safe-keeping, have been spent on opening a home for the illegitimate children of Allied soldiers.
A slow-moving, sentimental drama which, although based on a true story and filmed on location, lacks authenticity owing to the restrained performances of its impeccably English cast.
w Piero Tellini, Michael Medwin d Luigi Zampa ph Carlo Montuori m Nino Rota ☆ Patricia Medina, Manning Whiley, Yvonne Mitchell, Barbara Everest, Eliot Makeham, George Woodbridge, Frank Tickle, Eric Pohlmann

Children of Hiroshima ★★

Japan 1952 97m bw
Kendai Eiga Lyokai/Gekidan Mingei
A young teacher returns to Hiroshima seven years after the bomb.
Restrained yet harrowing social documentary in fiction form, with the most effective use of flashbacks to show the horror of the bomb and its aftermath.
wd Kaneto Shindo novel Arata Osada
ph Takeo Itoh m Akira Ifukube
☆ Nobuko Otowa, Chikako Hoshawa, Niwa Saito

'No children. No future. No hope.'

Children of Men ★★★ (8)

UK/US/Japan 2006 109m
UIP/Strike Entertainment/Hit and Run Productions (Hilary Shor, Marc Abraham, Tony Smith, Eric Newman, Iain Smith)
In 2027, humanity is infertile, and seems doomed to extinction. In Britain, foreign refugees are imprisoned in cages, bombings are commonplace and lawless gangs run free. Theo, a bureaucrat and ex-activist, is kidnapped by a resistance group and told to secure exit papers for a Fijian girl – who turns out, astonishingly, to be pregnant.
Electrifying, brilliantly shot film with a downbeat story that contains a glimpse of hope at its very end. Unlike most science-fiction, it portrays a London that's recognisable, if more seedy and gloomy. Cuaron stages some outstanding set-pieces, notably when a gang attacks a car containing the principal characters, and a thrilling action sequence in a detention camp for refugees. The ending sits oddly beside the war-zone atmosphere that has preceded it; but this is extraordinary film-making.
w Alfonso Cuaron, Timothy J. Sexton, David Arata, Mark Fergus, Hawk Ostby novel P.D. James d Alfonso Curaon ph Emmanuel Lubezki m John Tavener pd Jim Clay, Geoffrey Kirkland ad Ray Chan, Paul Inglis, Mike Stallion ed Alex Rodriguez, Alfonso Cuaron
☆ Clive Owen (Theo), Julianne Moore (Julian), Michael Caine (Jasper), Chiwetel Ejiofor (Luke), Danny Huston (Nigel), Claire-Hope Ashitey (Kee), Peter Mullan (Syd), Pam Ferris (Miriam)
'Made with palpable energy, intensity and excitement, it compellingly creates a world gone mad that is uncomfortable close to the one we live in. It is a Blade Runner for the 21st century, a worthy successor to that epic of dystopian decay.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times
Cinematography; editing; adapted screenplay

Children of Paradise: see Les Enfants du Paradis

The Children of Sanchez

US/Mexico 1978 126m colour
Hall Bartlett
A macho Mexican and one of his daughters have ideas above the semi-slum in which they live.
The star is still looking for another Zorba the Greek, but this isn't it. Glum, glum, glum.
w Cesare Zavattini, Hall Bartlett novel Oscar Lewis d Hall Bartlett
ph Gabriel Figueroa m Chuck Mangione
☆ Anthony Quinn, Dolores del Rio, Lupita Ferrer, Katy Jurado, Stathis Giallelis

Children of the Corn

US 1984 92m CFI color
New World/Angeles/Cinema Group (Donald P. Borchers, Terence Kirby)
A doctor and his girlfriend run down a child, discover that his throat has been cut, and find themselves in a community of murderous adolescents.
Nightmarish modern fantasy with style but very little to like.
w George Goldsmith story Stephen King d Fritz Kiersch ph Raoul Lomas m Jonathan Elias ☆ Peter Horton, Linda Hamilton, R. G. Armstrong, John Franklin
'The aim seems to be to reassure rather than to disturb.' – Robert Murphy, MFB

Children of the Corn II: The Final Sacrifice

US 1992 Foto-Kem
Fifth Avenue Entertainment (Scott A. Stone, David G. Stanley)
Teenagers who have killed all the adults in a small town in the Bible Belt are moved to another small town, where they proceed to do the same.
Inept sequel, so predictable as to be almost unwatchable.
w A. L. Katz, Gilbert Adler story Children of the Corn by Stephen King d David F. Price ph Levie Isaacks m Daniel Licht pd Greg Melton ed Barry Zetlin sp Bob Keen ☆ Terence Knox, Paul Scherrer, Ryan Bollman, Christie Clark, Rosalind Allen, Ned Romero
'More effective on a shock and shriek level than the original but not a major contribution to anything.' – Empire
† Children of the Corn III; Urban Harvest, Children of the Corn IV; The Gathering, and Children of the Corn V: Fields of Terror followed, providing ever-diminishing returns.

'So young, so innocent, so deadly – they came to conquer the world!'

Children of the Damned ★

GB 1964 90m bw
MGM (Ben Arbeid)
Six super-intelligent children of various nations are brought to London by UNESCO, and turn out to be invaders from another planet.
Moderate sequel to Village of the Damned, well made but with no new twists.
w John Briley d Anton M. Leader ph David Boulton m Ron Goodwin ad Elliot Scott ed Ernest Walter ☆ Ian Hendry, Alan Badel, Barbara Ferris, Alfred Burke, Sheila Allen, Ralph Michael, Martin Miller, Harold Goldblatt

Children of the Marshland: see Les Enfants du Marais

Children Shouldn't Play with Dead Things

US 1972 87m colour
Geneni (Bob Clark, Gary Goch)
A group of film-makers travel to an isolated island cemetery, where they try to raise the dead as a joke, and find they have created zombie cannibals.
A low-budget horror that begins slowly and then quickens to a gory finale, though those who have seen Night of the Living Dead may experience a feeling of déjà vu.
w Benjamin Clark (Bob Clark), Alan Ormsby d Benjamin Clark (Bob Clark)
ph Jack McGowan
☆ Alan Ormsby, Anya Ormsby, Valerie Manches, Jane Daly, Jeff Gillen, Paul Cronin, Bruce Solomon, Seth Sklarey

The Children's Hour ★

US 1962 108m bw
UA/Mirisch (William Wyler)
GB title: The Loudest Whisper
A spoilt schoolgirl spreads a rumour that her schoolmistresses are lesbians.
Frank sixties version of a play originally filmed in a much bowdlerized version as These Three. Unfortunately frankness in this case leads to dullness, as nothing is done with the theme once it is stated, and the treatment is heavy-handed.
w Lillian Hellman play Lillian Hellman d William Wyler ph Franz Planer m Alex North ☆ Audrey Hepburn, Shirley MacLaine, James Garner, Miriam Hopkins, Fay Bainter, Karen Balkin
'All very exquisite, and dead as mutton.' – Tom Milne
Franz Planer; Fay Bainter

The Children's Midsummer Night's Dream

GB 2001 118m colour
Squirrel/Sands (Olivier Stockman)
While watching a puppet version of Shakespeare's play, a group of children take over the play.
A cast of young children from London schools struggle to cope with Shakespeare's verse.
w William Shakespeare wd Christine Edzard play A Midsummer Night's Dream ph Joachim Bergamin m Michel Sanvoisin
☆ Jamie Peachey (Hermia), John Heyfron (Demetrius), Danny Bishop (Lysander), Jessica Fowler (Helena), Leane Lyson (Puck), Daniel Rouse (Quince), Oliver Szczypka (Bottom), Jack Nottage (Snout), Dominic Haywood-Benge (Oberon), Rajouana Zalal (Titania)

Child's Play ★

GB 1952 68m bw
British Lion/Group 3 (Herbert Mason)
Village children find a way to create atomic energy and use the power to set up a flourishing popcorn business.
A lively children's feature that has now acquired a quaint charm in its attitude to nuclear energy.
w Peter Blackmore story Don Sharp, Margaret Thomson d Margaret Thomson ph Denny Densham m Anthony Hopkins ad Michael Stringer ed John Legard
☆ Mona Washbourne, Peter Martyn, Dorothy Alison, John Sharp, Peter Sallis, Christopher Beeny, Wendy Westcott
'A child's chief glories are its energy and its noise; and this picture very properly bombinates with both.' – Paul Dehn

Child's Play ★

US 1972 100m colour Movielab
Paramount (David Merrick)
In a Catholic boarding school for boys, an unpopular master is hounded and discredited by another whose motives may be diabolic.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Enjoyable overblown melodrama with hints of many nasty goings on, rather spoiled by too much talk and too little local colour.
w Leon Prochnik play Robert Marasco d Sidney Lumet ph Gerald Hirschfeld m Michael Small pd Philip Rosenberg ed Edward Warschilka, Joanne Burke
☆ James Mason (Jerome Malley), Robert Preston (Joseph Dobbs), Beau Bridges (Paul Reis), Ronald Weyand (Father Mozian), Charles White (Father Griffin), David Rounds (Father Penny), Kate Harrington (Mrs Carter), Jamie Alexander (Sheppard)
† Marlon Brando, in the role of Joseph Dobbs, left the cast after rehearsing for three days.

Child's Play
US 1988 87m Astrocolor
UIP/United Artists (David Kirschner)
The personality of a serial killer is transferred to a young boy's doll.
Unexciting horror, too predictable to be frightening.
w Don Mancini, John Lafia, Tom Holland d Tom Holland ph Bill Butler m Joe Renzetti pd Daniel A. Lomino ed Edward Warschilka, Roy E. Peterson
☆ Catherine Hicks, Chris Sarandon, Alex Vincent, Brad Dourif, Dinah Manoff, Tommy Swerdlow

Child's Play 2
US 1990 85m DeLuxe
Universal (David Kirschner)
A doll possessed by the spirit of a mass murderer attempts to kill a small boy.
Tiresome and unpleasant.
w Don Mancini d John Lafia ph Stefan Czapsky m Graeme Revell pd Ivo Cristante ad Donald Maskovich ed Edward Warschilka
☆ Alex Vincent, Jenny Agutter, Gerrit Graham, Christine Elise, Brad Dourif, Grace Zabriskie
'Another case of rehashing the few novel elements of the original to the point of utter numbness.' – Variety

Child's Play 3
US 1991 89m DeLuxe
Universal/David Kirschner (Robert Latham Brown)
A killer doll infiltrates a military school in order to kill the students.
Mindless and unpleasant sequel, ever straining for effect.
w Don Mancini d Jack Bender ph John A. Leonetti m Cory Lerios, John D'Andrea pd Richard Sawyer ed Edward Warschilka
☆ Justin Whalin, Perrey Reeves, Jeremy Sylvers, Travis Fine, Dean Jacobson, Brad Dourif, Andrew Robinson
† It was followed in 1998 by a sequel, Bride of Chucky (qv).

'Two guys, one bomb, and a whole lot of ice cream.'

Chill Factor
US 1999 102m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Morgan Creek (James G. Robinson)
Terrorists pursue an ice-cream delivery driver and his friend, who have stored in their refrigerated truck an explosive chemical weapon that has to be kept at a temperature below 50 degrees.
A feeble variant on Speed, in which acting, direction and script combine to produce a flat and uninteresting experience.
w Drew Gitlin, Mike Cheda d Hugh Johnson ph David Gribble m Hans Zimmer, John Powell pd Jeremy Conway ed Pamela Power cos Deborah Everton
☆ Cuba Gooding Jnr (Arlo), Skeet Ulrich (Tim Mason), Peter Firth (Capt Andrew Brynner), David Paymer (Dr Richard Long), Hudson Leick (Vaughn), Daniel Hugh Kelly (Col Leo Vitelli), Kevin J. O'Connor (Telstar), Judson Mills (Dennis), Jordan Mott (Carl), Dwayne Macopson (Burke), Jim Grimshaw (Deputy Pappas)
'Utterly lacking the drive and roller-coaster energy expected of top action pics.' – Robert Koehler, Variety
'Simply a very dull movie.' – Edward Porter, Sunday Times

Chilly Scenes of Winter: see Head Over Heels (1980)

The Chiltern Hundreds ★
GB 1949 84m bw
Rank/Two Cities (George H. Brown)
US title: The Amazing Mr Beecham
An aged earl is bewildered when his son fails to be elected to parliament as a socialist but his butler gets in as a Tory.
Satisfactory filming of an amusing stage comedy, with the aged A. E. Matthews repeating his delightful if irrelevant act as the dotty earl.
w William Douglas Home, Patrick Kirwan play William Douglas Home d John Paddy Carstairs ph Jack Hildyard m Benjamin Frankel
☆ A. E. Matthews, Cecil Parker, David Tomlinson, Marjorie Fielding, Joyce Carey

Chimes at Midnight ★★★
Spain/Switzerland 1966 119m bw Internacional Films Española/Alpine (Alessandro Tasca)
aka: Falstaff
Prince Hal becomes King Henry V and rejects his old friend Falstaff.
Interesting adaptation of Shakespeare with brilliant flashes and the usual Welles' vices of hasty production, poor synchronization and recording, etc. For all its faults, it has an elegiac quality, a lament for a simpler, better, lost England.
wd Orson Welles ph Edmond Richard m Angelo Francesco Lavagnino pd Gustavo Quintano ad Mariano Erdorza, Jose Antonio de la Guerra ed Fritz Mueller
☆ Orson Welles (Falstaff), Keith Baxter (Prince Hal), John Gielgud (Henry IV), Margaret Rutherford (Mistress Quickly), Jeanne Moreau (Doll Tearsheet), Norman Rodway (Henry Percy), Alan Webb (Justice Shallow), Marina Vlady, Tony Beckley, Fernando Rey, Michael Aldridge
'One of Orson Welles' best and least-seen movies ... The film is a near-masterpiece.' – New Yorker
'Ridiculous is the word for the whole enterprise – not funny and certainly not moving.' – John Simon
'A testament to the enduring genius of Orson Welles as screenwriter, director and actor ... does justice to Shakespeare, to cinema and to his own great talents.' – Judith Crist

The Chimp ★
US 1932 30m bw
Hal Roach
Stan and Ollie try to get lodgings without revealing that their friend is a chimp, their share of a bankrupt circus.
The circus scenes are better than the rather tired farce which follows, especially as it is so similar to Laughing Gravy.
w H. M. Walker d James Parrott ph Walter Lundin ed Richard Currier
☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, James Finlayson, Billy Gilbert, Tiny Sandford

Chin Bui Bat Chui: see Drink, Drank, Drunk

Chin Sam Yinghung: see A Hero Never Dies

'Alan Ladd and twenty girls – trapped by the rapacious Japs!'

China
US 1943 79m bw
Paramount (Richard Blumenthal)
An oil salesman joins a Chinese guerrilla force and sacrifices himself.
Solemnly hilarious propaganda piece tailored to its star, showing the immense superiority of one lone American to the entire Japanese army.
w Frank Butler novel The Fourth Brother by Reginald Forbes d John Farrow ph Leo Tover m Victor Young ☆ Alan Ladd, Loretta Young, William Bendix, Philip Ahn, Iris Wong, Sen Yung, Richard Loo, Tala Birell
'A most exciting, turbulent affair.' – James Agate, Tatler

China 9, Liberty 37 ★
Spain/Italy 1978 109m Technicolor Technovision
Lorimar/Compagnia Europe Cinematografica/Aspa (Gianni Bozzacchi, Valerio de Paolis, Monte Hellman)
aka: Gunfire
Hired to shoot a retired killer, a gunfighter runs off with his wife instead and is pursued by the irate husband and his brothers.
Intriguing spaghetti Western, slow-paced, with a brooding atmosphere and some sharp dialogue.
w Jerry Harvey, Douglas Venturelli d Monte Hellman ph Giuseppe Rotunno m Pino Donaggio ad Luciano Spadoni ed Cesare D'Amico
☆ Warren Oates, Fabio Testi, Jenny Agutter, Sam Peckinpah, Isabel Mestres, Gianrico Tondivelli, Franco Interlenghi, Carlos Bravo
† The title refers to a signpost which a travelling hangman passes at the beginning of the film. He takes the road to China.

China Caravan: see A Yank on the Burma Road

China Clipper ★
US 1936 89m bw
Warner (Sam Bischoff)
An aviator neglects his wife while building up a trans-Pacific civil aviation link.
Solid entertainment feature of its day, with adequate production and performance.
w Frank 'Spig' Wead d Ray Enright ph Arthur Edeson m Bernhard Kaun, W. Franke Harling
☆ Pat O'Brien, Beverly Roberts, Ross Alexander, Humphrey Bogart, Marie Wilson, Henry B. Walthall, Joseph Crehan, Addison Richards

China Cry
US 1991 107m CFI color
TBN/Parakletos (Don LeRoy Parker)
During Mao's revolution, a young middle-class woman, who is condemned to a labour camp for aiding her husband's escape from China, survives hardship to join him in Hong Kong.
An interesting story of a spoilt child maturing through the experience of war and injustice, but so flatly told that it makes little emotional impact.
wd James F. Collier book Nora Lam, Irene Burke ph David Worth m Al Kasha, Joel Hirschhorn pd Norman Baron ed Duane Hartzell
☆ Julia Nickson-Soul, Russell Wong, James Shigeta, France Nuyen, Philip Tan, Elizabeth Sung

China Doll
US 1958 99m bw
Romina/Batjac (Frank Borzage)
In 1943 an American air force officer accidentally buys the services of a young Chinese housekeeper. He marries her but they are both killed in action; years later their daughter is welcomed to America by members of his old air crew.
Incurably sentimental and icky romantic drama in the style of the director's silent films; something of a curiosity for historians.
w Kitty Buhler d Frank Borzage ph William H. Clothier m Henry Vars ☆ Victor Mature, Li Li Hua, Bob Mathias, Ward Bond, Stuart Whitman

'An American dynamiter love-locked in war-locked China!'

China Gate
US 1957 90m bw Cinemascope
TCF (Samuel Fuller)
A Eurasian girl guides her American husband to a communist arms dump.
Anti-Red thick ear, slick but undistinguished.
wd Samuel Fuller ph Joseph Biroc m Victor Young, Max Steiner ☆ Gene Barry, Angie Dickinson, Nat King Cole, Paul Dubov, Lee Van Cleef, George Givot

China Girl
US 1943 95m bw
TCF (Ben Hecht)
A newsreel cameraman in China falls in love with a Eurasian schoolteacher.
Routine adventure romance with splodges of love and self-sacrifice.
w Ben Hecht d Henry Hathaway ph Lee Garmes m Hugo Friedhofer
☆ Gene Tierney, George Montgomery, Lynn Bari, Victor McLaglen, Alan Baxter, Sig Rumann, Myron McCormick, Philip Ahn

China Girl
US 1987 90m colour
Vestron (Michael Nozik)
In New York an Italian youth with Mafia connections falls in love with a Chinese girl from a family involved with the Triads.
Romeo and Juliet updated to Little Italy and Chinatown and used as an occasion for bloodletting and much gang violence.
w Nicholas St John d Abel Ferrara ph Bojan Bazelli m Joe Delia ed Anthony Redman ☆ James Russo, Richard Panebianco, Sari Chang, David Caruso, Russell Wong, Joey Chin, Judith Malina, James Hong
'A masterfully directed, uncompromising drama and romance.' – Variety
'Even die-hard fans of New York urban violence movies will find this tough going.' – Stefan Jaworzyn, Shock Xpress

China Moon ★
US 1994 99m DeLuxe Panavision
Orion (Barrie M. Osborne)
A seductive woman, married to an adulterous wife-beating banker, persuades a detective to forget about law and order.

Accomplished but sometimes predictable foray into film noir, an agreeable time-waster.
w Roy Carlson d John Bailey ph Willy Kurant m George Fenton pd Conrad Angone ed Carol Littleton, Jill Savitt
☆ Ed Harris, Madeleine Stowe, Charles Dance, Pruitt Taylor Vince, Patricia Healy, Benicio del Toro
'Avoids slick montage and the cheap thrills of shock cuts and instead aims for the eyes – and heart.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety
† The film was made in 1992.

China, My Sorrow: see Niu-Peng

China O'Brien
US 1988 90m Image Transform colour
Golden Harvest/Fred Weintraub
A former cop replaces her murdered father as sheriff of a small town.
The usual martial arts mayhem with the novelty of a high-kicking female hero.
wd Robert Clouse story Sandra Weintraub ph Kent Wakeford m David Wheatley, Paul Antonelli ed Mark Harrah
☆ Cynthia Rothrock, Richard Norton, Keith Cooke, Patrick Adamson, David Blackwell

China O'Brien II
US 1989 86m colour
Imperial/Golden Harvest (Fred Weintraub)
A female sheriff is threatened by an escaped drug pusher.
Routine high-kicking martial arts, with the usual rudimentary acting.
w James Hennessy, Craig Clyde story Sandra Weintraub d Kent Wakeford
m David Wheatley, Paul F. Antonelli
ed Mark Harrah
☆ Cynthia Rothrock, Richard Norton, Keith Cooke, Frank Magner, Harlow Marks, Tiffany Soter
'A haphazard affair, generating little interest.' – Variety

China Seas ★★
US 1935 89m bw
MGM (Albert Lewin)
Luxury cruise passengers find themselves involved with piracy.
Omnibus shipboard melodrama, tersely scripted and featuring a splendid cast all somewhere near their best; slightly dated but very entertaining.
w Jules Furthman, James Kevin McGuinness novel Crosbie Garstin d Tay Garnett ph Ray June m Herbert Stothart
☆ Clark Gable, Jean Harlow, Wallace Beery, Rosalind Russell, Lewis Stone, C. Aubrey Smith, Dudley Digges, Robert Benchley
'It will do double-barrelled duty, drawing business and providing ace entertainment.' – Variety
'The hell with art this time. I'm going to produce a picture that will make money.' – Irving Thalberg

'Today, only a handful of people know what it means... Soon you will know.'

The China Syndrome ★★★
US 1979 122m Metrocolor
Columbia/IPC (Michael Douglas)
The controller of a nuclear power plant discovers an operational flaw which could lead to disaster, but the unscrupulous authorities want to cover it up.
Topical thriller-with-a-moral, absorbingly done in the old style but perhaps in the end a shade too hysterical and self-congratulatory.
w Mike Gray, T. A. Cook, James Bridges
d James Bridges ph James Crabe
m various pd George Jenkins ad George Jenkins ed David Rawlins
☆ Jane Fonda (Kimberly Wells), Jack Lemmon (Jack Godell), Michael Douglas (Richard Adams), Scott Brady (Herman DeYoung), Peter Donat (Don Jacovich), James Hampton (Bill Gibson)
'The performances are so good, and the screen so bombarded with both action and informative images ... that it's only with considerable hindsight that one recovers sufficient breath to reproach the script with the occasional glib symmetry.' – Jan Dawson, MFB
Jack Lemmon, Jane Fonda; script
Jack Lemmon; Jane Fonda

Chinatown ★★★★
US 1974 131m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount/Long Road (Robert Evans)
In 1937, a Los Angeles private eye takes on a simple case and burrows into it until it leads to murder and a public scandal.
Teasing, complex mystery that uses the conventions of detective stories to explore civic and personal corruption, in the style of Raymond Chandler, but adding a more modern perspective. It is eminently watchable, with effective individual scenes and performances and photography which is lovingly composed though tending to suggest period by use of an orange filter.
w Robert Towne d Roman Polanski
ph John A. Alonso m Jerry Goldsmith
pd Richard Sylbert ad Stewart Campbell
ed Sam O'Steen
☆ Jack Nicholson (J.J. Gittes), Faye Dunaway (Evelyn Mulwray), John Huston (Noah Cross), Perry Lopez (Escobar), John Hillerman (Yelburton), Roman Polanski (Man with Knife), Darrell Zwerling (Hollis Mulwray), Diane Ladd (Ida Sessions)
'You are swept along as helpless as any of the corpses so unaccountably drowned in empty lake-beds.' – Dilys Powell
'The success of Chinatown – with its beautifully structured script and draggy, overdeliberate direction – represents something dialectically new: nostalgia (for the thirties) openly turned to rot, and the celebration of rot.' – Pauline Kael
Robert Towne
best picture; Roman Polanski; John A. Alonso; Jerry Goldsmith; Jack Nicholson; Faye Dunaway Roman Polanski; Robert Towne; Jack Nicholson

Chinese Box
US/France/Japan 1997 109m colour
Canal+/NDF/WW (Lydia Dean Pilcher, Jean-Louis Piel)
As the British prepare to hand over Hong Kong to the Chinese, a dying English journalist tries to make his own farewells through his relationship with two contrasting women.
Tepid topical drama that uses TV newscasts to provide an urgency that is otherwise lacking.
w Jean-Claude Carriere, Larry Gross
d Wayne Wang ph Vilko Filac m Graeme Revell pd Chris Wong ed Christopher Tellefsen
☆ Jeremy Irons, Gong Li, Maggie Cheung, Ruben Blades, Michael Hui
'This tale of impossible cross-cultural love is rendered dreary by lukewarm chemistry between stars Jeremy Irons and Gong Li, and a script that provides no character depth.' – David Rooney, Variety

Chinese Boxes
GB 1984 87m colour
Palace/Road Movies (Chris Sievernich)
An American in Berlin discovers a dead 15-year-old girl in his apartment.
A thriller that resembles a jigsaw with some of the pieces missing. It is told in such an elliptical fashion as to leave the viewer not only confused but indifferent.
w L. M. Kit Carson, Christopher Petit
d Christopher Petit ph Peter Harvey
m Günter Fischer ad Edgar Hinz, Klaus Beiger ed Fred Srp
☆ Will Patton, Gottfried John, Adelheid Arndt, Robbie Coltrane, Beate Jensen, L. M. Kit Carson, Chris Sievernich, Christopher Petit

The Chinese Bungalow
GB 1939 72m bw
George King
US title: Chinese Den
A Chinese merchant plots to kill the lover of his English wife.
Stolid version of an old melodrama which can hardly fail; previously filmed in 1926 with Matheson Lang and Genevieve Townsend (directed by Sinclair Hill) and in 1930 with Matheson Lang and Anna Neagle (directed by J. B. Williams).
w A. R. Rawlinson, George Wellesley play Matheson Lang, Marian Osmond
d George King ph Hone Glendinning
☆ Paul Lukas, Jane Baxter, Robert Douglas, Kay Walsh, Jerry Verno

The Chinese Connection: see Fist of Fury

Chinese Den: see The Chinese Bungalow

A Chinese Feast
Hong Kong 1995 107m colour 'Scope
Mandarin/Film Workshop original title: Gamyuk Muntong
An inept chef seeks the help of a one-time master, now a derelict, to enter a contest to cook the Qing and Han Imperial Feast, an elaborate banquet of more than 100 dishes.
Broad slapstick comedy that is unlikely to be to Western tastes, any more than the main dishes prepared for the banquet: bear's paw, elephant's trunk and monkey's brains with shark's fin.
w Tsui Hark, Ng Man-fai, Tseng Tsung-tai d Tsui Hark ph Peter Pau m Lowell Lo
pd William Chang ed Mak Tsi-sin
☆ Leslie Cheung, Anita Yuen, Kenny Bee, Ni Shu-chun, Lo Ka-ying, Zhao Wenzhuo, Hung Yan-yan
'A comic kung-food movie about dueling chefs that's funny, skillful and a heart-warmer to boot.' – Derek Elley, Variety † Subtitles on the video are so small as to be almost unreadable, and even when they can be read they are frequently incomprehensible ('Make sure dismoral to the fish, not me').

A Chinese Ghost Story
Hong Kong 1988 98m colour
Film Workshop (Tsui Hark) original title: Qiannu Youhun
A wandering tax collector falls in love with a ghost condemned to lure men to their death.
Fast-moving mix of horror, romance and martial arts; its narrative, involving reincarnation and a soul-sucking tree demon with a killer tongue, confuses as much as it entertains.
story Pu Songling d Ching Siu-tung
ph Poon Hang-Seng m Romeo Diaz
pd Xi Zhongwen ed David Wu ☆ Leslie Cheung, Joey Wong, Wu Ma, David Lam

A Chinese Ghost Story II
Hong Kong 1990 104m colour
Golden Princess (Tsui Hark) original title: Qiannu Youhun – Renjian Dao
A wandering scholar falls for the reincarnation of his ghostly lover and rescues her father from evil spirits.
With its half-comic, half-horrific demon creeping up behind the hero, magic spells, broad humour and evil golden Buddha, this, in Western terms, resembles a lavish pantomime; on that level, it is moderately enjoyable.
d Ching Siu-tung ph Wong Ngok-Tai ☆ Leslie Cheung, Joey Wong, Jackie Cheung, Michelle Reis, Waise Lee, Wu Ma, Ku Feng

Chinese Roulette ★
West Germany/France 1976 86m
Eastmancolor
Albatros/Losange (Rainer Werner Fassbinder)
Various related people, mainly adulterous, meet in a country château and play a truth game which ends in violence.
Interestingly enigmatic character melodrama reminiscent of Bergman at his prime, but concerning people who barely seem to matter.
wd Rainer Werner Fassbinder ph Michael Ballhaus m Peer Raben ☆ Margit Carstensen, Andrea Schober, Ulli Lommel, Anna Karina, Macha Meril
'Locked into their private hell ... this vicious octet form their own coherent and compelling universe.' – Jan Dawson, MFB

Chino: see The Valdez Horses

Chino
US/Italy 1973 98m colour
Dino de Laurentiis
A runaway boy helps a half-breed run a ranch in New Mexico.
Undistinguished Western.
w Clair Huffaker novel Lee Hoffman
d John Sturges
☆ Charles Bronson, Jill Ireland, Vincent Van Patten

La Chinoise ★★★
France 1967 95m Eastmancolor
Fair Enterprises/Productions de la Guéville/Parc/Simar/Anouchka/Athos
In 1967, five Parisian Maoist revolutionaries debate the best ways of achieving the end of the capitalist system, from closing the universities to acting Brecht, and decide that terrorism is the way forward.
With hindsight, a prophetic movie of the student politics that shook Paris a year later, which is still a troubling and wittily intriguing film in its search for new means of cinematic expression.
wd Jean-Luc Godard ph Raoul Coutard
m Karl-Heinz Stockhausen ed Agnès Guillemot, Delphine Desfons
☆ Anne Wiazemsky (Veronique), Jean-Pierre Léaud (Guillaume), Michel Sémeniako (Henry), Lex de Brujin (Kirilov), Juliet Berto (Yvonne), Omar Diop (Comrade X), Francis Jeanson (Himself)

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'The movie is like a speed-freak's anticipatory vision of the political horrors to come; it's amazing.' – Pauline Kael
'A piece of mitigated trash ... Godard, his material, his pretentiousness and undisciplined garrulity, are boring when not exasperating.' – John Simon

Chisum ★

US 1970 110m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Batjac (Michael Wayne, Andrew J. Fenady)

A corrupt businessman plots against the head of a vast cattle empire, who is saved by the intervention of numerous friends including Pat Garrett and Billy the Kid.
Desultory, overlong, friendly Western in the Ford manner. Easy to watch and easier to forget.
w Andrew J. Fenady d Andrew V. McLaglen ph William H. Clothier m Dominic Frontière
☆ John Wayne, Forrest Tucker, Christopher George, Ben Johnson, Glenn Corbett, Bruce Cabot, Andrew Prine, Patric Knowles, Richard Jaeckel, Lynda Day George, John Agar, Ray Teal, Glenn Langan, Alan Baxter, Abraham Sofaer
'A curious mixture of styles and myths.' – John Gillett

Chitty Chitty Bang Bang

GB 1968 145m Technicolor Super Panavision 70
UA/Warfield/DFI (Albert R. Broccoli)

An unsuccessful inventor rescues a derelict car and gives it magical properties, then helps the children who own it to overthrow the government of a country which hates children.
A bumpy ride. Sentiment, slapstick, whimsy and mild scares do not combine but are given equal shares of the limelight, while poor trickwork prevents the audience from being transported.
w Roald Dahl, Ken Hughes d Ken Hughes ph Christopher Challis m Irwin Kostal m/ly The Sherman Brothers ad Rowland Emmett
☆ Dick Van Dyke, Sally Ann Howes (Truly Scrumptious), Lionel Jeffries, Robert Helpmann, Gert Frobe, Benny Hill, James Robertson Justice
♪ title song

Chloë in the Afternoon: see L'Amour, L'Après-midi

Cho Suk: see 2 Young

Le Choc: see The Shock

Chocolat ★★

France/Germany/Cameroon 1988 105m colour
Electric/Cinemanuel/MK2/Cerio/Wim Wenders Produktion/TF1/SEPT/Caroline/FODIC (Alain Belmondo, Gerard Crosnier)

A French woman recalls her colonial childhood in French West Africa and her relationship with the family servant.
Cool, distanced, semi-autobiographical account of racism and its effects.
w Claire Denis, Jean-Pol Fargeau d Claire Denis ph Robert Alazraki m Abdullah Ibrahim pd Thierry Flamand ed Claudine Merlin
☆ Isaach de Bankole, Giula Boschi, François Cluzet, Jean-Claude Adelin
'Undoubtedly over-generous, fictionalised and nostalgic, but it is also well paced, well observed and shot through with a dry sense of humour.' – Jill Forbes, MFB

'One taste is all it takes.'

Chocolat ★

US 2000 121m Technicolor
(David Brown, Kit Golden, Leslie Holleran)

A single mother arrives in a small, dull French town ruled by an over-righteous mayor and opens a chocolate shop that changes the lives of the inhabitants.
A overly sweet confection that makes individuality seem the last refuge of the smug; it's not so much soft-centred as positively melting over Binoche's ever-tolerent heroine. Even on its fairy-tale level, there's no real tension or contest here between freedom and repression – it's Red Riding Hood without the wolf.
w Robert Nelson Jacobs novel Joanne Harris d Lasse Hallström ph Roger Pratt m Rachel Portman pd David Gropman ed Andrew Mondshein cos Renée Ehrlich Kalfus
☆ Juliette Binoche (Vianne Rocher), Lena Olin (Josephine Muscat), Johnny Depp (Roux), Judi Dench (Armande Voizin), Alfred Molina (Comte de Reynaud), Peter Stormare (Serge Muscat), Carrie-Anne Moss (Caroline Clairmont), Leslie Caron (Madame Audel), John Wood (Guillaume Blerot), Hugh O'Conor (Pere Henri), Victoire Thivisol (Anouk Rocher), Aurelien Parent Koenig (Luc Clairmont)
'This crowd-pleaser is the feature-film version of milk chocolate: an art house movie for people who don't like art house movies.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times
'A richly textured comic fable that blends Old World wisdom with a winking, timely commentary on the assumed moral superiority of the political right.' – Lael Loewenstein, Variety
'The sheer, unmitigated ickiness of the film is what gets you down in the end.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
♪ picture; Juliette Binoche; Judi Dench; Robert Nelson Jacobs; Rachel Portman

The Chocolate Soldier ★

US 1941 102m bw
MGM (Victor Saville)

Married opera singers fall out backstage.
Talky musical remake of The Guardsman: nearly comes off but not quite.
w Keith Winter, Leonard Lee d Roy del Ruth ph Karl Freund m Herbert Stothart, Bronislau Kaper m/ly Oscar Straus
☆ Nelson Eddy, Rise Stevens, Nigel Bruce, Florence Bates, Nydia Westman
♪ Karl Freund; Herbert Stothart, Bronislau Kaper

The Choice

Burkina Faso 1987 88m colour
Les Films de L'Avenir original title: Yam Daabo

The pleasures and tribulations of African village life.
Rudimentary and episodic first feature, lacking the resonance of the director's later films such as Yaaba and Tilai (qv).
wd Idrissa Ouédraogo ph Jean Monsigny, Sekou Ouedraogo, Issaka Thiombiano m Francis Bebey ed Arnaud Blin
☆ Aoua Guiraud, Moussa Bologo, Ousmana Sawadogo, Fatima Ouedraogo

Choice of Arms ★

France 1981 130m Fujicolour Panavision
Sara/Parafrance/Antenne 2/RMC (Daniel Deschamps)

original title: Le Choix des Armes

A successful, retired gangster is drawn back into a world of violence when, after a jail break, a seriously wounded friend seeks refuge at his stud farm together with a young, violent, reckless hoodlum.
Interesting but too-leisurely account of people unable to escape their past.
w Michel Grisolia, Alain Corneau d Alain Corneau ph Pierre William Glenn m Philippe Sarde ad Jean-Pierre Kohut Svelko ed Thierry Derocles
☆ Yves Montand, Gérard Depardieu, Catherine Deneuve, Michel Galabru, Gérard Lanvin, Jean-Claude Dauphin, Jean Rougerie, Christian Marquand, Richard Anconina

Choice of Weapons: see Trial by Combat

The Choirboys

US 1978 119m Technicolor
Lorimar/Airone (Lee Rich, Merv Adelson)

Members of a police department are if anything more delinquent, vicious and mentally retarded than their quarries.
A vulgar and repellent anti-establishment display, apparently intended as black comedy. Just the thing to put an end to the art of the movie once and for all.
w Christopher Knopf novel Joseph Wambaugh d Robert Aldrich ph Joseph Biroc m Frank de Vol
☆ Charles Durning, Lou Gossett Jnr, Perry King, Stephen Macht, Tim McIntire, Clyde Kusatsu, Randy Quaid, Don Stroud, Robert Webber, Blair Brown

Le Choix des Armes: see Choice of Arms

Chomps

US 1979 89m Movielab
American International (Joseph Barbera)

A young inventor is successful with a robot dog (Canine Home Protection System).
Rather feeble family-oriented comedy.
w Dick Robbins, Duane Poole story Joseph Barbera d Don Chaffey ph Charles F. Wheeler m Hoyt Curtin pd Ted Shell ed Warner Leighton, Dick Darling
☆ Wesley Eure, Jim Backus, Valerie Bertinelli, Chuck McCann, Regis Toomey, Red Buttons, Hermione Baddeley

Choose Me

US 1984 106m Movielab
Island Alive/Tartan (Carolyn Pfeiffer, David Blocker)

Two lonely people in LA become a couple.
Even for those not irritated by the director's style and interests, this is an entertainment which goes around in circles and gets nowhere, except Las Vegas.
wd Alan Rudolph ph Jan Kiesser m Luther Vandross pd Steve Legler ed Mia Goldman
☆ Geneviève Bujold, Keith Carradine, Lesley Ann Warren, Patrick Bachau, Rae Dawn Chong
'An L.A. flower, a neon orchid – hip, outrageous, beautiful. It's a romance – music at its heart and farce around its edges – for those afraid to be in love.' – Sheila Benson, Los Angeles Times

Choose Your Partner: see Two Girls on Broadway

Chop Suey ★

US 2000 98m bw/colour
Just Blue

Fashion photographer Bruce Weber details some of his friends and interests.
A smörgåsbord of assorted moments from the life of Weber, a photographer noted for his homoerotic images, which are reflected here in his obsessive interest in a young wrestler.
wd Bruce Weber ph Lance Accord, Douglas Cooper, Jim Fealy m John Leftwich ad Dimitri Levas ed Angelo Corrao, Elizabeth Heeden
☆ Peter Johnson, Frances Faye, Rickson Gracie, Robert Mitchum, Jan Michael Vincent, Diana Vreeland, Sir Wilfred Thesiger
'"Spending time with Weber and hearing his stories makes you realize you might be listening to the secret of a happy life.' – Jeffrey M. Anderson, San Francisco Examiner

'The Truth, The Half Truth And Nothing Like The Truth.'

Chopper ★

Australia 2000 94m colour
Metrodome/Mushroom/Pariah/AFFC (Michele Bennett)

A notorious Australian criminal, killer and best-selling author looks back over his life and crimes.
An engaging central performance enlivens this portrait, based on fact, of a frightening and brutal man, convincingly mixing violence and humour.
wd Andrew Dominik ph Geoffrey Hall, Kevin Hayward m Mick Harvey pd Paddy Reardon ed Ken Sallows
☆ Eric Bana (Mark 'Chopper' Read), Vince Colosimo (Neville Bartos), Simon Lyndon (Jimmy Loughnan), Kate Beahan (Tanya), David Field (Keithy George), Dan Wyllie (Bluey), Bill Young (Detective Downey), Kenny Graham (Keith Read), Gary Waddell (Kevin Darcy), Fred Barker (Governor Beasley)
'Unsettling and at times uneven, but always fascinating material for anyone prepared for a grim ride.' – Mark Dinning, Empire

Chopper Chicks in Zombietown

US 1989 89m Foto-Kem
Chelsea (Arthur Sarkissian)

A gang of female bikers ride into a small town where the funeral director is killing the locals and turning them into mine-working zombies.
Incoherent Z movie with unconvincing bikers and zombies; it is cheap and cheerless.
wd Dan Hoskins ph Tom Fraser m Daniel May ad Tim Baxter ed W.O. Garret
☆ Jamie Rose (Dede), Catherine Carlin (Rox), Lycia Naff (T.C.), Vicki Frederick (Jewel), Kristina Loggia (Jojo), Gretchen Palmer (Rusty), Nina Peterson (Tanya), Whitney Reis (Lucille), Ed Gale (Bob), Don Calfa (Ralph Willum), Billy Bob Thornton (Donny), Lewis Arquette (Sheriff Bugiere), Martha Quinn (Mae Clutter)

Les Choristes: see The Chorus

The Chorus ★

France/Switzerland 2004 97m colour 'Scope
Pathé/Galatee/Pathé Renn/France 2/Novo Arturo/Vega (Jacques Perrin, Arthur Cohn, Nicolas Mauvernay)

original title: Les Choristes

A French conductor recalls how he stopped being a delinquent when, in 1949, a new teacher at his state reform school formed the boys into a choir.

This soft-centered, manipulative and predictible drama, a remake of a 1945 film, became one of France's biggest box-office hits; it is difficult to see why, enjoyably maudlin through it is.
w Christophe Barratier, Philippe Lopes-Curval screenplay La cage aux rossignols by Noel-Noel, Rene Wheeler, Georges Chaperot d Christophe Barratier
ph Carlo Varini, Dominique Gentil
m Bruno Coulais pd François Chauvaud
ed Yves Deschamps
☆ Gerard Jugnot (Clement Mathieu), François Berleand (Rachin), Kad Merad (Chabert), Jacques Perrin (Pierre Morhange as adult), Jean-Baptiste Maunier (Pierre Morhange as child), Marie Bunel (Violette Morhange), Jean-Paul Bonnaire (Maxence), Philippe Du Janerand (Langlois)
'A relentlessly heartwarming addition to the annals of One-Teacher-Can-Make-a-Difference pics.' – Lisa Nesselson, Variety
'Larded over with le fromage, which is to say, French cheese. But as these dairy products go, Christophe Barratier's movie is delectable sentiment. Audiences will crumble into itty-bitty pieces of Roquefort watching this.' – Desson Thomson, Washington Post foreign film; song 'Look to your path/ Vois sur ton chemin' (m Bruno Coulais l Christophe Barratier)

A Chorus Line
US 1985 111m Technicolor Panavision
Embassy/Polygram (Cy Feuer, Ernest Martin)
A Broadway musical chorus is selected.
Overpraised musical drama which took nine years to reach the screen because nobody could figure out how to 'open it up', despite Universal's payment of 5.5 million dollars for the rights. The present team has not solved the problem.
w Arnold Schulman play Nicholas Dante, James Kirkwood d Richard Attenborough ph Ronnie Taylor m/ly Marvin Hamlisch, Edward Kleban pd Patrizia von Brandenstein ed John Bloom ☆ Michael Douglas, Terrence Mann, Alyson Reed, Cameron English, Vicki Frederick
'Static and confined, rarely venturing beyond the immediate.' – Variety
'He makes his camera fly like a bird around the near-deserted theatre.' – Shaun Usher, Daily Mail
editing; song 'Surprise, Surprise' (m Marvin Hamlisch, ly Edward Kleban)

A Chorus of Disapproval ★
GB 1988 99m colour
Hobo/Curzon/Palisades Entertainment (André Blay, Elliott Kastner)
A new tenor joins an amateur choir to find the sopranos lusting after him.
Ponderous direction almost ruins a witty comedy of suburban life.
w Michael Winner, Alan Ayckbourn play Alan Ayckbourn d Michael Winner ph Alan Jones pd John Du Prez
ed Arnold Crust
☆ Anthony Hopkins, Jeremy Irons, Richard Briers, Gareth Hunt, Patsy Kensit, Alexandra Pigg, Prunella Scales, Jenny Seagrove, Peter Lee-Wilson, Barbara Ferris, Lionel Jeffries, Sylvia Syms, David King

The Chosen: see Holocaust 2000 (1977)

The Chosen
US 1981 108m Movielab
The Chosen Film Company (Edie and Ely Landau)
In New York in the early forties, a family feud between Zionist and Hassidic Jews interferes with a friendship between two boys.
A sentimental minority piece which does what it has to do quite effectively.
w Edwin Gordon novel Chaim Potok
d Jeremy Paul Kagan ph Arthur Ornitz
m Elmer Bernstein pd Stuart Wurtzel ☆ Maximilian Schell, Rod Steiger, Robby Benson, Barry Miller, Hildy Brooks, Kaethe Fine

Chosen Survivors
US 1974 98m colour
Alpine/Metromedia (Charles Fries)
Ten people with special skills are chosen to test human reaction to thermo-nuclear war, but find themselves at the mercy of vampire bats.
Another misfit group united by disaster; more shocks than suspense, and not much characterization, but for adventure/horror addicts it will pass the time.
w H. B. Cross, Joe Reb Moffly d Sutton Roley ph Gabriel Torres m Fred Karlin
☆ Jackie Cooper, Alex Cord, Richard Jaeckel, Diana Muldaur, Lincoln Kilpatrick, Bradford Dillman, Pedro Armendariz Jnr, Gwen Mitchell, Barbara Babcock, Christina Moreno

Les Choses de la Vie
France/Italy 1969 89m Eastmancolor
Lira/Fida (Raymond Danon)
aka: These Things Happen
aka: The Things of Life
An architect has his wife and mistress neatly balanced when an accident upsets his scheme of things.
*Nicely observed tragi-comedy in the best French manner; since it starts with the car crash, a mini-*Bridge of San Luis Rey.
w Paul Guimard, Claude Sautet, Jean-Loup Dabadie novel Paul Guimard d Claude Sautet ph Jean Boffety m Philippe Sarde
☆ Michel Piccoli, Romy Schneider, Lea Massari, Gérard Lartigau, Jean Bouise

Christ Stopped at Eboli ★★★
Italy/France 1979 155m Technospes
Cinematografica/RAI/Action Film/Gaumont/ Vides (Franco Cristaldi, Nicola Carraro)
In 1935 an Italian doctor is exiled because of his political views to a remote southern part of the country.
An attractively faithful account of a book which was part personal statement, part symbolism, part political opinion and part local colour. Non-Italians will be unable to extract the full flavour.
w Francesco Rosi, Tonino Guerra, Raffaele La Capria book Carlo Levi d Francesco Rosi ph Pasqualino de Santis m Piero Piccioni ad Andrea Crisanti ed Ruggero Mastroianni ☆ Gian Maria Volonte (Carlo Levi), Alain Cuny (Baron Rotundo), Paolo Bonacelli (Don Luigi Magalone), Lea Massari (Luisa Levi), Irene Papas (Giulia), François Simon (Don Traiella)
best foreign film

The Christian Licorice Store
US 1971 90m colour
National General
A Hollywood tennis player succumbs to corrupting influences.
Odd item with interesting credits but not much flesh on the bones.
w Floyd Mutrux d James Frawley
☆ Beau Bridges, Maud Adams, Gilbert Roland, Alan Arbus, Monte Hellman

Christiane F ★
West Germany 1981 131m colour
Maran Film/Popular Film/Hans H. Kaden/TCF (Bernd Eichinger, Hans Weth)
A teenage girl becomes a drug addict.
Slick melodrama hoked up from 'true' confessions with excellent background detail.
w Herman Weigel d Ulrich Edel ph Justus Pankau, Jürgen Jürges m David Bowie ed Jane Seitz ☆ Natja Brunckhorst, Thomas Haustein, Jens Kuphal

'For Every Credit There Must Be A Debit'

Christie Malry's Own Double-Entry
GB/Netherlkands/Luxembourg 2000 95m colour
Ian Rattray/Movie Masters/Delux/Woodline (Kees Kasander)
A lowly clerk works out his own system of accounts, based on the humiliations he suffers, and tries to make the figures balance by commiting appalling crimes.
Dark, stylish comedy of a worm who turns, making his fantasies into a terrible reality; in the final analysis, though, there seems little point in its satire.
w Simon Bent novel B. S. Johnson d Paul Tickell ph Reinier van Brummelen
m Luke Haines pd Wilbert Van Dorp
ed Chris Wyatt
☆ Nick Moran (Christie Malry), Neil Stuke (Headlam), Kate Ashfield (Carol), Mattia Sbragia (Leonardo), Marcello Mazzarella (Pacioli), Salvatore Lazzaro (Giacomo), Sergio Albelli (Duke Ludovice), Francesco Giuffrida (Salai), Shirley Anne Field (Mary)
'If you don't like this, stop going to the cinema.' – Steve Grant, Sunday Times
'An engagingly truculent black comedy.' – Philip Kemp, Sight and Sound

Christina: see Virgin among the Living Dead

'How do you kill something that can't possibly be alive?'
'Hell hath no Fury...like Christine.'

Christine
US 1983 110m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/Delphi (Richard Kobritz)
A diabolical car maims and kills its owner's girlfriends.
Thin and gruesomely extended horror flick which never begins to be convincing. For teenagers only.
w Bill Phillips novel Stephen King d John Carpenter ph Donald M. Morgan m John Carpenter pd Daniel Lomino ed Marion Rothman
☆ Keith Gordon, John Stockwell, Alexandra Paul, Robert Prosky, Harry Dean Stanton, Christine Belford

A Christmas Carol ★
US 1938 69m bw
MGM (Joseph L. Mankiewicz)
Scrooge the miser is reformed when four ghosts visit him on Christmas Eve.
Standard Dickensian frolic, quite well mounted.
w Hugo Butler d Edwin L. Marin ph Sidney Wagner m Franz Waxman ☆ Reginald Owen, Gene Lockhart, Kathleen Lockhart, Terry Kilburn, Leo G. Carroll, Lynne Carver
'Top production, inspired direction, superb acting.' – Variety † See also Scrooge.

Christmas Carol: The Movie
GB/Germany 2001 80m colour
Pathé/Film Consortium/Scala/MBP/Illuminated (Iain Harvey)
On Christmas Eve, a miser is redeemed by ghosts.
Bland animation and feeble humour supplied by two mice soon sink this version of Dickens's story.
w Piet Kroon, Robert Llewellyn novel Charles Dickens d Jimmy T. Murakami m Julian Nott ad Errol Bryant
ed Taylor Grant
☆ Simon Callow (Charles Dickens), voices of: Simon Callow (Scrooge), Kate Winslet (Belle), Nicolas Cage (Jacob Marley), Michael Gambon (Ghost of Christmas Present), Jane Horrocks (Ghost of Christmas Past), Rhys Ifans (Bob Cratchit), Juliet Stevenson (Mrs Cratchit/Mother Gimlet)
'An unimaginatively drawn, boring and saccharine cartoon.' – Alan Jones, Film Review
'The images are dull, the figures verge on the characterless, and the vocal performances fall far short of what Radio 4 would find acceptable.' – Philip French, Observer

Christmas Eve ★
US 1947 92m bw
Benedict Bogeaus
aka: Sinners' Holiday
An old lady needs the help of her three adopted sons to prevent herself from being swindled.
Basically three short stories sealed by a Christmas Eve reunion, this is old-fashioned sentimental stuff, but it works on its level and the cast is interesting.
w Laurence Stallings d Edwin L. Marin ph Gordon Avil m Heinz Roemheld
☆ Ann Harding, George Raft, Randolph Scott, George Brent, Joan Blondell, Virginia Field, Reginald Denny

Christmas Holiday
US 1944 93m bw
Universal (Felix Jackson)
A young girl marries a murderer, and later, as a shady songstress in a night-club, is forced to help him escape.
A weird change of pace for Deanna Durbin, whose forte had been sweetness and light, this relentlessly grim and boring melodrama was also a travesty of the novel on which it was based.
w Herman J. Mankiewicz novel Somerset Maugham d Robert Siodmak ph Elwood Bredell m Hans Salter ad Robert Clatworthy, John B. Goodman ed Ted J. Kent
☆ Deanna Durbin, Gene Kelly, Dean Harens, Gladys George, Richard Whorf, Gale Sondergaard
'A jolly title for a Deanna Durbin film, but it's the only jolly thing about it. Miss Durbin is an accomplished singer; so they cut her songs to two and make them blues numbers. She has a naturally modest and ingenuous manner, so they cast her as a hostess in a seedy night club.' – C. A. Lejeune
Hans Salter

Christmas in Connecticut ★

US 1945 101m bw
Warner (William Jacobs)

GB title: Indiscretion

The spinster writer of a successful column about love and marriage has to conjure up a family for herself in the cause of publicity.
Predictable but fairly brisk comedy with excellent talent well deployed.
w Lionel Houser, Adele Commandini
d Peter Godfrey ph Carl Guthrie
m Frederick Hollander
☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Dennis Morgan, Sydney Greenstreet, Reginald Gardiner, S. Z. Sakall, Robert Shayne, Una O'Connor, Frank Jenks
† Arnold Schwarzenegger directed a remake for cable television in 1992 starring Dyan Cannon, Kris Kristofferson and Tony Curtis.

'If you can't sleep at night, it isn't the coffee – it's the bunk!'

Christmas in July ★★

US 1940 67m bw
Paramount

A young clerk and his girl win first prize in a big competition.
Slightly unsatisfactory as a whole, this Preston Sturges comedy has echoes of Clair and a dully predictable plot line, but is kept alive by inventive touches and a gallery of splendid character comedians.
wd Preston Sturges ph Victor Milner
m Sigmund Krumgold
☆ Dick Powell, Ellen Drew, Ernest Truex, Al Bridge, Raymond Walburn, William Demarest

'The perfect restorative for battered humors and jangled nerves.' – Bosley Crowther

'Agreeable enough, but it lacks the full-fledged Sturges lunacy.' – New Yorker, 1977

Christmas Present ★

Italy 1986 101m Telecolor Technovision
Duea/DMV/RAI Uno (Antonio Avati) original title: Regalo di Natale

Four old friends, each needing money, get together on Christmas Eve to play poker in the hope of fleecing a rich industrialist.
Enjoyably sour little drama of masculine pride, obsession and betrayal.
wd Pupi Avati ph Pasquale Rachini m Riz Ortolani pd Giuseppe Pirrotta
ed Amedeo Salfa
☆ Diego Abatantuono, Gianni Cavina, Alessandro Haber, Carlo delle Piane, George Eastman, Kristina Sevieri

A Christmas Story ★

US 1983 93m colour
MGM/UA (René Dupont, Bob Clark)

In an Indiana suburb during the 1940s, a schoolboy hopes to get a rifle for Christmas.
Curious, almost plotless family comedy of the old school, with the difference that some grotesquerie and tastelessness is added. On the whole, however, an amusing entertainment for adults who don't mind their mood of sentimental nostalgia being tilted at by the director of Porky's.
w Jean Shepherd, Leigh Brown, Bob Clark novel In God We Trust, All Others Pay Cash by Jean Shepherd d Bob Clark ph Reginald H. Morris m Carl Zittrer, Paul Zaza pd Gavin Mitchell ed Stan Cole ☆ Peter Billingsley, Melinda Dillon, Darren McGavin, Ian Petrella

The Christmas Tree

France/Italy 1969 110m Eastmancolor
Corona/Jupiter (Robert Dorfmann)

The small son of a millionaire widower is fatally infected by radioactivity.
Painfully sentimental and overdrawn weepie, the most lachrymose film of the sixties.
wd Terence Young novel Michel Bataille
ph Henri Alekan m Georges Auric
☆ William Holden, Virna Lisi, Brook Fuller, Bourvil

'Depending on your taste threshold, there may not be a dry eye – nor a full stomach – in the house.' – Judith Crist

'No! Ho! Ho!'

Christmas with the Kranks

US 2004 99m DeLuxe Panavision
Columbia TriStar/Revolution/1492 (Chris Columbus, Mark Radcliffe, Michael Barnathan)

When a couple announce that they are going to avoid Christmas celebrations by going on a Caribbean cruise, their friends and neighbours make them change their minds.
Glumly scripted comedy that attempts to create a feeling of community, but only manages one of conformity.
w Chris Columbus d Joe Roth ph Don Burgess m John Debney pd Gareth Stover
ed Nick Moore
☆ Tim Allen (Luther Krank), Jamie Lee Curtis (Nora Krank), Dan Aykroyd (Vic Frohmeyer), Erik Per Sullivan (Spike Frohmeyer), Cheech Marin (Officer Salino), Jake Busey (Officer Treen), M. Emmet Walsh (Walt Scheel)

'Beyond being simply unfunny and oddly offensive, this film is downright ominous. Its underlying message seems to be: anyone who doesn't spend like crazy at Christmas is "un-American".' – Steve Rose, Observer

Christopher Columbus

US 1949 104m Technicolor
Rank/Gainsborough/Sydney Box (Betty E. Box)

Columbus seeks and receives the patronage of the Spanish court for his voyage to the west.
An extraordinarily tediously paced historical account of basically undramatic events; interesting without being stimulating.
w Muriel and Sydney Box, Cyril Roberts
d David MacDonald ph Stephen Dade
m Arthur Bliss
☆ Fredric March, Florence Eldridge, Francis L. Sullivan, Linden Travers

'Even ten-year-olds will find it about as thrilling as an afternoon spent looking at Christmas cards.' – Time

Christopher Columbus: The Discovery

US 1992 121m Technicolor Panavision
Rank/Peel Enterprises (Alexander Salkind, Ilya Salkind)

Backed by Spain, Columbus sets sail to discover the New World on a disastrous voyage, but returns in triumph to be created Viceroy of the Indies.
Risible pageant with some notably poor performances and little to maintain one's interest.
w John Briley, Cary Bates, Mario Puzo
d John Glen ph Alec Mills, Arthur Wooster m Cliff Eidelman pd Gil Parrondo ed Matthew Glen ☆ Marlon Brando, Tom Selleck, George Corraface, Rachel Ward, Robert Davi, Catherine Zeta Jones, Oliver Cotton, Benicio Del Toro, Mathieu Carrière, Nigel Terry

'Dead meat. It's the sort of film that makes you worry not about its characters but about the actors playing them ... The basic trouble is that the whole film is devised in cliché terms.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'She gave herself to the great God speed, and tried to run away from the fires within her!'
'The personal story of a million daughters!'

Christopher Strong ★

US 1933 72m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)

A daring lady aviator has an affair with a married businessman and commits suicide when she finds herself pregnant.
A curious and unsatisfactory yarn for Hepburn's second film; well enough made, it died at the box-office.
w Zoe Akins novel Gilbert Frankau
d Dorothy Arzner ph Bert Glennon
m Max Steiner
☆ Katharine Hepburn, Colin Clive, Billie Burke, Helen Chandler, Ralph Forbes, Irene Browne, Jack La Rue

'Draggy society play with circusy aeroplane stunt incidentals ... interest in the star will outweigh other elements.' – Variety

Chronicle of a Death Foretold ★★

Italy/France 1987 110m Eastmancolor Panavision
Virgin/Italmedia/Soprafilms/Ariane/FR3/RAI (Frances von Buren, Yves Gasset)

original title: Cronica di una Morte Annunciata

After 27 years a doctor returns to his home-town to discover the truth about the death of his best friend.
Despite its stately rhythm, a powerful examination of the codes of masculine honour and female virtue.
w Francesco Rosi, Tonino Guerra novel Gabriel García Marquez d Francesco Rosi ph Pasqualino de Santis m Piero Piccioni pd Andrea Crisanti ed Ruggero Mastroianni ☆ Rupert Everett, Ornella Muti, Gian Maria Volonte, Irene Papas, Lucia Bose, Anthony Delon, Alain Cuny

'Evil Has Reigned For 100 Years...'

The Chronicles of Narnia: The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe ★ (5)

US 2005 139m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/Walden Media (Mark Johnson, Philip Steuer)

Escaping from the London Blitz, four children discover that their destiny is to free a magical land from the icy grip of a wicked witch.
Prosy and resolutely old-fashioned children's religious fantasy with a message about the value of self-sacrifice.
w Ann Peacock, Andrew Adamson, Christopher Markus, Stephen McFeely book C. S. Lewis d Andrew Adamson ph Donald M. McAlpine m Harry Gregson-Williams pd Roger Ford ed Sim Evan-Jones, Jim May ☆ Tilda Swinton (White Witch), Georgie Henley (Lucy Pevensie), Skandar Keynes (Edmund Pevensie), William Moseley (Peter Pevensie), Anna Popplewell (Susan Pevensie), James McAvoy (Mr Tumnus), Jim Broadbent (Professor Kirke), James Cosmo (Father Christmas), voices of: Liam Neeson (Aslan), Ray Winstone (Mr Beaver), Dawn French (Mrs Beaver), Rupert Everett (Mr Fox)

'It is charming and scary in about equal measure, and confident for the first two acts that it can be wonderful without having to hammer us into enjoying it, or else. Then it starts hammering.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

'Gorgeous to look at, superbly cast, wittily directed and funny and exciting by turns.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'The sentiments are mawkish. The film bores.' – James Christopher, Times

† It was the fourth top-grossing film of 2005, taking some $292m at the US box-office.
makeup (Howard Berger, Tami Lane) sound (Terry Porter, Dean Zupancic, Tony Johnson); visual effects (Dan Wright, Bill Westenhofer, Jim Berney, Scott Farrar) makeup/hair (Howard Berger, Gregory Nicotero, Nikki Gooley)

'All the power in the universe can't change destiny.'

The Chronicles of Riddick

US 2004 119m Technicolor Panavision
Universal/Radar/One Race Films (Scott Kroopf, Vin Diesel)

An escaped convict saves a world from the ravages of the Necromongers, an evil race who plan to conquer the universe.
Bombastic action movie about a man who can see in the dark, starring and produced by an actor who cannot recognise that pumped-up twaddle is best avoided.
wd David Twohy ph Hugh Johnson
m Graeme Revell pd Holger Gross
ed Martin Hunter, Dennis Virkler
☆ Vin Diesel (Riddick), Colm Feore (Lord Marshal), Thandie Newton (Dame Vaako), Judi Dench (Aereon), Karl Urban (Vaako), Alexa Davalos (Kyra), Linus Roache (Purifier)

'There's something that puts sci-fi clunkers in a class of their own. "The Chronicles of Riddick" may not quite gain entry to the hallowed pantheon of interstellar cheese of a "Battlefield Earth," but it's not far behind.' – David Rooney, Variety

† It was a sequel to Pitch Black (qv).
†† It cost more than $100m to make, and took around $58m at the US box-office.

Chronique d'un Été ★

France 1961 90m bw
Argos

Parisians talk about their lives.
Curious but rather stimulating acted documentary, with two interviewers pontificating; saved by shrewd editing to keep interest at its maximum.
wd Jean Rouch, Edgar Morin ph various 'Life is hard. Love is simple.'

Chrystal ★

US 2004 120m Technicolor
Panache/Ginny Mule (Bruce Heller, David Koplan, Walton Goggins, Lisa Blount, Ray McKinnon)

After 20 years in prison, a marijuana farmer returns to his wife, neither able to forget or forgive the night he crashed the car during a police chase, injuring her and killing their young son.
A low-key, Deep Southern drama with Gothic overtones among hillbilly drug dealers.

wd Ray McKinnon ph Adam Kimmel m Stephen Trask pd Chris Jones ed Myron Kerstein

☆ Billy Bob Thornton (Joe), Lisa Blount (Chrystal), Ray McKinnon (Snake), Harry Lennix (Kalid), Walton Goggins (Larry), Johnny Galecki (Barry), Harry Dean Stanton (Pa Da)

'A grand story of redemption, laced with barbecued wit and slopped with intrigue.' – Duane Byrge, Hollywood Reporter

Chu Chin Chow ★

GB 1934 102m bw
Gaumont British/Gainsborough (Michael Balcon)

In old Arabia, a slave girl foils a robber posing as a dead mandarin.

Second screen version (the first was silent) of the old Arabian Nights stage musical. A curiosity.

w Edward Knoblock, L. DuGarde Peach, Sidney Gilliat play Oscar Asche, Frederick Norton d Walter Forde ph Max Greene m/ly Frederick Norton md Louis Levy ch Anton Dolin ad Ernö Metzner ed Derek Twist

☆ George Robey, Fritz Kortner, Anna May Wong, John Garrick, Pearl Argyle, Malcolm MacEachern, Dennis Hoey, Francis L. Sullivan, Sydney Fairbrother

'A colourful, extravagant costume film that makes its bid for attention purely on an extravaganza platform, and makes the grade.' – Variety

'Gaumont British have broken away for the first time from their careful refinement, and produced something that has guts as well as grace.' – C. A. Lejeune

Chu Chu and the Philly Flash

US 1981 100m colour
TCF (Jay Weston)

A one-woman band performer and a drunken ex-baseball player lay claim to the same lost briefcase.

Weird comedy which doesn't come off except at odd moments.

w Barbara Dana d David Lowell Rich

☆ Carol Burnett, Alan Arkin, Jack Warden, Danny Aiello, Adam Arkin, Ruth Buzzi

Chubasco

US 1967 100m Technicolor Panavision
Warner Seven Arts (William Conrad)

A wild beach boy takes a job on a tuna fishing boat.

Old-fashioned boy-makes-good melodrama à la Captains Courageous. Excellent action sequences at sea.

wd Allen H. Miner ph Louis Jennings, Paul Ivano m William Lava

☆ Chris Jones, Richard Egan, Susan Strasberg, Ann Sothern, Simon Oakland, Preston Foster, Audrey Totter, Peter Whitney

'When Does A Close Friend Become Too Close?'

Chuck & Buck ★★

US 2000 96m colour
Metrodome/Artisan/Blow Up/Flan De Coco (Matthew Greenfield)

A successful 27-year-old music executive in Los Angeles is stalked by a childhood friend who seems stuck in early adolescence and wants them to resume their boyish sexual games.

Clever blackish comedy, with a creepy undertone, that uses childhood to question adult attitudes.

w Mike White d Miguel Arteta ph Chuy Chavez m Joey Waronker, Tony Maxwell pd Renee Davenport ed Jeff Betancourt

☆ Mike White (Buck), Chris Weitz (Chuck), Lupe Ontiveros (Beverly), Beth Colt (Carlyn), Paul Weitz (Sam), Maya Rudolph (Jamila), Mary Wigmore (Diane), Paul Sand (Barry), Gino Buccola (Tommy)

'Whether you buy its creepsome Odd Couple seriocomedy as an audacious tale well told, or find the same a questionable one-joke conceit stretched to feature length, pic does go out on an intriguing limb.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety

Chuen Jik Sat Sau: see Fulltime Killer

Chuka

US 1967 105m Technicolor
Paramount/Rod Taylor

A wandering gunfighter defends the inhabitants of a fort against Indian attack.

Ill-assorted characters under stress is the theme of this rather pedestrian and slightly pretentious Western.

w Richard Jessup d Gordon Douglas ph Harold Stine m Leith Stevens

☆ Rod Taylor, Ernest Borgnine, John Mills, Luciana Paluzzi, James Whitmore, Louis Hayward, Angela Dorian

A Chump at Oxford ★★

US 1940 63m bw
Hal Roach

Two street cleaners foil a bank hold-up and are presented with an Oxford education.

Patchy but endearing Laurel and Hardy romp, starting with an irrelevant two reels about their playing butler and maid, but later including Stan's burlesque impersonation of Lord Paddington.

w Charles Rogers, Harry Langdon, Felix Adler d Alfred Goulding ph Art Lloyd m Marvin Hatley ed Bert Jordan

☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, James Finlayson, Forrester Harvey, Wilfred Lucas, Peter Cushing

'Ranks with their best pictures – which, to one heretic, are more agreeable than Chaplin's. Their clowning is purer; they aren't out to better an unbetterable world; they've never wanted to play Hamlet.' – Graham Greene

'Meet Generation Rx.'

The Chumscrubber ④

US/Germany 2005 107m
Icon/El Camino Pictures/Equity Pictures Medienfonds/Lawrence Bender Productions (Lawrence Bender, Bonnie Curtis)

German theatrical title: Gluck in kleinen Dosen

A suburban teenager finds his best friend has committed suicide, and is harassed by drug-dealing classmates, who stage a botched kidnapping.

Incredibly, a film that lives down to its appalling title. First seen at the Sundance Film Festival, it bears the tired, derivative hallmarks of too many Sundance films: affluent but alienated adolescents in a weird American suburbia presided over by their neglectful, selfish parents. A complete waste of a strong cast.

w Zac Stanford d Arie Posin ph Lawrence Sher m James Horner pd Patti Podesta ad Christopher Tandon ed William Scharf, Arthur Schmidt

☆ Jamie Bell (Dean Stiffle), Glenn Close (Mrs. Johnson), Ralph Fiennes (Mayor Ebbs), Allison Janney (Allie Stiffle), William Fichtner (Bill Stiffle), Carrie-Anne Moss (Jerri Falls), Camilla Belle (Crystal Falls), Rory Culkin (Charlie Stiffle), Lou Taylor Pucci (Lee)

'An insufferable, self-conscious cult movie.' – Scott Foundas, Variety

'Much like its characters: decorative, entertaining and emotionally empty.' – Anna Smith, Time Out

Chung On Tsou: see Crime Story

Chunghing Samlam: see Chungking Express

Chungking Express ★★

Hong Kong 1994 103m colour
ICA/Jet Tone (Chan Yi-Kan)

original title: Chunghing Samlam

A film in two parts: in the first, a lonesome policeman, whose girlfriend has left him, becomes involved with a female drug dealer; in the second, another solitary cop is loved from afar by a woman working in a fast-food restaurant.

A mood of nostalgia-tinged melancholia pervades this enjoyable movie of young, urban workers caught in a web of disappointment and desire, but still hopelessly optimistic.

wd Wong Kar-Wai ph Christopher Doyle, Lau Wai-Keung m Frankie Chan, Roel A. Garcia ad William Chang ed William Chang, Hai Kit-Wai, Kwong Chi-Leung

☆ Brigitte Lin, Takeshi Kaneshiro, Tony Leung, Faye Wong, Valerie Chow, 'Piggy' Chan

'A curious mix of maudlin male romanticism ... and impish absurdity.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent

'Not only the zingiest visit to Heartbreak Hotel in many years but also one of the first films of the 90s to feel genuinely fresh and original.' – Tony Rayns, Sight and Sound

'It Will Make You Squirm.'

The Church (dubbed)

Italy 1991 98m colour
ADC/Cecchi Gori/Tiger/Reteitalia (Dario Argento)

aka: La Chiesa

A group of worshippers are trapped in a cathedral where the new librarian has been possessed by the spirits of devil worshippers, massacred in medieval times and buried beneath the building.

Stylishly gruesome horror with a confused narrative, much influenced by the work of its producer and co-writer Dario Argento and likely to appeal to admirers of his work.

w Dario Argento, Franco Ferrini, Michele Soavi d Michele Soavi ph Renato Tafuri m Keith Emerson, The Goblins ad Antonello Geleng ed Franco Fraticelli

☆ Hugh Quarshie, Tomas Arana, Feodor Chaliapin, Barbara Cupisti, Antonella Vitale, Giovanni Lombardo Radice, Asia Argento

'Inventively gory deaths, lavish surreal set-pieces and lashings of religious hokum make this a treat which yields greater rewards on subsequent viewings.' – Sight and Sound

'Visually it's great, but don't bother trying to strain your brain figuring out the plot.' – Dark Side

Ciao Maschio: see Bye Bye Monkey

Cible Émouvante: see Wild Target

Cidade Baixa: see Lower City

Cidade de Deus: see City of God

'A story about how far we must travel to find the place where we belong.'

The Cider House Rules ★★

US 1999 131m DeLuxe 'Scope
Miramax/FilmColony (Richard N. Gladstein)

A young man leaves the orphanage where he feels safe and needed to discover his destiny.

A leisurely drama, of a boy growing to manhood, that has an intensely nostalgic feel to it, so that even unpleasant moments have a warm glow to them; this is life seen through rose-coloured memories, given some touch of reality by its quality of acting.

w John Irving novel John Irving d Lasse Hallström ph Oliver Stapleton m Rachel Portman pd David Gropman ed Lisa Zeno Churgin

☆ Tobey Maguire (Homer Wells), Charlize Theron (Candy Kendall), Delroy Lindo (Mr Rose), Paul Rudd (Wally Worthington), Michael Caine (Dr Wilbur Larch), Jane Alexander (Nurse Edna), Kathy Baker (Nurse Angela), Erykah Badu (Rose Rose), Kieran Culkin (Buster), Kate Nelligan (Olive Worthington)

'A touching, old-fashioned charmer that ultimately satisfies.' – David Rooney, Variety

'Beautifully enacted literary cinema.' – Angie Errigo, Empire

Michael Caine; John Irving
picture; Lasse Hallstrom; Lisa Zeno Churgin; Rachel Portman; David Gropman

Le Ciel, Les Oiseaux... Et Ta Mere! ★

France 1999 90m colour
Extravaganza/Orly/Sedif/France2/Sofica/Canal+ (Didier Creste, Yann Gilbert, Joel Leyendecker, Nicolas Vannier)

aka: Boys on the Beach

Four working-class youths from a Paris suburb win a seaside holiday in Biarritz.

Engaging comedy of a group of hapless teens out of their depth as they try to come to grips with life and girls; it was a box-office success in France.

w Djamal Bensalah, Gilles Laurent d Djamal Bensalah ph Martin Legrand m Enfaz pd Gérard Marcireau ed Fabrice Rouaud cos Thierry Delettre

☆ Jamel Debbouze (Youssef), Julien Courbey (Mike), Loránt Deutsch (Christophe), Stéphane Soo Mongo (Stéphane), Olivia Bonamy (Lydie), Mariu Roversi, Jessica Beudaert (Dora), Julia Vaidis-Bogard (Léa), Sam Karmann (Le contrôleur)

'Basically an unpretentious teen comedy lightly flavoured with social conscience.' – Chris Darke, Sight and Sound

Il cielo è sempre più blu: see Bits and Pieces

La Ciénaga ★

Argentina/US/Japan/France/Switzerland/Spain/Brazil 2001 100m colour
ICA/Cuatro Cabezas (Lita Stantic) US title: The Swamp

In a hot summer in north-western Argentina, two accidents bring together a feckless family and their more successful cousin.

Stifling account of somnolent lives mired in indolence, sometimes difficult to follow but always interesting to watch.

wd Lucrecia Martel ph Hugo Colace ad Graciela Oderigo ed Santiago Ricci

☆ Mercedes Moran (Tali), Graciela Borges (Mecha), Martin Adjemian (Gregorio), Diego Baenas (Joaquin), Leonora Balcarce (Veronica), Silvia Bayle (Mercedes), Sofia Berolotto (Momi)

'By its end we are glad to see the last of most of its characters, but we will not quickly forget them.' – Roger Ebert

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'Earth-shaking in its grandeur! A titanic canvas sprung to life!'

Cimarron ★

US 1930 130m bw
RKO (Louis Sarecky)

The life of an Oklahoma homesteader from 1890 to 1915.
Sprawling Western family saga; a big early talkie, it dates badly.
w Howard Estabrook novel Edna Ferber d Wesley Ruggles ph Edward Cronjager m Max Steiner ad Max Ree
☆ Richard Dix, Irene Dunne, Estelle Taylor, Nance O'Neil, William Collier Jnr, Roscoe Ates, George E. Stone, Stanley Fields, Edna May Oliver
'An elegant example of super film-making ... big money feature for all classes.' – Variety
🏆 best picture; Howard Estabrook
Wesley Ruggles; Edward Cronjager; Richard Dix; Irene Dunne; Max Ree

Cimarron ★

US 1960 147m Metrocolor Cinemascope
MGM (Edmund Grainger)

A frontier family prosper in Oklahoma from the 1880s.
Flabby, relentlessly boring remake of the 1930 movie of Edna Ferber's sprawling novel.
w Arnold Schulman d Anthony Mann ph Robert L. Surtees m Franz Waxman ad George W. Davis, Addison Hehr ☆ Glenn Ford, Maria Schell, Anne Baxter, Lili Darvas, Russ Tamblyn, Henry Morgan, David Opatoshu, Charles McGraw, Aline MacMahon, Edgar Buchanan, Arthur O'Connell, Mercedes McCambridge, Vic Morrow, Robert Keith, Mary Wickes and also Royal Dano, Vladimir Sokoloff
art direction

The Cimarron Kid

US 1951 84m Technicolor
Universal-International (Ted Richmond)

A paroled convict is forced by circumstances to join the Dalton gang of outlaws.
Unusual western featuring a hero reluctantly on the wrong side, and with a somewhat downbeat ending.
w Louis Stevens, Kay Lenard d Budd Boetticher ph Charles P. Boyle md Joseph Gershenson ad Bernard Herzbrun, Emrich Nicholson ed Frank Gross ☆ Audie Murphy (Bill Doolin), Beverly Tyler (Carrie Roberts), James Best (Bittercreek), Yvette Dugay (Cimarron Rose), John Hudson (Dynamite Dick), Hugh O'Brian (Red Buck), Roy Roberts (Pat Roberts), David Wolfe (Swanson), Noah Beery (Bob Dalton), Leif Erickson (Marshal Sutton)

The Cincinnati Kid ★★

US 1965 113m Metrocolor
MGM/Filmways (Martin Ransohoff, John Calley)

In New Orleans in the late thirties, stud poker experts compete for supremacy.
This is to poker what The Hustler was to pool, a fascinating suspense study of experts at work; as before, the romantic asides let down the effectiveness of the others.
w Ring Lardner Jnr, Terry Southern novel Richard Jessup d Norman Jewison ph Philip Lathrop m Lalo Schifrin
☆ Steve McQueen, Edward G. Robinson, Karl Malden, Ann-Margret, Tuesday Weld, Joan Blondell, Rip Torn, Jack Weston, Cab Calloway, Jeff Corey
'I took out all the primaries. There are no reds, greens, whites or blues in the film outside of the red cards and the cockfight.' – Norman Jewison

Cinderella ★★

US 1950 75m Technicolor
Walt Disney

The Perrault fairy tale embroidered with animal characters.
A feature cartoon rather short on inspiration, though with all Disney's solid virtues. The mice are lively and the villainous cat the best character.
d Wilfred Jackson, Hamilton Luske, Clyde Geronimi m Oliver Wallace, Paul J. Smith supervisor Ben Sharpsteen
☆ Featuring the voices of Ilene Woods, William Phipps, Eleanor Audley, Rhoda Williams, Lucille Bliss, Verna Felton
Oliver Wallace, Paul J. Smith; song 'Bibbidy Bobbidy Boo' (m/ly Mack David, Al Hoffman, Jerry Livingston)

Cinderella Jones

US 1946 89m bw
Warner (Alex Gottlieb)

To collect an inheritance, a girl must marry a brainy man.
Witless comedy for the easily pleased.
w Charles Hoffman story Philip Wylie d Busby Berkeley ph Sol Polito m Frederick Hollander
☆ Joan Leslie, Robert Alda, S. Z. Sakall, Edward Everett Horton, Julie Bishop, William Prince, Charles Dingle, Ruth Donnelly, Elisha Cook Jnr, Hobart Cavanaugh, Chester Clute

'A movie for every woman who thinks she can never fall in love again!'

Cinderella Liberty

US 1974 117m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Sanford (Mark Rydell)

A sailor on shore leave picks up a prostitute and falls in love with her.
Assertively 'modern' yet glutinously sentimental love story in squalid settings. It presumably has an audience.
w Darryl Ponicsan novel Darryl Ponicsan d Mark Rydell ph Vilmos Zsigmond m John Williams
☆ James Caan, Marsha Mason, Eli Wallach, Kirk Calloway, Allyn Ann McLerie
'A sordid, messy affair which wants to jerk tears but just doesn't have the knack.' – New Yorker
John Williams; Marsha Mason; song 'You're So Nice To Be Around' (m John Williams, ly Paul Williams)

'One man's extraordinary fight to save the family he loved.'

Cinderella Man ★★ (7)

US 2004 144m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Universal/MiramaxImagine (Brian Grazer, Ron Howard, Penny Marshall)

Heavyweight boxer James J. Braddock fights his way out of poverty, loses everything in the Depression of the 30s, and makes a triumphant comeback.
A feel-good, not always factually accurate, biopic about an American working-class hero that is bigger on sentimentality than grit; was boxing ever this wholesome?
w Cliff Hollingsworth, Akiva Goldsman d Ron Howard ph Salvatore Totino m Thomas Newman pd Wynn Thomas ed Mike Hill, Dan Hanley
☆ Russell Crowe (Jim Braddock), Renée Zellweger (Mae Braddock), Paul Giamatti (Joe Gould), Craig Bierko (Max Baer), Paddy Considine (Mike Wilson), Bruce McGill (Jimmy Johnston)
'Takes the almost impossibly perfect elements of the saga of underdog boxer James J. Braddock and fills it with emotional gravitas, wrenching danger and a panoramic sense of American life during the Great Depression.' – Robert Koehler, Variety
'There's no irony within the film, but there's a whopping irony surrounding it. Just as Star Wars has finally ended, Rocky seems to be starting all over again.' – Michael Sragow, Baltimore Sun
† The film, which cost around $90m, did less well than expected at the box-office, taking around $62m in the US.
Paul Giamatti; Mike Hill, Dan Hanley; make-up (David LeRoy Anderson, Lance Anderson)

'Once upon a time... can happen any time.'

A Cinderella Story

US 2004 95m Technicolor
Warner (Clifford Werber, Ilyssa Goodman, Hunt Lowry, Dylan Sellers)

A modern day Cinderella is reunited with the love of her life after she leaves her mobile phone behind at the Halloween ball.
A more original story might have added a little vitality to this tired and saccharine confection for dim-witted lovers.
w Leigh Dunlap d Mark Rosman ph Anthony B. Richmond m Christophe Beck pd Charles Breen ed Cara Silverman
☆ Hilary Duff (Sam Montgomery), Jennifer Coolidge (Fiona), Chad Michael Murray (Austin Ames), Dan Byrd (Carter), Regina King (Rhonda), Julie Gonzalo (Shelby)
'Every high school cliché in the book is dredged up for this feather-light piece of fluff.' – Wendy Ide, Times

Cinderfella

US 1960 91m Technicolor
Paramount/Jerry Lewis

Luxury pantomime featuring a male Cinderella.
Annoyingly lavish and empty star vehicle with precious little to laugh at: Lewis's own jokes are strung out to snapping point and no one else gets a look in.
wd Frank Tashlin ph Haskell Boggs m Walter Scharf
☆ Jerry Lewis, Ed Wynn, Judith Anderson, Anna Maria Alberghetti, Henry Silva, Robert Hutton, Count Basie
'A drought of comic inspiration, followed by a flood of mawkish whimsy, gradually increases one's early misgivings to a degree which finally verges on revulsion.' – Peter John Dyer

Cinema Paradiso ★★★★

Italy/France 1989 122m colour
Palace/Films Ariana/RAI TRE/Forum/Franco Cristaldi

original title: Nuovo Cinema Paradiso
A film director remembers his early life and his boyhood friendship with the projectionist at his local cinema.
Nostalgic in its celebration of the cinema, beautifully detailed in its enjoyment of the rituals of small-town life with, underneath it all, a toughness in its depiction of a child's growth to maturity.
wd Giuseppe Tornatore ph Blasco Giurato m Ennio Morricone, Andrea Morricone pd Andrea Crisanti ed Mario Morra ☆ Antonelli Attli (Young Maria), Enzo Cannavale (Spaccafico), Isa Danieli (Anna), Leo Gullotta (Bill Sticker), Marco Leonardi (Toto as a Teenager), Pupella Maggio (Older Maria), Agnese Nano (Elena), Leopoldo Trieste (Fr. Adelfio), Salvatore Cascio (Toto as a Child), Jacques Perrin (Toto as an Adult), Philippe Noiret (Alfredo)
† A director's cut lasting 175m was released in 1994.
†† Region 1 and 2 DVD releases include two versions of the film, the theatrical version and the longer director's cut.
best foreign film
best foreign film; original screenplay; Philippe Noiret; Salvatore Cascio; Ennio and Andrea Morricone

Cinque Bambole per la Luna d'Agosto: see Five Dolls for an August Moon

Le Cinquième Elément: see The Fifth Element

La Ciociara: see Two Women

The Circle: see Dayereh

The Circle: see The Vicious Circle (1957)

Circle of Danger ★

GB 1950 89m bw
Coronado/David Rose (Joan Harrison)

An American in England investigates the strange death some years earlier of his brother during a commando raid.
Individual scenes are well milked for suspense and dramatic emphasis, but the plot line has virtually no mystery and absolutely no danger. It all seems mildly reminiscent of several Hitchcock films.
w Philip MacDonald d Jacques Tourneur ph Oswald Morris m Robert Farnon ☆ Ray Milland, Patricia Roc, Marius Goring, Hugh Sinclair, Naunton Wayne, Marjorie Fielding, Edward Rigby, Colin Gordon, Dora Bryan

Circle of Deceit ★

West Germany/France 1981 109m Eastmancolor
Bioskop/Artemis/Hessischer Rundfunk/Argos (Eberhard Junkersdorf)

original title: Die Fälschung
A German journalist has a crisis of conscience while covering the war in Beirut.
Fashionable self-scrutiny based on a published 'faction'. As a film, quite engrossing and occasionally hair-raising.
w Volker Schlöndorff, Jean-Claude Carrière, Margarethe von Trotta, Kai Hermann novel Nicolas Born d Volker Schlöndorff ph Igor Luther m Maurice Jarre
☆ Bruno Ganz, Hanna Schygulla, Jerzy Skolimowski, Gila von Weitershausen
'Rarely can a fiction film about war have had such a vividly authentic background, with real corpses and real destruction lending a bleak chill never captured by staged reconstructions.' – Tom Milne, MFB

Circle of Deception

GB 1960 100m bw Cinemascope
TCF (T. H. Morahan)

An officer is parachuted into Germany with the intention that he should crack under interrogation and reveal false information.
Depressing World War II tall tale, with suspense sacrificed by flashback structure.
w Nigel Balchin, Robert Musel novel Alec Waugh d Jack Lee ph Gordon Dines m Clifton Parker
☆ Bradford Dillman, Harry Andrews, Suzy Parker, Robert Stephens, John Welsh, Paul Rogers, Duncan Lamont, Michael Ripper

Circle of Friends ★

Ireland/US 1995 96m colour
Rank/Price/Lantana (Arlene Sellers, Alex Winitsky, Frank Price)

Three young women from an Irish village go to Dublin University, where one falls in love with a handsome, rugby-playing medical student.

Pleasant, sugar-coated account of growing up, set in the 50s and much concerned with Catholic notions of sin; it is all neatly and glossily done, and the acting carries more conviction than might be expected from its conventional story.

w Andrew Davies novel Maeve Binchy d Pat O'Connor ph Ken MacMillan m Michael Kamen pd Jim Clay ed Jim Jympson

☆ Chris O'Donnell, Minnie Driver, Geraldine O'Rawe, Alan Cumming, Colin Firth, Ciaran Hinds, Saffron Burrows, Tony Doyle

'Sentimental, old-fashioned fare.' – Variety

Circle of Two

Canada 1980 105m colour
Film Consortium of Canada (Henk Van der Kolk)

A 60-year-old artist falls for a teenage student.

Dreary and uninteresting star drama which never really gets going.

w Thomas Hedley novel A Lesson in Love by Marie Terese Baird d Jules Dassin ph Lazlo George m Paul Hoffert

☆ Richard Burton, Tatum O'Neal, Nuala FitzGerald, Kate Reid, Robin Gammell, Patricia Collins

Circonstances Atténuantes ★

France 1939 85m bw
CCFC

A retired magistrate becomes innocently involved with a gang of crooks.

Nimble farce, most skilfully acted.

w Jean-Pierre Feydeau novel Marcel Arnac d Jean Boyer

☆ Michel Simon, Arletty, Suzanne Dantes, Arnoux, Mila Parely

Circuitry Man

US 1990 93m Foto-Kem
IRS Media (Steven Reich, John Schouweiler)

In subterranean Los Angeles in the near future, a woman and an android go on the run with a suitcase containing contraband computer chips.

Drear science-fiction flick that sticks close to standard thriller conventions; it takes place in no convincing reality, or fantasy for that matter. The cast content themselves with attitudinizing, which is understandable considering the clichés they have been hired to enunciate.

w Steven Lovy, Robert Lovy d Steven Lovy ph Jamie Thompson m Deborah Holland pd Robert Lovy ed Jonas Thaler

☆ Jim Metzler, Dana Wheeler-Nicholson, Barbara Alyn Woods, Lu Leonard, Andy Goldberg, Vernon Wells, Dennis Christopher, Paul Willson

† A sequel, Plughead Rewired: Circuitry Man II, followed in 1994, directed by Steven and Robert Lovy.

The Circus ★

US 1928 72m (24 fps) bw silent (UA)

A tramp on the run from the police takes refuge in a circus and falls for an equestrienne.

Pathos often descends to bathos in this self-constructed star vehicle which has far too few laughs.

wd Charles Chaplin ph Rollie Totheroh, Jack Wilson, Mark Marlott

☆ Charles Chaplin, Merna Kennedy, Allan Garcia, Harry Crocker

Special Award to Chaplin for acting, writing, directing and producing the film

'Don't Trust Any Of These Clowns.'

Circus

GB/US 2000 95m DeLuxe
Columbia/FDC (James Gibb, Alan Latham)

A conman and a crook attempt to outwit one another.

Complex, glossy thriller in which everyone tries too hard to be smart and cool; the double-, triple- and quadruple-crossing behaviour slows down the action to a funereal pace.

w David Logan d Rob Walker ph Ben Seresin m Simon Boswell pd James Merifield ed Oral Norrie Ottey

☆ John Hannah (Leo), Famke Janssen (Lily), Peter Stormare (Julius), Eddie Izzard (Troy), Fred Ward (Elmo), Brian Conley (Bruno), Tiny Lister (Moose), Amanda Donohoe (Gloria), Ian Burfield (Caspar), Neil Stuke (Roscoe), Michael Attwell (Magnus), Jason Watkins (Dom), Christopher Biggins (Arnie)

'Enjoyably awful... eccentric enough to qualify for cult status.' – Geoffrey Macnab, Sight and Sound

Circus Boys ★

Japan 1989 106m bw
ICA/Eizo Tanteisha/CBS Sony (Mituhisa Hida, Yoichi Sakurai)

original title: Ni ju-seiki Shonen Dokuhon

A boy grows up to become a circus clown before leaving to work as an itinerant pedlar and falling in love with a gangster's concubine.

Strange and wayward film with a powerful poetic quality.

wd Kaizo Hayashi ph Yuichi Nagata ad Takeo Kimura, Hidemitsu Yamazaki ed Osamu Tanaka

☆ Hiroshi Mikami, Moe Kamura, Xia Jian, Michiru Akiyoshi, Yuki Asayama, Sanshi Katsura, Haruko Wanibuchi

'It isn't very often you see a film that understands so well that the cinema should be a place with some magic in it as well as simple story-telling ability.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Circus of Fear

GB 1966 83m Eastmancolor
Circus Films (Harry Alan Towers)
aka: Psycho-Circus

A circus performer is the mastermind behind a daring daylight robbery on Tower Bridge.

Efficient B-movie thriller with a few traces of wit and a better cast than might have been expected.

w Peter Welbeck (Harry Alan Towers) d John Moxey ph Ernest Steward m Johnny Douglas ad Frank White ed John Trumper

☆ Christopher Lee, Leo Genn, Maurice Kaufmann, Anthony Newlands, Heinz Drache, Klaus Kinski, Eddi Arent, Margaret Lee, Suzy Kendall, Cecil Parker, Victor Maddern

'One man's lust turns men into beasts, strips women of their souls!'

Circus of Horrors

GB 1960 91m Eastmancolor
Anglo Amalgamated/Lynx/Independent Artists (Norman Priggen)

A plastic surgeon staffs a semi-derelict circus with criminals whose faces he has altered, and murders any who try to flee.

Stark horror comic; quite professionally made, but content-wise a crude concoction of sex and sadism.

w George Baxt d Sidney Hayers ph Douglas Slocombe m Franz Reizenstein, Muir Mathieson

☆ Anton Diffring, Erika Remberg, Yvonne Monlaur, Donald Pleasence, Jane Hylton, Kenneth Griffith, Conrad Phillips, Jack Gwillim

Circus World

US 1964 138m Technicolor Super Technirama 70
Bronston/Midway (Samuel Bronston)

GB title: The Magnificent Showman

An American circus owner tours Europe in search of his alcoholic ex-wife who left him when her lover fell to death from the trapeze.

Lethargic big-screen epic which exhausts its spectacle in the first hour and then settles down to a dreary will-daughter-guess-who-the-strange-lady-is plot, without even the plus of an exciting finale.

w Ben Hecht, Julian Halevy (Julian Zimet), James Edward Grant story Philip Yordan, Nicholas Ray d Henry Hathaway ph Jack Hildyard m Dimitri Tiomkin pd John DeCuir ed Dorothy Spencer

☆ John Wayne, Rita Hayworth, Claudia Cardinale, John Smith, Lloyd Nolan, Richard Conte, Wanda Rotha, Kay Walsh

'To sit through this film is something like holding an elephant on your lap for two hours and fifteen minutes.' – Time

† Screenwriter Julian Zimet wrote under a pseudonym because he was blacklisted at the time.

The Cisco Kid

The Cisco Kid, a ruthless Mexican bandit originally created by O. Henry in a short story, was turned by Hollywood into a dashing wild Western Robin Hood in twenty-three sound features (following a few silent ones) and a long-running TV series. In most of them he was accompanied by his fat side-kick Pancho.

For Fox:
1929 In Old Arizona (Warner Baxter)
1931 The Cisco Kid (Baxter)
For Twentieth Century Fox:
1939 The Return of the Cisco Kid (Baxter), The Cisco Kid and the Lady (Cesar Romero: who played the role in all the remaining TCF movies).
1940 Viva Cisco Kid, Lucky Cisco Kid, The Gay Caballero
1941 Romance of the Rio Grande, Ride On, Vaquero
For Monogram:
1945 The Cisco Kid Returns (Duncan Renaldo), The Cisco Kid in Old New Mexico (Renaldo), South of the Rio Grande (Renaldo)
1946 The Gay Cavalier (Gilbert Roland), South of Monterey (Roland), Beauty and the Bandit (Roland)
1947 Riding the California Trail (Roland), Robin Hood of Monterey (Roland), King of the Bandits (Roland)
For United Artists (all with Renaldo):
1949 The Valiant Hombre, The Gay Amigo, The Daring Caballero, Satan's Cradle
1950 The Girl from San Lorenzo

† The 50s TV series starred Renaldo with Leo Carrillo.

Cisco Kid and The Lady

US 1939 73m bw
TCF (John Stone)

The Cisco Kid accidentally acquires, and sensibly disposes of, a baby and a gold mine.

Lively 'B' feature, full of action, humour and narrative twists.

w Frances Hyland story Stanley Rauh character created by William Sydney Porter (O. Henry) d Herbert I. Leeds ph Barney McGill md Samuel Kaylin ad Richard Day, Chester Gore ed Nick de Maggio

☆ Cesar Romero, Marjorie Weaver, Chris-Pin Martin, George Montgomery, Robert Barrat, Virginia Field, Harry Green, Ward Bond

Cisco Pike

US 1971 94m Eastmancolor
Columbia/Acrobat (Gerald Ayres)

A former pop group leader and drug pusher is blackmailed by a cop into selling marijuana.

Low-key, would-be realistic study of a section of life in 70s LA. Flashy, boring and almost plotless.

wd Bill L. Norton ph Vilis Lapenieks m Sonny Terry, Sir Douglas Quintet, Lee Montgomery, Kris Kristofferson pd Rosanna White ad Alfred Sweeney

☆ Kris Kristofferson (Cisco Pike), Gene Hackman (Officer Leo Holland), Karen Black (Sue), Harry Dean Stanton (Jesse Dupre), Viva (Merna), Roscoe Lee Browne (Music Store Owner), Joy Bang (Lynn)

'A moody, melancholy little film whose strength lies in its evocation of the rootless, aimless, irresponsible life-style of the pop/drug culture.' – Brenda Davies

The Citadel: see El Kalaa

'Secrets of a doctor as told by a doctor!'

The Citadel ★★

GB 1938 113m bw
MGM (Victor Saville)

A young doctor has a hard time in the mining villages but is later swayed by the easy rewards of a Mayfair practice.

Solidly produced adaptation of a bestseller; the more recent deluge of doctors on television make it appear rather elementary, but many scenes work in a classical way. One of the first fruits of MGM's British studios which were closed by World War II.

w Elizabeth Hill, Ian Dalrymple, Emlyn Williams, Frank Wead novel A. J. Cronin d King Vidor ph Harry Stradling m Louis Levy ad Lazare Meerson, Alfred Junge ed Charles Frend

☆ Robert Donat, Rosalind Russell, Ralph Richardson, Emlyn Williams, Penelope Dudley Ward, Francis L. Sullivan, Rex Harrison

'General audience limited ... strong for the Anglo market.' – Variety

'I think any doctor will agree that here is a medical picture with no Men in White hokum, no hysterical, incredible melodrama, but with an honest story, honestly told. And that's a rare picture.' – Pare Lorentz

'We are grateful that a worthy idea has been handled with intelligence and imagination, that Vidor has shown respect both for his talent and for the sensibilities of the audience.' – Robert Stebbins

'Numerous passages shine brilliantly with those deft touches that first brought Vidor to prominence.' – Variety

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'The pace of Hollywood, the honest characterization of England's best.' – New York Times

† The parts played by Russell and Richardson were originally intended for Elizabeth Allan and Spencer Tracy.

♗ best picture; script; King Vidor; Robert Donat

Citizen Kane ★★★★

US 1941 119m bw
RKO (Orson Welles)

A newspaper tycoon dies, and a magazine reporter interviews his friends in an effort to discover the meaning of his last words.

A brilliant piece of Hollywood cinema using all the resources of the studio; despite lapses of characterization and gaps in the narrative, almost every shot and every line is utterly absorbing both as entertainment and as craft. See The Citizen Kane Book by Pauline Kael, and innumerable other writings.

w Herman J. Mankiewicz, Orson Welles d Orson Welles ph Gregg Toland m Bernard Herrmann ad Van Nest Polglase ed Robert Wise sp Vernon L. Walker

☆ Orson Welles (Kane), Joseph Cotten (Jedediah Leland), Dorothy Comingore (Susan Alexander), Everett Sloane (Bernstein), Ray Collins (Boss Jim Geddes), Paul Stewart (Raymond), Ruth Warrick (Emily Norton), Erskine Sanford (Herbert Carter), Agnes Moorehead (Kane's mother), Harry Shannon (Kane's father), George Coulouris (Walter Parks Thatcher), William Alland (Thompson), Fortunio Bonanova (music teacher)

NEWSREEL: 'Then, last week, as it must to all men, death came to Charles Foster Kane.'

BERNSTEIN: 'Old age ... it's the only disease you don't look forward to being cured of.'

THOMPSON: 'Mr Kane was a man who got everything he wanted, and then lost it. Maybe Rosebud was something he couldn't get, or something he lost. Anyway, I don't think it would have explained everything. I don't think any word can explain a man's life. No, I guess Rosebud is just a piece in a jigsaw puzzle ... a missing piece.'

SUSAN: 'Forty-nine acres of nothing but scenery and statues. I'm lonesome.'

KANE: 'You're right, Mr Thatcher, I did lose a million dollars last year. I expect to lose a million dollars this year. I expect to lose a million dollars next year. You know, Mr Thatcher, at the rate of a million dollars a year, I'll have to close this place – in sixty years.'

KANE: 'I run a couple of newspapers. What do you do?'

BERNSTEIN: 'One day back in 1896 I was crossing over to Jersey on the ferry, and as we pulled out, there was another ferry pulling in, and on it there was a girl waiting to get off. A white dress she had on. She was carrying a white parasol. I only saw her for one second. She didn't see me at all, but I'll bet a month hasn't gone by since that I haven't thought of that girl.'

'On seeing it for the first time, one got a conviction that if the cinema could do that, it could do anything.' – Penelope Houston

'What may distinguish Citizen Kane most of all is its extracting the mythic from under the humdrum surface of the American experience.' – John Simon, 1968

'Probably the most exciting film that has come out of Hollywood for twenty-five years. I am not sure it isn't the most exciting film that has ever come out of anywhere.' – C. A. Lejeune

'At any rate Orson Welles has landed in the movies, with a splash and a loud yell.' – James Shelley Hamilton

'More fun than any great movie I can think of.' – Pauline Kael, 1968

'It is a fascinating picture, but because of its congestion of technical stunts, it fails to move us.' – Egon Larsen

'A quite good film which tries to run the psychological essay in harness with the detective thriller, and doesn't quite succeed.' – James Agate

† The Region 1 DVD two-disc special edition includes commentary by Peter Bogdanovich and by Roger Ebert, a two hour documentary The Battle Over Citizen Kane', the radio broadcast The War of the Worlds. A three-disc gold edition adds the HBO feature RKO 281 about the making of the film.

A Region 2 classic collection box set includes commuantary by Ken Barnes and a documentary presented by Barry Norman.

♝ Herman J. Mankiewicz, Orson Welles (script)

♗ best picture; Orson Welles (as director); Gregg Toland; Bernard Herrmann; Orson Welles (as actor); art direction; Robert Wise Citizens' Band: see FM

Citizens Band: see Handle with Care (1977)

La Città delle Donne: see City of Women

La Città Si Difende

Italy 1951 90m bw
Cines (Carlo Civallero)

A gang is recruited to rob a football stadium.

Moderate forerunner of The Good Die Young, The Killing, and a hundred other caper films.

w Federico Fellini, Tullio Pinelli, Luigi Comencini d Pietro Germi ph Carlo Montuori m Carlo Rustichelli

☆ Fausto Tozzi, Gina Lollobrigida, Patrizia Manca, Enzo Maggio

'As anonymous as the average B picture.' – Gavin Lambert

The City ★

US 1939 32m bw
American Institute of Planners

A historical, social and psychoanalytical study of urban living.

Slightly guarded but convention-breaking documentary which though of its time still fascinates mildly by its style.

w Henwar Rodakiewicz book The Culture of Cities by Lewis Mumford d Ralph Steiner, Willard Van Dyke ph Ralph Steiner, Willard Van Dyke

City across the River

US 1949 91m bw
U-I (Howard Christie)

Brooklyn delinquents get involved in murder.

Semi-documentary throwback to the Dead End Kids, with location shooting influenced by The Naked City. Dull.

w Maxwell Shane, Dennis Cooper novel The Amboy Dukes by Irving Shulman d Maxwell Shane ph Maury Gertsman m Walter Scharf ad Bernard Herzbrun, Emrich Nicholson ed Ted J. Kent

☆ Stephen McNally, Barbara Whiting, Peter Fernandez, Al Ramsen, Joshua Shelley, Anthony Curtis (Tony Curtis in his first film role)

City after Midnight: see That Woman Opposite

The City and the Dogs ★★

Peru 1985 135m colour
Inca Films (Francisco J. Lombardi)
original title: La Ciudad Y Los Perros

With the aid of an incorruptible officer, a cadet tries to expose the organized brutality at a miltary academy.

A passionate allegory of military dictatorship.

w José Watanabe novel Mario Vargas Llosa d Francisco J. Lombardi ph Pili Flores Guerra m Enrique Iturriaga ad Lloyd Moore ed Gianfranco Annichini, Augusto Tamayo San Roman

☆ Pablo Serra, Gustavo Bueno, Luis Alvarez, Jan Manuel Ochva, Eduardo Adrianzen

City beneath the Sea

US 1953 87m Technicolor
U-I (Albert J. Cohen)

Deep sea divers fall out over a sunken treasure.

Adequate double-biller with little to stir the interest.

w Jack Harvey, Ramon Romero d Budd Boetticher ph Charles P. Boyle md Joseph Gershenson

☆ Robert Ryan, Anthony Quinn, Mala Powers, Suzan Ball, George Mathews, Karel Stepanek, Lalo Rios

City beneath the Sea

US 1970 98m DeLuxe
Warner/Kent/Motion Pictures International (Irwin Allen)
GB theatrical release title: One Hour to Doomsday

An undersea city is threatened by an errant planetoid.

Futuristic adventure from a familiar stable; it will satisfy followers of Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea. Originally made for TV.

w John Meredyth Lucas d Irwin Allen ph Kenneth Peach m Richard La Salle ad Rodger E. Maus, Stan Jolley

☆ Stuart Whitman, Robert Wagner, Rosemary Forsyth, Robert Colbert, Burr de Benning, Richard Basehart, Joseph Cotten, James Darren, Sugar Ray Robinson, Paul Stewart

'When you're searching for a killer... the last suspect you want to see is your son.'

City by the Sea

US 2001 108m DeLuxe Panavision
Warner/Franchise (Brad Grey, Elie Samaha, Michael Caton-Jones, Matthew Baer)

A New York homicide detective discovers that the son he abandoned is the chief suspect in a murder investigation.

Despite being based on a true story, this talky, downbeat drama rarely rings true. The role of veteran cop fits De Niro like a well-worn overcoat, but there's nothing out of the ordinary for either star or audience.

w Ken Hixon article Mark of a Murderer by Michael McAlary d Michael Caton-Jones ph Karl Walter Lindenlaun m John Murphy pd Jane Musky ed Jim Clark

☆ Robert De Niro (Vincent LaMarca), Frances McDormand (Michelle), James Franco (Joey), Eliza Dushku (Gina), William Forsythe (Spyder), George Dzundza (Reg Duffy), Patti Lupone (Maggie)

'In its workmanship it aspires not to be remarkable but to be well made, dependable, moving us because of the hurt in the hero's eyes.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

'An overgrown – and quite mediocre – TV movie, despite the big names.' – New York Post

City for Conquest ★★

US 1940 106m bw
Warner (Anatole Litvak)

An East Side truck driver becomes a boxer but is blinded in a fight; meanwhile his composer brother gives up pop music for symphonies.

Phony but oddly persuasive melodrama set in a studio in New York and heavily influenced by the pretensions of the Group theatre.

w John Wexley novel Aben Kandel d Anatole Litvak ph Sol Polito, James Wong Howe m Max Steiner

☆ James Cagney, Ann Sheridan, Frank Craven, Donald Crisp, Arthur Kennedy, Frank McHugh, George Tobias, Anthony Quinn, Jerome Cowan, Lee Patrick, Blanche Yurka, Thurston Hall

'Sometimes we wonder whether it wasn't really the Warner brothers who got New York from the Indians, so diligent and devoted have they been in feeling the great city's pulse, picturing its myriad facets and recording with deep compassion the passing life of its seething population.' – Bosley Crowther

City Girl ★

US 1930 77m bw
Fox

A city girl finds rural life has its own drama.

Rural drama distinguished by directorial touches.

w Berthold Viertel, Marion Orth play The Mud Turtle by Elliott Lester d F. W. Murnau ph Ernest Palmer m Arthur Kay

☆ Charles Farrell, Mary Duncan, David Torrence, Edith Yorke, Dawn O'Day (Anne Shirley)

'It Started With A Shootout On A Rainswept Street And Ended In A Scandal That Shattered New York.'

City Hall ★★

US 1996 111m Technicolor
Rank/Castle Rock (Edward R. Pressman, Ken Lipper, Charles Mulvehill, Harold Becker)

Investigation of a triple shooting in Brooklyn, involving a cop and a gangster, reveals high-level corruption among city officials.

An involving political thriller that is less interested in the guilt of its participants and more concerned with examining the compromises and short-cuts that are necessary to run a big city, and the dangers they involve.

w Ken Lipper, Paul Schrader, Nicholas Pileggi, Bo Goldman d Harold Becker ph Michael Seresin m Jerry Goldsmith pd Jane Musky ed Robert C. Jones, David Bretherton

☆ Al Pacino, John Cusack, Bridget Fonda, Danny Aiello, Martin Landau, David Paymer, Tony Franciosa, Lindsay Duncan

'A film that aims to tell the dark truth about a modern metropolis yet doesn't stint on fun.' – Variety

'If the message is ho-hum, so is the plot of this talky, convoluted, predictable tale. Despite the best efforts of an impressive cast, this wan thriller has virtually no thrills at all.' – Stephen Farber, Movieline

† Frank Pierson worked uncredited on the screenplay. Ken Lipper was deputy mayor of New York under Ed Koch.

City Heat

US 1984 97m Technicolor
Warner/Malpaso/Deliverance (Fritz Manes)

In the early thirties, a private eye's partner is bumped off, and he teams against the baddies with an old cop friend.

A tedious teaming for two tired stars who seem to imagine that all they have to do is show up.
w Sam O. Brown (Blake Edwards), Joseph C. Stinson d Richard Benjamin ph Nick McLean m Lennie Niehaus pd Edward Carfagno
☆ Clint Eastwood, Burt Reynolds, Jane Alexander, Madeline Kahn, Rip Torn, Irene Cara, Richard Roundtree, Tony Lo Bianco
'It evaporates from the mind instantly upon its conclusion.' – Variety

The City Is Dark: see Crime Wave

The City Jungle: see The Young Philadelphians

City Lights ★★★★
US 1931 87m bw silent (with music and effects)
UA/Charles Chaplin

A tramp befriends a millionaire and falls in love with a blind girl.
Sentimental comedy with several delightful sequences in Chaplin's best manner. Nothing he did before, or after, compared to the closing moments here, a brilliant moment of recognition and loss that is enough, as James Agee put it, 'to shrivel the heart to see'.
wd Charles Chaplin ph Rollie Totheroh m Charles Chaplin md Alfred Newman
☆ Charles Chaplin (A Tramp), Virginia Cherrill (A Blind Girl), Florence Lee (Her Grandmother), Harry Myers (An Eccentric Millionaire)
'Chaplin has another good picture, but it gives indications of being short-winded, and may tire fast after a bombastic initial seven days ... he has sacrificed speed to pathos, and plenty of it.' – Variety
'Even while laughing, one is aware of a faint and uneasy feeling that Chaplin has been pondering with more than a bit of solemnity on conventional story values, and it has led him further than ever into the realms of what is often called pathetic.' – National Board of Review

'She Didn't Believe In Angels Until She Fell In Love With One.'

City of Angels
US/Germany 1998 117m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Regency/Atlas (Charles Roven, Dawn Steel)

An angel, who watches over Los Angeles, decides to become human after he falls in love with a heart surgeon.
Slick romantic comedy with ambitions beyond its reach; it settles, finally, for heavy sentimentality.
w Dana Stevens d Brad Silberling ph John Seale m Gabriel Yared pd Lilly Kilvert ed Lynzee Klingman sp Sony Picture Imageworks film Wings of Desire by Wim Wenders
☆ Nicolas Cage, Meg Ryan, Andre Braugher, Dennis Franz, Colm Feore, Robin Bartlett, Joanna Merlin, Sarah Dampf
'The film is glossy and soft, and has none of the intelligence or bitter humour of Wenders' film.' – Gaby Wood, Guardian

City of Bad Men ★
US 1953 82m Technicolor
TCF (Leonard Goldstein)

In Carson City during the Corbett/Fitzsimmons boxing match, outlaws plan to rob the arena of its receipts.
Slightly unusual Western suspenser with generally accomplished handling.
w George W. George, George Slavin d Harmon Jones ph Charles G. Clarke md Lionel Newman
☆ Dale Robertson, Jeanne Crain, Richard Boone, Lloyd Bridges, Carl Betz, Carole Mathews, Whitfield Connor

City of Chance ★
US 1939 57m bw
Sol M. Wurtzel/TCF

A girl reporter crusades against gangster gamblers.
Smart little second feature with no time to be boring.
w John Larkin, Barry Trivers d Ricardo Cortez
☆ Lynn Bari, C. Aubrey Smith, Donald Woods, Amanda Duff, June Gale, Richard Lane

'A half crazed man in a terror crazed town!'

City of Fear
US 1958 81m bw
Columbia/Orbit (Leon Chooluck)

A convict escapes with a canister of radioactive cobalt, which he believes to be heroin. After terrifying the city, he finally dies of exposure to it.
Rough-edged but occasionally gripping minor thriller from an independent company.
w Steven Ritch, Robert Dillon d Irving Lerner ph Lucien Ballard m Jerry Goldsmith
☆ Vince Edwards, John Archer, Patricia Blair, Steven Ritch, Lyle Talbot

City of Ghosts
US 2002 116m
United Artists/Mainline/Banyan Tree/Kintop (Willi Baer, Michael Cerenzie, Deepak Nayar)

After a successful $10m insurance scam, a conman goes to Cambodia in search of his crooked mentor.
Old-fashioned, sub-Hemingway, Hollywood tough-guy melodrama that exploits its exotic locations to add novelty to its generic situations and characters.
w Matt Dillon, Barry Gifford d Matt Dillon ph Jim Denault m Tyler Bates pd David Brisbin ed Howard E. Smith
☆ Matt Dillon (Jimmy Cremmins), James Caan (Marvin), Natascha McElhone (Sophie), Gerard Depardieu (Emile), Sereyvuth Kem (Sok), Stellan Skarsgard (Kaspar), Rose Byrne (Sabrina), Shawn Andrews (Robbie)
'Great on atmosphere and less good on everything else.' – Peter Rainer, New York

'Fight and you'll never survive..... Run and you'll never escape.'

City of God ★★
Brazil/Germany/France 2002 130m colour Panavision
Buena Vista/Studio Canal//02/VideoFilmes/Globo/Lumiere/ Wild Bunch (Andrea Barata Ribeiro, Mauricio Andrade Ramos)

original title: Cidade de Deus
In the slums of Rio de Janeiro, a poor boy who wants to escape to a better life watches his contemporaries turn to drugs and crime.
In essence, this resembles many slickly-made Hollywood gangland drug dramas: what sets it apart is the age of its swaggering, gun-toting street kids – many are barely teenagers – and the vitality of the acting from its non-professional cast.
w Braulio Mantovani novel Paulo Lins d Fernando Meirelles, Katia Lund ph Cesar Charlone m Antonio Pinto, Ed Cortes ad Tule Peake ed Daniel Rezende
☆ Matheus Nachtergaele (Sandro Cenoura), Seu Jorge (Mane Galinha), Buscape (Alexandre Rodrigues), Leandro Firmino da Hora (Ze Pequeno), Phelipe Haagensen (Bene), Jonathan Haagensen (Cabeleira), Douglas Silva (Dadinho), Roberta Rodriguez Silvia (Berenice)
'An exhilarating slap in the face, bracing and sexy, smart and visceral, stylish and raw – the advent of a fabulously exciting new moviemaking talent.' – Shawn Levy, Oregonian
'We are made to witness horrific acts of cruelty, and yet there is something unseemly in the way Meirelles glamorizes them with fancy effects: split screens, slo-mo, jump cuts. He's trying to turn us on.' – Peter Rainer, New York
♗ Fernando Meirelles; Braulio Mantovani; Cesar Charlone; Daniel Rezende
♕ Daniel Rezende

City of Gold ★★
Canada 1957 23m bw
National Film Board of Canada

The story of Dawson City, capital of the Klondike in 1897–8, is told by an accumulation of details from still photographs.
A film with much to answer for, being the first documentary exclusively using the rostrum camera, a technique later adopted extensively by television. The subject matter is fascinating.
w and narrated by Pierre Berton d/ph Colin Low, Wolf Koenig

City of Hope ★★★
US 1991 130m DuArt Panavision
Mainline/Esperanza

Corruption and crime in Hudson City, New Jersey touch the lives of locals, from building contractors and petty thieves to the mayor.
Complex and engrossing, with a narrative style that brings to busy life a whole community.
wd John Sayles ph Robert Richardson m Mason Daring pd Dan Bishop, Dianna Freas ad Charles B. Plummer ed John Sayles
☆ Vincent Spano (Nick Rinaldi), Joe Morton (Wynn), Tony Lo Bianco (Joe Rinaldi), Barbara Williams (Angela), Stephen Mendillo (Yoyo), Chris Cooper (Riggs), Charlie Yanko (Stavros), Jace Alexander (Bobby), Todd Graff (Zip), Scott Tiler (Vinnie), John Sayles (Carl), Frankie Faison (Levonne), Gloria Foster (Jeanette), Tom Wright (Malik)
'A major film, suggesting that Sayles might become as significant a film-maker for the 90s as Altman was for the 70s.' – Kim Newman, Sight and Sound
'Epic, masterly, urgent, adult and unforgettable. Put simply – which is grossly unfair to its complexity – it is Bonfire of the Vanities without the vanities.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard
'It plays as if it were still on the drawing board.' – Michael Sragow, New Yorker

'Wanting a man dead can be reason enough to live.'

City of Industry ★ ④
US 1996 97m DeLuxe
Largo (Evzen Kolar, Ken Solarz)

The surviving member of a gang of jewel robbers hunts down the person who double-crossed his friends and escaped with the loot.
Forceful, violent revenge thriller; the narrative is predictable, but the action is directed in an appropriately hard-hitting style, and Keitel – 'I'm my own police' – brings an angry intensity to his role as the implacable and indestructible avenger.
w Ken Solarz d John Irvin ph Thomas Burstyn m Stephen Endelman pd Michael Novotny ed Mark Conte
☆ Harvey Keitel, Stephen Dorff, Timothy Hutton, Famke Janssen, Wade Dominguez, Michael Jai White, Elliott Gould (uncredited)
'In its detached way, the film seems to be trying to get at the quintessence of revenge movies, free of all superfluity.' – Rob White, Sight and Sound

'He was a man who couldn't care less ... until he met a man who couldn't care more.'

City of Joy ★
GB/France 1992 135m Eastmancolor
Warner/Lightmotive/Pricel (Jake Eberts, Roland Joffé)

In Calcutta an American doctor becomes involved in a clinic for the poor and helps them in their struggle against local gangsters.
Well-meaning movie that tends to talk about, rather than dramatize, its theme of the need for commitment.
w Mark Medoff book Dominic LaPierre d Roland Joffé ph Peter Biziou m Ennio Morricone pd Roy Walker ed Gerry Hambling
☆ Patrick Swayze, Pauline Collins, Om Puri, Shabana Azmi, Art Malik, Ayesha Dharker, Santu Chowdhury, Imran Badsah Khan
'Joffé's noble attempt to portray the tenacity and strength of the human spirit under the most trying conditions comes off as curiously ineffectual due to predictable plotting and character evolution.' – Variety
'Hopelessly fraudulent, with an uplifting finale that could make a strong man heave.' – Stephen Farber, Movieline

City of Lost Children ★
France 1995 111m colour Technovision
Entertainment/Lumiere/Canal Plus/France 3 (Claudie Ossard)

original title: La Cité des Enfants Perdus
A circus strongman goes in search of his adopted child, kidnapped, like many others, by a madman who lives in mid-ocean and hopes to steal the children's dreams to make up for the loss of his own.
A bizarre, hyperactive fantasy that yields many incidental pleasures, although coherence is not among them.
w Gilles Adrien, Jean-Pierre Jeunet, Marc Caro d Jean-Pierre Jeunet, Marc Caro ph Darius Khondji m Angelo Badalamenti ad Marc Caro ed Hervé Schneid
☆ Ron Perlman, Daniel Emilfork, Judith Vittet, Dominique Pinon, Jean-Claude Dreyfus, Genevieve Brunet, Odile Mallet, Ticky Holgado, Jean-Louis Trintignant
'The film's obscure plot, its vast assemblage of weird characters and its refusal to centre any of them securely in the emotions make for a peculiarly imperfect general effect.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

City of Lost Souls: see Hyôryuu-gai

A City of Sadness: see Beiqing Chengshi

City of Silent Men
US 1942 64m bw
PRC (Dixon R. Harwin)

Two ex-convicts finally get work but are hounded by a newspaper publisher.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♗ Academy Award · ♗ Academy Award nomination · ♕ BAFTA

Decent second feature, a cut above the average for its source.
w Joseph Hoffman, Robert E. Kent
d William Nigh
☆ Frank Albertson, June Lang, Jan Wiley, Richard Clarke

City of the Dead ★
GB 1960 78m bw
Vulcan (Donald Taylor)
US title: Horror Hotel
In Massachusetts, a woman burned as a witch 250 years ago is still 'alive', running a local hotel and luring unwary strangers into becoming sacrificial victims.
A deadly first half gives way to splendid cinematic terror when the scene shifts to the village by night, all dry ice and limpid fog, and the heroine becomes a human sacrifice. A superior horror comic.
w George Baxt story Milton Subotsky d John Moxey ph Desmond Dickinson m Douglas Gamley, Ken Jones ad John Blezard
☆ Patricia Jessel, Betta St John, Christopher Lee, Dennis Lotis, Valentine Dyall, Venetia Stevenson, Norman MacOwan, Fred Johnson

'From The Bowels Of The Dead They Came To Collect The Living...'

City of the Living Dead (dubbed)
Italy 1980 93m colour
Dania/Medusa/National Cinematografia (Giovanni Masini) original title: Paura nella Città dei Morti Viventi
aka: Gates of Hell; Twilight of The Dead; The Fear
In the Massachusetts town of Dunwich a priest hangs himself and opens a gateway to hell, through which stagger the living dead.
A slow-moving horror with little narrative and a great deal of gore. It was supposedly inspired by H. P. Lovecraft, although it bears little resemblance to his stories.
w Lucio Fulci, Dardano Sacchetti d Lucio Fulci ph Sergio Salvati m Fabio Frizzi pd Massimo Antonello Geleng ed Vincenzo Tomassi
☆ Christopher George, Katriona MacColl, Carlo de Mejo, Antonella Interlenghi, Giovanni Lombardo Radice, Daniela Doria, Janet Agren
'The ending is somewhat incomprehensible and acting and dialogue as usual leave a good deal to be desired. However, one doesn't really look to the "fantastique" for that kind of thing.' – Julian Petley, Films and Filming
† The film was cut to 92m on its British cinema release in 1982 and to 86m for its video release, removing the goriest episodes, including a youth having an electric drill pushed through his head, and making the narrative, like a few of its characters, somewhat disjointed.

City of the Walking Dead: see Nightmare City

The City of Violence ★★ ⑦
South Korea 2006 92m
Contender/CJ Entertainment / Filmmaker R&K (Kang Hye-jeong, Jeong Du-hong, Ryoo Seung-wan)
Korean theatrical title: Jjakpae
A detective returns to his hometown for the funeral of a high-school friend. There he reconnects with members of their old teenage gang, Suspicious about the death, which seems to be connected with a land deal, the detective resolves to settle a score.
An action-packed revenge saga which saves the best for last with a spectacular battle between the warring factions. Popular comic Lee Beom-su rings the changes as a villain. Martial arts fans will undoubtedly get a kick out of it.
w Lee Weon-jae, Ryoo Seung-wan, Kim Jeong-min d Ryoo Seung-wan ph Kim Yeong-cheol m Bang Jun-seok pd Jo Hwa-seong ed Nam Na-yeong ☆ Jeong Du-hong (Det. Jeong Tae-su), Ryoo Seung-wan (Ryoo Seok-hwan), Lee Beom-su (Jang Pil-ho), Ahn Gil-gang (Wang-jae)
'Unendearingly formulaic Korean action thriller, short on substance, long on second-hand Kill Bill style.' – Philip French, Observer

City of Women ★
Italy/France 1980 140m Eastmancolor
Opera Film-Gaumont (Renzo Rossellini) original title: La Città delle Donne
A businessman finds himself trapped and threatened by women en masse.
Often leaden but sometimes spectacular fantasy in which the director spews out his views of the war between men and women. Fascinating in patches, but generally indigestible.
w Federico Fellini, Bernardino Zapponi d Federico Fellini ph Giuseppe Rotunno m Luis Bacalov ☆ Marcello Mastroianni, Anna Prucnal, Bernice Stegers, Ettore Manni, Donatella Damiani
'Another visual tour de force in an elaborate dream framework; narrative thin, overlong, and finally overweight.' – Variety

City on Fire
Canada/US 1979 106m colour
Rank/Astral Bellevue/Pathé/Sandy Howard/Harold Greenberg (Claude Héroux)
A slum fire threatens an entire city.
Shoddy disaster movie which does its cast no favour.
w Jack Hill, David P. Lewis, Celine La Frenière d Alvin Rakoff ph René Verzier m William and Matthew Macauley pd William McCrow ed Jean-Pol Passer, Jacques Clairoux sp Cliff Wenger, Carol Lynn ☆ Barry Newman, Susan Clark, Shelley Winters, Henry Fonda, Leslie Nielsen, James Franciscus, Ava Gardner

City on Fire ★
Hong Kong 1987 101m colour
Cinema City (Ringo Lam)
An undercover cop reluctantly replaces a murdered colleague and infiltrates a ruthless gang planning a big jewel robbery.
Brutal action thriller that was one of the inspirations for Quentin Tarantino's Reservoir Dogs, though it concerns loyalty and rivalry between an elderly inspector and a brash new cop as much as dissension between gangsters.
w Tommy Sham story Ringo Lam d Ringo Lam ph Andrew Lau m Teddy Robin, Kwan ad Luk Tze Fung ed Wong Ming Lam ☆ Chow Yun-Fat, Sun Yeuh, Lee Sau Yin, Carrie Ng, Roy Cheung, Danny
'Three urban hombres heading west, seeking adventure, craving excitement ... and longing for room service.'

City Slickers ★★★
US 1991 114m CFI color
First Independent/Castle Rock/Nelson/Face (Irby Smith)
Three friends, all facing midlife crises, decide to spend their vacation on a cattle drive.
A witty and engaging comedy for the most part, with some affectionate parodies of moments from classic Westerns.
w Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel d Ron Underwood ph Dean Semler m Marc Shaiman, Hummie Mann pd Lawrence G. Paull ad Mark Mansbridge ed O. Nicholas Brown
☆ Billy Crystal (Mitch Robbins), Daniel Stern (Phil Berquist), Bruno Kirby (Ed Furillo), Patricia Wettig (Barbara Robbins), Helen Slater (Bonnie Rayburn), Jack Palance (Curly), Josh Mostel (Barry Shalowitz), David Paymer (Ira Shalowitz), Noble Willingham (Clay Stone)
'A deft blend of wry humour and warmth (albeit with a little too much thirty-something-esque angst for its own good).' – Variety
Jack Palance

City Slickers II: The Legend of Curly's Gold
US 1994 116m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia TriStar/Face/Castle Rock (Billy Crystal)
Three city friends head west in search of treasure buried by a dead cowboy, helped and hindered by his tough twin brother.
Disappointing sequel that settles for tired comedy routines and slack jokes about old movies.
w Billy Crystal, Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel d Paul Weiland ph Adrian Biddle, Craig Haagensen m Marc Shaiman pd Stephen J. Lineweaver ed William Anderson, Armen Minasian
☆ Billy Crystal, Daniel Stern, Jon Lovitz, Jack Palance, Patricia Wettig, Bill McKinney, Pruitt Taylor Vince, Beth Grant, Noble Willingham
'A sure-shootin' entertainment that shouldn't have much trouble rounding up an audience for the high jinks on the range.' – Variety
'A charmless, redundant sequel that replaces greed for character development and skimps on the laughs. Dull, dull, dull.' – Movie Collector

'Love and courage pitted against a ruthless hate!'

City Streets ★★
US 1931 86m bw
Paramount (Rouben Mamoulian)
A gangster's daughter is sent to jail for a murder she did not commit, and on release narrowly escapes being 'taken for a ride'.
Tense, dated gangland melodrama of primary interest because of its director's very cinematic treatment.
w Max Marcin, Oliver H. P. Garrett, Dashiell Hammett story Ladies of the Mob by Ernest Booth d Rouben Mamoulian ph Lee Garmes
☆ Sylvia Sidney, Gary Cooper, Paul Lukas, Guy Kibbee, William (Stage) Boyd, Stanley Fields, Wynne Gibson
'So many brilliant touches that anyone who sees it will have to predict for Mamoulian a brilliant career.' – Film Spectator
'Too much attempt to artify hurts though the sophisticated treatment and elegant settings will help.' – Variety
'A love story in a gangster setting which got carried away into so much fancy expressionism and symbolism that it seems stylized out of all relationship to the actual world.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

City that Never Sleeps
US 1953 90m bw
Republic (John H. Auer)
The work of the Chicago police force during one night.
Adequate minor semi-documentary police yarn.
w Steve Fisher d John H. Auer ph John I. Russell m R. Dale Butts ☆ Gig Young, Mala Powers, William Talman, Edward Arnold, Chill Wills, Paula Raymond, Marie Windsor

'They dared the most romantic journey that has ever challenged the imagination!'

City under the Sea
GB 1965 84m Eastmancolor
Colorscope
Bruton/AIP (Daniel Haller)
US title: War Gods of the Deep
An American heiress in Cornwall meets Victorian smugglers who have lived a hundred years under the sea in Lyonesse.
Childlike, unpersuasive nonsense which wastes some good talent.
w Charles Bennett, Louis M. Heyward d Jacques Tourneur ph Stephen Dade m Stanley Black ☆ Vincent Price, David Tomlinson, Susan Hart, Tab Hunter, Henry Oscar, John Le Mesurier

City War
Hong Kong 1988 93m colour
Cinema City (Catherine Lau)
A drug dealer who gets out of jail after serving a 10-year sentence vows to kill the bad-tempered cop who put him away.
Violent, efficient thriller that also charts changes in the local landscape, with cops playing by the rules, or suffering the consequences, and gangsters going legitimate.
w Tung Lo, Leung Wai Ting, Chung Kai-Cheong d Sun Chung ph Li Hsin Yeh m Michael Lai ad Jason Mok, Eric Lam ed Wong Ming Lam
☆ Chow Yun-Fat, Ti Lung, Tien Niu, Chui Siu Kwung, Mary Hon, Michael Chow, Teresa Carpio

A City's Child
Australia 1971 80m Eastmancolor
Pleasant Pastures/Brian Kavanagh
A reclusive woman, who becomes obsessed with dolls after her mother's death, takes as a lover a young man who may not exist.
A daft excursion into experimental cinema which fails to hold the attention.
w Don Battye story Brian Kavanagh d Brian Kavanagh ph Bruce McNaughton m Peter Pinne ad Trevor Ling ed Brian Kavanagh
☆ Monica Maughan, Sean Scully, Moira Carleton, Vivean Gray, Marguerite Lofthouse

The City's Edge
Australia 1985 86m colour
Eastcaps (Pom Oliver, Errol Sullivan)
A troubled man takes a room in a Bondi boarding house and finds others worse off than himself.
Dreary mini-dramas, somewhat arbitrarily linked and without a shred of hope in sight for anybody

w Robert J. Merritt, Ken Quinnell novel W. A. Harbinson d Ken Quinnell ☆ Hugo Weaving, Tommy Lewis, Shirley Cameron, Mark Lee, Ralph Cotterill

La Ciudad Y Los Perros: see The City And The Dogs

A Civil Action

US 1998 112m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Paramount/Touchstone (Scott Rudin, Robert Redford, Rachel Pfeffer)

A successful lawyer runs into difficulties when he sets out to prove that the dumping of toxic waste by a chemical company has caused the death of several children.
Engrossing, muted drama, taken from a true story, that is as much concerned with the cost of the awakening of an individual's social conscience as the case itself.
wd Steven Zaillian book Jonathan Harr ph Conrad L. Hall m Danny Elfman pd David Gropman ed Wayne Wahrman
☆ John Travolta, Robert Duvall, Tony Shalhoub, William H. Macy, Zeljko Ivanbeck, Bruce Norris, John Lithgow, Kathleen Quinlan, Peter Jacobson, Sydney Pollack

'A solid and intelligent legal thriller that may be too complex in its issues, and too low-key and unexciting in its style, for today's market demands.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety

Robert Duvall; Conrad L. Hall

Civilization

★★★

US 1916 68m bw silent
Triangle

A mythical country starts war, but one of the principals has a vision of Christ on the battlefields and the king is persuaded to sign a peace treaty.
Surprisingly impressive parable showing this early director at his best; intended as a pacifist tract in the middle of World War I.
w C. Gardner Sullivan d Thomas Ince ph Irvin Willat
☆ Enid Markey, Howard Hickman, J. Barney Sherry

'Everything has a price.'

The Claim

★

GB/Canada 2000 120m DeLuxe
Revolution, Pathe, Arts Council, Canal+, BBC, Alliance Atlantis (Andrew Eaton)

The owner of a mining town in the Sierra Nevada finds his past has come back to haunt him, in the persons of his abandoned wife and child.
The snow-covered mountains and isolated community form an ideal backdrop for a chill family drama based on Thomas Hardy's The Mayor of Casterbridge; it lacks the moral dimension of Hardy's tale, settling for a more familiar Western story of a rubber baron undone by progress.
w Frank Cottrell Boyce inspired by The Mayor of Casterbridge by Thomas Hardy d Michael Winterbottom ph Alwin Kuchler m Michael Nyman pd Mark Tildesley, Ken Rempel ed Trevor Waite
☆ Peter Mullan (Dillon), Wes Bentley (Dalglish), Milla Jovovich (Lucia), Nastassja Kinski (Elena), Sarah Polley (Hope), Julian Richings (Bellinger), Sean McGinley (Sweetley)

'Boasts the physical scale and formal beauty of an epic Western, but it suffers from a slim and fractured narrative, unengaging mode of storytelling and yet another irritating performance from Milla Jovovich.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety
'The movie unfolds like a slow-motion dream of an endless long-ago winter illuminated with fiery portents of doom.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

Claire Dolan

★

France/US 1998 95m DuArt
ICA/MK2/Serene (Ann Ruark)

An introverted Irish prostitute in New York tries to start a new life.
A claustrophobic film about repressed emotions; its lack of overt passion and its restrained approach will deter many, but there are rewards for those who persevere with its enigmatic style.
wd Lodge Kerrigan ph Teodoro Maniaci m Ahrin Mishan, Simon Fisher Turner pd Sharon Lomofsky ed Kristina Boden
☆ Katrin Cartlidge (Claire Dolan), Vincent D'Onofrio (Elton Garrett), Colm Meaney (Roland Cain), John Doman (Cain's friend), Maryanne Plunkett (Mary Egan), Miranda Stuart-Rhyne (Angela), Kate Skinner (Madeline Garrett), David Little (Man in Chicago Cafe), Lola Pashalinski (Salon Client), Jim Frangione (Man in Bar), Ed Hodson (Driver)

'Of possible appeal only to the most intellectual critics and viewers, some of whom will be very taken with the film's cinematic discipline, this will fall in the watching-paint-dry category even for specialized audiences.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Claire of the Moon

US 1992 107m Foto-Kem
Demi-Monde (Pamela S. Kuri)

At a women writers' retreat, an untidy, promiscuous heterosexual novelist finds herself sharing an apartment with an introverted lesbian sexual behaviourist.
Humourless, slow-moving romance, given over to psycho-babble and caricature.
wd Nicole Conn ph Randolph Sellars m Michael Allen Harrison ed Michael Solinger ☆ Trisha Todd, Karen Trumbo, Faith McDevitt, Caren Graham, Sheila Dickinson

'A talky drama that plays like a lesbian version of The Odd Couple.' – Variety

Claire's Knee

★★★

France 1970 106m Eastmancolor
Gala/Les Films du Losange (Pierre Cottrell)

original title: Genou de Claire
A 35-year-old diplomat who is about to be married confides to a female friend that he is attracted to a 16-year-old girl and her 17-year-old half-sister.
Witty and perceptive conversation piece, probably the best of Rohmer's explorations of the ambiguities of love and desire.
wd Eric Rohmer ph Nestor Almendros ed Cécile Decugis
☆ Jean-Claude Brialy (Jerome), Aurora Cornu (Aurora), Béatrice Romand (Laura), Laurence de Monaghan (Claire), Michèle Montel (Mme. Walter), Gérard Falconetti (Gilles), Fabrice Luchini (Vincent)

'Rohmer's quiet, complacent movie-novel game is pleasing.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

'Hexed By The Evil Eye. Ruled By A Female Svengali.'

The Clairvoyant

★

GB 1934 80m bw
Gainsborough (Michael Balcon)

A fraudulent mindreader predicts a disaster which comes true.
Effective minor suspenser on predictable but enjoyable lines.
w Charles Bennett, Bryan Edgar Wallace, Robert Edmunds novel Ernst Lothar d Maurice Elvey ph Glen MacWilliams ad Alfred Junge
☆ Claude Rains, Fay Wray, Jane Baxter, Mary Clare, Athole Stewart, Ben Field, Felix Aylmer, Donald Calthrop

Clambake

US 1967 98m Technicolor Techniscope
UA/Rhodes (Laven-Gardner-Levy)

The son of an oil millionaire sets out to see life.
Painless, forgettable star vehicle.
w Arthur Browne Jnr d Arthur H. Nadel ph William Margulies m Jeff Alexander ☆ Elvis Presley, Shelley Fabares, Bill Bixby, James Gregory, Will Hutchins, Gary Merrill

The Clan

★

France/Switzerland 2004 88m colour
Peccadillo/Sepia/Rhone-Alpes Cinema (Philippe Jacquier)

original title: Le Clan
US title: Three Dancing Slaves
Three brothers react in different ways to their mother's death: one turns to crime, one, out of prison, goes straight, and the youngest forms a close relationship with a male friend.
Sometimes insightful account of types of masculinity, from the responsible to the macho, with much admiring photography of the male body.
w Gaël Morel, Christophe Honoré d Gaël Morel ph Jean-Max Bernard m Camille Rocailleux ad Zé Branco ed Catherine Schwartz ☆ Nicolas Cazalé (Marc), Stéphane Rideau (Christophe), Thomas Dumerchez (Olivier), Bruno Lochet (Father), Salim Kechiouche (Hicham)

'Tone poem on masculinity that doesn't concern its pretty little head with very much besides the photogenic ways in which men bond, bicker, brawl, and practice capoeira.' – Dennis Lim, Village Voice

Clan of the Cave Bear

US 1985 98m Technicolor Technovision
Warner/PSO/Guber-Peters/Jozak-Decade/Jones-film (Gerald I. Isenberg)

In Neanderthal days, a blonde outcast girl is adopted by a swarthy tribe who think her ugly.
Comic-strip prehistory: better revive One Million BC or even the 1912 Griffith epic Man's Genesis.
w John Sayles novel Jean M. Auel d Michael Chapman ph Jan de Bont m Alan Silvestri pd Anthony Masters ☆ Daryl Hannah, Pamela Reed, James Remar, Thomas G. Waites make-up (Michael G. Westmore, Michele Burke)

Clancy Street Boys

US 1943 66m bw
Pathé/Monogram/Banner (Sam Katzman, Jack Dietz)

Muggs has to produce five brothers and a sister when a rich relation comes to call.
Ponderous comic outing for the East Side Kids, though it comes briefly to life when Huntz Hall pretends to be a girl.
w Harvey Gates d William Beaudine ph Mack Stengler md Edward Kay ad Dave Milton ed Carl Pierson
☆ Leo Gorcey, Huntz Hall, Bobby Jordan, Noah Beery, Lita Ward, Bennie Bartlett, Rick Vallin, Billy Benedict

'For Better...Or For Worse'

The Clandestine Marriage

GB 1999 90m Technicolor
UIP/Portman/BBC/British Screen/Milesian (Steve Clark-Hill, Rod Gunner, Johnathan B. Stables)

A nouveau riche, social-climbing landowner attempts to wed his daughter to a penniless aristocrat, unaware that she is already married.
Undistinguished period romp, with the emphasis on farce and notable for its clashing acting styles.
w Trevor Bentham play George Coleman the Elder, David Garrick d Christopher Miles ph Denis Crossan m Stanislas Syrewicz pd Martin Childs ed George Akers cos Deirdre Clancy
☆ Nigel Hawthorne (Lord Ogleby), Joan Collins (Mrs Heidelberg), Timothy Spall (Sterling), Tom Hollander (Sir John Ogleby), Paul Nicholls (Richard Lovewell), Natasha Little (Fanny), Emma Chambers (Betsy), Cyril Shaps (Canton)

'A likable and generally well-played costume comedy.' – Derek Elley, Variety

Clarence the Cross-Eyed Lion

US 1965 98m Metrocolor
MGM (Leonard Kaufman)

Adventures of animal farmers in Africa.
Amiable theatrical 'pilot' for the Daktari TV series.
w Alan Caillou, Marshall Thompson, Art Arthur d Andrew Marton ph Lamar Boren ☆ Marshall Thompson, Betsy Drake, Richard Haydn, Cheryl Miller

'Livin' in my house! Lovin' another man! Is that what you call honest? That's just givin' it a nice name!'

Clash by Night

★

US 1952 105m bw
RKO (Harriet Parsons) (A Wald-Krasna Production)

In a northern fishing village, jealousy and near-tragedy are occasioned by the return home of a hardened girl from the big city.
Absurdly overblown melodrama of the Anna Christie school, burdened with significance and doggedly acted by a remarkable cast.
w Alfred Hayes play Clifford Odets d Fritz Lang ph Nicholas Musuraca m Roy Webb
☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Paul Douglas, Robert Ryan, Marilyn Monroe, J. Carrol Naish, Keith Andes

'When Stanwyck snarls into a pub and belts down a straight shot, we think we're watching a remake of Anna Christie; when she is shyly and ineptly courted by Douglas we think it's a remake of Min and Bill; a sub-plot involving Monroe and Andes plays like Gidget Faces an Identity Crisis.' – Kit Parker catalogue

Clash of the Titans

GB 1981 118m Metrocolor
Dynarama
MGM/Charles H. Schneer, Ray Harryhausen

Perseus sets out to win Andromeda despite the impossible obstacles set for him by Thetis, which include a number of mythical monsters.
Star-packed but feebly imagined mythological spectacular, further hampered by gloomy photography which is presumably required to offset the jerkiness of the monsters. A very few moments provide the right kind of elation.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

w Beverley Cross d Desmond Davis ph Ted Moore m Laurence Rosenthal pd Frank White sp Ray Harryhausen
☆ Laurence Olivier, Claire Bloom, Maggie Smith, Ursula Andress, Jack Gwillim, Harry Hamlin, Judi Bowker, Burgess Meredith, Siân Phillips, Flora Robson, Freda Jackson, Donald Houston

'There's a real possibility some audiences will be turned to stone before Medusa even appears.' – Geoff Brown, MFB
'Unspeakable dialogue, muddy photography and a motley, lacklustre cast.' – Sight and Sound

'The good news is, Jonathan's having his first affair. The bad news is, she's his roommate's mother!'

Class

US 1983 98m Astrocolor
Orion/Martin Ransohoff

A shy student has an affair with an older woman who turns out to be his best friend's mother.
Ghastly travesty of The Graduate which aspires to every kind of sophistication it can think of but ends nowhere.
w Jim Kouf, David Greenwalt d Lewis John Carlino ph Ric Waite m Elmer Bernstein ad Jack Poplin
☆ Jacqueline Bisset, Cliff Robertson, Rob Lowe, Andrew McCarthy, Stuart Margolin, John Cusack

'It is not often that one comes across a film of such muddled aspirations and widely divergent achievements.' – Nick Roddick, MFB

Class Act

US 1992 98m Technicolor
Warner/Wizan Black/Gordy de Passe (Todd Black, Maynell Thomas)

Two high-school students – one an intellectual, the other a delinquent – swop identities.
Dim-witted teen comedy.
w John Semper, Cynthia Friedlob story Michael Swerdlick, Wayne Rice, Richard Brenne d Randall Miller ph Francis Kenny m Vassal Benford pd David L. Snyder ed John F. Burnett
☆ Christopher Reid, Christopher Martin, Karyn Parsons, Alysia Rogers, Meshach Taylor, Doug E. Doug, Lamont Johnson

'Nothing Personal. It's Just Father vs Daughter in The Fight Of Their Lives.'

Class Action

US 1990 109m colour
TCF/Interscope (Ted Field, Scott Kroopf, Robert W. Cort)

A father and a daughter, both lawyers, find themselves on opposing sides in the courtroom.
Moderately engrossing, though predictable, drama.
w Carolyn Shelby, Christopher Ames, Samantha Shad d Michael Apted ph Conrad L. Hall m James Horner pd Todd Hallowell ed Ian Crafford
☆ Gene Hackman, Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio, Colin Friels, Joanna Merlin, Larry Fishburne, Donald Moffat, Jan Rubes, Matt Clark

'A remarkably well-made and well-mannered film.' – Sight and Sound
'Pic's parameters may be worn, but Apted's keen focus on its emotional core helps it transcend the everyday.' – Variety

'It's 1999. School is a warzone. The latest in automatic weapons are the teachers.'

Class of 1999

US 1989 93m colour
Original Pictures (Mark L. Lester)

Three android teachers, hired to bring discipline to a lawless high school, go haywire.
A sort of robot Blackboard Jungle, aimed at teenage audiences in love with violence.
w C. Courtney Joyner story Mark L. Lester d Mark L. Lester ph Mark Irwin m Michael Hoenig pd Steven Legler ed Scott Conrad ☆ Bradley Gregg, Traci Lin, John P. Ryan, Pam Grier, Patrick Kilpatrick, Joshua Miller, Stacy Keach, Malcolm McDowell

Class of '44

US 1973 95m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (Paul Bogart)

Sex problems of college students during World War II.
Thin sequel to Summer of '42, nostalgic to Americans over forty but not much of a trip for anyone else.
w Herman Raucher d Paul Bogart ph Andrew Laszlo m David Shire ☆ Gary Grimes, Jerry Houser, Oliver Conant, William Atherton, Sam Bottoms, Deborah Winters

Class of 84

Canada 1981 98m colour
Columbia/Guerrilla (Arthur Kent)

A new teacher finds his students involved in drug and vice rackets.
The Blackboard Jungle goes several steps further, to general indifference.
w Mark Lester, John Saxton, Tom Holland d Mark Lester ph Albert Dunk m Lalo Schifrin ad no credit
☆ Perry King, Merrie Lynn Ross, Timothy Van Patten, Roddy McDowall

The Class of Miss McMichael

GB 1978 90m colour
Brut/Kettledrum (Judd Bernard)

A dedicated schoolmistress has no chance against her slum surroundings.
The Blackboard Jungle lives on, very boringly.
w Judd Bernard novel Sandy Hutson d Silvio Narizzano ph Alex Thomson m Stanley Myers ☆ Glenda Jackson, Oliver Reed, John Standing, Michael Murphy, Rosalind Cash

'Poorly mannered, simple minded, badly disciplined ... gives social science a bad name.' – Variety

Class of Nuke 'Em High

US 1986 92m colour
Troma/TNT (Lloyd Kaufman, Michael Hertz)

After nuclear waste contaminates the water supply, students who don't turn nasty are terrorized by a monster.
Cheap, over-the-top horror movie that makes fun of its lack of pretension.
w Richard W. Haines, Mark Rudnitsky, Lloyd Kaufman, Stuart Strutin d Richard W. Haines, Lloyd Kaufman ph Michael Mayers m Michael Lattanzi, Biohazard ad Art Skopinsky, Arthur Lorenz ed Richard Haines
☆ Janelle Brady, Gilbert Brenton, Robert Prichard, R. L. Ryan, James Nugent Vernon, Brad Dunker, Gary Schneider
† It was followed by two sequels, Class of Nuke 'Em High 2: Subhumanoid Meltdown, and Class of Nuke 'Em High 3: The Good, the Bad and the Subhumanoid.

Class Trip ★

France 1998 96m colour
Warner/Films de La Boissiere/PECF/France3/Rhone- Alpes (Annie Miller)
original title: La Classe de Neige

The shy son of over-protective parents goes on a school skiing holiday, where he indulges in dreams of death and destruction.
A chill little psychological thriller, designed to make the flesh creep; it hints at more than it delivers.
w Emmanuel Carrere, Claude Miller novel Emmanuel Carrere d Claude Miller ph Guillaume Schiffman m Henri Texier pd Jean-Pierre Kohut-Svelko ed Anne Lafarge cos Jacqueline and Catherine Bouchard
☆ Clement Van Den Bergh (Nicolas), Lokman Nalcakan (Hodkann), François Roy (The Father), Yves Verhoeven (Patrick), Emmanuelle Bercot (Mlle Grimm), Tina Sportolaro (The Mother), Chantal Banlier (Marie Ange), Benoit Herlin (Ribotton), Julien Le Mouel (Lucas)

'It sure says a lot of uncomfortable things about the tragedies that families sometimes wish upon themselves.' – Alexander Walker

La Classe de Neige: see Class Trip

Claudelle Inglish

US 1961 99m bw
Warner (Leonard Freeman)
GB title: Young and Eager

A poor farmer's daughter scorns a wealthy man for a succession of young studs.
Would-be sensational novelette from the author of Tobacco Road; it does not begin to be interesting.
w Leonard Freeman novel Erskine Caldwell d Gordon Douglas ph Ralph Woolsey m Howard Jackson
☆ Diane McBain, Arthur Kennedy, Constance Ford, Chad Everett, Claude Akins, Will Hutchins, Robert Colbert, Ford Rainey, James Bell

'My agent told me that the movie of my novel Claudelle Inglish was so poor that I shouldn't even bother to see it. So I didn't.' – Erskine Caldwell

Claudia ★★

US 1943 92m bw
TCF (William Perlberg)

A middle-class husband helps his child-wife to mature.
Typical of the best of Hollywood's 'woman's pictures' of the period, this is a pleasant domestic comedy-drama featuring recognizably human characters in an agreeable setting.
w Morrie Ryskind novel and play Rose Franken d Edmund Goulding ph Leon Shamroy m Alfred Newman
☆ Dorothy McGuire, Robert Young, Ina Claire, Reginald Gardiner, Olga Baclanova, Jean Howard, Elsa Janssen

'It won't leave a dry eye in the house.' – Variety † Cary Grant was sought for the Robert Young part.

Claudia and David ★

US 1946 78m bw
TCF (William Perlberg)

Claudia and her husband survive assorted crises including their son's illness and David's involvement in a car crash.
Patchwork sequel to Claudia, quite pleasant but obviously contrived quickly from scraps.
w Rose Franken, William Brown Meloney d Walter Lang ph Joseph LaShelle m Cyril Mockridge
☆ Dorothy McGuire, Robert Young, Mary Astor, John Sutton, Gail Patrick, Florence Bates

Claudine

US 1974 92m DeLuxe
Fox-Rank/Third World Cinema/Joyce Selznick, Tina Pine (Hannah Weinstein)

A garbage collector falls for a poor woman with six kids.
Sugar-coated account, with romantic overtones, of life at the bottom in New York.
w Tina and Lester Pine d John Berry ph Gayne Rescher m Curtis Mayfield pd Ted Haworth ed Luis San Andres ☆ Diahann Carroll, James Earl Jones, Lawrence Hilton-Jacobs, Tamu, David Kruger, Yvette Curtis, Eric Jones

'Substitute white actors for the black cast, tone down the fashionably outspoken situations a little, and it would be just like one of those perennial Disney movies about happy families and the difficulty of living and loving in this problematic world.' – Tom Milne, MFB
♗ Diahann Carroll

Claws

US 1977 100m colour
Alaska Pictures (Chuck D. Keen)

A grizzly bear, wounded by hunters, turns maneater and begins to kill the inhabitants of a small Alaskan town.
Cheap and unimaginative Jaws rip-off, displaying no creativity whatsoever, though the landscape is impressive.
w Chuck D. Keen, Brian Russell d Richard Bansbach, Robert E. Pierson ph Chuck D. Keen m Gene Kaver, Douglas Lackey ed Richard Bansbach
☆ Jason Evers, Leon Ames, Anthony Caruso, Carla Layton, Glenn Sipes, Buck Young, Myron Healey

The Clay Bird ★★

France/Bangladesh 2002 98m colour
ICA/MK2/Audiovision (Catharine Masud) original title: Matir Moina

In the early 70s in East Pakistan under a military government, a village boy is caught up in a religious dilemma and a political struggle for democracy.
Episodic, uneven but often engrossing drama, covering a young boy's experiences of being sent away from home, of loneliness, friendship, death and a flight from repression.
w Tareque and Catherine Masud d Tareque Masud ph Sudheer Palsane md Moushumi Bhowmik ad Kazi Rakib, Sylvain Nahmias ed Catherine Masud ☆ Nuril Islam Bablu (Anu), Russell Farazi (Rokon), Jayanto Chattopadhyay (Kazi), Rokeya Prachy (Ayesha)

'Has marvellous humour and flair, and compassion for children's sadness and their resilience in the face of life's trials.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'Lester Long Never Forgets A Friend.'

Clay Pigeons

US 1998 104m colour
Gramercy/Scott Free (Ridley Scott, Chris Zarpas)

An affable, adulterous but guileless gas station attendant is suspected of being a serial killer.
A blackish comedy of escalating disaster that rarely strikes the requisite heartless tone; a little more wit might have helped.
w Matt Healy d David Dobkin ph Eric

Edwards m John Lurie pd Clark Hunter ed Stan Saltas

☆ Vince Vaughn, Joaquin Pheonix, Janeane Garofalo, Georgina Cates, Scott Wilson, Phil Morris, Vince Vieluf, Nikki Arlyn

'Pic's air of jaunty (albeit somewhat flat) humor, plus its lack of genuine tension or character empathy, renders the serial-sadist aspect slightly distasteful, even irresponsible.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety

Clean and Sober ★★

US 1988 124m Technicolor
Warner/Imagine Entertainment (Tony Ganz, Deborah Blum)

An embezzler hides out in a rehabilitation clinic, refusing to admit to himself that he is an alcoholic and cocaine addict.

Unrelenting and powerful drama.

w Tod Carroll d Glenn Gordon Caron ph Ian Kiesser m Gabriel Yared pd Joel Schiller ed Richard Chew

☆ Michael Keaton, Kathy Baker, Morgan Freeman, Tate Donovan, Henry Judd Baker, Claudia Christian, M. Emmet Walsh, Luca Bercovici

'I only wish there were some honest way of describing this movie that would make everyone go and see it.' – Philip French, Observer

Clean, Shaven ★★

US 1993 77m DuArt
ICA/DSM III (Lodge Kerrigan)

A schizophrenic man goes looking for his daughter in Canada while being chased by a detective who believes he murdered a young girl.

A brilliant, but downbeat and difficult to watch, evocation of a shattered mind, full of pain and aggression and shot in a dislocated style.

wd Lodge Kerrigan ph Teodoro Maniaci m Hahn Rowe pd Tania Ferrier ed Jay Rabinowitz

☆ Peter Greene, Robert Albert, Megan Owen, Molly Castelloe, Jennifer MacDonald, Alice Levitt

'An almost unbearably intense, exceedingly concentrated study of schizophrenia by a clearly talented new filmmaker. Using a fragmented narrative and some avant-garde techniques, pic is so unsettling that many viewers won't be able to tolerate it.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

† The film was made over a period of two years.

Clean Slate: see Coup de Torchon (1981)

Clean Slate

US 1994 107m DeLuxe
MGM (Richard D. Zanuck, Lili Fini Zanuck)

A private detective forgets everything whenever he falls asleep.

A shaggy dog comedy in which all the laughs are stolen by a one-eyed Jack Russell terrier; it is a pity he couldn't have been persuaded to write the script.

w Robert King d Mick Jackson ph Andrew Dunn m Alan Silvestri pd Norman Reynolds ed Priscilla Nedd-Friendly

☆ Dana Carvey, Valeria Golino, James Earl Jones, Kevin Pollak, Michael Gambon, Michael Murphy

'This convoluted comedy feels like a pale follow-up to Groundhog Day.' – Variety

'Truth needs a soldier.'

Clear and Present Danger ★

US 1994 141m DeLuxe Panavision
Paramount (Mace Neufeld, Robert Rehme)

A leading CIA agent investigating the Colombian drug trade discovers that its corruption reaches the highest level of American government.

Fast-moving thriller of betrayal and the abuse of power, simple-minded but effective entertainment.

w Donald Stewart, Steven Zaillian, John Milius novel Tom Clancy d Phillip Noyce ph Donald McAlpine m James Horner pd Terence Marsh ed Neil Travis

☆ Harrison Ford, Willem Dafoe, Anne Archer, Henry Czerny, Joaquim de Almeida, Harris Yulin, Donald Moffat, Miguel Sandoval, James Earl Jones

'Long, uneven and sometimes downright tedious.' – Screen International

'The filmmakers haven't simply tamed the rogue elephant of Clancy's narrative; they've turned it into something that moves as gracefully and powerfully as a gazelle.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker

sound; sound effects editing

Clearcut

Canada 1991 98m colour Panavision
Northern Arts/Cinexus (Stephen J. Roth, Ian McDougal)

After losing a court battle to save Native American lands from a logging company, an idealistic lawyer witnesses the kidnapping of the sawmill's manager by an enigmatic Native American who believes in primitive vengeance.

A flawed film that abandons thoughtfulness in favour of brutal action; it is almost worth watching for Greene's performance as a nightmare figure beyond the reach of reason.

w Rob Forsyth novel A Dream Like Mine by M. T. Kelly d Richard Bugajski ph François Protat m Shane Harvey pd Perri Gorrara ed Michael Rea

☆ Ron Lea, Graham Greene, Michael Hogan, Rebecca Jenkins, Floyd Red Crow Westerman

'Despite its surface blandness, and though it wobbles precariously on the brink of oversimplification, it's as radical in its message as any picture you're likely to see.' – Hal Hinson, Washington Post

The Clearing ★ ⑤

US 2004 91m colour
Fox Searchlight (Pieter Jan Brugge, Palmer West, Jonah Smith)

A wealthy businessman reflects on his success and his relationship with his wife after he is kidnapped at gunpoint by a former employee.

Stolid drama that, despite its best intentions, stays in the shallows.

w Justin Haythe d Pieter Jan Brugge ph Denis Lenoir m Craig Armstrong pd Chris Gorak ed Kevin Tent

☆ Robert Redford (Wayne Hayes), Helen Mirren (Eileen Hayes), Willem Dafoe (Arnold Mack), Alessandro Nivola (Tim Hayes), Matt Craven (Agent Fuller), Melissa Sagemiller (Jill Hayes), Wendy Crewson (Louise Miller)

'A thriller stripped of thrills–or, even worse, a thriller that thinks of itself as somehow rising above the vulgar pleasures of excitement.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker

'Nicely crafted but too buttoned up to generate more than polite interest.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Cleo from 5 to 7 ★★★

France/Italy 1961 90m bw/colour
Rome/Paris (Bruno Drigo)

original title: Cleo de 5 à 7

A girl waiting for the result of a medical examination wanders around Paris thinking she has cancer.

Impressively handled character sketch with gratifying attention to detail.

wd Agnès Varda ph Jean Rabier m Michel Legrand ad Bernard Evein ed Jeanne Verneau

☆ Corinne Marchand (Cleo), Antoine Bourseiller (Antoine), Dorothée Blanck (Dorothee), Michel Legrand (Bob, the Pianist)

'The love affair that shook the world!'

Cleopatra ★★

US 1934 101m bw
Paramount/Cecil B. de Mille

After Julius Caesar's death, Cleopatra turns her attention to Mark Antony.

More of the vices than the virtues of its producer are notable in this fustian epic, which is almost but not quite unwatchable because of its stolid pace and miscasting. Some of the action montages and the barge scene, however, are superb cinema.

w Waldemar Young, Vincent Lawrence d Cecil B. de Mille ph Victor Milner m Rudolph Kopp ed Anne Bauchens

☆ Claudette Colbert (Cleopatra), Henry Wilcoxon (Antony), Warren William (Caesar), Gertrude Michael (Calpurnia), Joseph Schildkraut (Herod), Ian Keith (Octavian), C. Aubrey Smith (Enobarbus), Leonard Mudie (Pothinos), Irving Pichel (Brutus), Arthur Hohl, Ian MacLaren

'He has certainly made the most sumptuous of Roman circuses out of Roman history ... a constant succession of banquets, dancers, triumphs, and a fleet set on fire.' – The Times

'Gorgeous optically but mentally weak ... a handpicked audience was polite but not over-enthusiastic.' – Variety

'A great cinematic achievement, a spectacle of breathtaking brilliance.' – Daily Express

'It is remarkable how Cecil B. de Mille can photograph so much on such a vast scale and still say nothing ... it reeks of so much pseudo-artistry, vulgarity, philistinism, sadism, that it can only be compared with the lowest form of contemporary culture: Hitlerism. This is the type of "culture" that will be fed to the audience of Fascist America.' – Irving Lerner, 1968

Victor Milner

best picture; Anne Bauchens

'The motion picture the world has been waiting for!'

Cleopatra

US 1963 243m DeLuxe Todd-AO
TCF (Walter Wanger)

The unsurprising story is told at inordinate length and dullness in this ill-starred epic, one of the most heralded, and mismanaged, in film history. (Its story is best told in the producer's My Life with Cleopatra.)

The most expensive film made up to that date, for various reasons which do not appear on the screen.

w Joseph L. Mankiewicz, Ranald MacDougall, Sidney Buchman, and others d Joseph L. Mankiewicz (and others) ph Leon Shamroy m Alex North ad John DeCuir, Jack Martin Smith, and others

☆ Elizabeth Taylor (Cleopatra), Richard Burton (Mark Anthony), Rex Harrison (Julius Caesar), Pamela Brown (High Priestess), George Cole (Flavius), Hume Cronyn (Sosigenes), Cesare Danova (Apollodorus), Kenneth Haigh (Brutus), Andrew Keir (Agrippa), Martin Landau (Rufio), Roddy McDowall, Robert Stephens, Francesca Annis, Martin Benson, Herbert Berghof and also Grégoire Aslan, Richard O'Sullivan

'Whatever was interesting about it clearly ended up somewhere else: on the cutting room floor, in various hotel rooms, in the newspaper columns ... it lacks not only the intelligent spectacle of Lawrence of Arabia but the spectacular unintelligence of a Cecil B. de Mille product...' – John Simon

'The small screen does more than justice to this monumental mouse.' – Judith Crist

'I only came to see the asp.' – Charles Addams

'Surely the most bizarre piece of entertainment ever to be perpetrated.' – Elizabeth Taylor

† Archivists are attempting to restore a six-hour 'director's cut' of the film. After its opening, it was also shown in versions running for 227m and 192m.

Leon Shamroy; John DeCuir and others; costumes (Irene Sharaff, Vittorio Nino Novarese, Renie); special visual effects (Emil Kosa Jnr)

best picture; Alex North; Rex Harrison

Cleopatra Jones

US 1973 89m Technicolor Panavision
Warner

A black female CIA agent eliminates a ring of dope peddlers.

Grotesque comic strip fantasy with a high mortality rate.

w Max Julien, Sheldon Keller d Jack Starrett

☆ Tamara Dobson, Shelley Winters, Bernie Casey, Brenda Sykes

'It hampers the cause of racial entente more effectively than any work since Uncle Tom's Cabin.' – John Baxter, MFB

Cleopatra Jones and the Casino of Gold

US/Hong Kong 1975 96m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Shaw Bros (William Tennant, Run Run Shaw)

A tough female government agent goes to Hong Kong to smash a drugs ring.

Feeble sequel lacking the brashness of the original, but equally tasteless.

w William Tennant d Chuck Bail ph Alan Hume m Dominic Frontiere ad Johnson Tsao ed Willy Kemplen

☆ Tamara Dobson, Stella Stevens, Tanny, Norman Fell, Albert Popwell

'The film is cut together quite incoherently, and Chuck Bail's barely competent direction seizes up completely when called upon now and then for some large-scale action set-piece.' – Verina Glaessner, MFB

Clerks ★★

US 1994 103m bw
Artificial Eye/View Askew (Kevin Smith, Scott Mosier)

An unhappy clerk is forced to work in a grocery store on his day off, which turns out to be full of mishaps and laconic conversations with his friend, who runs the low-class neighbourhood video shop.

Witty, episodic, foul-mouthed account of the slacker generation doing what it does best:

nothing in particular; it is often inventive, making the most of its low-budget restrictions, if too determinedly quirky.
wd Kevin Smith ph David Klein m Scott Angley ed Scott Mosier, Kevin Smith ☆ Brian O'Halloran, Jeff Anderson, Marilyn Ghigliotti, Lisa Spoonauer, Jason Mewes, Kevin Smith
'A randy, irreverent, slice-of-life no-budgeter that's played for laughs and gets them.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
† The film was shot on 16mm for $27,000.

'With no power comes no responsibility.'

Clerks II

US 2006 100m
UIP (Scott Mosier)
aka: Clerks 2
A former convenience store clerk finds working in a fast-food restaurant no more fulfilling.
Raucous reprise of Kevin Smith's debut film that struggles to replicate the original's unforced charm.
wd Kevin Smith ph David Klein m James L Venable pd Robert Holtzman ad Marc Fisichella ed Kevin Smith
☆ Brian O'Halloran (Dante), Jeff Anderson (Randal), Rosario Dawson (Becky), Jason Mewes (Jay), Kevin Smith (Silent Bob), Trevor Fehrman (Elias)
'Smith's fondness for jokes about excrement, bestiality and related topics is so evidently childish that it is hard to be offended, or even especially provoked.' – A O Scott, New York Times

'What if you had a universal remote...that controlled your universe?'

Click ★★ (4)

US 2006 107m
Sony/Columbia Pictures/Happy Madison Productions/Revolution Studios/ Original Film (Adam Sandler, Jack Giarraputo, Neal H. Moritz, Steve Koren, Mark O'Keefe)
A workaholic architect is given a magic universal remote allowing him to freeze time, mute noise and fast-forward through his busy schedule. Problems occur when the gizmo operates on its own, skipping key moments of his life.
Adam Sandler's trademark goofy charm saves a crudely sentimental fable in the 'It's A Wonderful Life' vein -- full of cheap gags, heartfelt emotion and terrific futuristic design.
w Steve Koren, Mark O'Keefe d Frank Coraci ph Dean Semler m Rupert Gregson-Williams pd Perry Andelin Blake ad Alan Au, Geoffrey Mossa ed Jeff Gourson sp John C. Hartigan
☆ Adam Sandler (Michael Newman), Kate Beckinsale (Donna Newman), Christopher Walken (Morty), David Hasselhoff (Ammer), Henry Winkler (Ted), Julie Kavner (Trudy), Sean Astin (Bill)
'Once we get the idea, there are no more surprises, only variations on the first one.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
Best Achievement in Make-Up – Bill Corso, Kazuhiro Tsuji

'A district attorney out for a conviction. A new lawyer out of her league. A young boy who knew too much.'

The Client ★

US 1994 121m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Regency/Alcor (Arnon Milchan, Steven Reuther)
A female lawyer is hired to protect an 11-year-old boy, being chased by the Mafia and hounded by the FBI because he knows where the body of a murder victim is buried.
Slick and enjoyable thriller that lacks subtlety but maintains a high level of tension.
w Akiva Goldsman, Robert Getchell novel John Grisham d Joel Schumacher ph Tony Pierce-Roberts m Howard Shore pd Bruno Rubeo ed Robert Brown
☆ Susan Sarandon, Tommy Lee Jones, Mary-Louise Parker, Anthony LaPaglia, J. T. Walsh, Anthony Edwards, Brad Renfro, Will Patton, Ossie Davis
'Safe-as-houses entertainment, directed with no particular finesse, but it's refreshingly straightforward and unpretentious.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker
Susan Sarandon
Susan Sarandon

'Hang on.'

Cliffhanger ★

US 1993 112m Technicolor Panavision
Carolco/Canal/Pioneer/RCS Video (Alan Marshall, Renny Harlin)
A mountain rescue expert turns the tables on violent gangsters who crash in the Rocky Mountains with suitcases stuffed with money.
Enjoyably silly action adventure, with some spectacular, edgy stunts, although it never touches reality at any point and has one of the more ludicrous lip-smacking villains this side of melodrama.
w Michael France, Sylvester Stallone story Michael France based on a premise by John Long d Renny Harlin ph Alex Thomson m Trevor Jones pd John Vallone ed Frank J. Urioste sp Neil Krepela, John Richardson, John Bruno, Pamela Easley
☆ Sylvester Stallone, John Lithgow, Michael Rooker, Janine Turner, Rex Linn, Caroline Goodall, Leon, Craig Fairbrass, Gregory Scott Cummins, Paul Winfield, Ralph Waite
'Harlin displays perfect pitch, not just with the individual scenes of jaw-dropping stunt work, but in the way these episodes flow into each other with varying degrees of intensity.' – Henry Sheehan, Sight and Sound
'A two-hour roller-coaster ride that never stops from first minute to last. A high-octane action suspenser with thrilling vertiginous footage unlike anything seen before in a feature.' – Variety sound; sound effects editing; visual effects

Clifford's Really Big Movie

US 2004 74m Technicolor
Warner/Scholastic Entertainment/Big Red Dog (Deborah Forte)
A big red dog who feels that his owners can't afford to feed him runs away to join the circus.
Colourful, simple animated film that may pacify audiences too young to voice objections to its uninteresting narrative.
w Rhett Reese, Robert Ramirez book Clifford by Norman Bridwell d Robert Ramirez m Jody Gray m/ly Jody Gray, David Steven Cohen ad Michael Humphries ed Monte Bramer character designer Phil Mendez
☆ voices of: John Ritter (Clifford), Wayne Brady (Shackelford), Grey Delisle (Emily Elizabeth/Mrs Howard), Jenna Elfman (Dorothy), John Goodman (George Wolfsbottom)
'Easygoing and amiable, it is none the less dull compared to the brilliant new players on the scene.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

A Climate for Killing

US 1991 103m Foto-Kem
Propaganda
aka: A Row of Crows
A new cop who goes by the book finds himself at odds with an old-style sheriff and in love with his daughter as they investigate the murder of a woman who apparently died 16 years earlier.
Competent but unexciting murder mystery.
wd J. S. Cardone ph Michael Cardone m Robert Folk ☆ John Beck, Steven Bauer, Mia Sara, Katharine Ross, John Diehl, Dedee Pfeiffer, Phil Brock, Tony Frank

Climates ★★ (7)

Turkey/France/Netherlands 2006 102m
Artificial Eye/CO Production/NBC Film/Pyramide (Zeynep Ozbatur)
Original Turkish title: Iklimler
Over a summer, autumn and winter in Turkey, a couple's relationship gradually disintegrates. He is a stolid, middle-aged professor and photographer, while she is an impulsive, fiery young woman who works in television.
Ceylan pulls off an astute trick here in portraying two not particularly likable people whose faults are evident, yet managing to sustain the audience's sympathy for them both. In a conventional Western film we would be nudged into hoping the couple reunite; here, we hope they will part, and wish them well separately. Ceylan's sense of composition is flawless, and he tells his story at a stately pace, with relatively little dialogue. Emotionally subtle and shot through with helpless melancholy, it's exquisite film-making.
wd Nuri Bilge Ceylan ph Gokhan Tiryaki ed Ayhan Ergursel, Nuri Bilge Ceylan ☆ Ebru Ceylan (Bahar), Nuri Bilge Ceylan (Isa), Nazan Kirilmis (Serap), Mehmet Eryilmaz (Mehmet)
'Finds magnificence in the everyday and doesn't allow one single word or action to stray from a complete vision of what it means to be living and loving in (director) Ceylan's home city of Istanbul.' – Dave Calhoun, Time Out
'A surprisingly fond and tender portrait of the breakdown of a relationship and the ensuing sense of desolation.' – Ryan Gilbey, Sight & Sound
'A small but indelible masterpiece...as sharp and lovely as the best Chekhov short stories.' – Michael Phillips, Chicago Tribune
'(It) makes Mr. Ceylan's career a subject for further serious study.' – Andrew Sarris, New York Observer † Director/actor Nuri Bilge Ceylan and lead actress Ebru Ceylan are man and wife.

'The screen's classic of suspense!'

The Climax ★

US 1944 86m Technicolor
Universal (George Waggner)
A young opera singer is hypnotized by a mad doctor, who has kept his murdered mistress embalmed for ten years.
Gothic romantic melodrama invented to capitalize on the success – and the sets – of Phantom of the Opera. Curiously endearing, with a good eye-rolling part for Karloff.
w Curt Siodmak, Lynn Starling play Edward Cochran d George Waggner ph Hal Mohr, W. Howard Greene m Edward Ward ad John B. Goodman, Alexander Golitzen
☆ Boris Karloff, Susanna Foster, Gale Sondergaard, Turhan Bey, Thomas Gomez, Scotty Beckett
'All quite unalarming, which is a bit of a handicap.' – New Yorker, 1978
art direction

Climbing High ★

GB 1938 78m bw
Gaumont (Michael Balcon)
A rich man pretends to be a male model in order to win a girl.
Light-hearted romantic musical with interesting credits.
w Stephen Clarkson story Lesser Samuels, Marian Dix d Carol Reed ph Mutz Greenbaum (Max Greene) ad Alfred Junge ed Michael Gordon
☆ Jessie Matthews, Michael Redgrave, Noel Madison, Alastair Sim, Margaret Vyner, Mary Clare, Francis L. Sullivan

The Clinging Vine ★

US 1926 71m (24 fps) bw silent
Cecil B. de Mille
The president's secretary is the real driving force of a paint company, but finds that love is more important than business.
Interesting silent predecessor of many career girl comedies of the thirties and forties.
w Jeannie Macpherson d Paul Sloane
☆ Leatrice Joy, Tom Moore, Toby Claude, Robert Edeson

'People are going to * whether you like it or not – and this place is here to see that they enjoy it!'

The Clinic ★

Australia 1982 92m colour
Film House/Generation Films (Bob Weis, Robert le Tet)
One day in the life of a clinic for venereal diseases.
Slightly dishevelled comedy-drama which will be generally remembered as a very naughty carry-on.
w Greg Millen d David Stevens
☆ Chris Haywood, Simon Burke, Gerda Nicolson, Rona McLeod, Suzanne Roylance

'Six words from a woman changed the map of Asia.'

Clive of India ★

US 1934 90m bw
Twentieth Century (Darryl F. Zanuck, William Goetz, Raymond Griffith)
The life of the 18th-century empire builder, with special emphasis on his marriage.
A very tame and now faded epic, with more romance than adventure. The production relies more on stars than technique, but it works.
w W. P. Lipscomb, R. J. Minney play W. P. Lipscomb, R. J. Minney d Richard Boleslawski ph Peverell Marley m Alfred Newman
☆ Ronald Colman, Loretta Young, Colin Clive, Francis Lister, Montagu Love, Robert Greig, Leo G. Carroll, C. Aubrey Smith, Mischa Auer
'It may be spoken of as another of the best British pictures made in Hollywood Should be strong b.o.' – Variety
'Patriotic pageantry, undistorted by facts.' – J. R. Parish
art direction

'The moment he fell in love was his moment of greatest danger!'

Cloak and Dagger ★

US 1946 106m bw
United States Pictures (Milton Sperling)
A physics professor joins the secret service and is parachuted into Germany to interview a kidnapped scientist.

Supposedly authoritative espionage adventure which turned out dull and humourless; plot routine, direction absent-minded.
w Albert Maltz, Ring Lardner Jnr d Fritz Lang ph Sol Polito m Max Steiner
☆ Gary Cooper, Lilli Palmer, Robert Alda, Vladimir Sokoloff, J. Edward Bromberg, Ludwig Stossel, Helene Thimig, Marc Lawrence
'Just a B plot dressed up in A trimmings.' – Newsweek

Clochemerle

France 1948 93m bw
Cinéma Productions (Ralph Baum)
The progressive mayor of a French village erects a gentlemen's convenience in the main street and shocks the local reactionaries.
Most of the book's political satire was ironed out in this cheap and opportunist production which got a few easy laughs but failed to sustain itself.
w Gabriel Chevalier novel Gabriel Chevalier d Pierre Chénal ph Robert Le Fèbvre m Henri Sauguet ☆ Brochard, Maximilienne, Simone Michels, Jane Marken, Paul Demange, Felix Oudart, Saturnin Fabre

The Clock ★★

US 1945 90m bw
MGM (Arthur Freed)
GB title: Under the Clock
A girl meets a soldier at New York's Grand Central Station and marries him during his 24-hour leave.
Everyone now seems far too nice in this winsome romance full of comedy cameos and convincing New York locations, but if you can relive the wartime mood it still works as a corrective to the Betty Grable glamour pieces.
w Robert Nathan, Joseph Schrank story Paul and Pauline Gallico d Vincente Minnelli ph George Folsey m George Bassman
☆ Judy Garland, Robert Walker, James Gleason, Lucille Gleason, Keenan Wynn, Marshall Thompson, Chester Clute
'Sweetly charming, if maybe too irresistible ... fortunately the director fills the edges with comic characters.' – New Yorker, 1978
'The emotion may have been honest, but the method was too rich for my eyes, and the writing as used on the screen too weak for my mind.' – Stephen Longstreet
'Strictly a romance ... safely told, disappointing and angering in the thought of the great film it might have been.' – James Agee
'Amazingly, it was all shot in the studio, using street sets and back projection; even the old Penn Station, where so much of the action takes place, is a set.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

Clockers ★★

US 1995 128m DeLuxe
UIP/Universal/40 Acres and a Mule (Martin Scorsese, Spike Lee, Jon Kilik)
After a drug pusher is shot, a Brooklyn detective suspects that the man who confesses to the crime is doing so to protect his younger brother who is a clocker, a small-time crack dealer working on the streets.
A harsh report from the urban front line, where drugs cause blacks to kill blacks and even those who reject that culture find themselves unable to escape it; it is a powerful and despairing film, but often tends to be more didactic than dramatic.
w Richard Price, Spike Lee novel Richard Price d Spike Lee ph Malik Hassan Sayeed m Terence Blanchard pd Andrew McAlpine ed Sam Pollard
☆ Harvey Keitel, John Turturro, Delroy Lindo, Mekhi Phifer, Isaiah Washington, Keith David, Pee Wee Love, Regina Taylor, Sticky Fingaz
'A kaleidoscopic vision of a community mired in betrayal, psychosis, and murder. The images are like something out of a nightmare newsreel, raw and grainy and pulsatingly alive.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly
'Confirms Lee's position as the cinema's great surgeon-general, alternately taking the pulse of America and probing its open wounds. But it is still, in many ways, a bad film – so full of holes you can see right through it.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times † Originally, the film was to have been directed by Martin Scorsese. But he decided to make Casino instead, and Lee took over as director, rewriting the script to change its emphasis: in Price's novel, the protagonist is the Brooklyn detective played by Harvey Keitel.

'Freeze the future .'

Clockstoppers

US 2002 94m DeLuxe
Paramount/Nickelodeon/Valhalla (Gale Anne Hurd, Julia Pistor)
A teenager discovers a way to make time stand still.
When what it needed, when confronted by this dull concoction, is a way to make time move very much faster.
w Rob Hedden, J. David Stem, David N. Weiss d Jonathan Frakes ph Tim Suhrstedt m Jamshied Sharifi pd Marek Dobrowolski ed Peter E. Berger, Jeff W. Canavan
☆ Jesse Bradford (Zak), French Stewart (Dopler), Paula Garces (Francesca), Michael Biehn (Gates), Robin Thomas (Dad), Garikayi Mutambirwa (Meeker), Julia Sweeney (Mom), Lindze Letherman (Kelly)
'Blandly conceived youth adventure lacking zing or style.' – Robert Koehler, Variety

Clockwise ★

GB 1986 97m Technicolor
EMI/Moment (Michael Codron)
A headmaster on his way to a conference is delayed by circumstance.
What was intended as an escalating climax of comic chaos falls away as the script runs out of steam, but the nation's need for comedy ensured box-office success.
w Michael Frayn d Christopher Morahan ph John Coquillon m George Fenton pd Roger Murray-Leach ed Peter Boyle
☆ John Cleese, Alison Steadman, Penelope Wilton, Stephen Moore, Joan Hickson, Charon Maiden

'Whichever way you point him, as soon as you let Conrad go ... He's off and over the edge.'

Clockwork Mice

GB 1995 99m colour
Feature Film/Metrodome
An idealistic young teacher attempts to encourage a young boy in cross-country running when he goes to work in a special school.
Confused and episodic drama that veers abruptly from actuality to fantasy before climaxing with an unconvincing finale and unlikely romance; quite what the point of it all is, is impossible to know.
w Rod Woodruff d Vadim Jean ph Gordon Hickie m John Murphy, David Hughes pd David Munns ed Liz Webber ☆ Ian Hart, Ruaidhri Conroy, Catherine Russell, Art Malik, John Alderton, Claire Skinner, James Bolam, Nigel Planer, Lilly Edwards, Frankie Bruno
'If you can keep your cynicism in check, this is that rarest of breeds, a stirring British movie with a mind of its own.' – Empire

'Being the adventures of a young man whose principal interests are rape, ultra-violence, and Beethoven!'

A Clockwork Orange ★★★

GB 1971 136m colour
Warner/Polaris (Bernard Williams)
In a future Britain of desolation and violence, a young gangster guilty of rape and murder obtains a release from prison after being experimentally brainwashed: he finds society more violent than it was in his time.
Kubrick's fantastic meditation on a violent future has seemed more prescient with every passing year. In extraordinary images of clown-like delinquents, he orchestrates to electronic music mindless street violence, which leads to mindful state violence and political manipulation. It is like a socially conscious Punch and Judy puppet show.
wd Stanley Kubrick novel Anthony Burgess ph John Alcott m Walter Carlos pd John Barry ad Russell Hagg, Peter Shields ed Bill Butler
☆ Malcolm McDowell (Alex), Michael Bates (Chief Guard), Adrienne Corri (Mrs. Alexander), Patrick Magee (Mr. Alexander), Warren Clarke (Dim)
'Very early there are hints of triteness and insecurity, and before half an hour is over it begins to slip into tedium ... Inexplicably the script leaves out Burgess' reference to the title.' – Stanley Kauffmann
'It might be the work of a strict and exacting German professor who set out to make a porno violent sci-fi comedy.' – New Yorker, 1980
'Kubrick handles his medium with a confidence almost insolent. For the rest – the flashes of farce, the variations on distance and distortion and dream-imagery – he has given us the most audacious of horror-films. And the most inhuman.' – Dilys Powell
Ⓐ best picture; Stanley Kubrick (as writer and director)

'We are not alone...'

Close Encounters of the Third Kind ★

US 1977 135m Metrocolor Panavision
Columbia/EMI (Julia and Michael Phillips)
A series of UFOs takes Indiana by surprise, and a workman is led by intuition and detection to the landing site which has been concealed from the public.
There's a lot of padding in this slender fantasy, which has less plot and much less suspense than It Came from Outer Space which was made on a tiny budget in 1955; but the technical effects are masterly though their exposure is over-prolonged, and the benevolent mysticism filled a current requirement of popular taste, accounting for the enormous box-office success of a basically flawed film. Much of the dialogue is inaudible.
wd Steven Spielberg ph Vilmos Zsigmond m John Williams pd Joe Alves ed Michael Kahn sp Douglas Trumbull ☆ Richard Dreyfuss, François Truffaut, Teri Garr, Melinda Dillon, Cary Guffey
'It somehow combines Disney and 1950s SF and junk food into the most persuasive (if arrested) version of the American dream yet.' – Time Out
'It has visionary magic and a childlike comic spirit, along with a love of surprises and a skeptical, let's-try-it-on spirit.' – New Yorker
† The cost of this film was estimated at 20,000,000 dollars
†† In 1980 a 'special edition' was released with some success: this pared down the idiotic middle section and extended the final scenes of the space ship, including some new interiors
††† This film used the largest set in film history: the inside of an old dirigible hangar. Of the special edition, Derek Malcolm in the Guardian wrote: 'One is inclined to feel that with all the money at his disposal, Spielberg might have got it right the first time.'
Ⓐ Vilmos Zsigmond
Ⓐ direction; John Williams; Melinda Dillon; visual effects (Douglas Trumbull and others)
BAFTA Joe Alves

Close My Eyes

GB 1991 108m colour
Artificial Eye/Beambright/Film Four (Thérèse Pickard)
A long-separated brother and sister meet and fall in love.
Hysterical and dull, peopled by fashionable but inert characters given to boring introspection.
wd Stephen Poliakoff ph Witold Stok m Michael Gibbs pd Luciana Arrighi ed Michael Parkinson
☆ Alan Rickman, Saskia Reeves, Clive Owen, Karl Johnson, Lesley Sharp, Kate Gartside, Karen Knight, Niall Buggy
'Should have a solid career ahead of it and is a major plus for all concerned.' – Variety
'Drags itself across the screen. After much huffing and puffing, the script refuses to become the sum of its many, many scholarly observations about life, love, the universe. The lack of feeling is fatal.' – John Lyttle, Independent

A Close Shave ★★

GB 1995 30m colour
BBC/Aardman Animations (Carla Shelley, Michael Rose)
Wallace and Gromit defeat a sheep-rustling operation; in the process Wallace experiences the pangs of requited love and Gromit is accused of murder.
Enjoyable slapstick comedy of misapplied ingenuity, with nostalgic overtones, close in spirit to the British 'little man' comedies of the 50s with a few nods to more modern movies, such as The Terminator, along the way.
w Bob Baker, Nick Park d Nick Park ph David Alex Riddett m Julian Nott ad Phil Lewis ed Helen Garrard
☆ Featuring the voices of: Peter Sallis, Anne Reid
Ⓐ best animated short

Close to Eden: see Urga (1991)

Close to Eden

US 1992 111m colour
Rank/Propaganda/Sandollar/Isis (Steve Golin, Sigurjon Sighvatsson, Howard Rosenman) aka: A Stranger Among Us
A female cop infiltrates the Hasidic

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Ⓐ Academy Award · Ⓐ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA community in New York to track down a murderer.

An odd and unconvincing thriller, ignoring the narrative for much of the time as it becomes almost a promotional film on behalf of the Hasidim.
w Robert J. Avrech d Sidney Lumet ph Andrzej Bartkowiak m Jerry Bock pd Philip Rosenberg ed Andrew Mondshein
☆ Melanie Griffith, Eric Thal, John Pankow, Tracy Pollan, Lee Richardson, Mia Sara, Jamey Sheridan, Jake Weber
'With its Fiddler on the Roof score and some sneakily hypocritical espousing of deeply conservative religious values, this is little more than a 111-minute love letter to Sidney Lumet's rabbi.' – Kim Newman, Empire

Close to My Heart

US 1951 90m bw
Warner (William Jacobs)
An adopted baby is discovered to have a murderer for a father; but environment is proved to be more important than heredity.
Routine sentimental drama.
wd William Keighley story A Baby for Midge by James R. Webb ph Robert Burks m Max Steiner ed Clarence Kolster
☆ Ray Milland, Gene Tierney, Fay Bainter, Howard St John, Mary Beth Hughes

Close Your Eyes ★

GB 2003 108m DeLuxe Panavision
BBC/Film Consortium/Film Council/Kismet (Michelle Camarda)
aka: Hypnotic
US title: Doctor Sleep
A hypnotherapist tries to probe the mind of a mute survivor of an occult serial killer.
Spooky thriller that tries too hard to shock, surprise and confuse.
w Nick Willing, William Brookfield novel Doctor Sleep by Madison Smartt Bell d Nick Willing ph Peter Sova m Simon Boswell pd Don Taylor ed Niven Howie ☆ Goran Visnjic (Michael Strother), Shirley Henderson (Det Janet Losey), Miranda Otto (Clara Strother), Paddy Considine (Elliot), Claire Rushbrook (Grace), Fiona Shaw (Lebourg), Corin Redgrave (Clements), Sophie Stuckey (Heather)
'An enjoyable throwback to the occult psychological horror-thrillers of the late 1970s.' – David Rooney, Variety
† The film was also released in a cut and dubbed version entitled Survival Run.

Close-Up ★★

Iran 1989 93m colour
BFI/IIDCYA (Hassan Agha-Karimi)
original title: Namayeh Nazdik
A young man is tried for fraud after he persuades a family that he is the director Mohsen Makhmalbaf, and borrows money from them.
An oddity, and a fascinating one: a true story of a fantasist, part re-enacted, part actual, as the trial itself was filmed at the request of the accused.
wd Abbas Kiarostami ph Ali Reza Zarrin-Dast ed Abbas Kiarostami
☆ Hossain Sabzian, Mohsen Makhmalbaf, Abolfazi Ahankhah, Mehrdad Ahankhah, Manoochehr Ahankhah, Hossein Farazmand, Abbas Kiarostami

Closely Observed Trains ★★★

Czechoslovakia 1966 92m bw
Ceskoslovensky Film (Zdenek Oves)
During World War II, an apprentice railway guard at a country station falls in love and becomes a saboteur.
Warm, amusingly detailed comedy with a disconcerting downbeat ending.
wd Jiri Menzel novel Bohumil Hrabal ph Jaromir Sofr m Jiri Pavlik ad Oldrich Bosak ed Jirina Lukesova
☆ Vaclav Neckar (Trainee Milos Hrma), Jitka Bendova (Conductor Masa), Vladimir Valenta (Stationmaster Max), Josef Somr (Train Dispatcher Hubicka)
'Like Forman, Menzel seems incapable of being unkind to anybody.' – Tom Milne
'The director has made extraordinarily effective use of the solitude which the characters share.' – Dilys Powell
best foreign film

'If you believe in love at first sight, you never stop looking.'

Closer ★

US 2004 101m DeLuxe
Columbia/Inside Track (Mike Nichols, John Calley, Cary Brokaw)
In London, over a period of four years, two men and two women change partners in a search for love and find unhappiness.
An occasionally insightful drama of adultery and hurtful jealousy among the young and privileged that worked better on stage than it does on film.
w Patrick Marber play Patrick Marber d Mike Nichols ph Stephen Goldblatt pd Tim Hatley ed John Bloom, Antonia Van Drimmelen cos Ann Roth
☆ Julia Roberts (Anna), Jude Law (Dan), Natalie Portman (Alice), Clive Owen (Larry)
'All the scenes are about the beginning of affairs or their ends, and the effect is like eating sandwiches that have a fresh slice of bread, a curly stale slice and nothing nourishing in between.' – Philip French, Observer
'Funny, hurtful, splendidly acted new film.' – Richard Corliss, Time
Natalie Portman

'For five desperate Irishmen the perfect girl is abroad.'

The Closer You Get

GB/Ireland 2000 90m DeLuxe
Redwave (Uberto Pasolini)
US title: American Women
Bachelors in a small County Donegal town put an advertisement in a Miami paper inviting eligible young women to visit them.
Cute whimsical comedy that would have seemed old-fashioned forty years ago.
w William Ivory story Herbie Wave d Aileen Ritchie ph Robert Alazraki m Rachel Portman pd Tom McCullagh ed Sue Wyatt cos Kathy Strachan
☆ Ian Hart (Kieran), Sean McGinley (Ian), Niamh Cusack (Kate), Ruth McCabe (Mary), Ewan Stewart (Pat), Pat Shortt (Ollie), Cathleen Bradley (Siobhan), Sean McDonagh (Sean), Risteard Cooper (Father Hubert Mallone), Maureen O'Brien (Dollie), Pat Laffan (Giovanni), Britta Smith (Mrs Duncannon), Deborah Barnett (Ella), Frank Laverty (Brian), Dessie Gallagher (Mickey)
'Cute but oh-so-predictable stuff.' – Nigel Cliff, Times

The Closet: see Le Placard

Closet Land ★

US 1991 89m DeLuxe
Universal/Imagine (Janet Meyers)
A children's writer is arrested, interrogated and tortured by a government official on a charge of subverting the young.
Intense psychological drama of a battle of wills, but lacking the required emotional impact through being set in no recognizable society; the acting almost carries it, but its heavy-handed symbolism sinks it before the end.
wd Radha Bharadwaj ph Bill Pope m Richard Einhorn pd Eiko Ishioka ed Lisa Churgin ☆ Madeleine Stowe, Alan Rickman
'Not an experience many filmgoers will want to put down money for.' – Variety † Philip Glass was credited with 'creative musical supervision'.

The Cloud Capped Star ★★

India 1960 127m bw
BFI/Chitrakalpa (Ritwik Ghatak)
original title: Meghe Dhaka Tara
In Calcutta, the daughter of a refugee family struggling to survive sacrifices herself for the sake of her heedless parents and siblings.
A powerful and enraged account of suffering and waste, of exile and disappointment.
wd Ritwik Ghatak story Shaktipada Rajguru ph Dinen Gupta m Jyotirindra Moitra ad Ravi Chattopadhyay ed Ramesh Joshi ☆ Supriya Choudhury, Anil Chatterjee, Bijon Bhattacharya, Guita De, Gita Ghatak, Dwiju Bhawal, Niranjan Roy
'An underrated modern masterpiece.' – Film Review

Cloud Dancer

US 1977 108m colour
Melvin Simon
Episodes in the life of a stunt flyer.
Technically proficient, loosely assembled amble through the problems of a man with an obsession for danger; not a great crowd-puller.
w William Goodhart d Barry Brown
☆ David Carradine, Jennifer O'Neill, Joseph Bottoms, Albert Salmi, Salome Jens, Colleen Camp

Cloudburst

GB 1951 92m bw
Exclusive/Hammer (Anthony Hinds)
A vengeful code expert goes after the criminals who ran down his wife in making a getaway.
Watchable potboiler.
w Leo Marks, Francis Searle d Francis Searle ph Walter Harvey m Frank Spencer
☆ Robert Preston, Elizabeth Sellars, Colin Tapley, Sheila Burrell, Harold Lang
† The US version ran for 83m.

The Clouded Yellow ★

GB 1950 96m bw
Sydney Box/Carillon (Betty Box)
A sacked secret service agent gets work tending a butterfly collection and finds that this involves him in a murder plot.
Implausible but quite engaging thriller in the Hitchcock style, involving a chase across the Lake District.
w Janet Green, Eric Ambler d Ralph Thomas ph Geoffrey Unsworth
☆ Trevor Howard, Jean Simmons, Barry Jones, Sonia Dresdel, Maxwell Reed, Kenneth More, André Morell

Clouds Over Europe: see Q Planes

The Clown

US 1952 91m bw
MGM (William H. Wright)
A drunken clown, once a great star, is idolized by his son who believes in a comeback.
Maudlin reworking of The Champ (qv), with not a surprise in the plot and a star way over the top.
w Martin Rackin d Robert Z. Leonard ph Paul C. Vogel m David Rose ☆ Red Skelton, Jane Greer, Tim Considine, Loring Smith, Philip Ober

A Clown Must Laugh: see Pagliacci

The Club ★★

Australia 1980 90m colour Panavision
South Australia Film Corp/New South Wales Film Corp (Matt Carroll)
aka: Players
The arrival of an expensive, university-educated player precipitates a crisis among management and players at a football club.
Incisive, excellently acted drama of boardroom manoeuvres and conflicting loyalties.
w David Williamson play David Williamson d Bruce Beresford ph Don McAlpine pd David Copping ed William Anderson
☆ Jack Thompson, Harold Hopkins, Graham Kennedy, John Howard, Frank Wilson, Alan Cassell

Club Dread: see Broken Lizard's Club Dread

Club Extinction: see Dr M

Club Havana

US 1946 62m bw
PRC
Several stories come to a head in a night-club.
Slight musical multi-drama with moments of interest.
w Raymond L. Schrock, Fred Jackson d Edgar G. Ulmer
☆ Tom Neal, Margaret Lindsay, Don Douglas, Isabelita, Ernest Truex, Renie Riano, Paul Cavanagh, Marc Lawrence

Club Le Monde

GB 2002 79m Technicolor
ScreenProjex/SPA/2M (Piers Jackson, Simon Rumley)
In the early 90s, life becomes complicated for the staff and custoimers during one night at a London club.
Low budget movie that promises more than it delivers as it examines the intersecting lives of a group of clubbers, who turn out to be an unlovely and uninsteresting lot.
wd Simon Rumley ph Simon Starling m Ed Butt pd Mark Larkin ed Eddie Hamilton
☆ Dawn Steele (Jacqui), Allison McKenzie (Ali), Brad Gorton (Mike), Daniel Ainsleigh (Steve), Tania Emery (Kelly), Emma Pike (Yaz), Frank Harper (Danny), Danny Nussbaum (Mr Sunglasses)
'Dated, boring paean to clubbing, with a duff script and lazy, 2-D characters.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Club Paradise

US 1986 104m Technicolor
Warner (Michael Shamberg)
A Chicago fireman retires to a Caribbean island to manage a rundown club.
Dismal waste of talent.
w Harold Ramis, Brian Doyle-Murray story Ed Roboto, Tom Leopold, Chris

Miller, David Standish d Harold Ramis ph Peter Hannan m David Mansfield, Van Dyke Parks pd John Graysmark ed Marion Rothman
☆ Robin Williams, Peter O'Toole, Rick Moranis, Jimmy Cliff, Twiggy, Adolph Caesar, Eugene Levy, Joanna Cassidy
'Like one of those giddy, casual farces that Paramount turned out in the thirties ... Those pictures often got terrible reviews but kept audiences giggling cheerfully.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

Clubbed to Death

France/Portugal/Netherlands 1997 88m colour
Artificial Eye/Madar/La Sept/Grupo de Estudos/Meteor (Odile Gervais)

A young, middle-class woman is thrilled to discover rave culture and a drug-taking, impotent Arab boxer in the Parisian suburbs.
A slim narrative with little worthwhile dialogue, on which is hung the pounding music and pill-popping antics of the rave scene; for addicts only.
w Yolande Zauberman, Noémie Lvovsky d Yolande Zauberman ph Denis Lenoir m various pd Olivier Radot ed François Gédigier
☆ Elodie Bouchez, Roschdy Zem, Béatrice Dalle, Richard Courcet, Alex Descas
'Nothing other than a pretentious attempt to portray meaning to a culture that most of us couldn't care less about.' – Helen Van Kruyssen, Film Review

'It's not just a game...anymore.'

Clue

US 1985 87m Metrocolor
Paramount/Guber-Peters/Debra Hill/Polygram

A murder game becomes reality.
A rather arch attempt to film an internationally popular board game; those not in on the joke may tend to restlessness.
wd Jonathan Lynn ph Victor J. Kemper m John Morris pd John Lloyd ☆ Eileen Brennan, Tim Curry, Madeline Kahn, Christopher Lloyd, Michael McKean, Lesley Ann Warren
'Enough wit, neuroses and motive to intrigue even the most inept whodunnit solver.' – Variety
† Three alternative solutions were originally provided.

Clueless ★★

US 1995 97m DeLuxe
Paramount (Robert Lawrence, Scott Rudin)

A Beverly Hills teenager, the daughter of a successful lawyer, worries about losing her position as the most popular girl in the school and winning the boy she wants.
A surprisingly successful comedy about a girl who loves to shop, an activity that satisfies when all else fails. The dialogue is witty, the performances are smart and the tone is one of affectionate amusement touched with a little irony; the result is greatly enjoyable.
wd Amy Heckerling ph Bill Pope m David Kitay pd Steve Jordan ed Debra Chiate ☆ Alicia Silverstone, Stacey Dash, Brittany Murphy, Paul Rudd, Dan Hedaya, Donald Faison, Elisa Donovan, Wallace Shawn
'A highly satisfactory piece of work.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent
'The plot, a blend of Heathers and Sandra Dee, makes you feel as if you're biting into a tamale filled with Marshmallow Fluff.' – Entertainment Weekly
† The film is loosely based on Jane Austen's Emma.

Cluny Brown ★★

US 1946 100m bw
TCF (Ernst Lubitsch)

A plumber's niece goes into service and falls for a Czech refugee guest.
Romantic comedy in a never-never pre-war England; it does no more than poke casual fun at upper-class conventions, but the smooth direction and some excellent character comedy keep it well afloat.
w Samuel Hoffenstein, Elizabeth Reinhardt novel Margery Sharp d Ernst Lubitsch ph Joseph LaShelle m Cyril Mockridge, Emil Newman
☆ Jennifer Jones, Charles Boyer, Richard Haydn, Una O'Connor, Peter Lawford, Helen Walker, Reginald Gardiner, Reginald Owen, C. Aubrey Smith, Sara Allgood, Ernest Cossart, Florence Bates, Billy Bevan
'A lovely, easygoing comedy, full of small surprising touches.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

The Co-Optimists ★

GB 1929 83m bw
New Era (Edwin Greenwood)

A revue by a popular pierrot troupe of the time.
Famous as Britain's first musical, this is a dated but valuable record of a stage performance of the kind long vanished.
w Melville Gideon, Laddie Cliff d Edwin Greenwood, Laddie Cliff ph Basil Emmott, Sydney Blythe
☆ Davy Burnaby, Stanley Holloway, Laddie Cliff, Phyllis Monkman, Melville Gideon, Gilbert Childs, Betty Chester, Elsa MacFarlane, Peggy Petronella, Harry S. Pepper

'It begins on the street. It ends here.'

Coach Carter ★

US 2005 136m DeLuxe Panavision
Paramount/MTV (Brian Robbins, Mike Tollin, David Gale)

A highschool basketball coach insists that the players on his team also keep up with their studies.
Inspired by the life of Ken Carter, this sports movie, while following much the usual template for such films, does break convention with its insistence that athletic prowess at school will not necessarily bring success in adult life.
w Mark Schwahn, John Gatins d Thomas Carter ph Sharone Meir m Trevor Rabin ch Dave Scott pd Carlos Barbosa ed Peter Berger
☆ Samuel L. Jackson (Coach Ken Carter), Robert Ri'chard (Damien Carter), Rob Brown (Kenyon Stone), Ashanti (Kyra), Debbi Morgan (Tonya), Rick Gonzalez (Timo Cruz), Antwon Tanner (Worm), Nana Gbewonyo (Junior Battle)
'A smart entertainment that trades on Mr. Jackson's forceful presence, a cast of extremely likable young actors and lots of basketball action.' – Joe Morgenstern, Wall Street Journal

Coal Miner's Daughter ★★★

US 1980 124m Technicolor
Universal (Bob Larson)

The wife of a Kentucky hillbilly becomes a star of country music.
'With-it' version of the old show business story: gradual success, stardom, nervous breakdown, reconciliation. Based on the life of Loretta Lynn, but mainly notable for its depiction of backwoods Kentucky.
w Tom Rickman d Michael Apted ph Ralf D. Bode md Owen Bradley pd John W. Corso ed Arthur Schmidt
☆ Sissy Spacek (Loretta), Tommy Lee Jones (Doolittle Lynn), Levon Helm (Ted Webb), Jennifer Beasley (Peggy Lynn), Phyllis Boyens (Clara Webb)
† A Region 1 DVD has commentary by Sissy Spacek and Michael Apted.
Sissy Spacek
best picture; Tom Rickman; Ralf D. Bode; editing (Arthur Schmidt); art direction (John W. Corso, John M. Dwyer)

The Coast Guard ★

South Korea 2002 92m colour
Korea Pictures/Mirae Asset/i-Pictures/LJ Film (Lee Seung-jae)

original title: Haeanseon
An enthusiastic military conscript loses his reason after killing a fisherman he mistook for a spy, as does the girlfriend of the man he shot.
Grim drama on the futility of peace-time military service and paranoid jingoism that becomes too repetitive.
wd Kim Ki-duk ph Baek Dong-hyeon m Jang Yeong-gyu ad Yun Ju-hun ed Kim Seon-min
☆ Jang Dong-geon (Kang Han-cheol), Park Ji-ah (Mi-yeong), Kim Jeong-hak (Kim Sang-byeong), Yu Hae-jin (Cheol-gu)
'Dark satire on the armed hysteria between North and South that also has relevance way beyond the Korean peninsula.' – Derek Elley, Variety
† The Region 1 DVD release includes an interview with, and audio commentary by, the director.

Coast of Terror: see Summer City

Coast to Coast

US 1980 94m Movielab
Paramount (Terry Carr)

A Los Angeles wife flees her husband and hitches a lift from a truck driver with problems.
Comedy for easy watching: pleasant characters are given very little of interest to do.
w Stanley Weiser d Joseph Sargent ph Joel King m Charles Bernstein ☆ Dyan Cannon, Robert Blake, Quinn Redeker, Michael Lerner, Bill Lucking, Maxine Stuart

Coastal Command ★★

GB 1942 69m bw
Crown Film Unit (Ian Dalrymple)

The RAF's Coastal Command at work, protecting a homeward-bound convoy of 42 merchant ships threatened by U-boats and a German raider.
Gripping documentary, full of exciting action, that has acquired additional historical worth with the passing of the years; it is also notable for Vaughan Williams's evocative score.
d J. B. Holmes ph Jonah Jones, F. Gamage m Ralph Vaughan Williams md Muir Mathieson ed Michael Gordon
'The whole piece is full of action, and yet it is somehow possible to watch it with imperturbability. A little more perturbation, and some humour, too, perhaps might not have hurt this picture.' – C. A. Lejeune

Cobb

US 1994 128m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Regency/Alcor (David Lester)

A sports writer working on the official biography of Ty Cobb, the legendary American baseball player, discovers that the sporting hero is a thoroughly unpleasant person.
A revisionist biopic, with a larger-than-life performance in the title role; it is only likely to appeal to a dedicated sports fan.
wd Ron Shelton book Cobb: A Biography by Al Stump ph Russell Boyd m Elliot Goldenthal pd Armin Ganz, Scott Ritenour ed Paul Seydor, Kimberly Ray ☆ Tommy Lee Jones, Robert Wuhl, Lolita Davidovich, Stephen Mendillo, Lou Myers, J. Kenneth Campbell, William Utay, Rhoda Griffis
'It's neither character study nor historic drama. It's ambitious but oblique and unfocused, and only the most generous of viewers will forgive its numerous lapses and vagaries.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

Cobra

US 1925 85m approx bw silent
Ritz-Carlton

An impoverished Italian nobleman collects women as a hobby.
The star's first independent production won no plaudits and was thought to be a mistake conceived by his wife Natacha Rambova, who appeared in a dance act with him.
w Anthony Coldeway d Joseph Henabery
☆ Rudolph Valentino, Nita Naldi, Casson Ferguson, Gertrude Olmstead, Hector V. Sarno

'Crime is a disease. Meet the cure.'
'The strong arm of the law.'

Cobra

US 1986 87m Technicolor
Warner/Cannon (James D. Brubaker)

A tough LA cop tracks down a serial killer.
Relentless but unsurprising carbon of Dirty Harry, a bit too tough for its own good.
w Sylvester Stallone novel Fair Game by Paula Gosling d George Pan Cosmatos ph Ric Waite m Sylvester Levay pd Bill Kenney ed Don Zimmerman, James Symons
☆ Sylvester Stallone, Brigitte Nielsen, Reni Santoni, Andrew Robinson
† 2,131 prints were made for the launch
†† It was remade in 1995 as Fair Game (qv), starring Cindy Crawford.

Cobra Verde

West Germany 1988 111m colour
Palace/Concorde/Werner Herzog Film Production/ZDF/Ghana Film Industry Corp (Luigi Stipetic)

A Brazilian peasant-turned-bandit goes to West Africa to revive the slave trade.
Disjointed, episodic and uninteresting.
w Werner Herzog novel The Viceroy of Ouidah by Bruce Chatwin d Werner Herzog ph Viktor Ruzicka m Popol Vuh pd Ulrich Bergfelder ed Maximiliane Mainka ☆ Klaus Kinski, King Ampaw, Jose Lewgoy, Salvatore Basile

Cobra Woman

US 1944 71m Technicolor
U-I (George Waggner)

A South Seas girl is abducted by snake worshippers ruled by her evil twin.
A monument of undiluted hokum with some amusing sets and performances but not enough self-mockery in the script.
w Richard Brooks, Gene Lewis d Robert Siodmak ph George Robinson, W. Howard Greene m Edward Ward
☆ Maria Montez, Jon Hall, Sabu, Lon Chaney Jnr, Mary Nash, Edgar Barrier, Lois Collier, Samuel S. Hinds, Moroni Olsen
'Among the exotic treats: a rumbling volcano, a pet chimp, ominous gong sounds, forest glade love scenes, human sacrifices, handmaidens in high-heeled pumps, Tollea's imperious writhing during a demonic dance, and the good Nadja's plea for the symbol of the power that is rightly hers: "Gif me the cobra jool.'" – Pauline Kael, 70s

The Cobweb

US 1955 124m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
MGM (John Houseman)

Tensions among the staff of a private mental clinic reach a new high over the purchase of curtains.

The patients seem saner than the doctors in this strained and verbose character drama which despite its cast and big studio look never begins to engage the interest.

w John Paxton novel William Gibson d Vincente Minnelli ph George Folsey m Leonard Rosenman

☆ Richard Widmark, Lauren Bacall, Charles Boyer, Lillian Gish, Gloria Grahame, John Kerr, Susan Strasberg, Oscar Levant, Tommy Rettig, Paul Stewart, Adèle Jergens

'An overwrought and elaborately artificial exercise, made scarcely more plausible by reliance on the basic jargon of psychiatry.' – Penelope Houston

'By the mid-50s, nobody was surprised that the new variant on Grand Hotel was an expensive, exclusive loony bin.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

The Coca-Cola Kid

Australia 1985 94m Eastmancolor
Palace/Cinema Enterprises/Film Gallery/Columbia (David Roe)

A Coca-Cola rep is sent to Australia to combat a remote land baron who brews and distributes his own brand.

Flaccid drama with an eventually mystifying superabundance of style.

w Frank Moorhouse d Dusan Makavejev ph Dean Semler m William Motzing pd Graham (Grace) Walker ed John Scott

☆ Eric Roberts, Greta Scacchi, Bill Kerr, Max Gillies, Kris McQuade

'Because everyone loves an accurate period piece.'

A Cock and Bull Story ★★ ⑦

GB 2005 94m colour
Redbus/BBC/EM Media/Revolution/Baby Cow/Scion (Anita Overland, Wendy Brazington)

A director deals with a temperamental cast while attempting to film Laurence Stern's eccentric 18th-century novel Tristram Shandy.

Amusing attempt to grapple with an unfilmable book and funny in its knowing failure to achieve the impossible.

w Martin Hardy novel Laurenhce Sterne d Michael Winterbottom ph Marcel Zyskind m Michael Nyman, Erik Nordgren, Nino Rota pd John Paul Kelly ed Peter Christelis

☆ Steve Coogan (Tristram Shandy, Walter Shandy, "Steve Coogan"), Rob Brydon (Toby Shandy, "Rob Brydon"), Keeley Hawes (Elizabeth Shandy, "Keeley Hawes"), Shirley Henderson (Susannah, "Shirley Henderson"), Dylan Moran (Dr Slop, "Dylan Moran"), David Walliams (Parson), Jeremy Northam (Mark)

'This is not just a movie-within-a-movie, but a movie-within-a-movie-within-a-movie, something that sounds unbearably arch but that is swift, funny and surprisingly unpretentious.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

Cockeyed Cavaliers

US 1934 72m bw
RKO

Two idiots have various adventures in medieval England.

Fairly tolerable slapstick from a team which never seemed quite at its best.

w Edward Kaufman, Ben Holmes d Mark Sandrich

☆ Bert Wheeler, Robert Woolsey, Thelma Todd, Noah Beery, Dorothy Lee, Franklin Pangborn, Robert Greig

'With a fair quota of laughs, it eclipses their previous releases.' – Variety

The Cockeyed Cowboys of Calico County

US 1969 99m Technicolor
Universal

A Western blacksmith stops working when his mail order bride doesn't arrive.

Styleless American rehash of La Femme du Boulanger, with all concerned trying too hard.

w Ranald MacDougall d Tony Leader

☆ Dan Blocker, Nanette Fabray, Mickey Rooney

The Cockeyed Miracle

US 1946 92m bw
MGM
GB title: Mr Griggs Returns

Family ghosts return to sort out domestic chaos.

Moderate 'Topper'-style comedy with amiable cast.

w Karen de Wolf play George Seaton d S. Sylvan Simon

☆ Frank Morgan, Cecil Kellaway, Gladys Cooper, Audrey Totter, Marshall Thompson, Leon Ames

The Cockeyed World ★

US 1929 115m bw
Fox

Further adventures of Sergeants Flagg and Quirt, the boisterous heroes of What Price Glory.

Lively early talkie; the adventure comedy remains interesting, though the technique is badly faded.

w William K. Wells, Laurence Stallings, Maxwell Anderson, Wilson Mizner, Tom Barry d Raoul Walsh ph Arthur Edeson

☆ Victor McLaglen, Edmund Lowe, Lili Damita, Lelia Karnelly, El Brendel, Bob Burns, Stuart Erwin

Cockfighter

US 1974 83m Metrocolor
Rio Pinto/New World/Artists Entertainment Complex (Roger Corman)

aka: Born to Kill

A professional cockfighter ends a run of bad luck but loses his girl.

Not badly made but rather seedy film about appalling people.

w Charles Willeford novel Charles Willeford d Monte Hellman ph Nestor Almendros m Michael Franks

☆ Warren Oates, Richard B. Shull, Harry Dean Stanton, Ed Begley Jnr, Laurie Bird, Troy Donahue

Cockles and Muscles ★ ④

France 2004 93m colour
Peccadillo/Bac/Agat/Canal+/Cine-Cinema (Nicolas Blanc)

original title: Crustacés et Coquillages
US title: Cote D'Azur

A family on holiday on the Cote D'Azur discover the complex truth about one another's sexuality.

Frivolous bisexual farce of love affairs and misunderstandings on a vacation that rids everyone of inhibitions but not partners.

wd Olivier Ducastel, Jacques Martineau ph Matthieu Poirot-Delpech m Philippe Miller ad Karim Hamzaoui, Emmanuel Balconnet ed Dominique Gallieni

☆ Valeria Bruni-Tedeschi (Béatrix), Gilbert Melki (Marc), Jean-Marc Barr (Didier), Jacques Bonnaffé (Mathieu), Edouard Collin (Martin)

'Cheerful, permissive example of the French seaside holiday picture.' – Phillip French, Observer

Cockleshell Heroes

GB 1955 97m Technicolor Cinemascope
Columbia/Warwick (Phil C. Samuel)

During World War II, ten marines are trained to travel by canoe into Bordeaux harbour and attach limpet mines to German ships.

Absolutely predictable semi-documentary war heroics, with barrack-room humour turning eventually into tragedy. The familiar elements, including a display of stiff upper lips, ensured box-office success.

w Bryan Forbes, Richard Maibaum d José Ferrer ph John Wilcox, Ted Moore m John Addison

☆ José Ferrer, Trevor Howard, Dora Bryan, Victor Maddern, Anthony Newley, Peter Arne, David Lodge, Walter Fitzgerald, Beatrice Campbell

Cocktail

US 1988 103m Metrocolor
Warner/Touchstone/Silver Screen Partners III/Interscope Communications (Ted Field, Robert W. Cort)

A young man becomes a bartender in the belief he will meet rich and beautiful women.

Glossy nonsense.

w Heywood Gould novel Heywood Gould d Roger Donaldson ph Dean Semler m Peter Robinson pd Mel Bourne ad Dan Davis ed Neil Travis, Barbara Dunning

☆ Tom Cruise, Bryan Brown, Elisabeth Shue, Lisa Banes, Laurence Luckinbill, Kelly Lynch, Gina Gershon, Ron Dean

The Cocoanuts ★★

US 1929 96m bw
Paramount (Walter Wanger, James R. Cowan)

A chiselling hotel manager tries to get in on the Florida land boom.

Considering its age and the dismal prints which remain, this is a remarkably lively if primitive first film by the Marxes, with some good routines among the excess footage.

w George S. Kaufman, Morrie Ryskind d Robert Florey, Joseph Santley ph George Folsey m/ly Irving Berlin

☆ The Four Marx Brothers, Margaret Dumont, Oscar Shaw, Mary Eaton, Kay Francis, Basil Ruysdael

'The camerawork showed all the mobility of a concrete fire hydrant caught in a winter freeze.' – Paul D. Zimmermann

Cocoon ★★

US 1985 117m DeLuxe
TCF/Zanuck-Brown (Lili Zanuck)

Aliens from another galaxy leave pods in the pool of a Florida retirement home, whose bathers are rejuvenated.

Unusual, amusing and sentimentally effective movie of the kind which gets hearty word-of-mouth recommendation.

w Tom Benedek novel David Saperstein d Ron Howard ph Don Peterman m James Horner pd Jack T. Collis ed Daniel Hanley, Michael J. Hill

☆ Don Ameche, Wilford Brimley, Hume Cronyn, Brian Dennehy, Jack Gilford, Steve Guttenberg, Maureen Stapleton, Jessica Tandy, Gwen Verdon

'A mesmerizing tale that's a certified audience pleaser.' – Variety

best supporting actor, Don Ameche

Cocoon: The Return

US 1988 116m DeLuxe
Fox/Richard D. Zanuck, David Brown, Lili Fini Zanuck

After a visit to another planet, three rejuvenated elderly couples return to Earth to rescue alien pods.

Lacklustre sequel, a concept in search of a script.

w Stephen McPherson story Stephen McPherson, Elizabeth Bradley d Daniel Petrie ph Tak Fujimoto m James Horner pd Lawrence Paull ed Mark Warner

☆ Don Ameche, Wilford Brimley, Courteney Cox, Hume Cronyn, Jack Gilford, Steve Guttenberg, Barret Oliver, Maureen Stapleton, Elaine Stritch, Jessica Tandy, Gwen Verdon, Tahnee Welch

'Extraordinarily scrappy.' – MFB

'Toni wanted a crowd... he got the mob'

Cocozza's Way

GB 2001 97m Technicolor
UIP/DNA (Ruth Kenley-Letts)

In Glasgow, a Frank Sinatra impersonator becomes involved with local gangsters.

Momentarily interesting feature, in which small-time crooks attempt to ape Mafia styles in the same way that a pub crooner tries to emulate Sinatra, but it soon settles for low-life clichés.

wd Peter Capaldi ph Stephen Blackman m Stanislas Syrewicz pd Martyn John ed Martin Walsh

☆ Ian Hart (Toni Cocozza), Kelly Macdonald (Irene), Alun Armstrong (Bill), Brian Cox (Chisolm), Tommy Flanagan (Michelangelo), Iain Cuthbertson (Connolly), Billy McColl (John the Watchman), Richard E. Grant (Himself)

'It turns it into a small, cliché-ridden telly entertainment. Its narrative cracks mightn't have shown up so damningly on the small screen and it has a few sound native virtues.' – Alexander Walker

'How do you solve a crime when the last thing you want to know is the truth?'

Code 46 ★

GB 2003 92m DeLuxe 'Scope
UKFC/BBC/Revolution (Andrew Eaton)

In a future where there are restrictions on procreation, a married detective is sent to Shanghai to investigate forged travel passes and falls for the clerk responsible.

The usual stuff of film noir is set in a bleakly limited future, where, instead of the expected heat of an illicit encounter, there is only a passionless void.

w Frank Cottrell Boyce d Michael Winterbottom ph Alwin Kuchler, Marcel Zyskind m Free Association pd Mark Tildesley ed Peter Christelis

☆ Tim Robbins (William Geld), Samantha Morton (Maria), Jeanne Balibar (Sylvie Geld), Om Puri (Backland), Essie Davis (Doctor), Shelley King (William's boss)

'Tedious, nearly incomprehensible, it tries to run the gamut from Alphaville to Zardoz.' – Philip French, Observer

'Provocative, quietly erotic, deeply romantic, and slyly witty.' – Glenn Kenny, Premiere

Code Inconnu: Recit Incomplet De Divers Voyages ★

France/Germany/Romania 2000 117m colour
Artificial Eye/MK2/Alain Sarde

aka: Code Unknown

In Paris, an illegal immigrant, a teacher, a photographer and a runaway all find themselves excluded from some aspect of society.

An intricate film of several loosely connected lives, all exhibiting distress with present day society; it has arresting moments but feels too much like a hellfire sermon to convince.

wd Michael Haneke ph Jurgen Jurges m Giba Gonçalves pd Manuel de Chauvigny ed Andreas Prochaska, Karin Hartusch, Nadine Muse cos Françoise Clavel

☆ Juliette Binoche (Anne), Thierry Neuvic (Georges), Luminita Gheorghiu (Maria), Ona Lu Yenke (Amadou), Helene Diarra (Aminate), Sepp Bierbichler (Farmer), Alexandre Hamidi (Jean)

'A major achievement… the most intellectually stimulating and emotionally provocative piece of European cinema of recent times.' – Richard Falcon, Sight & Sound

Code Name: Emerald

US 1985 93m Metrocolor
NBC/MGM-UA

A double agent is sent to Paris in 1944 to make sure that a captured American officer doesn't talk about the D-Day plans.

Plodding, old hat war melodrama with no specific virtues.

w Ronald Bass novel The Emerald Illusion by Ronald Bass d Jonathan Sanger ph Freddie Francis

☆ Ed Harris, Max von Sydow, Horst Buchholz, Helmut Berger, Graham Crowden

Code Name: Trixie: see The Crazies

Code Name: Zebra

US 1985 96m Foto-Kem
Pac-West (Joseph Lucchese)

On his release from prison, a gangster takes his revenge against a gang of ex-Vietnam War veterans who put him inside.

Cheap and nasty exploitation film that rehashes in a ham-fisted manner all the usual shoot-outs, car crashes and casual violence; if it has any originality, it is that the good guys are even more unpleasant than the bad.

w Robert Leon d Joe Tornatore ph Bill Dickson, Tom Denove m Louis Febre, Peter Rotter ed Ed Hansen

☆ Jim Mitchum, Mike Lane, Timmy Brown, Joe Dante, Chuck Morrell, Deana Jurgens, Lindsey Crosby, Frank Sinatra Jnr

Code of Scotland Yard: see The Shop at Sly Corner

Code of Silence

US 1985 101m Astrocolor
Rank/Orion (Raymond Wagner)

A Chicago cop raids a drug den and sets off a gang war.

Routine tough stuff which just about avoids self-parody.

w Michael Butler, Dennis Shryack, Mike Gray d Andrew Davis ph Frank Tidy m David Frank pd Maher Ahmed ed Peter Parasheles, Christopher Holmes

☆ Chuck Norris (Eddie Cusack), Henry Silva (Luis Comacho), Bert Remsen (Commander Kates), Mike Genovese (Tony Luna), Nathan Davis (Felix Scalese), Ralph Foody (Cragie), Joseph Guzaldo (Nick Kopalas), Molly Hagan (Diana Luna), Dennis Farina (Dorato)

Code of the Secret Service

US 1939 58m bw
Warner

Agents track a gang who stole treasury banknote plates.

Serial-like adventures, one of several from the same stable, all featuring the future president of the US.

w Lee Katz, Dean Franklin d Noel Smith

☆ Ronald Reagan, Eddie Foy Jnr, Rosella Towne, Moroni Olsen, Edgar Edwards

'Filler fodder; a wild actioner for lower dual bookings.' – Variety

Code Unknown: see Code Inconnu: Recit Incomplet De Divers Voyages

Codename Wild Geese

Italy 1984 101m colour
Entertainment/Ascot/Gico Cinematografica (Erwin C. Dietrich)

Mercenaries are sent to destroy heavily guarded opium depots in Thailand.

Brisk but undistinguished action movie, with a large cast of expendable Orientals.

w Michael Lester d Anthony M. Dawson (Antonio Margheriti) ph Peter Baumgartner m Jan Nemec

☆ Lewis Collins, Lee Van Cleef, Ernest Borgnine, Klaus Kinski, Manfred Lehmann, Mimsy Farmer, Thomas Dannenberg, Wolfgang Pampel, Harmut Neugubauer

Un Coeur en Hiver ★

France 1991 104m colour
Artificial Eye/Film Par Film/Cinea/Orly/Sedif/Paravision/DA Films/FR 3 (Jean-Louis Livi, Philippe Carcassonne)

aka: A Heart in Winter

A young violinist, about to leave the home of her female manager to live with a violin maker, falls in love with his friend and partner.

A familiar story, impeccably acted but failing to touch the emotions, possibly because of its distanced direction and the rigid, symphonic structure which restricts its humanity.

w Claude Sautet, Jacques Fieschi, Jérôme Tonnerre d Claude Sautet ph Yves Angelo m Philippe Sarde ad Christian Marti ed Jacqueline Thiedot

☆ Daniel Auteuil, Emmanuelle Béart, André Dussollier, Elisabeth Bourgine, Brigitte Catillon, Maurice Garrel

'Extremely subtle and intensely enjoyable, impressive pic deserves international art house attention.' – Variety

Coffee and Cigarettes ★

US/Japan/Italy 2003 96m bw/colour
Smokescreen/Asmik ACE/BIM (Joana Vicente, Jason Kliot)

Various people sit around a table, smoking, drinking coffee and telling tales.

Made up of eleven short films, two of which were shot in the late 80s, this collection of wry stories is probably best enjoyed over a cup or three of coffee.

wd Jim Jarmusch ph Frederick Elmes, Ellen Kuras, Robby Muller, Tom DiCillo pd Mark Friedberg, Tom Jarmusch, Dan Bishop ed Jay Rabinowitz, Melody London, Terry Katz, Jim Jarmusch

☆ Roberto Benigni, Steven Wright, Joie Lee, Cinque Lee, Steve Buscemi, Tom Waits, Bill Murray, Alfred Molina

'Jarmusch presumes greatly on his fanbase's admiration with this tiresome, self-indulgent series of sketches.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Coffy

US 1973 91m Movielab
Focus/AIP (Robert A. Papazian)

A nurse pretends to be a drug addict in order to exact revenge on those responsible for destroying the life of her 11-year-old sister.

Lively, violent blaxploitation movie, in which Grier moves like an avenging angel through a corrupt society.

wd Jack Hill ph Paul Lohmann m Roy Ayers ad Perry Ferguson ed Charles McClelland

☆ Pam Grier, Booker Bradshaw, Robert DoQui, William Elliott, Allan Arbus, Sid Haig, Barry Cahill

'What distinguishes this superficially rough and routine effort from the run of the black sexploitation mill is its all-embracing grimness. Its moral blackness, in fact.' – Verina Glaessner, MFB

† Grier and director Hill followed it with Foxy Brown, (qv), which started out as a sequel and remains a similar movie.

Cohen and Tate

US 1988 86m DeLuxe
Guild/Nelson Films (Antony Rufus Isaacs, Jeff Young)

Two hit men kidnap a boy who witnessed a gangland murder.

A thriller lacking suspense.

wd Eric Red ph Victor J. Kemper pd David M. Haber ed Edward Abroms

☆ Roy Scheider, Adam Baldwin, Harley Cross, Cooper Huckabee, Suzanne Savoy, Marco Perella, Tom Campitelli, Andrew R. Gill

The Cohens and the Kellys

Seven comedies were made, all for Universal, about the friendly rivalry of Jewish and Irish neighbours. They were:
1926 The Cohens and Kellys
1928 The Cohens and Kellys in Paris
1929 The Cohens and Kellys in Atlantic City
1930 The Cohens and Kellys in Scotland
1931 The Cohens and Kellys in Africa
1932 The Cohens and Kellys in Hollywood
1933 The Cohens and Kellys in Trouble
George Sidney played Cohen in all of the series and Charlie Murray played Kelly in five films. He was replaced by J. Farrell MacDonald in Paris and by Mack Swain in Atlantic City.

Coiffeur pour Dames

France 1952 87m approx bw
Hoche (Jean Boyer)
GB title: An Artist with Ladies

A Provençal sheep shearer becomes a fashionable ladies' hairdresser with a Champs-élysées salon, and finds that his clients are all susceptible to his charms.

Obvious star comedy with a fair measure of laughs; more in fact than the much later Shampoo.

w Serge Véber, Jean Boyer play P. Armont, M. Gerbidon d Jean Boyer ph Charles Suin m Paul Misraki

☆ Fernandel, Blanchette Crunoy, Renée Devillers, Arlette Poirier

'Never trust the one you love.'

Cold around the Heart

US 1997 96m colour
TCF/Illusion/Baumgarten-Prophet/Kushner Locke (Dan Halsted, Craig Baumgarten, Adam J. Merims)

aka: Cold Heart

A jewel thief is double-crossed by his girlfriend and framed for the murders she has committed.

Tough thriller set among crooks to whom duplicity is as natural as breathing, and who like to discuss their attitudes to one another at length.

wd John Ridley ph Malik Hassan Sayeed m Mason Daring pd Kara Lindstrom, Missy Okum ed Eric L. Beason

☆ David Caruso, Kelly Lynch, Stacey Dash, Chris Noth, John Spencer, Pruitt Taylor Vince, Richard Kind

'A derivative but fitfully effective modern film noir.' – Sight and Sound

Cold Blood (dubbed)

West Germany 1975 76m colour
City/Televox

A teacher becomes involved with a pilot who is on the run after stealing a million dollars from gangsters.

Run-of-the-mill thriller, with an ending that attempts to be clever but is merely botched.

w Günter Vaessen d Ralf Gregan ph Michael Ballhaus m Rolg Bauer pd Herbert Kluver ed Christel Orthmann

☆ Rutger Hauer, Vera Tschechowa, Horst Frank, Walter Richter, Günther Stoll

Cold Comfort

Canada 1989 88m colour
Norstar/Telefilm (Lana Frank, Ray Sager)

A snowbound motorist is kidnapped by an unbalanced truck driver as a birthday present for his 18-year-old daughter.

Claustrophobic thriller that lacks suspense.

w Richard Beattie, Elliot L. Sims play James Garrard d Vic Sarin ph Vic Sarin m Jeff Dana ad Jo-Ann Chorney ed Nick Rotundo

☆ Maury Chaykin, Margaret Langrick, Paul Gross

'She discovered a new branch of her family tree…the one with all the nuts.'

Cold Comfort Farm ★

GB 1995 95m colour
BBC/Thames TV (Alison Gilby)

A London cousin brings changes to the family who inhabit a decaying farm, ruled by an ageing matriarch who once saw something nasty in the woodshed.

Enjoyable comedy that doesn't quite capture the flavour of the original satire or the high and rural romanticism of Mary Webb's novels.

w Malcolm Bradbury novel Stella Gibbons d John Schlesinger ph Chris Seager m Robert Lockhart pd Malcolm Thornton ed Mark Day

☆ Eileen Atkins, Kate Beckinsale, Sheila Burrell, Stephen Fry, Freddie Jones, Joanna Lumley, Ian McKellen, Miriam Margolyes, Rufus Sewell

'A deliciously eccentric, fabulously acted comedy of manners.' – Variety

† Shown on television in Britain, it was given a cinema release in the US.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'The perfect house hides the perfect crime.'

Cold Creek Manor

US 2003 119m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Red Mullet (Annie Stewart, Mike Figgis)

After a New York couple and their two young children move to a rundown country house, they discover that the apparently helpful previous owner wants them gone.
Tepid thriller of a derivative kind, indifferently acted and directed with an efficient anonymity.
w Richard Jefferies d Mike Figgis ph Declan Quinn m Mike Figgis pd Leslie Dilley ed Dylan Tichenor
☆ Dennis Quaid (Cooper Tilson), Sharon Stone (Leah Tilson), Stephen Dorff (Dale Massie), Juliette Lewis (Ruby), Kristen Stewart (Kristen Tilson), Ryan Wilson (Jesse Tilson), Dana Eskelson (Sheriff Ferguson), Christopher Plummer (Mr Massie)
'Woefully predictable imperiled yuppie family under-siege suspenser that hardly seems worth the attention of its relatively high-profile participants.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Cold Cuts: see Buffet Froid

Cold Dog Soup

US 1989 88m Technicolor
Palace/HandMade/Aspen (Richard G. Abramson, William E. McEuen)

Given a dead dog to bury by his new girlfriend, a man attempts to sell it to a furrier and a Chinese restaurateur.
Dismal attempt at a black comedy.
w Thomas Pope book Stephen Dobyns d Alan Metter ph Frederick Elmes m Michael Kamen, Mark Snow pd David L. Snyder ed Kaja Fehr ☆ Randy Quaid, Frank Whaley, Christine Harnos, Sheree North, Nancy Kwan
'Miserably unwatchable.' – MFB

Cold Eyes of Fear

Italy/Spain 1971 95m colour
Cinemar/Atlantida (José Frade)

A lawyer and a prostitute are held hostage by two convicts, one of whom is intent on killing the lawyer's uncle, a judge who wrongly condemned him to prison.
Low-budget thriller in which a battle of wits holds the attention for a time.
w Leo Anchoriz, Tito Carpi, Enzo G. Castellari d Enzo G. Castellari ph Antonio Ballesteros m Ennio Morricone pd Roman Calatayud ed Vincenzo Tomassi ☆ Giovanna Ralli, Frank Wolff, Fernando Rey, Julian Mateos, Gianni Garko, Karin Schubert, Leon Lenoir, Franco Marletta

Cold Feet ★

US 1989 94m colour
Virgin/Avenue Pictures (Cassian Elwes)

Three petty crooks fall out after smuggling emeralds into America inside a horse.
Amusingly ramshackle semi-Western.
w Thomas McGuane, Jim Harrison d Robert Dornhelm ph Brian Duggan m Tom Bahler pd Bernt Capra
☆ Keith Carradine, Sally Kirkland, Tom Waits, Bill Pullman, Rip Torn, Kathleen York, Macon McCalman

Cold Fever ★

US/Denmark/Germany/Iceland 1995 86m colour
Theatrical Experience/Icicle/IFC/Film Fonds/Sunrise/Pandora/Zentropa/Alta (Jim Stark)

A Japanese man travels by bus, car and horse to a remote part of Iceland to hold a memorial service for his parents, who died there.
A quirky road movie where different cultures don't so much clash as collide head-on.
w Jim Stark, Fridrik Thor Fridriksson d Fridrik Thor Fridriksson ph Ari Kristinsson m Hilmar Orn Hilmarsson pd Arni Poll Johansson ed Steingrimur Karlsson ☆ Masatoshi Nagase, Lili Taylor, Fisher Stevens, Gisli Halldorsson, Laura Hughes, Seijun Suzuki, Katrin Olafsdottir
'Drive-by surrealism with ice on top.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times

'A cold-hearted killer. A hot-blooded cop. A blood-boiling thriller.'

Cold Front

Canada 1989 96m colour
Beacon Group (Ed Richardson, Sean Allan)

An American and a Canadian cop become entangled in dirty deals made by the KGB and the CIA when they investigate a killing.
Cheap, nasty and stupidly violent thriller with no redeeming qualities.
w Sean Allan, Stefan Arngrim d Paul Bnarbic (Allan Goldstein) ph Thomas Burstyn m Braun Farnon, Craig Zurba pd Sarina Rotstein-Cheikes ed Martin Hunter
☆ Martin Sheen, Michael Ontkean, Kim Coates, Beverly D'Angelo, Jan Rubes, Yvan Ponton, Miguel Fernandes

Cold Heart: see Cold around the Heart

Cold Heaven

US 1992 105m colour
(Allan Scott, Jonathan Crane)

An adulterous wife, a lapsed Catholic, has a vision of the Virgin Mary while on holiday in Mexico after she believes that her husband has been killed in a boating accident.
A flawed attempt to transfer to the screen a novel dealing with thought and feelings rather than action; it holds the attention without satisfying.
w Allan Scott novel Brian Moore d Nicolas Roeg ph Francis Kenny m Stanley Myers pd Steve Legler ed Tony Lawson
☆ Theresa Russell, Mark Harmon, James Russo, Talia Shire, Will Patton, Richard Bradford, Seymour Cassel
'Confused and confusing, dazzling and disturbing, fascinating and frustrating.' – Film Review

The Cold Light of Day

Netherlands 1995 96m colour
Polygram/Meteor/Capitol (Chris Brouwer, Haig Balian)

In Eastern Europe, an obsessional former police inspector determines to track down the killer of young children, after his chief, facing re-election, forces a drug addict to confess to the crimes.
Melodramatic and implausible drama, with occasional moments of suspense.
w Doug Magee story Es geschah am hellichten Tag by Friedrich Dürrenmatt d Rudolf Van Den Berg ph Igor Luther m Stefan Truyman, Yves Elegeert ad Zdenek Fleming ed Kant Pan
☆ Richard E. Grant, Lynsey Baxter, Simon Cadell, James Laurenson, Heathcote Williams, Thom Hoffman, Gerard Thoolen, Perdita Weeks
'This ludicrous thriller lacks atmosphere, while the cast's English accents are idiotically at odds with the locale.' – Sight and Sound

'Find Your Way Home.'

Cold Mountain ★★ (6)

US 2002 153m DeLuxe Super 35
Buena Vista/(Sydney Pollack, William Horberg, Albert Berger, Ron Yerxa

In 1864, a Confederate soldier deserts to make his way back to the woman he briefly loved, a minister's daughter who awaits his return while learning to survive as a farmer.
Episodic movie that has its moments, particularly in its opening battle sequence, but more often loses its way in unenlightening encounters. A miscast Nicole Kidman looks as though she's on her way to a fashion shoot, while the boisterous Renée Zellweger seems to be understudying Betty Hutton in Annie Get Your Gun.
wd Anthony Minghella novel Charles Frazier ph John Seale m Gabriel Yared m/ly T-Bone Burnett pd Dante Ferretti ed Walter Murch
☆ Jude Law (Inman), Nicole Kidman (Ada Monroe), Renée Zellweger (Ruby Thewes), Donald Sutherland (Reverend Monroe), Ray Winstone (Teague), Brendan Gleeson (Stobrod), Philip Seymour Hoffman (Veasey), Natalie Portman (Sara), Kathy Baker (Sally Swanger), Giovanni Ribisi (Junior), Eileen Atkins (Maddy), Charlie Hunnam (Bosie)
'A mountain of honest, nourishing corn, a lavish evocation of simplicity that, for all its showy sophistication, has an appealing emotional directness.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times
'A brutal, depressing movie in which smiles, laughter and light moments are conspicuous by their total absence.' – Kevin O'Sullivan, Daily Mirror
† A two-disc special edition Region 1 DVD release included a documentary and audio commentary by Minghella and Murch.
Renée Zellweger
Jude Law; John Seale; Walter Murch; Gabriel Yared; song 'You Will Be My Ain True Love' (m/l Sting), song 'Scarlet Tide' (m/l T-Bone Burnett; Elvis Costello)
Renée Zellweger; Gabriel Yared, T-Bone Burnett

The Cold Summer of '53 ★★

USSR 1987 100m colour
Mosfilm

In the period after Stalin's death when criminals were freed, an exile in a remote part of Siberia is roused from his apathy to defend a small community when it is terrorized by a gang of thugs.
A tense and gripping, though slow-paced, thriller that can also be seen as a sharp comment on the changing politics of its time.
w Edgar Dubrovsky d Alexander Proshkin ph Boris Brozhovsky m V. Martynov pd Valery Filippov
☆ Valeri Priyomykhov, Anatoli Papanov, Victor Stepanov, Nina Usatova, Zoya Buryak, Yuri Kuznetsov, Vladimir Kashpur
† It was the second-highest grossing movie in the USSR in 1988.

'Revenge can be chilling...'

Cold Sweat

Italy/France 1970 94m colour
Corona/Fair (Robert Dorfmann)

aka: The Man With Two Shadows
An American living peaceably on the Riviera is forced into drug smuggling.
Reliable tough stuff for those who like that sort of thing.
w Shimon Wincelberg, Albert Simonin novel Ride the Nightmare by Richard Matheson d Terence Young ph Jean Rabier m Michel Magne
☆ Charles Bronson, James Mason, Liv Ullmann, Jill Ireland, Jean Topart

Cold Turkey ★

US 1970 102m DeLuxe
UA/Tandem/DFI (Norman Lear)

A tobacco company offers 25 million dollars to any town which can give up smoking for thirty days.
Rather wild and strained but sporadically amusing satirical comedy, aggressively littered with unpleasant detail.
w Norman Lear novel I'm Giving Them Up for Good by Margaret and Neil Rau d Norman Lear ph Charles F. Wheeler m Randy Newman
☆ Dick Van Dyke, Pippa Scott, Tom Poston, Edward Everett Horton, Bob Newhart, Vincent Gardenia, Jean Stapleton
'An eager desire to debunk and shock at the same time.' – David McGillivray

Cold Water: see L'Eau Froide

A Cold Wind in August ★

US 1960 77m bw
UA/Troy Films (Robert L. Ross, Philip Hazleton)

An ageing stripper seduces a 17-year-old janitor but the affair ends when he sees her do her act.
Roughly-made, well-acted sex drama which at the time seemed mildly shocking but can only survive for its central acting performance.
w Burton Wohl novel Burton Wohl d Alexander Singer ph Floyd Crosby m Gerald Fried ☆ Lola Albright, Scott Marlowe, Joe de Santis, Herschel Bernardi

'Cosmo's planning to get his life in order. He just has to kill a few people first.'

Coldblooded

US 1994 92m FotoKem
Polygram/Propaganda/MPCA/Snowback (Michael J. Fox, Matt Tolmach, Brad Krevoy, Steve Stabler, Brad Jenkel)

A dimwitted youth who works for a gangster is promoted to hitman and discovers that he has a talent for murder.
Lifeless, slow-paced black comedy with a blank at its centre; its attempt to marry romance and murder fails to bring a smile.
wd M. Wallace Wolodarsky ph Robert Yeoman m Steve Bartek pd Rae Fox ed Craig Bassett cos Matthew Jacobson
☆ Jason Priestley (Cosmo), Peter Riegert (Steve), Kimberly Williams (Jasmine), Janeane Garofalo (Honey), Robert Loggia (Gordon), Michael J. Fox (Tim Alexander), Josh Charles (Randy), Jay Kogen (John)
'This is a picture about nothing but its own style, and its style isn't good.' – Mick LaSalle, San Francisco Chronicle

The Colditz Story

**

GB 1954 97m bw
British Lion/Ivan Foxwell

Adventures of British POWs in the German maximum security prison in Saxony's Colditz Castle during World War II.
Probably the most convincing of the British accounts of POW life, with a careful balance of tragedy and comedy against a background of humdrum, boring daily existence. A TV series followed in 1972.
w Guy Hamilton, Ivan Foxwell book P. R. Reid d Guy Hamilton ph Gordon Dines m Francis Chagrin
☆ John Mills, Eric Portman, Christopher Rhodes, Lionel Jeffries, Bryan Forbes, Ian Carmichael, Richard Wattis, Frederick Valk, Anton Diffring, Eugene Deckers, Theodore Bikel

'It has all the realism, dignity and courage of the men it commemorates.' – News of the World

'It started like any other night.'

Collateral

 ⑦

US 2004 120m Eastmancolor Panavision
Paramount/DreamWorks/Parkes/MacDonald/Edge City (Michael Mann, Julie Richardson)

A taxidriver is forced to drive around Los Angeles a hitman who has a list of people to eliminate before morning.
A clever, suspense-filled thriller, filmed at night in places both bleak and gaudy; it remains an engrossing study of two disparate people under unexpected pressures until its disappointing final sequence that resorts to corn and cliché.
w Stuart Beattie d Michael Mann ph Dion Beebe, Paul Cameron m James Newton Howard, Antonio Pinto, Tom Rothrock pd David Wasco ed Jim Miller, Paul Rubell
☆ Tom Cruise (Vincent), Jamie Foxx (Max), Jada Pinkett Smith (Annie), Mark Ruffalo (Fanning), Peter Berg (Richard Weidner), Bruce McGill (Pedrosa), Irma P. Hall (Ida), Barry Shabaka Henley (Daniel), Javier Bardem (Felix)

'Crackles with energy and purpose, a propulsive film with character on its mind and confident men and women on both sides of the camera.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times
'Michael Mann remembers the best of film noir pretty well, but it doesn't protect his film against its ultimate Movieland silliness.' – Stanley Kauffmann, New Republic

Jamie Foxx; Jim Miller, Paul Rubell
Dion Beebe, Paul Cameron

'What Would You Do If You Lost Everything?'

Collateral Damage

US 2002 109m Technicolor
Warner/Bel-Air (David Foster, Steven Reuther)

A Los Angeles firefighter decides to take his revenge on a rebel leader who blows up the Colombian consulate, killing his wife and child.
Inadequate, simple-minded action picture featuring a star who is well past his sell-by date.
w David Griffiths, Peter Griffiths, Ronald Rose d Andrew Davis ph Adam Greenberg m Graeme Revell pd Philip Rosenberg ed Dennis Virkler, Dov Hoenig sp William Mesa; Flash Film Works
☆ Arnold Schwarzenegger (Gordy Brewer), Elias Koteas (Brandt), Francesca Neri (Selena), Cliff Curtis (Claudio (The Wolf)), Miguel Sandoval (Phipps), Harry Lennix (Dray), John Leguizamo (Felix), John Turturro (Armstrong)

'Its preposterous contrivances and ludicrous implausibilities make it look like the very definition of puerile Hollywood superstar fantasy in the present real-world context.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'You won't dare open your mouth, but you'll be screaming for her to escape!'

The Collector

*

US 1965 119m Technicolor
Columbia (Jud Kinberg, John Kohn)

An inhibited young butterfly specialist kidnaps a girl to add to his collection.
Talkative and unrewarding suspenser with pretensions, sluggishly handled and not very interestingly acted.
w Stanley Mann, John Kohn novel John Fowles d William Wyler ph Robert L. Surtees, Robert Krasker m Maurice Jarre ad John Stoll ed Robert Swink
☆ Terence Stamp (Freddie Clegg), Samantha Eggar (Miranda Grey), Mona Washbourne (Aunt Annie), Maurice Dallimore (Neighbour), William Beckley (Crutchley)

'The feature is adroitly developed and bears the stamp of class' – Variety
'Very high-class horror.' – Judith Crist

† Samantha Eggar was sacked from her role early during filming. John Fowles and Terence Stamp wanted Susannah York or Sarah Miles to play the part, and an approach was also made to Natalie Wood before Eggar was re-hired. She went on to win best actress awards in the Golden Globes and at the Cannes Film Festival.
Stanley Mann, John Kohn; William Wyler; Samantha Eggar

Colleen

*

US 1936 89m bw
Warner (Robert Lord)

Boy meets Irish girl in New York.
Typical light musical of the period with standard studio talent.
w Peter Milne, F. Hugh Herbert, Sig Herzig d Alfred E. Green ph Byron Haskin, Sol Polito m/ly Harry Warren, Al Dubin ch Bobby Connolly gown Orry-Kelly
☆ Dick Powell, Ruby Keeler, Jack Oakie, Joan Blondell, Hugh Herbert, Louise Fazenda, Paul Draper, Marie Wilson, Luis Alberni, Hobart Cavanaugh, Berton Churchill

'You'll graduate with a perpetual smile!'

College

*

US 1927 65m (24 fps) bw silent
Buster Keaton Productions (Joseph M. Schenck)

A brainy high school student becomes a college football star.
Disappointing comedy from this great stone-faced clown: the plums are there, but few and far between.
w Carl Harbaugh, Bryan Foy d James W. Horne ph J. Devereux Jennings, Bert Haines ☆ Buster Keaton, Ann Cornwall, Harold Goodwin, Snitz Edwards, Florence Turner

College Coach

US 1933 75m bw
Warner

A tough football coach finds that his best star is a timid chemistry student.
Unremarkable studio programmer despite a strong cast.
w Niven Busch, Manuel Seff d William A. Wellman
☆ Dick Powell, Pat O'Brien, Ann Dvorak, Arthur Byron, Lyle Talbot, Hugh Herbert, Guinn Williams, Donald Meek

'Hasn't enough punch for real sock grosses.' – Variety

College Scandal

US 1935 75m bw
Paramount

A killer attacks three male students.
With stars, it could have been memorable.
w Frank Partos, Charles Brackett, Marguerite Roberts d Elliott Nugent ☆ Arline Judge, Kent Taylor, Wendy Barrie, Mary Nash, William Stack, William Frawley, Benny Baker, Johnny Downs

'Worthwhile summer fare for high-grade dual houses.' – Variety

College Swing

US 1938 86m bw
Paramount (Lewis Gensler)
GB title: Swing, Teacher, Swing

A dumb girl must graduate if a college is to inherit a fortune.
Mild comedy more notable for its cast than its script.
w Walter de Leon, Francis Martin d Raoul Walsh ph Victor Milner m/ly various ☆ George Burns, Gracie Allen, Martha Raye, Bob Hope, Edward Everett Horton, Florence George, Ben Blue, Betty Grable, Jackie Coogan, John Payne, Cecil Cunningham, Robert Cummings

'A medley of vaude specialties, bits and numbers strung together in not too happy a manner.' – Variety

La Collina degli Stivali: see Boots Hill

Colonel Blimp: see The Life and Death of Colonel Blimp

'Back from the dead ... To reclaim his life and the woman he loved.'

Le Colonel Chabert

*

France 1994 111m colour Panavision
Guild/Film Par Film/DD/Paravision/Sidonie/Orly/Sedif/TF1 (Jean Louis-Livi)

Ten years after his supposed death in battle, an army officer returns to France to reclaim his identity, his fortune and his wife, now married to an ambitious politician.
Impressive moments, particularly the opening scenes of the aftermath of battle, do not quite compensate for the often stilted approach to a period drama of loss and betrayal.
w Jean Cosmos, Yves Angelo novel Honoré de Balzac d Yves Angelo ph Bernard Lutic m Beethoven, Mozart, Schubert ad Bernard Vezat ed Thierry Derocles ☆ Gérard Depardieu, Fanny Ardant, Fabrice Luchini, André Dussollier, Daniel Prévost, Claude Rich, Romane Bohringer, Maxime Leroux

'Predictable and uninspiring.' – Sight and Sound

Colonel Effingham's Raid

US 1946 70m bw
TCF (Lamar Trotti)

GB title: Man of the Hour

A retired Southern colonel tries to straighten out a corrupt Georgia town.
Competent, unsurprising programmer.
w Kathryn Scola novel Berry Fleming d Irving Pichel ph Edward Cronjager m Cyril Mockridge
☆ Charles Coburn, Joan Bennett, William Eythe, Allyn Joslyn, Elizabeth Patterson, Donald Meek, Frank Craven, Thurston Hall, Cora Witherspoon, Emory Parnell, Henry Armetta, Roy Roberts, Charles Trowbridge

Colonel Redl

**

Hungary/West Germany/Austria 1984 149m Eastmancolor
Mafilm/Mokep/Manfred Durniok/ZDF/ORF

original title: Oberst Redl

The career of a railwayman's son who in the early years of the century rises high in the military but is condemned by his own insecurities and forced to commit suicide as a spy.
Whether or not one cares for the ironic parable (also treated by John Osborne in his play A Patriot for Me*) this is a handsome film full of brilliant visuals.*
w István Szabó, Peter Dobai d István Szabó ph Lajos Koltai m Zdenko Tamassy ☆ Klaus Maria Brandauer, Hans-Christian Blech, Armin Müller-Stahl, Gudrun Landgrebe, Jan Niklas best picture
best foreign film

The Color of Money

**

US 1986 119m DuArt
Touchstone (Irving Axelrod, Barbara de Fina)

Twenty-five years later, the hero of The Hustler teaches a young man his skills.
Slackly told but consistently enjoyable adventures of Fast Eddie Felson in his older age.
w Richard Price, based on characters created by Walter Tevis d Martin Scorsese ph Michael Ballhaus m Robbie Robertson
☆ Paul Newman, Tom Cruise, Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio, Helen Shaver, Bill Cobbs, John Turturro

'Fast and absorbing and often thrillingly well made, but there's something impure about it: it's a streamlined, best-sellerish replay of Scorsese's work in the 1970s.' – Terrence Rafferty, Nation

Paul Newman
Michael Balhaus; Boris Leven (art direction); Kevin J. O'Hara (sound); Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio; Richard Price

Color of Night

US 1994 123m colour
Guild/Cinergi/Hollywood Pictures (David Matalon, Buzz Feitshans)

A traumatized psychiatrist takes over a group of patients that includes the person who murdered his colleague.
A ludicrous thriller that reaches depths of absurdity rarely seen on screen, particularly in its risibly overblown finale. Willis acts in Die Hard mode while the rest of the cast twitch uncontrollably around him.
w Matthew Chapman, Billy Ray d Richard Rush ph Dietrich Lohmann m Dominic Frontiere pd James L. Schoppe ed Jack Hofstra
☆ Bruce Willis, Jane March, Ruben Blades, Lesley Ann Warren, Scott Bakula, Brad Dourif, Lance Henriksen, Shirley Knight

'A sure bet for many Worst of the Year lists, this wholly terrible movie is far more enjoyable and astonishing than many halfway good ones.' – Kim Newman, Sight and Sound
'It's hard not to regard this as another woeful addition to the ever-growing canon of Willis stinkers.' – Empire
'This trashy, over the top, often funny feature has sex, nudity, gore, Vertigo scenes and lots of nutty patients.' – Psychotronic Video

† The version shown in cinemas was recut by the production company. The director's cut, lasting six minutes longer, was released on video.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

The Color Purple ★★

US 1985 152m DeLuxe
Warner/Amblin (Steven Spielberg, Kathleen Kennedy, Frank Marshall, Quincy Jones)

The growth of a Southern black family during the first half of the century.
Well-intentioned and gracious but not always dramatically cohesive generation saga from a director trying to prove he has depth.
w Menno Meyjes novel Alice Walker d Steven Spielberg ph Allen Daviau m Quincy Jones pd J. Michael Riva ed Michael Kahn
☆ Whoopi Goldberg, Danny Glover, Margaret Avery, Oprah Winfrey, Willard Pugh, Adolph Caesar
♗ best picture; Whoopi Goldberg; Margaret Avery (supporting actress); Oprah Winfrey (supporting actress); adapted screenplay; photography; music; editing; costumes (Aggie Guerard Rodgers); song 'Miss Celie's Blues' (m Quincy Jones, Rod Tempeston, ly Lionel Richie)

Colorado Territory ★

US 1949 93m bw
Warner (Anthony Veiller)

An outlaw escapes from prison planning one last robbery but is shot in the attempt.
Moderate Western remake of High Sierra.
w John Twist, Edmund H. North d Raoul Walsh ph Sid Hickox m David Buttolph
☆ Joel McCrea, Virginia Mayo, Dorothy Malone, Henry Hull, John Archer, James Mitchell, Morris Ankrum, Basil Ruysdael, Frank Puglia

Colors ★

US 1988 120m Metrocolor
Rank/Orion (Robert H. Solo)

A veteran cop and his young and cocky partner try to keep the peace between rival Los Angeles street gangs.
A documentary-style look at street violence and its relationship to poverty and drugs. It works well for the first half-hour, but soon loses coherence as a narrative and goes on too long before the effective climax.
w Michael Schiffer d Dennis Hopper ph Haskell Wexler m Herbie Hancock pd Ron Foreman ed Robert Estrin
☆ Sean Penn, Robert Duvall, Maria Conchita Alonso, Randy Brooks, Grand Bush, Don Cheadle, Damon Wayans
'A solidly crafted depiction of some current big-city horrors.' – Variety

The Colossus of Rhodes (dubbed)

Italy/spain/France 1961 129m
Technicolor SuperTotalScope
MGM/Cineproduzione, Procusa, CFPC, CIT (Michele Scaglione)
original title: Il Colosso di Rodi

In 300 BC, a Greek joins with patriots to prevent Rhodes, an island made impregnable by a giant statue, from being taken over by the Phoenicians.
Good-looking spectacle with the usual muddled script and more screen time than necessary given over to torture and destruction.
w Sergio Leone and seven others d Sergio Leone ph Emilio Foriscot, Antonio Lopez Ballesteros m Angelo Francesco Lavagnino ed Eraldo Da Roma ☆ Rory Calhoun (Dario), Lea Massari (Diala), Georges Marchal (Peliocles), Angel Aranda (Koros), Conrado San Martin (Thar), Mabel Karr (Mirte)

Colossus, the Forbin Project: see The Forbin Project

The Colour of Lies: see Au Coeur Du Mensonge

The Colour of Paradise ★

Iran 1999 81m colour
Varahonar (Mehdi Karimi)

original title: Ranghe Khoda

A widower wishes to marry again, but is embarrassed by his young, blind son, whom he sends away to become a carpenter.
A simple and sometimes affecting drama of a boy who overcomes his disabilities and an adult who is blind to his own faults.
wd Majid Majidi ph Mohammad Davudi, Hashem Attar m Ali Reza Kohandiri, Keyvan Jahanshahi pd Masood Madadi, Asghar Nezhadimani ed Hassan Hassandoost ☆ Mohsen Ramezani (Mohammad), Hossein Mahjub (Father), Salime Feizi (Grandma), Elham Sharifi (Little Sister), Farahnaz Safari (Big Sister), Behzad Rafice (Village teacher)
'In artistic terms, it's pretty basic. But on a human level, it's an inspirational delight.' – Empire

The Colour of Pomegranates ★★★★

USSR 1969 73m colour
Armenfilm

original title: Tsvet Granata

Biopic of the 18th-century Armenian poet Sayat Nova, as he rises from a child working as a wool dyer to courtier and monk, told in the manner of his poems.
Extraordinary lyrical film, full of richly coloured emblematic images, like a succession of animated icons.
wd Sergei Paradjanov ph Suren Shakhbazian m Tieran Mansurian ad Stepan Andranikan ☆ Sofiko Chiaureli (Young Poet/Poet's Love/Nun with White Lace Angel W), M. Alekian (Poet as a Child), V. Glastian (Poet in the Cloister), G. Gegechkori (Poet as an Old Man), O. Minasian (The Prince)

Colpire Al Cuore: see Blow to the Heart

Colt 45

US 1950 74m Technicolor
Warner (Saul Elkins)
US TV title: Thundercloud

A new kind of gun, intended to bring law and order to the west, gets into the wrong hands.
Routine, watchable Western which achieved a surprising popularity.
w Thomas Blackburn d Edwin L. Marin ph Wilfred M. Cline m William Lava ☆ Randolph Scott, Zachary Scott, Ruth Roman, Lloyd Bridges, Chief Thundercloud 'Has all the artistry of a picture-strip.' – C. A. Lejeune

Coma ★

US 1978 113m Metrocolor
MGM (Martin Erlichman)

A lady doctor suspects that patients are being put deliberately into coma so that their organs can be sold, and finds herself in deadly peril.
Hitchcockian suspense thriller with nobody but the audience believing the heroine; the fact that there are more dead than living characters makes it slightly too ghoulish at times.
wd Michael Crichton novel Robin Cook ph Victor J. Kemper, Gerald Hirschfeld m Jerry Goldsmith pd Albert Brenner
☆ Geneviève Bujold, Michael Douglas, Richard Widmark, Elizabeth Ashley, Rip Torn, Lois Chiles, Hari Rhodes, Tom Selleck
'A stupid, silly mad-scientist thriller, with a plucky Girl-Surgeon out to solve the mysteries of some strange deaths.' – Stanley Kauffmann

Comanche

US 1955 87m DeLuxe Cinemascope
UA (Carl Krueger)

In 1875 New Mexico, a renegade Indian prevents peace between white and red man.
Cheerful action Western, satisfying to the easily pleased.
w Carl Krueger d George Sherman m Herschel Burke Gilbert
☆ Dana Andrews, Kent Smith, Nestor Paiva, Henry Brandon, John Litel, Lowell Gilmore, Mike Mazurki

Comanche Station

US 1960 74m Technicolor Cinemascope
Columbia (Budd Boetticher)

A man seeks his wife, taken prisoner by Indians.
Below-par star Western, indifferently plotted.
w Burt Kennedy d Budd Boetticher ph Charles Lawton Jnr md Mischa Bakaleinikoff ☆ Randolph Scott, Nancy Gates, Claude Akins, Skip Homeier

Comanche Territory

US 1950 76m Technicolor
Universal (Leonard Goldstein)

Jim Bowie prevents an Indian war by stopping settlers taking over the silver mines on Comanche land.
Routine Western, given more handsome treatment than it deserves.
w Oscar Brodney, Lewis Meltzer d George Sherman ph Maury Gertsman m Frank Skinner ad Bernard Herzbrun, Richard H. Riedel ed Frank Gross
☆ Maureen O'Hara, Macdonald Carey, Will Geer, Charles Drake, Pedro de Cordoba, Ian MacDonald, Edmond Cobb, Glenn Strange

The Comancheros ★★

US 1961 107m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (George Sherman)

A Texas Ranger and his gambler prisoner join forces to clean up renegade gunmen operating from a remote armed compound.
Easy-going, cheerfully violent Western with lively roughhouse sequences.
w James Edward Grant, Clair Huffaker d Michael Curtiz ph William H. Clothier m Elmer Bernstein
☆ John Wayne, Stuart Whitman, Nehemiah Persoff, Lee Marvin, Ina Balin, Bruce Cabot Combination Platter ★

US 1993 84m colour
Bluehorse/Tony Chan

An illegal immigrant from Hong Kong, working as a waiter in a Chinese restaurant in New York, is prepared to pay a woman to marry him in order to get a green card.
Well-observed drama, showing restaurant life as seen from the kitchen, and American ways viewed from an immigrant's perspective.
w Edwin Baker, Tony Chan d Tony Chan ph Yoshifumi Hosoya m Brian Tibbs ad Pat Summa ed Tony Chan, James Y. Kwei
☆ Jeff Lau (Robert), Colleen O'Brien (Claire), Lester 'Chit-Man' Chan (Sam), Colin Mitchell (Benny), Kenneth Lu (Andy)
'Provides a funny, involving glimpse of a painful predicament, and manages to do this with charm and verisimilitude.' – Janet Maslin, New York Times

'A struggle for Power, Wealth and the Love of the Same Woman.'

Come and Get It ★

US 1936 99m bw
Samuel Goldwyn (Merritt Hulburd)

The life and loves of a lumber tycoon in 19th-century Wisconsin.
Disappointingly conventional, mainly studio-bound action drama using top talent of the period.
w Jules Furthman, Jane Murfin novel Edna Ferber d Howard Hawks, William Wyler ph Gregg Toland, Rudolph Maté m Alfred Newman ed Edward Curtiss
☆ Edward Arnold, Joel McCrea, Frances Farmer, Walter Brennan, Andrea Leeds
♗ Walter Brennan
♗ Edward Curtiss

Come and See ★★★★

USSR 1985 142m colour
Byelarusfilm, Mosfilm

original title: Idi i Smotri

In Byelorussia during World War II, a young boy joins the resistance against the invading Nazis and witnesses the atrocities of war.
A searing antiwar drama that begins with a young boy laughing and playing as he goes off to fight, and ends with him totally traumatised by what he has seen. It ranks with Tarkovsky's Ivan's Childhood as one of the best Russian movies reflecting on the effects of war on the young.
w Elem Klimov, Ales Adamovich book The Story of Khatyn and Others by Ales Adamovich d Elem Klimov ph Alexi Rodionov m Oleg Yanchenko ad Viktor Petrov ed Valeriya Belova ☆ Aleksei Kravchenko (Florya Gaishun), Olga Mironova (Glasha), Lyubomiras Lautsiavitchus (Kosach), Vladas Bagdonas, Victor Lorentz
'Taps into that hallucinatory nether world of blood and mud and escalating madness.' – Rita Kempley, Washington Post

Come Back Charleston Blue ★

US 1972 101m Technicolor
Warner/Formosa (Samuel Goldwyn Jnr)

Harlem detectives Coffin Ed Johnson and Gravedigger Jones investigate the case of a long-dead gangster who seems to be still taking vengeance.
Occasionally funny but disturbingly violent crime kaleidoscope with a black ambience, more sophisticated and therefore more generally acceptable than its predecessor Cotton Comes to Harlem (qv).
w Bontche Schweig, Peggy Elliott novel The Heat's On by Chester Himes d Mark Warren ph Dick Kratina m Donny Hathaway
☆ Godfrey Cambridge, Raymond St Jacques, Peter de Anda, Jonelle Allen, Percy Rodrigues, Minnie Gentry

'That girl in their house spelled trouble!'

Come Back Little Sheba ★

US 1952 99m bw
Paramount (Hal B. Wallis)

An ex-alcoholic is let down not only by his slovenly wife but by the young girl he idolizes.
Stagey but theatrically effective transcription of a popular domestic drama, with one outstanding performance.

w Ketti Frings play William Inge d Daniel Mann ph James Wong Howe m Franz Waxman ed Warren Low ☆ Shirley Booth, Burt Lancaster, Terry Moore, Richard Jaeckel Shirley Booth
Terry Moore; editing

Come Back Peter: see Some Like It Sexy

Come Back to Me: see Doll Face

Come Back to the Five and Dime, Jimmy Dean, Jimmy Dean

US 1983 110m DuArt
Sandcastle 5/Mark Goodman/Viacom

Misfits meet to celebrate the twentieth anniversary of the death of James Dean.
Filmed play which descends from cynicism through gloom to hysteria and is never very revealing.
w Ed Graczyk play Ed Graczyk d Robert Altman ph Pierre Mignot m various ☆ Sandy Dennis, Karen Black, Cher, Sudie Bond, Kathy Bates

'It may seem perverse to describe as Altman's masterpiece so self-contained and "alien" a work, with an existence predating his own involvement and a thrusting (if perverse) biological life that owes nothing to the audience's willingness to participate. But the irony depends solely on which side of Altman's own two-way world one stands.' – Richard Combs, MFB

Come Blow Your Horn ★

US 1963 112m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount/Lear and Yorkin

A country boy in New York is envious of his older brother's sophisticated life.
Amusing characters and funny lines permeate this stolid transcription of an early Neil Simon success; the big screen is not the place for them.
w Norman Lear play Neil Simon d Bud Yorkin ph William Daniels m Nelson Riddle
☆ Frank Sinatra, Tony Bill, Lee J. Cobb, Molly Picon, Jill St John, Barbara Rush, Dan Blocker

Come Clean ★★

US 1931 20m bw
Hal Roach

Two much-married men go out for ice-cream and bring back a woman of the streets they have saved from suicide.
Splendid star comedy with the famous characterizations fully rounded.
w H. M. Walker d James W. Horne ph Art Lloyd ed Richard Currier
☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Mae Busch, Charlie Hall, Gertrude Astor, Linda Loredo † Remade in 1942 as Brooklyn Orchid, with William Bendix and Joe Sawyer.

Come Fill the Cup ★

US 1951 113m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

An alcoholic newspaperman cures himself, then his boss's alcoholic son who is involved with gangsters.
Unlikely but solidly entertaining melodrama, powerfully cast.
w Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts novel Harlan Ware d Gordon Douglas ph Robert Burks m Ray Heindorf
☆ James Cagney, Gig Young, Raymond Massey, Phyllis Thaxter, James Gleason, Selena Royle, Larry Keating Gig Young

Come Fly with Me

US 1962 109m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Anatole de Grunwald

The romantic adventures of three air hostesses.
Good-looking girls and airplanes but little else make thin entertainment.
w William Roberts d Henry Levin ph Oswald Morris m Lyn Murray
☆ Hugh O'Brian, Dolores Hart, Karl Malden, Pamela Tiffin, Lois Nettleton, Karl Boehm Come Live with Me ★

US 1941 86m bw
MGM (Clarence Brown)

In order to stay in America, a girl refugee from Vienna arranges a strictly platonic marriage with a struggling author.
Hypnotically predictable comedy, quite well presented and performed.
w Patterson McNutt, Virginia Van Upp d Clarence Brown ph George Folsey m Herbert Stothart ☆ James Stewart, Hedy Lamarr, Ian Hunter, Verree Teasdale, Donald Meek, Barton MacLane, Adeline de Walt Reynolds

Come Next Spring ★

US 1955 92m Trucolor Republic

A drunkard returns to his Arkansas farm family and wins the respect of them and the community.
D. W. Griffith-type pastoral melodrama which surprisingly works pretty well and leaves one with the intended warm glow.
w Montgomery Pittman d R. G. Springsteen ph Jack Marta m Max Steiner
☆ Ann Sheridan, Steve Cochran, Walter Brennan, Sherry Jackson, Richard Eyer, Edgar Buchanan, Sonny Tufts, Mae Clarke

'An unpretentious film with a good deal of charm.' – MFB

Come on George ★

GB 1939 88m bw
ATP/Ealing (Jack Kitchin)

A stableboy calms a nervous racehorse and rides him to victory.
Standard comedy vehicle, well mounted, with the star at his box-office peak.
w Anthony Kimmins, Leslie Arliss, Val Valentine d Anthony Kimmins ph Ronald Neame, Gordon Dines m Ernest Irving ad Wilfred Shingleton ed Ray Pitt
☆ George Formby, Pat Kirkwood, Joss Ambler, Meriel Forbes, Cyril Raymond, George Carney, Ronald Shiner

Come Out Fighting

US 1945 62m bw
Monogram/Pathé/Banner (Sam Katzman, Jack Dietz)

The East Side Kids reform the naïve, ballet-dancing son of the police commissioner by saving him from crooked gamblers.
Dull programmer, with rough-and-ready direction and performances and lacking the series' usual boisterous humour.
w Earle Snell d William Beaudine ph Ira Morgan md Edward Kay ad David Milton ed William Austin
☆ Leo Gorcey, Huntz Hall, Billy Benedict, Gabriel Dell, June Carlson, Amelita Ward, Johnny Duncan

Come Out of the Pantry

GB 1935 73m bw
British and Dominions (Herbert Wilcox)

An English milord is forced by circumstance to take a job as his boss's footman.
Pleasing if obvious comedy, later remodelled as Spring in Park Lane.
w Austin Parker, Douglas Furber story Alice Duer Miller d Jack Raymond ph Freddie Young, Henry Harris ad L. P. Williams ed Frederick Wilson
☆ Jack Buchanan, Fay Wray, James Carew, Ronald Squire, Olive Blakeney, Fred Emney

Come See the Paradise ★

US 1990 133m DeLuxe
Fox (Robert F. Colesberry)

After Pearl Harbor, a Japanese-American woman, married to an Irish-American soldier, is interned with her family.
A fascinating subject, of racism and culture clash, is submerged by a concentration on an ordinary romance.
wd Alan Parker ph Michael Seresin m Randy Edelman pd Geoffrey Kirkland ed Gerry Hambling
☆ Dennis Quaid, Tamlyn Tomita, Sab Shimono, Shizuko Hoshi, Stan Egi, Ronald Yamamoto, Akemi Nishino, Naomi Nakano, Brady Tsurutani, Elizabeth Gilliam

Come September

US 1961 112m Technicolor CinemaScope
Universal/7 Pictures Corporation/Raoul Walsh Enterprises (Robert Arthur)

A wealthy American discovers that his Italian villa is being used as a hotel by his once-a-year mistress, who is about to marry.
Clumsy sex farce with lush trimmings and generation gap asides; effort more noticeable than achievement.
w Stanley Shapiro, Maurice Richlin d Robert Mulligan ph William Daniels m Hans J. Salter
☆ Rock Hudson, Gina Lollobrigida, Sandra Dee, Bobby Darin, Walter Slezak, Brenda de Banzie, Joel Grey, Rossana Rory, Ronald Howard

Come to the Stable ★

US 1949 94m bw
TCF (Samuel G. Engel)

Two French nuns arrive in New England to build a local hospital, and melt the hearts of the local grumps.
This old-time charmer simply brims with sweetness and light and is produced with high-class studio efficiency.
w Oscar Millard, Sally Benson story Clare Boothe Luce d Henry Koster ph Joseph LaShelle m Cyril Mockridge md Lionel Newman ad Lyle Wheeler, Joseph C. Wright
☆ Loretta Young, Celeste Holm, Hugh Marlowe, Elsa Lanchester, Thomas Gomez, Dorothy Patrick, Basil Ruysdael, Dooley Wilson, Regis Toomey, Henri Letondal
Clare Boothe Luce; Joseph LaShelle; Loretta Young; Celeste Holm; Elsa Lanchester; song 'Through a Long and Sleepless Night' (m Alfred Newman, ly Mack Gordon); art direction

Come Undone: see Presque Rien

'Millions loved him, could someone hate him enough to kill and kill again?'

The Comeback

GB 1978 100m colour
Enterprise (Peter Walker)

aka: The Day the Screaming Stopped

An American singer in London deals with the murder of his wife – and with her ghost.
Dim mixture of mystery and horror, not at all persuasive.
w Murray Smith d Peter Walker m Stanley Myers ☆ Jack Jones, Sheila Keith, Pamela Stephenson, David Doyle, Bill Owen, Richard Johnson

The Comedians ★

US/Bermuda/France 1967 160m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Maximilian/Trianon (Peter Glenville)

A variety of English-speaking eccentrics are caught up in the violent events of Haiti under Papa Doc Duvalier.
Clumsy and heavy-going compression of a too-topical novel, with most of the plot left in at the expense of character. Neither entertaining nor instructive, but bits of acting please.
w Graham Greene novel Graham Greene d Peter Glenville ph Henri Decaë m Laurence Rosenthal
☆ Richard Burton, Elizabeth Taylor, Alec Guinness, Peter Ustinov, Lillian Gish, Paul Ford, Roscoe Lee Browne, James Earl Jones, Raymond St Jacques, Cicely Tyson

'So thick and fast do the clichés come that one feels the script can only have been salvaged from some New Statesman competition.' – Tom Milne
'It's pleasant to spend two hours again in Greeneland, still well-stocked with bilious minor crucifixions, furtive fornication, cynical politics, and reluctant hope.' – Stanley Kauffmann

Comédie de L'Innocence

France 2000 103m colour
Artificial Eye/MACT/TF1/Camelia (Martine and Antoine de Clermont-Tonnerre)

aka: Son of Two Mothers or the Comedy of Innocence

A 9-year-old boy suddenly refuses to accept his mother and insists that she take him to live with his real mother.
A psychological thriller that creates a creepy atmosphere and then quickly dissipates it.
w Francoise Dumas, Raúl Ruiz novel Massimo Bontempelli d Raúl Ruiz ph Jacques Bouquin m Jorge Arriagada ad Bruno Beauge ed Mireille Hannon
☆ Isabelle Huppert (Ariane), Jeanne Balibar (Isabella), Charles Berling (Serge), Nils Hugon (Camille), Edith Scob (Laurence), Denis Podalydes (Pierre), Laure de Clermont-Tonnerre (Helene)

'No genre excuses the movie's bizarre, somnolent atmosphere. No believable emotions are displayed at any point.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'Mr Ruiz seems enchanted with his own coyness and the curlicues and indirections the story allows him.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

The Comedy Man ★

GB 1964 92m bw
British Lion-Gray-Consort (Jon Pennington)

A middle-aged actor on the skids desperately rounds up his contacts and becomes the star of a TV commercial.
Determinedly depressing satirical melodrama with engaging moments; comedy emphasis would have better suited the talents.
w Peter Yeldham novel Douglas Hayes d Alvin Rakoff ph Ken Hodges m Bill McGuffie
☆ Kenneth More, Cecil Parker, Dennis Price, Billie Whitelaw, Norman Rossington, Angela Douglas, Edmund Purdom, Frank Finlay, Alan Dobie

'Humour and intelligent irony.' – Sunday Express
'A merciless and accurate picture of the brave band of actors who live from hand to mouth and commute between the

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Salisbury Arms pub and the Poland Street Labour exchange.' – Evening News

'A grave case of greed gone too far!'

The Comedy of Terrors ★

US 1963 88m Pathécolor Panavision
Alta Vista/AIP (Anthony Carras, Richard Matheson)

Two impecunious funeral directors decide to speed up the demise of their prospective clients.

Disappointingly slackly-handled and rather tiresome macabre frolic, notable for a few splendid moments and an imperishable cast.

w Richard Matheson d Jacques Tourneur ph Floyd Crosby m Les Baxter

☆ Vincent Price, Peter Lorre, Boris Karloff, Basil Rathbone, Joe E. Brown, Joyce Jameson

Comes a Horseman

US 1978 118m Technicolor Panavision
UA/Chartoff-Winkler (Robert Caan)

In the forties, Montana ranchers have a hard time holding onto their land against the pressures of progress and a villainous cattle baron.

Portentous and wholly unexciting modern Western, not helped by a loftily unexplained title and show-off photography.

w Dennis Lynton Clark d Alan J. Pakula ph Gordon Willis m Michael Small pd George Jenkins

☆ Jane Fonda, Jason Robards Jnr, James Caan, George Grizzard, Richard Farnsworth, Jim Davis

'It's a film of few words (and about a quarter of them mangled by the sound recording). The melodrama is smothered under sullen, overcast skies. How can you get involved in the conflict between the good guys and the bad guys if you can't even see them?' – Pauline Kael

♗ Richard Farnsworth

Comet over Broadway

US 1938 65m bw
Warner

An actress, having been involved in a murder, is torn between burning ambition and mother love.

Arrant melodrama which overtaxes its star.

w Mark Hellinger, Robert Buckner story Faith Baldwin d Busby Berkeley

☆ Kay Francis, Ian Hunter, John Litel, Donald Crisp, Minna Gombell, Sybil Jason, Melville Cooper

'A backstage yarn that goes overboard on assorted heartbreaks.' – Variety

Comfort and Joy ★

GB 1984 106m colour
Lake/EMI/STV (Davina Belling, Clive Parsons)

A Scottish radio disc jockey becomes involved in a war between two ice-cream firms.

Heavy comedy, short of laughs and sympathy; a distinct descent from Local Hero, which was a comedown after Gregory's Girl.

wd Bill Forsyth ph Chris Menges m Mark Knopfler

☆ Bill Paterson, Eleanor David, C. P. Grogan, Alex Norton

The Comfort of Strangers

Italy/GB 1990 104m Technicolor
Rank/Erre/Sovereign/Reteitalia (Angelo Rizzoli)

original title: Cortesie per gli ospiti

On holiday in Venice, a conventional husband and wife become involved with a sadomasochistic couple.

Bleak and icy tale that will induce a shiver, although the mannered performances aren't an attraction.

w Harold Pinter novel Ian McEwan d Paul Schrader ph Dante Spinotti m Angelo Badalamenti pd Gianni Quaranta ed Bill Pankow

☆ Christopher Walken, Rupert Everett, Natasha Richardson, Helen Mirren, Manfredi Aliquo

The Comic ★

US 1969 95m Technicolor
Columbia (Carl Reiner)

The success, downfall and old age of a silent film comedian in Hollywood.

Remarkably bright and cinematic tragicomedy obviously based on Buster Keaton, with a Citizen Kane*-type framework. Not a commercial success, but a must for professionals.*

w Carl Reiner, Aaron Rubin d Carl Reiner ph W. Wallace Kelley m Jack Elliott

☆ Dick Van Dyke, Mickey Rooney, Cornel Wilde, Carl Reiner, Michele Lee, Pert Kelton

'Offers a variety of delights.' – Judith Crist

'A furious editorial about a business that treats its veterans like over-exposed celluloid.' – Variety

Comic Book Confidential ★★

US/Canada 1989 90m bw/colour
Sphinx/Don Haig/Martin Harbury/Charles Lippincott (Ron Mann)

A documentary on the evolution of the comic book in North America, from its beginnings in the 30s, with interviews with leading exponents.

Graphic account of comic books and the controversies and cults they have started, concentrating in particular on the 50s, when they were condemned as corrupters of the young, followed by a period of self-censorship and the return of the Superheroes in the 60s; it is accompanied by a well-chosen soundtrack of the more eccentric songs of each era.

d Ron Mann ph Robert Fresco, Joan Churchill ad Gerlinde Scharinger ed Robert Kennedy, Ron Mann

☆ Lynda Barry, Charles Burns, Sue Coe, Robert Crumb, Will Eisner, Al Feldstein, Shary Flenniken, William M. Gaines, Bill Griffith, Jaime Hernandez, Jack Kirby, Harvey Kurtzman, Stan Lee, Paul Mavrides, Frank Miller and also Victor Moscoso, Françoise Mouly, Dan O'Neill, Harvey Pekar, Gilbert Shelton, Spain, Art Spiegelman

Comic Strip Hero: see Jeu de Massacre

Comin' at Ya!

US 1981 101m Technicolor Dimensionscope 3-D
GTO Films (Marshall Lupo, Stan Torchia)

An ex-outlaw goes in search of three outlaws who kidnapped his wife-to-be.

Determined three-dimensional attack on the sensibilities, with nothing to interest in story or acting.

w Wolf Lowenthal, Lloyd Battista, Gene Quintano story Tony Petitto d Ferdinando Baldi ph Fernando Arribas m Carlo Savina ad Luciano Spadoni ed Franco Fraticelli

☆ Tony Anthony, Gene Quintano, Victoria Abril, Ricardo Palacios

Comin' thro' the Rye

GB 1923 85m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Hepworth Picture Plays

In Victorian England, lovers meet periodically in a rye field, but events move against them.

Statuesque romantic drama whose reputation may be largely due to its accidental survival. (There was a previous version from the same producer in 1916, with the same leading actress.)

w Blanche McIntosh novel Helen Mathers d Cecil M. Hepworth ph Geoffrey Faithfull

☆ Alma Taylor, Shayle Gardner, Eileen Dennes, Ralph Forbes, Francis Lister

'My best and most important film.' – Cecil M. Hepworth

'Hepworth's directorial style matches his material in simplicity.' – Geoff Brown, MFB, 1976

'A man who believed in war! A man who believed in nothing! And a woman who believed in both of them!'

Coming Home ★

US 1978 128m DeLuxe
UA/Jerome Hellman

An embittered Vietnam veteran falls for the wife of a serving soldier.

Self-pitying romantic wallow which must mean more to American audiences than to others. Goodish acting.

w Waldo Salt, Robert C. Jones story Nancy Dowd d Hal Ashby ph Haskell Wexler m various pd Mike Haller ed Don Zimmerman

☆ Jane Fonda, Jon Voight, Bruce Dern, Robert Carradine, Penelope Milford

'Just one more story about a wife who gets entangled with another man while her husband is away. Everything in the script that is contemporary is mere updating of that perennial story.' – Stanley Kauffmann

♟ Jon Voight; Jane Fonda; best screenplay ♗ best picture; Hal Ashby; Bruce Dern; Penelope Milford; editing

Coming to America

US 1988 116m Technicolor
UIP/Paramount (George Folsey Jnr, Robert D. Wachs)

A wealthy African prince poses as a poor student in New York so he can find a bride who will love him for himself.

Tired comedy that fails to exploit Murphy's strengths, despite his popping up heavily disguised in several minor roles.

w David Sheffield, Barry W. Blaustein story Eddie Murphy d John Landis ph Woody Omens m Nile Rodgers ed Malcolm Campbell, George Folsey Jnr sp make-up: Rick Baker

☆ Eddie Murphy, Arsenio Hall, John Amos, James Earl Jones, Shari Headley, Madge Sinclair

'A true test for loyal fans.' – Variety

Coming Up Roses ★

GB 1986 93m Eastmancolor
Red Rooster/S4C
Welsh Title: Rhosyn a Rhith

When the local cinema closes down the local community takes it over for mushroom-growing.

Charming curiosity in Welsh with English subtitles, reminiscent of Ealing in its heyday.

w Ruth Carter d Stephen Bayley ph Dick Pope m Michael Story pd Hildegard Bechtler

☆ Dafydd Hywel, Iola Gregory, Olive Michael, Mari Emlyn

A Coming-Out Party: see Very Important Person

The Command

US 1954 94m Warnercolor Cinemascope
Warner (David Weisbart)

A cavalry troop escorts a wagon train through Indian country.

Competent but unsurprising 'second team' Western.

w Russell Hughes novel James Warner Bellah d David Butler ph Wilfrid M. Cline m Dimitri Tiomkin

☆ Guy Madison, Joan Weldon, James Whitmore, Carl Benton Reid, Harvey Lembeck, Ray Teal, Bob Nichols

'Heroes, cowards, fighters, braggarts, liars ... and what goes on in their hearts!'

Command Decision ★

US 1949 111m bw
MGM (Sidney Franklin)

War among the back-room boys; a general, his staff and his peers debate the aerial bombardment of Germany.

Plainly reproduced version of a determinedly serious play, with a remarkable cast partly at sea.

w William R. Laidlaw, George Froeschel play William Wister Haines d Sam Wood ph Harold Rosson m Miklos Rozsa

☆ Clark Gable, Walter Pidgeon, Van Johnson, Brian Donlevy, John Hodiak, Charles Bickford, Edward Arnold, Marshall Thompson, Richard Quine, Cameron Mitchell, Clinton Sundberg, Ray Collins, Warner Anderson, John McIntire, Moroni Olsen

'Frequently exciting, even when talk takes precedence over action.' – John McCarten, New Yorker

Command Performance

GB 1937 84m bw
Grosvenor (Harcourt Templeman)

Fearing a breakdown through overwork a singer takes to the open road and falls in love with a gypsy.

Innocuous musical, which is mainly a vehicle for Tracy to sing sentimental ballads and attempt an operatic aria.

w Stafford Dickens, George Pearson, Michael Hankinson story Sinclair Hill d Sinclair Hill ph Cyril Bristow m/ly Tolchard Evans, Stanley Damerell, Irwin Dash md Louis Levy ad C. Wilfred Arnold ed Michael Hankinson

☆ The Street Singer (Arthur Tracy), Lilli Palmer, Mark Daly, Finlay Currie, Jack Milford, Stafford Hilliard

'He's getting even ... by breaking all the rules.'

Commandments

US 1997 86m DeLuxe
Gramercy/Northern Lights (Michael Chinich, Daniel Goldberg, Joe Medjuck)

Having lost everything that makes his life worthwhile, a doctor decides to break every one of the Ten Commandments.

A blackish comedy with an uncertain tone and an often squeamish approach to its subject matter.

wd Daniel Taplitz ph Slavomir Idziak m Joseph Vitarelli pd Robin Standefer ed Michael Jablow

☆ Aidan Quinn, Courteney Cox, Anthony LaPaglia, Louis Zorich, Pamela Gray, Pat McNamara, Tom Aldredge

'Too glib and too oblique to break out of niche interest.' – Variety

Commando

US 1985 88m DeLuxe
TCF (Joel Silver)

Unlikely mates are thrown together in pursuit of a deadly Latin dictator.
Hard action nonsense with the saving grace of humour.
w Steven de Souza d Mark L. Lester
m James Horner pd John Vallone
ed Mark Goldblatt, John F. Link, Glenn Farr
☆ Arnold Schwarzenegger, Rae Dawn Chong, Dan Hedaya, Vernon Wells, David Patrick Kelly

'Palatable actioner, inoffensively silly.' – Variety

The Commandos Strike at Dawn ★

US 1942 98m bw
Columbia (Lester Cowan)

Norwegian commandos outwit the Nazis with the help of the British navy.
Standard war adventure shot on Vancouver Island.
w Irwin Shaw story C. S. Forester d John Farrow ph William C. Mellor m Louis Gruenberg
☆ Paul Muni, Anna Lee, Lillian Gish, Cedric Hardwicke, Robert Coote, Ray Collins, Rosemary de Camp, Richard Derr, Alexander Knox, Rod Cameron
Louis Gruenberg

La Commare Secca: see The Grim Reaper

Comme Un Image: see Look at Me

Comment J'Ai Tué Mon Père

France/Spain 2001 98m colour
Pathé/Cine B/Cinea/France 2/PHF

GB title: The Way I Killed My Father
A successful doctor's life starts to unravel when his elderly father, who abandoned him as a child, moves in with him and his wife.
Cool, insightful psychodrama of how a damaged child can grow up to be a damaged adult.
w Jacques Fieschi, Anne Fontaine. d Anne Fontaine ph Jean-Marc Fabre m Jocelyn Pook ad Sylvain Chauvelot ed Guy Lecorne
☆ Michel Bouquet (Maurice), Charles Berling (Jean-Luc), Natacha Regnier (Isa), Amira Casar (Myriem), Stephane Guillon (Patrick), Hubert Kounde (Jean-Toussaint)

'There is a palpable air of tension and suspense about this insightful film, a realization that the greatest and most provocative mystery of all is the human soul.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times

The Commissar: see Komissar

'They Had Absolutely Nothing. But They Were Willing To Risk It All.'

The Commitments **

US 1991 118m Technicolor
TCF/Beacon/First Film/Dirty Hands (Roger Randall-Cutler, Lynda Myles)

Dublin youths, believing that the Irish are the blacks of Europe, form a soul band.
Lively and energetic account of backstage traumas, troubles and triumphs.
w Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais, Marc Abraham novel Roddy Doyle d Alan Parker ph Gale Tattersall pd Brian Morris ed Gerry Hambling
☆ Robert Arkins, Michael Aherne, Angeline Ball, Maria Doyle, Dave Finnegan, Bronagh Gallagher, Félim Gormley, Glen Hansard, Dick Massey, Johnny Murphy, Kenneth McCluskey, Andrew Strong

'Isn't likely to overwhelm at the box-office, any more than a band like this one devoted to covering classics would get much mileage in the music industry. Still, the pic is so fresh, well-executed and original that, properly handled, it should enjoy a long if modest run and inspire much hardcore devotion among music fans.' – Variety

'A hilariously funny, richly humane, consistently truthful story ... the movie pulsates with vitality, high spirits and the exhilarating feeling of people growing as they work together to transcend the seeming hopelessness of their surroundings.' – Philip French, Observer

editing
best picture; adapted screenplay; Alan Parker

'She'll get what she wants...no matter what it takes!'

Committed

US 2000 94m colour
Miramax (Marlen Hecht, Dean Silvers)

An abandoned wife goes to great lengths to get back her husband.
Thin and undernourished comedy that stays in the shallows.
wd Lisa Krueger ph Tom Krueger
m Calexico pd Sharon Lomofsky
ed Curtiss Clayton, Colleen Sharp
☆ Heather Graham (Joline), Casey Affleck (Jay), Luke Wilson (Carl), Goran Visnjic (Neil), Patricia Velasquez (Carmen), Alfonso Arau (Grampy), Clea DuVall (Mimi), Mark Ruffalo (T-Bo), Summer Phoenix (Meg)

'Relies heavily on voice-over narration and on comic situations that take forever to establish and then never really pay off.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

A Common Thread ★ (5)

France 2004 88m colour
Soda/Sombrero/Mallia (Alain Benguigui)

original title: Brodeuses
US title: Sequins
An unmarried teenager, who wants to keep her pregnancy a secret from her family, finds work as an embroiderer with a woman grieving over the death of her son.
A film of charm and rewarding once you have become accustomed to its slow pace and hidden emotions.
w Éléonore Faucher, Gaëlle Macé
d Éléonore Faucher ph Pierre Cottereau
m Michael Galasso ed Joëlle Van Effenterre
☆ Lola Naymark (Claire), Ariane Ascaride (Madame Mélikian), Marie Félix (Lucille), Thomas Laroppe (Guillaume), Arthur Quehen (Thomas), Jacky Berroyer (M. Lescuyer)

'Extremely touching film with lovely performances.' – Phillip French, Observer

Common-Law Cabin

US 1967 70m colour
Eve (Russ and Eve Mayer)

A group of tourists are stranded on an isolated pleasure beach on the Colorado River.
A typical Meyer product, which mixes sex and a little violence in a confused narrative of inadequate men, and willing women.
w John Moran d Russ Meyer ph Wady C. Medawar, Jack Lucas ed Russ Meyer
☆ Jack Moran, Babette Bardot, Adele Rein, Franklin Bolger, Alaina Capri, John Furlong, Ken Swofford, Andrew Hagara

Communion

US 1977 108m colour Super 35
Allied Artists (Richard K. Rosenberg)

aka: Alice, Sweet Alice
aka: Holy Terror
A young girl is suspected of killing several of her relatives.
Moderate low-budget thriller, mainly of interest for the brief appearances of Brooke Shields, in her first film, and of Roth as a pathologist.
w Rosemary Ritvo, Alfred Sole d Alfred Sole ph John Friberg, Chuck Hall
m Stephen Lawrence pd John Lawless
ed Edward Salier
☆ Paula Sheppard, Brooke Shields, Linda Miller, Jane Lowry, Alphonso DeNoble, Rudolph Willrich, Lillian Roth

'One of the most complex and satisfying American films in years.' – Colin Pahlow, MFB

'Strictly formulaic.' – Sight and Sound

'On December 25 1985 Whitley Strieber had a dream. Weeks later he discovered his family had the same dream. Months later he made the most shocking discovery of his life. Now, you will discover it.'

Communion

US 1990 101m DeLuxe
Vestron/Pheasantry Films/Allied Vision/Picture Property Co. (Philippe Mora, Whitley Strieber, Dan Allingham)

A writer recalls his meeting with extra-terrestrials and resolves to write a book about it.
Supposedly based on fact, the film has the style of an ill-conceived fantasy more rewarding to its author than to any audience.
w Whitley Strieber book Whitley Strieber
d Philippe Mora ph Louis Irving m Eric Clapton pd Linda Pearl ed Lee Smith ☆ Christopher Walken, Lindsay Crouse, Joel Carlson, Frances Sternhagen, Andreas Katsulas, Terri Hanauer, Basil Hoffman

Como agua para chocolate: see Like Water for Chocolate

Compañeros ★

Italy/Spain/West Germany 1970 118m
Technicolor Techniscope
TCF/Tritone/Atlantida/Terra

aka: Vamos a Matar, Compañeros!
A Swedish mercenary and a Mexican free a revolutionary being held by the Americans in order to get their hands on a fortune.
A baroque spaghetti Western, what with Nero as a straw-hatted Swede and Palance as a wooden-handed gunman, whose real hand was eaten by his pet hawk; underneath the extravagant action is buried a message about the exploitation of the poor.
w Sergio Corbucci, Dino Maiuri, Massimo de Rita, Fritz Ebert d Sergio Corbucci
ph Alejandro Ulloa m Ennio Morricone
ad Adolfo Cofiño ed Eugenio Alabiso ☆ Franco Nero, Tomas Milian, Jack Palance, Fernando Rey, Iris Berben, Karin Schubert, Francisco Bodalo

'Nasty, brutish and not particularly short.' – Tom Milne, MFB

'Tremendously entertaining.' – Sight and Sound

† It was a sequel to The Mercenary (qv).

The Company ★

US/Germany 2003 112m DeLuxe
Panavision
Marly/CP Media/Killer/John Wells (David Levy, Joshua Astrachan, Neve Campbell, Robert Altman, Christine Vachon, Pamela Koffler)

The everyday life of a ballerina, as seen through the eyes of a up-and-coming dancer.
Slight, enjoyable glimpse into the world of ballet that provides small pleasures and a little insight into the hard graft on which it is based.
w Barbara Turner story d Robert Altman
ph Andrew Dunn m Van Dyke Parks
pd Gary Baugh ed Geraldine Peroni
☆ Neve Campbell (Ry), Malcolm McDowell (Alberto Antonelli), James Franco (Josh), Barbara Robertson (Harriet), William Dick (Edouard), Susie Cusack (Susie), Marilyn Dodds Frank (Ry's Mother), John Lordan (Ry's Father)

'Impressionistic, undramatic approach that will be too soft and uneventful for mainstream viewers and may also be faulted by sticklers within ballet circles.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Company Business

US 1991 98m Technicolor
MGM (Steven-Charles Jaffe)

An ageing agent is recalled by the CIA to make a covert spy swap with the KGB, only to discover it is a set-up, and he and his prisoner are to be killed.
Paranoid thriller that begins well but soon degenerates into a great deal of chasing around to little effect.
wd Nicholas Meyer ph Gerry Fisher
m Michael Kamen pd Ken Adam
ed Ronald Roose
☆ Gene Hackman, Mikhail Baryshnikov, Kurtwood Smith, Terry O'Quinn, Daniel von Bargen, Oleg Rudnick, Geraldine Danon

'This comedic thriller, which asks what spies do after the cold war, doesn't figure to have much company or do much business.' – Variety

Company Limited **

India 1971 112m bw
Chitranjali (Bharat Shamsher Rana) original title: Seemabaddha
A sales manager uses underhand methods to gain promotion.
Long-winded drama of Calcutta life among westernized young executives where ambition stifles morality.
wd Satyajit Ray novel Seemabaddha by Shankar ph Soumendu Roy m Satyajit Ray ad Ashoke Bose ed Dulal Dutta
☆ Sharmila Tagore, Barun Chanda, Parumita Chowdhury

Company of Cowards: see Advance to the Rear

The Company of Strangers **

Canada 1990 101m colour
Electric/Contemporary/National Film Board of Canada (David Wilson)

aka: Strangers In Good Company
Seven old women are forced to camp out for several days in a derelict farmhouse after their bus breaks down.
A small gem of a movie, using a cast of non-actors to great effect.
w Gloria Demers, Cynthia Scott, David Wilson, Sally Bochner d Cynthia Scott ph David de Volpi m Marie Bernard
ed David Wilson
☆ Alice Diabo, Constance Garneau, Winifred Holden, Cissy Meddings, Mary Meigs, Catherine Roche, Michelle Sweeney, Beth Webber

'In its quiet way this truthful, affecting,

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

unsentimental movie tells us as much as any film I know about the female experience in this century.' – Philip French, Observer

The Company of Wolves ★★

GB 1984 95m colour
ITC/Palace (Chris Brown, Stephen Woolley)

A young girl dreams of wolves and werewolves.
Fragmentary adult fantasy which had an unexpected box-office success, chiefly because of its sexual allusiveness, its clever make-up and its pictorial qualities.
w Angela Carter, Neil Jordan stories Angela Carter d Neil Jordan
ph Bryan Loftus m George Fenton
pd Anton Furst special make-up effects Christopher Tucker
☆ Angela Lansbury, David Warner, Graham Crowden, Brian Glover, Sarah Patterson, Micha Bergese, Stephen Rea

'A horror film as literate as it is visionary, it's great fun – and that's not a cheap thrill.' – J. Hoberman, Village Voice

Compartiment Tueurs: see The Sleeping Car Murders

The Competition ★

US 1980 129m Metrocolor
Columbia/Rastar/William Sackheim

An ageing piano prodigy has one last shot at fame in a San Francisco piano competition.
Slightly curious, old-fashioned but heavy-handed romance which aims to do for the piano what The Turning Point did for ballet. It doesn't sustain its length but at least the milieu is interesting.
wd Joel Oliansky ph Richard H. Kline pd Dale Hennesy ed David Blewitt m/md Lalo Schifrin
☆ Richard Dreyfuss, Lee Remick, Amy Irving, Sam Wanamaker, Joseph Cali
♗ film editing; best song 'People Alone' (m Lalo Schifrin, ly Wilbur Jennings)

Un Complicato Intrigo di Donne, Vicoli e Delitto: see Camorra: The Naples Connection

Complicity ★

GB 1999 99m DeLuxe
Entertainment/Carlton/J&M/Talisman (Richard Jackson, Neil Dunn)

While investigating the deaths of people involved in a top secret government project, a journalist finds himself suspected of being a serial killer.
Gritty thriller with a political subtext, set against a background of riots over nuclear waste, the predations of multinational corporations and the machinations of the arms trade.
w Bryan Elsley novel Iain Banks d Gavin Millar ph David Odd m Colin Towns pd Jamie Leonard ed Angus Newton cos Kate Carin ☆ Jonny Lee Miller (Cameron Colley), Brian Cox (DCI McDunn), Keeley Hawes (Yvonne), Paul Higgins (Andy Gould), Jason Hetherington (William), Bill Paterson (Wallace Byatt), Samuel West (Neil), Rachael Stirling (Claire Gould)

'You're About To Find Out Why The Women Of Shorehaven Would Kill Rather Than Miss An Appointment With Dr Bruce Fleckstein.'

Compromising Positions

US 1985 98m colour
Paramount (Frank Perry)

The murder of a philandering dentist has repercussions among his many mistresses.
Combination sex comedy and whodunnit which never seems to hit the right groove.
w Susan Isaacs novel Susan Isaacs
d Frank Perry ph Barry Sonnenfeld
m Brad Fiedel pd Peter Larkin ed Peter Frank ☆ Susan Sarandon, Raul Julia, Edward Herrmann, Judith Ivey, Mary Beth Hurt, Joe Mantegna Compulsion ★

US 1959 103m bw Cinemascope
TCF/Darryl F. Zanuck Productions (Richard F. Zanuck)

In the twenties, two Chicago students kidnap and murder a young boy for kicks.
Rather dogged but earnest fictionalization of the Leopold-Loeb case with solid performances and production.
w Richard Murphy novel Meyer Levin
d Richard Fleischer ph William C. Mellor
m Lionel Newman ed William Reynolds
☆ Dean Stockwell, Bradford Dillman, Orson Welles, Diane Varsi, E. G. Marshall, Martin Milner, Richard Anderson, Robert Simon
† Welles's cameo court appearance as a lawyer is based on Clarence Darrow.

The Computer Wore Tennis Shoes

US 1970 90m Technicolor
Disney

While mending a computer a college student gets an electric shock and becomes omniscient.
Ho-hum Disney comedy, eager to please but instantly forgotten.
w Joseph L. McEveety d Robert Butler
☆ Kurt Russell, Cesar Romero, Joe Flynn, William Schallert, Alan Hewitt

Comrade X ★

US 1940 89m bw
MGM (Gottfried Reinhardt)

An American correspondent in Russia is blackmailed into smuggling a girl out of the country.
Lame satirical comedy in the wake of Ninotchka; a few good moments, but generally heavy-handed.
w Ben Hecht, Charles Lederer story Walter Reisch d King Vidor ph Joseph L. Ruttenberg m Bronislau Kaper
☆ Clark Gable, Hedy Lamarr, Felix Bressart, Oscar Homolka, Eve Arden, Sig Rumann

'Broadest comedic strokes and not-too-subtle satire ... a smacko entry for topflight biz.' – Variety
♗ Walter Reisch

Comrades ★★★

GB 1987 180m colour
Curzon/Skreba/National Film Finance (Simon Relph)

In the 1830s six Dorset farm labourers who form a union to campaign against low wages are tried and transported to Australia as criminals.
Subtitled 'a lanternist's account', and based on the true story of the Tolpuddle Martyrs, it is a flawed masterpiece: too long and too preachy, yet its qualities outweigh these defects.
wd Bill Douglas ph Gale Tattersall
m Hans Werner Henze, David Graham
pd Michael Pickwoad ad Derrick Chetwyn, Henry Harris ed Mick Audsley
☆ Robin Soans (George Loveless), William Gammara (James Loveless), Stephen Bateman (Old Tom Stanfield), Philip Davis (Young Stanfield), Jeremy Flynn (Brine), Keith Allen (James Hammett), Alex Norton (Lanternist/Sgt. Bell/Diorama Showman/Laughing Cava), Michael Clark (Sailor), Arthur Dignam (Fop), James Fox (Norfolk), John Hargreaves (Convict), Michael Hordern (Mr. Pitt), Freddie Jones (Vicar), Vanessa Redgrave (Mrs. Carlyle), Robert Stephens (Frampton) and also Murray Melvin, Barbara Windsor, Imelda Staunton

Comradeship ★

GB 1919 67m (24 fps) bw silent
Stoll

Two friends endure varying fortunes during World War I.
An early British 'A' feature which was highly popular in its day.
w Jeffrey Bernerd d Maurice Elvey
☆ Lily Elsie, Gerald Ames, Guy Newall, Peggy Carlisle

Comradeship: see Kameradschaft (1931)

La Comtesse aux Seins Nu: see Female Vampire

La Comtesse Noire: see Female Vampire

'Buckle up ... and hang on.'

Con Air ★ (4)

US 1997 115m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Jerry Bruckheimer)

A tough parolee decides to support law and order when a violent criminal hijacks a convict transport plane.
Uproarious but enjoyable nonsense, marked by much gunfire, loud explosions, over-the-top acting and, when it can be heard, some witty dialogue.
w Scott Rosenberg d Simon West ph David Tattersall m Mark Mancina, Trevor Rabin ad Edward T. McAvoy
ed Chris Lebenzon, Steve Mirkovich, Glen Scantlebury
☆ Nicolas Cage (Cameron Poe), John Cusack (Vince Larkin), John Malkovich (Cyrus Grissom), Steve Buscemi (Garland Greene), Ving Rhames (Diamond Dog), Colm Meaney (Duncan Malloy), Mykelti Williamson (Baby-O), Rachel Ticotin (Sally Bishop), Monica Potter (Tricia Poe), Dave Chappelle (Pinball), M. C. Gainey

'For a bit of dumb fun, the fun goes out of Con Air pretty quickly.' – Sunday Times
† The film was among the most commercially successful of the year, grossing some $101m in the US, and another $122m elsewhere.
♗ song 'How Do I Live' (m/ly Dianne Warren); sound

'Thief. Warrior. Gladiator. King.'

Conan the Barbarian

US 1981 129m Technicolor Todd-AO
Dino de Laurentiis/Edward R. Pressman (Buzz Feitshans, Raffaella de Laurentiis)

In the Dark Ages, a young stalwart seeks out the barbarian tribe which murdered his parents.
Intolerably doomladen, slow-moving and mainly unintelligible rubbish which failed to put a lift into the long-announced sword-and-sorcery cycle.
w John Milius, Oliver Stone, from a character created by Robert E. Howard
d John Milius ph Duke Callaghan
m Basil Poledouris pd Ron Cobb ed C. Timothy O'Meara
☆ Arnold Schwarzenegger, James Earl Jones, Max von Sydow, Sandahl Bergman, Ben Davidson, Mako, Gerry Lopez

'A ragbag of half-witted kitsch, where even locations resemble a set, actors look like extras, violence like a stunt and life a bad dream.' – Sunday Times
'An indigestible blend of anti-liberal braggadocio, post-60s mysticism and echt-60s blockbusting.' – Sight and Sound

Conan the Destroyer

US 1984 101m Technicolor Scope
Dino de Laurentiis

An evil queen offers to bring Conan's last love back to life, if he will undertake a magical quest for her.
More heavy-handed and unpleasant nonsense, with a slightly better pace than before.
w Stanley Mann d Richard Fleischer
ph Jack Cardiff
☆ Arnold Schwarzenegger, Grace Jones, Wilt Chamberlain, Mako, Tracey Walter, Sarah Douglas

Concealment: see The Secret Bride

Concerto: see I've Always Loved You

The Concierge: see For Love or Money

'At twice the speed of sound, can the Concorde evade attack?'

The Concorde: Airport '79

US 1979 113m Technicolor
Universal (Jennings Lang)

GB title: Airport '80: The Concorde
Various disasters befall the Concorde on its way from Washington to Paris.
Stultified final (one presumes) effort in the Airport series; it could hardly be funnier if it were intended as a comedy, but somehow it entertains.
w Eric Roth d David Lowell Rich
ph Philip Lathrop m Lalo Schifrin
☆ Alain Delon, Susan Blakely, Robert Wagner, Sylvia Kristel, George Kennedy, Eddie Albert, Bibi Andersson, John Davidson, Martha Raye, Cicely Tyson, Mercedes McCambridge

'Larger-than-life characters are thrown together on a storyboard and must fend for themselves against attacks, chases and assorted escapades ... this would be soporific even as a transatlantic inflight movie.' – Martyn Auty, MFB

The Concrete Jungle: see The Criminal

El Conde Dracula: see Bram Stoker's Count Dracula

'A kiss that cannot be forgotten!'

Condemned ★

US 1929 86m bw
Samuel Goldwyn
aka: Condemned to Devil's Island

A bank robber is sent to Devil's Island and falls in love with the wife of the brutal warden.
Slow-moving but pictorially attractive melodrama with old-style performances.
w Sidney Howard novel Condemned to Devil's Island by Blair Niles d Wesley Ruggles ph George Barnes, Gregg Toland pd William Cameron Menzies
☆ Ronald Colman, Ann Harding, Louis Wolheim, Dudley Digges, William Elmer

'A piece of nonsense from which it would appear that French convicts on Devil's Island live a life consisting entirely of hot-towel shaves and flirtations with the governor's wife.' – James Agate
♗ Ronald Colman

The Condemned of Altona *

Italy/France 1962 113m bw
(TCF) Titanus/SGC (Carlo Ponti)
The head of a German shipping empire discovers he has only a few months to live and tries to bring his family to order.
Strident intellectual melodrama whose credits tell all. Watchable for the acting, but very glum.
w Abby Mann, Cesare Zavattini play Jean-Paul Sartre d Vittorio de Sica ph Roberto Gerardi m Dmitri Shostakovich
☆ Fredric March, Sophia Loren, Robert Wagner, Maximilian Schell, Françoise Prévost, Alfredo Franchi
'This film is such a hopeless mess that it is difficult to know where to begin criticizing it.' – Tom Milne

Condemned to Death *

GB 1932 75m bw
Twickenham (Julius Hagen)
A condemned killer hypnotizes a judge into murdering those who turned him in.
Irresistible nonsense of the old school, with spirited direction and a good cast.
w Bernard Merivale, Harry Fowler Mear, Brock Williams play Jack O'Lantern by George Goodchild, James Dawson d Walter Forde ph Sidney Blythe, William Luff
☆ Arthur Wontner, Gillian Lind, Edmund Gwenn, Gordon Harker, Jane Welsh, Cyril Raymond
'A weak daily changer with double-headed programming its merited rating.' – Variety
'It would be difficult to find a dull moment.' – The Bioscope

Condemned to Devil's Island: see Condemned

Condemned to Life: see Life for Ruth

Condorman

US 1981 90m Technicolor Panavision
Walt Disney (Jan Williams)
The author of a 'superman' comic tries to act like his hero in real life.
Very mildly amusing spy spoof with inadequate special effects.
w Marc Sturdivant, Glen Caron, Mickey Rose novel The Game of X by Robert Sheckley d Charles Jarrott ph Charles F. Wheeler m Henry Mancini pd Albert Witherick sp Art Cruickshank
☆ Michael Crawford, Oliver Reed, Barbara Carrera, James Hampton, Jean-Pierre Kalfon

Conduct Unbecoming

GB 1975 107m Technicolor
British Lion/Crown (Michael Deeley, Barry Spikings)
In an officers' mess in India in the 1890s, a cadet is accused of assault on a lady but the real culprit is a paranoic who has taken to pigsticking in quite the wrong way.
Disappointingly flatly-handled and quite unatmospheric picturization of an absorbing West End melodrama. The cast is largely wasted, but stretches of dialogue maintain their interest.
w Robert Enders play Barry England d Michael Anderson ph Bob Huke m Stanley Myers
☆ Michael York, Stacy Keach, Trevor Howard, Christopher Plummer, Richard Attenborough, Susannah York, James Faulkner, James Donald

The Conductor *

Poland 1979 102m Orwocolor
PRF/X Films of Poland original title: Dyrygent
A Polish girl violinist finds her life affected when an elderly international conductor returns to her town.
Initially interesting but finally tedious and muddled allegory, further handicapped by stilted post-synching of the English version.
w Andrzej Kijowski d Andrzej Wajda ph Slawomir Idziak m from Beethoven
☆ John Gielgud, Krystyna Janda, Andrzej Seweryn

'Young ones! Parental units! We summon you!'

Coneheads

US 1993 83m DeLuxe
Paramount (Lorne Michaels)
An illegal pointy-headed alien crash-lands in the United States.
Dim one-joke comedy at the expense of suburbia.
w Tom Davis, Dan Aykroyd, Bonnie Turner, Terry Turner d Steve Barron ph Francis Kenny m David Newman pd Gregg Fonseca ed Paul Trejo
☆ Dan Aykroyd, Jane Curtin, Michael McKean, Laraine Newman, Jason Alexander, Lisa Jane Persky, Chris Farley, David Spade, Michelle Burke
'A sweet, funny, anarchic pastiche that should find broad-based popularity.' – Variety
'Quite extraordinarily bad ... worth renting only if you take a perverse pleasure in watching a very large amount of someone else's money going down the drain.' – Jonathan Ross, Empire
† The film was released direct to video in Britain.

Coney Island *

US 1943 96m Technicolor
TCF (William Perlberg)
Two fairground showmen vie for the affections of a songstress.
Brassy, simple-minded, entertaining musical. Very typical of its time; later remade as Wabash Avenue (qv).
w George Seaton d Walter Lang ph Ernest Palmer m Alfred Newman m/ly Leo Robin, Ralph Rainger ch Hermes Pan ad Richard Day, Joseph C. Wright
☆ Betty Grable, George Montgomery, Cesar Romero, Charles Winninger, Phil Silvers, Matt Briggs, Paul Hurst, Frank Orth, Andrew Tombes, Alec Craig, Hal K. Dawson
Alfred Newman

Confession

US 1937 90m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)
An errant mother shoots her former lover to protect her daughter.
Stilted romantic melodrama copied scene for scene from a 1936 German film Mazurka.
w Julius J. Epstein, Margaret Le Vino original screenplay Hans Rameau d Joe May ph Sid Hickox m Peter Kreuder md Leo F. Forbstein ad Anton Grot
☆ Kay Francis, Ian Hunter, Basil Rathbone, Jane Bryan, Donald Crisp, Dorothy Peterson, Laura Hope Crews, Robert Barrat
'Distinctly in the upper bracket and made to order for important first runs.' – Variety

Confession

GB 1955 90m bw
Anglo Guild
US title: The Deadliest Sin
A murderer stalks the priest who knows his guilt through the confessional but may not reveal it.
So-so reworking of the theme that daunted Hitchcock in I Confess; some pleasant touches are nullified by slow pacing.
wd Ken Hughes
☆ Sydney Chaplin, Audrey Dalton, John Welsh, John Bentley, Peter Hammond

The Confession: see Quick Let's Get Married (1965)

The Confession *

France/Italy 1970 160m Eastmancolor
Films Corona/Films Pomereu/Selena Cinematografica (Robert Dorfmann) original title: L'Aveu
In Prague in 1951, a minister is secretly imprisoned and interrogated, and finally confesses under duress to anti-communist activities.
Brutally long but frequently impressive anti-Soviet tract, extremely well acted but less exciting than Z. Based on a true account.
w Jorge Semprun book Lise and Artur London d Costa-Gavras ph Raoul Coutard m not credited ☆ Yves Montand, Simone Signoret, Gabriele Ferzetti, Michel Vitold

Le Confessional **

Canada/GB/France 1995 101m colour/bw Artificial Eye/Téléfilm Canada/Cinémaginaire/Enigma/Cinéa (Denise Robert, David Puttnam, Philippe Carcassonne)
Returning home to Quebec for his father's funeral, an artist helps his adopted brother, now a homosexual prostitute, search for his real father, who they suspect may have been a priest.
Stylish, intelligent mystery story, full of echoes of Hitchcock, and moving between 1989 and 1952, where the tragedy that engulfs them had its roots. Set against Hitchcock's filming of I Confess, it is told in a cool, distancing manner that is emotionally uninvolving; it is to be admired more than enjoyed.
wd Robert Lepage ph Alain Dostie m Sacha Puttnam ad François Laplante ed Emmanuelle Castro ☆ Lothaire Bluteau, Patrick Goyette, Kristin Scott-Thomas, Jean-Louis Millette, Richard Fréchette, François Papineau, Marie Gignac, Ron Burrage (Alfred Hitchcock)
'A few moments of daftness aside, this is a superbly watchable and seamlessly structured film.' – Nigel Robinson, Film Review

Confessions from a Holiday Camp

GB 1977 88m colour
Columbia/Swiftdown (Greg Smith)
An entertainments officer at a holiday camp attempts to deal with the disciplinarian in charge while seducing every woman he meets.
Heavy-handed slapstick comedy intended to titillate, in the style of a lower-budget Carry On, with single entendres and no laughs.
w Christopher Wood novel Timothy Lea (Christopher Wood) d Norman Cohen ph Ken Hodges m Ed Welch ad Harry Pottle ed Geoffrey Foot
☆ Robin Askwith, Anthony Booth, Doris Hare, Bill Maynard, Sheila White, Colin Crompton, Liz Fraser, Linda Hayden, John Junkin, Lance Percival
'Strained and patronising low comedy.' – MFB

Confessions of a Counterspy: see Man on a String

'Some things are better left top secret.'

Confessions of a Dangerous Mind **

US/Germany/GB 2002 113m DeLuxe Panavision
Buena Vista/Miramax/Mad Chance/Section Eight (Andrew Lazar)
An ambitious TV producer, who creates crass game-shows, combines his day job with working for the CIA as an assassin.
Lively and entertaining account of the life of Chuck Barris that does not question his claims to have been a hitman, but instead extracts the maximum amusement from them.
w Charlie Kaufman autobiography Chuck Barris d George Clooney ph Newton Thomas Sigel m Alex Wurman pd James O. Bissell ed Stephen Mirrione
☆ Sam Rockwell (Chuck Barris), Drew Barrymore (Penny), George Clooney (Jim Byrd), Julia Roberts (Patricia), Rutger Hauer (Keeler), Maggie Gyllenhaal (Debbie), Kristen Wilson (Loretta), Jennifer Hall (Georgia)
'A funny, strange, sad and wonderful picture, packed with delightful performances by Hollywood stars and made by a director with a startling facility for the form and an expansive cinematic imagination.' – Andrew O'Hehir, Salon.com
'The film is much more smug and pleased with itself than it has any reason to be.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times

Confessions of a Driving Instructor

GB 1976 90m colour
Columbia-Warner/Swiftdown (Greg Smith)
A newly qualified driving instructor seduces his female pupils and all the other women he meets.
A tired farce that cannot even rise to the level of the Carry On series' double entendres.
w Christopher Wood novel Timothy Lea d Norman Cohen ph Ken Hodges m Ed Welch ad Albert Witherick ed Geoffrey Foot
☆ Robin Askwith, Anthony Booth, Sheila White, Doris Hare, Bill Maynard, Windsor Davies, Liz Fraser, Irene Handl, Lynda Bellingham, Avril Angers
'A fifth-rate potboiler of proven commercial value.' – John Pym, MFB

Confessions of a Nazi Spy **

US 1939 110m bw
Warner (Robert Lord)
How G-men ferreted out Nazis in the United States.
Topical exposé with all concerned in top form; a semi-documentary very typical of Warner product throughout the thirties and forties, from G-Men to Mission to Moscow and I Was a Communist for the FBI: well made, punchy, and smartly edited, with a loud moral at the end.
w Milton Krims, John Wexley, from materials gathered by former FBI agent Leon G. Turrou d Anatole Litvak ph Sol Polito m Max Steiner
☆ Edward G. Robinson, Paul Lukas, George Sanders, Francis Lederer, Henry O'Neill, Lya Lys, James Stephenson, Sig Rumann, Dorothy Tree, Joe Sawyer
'Its social implications are far more important than the immediate question of how much money the release makes for Warner Brothers.' – Variety
'The Warner brothers have declared war on Germany with this one ... with this precedent there is no way any producer

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

could argue against dramatizing any social or political theme on the grounds that he's afraid of domestic or foreign censorship. Everybody duck.' – Pare Lorentz

'Has a remarkable resemblance to a full-length Crime Does Not Pay.' – David Wolff

'One of the most sensational movie jobs on record, workmanlike in every respect and sprang across the headlines.' – Otis Ferguson

Confessions of a Pop Performer

GB 1975 91m colour
Columbia-Warner/Swiftdown

A window cleaner joins a rock group and enjoys the groupies.
A broad and unsubtle slapstick comedy.
w Christopher Wood novel Confessions from the Pop Scene by Timothy Lea d Norman Cohen ph Alan Hume
m Bugatti Musker pd Robert Jones
ed Geoffrey Foot
☆ Robin Askwith, Anthony Booth, Sheila White, Doris Hare, Bill Maynard, Bob Todd, Jill Gascoine, Peter Jones, Diane Langton, Ian Lavender

'Creaky gags, overly familiar slapstick routines, sniggering innuendo, grimly leaden mugging and a nervously regular injection of titillating sequences on the lines of the average German sex comedy.' – Verina Glaessner, MFB

Confessions of a Sex Maniac

GB 1974 81m Eastmancolor
Oppidan/Rothernorth (Alan Birkinshaw) aka: Design for Lust
aka: The Man Who Couldn't Get Enough

An architect searches for the perfect breast so that he can use it as the design for a new building.
Tired farce, intended to titillate, but more likely to act as a soporific.
w Alan Paz d Alan Birkinshaw ph Arthur Lavis m Derek Warne, John Shakespeare ad Tessa Davis ed David White ☆ Roger Lloyd Pack, Vicki Hodge, Derek Royle, Stephanie Marrian, Louise Rush, Candy Baker

'A perilously weak plot premise is just about kept alive by the two appealing lead performances, before being smothered by a platitudinous ton of groping and grappling.' – Richard Combs

'So much drama, so little time.'

Confessions of a Teenage Drama Queen

Germany/US 2004 89m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Jerry Leider, Robert Shapiro)

After moving to New Jersey with her divorced mother, a New York schoolgirl sets out to become the most popular girl at her new school.
Feeble comedy that regards conspicuous consumption and attention-seeking as among the higher virtues.
w Gail Parent novel Dyan Sheldon d Sara Sugerman ph Stephen H. Burum m Mark Mothersbaugh pd Leslie McDonald ed Anita Brandt Burgoyne
☆ Lindsay Lohan (Lola), Adam Garcia (Stu), Glenne Headly (Karen), Alison Pill (Ella), Carol Kane (Miss Baggoli), Eli Marienthal (Sam), Megan Fox (Carla)

'Might please small girls but will leave a sour taste in everyone else's mouth' – Empire

Confessions of a Trickbaby: see Freeway II Confessions of a Trickbaby

Confessions of a Window Cleaner

GB 1974 90m Eastmancolor
Columbia-Warner/Swiftdown (Greg Smith)

A window cleaner discovers many amorous housewives on his round.
A broad, but not bawdy, comedy for the sexually repressed. Despite its low level, it did well enough at the box-office to spawn several sequels.
w Christopher Wood, Val Guest d Val Guest ph Norman Warwick m Sam Sklair pd Robert Jones ed Bill Lenny
☆ Robin Askwith, Anthony Booth, Sheila White, Dandy Nichols, Bill Maynard, Linda Hayden, John Le Mesurier, Joan Hickson, Richard Wattis, Katya Wyeth, Sam Kydd

'The humour is of the sniggering, innuendo-squeezing variety and is aimed with unnerving mediocrity at a particular kind of embarrassed – and distinctly British – audience reaction.' – Gareth Jones, MFB

† The lead role was turned down by Nicky Henson, Dennis Waterman and Richard Beckinsale.

'Take One Daring Step Beyond The Threshold Of Your Own Imagination!'

Confessions of an Opium Eater

US 1962 85m bw
Albert Zugsmith

GB title: Evils of Chinatown

In San Francisco in the 1890s, a seaman falls into the clutches of a tong.
The hero is called de Quincey, but that is the only association with the famous book of the same title. This absurd melodrama is just about bad enough to be funny, but not very.
w Robert Hill d Albert Zugsmith
ph Joseph Biroc m Albert Glasser
ad Eugene Lourié
☆ Vincent Price, Linda Ho, Richard Loo, Philip Ahn, June Kim

'Has to be seen to be believed ... starved girls captive in cages, secret panels, sliding doors, sewer escape routes, opium dens and nightmares...' – MFB

Confetti ★

GB/US 2006 100m colour
TCF/BBC/Fox Searchlight/Wasted Talent (Ian Benson, Ian Flooks)

Three engaged couples compete to hold the year's most original wedding.
Enjoyable mock documentary that will bring a smile or two.
wd Debbie Isitt ph Dewald Aukema
m Paul Englishby pd Chris Roope
ed Nicky Agar
☆ Alison Steadman, Martin Freeman, Ron Cook, Steve Mangan, Jessica Strevenson, Mark Heap, Meredith NacNeill

'It's not about the money. It's about the money.'

Confidence ★

US 2003 97m DeLuxe
Momentum/Lions Gate/Cinerenta/Ignite/Cinewhite (Marc Butan, Michael Paseornek, Michael Burns, Michael Ohoven)

A con-man, who is indebted to a gang boss, is forced to swindle a banker with criminal connections.
Slick thriller with a twisting narrative of double-cross and betrayal that is less interesting than it should be; Hoffman's eccentricities as a gangster add a little spark to the proceedings.
w Doug Jung d James Foley ph Juan Ruiz-Anchia pd Bill Arnold ed Stuart Levy
☆ Edward Burns (Jake Vig), Rachel Weisz (Lily), Andy Garcia (Gunther Butan), Dustin Hoffman (King), Paul Giamatti (Gordo), Donal Logue (Whitworth), Luis Guzman (Manzano), Brian Van Holt (Miles)

'Made by people who have seen too many movies, it seems to be aimed at people who have seen too few.' – A.O. Scott, New York Times

† The DVD release includes commentaries by the director, writer and cast.

Confidences Trop Intime: see Intimate Strangers

Confidential

Canada 1987 88m colour
Brightstar (Anthony Kramreither)

A reporter goes missing on an assignment to track down a woman who killed her father with an axe years before.
Undistinguished, claustrophobic thriller, a low-budget pastiche of hard-boiled pulp fiction, tightly shot to try to hide the paucity of its sets.
wd Bruce Pittman ph John Herzog
m Bruce Ley ed Bruce Pittman
☆ August Schellenberg, Chapelle Jaffe, Neil Munro, Tom Butler, Anthony Parr, Linda Goranson, Doris Petrie, Michael Fletcher

Confidential Agent ★★

US 1945 122m bw
Warner (Robert Buckner)

An emissary of Franco's Spain comes to England in the late thirties to make a munitions deal, and falls in love with the tycoon's daughter.
Heavy-going simplification of Graham Greene's lowering novel, with cast and (especially) set designers all at sea but nevertheless providing striking moments.
w Robert Buckner d Herman Shumlin
ph James Wong Howe m Franz Waxman
☆ Charles Boyer, Lauren Bacall, Katina Paxinou, Peter Lorre, Victor Francen, George Coulouris, Wanda Hendrix, George Zucco, Miles Mander

'In some ways an exciting and good picture, the best attempt yet, though still inadequate, to make the best of a Greene novel.' – James Agee

'A terrible movie and I was terrible in it.' – Lauren Bacall

Confidential Report

Spain 1955 99m bw
Sevilla Studios (Louis Dolivet, Orson Welles)

aka: Mr Arkadin

A wealthy and powerful financier employs a young American to seek out figures from his own past, who are soon found dead...
Silly melodrama which might have been suspenseful if done by Hitchcock, or even by Welles at his peak; as it is, weak writing and sloppy production remove most of the interest and reveal it as a very obvious bag of tricks.
wd Orson Welles novel Mr Arkadin by Orson Welles ph Jean Bourgoin m Paul Misraki pd Orson Welles ed Renzo Lucidi
☆ Orson Welles, Michael Redgrave, Katina Paxinou, Akim Tamiroff, Mischa Auer, Patricia Medina, Jack Watling, Peter Van Eyck, Paola Mori, Robert Arden, Grégoire Aslan, Suzanne Flon

'Tilted camera angles, heavy atmospheric shots, overlapping dialogue – all the trademarks are here, sometimes over-used to an almost hysterical degree, but they have little significance ... (the film) springs not from life but from the earlier cinematic world of Welles himself and from the kind of thriller written about thirty years ago by E. Philips Oppenheim.' – Gavin Lambert

'The quality of the soundtrack is quite disastrous, but there is a certain grandeur about the carelessness of the film's construction which makes one forget everything except the immediacy of the moment.' – Basil Wright, 1972

Confirm or Deny

US 1941 78m bw
TCF (Len Hammond)

An American reporter falls for a wireless operator in wartime London.
Artificial but watchable minor romantic melodrama.
w Jo Swerling, Henry Wales, Samuel Fuller d Archie Mayo ph Leon Shamroy
☆ Don Ameche, Joan Bennett, Roddy McDowall, Arthur Shields, Raymond Walburn, John Loder † Fritz Lang directed some scenes.

Conflict ★

US 1945 86m bw
Warner (William Jacobs)

A man murders his wife and is apparently haunted by her; but the odd happenings have been arranged by a suspicious psychiatrist.
Leaden and artificial melodrama with both stars miscast; a few effective moments.
w Arthur T. Horman, Dwight Taylor story Robert Siodmak, Alfred Neumann
d Curtis Bernhardt ph Merritt Gerstad
m Frederick Hollander md Leo F. Forbstein ad Ted Smith ed David Weisbart cos Orry-Kelly
☆ Humphrey Bogart (Richard Mason), Sydney Greenstreet (Dr Mark Hamilton), Alexis Smith (Evelyn Turner), Rose Hobart (Katherine Mason), Charles Drake (Prof Norman Holdsworth), Grant Mitchell (Dr Grant), Patrick O'Moore (Detective Lt Egan)
† The film was completed in August 1943.

Conflict of Wings ★

GB 1953 84m Eastmancolor
British Lion/Group Three (Herbert Mason)
US title: Fuss over Feathers

East Anglian villagers fight to save a bird sanctuary from being taken over by the RAF as a rocket range.
Sub-Ealing comedy-drama with a highly predictable outcome; generally pleasant but without much bite.
w Don Sharp, John Pudney d John Eldridge ph Arthur Grant m Philip Green ed Lito Carruthers
☆ John Gregson (Bill Morris), Muriel Pavlow (Sally), Kieron Moore (Squadron Leader Parsons), Niall MacGinnis (Harry Tilney), Sheila Sweet (Fanny Bates), Harry Fowler (Buster), Barbara Hicks (Mrs Thompson), Charles Lloyd Pack (Bookie)

The Conformist ★★★

Italy/France/West Germany 1969 108m Technicolor
Mars/Marianne/Maran (Giovanni Bertolucci)

original title: Il Conformista

In 1938 an inhibited young man tries to conform to the prevailing mood of Fascism, but gets out of his depth when he turns informer.
Psychologically confusing but brilliantly realized recreation of an age.
wd Bernardo Bertolucci novel Alberto Moravia ph Vittorio Storaro m Georges Delerue ad Ferdinando Scarfiotti ed Franco Arcalli

☆ Jean-Louis Trintignant (Marcello Clerici), Stefania Sandrelli (Giulia), Gastone Moschin (Manganiello), Enzo Taroscio (Professor Quadri), Dominique Sanda (Anna Quadri), Pierre Clementi (Lino Semirama, the Chauffeur)

'It's a triumph of feeling and of style – lyrical, flowing, velvety style, so operatic that you come away with sequences in your head like arias.' – New Yorker

Bernardo Bertolucci (as writer)

Il Conformista: see The Conformist

'Where you are the endagered species.'

Congo

US 1995 108m DeLuxe
UIP/Paramount (Kathleen Kennedy, Sam Mercer)

A talking gorilla, a primatologist, a woman in search of rare blue diamonds, a mysterious Romanian and a great black hunter combine on an expedition to Africa where they find King Solomon's mines guarded by killer apes.

Heady nonsense, a throwback to those old movies based on Victorian adventure stories; it is hokum of a sort rarely seen since the days of Nyoka the Jungle Girl.

w John Patrick Shanley novel Michael Crichton d Frank Marshall ph Allen Daviau m Jerry Goldsmith pd J. Michael Riva ed Anne V. Coates sp Industrial Light and Magic; Stan Winston Studio

☆ Dylan Walsh, Laura Linney, Ernie Hudson, Tim Curry, Joe Don Baker, Grant Heslov

'A shamelessly inane confection.' – Sight and Sound

† The film took more than $151m worldwide at the box-office, $81m in the US.

Congo Crossing

US 1956 85m Technicolor
U-I (Howard Christie)

Assorted fugitives from justice gather at Congotanga, which has no extradition laws.

The poor man's Casablanca, quite good looking but dully written and presented.

w Richard Alan Simmons d Joseph Pevney ph Russell Metty m Joseph Gershenson

☆ George Nader, Virginia Mayo, Peter Lorre, Michael Pate, Rex Ingram Congorilla ★

US 1932 74m bw
Fox

A record of two years spent in the Belgian Congo by Mr and Mrs Martin Johnson.

Excellent exploration documentary of its time.

wd The Johnsons

'Replete with thrills, adventure and laughs, making withal for an excellent entertainment.' – Variety

Congress Dances ★

Germany 1931 92m bw
UFA (Erich Pommer)
original title: Der Kongress Tanzt

At the Congress of Vienna, Metternich attempts to decoy the Tsar with a countess; but the Tsar has a double.

Lubitsch-like treatment of sexual dalliance in high places; no doubt a stunner in its time, but rather faded now.

w Norbert Falk, Robert Liebmann d Erik Charell ph Carl Hoffmann m Werner Heymann ad Robert Herlth, Walter Röhrig

☆ Conrad Veidt (Prince Metternich), Willy Fritsch (Czar Alexander), Lilian Harvey (Christel), Lil Dagover (Countess), Henry Garat (Czar Alexander/Uralsky), Gib McLaughlin (Bibikoff)

'A revue more than a story ... grace, taste and a light hand.' – Variety

A Connecticut Yankee ★

US 1931 96m bw
Fox

A man dreams himself back to the court of King Arthur, and teaches the Middle Ages a thing or two about modern living.

First sound version of Mark Twain's classic fantasy, also filmed in 1921 and 1949. Creaky now, but amiable.

w William Conselman d David Butler ph Ernest Palmer

☆ Will Rogers, Maureen O'Sullivan, Myrna Loy, Frank Albertson, William Farnum

'Good deluxe comedy ... should draw substantial grosses.' – Variety

'Its laughter will ring through the centuries!'

A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court ★

US 1949 106m Technicolor
Paramount (Robert Fellows)

GB title: A Yankee in King Arthur's Court

Gossamer musical version of the above with the emphasis on song and knockabout.

Palatable, with the 'Busy Doin' Nothin' ' sequence the most memorable.

w Edmund Beloin d Tay Garnett ph Ray Rennahan m/ly Johnny Burke, Jimmy Van Heusen md Victor Young

☆ Bing Crosby, Rhonda Fleming, William Bendix, Cedric Hardwicke, Murvyn Vye

'The tacky pageantry is more suited to the opening of a West Coast supermarket than to an English court in the 6th century.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

Connecting Rooms

GB 1969 103m Technicolor
Telstar/Franklin Gollings (Harry Field)

In a seedy Bayswater boarding house, a dismissed schoolmaster befriends a failed cellist whose protégé is a sponging songwriter.

Aggressively dismal melodrama which would be hilarious if it were not so sadly slow and naïve.

wd Franklin Gollings play The Cellist by Marion Hart ph John Wilcox m John Shakespeare

☆ Bette Davis, Michael Redgrave, Alexis Kanner, Kay Walsh, Gabrielle Drake, Leo Genn, Olga Georges-Picot, Richard Wyler, Brian Wilde

The Connection

US 1961 110m bw
Shirley Clarke/Lewis Allen

Junkies hang around waiting for a fix and are filmed by a documentary unit.

Unattractive low-budgeter with occasional impressive moments.

w Jack Gelber play Jack Gelber d Shirley Clarke ph Arthur J. Ornitz m Freddie Redd ad Richard Sylbert

☆ Warren Finnerty, Jerome Raphael, Jim Anderson, Carl Lee, Roscoe Browne

'Spectacular as its barbaric passions and savage conquests!'

The Conqueror

US 1955 112m Technicolor
Cinemascope
Howard Hughes (Dick Powell)

A romance of the early life of Genghis Khan, who captures and is enamoured by the daughter of an enemy.

Solemn pantomime with a measure of bloodthirsty action and dancing girls, but featuring too many dull spots between, especially as the star is the most unlikely of eastern warriors and the production values careful but not too steady.

w Oscar Millard d Dick Powell ph Joseph LaShelle, Leo Tover, Harry J. Wild m Victor Young

☆ John Wayne, Susan Hayward, Pedro Armendariz, Agnes Moorehead, Thomas Gomez, John Hoyt, William Conrad, Ted de Corsia, Lee Van Cleef

GENGHIS KHAN: 'This tartar woman is for me, and my blood says, take her!'

'Simply an oriental western.' – New York Times

'History has not been well served and nor has the popcorn public.' – Richard Hatch, Nation

'It's all that its makers wanted it to be.' – Manchester Guardian

'John Wayne as Genghis Khan – history's most improbable piece of casting unless Mickey Rooney were to play Jesus in King of Kings.' – Jack Smith, L.A. Times

† The location was Utah's Escalante Desert, and three local mountains were renamed Mount Wayne, Mount Hughes and Mount Powell. The desert had been used for atom bomb tests, and twenty-five years after the production, questions were asked when several members of the cast died of cancer

†† Wayne asked for his role. 'The way the screenplay reads, this is a cowboy picture, and that's how I am going to play Genghis Khan. I see him as a gunfighter.'

The Conqueror Worm: see Witchfinder General

The Conquerors

US 1932 88m bw
RKO (David O. Selznick)
TV title: Pioneer Builders

Nebraska settlers in the 1870s set the seeds of a banking empire.

Routine family epic with the star playing himself and his own grandson.

w Robert Lord story Howard Estabrook d William Wellman ph Edward Cronjager m Max Steiner

☆ Richard Dix, Ann Harding, Edna May Oliver, Guy Kibbee, Donald Cook, Julie Haydon, Jed Prouty

'As good as a depression story can be, which isn't much box office.' – Variety

'No Picture Has Ever Equalled 'Conquest'!'

Conquest ★★

US 1937 115m bw
MGM (Bernard Hyman)

GB title: Marie Walewska

The life of Napoleon's most enduring mistress.

Measured, dignified, and often rather dull historical fiction, lightened by excellent performances and production.

w Samuel Hoffenstein, Salka Viertel, S. N. Behrman, from a Polish play dramatized by Helen Jerome d Clarence Brown ph Karl Freund m Herbert Stothart ad Cedric Gibbons

☆ Greta Garbo, Charles Boyer, Reginald Owen, Alan Marshal, Henry Stephenson, Dame May Whitty, Leif Erickson

'For special first-run openings – and then the clean up.' – Variety

'Ornate, unexpectedly tasteful, carefully detailed – and lifeless.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

Charles Boyer; Cedric Gibbons

The Conquest of Everest ★

GB 1953 73m Technicolor
British Lion/Group 3/Countryman Films

Documentary on the successful 11th attempt on Everest, the expedition led by Colonel John Hunt.

A documentary with some fascinating footage of early expeditions, and of the detailed planning of the expedition, opening in a burst of patriotism as success followed the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II.

w Louis MacNeice d uncredited ph Thomas Stobart, George Lowe, Captain J. B. L. Noel m Arthur Benjamin md Muir Mathieson ed Adrian de Potier

☆ Meredith Edwards (narration)

'See how it will happen – in your lifetime!'

Conquest of Space

US 1954 80m Technicolor
Paramount (George Pal)

In 1980, the Americans have built a space station in the atmosphere, and plan a voyage to the moon but are sent to Mars instead.

So history catches up with science fiction. This sober prophecy looks good but very little happens and the result is as dull as it is bright and shiny.

w James O'Hanlon book Chesley Bonestell, Willy Ley d Byron Haskin ph Lionel Lindon m Van Cleeve ad Hal Pereira, James McMillan Johnson sp John P. Fulton, Irmin Roberts, Paul Lerpae, Ivyl Burks, Jan Domella

☆ Eric Fleming, Walter Brooke, Mickey Shaughnessy, William Hopper, Ross Martin

Conquest of the Air

GB 1940 71m bw
London Films/Alexander Korda

A history of man's discovery of the power of flight.

Curious schoolbook documentary, of historical interest.

w Hugh Gray, Peter Bezencenet d Zoltan Korda and others

☆ Laurence Olivier (Lunardi), Franklin Dyall, Henry Victor, Hay Petrie, John Turnbull

† Work began on the film in 1935, when it was planned as part of a series on land, sea and air transport through the ages. It was completed in 1937 but not released for another three years.

Conquest of the Planet of the Apes

US 1972 85m DeLuxe Todd-AO 35
TCF/APJAC (Arthur P. Jacobs)

In the 1990s, apes used as slaves revolt against their human masters.

Ragged science fiction in a series that was going rapidly downhill.

w Paul Dehn d J. Lee Thompson ph Bruce Surtees m Tom Scott ad Philip Jefferies ed Marjorie Fowler, Allan Jaggs

☆ Roddy McDowall, Don Murray, Ricardo Montalban, Natalie Trundy, Hari Rhodes, Severn Darden

'In spite of some crude allegorical pretensions, it can't really be considered seriously as more than another excuse for APJAC to get maximum wear out of an expensive set of costumes. Even on that score, the film falls down rather badly.' – Clyde Jeavons, MFB

† The film was fourth in the series that began with The Planet of the Apes, and continued with Beneath the Planet of the Apes and Escape from the Planet of the Apes. It was followed by Battle for the Planet of the Apes (qqv).

Conquest of the South Pole

GB 1989 95m colour
Jam Jar Films/Channel 4 (Gareth Wardell)

Five unemployed Glaswegian youths recreate Amundsen's expedition to Antarctica in a decaying urban landscape.
Awkward transfer to the screen of an impressionistic play.
w Gareth Wardell play Manfred Karge
d Gillies Mackinnon ph Sean Van Hales
m Guy Woolfenden ad Andy Harris
ed Stephen Singleton
☆ Stefan Rimkus, Ewen Bremner, Leonard O'Malley, Laura Girling, Gordon Cameron, Alastair Galbraith, John Michie, Julie-Kate Olivier Conrack ★

US 1974 106m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF (Martin Ritt, Irving Ravetch)

A young white teacher is assigned to an all-black school in South Carolina, and after some difficulty makes friends with children and parents.
Nostalgically mellow happy-film, lit by bright smiles all around.
w Irving Ravetch, Harriet Frank Jnr novel The Water Is Wide by Pat Conroy
d Martin Ritt ph John Alonzo m John Williams
☆ Jon Voight, Paul Winfield, Hume Cronyn, Madge Sinclair, Tina Andrews

'For all its craftsman-like virtues, it seems a conscious turning aside from the complexities of modern cinema to the simpler alternatives of yesteryear. Indeed, with underprivileged white children instead of black and Greer Garson substituting for Jon Voight, the film might have been made all of thirty years ago.' – John Raisbeck

'Thou Shalt Not Covet Thy Neighbor's Wife.'

Consenting Adults

US 1992 99m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Hollywood Pictures (Alan J. Pakula, David Permut)

A money-obsessed financial adviser accuses his friend of murdering his wife after a night in which they swopped partners.
A thriller that owes much to Hitchcock but is unable to maintain either interest or suspense.
w Matthew Chapman d Alan J. Pakula ph Stephen Goldblatt m Michael Small pd Carol Spier ed Sam O'Steen
☆ Kevin Kline, Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio, Kevin Spacey, Rebecca Miller, E. G. Marshall, Forest Whitaker

'Initially seems a little brainier than its brethren but soon gives way to the same cavernous lapses in logic and formula ending.' – Variety
'Nobody can do anything much to enliven this ponderous telling of a barely credible story and the result is curiously flat and unholding.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

The Consequences of Love ★★★

Italy 2004 104m colour
Artificial Eye/Fandango/Indigo/Medusa (Domenico Procacci, Nicola Giuliano, Francesca Cima, Angelo Curti)

original title: Le Conseguenze Dell'Amore

A punctilious middle-aged man lives a loney life of fixed routine in a Swiss hotel, which he leaves to bank millions of dollars for the Mafia.
Elegantly bleak study of isolation and exile and an ever-present dread; we gradually discover how the protagonist's life was stolen from him and the consequences of his deciding to act.
wd Paolo Sorrentino ph Luca Bigazzi
m Pasquale Catalano pd Lino Fiorito
ed Giogio Franchini
☆ Toni Servillo (Titta Di Girolamo), Olivia Magnani (Sofia), Adriano Giannini (Valerio), Angela Goodwin (Isabella), Raffaele Pisu (Carlo)

'Composed in a high arthouse manner, certainly, but what a treat it offers those who want to savour its highly singular style: a total immersion in Sorrentino's sensuous, scary sound and vision.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Consider Your Verdict

GB 1938 40m bw
Charter (John Boulting)

A juror proves an accused man not guilty by falsely confessing to the crime himself.
Fairly smart little entry into the feature film scene for the Boulting Brothers, from a popular radio play of the time.
w Francis Miller play Laurence Housman
d Roy Boulting ph D. P. Cooper
☆ Marius Goring, Manning Whiley, Olive Sloane, Hay Petrie, George Carney

Consolation Marriage

US 1931 62m bw
RKO

A wife keeps a stiff upper lip when her husband strays.
Ho-hum domestic drama with attempts at comedy relief.
w Humphrey Pearson d Paul Sloane
☆ Irene Dunne, Pat O'Brien, John Halliday, Matt Moore, Myrna Loy

'Fair entertainment; will satisfy with good stage support.' – Variety

'What conflict in the heart of a nun would make her break her vows?'

Conspiracy of Hearts ★

GB 1960 113m bw
Rank (Betty E. Box)

During World War II, Italian nuns smuggle Jewish children across the border from a nearby prison camp.
Highly commercial combination of exploitable sentimental elements: Germans, Jews, nuns, children, war, suspense. Remarkably, it gets by without causing nausea.
w Robert Presnell Jnr story Dale Pitt
d Ralph Thomas ph Ernest Steward
m Angelo Lavagnino
☆ Lilli Palmer, Sylvia Syms, Yvonne Mitchell, Albert Lieven, Ronald Lewis, Peter Arne, Nora Swinburne, Michael Goodliffe, Megs Jenkins, David Kossoff, Jenny Laird, George Coulouris, Phyllis Neilson-Terry
† The story was written by Adiran Scott. Because he was blacklisted at the time, Dale Pitt fronted for him.

'What You Know Could Kill You...'

Conspiracy Theory ⑤

US 1997 135m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (Joel Silver, Richard Donner)

A Manhattan taxi driver's obsessions, with government conspiracies and a beautiful lawyer, put his life in danger.
Ridiculously paranoid thriller that degenerates into an overlong chase movie.
w Brian Helgeland d Richard Donner ph John Schwartzman m Carter Burwell
pd Paul Sylbert ed Frank J. Urioste, Kevin Stitt ☆ Mel Gibson (Jerry Fletcher), Julia Roberts (Alice Sutton), Patrick Stewart (Dr Jonas), Cylk Cozart (Agent Lowry), Stephen Kahan, Terry Alexander

'Sporadically amusing but listless thriller that wears its humorous, romantic and political components like mismatched articles of clothing.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Conspirator

GB 1949 87m bw
MGM (Arthur Hornblow Jnr)

A guards officer, unknown to his young wife, is a communist spy.
Singularly awful romantic melodrama which never convinces or entertains for a moment.
w Sally Benson, Gerard Fairlie novel Humphrey Slater d Victor Saville ph F. A. Young m John Wooldridge
☆ Robert Taylor, Elizabeth Taylor, Harold Warrender, Robert Flemyng, Marie Ney

The Conspirators ★

US 1944 101m bw
Warner (Jack Chertok)

A Dutch underground leader escapes to Lisbon and clears up international intrigue.
Interestingly cast but often listless wartime melodrama, a doomed attempt to reprise Casablanca without Humphrey Bogart.
w Vladimir Pozner, Leo Rosten novel City of Shadows by Frederick Prokosch d Jean Negulesco ph Arthur Edeson m Max Steiner
☆ Hedy Lamarr, Paul Henreid, Sydney Greenstreet, Peter Lorre, Victor Francen, Carol Thurston, Vladimir Sokoloff, Joseph Calleia, Edward Ciannelli, Steve Geray, Kurt Katch, George Macready
SYDNEY GREENSTREET (AS QUINTANILLA): 'This may seem to you melodramatic, but indulge me, please, I like melodrama.'

'As exciting as baseball and almost as gentlemanly as cricket.' – New Statesman
'I enjoyed it as much as any Warner melodrama since Casablanca.' – Observer

Conspirators of Pleasure ★★ ⑥

Czech Republic/Switzerland/GB 1996 75m colour
ICA/Athanor/Pierre Assouline/Delfilm/Keith Griffiths/Koninck (Jaromir Kallista)

original title: Spiklenci slasti

In Prague, various people indulge in solitary acts of love which have unexpected consequences.
Surreal film on the way perversity interacts with normal life, odd and intriguing in its own perverse way.
wd Jan Svankmajer ph Miloslav Spála md Norbert Baxter pd Jan Svankmajer
ed Marie Zemanová
☆ Petr Meissel, Gabriela Wilhelmová, Barbora Hrzánová, Anna Wetlinská

'A Freudian shaggy-dog story that is as hilarious, idiosyncratic and terrifying as the most unspeakable sexual fantasy you've ever entertained. Yes, that good.' – Independent

Constans: see The Constant Factor

The Constant Factor ★

Poland 1980 91m Eastmancolor
Cinegate/PRF/Zespol Filmowy

original title: Constans

A precise idealist refuses to adjust to the petty corruptions of life.
Cool dissection of human fallibility.
wd Krzysztof Zanussi ph Slawomir Idziak
m Wojciech Kilar ad Tadeusz Wybult, Maciej Putowski ed Urszula Sliwinska, Ewa Smal ☆ Tadeusz Bradecki, Zofia Mrozowska, Malgorzata Zajaczkowska, Cezary Morawski, Witold Pyrkosz

'Love. At Any Cost.'

The Constant Gardener ★★ ⑦

US/GB/Canada/Germany 2005 129m colour
UIP/Focus/Scion/UKFC/Potboiler (Simon Channing Williams)

A British diplomat investigates the murder of his activist wife in Kenya.
Tense, hectic, involving thriller that scores polemical points about corruption involving drug companies' exploitation of Africa, but does so with blatant narrative contrivances.
w Jeffrey Caine novel John le Carré
d Fernando Meirelles ph César Charlone
m Alberto Iglesias pd Mark Tildesley
ed Claire Simpson
☆ Ralph Fiennes (Justin Quayle), Rachel Weisz (Tessa Quayle), Danny Huston (Sandy Woodrow), Bill Nighy (Sir Bernard Pellegrin), Pete Postlethwaite (Lorbeer), Hubert Koundé (Dr Arnold Bluhm), Gerard McSorley (Sir Kenneth Curtiss)

'There is real anger here, and a real sense that it is worthwhile striking back against wrongdoing. Its global sweep is exhilarating and boldly cinematic.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'Its curiosity toward the world is rare and unflagging. Think about it a day later, though, and its hectic swoop from romance to thriller to campaign manifesto leaves oddly little afterglow.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker

Rachel Weisz
Jeffrey Caine; Claire Simpson; Alberto Iglesias
Claire Simpson

The Constant Husband ★

GB 1955 88m Technicolor
British Lion/London Films (Frank Launder, Sidney Gilliat)

An amnesiac discovers that he is a multiple bigamist, still wanted by each of his five wives.
Flimsy comedy which never really gets going despite an attractive cast.
w Sidney Gilliat, Val Valentine d Sidney Gilliat ph Ted Scaife m Malcolm Arnold
☆ Rex Harrison, Kay Kendall, Margaret Leighton, Cecil Parker, Nicole Maurey, George Cole, Raymond Huntley, Michael Hordern, Eric Pohlmann, Robert Coote

The Constant Nymph ★

GB 1933 98m bw
Gaumont (Michael Balcon)

In the Tyrol, a composer leaves his rich wife for a schoolgirl suffering from a heart condition.
Archetypal romantic drama from Margaret Kennedy's book, first filmed in 1928 by the same producer (and then directed by Adrian Brunel, starring Ivor Novello and Mabel Poulton). A standard production of its time, which seems to have vanished with the literary copyright.
w Margaret Kennedy, Basil Dean, from their play based on her novel d Basil Dean
ph Max Greene m John Greenwood
☆ Brian Aherne, Victoria Hopper, Leonora Corbett, Lyn Harding, Mary Clare, Jane Baxter

'Beautifully done artistic success from England, of doubtful box office for America.' – Variety
'One can say that it has a beginning, a middle and an end, but it lacks something vital.' – E. V. Lucas, Punch

'He tried to divide his heart and broke theirs.'

The Constant Nymph ★

US 1943 112m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

A composer marries a rich woman without appreciating a young girl's love for him.
Artificially well-produced, overlong Hollywood version of a once famous romantic novel and play.
w Kathryn Scola d Edmund Goulding ph Tony Gaudio m Erich Wolfgang Korngold
☆ Charles Boyer, Joan Fontaine, Alexis Smith, Brenda Marshall, Charles Coburn, Dame May Whitty, Peter Lorre, Joyce Reynolds, Jean Muir, Edward Ciannelli, Montagu Love, André Charlot
♗ Joan Fontaine

'Hell wants him. Heaven won't take him. Earth needs him.'

Constantine ④

Germany/Australia/US 2005 121m Technicolor
Warner/Village Roadshow/Donners' Co./Batfilm/Weed Road/3 Arts (Lauren Shuler Donner, Benjamin Melniker, Michael E. Uslan, Erwin Stoff, Lorenzo Di Bonaventura, Akiva Goldsman)

A terminally-ill, chain-smoking exorcist and occult detective tries to stop Satan's son from invading the Earth with the aid of the Spear of Destiny.
Portentous, over-emphatic comic-book hokum, where even the dropping of a cigarette out of a taxi window is given cosmic significance. Its theological approach is fundamentalist with unorthodox trimmings. The devil does not have the best tunes here, but he and his minions have the better tailors.
w Kevin Brodbin, Frank Cappello DC Comics/Vertigo comic book Hellblazer d Francis Lawrence ph Philippe Rousselot m Brian Tyler, Klaus Badelt pd Naomi Shohan ed Wayne Wahrman ☆ Keanu Reeves (John Constantine), Rachel Weisz (Angela Dodson/Isabel Dodson), Shia LeBeouf (Chas), Djimon Hounsou (Midnite), Max Baker (Beeman), Pruitt Taylor Vince (Father Hennessy), Gavin Rossdale (Balthazar), Tilda Swinton (Gabriel), Peter Stormare (Satan)

'Overblown, overlong attempt – which falls just short of success – to make a movie dumber than Van Helsing.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

'There are expensive-looking FX scenes showing the damned souls writhing in hell. All they needed to do was train a camera on the cinema audience.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Consuming Passions

GB/US 1988 100m colour
Samuel Goldwyn/Euston Films (William Cartlidge)

By adding a new ingredient to chocolate – human flesh – a young man rises to the top of his profession.
Dire attempt to revive the tradition of Ealing comedy.
w Paul D. Zimmerman, Andrew Davies play Secrets by Michael Palin, Terry Jones d Giles Foster ph Roger Pratt m Richard Hartley pd Peter Lamont ed John Grover ☆ Vanessa Redgrave, Freddie Jones, Jonathan Pryce, Tyler Butterworth, Sammi Davis, Thora Hird, Prunella Scales

'A message from deep space. Who will be the first to go? A journey to the heart of the universe.'

Contact ★

US 1997 150m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/South Side Amusement

An astronomer picks up a signal from intelligent life on another planet.
After a brilliant beginning, an awe-inspiring journey through space, the film soon settles for sentimentality and psychobabble, being less interested in the consequences of the possibilities of alien contact than in self-help and exploring one's inner being.
w James V. Hart, Michael Goldenberg novel Carl Sagan d Robert Zemeckis ph Don Burgess m Alan Silvestri pd Ed Verreaux ed Arthur Schmidt
☆ Jodie Foster (Ellie Arroway), Matthew McConaughey (Palmer Joss), James Woods (Michael Kitz), John Hurt (S.R. Hadden), Tom Skerritt (David Drumlin), Angela Bassett (Rachel Constantine)

'A serious and sober piece of speculative fiction, designed to play off of apprehensions about the forthcoming millennium in a positive and uplifting manner.' – Variety

♗ sound

The Contact Man: see Alias Nick Beal

Container ③

Sweden 2006 74m bw
Metrodome/Memfis/Film i Vast/ (Lars Jonsson)

A man and a woman silently wander through an unnamed city, while a female voice on the soundtrack muses on her life and its predicaments.
Experimental, obscure and finally exasperating piece from a richly talented director who seems to have soured on conventional filmic narrative.
wd Lukas Moodysson ph Lukas Moodysson, Jesper Kurlandsky m Erik Holmquist, Jesper Kurlandsky ed Lukas Moodysson, Jesper Kurlandsky, Andreas Nilsoon
☆ Peter Lorentzon (The Man), Mariha Aberg (The Woman), Jena Malone (The Voice)
† Lukas Moodysson has described this film as 'a silent black-and-white film with sound.'

Conte D'Automne ★★

France 1998 112m colour
Artificial Eye/Films du Losange/La Sept (Margaret Ménégoz)

aka: An Autumn Tale

Friends of a lonely widow, who works as a wine grower in the Rhone valley, conspire to find her a new man.
Gently perceptive, witty drama, given a physical and spiritual autumnal setting, and one that is rooted in the realities of everyday life.
wd Eric Rohmer ph Diane Baratier m Claude Marti, Gérard Pansanel, Pierre Peyras, Antonello Salis ed Mary Stephen ☆ Marie Riviere (Isabelle), Béatrice Romand (Magali), Alain Libolt (Gérald), Didier Sandre (Etienne), Alexia Portal (Rosine), Stéphane Darmon (Léo), Aurélia Alcais (Emilia), Mathieu Davette (Grégoire), Yves Alcais (Jean-Jacques)

'Like Woody Allen, Rohmer may be remaking the same film again and again, but this time it's a great one.' – Ian Freer, Empire

Conte de Printemps ★★

France 1990 110m colour
Roissy Films/Films du Losange (Margaret Ménégoz)

aka: A Spring Tale

A teenage daughter, whose parents are separated, attempts to persuade her father to change girlfriends.
Witty, sophisticated comedy of manners.
wd Eric Rohmer ph Luc Pages m Beethoven, Schumann ed Lisa Garcia ☆ Anne Teyssedre, Hugues Quester, Florence Durrell, Eloise Bennett, Sophie Robin

Conte d'été ★

France 1996 114m colour
Artificial Eye/Films du Losange/La Sept (Françoise Etchegaray)

aka: A Summer's Tale

A young musician on holiday toys with the affections of three women.
Slight and inconsequential tale of an indecisive protagonist drifting through life, given a certain charm by the performances.
wd Eric Rohmer ph Diane Baratier m Philippe Eidel, Sébastien Erms ed Mary Stephen ☆ Melvil Poupaud, Amanda Langlet, Gwenaëlle Simon, Aurélia Nolin, Aimé Lefèvre, Alain Guellaff

'Fans of French cinema should delight in its playful and leisurely insights into the teenage condition.' – James Cameron-Wilson, Film Review

Conte d'hiver ★★

France 1992 114m bw
Artificial Eye/Films du Losange (Margaret Ménégoz)

aka: A Winter's Tale

A French hairdresser, waiting in hope for the man who fathered her child to return to her, has unsatisfactory relationships with two other men.
An enjoyable variation on the themes of Shakespeare's play, complete with happy ending and as little concerned with reality.
wd Eric Rohmer ph Luc Pages, Maurice Giraud m Sebastian Erms ed Mary Stephen ☆ Charlotte Very, Frederic Van Den Driessche, Michel Voletti, Hervé Furic, Ava Loraschi, Christiane Desbois, Rosette, Jean-Luc Revol

'Fittingly, Rohmer's winter story has an affirmative inner glow.' – Philip Strick, Sight and Sound

Contempt ★★★★

France/Italy 1963 103m Technicolor Franscope
Rome-Paris/Concordia/CCC (Carlo Ponti, Joseph E. Levine)

original title: Le Mépris

In Rome, a screenwriter has troubles with his wife as he tries to set up a film of The Odyssey with a philistine American producer.
A clever and engrossing account of a marital crisis and of film-making; in both, none of the principals are able to communicate with the others.
wd Jean-Luc Godard novel A Ghost at Noon by Alberto Moravia ph Raoul Coutard m Georges Delerue ed Agnès Guillemot, Lila Lakshmanan
☆ Brigitte Bardot (Camille Javal), Michel Piccoli (Paul Javal), Jack Palance (Jeremiah "Jerry" Prokosch), Fritz Lang (Himself), Giorgia Moll (Francesca Vanini), Jean-Luc Godard (Lang's Assistant Director)

'Portentous without having anything to say, improvisatory without imagination, full of esoteric references without relevance and in-group allusions without interest. Its puppets behave with meaningless meanness if not with sheer meaninglessness.' – John Simon

'We are still subjected to the banalities of film "in" jokes, the fake spontaneity that is supposed to cover up the plotless pointlessness of his work and the meandering literalness of his camera.' – Judith Crist

† The disdain for producers shown in the film was mirrored by real events: Godard had his name removed from the Italian version owing to cuts imposed by the producers and other changes, which included redubbing to remove the different languages spoken by the participants, and a new musical score by Piero Piccioni.

'Sometimes you can assassinate a leader without firing a shot.'

The Contender ★

US 2000 126m colour
DreamWorks/Cinerenta/Cinecontender/Battleground/SE8 (Marc Frydman, Douglas Urbanski, Willi Baer, James Spies)

A Republican congressman digs up the dirt on the US president's choice of a new vice-president.
Political thriller that holds the attention for most of the time, before succumbing to sentimentality that obviates all its insights into wheeling and dealing in the corridors of power.
wd Rod Lurie ph Denis Maloney m Larry Groupe pd Alexander Hammond ed Michael Jablow cos Matthew Jacobsen
☆ Joan Allen (Laine Hanson), Gary Oldman (Shelly Runyon), Jeff Bridges (President Jackson Evans), Sam Elliott (Kermit Newman), Christian Slater (Reginald Webster), William Petersen (Jack Hathaway), Philip Baker Hall (Oscar Billings), Saul Rubineck (Jerry Toliver)

'Engages in the cinematic equivalent of not inhaling. The result is only a contact high.' – Lisa Schwarzbaum, Entertainment Weekly

♗ Joan Allen; Jeff Bridges

Contest Girl: see The Beauty Jungle

Continental Divide

US 1981 103m Technicolor
Universal/Amblin (Bob Larson)

A national columnist finds himself banished to the wilds with a lady ornithologist studying the bald eagle.
Old-fashioned comedy, a cross between Bringing Up Baby and Woman of the Year. Not actually bad, but somewhat lacking in personality.
w Lawrence Kasdan d Michael Apted ph John Bailey m Michael Small ☆ John Belushi, Blair Brown, Allen Goorwitz, Carlin Glynn

Continuavamo a Chiamarlo Trinity: see Trinity Is Still My Name

Contraband ★★

GB 1940 92m bw
British National (John Corfield)

US title: Blackout

A Danish merchant captain and a girl in wartime London expose a gang of spies using a cinema as headquarters.
Enjoyable lightweight comedy melodrama on

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Hitchcock lines, reuniting the unlikely star team from The Spy in Black.
w Emeric Pressburger, Michael Powell, Brock Williams d Michael Powell ph F. A. Young ☆ Conrad Veidt, Valerie Hobson, Esmond Knight, Hay Petrie, Raymond Lovell, Harold Warrender, Charles Victor, Manning Whiley
'A light romantic comedy with bondage overtones.' – Ken Russell

The Contract ★★

Poland 1980 111m colour
Cinegate/PRF/Zespol Filmowy
original title: Kontrakt
Despite the reluctance of a couple to marry, the groom's father celebrates with a lavish reception.
Comic and satirical look at Polish high life.
wd Krzysztof Zanussi ph Slawomir Idziak m Wojciech Kilar ad Tadeusz Wybult ed Urszula Sliwinska, Ewa Smal ☆ Maja Komorowska, Tadeusz Lomnicki, Magda Jaroszowna, Krzysztof Kilberger, Leslie Caron

The Convent

US 2000 84m colour
Alpine (Jed Nolan)
Highschool students break into a deserted convent where, according to legend, forty years earlier a girl had slaughtered everyone.
Lurid and risibly ludicrous horror, with an excess of gore, cheap effects and jokes, bad acting and demon nuns.
w Chaton Anderson d Mike Mendez ph Jason Lowe m Joey Bishara pd Robert E. Hummel ed John Rosenberg
☆ Adrienne Barbeau (Adult Christine), Joanna Canton (Clarissa), Coolio (Officer Starkey), Megahn Perry (Monica 'Mo'), Jason Dax Miller (Chad), Richard Trapp (Frijole), Liam Kyle Sullivan (Brant), Alison Dunbar (Davina), Kelly Mantle (Dickie-Boy), David Gunn (Saul), Jim Golden (Biff)

Convention City ★

US 1933 78m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)
Extra-marital fun and games at a Chicago convention.
Amusing and rather risqué comedy which helped to bring down on Hollywood the wrath of the Legion of Decency.
w Robert Lord d Archie Mayo ph William Reese
☆ Joan Blondell, Guy Kibbee, Adolphe Menjou, Dick Powell, Mary Astor, Frank McHugh, Ruth Donnelly, Hugh Herbert, Hobart Cavanaugh
'Not a dull foot ... probably the fastest complex comedy of the year and a certain money picture.' – Variety

The Conversation ★★★

US 1974 113m Technicolor
Paramount/Francis Ford Coppola
A bugging device expert lives only for his work, but finally develops a conscience.
Absorbing but extremely difficult to follow in detail, this personal, timely (in view of Watergate), Kafkaesque suspense story centres almost entirely on director and leading actor, who have a field day.
wd Francis Ford Coppola ph Bill Butler m David Shire pd Dean Tavoularis ed Walter Murch, Rcihard Chew ☆ Gene Hackman (Harry Caul), John Cazale (Stan), Allen Garfield (Bernie Moran), Frederic Forrest (Mark), Cindy Williams (Ann)
'A private, hallucinatory study in technical expertise and lonely guilt.' – Sight and Sound
'A terrifying depiction of a ransacked spirit.' – New Yorker, 1977
'Alert, truthful, unarty and absolutely essential viewing.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News † Regions 1 and 2 DVDs include commentary by Francis Ford Coppola, and by Walter Murch.
best picture; Francis Ford Coppola (as writer)

Conversation Piece

Italy/France 1974 121m Technicolor Todd-AO 35
Rusconi/Gaumont (Giovanni Bertolucci)
original title: Gruppo di Famiglia in un Interno
When a reclusive professor is persuaded to let his top floor to a young couple he is brought face to face with his latent homosexuality and his approaching death.
Death in Venice revisited, but with much less style and even more obscurity.
w Luchino Visconti, Suso Cecchi d'Amico, Enrico Medioli d Luchino Visconti ph Pasqualino de Santis m Franco Mannino
☆ Burt Lancaster, Helmut Berger, Claudia Marsani, Silvana Mangano

'There are two sides to every love story.'

Conversations with Other Women ★ 7

UK/US 2006 84m
Revelation Films/Fabrication Films/Gordonstreet Pictures (Kerry Barden, Ram Bergman, Bill McCutchen)
An unnamed couple meet at a wedding in New York, then spend the night together.
Talky two-hander with an ostentatious split-screen device used throughout; thankfully, the performances are strong enough to withstand the embellishment.
w Gabrielle Zevin d Hans Canosa ph Steve Yedlin m Jeff Eden Fair, Starr Parodi pd Jodie Lynn Tillen ad Scott MacDonald ed Hans Canosa
☆ Helena Bonham Carter (Woman), Aaron Eckhart (Man), Nora Zehetner (Young Woman), Erik Eidem (Young Man), Olivia Wilde (Bridesmaid), Brian Geraghty (Groom)
'That the movie holds viewers' attention despite its contrivances is a testament to the script and acting.' – John DeFore, Hollywood Reporter
'A case of old wine in a new bottle.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety † A single-frame version was cut for television.

Convict 99 ★

GB 1938 91m bw
Gainsborough (Edward Black)
A seedy schoolmaster accidentally becomes a prison governor and lets the convicts run the place.
Patchily funny if overlong and in some ways rather serious Will Hay comedy, not quite typical of him.
w Marriott Edgar, Val Guest, Ralph Smart, Jack Davies d Marcel Varnel ph Arthur Crabtree md Louis Levy ad Vetchinsky ed R. E. Dearing ☆ Will Hay, Graham Moffatt, Moore Marriott, Googie Withers, Garry Marsh, Peter Gawthorne, Basil Radford, Kathleen Harrison

Convicts Four ★

US 1962 106m bw
Allied Artists-Lubin-Kaufman (A. Ronald Lubin) original and GB title: Reprieve
A convict reprieved from the electric chair spends eighteen years in prison, becomes a painter, and is rehabilitated.
Odd and unsatisfactory mixture of documentary, melodrama, sentimentality and character study, with stars unexpectedly popping in for cameo appearances. Something worthier was obviously intended.
wd Millard Kaufman autobiography John Resko ph Joseph Biroc m Leonard Rosenman
☆ Ben Gazzara, Vincent Price, Rod Steiger, Broderick Crawford, Stuart Whitman, Ray Walston, Jack Kruschen, Sammy Davis Jnr

Convoy ★

GB 1940 90m bw
Ealing (Sergei Nolbandov)
A German pocket battleship menaces a British convoy, and a merchant ship sacrifices itself to prevent disaster.
Fluent British war film of the early days, the only substantial work of a much vaunted director who was subsequently killed.
w Pen Tennyson, Patrick Kirwan d Pen Tennyson ph Gunther Krampf, Roy Kellino m Ernest Irving
☆ Clive Brook, John Clements, Edward Chapman, Judy Campbell, Penelope Dudley Ward, Edward Rigby, Allan Jeayes, Albert Lieven

'Kristofferson and MacGraw...ain't nothin' gonna get in their way!'

Convoy ★

US 1978 110m DeLuxe Panavision
UA/EMI (Robert M. Sherman)
A folk hero truck driver survives several crashes and his policeman nemesis.
A virtually plotless anthology of wanton destruction. Too noisy to sleep through.
w B. W. L. Norton, based on the song by C. W. McCall d Sam Peckinpah ph Harry Stradling Jnr m Chip Davis
☆ Kris Kristofferson, Ali MacGraw, Ernest Borgnine, Burt Young, Madge Sinclair
'There's a whole lot of nothing going on here ... strictly a summer popcorn picture for the nondiscriminating.' – Variety
'Roughly as much fun as a ride on the New Jersey turnpike with the window open. It not only numbs the brain but pollutes the senses.' – Richard Schickel, Time

Les Convoyeurs Attendent ★★

France/Belgium/Switzerland 1999 94m bw Entertainment/K-Star/K2/RTBF/CAB/SSR (Dominique Janne)
aka: The Carriers Are Waiting
Desperate to win a car in a competition, a moped-riding newspaper photographer forces his teenage son to attempt the world record for opening and closing a door for 24 hours.
Quirky, dark-tinged comedy of a dysfunctional father that still somehow manages to celebrate the pleasures of family life.
w Emmanuelle Bada, Benoit Mariage, Jean-Luc Seigle d Benoit Mariage ph Philippe Guilbert m Stéphane Huguenin, Yves Sanna ad Chris Cornil ed Philippe Bourgueil ☆ Benoit Poelvoorde (Roger), Morgane Simon (Luise), Bouli Lanners (Coach), Dominique Baeyens (Madeleine), Philippe Grand'Henry (Felix), Jean-Francois Devigne (Michel), Lisa LaCroix (Jocelyne), Philippe Nahon (Overseer), Edith Lemerdy (Edith), Patrick Audin (Patrick)
'As moving and as thought-provoking a film as you would hope to see, offering a unique and insightful sideways glance at the world we live in.' – James Mottram, Film Review

Coogan's Bluff ★★

US 1968 94m Technicolor
Universal (Don Siegel)
An Arizona sheriff takes an escaped killer back to New York, and when the man escapes uses Western methods to recapture him.
Violent, well-done police story which inspired the TV series McCloud.
w Herman Miller, Dean Riesner, Howard Rodman d Don Siegel ph Bud Thackery m Lalo Schifrin
☆ Clint Eastwood, Lee J. Cobb, Susan Clark, Don Stroud, Tisha Sterling, Betty Field, Tom Tully

The Cook, the Thief, His Wife & Her Lover ★★

GB/France 1989 124m colour Cinemascope
Palace/Allarts Cook/Erato Films (Kees Kasander)
A coarse gangster holds court in a fashionable restaurant while his wife conducts a passionate affair in the kitchens with a fellow diner.
Elegant, stylized, painterly and extremely brutal variation on a Jacobean revenge tragedy, though some have seen it as a political satire on our materialistic times.
wd Peter Greenaway ph Sacha Vierny m Michael Nyman pd Ben Van Os, Jan Roelfs ed John Wilson
☆ Richard Bohringer, Michael Gambon, Helen Mirren, Alan Howard, Tim Roth, Ciaran Hinds, Gary Olsen, Ewan Stewart, Roger Ashton Griffiths, Ron Cook, Liz Smith
'Watching this picture is like being trapped in a nightmare art-history seminar: we sit there, cowed and miserable, as the teacher spews high-toned abstractions and dares us, smirkingly, to raise a common-sense objection – we know we'll be ridiculed if we do.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker

Cookie

US 1989 93m DuArt
Warner/Lorimar (Laurence Mark)
A gangster's daughter shows that she has her father's dubious skills.
Lame drama of family relationships in gangland setting.
w Nora Ephron, Alice Arlen d Susan Seidelman ph Oliver Stapleton m Thomas Newman pd Michael Haller ad Bill Groom ed Andrew Mondshein
☆ Peter Falk, Dianne Wiest, Emily Lloyd, Michael V. Gazzo, Brenda Vaccaro, Adrian Pasdar, Lionel Stander, Jerry Lewis, Bob Gunton, Ben Rayson, Ricki Lake
'Cookie has the feel of a worn-out vehicle grinding to a halt.' – Pam Cook, MFB

'Where there's a will, there's a way.'

Cookie's Fortune ★★

US 1999 159m DeLuxe
Alliance/October/Sandcastle 5/Elysian Dreams (Robert Altman, Etchie Stroh) Fearing scandal in a small Southern town, a woman attempts to cover up the suicide of her wealthy aunt, which leads to a black oddjob man being accused of murder.

Enjoyable, lesiurely, ramshackle social comedy that gives its characters room to blossom and reveal their humanity.
w Anne Rapp d Robert Altman ph Toyomichi Kurita m David A. Stewart pd Stephen Altman ed Abraham Lim
☆ Glenn Close (Camille Orcutt), Julianne Moore (Cora Duvall), Liv Tyler (Emma Duvall), Chris O'Donnell (Jason Brown), Charles S. Dutton (Willis Richland), Patricia Neal (Jewel Mae 'Cookie' Orcutt), Ned Beatty (Lester Boyle), Courtney B. Vance (Otis Tucker), Donald Moffat (Jack Palmer), Lyle Lovett (Manny Hood), Danny Darst (Billy Cox), Ruby Wilson (Josie Martin)
'May or not be Robert Altman's best film in years, but it is certainly his most pleasurable.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Cool and Crazy: see Heftig og Begeistret

'Seven savage punks on a binge of violence.'

The Cool and the Crazy

US 1958 78m bw
AIP/Imperial Productions (E. C. Rhoden Jnr)
A rebellious high-school student causes havoc after he persuades his fellow students to smoke marijuana.
Typical teen drive-in drama of its time, never less than hysterical and acted by a cast who look as if they've left puberty far behind.
w Richard C. Sarafian d William Witney ph Harry Birch m Raoul Kraushaar ed Helene Turner
☆ Scott Marlowe, Gigi Perreau, Dick Bakalyan, Dick Jones

'When a girl has a heart of stone, there's only one way to melt it. Just add Ice.'

Cool as Ice

US 1991 93m DeLuxe
Universal/Alive (Carolyn Pfeiffer, Lionel Wigram)
A new biker in town helps save the parents of the girl he fancies when they are threatened by gangsters.
A failed attempt to make a film star out of a white rapper.
w David Stenn d David Kellogg ph Janusz Kaminski m Stanley Clarke pd Nina Ruscio ed Debra Goldfield, Caroline Biggerstaff
☆ Vanilla Ice, Kristin Minter, Michael Gross, Sydney Lassick, Dody Goodman, Naomi Campbell, Candy Clark
'Universal's hopes of springing another Elvis Presley on the screen are, at best, laughable.' – Variety

Cool Breeze

US 1972 102m Metrocolor
MGM/Penelope (Gene Corman)
A miscellaneous gang of crooks is rounded up to commit a robbery, which ultimately fails.
Third, all-black remake of The Asphalt Jungle (the others being The Badlanders and Cairo*). Fashionable violence against a Los Angeles backdrop, but not at all memorable.*
wd Barry Pollack ph Andy Davis m Solomon Burke ☆ Thalmus Rasulala, Judy Pace, Jim Watkins, Raymond St Jacques, Lincoln Kilpatrick

'What we've got here is a failure to communicate.'

Cool Hand Luke ★★

US 1967 126m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Jalem (Gordon Carroll)
Sentenced to two years' hard labour with the chain gang, a convict becomes a legend of invulnerability but is eventually shot during an escape.
Allegedly a Christ-allegory, this well-made and good-looking film is only partially successful as an entertainment; slow stretches of soul-searching alternate with brutality, and not much acting is possible.
w Donn Pearce, Frank R. Pierson novel Donn Pearce d Stuart Rosenberg ph Conrad Hall m Lalo Schifrin
☆ Paul Newman, George Kennedy, Jo Van Fleet, J. D. Cannon, Lou Antonio, Robert Drivas, Strother Martin, Clifton James
'May be the best American film of 1967.' – John Simon
George Kennedy
Donn Pearce, Frank R. Pierson; Lalo Schifrin; Paul Newman

Cool Mikado

GB 1963 81m colour
UA/Gilbert and Sullivan Operas (Harold Baim)
In Japan, the son of an American judge is kidnapped when he falls in love with a girl engaged to a gangster.
An updated and unsuccessful version of the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, one that allows little scope for its cast of comedians.
w Michael Winner, Maurice Browning, Lew Schwartz operetta The Mikado by W. S. Gilbert and Arthur Sullivan d Michael Winner ph Denys Ayling, Martin Curtis md John Barry pd Derek Barrington ed Frank Galvin
☆ Frankie Howerd, Stubby Kaye, Tommy Cooper, Dennis Price, Mike Winters, Bernie Winters, Lionel Blair, Tsai Chin, Kevin Scott, Glen Mason, Peter Murray, Dermot Walsh, The John Barry Seven
'Not only was it the worst film ever made, but was the one production in show-business that I'm positively ashamed to have appeared in.' – Frankie Howerd

The Cool Ones

US 1967 96m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (William Conrad)
Former pop singer makes a comeback.
Zazzy showbiz saga with ear-splitting track, quite professionally assembled.
w Joyce Geller d Gene Nelson ph Floyd Crosby m Ernie Freeman ☆ Roddy McDowall, Debbie Watson, Robert Coote, Phil Harris, Nita Talbot Cool Runnings ★

US 1993 97m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Dawn Steel)
A Jamaican athlete who fails to qualify for the Olympics decides to compete by forming a bobsled team with the aid of a white coach living on the island.
Based on the true story of the Jamaican bobsled team in the 1988 Olympics, an amiable, good-natured comedy of some charm.
w Lynn Siefert, Tommy Swerdlow, Michael Goldberg story Lynn Siefert, Michael Ritchie d Jon Turteltaub ph Phedon Papamichael m Hans Zimmer pd Stephen Marsh ed Bruce Green
☆ John Candy, Leon, Doug E. Doug, Malik Yoba, Rawle D. Lewis, Raymond Barry, Larry Gilman, Peter Outerbridge, Paul Coeur
'The offbeat, fact-based saga is enlivened by the perfect balance of humor, emotion and insight.' – Variety

Cool World

US 1992 102m Technicolor
Blue Dolphin/Paramount (Frank Mancuso Jnr)
A cartoonist and his creations flit in and out of the real world and the Cool World of his imagination.
Dreary attempt to marry live action and cartoon characters, with a plot obsessed by the possibility of sex between the two, which seems nothing to get excited about.
w Michael Grais, Mark Victor d Ralph Bakshi ph John A. Alonzo m Mark Isham, John Dixon pd Michael Corenblith ed Steve Mirkovich, Annamaria Szanto
☆ Kim Basinger, Gabriel Byrne, Brad Pitt, Michele Abrams, Deirdre O'Connell, Janni Brenn-Lowen
'A combination funhouse ride/acid trip that will prove an ordeal for most visitors in the form of trial by animation. Visually dazzling but utterly soulless.' – Variety

'Love ...you have to play to win.'

The Cooler ★★ (8)

US 2002 DeLuxe Panavision
ContentFilm/Gryphon/Dog Pond/Pierce-Williams/Furst Films
In Las Vegas, a casino boss gets angry when a man forced to work for him, transferring his bad luck to successful gamblers, loses his ability when he falls in love.
Astringent comedy about two losers finding themselves amid the hectic, violent world of big-time gambling; the leading performances hit the jackpot.
w Frank Hannah, Wayne Kramer d Wayne Kramer ph James Whitaker m Mark Isham pd Toby Corbett ed Arthur Coburn
☆ William H. Macy (Bernie Lootz), Alec Baldwin (Shelly Kaplow), Maria Bello (Natalie Belisario), Shawn Hatosy (Mikey), Ron Livingston (Larry Sokolov), Paul Sorvino (Buddy Stafford), Estella Warren (Charlene)
'Consistently funny, tough and intriguing picture.' – Philip French, Observer

Cooley High

US 1975 107m Movielab
Brent Walker/AIP (Steve Krantz)
The adventures of high-school students in Chicago of the mid-60s.
A lively first feature, full of energy but lacking in focus.
w Eric Monte d Michael Schultz ph Paul von Brack m Freddie Perren ad William B. Fosser ed Christopher Holmes ☆ Glynn Turman, Lawrence-Hilton Jacobs, Garrett Morris, Cynthia Davis, Corin Rogers, Maurice Leon Havis
'The promising debut of a very talented director, intermittently doing what he can with an uneven and somewhat routine script.' – Jonathan Rosenbaum, MFB
† The film was the basis of a US TV sitcom, What's Happening (1976–79).

Le Cop ★

France 1985 107m Eastmancolor Panavision
Cannon/Films 7/Editions 23 original title: Les Ripoux
A corrupt veteran cop is teamed with an incorruptible recruit.
Enjoyably comic exposé, much admired by the French.
w Claude Zidi story Simon Michael d Claude Zidi ph Jean-Jacques Tarbes m Francis Lai ad Françoise de Leu ed Nicole Saunier
☆ Philippe Noiret, Thierry Lhermitte, Regine, Grace de Capitani, Claude Brosset, Albert Simono

Cop

US 1987 110m colour
Entertainment/Atlantic (James B. Harris)
A cop tracks down a serial killer to the detriment of his marriage and his relationship with his colleagues.
Tough, violent but not particularly memorable thriller.
wd James B. Harris novel Blood on the Moon by James Ellroy ph Steve Dubin m Michel Colombier pd Gene Rudolf ed Anthony Spano
☆ James Woods, Lesley Ann Warren, Charles Durning, Charles Haid, Raymond J. Barry, Randi Brooks, Steven Lambert, Christopher Wynne, Jan McGill

Le Cop 2

France 1989 108m Eastmancolor
Gala/Films A/Orly/Sedif/TF1 (Pierre Gauchet) original title: Ripoux contre ripoux
Two corrupt policemen, suspended from duty, turn the tables on the crooks and cops who try to put them out of the force.
Weak sequel, with a complicated but uninteresting plot and nowhere to go for its central characters.
w Simon Michael, Claude Zidi, Didier Kaminka d Claude Zidi ph Jean-Jacques Tarbes m Francis Lai ad Françoise Deleu ed Nicole Saunier
☆ Philippe Noiret, Thierry Lhermitte, Guy Marchand, Line Renaud, Grace de Capitani, Michel Aumont, Jean-Pierre Castaldi, Jean-Claude Brialy

'One kid's fantasy. One cop's nightmare.'

Cop and a Half

US 1993 97m DeLuxe
Universal/Imagine (Paul Maslansky)
An eight-year-old boy, witness to a murder, gets to be a cop for a day.
Ghastly, sentimental comedy aimed at the lowest common demoninator.
w Arne Olsen d Henry Winkler ph Bill Butler m Alan Silvestri pd Maria Caso ed Daniel Hanley, Roger Tweten, C. Timothy O'Meara
☆ Burt Reynolds, Norman D. Golden II, Ruby Dee, Holland Taylor, Ray Sharkey, Sammy Hernandez, Frank Sivero
'Unashamedly caters to children's crudest fantasies and leaves the rest of the world at a loss. There are few adult pleasures to be had.' – Sight and Sound

Cop au Vin ★

France 1984 110m Eastmancolor Panavision
Virgin/MK2/Marin Karmitz original title: Poulet au Vinaigre
An unorthodox police inspector investigates two deaths in a small provincial town.
Glossy thriller exposing the pettiness of the bourgoisie.
w Dominique Roulet, Claude Chabrol novel Un Mort En Trop by Dominique Roulet d Claude Chabrol ph Jean Rabier m Matthieu Chabrol ad Françoise Benoît-Fresco ed Monique Fardoulis
☆ Jean Poiret, Stéphane Audran, Michel

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Bouquet, Jean Topart, Lucas Blevaux, Pauline Lafont, Caroline Cellier, Josephine Chaplin

'A Vicious, Sadistic Game...'

Cop Killer

Italy 1983 101m colour
Arrow/Jean Vigo/RAI (Elda Ferri)

GB title: Corrupt
aka: Order of Death

A battle of wills develops between a corrupt New York cop and a young punk who confesses to being a serial killer.

A curiosity, with its duel between Keitel's violent cop, obsessive about order, and the overmatched Lydon (aka Johnny Rotten of the Sex Pistols), as an anarchic fantasist; there are vague echoes of the far superior Performance amid the wallowing in guilt and suffering.

w Ennio De Concini, Hugh Fleetwood, Roberto Faenza novel The Order of Death by Hugh Fleetwood d Roberto Faenza ph Giuseppe Pinori m Ennio Morricone ad Giantito Burchiellaro ed Nino Baragli

☆ Harvey Keitel (Lt Fred O'Connor), John Lydon (Leo Smith), Nicole Garcia (Lenore), Leonard Mann (Bob), Sylvia Sidney (Mrs Smith)

'There are enough oddball distractions among the schematics of sin and confession... to raise the film to amiable level of eccentric esoterica.' – Paul Taylor, MFB

'No One Is Above The Law.'

Cop Land ★★ (5)

US 1997 105m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Woods Entertainment (Cary Woods, Cathy Konrad, Ezra Swerdlow)

A sheriff in a small New Jersey town that is home to many policemen investigates the deaths of two youths at the hands of a cop.

A thriller interesting mainly for Stallone's attempt to get away from his usual macho roles by playing an overweight, deaf sheriff, though it is never less than enjoyable.

wd James Mangold ph Eric Edwards m Howard Shore pd Lester Cohen ed Craig McKay

☆ Sylvester Stallone (Freddy Heflin), Harvey Keitel (Ray Donlan), Ray Liotta (Gary Figgis), Robert De Niro (Moe Tilden), Peter Berg (Joey Randone), Janeane Garofalo (Deputy Cindy Betts), Robert Patrick (Jack Rucker), Michael Rapaport (Murray Babitch), Annabella Sciorra (Liz Randone), Noah Emmerich (Deputy Bill Geisler), Cathy Moriarty

'Has the feel of a classic frontier Western in which the amiable sheriff is forced to wake up to the dastardly doings of the community's most prominent citizens.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Cop on a Mission

Hong Kong 2001 105m colour
Film Power/Storm Riders (Lawrence Wong, Bowie Lau)

In Hong Kong, an undercover cop infiltrates a triad gang and discovers that he prefers the gangster life.

Unoriginal thriller that is a pale copy of modern American gangster movies, particularly those of Martin Scorsese; it features more scenes of a shirtless or naked Daniel Wu than the narrative needs.

w Jing Wong d Marco Mak action director Ma Yuk Sing

☆ Daniel Wu (Mike), Eric Tsang (Tin), Suki Kwan (Pauline), David Lee (Chung)

Copacabana

US 1947 91m bw
UA/Sam Coslow

A quick-thinking agent forms two acts out of one client, which makes things awkward when both are needed at once.

Thinly produced comedy with both stars doing what is expected of them in surroundings less glamorous than those to which they were previously accustomed.

w Allen Boretz, Howard Harris story Laslo Vadnay d Alfred E. Green ph Bert Glennon m Edward Ward ch Larry Ceballos ed Philip Cahn

☆ Groucho Marx, Carmen Miranda, Steve Cochran, Gloria Jean, Andy Russell

Copper Canyon

US 1949 84m Technicolor
Paramount

After the Civil War, Southern veterans trying to rebuild their homes are helped by a gunslinger.

Shiny unpersuasive Western with stars ill at ease.

w Jonathan Latimer d John Farrow

☆ Ray Milland, Hedy Lamarr, Macdonald Carey, Mona Freeman, Harry Carey Jnr

Cops ★★★

US 1922 20m (24 fps) bw silent
First National/Comique Film (Joseph M. Schenck)

An innocent disrupts a parade and is pursued by a horde of policemen.

The perfect Keaton short, a careful assembly of perfectly timed gags.

wd Buster Keaton ph Elgin Lessley ed Buster Keaton

☆ Buster Keaton (The Young Man), Virginia Fox (Mayor's Daughter)

'Will these cops measure up as crooks?'

Cops and Robbers ★

US 1973 89m DeLuxe
UA/EK Corp (Elliott Kastner)

Two New York cops turn crook and pull off a job for the Mafia.

Trendily anti-establishment comedy, quite snappy and smart when you can follow it.

w Donald E. Westlake d Aram Avakian ph David L. Quaid m Michel Legrand

☆ Cliff Gorman, Joe Bologna, Dick Ward, Shepperd Strudwick, Ellen Holly, John P. Ryan

Cops and Robbersons

US 1994 93m Technicolor
TriStar/Channel (Ned Tanen, Nancy Graham Tanen, Ronald L. Schwary)

Two cops move in with a suburban family to keep watch on a forger who lives next door.

Tame, formulaic comedy that pulls its punches in its depiction of the conventionalities of middle-class life, although Palance, as a cop who eats his food with a cigarette stuck in the corner of his mouth, provides moments of pleasure.

w Bernie Somers d Michael Ritchie ph Gerry Fisher m William Ross pd Stephen J. Lineweaver ed Stephen A. Rotter, William S. Scharf

☆ Chevy Chase, Jack Palance, Dianne Wiest, Robert Davi, David Barry Gray, Jason James Richter, Fay Masterson, Miko Hughes

'Best suited to a juvenile crowd who will thrive on the obvious nature of the proceedings.' – Variety

Cops vs Thugs ★★

Japan 1975 101m colour
Toei

video title: Kenkeitai Soshiki Boryoku

In Kurashima in the early 60s, a policeman tries to clean up the city and end the close relationships of cops, yakuza and officials.

Violent and scarifying depiction of the corruption of a city that claims to be based on fact; because of its hectic pace and interlocking stories, it sometimes loses the plot and seems to prefer the corrupt cop to the honest one.

w Kazoo Kasahara d Kinji Fukasaku ph Shigeru Akatsuka m Toshiaki Tsushima

☆ Bunta Sagawara (Detective Kuno), Ken Takakura, Hiroki Matsukata, Mikio Narita, Tatsuo Umemiya, Nobuo Kaneko

Copycat ★

US 1995 123m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/New Regency/Monarchy (Arnon Milchan, Mark Tarlov)

A female detective and an agoraphobic psychologist team up to track down a serial killer who copies the style of murders carried out by other serial killers

A well-acted thriller on over-familiar themes; the performances do not compensate for its sense of staleness.

w Ann Biderman, David Madsen d Jon Amiel ph Laszlo Kovacs m Christopher Young pd Jim Clay ed Alan Heim, Jim Clark

☆ Sigourney Weaver, Holly Hunter, Dermot Mulroney, William McNamara, Harry Connick Jnr, J. E. Freeman, Will Patton, John Rothman

'An upscale suspenser by virtue of its classy cast, its extremely bright characters and the chillingly intellectual approach of the murderer, this shrewdly devised pulse-pounder may actually be too refined to click in a big way with mass audiences.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'This all-too-aptly titled film suggests it is time to find another dead horse to flog.' – Kim Newman, Empire

Coquette

US 1929 75m bw
Mary Pickford

A Southern belle has a flirtatious nature.

Disappointing talkie start for a first lady of the silents; she did not recover from it, despite her Oscar.

w John Grey, Allen McNeil, Sam Taylor play George Abbott, Anne Preston d Sam Taylor

☆ Mary Pickford, Johnny Mack Brown, Matt Moore, William Janney

♟ Mary Pickford

Le Corbeau ★★

France 1943 92m bw
L'Atelier Français

US title: The Raven

Poison pen letters disturb a small provincial town.

Impressively characterized whodunnit with the usual French qualities of detail and discretion. Remade in Hollywood to less effect as The Thirteenth Letter (qv).

w Louis Chavance d Henri-Georges Clouzot ph Nicholas Hayer m Tony Aubain

☆ Pierre Fresnay, Pierre Larquey, Ginette Leclerc, Hélène Manson

'By no means as malign or as brilliant as it's cracked up to be, but a sour, clever, amusing job.' – James Agee

'Earth has a deadline.'

The Core ★

US 2003 136m DeLuxe Panavision
Paramount (David Foster, Cooper Layne, Sean Bailey)

After the Earth's inner core stops rotating, a expedition is mounted to bore down to it and restart it with a nuclear explosion.

Implausible science-fiction that nevertheless exerts a certain pull.

w Cooper Layne, John Rogers d Jon Amiel ph John Lindley m Christopher Young pd Philip Harrison ed Terry Rawlings sp Garry Elmendorf

☆ Aaron Eckhart (Dr Josh Keyes), Hilary Swank (Major Rebecca 'Beck' Childs), Delroy Lindo (Dr Ed "Braz" Brazzelton), Stanley Tucci (Dr Conrad Zimsky), D.J. Qualls (Rat), Richard Jenkins (General Purcell), Tcheky Karyo (Dr Serge Levesque), Bruce Greenwood (Commander Richard Iverson), Alfre Woodard (Stickley)

'More palatable than most pictures of its ilk due to its keen awareness of its own preposterousness, a self-knowledge exuberantly expressed by a mostly live-wire cast.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

† The film cost $85m and took $31.1m at the US box office.

Coriolanus – Hero without a Country (dubbed)

Italy/France 1965 100m Eastmancolor Euroscope
Dorica/Explorer/CFFP (Diego Alchimede) original title: Coriolano, Eroe senza Patria
aka: Thunder of Battle

In a Rome riven by class conflict, its greatest general, Coriolanus, is exiled by the popular leaders.

Above-average Italian historical epic.

w Remigio Del Grosso d Giorgio Ferroni ph Augusto Tiezzi m Carlo Rustichelli ad Arrigo Equini ed Antonietta Zita

☆ Gordon Scott, Alberto Lupo, Lilla Brignone, Philippe Hersent, Rosalba Neri

The Corn Is Green ★

US 1945 118m bw
Warner (Jack Chertok)

In 1895 Miss Moffat starts a village school for Welsh miners, and after some tribulations sees one of them off to Oxford.

A very theatrical production with unconvincing sets and mannered acting, but the original play has its felicities.

w Casey Robinson, Frank Cavett play Emlyn Williams d Irving Rapper ph Sol Polito m Max Steiner ad Carl Jules Weyl

☆ Bette Davis, John Dall, Nigel Bruce, Joan Lorring, Rhys Williams, Rosalind Ivan, Mildred Dunnock, Arthur Shields

'It's very apparent that Hollywood isn't Wales ... but the film lingers in the memory anyway.' – New Yorker, 1978

† Remade as a TV movie in 1978, with Katharine Hepburn.

♙ John Dall; Joan Lorring

Cornered ★

US 1945 102m bw
RKO

After demobilization, a French-Canadian pilot tracks down the collaborationist responsible for the death of his wife.

Well-made but humourless revenge thriller.

w John Paxton story John Wexley

d Edward Dmytryk ph Harry J. Wild
m Roy Webb
☆ Dick Powell, Micheline Cheirel, Walter Slezak, Morris Carnovsky

Coroner Creek
US 1948 89m Cinecolor
Columbia (Harry Joe Brown)

A Western crusader tracks down the man behind a stagecoach raid.
Solid action Western between the A and B categories.
w Kenneth Gamet novel Luke Short
d Ray Enright
☆ Randolph Scott, Marguerite Chapman, George Macready, Sally Eilers, Edgar Buchanan, Barbara Reed, Wallace Ford, Forrest Tucker, Douglas Fowley

Corps Profond ★
France 1963 21m Technicolor
Delpire

A tour inside the human body by courtesy of micro-photography.
Spellbinding and educative documentary of a new kind, and just the right length; the later British imitation, The Body, outstayed its welcome.
wd Igor Barrière, Etienne Lalou

'Horror to make your hair stand on end!'

The Corpse Vanishes
US 1942 70m bw
Monogram (Sam Katzman)

A botanist kidnaps young brides for their body fluids, in the hope of reviving his dead wife.
An especially dreary example of Poverty Row horror.
w Harvey Gates d Wallace Fox
☆ Bela Lugosi, Frank Moran, Minerva Urecal, Luana Walters

Corridor of Mirrors
GB 1948 105m bw
Cartier-Romney-Apollo (Rudolph Cartier)

An eccentric art collector believes that he and his mistress are reincarnations of 400-year-old lovers in a painting; but they are separated by murder.
Pretentious melodrama of no urgent narrative interest, with all concerned sadly at sea.
w Rudolph Cartier, Edana Romney novel Chris Massie d Terence Young ph André Thomas m Georges Auric ad Terence Verity ed Douglas Myers ☆ Eric Portman, Edana Romney, Barbara Mullen, Hugh Sinclair

'It has aimed at Art. It is, in fact, Effect. Some members of the cast wander in and out of the scenes as if they are not quite sure what has happened to them. Their confusion is not beyond comprehension.' – MFB

'Tops In Terror!'

Corridors of Blood ★
GB 1958 86m bw
Producers' Associates (John Croydon)

original title: Doctor from Seven Dials
Seeking to discover anaesthetics, a Victorian doctor falls a prey to resurrection men.
Unpleasant but well-mounted semi-horror backed by strong cast and art direction.
w Jean Scott Rogers d Robert Day
ph Geoffrey Faithfull m Buxton Orr
ad Anthony Masters
☆ Boris Karloff, Christopher Lee, Finlay Currie, Frank Pettingell, Betta St John, Francis Matthews, Adrienne Corri, Marian Spencer
† Not released until 1964.

'An enchanting comedy comedy.'

Corrina, Corrina
US 1994 114m colour
Guild/New Line (Paula Mazur, Steve Tisch, Jessie Nelson)

In the late 1950s, a new housekeeper forms a motherly relationship with a nine-year-old girl, struck dumb by the death of her mother, and also becomes close to the girl's father.
A sentimental movie movie, which seems to have been mainly designed to sell its soundtrack album of the songs of the period.
wd Jessie Nelson ph Bruce Surtees
m Rick Cox pd Jeannine Claudia Oppewall ed Lee Percy ☆ Ray Liotta, Whoopi Goldberg, Tina Majorino, Wendy Crewson, Larry Miller, Jenifer Lewis, Erica Yohn, Joan Cusack, Don Ameche

'Hopelessly pedantic – chock full of lessons about grief, racism, and, so help us, God.' – Michael Sragow, New Yorker
'Like The Sound of Music remade as an AT & T commercial.' – Entertainment Weekly

'Cross the line… pay the price.'

Corrupt
US 1999 70m colour
Filmwerks/Ice-T/Imperial/Detonator (Tom Karnowski, Gary Schmoeller)

A gangster forces a rival's lover to sleep with him in order to save the life of her brother.
Atrocious, cheap-looking, foul-mouthed thriller, worse than you can possibly imagine, with clichéd gangsta-rap dialogue ("some day you gonna be proud to call y'self my bitch") and much tough-guy posturing by its cast. It doesn't end so much as stop, as if everyone, understandably, lost interest.
w Andrew Markell story Hannah Blue
d Albert Pyun ph Philip Alan Waters
m Ice-T, Tony Riparetti pd Nenad Pecur
ed Errin Vasquez
☆ Silkk the Shocker (M. J.), Ice-T (Corrupt), Tarsha Nicole Jones (Margo), Ernie Hudson Jnr (Miles), Karen Dyer (Jodi), T. J. Storm (Cinque), Tahitia (Lisa), Taylor Scott (Pammi), Jahi J. J. Zuri (Yazu), Romany Malco (Snackbar Dude), Vince Klyn (The Sayer)

Corrupt (1983): see Copkiller

The Corrupt Ones: see The Peking Medallion

Corruption
GB 1967 91m Technicolor
Columbia/Titan (Peter Newbrook)

A surgeon kills for pituitary gland fluid to restore his fiancée's beauty.
Highly derivative shocker with no inspiration of its own except an accumulation of gory detail.
w Donald and Derek Ford d Robert Hartford Davis ph Peter Newbrook m Bill McGuffie ☆ Peter Cushing, Sue Lloyd, Noel Trevarthen, Kate O'Mara, David Lodge

'You can't play by the rules when there aren't any.'

The Corruptor ★
US 1999 110m DeLuxe Panavision
New Line/Illusion (Dan Halsted)

A young New York cop whose beat is Chinatown discovers that his new Asian-American partner has links to the Triads.
Tough, street-smart thriller on familiar themes of integrity and betrayal, given a fresh twist by its setting and its subject-matter of illegal immigration.
w Robert Pucci d James Foley ph Juan Ruiz-Anchia m Carter Burwell pd David Brisbin ed Howard E. Smith
☆ Chow Yun-Fat, Mark Wahlberg, Ric Young, Paul Ben-Victor, Jon Kit Lee, Andrew Pang, Brian Cox, Elizabeth Lindsey, Byron Mann, Kim Chan, Bill Macdonald, Susie Trinh, Tovah Feldshuh

'The movie may be a conventional story of police corruption, temptation and conflicting loyalties, but it never loses its smarts.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

Corsa dell'Innocente: see Flight of the Innocent

The Corsican Brothers ★
US 1941 111m bw
UA/Edward Small

Siamese twins are separated but remain spiritually tied through various adventures.
Adequately exciting picturization of the Dumas swashbuckler.
w George Bruce, Howard Estabrook
d Gregory Ratoff ph Harry Stradling
m Dimitri Tiomkin
☆ Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Akim Tamiroff, Ruth Warrick, J. Carrol Naish, H. B. Warner, Henry Wilcoxon
† In 1953 came an undistinguished sequel, Bandits of Corsica (GB: The Return of the Corsican Brothers), with Richard Greene, Paula Raymond, Raymond Burr and Dona Drake. Written by Richard Schayer; directed by Ray Nazarro; for Global/UA. A comic version, Cheech and Chong's Corsican Brothers (qv), was released in 1984.
Dimitri Tiomkin

Cortesie per gli ospiti: see The Comfort of Strangers

Corvette K 225 ★
US 1943 97m bw
Universal (Howard Hawks)
GB title: The Nelson Touch

A Canadian corvette commander encounters submarines and bombers in mid-Atlantic.
Good war film of its period, marred by romantic interest.
w Lt John Sturdy d Richard Rosson
ph Tony Gaudio m David Buttolph
☆ Randolph Scott, James Brown, Ella Raines, Barry Fitzgerald, Andy Devine, Richard Lane
Tony Gaudio

Corvette Summer
US 1979 104m Metrocolor
MGM/Plotto (Hal Barwood)

GB title: The Hot One
A Los Angeles student spends the summer looking for his stolen customized car, and has various adventures around Las Vegas.
There are a few choice moments in this disconnected comedy drama, but the appeal is almost entirely to moonstruck teenagers.
w Hal Barwood, Matthew Robbins
d Matthew Robbins ph Frank Stanley
m Craig Safan
☆ Mark Hamill, Annie Potts, Eugene Roche, Kim Milford, Richard McKenzie

Cosh Boy
GB 1952 75m bw
Romulus (Daniel M. Angel)
US title: The Slasher

A young thug resists all attempts to reform him.
A competent social drama of its time; it has not worn well, though it remains of interest for what it reveals about the attitudes of the period.
w Lewis Gilbert, Vernon Harris play Master Crook by Bruce Walker
d Lewis Gilbert ph Jack Asher m Lambert Williamson ad Bernard Robinson
ed Charles Hasse
☆ James Kenney, Joan Collins, Hermione Baddeley, Hermione Gingold, Betty Ann Davies, Robert Ayres, Nancy Roberts, Laurence Naismith, Ian Whittaker

'There is something about this film which goes beyond the sordid nature of the subject and leaves a peculiarly distasteful impression. Whether by design or accident, there is a feeling about the piece that this sort of behaviour is not a deadly public menace, but a half-humorous escapade of youth.' – C. A. Lejeune
† The film, which was an early recipient of a British 'X' certificate, opens with an on-screen message: 'By itself, the "Cosh" is the cowardly implement of a contemporary evil; in association with "Boy", it marks a post-war tragedy – the juvenile delinquent. "Cosh Boy" portrays starkly the development of a young criminal, an enemy of society at sixteen. Our Judges and Magistrates, and the Police, whose stern duty it is to resolve the problem, agree that its origins lie mainly in the lack of parental control and early discipline. The problem exists – and we cannot escape it by closing our eyes. This film is presented in the hope that it will contribute towards stamping out this social evil.'

Cosi Ridevano: see The Way We Laughed

'His Hypnotic Eyes See All!'

The Cosmic Man
US 1958 72m bw
Futura (Robert A. Terry)

An alien is met with hostility when he visits Earth preaching peace.
Typical low-budget sci-fi movie of its time that offers nothing out of the ordinary.
w Arthur C. Pierce d Herbert Greene ph John F. Warren m Paul Sawtell, Bert Shefter ed Helene Turner
☆ Bruce Bennett, John Carradine, Angela Greene, Paul Langton, Scotty Morrow, Lyn Osborn, Walter Maslow

Cosmic Monsters: see Strange World of Planet X

Costa Brava ★
Spain 1994 92m colour
DTK/Marta Balletbò-Coll

A female engineer falls in love with a lesbian writer.
Slight, pleasant romantic comedy set in Barcelona, with its Spanish cast speaking English.
w Marta Balletbò-Coll, Ana Simón Cerezo, Steven Winchell, Marel Malaret, Desi del Valle d Marta Balletbò-Coll ph Teo López Garcia m Emili Remolins Casas, Xavier Martorell, Miquel Amor pd Gloria Marti-Palanques ed Ignacio Pérez de Olaguer Córdoba
☆ Desi del Valle, Marta Balletbò-Coll, Montserrat Gausachs, Josep Maria Brugués, Ramon Mari, Sergi Schaaff

'A lesbian fairy tale with the lightest of touches, a fragile but charming confection.' – Sight and Sound

Cote D'Azur: see Cockles and Muscles

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Cottage to Let ★

GB 1941 90m bw
Gainsborough (Edward Black)

US title: Bombsight Stolen

Evacuated to Scotland, a Cockney helps prevent spies from kidnapping his inventor foster-father.

Stagey but often amusing comedy-thriller which after a shaky start becomes agreeably Hitchcockian.

w Anatole de Grunwald, J. O. C. Orton play Geoffrey Kerr d Anthony Asquith ph Jack Cox md Louis Levy

☆ Leslie Banks, Alastair Sim, John Mills, Jeanne de Casalis, George Cole, Carla Lehmann, Michael Wilding, Frank Cellier, Wally Patch, Muriel Aked, Muriel George, Catherine Lacey, Hay Petrie

'Where crime lords rub elbows with the rich and famous!'

The Cotton Club

US 1984 127m Technicolor Panavision
Zoetrope (Robert Evans)

The story of Harlem's famous night-club and the gangsters who frequented it.

A lumpy vehicle, eventually costing fifty million dollars, for some of the talents who made The Godfather ten years earlier. Despite a few effective moments, a prime example of the careless extravagance which all but killed the film business.

w William Kennedy, Francis Coppola d Francis Coppola ph Stephen Goldblatt m John Barry pd Richard Sylbert ed Barry Malkin, Robert Lovett

☆ Richard Gere, Gregory Hines, Diane Lane, Lonette McKee, Bob Hoskins, James Remar, Nicolas Cage, Allen Garfield, Fred Gwynne, Gwen Verdon

'The narrative is a mess, and keeps interrupting the heartstopping hoofing.' – Time Out

editing, art direction

Cotton Comes to Harlem

US 1970 97m DeLuxe
Formosa/UA

Two black detectives try to beat the police to a bale of cotton containing a fortune in stolen dollars.

Rickety vehicle for two amiable black characters presented rather more surely in Come Back Charleston Blue (qv).

w Arnold Perl, Ossie Davis, Chester Himes novel Chester Himes d Ossie Davis

☆ Godfrey Cambridge, Raymond St Jacques, Calvin Lockhart, Judy Pace, Redd Foxx

Cotton Mary ★

GB 1999 123m Technicolor
UIP/Merchant Ivory (Nayeem Hafizka, Richard Hawley)

An Anglo-Indian nurse in a white household in India in the 1950s imagines that she can supplant her mistress.

An effective drama of colonialism and racial identity, fought out within a family that is losing its cohesion.

w Alexandra Viets play Alexandra Viets d Ismail Merchant ph Pierre Lhomme m Richard Robbins pd Alison Riva ed John David Allen

☆ Greta Scacchi (Lily Macintosh), Madhur Jaffrey (Cotton Mary), James Wilby (John Macintosh), Sarah Badel (Mrs Evans), Riju Bajaj (Mugs), Gerson Da Cunha (Dr Correa), Joanna David (Mrs Smythe), Neena Gupta (Blossom), Sakina Jaffrey (Rosie), Gemma Jones (Mrs Freda Davids), Firdausi Jussawalla (Mr Panamal)

'An enjoyable, sturdy little film that is uniformly well-acted and beautifully shot.' – Clayton Hickman, Film Review

The Couch Trip ★

US 1988 98m colour
Rank/Orion (Lawrence Gordon)

A mental patient escapes to Los Angeles where he becomes a success as a radio doctor.

Sporadically amusing comedy that mocks obvious targets.

w Steven Kampmann, Will Port, Sean Stein novel Ken Kolb d Michael Ritchie ph Donald E. Thorin m Michel Colombier pd Jimmy Bly ed Richard A. Harris

☆ Dan Aykroyd, Walter Matthau, Charles Grodin, Donna Dixon, Richard Romanus, Mary Gross, David Clennon

Council of the Gods ★

Germany 1950 106m bw
DEFA (Adolf Fischer)

A research chemist working for a big chemical company denounces them after the war when he finds they have been producing poison gas for the concentration camps.

Self-flagellatory expiation of war crimes encased in an absorbing drama.

w Friedrich Wolff, Philipp Gebb d Kurt Maetzig ph Friedl Behn-Grund m Hanns Eisler, Erwin Lehn

☆ Paul Bildt, Agnes Windeck, Yvonne Merin, Fritz Tillman Counsellor at Law ★

US 1933 78m bw
Universal (Henry Henigson)

Life in the New York office of a successful Jewish lawyer.

Practised film-making from a Broadway hit.

w Elmer Rice play Elmer Rice d William Wyler ph Norbert Brodine

☆ John Barrymore, Bebe Daniels, Melvyn Douglas, Doris Kenyon, Onslow Stevens, Isabel Jewell, Thelma Todd, Mayo Methot

'Good drama, well produced and with strong b.o. potentialities.' – Variety

† Paul Muni was the first choice for the lead, but refused to play a Jewish role.

Counsel's Opinion

GB 1933 76m bw
London Films (Alexander Korda)

A widow wins a barrister by pretending to be a flighty socialite.

Semi-sophisticated comedy; this rather thin quickie version was done over four years later and became The Divorce of Lady X (qv).

w Dorothy Greenhill, Arthur Wimperis play Gilbert Wakefield d Allan Dwan ph Bernard Browne ad Holmes Paul ed Harold Young

☆ Henry Kendall, Binnie Barnes, Cyril Maude, Lawrence Grossmith

'There is perhaps more naivety than usual about this comedy of a divorce counsel who imagines himself mixed up in his own case. The director is an American, Allan Dwan, who must either have come or gone away with odd ideas of British humour.' – Observer

Count A Lonely Cadence: see Stockade

Count Dracula: see Bram Stoker's Count Dracula

Count Five and Die ★

GB 1957 92m bw Cinemascope
TCF/Zonic (Ernest Gartside)

British intelligence seeks to give the Nazis false information about the 1944 invasion, but conviction grows that a double agent is among them.

Terse, downbeat war suspenser, gripping in parts but quite forgettable.

w Jack Seddon, David Pursall d Victor Vicas ph Arthur Grant m John Wooldridge

☆ Nigel Patrick, Jeffrey Hunter, Anne-Marie Duringer, David Kossoff

The Count of Monte Cristo ★★★

US 1934 114m bw
Reliance (Edward Small)

After spending years in prison, Edmond Dantes escapes and avenges himself on those who framed him.

Classic swashbuckler, extremely well done with due attention to dialogue as well as action; a model of its kind and period.

w Philip Dunne, Dan Totheroh, Rowland V. Lee novel Alexandre Dumas d Rowland V. Lee ph Peverell Marley m Alfred Newman ed Grant Whytock

☆ Robert Donat (Edmond Dantes), Elissa Landi (Mercedes), Louis Calhern (De Villefort, Jr.), Sidney Blackmer (Mondego), Raymond Walburn (Danglars), O. P. Heggie (Abbe Faria), William Farnum (Capt. Leclere)

'A near-perfect blend of thrilling action and grand dialogue.' – Variety

'Prepare for adventure. Count on revenge.'

The Count of Monte Cristo ★

US/GB/Ireland 2002 131m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Spyglass (Roger Birnbaum, Gary Barber, Jonathan Glickman)

In France in the 1800s, a man escapes from 13 years of wrongful imprisonment to take revenge on those who betrayed him.

Old fashioned swashbuckler that provides simple pleasures even though it lacks the requisite panache.

w Jay Wolpert novel Alexandre Dumas d Kevin Reynolds ph Andrew Dunn m Edward Shearmur pd Mark Geraghty ed Stephen Semel, Chris Womack cos Tom Rand

☆ Jim Caviezel (Edmond Dantes), Guy Pearce (Fernand Mondego), Dagmara Dominczyk (Mercedes), Richard Harris (Abbe Faria), Luis Guzman (Jacopo), James Frain (Villefort), Henry Cavill (Albert), Albie Woodington (Danglars), Michael Wincott (Dorleac), Alex Norton (Napoleon Bonaparte), Freddie Jones (Col Villefort)

'In its forthright, sincere attempt to harness the narrative drive and emotional sweep of the Dumas novel, the film is close in spirit (though not in style) to the 1934 version.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

The Count of the Old Town

Sweden 1935 75m bw
Svensk Filmindustri/AB Fribergs Filmbyra original title: Munkbrogreven

A mysterious stranger moves into a hotel frequented by some elderly work-shy drinkers, and begins a romance with the maid.

A broad and episodic comedy of clever crooks and dim cops, dominant women and henpecked men, with enough absurd impetus to its set-pieces to still raise a smile or two.

w Gösta Stevens play Greven Av Gamla Sta'n by Siegfried and Arthur Fischer d Edvin Adolphson ph Åke Dahlquist m Eric Bengtson ed Rolf Husberg

☆ Waldemar Dalquist, Julia Caesar, Sigurd Wallén, Tollie Zellman, Edvin Adolphson, Ingrid Bergman, Eric Abrahamson, Weyler Hildebrand

† It was Ingrid Bergman's first film.

Count Three and Pray

US 1955 92m Technicolor Cinemascope
Columbia/Copa (Ted Richmond)

After the Civil War a roistering Southerner comes home to rebuild his town and become its parson.

Moderate semi-Western, fresh and pleasing but not memorable.

w Herb Meadow d George Sherman ph Burnett Guffey m George Duning

☆ Van Heflin, Joanne Woodward, Phil Carey, Raymond Burr, Allison Hayes, Myron Healey, Nancy Kulp, James Griffiths

'Don't dare come alone!'

Count Yorga Vampire

US 1970 90m Movielab
Erica/AIP (Michael Macready)

aka: The Loves of Count Iorga, Vampire

Inquisitive Los Angeles teenagers are vampirized by a suave foreign visitor.

A semi-professional film that looks it but amid the longueurs provides one or two nasty frissons.

wd Bob Kelljan ph Arch Archambault m William Marx

☆ Robert Quarry, Roger Perry, Michael Murphy, Michael Macready, Donna Anders, Judith Lang

† The Return of Count Yorga followed a year later.

Count Your Blessings

US 1959 102m Metrocolor Cinemascope
MGM (Karl Tunberg)

An English girl marries an aristocratic Frenchman, but the war and other considerations make them virtual strangers until their son is nine years old, when it becomes clear that daddy is a philanderer.

Slight upper-crust comedy, basically rather tedious but kept buoyant by Chevalier as commentator.

w Karl Tunberg novel The Blessing by Nancy Mitford d Jean Negulesco ph Milton Krasner, George Folsey m Franz Waxman

☆ Deborah Kerr, Maurice Chevalier, Rossano Brazzi, Martin Stephens, Tom Helmore, Ronald Squire, Patricia Medina, Mona Washbourne

'Negulesco's aspirations to elegance are now familiar ... this is far too absurd an example of Hollywood's infatuation with Old Europe to arouse much interest.' – MFB

Countdown ★

US 1967 101m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (William Conrad)

Russian and American spaceships race for the moon.

Earnest, simply-plotted science-fiction in which technology is the centre of interest.

w Loring Mandel d Robert Altman ph William W. Spencer m Leonard Rosenman ad Jack Poplin

☆ James Caan, Robert Duvall, Barbara Baxley, Joanna Moore, Charles Aidman, Steve Ihnat

Counterattack

US 1945 89m bw
Columbia
GB title: One against Seven
Resistance fighters go behind enemy lines for purposes of sabotage.
Standard World War II actioner, the star appearing above his surroundings.
w John Howard Lawson play Janet and Philip Stevenson d Zoltan Korda
ph James Wong Howe m Louis Gruenberg
☆ Paul Muni, Marguerite Chapman, Larry Parks, George Macready, Roman Bohnen

Counterblast

GB 1948 99m bw
British National
An escaped Nazi poses as a British scientist in a research laboratory.
Overlong espionage thick ear with some compensations.
w Jack Whittingham story Guy Morgan d Paul Stein ☆ Robert Beatty, Mervyn Johns, Nova Pilbeam, Margaretta Scott, Marie Lohr, Karel Stepanek, Alan Wheatley

The Counterfeit Traitor ★

US 1962 140m Technicolor
Paramount/Perlberg-Seaton
An oil importer, a naturalized Swede born in America, is blackmailed by the Allies into becoming a spy.
Heavy-going espionage drama which divides its time between action and moralizing. Excellent production does not quite make it exciting.
wd George Seaton book Alexander Klein
ph Jean Bourgoin m Alfred Newman
☆ William Holden, Lilli Palmer, Hugh Griffith, Werner Peters, Eva Dahlbeck
'The picture is too long, it is also incessantly exciting, occasionally witty … and in its expression of organized sadism comparatively subtle.' – Time

The Counterfeiters

US 1948 73m bw
TVF/Reliance (Maurice H. Conn)
A Scotland Yard detective and a US Treasury agent team up to track down a gang of forgers who are flooding Europe with fake twenty-dollar bills and five-pound notes.
Undemanding and undistinguished time-filler with a reliance on stereotype – the Englishman cop smokes a pipe, the American cigarettes – and with Chaney doing the dim hulk routine that he perfected in Of Mice and Men.
w Fred Myton, Barbara Worth story Maurice H. Conn d Peter Stewart (Sam Newfield) ph James S. Brown
m Irving Gertz ad Frank Dexter
ed Martin G. Cohn
☆ John Sutton, Doris Merrick, Hugh Beaumont, Lon Chaney, George O'Hanlon, Douglas Blackley, Herbert Rawlinson

Counterforce: see Rogue Force

Counterpoint ★

US 1967 107m Technicolor
Techniscope
Universal (Dick Berg)
In 1944, an American symphony orchestra is captured by the Germans and threatened with execution.
Bizarre war suspenser, quite unconvincing but with effectively suspenseful moments and an old-fashioned portrayal of the Nazis as sadistic music-loving Huns.
w James Lee, Joel Oliansky novel The General by Alan Sillitoe d Ralph Nelson
ph Russell Metty m Bronislau Kaper
☆ Charlton Heston, Maximilian Schell, Anton Diffring, Kathryn Hays, Leslie Nielsen

Countess Dracula

GB 1971 93m Eastmancolor
Rank/Hammer (Alexander Paal)
A Hungarian noblewoman restores her youth by bathing in the blood of young virgins.
Risibly sub-Freudian addition to a grotesque Hammer gallery of monsters, indistinguishable from the others once it gets going.
w Jeremy Paul story Alexander Paal, Peter Sasdy, Gabriel Ronay d Peter Sasdy ph Ken Talbot m Harry Robinson
ad Philip Harrison ed Henry Richardson
☆ Ingrid Pitt, Nigel Green, Sandor Eles, Maurice Denham, Patience Collier, Peter Jeffrey, Lesley-Anne Down
'At its best the film employs the kind of romantic imagery one associates with Keats; and if it doesn't quite live up to that comparison, it is at least a worthy companion to Corman's Bloody Mama.' – David Pirie, MFB
† Ingrid Pitt's performance was dubbed because the director found her accent caused problems in some key scenes.

A Countess from Hong Kong

GB 1967 120m Technicolor
Universal (Jerome Epstein)
An American millionaire diplomat is followed from Hong Kong by his Russian émigrée girlfriend, and complications mount when his wife boards the ship at Hawaii.
Flatulent comedy with neither the sparkle of champagne nor even the fizz of lemonade: Chaplin's writing, direction and music are alike soporific, and commiserations are due to the cast.
ph Arthur Ibbetson pd Don Ashton wd/m Charles Chaplin ☆ Marlon Brando, Sophia Loren, Patrick Cargill, Margaret Rutherford, Charles Chaplin, Sydney Chaplin, Oliver Johnston, John Paul
'An unfunny, mindless mess.' – Robert Windeler
'So old-fashioned and dull that one can hardly believe it was made now.' – Philip T. Hartung

Countess of Monte Cristo

US 1948 76m bw
Universal International/Westwood
Two Norwegian barmaids visit a smart resort, pretending to be a countess and her maidservant.
Lacklustre musical comedy that brought Henie's US career to an end.
w William Bowers story Walter Reisch
d Frederick De Cordova ph Edward Cronjager m Walter Scharf m/ly Saul Chaplin, Jack Brooks ch Louis Da Pron ad Bernard Herzbrun, Emrich Nicholson
ed Edward Curtiss
☆ Sonja Henie, Michael Kirby, Olga San Juan, Dorothy Hart, Arthur Treacher, Hugh French, Ransom Sherman, Freddie Trenkler
† The film was a musical remake of a 1934 movie of the same name.
♫ Friendly Polka, Count Your Blessings, Who Believes in Santa Claus?

'In This Country, When The Land Is Your Life…You Fight For Your Life.'

Country ★

US 1984 109m Technicolor Panavision
Touchstone/Far West/Pangaea (William D. Wittliff, Jessica Lange)
Iowa farmers, on the breadline after a tornado, face foreclosure.
Deeply felt modern variation on The Grapes of Wrath, not particularly dramatic for those who have not felt the pressure.
w William D. Wittliff d Richard Pearce ph David M. Walsh m Charles Gross
pd Ron Hobbs ed Bill Yahraus
☆ Jessica Lange, Sam Shepard, Wilford Brimley, Matt Clark, Therese Graham
Jessica Lange

Country Dance

GB 1969 112m Metrocolor
MGM/Keep-Windward (Robert Emmett Ginna)
aka: Brotherly Love
An eccentric baronet's incestuous love for his sister finally breaks up her marriage.
Rambling melodrama with O'Toole going mad in squire's tweeds; tediously fashionable but too pallid for general success, it was barely released.
w James Kennaway novel Household Ghosts by James Kennaway d J. Lee-Thompson ph Ted Moore m John Addison ☆ Peter O'Toole, Susannah York, Michael Craig, Harry Andrews, Cyril Cusack, Judy Cornwell, Brian Blessed

The Country Doctor ★

US 1936 94m bw
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)
A rural physician becomes famous when quintuplets are born to one of his patients.
Fictionalization of the birth of the Dionne Quintuplets; pleasantly nostalgic even sixty years after its raison d'être.
w Sonya Levien d Henry King ph John F. Seitz, Daniel B. Clark
☆ Jean Hersholt, the Dionne Quins, Dorothy Peterson, June Lang, Slim Summerville, Michael Whalen, Robert Barrat
'Admirably genuine: the camera – rare occasion in the cinema – doesn't lie, and Mr Jean Hersholt gives one of the most sympathetic performances I have seen this year.' – Graham Greene † Sequels: Reunion (1936), Five of a Kind (1938).

Country Gentlemen

US 1936 66m bw
Republic
A couple of con men help a widow who runs a small-town hotel.
Strained comedy in which the gag men misguidedly try to play straight.
w Milton Raison, Jack Harvey, Jo Graham
d Ralph Staub
☆ Ole Olsen, Chic Johnson, Joyce Compton, Lila Lee, Pierre Watkin
'Missing is the rapidfire buffoonery with which they have been identified in vaudeville.' – Variety

'How far should a woman go to redeem the man she loves?'

The Country Girl ★

US 1954 104m bw
Paramount (William Perlberg)
The wife of an alcoholic singer blossoms when he is stimulated into a comeback.
Theatrically effective but highly unconvincing, this rather glum stage success made a cold film, miscast with an eye on the box-office.
w Stanley Roberts play Clifford Odets
d George Seaton ph John F. Warren
m Victor Young m/ly Ira Gershwin, Harold Arlen ad Hal Pereira, Roland Anderson ☆ Bing Crosby, Grace Kelly, William Holden, Anthony Ross, Gene Reynolds
'The dramatic development is not really interesting enough to sustain a film of the intensity for which it strives.' – Karel Reisz
'Rather inexplicably, this sado-masochist morass was one of the biggest box office hits of its year.' – Pauline Kael, 70s
Grace Kelly
best picture; John F. Warren; Bing Crosby; George Seaton; Stanley Roberts; art direction

Country Life ★★

Australia 1994 117m colour
Metro Tartan/AFFC/Robin Dalton
Just after the end of the First World War, a snobbish, failed literary critic returns from London with his young wife to the Australian sheep farm run by his brother-in-law.
Gentle, well-observed comedy of unfulfilled lives and broken dreams.
wd Michael Blakemore play Uncle Vanya by Anton Chekhov ph Stephen Windon
m Peter Best pd Laurence Eastwood
ed Nicholas Beauman
☆ Greta Scacchi, Sam Neill, John Hargreaves, Kerry Fox, Michael Blakemore, Googie Withers, Patricia Kennedy, Ron Blanchard, Maurie Fields
'A very funny film with a rippling undercurrent of imminent melancholy. It does more than entertain, with an observant view of humanity's pardonable frailties.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

'A South African Story of Truth, Love and Reconciliation.'

Country of My Skull ★ ③

GB/Ireland/US 2004 103m DeLuxe
Icon/Phoenix/Film Consortium/Merlin (Robert Chartoff, Mike Medavoy, John Boorman, Kieran Corrigan, Lynn Hendee)
aka: In My Country
In the mid-1990s, a black American journalist goes to South Africa for the country's Truth and Reconciliation Commission and meets an Afrikaans poet who is also covering the hearings.
Based on evidence from victims, and perpetrators, of violence and repression during the time of apartheid, a sometimes harrowing movie that settles too soon into a didactic mode, in which everyone ends up a sadder and wiser person.
w Ann Peacock book Antjie Krog d John Boorman ph Seamus Deasy pd Derek Wallace ed Ron Davis
☆ Samuel L. Jackson (Langston Whitfield), Juliette Binoche (Anna Malan), Brendan Gleeson (De Jager), Menzi 'Ngubs' Ngubane (Dumi Mkhalipi), Sam Ngakane (Anderson), Aletta Bezuidenhout (Elsa), Lionel Newton (Edward Morgan)
'High-minded but hopelessly wooden.' – New York Times

County Hospital ★★

US 1932 20m bw
Hal Roach
Ollie is in hospital; Stan brings him some

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

hardboiled eggs and some nuts, and nearly wrecks the place.
Archetypal star comedy with brilliant character and slapstick sequences, let down by a badly processed car ride home.
w H. M. Walker d James Parrott ph Art Lloyd ed Bert Jordan, Richard Currier
☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Billy Gilbert, William Austin, May Wallace Coup de Foudre ★

France 1983 111m colour Cinemascope
Gala/Partners Productions/Alexandre Films/Hachette Première/A2/SFPC (Ariel Zeitoun)

US title: Entre Nous
Two women leave their husbands to live and work together.
Charm predominates in this nostalgic piece, based on the life of the director's mother.
w Olivier Cohen, Diane Kurys book Diane Kurys d Diane Kurys ph Bernard Lutic m Luis Bacalov pd Jacques Bufnoir ed Joele Van Effenterre
☆ Miou-Miou, Isabelle Huppert, Guy Marchand, Jean-Pierre Bacri, Robin Renucci, Patrick Bauchau, Jacques Alric
♗ best foreign film

Coup de Torchon

France 1981 128m colour
Les Films de la Tour/Les Films A2/Little Bear (Adolphe Viezzi)

GB title: Clean Slate
In French West Africa in 1938, an apparently easy-going police officer is inspired to commit a series of murders.
Well-made, heavy-going study of mania.
w Jean Aurenche, Bertrand Tavernier novel POP. 1280 by Jim Thompson d Bertrand Tavernier ph Pierre William Glenn m Philippe Sarde
☆ Philippe Noiret, Isabelle Huppert, Jean-Pierre Marielle, Stéphane Audran, Eddy Mitchell
♗ best foreign film

'A movie for everyone who's ever struggled to love a brother ... Or strangle one.'

Coupe de Ville ★★

US 1990 97m DeLuxe Super 35
Warner/Morgan Creek (Larry Brezner, Paul Schiff)

In the early 1960s, a father asks his three sons to drive a 1950s Cadillac Coupe de Ville from Michigan to Miami for their mother's birthday.
Engaging and amusing low-key road movie centring on family relationships.
w Mike Binder d Joe Roth ph Reynaldo Villalobos m James Newton Howard pd Angelo Graham ed Paul Hirsch
☆ Patrick Dempsey, Arye Gross, Daniel Stern, Annabeth Gish, Rita Taggart, Joseph Bologna, Alan Arkin
'A road movie with a difference, this one has heart and quality.' – Shaun Usher, Daily Mail
'For the most part a very shrewd, well-made and well-acted film.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Un Couple Épatant: see Trilogy

Courage: see Raw Courage (1985)

Courage Fuyons ★

France 1979 98m Eastmancolor
Gaumont/Gueville (Yves Robert)
A middle-aged man embarks on a series of surprising romantic adventures.
A mainly enjoyable exercise in wish-fulfilment, sharply written and acted.
w Jean-Loup Dabadie, Yves Robert d Yves Robert ph Yves Lafaye m Vladimir Cosma
☆ Jean Rochefort, Catherine Deneuve, Robert Webber, Philippe Leroy-Beaulieu

Courage Mountain

US 1989 98m CFI color
Entertainment/Epic/Stone Group (Stephen Ujlaki)

A Swiss schoolgirl, stranded in Italy with some friends, makes her way back home.
A new adventure, told in an old-fashioned way, of that one-time children's favourite Heidi.
w Weaver Webb story Fred Brogger, Mark Brogger d Christopher Leitch ph Jacques Steyn m Sylvester Levay pd Robb Wilson King ed Martin Walsh ☆ Juliette Caton, Charlie Sheen, Leslie Caron, Yorgo Voyagis, Laura Betti, Jan Rubes, Joanna Clarke

Courage Under Fire ★

US 1996 115m DeLuxe
TCF/Fox 2000/Davis Entertainment (Joseph M. Singer, David T. Friendly)

A colonel investigates the suitability of awarding a posthumous Medal of Honor to a female helicopter pilot killed in the Gulf War.
A film that begins as a complex investigation into behaviour in wartime but ends as a straightforward flag-waving exercise.
w Patrick Sheane Duncan d Edward Zwick ph Roger Deakins m James Horner pd John Graysmark ed Steven Rosenblum
☆ Denzel Washington, Meg Ryan, Lou Diamond Phillips, Michael Moriarty, Matt Damon, Bronson Pinchot, Scott Glenn, Sean Astin
'An intelligent well-crafted film that pays few concessions to Hollywood melodrama.' – James Cameron-Wilson, Film Review

The Courageous Mr Penn: see Penn of Pennsylvania

The Courier

Ireland 1987 85m
Palace/City Vision (Hilary McLoughlin)

A motorcycle messenger becomes an unknowing carrier of drugs.
Violent, low-budget thriller with no redeeming qualities.
w Frank Deasy d Joe Lee, Frank Deasy ph Gabriel Beristain m Declan MacManus pd David Wilson ed Derek Trigg, Annette D'Alton ☆ Gabriel Byrne, Ian Bannen, Cait O'Riordan, Padraig O'Loingsigh, Patrick Bergin, Andrew Connolly

Cours du Soir

France 1967 25m colour
Telecip/Specta (Bernard Maurice)

An evening-class lecturer demonstrates the various ways people smoke, walk and play sport.
Tati goes through some of his familiar routines, but the setting is not a sympathetic one and he looks tired and unenthusiastic about what he is doing.
w Jacques Tati d Nicolas Rybowski ph Jean Badal m Léo Petit ed Nicole Cauduchon ☆ Jacques Tati

The Court Jester ★★★

US 1955 101m Technicolor Vistavision
Paramount/Dena (Melvin Frank, Norman Panama)

Opposition to a tyrannical king is provided by the Fox, but it is one of the rebel's meekest men who, posing as a jester, defeats the usurper.
One of the star's most delightful vehicles, this medieval romp has good tunes and lively action, not to mention an exceptional cast and the memorable 'chalice from the palace' routine.
wd Norman Panama, Melvin Frank ph Ray June m/ly Sylvia Fine, Sammy Cahn ad Hal Pereira, Roland Anderson ed Tom McAdoo
☆ Danny Kaye (Hubert Hawkins), Glynis Johns (Maid Jean), Basil Rathbone (Sir Ravenhurst), Cecil Parker (King Roderick), Mildred Natwick (Griselda), Angela Lansbury (Princess Gwendolyn), Edward Ashley (Black Fox), Robert Middleton (Sir Griswold), Michael Pate (Sir Locksley), Alan Napier (Sir Brockhurst)
NATWICK: 'I put a pellet of poison in one of the vessels.'
KAYE: 'Which one?'
NATWICK: 'The one with the figure of a pestle.'
KAYE: 'The vessel with the pestle.'
NATWICK: 'Yes, but you don't want the vessel with the pestle. You want the chalice from the palace.'
KAYE: 'I don't want the vessel with the pestle. I want the chalice from...the what?'
JONES: 'The chalice from the palace.'
NATWICK: 'It's a little crystal chalice with a figure of a palace.'
KAYE: 'Does the chalice with the palace have the pellet with the poison?'
NATWICK: 'No. The pellet with the poison's in the vessel with the pestle...etc., etc.'
'Costumed swashbucklers undergo a happy spoofing.' – Variety

Court Martial: see Carrington VC

The Court Martial of Billy Mitchell ★

US 1955 100m Warnercolor Cinemascope
United States Pictures (Milton Sperling)

GB title: One Man Mutiny
In the early twenties, an American general of the Army Air Service is court-martialled for accusing the war department of criminal negligence.
Adequate recreation of a historical incident, with a cast of excellent actors converging for a courtroom scene of some effectiveness.
w Milton Sperling, Emmet Lavery d Otto Preminger ph Sam Leavitt m Dimitri Tiomkin
☆ Gary Cooper, Rod Steiger, Ralph Bellamy, Charles Bickford, Elizabeth Montgomery, Fred Clark, Darren McGavin, James Daly
♗ Milton Sperling, Emmet Lavery

The Courtney Affair: see The Courtneys of Curzon Street

The Courtneys of Curzon Street ★

GB 1947 120m bw
Imperadio (Herbert Wilcox)

US title: The Courtney Affair
In Victorian times, a baronet's son marries a lady's maid ... and many years later, their grandson marries a factory worker.
Unbelievable upstairs-downstairs romantic drama spanning three generations; all to be taken with a gigantic pinch of salt, but a huge success when released.
w Nicholas Phipps novel Florence Tranter d Herbert Wilcox ph Max Greene m Anthony Collins ad William C. Andrews ed Flora Newton, Vera Campbell
☆ Anna Neagle (Catherine O'Halloran), Michael Wilding (Sir Edward Courtney), Gladys Young (Lady Courtney), Coral Browne (Valerie), Michael Medwin (Edward Courtney), Daphne Slater (Cynthia), Jack Watling (Teddy Courtney), Helen Cherry (Mary Courtney), Bernard Lee (Colonel Gascoyne), Ethel O'Shea (Mrs O'Halloran), Thora Hird (Kate)
'The dignity of Curzon Street is Hollywoodized, and it is rare in 1945 that people in their sixties look as though they have one foot in the grave.' – MFB
'If my livelihood depended on booking the right film into the average cinema, this is one I would not dare to miss.' – Observer

The Courtship of Eddie's Father ★

US 1962 117m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Joe Pasternak

The small son of a widower tries to interest Dad in another woman.
Fairly icky American-style sentimental comedy with most of the stops pulled out; way over-length and too self-indulgently solemn in the last part, but with professional touches.
w John Gay novel Muriel Toby d Vincente Minnelli ph Milton Krasner m George Stoll
☆ Glenn Ford, Ronny Howard, Shirley Jones, Stella Stevens, Dina Merrill
† A TV series starring Bill Bixby followed in 1971.

'Who Knew Deception, Treachery And Revenge Could Be This Much Fun...'
'A Delicious Tale Of Revenge.'

Cousin Bette ★

US 1998 107m colour Panavision
Fox Searchlight (Sarah Radclyffe)

A hard-up seamstress plots revenge against her wealthy cousins.
Slight but enjoyable version of a more complex novel, a period romp with a hissable villainess.
w Lynn Siefert, Susan Tarr novel Honoré de Balzac d Des McAnuff ph Andrzej Sekula m Simon Boswell ch Jane Gibson pd Hugo Luczyc-Wyhowksi ed Tariq Anwar, Barry Alexander Brown
☆ Jessica Lange, Elisabeth Shue, Bob Hoskins, Hugh Laurie, Kelly Macdonald, Aden Young, Geraldine Chaplin, Toby Stephens, John Sessions
'As a frothy confection it can't be faulted.' – Ryan Gilbey, Independent

Cousin Bobby ★

US 1992 69m colour
Electric/Tesauro

A documentary on the life and work of the Rev. Robert Castle, an outspoken Episcopalian priest working in Harlem, made by his film director cousin.
Well-made and interesting account of a dedicated priest that cuts from the public life to the private man.
d Jonathan Demme ph Ernest Dickerson,

Craig Haagensen, Tony Jannelli, Jacek Laskus, Declan Quinn m Anton Sanko ed David Greenwald

'A low-key, occasionally touching documentary ... essentially a home movie, but one with broad appeal.' – Variety

Cousin, Cousine ★★★

France 1975 95m Eastmancolor
Pomereu/Gaumont (Bertrand Javal)

Various furtive love affairs centre on a family wedding.

Sprightly satirical comedy full of pleasing touches, mostly jibes at French bourgeois standards.

wd Jean-Charles Tacchella ph Georges Lendi m Gerard Anfosso ed Agnès Guillemot

☆ Marie-France Pisier (Karine), Marie-Christine Barrault (Marthe), Victor Lanoux (Ludovic), Guy Marchand (Pascal), Ginette Garcin (Biju)

'One of those rare delights you want to see again and again just to share the sheer joy of living, zest for love, genuine affection, all-too-human absurdity, and pure happiness of all those delicious people on screen.' – Judith Crist, Saturday Review

🏆 best foreign film; script; Marie-Christine Barrault

Les Cousins ★

France 1959 110m bw
AJYM (Claude Chabrol)

A law student stays with his sophisticated cousin in Paris, and his life is altered.

The country cousin fable filled with undramatic detail and given a rather perverse ending without any apparent point.

wd Claude Chabrol ph Henri Decaë m Paul Misraki ad Jacques Saulnier, Bernard Evein ed Jacques Gaillard

☆ Jean-Claude Brialy, Gérard Blain, Juliette Mayniel, Claude Cerval

'They already have a lot in common. Her husband is sleeping with his wife.'

Cousins

US 1989 113m Technicolor
UIP/Paramount (William Allyn)

Two couples, who meet at a relative's wedding, swop partners.

An adaptation of the French film Cousin, Cousine without the exuberant charm of the original.

w Stephen Metcalfe d Joel Schumacher ph Ralf Bode m Angelo Badalamenti pd Mark S. Freeborn ed Robert Brown

☆ Ted Danson, Isabella Rossellini, Sean Young, William Petersen, Lloyd Bridges, Norma Aleandro, Keith Coogan, Gina DeAngelis, George Coe

'Combines satire, near-farce, and incipient fantasy with great dexterity.' – Tim Pulleine, MFB

'Only the power of hell can help them.'

The Covenant ★ ②

US 2006 97m
Sony/Screen Gems/Lakeshore Entertainment (Gary Lucchesi, Tom Rosenberg)

Four descendants of the Salem witch-hunts must use their powers against a renegade warlock.

A tired terror, treading old rite-of-passage demonic ground.

w J S Cardone d Renny Harlin ph Pierre Gill m Tomandandy pd Anne Pritchard, Gary Randall ad Pierre Perrault ed Nicholas De Toth sp Ryal Cosgrove

☆ Steven Strait (Caleb Danvers), Laura Ramsey (Sara Wenham), Sebastian Stan (Chase Collins), Taylor Kitsch (Pogue Parry), Chace Crawford (Tyler Simms), Toby Hemingway (Reid Garwin)

'Utterly stupid and full of lazy plotting and lazier dialogue.' – Helen O'Hara, Empire

A Covenant with Death

US 1966 97m Technicolor
Warner (William Conrad)

A half-Mexican judge in a border town convicts a man who accidentally kills the hangman just as the real murderer confesses.

Dreary moral melodrama with accents, nicely photographed but cold, remote and drawn out.

w Larry Marcus, Saul Levitt novel Stephen Becker d Lamont Johnson ph Robert Burks m Leonard Rosenman

☆ George Maharis, Katy Jurado, Earl Holliman, Sidney Blackmer, Laura Devon, Gene Hackman

'Too thrilling for words, so they set it to music!'

Cover Girl ★★

US 1944 107m Technicolor
Columbia (Arthur Schwartz)

The road to success for magazine cover models.

Wartime glamour musical with a stronger reputation than it really deserves apart from Kelly's solos; it does however manage a certain joie de vivre which should not be despised.

w Virginia Van Upp d Charles Vidor ph Rudolph Maté m/ly Jerome Kern, Ira Gershwin md Morris Stoloff, Carmen Dragon ad Lionel Banks, Cary Odell

☆ Rita Hayworth, Gene Kelly, Phil Silvers, Lee Bowman, Jinx Falkenburg, Otto Kruger, Eve Arden, Ed Brophy

'Kelly and Silvers are better than Kelly and Hayworth, though she does look sumptuous, and her big smile could be the emblem of the period.' – New Yorker, 1977

'Much of it is not as fresh as it may seem; but its second-handedness and its occasional failures cannot obliterate the pleasure of seeing the work of a production company which obviously knows, cares about and enjoys what it is doing.' – James Agee

† Rita Hayworth's singing was dubbed by Martha Mears.

🏆 Morris Stoloff, Carmen Dragon

🏆 Rudolph Maté; song 'Long Ago and Far Away'; art direction

Cover Up

US 1948 82m bw
Strand/UA

An insurance investigator finds senior officials conspiring to obscure the facts of a small-town murder.

Modest mystery, initially intriguing but finally unsatisfying.

w Jerome Odlum, Jonathan Ritz d Alfred E. Green

☆ Dennis O'Keefe, William Bendix, Barbara Britton, Art Smith

The Covered Wagon ★

US 1923 103m (24 fps) bw silent
Paramount/Famous Players-Lasky

Pioneer settlers travel west by wagon train.

A classic Western which now seems painfully undernourished in terms of plot and character but still retains moments of epic sweep.

w Jack Cunningham novel Emerson Hough d James Cruze ph Karl Brown

☆ Ernest Torrence, Tully Marshall, J. Warren Kerrigan, Lois Wilson, Alan Hale

'There wasn't a false whisker in the film.' – James Cruze

'Forthright, impressive and vigorous, it brought a breath of fresh air into the jazz-ridden film world.' – Lewis Jacobs

The Cow and I

France 1959 119m bw
Cyclope/Omnia (Walter Rupp)
original title: La Vache et le Prisonnier

A French soldier escapes from a prison camp and takes a farm cow as cover.

Curiously overlong war adventure which hovers uncertainly between comedy and suspense.

w Henri Verneuil, Henri Jeanson, Jean Manse d Henri Verneuil ph Roger Hubert m Paul Durand

☆ Fernandel, René Havard, Albert Remy, Bernard Musson

'Authentic Greatness!'

Cowboy ★

US 1958 92m Technicolor
Columbia/Phoenix (Julian Blaustein)

Frank Harris becomes a cattle herder for love of a lady but is quickly disillusioned with the outdoor life.

Fashioned from a lively autobiography, this has interesting moments but is never as fascinating as one would expect.

w Edmund H. North book On the Trail by Frank Harris d Delmer Daves ph Charles Lawton Jnr m George Duning ed William A. Lyon, Al Clark

☆ Jack Lemmon, Glenn Ford, Brian Donlevy, Anna Kashfi, Dick York, Richard Jaeckel, King Donovan

'Describes with an engaging mixture of saddlesore truth and reach-for-leather fiction what a cowboy's life was like in the Old West.' – Time

🏆 editing

The Cowboy and the Girl: see A Lady Takes a Chance

The Cowboy and the Lady

US 1938 91m bw
Samuel Goldwyn

The daughter of a presidential candidate becomes infatuated with a rodeo cowboy.

Insubstantial and witless romantic comedy which suffered many sea changes from script to screen.

w Leo McCarey, S. N. Behrman, Sonya Levien d H. C. Potter ph Gregg Toland m Alfred Newman

☆ Gary Cooper, Merle Oberon, Patsy Kelly, Walter Brennan, Fuzzy Knight, Henry Kolker, Harry Davenport

'By and large only mildly diverting ... the interest and promise of the early reels is not sustained in the latter half.' – Variety

'Just a lot of chestnuts pulled out of other people's dead fires.' – Otis Ferguson

🏆 Alfred Newman; title song (m Lionel Newman, ly Arthur Quenzer)

Cowboy from Brooklyn

US 1938 80m bw
Warner

A supposed cowboy crooner is taken out west and proves to be terrified of animals.

Genial but witless spoof of a trend of the times.

w Earl Baldwin play Howdy Stranger by Robert Sloane, Louis Pelletier Jnr d Lloyd Bacon

☆ Pat O'Brien, Dick Powell, Priscilla Lane, Dick Foran, Ann Sheridan, Ronald Reagan, Johnnie Davis, James Stephenson

† Remade as Two Guys from Texas.

'How the East was won.'

The Cowboy Way

US 1994 105m DeLuxe
Universal/Imagine/Brian Grazer

Two rodeo stars go to New York in search of a kidnapped daughter of a Cuban friend.

Smug and unlikeable lead performances sink this comedy from the start, though it would have sunk anyway, whoever had played the roles.

w Joe Gayton, William Wittliff d Gregg Champion ph Dean Semler m David Newman ed Michael Tronick

☆ Woody Harrelson, Kiefer Sutherland, Ernie Hudson, Dylan McDermott, Cara Buono, Marg Helgenberger, Tomas Milian

'The action sequences are lacklustre and the bickering and bonding between the likeable leads is drearily predictable.' – Film Review

The Cowboys ★

US 1972 128m Technicolor Panavision 70
Sanford/Warner (Mark Rydell)

Deserted by his ranch hands, a cattle drover on a long trail enlists the help of eleven schoolboys, who later avenge his death.

Ambling, climactically violent, extremely unlikely Western with good scenes along the way.

w Irving Ravetch, Harriet Frank Jnr novel William Dale Jennings d Mark Rydell ph Robert Surtees m John Williams

☆ John Wayne (Wil Andersen), Roscoe Lee Browne (Jebediah Nightlinger), Bruce Dern (Long Hair), Colleen Dewhurst (Kate), Slim Pickens (Anse), Sarah Cunningham (Annie Andersen), A. Martinez (Cimarron), Robert Carradine (Slim Honeycutt), Alfred Barker Jnr (Fats), Nicolas Beauvy (Dan), Steve Benedict, Norman Howell Jnr, Stephen Hudis (Charlie Schwartz), Sean Kelly (Stuttering Bob), Clay O'Brien and also Sam O'Brien, Mike Pyeatt

† A TV series followed in 1974 but was shortlived.

'How far will you go?'

Cowboys and Angels ★

Ireland/Germany/GB 2003 89m colour
Wide Eye/IFB/Filmförderung/BKM/Peter Stockhaus/Grosvenor Park (Nathalie Lichtenthaler)

In Limerick, a naive young civil servant finds his life transformed when he moves into a flat with a gay art student and becomes involved in a drug deal.

Slight coming-of-age drama with enough charm to carry it through a somewhat predictable narrative.

wd David Gleeson ph Volker Titel m Stephen McKeon pd Jim Furlong ed Andrew Bird

☆ Michael Legge (Shane), Allen Leech (Vincent), Amy Shiels (Gemma), Frank Kelly (Jerry), David Murray (Keith), Colm Coogan

'Offers a fresh mix of open-minded intelligence and a heartfelt point of view.' – Anita Gates, New York Times

Coyote (dubbed)

Canada 1993 99m colour
Alliance/Stock International/Molecule/Canal+ (Richard Sadler, Henry Lange)

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · 🏆 Academy Award · 🏆 Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

A student film-maker falls in love with a free-thinking woman.
Turgid 'teen romance, visually and dramatically undistinguished, and unconvincing in its moments of joy and misery.
w Michel Michaud, Richard Sadler, Richard Ciupka, Louise Anne Bouchard novel Michel Michaud d Richard Ciupka ph Steve Danyluk m Reinhardt Wagner
ad Jean-Baptiste Tard ed Jean-Guy Monpetit ☆ Mitsou, Patrick Labbé, Thierry Magnier, Claude Legault, François Massicotte, Jean-Claude Dreyfus

Coyote Moon: see Desert Heat

'Tonight, they're calling the shots.'

Coyote Ugly

US 2000 100m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Jerry Bruckheimer)

Facing hard times in New York, a songwriter from the suburbs falls in love with a hamburger cook and gets a job working in a rowdy club where the waitresses are expected to dance on the bar.
One of those romantic, innocent-makes-good, rags-to-riches plots that Hollywood has never been able to resist, though the audience may find it easier to do so.
w Gina Wendkos d David McNally ph Amir Mokri m Trevor Horn pd Jon Hutman ed William Goldenberg cos Marlene Stewart ch Travis Payne ☆ Piper Perabo (Violet Sanford), Adam Garcia (Kevin O'Donnell), Maria Bello (Lil), John Goodman (Bill), Melanie Lynskey (Gloria), Izabella Miko (Cammie), Bridget Moynahan (Rachel), Tyra Banks (Zoe), Del Pentacost (Lou), Michael Weston (Danny), LeAnn Rimes (Herself)
'More laughably misguided than outright offensive.' – Sight and Sound
'Almost bad enough to be good.' – Empire
† Piper Perabo's singing was dubbed by LeAnn Rimes.

Crack in the Mirror

US 1960 97m bw Cinemascope
TCF/Darryl F. Zanuck

A young lawyer and his ageing mentor are at opposite sides of a murder case.
Pointless Paris-set melodrama in which for no obvious reason each of the three stars plays two roles. Relentlessly boring.
w Mark Canfield (Darryl F. Zanuck)
d Richard Fleischer ph William C. Mellor
m Maurice Jarre
☆ Orson Welles, Bradford Dillman, Juliette Greco, William Lucas, Alexander Knox, Catherine Lacey

Crack in the Mirror

US 1988 94m colour
Blue Dolphin/Jubran Group (Fred Berner, Jubran Jubran)

A drug-dealer, on the run from a rival gangster, asks a friend to look after his business.
Convoluted tale of killers and addicts, full of heavy-handed anti-drugs polemic.
w Robert Madero d Robby Benson
ph Neil Smith m Nile Rodgers ed Alan Miller, Craig McKay
☆ Robby Benson, Tawny Kitaen, Danny Aiello, Kevin Gray, Cliff Bemis, Tony Gillan, Paul Herman, Tony Sirico, Mark Ornstein

'Thank God it's only a motion picture!'

Crack in the World

US 1965 96m Technicolor
Paramount/Security (Philip Yordan, Bernard Glasser, Lester A. Sansom)

A dying scientist fires a missile into the Earth's centre, and nearly blows the planet apart.
Jaded science-fiction melodrama, overburdened with initial chat but waking up when the special effects take over.
w Jon Manchip White, Julian Halevy (Julian Zimet) d Andrew Marton ph Manuel Berenguer m John Douglas ad Eugene Lourié sp John Douglas ☆ Dana Andrews, Janette Scott, Kieron Moore, Alexander Knox, Peter Damon, Gary Lasdun
† Screenwriter Zimet used a pseudonym because he was blacklisted at the time.

Crack Up ★

US 1946 93m bw
RKO

A museum curator with an eye for forgery is discredited by crooks who make him appear drunk or half-crazed when he recounts a set of strange events which have happened to him...
The intriguing mystery of the opening reels, when solved, is replaced by rather dull detection, but this remains a thriller with a difference, generally well presented.
w John Paxton d Irving Reis ph Robert de Grasse m Leigh Harline ☆ Pat O'Brien, Claire Trevor, Herbert Marshall, Ray Collins

Cracked Nuts

US 1931 65m bw
RKO

Two Americans get mixed up in a revolution in a mythical country.
Padded farce vehicle for a comedy team.
w Al Boasberg, Ralph Spence d Edward F. Cline ph Charles Van Enger ad Jack Otterson ed Milton Carruth ☆ Bert Wheeler, Robert Woolsey, Ben Turpin, Edna May Oliver, Dorothy Lee
'As a two-reeler it would be fair entertainment.' – Variety

Crackerjack ★

GB 1938 79m bw
Gainsborough (Edward Black)
US title: The Man with a Hundred Faces

A gentleman thief poses as butler at a stately home.
Fairly smart sardonic star vehicle.
w A. R. Rawlinson, Michael Pertwee, Basil Mason novel W. B. Ferguson d Albert de Courville ph J. J. Cox
☆ Tom Walls, Lilli Palmer, Noel Madison, Leon M. Lion, Edmund Breon, Charles Heslop
'Carelessly made but fairly engrossing.' – Variety

Crackers

US 1984 92m Technicolor
Universal/Edward Lewis

Incompetent crooks run a pawnshop.
Insufficiently rethought, San Francisco set, updating of Monicelli's 1956 comedy Big Deal on Madonna Street/I Soliti Ignoti. No longer at all funny.
w Jeffrey Fiskin d Louis Malle ph Laszlo Kovacs m Paul Chihara pd John L. Lloyd ☆ Donald Sutherland, Jack Warden, Sean Penn, Wallace Shawn, Larry Riley, Trinidad Silva, Charlaine Woodard, Irwin Corey
'One can sense that it would all sound much funnier in Italian.' – Variety

The Cracksman

GB 1963 112m Technicolor Cinemascope
ABPC

A master locksmith becomes the unwitting dupe of a gang of safecrackers.
The most elaborate vehicle devised for this diminutive star; despite bright moments, conventional mounting and over-generous length finally defeat it.
w Lew Schwartz, Charlie Drake d Peter Graham Scott
☆ Charlie Drake, George Sanders, Dennis Price, Nyree Dawn Porter, Eddie Byrne, Finlay Currie, Percy Herbert

'Born 2 the life. True 2 the code. Bad 2 the bone.'

Cradle 2 the Grave

US 2003 99m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (Joel Silver)

A master crook and an intelligence agent join forces to rescue the thief's kidnapped daughter and save the world from a weapon of mass destruction.
Very loud, extremely frenetic action movie with a risible narrative and dialogue that is frequently buried by the rap soundtrack.
w John O'Brien, Channing Gibson
d Andrzej Bartkowiak ph Daryn Okada
m John Frizzell, Damon 'Grease' Blackman
ed Derek G. Brechin martial arts choreographer Corey Yuen
☆ Jet Li (Su), DMX (Tony Fait), Anthony Anderson (Tommy), Kelly Hu (Sona), Tom Arnold (Archie), Mark Dacascos (Ling)
'Pic's sustained rush of kick-butt fight action and vehicular chases, spiked with the usual hip-hop/techno soundtrack, should lure young male audiences in droves.' – David Rooney, Variety

Cradle Song ★

US 1933 78m bw
Paramount (E. Lloyd Sheldon)

A nun adopts a foundling.
Stately transcription of a once-fashionable play, too concerned with its own artistic background and handicapped by a star who didn't travel well, except to those partial to Jewish nuns.
w Marc Connelly play G. M. Martinez Sierra d Mitchell Leisen ph Charles Lang
m W. Franke Harling
☆ Dorothea Wieck, Evelyn Venable, Sir Guy Standing, Louise Dresser, Kent Taylor, Gertrude Michael, Nydia Westman, Eleanor Wesselhoeft
'It moves slowly, laboriously ... as a commercial entry decidedly dubious.' – Variety

The Cradle Will Rock ★★

US 1999 135m Technicolor Super 35
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Havoc (Jon Kilik, Lydia Dean Pilcher, Tim Robbins)

When, in New York in 1936, the authorities prevent the opening of Marc Blitzstein's musical play The Cradle Will Rock, the cast march to another theatre and, forbidden to act on stage, play it from the auditorium.
A true story, and a fascinating and important one, is given a rousing treatment, providing a panoramic view of the artistic ferment of the time, when passions ran high, and art and politics could be united in a common cause.
wd Tim Robbins ph Jean Yves Escoffier
m David Robbins m/ly Marc Blitzstein pd Richard Hoover ed Geraldine Peron cos Ruth Myers
☆ Hank Azaria (Marc Blitzstein), Ruben Blades (Diego Rivera), Joan Cusack (Hazel Huffman), John Cusack (Nelson Rockefeller), Cary Elwes (John Houseman), Philip Baker Hall (Gray Mathers), Cherry Jones (Hallie Flanagan), Angus Macfadyen (Orson Welles), Bill Murray (Tommy Crickshaw), Vanessa Redgrave (Comtesse LaGrange), Susan Sarandon (Margherita Sarfatti), Jamey Sheridan (John Adair), John Turturro (Aldo Silvano), Emily Watson (Olive Stanton), Bob Balaban (Harry Hopkins) and also Barnard Hughes, Barbara Sukowa, John Carpenter, Gretchen Mol, Harris Yulin
'What Robbins also achieves here is an astonishingly moving tribute to the power of theatre... but you have to actually be interested in the subject matter to appreciate it.' – Lorien Haynes, Film Review

'Exorcise Your Rites.'

The Craft

US 1996 100m Technicolor
Columbia (Douglas Wick)

A new girl at school joins forces with three others who practise witchcraft.
Tiresome and unoriginal teenage horror, notably lacking in any imaginative use of the powers its protagonists summon up.
w Peter Filardi, Andrew Fleming
d Andrew Fleming ph Alexander Gruszynski m Graeme Revell pd Marek Dobrowolski ed Jeff Freeman
☆ Robin Tunney, Fairuza Balk, Neve Campbell, Rachel True, Skeet Ulrich, Christine Taylor, Breckin Meyer, Nathaniel Marston, Cliff de Young, Helen Shaver, Assumpta Serna
'Full of gorgeous young actresses – high school girls have rarely been given such an appealing lustre – but it also has great visuals, sure drama and applied intelligence; a rare combination in horror movies.' – Chris Savage King, Sight and Sound

Craig's Wife ★

US 1936 77m bw
Columbia

A middle-class wife lets her house take precedence over her husband.
Capable picturization of a Broadway success, later remade as Harriet Craig (qv).
w Mary McCall Jnr, George Kelly play George Kelly d Dorothy Arzner
ph Lucien Ballard md Morris Stoloff
☆ Rosalind Russell, John Boles, Billie Burke, Jane Darwell, Dorothy Wilson, Alma Kruger, Thomas Mitchell, Elizabeth Risdon, Raymond Walburn

Crainquebille ★

France 1922 70m approx (16 fps) bw silent
Trarieux Films

A street trader is unjustly accused and imprisoned, afterwards finding happiness as a tramp.
Somewhere between Chaplin and Kafka, this fable was long admired for its style.
wd Jacques Feyder story Anatole France
ph Léonce Burel
☆ Maurice de Féraudy, Françoise Rosay, Felix Oudart
† Remade 1933 by Jacques de Baroncelli with Maurice Tramel; 1954 by Ralph Habib with Yves Deniaud.

The Cranes Are Flying ★★★

USSR 1957 94m bw
Mosfilm

original title: Letyat Zhuravli

When her lover goes to war, a girl refuses to believe later reports of his death even though she has suffered much, including marriage to a bully, in the interim.

Sleek, moving love story with most of the Hollywood production virtues plus an attention to detail and a realism which are wholly Russian.

w Victor Rosov d Mikhail Kalatozov ph Sergei Urusevski ed M. Timofeyeva

☆ Tatiana Samoilova (Veronica), Alexei Batalov (Boris), Vasili Merkuriev (Fyodor Ivanovich)

'Poison in his veins. Vengeance in his heart.'

Crank ★★ (5)

US 2006 83m
UIP/Lakeshore Entertainment/Radical Media/Lionsgate/GreeneStreet Films (Michael Davis, Gary Lucchesi, Tom Rosenberg, Skip Williamson, Richard Wright)

A hit man is injected with a lethal drug that will close down his system in one hour. Pumping himself full of stimulants, he tracks down the crime syndicate responsible for his attempted murder.

Outrageous nonsense, but this gore-drenched, high-octane action kitsch is a fast-paced, thrill-a-minute adrenal rush, graced with a deliciously deadpan Jason Statham performance.

wd Mark Neveldine, Brian Taylor ph Adam Biddle m Paul Haslinger pd Jerry Fleming ad Chris Cornwell ed Brian Berdan sp Matt Kutcher

☆ Jason Statham (Chev Chelios), Amy Smart (Eve), Jose Pablo Cantillo (Verona), Efren Ramirez (Kaylo), Dwight Yoakam (Doc Miles)

'The film is so jubilantly over the top and aware of its own failings, it's hard not to laugh.' – Anna Smith, Time Out

Crash!

US 1977 85m DeLuxe Panavision
Group One/Charles Band

A crippled husband sets out to murder his wife, but she is protected by a good-luck charm with magic powers.

Ineffably silly occult thriller, consisting mainly of unspectacular car crashes which are all reprised towards the end of the film to ensure total tedium.

w Marc Marais d Charles Band ph Andrew Davis, Bill Williams m Andrew Belling ad Patrick McFadden ed Harry Keramidas

☆ José Ferrer, Sue Lyon, John Ericson, Leslie Parrish, John Carradine, Jerome Guardino, Reggie Nalder

Crash ★★ (3)

Canada 1996 98m DeLuxe
Columbia TriStar/Alliance (David Cronenberg)

After being injured in a car crash, a man and a woman are initiated into a group that is sexually aroused by such occurrences.

A compelling, not very likeable movie that gives new meaning to auto-eroticism, in an account of technological fetishism that is stylishly made and seriously intended.

wd David Cronenberg novel J. G. Ballard ph Peter Suschitzky m Howard Shore pd Carol Spier ed Ronald Sanders

☆ James Spader (James Ballard), Holly Hunter (Helen Remington), Elias Koteas (Vaughan), Deborah Unger (Catherine Ballard), Rosanna Arquette (Gabrielle), Peter MacNeill (Colin Seagrave)

'A forbiddingly frigid piece of esoteric erotica.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

† After much controversy, the film was passed uncut in Britain; the British Board of Film Classification consulted a forensic psychologist, an audience of the disabled and a QC, who concluded that 'rather than sympathising or identifying with the attitudes or tastes of the characters in this film, the average viewer would in the end be repelled by them, and would reject the values and sexual proclivities displayed.' The Daily Mail condemned the BBFC's decision, commenting, 'All the pyscho-babble in the world cannot refute the simple fact: The film is sick. It should not be shown.'

'You think you know who you are. You have no idea.'

Crash ★★ (6)

US 2004 107m colour
Pathé/Blackfriar's Bridge/Harris/Apollo Pro Screen/Bull's Eye (Cathy Schulman, Don Cheadle)

In Los Angeles, the lives of many people, from car-jackers to the district attorney and his wife, collide, and all of them are angry and most are racist.

The acting lifts the script above its simple-minded exploration of bigotry and compromise; the narrative is too diagrammatic and full of obvious character reversals to be convincing, though individual scenes do have dramatic power.

w Paul Haggis, Bobby Moresco d Paul Haggis ph J. Michael Muro m Mark Isham pd Laurence Bennett ed Hughes Winborne

☆ Sandra Bullock (Jean), Don Cheadle (Graham), Matt Dillon (Officer Ryan), Jennifer Esposito (Ria), Brendan Fraser (Rick), Terrence Howard (Cameron), Chris Bridges (Anthony), Thandie (Christine), Michael Pena (Daniel)

'A frustrating movie: full of heart and devoid of life; crudely manipulative when it tries hardest to be subtle; and profoundly complacent in spite of its intention to unsettle and disturb.' – A.O. Scott, New York Times

'Sharply observed and frequently extremely funny as well as artfully orchestrated..' – Philip French, Observer

Academy Award: film; script; Hughes Winborne

Academy Award nomination: Paul Haggis (as director); Matt Dillon; song 'In the Deep' (m/l Kathleen York, m Michael Becker)

BAFTA: Thandie Newton; script

Crash Dive ★

US 1943 105m Technicolor
TCF (Milton Sperling)

A submarine lieutenant and his commander love the same girl.

Well-staged war thrills in the final reels are prefaced by a long romantic comedy build-up, which probably seemed good propaganda at the time.

w Jo Swerling story W. R. Burnett d Archie Mayo ph Leon Shamroy m David Buttolph md Emil Newman sp Fred Sersen

☆ Tyrone Power, Anne Baxter, Dana Andrews, James Gleason, Dame May Whitty, Henry Morgan, Frank Conroy, Minor Watson

'One of those films which have no more sense of reality about this war than a popular song.' – Bosley Crowther

The Crash of Silence: see Mandy

Crashout

US 1955 83m bw
Hal E. Chester/Standard

Six convicts escape from prison, but most of them die en route.

Watchable melodrama, fairly savage for its day.

w Hal E. Chester, Lewis R. Foster d Lewis R. Foster

☆ William Bendix, Arthur Kennedy, Luther Adler, William Talman, Gene Evans, Marshall Thompson, Beverly Michaels

The Crawling Eye: see The Trollenberg Terror

Craze

GB 1973 95m Technicolor
EMI/Harbour (Herman Cohen)

An African idol accidentally causes a death which brings money to its owner, who kills again and again in the hope of more loot.

Crude shocker from the bottom of even this producer's barrel, notable for the star cast which was surprisingly roped in.

w Aben Kandel, Herman Cohen novel Infernal Idol by Henry Seymour d Freddie Francis ph John Wilcox m John Scott

☆ Jack Palance, Diana Dors, Julie Ege, Edith Evans, Hugh Griffith, Trevor Howard, Michael Jayston, Suzy Kendall, Martin Potter, Percy Herbert, Kathleen Byron

'Why Are The Good People Dying?'

The Crazies ★

US 1973 102m colour
Pittsburgh Films/Cambist/Lee Hessel (A. C. Croft)

aka: Code Name: Trixie

The army seals off a small town when its inhabitants become mad and violent following the crash of a plane carrying a deadly virus; but the locals object to martial law.

Fast-moving, low-budget horror movie that also attempts to be a satire on rigid, military attitudes; it does achieve a certain frisson by its driving relentlessness and copious killing.

wd George A. Romero story Paul McCollough ph S. William Hinzman m Bruce Roberts ed George A. Romero sp Regis Survinski, Tony Pantanello

☆ Lane Carroll, W. G. McMillan, Harold Wayne Jones, Lloyd Hollar, Lynn Lowry, Richard Liberty, Richard France, Harry Spillman

'Average paranoia movie ... Romero is better at maintaining a high body count than being profound.' – Sight and Sound

Crazy/Beautiful

US 2001 99m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Mary Jane Ufland, Harry J. Ufland, Rachel Pfeffer)

A spoilt rich girl disrupts the life of a hardworking Latino student.

Convincing performances make this an occasionally insightful teen romance, though its predictability soon swamps its attempts to portray any reality about relationships.

w Phil Hay, Matt Manfredi d John Stockwell ph Shane Hurlbut m Paul Haslinger pd Maia Javan ed Melissa Kent cos Susan Matheson

☆ Kirsten Dunst (Nicole Oakley), Jay Hernandez (Carlos Nunez), Bruce Davison (Tom Oakley), Lucinda Jenney (Courtney), Taryn Manning (Maddy), Rolando Molina (Hector)

'An unusually observant film about adolescence.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

'There is much to grate on your nerves in this TV Afterschool Special trying to pass as a real movie.' – Peter Travers, Rolling Stone

Crazy Desires of a Murderer

Italy 1977 95m Eastmancolor
Vistavision
Gl.BA.Sl. (Salvatore Siciliano)

original title: I Vizi Morbosi di una Governante

A limping inspector investigates murders at a castle inhabited by a senile baron whose mad son is incarcerated in the cellars, his promiscuous daughter, her decadent friends, an alcoholic doctor, and criminal servants.

An unpalatable mix of old-fashioned detective mystery, melodrama, gruesome horror and irrelevant couplings; the solution to the mystery leaves much unexplained.

w Ambrogio Molteni d Peter Rush (Filippo Ratti) ph Gino Santini m Piero Piccioni ad Gino Tonni ed Sergio Muzzi

☆ Corrado Gaipa, Roberto Zattin, Isabelle Marchal, Anie Edel, Gaetano Russo, Beppe Colombo, Sergio Orsi, Claudio Peticchio, Patrizia Gori

† The British video release runs for 85m.

Crazy House

US 1943 80m bw
Universal (Erle C. Kenton)

Olsen and Johnson go to Hollywood to make a film.

Lame sequel to Hellzapoppin*; after an explosively well edited first reel of panic in the studio, it degenerates into a slew of below-par variety turns.*

w Robert Lees, Frederic I. Rinaldo d Edward F. Cline ph Charles Van Enger md George Hale, Milt Rosen

☆ Ole Olsen, Chic Johnson, Martha O'Driscoll, Patric Knowles, Percy Kilbride, Cass Daley, Thomas Gomez, Edgar Kennedy

† Sherlock Holmes fans may or may not wish to record a two-line comic bit by Basil Rathbone and Nigel Bruce in character.

Crazy House: see The House in Nightmare Park (1973)

'Sometimes you have to lose your mind to find your freedom.'

Crazy in Alabama ★

US 1999 111m DeLuxe 'Scope
Columbia/Green Moon (Meir Teper, Linda Goldstein Knowlton, Debra Hill, Diane Sillan Isaacs)

In the mid-60s a young Southern boy combats racism in his community, while his aunt abandons her seven children and heads for Hollywood, carrying with her the severed head of her husband.

An odd movie: on the one hand, a serious look at bigotry and the struggle against segregation, as seen through the eyes of a 13-year-old white youth; on the other, the comic odyssey of a naive woman who will do anything to become a star; the two stories hardly cohere, and the sudden shifts in tone are unsettling, but it is at least out of the ordinary.

w Mark Childress novel Mark Childress d Antonio Banderas ph Julio Macat m Mark Snow pd Cecilia Montiel ed Maysie Hoy, Robert C. Jones cos Graciela Mazon

☆ Melanie Griffith (Lucille), David Morse (Dove), Lucas Black (Peejoe), Cathy

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Moriarty (Earlene), Meat Loaf Aday (Sheriff John Doggett), Rod Steiger (Judge Mead), Richard Schiff (Norman), John Beasley (Nehemiah), Robert Wagner (Harry Hall), Noah Emmerich (Sheriff Raymond), Sandra Seacat (Meemaw), Paul Ben-Victor (Mackie), Brad Beyer (Jack), Fannie Flagg (Sally), Elizabeth Perkins (Joan Blake) and also Paul Mazursky (Walter Schwegmann)

'An ungainly fit of three stories that have no business being shoehorned into the same movie.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

† It was released direct to video in Britain.

Crazy Joe

US/Italy 1973 99m Technicolor
Bright-Persky/De Laurentiis

The rise and fall of a Mafia hood in New York.

Noisy, violent, reasonably proficient gangster movie which seems to have some pretensions to play against stereotype.

w Lewis John Carlino d Carlo Lizzani

☆ Peter Boyle, Paula Prentiss, Fred Williamson, Charles Cioffi, Rip Torn, Luther Adler, Eli Wallach, Henry Winkler

Crazy Lips

Japan 2000 85m colour
OZ Productions (Taka Ichise, Makoto Ishihara, Naoto Kumazawa)

original title: Hakkyousuru Kuchibiru

A family suffering from a media siege over the killing of schoolgirls is taken over by crazed psychics preparing for a second coming of their god.

An unhealthy stew of gore, headless ghosts, rape, incest, murder, dismemberment and overexcitable acting in which the narrative lacks any sense or logic; it is intended to amuse.

w Hiroshi Takahashi d Hirohisa Sasaki ph Tokusho Kikumura m Gary Ashiya action director Hung Yan Yan

☆ Hitomi Miwa (Satomi Kurahashi), Kazuma Suzuki (Michio Kurahashi), Ren Osugi (Colonel), Hiroshi Abe (Narimoto), Hijiri Natsukawa (Kaori Kurahashi), Yoshiko Yura (Etsuko Mamiya)

Crazy Love ★

Belgium 1987 87m Eastmancolor
Mainline/Multimedia (Erwin Provoost, Alain Keytsman)

US title: Love Is a Dog from Hell

A frustrated boy, full of romantic longings, grows up to be a necrophiliac.

Episodic and squalid story of a journey from innocence to drug-addicted desperation, told with style.

w Marc Didden, Dominique Deruddere story The Copulating Mermaid of Venice, California and other works by Charles Bukowski d Dominique Deruddere ph Willy Stassen m Raymond Van Het Groenewoud pd Hubert Pouille, Erik Van Belleghem ed Ludo Troch, Guido Henderickx

☆ Josse de Pauw, Geert Hunaerts, Michael Pas, Gene Bervoets, Amid Chakir, François Beukelaers, Florence Beliard, Carmela Locantore

'A movie for people with a perverse sense of humor or a persistent sexual acne – a low-keyed sexual reverie.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

Crazy Mama ★★

US 1975 80m colour
New World (Julie Corman)

In 1958 Arkansas, mother and daughter set off on a series of robberies and kidnaps which end in violence.

Exploitation crime movie with no apparent basis in fact; as such, occasionally exciting for those who can tolerate this kind of thing.

w Robert Thom d Jonathan Demme ph Bruce Logan m Snotty Scotty and the Hankies

☆ Cloris Leachman, Ann Sothern, Stuart Whitman, Jim Backus, Linda Purl, Brian Englund

Crazy Moon

Canada 1987 90m colour
Miramax/Tom Berry, Stefan Wodoslawsky

A rich, clever, miserable and inhibited youth falls for a tough-minded, deaf shop assistant.

While the couple may have enjoyed a moment's happiness, it is doubtful whether an audience will; a dull drama of teenage traumas, acted and directed without much conviction.

w Tom Berry, Stefan Wodoslawsky d Allan Eastman ph Savas Kalogeras m Lou Forestieri ad Guy Lalande ed Franco Battista

☆ Kiefer Sutherland, Vanessa Vaughan, Peter Spence, Sean McCann, Bronwen Mantel, Eve Napier, Ken Pogue

'A comedy about truth in advertising.'

Crazy People

US 1990 92m Technicolor
UIP/Paramount (Thomas Barad)

An ad-man runs his business from a rest home for mental patients.

Unsatisfactory would-be satire.

w Mitch Markowitz d Tony Bill ph Victor J. Kemper m Cliff Eidelman ad Steven Schwartz ed Mia Goldman

☆ Dudley Moore, Daryl Hannah, Paul Reiser, J. T. Walsh, Bill Smitrovich, Alan North, David Paymer

'Damp, indulgent squib of a film.' – Geoff Brown, MFB

† Markowitz began as director, with John Malkovich in the leading role. When Markowitz was replaced, Malkovich left, to be replaced by Dudley Moore.

The Crazy Ray: see Paris Qui Dort

Crazy Streets: see Forever Lulu

Crazy to Kill: see Dr Gillespie's Criminal Case

The Crazy World of Julius Vrooder

US 1974 98m colour
TCF

A Vietnam veteran withdraws from the world.

Well-meaning but tiresome problem pic which gets nowhere.

w Daryl Henry d Arthur Hiller

☆ Timothy Bottoms, Barbara Seagull, Lawrence Pressman, Albert Salmi

The Crazy World of Laurel and Hardy ★★

US 1964 83m bw
Hal Roach/Jay Ward

A compilation of Laurel and Hardy extracts from their classic period.

Although the material is in itself excellent and some of the build-up sequences well done, the clips are all too short to achieve maximum impact, and virtually none is identified.

w Bill Scott m Jerry Fielding narrator Garry Moore

Created to Kill: see Embryo

Creator

US 1985 107m Technicolor
Entertainment/Universal/Kings Road (Stephen Friedman)

A research scientist tries to clone his dead wife.

Sentimental and eccentric comedy of little interest.

w Jeremy Leven novel Jeremy Leven d Ivan Passer ph Robbie Greenberg m Sylvester Levay ad Josan F. Russo ed Richard Chew

☆ Peter O'Toole, Mariel Hemingway, Vincent Spano, Virginia Madsen, David Ogden Stiers, John Dehner

Creature Comforts ★★★

GB 1989 5m colour
Aardman Animations/Channel 4 (Sara Mullock)

Animals discuss the pleasures and disadvantages of living in a zoo.

A clever and witty marrying of stop-motion animation with vox-pop interviews; it was successful enough to spawn a series of similar TV commercials and product merchandising.

d Nick Park ed William Ennals

♟ animated short

'Not since the beginning of time has the world beheld terror like this!'

The Creature from the Black Lagoon

US 1954 79m bw 3-D
U-I (William Alland)

Up the Amazon, scientists encounter a fearful fanged creature who is half man, half fish.

Unpersuasive and unsuspenseful horror hokum from the bottom drawer of imagination: it did, however, coin enough pennies to generate two even worse sequels, Revenge of the Creature (1955) and The Creature Walks Among Us (1956). And the underwater photography is super.

w Harry Essex, Arthur Ross d Jack Arnold ph William E. Snyder m Herman Stein, Hans Salter md Joseph Gershenson ed Ted J. Kent

☆ Richard Carlson (Dr David Reed), Julie Adams (Kay Lawrence), Richard Denning (Mark Williams), Antonio Moreno (Dr Carl Maia), Nestor Paiva (Lucas), Ben Chapman (Gill Man), Whit Bissell (Dr Thompson)

† Ricou Browning played the Gill Man in the underwater scenes, as he did in its two lesser sequels.

'He Comes From Beyond The Grave!'
'Based On Scientific Facts!'

The Creature with the Atom Brain

US 1955 80m bw
Columbia (Sam Katzman)

A scientist creates super-strong robot men, who go on the rampage.

Comic strip style chiller, not too bad to sit through.

w Curt Siodmak d Edward L. Cahn

☆ Richard Denning, Angela Stevens, Gregory Gaye, Tristram Coffin

Creatures the World Forgot

GB 1971 95m Technicolor
Columbia/Hammer (Michael Carreras)

Quarrels break out between rival tribes of Stone Age men.

Feeble follow-up to One Million Years BC and When Dinosaurs Ruled the Earth: someone forgot to order any monsters.

w Michael Carreras d Don Chaffey ph Vincent Cox m Mario Nascimbene pd John Stoll ed Chris Barnes

☆ Julie Ege, Brian O'Shaughnessy, Robert John, Marcia Fox, Rosalie Crutchley

'Your journey terminates here.'

Creep

GB/Germany 2004 84m colour 'Scope
Pathé/UKFC/Filmstiftung Nordrhein-Westfalen/Dan/zero west (Julie Baines, Jason Newmark)

A deformed creature haunts the tunnels of London's underground railway system, killing unwary poassengers.

Derivative horror movie that amounts to little more than a succession of unpleasant murders and protracted scenes of torture.

d Christopher Smith ph Danny Cohen m The Insects pd John Frankish ed Kate Evans

☆ Franka Potente (Kate), Vas Blackwood (George), Ken Campbell (Arthur), Jeremy Sheffield (Guy), Paul Rattray (Jimmy), Kelly Scott (Mandy), Sean Harris (Craig)

'Creep has some intriguing location work and interesting ideas, but nausea and boredom soon overtake the chills.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

The Creeper

US 1948 63m bw
TCF

Scientists disagree over a serum which changes humans into cats.

Nonsense horror item with stalwart cast.

w Maurice Tombragel d Jean Yarbrough

☆ Ralph Morgan, Eduardo Ciannelli, Onslow Stevens, June Vincent, Richard Lane

Creepers

Italy 1984 110m Eastmancolor
Palace/Dacfilm (Dario Argento)

aka: Phenomena

In Switzerland, a sleep-walking schoolgirl with the ability to communicate with insects is helped by a wheelchair-bound entomologist and his chimpanzee to track down a serial killer who murders girls and keeps their bodies.

Daft and gruesome horror that lacks style and sense; it has a plethora of murderers, it is never fully explained who did what to whom, its intention is to disgust rather than shock, and its heavy-metal soundtrack is a frequent distraction.

w Dario Argento, Franco Ferrini d Dario Argento ph Romano Albani m Goblin, Bill Wyman, Iron Maiden, Motorhead, Andy Sex Gang and others pd Maurizio Garrone, Nello Giorgetti, Luciano Spadoni, Umberto Turco ed Franco Fraticelli

☆ Jennifer Connelly, Daria Nicolodi, Dalila di Lazzaro, Donald Pleasence, Patrick Bauchau, Fiore Argento, Federica Mastroianni, Fiorenza Tessari, Michele Soavi

'The saddest aspect of this farrago is the way that, even in this toned-down version, Argento goes for sickness after the manner of Lucio Fulci.' – Kim Newman, MFB

'Argento is the rock Toscanini of the hack-em-up.' – David Edelstein, Village Voice

† The version released in Britain runs for 83m. It was Argento's first English-language film.

The Creeping Flesh ★

GB 1972 91m Eastmancolor
Tigon/World Film Services (Michael Redbourn)

A Victorian scientist discovers that water causes the recomposing of tissue on the skeleton of a Neanderthal man.
Absurd but persuasive horror film, quite well done in all departments.
w Peter Spenceley, Jonathan Rumbold d Freddie Francis ph Norman Warwick m Paul Ferris ☆ Peter Cushing, Christopher Lee, Lorna Heilbron, George Benson, Kenneth J. Warren, Duncan Lamont, Michael Ripper

'The theme of the different attempts to locate and hence control evil is interestingly and sensitively worked out.' – Robin Wood, MFB

The Creeping Unknown: see The Quatermass Experiment

'The most fun you'll ever have being scared!'

Creepshow

US 1982 120m colour
United Film Distribution/Laurel Show (Richard P. Rubenstein)

A boy reads five gruesome stories from a horror comic.
Supposedly funny but mainly rather nasty recreation of a famous 'comic' style; far too extended for its own good.
w Stephen King d George A. Romero ph Michael Gornick m John Harrison pd Tom Savini
☆ Carrie Nye, Viveca Lindfors, Stephen King, Leslie Nielsen, Hal Holbrook, Adrienne Barbeau, E. G. Marshall

'Robert Bloch and Freddie Francis did it all so much better in Torture Garden.' – Tom Milne, MFB

Creepshow 2

US 1987 89m colour
Laurel/New World (David Ball)

Horror anthology of three gory pulp stories.
Cheapjack sequel, of no interest whatsoever.
w George A. Romero stories Stephen King d Michael Gornick ph Dick Hart, Tom Hurwitz m Les Reed ed Peter Weatherly
☆ Lois Chiles, George Kennedy, Dorothy Lamour, Tom Savini, Page Hannah

Crest of the Wave: see Seagulls over Sorrento

'It may be artificial, but it's still their turf.'

The Crew ★

US 2000 87m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone/George Litto (Barry Sonnenfeld, Barry Josephson)

Aged gangsters living in a rundown retirement hotel decide to stage a murder in order to scare away the wealthy young who are moving into the area and putting up the cost of living.
Mildly amusing comedy, where the pleasure derives from seeing professionals enjoying their work.
w Barry Fanaro d Michael Dinner ph Juan Ruiz-Anchia m Steve Bartek pd Peter Larkin ed Nicholas C. Smith cos Betsy Cox
☆ Burt Reynolds (Joey 'Bats' Pistella), Richard Dreyfuss (Bobby Bartellemeo), Dan Hedaya (Mike 'The Brick' Donatelli), Seymour Cassel (Tony 'Mouth' Donato), Carrie-Anne Moss (Det Olivia Neal), Jennifer Tilly (Ferris Lowenstein), Lainie Kazan Raul (Pepper Lowenstein), Miguel Sandoval (Ventana), Jeremy Piven (Det Steve Menteer), Casey Siemaszko (Young Bobby), Matt Borlenghi (Young Joey), Billy Jayne (Young Tony), Jeremy Ratchford (Young Mike)

'Lightweight but surprisingly likable comedy.' – Variety

Le Cri de Hibou ★★

France/Italy 1987 102m colour
Italfrance Films/TF1 (Gerard Croce)

aka: The Cry of the Owl
As his divorce to his vindictive wife becomes absolute, a depressed commercial artist introduces himself to a young woman on whose apparently happy life he has been spying; before long, he finds himself accused of murder and the target of a killer.
An intriguing, downbeat psychological thriller, a study of a man who seems to carry death with him, and of jealousy, revenge and love, observed with a dispassionate eye.
w Odile Barski, Claude Chabrol novel Patricia Highsmith d Claude Chabrol ph Jean Rabier m Matthieu Chabrol md Michel Ganot ed Monique Fardoulis ☆ Christophe Malavoy, Mathilda May, Jacques Penot, Jean-Pierre Kalfon, Virginie Thevenet

'For the most part shows Chabrol at his best.' – Sight and Sound

Le Cri du Coeur ★

France 1994 86m colour
Les Films de la Plaine/De L'Avenir/CEC Rhône-Alpes (Bernard Granger)

An 11-year-old boy, who travels with his mother from his African village to join his father in Paris, is haunted by visions of a hyena roaming the city streets.
Interesting drama of assimilation into a foreign land and culture, as seen through the eyes of a child, but lacking in dramatic impetus.
w Idrissa Ouédraogo, Robert Gardner, Jacques Akchoti, Olivier Douyère d Idrissa Ouédraogo ph Jean Monsigny, Jean-Paul Meurisse m Henri Texler ad Olivier Paultre, Alain Poirot ed Luc Barnier
☆ Richard Bohringer, Said Diarra, Félicité Wouassi, Alex Descas, Clémentine Célarié, Jean-Yves Gautier

'Well-made, dignified ... though pic's main audience will be viewers interested in African cinema.' – Variety

Cria!: see Raise Ravens

Cria Cuervos: see Raise Ravens

Cries and Whispers: see Viskningar och Rop

Crime and Punishment ★

US 1935 88m bw
Columbia

A student kills a pawnbroker and is tortured by remorse.
Heavy-going rendering of Dostoievsky with some pictorial interest.
w S. K. Lauren, Joseph Anthony novel Dostoievsky d Josef von Sternberg ph Lucien Ballard m Arthur Honegger md Louis Silvers ☆ Peter Lorre, Edward Arnold, Tala Birell, Marian Marsh, Elizabeth Risdon, Mrs Patrick Campbell

'Will have to be sold, but should average fair takings.' – Variety

Crime and Punishment ★

France 1935 110m bw

A murderer is overcome with remorse for his crime.
Incisive, well-acted French version of Dostoievsky's novel.
w Marcel Aymé novel Dostoievsky d Pierre Chénal m Arthur Honegger ☆ Pierre Blanchar, Harry Baur, Marcelle Geniat, Madeleine Ozeray

'There's a real picture in this Dostoievsky book, and the French have proved it.' – Variety

Crime and Punishment USA

US 1958 96m bw
Allied Artists/Sanders Associates (Terry Sanders)

A student murders an old pawnbroker and is driven mad by guilt.
Pointless updating of Dostoievsky by two young film-makers who seemed for years to be on the brink of a masterpiece but never actually produced it. Some points of interest, but the low budget is cramping.
w Walter Newman d Denis Sanders ph Floyd Crosby m Herschel Burke Gilbert
☆ George Hamilton, Frank Silvera, Mary Murphy, John Harding, Marian Seldes

'There is about it a strange quality of aimlessness which nullifies much of its effect.' – MFB

Crime by Night ★

US 1944 72m bw
Warner (William Jacobs)

A private detective reluctantly solves a small-town murder, and finds a spy.
Second feature which was thought at the time to have established a new pair of married detectives in the tradition of The Thin Man. However, one poor sequel, Find the Blackmailer, put paid to the idea.
w Richard Weil, Joel Malone novel Forty Whacks by Geoffrey Homes d William Clemens ph Henry Sharpe
☆ Jerome Cowan, Jane Wyman, Faye Emerson, Charles Lang, Eleanor Parker, Cy Kendall, Creighton Hale Crime Doctor ★

US 1943 66m bw
Columbia

An amnesiac becomes a successful psychiatrist, then discovers that he was once a wanted gangster.
Time-passing second feature from a popular radio series. Ten Crime Doctor films were made between 1943 and 1949, all starring Warner Baxter, all except the first being locked room mysteries which seldom played fair with the audience.
The sequels:
1943 Crime Doctor's Strangest Case
1944 Shadows in the Night, Crime Doctor's Courage
1945 Crime Doctor's Warning
1946 Crime Doctor's Manhunt, Just before Dawn
1947 The Millerson Case
1948 Crime Doctor's Gamble
1949 Crime Doctor's Diary
w Graham Baker, Louise Lantz d Michael Gordon m Louis Silvers ☆ Warner Baxter, Margaret Lindsay, John Litel, Ray Collins, Harold Huber, Leon Ames, Don Costello

Crime Does Not Pay

A celebrated series of two-reel shorts made by MGM between 1935 and 1947.
In a hard-driving, tensely commentated manner more reminiscent of Warner filmmaking, they gave ample scope to trainee actors and directors in allegedly truthful re-enactments of contemporary crimes, often introduced by the state governor or police commissioner. The titles were as follows:
The titles were as follows:
1935 Buried Loot, d George B. Seitz; with Robert Taylor, Robert Livingston
1935 Racket, d George B. Seitz
1935 Desert Death, d George B. Seitz; with Raymond Hatton, Harvey Stephens 1935 A Thrill for Thelma, d Edward Cahn; with Irene Hervey, Robert Warwick
1935 Hit and Run Driver, d Edward Cahn; with Morgan Wallace, Jonathan Hale
1935 Perfect Set-up, d Edward Cahn
1936 Foolproof, d Edward Cahn; with Niles Welch, Alonzo Price
1936 The Public Pays, d Errol Taggart; with Paul Stanton, Cy Kendall
1936 Torture Money, d Harold S. Bucquet
1937 It May Happen to You, d Harold S. Bucquet
1937 Soak the Poor, d Harold S. Bucquet
1937 Give Till it Hurts, d Felix Feist; with Janet Beecher, Howard Hickman
1937 Behind the Criminal, d Harold S. Bucquet; with Edward Emerson, Walter Kingsford
1938 What Price Safety, d Harold S. Bucquet; with John Wray, George Houston
1938 Miracle Money, d Leslie Fenton; with John Miljan, Claire DuBrey
1938 Come Across, d Harold S. Bucquet; with Bernard Nedell, Donald Douglas 1938 A Criminal is Born, d Leslie Fenton; with George Breakston, David Durand
1938 They're Always Caught, d Harold S. Bucquet; with Stanley Ridges, John Eldredge
1938 Think it Over, d Jacques Tourneur; with Lester Matthews, Dwight Frye
1938 The Wrong Way Out, d Gustav Machaty; with Linda Terry, Kenneth Howell
1939 Money to Loan, d Joe Newman; with Alan Dinehart, Paul Guilfoyle
1939While America Sleeps, d Fred Zinnemann; with Dick Purcell, Roland Varno
1939 Help Wanted, d Fred Zinnemann; with Tom Neal, Jo Ann Sayers
1939 Think First, d Roy Rowland; with Laraine Day, Marc Lawrence, Sara Haden
1939 Drunk Driving, d David Miller; with Dick Purcell, Jo Ann Sayers
1940 Pound Foolish, d Felix Feist; with Neil Hamilton, Lynne Carver 1940 Know Your Money, d Joe Newman; with Dennis Moore, Noel Madison
1940 Jackpot, d Roy Rowland; with Tom Neal, Ann Morriss
1940 Women in Hiding, d Joe Newman; with Marsha Hunt, C. Henry Gordon
1940 Buyer Beware, d Joe Newman; with Charles Arnt
1940 Soak the Old, d Sammy Lee; with Ralph Morgan, Kenneth Christy
1940 You the People, d Roy Rowland; with C. Henry Gordon, Paul Everton
1941 Respect the Law, d Joe Newman.
1941 Forbidden Passage, d Fred Zinnemann; with Harry Woods
1941 Coffins on Wheels, d Joe Newman; with Cy Kendall, Darryl Hickman
1941 Sucker List, d Roy Rowland; with Lynne Carver, John Archer
1942 For the Common Defense, d Allen Kenward; with Van Johnson, Douglas Fowley
1942 Keep 'em Sailing, d Basil Wrangell; with Jim Davis, Lou Smith
1943 Plan for Destruction, d Edward Cahn; with Lewis Stone
1944 Patrolling the Ether, d Paul Burnford
1944 Easy Life, d Walter Hart; with Bernard Thomas, Steve Geray
1944 Dark Shadows, d Paul Burnford; with Arthur Space, Henry O'Neill

1945 Fall Guy, d Paul Burnford; with Leon Ames
1945 The Last Instalment, d Walter Hart; with Cameron Mitchell, Walter Sande
1945 Phantoms Inc., d Harold Young; with Frank Reicher, Ann Shoemaker
1945 A Gun in His Hand, d Joseph Losey; with Anthony Caruso, Richard Gaines 1945 Purity Squad, d Harold Kress; with Byron Foulger, Dick Elliott
1947 Luckiest Guy in the World, d Joe Newman; with Barry Nelson, Eloise Hardt Crime in the Streets ★

US 1956 91m bw
Allied Artists (Vincent M. Fennelly)

Rival knife gangs bring havoc to tenement dwellers.
Lively semi-documentary low-life melodrama; routine subject, excellent credits.
w Reginald Rose TV play Reginald Rose d Don Siegel ph Sam Leavitt m Franz Waxman ☆ John Cassavetes, James Whitmore, Sal Mineo, Mark Rydell

The Crime of Dr Crespi

US 1935 64m bw
Republic

A surgeon induces suspended animation in a hated rival, and has him buried.
Crude and tasteless variation on Poe's 'The Premature Burial'.
w Lewis Graham, Edward Olmstead d John H. Auer ☆ Erich von Stroheim, Dwight Frye, Paul Guilfoyle, Harriet Russell
'As a baby scarer it's a weak entry.' – Variety

The Crime of Father Amaro: see El Crimen del Padre Amaro

The Crime of Monsieur Lange ★★

France 1936 85m bw
Obéron (André Halley des Fontaines)

original title: Le Crime de Monsieur Lange
When the hated boss of a publishing house is believed killed, the workers turn it into a successful co-operative. When he reappears, he is killed.
The political elements of this fable now seem unimportant, but it still shows its original charm and cinematic skill.
w Jacques Prévert d Jean Renoir ph Jean Bachelet m Jean Wiener ☆ René Lefèbvre, Jules Berry, Florelle, Sylvia Bataille, Henri Guisol

Crime of Passion

US 1956 86m bw
UA/Bob Goldstein (Herman Cohen)

An executive's wife sleeps her way to the top, but when the boss does not come through with promotion she shoots him.
Old-fashioned star melodrama on a low budget.
w Jo Eisinger d Gerd Oswald ph Joseph LaShelle m Paul Dunlap
☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Sterling Hayden, Raymond Burr, Fay Wray, Royal Dano, Virginia Grey

The Crime of the Century: see Walk East on Beacon (1952)

'Some kids have lots of time to kill.'

Crime + Punishment in Suburbia

US 2000 100m DeLuxe
United Artists/Killer (Pamela Koffler, Larry Gross, Christine Vachon)

A teenage girl asks her boyfriend to help her kill her drunken stepfather, who is making sexual advances to her.
An edgy and flawed work, with arthouse intentions (the narrative is divided into eight chapters and the visual style is blurry) at odds with the often derivative characters, who are rarely sharply defined.
w Larry Gross d Rob Schmidt ph Bobby Bukowski m Michael Brook pd Ruth Ammon ed Gabriel Wrye cos Sophie de Rakoff Carbonell
☆ Monica Keena (Roseanne Skolnik), Vincent Kartheiser (Vincent), Ellen Barkin (Maggie Skolnik), Jeffrey Wright (Chris), James DeBello (Jimmy), Michael Ironside (Fred Skolnik), Christian Payne (Dean), Conchata Ferrell (Bella), Marshall Teague (Coach), Nicki Aycox (Cecil), Brad Greenquist (Calvin Berry), Lucinda Jenney (Vincent's Mom)
'Summons up a been-there-seen-that reaction at nearly every turn.' – Variety
'A remarkable, haunting work.' – Kim Newman

Crime School ★

US 1938 86m bw
Warner (Bryan Foy)

Problems of the warden of a reform school.
Predictable vehicle for the Dead End Kids; watchable at the time.
w Crane Wilbur, Vincent Sherman d Lewis Seiler ph Arthur Todd m Max Steiner ☆ Humphrey Bogart, Gale Page, Billy Halop, Huntz Hall, Leo Gorcey, Bobby Jordan, Gabriel Dell, Bernard Punsley, Paul Porcasi, Al Bridge
'A rough entertainment, sometimes brutal ... should do well where audiences like 'em tough.' – Variety

Crime Story ★

Hong Kong 1993 100m colour
Golden Harvest (Leonard K. C. Ho)

original title: Chung On Tsou
A cop hunts down the ruthless kidnappers who have grabbed the millionaire he was assigned to guard.
There is less action and more acting than usual from its star in a tough and tense thriller, which builds to a satisfactory climax.
w Cheun Tin-nam, Chan Man-keung, Cheung Lai-ling d Kirk Wong ph Leu Wai-keung m James Wong ad Tony Au, Lui Cho-hung, Luk Tsi-leung ed Peter Cheung
☆ Jackie Chang, Kent Cheng, K'o Shou-liang, Ng Wing-mei, Poon Ling-ling
'Action set pieces and firepower are both high caliber, with a simmering tension that holds the whole together.' – Variety

'He had tired of her – and for that he was sorry! He was tied to her – and for that he hated her!'

Crime without Passion ★★

US 1934 82m bw
Paramount (Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur)

A lawyer is driven to commit murder.
Effective melodrama notable for then-new techniques which were blended into the mainstream of movie-making, and for the first appearance in Hollywood of a smart new writer-producer-director team.
wd Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur story Caballero of the Law by Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur ph Lee Garmes
m Oscar Levant sp Slavko Vorkapich
☆ Claude Rains, Margo, Whitney Bourne, Stanley Ridges
'It turns a lot of established motion picture conventions topsy-turvy ... shouldn't have much trouble at the box office, and inside the theatre it is safe.' – Variety
'The whole venture seems to take a long stride forward for the movies.' – Otis Ferguson
'A flamboyant, undisciplined, but compulsively fascinating film classic.' – Peter John Dyer, 1966

'Lead us not into temptation....'

El Crimen del Padre Amaro ★

Mexico/Spain/Argentina/France 2002 118m colour
Columbia TriStar/Alameda/BluFilms,/Foprocine/Del Edo de Veracruz-Llave (Alfredo Ripstein, Daniel Birman Ripstein)

aka: The Crime of Father Amaro
An ambitious, newly-ordained priest is corrupted by sex and power.
Absorbing, high-class soap opera that marked another step in Gael Garcia Bernal's path to international stardom.
w Vicente Lenero novel José Maria Eca de Queiroz d Carlos Carrera ph Guillermo Granillo m Rosino Serrano pd Carmen Gimenez Cacho ed Oscar Figueroa ☆ Gael Garcia Bernal (Father Amaro), Sancho Gracia (Father Benito), Ana Claudia Talancon (Amelia), Damian Alcazar (Father Natalio), Angelica Aragon (Sanjuanera), Luisa Huertas (Dionisia), Ernesto Gomez Cruz (Mayor), Gaston Melo (Martin)
'Stunningly real, three-dimensional study of souls in torment.' – Rex Reed, New York Observer † In Mexico, the film was condemned by the Catholic Church and became one of the country's biggest ever hits.
foreign film

Crimes and Misdemeanors ★★★

US 1989 104m DeLuxe
Rank/Orion (Robert Greenhut)

Brothers-in-law deal with marital crises.
Two interlinked stories, one comic, the other tragic, form a winning combination.
wd Woody Allen ph Sven Nykvist md Joe Malin pd Santo Loquasto ad Speed Hopkins ed Susan E. Morse ☆ Caroline Aaron (Barbara), Alan Alda (Lester), Woody Allen (Cliff Stern), Claire Bloom (Miriam Rosenthal), Mia Farrow (Halley Reed), Joanna Gleason (Wendy Stern), Anjelica Huston (Dolores Paley), Martin Landau (Judah Rosenthal), Jenny Nichols (Jenny), Jerry Orbach (Jack Rosenthal)
best director; best original screenplay; Martin Landau

Crimes at the Dark House

GB 1939 69m bw
Pennant (George King)

A Victorian landowner kills his wife and conceals the fact by using a lunatic as her double.
Cheeky adaptation of a classic to make one of the star's most lip-smacking barnstormers.
w Edward Dryhurst, Frederick Hayward, H. F. Maltby novel The Woman in White by Wilkie Collins d George King ph Hone Glendinning
☆ Tod Slaughter, Hilary Eaves, Sylvia Marriott, Hay Petrie, David Horne

Crimes of Passion

US 1984 104m colour
New World (Barry Sandler)

A prostitute tells her story at a group therapy session.
Predictably from this director, a hysterically overheated stew of sex and murder; one to walk away from.
w Barry Sandler d Ken Russell ph Dick Bush m Rick Wakeman
☆ Kathleen Turner, Anthony Perkins, John Laughlin, Annie Potts
'Film walks an uneasy line at times between comedy and drama, but is entertaining in the manner of a great B picture all about sex.' – Variety
'One of the silliest movies in a long time.' – Roger Ebert

Crimes of the Heart ★

US 1986 105m Technicolor
De Laurentiis/Freddie Fields-Burt Sugarman

Three sisters try to reconcile themselves with their family past.
Somewhat overwrought but generally compelling Southern comedy-drama.
w Beth Henley play Beth Henley d Bruce Beresford ph Dante Spinotti m Georges Delerue pd Ken Adam ☆ Diane Keaton, Jessica Lange, Sissy Spacek, Sam Shepard, Tess Harper, David Carpenter, Hurd Hatfield
Sissy Spacek, Tess Harper; Beth Henley

'To be seen is to exist.'

Crimetime ★

GB/US/Germany 1996 118m colour
First Independent/Focus/Channel 4/Pandora/Trimark (David Pupkewitz)

An actor begins to identify with a serial killer after he plays the murderer on a television show recreating the crimes as they occur.
A thriller that promises more than it finally delivers, raising intriguing questions about TV and identity which it then ignores.
w Brendan Somers d George Sluizer ph Jules van den Steenhoven m David A. Stewart pd Bernd Lepel ed Fabienne Rawley
☆ Stephen Baldwin, Pete Postlethwaite, Sadie Frost, Geraldine Chaplin, Karen Black, James Faulkner, Philip Davis, Marianne Faithfull
'Not helped by a succession of unappealing performances, nor the faintly surreal atmosphere, the mishmash of styles, accents and performances, or a host of dramatic short cuts that do no favours for credibility.' – Anwar Brett, Film Review

Crimewave

US 1986 83m Technicolor
Embassy/Pressman/Renaissance (Robert Tapert)

Two psychopaths are hired by a timid security man to murder his double-crossing partner.
Broad black farcical horror that is very noisy, but never funny.
w Ethan Coen, Joel Coen, Sam Raimi d Sam Raimi ph Robert Primes m Arlon Ober ad Gary Papierski ed Michael Kelly, Kathie Weaver
☆ Louise Lasser, Paul L. Smith, Brion James, Sheree J. Wilson, Edward R. Pressman, Bruce Campbell, Reed Birney
'A fiasco.' – Bruce Campbell

The Criminal ★

GB 1960 97m bw
Merton Park (Jack Greenwood)

US title: The Concrete Jungle

Sent to jail for a racecourse snatch, a gangster comes out fifteen years later to regain the loot and is followed by other criminals who kill him.

Relentlessly grim saga of prison life, with a few sensational trimmings.

w Alun Owen, Jimmy Sangster d Joseph Losey ph Robert Krasker m Johnny Dankworth

☆ Stanley Baker, Sam Wanamaker, Margit Saad, Patrick Magee, Noel Willman, Grégoire Aslan, Jill Bennett, Kenneth J. Warren, Nigel Green, Patrick Wymark, Murray Melvin

'A savage, almost expressionistic picture of English underworld life.' – NFT, 1973

'Innocence Is No Protection.'

The Criminal ★

GB/US 1999 100m DeLuxe
Downtown/Storm/Palm (Christopher Johnson, Mark Aarons, David Chapman)

After a girl he picks up is killed, a musician is suspected of her murder and goes on the run.

Tense, paranoid thriller that almost manages to persuade its audience of the plausibility of its increasingly unlikely narrative.

wd Julian Simpson ph Nic Morris m Music Sculptors pd Martyn John ed Mark Aarons

☆ Steven Mackintosh (Jasper Rawlins), Bernard Hill (Detective-Inspector Walker), Eddie Izzard (Peter Hume), Natasha Little (Sarah Maitland), Yvan Attal (Mason), Holly Aird (Det-Sgt Rebecca White), Jana Carpenter (Grace), Barry Stearn (Noble), Norman Lovett (Clive), Lisa Jacobs (Lucy), Georgia Mackenzie (Maggie), Daniel Brocklebank (Jonny)

'An above-average mystery-thriller.' – Variety

'Ever get the feeling you're being played?'

Criminal

US 2004 87m colour
Warner/Section 8/Criminal Films (Steven Soderbergh, George Clooney)

Two con men who are involved in a swindle over forged notes become suspicious of one another.

A remake of the Argentinian movie Nueve Reinas (qv), which gains nothing in the process; as with the original, it does not play fair with the audience.

w Gregory Jacobs, Sam Lowry screenplay Fabian Bielinsky d Gregory Jacobs ph Chris Menges m Alex Wurman pd Philip Messina ed Douglas Crise, Stephen Mirrione

☆ John C. Reilly (Richard Gaddis), Diego Luna (Rodrigo), Maggie Gyllenhaal (Valerie Gaddis), Jonathan Tucker (Michael Gaddis), Peter Mullan (Hannigan)

'Clever and diverting caper film. At least, it is as long as you don't think too hard about it.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

The Criminal Code ★

US 1930 97m bw
Columbia (Harry Cohn)

A young man kills in self-defence, is railroaded into jail and becomes involved in another murder.

Impressive melodrama with good performances and sharp handling.

w Seton I. Miller, Fred Niblo Jnr play Martin Flavin d Howard Hawks ph James Wong Howe, Ted Tetzlaff

☆ Walter Huston, Phillips Holmes, Constance Cummings, Mary Doran, De Witt Jennings, John Sheehan, Boris Karloff

† Remade as Penitentiary (1938) with Walter Connolly and Convicted (1950) with Broderick Crawford.

Seton I. Miller, Fred Niblo Jnr

Criminal Court

US 1946 63m bw
RKO (Martin Mooney)

A lawyer with political ambitions becomes involved in the death of a gangster.

Slick, pacey programmer with interesting moments.

w Lawrence Kimble story Earl Felton d Robert Wise ph Frank Redman m Paul Sawtell ed Robert Swink

☆ Tom Conway (Steve Banes), Martha O'Driscoll (Georgia Gale), Robert Armstrong (Vic Wright), Addison Richards (District Attorney), Pat Gleason (Joe West), Steve Brodie (Frankie), June Clayworth (Joan Mason), Robert Warwick (Marquette)

'Whoever fights monsters should see to it that in the process he does not become a monster.' Nietzsch'

Criminal Law

US 1989 118m colour Panavision
Hemdale/Northwood (Robert MacClean, Hilary Heath)

A successful lawyer decides that his client is a murderer.

Hysterical thriller that never convinces on any level.

w Mark Kasdan d Martin Campbell ph Philip Meheux m Jerry Goldsmith ed Chris Wimble

☆ Gary Oldman, Kevin Bacon, Karen Young, Joe Don Baker, Tess Harper, Ron Lea, Karen Woolridge, Terence Labrosse, Jennie Walker

'It dares to elaborate on its unbelievable central relationship between a driven yuppie lawyer and a charming old-money psychopath with hokey devices more redolent of some 40s old-dark-house movie than of a supposedly "serious" modern thriller.' – Kim Newman, MFB

Criminal Lawyer

US 1937 72m bw
RKO

A smart lawyer who has devoted his career to getting criminals off the hook has a change of heart when appointed district attorney.

Standard programmer with a first-rate star performance.

w G. V. Atwater, Thomas Lennon story Louis Stevenson d Christy Cabanne

☆ Lee Tracy, Margot Grahame, Eduardo Ciannelli, Erik Rhodes

'Strong fronter for a dual, but can go solo where Tracy's name will draw.' – Variety

The Criminal Life of Archibaldo de la Cruz ★

Mexico 1955 91m bw
Alianza Cinematografica (Roberto Figueroa)

original title: Ensayo de un Crimen

A fantasist determines to kill all women who cross his path, but fate intervenes.

Cheaply made macabre joke, one of its director's throwaway oddities: not too smooth, but often amusing.

w Luis Buñuel, E. Ugarte d Luis Buñuel ph Augusto Jimenez md Jorge Perez

☆ Ernesto Alonso, Ariadna Welter, Miroslava Stern, Rita Macedo

'Buñuel has not only given a frightful reality to melodramatic obsessions; he has created, in place of the grimaces, by now laughable, of the conventional madman of the screen, a whole repertory of erotic and deathly gestures which chill the flesh.' – Dilys Powell

Criminal Lovers: see Amants Criminels, Les

The Crimson Blade: see The Scarlet Blade

The Crimson Canary

US 1945 64m bw
Universal (Bob Faber)

A jazz band vocalist is murdered.

Routine murder mystery with appearances by Coleman Hawkins, Oscar Pettiford and Josh White.

w Henry Blankfort, Peggy Phillips d John Hoffman

☆ Noah Beery Jnr, Lois Collier, Danny Morton, John Litel, Steve Geray

The Crimson Code: see Red Team

The Crimson Cult: see Curse of the Crimson Altar

The Crimson Curtain ★

France 1952 43m bw
Argos

original title: Le Rideau Cramoisi

An officer billeted with a bourgeois family is visited at night by the beautiful daughter, who finally dies in his arms.

A curious polished fragment with narration replacing spoken dialogue. For those in the mood, it works.

wd Alexandre Astruc story Barbey d'Aurevilly ph Eugene Schufftan m Jean-Jacques Grunenwald

☆ Jean-Claude Pascal, Anouk Aimée, Madeleine Garcia, Jim Gerald

'In its limited time, with the greatest economy of means, it evokes an authentic sense of the past, as well as telling a story movingly and dramatically.' – Richard Roud

The Crimson Kimono ★

US 1959 82m bw
Columbia/Globe (Samuel Fuller)

Detectives seeking the murderer of a stripper in Los Angeles' Little Tokyo both fall in love with a witness.

Self-conscious local colour, though quite freshly observed and well photographed, finally overwhelms an ordinary little murder mystery.

wd Samuel Fuller ph Sam Leavitt m Harry Sukman

☆ Glenn Corbett, James Shigeta, Victoria Shaw, Anna Lee, Paul Dubov

'Ask me no questions: believe only what you see!'

The Crimson Pirate ★

GB 1952 104m Technicolor
Warner/Norma (Harold Hecht)

An 18th-century pirate and an eccentric inventor lead an island's people in rebellion against a tyrant.

One suspects that this started off as a straight adventure and was turned halfway through production into a spoof; at any rate, the effect is patchy but with spirited highlights, and the star's acrobatic training is put to good use.

w Roland Kibbee d Robert Siodmak ph Otto Heller m William Alwyn

☆ Burt Lancaster, Nick Cravat, Eva Bartok, Torin Thatcher, James Hayter, Margot Grahame, Noel Purcell, Frank Pettingell

The Crimson Rivers: see Les Rivières Pourpres

Crimson Tide ★★

US 1995 116m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Hollywood (Don Simpson, Jerry Bruckheimer)

The veteran captain of a US submarine and his Harvard-educated executive officer clash over what action should be taken after Russian rebels seize a nuclear missile base and they are under attack.

A thriller that grips and entertains despite its predictability and the familiarity of its doomsday scenario.

w Michael Schiffer d Tony Scott ph Dariusz Wolsky m Hans Zimmer pd Michael White ed Chris Lebenzon

☆ Denzel Washington, Gene Hackman, George Dzundza, Viggo Mortensen, James Gandolfini, Matt Craven, Rick Schroder, Jason Robards (uncredited)

'The Caine Mutiny on steroids.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times

'A boy's movie all the way, with enough expensive military hardware and tough-guy power plays to appeal to teenagers of all ages.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

† Quentin Tarantino, Robert Towne and Steve Zaillian worked uncredited on the script.

Chris Lebenzon; sound; sound effects editing

Crin Blanc ★★

France 1953 47m bw
Albert Lamorisse

aka: Wild Stallion

A small boy befriends and rides a wild horse in the Camargue.

A favourite short film of great beauty, but a shade overlong for its content.

wd Albert Lamorisse ph Edmond Séchan m Maurice Le Roux

☆ Alain Emery, Pascal Lamorisse

'For every man who struck gold – a hundred tried to take it away from him!'

Cripple Creek

US 1952 78m colour
Columbia (Edward Small)

A federal agent uncovers smugglers during a gold rush.

Adequate co-feature Western in murky colour.

w Richard Schayer d Ray Nazarro

☆ George Montgomery, Karin Booth, Jerome Courtland, William Bishop, Richard Egan, Don Porter

La Crise ★

France 1992 95m colour Panavision
Electric/TFI/Leader/Raidue/Canal/Alain Sarde

A man loses his wife and his job on the same day and cannot find anyone, apart from a drunk, to sympathize with his predicament.

An amusing, if slightly mechanical comedy, of a workaholic discovering that life has more to offer than work.

wd Coline Serreau ph Robert Alazraki m Sonia Wieder-Atherton pd Guy-Claude François ed Catherine Renault

☆ Vincent Lindon, Patrick Timsit, Annik Alane, Valerie Alane, Gilles Privat, Nanou Garcia, Christian Benedetti, Didier Flamand

'Amiable, crowd-pleasing entertainment with more than its fair share of good jokes.' – Sight and Sound

Crisis ★

Sweden 1946 93m bw
Svensk Filmindustri (Harald Molander, Victor Sjöström)

original title: Kris

An abandoned 18-year-old girl leaves her uneventful village life when her mother unexpectedly reclaims her and takes her to live in the city.

Bergman got the chance to direct this, his first film, when no one else wanted to touch the melodramatic material; he quarreled with his cinematographer, a documentarist who hated features and working indoors, and had to scrap all the early footage. The result is uneven but interesting as the apprentice work of a master.

wd Ingmar Bergman play Leck Fischer ph Gösta Roosling m Erland von Koch ad Arne kermark ed Oscar Rosander

☆ Dagny Lind (Ingeborg), Inga Landgré (Nelly), Marianne Löfgren (Jenny), Stig Olin (Jack), Allan Bohlin (Ulf), Ernst Eklund (Uncle Edvard), Signe Wirff (Aunt Jessie)

Crisis ★

US 1950 96m bw
MGM (Arthur Freed)

A brain surgeon is forced to operate secretly on a South American dictator, and his wife is kidnapped by revolutionaries.

Dour intellectual suspense piece, in key with the genteel enlightenment of the Dore Schary regime at MGM. Well made but cold.

wd Richard Brooks story George Tabori ph Ray June m Miklos Rozsa

☆ Cary Grant, José Ferrer, Signe Hasso, Paula Raymond, Ramon Navarro, Antonio Moreno, Leon Ames, Gilbert Roland

'Original, arresting and considered ... so far the most striking example of Dore Schary's policy of encouraging the development of new talents.' – Gavin Lambert

'A bold piece of movie adventuring.' – L.A. Mirror

Criss Cross ★

US 1948 87m bw
U-I (Michel Kraike)

An armoured car guard and his double-crossing ex-wife get mixed up with vicious gangsters.

Sordid film noir with a poor plot but suspenseful sequences.

w Daniel Fuchs novel Don Tracy d Robert Siodmak ph Franz Planer m Miklos Rozsa ad Bernard Herzbrun, Boris Leven ed Ted J. Kent

☆ Burt Lancaster, Yvonne de Carlo, Dan Duryea, Stephen McNally, Richard Long, Tom Pedi, Alan Napier

'Siodmak's talent for brooding violence and the sombre urban setting gives the film a relentlessly mounting tension.' – Peter John Dyer

CrissCross

US 1992 100m colour
MGM/Hawn-Sylbert (Anthea Sylbert)

A 12-year-old boy turns to crime to help his mother who works as a waitress and a stripper in order to support them.

Slow-moving domestic drama that fails to sustain one's interest.

w Scott Sommer novel Scott Sommer d Chris Menges ph Ivan Strasburg m Trevor Jones pd Crispian Sallis ed Tony Lawson

☆ Goldie Hawn, Arliss Howard, James Gammon, David Arnott, Keith Carradine, J. C. Quinn, Steve Buscemi

'At Memorial Hospital no one ever dies ... until their insurance runs out.'

Critical Care ④

US 1997 105m DeLuxe
Live Entertainment/Mediaworks (Steven S. Schwartz, Sidney Lumet)

An ambitious young hospital doctor is drawn into a battle between two sisters over the fate of their comatose father and his money.

Ailing satire on the medical profession, a heavy-handed melodrama with occasional pleasures.

w Steven S. Schwartz book Richard Dooling d Sidney Lumet ph David Watkin m Michael Convertino pd Philip Rosenberg ed Tom Swartwout

☆ James Spader, Kyra Sedgwick, Helen Mirren, Margo Martindale, Jeffrey Wright, Wallace Shawn, Anne Bancroft, Albert Brooks, Philip Bosco, Edward Herrmann, Colm Feore

'A sadly anemic and uncharacteristically unenergetic addition to Sidney Lumet's career.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'A comedy of epidemic proportions.'

Critical Condition

US 1986 100m Technicolor
Paramount (Ted Field, Robert Cort)

Pretending to be mad in order to escape the Mafia, our hero is instead mistaken for a doctor.

Zany, hepped-up comedy which fails on all counts.

w Denis and John Hamill d Michael Apted ph Ralf D. Bode m Alan Silvestri pd John Lloyd ed Robert K. Lambert

☆ Richard Pryor, Rachel Ticotin, Ruben Blades, Joe Mantegna, Bob Dishy

'Fans will find little to cheer about.' – Daily Variety

Critic's Choice

US 1963 100m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Frank P. Rosenberg

A ruthless Broadway critic is forced by his scruples to write a bad review of his wife's play.

Unsuitable vehicle for stars who have shorn a good comedy of wit and strive vainly for sentiment, wisecracks and pratfalls.

w Jack Sher play Ira Levin d Don Weis ph Charles Lang m George Duning

☆ Bob Hope, Lucille Ball, Marilyn Maxwell, Rip Torn, Jessie Royce Landis, John Dehner, Jim Backus, Marie Windsor

'For instant stultification.' – Judith Crist

Critters

US 1986 86m DeLuxe
Sho Films/Smart Egg/New Line (Rupert Harvey)

Hair-ball-like creatures arrive from an asteroid and devastate Kansas.

Childish horror spoof which makes Gremlins look like War and Peace.

w Stephen Herek, Domonic Muir d Stephen Herek ph Tim Suhrstedt, Chris Tufty m David Newman pd Gregg Fonseca ed Larry Bock

☆ Dee Wallace Stone, M. Emmet Walsh, Billy Green Bush, Scott Grimes

'Irritatingly insipid and lightweight.' – Variety

Critters 2

US 1988 86m colour
Palace/New Line/Sho films (Barry Opper)

original title: Critters 2: The Main Course

Killer aliens terrorise a town.

Even judged by the standards of the original, a dull and boring movie.

w D. T. Twohy, Mick Garris d Mick Garris ph Russell Carpenter m Nicholas Pike pd Philip Dean Foreman ed Charles Bornstein

☆ Terrence Mann, Don Opper, Cynthia Garris, Scott Grimes, Al Stevenson, Tom Hodges, Douglas Rowe, Liane Curtis

'A soft-centred remake of its amiable but unremarkable original.' – MFB

Critters 3

US 1992 86m colour
Newline/OH Films (Barry Opper, Rupert Harvey)

Furry man-eating aliens invade an apartment block in Los Angeles.

A mixture of gore and comedy that borrows from Die Hard.

w David J. Schow story Barry Opper, Rupert Harvey d Kristine Peterson ph Tom Callaway m David C. Williams pd Philip Dean Foreman ed Terry Stokes

☆ Aimee Brooks, John Calvin, Katherine Cortez, Leonardo DiCaprio, Geoffrey Blake, Don Opper, Diana Bellamy, Terrence Mann

Critters 4

US 1992 90m colour
New Line/OH Films (Barry Opper, Rupert Harvey)

A space salvage crew is trapped on a space station between the last surviving Krites and ruthless killers who want the creatures for biological warfare.

Almost a standard low-budget space parody of Alien, with a couple of jokes and the Critters reduced to occasional roll-on, roll-off roles.

w Joseph Lyle, David J. Schow story Barry Opper, Rupert Harvey d Rupert Harvey ph Tom Callaway m Peter Manning Robinson pd Philip Dean Foreman ed Terry Stokes

☆ Don Opper, Paul Whitthorne, Angela Bassett, Anders Hove, Eric DaRe, Brad Dourif

'Crocodile' Dundee ★

Australia 1986 102m Kodak Color Panavision
Paramount/Hoyts/Rimfire (John Cornell)

An outback hero goes to Manhattan and puts New Yorkers in their place.

Easygoing comedy with no real style, which astounded the industry by becoming one of America's most popular films in 1986.

w Paul Hogan, Ken Shadie d Peter Faiman ph Russell Boyd m Peter Best

☆ Paul Hogan, Linda Koslowski, John Meillon, Mark Blum

'Romancing the Stone combined with Tarzan's New York Adventure.' – Sight and Sound

'A movie doggedly designed to make you feel good.' – Vincent Canby, New York Times

best original screenplay

'Crocodile' Dundee II

Australia 1988 111m DuArt Panavision
Paramount/Rimfire (John Cornell, Jane Scott)

Hunted in New York by drug dealers seeking the return of an incriminating photograph, 'Crocodile' Dundee returns to the Australian bush where his superior skills can outwit them.

Ineffectual sequel that offers nothing new for its central character to do and merely recycles episodes from the first hit.

w Paul Hogan, Brett Hogan d John Cornell ph Russell Boyd m Peter Best pd Lawrence Eastwood ed David Stiven

☆ Paul Hogan, Linda Kozlowski, John Meillon, Ernie Dingo, Steve Rackman, Charles Dutton, Juan Fernandez, Hechter Ubarry

'A wasted opportunity if ever there was one.' – MFB

'He heard there was wildlife in L.A. He didn't know how wild.'

Crocodile Dundee in Los Angeles

US 2001 105m DeLuxe Panavision
Paramount/Silver Lion/Bangalow (Lance Hool, Paul Hogan)

An unemployed Australian crocodile hunter follows his journalist girlfriend to Los Angeles, where she is investigating a shady film producer.

The joke has worn very thin in this second sequel to a ramshackle hit of the mid-80s, and invention appears to have given out completely.

w Matthew Berry, Eric Abrams d Simon Wincer ph David Burr m Basil Poledouris pd Leslie Binns ed Terry Blythe

☆ Paul Hogan (Mick Dundee), Linda Kozlowski (Sue Charleton), Jere Burns (Arnan Rothman), Jonathan Banks (Milos Drubnik), Alec Wilson (Jacko), Paul Rodriguez (Diego), Serge Cockburn (Mikey Dundee), Mike Tyson (Himself)

'Nostalgia and comedy are run through a food processor until they become a flavorless paste. There must be somebody who gets a chuckle out of being led by the hand down memory lane, where the best surprise is no surprise.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

'Crickey!'

The Crocodile Hunter: Collision Course

US/Australia 2002 90m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/MGM/Best/Cheyenne

In Australia, CIA agents and a wildlife expert try to find a crocodile that has swallowed a surveillance device containing sensitive information.

A curious mix of croc-doc and childish thriller, featuring a popular, intrepid collector of dangerous animals and insects. The thriller elements are an irritating distraction, and the remainder is a re-run of Irwin's hyper-active television performances.

w Holly Goldberg Sloan d John Stainton ph David Burr m Mark McDuff pd Jon Dowding ed Suresh Ayyar , Bob Blasall

☆ Steve Irwin (Himself), Terri Irwin (Herself), Magda Szubanski (Brozzie Drewitt), David Wenham (Sam Flynn), Lachy Hulme (Robert Wheeler), Aden Young (Ron Buckwhiler), Kenneth Ransom (Vaughan Archer)

'One of the most purely pointless films you will ever see.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Cromwell ★

GB 1970 141m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/Irving Allen (Andrew Donally)

An account of the rise of Cromwell to power, the execution of Charles I, and the Civil War.

Disappointingly dull schoolbook history, with good production values but glum handling.
wd Ken Hughes ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Frank Cordell pd John Stoll
☆ Richard Harris, Alec Guinness, Robert Morley, Dorothy Tutin, Frank Finlay, Timothy Dalton, Patrick Wymark, Patrick Magee, Nigel Stock, Charles Gray, Michael Jayston, Anna Cropper, Michael Goodliffe
'It tries to combine serious intentions with the widest kind of popular appeal and falls unhappily between the two. It will offend the purists and bore the kiddies.' – Brenda Davies
'Shakespeare spoiled us for this sort of thing. We wait for great speeches and witty remarks, for rage and poetry, and we get dedicated stodginess.' – Pauline Kael
1 costumes (Nino Novarese)
1 Frank Cordell

Cronica di una Morte Annunciata: see Chronicle of a Death Foretold

Cronos ★★

Mexico 1992 92m Foto-Kem
October Films/Iguana/Ventana (Arthur H. Gorson)
An antique dealer finds a 400-year-old clockwork device containing a blood-sucking insect that confers immortality upon its user; but a rich, ruthless, dying industrialist is determined to obtain it for himself.
Deft, imaginative, original and gruesome variation on the vampire myth, stylishly directed and conjuring an atmosphere of genuine horror.
wd Guillermo del Toro ph Guillermo Navarro pd Tolita Figueroa ed Raul Davalos ☆ Federico Luppi, Ron Perlman, Claudio Brook, Margarita Isabel, Tamara Shanath
'With spot-on pulp dialogue, simple, poetic imagery and gothic sound-effects, this is nothing short of a near-masterpiece.' – Steve Beard, Empire
'Audaciously reinvents the vampire legend in order to deliver a completely satisfying film that is both entertaining and intelligent in a manner that few contemporary horror films are.' – Michael Lucas, Guardian

The Crook: see Le Voyou

The Crooked Road

GB/Yugoslavia 1964 92m bw
Agro/Triglav
An American journalist plans to expose as a crook the dictator of a small Balkan state, but finds himself framed for murder.
Lugubrious and too-talkative melodrama of political intrigue.
w J. Garrison, Don Chaffey novel The Big Story by Morris West d Don Chaffey
☆ Robert Ryan, Stewart Granger, Marius Goring, Nadia Gray, Catherine Woodville, George Coulouris

The Crooked Way

US 1949 87m bw
Benedict Bogeaus
An amnesiac ex-veteran finds that he was once a minor gangster.
Predictable thick ear with film noir aspirations.
w Richard Landau play No Blade Too Sharp by Robert Monroe d Robert Florey ph John Alton
☆ John Payne, Sonny Tufts, Ellen Drew, Rhys Williams

The Crooked Web

US 1955 77m bw
Columbia (Sam Katzman)
A restaurant owner is lured into a scheme to recover buried Nazi gold from Germany, but finds it is a means of arresting him on an old murder charge.
Ingenious but somehow uninteresting puzzle melodrama.
w Lou Breslow d Nathan Juran
☆ Frank Lovejoy, Richard Denning, Mari Blanchard

'A sweet concoction of 70's soul and fun, fun, fun!'

Crooklyn ★

US 1994 114m colour
Electric Triangle/40 Acres and a Mule/Child Hoods (Spike Lee)
In Harlem during the 1970s, an out-of-work jazz musician and his wife, a teacher, struggle to bring up their five unruly children.
A semi-autobiographical film, which may explain why it is as undisciplined as the family at its centre, as if the director were too close to his material to control it; much of the action is seen through the eyes of a 10-year-old girl, including a long sequence, shown in squeezed images, in which she is sent away to relatives; it has moments of vitality in which all the elements cohere.
w Joie Susannah Lee, Cinqué Lee, Spike Lee d Spike Lee ph Arthur Jafa m Terence Blanchard pd Wynn Thomas ed Barry Alexander Brown
☆ Alfre Woodard, Delroy Lindo, Spike Lee, Zelda Harris, Carlton Williams, Sharif Rashed
'The juke-box principle of film-making was never applied so enthusiastically, with practically every scene anchored by a song. But it's all too tempting to shut your eyes and pretend you're listening to The Best Soul Album Ever, since the film's dramatic content is so confused.' – Jonathan Romney, Guardian

Crooks and Coronets

GB 1969 106m Technicolor
Warner Seven Arts/Herman Cohen
US title: Sophie's Place
American gangsters plan to rob a stately home but are taken over by the dowager in charge.
Overlong and mainly flatulent comedy, with a good climax involving a vintage plane.
wd Jim O'Connolly ph Desmond Dickinson m Patrick John Scott ☆ Telly Savalas, Edith Evans, Warren Oates, Nicky Henson, Cesar Romero, Harry H. Corbett

Crooks Anonymous ★

GB 1962 87m bw
Anglo Amalgamated (Nat Cohen)
A pretty thief joins an organization for reforming criminals, but is tempted again ... and so are they.
Amusingly devised and plotted minor comedy with an exceptional cast.
w Jack Davies, Henry Blyth d Ken Annakin ph Ernest Steward m Muir Mathieson, Henry Martin
☆ Leslie Phillips, Stanley Baxter, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Julie Christie, James Robertson Justice, Robertson Hare, Charles Lloyd Pack

Crooks in Cloisters

GB 1963 97m Technicolor Scope
ABPC
Forgers pose as monks but are reformed by the country life.
Busy comedy full of familiar faces; perhaps a small cut above the Carry Ons.
w Mike Watts d Jeremy Summers
☆ Ronald Fraser, Barbara Windsor, Grégoire Aslan, Bernard Cribbins, Davy Kaye, Wilfrid Brambell

Crooks in Clover: see Penthouse

Crooks' Tour ★

GB 1940 84m bw
British National (John Corfield)
English tourists are mistaken for spies by Nazis in Baghdad.
Amusing vehicle for two comic actors who excelled at portraying the English abroad.
w John Watt, Max Kester radio serial Sidney Gilliat, Frank Launder
d John Baxter ph James Wilson
m Kennedy Russell
☆ Basil Radford, Naunton Wayne, Greta Gynt, Abraham Sofaer, Gordon McLeod
'Their bland imperturbability in the face of extraordinary circumstances provides no little fun.' – Picture Show

The Cross and the Switchblade

US 1970 106m colour
Fox/Dick Ross Associates
A minister sets out to rid his New York streets of delinquents.
Arrant but alas unconvincing do-goodery.
w Don Murray, James Bonnet d Don Murray
☆ Pat Boone, Erik Estrada, Jackie Giroux, Jo-Ann Robinson

Cross Country

Canada 1983 104m colour
Filmline/Yellowbill
The boyfriend of a murdered girl finds himself being driven west at gunpoint by a mad nymphomaniac and her protector.
No-holds-barred 'adult' thriller whose excesses become risible.
w Logan N. Danforth (John Hunter)
d Paul Lynch
☆ Richard Beymer, Nina Axelrod, Michael Ironside, Brent Carver

'The true story about the woman who wrote The Yearling'

Cross Creek ★

US 1983 122m Technicolor
EMI/Radnitz/Ritt (Robert B. Radnitz)
In 1928 Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings leaves her journalist husband and goes to live in the Florida backwoods, where she hopes to write a Gothic romance.
Elongated study of writer's block (though the subject did eventually write The Yearling*). Altogether too typical of its producer and director – and too slow – to hold much surprise or interest.*
w Dalene Young memoirs Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings d Martin Ritt ph John A. Alonzo m Leonard Rosenman
pd Walter Scott Herndon
☆ Mary Steenburgen, Rip Torn, Peter Coyote, Dana Hill, Ike Eisenmann, Alfre Woodard
'The landscapes are attractive, but much too lushly filmed with lyrical inserts in which the wonders of the bayou are contemplated. Good performances fail to mask the fact that the characters are stereotypes from start to finish.' – Tom Milne, MFB
'Everything is lighted to look holy, and when the score isn't shimmering and burnishing, nature is twittering.' – New Yorker
1 Rip Torn, Alfre Woodard, Leonard Rosenman

Cross My Heart ★

US 1945 83m bw
Paramount (Harry Tugend)
A romantic girl confesses to murder, is acquitted, and finds the real murderer.
Modest remake of True Confession (qv), with frenetic pace but not much style.
w Claude Binyon, Harry Tugend, Charles Schnee d John Berry ph Charles Lang Jnr m Robert Emmett Dolan ☆ Betty Hutton, Sonny Tufts, Michael Chekhov, Rhys Williams, Ruth Donnelly, Al Bridge, Howard Freeman, Iris Adrian

Cross My Heart

US 1987 90m DeLuxe
Universal (Lawrence Kasdan)
As they begin to fall in love, a man and a woman are unable to be honest with each other on a date that first goes disastrously wrong and then miraculously right.
Slight romantic comedy that needed the injection of a little more pace and variation to hold an audience's attention; it has a certain charm, though.
w Armyan Bernstein, Gail Parent
d Armyan Bernstein ph Thomas del Ruth
m Bruce Broughton pd Lawrence G. Paull
ed Mia Goldman
☆ Martin Short, Annette O'Toole, Paul Reiser, Joanna Kerns

Cross My Heart ★

Canada 1990 105m colour
Belbo (Ludi Boeken, Jacques Fansten)
original title: La Fracture du Myocarde
Frightened of being sent to an orphanage, a 12-year-old boy tries to conceal the death of his mother.
Enjoyable comedy that stretches credulity at times but at least presents believable children living in a recognizable world.
wd Jacques Fansten ph Jean-Claude Saillier m Jean Marie Senia pd Gilbert Gagneux ☆ Sylvain Copans, Nicolas Parodi, Cecilia Rouaud, Lucie Blossier, Delphine Gouttman 'Delightfully offbeat first feature ... Few will remain unmoved.' – Variety

Cross of Iron ★

GB/West Germany 1977 133m Technicolor
EMI-Rapid Film/Terra Filmkunst (Wolf. C. Hartwig)
Militarily and emotionally at the end of its tether, a German battalion is decimated while fighting the Russians in 1943.
Painful to follow, occasionally beautiful to watch, this quite horrid film offers too much opportunity for its director to wallow in unpleasant physical details, and its main plot of bitter rivalry offers no relief.
w Julius J. Epstein, Herbert Asmodi novel The Willing Flesh by Willi Heinrich
d Sam Peckinpah ph John Coquillon
m Ernest Gold
☆ James Coburn, James Mason, Maximilian Schell, David Warner, Klaus Löwitsch, Senta Berger
'Morally dubious but technically brilliant.'

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · 1 Academy Award · 1 Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

– Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

The Cross of Lorraine ★

US 1944 91m bw
MGM (Edwin Knopf)

In a German camp for French prisoners, an escape leads to a rising by local villagers.
Standard war propaganda piece, made with enthusiasm on unconvincing sets.
w Michael Kanin, Ring Lardner Jnr, Alexander Esway, Robert Andrews d Tay Garnett ph Sidney Wagner m Bronislau Kaper
☆ Gene Kelly, Jean-Pierre Aumont, Cedric Hardwicke, Peter Lorre, Joseph Calleia, Richard Whorf, Hume Cronyn

'Half a football team worked on the story, yet except for a foolish coda it is one of the most edged, well-characterized, and naturally cinematic scripts of the year.' – James Agee

Cross Shot

Italy 1976 95m colour
P.A.C. (Teodoro Agrimi)

A quick-tempered police inspector, a sensational journalist and a gangster attempt to track down a young cop-killer.
Portentous, studiedly slow thriller with nothing to recommend it, not even Lee J. Cobb (in a minor role, despite his star billing) as a blind Mafioso.
w Lucio de Caro, Piero Poggio, Maurizio Mengoni, Dardano Sacchetti, Ted Rusoff story Lucio de Caro d Stelvo Massi ph Mario Vulpiani m Piero Pintucci pd Carlo Leva ed Mauro Bonanni
☆ John Saxon, Lee J. Cobb, Renzo Palmer, Rosanna Fratello, Antonella Lualdi, Lino Capolicchio

Crossed Swords

Italy/USA 1954 83m Pathécolor
Viva Films (J. Barrett Mahon, Vittorio Vassarotti) original title: Il Maestro di Don Giovanni

The son of an Italian duke prevents an uprising.
A thin swashbuckler showing the perils of early co-production.
wd Milton Krims ph Jack Cardiff
☆ Errol Flynn, Gina Lollobrigida, Cesare Danova, Nadia Gray, Paola Mori

Crossed Swords: see The Prince and the Pauper (1977)

'Sensational? No, it's dynamite!'

Crossfire ★★★

US 1947 86m bw
RKO (Adrian Scott)

A Jew is murdered in a Washington hotel, and three soldiers are suspected.
Tense, talky thriller shot entirely at night with pretty full expressionist use of camera technique; notable for style, acting, experimentation, and for being the first Hollywood film to hit out at racial bigotry.
w John Paxton novel The Brick Foxhole by Richard Brooks d Edward Dmytryk ph J. Roy Hunt m Roy Webb ad Albert D'Agostino, Alfred Herman ed Harry Gerstad
☆ Robert Young (Finlay), Robert Mitchum (Keeley), Robert Ryan (Montgomery), Gloria Grahame (Ginny), Paul Kelly (The Man), Sam Levene (Joseph Samuels), Jacqueline White (Mary Mitchell), Steve Brodie (Floyd)

'Another murder story that holds its own with any on the basis of suspense and speed.' – Richard Winnington

best picture; John Paxton; Edward Dmytryk; Robert Ryan; Gloria Grahame

The Crossing

Australia 1990 92m colour
Beyond (Sue Seeary)

A young man returns home from the city, hoping to marry the girl he left behind, and disrupts a small community.
Heavy-handed domestic melodrama that looks like an imitation of American films of teenage rebellion and unsatisfactory parent–child relationships.
w Ranald Allan d George Ogilvie ph Jeff Darling m Martin Armiger pd Igor Nay ed Henry Dangar
☆ Russell Crowe, Robert Mammone, Danielle Spencer, Emily Lumbers, Rodney Bell, Ben Oxenbould, Myles Collins

'A funny movie about getting serious.'

Crossing Delancey ★

US 1988 97m DuArt
Warner (Michael Nozik)

A bookshop manager vacillates between an author and a pickle manufacturer as a suitable lover.
Small but enjoyable celebration of the simple life.
w Susan Sandler play Susan Sandler d Joan Micklin Silver ph Theo Van de Sande m Paul Chihara, The Roches pd Dan Leigh ed Rick Shaine
☆ Amy Irving, Peter Riegert, Reizl Bozyk, Jeroen Krabbe, Sylvia Miles, George Martin, John Bedford Lloyd

The Crossing Guard ★

US 1995 114m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Miramax (Sean Penn, David S. Hamburger)

An alcoholic jeweller plans to kill the man, just released from prison, who killed his daughter in a drunk-driving accident six years previously.
Grim, over-emphatic, slow-moving drama of loss and guilt, but one that elicits some good performances from the principals.
wd Sean Penn ph Vilmos Zsigmond m Jack Nitzsche, Joseph Vitarelli pd Michael Haller ed Jay Cassidy
☆ Jack Nicholson, David Morse, Anjelica Huston, Robin Wright, Piper Laurie, Richard Bradford, Robbie Robertson, John Savage

'A tough guy's weepie ... It's a trademark of the tough guy's weepie, incidentally, that it takes emotion seriously, but only among people who fight against it, i.e. men. Women get paradoxically short shrift, because they're meant to be good at that stuff.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

The Crossing of the Rhine ★

France/Italy/West Germany 1960 125m bw Franco-London-Gibe-Jonia-UFA (Ralph Baum)
original title: Le Passage du Rhin

Two French soldiers escape from the Germans in 1940 and after various adventures meet up again in Paris in 1945.
Two crowded plots and not a great deal of point emerge from this watchable war film full of conventional set-pieces.
w André Cayatte, Armand Jammot d André Cayatte ph Roger Fellous m Louiguy
☆ Charles Aznavour, Nicole Courcel, Georges Rivière, Cordula Trantow

Crossing the Bridge: The Sound of Istanbul ★★

Germany 2005 90m colour
Soda/Corazon/Intervista/NDR (Fatih Akin, Klaus Maeck, Andreas Thiel, Sandra Harzer-Kux, Christian Kux)

A German musician investigates the complex musical make-up of a city that straddles the traditions of the East and West.
Fascinating documentary on the music of Istanbul, ranging from tongue-twisting rap to rock, jazz and folk music as well as taking in the career of the city's best known pop composer, singer and film star Orhan Gencebay.
wd Fatih Akin ph Herve Dieu ed Andrew Bird
☆ Alexander Hacke, Baba Zula, Orient Expressions, Duman, Replikas, Erkin Koray, Istanbul Style Breakers, Orhan Gencebay

'More than just a musical primer. It's also a valentine to the city on the Bosporus, the strait that separates Istanbul's Asian and European sides.' – V. A. Musetto, New York Post

Crossing the Line: see The Big Man

Crossplot

GB 1969 97m Eastmancolor
UA/Tribune (Robert S. Baker)

An advertising executive gets involved in a spy ring.
Old-fashioned, London-set amalgam of secret codes, disappearing bodies, helicopter attacks, and a finale frustrating the assassination of a statesman in Hyde Park.
w Leigh Vance d Alvin Rakoff ph Brendan J. Stafford m Stanley Black ☆ Roger Moore, Martha Hyer, Alexis Kanner, Francis Matthews, Bernard Lee

Crossroads ★★

Japan 1928 80m approx bw silent
Shochiku
original title: Jujiro

A woman kills her seducer. Her brother thinks he has killed a man and takes refuge with her, only to die of shock when he sees the man alive.
The only widely distributed Japanese silent film, this curious piece is fragmentarily told and will remind many of Rashomon with its mixture of flashbacks and dreams.
wd Teinosuke Kinugasa ph Kohei Sugiyama
☆ J. Bandoha, A. Tschihaya, Yujiko Ogawa, I. Sohma

Crossroads ★

US 1942 84m bw
MGM (Edwin Knopf)

A French diplomat who once lost his memory is blackmailed by crooks who claim he was once a criminal.
Smooth mystery melodrama adapted from the French film Carrefour.
w Guy Trosper story Howard Emmett Rogers, John Kafka d Jack Conway ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Bronislau Kaper
☆ William Powell, Hedy Lamarr, Basil Rathbone, Claire Trevor, Margaret Wycherly, Felix Bressart, Sig Rumann

'Well directed and acted with polish, delightful romantic moments breaking up the general atmosphere of excitement and suspense.' – Picturegoer

Crossroads

US 1986 96m Technicolor
Delphi IV/Columbia (Mark Carliner)

Urged by a young musician, an old blues singer travels the South in search of his legendary companion's lost music.
Rather specialized and unsatisfactory road pic which loses its way well before the end.
w John Fusco d Walter Hill ph John Bailey m Ry Cooder ad Albert Heschong ed Freeman Davies
☆ Ralph Macchio, Joe Seneca, Jami Gertz, Joe Morton

'You can tell what's wrong with Crossroads when you try to describe it to friends. Half-way through the plot description, their eyes glaze over.' – People

'Dreams change. Friends are forever.'

Crossroads

US 2002 93m DeLuxe
Paramount/Zomba/MTV (Ann Carli)

Three girls make a trip to Los Angeles to celebrate their graduation from high school.
Exceptionally bland star vehicle for a pop singer and celebrity virgin.
w Shonda Rhimes d Tamra Davis ph Eric Edwards m Trevor Jones pd Waldemar Kalinowski ed Melissa Kent cos Wendy Schecter
☆ Britney Spears (Lucy), Anson Mount (Ben), Zoe Saldana (Kit), Taryn Manning (Mimi), Kim Cattrall (Caroline), Dan Aykroyd (Pete), Justin Long (Henry), Beverly Johnson (Kit's Mom)

'Innocuous in the extreme and very poorly written even on the teen trauma-lite level on which it operates.' – Todd McCarthy, Guardian

Crossworlds

US 1996 91m colour
Trimark (Rupert Harvey, Lloyd Segan)

A youth is hunted by beings from another dimension, who want the crystal left to him by his father, which unlocks the boundaries between worlds.
Low-budget, brainless science-fiction; it displays a paucity of imagination, as well as a paunchy Hauer, looking uncomfortable in the role of an action hero.
w Raman Rao, Krishna Rao d Krishna Rao ph Christopher Walling m Christopher Beck pd Aaron Osborne ed Anita Brandt-Burgoyne ☆ Rutger Hauer (A.T.), Josh Charles (Joe), Stuart Wilson (Ferris), Andrea Roth (Laura), Perry Anzilotti (Rebo), Richard McGregor (Stu), Jack Black (Steve)

Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon ★★

Hong Kong/Taiwan/US 2000 120m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/UCV/SPC/Good Machine/Edko/Zoom Hunt (Bill Kong, Hsu Li Kong, Ang Lee) original title: Wo Hu Zang Long

A master swordsman and a female security escort investigate the theft of a antique sword and find themselves engaged in a struggle to the death with a rebellious girl and an evil witch.
Following in the footsteps of King Hu and Tsai Hark, Lee's stylish fantasy of doomed love revives a familiar genre of flying swordsmen: it excels in the exuberant, airborne fight sequences, but its contrasting romances are both unsatisfactory, particularly in an protracted desert sequence, which resembles an Asian version of The Sheik.
w James Schamus, Wang Hui Ling, Tsai Kuo Jung novel Wang Du Lu d Ang Lee ph Peter Pau m Tan Dun pd Tim Yip ed Tim Squyres sp MVFX cos Tim Yip action ch Yuen Wo-Ping

☆ Chow Yun-fat (Li Mu Bai), Michelle Yeoh (Yu Shu Lien), Zhang Ziyi (Jen), Chang Chen (Lo), Lung Sihung (Sir Te), Cheng Pei-pei (Jade Fox), Li Fazeng (Governor Yu), Gao Xian (Bo), Hai Yan (Madam Yu), Wang Deming (Tsai), Li Li (May)

'It's pulp fiction presented in a grand, knowingly humorous style distinguished by star power, a strong female slant and the latest in stunts and effects.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'Ang Lee's beautiful, intimate epic is–one would have though self-evidently–a luminous work of art.' – Salman Rushdie

♟ foreign language film; Peter Pau; Tan Dun; Tim Yip (art direction)

♗ picture; Ang Lee; script (Wang Hui Ling, James Schamus, Tsai Kuo Jung); Tim Squyres; Tim Yip (costumes); song 'A Love Before Time' (m Jorge Calandrelli, Tan Dun, l James Schamus)

♉ foreign film; Ang Lee; Tan Dun; Tim Yip (costumes)

'He hates cheats.'

'Hang On Tightly... Let Go Lightly.'

Croupier

GB/Ireland/France/Germany 1997 94m colour
BFI/Little Bird/Tatfilm/Compagnie des Phares & Balises/La Sept/Channel4 (Jonathan Cavendish)

A would-be novelist and former croupier returns to working in a casino where he avoids the temptation to be dishonest.

Cool, impersonal thriller that keeps its distance from the events it shows, becoming a somewhat arid account of a man trapped in a world he understands but dislikes.

w Paul Mayersberg d Mike Hodges ph Mike Garfath m Simon Fisher Turner pd Jon Bunker ed Les Healey

☆ Clive Owen (Jack Manfred), Kate Hardie (Bella), Alex Kingston (Jani de Villiers), Gina McKee (Marion Neil), Nicholas Ball (Jack Manfred Snr), Nick Reding (Giles Cremorne), Alexander Morton (David Reynolds)

'Lurches from stylish tension and dry comedy to toe-curling awkwardness with perplexing regularity.' – Tom Doyle, Empire

'One of the niftiest noir character studies to have come along in a long time.' – Andrew Sarris, New York Observer

'Believe In Angels.'

'Darker than the bat.'

The Crow ★

US 1994 101m DeLuxe
Entertainment/Jeff Most/Edward R. Pressman

Accompanied by a crow, a rock guitarist returns from the dead to kill those responsible for the murders of him and his girlfriend.

Accomplished comic-book action which looks good but rarely takes flight, following an all-too-predictable pattern.

w David J. Schow, John Shirley comic book James O'Barr d Alex Proyas ph Dariusz Wolski m Graeme Revell pd Alex McDowell ed Dov Hoenig, Scott Smith visual effects Andrew Mason make-up Lance Anderson

☆ Brandon Lee, Ernie Hudson, Michael Wincott, Angel David, David Patrick Kelly, Rochelle Davis, Laurence Mason, Bai Ling, Tony Todd, Jon Polito

'A stunning work of visual style – the best version of a comic book universe I've seen.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

'A seamless, pulsating, dazzlingly visual revenge fantasy that stands as one of the most effective live-actioners derived from a comic strip.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

† Brandon Lee died in a shooting accident during filming. The film was completed using computer techniques of digital compositing, in which Lee's image was placed in scenes in which he did not appear, and his face substituted for that of his body double in some scenes. The sell-through video release included an on-camera interview with Lee made a few days before his death.

'Believe in the power of another...'

The Crow: City of Angels

GB/US 1996 86m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Bad Bird/Miramax/Dimension (Edward R. Pressman, Jeff Most)

A drowned man returns to life to revenge his, and his baby's, death at the hands of a gang of bikers.

Less a sequel than a rehash of the original, but without its visual power or even narrative interest.

w David Goyer comic book James O'Barr d Tim Pope ph Jean Yves Escoffier m Graeme Revell pd Alex McDowell ed Michael N. Knue, Anthony Redman, Barry Dresner, Neil Eric Wenger

☆ Vincent Perez, Mia Kirshner, Richard Brooks, Vincent Castellanos, Ian Dury, Tracey Ellis, Thomas Jane, Iggy Pop

'Offers the usual fragmentary "visions" of apocalypse, all mashed together into an occult junkyard that makes an average horror-trash music video look like a model of coherence.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

† The British release had 20 feet of film cut.

The Crowd ★★★

US 1928 98m bw silent
MGM (King Vidor)

Episodes in the life of a city clerk.

A deliberately humdrum story, chosen to show that drama can exist in the lowliest surroundings, retains much of its original power, though some of the director's innovations have become clichés.

w King Vidor, John V. A. Weaver, Harry Behn d King Vidor ph Henry Sharp ad Cedric Gibbons, Arnold Gillespie ed Hugh Wynn

☆ James Murray (John), Eleanor Boardman (Mary), Bert Roach (Bert), Estelle Clark (Jane)

'No picture is perfect, but this comes as near to reproducing reality as anything you have ever witnessed.' – Photoplay

♗ King Vidor; Unique and Artistic Picture

The Crowd Roars ★

US 1932 85m bw
Warner

A star motor-racing driver tries to prevent his young brother from following in his footsteps.

Typical early Cagney vehicle, still spectacularly pacy but dated in its dialogue scenes.

w Kubec Glasmon, John Bright, Niven Busch d Howard Hawks ph Sid Hickox, John Stumar md Leo Forbstein

☆ James Cagney, Joan Blondell, Ann Dvorak, Eric Linden, Guy Kibbee, Frank McHugh, Regis Toomey

'A thin and uneventful story, but a majority of the footage is devoted to three stirring contests.' – Variety

'As so often Hawks seems bitter at the world men have created but respects those who have to attempt to live it to the full.' – NFT, 1963

'The story is not precisely exciting ... the closing episode is the best, for it reveals a certain originality in having the injured automobile racers eager to continue the race in ambulances on the way to hospital.' – Mordaunt Hall, New York Times

† Remade in 1939 as Indianapolis Speedway.

The Crowd Roars ★

US 1938 90m bw
MGM (Sam Zimbalist)

A young boxer becomes involved with the underworld.

Standard star vehicle with efficient trimmings.

w Thomas Lennon, George Bruce, George Oppenheimer d Richard Thorpe ph John Seitz m Edward Ward

☆ Robert Taylor, Frank Morgan, Edward Arnold, Maureen O'Sullivan, William Gargan, Frank Craven, Jane Wyman, Lionel Stander, Nat Pendleton

'Exciting melodrama with plenty of ring action, some plausible romance and several corking good characterizations.' – Variety † Remade as Killer McCoy.

The Crowded Day

GB 1954 82m bw
Advance

Problems of five assistants in a department store during the Christmas rush.

Naïve little portmanteau which suited its purpose.

w Talbot Rothwell d John Guillermin

☆ Joan Rice, John Gregson, Freda Jackson, Patricia Marmont, Josephine Griffin, Sonia Holm, Rachel Roberts, Thora Hird, Dora Bryan, Edward Chapman, Sid James, Richard Wattis

The Crowded Sky

US 1960 104m Technicolor
Warner (Michael Garrison)

As two planes fly unwittingly towards each other, the passengers muse on their personal problems. An emergency landing averts total disaster.

The format goes back as far as Friday the Thirteenth, and forward to Airport 75, but this was in fact a cut-rate rehash of The High and the Mighty, with dull characters and insufficiently tense handling, not to mention a second team cast.

w Charles Schnee d Joseph Pevney ph Harry Stradling m Leonard Rosenman

☆ Dana Andrews, Rhonda Fleming, Efrem Zimbalist Jnr, John Kerr, Anne Francis, Keenan Wynn, Troy Donahue, Joe Mantell, Patsy Kelly

Crows and Sparrows ★

China 1949 113m bw
Peak Film Industries (Xia Yunhu, Ren Zongde)
original title: Wuya Yu Maque

Preparing to flee from the victorious Red Army, a landlord decides to sell his house and evict the tenants.

Lively slice-of-Chinese-life, made just before the Communist revolution.

w Shen Fu, Xu Tao, Zhao Dan, Lin Gu, Chen Baichen, Zheng Junli d Zheng Junli ph Miao Zhenhua, Hu Zhenhua md Wang Yunjie

☆ Zhao Dan, Wu Yin, Sun Daoling, Shanggluan Yunzhu, Wei Heling, Li Tianji, Huang Zongying, Wang Pei

'What Some Hearts Desire They Must Possess.'

'Arthur Miller's Timeless Tale Of Truth On Trial.'

The Crucible ★★ (7)

US 1996 123m Technicolor
TCF (Robert A. Miller, David V. Picker)

In Salem in the 1690s, a young woman claims that the wife of the married man she loves is a witch.

Powerful historical drama of the power of superstition when allied to the processes of an inquisition, though it has lost some of its contemporary relevance along the way.

w Arthur Miller play Arthur Miller d Nicholas Hytner ph Andrew Dunn m George Fenton pd Lilly Kilvert ed Tariq Anwar

☆ Daniel Day-Lewis, Winona Ryder, Paul Scofield, Joan Allen, Bruce Davison, Rob Campbell, Jeffrey Jones, Peter Vaughan, Karron Graves, Charlaine Woodard, George Gaynes

'Still possesses the power to stir up wrenching emotion through its elemental crises and conflicts. But neither the establishing dramatic linchpin nor the final conversion of conscience is terribly convincing, leaving this pared-down rendition of the original work diminished in power and meaning as well.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

♗ Joan Allen; Arthur Miller

♉ Paul Scofield

Crucible of Terror

GB 1971 91m Eastmancolor
Glendale (Tom Parkinson)

An art dealer and his girlfriend visit a reclusive artist with a penchant for murdering his models and turning them into bronze statues.

Slow-moving and dreary drama, with cliché-ridden dialogue and dull direction.

w Ted Hooker, Tom Parkinson d Ted Hooker ph Peter Newbrook m Paris Rutherford ad Arnold Chapkis ed Maxine Julius

☆ Mike Raven, Mary Maude, James Bolam, Ronald Lacey, Melissa Stribling, John Arnatt, Beth Morris, Judy Matheson, Betty Alberge

'What You Can't Have, You Can't Resist.'

Cruel Intentions ★

US 1999 95m DeLuxe
Columbia/Original/Newmarket (Neal H. Moritz)

Annoyed at losing her boyfriend, a rich girl wagers that her stepbrother cannot seduce two virgins.

A teenage version of a novel about world-weary adults; the attitudes of ennui and malice are an awkward fit on the young cast (even though they look too old to be still at school); but it has a little more bite than most movies aimed at a teen audience.

wd Roger Kumble novel Les liaisons dangereuses by Choderlos de Laclos ph Theo Van de Sande m Edward Shearmur pd Jon Gary Steele ed Jeff Freeman

☆ Sarah Michelle Gellar, Ryan Phillippe, Reese Witherspoon, Selma Blair, Louise Fletcher, Joshua Jackson, Eric Mabius, Sean Patrick Thomas, Swoosie Kurtz, Christine Baranski

'Nasty, profane and wickedly entertaining for the most part.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety

† Other recent films based on the novel include Dangerous Liaisons and Valmont (qqv).

Cruel Passion

GB 1977 97m Eastmancolor
Target International (Chris Boger)

Two sisters are sent away from a convent school: one becomes an aristocrat's mistress, the other is raped by him.
Good-looking but tedious and downbeat period drama, which owes little to de Sade and more to the British sex film industry of the 70s; its scenes of lesbian nuns, brothels and rape are not likely to find favour with the dirty macintosh brigade, and there is little to interest anyone else.
w Ian Cullen, Chris Boger, Peter Delfgou novel Justine by the Marquis de Sade d Chris Boger ph Roger Deakins pd Tony Curtis ed Peter Delfgou
☆ Koo Stark (Justine), Martin Potter (Lord Carlisle), Lydia Lisle (Juliette), Katherine Kath, Hope Jackman, Louis Ife, Barry McGinn

The Cruel Sea ★★

GB 1953 126m bw
Ealing (Leslie Norman)

Life and death on an Atlantic corvette during World War II.
Competent transcription of a bestselling book, cleanly produced and acted; a huge box-office success.
w Eric Ambler novel Nicholas Monsarrat d Charles Frend ph Gordon Dines m Alan Rawsthorne ad Jim Morahan ed Peter Tanner
☆ Jack Hawkins (Capt. Ericson), Donald Sinden (Lt Lockhart), Stanley Baker (Bennett), John Stratton (Ferraby), Denholm Elliott (Sub-Lt Morell), John Warner (Baker), Bruce Seton (Bob Tallow), Virginia McKenna (Julie Hallam), Moira Lister (Elaine Morell), June Thorburn (Doris Ferraby), Alec McCowen (Tonbridge), Glyn Houston (Phillips)
'This is a story of the battle of the Atlantic, a story of an ocean, two ships and a handful of men. The men are the heroes. The heroines are the ships. The only villain is the sea – the cruel sea – that man has made even more cruel.' – opening narration
'One is grateful nowadays for a film which does not depict war as anything but a tragic and bloody experience, and it is this quality which gives the production its final power to move.' – John Gillett
'Sensitivity, faithfulness, and almost inevitable tedium.' – Time Out, 1984
Eric Ambler

Cruise Missile

Germany/Italy/Spain 1978 90m colour
Noble Productions/Echberg Film (Ika Panajotovic)

An American and Russian agent team up with the local police to prevent a terrorist blowing up a peace conference in Iran.
Substandard thriller, in which the Iranian police are portrayed as wonderful.
w Clarke Reynolds, Elio Romano d Leslie H. Martinson ph Claudio Catozzo m Alberto Baldan ed Enzio Monachesi
☆ Peter Graves, Curt Jurgens, Michael Dante, John Carradine

Cruisin' Down the River

US 1953 79m colour
Columbia

A night-club singer inherits a riverboat.
Slim excuse for a musical variety bill.
w Blake Edwards, Richard Quine d Richard Quine ☆ Dick Haymes, Audrey Totter, Billy Daniels, Cecil Kellaway, the Bell Sisters, Erze Ivan

Cruising

US 1980 106m Technicolor
Lorimar (Jerry Weintraub)

A New York cop becomes degraded in his search among homosexuals for a sadistic killer.
Alleged thriller with phoney pretensions and repellent detail.
wd William Friedkin ph James Contner m Jack Nitzsche
☆ Al Pacino, Paul Sorvino, Karen Allen, Richard Cox, Don Scardino, Joe Spinell
'Like any approach to the bizarre, it's fascinating for about fifteen minutes. After that, it suffers from the same boring repetition that makes porno so uninteresting generally.' – Variety

'Weird sex. Obsession. Comic books.'

Crumb ★★★

US 1994 120m colour
Artificial Eye/Superior (Lynn O'Donnell, Terry Zwigoff)

Robert Crumb, celebrated underground cartoonist and creator of Fritz the Cat and Mr Natural, discusses his life and work and plays ragtime and jazz from his vast collection of 78 rpm records as he leaves California to settle in France; his mother and brother and other cartoonists are also interviewed.
Fascinating documentary on an artist called 'the Breughel of the 20th century' by one interviewee, critic Robert Hughes, seen in context with his somewhat dysfunctional brothers who, also talented, have failed to come to terms with society in the way that he has. (Charles, his older brother, committed suicide a year after being filmed.)
d Terry Zwigoff ph Maryse Alberti ed Victor Livingston ☆ Robert Crumb (Himself), Charles Crumb (Himself, Robert's Older Brother), Maxon Crumb (Himself, Robert's Younger Brother), Aline Kominsky (Herself, Robert's Wife), Dana Crumb (Herself, Robert's First Wife), Beatrice Crumb (Herself, Robert's Mother)
'By turns gripping and appalling, Crumb is one of the most complete pictures of an artist ever made.' – Clark Collis, Empire

'Wonders to dazzle the human imagination – in a flaming love story set in titanic world conflict!'

The Crusades ★★

US 1935 127m bw
Paramount/Cecil B. de Mille

Spurred by his wife Berengaria, Richard the Lionheart sets off on his holy wars.
Heavily tapestried medieval epic, spectacular sequences being punctuated by wodges of uninspired dialogue. A true de Mille pageant.
w Harold Lamb, Waldemar Young, Dudley Nichols d Cecil B. de Mille ph Victor Milner m Rudolph Kopp sp Gordon Jennings
☆ Henry Wilcoxon, Loretta Young, C. Aubrey Smith, Ian Keith, Katherine de Mille, Joseph Schildkraut, Alan Hale, C. Henry Gordon, George Barbier, Montagu Love, Lumsden Hare, William Farnum, Hobart Bosworth, Pedro de Cordoba, Mischa Auer
'Mr de Mille's evangelical films are the nearest equivalent today to the glossy German colour prints which decorated mid-Victorian bibles. There is the same lack of a period sense, the same stuffy horsehair atmosphere of beards and whiskers, and, their best quality, a childlike eye for detail.' – Graham Greene
'Cinema addicts by now have some idea what to expect in a de Mille version of the Holy Wars. The Crusades should fulfil all expectations. As a picture it is historically worthless, didactically treacherous, artistically absurd. None of these defects impairs its entertainment value. It is a hundred-million-dollar sideshow which has at least three features to distinguish it from the long line of previous de Mille extravaganzas. It is the noisiest; it is the biggest; it contains no baths.' – Time
'Probably only de Mille could make a picture like this and get away with it. It's long, and slow, and the story is not up to some of his previous films, but the production has sweep and spectacle.' – Variety
Victor Milner

Crush

New Zealand 1992 96m colour
Metro/Hibiscus/NZFC/NFU/NZ On Air/Movie Partners (Bridget Ikin)

While she is in hospital recovering from a car crash, a female journalist is angered to discover that her best friend has begun an affair with a novelist she planned to interview.
A bisexual revenge thriller that attempts to expose bourgeois values, but fails to convince.
w Alison Maclean, Anne Kennedy d Alison Maclean ph Dion Beebe m JPS Experience, Antony Partos pd Meryl Cronin ed John Gilbert
☆ Marcia Gay Harden, William Zappa, Donogh Rees, Caitlin Bossley, Pete Smith, Jon Brazier
'Often as murky as the bubbling New Zealand mud springs Maclean cuts to in order to underscore the otherworldly ambience.' – Empire

'He thought it was just a crush. He was dead wrong.'

The Crush

US 1993 89m Technicolor
Warner/Morgan Creek (James G. Robinson)

A teenage girl develops a crush on her new neighbour, a writer, and becomes violent when he ignores her advances.
Predictable and unintelligent thriller, recycling familiar themes in an uninspired fashion.
wd Alan Shapiro ph Bruce Surtees m Graeme Revell pd Michael Bolton ed Ian Crafford ☆ Cary Elwes, Alicia Silverstone, Jennifer Rubin, Amber Benson, Kurtwood Smith, Gwynyth Walsh, Matthew Walker
'Another by-the-numbers thriller longer on suspense than brains. Silly and predictable.' – Variety

'Could Mr. Wrong... be Mr. Right?'

Crush

GB 2001 111m Fujicolor Panavision
FilmFour/Film Council/Senator/Industry Entertainment/Pipedream (Lee Thomas)

A middle-aged headmistress upsets her two 40-ish female friends when she begins an affair with a younger man.
Tart comedy of older women looking towards a possibly lonely old age, which gives it a melancholy edge.
wd John McKay ph Henry Braham m Kevin Sargent pd Amanda MacArthur ed Anne Sopel
☆ Andie MacDowell (Kate), Imelda Staunton (Janine), Anna Chancellor (Molly), Kenny Doughty (Jed), Bill Paterson (Rev. Gerald Marsden)
'For women in the midst of otherwise v. successful adult lives, these ladies are awfully stupid about love, sex, friendship, menstrual cycles, and the attributes of a good boyfriend or a bad script.' – Lisa Schwarzbaum, Entertainment Weekly

Crusoe ★

US 1988 94m Technicolor
Virgin/Island Pictures (Andrew Braunsberg)

A slave-owner, shipwrecked on a desert island, makes friends with a cannibal.
Deft variation on the original familiar story.
w Walon Green, Christopher Logue novel Robinson Crusoe by Daniel Defoe d Caleb Deschanel ph Tom Pinter m Michael Kamen pd Velco Despotovic ed Humphrey Dixon
☆ Aidan Quinn, Elvis Payne, Richard Sharp, Colin Bruce, William Hootkins, Shane Rimmer, Jimmy Nail, Patrick Monkton, Chris Pitt, Ade Sapara

Crustacés et Coquillages: see Cockles and Muscles

The Cry: see Il Grido

Cry Baby Killer

US 1958 62m bw
Roger Corman/AA

A gunman on the run barricades himself and hostages in a storeroom.
Modest second feature which served its purpose.
w Leo Gordon, Melvin Levy d Jus Addiss
☆ Jack Nicholson, Harry Lauter, Carolyn Mitchell, Brett Halsey

Cry Danger ★

US 1951 79m bw
RKO/Olympic (Sam Wiesenthal, W. R. Frank)

After serving five years for robbery, a man gets out on parole and clears his name.
Slick little slice of thick ear, very lively all round.
w William Bowers story Jerome Cady d Robert Parrish ph Joseph F. Biroc m Emil Newman, Paul Dunlap ad Richard Day ☆ Dick Powell, Rhonda Fleming, Richard Erdman, William Conrad, Regis Toomey, Jay Adler

Cry for Happy

US 1961 110m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
Columbia (William Goetz)

Four navy cameramen in Japan help geishas to found an orphanage.
As bad as it sounds, a repellent mixture of sentiment and knockabout.
w Irving Brecher d George Marshall ph Burnett Guffey m George Duning ☆ Glenn Ford, Donald O'Connor, Miiko Taka, James Shigeta, Miyoshi Umeki, Joe Flynn, Howard St John
'Any film which expends most of its energies on a protracted joke about how far you can go with a geisha could hardly fail to be as charmless and witless as this.' – MFB

Cry Freedom ★★

GB 1987 158m colour Panavision
Marble Arch/Universal (Richard Attenborough)

South African journalist Donald Woods is forced to flee the country after attempting to investigate the death in custody of his friend the black activist Steve Biko.

Part thriller, part social conscience tract, the film has magnificent set-pieces typical of the director's work. However, it failed to satisfy either opponents or supporters of apartheid.
w John Briley d Richard Attenborough ph Ronnie Taylor m George Fenton, Jonas Gwangwa pd Stuart Craig
☆ Kevin Kline, Penelope Wilton, Denzel Washington, Alec McCowen, Kevin McNally, Zakes Mokae
♗ Denzel Washington; music; song 'Cry Freedom' (m/ly George Fenton, Jonas Gwangwa)

A Cry from the Streets
GB 1958 100m bw
Film Traders (Ian Dalrymple)

Episodes from the work of child welfare officers.
Mildly pleasing but unconvincing semi-documentary, with children competing with the star at scene-stealing.
w Vernon Harris novel The Friend in Need by Elizabeth Coxhead d Lewis Gilbert ph Harry Gilliam m Larry Adler
☆ Max Bygraves, Barbara Murray, Colin Petersen, Dana Wilson, Kathleen Harrison, Eleanor Summerfield, Mona Washbourne

Cry Havoc
US 1943 97m bw
MGM (Edwin Knopf)

War nurses are caught up in the Bataan retreat.
An all-woman cast adequately handles a stagey melodrama about a tragic situation.
w Paul Osborn play Proof thro' the Night by Allen R. Kenward d Richard Thorpe ph Karl Freund m Daniele Amfitheatrof
☆ Margaret Sullavan, Joan Blondell, Ann Sothern, Fay Bainter, Marsha Hunt, Ella Raines, Frances Gifford, Diana Lewis, Heather Angel, Connie Gilchrist

'A sincere fourth-rate film made from a sincere fifth-rate play.' – James Agee
'Its popularity will stem less from its probably factual record of nurses starving, sweating and dying in the beleaguered Philippine jungle than from the impressive all-woman cast which MGM has rounded up for the occasion.' – Newsweek

A Cry in the Dark ★
Australia 1988 121m colour Panavision
Pathé/Evil Angels/Cannon International (Verity Lambert)

A woman is tried for the murder of her baby daughter, who was carried off by a wild dog during a family camping expedition.
Skilful reconstruction of a sensational true-life court case.
w Robert Caswell, Fred Schepisi book Evil Angels by John Bryson d Fred Schepisi ph Ian Baker m Bruce Smeaton pd Wendy Dickson, George Liddle ed Jill Bilcock ☆ Meryl Streep, Sam Neill, Dale Reeves, David Hoflin, Jason Reason, Michael Wetter, Kane Barton, Trent Roberts, Brian Jones, Dorothy Alison

'May be the most quietly uncondescending film ever made about religious fundamentalists.' – Peter Rainer, Los Angeles Herald Examiner
♗ Meryl Streep

A Cry in the Night
US 1956 75m bw
Warner/Jaguar (George C. Bertholon)

A peeping Tom, caught by a teenage couple, abducts the girl and threatens rape.
Odd little domestic thriller, with parents and police working together. Watchable, but a bit over the top.
w David Dortort novel Whit Masterson d Frank Tuttle ph John Seitz m David Buttolph
☆ Edmond O'Brien, Brian Donlevy, Natalie Wood, Raymond Burr, Richard Anderson, Irene Hervey, Anthony Caruso

Cry of the Banshee
GB 1970 87m Movielab
AIP (Gordon Hessler)

A 16th-century magistrate is cursed by a witch, who sends a devil in the form of a young man to destroy him.
Modest horror film which fails to do justice to its interesting plot.
w Tim Kelly, Christopher Wicking d Gordon Hessler ph John Coquillon m Les Baxter
☆ Vincent Price, Elisabeth Bergner, Patrick Mower, Essy Persson, Hugh Griffith, Hilary Dwyer, Sally Geeson

The Cry of the Black Wolves
West Germany 1972 90m colour
Hillenbrand (Gunter Eulan)

In Alaska, a fur-trapper is accused of killing the man who stole his dog-team.
Standard Western in an icy setting, complete with the bad guys in black hats.
w Kurt Nachmann, Rolf Olsen story Jack London d Harald Reinl ph Franz X. Lederle m Gerhard Heinz ad Rolf Zehetbauer, Herbert Strabel ed Eva Zeyn
☆ Ron Ely, Raimund Harmstorf, Gila von Weitershausen, Heinrich Schweiger

Cry of the City ★★
US 1948 96m bw
TCF (Sol C. Siegel)

A ruthless gangster on the run is pursued by a policeman who was once his boyhood friend.
Very well produced but relentlessly miserable New York thriller on the lines of Manhattan Melodrama and Angels with Dirty Faces.
w Richard Murphy novel The Chair for Martin Rome by Henry Helseth d Robert Siodmak ph Lloyd Ahern m Alfred Newman
☆ Victor Mature, Richard Conte, Mimi Aguglia, Shelley Winters, Tommy Cook, Fred Clark, Debra Paget

'When the city cries in a movie, it's with the desolate wail of police sirens and with rain-streaked sidewalks; but most of all with poetic justification.' – Paul Taylor, Time Out, 1980

The Cry of the Owl: see Le Cri de Hibou

Cry Terror ★★
US 1958 96m bw
MGM/Andrew Stone, Virginia Stone

As security against ransom money being delivered, an airline bomber kidnaps a family.
Unabashed suspenser which screws panic situations as far as they will go and farther.
wd Andrew Stone ph Walter Strenge m Howard Jackson ed Virginia Stone ☆ James Mason, Rod Steiger, Inger Stevens, Neville Brand, Angie Dickinson, Kenneth Tobey, Jack Klugman, Jack Kruschen

'The story is launched with dizzying speed and suspenseful pursuit that hardly relaxes until the final frame.' – Variety

Cry the Beloved Country ★
GB 1951 96m bw
London Films (Alan Paton)

US title: African Fury
In South Africa, a white farmer and a black preacher find friendship through linked family tragedies.
Well-intentioned, earnest, rather high-flown racial drama.
w Alan Paton novel Alan Paton d Zoltan Korda ph Robert Krasker m Raymond Gallois-Montbrun
☆ Canada Lee, Sidney Poitier, Charles Carson, Charles McRae, Joyce Carey, Geoffrey Keen, Michael Goodliffe, Edric Connor † Screenwriter John Howard Lawson was excluded from the credits of the film because he was blacklisted at the time.

Cry Vengeance
US 1954 81m bw
Allied Artists (Lindsley Parsons)

An innocent man is released from jail and seeks vengeance against the man who framed him and killed his wife and child.
Adequate toughie with no particular flair.
w Warren Douglas, George Bricker d Mark Stevens ph William Sickner m Paul Dunlap
☆ Mark Stevens, Martha Hyer, Skip Homeier, Joan Vohs, Douglas Kennedy

Cry Wolf
US 1947 83m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

A widow claims her husband's estate and finds his mysterious uncle very difficult to deal with...
Rather obvious old dark house mystery with a not very interesting solution, all relying too heavily on star performances.
w Catherine Turney novel Marjorie Carleton d Peter Godfrey ph Carl Guthrie m Franz Waxman
☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Errol Flynn, Geraldine Brooks, Richard Basehart, Helene Thimig

Cry Wolf
GB 1980 31m bw
Picture Partnership/Paramount

A scientist accidentally imbibes a canine serum and turns into a werewolf.
Flattish comedy which is mainly indistinguishable from the low-budget British shockers it satirizes, but manages a few good moments.
w Stan Hey d Leszek Burzynski ph Robert Krasker
☆ Paul Maxwell, Rosalind Ayres, Stephen Greif

'Believe.'

Cry Wolf ③
US 2005 Technicolor Panavision
Optimum/Hypnotic (Beau Bauman)

High-school students make up stories about a serial killer that turn out to be true.
Feeble, wretchedly acted and very predictable horror.
w Jeff Wadlow, Beau Bauman d Jeff Wadlow ph Romeo Tirone m Michael Wandmacher pd Martina Buckley ed Seth Lewis Gordon ☆ Lindy Booth (Dodger), Julian Morris (Owen), Jared Padalecki (Tom), Kristy Wu (Regina), Sandra McCoy (Mercedes), Paul James (Lewis), Jon Bon Jovi (Mr Walker)

'Almost totally reliant on red herrings and the viewer's nervous reflexes.' – John Anderson, Variety

Cry-Baby
US 1990 85m DeLuxe
UIP/Imagine Entertainment (Rachel Talalay)

A delinquent rock 'n' roll singer falls in love with an upper-class girl.
Kitsch celebration of the early 60s that soon grows tedious.
wd John Waters ph David Insley m Patrick Williams pd Vincent Peranio ad Delores Deluxe ed Janice Hampton ☆ Johnny Depp, Amy Locane, Susan Tyrrell, Polly Bergen, Iggy Pop, Ricki Lake, Traci Lords, Kim McGuire, Darren E. Burrows

Crying Freeman
France/Canada 1995 101m CFI color Super 35
Davis/Ozla/Brian Yuzna/Toei (Samuel Hadida, Brian Yuzna)

An enigmatic hitman, who weeps for his victims, travels to Vancouver to eliminate a Japanese gangster and a female artist who witnessed his murders.
Slick transfer to live action of a comic-book hero, with some stylish action sequences.
w Christophe Gans, Thierry Casals comic book Kazuo Koike, Ryoichi Ikegami d Christophe Gans ph Thomas Burstyn m Pat O'Hearn pd Douglas Higgins, Alex McDowell ed David Wu, Chris Roth
☆ Mark Dacascos, Julie Condra Douglas, Tcheky Karyo, Rae Dawn Chong, Byron Mann, Masaya Kato, Yoko Shimada, Mako

'A satisfying mix of smooth Asian chop-socky and smooth Western tech wizardry.' – Variety

Crying Freeman, Chapter 1: Portrait of a Killer (dubbed)
Japan 1992 50m colour
Toei (Shoko Takahashi, Akira Sasaki, Tomirou Kuriyama)

A 29-year-old Japanese artist who witnessed a Japanese assassin, working for the Chinese Mafia, kill three people awaits her own death at his hands.
A gore-filled cartoon for an adult audience that enjoys indifferent animation, sex and violence.
w Higashi Shimizu d Daisuke Nishio ph Hisao Shirai m Hiroaki Yoshino ad Mitsutaka Nakamura ed Shigeru Nishiyama
☆ Featuring Voices of Stephen Tremblay, Edita Brychta, Vincent Marzello, Bob Sherman, Burt Kwouk

Crying Freeman, Chapter 2: The Enemy Within (dubbed)
Japan 1992 50m colour
Toei (Shoko Takahashi, Akira Sasaki, Tomirou Kuriyama)

A Japanese hitman, who cries whenever he kills, suspects that the élite corps of killers he commands for the Chinese Mafia contains a traitor.
Another gore-filled cartoon for an adult audience that enjoys indifferent animation, sex and violence.
w Kazuo Kioke, Toichi Ikegami d Nishizawa Nobukata ph Yoshijuki Tamagawa m Hiroaki Yoshino ed Shigeru Nishiyama
☆ Featuring Voices of Stephen Tremblay, Edita Brychta, Vincent Marzello, John Baddeley

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♗ Academy Award · ♗ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Crying Freeman, Chapter 3: Retribution (dubbed)

Japan 1992 50m colour
Toei (Akira Sasaki, Tomirou Kuriyama)

Crying Freeman finds himself confronting a group of African terrorists, while his wife gains a mystical sword.
The mixture as before: rudimentary animation and comic strip heroics, featuring much sudden and bloody death.
w Kazuo Koike, Toichi Ikegami d Johei Matsuura ph Yoichi Takanashi m Hiroaki Yoshino ad Tomoshi Urushibana ed Shigeru Nishiyama
☆ Featuring Voices of Stephen Tremblay, Edita Brychta, John Baddeley, Rosemary Miller, Deborah Weston

'Desire Is A Danger Zone.'

The Crying Game ★★★

GB 1992 112m Metrocolor Panavision
Palace/Channel 4/Eurotrustees/NDF/British Screen (Stephen Woolley)

An IRA gunman makes friends with a black British soldier who is taken hostage and, after the soldier's death, goes to London where he falls for the man's lover.
Complex and brilliantly successful examination of matters of identity and gender.
wd Neil Jordan ph Ian Wilson m Anne Dudley pd Jim Clay ad Chris Seagers ed Kant Pan
☆ Stephen Rea (Fergus), Miranda Richardson (Jude), Forest Whitaker (Jody), Jim Broadbent (Col), Ralph Brown (Dave), Adrian Dunbar (Maguire), Jaye Davidson (Dil), Tony Slattery (Deveroux)
'An astonishingly good and daring film.' – Variety
'Every so often, a "little" film hits the collective heart. The Crying Game is one of these, because it shows that a man is never so naked as when he reveals his secret self.' – Richard Corliss, Time
Neil Jordan (as writer) best picture; Neil Jordan (as director); Kant Pan; Stephen Rea; Jaye Davidson

Crypt of the Living Dead

US 1972 83m Metrocolor Scope
Golden Era/Coast Industries (Lou Shaw)
GB title: Vampire Woman

A female vampire comes back to life after her tomb is opened.
Uninteresting low-budget horror that fails to raise a shiver.
w Lou Shaw d Ray Danton ph Juan Gelpi m Phillip Lambro ad Juan Alberto ed David Rawlins
☆ Andrew Prine, Mark Damon, Patty Sheppard, Teresa Gimpera, Ihsan Genik, Mariano Rey, Frank Brana
'A dismal sortie into sanguineous legend.' – Sight and Sound

The Crystal Ball ★

US 1943 82m bw
UA/Richard Blumenthal

A failed beauty contestant becomes a fortune teller and is involved in a land swindle.
Pleasant comedy with fanciful moments, ending with a pie-throwing contest.
w Virginia Van Upp d Elliott Nugent ph Leo Tover m Victor Young ☆ Paulette Goddard, Ray Milland, Gladys George, Virginia Field, Cecil Kellaway, William Bendix, Ernest Truex

Crystal Heart

US 1987 103m Technicolor
New World/Izaro/Eagle (Carlosa Vasallo)

A young musician, who has to live isolated in a plastic bubble, falls in love with a rock singer.
Dull and sentimental romantic drama intercut with a succession of uninspired music videos of routine songs; its chief interest is in observing Tawny Kitaen's succession of curious hairstyles and outfits.
w Linda Shayne story Alberto Vazquez-Figueroa d Gil Bettman ph Alexander Ulloa m Joel Goldsmith pd Jose Maria Alarcon ed Nicholas Wentworth
☆ Tawny Kitaen, Lee Curreri, Lloyd Bochner, Simon Andreu, May Heatherly, Lagena Lookabill, Marina Saura

Cuba

US 1979 122m Technicolor
UA/Alex Winitsky, Arlene Sellers

Upper-crust characters are caught in Havana when the Castro revolution starts.
Aimless romantic melodrama which gets absolutely nowhere and might have been better played in the Casablanca vein.
w Charles Wood d Richard Lester ph David Watkin m Patrick Williams pd Gil Parrando
☆ Sean Connery, Brooke Adams, Jack Weston, Hector Elizondo, Denholm Elliott, Martin Balsam, Chris Sarandon

Cuba Si! ★

France 1961 58m bw
Films de la Pléiade

A documentary on the Cuban revolution and Castro's rise to power.
Remarkable and influential at the time for its use of techniques which are now the commonplaces of television, this documentary still has its flashes of interest.
m E. G. Mantici, J. Calzada ed Eva Zora wd/ph Chris Marker
'An eloquent, personal record of history in the making.' – Georges Sadoul

Cuban Love Song

US 1931 86m bw
MGM (Albert Lewin)

A marine on leave in Cuba falls in love; years later he returns to retrieve his illegitimate child, whose mother has died.
Pathetic musical melodrama which did not advance its singing star's film career.
w John Lynch d W. S. Van Dyke ph Harold Rosson m Charles Maxwell m/ly various ☆ Lawrence Tibbett, Lupe Velez, Jimmy Durante, Ernest Torrence, Karen Morley, Louise Fazenda
'Tibbett may be a sensation on the concert stage, but it's not the same in pictures.' – Variety

'Don't Look For A Reason...Look For A Way Out.'

Cube ★

Canada 1997 90m colour
Trimark/Cineplex Odeon/Cube Libre (Mehra Meh, Betty Orr)

Six people find themselves lost in a dangerous maze of interlocking metal boxes.
Teasing low-budget science-fiction movie that makes the most of its puzzling qualities.
w Vincenzo Natali, Andre Bijelic, Graeme Manson d Vincenzo Natali ph Derek Rogers m Mark Korven pd Jasna Stefanovic ed John Sanders sp CORE Digital Pictures
☆ Maurice Dean, Nicole deBoer, Nicky Guadagni, David Hewlett, Wayne Robson, Andrew Miller, Julian Richings
'Brilliant set design and smart plotting are let down by pedestrian dialogue.' – Ken Eisner, Variety

The Cuckoo ★ (6)

Russia 2002 104m colour
Soda/CBT (Sergei Solyanov)

original title: Kukushka

In 1944, in Northern Finland, a young Lapp woman rescues a Finnish sniper and a Russian soldier, though no one understands the others' language.
Charming and clever, if contrived, fable on the futility of war and the pains and pleasures of love, set against a bleakly magnificent landscape.
wd Alexander Rogozhkin ph Andrei Zhegalov m Dmitri Pavlov ed Yulia Rumyatseva ☆ Wille Haapsalo (Veiko), Anni-Kristina Usso (Anny), Viktor Bychkov (Sholti)
'Rogozhkin's hard, hands-on directing technique and the physicality of all three actors are – or could be – impressive, but they are swamped here in a sea of ideological mush.' – Stanley Kauffmann, New Republic

A Cuckoo in the Nest ★

GB 1933 85m bw
Gaumont (Ian Dalrymple, Angus MacPhail)

A newlywed husband is forced to spend a night at an inn with an old flame pretending to be his wife.
Classic Aldwych farce with the stage company in excellent form; directorial style on the stagey side.
w Ben Travers, A. R. Rawlinson play Ben Travers d Tom Walls ph Glen MacWilliams ad Alfred Junge ed Helen Lewis
☆ Ralph Lynn, Tom Walls, Yvonne Arnaud, Mary Brough, Veronica Rose, Gordon James, Cecil Parker, Roger Livesey, Robertson Hare † Remade 1955 as Fast and Loose.

The Cuckoos

US 1930 90m bw (Technicolor sequences)
RKO

Two tramps become fortune tellers.
The most ambitiously staged, and probably the most popular of this team's gag marathons.
w Cy Woods musical comedy The Ramblers by Guy Bolton, Harry Ruby, Bert Kalmar d Paul Sloane ☆ Bert Wheeler, Robert Woolsey, Jobyna Howland, June Clyde, Hugh Trevor, Dorothy Lee
'It holds little between the laughs and doesn't need anything else.' – Variety

'Terror Has A New Name...'

Cujo

US 1983 91m CFI color
ITC/Sunn Classic/Taft (Daniel H. Blatt)

A St Bernard dog is bitten by a rabies-infected bat, and becomes a vicious killer.
Not much of a basis for a horror film, and this is not much of a horror film.
w Don Carlos Dunaway, Lauren Currier novel Stephen King d Lewis Teague ph Jan de Bont m Charles Bernstein pd Guy Comtois ed Neil Travis
☆ Dee Wallace, Daniel Hugh Kelly, Danny Pintauro, Ed Lauter, Christopher Stone

Cul-de-Sac

GB 1966 111m bw
Compton-Tekli (Gene Gutowski)

Two gangsters on the run take refuge in an old castle on a desolate Northumbrian island, but find their nemesis in the effeminate owner and his voluptuous wife.
Overlong, eccentric black comedy, more perplexing than entertaining.
w Roman Polanski, Gerard Brach d Roman Polanski ph Gilbert Taylor m Komeda ☆ Lionel Stander, Donald Pleasence, Jack MacGowran, Françoise Dorléac, William Franklyn, Robert Dorning, Renée Houston
'A voyeur's wallow in schizophrenia and murder to no point beyond sensation – but one could not deny the creative talent at work.' – Judith Crist

The Culpeper Cattle Company ★

US 1972 92m DeLuxe
TCF (Paul A. Helmick)

A 16-year-old would-be cowboy joins a cattle trail but is shocked at the harsh realities of Western life.
Excellent moody photography helps to convince us that the old west was really like this, but the story is more brutal than interesting.
w Eric Bercovici, Gregory Prentiss d Dick Richards ph Lawrence Edward Williams, Ralph Woolsey m Tom Scott, Jerry Goldsmith
☆ Gary Grimes, Billy 'Green' Bush, Luke Askew, Bo Hopkins, Geoffrey Lewis, Wayne Sutherlin

Cult of the Cobra

US 1955 79m bw
Universal-International

Six GIs are cursed by the high priest of an Indian cobra cult. Back in New York, a mysterious woman brings about their deaths, and when the survivor kills a cobra, it turns into her.
Glossy but wholly unconvincing and unexciting non-horror potboiler.
w Jerry Davis, Cecil Maiden, Richard Collins d Francis D. Lyon ph Russell Metty ed Milton Carruth ☆ Faith Domergue, Richard Long, Marshall Thompson, Kathleen Hughes, Jack Kelly

'Buddhism is their philosophy. Soccer is their religion.'

The Cup ★★

Australia 1999 94m Fujicolor
Alliance/Palm/Coffee Stain (Malcolm Watson, Raymond Steiner)

original title: Phörpa

Two football-crazed teenage Tibetan monks persuade their abbot to allow them to raise money to buy a satellite dish so that they can watch the final of the World Cup.
An enjoyable and unexpected movie that allows audiences to see the odd ways of the West through other eyes.
wd Khyentse Norbu ph Paul Warren m Douglas Mills pd Raymond Steiner ed John Scott ☆ Jamyang Lodro (Orgyen), Orgyen Tobgyal (Geko), Neten Chokling (Lodo), Lama Chonjor (Abbot), Godu Lama (Old lama)
'Beautifully observed and exquisitely played, this is one to treasure.' – David Parkinson, Empire

† The film uses a cast of real Buddhist monks and it is directed by a lama.

'No Winners In This Game.'
'A soldier from Israel, captured in the Lebanon, but his goal was to be at the...'

Cup Final

Israel 1992 110m colour
(Michael Sharfshstein)

original title: G'mar Giviya

An Israeli soldier finds common ground with his PLO captors in talk of football.

A story of coexistence that may mean more to Israeli audiences than others. It points out the similarities that exist between enemies, but does little else to advance one's understanding.

w Eyal Halfon d Eran Riklis ph Amnon Salomon m Raviv Gazit ed Anat Lubarsky

☆ Moshe Ivgi, Muhammed Bakri, Suheil Haddad

'Exciting, touching and politically even-handed.' – Empire

A Cup of Kindness

GB 1934 81m bw
Gaumont (Michael Balcon)

Young lovers marry despite parental disapproval on both sides.

Farcical updating of Romeo and Juliet; it hasn't worn too well, but the stars are at their peak.

w Ben Travers play Ben Travers d Tom Walls ph Phil Tannura ad Alfred Junge ed A. W. Roome

☆ Tom Walls, Ralph Lynn, Robertson Hare, Claude Hulbert, Dorothy Hyson, Eva Moore

'Now it's dark.'

Cup of My Blood

US 2005 107m colour
X Ray/Indiago (Noel Olken, Kenneth Nilsson)

Given the Holy Grail to keep safe, a pornographer is assailed by doubts and demons.

So-so religioso-horror with a risible narrative that is heavy on atmosphere and gore.

w Lance Catania, Kenneth Nilsson d Lance Catania ph Lance Catania m Robert McNaughton pd Merje Veski ed Salvatore Pecoraro

☆ Daniel Patrick Sullivan (Jack Fender), Janina Gavankar (Iona), Allie Smith (Tina), Roger Anderson (Sparky), Lance Mulvaney (Alex), Circus-Szalewski (Nibbles)

Cupid in the Rough: see Aggie Appleby Maker of Men

Curdled

US 1996 88m DeLuxe
Miramax/A Band Apart/Tinderbox (John Maass, Raul Puig)

A maid, who works for a service that cleans up after murders, discovers the identity of a serial killer.

Interminable comedy thriller with a script that is too thin to sustain the joke for long.

w John Maass, Reb Braddock d Reb Braddock ph Steven Bernstein m Joseph Julian Gonzalez pd Sherman Williams ed Mallory Gottlieb

☆ William Baldwin, Angela Jones, Bruce Ramsay, Mel Gorham, Lois Chiles, Daisy Fuentes, Barry Corbin

'Would have been better off remaining the short film it was to begin with.' – Variety

† The film began life as a short whose subject matter then inspired part of Tarantino's Pulp Fiction; in turn, Tarantino backed its reworking as a feature.

The Cure ★★★★

US 1917 20m approx bw silent
Mutual/Charles Chaplin

A dipsomaniac sent to a spa gets his booze mixed up with the spa water.

One of the funniest of the Chaplin shorts, with no pathos intervening (nor come to that much plot); it is simply a succession of balletic slapstick scenes of the highest order.

wd Charles Chaplin ph William C. Foster, Rollie Totheroh

☆ Charles Chaplin, Edna Purviance, Eric Campbell, Henry Bergman

The Cure ★

GB 1950 18m bw
Richard and Betty Massingham

A health nut tries every possible remedy for lumbago.

Richard Massingham huffs and puffs in his endearing way through a short which is too long by far to be effective in his particular vein; but it does identify his particular persona.

wd Richard and Betty Massingham

'Two boys found a way to make one summer last a lifetime.'

The Cure

US 1995 98m DeLuxe
Polygram/Universal/Island (Mark Burg, Eric Eisner)

Two young boys go in search of a cure for AIDS, which one of them contracted through a blood transfusion.

An earnest, well-acted narrative of childhood friendship that is sabotaged by the implausibilities of its plot.

w Robert Kuhn d Peter Horton ph Andrew Dintenfass m David Grusin pd Armin Ganz ed Anthony Sherin, Saar Klein

☆ Joseph Mazzello, Brad Renfro, Bruce Davison, Annabella Sciorra, Diana Scarwid, Aeryk Egan

'Reeks of staple television dramatic fare and, even if it represents the zenith of the form, it's very much rooted in small-screen, earnest, low-key human emotion.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

The Cure for Love

GB 1949 98m bw
London Films (Robert Donat)

An ex-soldier goes home and tries to get married.

Thin Lancashire comedy which seemed an astonishing choice for Robert Donat, whose acting and direction are equally ill at ease.

w Robert Donat, Alexander Shaw, Albert Fennell play Walter Greenwood d Robert Donat ph Jack Cox m William Alwyn

☆ Robert Donat, Renée Asherson, Dora Bryan, Marjorie Rhodes, Charles Victor, Thora Hird, Gladys Henson

'Antediluvian regional farce.' – MFB

The Cure Show

GB 1993 96m bw/colour
Rank/Fiction/Polygram Video (Steve Swartz)

Documentary on the British rock group The Cure performing at two concerts in Detroit in July 1992.

A concert recording strictly for fans of the group, with the cameras staying at a distance from the on-stage action, revealing nothing more than could be seen from the auditorium.

d Aubrey Powell, Leroy Bennett ph Jeff Zimmerman ed Ian Mallett, Liam Hall

'So depressingly ordinary – it could fill a late night TV slot and attract no reaction – that it is hard to see why it was made at all.' – Sight and Sound

The Curious Doctor Humpp: see La Venganza Del Sexo

'Show Me The Monkey!'

Curious George ★ (5)

US 2006 90m colour
Universal (Ron Howard, David Kirschner, Jon Shapiro)

Adventures of a mischievous baby monkey in an urban jungle.

Amiable movie aimed at very young children, with rudimentary animation and a less than engrossing story.

w Ken Kaufman books Margret and H. A. Rey d Matthew O'Callaghan m Heitor Pereira m/ly Jack Johnson pd Yarrow Cheney ed Julie Rogers

☆ Will Ferrell (Ted, the Man in the Yellow Hat), Drew Barrymore (Maggie), David Cross (Bloomsbury Jnr), Eugene Levy (Clovis), Joan Plowright (Miss Plushbottom), Dick Van Dyke (Mr Bloomsbury)

'Even patient parents will likely be bored to death.' – Brian Lowry, Variety
'An unexpected delight.' – New York Times

'Big laughs come in small packages.'

Curly Sue

US 1991 101m Technicolor
Warner (John Hughes)

A con man and a nine-year-old orphan win the heart of a successful woman lawyer.

Gruesomely sentimental and manipulative comedy.

wd John Hughes ph Jeffrey Kimball m Georges Delerue pd Doug Kraner ed Peck Prior, Harvey Rosenstock

☆ James Belushi, Kelly Lynch, Alisan Porter, John Getz

'With its mix of childish gags and shameless melodrama, Curly Sue could make off with a tidy box-office take.' – Variety
'John Hughes here graduates from the most successful comedy in film history to scripting and directing a large piece of non-biodegradable tosh.' – Nigel Andrews, Financial Times
'Lacks the charm, good jokes or vigour to hide its contrivances.' – Geoff Brown, The Times

Curly Top ★

US 1935 78m bw
Fox (Darryl F. Zanuck, Winfield Sheehan)

An orphan waif is adopted by a playboy, and not only sets his business right but fixes his romantic interest in her sister.

Archetypal Temple vehicle, a loose remake of Daddy Longlegs.

w Patterson McNutt, Arthur Beckhard d Irving Cummings ph John Seitz m/ly Ray Henderson, Ted Koehler, Edward Heyman, Irving Caesar

☆ Shirley Temple, John Boles, Rochelle Hudson, Jane Darwell, Rafaela Ottiano, Esther Dale, Arthur Treacher, Etienne Girardot

'Cinch b.o. for almost any house.' – Variety

Curry and Pepper

Hong Kong 1990 96m colour
Movie Impact (Ho-Sun Chan)

Two irresponsible cops fall out as partners when both fall for a glamorous TV reporter.

Crudely comic and violent action movie, which is closer to the Three Stooges or Police Academy than to John Woo, and all the worse for that.

w James Yuen d Blacky Ko (Ko Shuo Liang) ph Andrew Lau m Richard Lo ad Ben Luk ed Chan Ki Hop

☆ Jacky Cheung, Ann Bridgewater, Eric Tsang, Blacky Ko, Chow Mei-Yan, Barry Wong

The Curse: see Xala

Curse of Dark Shadows: see House of Dark Shadows

'The creature created by man is forgotten by nature!'

The Curse of Frankenstein ★★

GB 1957 83m Eastmancolor
Warner/Hammer (Anthony Hinds)

A lurid revamping of the 1931 Frankenstein, this time with severed eyeballs and a peculiarly unpleasant and uncharacterized creature, all in gory colour.

It set the trend in nasty horrors from which we have all suffered since, and launched Hammer Studios on a long and profitable career of charnelry. But it did have a gruesome sense of style.

w Jimmy Sangster d Terence Fisher ph Jack Asher m James Bernard ad Ted Marshall ed James Needs

☆ Peter Cushing, Christopher Lee, Hazel Court, Robert Urquhart, Valerie Gaunt, Noel Hood

'Among the half-dozen most repulsive films I have encountered in the course of some 10,000 miles of film reviewing. Indeed, at the moment, I can only think of two which sickened me more.' – C. A. Lejeune

'A tender tale of terror!'

The Curse of the Cat People ★

US 1944 70m bw
RKO (Val Lewton)

A child is haunted by the spirit of the cat people.

A gentle film ordered by the studio as a sequel to Cat People but turned by Lewton into a fantasy of childhood. Slow to start but finally compelling, it's a pleasing and unusual film in a minor key.

w De Witt Bodeen d Robert Wise, Gunther von Fritsch ph Nicholas Musuraca m Roy Webb

☆ Kent Smith, Simone Simon, Jane Randolph, Julia Dean, Ann Carter, Elizabeth Russell

'Full of the poetry and danger of childhood.' – James Agee
'A clumsy coming together of unrealized ideas, gothic effects, and stiff, dull acting.' – New Yorker, 1979

Curse of the Crimson Altar

GB 1968 89m Eastmancolor
Tigon/AIP (Tony Tenser)

aka: The Crimson Cult

Witchcraft, diabolism and mystery in an English country house.

A derivative, muddled scribble of a horror film, making no sense and wasting much talent.

w Mervyn Haisman, Henry Lincoln d Vernon Sewell ph John Coquillon m Peter Knight

☆ Boris Karloff, Christopher Lee, Rupert Davies, Mark Eden, Barbara Steele, Michael Gough

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Curse of the Demon: see Night of the Demon

The Curse of the Ellanbys: see She Wolf of London

'Entombed for eons – turned to stone – seeking women, women, women!'

Curse of the Faceless Man

US 1958 67m bw
Vogue/United Artists

An encrusted man, found in the earth near Pompeii, is revived and goes on the rampage, but is eventually dissolved by water.

Absurd chiller with the saving grace of not taking itself seriously.

w Jerome Bixby d Edward L. Cahn

☆ Richard Anderson, Elaine Edwards, Adele Mara, Gar Moore, Felix Locher

'Unspeakable secrets are hidden within the Forbidden City.'

Curse of the Golden Flower* ⑥

China / Hong Kong 2006 114m
Universal/Beijing New Picture Film Co./Film Partner Intl./Edko Films (Bill Kong)

Chinese theatrical: Man Cheng Jin Dai Huang Jin Jia

In 928 A.D. the Emperor marches home with his second son, Prince Jai. The Empress is having an affair with Crown Prince Wan, the Emperor's first son from his previous marriage. Wan wants to run away with Chan, the daughter of the Imperial Doctor, who is under orders from the Emperor to give the Empress medicine containing a Persian fungus that will render her insane. The Emperor's third and youngest son, Prince Yu, tries to be ingratiating to both parents. And then the intrigue thickens still further.

Director Zhang Yimou fails to spring many surprises in an epic approach to palace intrigues, as the royals tear each other apart while trying to maintain the volatile balance of power. The story becomes swamped by its lavish scale – its enormous budget shows. The power and beauty of Gong Li soars on a different level.

w ZhangYimou / Wu Nan, Bian Zhihong d Zhang Yimou ph Zhao Xiaoding m Shingeru Umebayashi pd Huo Tingxiao ad Zhao Bin ed Cheng Long sp Angela Barson / Chung Chihang

☆ Chow Yun-fat (The Emperor), Gong Li (The Empress), Jay Chou (Prince Jai), Liu Ye (Crown Prince Wan), Chen Jin (Imperial Doctor's Wife), Ni Dahong (Imperial Doctor)

'In the end, Curse looks alarmingly like a dry run for the opening and closing ceremonies Zhang has been hired to direct for the Beijing Olympics in 2008.' – David Chute, L.A. Weekly

'So ornate it verges on the disgusting.' – Tim Robey, Daily Telegraph

† Its $45 million budget makes it the most expensive Chinese film to date.

Best Foreign Language / Costume Design

'Love stings.'

The Curse of the Jade Scorpion

US 2001 101m Technicolor
DreamWorks/VCLGravier (Letty Aronson)

In 1940, an insurance investigator and an efficiency expert become jewel thieves under the influence of a stage hypnotist.

Mild comedy in the style of yesteryear's crime melodramas; pleasant in a semi-soporific way, it is nevertheless a disappointment from its writer-director.

wd Woody Allen ph Zhao Fei pd Santo Loquasto ed Alisa Lepselter cos Suzanne McCabe

☆ Woody Allen (CW Briggs), Dan Aykroyd (Chris Magruder), Elizabeth Berkley (Jill), Helen Hunt (Betty Ann Fitzgerald), Brian Markinson (Al), Wallace Shawn (George Bond), David Ogden Stiers (Voltan), Charlize Theron (Laura Kensington)

'A charming trifle that flatters the good taste of everyone involved.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

Curse of the Living Corpse

US 1963 78m bw
TCF (Del Tenney)

A millionaire vows to return and kill all his relatives if he is buried alive, which he is...

Gothic cheapie made in Stamford, Connecticut, where they have little experience of such things.

wd Del Tenney

☆ Roy Scheider, Candace Hilligoss

'Half bone, half bandage ... all bloodcurdling terror!'

Curse of the Mummy's Tomb

GB 1964 80m Technicolor Techniscope
Columbia/Swallow/Hammer (Michael Carreras)

An Egyptian mummy taken to London goes on the rampage, and meets its own wicked brother who has been cursed to eternal life.

Absurd farrago which takes too long to set up its plot and then finds little to do with its monster.

w Henry Younger (Michael Carreras) d Michael Carreras ph Otto Heller m Carlo Martelli ad Bernard Robinson ed James Needs, Eric Boyd-Perkins

☆ Ronald Howard, Terence Morgan, Fred Clark, Jeanne Roland, George Pastell, Jack Gwillim, John Paul

Curse of the Pink Panther

GB 1983 110m Technicolor Panavision
MGM-UA/Titan/Jewel (Blake Edwards, Gerald T. Nutting)

Inspector Clouseau has disappeared, and Dreyfus selects the world's worst detective to replace him.

Unspeakably awful attempt at prolonging a series whose star died two episodes ago. Crude, tasteless and unfunny throughout.

w Blake Edwards, Geoffrey Edwards d Blake Edwards ph Dick Bush m Henry Mancini pd Peter Mullins

☆ Ted Wass, Joanna Lumley, Herbert Lom, David Niven, Robert Wagner, Capucine, Harvey Korman, Burt Kwouk

'Another bout of film-making as grave robbing.' – Sight and Sound

'The ultimate version of deadpan humour ... the most tedious of the whole series.' – Richard Combs, MFB

Curse of the Undead

US 1959 79m bw
Universal-International

A black-clad stranger in a Western town turns out to be a vampire of Spanish origin.

Abysmal attempt to substitute Wyoming for Transylvania; more skill and sensitivity were required.

wd Edward Dein

☆ Michael Pate, Eric Fleming, Kathleen Crowley, John Hoyt

'He had but one body – yet lived with two souls!'

The Curse of the Werewolf

GB 1961 92m Technicolor
U-I/Hotspur/Hammer (Anthony Hinds)

A beggar rapes a servant girl and their offspring grows up to be a werewolf.

Doleful Hammer horror in a Spanish setting, with an absurd but predictable plot and a lack of sympathy for its fancy, hairy hero.

w John Elder (Anthony Hinds) novel The Werewolf of Paris by Guy Endore d Terence Fisher ph Arthur Grant m Benjamin Frankel ad Bernard Robinson ed James Needs, Alfred Cox

☆ Oliver Reed, Clifford Evans, Catherine Feller, Yvonne Romain, Anthony Dawson, Richard Wordsworth, Warren Mitchell, Peter Sallis

The Curse of the Wraydons

GB 1946 94m bw
Bushey

The Victorian story of Spring-heeled Jack, here depicted as a mad inventor out for revenge.

Too long and stagey to be one of its star's better barnstormers, especially as by this time his girth made the notion of his springing about somewhat hilarious.

w Michael Barringer d Victor M. Gover

☆ Tod Slaughter, Bruce Seton, Gabriel Toyne

'What doesn't kill you makes you stronger'

Cursed

Germany/US 2005 97m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Outerbanks/Craven/Maddalena Films (Kevin Williamson, Marianne Maddalena)

A brother and sister go in search of the werewolf that attacked them.

Standard horror from a team who could have done better.

w Kevin Williamson d Wes Craven ph Robert McLachlan m Marco Beltrami pd Bruce Miller ed Patrick Lussier sp makeup fx: Rick Baker

☆ Christina Ricci (Ellie), Joshua Jackson (Jake), Jesse Eisenberg (Jimmy), Judy Greer (Joannie), Scott Baio (Himself), Milo Ventimiglia (Bo)

'It's not bad enough to make you curse, but you are likely to laugh when you should scream, and to roll your eyes when you are meant to laugh.' – A.O. Scott, New York Times

Curtain Call ★

US 1940 63m bw
RKO

Two Broadway producers buy an awful play in order to get even with a temperamental star, but she likes it.

Amusing second feature, a kind of flashforward to The Producers. A reprise the following year, Footlight Fever, did not work.

w Dalton Trumbo d Frank Woodruff ph Russell Metty m Roy Webb

☆ Alan Mowbray, Donald MacBride, Helen Vinson, Barbara Read, John Archer

Curtain Call at Cactus Creek ★

US 1949 83m Technicolor
U-I (Robert Arthur)
GB title: Take the Stage

A travelling repertory company in the old west exposes a gang of bank robbers.

Cheerful minor comedy with good pace and amusing burlesques of old melodramas.

w Oscar Brodney d Charles Lamont ph Russell Metty m Walter Scharf

☆ Donald O'Connor, Gale Storm, Eve Arden, Vincent Price, Walter Brennan, Chick Chandler Curtain Up ★

GB 1952 85m bw
Rank/Constellation (Robert Garrett)

A seaside repertory company runs into trouble when the producer is at loggerheads with the author of next week's play.

Fairly amusing farce which has now acquired historical value for the light it throws on the old weekly reps.

w Michael Pertwee, Jack Davies play On Monday Next by Philip King d Ralph Smart ph Stanley Pavey m Malcolm Arnold

☆ Margaret Rutherford, Robert Morley, Olive Sloane, Joan Rice, Charlotte Mitchell, Kay Kendall, Liam Gaffney, Michael Medwin

Custer of the West

US 1967 146m Technicolor Super Technirama 70
Cinerama/Security (Louis Dolivet, Philip Yordan, Irving Lerner)

After the Civil War, Custer is offered a cavalry command, becomes disillusioned, and is massacred with his troops at Little Big Horn.

Gloomily inaccurate spectacular with pauses for Cinerama carnival thrills and dour bits of melodrama.

w Bernard Gordon, Julian Halevy (Julian Zimet) d Robert Siodmak ph Cecilio Paniagua m Bernardo Segall

☆ Robert Shaw, Mary Ure, Robert Ryan, Jeffrey Hunter, Ty Hardin, Lawrence Tierney, Kieron Moore

† Screenwriter Zimet used a pseudonym because he was blacklisted at the time.

'They just have to finish the film... before it finishes them.'

Cut

Australia/Germany/US 2000 79m colour
Beyond/MBP/Mushroom/SAFC (Martin Fabinyi, Bill Bennett, Jennifer Bennett)

Film students decide to complete an abandoned low-budget slasher movie that appears to be cursed: those who have tried to finish it have been murdered.

Brutal and bloody horror that sticks to the usual slasher movie conventions, and does so without any subtlety.

w Dave Warner d Kimble Rendall ph David Foreman m Guy Gross pd Steven Jones-Evans ed Henry Dangar

☆ Molly Ringwald (Vanessa Turnbill/Chloe), Jessica Napier (Raffy), Simon Bossell (Bobby), Sarah Kants (Hester Ryan), Kylie Minogue (Hilary), Geoff Revell (Lossman), Stephen Curry (Rick), Matt Russell (Paulie), Frank Roberts (Brad/Scarman)

A Cut Above: see Gross Anatomy

Cutter and Bone

US 1981 109m Technicolor
United Artists/Gurian

GB title: Cutter's Way

A California failure witnesses the aftermath of murder, and with a crippled ex-Vietnam veteran turns detective.

Heavy-going melodrama which tries very hard to be something more than a thriller, and manages only to imply that the world stinks; so it might as well have stuck to Philip Marlowe.

w Jeffrey Alan Fiskin novel Newton Thornburg d Ivan Passer ph Jordan

Cronenweth m Jack Nitzsche ed Caroline Ferriol
☆ Jeff Bridges, John Heard, Lisa Eichhorn, Ann Dusenberry, Stephen Elliott, Nina Van Pallandt

Cutter's Way: see Cutter and Bone

Cutthroat Island

US 1995 93m Technicolor Panavision, Technovision
Guild/Carolco/Forge/Canal (Renny Harlin, Joel B. Michaels, Laurence Mark, James Gorman)

Determined to beat her dastardly uncle, a female pirate goes in search of buried treasure with the aid of a literate slave.
Dull and confused action film that swiftly sinks with all hands lost.
w Robert King, Marc Norman story Michael Frost Beckner, James Gorman, Bruce A. Evans, Raynold Gideon
d Renny Harlin ph Peter Levy m John Debney pd Norman Garwood ed Frank J. Urioste, Ralph E. Winters ☆ Geena Davis, Matthew Modine, Frank Langella, Maury Chaykin, Patrick Malahide, Stan Shaw, Rex Linn, Harris Yulin
'This sort of film gives excitement a bad name.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
'A hoary pastiche of pirate movies of old, tricked out in cast-off clichés (inscrutable maps, monkey sidekicks, quicksand) and groaning under the strain of being driven so hard (breathless chases, an endless final battle), it is a sorry hulk of a film.' – Leslie Felperin, Sight and Sound

Cutting Class

US 1989 91m colour
April (Donald R. Beck, Rudy Cohen)

An axe murderer terrorises a high school.
Inadequate horror spoof for insomniacs.
w Steve Slavkin d Rospo Pallenberg
ph Avraham Karpick m Jill Fraser
pd Richard Sherman ed Bill Butler, Natan Zahavi ☆ Donovan Leitch (Brian Woods), Jill Schoelen (Paula Carson), Brad Pitt (Dwight Ingalls), Roddy McDowall (Mr Dante), Martin Mull (William Carson III), Brenda Lynn Klemme (Colleen), Mark Barnet (Gary)

'The King Of The Rink Is About To Meet America's Ice Queen.'

The Cutting Edge

US 1992 110m DeLuxe
UIP/MGM/Interscope (Ted Field, Karen Murphy, Robert W. Cort)

A tough former ice-hockey player becomes the partner of a spoiled and wealthy figure-skater.
Predictable romantic teen movie of winning against the odds.
w Tony Gilroy d Paul M. Glaser ph Elliot Davis m Patrick Williams pd David Gropman ed Michael E. Polakow
☆ D. B. Sweeney, Moira Kelly, Roy Dotrice, Terry O'Quinn, Dwier Brown, Chris Benson, Kevin Peeks, Barry Flatman

Cybèle ou les Dimanches de Ville d'Avry: see Sundays and Cybèle

Cyberjack

Canada/Japan 1995 96m colour
Catalyst/Fuji Eight (John A. Curtis)

US title: Virtual Assassin
An ex-cop turned janitor foils a criminal's attempt to steal a super-virus.
Routine low-budget science fiction, substituting action for characterization.
w Eric Poppen, John A. Curtis d Robert Lee ph Allan Trow m George Blondheim pd Richard Paris, Linda del Rosario ed Derek Whelan sp Paller Special Effects, Magic Camera Co.
☆ Michael Dudikoff, Brion James, Suki Kaiser, Jon Cuthbert, James Thom
'The acting's not much, and the script is notably lacking in wit, but the set-in-the-near-future saga looks way better than its $2 million budget.' – Ken Eisner, Variety
† The movie was released direct to video.

'He's the first hero of the 21st century.'

Cyborg

US 1989 85m colour
Cannon/Golan-Globus

A martial arts expert accompanies a female cyborg, holding information to save mankind, across post-apocalyptic America.
Charmless, cliché-packed action movie, carrying the explicit message that violence is good for you.
w Kitty Chalmers d Albert Pyun
ph Philip Alan Waters m Kevin Bassinson
pd Douglas Leonard ed Rozanne Zingale, Scott Stevenson ☆ Jean-Claude Van Damme, Deborah Richter, Vincent Klyn, Alex Daniels, Rolf Muller, Jackson Pinckney, Dayle Haddon

'He was programmed to kill ... Nobody can stop him.'

Cyborg Cop

US 1993 93m colour
Nu Image/Nu World (Danny Lerner)

An ex-cop goes to the rescue of his brother, who has been captured and turned into a killer cyborg by a mad millionaire drug dealer on a Caribbean island.
Dim standard robot action fodder, remarkable only for its violent, cliché-ridden plot and dialogue.
w Greg Latter d Sam Firstenberg ph Joseph Wein m Paul Fishman pd John Rosewarne ed Alan Patillo ☆ David Bradley, Todd Jensen, Alonna Shaw, Rufus Swart, John Rhys-Davies
'Some effective special effects make this watchable trash' – Sight and Sound

Cyborg Cop II

US 1994 97m colour
New World

A cop battles with a pyschotic killer who is turned into a cyborg and decides to wipe out the world.
A remake with a similar plot to the original film, and even less watchable this time around.
w Jon Stevens d Sam Firstenberg ph Joseph Wein m Bob Mithoff
ed Marcus Manton
☆ David Bradley, Morgan Hunter, Jill Pierce
'Low budget schlock, directed without grace and displaying the offensive sexist exploitation which gave the horror genre such a bad reputation in the 70s.' – Sight and Sound

Cyclo ★★

France/Vietnam 1995 129m colour
Entertainment/Lazannec/Lumière/La Sept/La SFP (Christophe Rossignon)

original title: Xich Lo
After a pedicab driver has his vehicle stolen, his employer recruits him as a member of a criminal gang involved in robbery and drug-dealing.
A lovingly detailed drama of street life and the way in which old cultural values are eroded by modern commercial pressures.
w Nguyen Trung Binh, Tran Anh Hung d Tran Anh Hung ph Benoit Delhomme m Ton That Tiet ad Daniel Zalay ed Nicole Dedieu, Claude Ronzeau
☆ Le Van Loc, Tony Leung, Tran Nu Yen Khe, Nguyen Nhu Quynh, Nguyen Hoang Phuc, Ngo Vu Quang Hai
'A remarkable film, superbly performed, shot and designed with real distinction.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
† It won the Golden Lion as best film at the 1995 Venice Film Festival.

The Cyclops

US 1956 65m bw
B and H (Bert I. Gordon)

Explorers in Mexico find animals turned by radiation into monsters, plus a one-eyed 25-foot-tall human.
Modest monster movie, quite palatable of its kind.
wd Bert I. Gordon ph Ira Morgan
m Albert Glasser
☆ James Craig, Lon Chaney Jnr, Gloria Talbott, Tom Drake

Cynara ★★

US 1932 78m bw
Samuel Goldwyn

A London barrister has an affair with a young girl who commits suicide when he goes back to his wife.
Solidly carpentered, effective star vehicle of the old school, now dated but preserving its dignity.
w Frances Marion, Lynn Starling novel An Imperfect Lover by Robert Gore Brown play Cynara by H. M. Harwood, Robert Gore Brown d King Vidor ph Ray June md Alfred Newman ad Richard Day
☆ Ronald Colman, Kay Francis, Phyllis Barry, Henry Stephenson, Paul Porcasi
'The values it involves are wholly unlike those which US audiences are usually called upon to comprehend.' – Time
† The film's title comes from Ernest Dowson's lines: 'I have been faithful to thee, Cynara, in my fashion.'

Cynthia

US 1947 98m bw
MGM (Edwin H. Knopf)
GB title: The Rich Full Life

An over-protected girl finds an outlet in music and her parents finally allow her to lead her own life.
An overlong domestic drama in which thin writing and acting are backed by unsound psychology.
w Harold Buchman, Charles Kaufman play Vina Delmar d Robert Z. Leonard ph Charles Schoenbaum m Bronislau Kaper ☆ Elizabeth Taylor, George Murphy, Mary Astor, S. Z. Sakall, James Lydon, Gene Lockhart, Spring Byington

'Never forget who you are.'

Cypher ★

US 2002 95m colour
Pathé/Pandora/Gaylord (Hunt Lowry, Paul Federbush, Casey La Scala, Wendy Grean)

An unemployed accountant becomes an industrial spy and discovers a new identity.
Paranoid science-fiction of the kind that could have been penned by Philip K. Dick; you need to stay alert to discover who is doing what to whom.
w Brian King d Vincenzo Natali
ph Derek Rogers m Michael Andrews
pd Jasna Stefanovic ed Bert Kish
☆ Jeremy Northam (Morgan Sullivan), Lucy Liu (Rita Foster), Nigel Bennett (Ed Finster), Timothy Webber (Frank Calloway), David Hewlett (Vergil Dunn)
'Curiously unengaging sci-fi claptrap.' – Kevin O'Sullivan, Daily Mirror
'A smart sci-fi thriller, punching considerably above its weight.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Cyrano de Bergerac ★

US 1950 112m bw
Stanley Kramer

In the 17th century a long-nosed poet, philosopher and buffoon writes letters enabling a friend to win the lady he loves himself.
The classic romantic verse play does not take kindly to a hole-in-corner black-and-white production, but at the time it was lapped up as a daring cultural breakthrough.
w Brian Hooker play Edmond Rostand
d Michael Gordon ph Franz Planer
m Dimitri Tiomkin
☆ José Ferrer, Mala Powers, William Prince, Morris Carnovsky, Ralph Clanton, Virginia Farmer, Edgar Barrier, Elena Verdugo
'Vigorous, respectful, full of lively movement, and pictorially well-composed.' – C. A. Lejeune
José Ferrer

Cyrano de Bergerac ★★★

France 1990 138m colour
Hachette Première/Camera One/Films A2/D.D. Productions/UGC (Rene Cleitman, Michael Seydoux)

A dashing soldier and noted duellist, handicapped by his long nose, helps a handsome friend make love to the woman he adores from afar.
Exuberant version of the romantic French classic, using the rhymed couplets of the original. The English subtitles, in a rhyming translation by Anthony Burgess, are a distraction, though.
w Jean-Paul Rappeneau, Jean-Claude Carrière play Edmond Rostand d Jean-Paul Rappeneau ph Pierre Lhomme
m Jean-Claude Petit ad Ezio Frigerio
ed Noëlle Boisson
☆ Gérard Depardieu (Cyrano de Bergerac), Anne Brochet (Roxane), Vincent Perez (Christian de Neuvillette), Jacques Weber (Count DeGuiche), Roland Bertin (Ragueneau), Philippe Morier-Genoud (Le Bret), Philippe Volter (Viscount of Valvert), Pierre Maguelon (Carbon de Castel-Jaloux)
'A near-perfect balance of verbal and visual flamboyance.' – Variety
'Cyrano? Bravo!' – Le Monde
Gérard Depardieu; best foreign film; best art direction; best costume design; best make-up
Pierre Lhomme; Jean-Claude Petit

Czar of the Slot Machines: see King of Gamblers

Czarina: see A Royal Scandal

Człowiek Z Marmuru: see Man of Marble

Człowiek Z Żelaza: see Man of Iron

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

D2: The Mighty Ducks

US 1994 106m Astrocolor
Walt Disney (Jon Avnet, Jordan Kerner)

A coach gathers together a group of misfits and moulds them into an ice-hockey team to compete in the Junior Goodwill Games.
A lacklustre sequel of little interest to anyone.
w Steven Brill d Sam Weisman ph Mark Irwin m J. A. C. Redford ed John F. Link, Eric A. Sears
☆ Emilio Estevez, Kathryn Erbe, Michael Tucker, Jan Rubes, Carsten Norgaard, Maria Ellingsen, Joshua Jackson

'A pretty sorry follow-up.' – Variety

† It is a sequel to The Mighty Ducks (qv).

D3: Mighty Ducks

US 1996 104m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Disney (Jordan Kerner, Jon Avnet)

A hockey team gain scholarships to a snobbish private school.
Slight and sentimental comedy in which tedium sets in early.
w Steven Brill, Jim Burnstein d Ron Lieberman ph David Hennings m J. A. C. Redford pd Steven Storer ed Patrick Lussier, Colleen Halsey
☆ Emilio Estevez, Jeffrey Nordling, David Selby, Heidi Kling, Joshua Jackson, Joss Ackland

'This amazingly resilient film franchise continues to be entertaining in a shamelessly manipulative way.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

D. C. Cab

US 1983 99m Technicolor
RKO-Universal (Topper Carew)

GB title: Street Fleet

Cab drivers for a run-down Washington company capture kidnappers.
Brainless extravaganza with aspirations somewhere between Taxi and Carry On.
wd Joel Schumacher ph Dean Cundey, Ron Van Nostrand m Giorgio Moroder pd John Lloyd ed David Blewitt
☆ Mr T, Max Gail, Adam Baldwin, Charlie Barnett, Gary Busey, Gloria Gifford

'Artificial energy used to bolster wretched material.' – Steve Jenkins, MFB

'They're crime-fighting hotties with killer bodies.'

D.E.B.S

US 2004 91m DeLuxe Panavision
Screen Gems (Jasmine Kosovic, Andrea Sperling)

A group of high school girls are trained to become special agents, but one of them falls in love with the female leader of a criminal gang.
High-spirited fantasy adventure spiced with a little lesbianism on the side. It's very silly, but at least it is aware of its own absurdity.
wd Angela Robinson ph M. David Mullen m Steven Stern pd Chris Anthony Miller ed Angela Robinson
☆ Sara Foster (Amy), Jordana Brewster (Lucy Diamond), Meagan Good (Max), Devon Aoki (Dominique), Jill Ritchie (Janet), Holland Taylor (Mrs Peatree), Michael Clarke Duncan (Mr Phipps), Geoff Stults (Bobby), Scud (Jimmi Simpson)

'A prime example of a dispiriting trend: movies whose primary point of reference is other movies.' – Ruthe Stein, San Francisco Chroncile

The DI

US 1957 106m bw
Warner/Mark VII (Jack Webb)

A tough marine drill instructor takes a special interest in a backward member of his platoon.
Noisy recruiting poster heroics in which the producer gives himself a loud but boring part. The drill sequences are well done, but the film is overlong and repetitive.
w James Lee Barrett d Jack Webb ph Edward Colman m David Buttolph
☆ Jack Webb, Don Dubbins, Jackie Loughery, Lin McCarthy, Monica Lewis

DNA

US 1996 93m colour
InterLight (Patrick D. Choi, Nile Niami)

A doctor's discovery in Borneo is stolen by a power-crazed genetic scientist who uses it to bring back to life a long-dead monster.
Undemanding action fare in a jungle setting, with borrowings from many horrors, from King Kong to Alien and Predator.
w Nick Davis d William Mesa ph Gerry Lively m Christopher L. Stone pd Charles Wood ed Edward R. Abroms
☆ Mark Dacascos, Jürgen Prochnow, Robin McKee, Roger Aaron Brown, John H. Brennan, Thomas Taus Jnr

D.O.A. ★★

US 1950 83m bw
UA/Leo C. Popkin

The victim of a slow poison tracks down his own killer.
Semi-classic suspense drama, sufficiently original to be remembered though the plot details become hazy.
w Russel Rouse, Clarence Greene (partly from a 1931 German film Der Mann der seinen Mörder Sucht) d Rudolph Maté ph Ernest Laszlo m Dimitri Tiomkin
☆ Edmond O'Brien, Pamela Britton, Luther Adler, Neville Brand, Beverly Campbell

† The title is a police abbreviation for 'dead on arrival'

†† Remade as Colour Me Dead (qv) and see below.

D.O.A.

US 1988 97m CFI color
Warner/Touchstone/Silver Screen Partners III (Ian Sander, Laura Ziskin)

A college professor, discovering that he has been poisoned, and with less than 48 hours to live, solves the mystery of his murder.
Ambitious but inept remake, lacking in suspense.
w Charles Edward Pogue story Charles Edward Pogue, Russel Rouse, Clarence Greene d Rocky Morton, Annabel Jankel ph Yuri Neyman m Chaz Jankel pd Richard Amend ed Michael R. Miller, Raja Gosnell
☆ Dennis Quaid, Meg Ryan, Charlotte Rampling, Daniel Stern, Jane Kaczmarek, Christopher Neame, Robin Johnson, Rob Knepper, Jay Patterson

'Alone they are unbeatable...Together they are invincible.'

DOA: Dead or Alive ★ ③

US/UK/Germany 2006 87m
Swipe Films/Constantin Film (Mark A Altman, Jeremy Bolt, Paul W.S. Anderson, Bernd Eichinger, Robert Kulzer)

German theatrical title: Dead Or Alive

The globe's most adept martial artists take part in a world fight tournament organized by a sinister doctor with an evil agenda.
Unpretentiously exciting B-movie trash that gleefully romps along on sheer high-camp self-awareness.
w J. F. Lawton, Adam Gross, Seth Gross video game Dead or Alive by Tecmo d Corey Yuen ph Chi Ying Chan, Kwok-Man Keung m Junkie XL pd James Choo, Sung Pong Choo ad Wong Ching Ching ed Ka-Fai Cheung, Eddie Hamilton, Angie Lam sp Victor Wong
☆ Jaime Pressly (Tina Armstrong), Holly Valance (Christie Allen), Sarah Carter (Helena Douglas), Devon Aoki (Princess Kasumi), Natassia Malthe (Ayane), Eric Roberts (Dr. Donovan), Matthew Marsden (Maximillian Marsh)

'Questionably acted, and the dialogue's painful, but, face it, that's not really the point, is it?' – Total Film – Jonathan Dean

D-Day the Sixth of June

US 1956 106m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
TCF (Charles Brackett)

On the way to invade France in 1944, a British colonel and an American captain reminisce about their love for the same woman.
Turgid war romance with some good action scenes and the usual hilarious Hollywood view of London. General effect very wooden.
w Ivan Moffat, Harry Brown novel Lionel Shapiro d Henry Koster ph Lee Garmes m Lyn Murray
☆ Robert Taylor, Richard Todd, Dana Wynter, Edmond O'Brien, John Williams, Jerry Paris, Richard Stapley

'Reminiscent of Mrs Miniver in style and feeling.' – MFB

'Survival is a killer'

D-Tox

US 2002 96m DeLuxe Panavision
UIP/Universal/KC Medien/Capella (Ric Kidney)

A heavy-drinking FBI agent, who is receiving treatment at a detox clinic, becomes convinced that one of the other patients is a serial killer.
Gruesome but ineffectual thriller with thin characterisation, stolid acting and a narrative littered with implausibilities.
w Ron L. Brinkerhoff, Patrick Kelly novel Jitter Joint by Howard Swindle d Jim Gillespie ph Dean Semler m John Powell, James McKee Smith, Geoff Zanelli pd Gary Wissner ed Steve Mirkovich
☆ Sylvester Stallone (Jake Malloy), Tom Berenger (Hank), Charles S. Dutton (Chuck Hendricks), Sean Patrick Flanery (Connor), Christopher Fulford (Frank Slater), Dina Meyer (Mary), Robert Patrick (Pete Noah), Robert Prosky (McKenzie), Courtney B. Vance (Willie Jones), Polly Walker (Jenny Munroe), Jeffrey Wright (Jaworski), Kris Kristofferson (Dr John Mitchell)

'Will somebody please put Sly Stallone's career out of its misery. Unplug the life support, sign whatever form it takes... I know a persistent vegetative state when I see one and this is it.' – Donald Clarke, Irish Times

Da ★★

US 1988 102m colour
Premier/Film Dallas/A. J. Corman-Sheen/Greenblatt/Auerbach (Julie Corman)

A playwright, returning to Ireland for his father's funeral, finds himself discussing life with his father's ghost.
An autobiographical work which runs deep with emotion.
w Hugh Leonard play Hugh Leonard d Matt Clark ph Alar Kivilo m Elmer Bernstein pd Frank Conway ed Nancy Nuttal Beyda
☆ Barnard Hughes, Martin Sheen, William Hickey, Doreen Hepburn, Karl Hayden, Hugh O'Conor, Ingrid Craigie, Joan O'Hara, Jill Doyle

Da Uomo a Uomo: see Death Rides a Horse

'Seek the Truth'

The Da Vinci Code ③

US 2006 148m DeLuxe
Columbia TriStar/Columbia/Imagine (Brian Grazer/John Calley)

Accused of murder, a Harvard professor goes on the run and discovers that a Catholic sect has covered up the fact that descendants of Jesus Christ and Mary Magdalene are alive today.
Extraordinarily turgid thriller that has its protagonists whizzing around Europe, where everyone behaves in an extraordinary manner, while working out crossword puzzles; Hanks wears a perpetual look of bewilderment, as well he might.
w Akiva Goldsman novel Dan Brown d Ron Howard ph Salvatore Totino m Hans Zimmer pd Allan Cameron ed Dan Hanley, Mike Hill ☆ Tom Hanks (Robert Langdon), Audrey Tautou (Sophie Neveu), Ian McKellen (Sir

Leigh Teabing), Jean Reno (Captain Bezu Fache), Paul Bettany (Silas), Alfred Molina (Bishop Aringarosa), Jurgen Prochnow (Vernet), Jean-Yves Berteloot (Remy Jean)

'A pulpy page-turner in its original incarnation as a huge international bestseller has become a stodgy, grim thing in its exceedingly literal-minded film version.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'I certainly can't support any calls for boycotting or protesting this busy, trivial, inoffensive film. Which is not to say I'm recommending you go see it.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

† The movie was a massive box-office success, taking $77m in its opening weekend in the USA.

Da Yuebing: see The Big Parade (1986)

Daayraa: see The Square Circle

'Sometimes the greatest man you ever meet... is the first one.'

Dad

US 1989 118m DeLuxe
UIP/Universal/Amblin Entertainment (Joseph Stern, Gary David Goldberg)

A son helps his father face up to death.
Excessively sentimental family drama.
wd Gary David Goldberg novel William Wharton ph Jan Kiesser m James Horner pd Jack DeGovia ed Eric Sears
☆ Jack Lemmon, Ted Danson, Olympia Dukakis, Kathy Baker, Kevin Spacey, Ethan Hawke, Zakes Mokae, J. T. Walsh, Peter Michael Goetz

'Emotional exploitation at its most objectionable.' – MFB

Dad Rudd films: see On Our Selection

Dad Savage

GB 1997 104m Technicolor Super 35
Polygram/Sweet Child/Dad Savage (Gwynneth Lloyd, Robert Jones)

In Norfolk, a gangster attempts to discover which of his accomplices killed his son and tried to steal his buried loot.
Derivative, brutal thriller that would seem more at home in the United States than rural England; its narrative overload gets in the way of any suspense.
w Steven Williams d Betsan Morris Evans ph Gavin Finney pd Michael Carlin ed Guy Bensley
☆ Patrick Stewart, Kevin McKidd, Helen McCrory, Joe McFadden, Marc Warren, Jake Wood

'Truly awful ... another nail in the British Film Industry's revival coffin.' – Alan Jones, Film Review

'Who's your daddy?'

Daddy Day Care ③

US 2003 92m DeLuxe
Columbia/Revolution (John Davis, Matt Berenson, Wyck Godfrey)

An out-of-work advertising executive, who is forced to stay at home with his young son while his wife works, decides to open a day-care centre with a friend.
Woefully weak comedy with cute kids and unfunny adults.
w Geoff Rodkey d Steve Carr ph Steven Poster m David Newman pd Garreth Stover ed Christopher Greenbury;
☆ Eddie Murphy (Charlie Hinton), Jeff Garlin (Phil), Steve Zahn (Marvin), Regina King (Kim Hinton), Kevin Nealon (Bruce), Jonathan Katz (Mr Dan Kubitz), Siobhan Fallon Hogan (Peggy), Lisa Edelstein (Crispin's Mom), Anjelica Huston (Miss Gwyneth Harridan), Khamani Griffin (Ben Hinton)

'A comedy that would have to work harder even to justify the appellation uninspired.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

Daddy Longlegs ★

US 1931 80m bw
Fox

An orphan girl grows up to fall in love with her mysterious benefactor.
Cinderella-like romance, adequately adapted from a novel which became the classic American version of the January–May romance.
w Sonya Levien novel Jean Webster d Alfred Santell ph Lucien Andriot ☆ Janet Gaynor, Warner Baxter, Una Merkel, John Arledge, Claude Gillingwater, Louise Closser Hale

'A smash ... one of those rare talkers with universal appeal.' – Variety

† Other versions were made in 1919 with Mary Pickford and Mahlon Hamilton, directed by Marshall Neilan; in 1935 disguised as Curly Top (qv) and in 1955 (see below).

Daddy Longlegs ★

US 1955 126m Technicolor Cinemascope
TCF (Samuel G. Engel)

Overlong and unsuitably wide-screened musical version of a popular story (see above).
Generally clumsy and dispirited, but Astaire is always worth watching and a couple of the dances are well staged.
w Phoebe and Henry Ephron d Jean Negulesco ph Leon Shamroy m Alfred Newman m/ly Johnny Mercer
☆ Fred Astaire, Leslie Caron, Fred Clark, Thelma Ritter, Terry Moore, Charlotte Austin, Larry Keating ♗ Alfred Newman; song 'Something's Gotta Give'

Daddy Nostalgie ★★

France 1990 106m Eastmancolor Panavision
Clea/Little Bear/Solyfic Eurisma (Adolphe Viezzi)

aka: These Foolish Things
A screenwriter returns home to be close to her invalid father.
Gently understated domestic drama.
w Colo Tavernier O'Hagan d Bertrand Tavernier ph Denis Lenoir m Antoine Duhamel pd Jean-Louis Poveda ed Ariane Boeglin
☆ Dirk Bogarde, Jane Birkin, Emmanuelle Bataille, Charlotte Kady, Michele Minns

'A miniature jewel of a film ... acted and directed with great subtlety.' – Variety

Daddy's Dyin', Who's Got the Will?

US 1990 95m DeLuxe
Palace/Propaganda Films/Artist Circle Entertainment (Sigurjon Sighvatsson, Steve Golin, Monty Montgomery)

Children gather at home after their father has a stroke.
Raucous comedy of family relationships that ends in sentimentality.
w Del Shores play Del Shores d Jack Fisk ph Paul Elliot m David McHugh pd Michelle Minch ed Edward A. Warschilka Jnr ☆ Beau Bridges, Beverly D'Angelo, Tess Harper, Judge Reinhold, Amy Wright, Patrika Darbo, Bert Remsen, Molly McClure, Keith Carradine, Newell Alexander

Daddy's Gone A-Hunting

US 1969 108m Technicolor
Warner/Red Lion (Mark Robson)

A child and its mother are threatened by her deranged ex-husband.
Unpleasant and protracted suspenser with the emphasis on sex rather than thrills.
w Larry Cohen, Lorenzo Semple Jnr d Mark Robson ph Ernest Laszlo m John Williams ☆ Carol White, Paul Burke, Scott Hylands, Mala Powers, Andrea King Dad's Army ★★

GB 1971 95m Technicolor
Columbia/Norcon (John R. Sloan)

Misadventures of a number of elderly gents in Britain's wartime Home Guard.
Expanded big-screen version of the long-running TV series, a pleasant souvenir but rather less effective than was expected because everything is shown – the town, the Nazis, the wives – and thus the air of gentle fantasy disappears, especially in the face of much coarsened humour.
w Jimmy Perry, David Croft d Norman Cohen ph Terry Maher m Wilfred Burns
☆ Arthur Lowe, John Le Mesurier, John Laurie, James Beck, Ian Lavender, Arnold Ridley, Liz Fraser, Clive Dunn, Bill Pertwee, Frank Williams, Edward Sinclair

Daens ★

Belgium/France/Netherlands 1992 138m colour
Mayfair/Favourite/Investco/Kredietbank Luxembourg/Films Dérive/Titane/Shooting Star/BRTN/KRO (Dick Impens)

At the turn of the century, a Catholic priest champions the half-starved, underpaid workers in the city of Aalst.
Dogged biopic celebrating a remarkable man, but without much flair in its telling.
w François Chevallier, Stijn Coninx novel Pieter Daens by Louis Paul Boon d Stijn Coninx ph Wather Vanden Ende m Dirk Brossé pd Allan Starski ed Ludo Troch
☆ Jan Decleir, Gérard Desarthe, Antje de Boeck, Michael Pas, Johan Leysen, Idwig Stéphane, Wim Meuwissen

'A bit of a pudding, and long with it. It says all the right things ... But it says them so slowly and deliberately that your patience is at times sorely tested.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'A bit of a plod. But it does have dramatic force, a passionate central performance and the great virtue of clarity.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

♗ best foreign film

Dagon, Sect of the Sea

Spain 2001 94m colour
Fantastic Factory/Castelao/Via Digital (Julio Fernandez, Brian Yuzna)

In Spain, survivors of a boating accident go for help to a fishing village where the locals worship an octopus-like monster.
Gory low-budget horror with a few effective moments.
w Dennis Paoli story H. P. Lovecraft d Stuart Gordon ph Carlos Suarez m Carles Cases ad Llorenc Miquel ed Jaume Villalta sp DDT
☆ Ezra Godden, Francisco Rabal, Raquel Merono, Macarena Gomez, Brendan Price, Birgit Bofarull

'An enjoyably mindless ride.' – Variety

Dahong Denglong Gaogao Gua: see Raise The Red Lantern

Dai Sigin: see Breaking News

Daibosatsu Toge (1960): see Satan's Sword: Great Buddha Pass

Daibosatsu Toge (1966): see Sword of Doom

Daibosatsu Toge II: Ryujin No Maki: see Satan's Sword 2: The Dragon God

'Behind a Mask of Stone, the Fires of Vengeance Burn!'

Daimajin

Japan 1966 84m colour
Daiei (Masaichi Nagata)

Angered by the behaviour of traitorous followers who kill their lord and usurp his powers, the stone figure of the local god comes to life to restore order.
The Japanese equivalent of the golem appeared in three features which were straightforward samurai adventures with a monster climax; this, the first in the series, was the most enjoyable.
w Tetsuro Yoshida d Kimiyoshi Yasuda ph Fujio Morita m Akira Ifukube ed Hirochi Yamada sp Yoshiyuki Kuroda ☆ Miwa Takada (Kozasa Hanabusa), Yoshihiko Aoyama (Tadafumi Hanabusa), Jun Fujimaki (Kogenta), Yutaro Gomi (Samanosuke), Riki Hashimoto (Majin)

† It was followed by Daimajin Ikuru/Wrath of Daimajin and Daimajin Gyakushu/Return of Daimajin (qqv)

'Colder than Ice, Unyielding as Stone, Divine Retribution is at Hand'

Daimajin Gyakushu

Japan 1966 97m colour
Daiei (Masaichi Nagata)

video title: Return of Daimajin
aka: Majin Strikes Again
Searching for their fathers, who were kidnapped by an evil lord to build his new fort in Hell's Valley, four children venture into the domain of the mountain god, Majin.
The third movie in the Daimajin series will have most appeal to those who can identify with its young protagonists; it provides enjoyment of an undemanding kind.
w Tetsuro Yoshida d Kazuo Mori ph Hiroshi Imai, Fujio Morita m Akira Ifukube ed Kanji Suganuma sp Yoshiyuki Kuroda ☆ Shinji Hori, Shiei Iizuki, Masahide Kizuka, Riki Hoshimoto

'A Wave of Evil Has Been Unleashed!'

Daimajin Ikaru

Japan 1966 79m colour
Daiei (Masaichi Nagata)

video title: Wrath of Daimajin
After a ruthless warlord invades neighbouring territories and dynamites the statue of their god, a stone figure arises from a lake to wreak vengeance.
Like the first feature, a simple samurai adventure of good versus evil, with a late appearance of the monster figure to provide a destructive action climax.
w Tetsuro Yoshida d Kenji Misumi ph Fujio Morita m Akira Ifukube ed Kanji Suganuma sp Yoshiyuki Kuroda

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

☆ Kojiro Hongo (Lord Juro), Shiho Fujimura (Lady Sayuri), Riki Hashimoto (Majin)

Daisies ★★★

Czechoslovakia 1966 80m colour
Bohumil Smida (Lasislav Fikar)

original title: Sedmikrásky

Bored by their lives, two girls go in search of decadence.

Witty, playful, visually exuberant attack on conformity and a materialistic society that the Czech authorities banned for a time.

w Ester Krumbachova, Vera Chytilova d Vera Chytilova ph Jaroslav Kucera pd Ester Krumbachova ed Miroslav Hajek

☆ Jitka Cerhova (Marie I), Ivana Karbanova (Marie II), Julius Albert (Man about Town)

'What makes this film particularly distasteful is its idiot yearning for Western beatnikdom, its slobbering (and, I suspect, lesbian) adulation of its ghastly heroines.' – John Simon

Daisy Kenyon

US 1947 99m bw
TCF (Otto Preminger)

A fashion designer has two men in her life.

Adequate woman's picture which hardly justifies its cast.

w David Hertz novel Elizabeth Janeway d Otto Preminger ph Leon Shamroy m David Raksin

☆ Joan Crawford, Henry Fonda, Dana Andrews, Ruth Warrick, Martha Stewart, Peggy Ann Garner

Daisy Miller ★

US 1974 92m Technicolor
Paramount/Copa de Oro (Peter Bogdanovich)

In the 19th century, an American girl tourist in Europe falls in love but dies of the Roman fever.

Curious attempt to film a very mild and uneventful Henry James story, with careful production but inadequate leads. The first sign that Bogdanovich was getting too big for his boots.

w Frederic Raphael story Henry James d Peter Bogdanovich ph Alberto Spagnoli m classical themes ad Ferdinando Scarfiotti

☆ Cybill Shepherd, Barry Brown, Cloris Leachman, Mildred Natwick, Eileen Brennan, James MacMurtry

'A historical film bereft of any feeling for history, and a literary adaptation which reveals a fine contempt for literary subtlety.' – Jan Dawson

'Appallingly crass ... directed with all the subtlety of a sledgehammer.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

'Trying to make that little thing he's with into Daisy Miller was hilarious. God almighty couldn't do that. She's so coy.' – Henry Hathaway

Dakota

US 1945 82m bw
Republic (Joseph Kane)

The daughter of a railroad tycoon elopes with a cowboy and becomes involved in a land war.

Adequate star Western.

w Lawrence Hazard story Carl Foreman d Joseph Kane ph Jack Marta m Walter Scharf

☆ John Wayne, Vera Hruba Ralston, Walter Brennan, Ward Bond, Ona Munson, Hugo Haas, Mike Mazurki, Paul Fix, Grant Withers, Jack La Rue

Dakota Incident

US 1956 88m bw
Republic

Strangers take cover when they are attacked by Indians.

A formula older than Stagecoach is played out to humdrum results.

w Frederic Louis Fox d Lewis R. Foster

☆ Linda Darnell, Dale Robertson, Regis Toomey, John Lund, Ward Bond, Skip Homeier, Irving Bacon, John Doucette, Whit Bissell

Dakota Road

GB 1990 89m colour
Mayfair/Dakota Road/Working Title/Film Four/British Screen (Donna Grey)

In East Anglia a 15-year-old girl suffers from her father's suicide, her family's eviction from their home and an unsatisfactory love affair with a local youth.

Rural melodrama so unrelievedly tragic that it hovers on the edge of parody.

wd Nick Ward ph Ian Wilson m Paul Stacey pd Careen Hertzog ed William Diver

☆ Charlotte Chatton, Jason Carter, Rachel Scott, Amelda Brown, Matthew Scurfield, Alan Howard, David Warrilow

'A melodrama with the angst button set to full volume, all the way through.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent

'Though the film is splendidly shot by Ian Wilson, making the most of the exposed landscape and its patches of unexpected lushness, it founders on a relentless rural miserabilism.' – Hugo Davenport, Daily Telegraph

Dal Polo all'Equatore: see From The Pole to The Equator

Dal-kom-han In-saeng: see A Bittersweet Life

Daleks: Invasion Earth 2150 AD: see Dr Who and the Daleks

Dallas ★

US 1950 94m Technicolor
Warner (Anthony Veiller)

A renegade ex-Confederate colonel is pardoned for bringing law and order to Dallas.

Routinely competent top-of-the-bill Western.

w John Twist d Stuart Heisler ph Ernest Haller m Max Steiner ed Clarence Kolster

☆ Gary Cooper, Ruth Roman, Raymond Massey, Steve Cochran, Barbara Payton, Leif Erickson, Antonio Moreno, Jerome Cowan

Dallas Doll

Australia 1994 104m Eastmancolor
Metro Tartan/Dallas Doll/ABC/BBC (Ross Matthews)

A female American golf instructor causes dissension in an Australian family by seducing the husband, wife and son.

Dim would-be satirical comedy, a variation on Pasolini's Theorem, which falls very flat.

wd Ann Turner ph Paul Murphy m David Hirschfelder pd Marcus North ed Michael Honey

☆ Sandra Bernhard, Frank Gallacher, Victoria Longley, Jake Blundell, Rose Byrne, Jonathon Leahy, Douglas Hedge, Melissa Thomas

'An out-of-control mess.' – Independent

The Dam Busters ★★

GB 1954 125m bw
ABPC (Robert Clark)

In 1943 the Ruhr dams are destroyed by Dr Barnes Wallis's bouncing bombs.

Understated British war epic with additional scientific interest and good acting and model work, not to mention a welcome lack of love interest.

w R. C. Sherriff books Guy Gibson and Paul Brickhill d Michael Anderson ph Erwin Hillier m Leighton Lucas, Eric Coates ad Robert Jones ed Richard Best sp George Blackwell

☆ Michael Redgrave (Dr B. N. Wallis), Richard Todd (Wing Commander Guy Gibson), Basil Sydney (Air Chief Marshal Sir Arthur Harris), Derek Farr (Group Capt J. N. H. Whitworth), Patrick Barr (Capt. Joseph Summers), Ernest Clark (Air Vice-Marshal the Hon Ralph Cochrane), Raymond Huntley (Official), Ursula Jeans (Mrs Wallis), Brewster Mason (Flight Lt R. D. Trevor-Roper), Anthony Doonan (Flight Lt R. E. G. Hutchison), Nigel Stock (Flying Officer F. M. Spafford), Brian Nissen (Flight Lt A. T. Taerum), Robert Shaw (Flight Sgt J. Pulford), Peter Assinder (Flying Officer G. A. Deering)

A dama do cine Shanghai: see The Lady from the Shanghai Cinema

Dama sSobachkoi: see The Lady with the Little Dog

'Desire. Deceit.'

Damage

GB/France 1992 111m Technicolor
Entertainment/Skreba/NEF/Canal (Louis Malle)

A Conservative minister is destroyed by his obsessive love for his son's girlfriend.

Disappointingly thin tale that carries very little conviction.

w David Hare novel Josephine Hart d Louis Malle ph Peter Biziou m Zbigniew Preisner pd Brian Morris ed John Bloom

☆ Jeremy Irons, Juliette Binoche, Miranda Richardson, Rupert Graves, Leslie Caron, Ian Bannen, Gemma Clarke, Julian Fellowes, Tony Doyle, Benjamin Whitrow

'A cold, brittle film about raging, traumatic emotions.' – Variety

'A carefully controlled picture about uncontrollable passion, in which precise camera movements and unobtrusive editing subtly complement the immaculate acting.' – Philip French, Observer

Miranda Richardson

Miranda Richardson

La Dame aux Camélias: see The Lady of the Camelias

Dames ★★

US 1934 90m bw
Warner (Robert Lord)

A millionaire purity fanatic tries to stop the opening of a Broadway show.

Typical Warner musical of the period: its real raison d'être is to be found in the splendidly imaginative numbers at the finale, but it also gives very full rein to the roster of comic actors under contract at the time.

w Delmer Daves d Ray Enright ph Sid Hickox, George Barnes m various ch Busby Berkeley

☆ Joan Blondell, Hugh Herbert, Guy Kibbee, ZaSu Pitts, Dick Powell, Ruby Keeler

'That Warners was able to fashion so zestful an entertainment under post-Haysian restrictions is a credit to the collective ingenuities of the studio artificers ... Swell entertainment, no matter how you slice it.' – Variety † Originally intended as Gold Diggers of 1934.

Les Dames du Bois de Boulogne ★

France 1946 90m bw
Consortium du Film (Raoul Ploquin)

US title: Ladies of the Park

A woman revenges herself on her faithless lover by inveigling him into a marriage with a nightclub dancer-cum-prostitute.

An austerely directed romantic melodrama that fails to satisfy.

w Jean Cocteau, Robert Bresson story Diderot d Robert Bresson ph Philippe Agostini m Jean-Jacques Grunenwald pd Max Douy

☆ Paul Bernard, Maria Casarès, Elina Labourdette, Lucienne Bogaert, Jean Marchat

'The first time was only a warning!'

Damien: Omen Two

US 1978 109m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF (Harvey Bernhard)

The antichrist who got rid of the entire cast of The Omen now, as a teenager, starts in on his foster parents.

Once was enough.

w Stanley Mann, Michael Hodges d Don Taylor ph Bill Butler m Jerry Goldsmith

☆ William Holden, Lee Grant, Jonathan Scott-Taylor, Robert Foxworth, Lucas Donat, Lew Ayres, Sylvia Sidney, Elizabeth Shepherd

† It was followed by The Final Conflict (qv).

Damn the Defiant: see HMS Defiant

Damn Yankees ★★

US 1958 110m Technicolor
Warner (George Abbott, Stanley Donen)

GB title: What Lola Wants

The devil interferes in the fortunes of a failing baseball team.

Smartly-styled but very American musical based on Faust; brilliant moments but some tedium.

w George Abbott novel Douglass Wallop d George Abbott, Stanley Donen ph Harold Lipstein m/ly Richard Adler, Jerry Ross md Ray Heindorf

☆ Gwen Verdon, Tab Hunter, Ray Walston, Russ Brown, Shannon Bolin

Ray Heindorf

Damnation ★★★

Hungary 1988 116m bw

original title: Kárhozat

Rejected by his married lover, an unemployed man plots to get her husband out of the way so he can attempt to resume their affair.

Bleak movie about a hopeless love affair, set in a grimy industrial landscape. Tarr's film does not provide for easy optimism, but is made interesting by his approach of long, concentrated takes, filmed in striking black and white photography.

w Bela Tarr, Laszlo Krasznahorkai d Bela Tarr ph Gabor Medvigy m Mihaly Vig ad Gyula Pauer ed Agnes Hraniczky

☆ Miklos B. Szekely (Karrer), Vali Kerekes (The Singer), Gyula Pauer (Willarsky), Hedi

Temessy (Cloakroom Attendant), Gyorgy Cserhalmi (Sebestyen)

'Technically brilliant but utterly dreary.' – James Christopher, Times

Damnation Alley

US 1977 95m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Hal Landers, Bobby Roberts, Jerome M Zeitman

Four survivors from World War Three try to reach a colony of fellow-survivors in New York.

Feeble attempt at a low-budget blockbuster.

w Alan Sharp, Lukas Heller novel Roger Zelazny d Jack Smight ph Harry Stradling Jnr m Jerry Goldsmith pd Preston Ames

☆ Jan-Michael Vincent, George Peppard, Dominique Sanda, Paul Winfield

The Damned ★

GB 1963 87m bw HammerScope
Columbia/Hammer-Swallow (Anthony Hinds)
US title: These Are the Damned

A scientist keeps radioactive children in a cliff cave, sealed off from the world's corruption.

Absurdly pompous, downcast and confused sci-fi melodrama set in Weymouth, with a secondary plot about motor-cycling thugs.

w Evan Jones novel The Children of Light by H. L. Lawrence d Joseph Losey ph Arthur Grant m James Bernard pd Bernard Robinson

☆ Macdonald Carey, Shirley Anne Field, Alexander Knox, Viveca Lindfors, Oliver Reed, Walter Gotell, James Villiers

'A folie de grandeur.' – Tom Milne

'Out of this wild mishmash some really magnificent images loom.' – John Coleman

The Damned ★★★

West Germany/Italy 1969 164m Eastmancolor
Praesidens/Pegaso

original title: Götterdämmerung
aka: Le Caduta Degli Dei

A family of German industrialists divides and destroys itself under Nazi influence.

A film which has been called baroque, Wagnerian, and just plain unpleasant; it is also rather a strain to watch, with exaggerated colour and make-up to match the rotting theme. Visconti uses sexual transgression as a sign of Fascism, while revealing, within the microcosm of a family, the complicity of the upper middle-classes in the rise of Hitler.

w Nicola Badalucco, Enrico Medioli, Luchino Visconti d Luchino Visconti ph Armando Nannuzzi, Pasquale de Santis m Maurice Jarre ad Enzo del Prato, Pasquale Romano ed Ruggero Mastroianni

☆ Dirk Bogarde (Friedrich Bruckmann), Ingrid Thulin (Baroness Sophie von Essenbeck), Helmut Berger (Martin von Essenbeck), Renaud Verley (Gunther von Essenbeck), Helmut Griem (Aschenbach), René Kolldehoff (Baron Konstantin von Essenbeck), Albrecht Schönhals (Baron Joachim von Essenbeck), Umberto Orsini (Herbert Thallman)

'One is left lamenting that such a quondam master of realism as Visconti is making his films look like operas from which the score has been inexplicably removed.' – MFB

'The ludicrous flailings of puny puppets in inscrutable wooden frenzies.' – John Simon

script

'The private lady of a public enemy!'

The Damned Don't Cry

US 1950 103m bw
Warner (Jerry Wald)

A middle-class housewife leaves her husband for a gambler, and becomes involved with gangsters, but eventually reforms.

Rather dreary stimulation for female audiences who like safe dreams of danger.

w Harold Medford, Jerome Weidman novel Case History by Gertrude Walker d Vincent Sherman ph Ted McCord m Daniele Amfitheatrof

☆ Joan Crawford, Kent Smith, David Brian, Steve Cochran, Hugh Sanders, Selena Royle, Morris Ankrum, Richard Egan

'Mad adventure! Daring deeds! White hot love with music!'

A Damsel in Distress ★

US 1937 101m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)

An American dancing star falls for an aristocratic young Englishwoman.

Astaire without Rogers, but the style is the same and there are some very good numbers.

w P. G. Wodehouse, S. K. Lauren, Ernest Pagano d George Stevens ph Joseph H. August m/ly George and Ira Gershwin ch Hermes Pan ad Carroll Clark

☆ Fred Astaire, George Burns, Gracie Allen, Joan Fontaine, Reginald Gardiner, Constance Collier, Ray Noble, Montagu Love

'Plenty for the b.o. – dancing, comedy, marquee values, the usual sumptuous investiture accorded by Pandro Berman, and those Gershwin songs.' – Variety

† Rogers had demanded a break from musicals, so she was replaced by the demure Miss Fontaine, who was generally thought disappointing.

Hermes Pan

Carroll Clark

Dance Band

GB 1935 75m bw
BIP (Walter Mycroft)

A band leader who croons falls for the boss of an all-ladies orchestra.

Fairly slick light musical fare of its period.

w Roger Burford, Jack Davies, Denis Waldock d Marcel Varnel ph Bryan Langley md Harry Acres ad David Rawnsley ed Sidney Cole

☆ Buddy Rogers, June Clyde, Fred Duprez, Richard Hearne, Steve Geray, Magda Kun

'Popular entertainment from start to finish, cut to a point where there is hardly a draggy moment.' – Variety

Dance Fools Dance

US 1931 82m bw
MGM

A lady reporter in Chicago proves her worth.

Bizarrely-titled gangster thriller based on the Jake Lingle killing. Very moderate of its kind.

w Richard Schayer, Aurania Rouverol d Harry Beaumont ph Charles Rosher

☆ Joan Crawford, Lester Vail, Cliff Edwards, William Bakewell, William Holden (the other one), Clark Gable, Earle Foxe, Joan Marsh

'It will rock the b.o ... sex, romance, punch, suspense, and everything a deluxer can sell.' – Variety

Dance, Girl, Dance ★

US 1940 88m bw
RKO (Erich Pommer)

Private problems of the members of a night-club dance troupe.

Competent and sometimes interesting formula drama with a harder edge than usual.

w Tess Slesinger, Frank Davis story Vicki Baum d Dorothy Arzner ph Russell Metty m Edward Ward

☆ Maureen O'Hara, Louis Hayward, Lucille Ball, Maria Ouspenskaya, Ralph Bellamy, Virginia Field, Mary Carlisle, Walter Abel, Edward Brophy, Harold Huber

The Dance Goes On

Canada 1991 103m colour
Quest (Paul Almond)

A brash young man learns to appreciate rustic values after he travels from Malibu to the family farm in Quebec with the ashes of his uncle.

Amiable family drama of a familiar kind, dealing with tensions between father and son.

wd Paul Almond ph Peter Benison m Claude Léveillée, James Smith pd Reuben Freed

☆ James Keach, Matthew James Almond, Geneviève Bujold, Leslie Hope, Bryan Hennessy, Deborah Freeland, Cary Lawrence

Dance Hall ★

GB 1950 80m bw
Ealing (Michael Balcon, E. V. H. Emmett)

Four factory girls seek relaxation and various kinds of romance at the local palais.

Untypically flat Ealing slice of life, now watchable only with a smile as musical nostalgia.

w E. V. H. Emmett, Diana Morgan, Alexander Mackendrick d Charles Crichton ph Douglas Slocombe m Joyce Cochran md Ernest Irving ed Seth Holt

☆ Natasha Parry, Donald Houston, Diana Dors, Bonar Colleano, Jane Hylton, Petula Clark, Gladys Henson, Sydney Tafler, Geraldo and his band, Ted Heath and his band

'Not a film that will please everyone. Its story is tiresome and not varied enough for the length of the picture.' – A. Jympson Harman

Dance Little Lady

GB 1954 87m Eastmancolor
George Minter/Renown

An ambitious man tries to turn his balletomane daughter into a film star.

Artless melodrama in poor colour.

w Val Guest, Doreen Montgomery d Val Guest

☆ Terence Morgan, Mai Zetterling, Mandy Miller, Guy Rolfe, Eunice Gayson

Dance Me Outside ★

Canada 1994 84m colour
Yorktown/Shadow Shows (Brian Dennis, Bruce McDonald)

In Ontario, an 18-year-old Indian, compelled to write a story in order to get into mechanics school, recalls events following the rape and murder of an Indian girl by a white man.

Effective drama of racial tensions and resentment that touches with humour and insight on many other aspects of life.

w Bruce McDonald, Don McKellar, John Frizzell novel W. P. Kinsella d Bruce McDonald ph Miroslaw Baszak m Mychael Danna pd John Dondertman ed Michael Pacek

☆ Ryan Rajendra Black, Adam Beach, Lisa LaCroix, Michael Greyeyes, Kevin Hicks, Jennifer Podemski, Sandrine Holt

'Bolstered by a winning, youthful cast, the film is a droll ensemble piece that makes its serious points skillfully and effortlessly.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

The Dance of Death ★

GB 1968 149m Technicolor
BHE/National Theatre (John Brabourne)

Edgar and Alice live alone on an island, their marriage having become a constant war.

Too-literal film transcription of an applauded theatrical production, with the camera anchored firmly in the middle of the stalls.

w August Strindberg (translation C. D. Locock) d David Giles ph Geoffrey Unsworth

☆ Laurence Olivier, Geraldine McEwan, Robert Lang, Carolyn Jones

Dance of the Vampires: see The Fearless Vampire Killers

Dance of the Wind ★

Germany/GB/France/Netherlands/India/Switzerland 1997 86m colour
Artificial Eye/Pandora/Elephant Eye/Illumination/JBA/Filmcompany/NFDC (Karl Baumgartner)

In New Delhi, a singer of classical Hindustani music loses her voice when her mother dies, and goes to find the guru who was her mother's teacher.

A fable about individuality within a culture, accessible to a sympathetic Western audience.

w Robin Mukherjee d Rajan Khosa ph Piyush Shah pd Amardeep Behl ed Emma Matthews

☆ Kitu Gidwani, Bhaveen Gossain, B. C. Sanyal, Roshan Bano, Kapila Vatsyayan, Vinod Nagpal, Punamava Mehta, Ami Arora, Bhunvar Lal

'A little gem.' – Empire

Dance with a Stranger ★

GB 1985 101m Technicolor
Goldcrest/NFFC/First Picture Co (Roger Randall-Cutler)

Ex-prostitute Ruth Ellis, infatuated with a worthless sponger, shoots him dead rather than lose him.

Muddled account of the last woman to hang in Great Britain; no sympathies are aroused and no clear viewpoint taken.

w Shelagh Delaney d Mike Newell ph Peter Hannan m Richard Hartley pd Andrew Mollo ed Mick Audsley

☆ Miranda Richardson, Rupert Everett, Ian Holm, Matthew Carroll, Stratford Johns

Dance with Me

US 1998 126m CFI color
Columbia/Mandalay (Lauren C. Weissman, Shinya Egawa, Randa Haines)

A young Cuban travels to the United States to find his father and a partner for a Las Vegas dance competition.

Lively romantic drama, with most of the action taking place on the dance-floor, but it is both forgettable and predictable.

w Daryl Matthews d Randa Haines ph Fred Murphy m Michael Convertino pd Waldemar Kalinowski ed Lisa Fruchtman

☆ Vanessa L. Williams, Chayanne, Kris Kristoffersen, Joan Plowright, Jane

Krakowski, Beth Grant, William Marquez
'Flashdance for the 1990s, for good and ill.' – Variety

Dancer in the Dark ★★

Denmark/Sweden/France 2000 140m colour
Film4/Zentropa/Trust/Film i Vast/Liberator (Vibeke Windelov)

A factory worker, trying to raise money for an operation to save her son's sight, is threatened with her own blindness, eviction, unemployment, and the death penalty for killing the man who robbed her.
A film to divide audiences into those who will respond to the intense emotions on display, many of them heightened by anguished sequences of song and dance, and those who will find the jerky handheld photography a needless distraction, and will reject the melodramatic sob-story as shameless manipulation. Björk throws herself into the role of the most self-sacrificing mother since Stella Dallas with complete conviction.
wd Lars Von Trier ph Robby Mueller m/ly Bjork; Lars Von Trier, Sjon Sigurdsson pd Karl Juliusson ed Molly Malene Stensgaard, Francois Gedigier cos Manon Rasmussen ch Vincent Paterson
☆ Björk (Selma), Catherine Deneuve (Kathy), David Morse (Bill), Peter Stormare (Jeff), Joel Grey (Oldrich Novy), Vincent Paterson (Director), Cara Seymour (Jean), Jean-Marc Barr (Foreman), Vladica Kostic (Gene), Udo Kier (Doctor), Zeljko Ivanek (D.A.)
'Occasionally riveting folly.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Times
'I was simultaneously struck by the film's preposterousness and astounded by its intensity and audacity.' – Edward Porter, Sunday Times
'A demo of auteurist self-importance that's artistically bankrupt on almost every level.' – Derek Elley, Variety
† The film won the Palme D'Or, and Björk won the Best Actress award, at the Cannes Festival in 2000. It also won the Best Film award, and Björk the Best Actress award, at the European Film Awards of 2000.
song 'I've Seen It All' (m Björk, l Lars von Trier, Sjon Sigurdsson)

'An honest man caught in a world of intrigue, power and passion.'

The Dancer Upstairs ★★

US/Spain 2002 113m colour
TCF/Lolafilms/Mr Mudd/Antena 3 (Andres Vicente Gomez, John Malkovich)

In a Latin American country, a cop, a former lawyer, attempts to track down the leader of a mysterious revolutionary group waging a guerilla war against the government.
Taut, complex political thriller of the dilemma of an honest cop caught between terrorists and a ruthless government.
w Nicholas Shakespeare novel Nicholas Shakespeare d John Malkovich ph Jose Luis Alcaine m Alberto Iglesias pd Pierre-François Limbosch ed Mario Battistel ☆ Javier Bardem (Rejas), Juan Diego Botto (Sucre), Laura Morante (Yolanda), Elvira Minguez (Llosa), Alexandra Lencastre (Sylvina), Oliver Cotton (General Merino), Abel Folk (Ezequiel Duran), Marie-Anne Verganza (Laura)
'Plays like a routine American thriller thinly disguised as a South American political allegory.' – Jeffrey M. Anderson, San Francisco Examiner
'Highly accomplished and thoughtful first movie, a work of considerable intelligence' – Philip French, Observer
† Shakespeare's novel was based on the real-life search for Abimael Guzman, leader of the Shining Path revolutionary party in Peru, that ended with his capture above a dance studio in Lima in 1992.

Dancers

US 1987 99m colour
Cannon/Hera/Baryshnikov/Golan/Globus

On tour in Italy, a leading dancer recovers his inspiration when a young ballerina joins the company.
Trite script, dull romance and moments of exciting dance.
w Sarah Kernochan d Herbert Ross ph Ennio Guarnieri m Pino Donnagio pd Gianni Quaranta ed William Reynolds
☆ Mikhail Baryshnikov, Alessandra Ferri, Leslie Browne, Thomas Rall, Lynn Seymour, Victor Barbee, Julie Kent

Dances with Wolves ★★

US 1990 180m DeLuxe Panavision
Guild/Tig Productions/Jim Wilson, Kevin Costner

A cavalry officer is adopted by the Sioux Indians.
A liberal Western – the Indians (or Native Americans) are the good guys – sentimental and over-long, but nonetheless affecting. A version of 'the director's cut' was promised for videocassette, with a running time of 240 minutes.
w Michael Blake novel Michael Blake d Kevin Costner ph Dean Semler m John Barry pd Jeffrey Beecroft ad William Ladd Skinner ed Neil Travis
☆ Kevin Costner, Mary McDonnell, Graham Greene, Rodney A. Grant, Floyd Red Crow Westerman, Tantoo Cardinal, Robert Pastorelli, Charles Rocket, Maury Chaykin, Jimmy Herman, Nathan Lee Chasing His Horse
'Dances with Wolves would be easier to love if screenwriter Blake had resisted the temptation to plug every positive stereotype about Native Americans. The characters, alternately stoic, are ecologically aware and brave. Even Hollywood Indians don't have to be like this.' – Michael Dorris, Premiere
'Long, simplistic and lacking in irony, though not in pawky humour. The action set-pieces (two ambushes, two pitched battles, a grand buffalo hunt) are dynamically handled. But the picture lacks the visual and dramatic authority of the best Westerns.' – Philip French, Observer
'Costner has feathers in his hair and feathers in his head.' – Pauline Kael
† A special edition of the film with an extra 53 minutes added was given a London cinema release in 1991 and later released on video.
best film; Kevin Costner (as director); Michael Blake; John Barry; Dean Semler; Neil Travis; best sound
Kevin Costner (as actor); Mary McDonnell; Graham Greene; best costume design; best art direction

Dancin' thru the Dark ★★

GB 1990 95m colour
Palace/BBC Films/Formost Films (Andre Molyneux)

On the night before her wedding, a woman goes out with her girl-friends for a celebration at a night-club, only to meet there her former lover, now a successful rock singer, and her fiancé, drunk from his stag-night party.
High-spirited and witty domestic drama.
w Willy Russell play Stags and Hens by Willy Russell d Mike Ockrent ph Philip Bonham-Carter m Willy Russell pd Paul Joel ☆ Claire Hackett, Con O'Neill, Angela Clarke, Mark Womack, Julia Deakin, Simon O'Brien, Louise Duprey, Andrew Naylor, Sandy Hendrickse, Peter Watts
'A satisfying and enjoyable work.' – Variety

'Five sisters embrace the spirit of a people.'

Dancing at Lughnasa

Ireland/GB/US 1998 92m Rank Colour
Ferndale/Capitol/Sony/Channel 4 Films (Noel Pearson)

Five unmarried sisters contemplate their future in rural Donegal in the mid-30s.
A dull transfer of an atmospheric play about Irish identity to the screen; only the landscape holds the interest.
w Frank McGuinness play Brian Friel d Pat O'Connor ph Kenneth MacMillan m Bill Whelan pd Mark Geraghty ed Humphrey Dixon ☆ Meryl Streep, Michael Gambon, Catherine McCormack, Kathy Burke, Sophie Thompson, Brid Brennan, Rhys Ifans, Darrell Johnston, Lorcan Cranitch, Peter Gowen
'Middlebrow, bland film, lacking in emotional or intellectual bite.' – Claire Monk, Sight and Sound

Dancing at the Blue Iguana

US 2000 123m DeLuxe
Miracle/Moonstone/Bergman Listig/Dragon/Gallery

Five women who work as pole dancers in an LA club confront their bleak lives.
Downbeat drama, based on a series of improvisational workshops, that bares bodies but not lives: its cast proffers stereotypes instead of realities.
w Michael Radford, David Linter d Michael Radford ph Ericson Core m Tal Bergman, Renato Neto pd Martina Buckley ed Roberto Perpignani
☆ Charlotte Ayanna (Jessie), Daryl Hannah (Angel), Sheila Kelley (Stormy), Elias Koteas (Sully), Vladimir Mashkov (Sacha), Sandra Oh (Jasmine), Jennifer Tilly (Jo), Robert Wisdom
'Far too much of the running time is devoted to relatively routine behavioral matters devoid of dramatic urgency or import.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'Much of the movie is funny, and almost all of it is sad.' – Gaby Wood, Observer

Dancing Co-ed

US 1939 90m bw
MGM (Edgar Selwyn)
GB title: Every Other Inch a Lady

A college girl makes it in show business as well as the groves of academe.
Mindless vehicle for a 19-year-old star.
w Albert Mannheimer story Albert Treynor d S. Sylvan Simon ph Alfred Gilks m David Snell, Edward Ward ☆ Lana Turner, Richard Carlson, Artie Shaw, Leon Errol, Ann Rutherford, Lee Bowman, Monty Woolley, Roscoe Karns, June Preisser, Walter Kingsford
'Better than average programme entertainment.' – Variety

Dancing Fool: see Harold Teen

Dancing in the Dark

Canada 1986 98m colour
Brightstar/Film Arts/Film House/CBC (Anthony Kramreither)

A housewife recalls the events that led to her breakdown and the murder of her husband.
Virtually a monologue, well performed by Henry, of a woman who thoughtlessly follows a conventional life with a conventional husband and begins to wonder why it is so unfulfilling; the theme has been worked so often that its appeal has begun to pall.
wd Leon Marr novel Joan Barfoot ph Vic Sarin pd Lillian Sarafinchan ed Tom Berner
☆ Martha Henry, Neil Munro, Rosemary Dunsmore, Richard Monette

Dancing Lady ★

US 1933 94m bw
MGM (David O. Selznick)

A successful dancer chooses between a playboy and her stage manager.
Routine backstage semi-musical with interesting talent applied rather haphazardly.
w Allen Rivkin, P. J. Wolfson novel James Warner Bellah d Robert Z. Leonard ph Oliver T. Marsh m various md Louis Silvers ☆ Joan Crawford, Clark Gable, Fred Astaire, Franchot Tone, May Robson, Ted Healy and his Stooges (the Three Stooges), Winnie Lightner, Robert Benchley, Nelson Eddy
'Very potent b.o. in the screen musical cycle.' – Variety

The Dancing Masters

US 1943 63m bw
TCF (Lee Marcus)

Laurel and Hardy run a ballet school, and get involved with gangsters and inventors.
Insubstantial star comedy featuring reworkings of old routines, and a back-projected runaway bus climax.
w Scott Darling story George Bricker d Malcolm St Clair ph Norbert Brodine m Arthur Lange ad James Basevi, Chester Gore ed Norman Colbert ☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Trudy Marshall, Bob Bailey, Margaret Dumont, Matt Briggs, Robert Mitchum

The Dancing Years

GB 1949 97m Technicolor
ABPC (Warwick Ward)

A composer loves a singer who leaves him after a misunderstanding but later bears his son ... all in the Alps pre-1914.
Lamentable transcription of an operetta; precisely the ingredients which worked so well on stage seem embarrassing on film, and the performances and direction do not help.
w Warwick Ward, Jack Whittingham operetta Ivor Novello d Harold French ph Stephen Dade m Ivor Novello
☆ Dennis Price, Gisèle Préville, Patricia Dainton, Anthony Nicholls, Grey Blake, Muriel George, Olive Gilbert

'Everything begins somewhere.'

Dandelion ★

US 2004 93m Technicolor
Ruth Pictures/Ballistic (Molly M. Mayeux)

After two years in detention for a crime he did not commit, an Idaho youth begins a doomed romance with a feisty teenage girl.
Muted study of teen angst, featuring a youth who rehearses his own suicide, set in a windswept landscape that mutes communication.

w Mark Milgard, R.D. Murphy, Robb Williamson d Mark Milgard ph Tim Orr m Robb Williamson pd Judy Becker ed Amy E. Duddleston
☆ Vincent Kartheiser (Mason Mullich), Taryn Manning (Danny Voss), Arliss Howard (Luke Mullich), Mare Winningham (Layla Mullich), Blake Heron (Eddie), Shawn Reaves (Arlee)

'Unfolding against a beautiful natural landscape, pic uses the recognizable motifs of parents trapped by disappointment and children resolved not to follow in their footsteps.' – Scott Foundas, Variety

Dandin ★★

France 1988 110m colour
Films du Losange/Selena Audiovisuel/Sept/A2 (Margaret Menegoz)

A rich peasant faces constant humiliation when he marries the daughter of an aristocrat; she refuses to consummate the marriage and her parents treat him with snobbish disdain.
A sumptuous-looking but tough and exhilaratingly uncompromising approach to a classic comedy of greed and desire so that, for all its period setting, it has a contemporary bite.
wd Roger Planchon play Georges Dandin by Molière ph Bernard Lutic ☆ Claude Brasseur, Zabou, Nelly Borgeaud, Evelyne Buyle, Jean-Claude Adelin, Daniel Gélin, Marco Bisson, Vincent Garanger

Dandy Dick

GB 1935 72m bw
BIP (Walter Mycroft)

A country vicar becomes innocently involved with racehorse doping.
Flatly-handled farce which helped to introduce Will Hay to the screen, though not in his accustomed role.
w William Beaudine, Frank Miller, Clifford Grey, Will Hay play Sir Arthur Wing Pinero d William Beaudine ph Jack Parker ad Duncan Sutherland ed A. C. Hammond ☆ Will Hay, Nancy Burne, Esmond Knight, Davy Burnaby

'His mission is murder! His victim – himself!'

A Dandy in Aspic

GB 1968 107m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia (Anthony Mann)

A double agent in Berlin is given orders to kill himself.
Muddled, pretentious spy thriller; flat, nebulous and boring.
w Derek Marlowe novel Derek Marlowe d Anthony Mann ph Christopher Challis m Quincy Jones
☆ Laurence Harvey, Tom Courtenay, Lionel Stander, Mia Farrow, Harry Andrews, Peter Cook, Per Oscarsson
† Anthony Mann died during shooting, and Laurence Harvey completed the direction.

Dandy the All-American Girl

US 1976 90m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM
GB title: Sweet Revenge

A much convicted woman car thief determines to become the legitimate owner of a Dino Ferrari.
The American dream gone sour again, this time offering in its wake a curious stream of moral values.
w B. J. Perla, Marilyn Goldin d Jerry Schatzberg ☆ Stockard Channing, Sam Waterston, Richard Doughty, Franklyn Ajaye

Danger: Diabolik

Italy/France 1967 105m Technicolor
Dino de Laurentiis/Marianne (Bruno Todini)

International police bait a golden trap for a master criminal.
Superior Batman-type adventures with a comic strip hero-villain.
w Dino Maiuri, Adriano Baracco, Mario Bava d Mario Bava ph Antonio Rinaldi m Ennio Morricone
☆ John Phillip Law, Marisa Mell, Michel Piccoli, Adolfo Celi, Terry-Thomas Danger Lights ★

US 1930 87m bw
RKO (William LeBaron)

Railroad owners face various problems.
Routine would-be thriller intended to show off a wide screen system called Spoor-Bergen Natural Vision; it failed owing to cost and the thin quality of the film.
w James Ashmore Creelman d George B. Seitz ph Karl Struss
☆ Louis Wolheim, Robert Armstrong, Jean Arthur, Hugh Herbert

Danger List

GB 1957 22m bw
Exclusive/Hammer (Anthony Hinds)

At a hospital dispensary, three out-patients are given a fatal drug by mistake.
Uneventful programme filler with predictable twists in its little tales.
w J. D. Scott d Leslie Arliss ph Arthur Grant m Edwin Astley ad Ted Marshall ed James Needs
☆ Philip Friend, Honor Blackman, Mervyn Johns, Alexander Field, Constance Fraser, Muriel Zillah

Danger, Love at Work ★

US 1937 84m bw
TCF (Harold Wilson)

A young lawyer needs the signature of a rich crazy family to conclude a land sale.
The title doesn't suggest it, but this is a not inconsiderable comedy in the tradition of My Man Godfrey and You Can't Take It With You. A highly competent cast does its best.
w James Edward Grant, Ben Markson d Otto Preminger ph Virgil Miller md David Buttolph
☆ Ann Sothern, Jack Haley, Edward Everett Horton, Mary Boland, Walter Catlett, John Carradine, Maurice Cass, Alan Dinehart, E. E. Clive

'Not important enough to be a main feature but a very good dualler.' – Variety

Danger on My Side: see Danger by My Side

Danger Patrol

US 1937 58m bw
RKO

Life among 'soup handlers' – lorry drivers who deliver nitro-glycerine to oil wells.
An interesting notion slackly handled, with suspense losing out to romance.
w Sy Bartlett story Helen Vreeland, Hilda Vincent d Lew Landers ph Nicholas Musuraca ad Van Nest Polglase ed Ted Cheesman
☆ Sally Eilers, John Beal, Harry Carey, Frank M. Thomas, Crawford Weaver, Lee Patrick, Edward Gargan

Danger Route

GB 1967 92m DeLuxe
UA/Amicus (Max J. Rosenberg, Milton Subotsky)

An 'eliminator' for the British secret service finds after a series of adventures that he must dispose of his own girlfriend.
Dour sub-Bondian thriller with little to commend it.
w Meade Roberts novel The Eliminator by Andrew York d Seth Holt ph Harry Waxman m John Mayer
☆ Richard Johnson, Diana Dors, Sylvia Syms, Carol Lynley, Barbara Bouchet, Gordon Jackson, Sam Wanamaker, Maurice Denham, Harry Andrews

'Four hundred plan to escape – one plans to betray!'

Danger Within ★★

GB 1958 101m bw
British Lion/Colin Lesslie
US title: Breakout

Escape plans of officers in a prisoner-of-war camp are threatened by an informer.
Familiar comedy and melodrama with an added whodunnit element, smartly handled and very entertaining.
w Bryan Forbes, Frank Harvey novel Michael Gilbert d Don Chaffey ph Arthur Grant m Francis Chagrin
☆ Richard Todd, Bernard Lee, Michael Wilding, Richard Attenborough, Dennis Price, Donald Houston, William Franklyn, Vincent Ball, Peter Arne

Danger Zone

US 1995 92m Foto-Kem
Nu Image (Danny Lerner, Elie Samaha)

In East Africa, a disgraced American mining engineer, blamed for poisoning communities with toxic waste, goes to find his friend who was involved and discovers that the real purpose of his search has been kept from him.
Deplorable and ludicrous thriller that condemns ignorance about Africa, while at the same time exploiting its more exotic aspects, and revelling in violence; you might feel sympathy towards Billy Zane for being involved in such garbage if he were not also one of the movie's co-producers.
w Jeff Albert story Danny Lerner d Allan Eastman ph Yossi Wein m Daniel Pelfrey pd Leith Ridley, David Varod ed Alain Jakubowicz ☆ Billy Zane, Ron Silver, Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa, Robert Downey Jnr, Lisa Collins Dangerous ★

US 1935 78m bw
Warner (Harry Joe Brown)

An alcoholic actress is rehabilitated.
Unconvincing and only adequately handled melodrama which won the star her first Oscar, presumably from sympathy at her losing it the previous year for Of Human Bondage.
w Laird Doyle d Alfred E. Green ph Ernest Haller
☆ Bette Davis, Franchot Tone, Margaret Lindsay, Alison Skipworth, John Eldredge, Dick Foran

'Well-acted and directed drama with femme appeal.' – Variety † Remade 1941 as Singapore Woman.
♟ Bette Davis

Dangerous Afternoon

GB 1961 92m bw
Bryanston/Theatrecraft

The owner of a boarding house for elderly criminals is blackmailed by an ex-convict who knows her true identity.
An interesting notion --a retirement home for genteel female crooks--becomes mired in an uninteresting story of blackmail and murder.
w Brandon Fleming play Gerald Anstruther d Charles Saunders
☆ Ruth Dunning, Nora Nicholson, Joanne Dunham, Howard Pays, May Hallatt, Gwenda Wilson, Ian Colin, Gladys Henson, Barbara Everest, Jerold Wells

Dangerous Beauty

US 1998 111m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Regency/Bedford Falls (Arnon Milchan, Marshall Herskovitz, Edward Zwick, Sarah Kaplan)

GB title: The Honest Courtesan

In 16th-century Venice, a woman becomes a celebrated courtesan when the man she loves marries for money.
Sumptuous historical romance, which is based on fact but plays as if it were invented by a sentimental novelist.
w Jeannine Dominy biography The Honest Courtesan by Margaret Rosenthal d Marshall Herskovitz ph Bojan Bazelli m George Fenton pd Norman Garwood ed Steven Rosenblum, Arthur Coburn
☆ Catherine McCormack, Rufus Sewell, Jacqueline Bisset, Oliver Platt, Moira Kelly, Fred Ward, Naomi Watts, Jeroen Krabbe, Joanna Cassidy, Peter Eyre

'An odd mix of high-toned intentions and cornball romance that works in fits and bursts.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

Dangerous Corner ★

US 1934 67m bw
RKO

After dinner conversation reveals what might have been if friends had spoken the truth about a long-ago suicide.
A fascinating trick play makes interesting but scarcely sparkling cinema.
w Anne Morrison Chapin, Madeleine Ruthven play J. B. Priestley d Phil Rosen ph J. Roy Hunt m Max Steiner
☆ Melvyn Douglas, Conrad Nagel, Virginia Bruce, Erin O'Brien Moore, Ian Keith, Betty Furness, Henry Wadsworth, Doris Lloyd

'Confusing mixture of a mystery and problem play ... doubtful as to general fan appeal.' – Variety

Dangerous Crossing ★

US 1953 75m bw
TCF (Robert Bassler)

At the start of an Atlantic sea voyage a woman's husband disappears, and she is assured that he never existed. He does, and is trying to murder her.
Adequately handled twist on the vanishing lady story: grade A production covers lapses of grade B imagination.
w Leo Townsend story John Dickson Carr d Joseph M. Newman ph Joseph LaShelle md Lionel Newman
☆ Jeanne Crain, Michael Rennie, Carl Betz, Casey Adams, Mary Anderson, Willis Bouchey

Dangerous Curves

US 1929 75m bw
Paramount

A bareback rider loves a high wire artist.
Obvious circus melodrama, a modest star vehicle.
w Donald Davis, Florence Ryerson d Lothar Mendes ph Harry Fischbeck
☆ Clara Bow, Richard Arlen, Kay Francis, David Newell, Anders Randolf

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Dangerous Days: see Wild Boys of the Road

Dangerous Exile

GB 1957 90m Eastmancolor Vistavision
Rank (George H. Brown)

After the French Revolution, the young would-be Louis XVII is brought across the Channel and hidden in Pembrokeshire, where enemies attack him.
Historical romance, ineptly plotted but quite well produced.
w Robin Estridge novel Vaughan Wilkins d Brian Desmond Hurst ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Georges Auric
☆ Louis Jourdan, Belinda Lee, Keith Michell, Richard O'Sullivan, Martita Hunt, Finlay Currie, Anne Heywood, Jacques Brunius

Dangerous Female: see The Maltese Falcon (1931)

Dangerous Game: see Snake Eyes (1993)

'What he wants is revenge. What he gets is the fight of his life.'

Dangerous Ground

South Africa/US 1996 96m DeLuxe
Entertainment/Investec/New Line (Gillian Gorfil, Darrell Roodt)

Returning to his home after a dozen years in America, a South African goes in search of his missing brother and discovers that he is involved with drug dealers.
Trite tale of revenge, a dreary gangster movie that gains nothing from its South African setting.
w Greg Latter, Darrell Roodt d Darrell Roodt ph Paul Gilpin m Stanley Clarke pd Dimitri Repanis ed David Heitner ☆ Ice Cube, Elizabeth Hurley, Sechaba Morojele, Eric 'Waku' Miyeni, Ving Rhames, Thokozani Nkosi, Ron Smerczak
'Don't see this film.' – Film Review

'Lust. Seduction. Revenge. The Game As You've Never Seen It Played Before.'

Dangerous Liaisons ★★★

US 1988 120m Eastmancolor
Warner/Lorimar/NFH (Norma Heyman, Hank Moonjean)

Two jaded French aristocrats play games of sexual politics.
A cool dissection of sexual feeling.
w Christopher Hampton play Christopher Hampton novel Choderlos de Laclos d Stephen Frears ph Philippe Rousselot m George Fenton pd Stuart Craig ed Mick Audsley
☆ Glenn Close (Marquise de Merteuil), John Malkovich (Vicomte de Valmont), Michelle Pfeiffer (Madame de Tourvel), Swoosie Kurtz (Madame de Volanges), Keanu Reeves (Chevalier Danceny), Mildred Natwick (Madame de Rosemonde), Uma Thurman (Cecile de Volanges)
'Beautifully acted (by Glenn Close in particular), elegantly phrased, carefully shot on location in an appropriate selection of chateaux, directed with a limpidly formalised serenity, it's a handsome and intelligent piece of work.' – Tom Milne, MFB
Christopher Hampton; Stuart Craig best picture; Glenn Close; Michelle Pfeiffer; George Fenton adapted screenplay; Michelle Pfeiffer

Dangerous Millions

US 1946 69m bw
TCF
GB title: The House of Tao Ling

Eight would-be inheritors of a millionaire's estate find themselves at the mercy of a warlord in the Chinese mountains.
Odd little second feature confusion of The Cat and the Canary and Shanghai Express*; quite watchable.*
w Irving Cummings Jnr, Robert G. North d James Tinling ☆ Kent Taylor, Dona Drake, Tala Birell, Leonard Strong, Konstantin Shayne

Dangerous Minds

US 1995 99m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Hollywood (Don Simpson, Jerry Bruckheimer)

An ex-marine becomes an English teacher at a tough inner-city school where she confronts raucous students who don't want to learn.
Despite its basis in fact, this comes across as bland and unbelievable wish-fulfilment, just another feel-good fantasy about tough, restive delinquents being tamed by poetry.
w Ronald Bass book My Posse Don't Do Homework by LouAnne Johnson d John N. Smith ph Pierre Letarte m Wendy & Lisa pd Donald Graham Burt ed Tom Rolf
☆ Michelle Pfeiffer, George Dzundza, Courtney B. Vance, Robin Bartlett, Bruklin Harris, Renoly Santiago, John Neville
'This earnest, sweet-natured inspirational drama almost seems like something from another, more innocent era.' – Variety
'This is one of those sham inspirational-teacher fables that worships the idea of knowledge without actually bothering to put any on screen. We're supposed to clasp our hands to our hearts when the kids learn a few lines of Dylan Thomas.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly † Andy Garcia's role as Michelle Pfeiffer's boyfriend was left on the cutting-room floor.

'An Avalanche Of Thrills And Excitement!'
'A Desperate Woman Hunt From Manhattan To The Wilds of Montana!'

Dangerous Mission

US 1954 75m Technicolor 3-D
RKO (Irwin Allen)

In Montana's Glacier National Park, a policeman tries to protect an innocent girl witness from big city gangsters.
Tolerable routine double-bill thriller with a predictable cable car climax.
w Horace McCoy, W. R. Burnett, Charles Bennett, James Edmiston d Louis King ph William Snyder m Roy Webb ad Albert S. D'Agostino, Walter E. Keller ed Gene Palmer
☆ Victor Mature (Det Matt Hallett), Piper Laurie (Louise Graham), Vincent Price (Paul Adams), William Bendix (Chief Ranger Joe Parker), Betta St John (Mary Tiller), Dennis Weaver (Pruitt), Steve Darrell (Katoonai Tiller), Marlo Dwyer (Mrs Elster)
'The scenery received the best notices.' – James Robert Parish, 1976

'This is your melody – you gave it to me. I'll never play it again without thinking of you!'

Dangerous Moonlight ★

GB 1941 98m bw
RKO (William Sistrom)

US title: Suicide Squadron

A Polish pianist escapes from the Nazis and loses his memory after flying in the Battle of Britain.
Immensely popular wartime romance which introduced Richard Addinsell's Warsaw Concerto. Production values and script somewhat below par.
w Shaun Terence Young, Brian Desmond Hurst, Rodney Ackland d Brian Desmond Hurst ph Georges Périnal, Ronald Neame m Richard Addinsell
☆ Anton Walbrook, Sally Gray, Derrick de Marney, Cecil Parker, Percy Parsons, Keneth Kent, Guy Middleton, John Laurie, Frederick Valk

Dangerous Moves ★

Switzerland 1985 100m colour
Enterprise/Spectrafilm (Arthur Cohn)

The world championship chess showdown is between the Soviet title holder and an exiled dissident challenger.
Interesting, rather specialized actor's piece with political overtones.
wd Richard Dembo ph Raoul Coutard m Gabriel Yared ad Ivan Maussion ed Agnès Guillemot ☆ Michel Piccoli, Leslie Caron, Liv Ullmann, Alexandre Arbatt
best foreign film

A Dangerous Profession

US 1949 79m bw
RKO

An ex-detective tries to help a beautiful woman and becomes involved in murder and the bail bond racket.
Undistinguished crime melodrama providing a satisfactory vehicle for its stars.
w Martin Rackin, Warren Duff d Ted Tetzlaff ☆ Pat O'Brien, George Raft, Ella Raines, Jim Backus, Bill Williams

A Dangerous Summer

Australia 1982 94m colour Panavision
McElroy and McElroy

In a Blue Mountain resort, a partner decides to burn down the buildings for the insurance.
Modest melodrama with spectacular fire sequences.
w David Ambrose, Quentin Masters novel Kit Denton d Quentin Masters ☆ James Mason, Tom Skerritt, Ian Gilmour, Wendy Hughes, Kim Deacon

Dangerous When Wet ★★

US 1953 95m Technicolor
MGM (George Wells)

An entire Arkansas family is sponsored to swim the English Channel.
A bright and lively vehicle for an aquatic star, who in one sequence swims with Tom and Jerry. Amusing sequences give opportunities to a strong cast.
w Dorothy Kingsley d Charles Walters ph Harold Rosson m/ly Johnny Mercer, Arthur Schwartz md George Stoll
☆ Esther Williams, Charlotte Greenwood, William Demarest, Fernando Lamas, Jack Carson, Denise Darcel, Barbara Whiting

'The truth hurts. But a lie can kill.'

A Dangerous Woman ★

US 1993 101m Eastmancolor
First Independent/Amblin/Island World/Gramercy/Rollercoaster (Naomi Foner)

An ungainly woman who finds it impossible to lie is faced with a situation where telling the truth will mean her imprisonment.
An unusual and sometimes affecting drama, dealing with moral dilemmas and skewed relationships, but heavy-handed in its methods.
w Naomi Foner novel Mary McGarry Morris d Stephen Gyllenhaal ph Robert Elswit m Carter Burwell pd David Brisbin ed Harvey Rosenstock
☆ Debra Winger, Barbara Hershey, Gabriel Byrne, David Strathairn, John Terry, Chloe Webb
'Pic will register deeply with some viewers, especially women, but it's the kind of odd and muted tale for which it is difficult to drum up theatrical interest these days.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'At times something of a ponderous bore and has enough characters and plots to keep a soap opera going for a few months.' – Kim Newman, Empire

Dangerous Youth: see These Dangerous Years

Dangerously They Live

US 1941 77m bw
Warner (Ben Stoloff)

American Nazi agents try to get a secret memorized by a British girl agent injured in a car crash.
Watchable, routine spy propaganda fare.
w Marion Parsonnet d Robert Florey ph William O'Connell
☆ John Garfield, Raymond Massey, Nancy Coleman, Moroni Olsen, Lee Patrick, Christian Rub, Frank Reicher

Daniel

US 1983 129m Technicolor
World Film Services (John Van Eyssen)

The children of executed spies are traumatized by the past.
Patchwork vision of thirties America, with Jewishness thrown in for added weight. Not easy to watch.
w E. L. Doctorow novel The Book of Daniel by E. L. Doctorow d Sidney Lumet ph Andrzej Bartkowiak m Bob James pd Philip Rosenberg
☆ Timothy Hutton, Mandy Patinkin, Lindsay Crouse, Ed Asner, Ellen Barkin, Tovah Feldshuh
'Only with the last scene does one realize that it has collapsed into an empty liberal squeak.' – Tom Milne, MFB

Daniel and the Devil: see All that Money Can Buy

Daniel Boone, Trail Blazer

US 1956 76m Trucolor
Republic (Albert C. Gannaway)

Daniel Boone, battling against the Indians, makes the wilderness safe for settlers.
Stolidly acted story of the pioneer days of America, dully directed.
w Tom Hubbard, Jack Patrick d Albert C. Gannaway, Ismael Rodriguez ph Jack Draper m Raul Lavista ed Fernando A. Martinez.
☆ Bruce Bennett, Lon Chaney, Faron Young, Kem Dibbs, Damian O'Flynn, Jacqueline Evans, Nancy Rodman, Freddy Fernandez

Danny Boy: see Angel (1982)

Danny the Champion of the World ★

GB 1989 99m colour
Portobello Productions (Eric Abraham)

A poacher's son devises a plan to discomfit the obnoxious squire.
Pleasant film aimed at a family audience, if it still exists.
w John Goldsmith novel Roald Dahl d Gavin Millar ph Oliver Stapleton m Stanley Myers pd Don Homfray ed Peter Tanner, Angus Newton

☆ Jeremy Irons, Robbie Coltrane, Samuel Irons, Cyril Cusack, Michael Hordern, Lionel Jeffries, Ronald Pickup, Jean Marsh, Jimmy Nail, William Armstrong, John Woodvine

Danny the Dog: see Unleashed (2005)

Dans la Poussière du Soleil: see Lust in the Sun

Dans la Ville Blanche: see In the White City

Dans Ma Peau

France 2002 95m
Tartan/Lazennec (Laurence Farenc)

GB and US title: In My Skin

Promoted over the head of better qualified rivals, a market researcher becomes obsessive about mutilating her body and cutting her flesh with knives,

Often painful to watch and ultimately unrewarding, this offers no insight into the motivation behind self-mutilation and comes close in tone to a horror movie.

wd Marina de Van ph Pierre Barougier m Esbjorn Svensson Trio ad Baptiste Glaymann ed Mike Fromentin

☆ Marina de Van (Esther), Laurent Lucas (Vincent), Lea Drucker (Sandrine), Thibault de Montalembert (Daniel)

'As unrelenting an exploration of isolation and dissociation as Roman Polanski's "Repulsion."' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

'Delves far more deeply into grisly physical manifestation than psychological motivation, making it seem something of an actorish vanity piece.' – David Rooney, Variety

'It Will Burn Itself Into Your Memory Forever!'

Dante's Inferno ★★

US 1935 89m bw
Fox (Sol M. Wurtzel)

A ruthless carnival owner gets too big for his boots, and has a vision of hell induced by one of his own attractions.

Curiously unpersuasive melodrama with a moral, but the inferno sequence is one of the most unexpected, imaginative and striking pieces of cinema in Hollywood's history.

w Philip Klein, Robert Yost d Harry Lachman ph Rudolph Maté m Hugo Friedhofer, Samuel Kaylin, R. H. Bassett, Peter Brunelli sp Fred F. Sersen, Ralph Hammeras sets Willy Pogany, from drawings by Gustav Doré

☆ Spencer Tracy, Claire Trevor, Henry B. Walthall, Alan Dinehart, Scotty Beckett, Rita Hayworth

'A pushover for vigorous exploitation ... accentuate the inferno sequence and forget the rest, including the story.' – Variety

'We depart gratefully, having seen papier mâché photographed in more ways than we had thought possible.' – Robert Herring

'One of the most unusual and effectively presented films of the thirties.' – John Baxter, 1968

'The spectacle is shattering.' – Sunday Times

'Immediately following the 10-minute picturization of Hell, the story reverts to its native dullness.' – Variety † Rita Hayworth's performance, as a dancer, was her first on the screen.

'The most awesome sight you'll ever see may be your last.'

Dante's Peak

US 1997 108m DeLuxe Panavision
Universal/Western Pacific (Gale Anne Hurd, Joseph M. Singer)

A vulcanologist warns an unheeding town of an impending disaster.

Disaster movie that follows a familiar narrative of a lone voice crying out against ignorance and complacency before the inevitable catastrophe; the eruption is spectacular, but hardly worth waiting for.

w Leslie Bohem d Roger Donaldson ph Andrzej Bartkowiak m John Frizzell, John Newton Howard pd Dennis Washington ed Howard Smith, Conrad Buff, Tina Hirsch sp Digital Domain

☆ Pierce Brosnan, Linda Hamilton, Charles Hallahan, Grant Heslov, Elizabeth Hoffman, Jamie Renee Smith, Jeremy Foley, Arabella Field

'Thanks to its predictable plot and boneheaded dialogue ("It's just like riding a bicycle," Brosnan assures a long-abstemious Hamilton about sex), Peak never reaches a peak among disaster films.' – Leah Rozen, People Weekly

Danton ★

France/Poland 1982 136m colour
Losange/Group X (for Gaumont/TFI)

Robespierre quarrels with his colleague Danton, who hopes for a new spirit of tolerance.

Vivid historical re-creation which finally exhausts the spectator and is a little too concerned to make political points.

w Jean-Claude Carrière play The Danton Affair by Stanislawa Przybyszewska d Andrzej Wajda ph Igor Luther m Jean Prodromides

☆ Gérard Depardieu, Wojciech Pszoniak, Anne Alvaro, Roland Blanche

'The temptation to see it in terms of Solidarity is unavoidable.' – Philip Strick, MFB

'By any reasonable standard, terrible.' – New Yorker

best foreign-language film

Danzón ★

Spain 1991 96m colour
Metro/Instituto Mexicano Cinematografia/Macondo Cine Video/Fondo de Fomento a la Calidad Cinematografia/Televisión Española/Tabasco/Gobierno del Estado de Veracruz (Jorge Sanchez)

A telephone operator goes in search of her ballroom dancing partner, who has fled Mexico City after being accused of a crime, and finds new friends and excitement before returning home.

Slight but charming film of a woman finding herself.

w Beatriz Navaro, Maria Novaro d Maria Novaro ph Rodrigo Garcia ad Marisa Pecarlins, Noberto Sanchez-Mejorada ed Nelson Rodriguez, Maria Novaro

☆ Maria Rojo, Carmen Salinas, Blanca Guerra, Tito Vasconcelos, Victor Carpinteiro, Margarita Isabel

'Despite its lack of pace, and sometimes because of it, this is a lovely film which will remain in the memory longer than most.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Darby O'Gill and the Little People ★

US 1959 90m Technicolor
Walt Disney

An Irish caretaker falls down a well and is captured by leprechauns, who allow him three wishes to rearrange his life.

Pleasantly barmy Irish fantasy with brilliant trick work but some tedium in between.

w Lawrence Edward Watkin stories H. T. Kavanagh d Robert Stevenson ph Winton C. Hoch m Oliver Wallace ad Carroll Clark ed Stanley Johnson sp Peter Ellenshaw, Eustace Lycett, Joshua Meador

☆ Albert Sharpe, Jimmy O'Dea, Sean Connery, Janet Munro, Kieron Moore, Estelle Winwood, Walter Fitzgerald, Denis O'Dea, J. G. Devlin, Jack MacGowran

'One of the best fantasies ever put on film.' – Leonard Maltin

Darby's Rangers

US 1957 121m bw
Warner (Martin Rackin)

GB title: The Young Invaders

A tough American commando unit is trained in Britain before seeing action in Africa and Sicily.

Standard World War II actioner, adequately executed.

w Guy Trosper book Major James Altieri d William Wellman ph William H. Clothier m Max Steiner

☆ James Garner, Etchika Choureau, Jack Warden, Edd Byrnes, Venetia Stevenson, Torin Thatcher, Stuart Whitman, Andrea King, Frieda Inescort, Reginald Owen, Adam Williams

D'Ardenelle: see Harem

'He is the man without fear.'

Daredevil

US 2003 103m DeLuxe 'Scope
TCF/Regency/MarvelNew Regency/Horseshoe Bay (Arnon Milchan, Gary Foster, Avi Arad)

A lawyer, who was blinded in a childhood accident that sharpened his other senses, becomes a vigilante superhero by night, taking on New York's lowlife.

Daredevil follows in the mould of recent Batman movies: a hero who had a traumatic childhood that resulted in a troubled adult doing good in a Gothic city. The movie is intended as the beginning of a new franchise – let's hope future episodes offer more excitement than is on view here.

wd Mark Steven Johnson ph Ericson Core m Graeme Revell pd Barry Chusid ed Dennis Virkler, Armen Minasian sp Rich Thorne; Rhythm & Hues; Digital Domain; Pixel Magic

☆ Ben Affleck (Matt Murdock/Daredevil), Jennifer Garner (Elektra Natchios), Michael Clarke Duncan (Kingpin/Fisk), Colin Farrell (Bullseye), Joe Pantoliano (Urich), Jon Favreau (Franklin Nelson), David Keith (Jack Murdock), Erick Avari (Natchios)

'The movie is, in short, your money's worth, better than we expect, more fun than we deserve.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

'The movie is derivative, flat, halfhearted, its squareness unrelieved by irony or fantasy.' – David Denby, New Yorker

† Budgeted at around $75m, the film took more than $102m at the US box-office.

The Dark: see The Haunted House of Horror (1969)

The Dark

US 1979 92m DeLuxe Panavision
Film Ventures International (Dick Clark, Edward L. Montoro)

A homicidal alien stalks Los Angeles, ripping off people's heads.

Unconsidered shocker with nothing to it but the shocks.

w Stanford Whitmore d John Cardos ph John Morrill m Roger Kellaway ad Rusty Rosene ed Martin Dreffke

☆ William Devane, Cathy Lee Crosby, Richard Jaeckel, Keenan Wynn, Vivian Blaine

The Dark Angel ★

US 1925 83m (24 fps) bw silent
First National (Samuel Goldwyn)

During World War I, a blinded officer tries to persuade his fiancée to marry another man, without her knowing of his own infirmity.

Vilma Banky's first American film, her first teaming with Colman and a mid-twenties hit of colossal proportions.

w Frances Marion play Guy Bolton d George Fitzmaurice ph George Barnes

☆ Ronald Colman, Vilma Banky, Wyndham Standing, Frank Elliott, Charles Lane, Florence Turner, Helen Jerome Eddy

The Dark Angel ★

US 1935 105m bw
Samuel Goldwyn

Rivalry between two friends over a woman comes to a head during the First World War.

Tearstained melodrama from another age, a remake of a 1925 film, neatly packaged for the romantic 1935 public.

w Lillian Hellman, Mordaunt Shairp d Sidney Franklin ph Gregg Toland m Alfred Newman ad Richard Day

☆ Merle Oberon, Fredric March, Herbert Marshall, Janet Beecher, John Halliday, Henrietta Crosman, Frieda Inescort, George Breakston, Claud Allister

'A sockaroo woman's picture.' – Variety

'A highly literate screen adaptation, telling the story with feeling and good taste.' – New York Times

'It makes a systematic and skilful appeal to those untrustworthy emotions which may suddenly cause the most hardened intellects to dissolve before the most obvious sentimentality.' – The Times

Richard Day

Merle Oberon

'Good Cop. Bad Alien. Big Trouble.'

Dark Angel ★

US 1990 93m DeLuxe
Vision/Damon/Saunders (Jeff Young)

US title: I Come in Peace

A maverick cop and the FBI chase after a killer from another planet.

A cut above the usual aliens-on-the-rampage action, thanks to occasional wit and a narrative with unexpected twists.

w Jonathan Tydor, Leonard Maas Jnr d Craig R. Baxley ph Mark Irwin m Jan Hammer pd Phillip M. Leonard ad Nino Candido ed Mark Helfrich

☆ Dolph Lundgren, Brian Benben, Betsy Brantley, Matthias Hues, Jay Bilas, Jim Haynie, David Ackroyd, Sherman Howard, Sam Anderson

'This undemanding cinematic comic book may come in peace but doesn't seem likely to go all that quietly.' – Variety

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'Every time a woman turns her face away because she's tired or unwilling, there's someone waiting like me...'

The Dark at the Top of the Stairs ★★

US 1960 124m Technicolor
Warner (Michael Garrison)

Twenties small town drama about a young boy's awakening to the sexual tensions around him.

Archetypal family drama set in that highly familiar American street. The perfect essence of this playwright's work, with high and low spots, several irrelevancies, but a real feeling for the people and the place.

w Harriet Frank Jnr, Irving Ravetch play William Inge d Delbert Mann ph Harry Stradling m Max Steiner

☆ Robert Preston, Dorothy McGuire, Angela Lansbury, Eve Arden, Shirley Knight, Frank Overton, Lee Kinsolving, Robert Eyer

† The curious title turns out to be a synonym for life, which one should never be afraid of.

Shirley Knight

The Dark Avenger ★

GB 1955 85m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
Allied Artists (Vaughan N. Dean)

US title: The Warriors

The Black Prince quells some French rebels.

Good-humoured historical romp with the ageing star in his last swashbuckling role, helped by a good cast and brisk pace.

w Daniel B. Ullman d Henry Levin ph Guy Green m Cedric Thorpe Davie

☆ Errol Flynn, Peter Finch, Joanne Dru, Yvonne Furneaux, Patrick Holt, Michael Hordern, Moultrie Kelsall, Robert Urquhart, Noel Willman

'Sworn to protect / Sworn to serve / Sworn to secrecy'

Dark Blue ★ 4

US 2003 113m Foto-Kem
Momentum/UA/Intermedia/Im Film/Alphaville/Cosmic (Caldecot Chubb, David Blocker, James Jacks, Sean Daniel)

In Los Angeles in 1992, a veteran cop educates his young new partner in the ways of corruption and crime.

Against a background of the riots that shook LA, a familiar story of criminal cops is played out, climaxing in the sort of confession of guilt that you only find in Hollywood movies.

w David Ayer story James Ellroy d Ron Shelton ph Barry Peterson m Terence Blanchard pd Dennis Washington ed Paúl Seydor

☆ Kurt Russell (Eldon Perry), Brendan Gleeson (Jack Van Meter), Scott Speedman (Bobby Keough), Michael Michele (Beth Williamson), Lolita Davidovich (Sally Perry), Ving Rhames (Arthur Holland), Dash Minok (Gary Sidwell)

'An enjoyable small-screen movie that you would never really miss if, as with most folk, it simply passed you by.' – Barry McIlheney, Empire

'Interesting and successful as it can be within its limits, but those limits make this a more generic film than its makers intended.' – Kenneth Turan, LA Times

† The DVD release includes an audio commentary by Ron Shelton.

Dark Blue World

Czech Republic/GB 2001 115m colour
Columbia TriStar/Biograf/Portobello (Eric Abraham, Jan Sverak)

aka: Trmavomodry Svet

During the Second World War, two Czech pilots become rivals in love when they join the Royal Air Force.

The sense of irony evident at the end of the film – with a Czech pilot imprisoned in his homeland and guarded by former S.S. men – is sadly lacking elsewhere, in a trite romance against the background of war.

w Zdenek Sverak d Jan Sverak ph Vladimir Smutny m Ondrej Soukup pd Jan Vlasak ed Alois Fisarek

☆ Ondrej Vetchy (Lt Franta Slama), Krystof Hadek (Karel Vojtisek), Oldrich Kaiser (Machaty), Susan Whitmore (Tara Fitzgerald), Jorg Assmann (Doctor), Charles Dance (Wing Commander Bentley), Anna Massey (English teacher)

'Derivative and not compelling.' – Roger Ebert

† The film re-uses aerial dogfights from the 1969 movie Battle of Britain.

Dark City

US 1950 97m bw
Paramount/Hal B. Wallis

A bookmaker finds himself on the run from a revenge-seeking psychopath.

Unattractive and heavily-handled underworld melodrama, a disappointment from the talents involved.

w John Meredyth Lucas, Larry Marcus d William Dieterle ph Victor Milner m Franz Waxman

☆ Charlton Heston, Lizabeth Scott, Viveca Lindfors, Dean Jagger, Don Defore, Jack Webb, Ed Begley, Henry Morgan, Mike Mazurki

'A jaded addition to a type of thriller which has become increasingly tedious and unreal.' – MFB

'They built a city to see what makes us tick. Last night one of us went off.'

Dark City ★

US 1998 101m DeLuxe Panavision
Polygram/New Line/Mystery Clock (Andrew Mason)

An amnesiac man in a strange night-time city discovers that aliens are carrying out an experiment by manipulating his life and that of its other inhabitants.

Paranoid fantasy that owes its visual style to graphic novels such as The Crow, and its tone to film noir; its narrative, though, is more muddled and, ultimately, somewhat forgettable.

w Alex Proyas, Lem Dobbs, David S. Goyer d Alex Proyas ph Dariusz Wolski m Trevor Jones pd George Liddle, Patrick Tatopolous ed Dov Hoenig

☆ Rufus Sewell, Kiefer Sutherland, Jennifer Connelly, William Hurt, Richard O'Brien, Ian Richardson, Colin Friels, Bruce Spence, John Bluthal

'Engaging mostly in the degree to which it creates and sustains a visually startling alternate universe.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Dark Command ★

US 1940 92m bw
Republic (Sol C. Siegel)

In pre-Civil War Kansas, an ambitious ex-schoolteacher named Cantrill organizes guerrilla bands to pillage the countryside.

Semi-historical hokum, quite well done with a good cast.

w Grover Jones, Lionel Houser, F. Hugh Herbert novel W. R. Burnett d Raoul Walsh ph Jack Marta m Victor Young ad John Victor Mackay

☆ John Wayne, Claire Trevor, Walter Pidgeon, Roy Rogers, George 'Gabby' Hayes, Porter Hall, Marjorie Main

'It's the highest budgeter for Republic to date, running in neighbourhood of 700,000 dollars in negative cost. In the family and action houses, it's a natural to roll up good grosses.' – Variety

Victor Young; art direction

The Dark Corner ★

US 1946 98m bw
TCF (Fred Kohlmar)

A private eye with a criminal record thinks he is being menaced by an old adversary, but the latter is found murdered.

Moody, brutish, well-made thriller with a plot put together from bits and pieces of older, better movies, notably Clifton Webb's reprise of his Laura performance and William Bendix ditto The Glass Key.

w Jay Dratler, Bernard Schoenfeld story Leo Rosten d Henry Hathaway ph Joe MacDonald m Cyril Mockridge

☆ Mark Stevens, Clifton Webb, Lucille Ball, William Bendix, Kurt Kreuger, Cathy Downs, Reed Hadley, Constance Collier

CATHCART (CLIFTON WEBB): 'I hate the dawn. The grass always looks as though it's been left out all night.'

BRAD (MARK STEVENS): 'There goes my last lead. I feel all dead inside. I'm backed up in a dark corner, and I don't know who's hitting me.'

'Not so much a whodunnit as a whodunnwhat ... all seem bent on "getting" each other and their internecine plottings add up to an alpha thriller.' – Daily Mail

The Dark Crystal ★★

GB 1982 94m Technicolor Panavision
Universal/AFD/ITC (David Lazer)

Two young people defeat the evil creatures who have taken over the world by replacing a shard which has been taken from the Dark Crystal.

Surprisingly effective piece of mysticism performed entirely by puppets from the Muppet stable.

w David Odell d Jim Henson, Frank Oz ph Oswald Morris pd Harry Lange ed Ralph Kemplen conceptual designer Brian FroudMD0

'A dazzling technological and artistic achievement ... could teach a lesson in morality to youngsters at the same time as it is entertaining their parents.' – Variety

Dark Days ★★

US 2000 81m bw
Optimum/Picture Farm (Marc Singer)

Documentary on a community of homeless people who made their own shantytown in an Amtrak underground railway tunnel in Manhattan.

Disturbing, diverting documentary, made over a period of two years, among derelicts and drug addicts, who still find life worth living, even in subterranean dark.

d Marc Singer ph Marc Singer m DJ Shadow ed Melissa Neidich

'Manages the tricky feat of humanizing its subjects without overly sentimentalizing them.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

Dark Eyes: see Black Eyes

Dark Eyes of London ★

GB 1939 75m bw
Pathé/Argyle (John Argyle)

US title: The Human Monster

The proprietor of a home for the blind uses a mute giant to drown insured victims.

Reasonably effective British horror, a rarity at the time.

w John Argyle, Walter Summers, Patrick Kirwan novel Edgar Wallace d Walter Summers ph Bryan Langley m Guy Jones ad Duncan Sutherland ed E. G. Richards

☆ Bela Lugosi, Hugh Williams, Greta Gynt, Wilfrid Walter, Edmon Ryan

'Though it creaks a bit and some of the performances are stilted, this is actually one of Lugosi's better vehicles.' – The Dark Side

† It was the first British film to be given an H (for Horror) certificate.

Dark Forces: see Harlequin

Dark Habits

Spain 1983 100m colour
Metro/Tesauro (Luis Calvo)

original title: Entre Tinieblas

A drug-addicted singer takes refuge from the police in a convent full of decadent nuns.

High spirited, but for the easily amused only.

wd Pedro Almodóvar ph Angel L. Fernandez m Cam España pd Pin Morales, Roman Arango ed José Salcedo

☆ Cristina S. Pascual, Marisa Paredes, Mari Carrillo, Lina Canalejas, Manuel Zarzo, Carmen Maura, Chus Lampreave

'A rather labored series of jokes.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

The Dark Half

US 1991 122m DeLuxe
Orion/Dark Half (Declan Baldwin)

A writer has two personalities – one an unsuccessful novelist, the other a disreputable bestselling author who is also a killer.

A literary twist on Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde, but only of minor interest; it neither shocks nor thrills.

wd George A. Romero novel Stephen King ph Tony Pierce-Roberts m Christopher Young pd Cletus Anderson ed Pasquale Buba sp make-up: John Vulich, Everett Burrell; visual effects: VCE/Peter Kuran; Video Image

☆ Timothy Hutton, Amy Madigan, Michael Rooker, Julie Harris, Robert Joy, Kent Broadhurst, Beth Grant, Chelsea Field, Royal Dano

'Features enough gruesome killings and special effects to satisfy hardcore horror fans, but also has sufficient narrative and thematic substance to keep more mainstream viewers interested.' – Variety

'A classy psychological horror movie, this delivers its share of visual shock moments, but relies for the most part on a controlled build-up of cumulative tension.' – Nigel Floyd, The Dark Side

The Dark Horse

US 1932 75m bw
Warner

A nitwit runs for governor and nearly makes it.

Mild political satire; closer to farce, really.

w Joseph Jackson, Wilson Mizner d Alfred E. Green

☆ Guy Kibbee, Bette Davis, Warren William, Frank McHugh

Dark Horse

Denmark/Iceland 2005 106m Bw
Swipe Films/Nimbus/Zentropa (Birgitte Skov, Morten Kaufmann)

Danish and Icelandic title: Voksne Mennesker
Young Copenhagen dyslexic graffiti artist encounters problems with love, bureaucracy and spelling.
Engagingly deadpan, though its eccentricities are a trifle too studied.
w Dagur Kari, Rune Schjott d Dagur Kari ph Manuel Alberto Claro m sLowblow pd Nikolaj Danielsen ed Daniel Dencik ☆ Jakob Cedergren (Daniel), Nicolas Bro ('Grandpa'), Tilly Scott Pedersen (Franc)
'If it feels like a film-school exercise...it is occasionally very funny indeed.' – Andrew Pulver, Guardian

Dark Journey ★

GB 1937 82m bw
London Films/Victor Saville

In 1915 Stockholm, a French woman spy masquerading as a traitor falls in love with her German spy contact.
Unconvincing but entertaining romantic adventure with good star performances.
w Lajos Biro, Arthur Wimperis play Lajos Biro d Victor Saville ph Georges Périnal, Harry Stradling m Richard Addinsell ad Andrei Andreiev ed William Hornbeck, Hugh Stewart
☆ Conrad Veidt, Vivien Leigh, Joan Gardner, Anthony Bushell, Ursula Jeans, Eliot Makeham, Austin Trevor, Edmund Willard
'An exceptional quantity of carefully thought out direction ... the financial success will depend on whether the general public will understand and keep pace with the plot.' – Variety

'One twin loves – and one twin loves to kill!'

The Dark Mirror ★★

US 1946 85m bw
Universal

A police detective works out which of identical twin girls is a murderer.
Unconvincing but highly absorbing thriller with all credits plus; the best brand of Hollywood moonshine.
w Nunnally Johnson story Vladimir Pozner d Robert Siodmak ph Milton Krasner m Dimitri Tiomkin
☆ Olivia de Havilland, Lew Ayres, Thomas Mitchell, Garry Owen
'Smooth and agreeable melodrama ... the detective work involves inkblot and word association tests and an amusingly sinister tandem of oscillating pens which register concealed emotions as one of the sisters talks.' – James Agee
Vladimir Pozner

Dark Obsession: see Diamond Skulls

Dark of the Night: see Mr Wrong

Dark of the Sun: see The Mercenaries

The Dark Page: see Scandal Sheet

Dark Passage ★★

US 1947 106m bw
Warner (Jerry Wald)

A convicted murderer escapes from jail and proves his innocence.
Loosely assembled, totally unconvincing star thriller which succeeds because of its professionalism, some good cameos, and a number of narrative tricks including subjective camera for the first half hour.
w Delmer Daves novel David Goodis d Delmer Daves ph Sid Hickox m Franz Waxman ☆ Humphrey Bogart, Lauren Bacall, Agnes Moorehead, Bruce Bennett, Tom D'Andrea, Houseley Stevenson
'An almost total drag.' – New Yorker, 1977

The Dark Past ★★

US 1948 75m bw
Columbia (Buddy Adler)

A psychiatrist turns the tables on convicts who break into his home.
Tense, economical remake of Blind Alley *(qv); a fresh look at a familiar situation (*The Small Voice, The Desperate Hours, etc.) helped by excellent performances.
w Philip Macdonald, Malvin Wald, Oscar Saul d Rudolph Maté ph Joseph Walker m George Duning
☆ William Holden, Lee J. Cobb, Nina Foch, Adele Jergens, Stephen Dunne
'A picture so packed with skill and imagination that every minute is absorbing.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

Dark Sands: see Jericho

The Dark Side of Love

Italy 1985 88m colour
Globe/Dania/Filmes International (Pietro Innocenzi)

original title: Fotografando Patrizia
A sickly, isolated teenager is introduced to sex by his promiscuous sister.
Slick, glossily presented soft-core porn.
w Riccardo Ghione, Edith Bruck, Salvatore Samperi, Lewis E. Cianelli, Massimo di Luzio d Salvatore Samperi ph Dante Spinotti m Fred Bongusto pd Maria Chiara Gamba ed Sergio Montanari
☆ Monica Guerritore, Lorenzo Lena, Gianfranco Manfredi, Gilla Novak, Saverio Vallone
'Surprisingly well shot, boasting first rate interiors, lighting and cinematography in the style of Tony Scott.' – Sight and Sound

The Dark Side of the Moon

Denmark 1986 94m colour
Cannon/Film-Cooperative Denmark (Per Arman)
original title: Manden I Manen
A wife murderer, released from prison, tries to effect a reconciliation with his daughter.
Ponderously slow and introverted, with darkly expressionistic camerawork.
wd Eric Clausen ph Morten Bruus m John Hoybe pd Leif Sylvester ed Ghita Beckendorff
☆ Peter Thiel, Catherine Poul Dupont, Christina Bengtsson, Kim Jansson, Yavuzer Cetinkaya, Royt Richards, Berthe Qvistgaard, Erik Truxa

'The mission of the Strangelove generation!'

Dark Star ★★★

US 1974 83m Metrocolor
Jack H. Harris (John Carpenter)

In the 22nd century, the bored crew of a starship on an intergalactic mission become prey to their own phobias and to the alien mascot they are taking back to Earth.
A semi-professional film which turned out to be one of the screen's neatest low-budget entries in the pulp science fiction genre. That doesn't make it wholly entertaining, but its credentials are impeccable.
w John Carpenter, Dan O'Bannon d John Carpenter ph Douglas Knapp m John Carpenter pd/ed Dan O'Bannon
☆ Brian Narelle (Doolittle), Dre Pahich (Talby), Cal Kuniholm (Boiler), Dan O'Bannon (Pinback)

Dark Summer

GB 1994 85m colour CinemaScope
2C/Activate (Charles Teton)

In Liverpool, a black youth turns professional boxer, only to lose his first fight and his wife.
An ambitious first feature in which style triumphs over content.
wd Charles Teton ph Charles Teton m Clive Chin pd Elouise Attwood ed Charles Teton ☆ Steve Ako, Joeline Garnier-Joel, Chris Darwin, Bernie Deasy, Wayne Ako, Sylvia Amon, Tom Williamson
'Despite the difficulties put in front of your average impatient viewer, who may wonder why the film is so painfully slow without looking under its surface, Teton is very clearly a film-maker to watch. Whether many will watch Dark Summer is more open to question.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'Never a love so exquisite! She smiled at the cost, and bravely paid the reckoning when her heart's happy dancing was ended!'

Dark Victory ★★

US 1939 106m bw
Warner (David Lewis)

A good-time society girl discovers she is dying of a brain tumour.
A highly commercial tearjerker of its day, this glutinous star vehicle now works only fitfully.
w Casey Robinson play George Brewer Jnr, Bertram Bloch d Edmund Goulding ph Ernest Haller m Max Steiner
☆ Bette Davis, George Brent, Humphrey Bogart, Ronald Reagan, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Henry Travers, Cora Witherspoon, Dorothy Peterson
JUDITH (BETTE DAVIS): 'Nothing can hurt us now. What we have can't be destroyed. That's our victory – our victory over the dark. It is a victory because we're not afraid.'
'If it were an automobile, it would be a Rolls-Royce with the very best trimmings.' – Time
'Will turn in a good account of itself at the box office, though not rating socko proportions.' – Variety
'A completely cynical appraisal would dismiss it all as emotional flim-flam ... but it is impossible to be that cynical about it.' – Frank S. Nugent
'A gooey collection of clichés, but Davis slams through them in her nerviest style.' – New Yorker, 1976 † Remade 1963 as Stolen Hours, with Susan Hayward; 1975 as Dark Victory (TV movie) with Elizabeth Montgomery. best picture; Bette Davis; Max Steiner

Dark Water ★

GB 1980 28m colour
Dragonfly/ITC

A girl locked in a swimming pool is terrorized by a mad killer.
Agreeably watchable thriller full of shadows and shocks.
w Andrew Bogle, Tony Grisoni d Andrew Bogle
☆ Phil Davis, Gwyneth Strong, David Beames

Dark Water

Japan 2002 100m colour
Metro Tartan/Dark Water Film Partners/OZ (Taka Ichise)

original title: Honogurai Mizuno Sokokara
After the breakdown of her marriage, an emotionally disturbed mother is haunted by a past tragedy when she moves with her young daughter into a rundown, leaky apartment block.
A heavy-handed ghost story that often seems no more than an indictment of Japanese plumbing; it delivers some effective shocks towards the end, but it's a long wait.
w Yoshihiro Nakamura, Ken-ichi Suzuk novel Koji Suzuki d Hideo Nakata ph Junîchiro Hayashi m Kenji Kawai pd Katsumi Nakazawa ed Nobuyuki Takahashi sp Mitsuaki Hashimoto
☆ Hitomi Kuroki (Itsumi Matsubara), Rio Kanno (Ikuko), Mirei Oguchi (Mitsuko Kawai), Asami Mizukawa (Ikuko, age 16)
'Like all great horror films, Dark Water can scare you when it wants to, but it's the undercurrent of sadness and longing which continues to haunt after it is finished.' – Mark Kermode. Observer

Dark Waters ★★

US 1944 90m bw
Benedict Bogeaus

Recovering from being torpedoed, an orphan girl visits her aunt and uncle in Louisiana and has some terrifying experiences.
Competent frightened-lady melodrama helped by its bayou surroundings. Possibly discarded by Hitchcock, but with sequences well in his manner.
w Joan Harrison, Marian Cockrell d André de Toth ph John Mescall m Miklos Rozsa ☆ Merle Oberon, Franchot Tone, Thomas Mitchell, Fay Bainter, John Qualen, Elisha Cook Jnr, Rex Ingram

Dark Wind

US 1991 111m Technicolor
Guild/Carolco/North Face Motion Picture Company (Patrick Markey)

Hassled by corrupt FBI agents, a Navajo cop investigates drugs-related murders.
Despite its unusual hero, a disappointingly mundane thriller.
w Neal Jimenez, Eric Bergren, Mark Horowitz novel Tony Hillerman d Errol Morris ph Stefan Czapsky m Michel Colombier pd Ted Bafaloukos ed Susan Crutcher, Freeman Davies
☆ Lou Diamond Phillips, Gary Farmer, Fred Ward, Guy Boyd, John Karlen, Jane Loranger, Gary Basaraba, Blake Clark
'A smooth genre piece, well acted, slickly written and benefiting from the natural beauty of the setting.' – Kim Newman, Empire

Darker than Amber

US 1970 96m Technicolor
Cinema Center/Major Films (Walter Seltzer)

A Florida private eye rescues a girl who is subsequently murdered and turns out to be part of a confidence racket.
Routine suspenser from the Travis McGee books; not very stimulating.
w Ed Waters novel John D. MacDonald d Robert Clouse ph Frank Phillips m John Parker
☆ Rod Taylor, Suzy Kendall, Theodore Bikel, James Booth, Jane Russell, Janet McLachlan, William Smith

The Darkest Light ★

GB 1999 92m colour
Pathé/Canal+/BBC/Footprint/Arts Council (Mark Blaney)

While her brother is ill with leukaemia and her father's sheep and cattle are slaughtered because of foot and moth disease, an 11-year-old Yorkshire farmer's daughter sees a bright light and believes she has had a vision of the Virgin Mary.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

A drama about birth and death, faith and fantasy, but its small-scale approach is likely to work better on TV than the big screen.
w Simon Beaufoy d Bille Eltringham, Simon Beaufoy ph Mary Farbrother m Adrian Johnston pd Chris Townsend ed Ewa J. Lind cos Ffion Elinor
☆ Stephen Dillane (Tom), Kerry Fox (Sue), Keri Arnold (Catherine), Kavita Sungha (Uma), Jason Walton (Matthew), Nisha K. Nayar (Nisha), Nicholas Hope (Father Mark)

'Despite some powerful moments, the movie's overall feel and emotional range are more reminiscent of Brit telepics, equipping this more for a small-screen career than a theatrical one.' – Derek Elley, Variety

Darklands

GB 1996 90m Sohoimages
Metrodome/Darklands/Lluniau Lliw-Cyf (Paul Brooks)

A journalist investigating the murder of a steelworker in South Wales uncovers a pagan cult involved in human sacrifice.
Dire, cheapskate Gothic horror movie, in thrall to the cult The Wicker Man (qv).
wd Julian Richards ph Zoran Djordjevic m John Murphy, David Hughes pd Hayden Pearce ed Mark Talbot-Butler
☆ Craig Fairbrass, Rowena King, Jon Finch, David Duffy, Richard Lynch, Nicola Branson, Beth Morris, William Thomas

'The acting fails to rise above a creaking script, and the visual style would shame a 30-year-old Look at Life.' – Richard Williams, Guardian

'They destroyed everything he had, everthing he was. Now, crime has a new enemy, and justice has a new face.'

Darkman

US 1990 91m DeLuxe
UIP/Universal (Robert Tapert)

A hideously deformed scientist invents a synthetic skin that makes him a master of disguise.
Relentlessly silly horror movie full of extravagantly pointless camera movements.
w Chuck Pfarrer, Sam Raimi, Ivan Raimi, Daniel Goldin, Joshua Goldin d Sam Raimi ph Bill Pope m Danny Elfman pd Randy Ser ed David Stiven
☆ Liam Neeson, Frances McDormand, Colin Friels, Larry Drake, Nelson Mashita, Jesse Lawrence Ferguson, Rafael H. Robledo, Danny Hicks, Theodore Raimi

Darkman 2: The Return of Durant

US/Canada 1994 93m colour
Universal/Renaissance (David Roessell)

A hideously disfigured scientist works on a formula to give himself new skin while fending off the attacks of a crooked property developer.
A bad direct-to-video sequel, with plodding performances and script.
w Steven McKay, Chuck Pfarrer d Bradford May ph Bradford May m Randy Miller ad Ian Brock ed Daniel Cahn cos Noreen Landry
☆ Arnold Vosloo (Dr Peyton Westlake/Darkman), Larry Drake (Robert G. Durant), Kim Delaney (Jill Randall), Renée O'Connor (Laurie Brinkman), Rod Wilson (Ivan Druganov), Lawrence Dane (Dr Hathaway), Jesse Collins (Dr David Brinkman), Jack Langedijk (Rollo Latham)

Darkman III: Die Darkman Die

US 1995 87m colour
MCA/Renaissance (David Roessell)

While trying to perfect his formula for a liquid skin, a disfigured doctor falls foul of a gangster.
Cheap and nasty sequel, with much ham acting and a narrative that is never less than ridiculous.
w Michael Colleary, Mike Werb d Bradford May ph Bradford May m Randy Miller pd Ian Brock ed Daniel Cahn makeup fx Kurtzman, Nicotero & Berger EFX
☆ Jeff Fahey (Peter Rooker), Arnold Vosloo (Dr Peyton Westlake), Darlanne Fluegel (Bridget Thorne), Roxann Biggs-Dawson (Angela Rooker), Nigel Bennett (Nico), Alicia Panetta (Jenny Rooker), Ronn Sarosiak (Mack), Peter Graham (Joey)

'Some secrets should never come to light.'

Darkness

Spain/US 2002 102m colour
FilmaxDimension (Julio Fernandez, Brian Yuzna)

A family moves into a isolated house, not knowing that six children had their throats slit there forty years before...
Stylish but empty exercise in a haunted house horror.
w Jaume Balaguero, Fernando de Felipe d Jaume Balaguero ph Xavi Gimenez m Carles Cases pd Llorenc Miquel ed Luis de la Madrid
☆ Anna Paquin (Regina), Lena Olin (Maria), Iain Glen (Mark), Giancarlo Giannini (Albert Rua), Fele Martinez (Carlos), Fermi Rexach (Villalobos), Stephan Enquist (Paul)

'Elicits not one palpitation from audiences paying for a few good jolts.' – Ned Martel, New York Times

Darkness Falls

GB 1998 96m colour
Downtown/Vine International/Hoseplace (Alan Latham, Clifford Haydn-Tovey)

A businessman has problems: he has 24 hours to repay a £10m loan, and he is confronted by a gunman accusing him of adultery.
An uninteresting thriller about uninteresting people.
w John Howlett play Dangerous Obsession by N. J. Crisp d Gerry Lively ph Adam Santelli m Guy Farley pd Edward Thomas ed David Spiers ☆ Sherilyn Fenn, Ray Winstone, Tim Dutton, Anita Dobson, Bryan Pringle, Robin McCaffrey, Michael Praed, Oliver Tobias

'A nasty, common little film.' – Danny Leigh, Sight and Sound

'Every Legend Has Its Dark Side.'

Darkness Falls

US 2003 85m DeLuxe
Columbia TriStar/Revolution/Distant Corners/Blue Star (John Hegeman, John Fasano, William Sherak, Jason Shuman)

The vengeful ghost of a woman lynched more than 100 years ago returns to kill people in a small American town.
Uninventive horror movie with a theme born of desperation.
w John Fasano, James Vanderbilt, Joe Harris d Jonathan Liebesman ph Dan Laustsen pd George Liddle ed Steve Mirkovich, Tim Alverson sp creature creator Stan Winston Studio
☆ Chaney Kley (Kyle Walsh), Emma Caulfield (Caitlin), Lee Cormie (Michael), Grant Piro (Larry), Sullivan Stapleton (Matt), Steve Mouzakis (Dr Murphy), Peter Curtin (Dr Travis)

'Instantly disposable and shamelessly derivative piece of work.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

Darkness in Tallinn ★★

Finland/USA/Sweden/Estonia 1993 99m bw/Eastmancolor
Metro/FilmZolfo/Upstream/FilmLance/Teknik/EXITfilm (Lasse Saarinen)

original title: Tallinn Pimeduses
In 1991, ruthless gangsters decide to grab $970m in gold being returned to Tallinn, the capital of newly independent Estonia, from Paris, where it had been hidden for 50 years; but their plan depends on persuading a reluctant electrician to fix a city-wide power-cut at the time of the theft.
A deft and intriguing thriller, set against wider themes of freedom and responsibility. Järvilaturi builds the suspense to a tense climax while still allowing space for his actors to create individual characters.
w Paul Kolsby d Ilkka Järvilaturi ph Rein Kotov m Mader pd Toomas Hörak ed Christopher Tellefsen
☆ Ivo Uukkivi, Milena Gulbe, Enn Klooren, Jüri Järvet, Väino Laes, Peeter Dja, Monika Mäger

'A modest but quite ingenious genre pic with an unusual setting and plenty of atmosphere.' – Variety
'A compelling and densely plotted heist movie.' – Sight and Sound

'When she was good she was very very good. When she was bad, she was...'

Darling ★★★

GB 1965 127m bw
Anglo-Amalgamated/Vic/Appia (Joseph Janni, Victor Lyndon)

An ambitious young woman deserts her journalist mentor for a company director, an effeminate photographer and an Italian prince.
Fashionable mid-sixties concoction of smart swinging people and their amoral doings. Influential, put over with high style. It is a film of its time that captures a particular moment in history with clarity and insight.
w Frederic Raphael d John Schlesinger ph Ken Higgins m John Dankworth pd Ray Simm ed James B. Clark
☆ Julie Christie (Diana Scott), Dirk Bogarde (Robert Gold), Laurence Harvey (Miles Brand), Roland Curram (Malcolm), Alex Scott (Sean Martin), Basil Henson (Alec Prosser-Jones), Pauline Yates (Estelle Gold)
BOGARDE TO CHRISTIE: 'Your idea of being fulfilled is having more than one man in bed at the same time.'

'As empty of meaning and mind as the empty life it's exposing.' – Pauline Kael
'A cool, clear and devastating look at the glossy success set.' – Judith Crist
♟ Frederic Raphael; Julie Christie
♗ best picture; John Schlesinger
♈ Frederic Raphael; Ray Simm; Dirk Bogarde; Julie Christie

Darling I am Growing Younger: see Monkey Business

Darling Lili ★

US 1970 136m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount/Geoffrey (Owen Crump)

During World War I, an American air ace falls for a German lady spy, and waits till the war is over to marry her.
Farce and romance mix oddly with aerial acrobatics in this expensive and dull extravaganza which bore the sub-title Where Were You the Night I Shot Down Baron von Richthofen? (which probably sums up its aims and its failure). A coffee table film, good to look at and with occasional striking moments.
w Blake Edwards, William Peter Blatty d Blake Edwards ph Russell Harlan, Harold E. Wellman m Henry Mancini pd Fernando Carrere
☆ Julie Andrews, Rock Hudson, Jeremy Kemp, Lance Percival, Michael Witney, Jacques Marin, André Maranne
♗ Henry Mancini; song 'Whistling Away the Dark' (m Henry Mancini, ly Johnny Mercer)

'A Conspiracy To Overthrow The King...Leads to Courage, Passion & Adventure!'

D'Artagnan's Daughter ★

France 1994 130m colour
Artificial Eye/CiBy 2000/Little Bear/TF1 (Véronique Bourboulon)

original title: La Fille de D'Artagnan
D'Artagnan's daughter sets out to revenge the murder of a nun, an act which brings back into action the ageing three musketeers, who foil a plot to kill the King.
An enjoyable romp that does not take history or itself too seriously.
w Michel Leviant, Jean Cosmos, Bertrand Tavernier idea Riccardo Freda, Eric Poindrom d Bertrand Tavernier ph Patrick Blossier m Philippe Sarde ad Geoffroy Larcher ed Ariane Boeglin
☆ Sophie Marceau, Philippe Noiret, Claude Rich, Sami Frey, Jean-Luc Bideau, Raoul Billerey, Charlotte Kady, Nils Tavernier

'In an era where comedy wears hob-nailed boots, Tavernier's gentle, almost inconsequential touch gladdens the heart.' – Geoff Brown, The Times
† Italian Riccardo Freda, whose original idea it was, was set to direct, but a week before shooting began Sophie Marceau refused to work with him and he was replaced by the producer, Bertrand Tavernier.

The Darwin Adventure ★

GB 1971 91m Eastmancolor
TCF/Palomar (Joseph Strick, Irving Lerner)

In 1831, Charles Darwin becomes ship's naturalist on the Beagle and studies wildlife in South America.
Rather naïve biopic of Darwin which tries to cover too much with too slender resources but makes a pleasant introduction to the subject.
w William Fairchild d Jack Couffer ph Denys Coop, Jack Couffer m Marc Wilkinson
☆ Nicholas Clay, Susan Macready, Ian Richardson, Christopher Martin, Robert Flemyng, Aubrey Woods, Hugh Morton

'The biopic plague, which has ravaged the screen lives of Pasteur, Juarez, Cole Porter and countless others, has now struck down the memory of famed naturalist Charles Darwin. The filmgoing public's own version of Darwin's natural selection theory will immediately weed out this inferior species.' – Variety

D.A.R.Y.L.

US 1985 99m TVC Color
Panavision
Columbia (Burt Harris, Gabrielle Kelly)

A mysterious young man is really a robot, 'data analysing robot youth lifeform'; but he begins to have feelings...
Muddled sentimental fantasy which doesn't seem to know where it's going.
w David Ambrose, Allan Scott, Jeffrey Ellis d Simon Wincer ph Frank Watts m Marvin Hamlisch pd Alan Cassie ed Adrian Carr
☆ Mary Beth Hurt, Michael McKean, Kathryn Walker, Colleen Camp

'The kind of project that must have looked great on paper.' – Variety

'Everyone wants a happy ending.'

Date Movie

US 2006 83m DeLuxe
TCF/New Regency/Epsilon (Paul Schiff)

A would-be bride discovers obstacles, including a plethora of bad jokes, preventing her marriage to the perfect man.
A parody of romantic movies that amount to the date movie from hell.
w Jason Friedberg, Aaron Seltzer d Aaron Seltzer ph Shawn Maurer m David Kitay pd William A. Elliott ed Paul Hirsch ☆ Alyson Hannigan (Julia Jones), Adam Campbell (Grant Funkyerdoder), Sophie Monk (Andy), Tony Cox (Hitch), Eddie Griffin (Frank Jones)

'Crude and hopelessly unfunny.' – Derek Malcolm, London Evening Standard
'Here to remind us that slapstick can be just plain bad. These are sight gags best appreciated with a blindfold.' – Desson Thomson, Washington Post

A Date with a Lonely Girl: see T.R. Baskin (1971)

A Date with Destiny: see The Mad Doctor (1941)

A Date with Destiny: see The Return of October (1948)

A Date with Judy

US 1948 113m Technicolor
MGM (Joe Pasternak)

A teenager wrongly suspects her friend of an illicit affair.
Ambitious but flat comedy musical which neatly wraps up all kinds of forties people and institutions: teenagers, small towns, families, Carmen Miranda and Miss Taylor, not to mention the producer.
w Dorothy Cooper, Dorothy Kingsley d Richard Thorpe ph Robert Surtees m/ly various md George Stoll
☆ Wallace Beery, Elizabeth Taylor, Jane Powell, Carmen Miranda, Xavier Cugat, Robert Stack, Selena Royle, Scotty Beckett, Leon Ames

A Date with the Falcon

US 1941 63m bw
RKO (Howard Benedict)

The Falcon attempts to save his forthcoming marriage and find a missing scientist with a formula for synthetic diamonds.
Slick comic thriller with a few amusing moments.
w Lynn Root, Frank Fenton character created by Michael Arlen d Irving Reis ph Robert de Grasse m Paul Sawtell ad Albert D'Agostino, Al Herman ed Harry Marker
☆ George Sanders, Wendy Barrie, James Gleason, Allen Jenkins, Mona Maris

Daughter of Dr Jekyll

US 1957 74m bw
Allied Artists

An evil doctor tells his ward that she is the daughter of the unfortunate Dr Jekyll and therefore responsible for a series of werewolf killings.
Bathetic cheapie with risible views of England and a tendency to mix up several myths in one package.
w Jack Pollexfen d Edgar G. Ulmer
☆ Arthur Shields, John Agar, Gloria Talbott, John Dierkes

Daughter of Luxury: see Five and Ten

The Daughter of Rosie O'Grady ★

US 1950 104m Technicolor
Warner (William Jacobs)

A girl determines to follow in her dead mother's musical comedy footsteps against the wishes of her still-grieving father.
Absolutely standard period musical, quite pleasantly handled but with below-par musical numbers.
w Jack Rose, Mel Shavelson, Peter Milne d David Butler ph Wilfred M. Cline md David Buttolph
☆ June Haver, Gordon MacRae, James Barton, S. Z. Sakall, Gene Nelson, Debbie Reynolds, Sean McClory, Jane Darwell

Daughter of the Dragon

US 1931 70m bw
Paramount

Fu Manchu continues to seek revenge on Dr Petrie for the loss of his wife in the Boxer rebellion.
Muddled thriller with too much plot and too little action.
w Lloyd Corrigan, Monte Katterjohn d Lloyd Corrigan ☆ Warner Oland, Anna May Wong, Sessue Hayakawa, Bramwell Fletcher, Holmes Herbert

'Chinese blunderings, murders, and silly acting. Best for the combos where the kids may get a kick out of it.' – Variety

Daughter of the Nile ★

Taiwan 1988 91m colour
Artificial Eye/Fu Film Productions (Li Xianchang) original title: Nilouhe, Nuer

A lovesick schoolgirl on the fringes of gangster society escapes from her workaday chores by reading a comic, Daughter of the Nile.
Impressively controlled direction and well observed characters flesh out a minimal story.
w Zhu Tianwen d Hou Hsiao-Hsien ph Chen Huai'en m Chen Zhiyuan, Zhang Hongyi pd Liu Zhihua, Lin Ju ed Liao Qingsong, Chen Liyu
☆ Yang Lin, Gao Jie, Yang Fan, Xin Shufen, Li Tianlu, Cui Fusheng

'By far the most achieved and mature of the cycle of "young criminal" films in recent Taiwanese cinema.' – Tony Rayns, MFB

'Twice in a Lifetime: A Motion Picture Like This...'

Daughters Courageous ★

US 1939 107m bw
Warner (Hal B. Wallis)

A prodigal father returns to his family and sorts out their problems.
Following the success of Four Daughters (qv) the cast was reassembled to make this amiable rehash about a different family.
w Julius and Philip Epstein play Fly Away Home by Dorothy Bennett, Irving White d Michael Curtiz ph James Wong Howe m Max Steiner ad John Hughes ed Ralph Dawson
☆ Claude Rains, John Garfield, Jeffrey Lynn, Fay Bainter, Priscilla Lane, Rosemary Lane, Lola Lane, Gale Page, Donald Crisp, May Robson, Frank McHugh, Dick Foran, Berton Churchill

'Suited to the family trade anywhere ... but there's something to be said against a running time of an hour and 47 minutes.' – Variety
'For its intelligent use of small town locations, its skilled acting, fine camerawork and evenly paced, sympathetic direction, it surpasses everything of its type.' – John Baxter, 1968
'Attractive people, good dialogue and camerawork, and skilful direction can work wonders.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

'They Hunger For Your Blood!'

Daughters of Darkness ★

Belgium/France/Germany 1970 96m colour
Roxy/Showking/Cinevog/Maya (Paul Collet, Alain Guillaume) original title: Le Rouge aux Lèvres

A seaside hotel in the dead season is visited by an elegant lesbian countess and her companion.
Surrealist and gory horror, stylishly directed and often visually intriguing.
w Harry Kumel, Pierre Drouot d Harry Kumel ph Eddy van der Enden m François de Roubiax ad Françoise Hardy ed Gust Verschueren ☆ Delphine Seyrig, John Karlen, Daniele Ouimet, Andrea Rau, Paul Esser, Georges Jamin, Joris Collet, Fons Rademakers

Daughters of Destiny: see Love, Soldiers and Women

Daughters of the Dust ★

US 1991 112m colour
BFI/American Playhouse/WMG/Geechee Girls (Julie Dash)

At the turn of the century, a family of Gullahs, descendants of African slaves living on islands off South Carolina, prepare to make a journey to the mainland to travel to the North.
A commemoration and celebration of black experience in America and its African roots, told in overlapping voices of the old and the unborn, and shot with an eye for beauty.
wd Julie Dash ph A. Jaffa Fielder m John Barnes pd Kerry Marshall ed Amy Carey, Joseph Burton
☆ Adisa Anderson, Barbara-O, Cheryl Lynn Bruce, Cora Lee Day, Geraldine Dunston, Vertamae Grosvenor, Tommy Hicks, Trula Hoosier, Kaycee Moore, Eartha D. Robinson, Alva Rodgers, Cornell Royal, Catherine Tarver, Bahni Turpin

'This is balletic, operatic cinema, and a celebration of cinema itself.' – Lizzie Francke, Sight and Sound

'In a country where anybody can become President, anybody just did.'
'Dave Kovic was an ordinary guy who was asked to impersonate the president. When they gave him a chance to make the country better ... he did.'

Dave ★

US 1993 110m colour
Warner (Luaren Schuler-Donner, Ivan Reitman)

After the President of the United States has a stroke, a Baltimore businessman is recruited by the White House to impersonate him.
A slight but amusing comedy of political life that nevertheless manages to evade most of the issues it raises.
w Gary Ross d Ivan Reitman ph Adam Greenberg m James Newton Howard pd J. Michael Riva ed Sheldon Kahn
☆ Kevin Kline, Sigourney Weaver, Frank Langella, Kevin Dunn, Ben Kingsley, Charles Grodin, Ving Rhames, Faith Prince, Laura Linney

'A dear and funny movie.' – Richard Corliss, Time
'A delightful, buoyant new take on an old theme that will win at the polls because it never strikes a false note.' – Variety
Gary Ross

'You're invited to the party of the decade!'

Dave Chappelle's Block Party (8)

US 2006 102m
Optimum/Rogue/Bob Yan/Pilot Boy/Kabuki Brothers/Partizan Films (Dave Chappelle, Bob Yari, Julie Fong, Mustapha Abuelhija)

Comedian Dave Chappelle attempts to stage a concert in Brooklyn, with hip-hop performers and comedians.
Much depends on one's tolerance for hip-hop culture and off-colour comedy. Chappelle is an engaging, exuberant character, but it's overlong and doesn't truly translate outside America.
d Michel Gondry ph Ellen Kuras m Corey Smith pd Lauri Faggioni ☆ Dave Chappelle, Kanye West, Mos Def, Erykah Badu, The Fugees, Jill Scott, John Legend

'For this woman - he broke God's own commandments! The fire and tempest of their love still flames across 3000 years!'

David and Bathsheba ★

US 1951 116m Technicolor
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)

King David loves the wife of one of his captains, and ensures that the latter is killed in battle.
Deliberately sober bible-in-pictures, probably intended as a riposte to Cecil B. de Mille. Somewhat lacking in excitement, but you can't call it gaudy.
w Philip Dunne d Henry King ph Leon Shamroy m Alfred Newman ad Lyle Wheeler, George Davis
☆ Gregory Peck, Susan Hayward, James Robertson Justice, Raymond Massey, Kieron Moore, Jayne Meadows, John Sutton, Dennis Hoey, Francis X. Bushman, George Zucco

'Hardly a single unintentional laugh.' – Richard Mallett, Punch
Philip Dunne; Leon Shamroy; Alfred Newman; art direction

David and Lisa ★

US 1962 94m bw
Continental (Paul M. Heller)

Two disturbed adolescents at a special school fall in love.
Case history drama, earnest and well meaning rather than exciting.
w Eleanor Perry book Theodore Isaac Rubin d Frank Perry ph Leonard Hirschfield m Mark Lawrence ☆ Keir Dullea, Janet Margolin, Howard da Silva, Neva Patterson, Clifton James, Richard McMurray

'It recognises and probes the wounds of the mind and the heart and the power of love to penetrate even the most private of worlds.' – Judith Crist

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

† Made for 180,000 dollars, it took more than one million dollars in its first run in the States.

Eleanor Perry; Frank Perry

'One of the greatest stories of love and adventure ever told is brought to the screen as Dickens himself would wish it!'

David Copperfield ★★★★

US 1934 132m bw
MGM (David O. Selznick)

Disliked by his cruel stepfather and helped by his eccentric aunt, orphan David grows up to become an author and eventually to marry his childhood sweetheart.

Only slightly faded after more than seventy years, this small miracle of compression not only conveys the spirit of Dickens better than the screen has normally managed but is a particularly pleasing example of Hollywood's handling of literature and of the deployment of a great studio's resources. It also overflows with memorable character cameos, and it was a box-office giant.

w Hugh Walpole, Howard Estabrook novel Charles Dickens d George Cukor ph Oliver T. Marsh m Herbert Stothart ad Cedric Gibbons ed Robert J. Kern montage Slavko Vorkapich

☆ Freddie Bartholomew (young David), Frank Lawton (David as a man), W. C. Fields (Micawber), Roland Young (Uriah Heep), Edna May Oliver (Aunt Betsy), Lennox Pawle (Mr Dick), Basil Rathbone (Mr Murdstone), Violet Kemble Cooper (Miss Murdstone), Maureen O'Sullivan (Dora), Madge Evans (Agnes), Elizabeth Allan (Mrs Copperfield), Jessie Ralph (Peggotty), Lionel Barrymore (Dan Peggotty), Hugh Williams (Steerforth), Lewis Stone (Mr Wickfield) and also Herbert Mundin (Barkis), Elsa Lanchester (Clickett), Jean Cadell (Mrs Micawber), Una O'Connor (Mrs Gummidge), John Buckler (Ham), Hugh Walpole (the Vicar), Arthur Treacher (donkey man)

'One of the best ensembles ever ... unusually good production which will win general approval.' – Variety

'Though half the characters are absent, the whole spectacle of the book, Micawber always excepted, is conveyed.' – James Agee

'The most profoundly satisfying screen manipulation of a great novel that the camera has ever given us.' – André Sennwald

'Perhaps the finest casting of all time.' – Basil Wright, 1972

† Charles Laughton was originally cast as Micawber, but resigned from the role after two days of shooting. It was said at the time that 'he looked as though he were about to molest the child'.

best picture; editing

Davy ★

GB 1957 84m Technirama
Ealing (Basil Dearden)

A member of a family music hall act auditions at Covent Garden.

Curiously unsuccessful vehicle for a popular singing comic; the script and continuity are simply poor, and swamped by the wide screen.

w William Rose d Michael Relph ph Douglas Slocombe m various classics

☆ Harry Secombe, Ron Randell, George Relph, Alexander Knox, Susan Shaw, Bill Owen Davy Crockett ★

US 1955 93m Technicolor
Walt Disney

Episodes in the career of the famous Tennessee hunter and Indian scout who died at the Alamo.

Disjointed and naïve but somehow very fresh and appealing adventures; made for American television (as 3 50m episodes) but elsewhere an enormous hit in cinemas.

w Tom Blackburn d Norman Foster ph Charles Boyle m George Bruns

☆ Fess Parker, Buddy Ebsen, Basil Ruysdael, William Bakewell, Hans Conried, Kenneth Tobey, Nick Cravat

† 1956 sequel on similar lines: Davy Crockett and the River Pirates

Dawandeh: see The Runner

Dawg: see Bad Boy

Dawn ★

GB 1928 90m approx bw silent
British and Dominions (Herbert Wilcox)

In 1914 Brussels, Nurse Edith Cavell helps 210 English soldiers to escape before the Germans catch and execute her.

Inspirational piece, totally dated now; remade by the same producer in 1939 as Nurse Edith Cavell, with Anna Neagle.

w Herbert Wilcox, Robert J. Cullen play Reginald Berkeley d Herbert Wilcox

☆ Sybil Thorndike, Marie Ault, Mary Brough, Haddon Mason

Dawn!

Australia 1979 115m colour
Aquataurus/SAFC (Joy Cavill)

Dawn Fraser reflects on her career as a swimmer which took her from a working-class Sydney suburb to international success and the winning of three Olympic gold medals.

A biopic that celebrates a bloody-minded heroine, forever at war with authority, but, with an inexperienced actress in the title role and a style that smooths away the rough edges, the result is too bland to engage the interest for long.

w Joy Cavill d Ken Hannam ph Russell Boyd m Michael Carlos pd Ross Major ed Max Lemon

☆ Bronwyn Mackay-Payne, Ron Haddrick, Bunney Brooke, Tom Richards, John Diedrich, Gabrielle Hartley

'When there's no more room in Hell, the dead will walk the earth...'

Dawn of the Dead

US 1979 127m Technicolor
Target International/Laurel Group/Dawn Associates (Richard P. Rubinstein)

GB title: Zombies

America is filled by legions of carnivorous zombies.

Seemingly endless horror comic with absurd pretensions to be an allegory of something or other; occasionally laughable, otherwise sickening or boring.

wd George A. Romero ph Michael Gornick m The Goblins, Dario Argento ad Josie Caruso, Barbara Lifsher ed George A. Romero sp Tom Savini

☆ David Emge, Ken Foree, Scott H. Reiniger, Gaylen Ross

'When there's no more room in hell, the dead will walk the earth'

Dawn of the Dead

US 2004 100m DeLuxe Clairmont widescreen
Universal/Strike Entertainment/New Amsterdam (Thomas A. Bliss, Dennis E. Jones, Armyan Bernstein)

A nurse wakes up to discover that her daughter and most of her neighbours have become flesh-easting zombies.

A more expensive remake of George A. Romero's horror movie that is just another example of Hollywood consuming its past for no good reason; there's no life in these zombies even though they can move at speed.

w James Gunn screenplay George A. Romero d Zack Snyder ph Matthew F. Leonetti m Tyler Bates pd Andrew Neskoromny ed Niven Howie, William Hoy sp makeup fx: David Leroy Anderson

☆ Sarah Polley (Ana), Ving Rhames (Kenneth), Jake Weber (Michael), Mekhi Phifer (Andre), Ty Burrell (Steve), Michael Kelly (C J), Kevin Zegers (Terry)

'Works only on the level of a visceral horror exercise and, even then, only intermittently.' – Scott Foundas, Variety

'Roaring into the blood-red dawn – fighting for women they had never seen – for love they might never know!'

'Forty youngsters sporting with fate!'

The Dawn Patrol ★★

US 1930 90m bw
Warner

In France during World War I, flying officers wait their turn to leave on missions which may mean death.

The second 1938 version is more watchable today, but this early talkie was highly effective in its time, and much of its aerial footage was re-used.

w John Monk Saunders d Howard Hawks ph Ernest Haller m Leo Forbstein ed Ray Curtiss

☆ Richard Barthelmess (Dick Courtney), Douglas Fairbanks Jnr (Douglas Scott), Neil Hamilton (Major Brand), William Janney (Gordon Scott), James Finlayson (Field Sergeant), Clyde Cook (Bott), Edmund Breon (Lt Bathurst), Frank McHugh (Flaherty)

'No women and few laughs, so needs good surrounding comedy shorts.' – Variety

'Bare, cleancut, uncluttered technique, a stark story line, terse dialogue ... and a pervasive atmosphere of hopelessness captured with economy and incisiveness.' – Andrew Sarris, 1963

† TV title is Flight Commander, which was the title of Saunders's original story.

John Monk Saunders

'There's no chance for a flight to get through, but one man – flying low, hedgehopping – might make it!'

The Dawn Patrol ★★

US 1938 103m bw
Warner (Hal B. Wallis)

In the First World War, new recruits are given minimal training as pilots before being sent on dangerous missions.

A remarkably early but trim and competent remake of the 1930 movie, using much of the same aerial footage.

w Seton I. Miller, Dan Totheroh story John Monk Saunders d Edmund Goulding ph Tony Gaudio m Max Steiner ad John Hughes ed Ralph Dawson

☆ Errol Flynn (Courtney), Basil Rathbone (Major Brand), David Niven (Scott), Melville Cooper (Watkins), Donald Crisp (Phipps), Barry Fitzgerald (Bott), Carl Esmond (Von Mueller)

'A powerful, red-corpuscled drama ... geared for top grosses.' – Variety

'A great deal of self-pity and romanticism have gone into the making of this excellent ham sandwich.' – Graham Greene

The Dawn Rider

US 1935 56m bw
Lone Star (Paul Malvern)

A cowboy revenges the murder of his father.

Standard quickie Western with little to recommend it.

wd Robert N. Bradbury ph Archie Stout

☆ John Wayne, Marion Burns, Yakima Canutt, Reed Howes, Denny Meadows, Bert Dillard

The Dawning ★

GB 1988 97m colour
Enterprise/TVS (Sarah Lawson)

In the 1920s in Southern Ireland, at the beginning of the Troubles between the Irish and the English, a teenage girl becomes involved with a mysterious stranger, to the annoyance of her English fiancé.

A small-scale but affecting film of the end of innocence.

w Moira Williams novel The Old Jest by Jennifer Johnson d Robert Knights ph Adrian Biddle m Simon May pd Mike Porter ed Max Lemon

☆ Trevor Howard, Hugh Grant, Anthony Hopkins, Rebecca Pidgeon, Jean Simmons, Adrian Dunbar, Tara MacGowran

'Whoever said "Tomorrow is another day"... didn't check the weather.'

The Day After Tomorrow ★

US 2004 123m DeLuxe 'scope
TCF/Centropolis/Lions Gate/Mark Gordon

After a climatologist warns that global warming could affect the future world, a new ice age freezes New York.

Enjoyably silly disaster movie with spectacular tidal waves and other disasters in the destruction of Emmerich's least favourite places; the survival drama that follows is less interesting.

w Roland Emmerich, Jeffrey Nachimanoff part suggested by the book The Coming Global Superstorm by Art Bell and Whitley Strieber d Roland Emmerich ph Ueli Steiger m Harald Kloser pd Barry Chusid ed David Brenner sp Industrial Light & Magic

☆ Dennis Quaid (Jack Hall), Jake Gyllenhaal (Sam Hall), Ian Holm (Terry Rapson), Emmy Rossum (Laura Chapman), Sela Ward (Dr Lucy Hall), Dash Mihok (Jason Evans), Kenneth Welsh (Vice President Becker)

'Very scary. The special effects are on such an awesome scale that the movie works despite its cornball plotting.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

'Irretrievably poor: a shambles of dud writing and dramatic inconsequence which left me determined to double my consumption of fossil fuels' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker

'Positively The Most Hilarious Picture You've Ever Seen!!!'

A Day at the Races ★★★★

US 1937 109m bw/blue-tinted ballet sequence
MGM (Lawrence Weingarten)

The Marxes help a girl who owns a sanatorium and a racehorse.

Fashions in Marxism change, but this top quality production, though lacking their zaniest inspirations, does contain several of their funniest routines and a spectacularly well integrated racecourse climax. The musical and romantic asides are a matter of taste but delightfully typical of their time.
w Robert Pirosh, George Seaton, George Oppenheimer d Sam Wood ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Franz Waxman ch Dave Gould ad Cedric Gibbons ed Frank E. Hull
☆ Groucho (Dr. Hugo Z. Hackenbush), Chico (Tony), Harpo (Stuffy), Margaret Dumont (Mrs. Upjohn), Maureen O'Sullivan (Judy), Allan Jones (Gil), Douglass Dumbrille (Morgan), Esther Muir ("Flo"), Sig Rumann (Dr. Steinberg)
'The money is fairly splashed about; the capitalists have recognized the Marx Brothers; ballet sequences, sentimental songs, amber fountains, young lovers. Easily the best film to be seen in London, but all the same I feel a nostalgia for the old cheap rickety sets.' – Graham Greene
♫ 'All God's Chillun Got Rhythm'; 'On Blue-Venetian Waters'; 'A Message From the Man in the Moon', 'Tomorrow Is Another Day'
Dave Gould

Day for Night ★★★★

France/Italy 1973 116m Eastmancolor
Films du Carrosse/PECF/PIC (Marcel Bébert) original title: La Nuit Américaine
Frictions and personality clashes beset the making of a romantic film in Nice.
Immensely enjoyable, richly detailed, insider's-eye-view of the goings-on in a film studio. A fun film with melodramatic asides.
w François Truffaut, Jean-Louis Richard, Suzanne Schiffman d François Truffaut ph Pierre-William Glenn m Georges Delerue ad Damien Lanfranchi ed Yann Dedet, Martine Barraque
☆ Jacqueline Bisset (Julie Baker), Valentina Cortese (Severine), Jean-Pierre Aumont (Alexandre), Jean-Pierre Léaud (Alphonse), Dani (Lilianna), Alexandra Stewart (Stacey), Jean Champion (Bertrand), François Truffaut (Ferrand), David Markham (Dr. Nelson)
'I thought I'd had my last dram of enjoyment out of the Pagliacci theme and studio magic, and Truffaut shows there's life in the old whirl yet.' – Stanley Kauffmann
'Made with such dazzling craftsmanship and confidence that you can never quite believe Truffaut's point that directing a movie is a danger-fraught experience.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News
† Graham Greene, as Henry Graham, played an insurance representative.
†† A Regio 1 DVD release includes three documentaries, two interviews with Truffaut and an interview with Valentina Cortese.
best foreign film
script; François Truffaut (as director); Valentina Cortese best picture; François Truffaut; Valentina Cortese

The Day I Became A Woman: see Roozi Khe Zan Shodam

A Day in the Country: see Une Partie de Campagne

A Day in the Death of Joe Egg ★★★

GB 1971 106m Eastmancolor
Columbia/Domino (David Deutsch)
A teacher and his wife are frustrated by their own inability to cope with the problem of their spastic daughter.
A well-filmed version of a sincerely human play, with humour and fantasy sequences leavening the gloom.
w Peter Nichols play Peter Nichols d Peter Medak ph Ken Hodges m Elgar ad Ted Tester ed Ray Lovejoy ☆ Alan Bates (Bri), Janet Suzman (Sheila), Peter Bowles (Freddie), Sheila Gish (Pam), Joan Hickson (Grace)
'It's unsatisfying, and it's not to be missed.' – Stanley Kauffmann

A Day of Fury

US 1956 78m Technicolor
Universal (Robert Arthur)
A marshal is reluctant to shoot a wandering gunman who once saved his life.
Fair little Western with more tension than usual.
w James Edmiston, Oscar Brodney d Harmon Jones
☆ Dale Robertson, Jock Mahoney, Mara Corday, Carl Benton Reid

The Day of the Animals

US 1976 98m DeLuxe Todd-AO 35
Film Ventures International (Edward L. Montero)
In the Californian High Sierras, animals of all kinds suddenly turn on human beings, but a day later are all found dead.
Irritatingly pointless horror fable borrowing heavily from The Birds; basically an exploitation shocker, most efficient when most unpleasant.
w William and Eleanor Norton d William Girdler ph Tom McHugh m Lalo Schifrin ☆ Christopher George, Lynda Day George, Leslie Nielsen, Robert Sorrentino, Richard Jaeckel, Michael Ansara, Ruth Roman, Paul Mantee, Gil Lamb

Day of the Badman

US 1957 82m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
Universal-International
A circuit judge stands up against threatening outlaws.
Uninvolving Western which can't fill the wide screen.
w Irving Glassberg d Harry Keller
☆ Fred MacMurray, Joan Weldon, John Ericson, Robert Middleton, Edgar Buchanan

The Day of the Beast

Spain/Italy 1995 104m colour
Metro Tartan/Sogetel/Iberoamericana/M.G. SRL/Canal (Antonio Saura, Claudio Gaeta) original title: El Dia de la Bestia
With the aid of a heavy metal fan and a fake Satanist, a priest acts uncharitably in order to be able to track down the Anti-Christ, who is about to be born in Madrid.
Exuberant horror movie with a political subtext – the Devil finds work for idle fascists – and a blackly comic tone, but it fails to cohere into a satisfactory whole.
w Alex de la Iglesia, Jorge Guerricaechevarria d Alex de la Iglesia ph Flavio Martinez Labiano m Battista Lena pd José Luis Arrizabilaga ed Teresa Font sp make-up: José Antonio Sanchez
☆ Alex Angulo, Armando de Razza, Santiago Segura, Terele Pavez, Nathalie Sesaña, Jaime Blanch
'A rough piece that shows how low the New Spanish Cinema is prepared to grovel in its post-Franco search for international box-office.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard
'The funniest Spanish film of the decade is also one of the most serious.' – Sight and Sound

Day of the Dead

US 1985 102m colour
Laurel/United (Richard P. Rubinstein)
Zombies outnumber normal humans by 400,000 to one, but a doctor is trying to domesticate them.
Gory but very talkative successor to Dawn of the Dead; not for regular audience consumption.
wd George A. Romero ph Michael Gornick m John Harrison pd Cletus Anderson ed Pasquale Buba ☆ Lori Cardille, Terry Alexander, Jarlath Conroy, Joseph Pilato

The Day of the Dolphin ★

US 1973 104m Technicolor
Panavision
Avco-Embassy/Icarus (Robert E. Relyea)
A marine biologist researching dolphins off the Florida coast discovers they are being used in a plot to blow up the President's yacht.
A strangely unexpected and unsuccessful offering from the talent involved: thin and repetitive as scientific instruction (the dolphins' language in any case topples it into fantasy), and oddly childlike as spy adventure.
w Buck Henry novel Robert Merle d Mike Nichols ph William A. Fraker m Georges Delerue pd Richard Sylbert
☆ George C. Scott, Trish Van Devere, Paul Sorvino, Fritz Weaver
'The whole thing seems to have been shoved through the cameras as glibly as possible, so that everyone concerned could grab the money and run.' – Stanley Kauffmann
'An eight and a half million dollar Saturday afternoon special for sheltered nine-year-olds.' – Judith Crist
'Dolphins may live in a state of ecstasy, but the cast of this film seems lost in a state of confusion, wondering whether they are in an enlightened documentary, juvenile fantasy, or lurid soap opera.' – Les Keyser, Hollywood in the Seventies
'The most expensive Rin Tin Tin movie ever made.' – Judith Crist
Georges Delerue

The Day of the Evil Gun ★

US 1968 93m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM (Jerry Thorpe)
Returning home after three years, a rancher finds that his wife and child have been carried off by Indians.
Competent standard Western which resolves itself into a duel of wits between the hero and his rival.
w Charles Marquis Warren, Eric Bercovici d Jerry Thorpe ph W. Wallace Kelley m Jeff Alexander ☆ Glenn Ford, Arthur Kennedy, Dean Jagger, Paul Fix, John Anderson, Nico Minardos

The Day of the Jackal ★★★

GB/France 1973 142m Technicolor
Universal/Warwick/Universal France (John Woolf, David Deutsch)
British and French police combine to prevent an OAS assassination attempt on de Gaulle by use of a professional killer.
An incisive, observant and professional piece of work based on a rather clinical bestseller. Lack of a channel for sympathy, plus language confusions, are its main drawbacks.
w Kenneth Ross novel Frederick Forsyth d Fred Zinnemann ph Jean Tournier m Georges Delerue ad Ernest Archer, Willy Holt ed Ralph Kemplen
☆ Edward Fox ("The Jackal"), Michel Lonsdale (Lebel), Alan Badel (The Minister), Eric Porter (Colonel Rodin), Cyril Cusack (Gunsmith), Delphine Seyrig (Colette), Donald Sinden (Mallinson), Tony Britton (Inspector Thomas), Timothy West (Berthier), Olga Georges-Picot (Denise), Barrie Ingham (St. Clair), Maurice Denham (General Colbert), Anton Rodgers (Bernard)
'Before Jackal is five minutes old, you know it's just going to be told professionally, with no flavour and no zest.' – Stanley Kauffmann
'All plot, with scarcely a character in sight.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News
'A better than average thriller for those who haven't read the book.' – Judith Crist
'A rare lesson in film-making in the good old grand manner.' – Basil Wright, 1972
Ralph Kemplen

'It happened in Hollywood – but it could have happened in Hell!'

The Day of the Locust ★★

US 1974 143m Technicolor
Paramount/Long Road (Jerome Hellman, Sheldon Shrager)
In Hollywood in the 1930s, a novice is bewildered by the eccentricities of life and an innocent man is martyred by the crowd.
A curious and interesting work from a savagely satirical novel; full of stimulating scenes and characters, it barely succeeds as a whole and was a disaster at the box-office.
w Waldo Salt novel Nathanael West d John Schlesinger ph Conrad Hall m John Barry pd Richard MacDonald ed Jim Clark
☆ Donald Sutherland, William Atherton, Karen Black, Burgess Meredith, Geraldine Page, Richard A. Dysart, Bo Hopkins, Lelia Goldoni, Billy Barty
'The sense of horror which the film excites is all the sharper because the monstrosities of action are man-produced. In this brilliantly devised film it is the human heart, not some freak of an indifferent nature, which kills.' – Dilys Powell
Conrad Hall; Burgess Meredith

The Day of the Outlaw ★★

US 1958 96m bw
UA/Security Pictures (Sidney Harmon)
Two rival cattlemen forget their differences to fight six outlaws who ride into town.
Bleak and wintry Western, well done and sufficiently unusual to stick in the mind.
w Philip Yordan novel Lee Wells d André de Toth ph Russell Harlan m Alexander Courage
☆ Robert Ryan, Burl Ives, Tina Louise, Nehemiah Persoff, David Nelson, Venetia Stevenson, Jack Lambert, Lance Fuller
'In the best William S. Hart tradition.' – MFB

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'Spine Chilling Terror!'

The Day of the Triffids ★

GB 1962 95m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
Philip Yordan (George Pitcher)

Almost everyone in the world is blinded by meteorites prior to being taken over by intelligent plants.
Rough and ready adaptation of a famous sci-fi novel, sometimes blunderingly effective and with moments of good trick work.
w Bernard Gordon novel John Wyndham d Steve Sekely ph Ted Moore m Ron Goodwin
☆ Howard Keel, Nicole Maurey, Kieron Moore, Janette Scott, Alexander Knox
† The script was originally credited to Philip Yordan because Bernard Gordon was blacklisted at the time.

Day of Wrath ★★★

Denmark 1943 105m bw Palladium

original title: Vredens Dag
In a 17th-century village an old woman is burned as a witch and curses the pastor who judged her. He dies and his mother accuses her daughter-in-law, in love with another man, of using witchcraft to kill him.
Harrowing, spellbinding melodrama with a message, moving in a series of Rembrandtesque compositions from one horrifying sequence to another. Depressing, but marvellous.
w Carl Dreyer, Poul Knudsen, Mogens Skot-Hansen play Anne Pedersdotter by Hans Wiers Jenssen d Carl Dreyer ph Carl Andersson m Poul Schierbeck ad Erik Ases, Lis Fribert ed Edith Schlussel, Anne Marie Petersen
☆ Thorkild Roose (Absalon Pedersson), Lisbeth Movin (Anne Pedersdotter, His Wife), Sigrid Neiiendam (Meret, His Mother), Preben Lerdoff Rye (Martin, Son by His First Marriage), Anna Svierkier (Herlofs Marte)

'An exceptional piece of cinema ... the film will, I think, be remembered for its realistic treatment of the incredible; for its vicious tension; for the unrivalled horror of its picture of human callousness.' – Dilys Powell

The Day the Earth Caught Fire ★★

GB 1961 99m b/w with filters
Dyaliscope
British Lion/Pax (Val Guest)

Nuclear tests knock the world off its axis and send it careering towards the sun.
A smart piece of science fiction told through the eyes of Fleet Street journalists and showing a sharp eye for the London scene. Rather exhaustingly talkative, but genuinely frightening at the time.
w Wolf Mankowitz, Val Guest d Val Guest ph Harry Waxman m Monty Norman
☆ Edward Judd, Janet Munro, Leo McKern, Arthur Christiansen (ex-editor of the Daily Express), Michael Goodliffe, Bernard Braden, Reginald Beckwith, Austin Trevor, Renée Asherson, Edward Underdown
† A remake went into production in 1995.
BAFTA screenplay

'From out of space – a warning and an ultimatum!'

The Day the Earth Stood Still ★★

US 1951 92m bw
TCF (Julian Blaustein)

A flying saucer arrives in Washington and its alien occupant, aided by a robot, demonstrates his intellectual and physical power, warns the world what will happen if wars continue, and departs.
Cold-war wish-fulfilment fantasy, impressive rather than exciting but very capably put over with the minimum of trick work and the maximum of sober conviction. 'Klaatu barada nikto', the command given to the robot, has achieved cult status.
w Edmund H. North d Robert Wise ph Leo Tover m Bernard Herrmann
☆ Michael Rennie, Patricia Neal, Hugh Marlowe, Sam Jaffe, Billy Gray

'Quite wry and alarmingly smooth.' – New Yorker, 1977

The Day the Fish Came Out

GB/Greece 1967 109m DeLuxe
TCF/Michael Cacoyannis

Atomic material contaminates a Mediterranean island.
Addle-pated, would-be satirical mod fantasy with establishment figures cast as world villains.
wd Michael Cacoyannis ph Walter Lassally m Mikis Theodorakis
☆ Tom Courtenay, Colin Blakely, Sam Wanamaker, Candice Bergen, Ian Ogilvy, Patricia Burke

The Day the Hot Line Got Hot

US 1968 92m Eastmancolor
Commonwealth United

Russian and American agents are outwitted by their go-between.
Feeble espionage comedy teaming two big stars at the end of their careers.
w Paul Jarrico, Dominique Fabre, M. Trueblood d Etienne Périer
☆ Charles Boyer, Robert Taylor, George Chakiris, Marie Dubois

The Day the Sun Turned Cold ★

Hong Kong 1994 100m colour
Artificial Eye/Pineast (Cherie Wong)

original title: Tianguo Niezi
In China, a young man recalls to the police his troubled childhood, which ended with his mother poisoning his father.
Bleak and angry story of familial betrayal, which gains interest from its exoticism.
w Wang Xing Dong, Wang Zhe Bin d Yim Ho ph Hou Yong, Shang Yong m Otomo Yoshihide ad Gong Ming Hui ed Wong Yee-shun, Zhou Ying Wu, Yun Jiang Chun ☆ Si Ching Gao Wa, Tao Chung Wa, Ma Jing Wu, Wu'ai Zi, Shu Zi'ong, Li Hu

'A haunting film, magnificently filmed and perfectly scored, a splendid example of the new Eastern cinema.' – Nigel Robinson, Film Review

'A new high in naked shrieking terror.'

Day the World Ended

US 1955 82m bw Superscope
AIP/Golden State (Roger Corman)

Survivors of the nuclear war take refuge in a mountain hideout where they are attacked by three-eyed, cannibalistic mutants.
Small-scale, paranoid science-fiction thriller from what the film calls 'the age of anxiety'.
w Lou Rusoff d Roger Corman ph Jock Feindel m Ronald Stein ed Ronald Sinclair
☆ Richard Denning, Lori Nelson, Adele Jurgens, Touch Connors, Paul Birch, Raymond Hatton

The Day They Gave Babies Away: see All Mine to Give

The Day They Robbed the Bank of England ★

GB 1960 85m bw
MGM/Summit (Jules Buck)

In 1901 Irish patriots plan a coup against the British government...
Small-scale, well-detailed period caper story, marred by a slow-starting script and unsympathetic acting.
w Howard Clewes, Richard Maibaum novel John Brophy d John Guillermin ph Georges Périnal m Edwin Astley
☆ Peter O'Toole, Aldo Ray, Elizabeth Sellars, Kieron Moore, Albert Sharpe, Hugh Griffith, John Le Mesurier, Joseph Tomelty, Miles Malleson, Colin Gordon

A Day to Remember

GB 1953 92m bw
Rank/Box-Thomas/GFD

A darts team takes a day trip to France.
Pleasant compendium of mini-stories with an agreeable cast.
w Robin Estridge novel The Hand and Flower by Jerrard Tickell d Ralph Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Clifton Parker ed Gerald Thomas ☆ Stanley Holloway, Donald Sinden, Joan Rice, Odile Versois, James Hayter, Edward Chapman, Harry Fowler, Peter Jones, Bill Owen

Day Watch

Russia 2006 139m colour
First Channel Kino/Tabbak/Baselevs (Konstantin Ernst, Anatoly Maximov) original title: Dnevnoy Dozor: Mel Sudbi
In Moscow, the forces of good and evil attempt to gain possession of the Chalk of Destiny that can change history.
More supernatural hokum, a sequel to Night Watch that values special effects over coherent narrative; maybe the ability to rewrite history may have especial resonance in a country where people have been erased from memory.
w Sergei Lukyanenko, Aleksandr Talal, Timur Bekmambetov novel Sergei Lukyanenko d Timur Bekmambetov ph Sergei Trofimov m Yuri Potyeyenko pd Valery Viktorov, Mukhtar Mirzakeev, Nikolai Ryabtsev ed Dmitri Kiselev
☆ Konstantin Khabensky (Anton Gorodensky), Maria Poroshina (Svetlana), Vladimir Menshov (Geser), Viktor Verzhbitsky (Zavulon), Galina Tyunina (Olga), Dima Martinov (Egor)

'Operates according to the philosophy that more is better, be it in terms of design, camerawork, faster editing, or broader perfs.' – Leslie Felperin, Variety

† It was a sequel to Night Watch (qv).

The Day Will Dawn ★

GB 1942 98m bw
Niksos (Paul Soskin)

US title: The Avengers
Norwegian freedom fighters destroy a U-boat base and are saved by commandos.
Dated propaganda piece with an interesting cast.
w Terence Rattigan, Anatole de Grunwald, Patrick Kirwan d Harold French ph Bernard Knowles m Richard Addinsell
☆ Ralph Richardson, Deborah Kerr, Hugh Williams, Griffith Jones, Francis L. Sullivan, Roland Culver, Niall MacGinnis, Finlay Currie, Bernard Miles, Patricia Medina

Daybreak: see Le Jour Se Lève (1939)

'He's the kind of guy women fall for. She's the kind of girl men fall over. Is this any way to fall in love?'

Daydream Believer

Australia 1991 82m colour
Beyond/Ben Gannon

A scatterbrained actress with a fellow feeling for horses falls for a Cockney show-business entrepreneur with a stud farm.
Fluffy romantic comedy that is occasionally amusing but more often irritating, with its concentration on a charmless couple.
w Saturday Rosenberg d Kathy Mueller ph Andrew Lesnie m Todd Hunter, Johanna Pigott pd Roger Ford ed Robert Gibson
☆ Miranda Otto, Martin Kemp, Gia Carides, Anne Looby, Bruce Venables, Peter Hehir

Dayereh ★★★

Iran/Italy/Switzerland 2000 90m colour
Artificial Eye/Mikado/Lumiere/Jafar Panahi

aka: The Circle
In Teheran, women – from a mother distraught at having given birth to a girl, to prisoners on parole and a prostitute – attempt to cope in a society where men make the law.
Urgent , understated drama with a documentary feel: its considerable power derives from its matter-of-fact, non-histrionic approach.
w Kambozia Partovi d Jafar Panahi ph Bahram Badakhshani ad Iraj Raminfar ed Jafar Panahi ☆ Maryiam Parvin (Arezou), Nargess Mamizadeh (Nargess), Fereshteh Sadr Orafai (Pari), Monir Arab (Ticket seller), Elham Saboktakin (Nurse), Fatemeh Naghavi (Mother), Mojgan Faramarzi (Prostitute)

'Whatever its political significance, this is a dark, sustained, and wrenching film.' – J. Hoberman, Village Voice
'A compelling, humane and deeply serious film.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

† It won the Golden Lion at the Venice Film Festival in 2000.

'Hold Your Breath.'

Daylight

US 1996 115m DeLuxe
Universal/Davis Entertainment/Joseph M. Singer

A diverse group of people is trapped in Manhattan's Holland Tunnel.
Stolid and claustrophobic disaster movie, in which Stallone flexes his muscles to little effect.
w Leslie Bohem d Rob Cohen ph David Eggby m Randy Edelman pd Benjamin Fernandez ed Peter Amundson
☆ Sylvester Stallone, Amy Brenneman, Viggo Mortensen, Dan Hedaya, Jay O. Sanders, Karen Young, Claire Bloom

'Just too limited in scope, imagination and excitement.' – Variety

† The film cost more than $80m to make, and took around $33m at the US box-office and a further $111m worldwide.
sound effects editing

The Days

China 1993 80m bw
ICA/Yinxiang Dianying Gongzuoshi (Liu Jie, Zhang Hongtao)
original title: Dongchun De Rizi

Two thirtysomething art teachers, bored with life and each other, decide to part.

A doom-laden study of a dysfunctional couple in which the most interesting things happen off-screen and are described in a voice-over; its interest and novelty lie in the fact that it is the first Chinese film to show aimless characters, alienated from their society but too indifferent to what is happening to them to rebel.

wd Wang Xiaoshuai ph Liu Jie, Wu Di m Liang Heping ed Qingqing

☆ Yu Hong, Liu Xiadong

'The net impression is of inertia; the characters are bored with each other and we're bored with them.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent

† The film was made on a budget of $10,000 which the director raised from his friends and his savings.

Days and Nights in the Forest: see Aranyer Din Ratri

Days of Being Wild ★★

Hong Kong 1991 93m Agfacolor
Made in Hong Kong/In-Gear (Rover Tang)

original title: Ahfei Zhenjuang

In 1960, the lives of a womanizing playboy searching for his real mother, the abandoned girlfriend who pursues him, and a cop who realizes his ambition of becoming a sailor, cross in Hong Kong and Manila.

A stylish account of the disaffected and rootless young which eschews straightforward narrative for a more complex approach, strong on atmosphere and period re-creation.

wd Wong Kar-Wai ph Christopher Doyle pd William Chang ed Kai Kit-Wai

☆ Leslie Cheung, Maggie Cheung, Andy Lau, Carina Lau, Jacky Cheung, Rebecca Pan, Tony Leung

'As an existential account of solitary souls in random orbits, the film blows away the entire body of recent French "designer cinema". As a touchstone for Hong Kong's specific identity and psyche, it's close to sublime.' – Tony Rayns, Sight and Sound

† This version was the director's cut following the film's original release in 1990, when despite winning the Hong Kong Film Awards for best film, best director, best actor (Leslie Cheung) and best art direction, it flopped at the local box-office.

Days of Glory

US 1944 86m bw
RKO (Casey Robinson)

Russian peasants fight the invading Nazis.

Lower-berth wartime propaganda piece chiefly notable for introducing Gregory Peck to the screen.

w Casey Robinson story Melchior Lengyel d Jacques Tourneur ph Tony Gaudio m Daniele Amfitheatrof

☆ Tamara Toumanova, Gregory Peck, Alan Reed, Maria Palmer, Lowell Gilmore, Hugo Haas

'The true story of World War II's forgotten heroes.'

Days of Glory ★★★ (8)

France/Belgium/Morocco/Algeria 2006
123m
Metrodome/Tessalit (Jean Bréhat)

French/Belgian theatrical title: Indigènes

In 1943, four North African men enlist to join the French army and fight in World War II. But while in the military, they encounter racial discrimination.

It would work as a superior war movie, even without the intriguing additional subtext that its conscript heroes are marginalised within the ranks. A scene in which the quartet enter a deserted French village to keep a German assault at bay is in the tradition of great war films. But more memorable still is the interplay between the four men, with their prickly camaraderie. The irony of their loyalty to a country that despised them is a constant, niggling undercurrent in this outstanding drama.

w Olivier Lorelle, Rachid Bouchareb d Rachid Bouchareb ph Patrick Blossier m Armand Amar, Khaled pd Dominique Douret ad Thierry Flamand ed Yannick Kergoat

☆ Jamel Debbouze (Saïd), Samy Naceri (Yassir), Roschdy Zem (Messaoud), Sami Bouajila (Abdelkader)

'A passionate, historically important film.' – Jonathan Romney, Sight & Sound

'A movingly acted, terrifically old-fashioned World War II picture, re-thought as a post-colonial rebuke.' – Wesley Morris, Boston Globe

† At the 2006 Cannes Film Festival, the ensemble cast jointly received the Best Actor award.

†† After the film's release in France, legislation was passed to allow full pensions to surviving colonial war veterans.

foreign-language film (Algeria)

'Your eyes – your ears – your senses will be overwhelmed!'

Days of Heaven ★★★★

US 1978 95m Metrocolor
Paramount/OP (Bert and Harold Schneider)

In the early 20th century, three young immigrants leave Chicago for the wheatfields.

Visually a superb slice of period life, it has an emotional force that emerges slowly from the conjunction of the vast landscape and its reticent intruders, who have fled from the dark of the city to find no peace in the country.

wd Terrence Malick ph Nestor Almendros m Ennio Morricone ad Jack Fisk ed Billy Weber

☆ Richard Gere (Bill), Brooke Adams (Abby), Sam Shepard (The Farmer), Linda Manz (Linda), Robert Wilke (Farm Foreman), Jackie Shultis (Linda's Friend), Stuart Margolin (Mill Foreman)

'It's serious, yes, very solemn, but not depressing.' – Roger Ebert

'Superbly directed and acted; see it for a second time and its hold is still more relentless.' – Dilys Powell, Punch

'One of the great cinematic achievements of the 1970s.' – Variety

'Terrence Malick's innocently convoluted parable of love lost and found, and reconciliation achieved and then fatally broken, is superbly counterpointed, thanks to Nestor Almendros' photography, by the burgeoning expansiveness of Texas during the First War.' – Sight and Sound

Nestor Almendros
Ennio Morricone
Ennio Morricone

Days of Hope: see Espoir

Days of Thrills and Laughter ★★★

US 1961 93m bw
TCF (Robert Youngson)

Appealing if rather miscellaneous silent film compilation with the accent on action and thrills as well as comedy.

Like the other Youngson histories, a boon to film archivists despite a facetious commentary.

m Jack Shaindlin narrator Jay Jackson

☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Snub Pollard, Douglas Fairbanks, Charles Chaplin, Pearl White, Houdini, Harry Langdon, Ben Turpin, Charlie Chase, Boris Karloff, Warner Oland, Fatty Arbuckle, Keystone Kops

Days of Thunder

US 1990 107m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount (Don Simpson, Jerry Bruckheimer)

An eager young stock car driver challenges the champion. Guess who wins?

An over-familiar story rendered no more interestingly than usual. Despite its star, it flopped at the box-office.

w Robert Towne story Robert Towne, Tom Cruise d Tony Scott ph Ward Russell m Hans Zimmer ad Benjamin Fernandez, Thomas E. Sanders ed Billy Weber, Chris Lebenzon

☆ Tom Cruise, Robert Duvall, Nicole Kidman, Randy Quaid, Michael Rooker, Cary Elwes, Fred Dalton Thompson, John C. Reilly, J. C. Quinn, Don Simpson

'Simply a flashy, noisy star vehicle for Tom Cruise, one which – like the stock cars he drives – goes around in circles getting nowhere.' – MFB

'They Will Let Him Up Soon And He Will Look For His Wife And He May Pray That He Doesn't Find Her...'

Days of Wine and Roses ★★

US 1962 117m bw
Warner (Martin Manulis)

A PR man becomes an alcoholic; his wife gradually reaches the same state, but he recovers and she does not.

Smart satirical comedy confusingly gives way to melodrama, then sentimentality; quality is evident throughout, but all concerned are happiest with the first hour.

w J. P. Miller d Blake Edwards ph Philip Lathrop m Henry Mancini

☆ Jack Lemmon, Lee Remick, Charles Bickford, Jack Klugman, Alan Hewitt, Debbie Megowan, Jack Albertson

'The film fails. The fault is not an upbeat ending, but the mere fact that there is any ending at all. The ending, here, denatures the alcoholism, turning it from grim reality to dramatic device, and escaping from the battle of the bottle into a more manageable battle of the sexes.' – Newsweek

title song (m Henry Mancini, ly Johnny Mercer)

Jack Lemmon; Lee Remick

A Day's Pleasure ★

US 1919 20m bw silent
First National/Charles Chaplin

Mishaps of a family picnic.

Very mild Chaplin, reaching for but not achieving a kind of lyric quality. Amusing bits rather than scenes.

wd Charles Chaplin ph Rollie Totheroh

☆ Charles Chaplin, Edna Purviance, Jackie Coogan, Henry Bergman, Babe London

Daytime Wife

US 1939 71m bw
TCF

A young wife finds that her husband is still dating his secretary, and retaliates by dating his colleague.

Hollywood version of a French farce; not terrific, but watchable.

w Art Arthur, Robert Harari d Gregory Ratoff

☆ Tyrone Power, Linda Darnell, Warren William, Binnie Barnes, Wendy Barrie, Joan Davis, Leonid Kinskey

'Will give a good account of itself in the key runs.' – Variety

Dayton's Devils

US 1968 103m Eastmancolor
Madison/Harold Goldman (Robert W. Stabler)

A former USAF colonel assembles a group of misfits and adventurers to steal an army payroll.

Overlong, routine caper film with a surprisingly crisp climax (when it comes).

w Fred de Gorter d Jack Shea ph Brick Marquard m Marlin Skiles

☆ Leslie Nielsen, Rory Calhoun, Lainie Kazan, Hans Gudegast

'What a day. What a trip.'

The Daytrippers ★★

US 1996 87m colour
Metrodome/Fiasco/Trick Films (Nancy Tenenbaum, Steven Soderbergh)

The adventures of a wronged wife and her family as she drives from Long Island to confront her husband in Manhattan.

Clever road movie, which wittily dissects troubled relationships.

wd Greg Mottola ph John Inwood m Richard Martinez pd Bonnie J. Brinkley ed Anne McCabe

☆ Hope Davis, Pat McNamara, Anne Meara, Parker Posey, Liev Schreiber, Stanley Tucci, Campbell Scott, Marcia Gay Harden, Andy Brown

'Has more wit than countless studio movies.' – Sunday Times

Dazed and Confused ★★

US 1993 102m DeLuxe
Feature/Universal/Gramercy/Alphaville (James Jacks, Sean Daniel, Richard Linklater)

In 1976, a group of high school students celebrate their last day by victimizing younger kids.

Enjoyable and truthful comedy of adolescents trying to avoid facing up to the inevitable future.

wd Richard Linklater ph Lee Daniel pd John Frick ed Sandra Adair

☆ Jason London, Wiley Wiggins, Milla Jovovich, Rory Cochrane, Shawn Andrews, Adam Goldberg, Anthony Rapp, Sasha Jenson, Matthew McConaughey, Ben Affleck

'A very clever piece of retro 70s anti-nostalgia which scrupulously avoids sentimentality. It just wants to tell us how genuinely strange the 70s were.' – Steve Beard, Empire

De Battre Mon Coeur S'est Arrêté: see The Beat That My Heart Skipped

De eso no se habla: see We Don't Want to Talk about It

'He made evil an art, vice a virtue and pain a pleasure!'

De Sade ★

US/Germany 1969 113m Movielab
AIP/CCC/Transcontinental (Louis M. Heyward, Artur Brauner)

The unbalanced Marquis de Sade is tormented by his wicked uncle with thoughts of his past.

Mildly interesting attempt by AIP at European debauchery, with a good theatrical framework for the fantasies but too much flailing about by all concerned, especially in the slow motion orgy sequences, which are relentlessly boring, as is the film.

w Richard Matheson d Cy Endfield ph Heinz Pehlke m Billy Strange ad Jurgen Kiebach

☆ Keir Dullea, John Huston, Lilli Palmer, Senta Berger, Anna Massey, Uta Levka

'A love that would never die and music that would live forever.'

De-Lovely

US 2004 125m DeLuxe Panav ision
MGM (Irwin Winkler, Rob Cowan, Charles Winkler)

An elderly Cole Porter watches and comments upon a play based on his life and times as a Broadway composer.

Though more honest about Porter's homosexuality, it is less successful than Night and Day, Hollywood's previous attempt to do justice to Porter's talents and uncomfortable life. It is no help to have many of his songs performed by modern singers unsuited to his particular wit and sophistication.

w Jay Cocks d Irwin Winkler ph Tony Pierce-Roberts m/ly Cole Porter pd Eve Stewart ed Julie Monroe

☆ Kevin Kline (Cole Porter), Ashley Judd (Linda Porter), Jonathan Pryce (Gabe), Kevin McNally (Gerald Murphy), Allan Corduner (Monty Woolley), Sandra Nelson (Sara Murphy), Keith Allen (Irving Berlin), James Wilby (Edward Thomas), Kevin McKidd (Bobby Reed), Peter Polycarpou (L.B. Mayer)

'Something dishy and rare: a biopic about a happy, and even enchanted, man.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

'Lifeless and drained of genuine joie de vivre.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

The Dead ★★★★

GB 1987 83m Foto-Kem
Vestron/Zenith/Liffey Films (Wieland Schulz-Keil, Chris Sievernich)

Two Irish spinster sisters throw a winter dinner for their relatives and friends.

Its director's last film is a warm and somehow invigorating reminiscence of things past.

w Tony Huston book Dubliners by James Joyce d John Huston ph Fred Murphy m Alex North pd Stephen Grimes, Dennis Washington ed Roberto Silvi cos Dorothy Jeakins

☆ Anjelica Huston (Gretta Conroy), Donal McCann (Gabriel Conroy), Rachel Dowling (Lily), Cathleen Delany (Aunt Julia Morkan), Dan O'Herlihy (Mr. Browne), Helena Carroll (Aunt Kate Morkan), Donal Donnelly (Freddy Malins)

'A delicate coda in a minor key to an illustrious 46-year career.' – Daily Variety

'A small masterpiece, perfectly achieved.' – Time Out

♗ best adapted screenplay; Dorothy Jeakins

'How many times can you die for love?'

Dead Again ★

US 1991 108m Technicolor/bw
UIP/Paramount/Mirage (Lindsay Doran, Charles H. Maguire)

A private detective is hired to investigate an amnesiac who can only remember a past life as a concert pianist murdered by her husband.

Tricksy thriller, switching between past and present, which is frequently too clever for its own good.

w Scott Frank d Kenneth Branagh ph Matthew F. Leonetti m Patrick Doyle pd Tim Hervey ed Peter E. Berger

☆ Kenneth Branagh, Emma Thompson, Andy Garcia, Derek Jacobi, Robin Williams, Wayne Knight, Hanna Schygulla

'Briskly entertaining enough to generate mostly positive word of mouth among mature audiences.' – Variety

'A monstrous cinematic folly.' – Geoff Brown, Sight and Sound

Dead Alive: see Braindead

Dead and Buried

US 1981 95m colour
GTO/Avco Embassy (Ronald Shusett, Robert Fentress)

A sheriff investigates killings in a small town where the locals are not what they seem.

Cheap horror movie along familiar and predictable lines.

w Ronald Shusett, Dan O'Bannon story Jeff Millar, Alex Stern d Gary A. Sherman ph Steve Poster m Joe Renzetti ad Bill Sandell, Joe Aubel ed Alan Balsam

☆ James Farentino, Melody Anderson, Jack Albertson, Dennis Redfield, Nancy Locke Hauser, Lisa Blount, Robert Englund, Bill Quinn

'The gratuitously explicit death-dealing mounts up, the reductive echoes of superior ventures into similar territory grow stronger, and it all peters out in a welter of speciously manufactured hysteria.' – Tim Pulleine, MFB

The Dead and the Deadly ★★

Hong Kong 1982 95m colour 'Scope
Raymond Chow
original title: Ren Xia Ren

Murdered by his greedy colleagues after faking his own death to inherit a fortune, a wastrel returns as a ghost to seek his revenge.

Engaging black kung-fu comedy in which the humour and the conventions of the spirit world are more accessible than usual to Western audiences.

w Sammo Hung, Barry Wong d Wu Ma

☆ Sammo Hung, Wu Ma, Lam Ching-ying, Cherie Chung, Chung Fat

Dead Babies

GB 2001 101m DeLuxe Panavision
Redbus/Gruber/Civilian Content/Outer Edge (Richard Holmes, Neil Peplow)

A group of British and American friends spend a drug-fuelled weekend at a country house, where they are threatened with death by an anarchist gang.

Amis's novel of the mid-70s has been updated here, without gaining either topicality or relevance; the tone suggests the unlovely excesses of the Swinging Sixties cycle of bad British movies.

wd William Marsh novel Martin Amis ph Daniel Cohen m Mark Pember, Marvin Beaver pd Mark Tanner ed Eddie Hamilton

☆ Paul Bettany (Quentin), Katy Carmichael (Lucy), Hayley Carr (Roxanne), Charlie Condou (Giles Coldstream), Alexandra Gilbreath (Celia), William Marsh (Marvell), Kris Marshall (Skip), Andy Nyman (Keith), Cristian Solimeno (Andy), Olivia Williams (Diana)

'A wannabe black comedy with a handful of grotesque laughs amid an ocean of clumsy misfires.' – Derek Elley, Variety

† The film was made in 1999.

Dead Calm ★

Australia 1988 96m colour Panavision
Warner/Kennedy Miller Productions (Terry Hayes, Doug Mitchell, George Miller)

A couple bring a dangerous stranger aboard their yacht.

Effectively suspenseful.

w Terry Hayes novel Charles Williams d Phillip Noyce ph Dean Semler m Graeme Revell pd Graham 'Grace' Walker ed Richard Francis-Bruce

☆ Nicole Kidman, Sam Neill, Billy Zane, Rod Mulliner, Joshua Tilden, George Shevtsov, Michael Long

The Dead Can't Lie

US 1988 97m colour
Cannon/Showtime (David Latt)

A private eye is hired to prevent a millionaire being harassed by his dead wife.

Silly supernatural thriller, dead from the neck up.

wd Lloyd Fonvielle ph Michael Chapman m George Clinton pd Carol Spier ed Evan Lottman

☆ Tommy Lee Jones, Virginia Madsen, Colin Bruce, Kevin Jarre, Frederic Forrest

Dead Cert

GB 1974 99m DeLuxe
UA/Woodfall (Neil Hartley)

A gentleman jockey investigates the death of his friend, a horse owner and fellow amateur rider, during a steeplechase.

Dull and implausible thriller, not helped by its uncharismatic hero, though the climax, at the Grand National, generates a little excitement.

w Tony Richardson, John Oaksey novel Dick Francis d Tony Richardson ph Freddie Cooper m John Addison ad David Brockhurst ed John Glen

☆ Scott Anthony, Judi Dench, Michael Williams, Nina Thomas, Julian Glover, Mark Dignam, John Bindon, Ian Hogg, Bill Fraser

'Unfortunately, wonderful reads don't necessarily make wonderful scripts.' – Tony Richardson

The Dead Don't Dream

US 1947 62m bw
UA/Hopalong Cassidy Productions (Lewis J. Rachmil)

Hoppy goes to be best man at a wedding and instead solves the mystery of multiple murders at an inn.

Slow-paced, amiable but unremarkable Western with the emphasis on detection.

w Francis Rosenwald d George Archainbaud ph Mack Stengler m Darrell Calker ad Jerome Pycha Jnr ed Fred W. Berger

☆ William Boyd, Andy Clyde, Rand Brooks, John Parrish, Leonard Penn, Mary Tucker

'You may not like these people, nor pity them, but you'll never forget this picture!'

Dead End ★★★

US 1937 92m bw
Samuel Goldwyn

A slice of life in New York's east side, where slum kids and gangsters live in a river street next to a luxury apartment block.

Highly theatrical film of a highly theatrical play, more or less preserving the single set and overcoming the limitations of the script and setting by sheer cinematic expertise. It is chiefly remembered, however, for introducing the Dead End Kids to a delighted world.

w Lillian Hellman play Sidney Kingsley d William Wyler ph Gregg Toland m Alfred Newman ad Richard Day ed Daniel Mandell

☆ Joel McCrea (Dave), Sylvia Sidney (Drina), Humphrey Bogart (Baby Face Martin), Wendy Barrie (Kay), Claire Trevor (Francie), Allen Jenkins (Hunk), Marjorie Main (Mrs. Martin), James Burke (Mulligan), Ward Bond (Doorman), The Dead End Kids (Billy Halop, Leo Gorcey, Bernard Punsley, Huntz Hall, Bobby Jordan, Gabriel Dell)

'Tense and accurate transcription, but sordid and depressing ... in for a disappointing career.' – Variety

♗ best picture; Gregg Toland; Claire Trevor; Richard Day

Dead End ★★

France/US 2003 83m DeLuxe
Pathé/Captain Movies/Sagittaire (James Huth, Gabriella Stollenwerck)

On Christmas Eve, a car accident strands a bickering family on an unknown road with a mysterious lady in white.

Low budget horror that makes the most of its limitations; it delivers the requisite shocks with a black, comic touch.

w Jean-Baptiste Andrea, Fabrice Canepa, Billy Asher d Jean-Baptiste Andrea, Fabrice Canepa ph Alexander Buono m Greg De Belles pd Bryce Holtshousen ed Antoine Vareille

☆ Ray Wise (Frank), Alexandra Holden (Marion), Lin Shaye (Laura), Mick Cain (Richard), Billy Asher (Brad), Amber Smith (Lady in white), Steve Valentine (Man in black), Karen S. Gregan (Doctor)

'Most horror fans will guess where it's all leading, but the acting is pretty good and the tension fairly well sustained.' – Philip French, Observer

The Dead End Kids

The films in which the original gang of young 'hooligans' (see above) appeared were as follows:

1937 Dead End
1938 Crime School, Angels with Dirty Faces
1939 They Made Me a Criminal, Hell's Kitchen, Angels Wash Their Faces, On Dress Parade

Subsequently they broke up into the LITTLE TOUGH GUYS, the EAST SIDE KIDS, and the BOWERY BOYS (all qv).

Dead Fire

Canada/Czechoslovakia 1996 96m colour
North American/Do or Die (Lloyd A. Simandl)

In 2060 AD, after the world has been laid waste, a maverick security man on an orbiting space station is the only person who can defeat a criminal conspiracy to rule the future.

Cliché-ridden science fiction, with risible hard-boiled dialogue ('You've got big balls, Brody. I'll give you that. But you just tripped over them for the last time.') and performances to match.

w Christopher Hyde, Andrew McEvoy, Nicholas Racz d Robert Lee ph Dave Pelletier m Peter Allen ed Richard Benwick

☆ Matt Frewer, C. Thomas Howell, Colin Cunningham, Monika Schnarre, Rachel Hayward, Robert Russel, Jim Thorburn, Lucie Zednickova, Gerard Whelan

Dead Heart ★

Australia 1996 103m colour
AFFC/New Town (Bryan Brown, Helen Watts)

A police constable in an isolated aboriginal community finds himself caught between upholding the law and conforming to the demands of tribal custom.
Interesting but muddled drama of a clash between cultures and between attitudes within cultures; it just fails to cohere into a satisfying experience.
wd Nick Parsons ph James Bartle
m Stephen Rae pd Brian Edmonds
ed Henry Dangar
☆ Bryan Brown, Ernie Dingo, Angie Milliken, Gnarnayarrahe Waitaire, Aaron Pedersen, John Jarratt, Lewis Fitz-Gerald, Anne Tenney, Lafe Charlton, David Gulpilil

Dead Heat

US 1988 83m Technicolor
Entertainment/New World Pictures (Michael Meltzer, David Helpern)

Two zombie cops track down their killer.
Asinine comic combination of DOA and The Night of the Living Dead.
w Terry Black d Mark Goldblatt
ph Robert D. Yeoman m Ernest Troost
pd Craig Stearns ed Harvey Rosenstock ☆ Treat Williams, Joe Piscopo, Lindsay Frost, Darren McGavin, Vincent Price, Clare Kirkconnell, Keye Luke, Ben Mittleman

Dead Heat on a Merry Go Round

US 1967 108m Technicolor
Columbia (Carter de Haven)

An ex-con breaks parole and plans to rob Los Angeles Airport.
Boringly arty caper comedy-melodrama, concentrating less on the robbery than on its hero's sexual prowess. All very superficially flashy, and what the title means is anybody's guess.
wd Bernard Girard ph Lionel Lindon
m Stu Phillips
☆ James Coburn, Camilla Sparv, Aldo Ray, Nina Wayne, Robert Webber, Rose Marie, Todd Armstrong, Marian Moses, Severn Darden

'Just fills the space between a frisky title and a tricky TV-comedy ending, but doesn't fill it with any revels that require a viewer's complete attention.' – Time

Dead Image: see Dead Ringer

Dead Innocent

Canada 1996 92m colour
Blackwatch/Mariani (Michael Doherty, William R. Mariani)

A workaholic lawyer returns home late to discover her maid and daughter murdered.
A thriller that sets up an intriguing situation, but then fails to develop it satisfactorily.
w Dolores Payne, Mort Pattigo d Sarah Botsford ph Rodney Gibbons m David Findlay pd Donna Noonan ed Michael Doherty ☆ Genevieve Bujold, Nancy Beatty, Graham Greene, Emily Hampshire, Jonathan Scarfe, Neil Kroetsch, Benz Antoine

Dead Letter Office

Australia 1998 95m colour
BBC/AFFC/Artist Services/Film Victoria (Denise Patience)

Impelled by memories of her father, who left home when she was small, a young woman gets a job at the dead letter office, where she forms an uneasy relationship with her boss, a Chilean émigré.
Muted, elegiac movie about loss, given to over-heavy symbolism.
w Deb Cox d John Ruane ph Ellery Ryan
m Roger Mason pd Chris Kennedy
ed Denise Haratzis
☆ Miranda Otto, George DelHoyo, Nicholas Bell, Syd Brisbane, Georgina Naidu, Jane Hall, Barry Otto

'No One Can Survive Becoming A Legend.'

Dead Man ★★

US/Germany 1996 121m bw
Electric/12-Gauge/Pandora (Demetra J. MacBride)

An unemployed accountant goes into the lawless West and becomes a hunted man and a killer.
Enjoyable existential Western, slow-moving but providing an interesting and eccentric ride on the trail from civilization to savagery.
wd Jim Jarmusch ph Robby Müller
m Neil Young pd Robert Ziembicki
ed Jay Rabinowitz
☆ Johnny Depp, Gary Farmer, Lance Henriksen, Robert Mitchum, Crispin Glover, Gabriel Byrne, John Hurt, Alfred Molina, Michael Wincott, Mili Avital, Iggy Pop, Jared Harris, Billy Bob Thornton

'Only a few script drafts or some ruthless re-editing away from being rather good.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

'The Drop-Dead Funniest Movie Of The Decade!'

Dead Man on Campus

US 1998 93m colour
Paramount/MTV/Pacific Western (Gale Anne Hurd)

Two partying medical students, on the verge of being expelled, discover that they will be awarded perfect grades if a room-mate commits suicide, and go in search of a suitable candidate.
Limp comedy that is too eager not to offend, and so fails to come to terms with its subject-matter.
w Michael Traeger, Mike White story Anthony Abrams, Adam Larson Broder d Alan Cohn ph John Thomas
m Mark Mothersbaugh pd Carol Winstead Wood ed Debra Chiate
☆ Tom Everett Scott, Mark-Paul Gosselaar, Poppy Montgomery, Lochlyn Munro, Randy Pearlstein, Corey Page, Alyson Hannigan, Mari Morrow, Dave Ruby

'A modestly amusing trifle that merits a passing grade as lightweight entertainment.' – Joe Leydon, Variety
† A similar starting point was used in the movie Dead Man's Curve (qv).

Dead Man Walking ★★

US 1995 122m DuArt
Polygram/Working Title/Havoc (John Kilik, Tim Robbins, Rudd Simmons)

A murderer on Death Row repents of his crime after visits from a Catholic nun.
A tense and gripping meditation on death and the taking of lives, handled with sensitivity and an avoidance of sensationalism.
wd Tim Robbins book Sister Helen Prejean
ph Roger A. Deakins m David Robbins
pd Richard Hoover ed Lisa Zeno Churgin
☆ Susan Sarandon, Sean Penn, Robert Prosky, Raymond J. Barry, R. Lee Ermey, Celia Weston, Lois Smith, Scott Wilson

'As drama, Dead Man Walking is dead on its feet.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times
'A film that carefully eschews the usual Hollywood sentimentality.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
Susan Sarandon
Sean Penn; song 'Dead Man Walking' (m/ly Bruce Springsteen)

'Even the bravest men fall.'

Dead Man's Cards ⑤

UK 2006 91m
Showbox Media Group/Stray Dogs Films/Aces & Eights (Matthew Whyte, James Marquand, Sigvaldi J Karason)

A retired boxer becomes a bouncer at a rundown Liverpool club, and gets sucked into the criminal underworld.
Over-plotted thriller with a good ear for dialogue but only a tenuous connection to reality.
w James McMartin, James Marquand
d James Marquand ph Matthew Whyte
m Bernd Rest pd Daniel Newton
ed Sigvaldi J Karason
☆ Paul Barber (Paul), Tom Bell (Billy the Cowboy), Samantha Janus (Kris), Gary Mavers (Bob), James McMartin (Tom), Andrew Schofield (Hawk)

'Definitely a bit grittier than the average British gangster flick.' – Kim Newman, Empire † Tom Bell's last film.

Dead Man's Curve

US 1998 90m colour
Hope Street Entertainment/Mount Royal (Michael Amato, Theodore Schipper, Jeremy Lew)

Two college students discover that they can get a perfect grade if their room-mate kills himself; so they decide to murder him and make it look like suicide.
Black thriller on the theme that winners take all; but there is an unpleasant, gloating tone to it, and its twists are predictable.
wd Dan Rosen ph Joey Forstyte m Shark
pd Robert Harbour ed William Mercer
☆ Matthew Lillard, Michael Vartan, Randall Batinkoff, Keri Russell, Tamara Craig Thomas, Anthony Griffin, Bo Dietle, Kevin Huff, Henry Strozier, Dana Delany

'Isn't clever enough to hit the mark as an intended diabolical black comedy.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety
† A similar plot device was used in the comedy Dead Man on Campus (qv).

Dead Man's Eyes

US 1944 64m bw
Universal

In order to trap a murderer, a blind artist pretends to have recovered his sight.
Cheerless lower-case thriller from the disappointing Inner Sanctum series.
w Dwight V. Babcock d Reginald LeBorg ph Paul Ivano md Paul Sawtell ad John B. Goodman, Martin Obzina ed Milton Carruth
☆ Lon Chaney Jnr, Jean Parker, Paul Kelly, Thomas Gomez, Jonathan Hale, Edward Fielding, George Meeker, Acquanetta

Dead Man's Shoes

GB 1939 67m bw
Associated British (Walter Mycroft)

A wealthy Paris manufacturer is accused of being a criminal who once disappeared.
Sufficiently absorbing courtroom/amnesia melodrama, with British actors in a French setting.
w Hans Kafka, Nina Jarvis d Thomas Bentley ph Gunther Krampf ad Ian White
ed Monica Kimmick
☆ Leslie Banks, Joan Marion, Geoffrey Atkins, Wilfrid Lawson, Judy Kelly, Nancy Price, Peter Bull, Walter Hudd, Ludwig Stossel

'Goes straight into tense situations, and there are unexpected twists ... should do well.' – Variety

'He's in all of us.'

Dead Man's Shoes ★

GB 2004 86m bw/colour
Optimum/Film Four/Emmi/Warp/Big Arty (Mark Herbert)

A soldier returns to his Midlands hometown to take revenge on the petty crooks who bullied his mentally handicapped brother and drove him to suicide.
Slow-paced drama, set in shabby suburbia and grubby rooms; there's a fault at its heart: the villains are so limited in their pleasures and aspirations that a more satisfying revenge would have been to allow them to continue with their squalid lives.
w Paddy Considine, Shane Meadows, Paul Fraser & Shane Meadows ph Daniel Cohen m Arvo Part et al ad Adam Tomlinson ed Chris Wyatt, Lucas Roche, Celia Haining
☆ Paddy Considine (Richard), Gary Stretch (Sonny), Toby Kebbell (Anthony), Stuart Wolfenden (Horbie), Neil Bell (Soz), Paul Sadot (Tuff), Jo Hartley (Marie), Seamus O'Neill (Big Al)

'Disturbing, uncompromising and completely gripping.' – Empire
'May click with his small coterie of fest fans but is dead meat in theatrical abattoirs.' – Variety

Dead Men Don't Die

US 1991 94m colour
Trans Atlantic/Waymar (Wayne Marmorstein)

After he is killed by drug dealers, a TV newscaster is brought back to life as a zombie.
Terrible, heavy-handed comedy, stuffed with ham acting.
☆ Elliott Gould, Melissa Anderson, Mark Moses, Mabel King, Philip Bruns, Jack Betts, Robert Dryer, Robert Covarrubias, Phil Shipko

Dead Men Don't Wear Plaid ★

US 1982 88m bw
Universal/Aspen Film Society (David V. Picker, William E. McEuen)

A private eye is hired by a beautiful girl to find her father's murderer.
Ingenious but overstretched prank in which the hero apparently (by intercutting) gets involved with famous crime stars of the forties: Bogart, Ladd, Bacall, Stanwyck, etc. The basic script is simply not funny enough to support the superstructure, though the selection of lines from the oldies is often ingenious.
w Carl Reiner, George Gipe, Steve Martin
d Carl Reiner ph Michael Chapman
m Miklos Rozsa pd John DeCuir ed Bud Molin
☆ Steve Martin, Rachel Ward, Carl Reiner, Reni Santoni

'The content is undergraduate facetiousness at its worst, but at least the excerpts themselves provide a pleasant noir anthology.' – Sight and Sound

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Dead Men Tell No Tales

GB 1938 80m bw
British National (John Corfield)
The matron of a school for boys is murdered after winning a lottery.
Reasonably intriguing mystery.
w Walter Summers, Stafford Dickens, Emlyn Williams novel The Norwich Victims by Francis Beeding d David MacDonald ph Bryan Langley md W. L. Trytel ed James Corbett ☆ Emlyn Williams, Hugh Williams, Marius Goring, Lesley Brook, Sara Seegar

Dead Men Walk

US 1943 64m bw
PRC
A vampire returns from death to destroy his twin brother.
Incompetent chiller partly sustained by its star performance.
w Fred Myton d Sam Newfield
☆ George Zucco, Mary Carlisle

Dead of Night: see Lighthouse

'Like Nothing In This World You've Ever Thrilled To Before.'

Dead of Night ★★★★

GB 1945 104m bw
Ealing (Sidney Cole, John Croydon)
An architect is caught up in an endless series of recurring dreams, during which he is told other people's supernatural experiences and finally murders the psychiatrist who is trying to help him.
Chillingly successful and influential compendium of the macabre, especially effective in its low-key handling of the linking sequence with its circular ending.
w John Baines, Angus MacPhail, based on stories by themselves, H. G. Wells, E. F. Benson d Alberto Cavalcanti, Charles Crichton, Robert Hamer, Basil Dearden ph Douglas Slocombe, Stan Pavey m Georges Auric ad Michael Relph ed Charles Hasse
☆ Mervyn Johns (Walter Craig), Roland Culver (Eliot Foley), Mary Merrall (Mrs. Foley), Judy Kelly (Joyce Grainger), Anthony Baird (Hugh Grainger), Sally Ann Howes (Sally O'Hara), Frederick Valk (Dr. Van Straaten), Googie Withers (Joan Courtland), Ralph Michael (Peter Courtland), Esmé Percy (Dealer), Basil Radford (George Parratt), Naunton Wayne (Larry Potter), Miles Malleson (Hearse Driver), Michael Redgrave (Maxwell Frere), Hartley Power (Sylvester Kee) and also Elizabeth Welch
'In a nightmare within a nightmare are contained five separate ghost stories … they have atmosphere and polish, they are eerie, they are well acted.' – Richard Winnington
'One of the most successful blends of laughter, terror and outrage that I can remember.' – James Agee
'The five ghost stories accumulate in intensity until the trap closes in the surrealist climax.' – Pauline Kael, 1968
† Region 1 DVD is only available in a two-disc set with The Queen of Spades and has no extras. The Region 2 DVD is available only as part of a four film box set Ealing Classics; it has no extras.

Dead of Winter

US 1986 100m Metrocolor
UIP/MGM-UA (John Bloomgarden, Marc Shmuger)
An actress finds herself cast for a role which involves her being trapped in a country house with two villains.
Oddball suspenser with talent which seems to have expected something better.
w Marc Shmuger, Mark Malone d Arthur Penn ph Jan Weincke m Richard Einhorn pd Bill Brodie ed Rick Shaine
☆ Mary Steenburgen, Roddy McDowall, Jan Rubes, William Russ

Dead on Sight

US 1994 96m Foto-Kem
MCEG Sterling (Roxanne Messina Captor)
A university professor, trying to find the serial killer who murdered his wife, enlists the aid of a student who sees future murders in her dreams.
Extremely dull and silly thriller, remarkable only for its lack of suspense.
w Lewis Green d Ruben Preuss ph Levie Isaacks m Harry Manfredini pd Jo-Ann Chorney ed David Kern
☆ Jennifer Beals, Daniel Baldwin, Kurtwood Smith, William H. Macy, Kent Williams, Ed Beechner

Dead or Alive

Italy/US 1967 89m Eastmancolor
Documento/Selmur (Albert Band)
US title: A Minute to Pray, a Second to Die
A gunman with a paralysed right arm helps a state governor rid a town of bandits.
Semi-spaghetti Western with a strong cast and violent action scenes.
w Ugo Liberatore, Louis Garfinkle d Franco Giraldi ph Aiace Parolin m Carlo Rustichelli
☆ Robert Ryan, Arthur Kennedy, Alex Cord, Nicoletta Machiavelli

Dead or Alive: Hanzaisha

Japan 1999 105m colour
Daiei Co./Toei Video (Katsumi Ono, Makoto Okada, Toshiki Kimura)
A tough cop with problems becomes involved with a tougher gangster who is trying to take over the drug trade.
Delirious frenetic thriller, violent and frequently unpleasant, with a joke ending; it will no doubt become a cult film.
w Ichiro Ryu d Takashi Miike ph Hideo Yamamoto m Kouji Endou ad Akira Ishige ed Taiji Shimamura
☆ Riki Takeuchi (Ryuuichi), Show Aikawa (Detective Jojima), Renji Ishibashi (Aoki), Hitoshi Ozawa (Satake), Shingo Turumi (Chen), Kaoru Sugita (Mrs Jojima)
'Adrenaline-charged, anarchic thriller with more flash than finesse.' – David Rooney, Variety
'A soulless compilation of thrills. It may raise the temperature of cynical teenage boys, for whom it seems to have been made.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

Dead Pigeon on Beethoven Street

West Germany 1972 103m DeLuxe
Bavaria Atelier
An American private eye is shot dead in Germany by an international extortion gang, and his partner arrives to seek revenge.
Cheapskate thriller of interest only to addicts of the director.
wd Samuel Fuller
☆ Glenn Corbett, Christa Lang, Anton Diffring

Dead Poets Society ★★

US 1989 129m Metrocolor
Warner/Touchstone/Silver Screen Partners IV/Witt-Thomas Productions (Steven Haft, Paul Junger Witt, Tony Thomas)
A new English teacher subverts tradition by encouraging his students to enjoy life.
Heartfelt, but a little too manipulative to be totally successful.
w Tom Schulman d Peter Weir ph John Seale m Maurice Jarre pd Wendy Stites ed William Anderson, Lee Smith, Priscilla Nedd
☆ Robin Williams, Robert Sean Leonard, Ethan Hawke, Josh Charles, Gale Hansen, Dylan Kussman, Allelon Ruggiero, James Waterston, Norman Lloyd Tom Schulman best picture; Robin Williams; Peter Weir best picture; Maurice Jarre

The Dead Pool

US 1988 91m Technicolor
Warner/Malpaso (David Valdes)
Inspector Callahan investigates a murder and the game of Dead Pool, in which people bet on certain celebrities dying within a specified time.
Fifth and worst in the series involving a tough cop that began with Dirty Harry.
w Steve Sharon story Steve Sharon, Durk Pearson, Sandy Shaw d Buddy Van Horn ph Jack N. Green m Lalo Schifrin pd Edward C. Carfagno ed Ron Spang
☆ Clint Eastwood, Patricia Clarkson, Liam Neeson, Evan C. Kim, David Hunt, Michael Currie, Michael Goodwin, Darwin Gillett, Anthony Charnota

Dead Presidents ★

US 1995 119m Technicolor Super 35
Buena Vista/Hollywood/Caravan/Underworld (Allen Hughes, Albert Hughes)
After serving in Vietnam, a black man turns to crime to support himself, his girlfriend and child.
Downbeat thriller that struggles to marry social comment with the familiar form of a gangster movie; the union is not a happy one.
w Michael Henry Brown story Specialist No. 4 Haywood T. 'The Kid' Kirkland by Wallace Terry d Allen Hughes, Albert Hughes ph Lisa Rinzler m Danny Elfman pd David Brisbin ed Dan Lebental
☆ Larenz Tate, Keith David, Chris Tucker, Freddy Rodriguez, Rose Jackson, N'Bushe Wright, Bokeem Woodbine, Martin Sheen (uncredited)
'The outlook is bleak, the pessimism and the fatalism show that political consciousness without social outlets only leads to blanket nihilism.' – Alexander Walker

Dead Reckoning ★

US 1947 100m bw
Columbia (Sidney Biddell)
Two war veterans are on their way to be decorated in Washington when one disappears.
Dour, complexly plotted thriller, a typical Hollywood film noir of the post-war years but a long way behind Gilda in likeability. The hero confesses the plot to a priest, and all the way it is more glum than fun.
w Oliver H. P. Garrett, Steve Fisher d John Cromwell ph Leo Tover m Marlin Skiles md Morris Stoloff
☆ Humphrey Bogart, Lizabeth Scott, Morris Carnovsky, Charles Cane, William Prince, Marvin Miller, Wallace Ford, James Bell
'The atmosphere is fraught with sinister suggestion.' – Sunday Express

Dead Ringer ★

US 1964 116m bw
Warner (William H. Wright)
GB title: Dead Image
A woman shoots her rich twin sister and assumes her identity.
High camp star vehicle, full of memories of long ago but rather drearily assembled and far too long, though Miss Davis as ever is in fighting form.
w Albert Beich, Oscar Millard d Paul Henreid ph Ernest Haller m André Previn
☆ Bette Davis, Karl Malden, Peter Lawford, Philip Carey, Jean Hagen, Estelle Winwood, George Chandler, Cyril Delevanti

Dead Ringers ★

Canada 1988 115m colour
Rank/The Mantle Clinic II/Morgan Creek Productions (David Cronenberg, Marc Boyman)
Identical twins, top gynaecologists, indulge in confusing their identities.
Downbeat and grisly, though possessing a certain elegance of style.
w David Cronenberg, Norman Snider book Twins by Barry Wood d David Cronenberg ph Peter Suschitzky m Howard Shore pd Carol Spier ed Ronald Sanders ☆ Jeremy Irons, Geneviève Bujold, Heidi von Palleske, Barbara Gordon, Shirley Douglas, Stephen Lack, Nick Nicholas, Lynne Cormack
'Its disturbing impact derives from a laying bare of male fantasies in such a way that masculinity itself is revealed as fragile, unstable, even impossible.' – Pam Cook, MFB

Dead Run

France 1967 100m colour
SNC (René Picneres)
original title: Deux Billets pour Mexico
A pickpocket steals top-secret papers and is chased across Europe by the CIA and a ruthless freelance espionage outfit.
Lightweight thriller, with performances to match, and of little interest, even on the level of a travelogue.
w Christian-Jaque, Michael Levine, Pascal Jardin novel Dead Run by Robert Sheckley d Christian-Jaque ph Pierre Petit m Gerard Calvi ad Jurgen Kiebach ed Jacques Desagneaux
☆ Peter Lawford, Ira Furstenberg, Georges Geret, Maria Bucella, Werner Peters, Wolfgang Kieling, Horst Frank

The Dead that Walk: see The Zombies of Mora Tau

'In his mind, he has the power to see the future. In his hands, he has the power to change it.'

The Dead Zone ★

US 1983 103m Technicolor
Lorimar/Dino de Laurentiis (Debra Hill)
The survivor of a road accident discovers that he has psychic powers.
Glum thriller with a fairly predictable outcome but some well-staged episodes.
w Jeffrey Boam novel Stephen King d David Cronenberg ph Mark Irwin m Michael Kamen pd Carol Spier
☆ Christopher Walken, Brooke Adams, Tom Skerritt, Herbert Lom, Anthony Zerbe, Colleen Dewhurst

Dead-Bang
US 1989 102m Metrocolor
Warner/Lorimar (Steve Roth)

A detective, hunting a killer, uncovers a white racist organization.
Loud and undistinguished thriller
w Robert Foster d John Frankenheimer ph Gerry Fisher m Gary Chang, Michael Kamen pd Ken Adam ed Robert F. Shugrue
☆ Don Johnson, Penelope Ann Miller, William Forsythe, Bob Balaban, Frank Military, Tate Donovan, Antoni Stutz, Mickey Jones, Ron Campbell

'John Frankenheimer's boldest, most enjoyable, and at least partially successful attempt both to recreate the halcyon days of his early 60s reputation, and to adapt them to changing times.' – Richard Coombs, MFB

Deadbolt
US 1992 95m colour
Allegro/Image (Tom Berry, Franco Battista)

A divorced woman finds herself sharing an apartment with a manipulative homicidal maniac.
Risible, violent, dreary thriller on a threadbare theme; in order for the narrative to work, it requires intelligent people to behave stupidly.
w Mara Trafficante, Frank Rehwaldt d Douglas Jackson ph Rodney Gibbons m Milan Kymlicka pd Perri Gorrara ed Yves Langlois
☆ Justine Bateman, Adam Baldwin, Michelle Scarabelli, Chris Mulkey, Anthony Sherwood, Ellen Cohen, Colin Fox, Cyndi Pass
† The film was released direct to video in the US.

Deadfall
GB 1968 120m DeLuxe
TCF/Salamanda (Paul Monash, Jack Rix)

Robbery turns sour when a cat burglar falls in love with the wife of his homosexual partner.
Drearily fashionable romantic melodrama with far too few high spots and generally dull performances.
wd Bryan Forbes novel Desmond Cory ph Gerry Turpin m John Barry ☆ Michael Caine, Eric Portman, Giovanna Ralli, Nanette Newman, David Buck

'Exhausted no doubt by their past passions and childhood traumas, the principal protagonists move like so many somnambulists through the turgid labyrinth ... whatever the intention, Deadfall merely falls flat on its somewhat ludicrous face.' – MFB

'You Don't Know Who To Trust... What To Believe... Or Where To Run... The Ultimate Con.'

Deadfall
US 1993 113m
Trimark (Ted Fox)

A con man learns that an honest life is best.
Vapid caper movie with a hysterical, and fortunately short-lived, performance by Cage, and a script that grows increasingly baroque in a failed attempt to keep an audience's attention.
w Christopher Coppola, Nick Vallelonga d Christopher Coppola ph Maryse Alberti m Jim Fox pd Clare Scarpulla ed Phillip Linson
☆ Michael Biehn (Joe Donan), James Coburn (Mike/Lou Donan), Nicolas Cage (Eddie), Sarah Trigger (Diane), Peter Fonda (Pete), Charlie Sheen (Steve Lebett), Talia Shire (Sam)

'By the end, the tale is so laden with red herrings and forced repartee that even die-hard genre-freaks will have dropped their frozen smiles.' – Ken Eisner, Variety

Deadlier than the Male
GB 1966 101m Techniscope
Rank/Sydney Box (Betty E. Box)

Bulldog Drummond traces the death of oil company executives to a master criminal using glamorous female assassins.
Just about tolerable recreation of Drummond in the modern world, with too little style, too much violence and sex, and an almost total lack of self-mockery. A sequel Some Girls Do (qv) was an unmitigated disaster.
w Jimmy Sangster, David Osborn, Liz Charles-Williams d Ralph Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Malcolm Lockyer ad Alex Vetchinsky
☆ Richard Johnson, Nigel Green, Elke Sommer, Sylva Koscina, Suzanna Leigh, Zia Mohyeddin, Steve Carlson

'The original Drummond would have found the whole thing rather distasteful.' – MFB

Deadline: see Deadline USA

Deadline at Dawn
US 1946 82m bw
RKO (Adrian Scott)

A sailor on leave passes out, finds the girl he was with has been murdered, and is helped by a philosophical taxi driver and a girl.
This could have been another Crossfire, but is smothered by pretentious writing and uncertain direction. The credits are interesting, though.
w Clifford Odets novel William Irish (Cornell Woolrich) d Harold Clurman ph Nicholas Musuraca m Hanns Eisler
☆ Paul Lukas, Bill Williams, Susan Hayward, Osa Massen, Lola Lane

Deadline Midnight: see -30-

Deadline USA ★
US 1952 87m bw
TCF (Sol C. Siegel)
GB title: Deadline

Despite threats and the killing of a witness, a crusading newspaper goes ahead with a story about the crimes of a powerful gangster.
Watchable newspaper melodrama with nothing much to say except that America must wake up to the enemy within. Smooth production, but too much semi-pretentious talk.
wd Richard Brooks ph Milton Krasner m Cyril Mockridge ☆ Humphrey Bogart, Kim Hunter, Ethel Barrymore, Ed Begley, Paul Stewart, Warren Stevens, Martin Gabel, Joe de Santis, Audrey Christie, Jim Backus

Deadlock: see Wedlock

Deadly
Australia 1990 99m colour
Beyond/AFFC/Moirstorm (Richard Moir)

A city cop in trouble goes to a small town to cover up the killing of an aborigine artist, found hanged in a police cell.
An angry drama of institutionalized racism and bigotry, but genuine emotion is soon submerged in the slickly melodramatic contrivances of the narrative.
w Esben Storm, Richard Moir, Ranald Allan d Esben Storm ph Geoffrey Simpson m Graeme Revell pd Peta Lawson ed Ralph Strasser
☆ Jerome Ehlers, Frank Gallacher, Lydia Miller, John Moore, Alan David Lee, Caz Lederman, Tony Barry, Julie Nihill, Martin Vaughan, Bill Hunter

Deadly Advice
GB 1994 90m colour
Mayfair/Zenith (Nigel Stafford-Clark)

An unhappy woman has visions of famous murderers of the past, who advise her on how to kill her domineering mother and others who annoy her.
Flat attempt at a black comedy; it lacks the necessary style and wit and succeeds only in being depressing.
w Glenn Chandler d Mandie Fletcher ph Richard Greatrex m Richard Harvey pd Christopher Hobbs ed John Jarvis
☆ Jane Horrocks, Brenda Fricker, Jonathan Pryce, Imelda Staunton, Edward Woodward, Billie Whitelaw, Hywel Bennett, John Mills, Eleanor Bron, Jonathan Hyde

'Squanders a gaggle of British character actors on a nothing script that's desperately in need of a laugh track.' – Derek Elley, Variety

The Deadly Affair ★★
GB 1966 106m Technicolor
Columbia/Sidney Lumet

A Foreign Office man apparently commits suicide; his colleague is unconvinced and finally uncovers a spy ring.
Compulsive if heavy-going thriller from the sour-about-spies era, deliberately glum, photographed against the shabbiest possible London backgrounds in muddy colour. Solidly entertaining for sophisticated grown-ups.
w Paul Dehn novel Call for the Dead by John Le Carré d Sidney Lumet
ph Frederick A. Young m Quincy Jones
☆ James Mason, Simone Signoret, Harry Andrews, Maximilian Schell, Harriet Andersson, Kenneth Haigh, Max Adrian, Robert Flemyng, Roy Kinnear, Lynn Redgrave

'The whole film is a most skilful organisation of action, motive and character.' – Dilys Powell

The Deadly Bees
GB 1966 83m Technicolor
Amicus

A pop singer goes on holiday to a remote farm and finds herself menaced by killer bees.
Flat little thriller with one very obvious twist and no monster: just those bees.
w Robert Bloch, Anthony Marriott d Freddie Francis ☆ Frank Finlay, Guy Doleman, Suzanna Leigh, Catherine Finn

'To the valley of mystery came the shadow of death!'

Deadly Blessing
US 1981 102m Metrocolor
Polygram/Interplanetary (William Gilmore)

A strict Hittite sect in Pennsylvania is disrupted by the murderous activities of an incubus.
Further developments from the school of Alien, Omen and The Exorcist; basically a succession of well-engineered shocks punctuated by long periods of boredom.
w Glenn M. Benest, Matthew Barr, Wes Craven d Wes Craven ph Robert Jessup m James Horner sp Jack Bennett ☆ Maren Jensen, Susan Buckner, Jeff East, Ernest Borgnine, Lisa Hartman, Lois Nettleton

The Deadly Companions ★
US 1961 90m Pathécolor Panavision
Warner/Pathé America (Charles B. Fitzsimmons)

An army sergeant, a deserter, a trigger-happy gunman and a saloon hostess join forces to rob a bank.
Disjointed but rather attractive little Western let down by corny moments in the script.
w A. S. Fleischman novel A. S. Fleischman d Sam Peckinpah ph William H. Clothier m Marlin Skiles, Raoul Kraushaar
☆ Brian Keith, Maureen O'Hara, Chill Wills, Steve Cochran, Strother Martin

Deadly Force
US 1983 95m CFI color
Hemdale/Sandy Howard

An ex-cop returns to Los Angeles to hunt a serial killer, to the annoyance of local police, gangsters and his estranged wife.
Tacky, dim-witted thriller, never less than implausible and hardly watchable.
w Ken Barnett, Barry Schneider, Robert Vincent O'Neil d Paul Aaron ph Norman Leigh, David Myers m Gary Scott pd Alan Roderick-Jones ed Roy Watts ☆ Wings Hauser, Joyce Ingalls, Paul Shenar, Al Ruscio, Arlen Dean Snyder, Lincoln Kilpatrick

Deadly Friend
US 1986 99m Technicolor
Warner/Pan Arts Layton (Robert M. Sherman)

A bright kid robotizes a victimized girl and helps her get her revenge.
Silly but nasty horror flick of the Elm Street genre.
w Bruce Joel Rubin novel Friend by Diana Henstell d Wes Craven ph Philip Lathrop m Charles Bernstein pd Daniel Lomino ed Michael Eliot
☆ Matthew Laborteaux, Kristy Swanson, Michael Sharrett, Anne Twomey

Deadly Game: see The Manhattan Project (1986)

Deadly is the Female: see Gun Crazy

'See a 1000-ton insect monster hungering for human prey!'

The Deadly Mantis
US 1957 78m bw
Universal-International

A 'prehistoric' mantis escapes from Arctic ice and travels rapidly towards New York.
Absurd and poorly crafted monster movie.
w Martin Berkeley d Nathan Juran
☆ Craig Stevens, Alix Talton, William Hopper

Deadly Peacemaker: see Man with the Gun

Deadly Pursuit: see Shoot to Kill

Deadly Roulette: see How I Spent My Summer Vacation

Deadly Strangers
GB 1974 93m Eastmancolor
Rank/Silhouette (Peter Miller)

A girl accepts a lift from a motorist at a time when a mad strangler is on the loose.
Sub-Hitchcock melo-thriller with enough red herrings to sink a ship. Smartly enough done, but the grisliness needed balancing by humour.
w Philip Levene d Sidney Hayers

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

ph Graham Edgar m Ron Goodwin
☆ Hayley Mills, Simon Ward, Sterling Hayden, Ken Hutchison, Peter Jeffrey

The Deadly Trackers

US 1973 104m Technicolor
Warner/Cine Film (Ed Rosen, Fouad Said)

A sheriff stalks the bandits who killed his wife and son.
Lurid and ludicrous Western started, and abandoned, by Samuel Fuller; the challenge need not have been taken up.
w Lukas Heller d Barry Shear ph Gabriel Torres m various ☆ Rod Taylor, Richard Harris, Al Lettieri, Neville Brand, William Smith

'It is no more than the outline of a shadow.' – Tony Rayns
'An incoherent, blood-soaked chase story.' – New Yorker, 1977

The Deadly Trap

France/Italy 1971 100m Eastmancolor
Corona/Pomereu/Oceania

The children of an American couple in Paris are kidnapped.
Smoothly made thriller which spends rather too much time being chic.
w Sidney Buchman, Eleanor Perry novel The Children are Gone by Arthur Cavanaugh d René Clément ☆ Faye Dunaway, Frank Langella, Barbara Parkins

Deadwood '76

US 1965 97m Technicolor Techniscope
Ember/Fairway (Nicholas Meriwether)

In Deadwood, a young man who is mistaken for Billy the Kid finds himself at odds with the townspeople.
Poor acting and production values do nothing to aid an incoherent and convoluted narrative.
w Arch Hall Jnr d James Landis ph William Zsigmond, Lewis Guinn
m Manuel Francisco ad D. Reed III
ed Anthony M. Lanza
☆ Arch Hall Jnr, Jack Lester, Melissa Morgan, William Watters, Robert Dix, La Donna Cottier

'It looks like a carbon copy of the worst of the Italian Westerns.' – David McGillivray, MFB † Unshown in its home country, the film received a British release six years after it was made.

Deadwood Dick

US 1940 bw serial: 15 eps
Columbia

A crusading editor in disguise takes on a gang of renegades led by The Skull.
Mildly hilarious Western serial, under the gun of Laurel and Hardy's old director.
d James W. Horne
☆ Don Douglas, Lane Chandler, Harry Harvey

Deal of the Century

US 1983 98m Technicolor
Warner (Bud Yorkin)

An arms dealer is urged not to sell a new weapon to a warmongering dictator.
Complex comedy, descending into farce when the visiting general is bribed by the availability of American women. Not a success.
w Paul Brickman d William Friedkin ph Richard H. Kline m Arthur B. Rubinstein pd Bill Malley ed Bud Smith ☆ Chevy Chase, Sigourney Weaver, Gregory Hines, Vince Edwards, William Jarvis, William Marquez

Dealers

GB 1989 91m colour
Rank/Euston Films (William P. Cartlidge)

An ambitious young dealer in the City makes good.
An admiring look at the unacceptable face of capitalism.
w Andrew MacLear d Colin Bucksey ph Peter Sinclair m Richard Hartley
pd Peter J. Hampton ed Jon Costelloe
☆ Paul McGann, Rebecca de Mornay, Derrick O'Connor, John Castle, Paul Guilfoyle, Rosalind Bennett, Adrian Dunbar, Nicholas Hewetson

Dear Brigitte

US 1965 100m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Henry Koster)

The small son of an American professor writes a love letter to Brigitte Bardot, and when they finally go to Paris she is charming to them.
Mild family comedy quaintly set around a decaying Mississippi riverboat home; despite assured performances, it all gets a bit icky at times.
w Hal Kanter novel Erasmus with Freckles by John Haase d Henry Koster ph Lucien Ballard m George Duning
☆ James Stewart, Glynis Johns, Fabian, Cindy Carol, Billy Mumy, John Williams, Jack Kruschen, Brigitte Bardot, Ed Wynn, Alice Pearce

Dear Diary ★★★

Italy 1994 100m colour
Artificial Eye/Sacher/Banfilm/La Sept/Canal (Angelo Barbagallo, Nanni Moretti, Nella Banfi)

original title: Caro Diario
A filmed diary in three chapters: the first involves a trip around Rome on a scooter, a chance meeting with actress Jennifer Beals and a visit to the place where Pasolini was killed; the second an island-hopping trip with a friend who stopped watching television in the 60s but becomes obsessed by it again; the third hospital treatment for a form of cancer.
A brilliant essay in autobiography, often bordering on the inconsequential but always interesting, full of charm and humour which remains even when deepening into a confrontation with the likelihood of imminent death.
wd Nanni Moretti ph Giuseppe Lanci
m Nicola Piovani pd Marta Maffucci
ed Mirco Garrone
☆ Nanni Moretti (Himself), Jennifer Beals (Herself), Alexandre Rockwell (Himself), Renato Carpentieri (Gerardo), Antonio Neiwiller (Mayor of Stromboli)

'The film seems slight and a little slapdash until the final episode, when Moretti faces mortality with a deadpan humanism that, under the circumstances, is bracing, even heroic.' – Time
'Appearing to be about nothing very much, it manages to encompass an awful lot, and it would be a strange viewer who didn't, somewhere in the film, identify with its major concern, which is how to survive in an increasingly frustrating and impersonal world.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Dear Frankie ⑤

GB 2004 105m colour
Pathé/UKFC/Scottish Screen/Scorpio (Caroline Wood)

A mother protects her young, deaf son from the truth about his abusive father.
Small-scale, increasingly implausible tear-jerker that is partly saved by its performances.
w Andrea Gibb d Shona Auerbach
ph Shona Auerbach m Alex Heffes
pd Jennifer Kernke ed Oral Norrie Ottey
☆ Emily Mortimer (Lizzie), Jake McElhone (Frankie), Gerard Butler (The Stranger), Sharon Small (Marie), Mary Riggans (Nell)

'Fraudulent yarn riddled with plot holes and improbabilities and topped by a cynical final twist that pulls the rug out from under the story.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

Dear God

US 1996 112m DeLuxe
Paramount/Rysher (Steve Tisch)

A repentant con man answers letters addressed to God at the post office's dead letter office.
Soft-centred, extraordinarily sentimental hokum, enough to make you wish for a little curdling of the milk of human kindness.
w Warren Leight, Ed Kaplan d Garry Marshall ph Charles Minsky m Jeremy Lubbock, James Patrick Dunne pd Albert Brenner ed Debra Neil-Fisher
☆ Greg Kinnear, Laurie Metcalf, Tim Conway, Maria Pitillo, Roscoe Lee Browne, Jon Seda, Anna Maria Horsford, Hector Elizondo

'Plays very much like a good first draft for a much better movie than the one on view.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

Dear Heart ★

US 1964 114m bw
Warner (Martin Manulis)

At a postmasters' convention in New York, two middle-aged delegates fall in love.
Charming, understated, overlong romantic drama in the Marty tradition; all quite professional and satisfying.
w Tad Mosel d Delbert Mann ph Russell Harlan m Henry Mancini
☆ Glenn Ford, Geraldine Page, Angela Lansbury, Michael Anderson Jnr, Barbara Nichols, Patricia Barry, Charles Drake, Ruth McDevitt, Neva Patterson, Alice Pearce, Richard Deacon
♗ title song (m Henry Mancini, ly Jay Livingston, Ray Evans)

Dear Inspector ★

France 1977 105m Eastmancolor
Ariane/Mondex (Alexander Mnouchkine)

original title: Tendre Poulet
A female detective chases a murderer, helped by her professor boyfriend.
Very likeable comedy-thriller with neat performances. Popular in America, it was translated into a series for television, but didn't run.
w Michel Audiard, Philippe de Broca novel Jean-Paul Rouland, Claude Olivier
d Philippe de Broca ph Jean-Paul Schwartz
m Georges Delerue
☆ Annie Girardot, Philippe Noiret, Catherine Alric, Hubert Deschamps

Dear John ★

Sweden 1964 111m bw
Sandrew (Bo Jonsson) original title: Kare John

An unmarried mother in a seaside village falls for a seaman.
A slight story effectively tricked out with all manner of cinematic devices including a multitude of flashbacks. Very watchable if a little self-conscious.
wd Lars Magnus Lindgren novel Olle Lansburg ph Rune Ericson m Bengt-Arne Wallin ☆ Jarl Kulle, Christina Schollin, Helena Nilsson, Morgan Anderson

'It shines with the cool clear light of the Swedish summer, and despite its glossy surface manages also to convey strong sensual pleasure.' – Brenda Davies
♗ best foreign film

Dear Mr Prohack

GB 1949 91m bw
GFD/Wessex (Ian Dalrymple, Dennis Van Thal)

A treasury official copes admirably with public money but is helpless when he comes into a private fortune.
Flat little comedy in which the minor amusements are incidental to the story.
w Ian Dalrymple, Donald Bull novel Arnold Bennett d Thornton Freeland ph H. E. Fowle m Temple Abady ☆ Cecil Parker, Hermione Baddeley, Dirk Bogarde, Sheila Sim, Glynis Johns, Heather Thatcher, Henry Edwards, Judith Furse

Dear Murderer

GB 1947 94m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (Betty E. Box)

Plot and counterplot among an adulterous triangle.
Thoroughly artificial pattern play set among the unreal rich, from one of those unaccountable West End successes, here boringly filmed.
w Muriel and Sydney Box, Peter Rogers play St John L. Clowes d Arthur Crabtree ph Stephen Dade m Benjamin Frankel md Muir Mathieson ad George Provis, John Elphick ed Gordon Hales
☆ Eric Portman (Lee Warren), Greta Gynt (Vivien Warren), Dennis Price (Richard Fenton), Maxwell Reed (Jimmy Martin), Jack Warner (Inspector Pembury), Hazel Court (Avis Fenton), Andrew Crawford (Sgt Fox), Jane Hylton (Rita)

'A quite alarming little picture.' – Alan Dent, News Chronicle

Dear Octopus ★★

GB 1943 86m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (Edward Black)
US title: The Randolph Family

Members of a well-to-do British family reunite for Golden Wedding celebrations.
Traditional upper-class British comedy drama, and very well done too, with opportunities for excellent character acting.
w R. J. Minney, Patrick Kirwan play Dodie Smith d Harold French ph Arthur Crabtree ☆ Margaret Lockwood, Michael Wilding, Helen Haye, Frederick Leister, Celia Johnson, Roland Culver, Athene Seyler, Basil Radford, Nora Swinburne, Jean Cadell, Kathleen Harrison, Ann Stephens, Muriel George, Antoinette Cellier, Graham Moffatt

'The screen's gayest love story!'

Dear Ruth ★

US 1947 95m bw
Paramount (Paul Jones)

A schoolgirl causes confusion when she writes love letters to a soldier using her elder sister's photograph.
Smoothly amusing family comedy from a Broadway success.
w Arthur Sheekman play Norman Krasna
d William D. Russell ph Ernest Laszlo
m Robert Emmett Dolan

☆ Joan Caulfield, William Holden, Mona Freeman, Billy de Wolfe, Edward Arnold, Mary Philips, Virginia Welles

'It is unlikely that 1947 will bring a more satisfying comedy ... so many surprising and funny twists.' – John Thompson, New York Mirror

† Two less amusing sequels were made using virtually the same cast: Dear Wife (1949, 88m, d Richard Haydn); Dear Brat (1951, 82m, d William A. Seiter).

Dearest Love: see Le Souffle au Coeur

'Tonight, mercy will be buried with the past.'

Death and the Maiden ★★

GB/US/France 1995 103m colour
Electric/Capitol/Channel 4/Flach/Canal (Thom Mount, Josh Kramer)

In a South American country, a woman realizes that her neighbour is the man who raped and tortured her in prison during a previous regime and decides to try him for his crimes.

Electrifying debate on matters of morality, with acting and directing tightening the sense of unease and suspense to the end.

w Rafael Yglesias, Ariel Dorfman play Ariel Dorfman d Roman Polanski ph Tonino delli Colli m Wojciech Kilar pd Pierre Guffroy ed Herve de Luze

☆ Sigourney Weaver, Ben Kingsley, Stuart Wilson, Krystia Mova

'A tense, taut exercise in psychological menace that offers the audience barely a moment's respite.' – Colin Brown, Screen International

Death at Broadcasting House ★

GB 1934 71m bw
ABFD/Phoenix (Hugh Perceval)

A radio actor is murdered during a broadcast.

Intriguing little murder mystery with an unusual background.

w Basil Mason novel Val Gielgud d Reginald Denham ph Gunther Krampf md Geoffrey Goodhardt ad R. Holmes Paul

☆ Ian Hunter, Austin Trevor, Mary Newland, Henry Kendall, Val Gielgud, Peter Haddon, Betty Ann Davies, Jack Hawkins, Donald Wolfit

'Your basic black comedy.'

Death Becomes Her

US 1992 104m colour
UIP/Universal (Robert Zemeckis, Steve Starkey)

An ageing Broadway star and a novelist, both rivals for the same man, take an elixir that gives eternal life.

A small comedy overwhelmed by its impressive special effects and suffering from its director's belief that louder and faster is funnier.

w Martin Donovan, David Koepp d Robert Zemeckis ph Dean Cundey m Alan Silvestri pd Rick Carter ed Arthur Schmidt sp Industrial Light and Magic

☆ Meryl Streep, Goldie Hawn, Bruce Willis, Isabella Rossellini, Ian Ogilvy, Adam Storke, Nancy Fish, Alaina Reed Hall, Michelle Johnson, Mary Ellen Trainor

'A black comedy that is so pleased with its own blackness that it frequently forgets to be funny.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times

Visual effects

Death before Dishonor

US 1986 95m DeLuxe
Kubik/MPI/BIMA/New World

The Marines fight terrorists in an Arab country.

Violent exploitation actioner which will satisfy its audience.

w Frank Capra Jnr, Lawrence Kubik, John Gatliff d Terry J. Leonard m Brian May

☆ Fred Dryer, Brian Keith, Paul Winfield, Joanna Pacula

Death by Hanging ★★★

Japan 1968 117m bw VistaVision
Academy/Connoisseur/Sozosha (Masayuki Nakajima, Takuji Yamaguchi, Nagisa Oshima) original title: Koshikei

A Korean student survives being hanged for the rape and killing of two Japanese girls but loses his memory and refuses to accept responsibility for his past actions.

A complex, challenging and blackly comic examination of racism, guilt and justice, filmed as a succession of re-enacted episodes, complete with chapter headings, in the life of the central character.

w Tsutomu Tamura, Mamoru Sasaki, Michinori Faukao, Nagisa Oshima d Nagisa Oshima ph Yasuhiro Yoshioka m Hikaru Hayashi ad Jusho Toda ed Sueko Shiraishi

☆ Nagisa Oshima (Narrator), Yun-Do Yun (The Convict), Kei Sato (Prison Warden), Fumio Watanabe (Education Officer), Toshiro Ishido (Priest), Masao Adachi (Chief of Guards), Mutsuhiro Toura (Doctor)

'For three-quarters of its length, the film can be read as a brilliantly, insolently witty Brechtian parable; an alienation effect taking one away from the appalling realities of death by hanging, the better to make one understand the implications of those realities.' – Tom Milne

Death Drums along the River

GB 1963 83m Technicolor
Techniscope
Big Ben Films/Hallam
US title: Sanders

In Africa, a police commissioner foils a murderous diamond smuggler.

Stilted, often facetious cut-price version of the old warhorse, and one that should have been put out to grass.

w Lawrence Huntington, Kevin Kavanagh, Nicolas Roeg, Harry Alan Towers novel Sanders of the River by Edgar Wallace d Lawrence Huntington ph Bob Huke ed Allan Morrison

☆ Richard Todd, Marianne Cook, Albert Lieven, Walter Rilla, Jeremy Lloyd, Robert Arden, Vivi Bach, Bill Brewer, Simon Sabela

Death Hunt

US 1981 97m Technicolor
Golden Harvest (Murray Shostak)

In 1931 Yukon, a reclusive trapper turns to violence when goaded by other wanderers and drunken mounties.

An arctic cross between Straw Dogs and Death Wish, and not even so good as either.

w Michael Grais, Mark Victor d Peter Hunt ph James Devis m Jerrold Immel

☆ Charles Bronson, Lee Marvin, Angie Dickinson, Andrew Stevens, Ed Lauter, Carl Weathers, Henry Beckman

Death in a French Garden ★

France 1985 101m Eastmancolor
Artificial Eye/Gaumont (Emmanuel Schlumberger)

original title: Péril en la Demeure
aka: Péril

A music teacher, seduced by the mother of his pupil, finds himself embroiled in other sexual entanglements and murder.

Elegantly stylish thriller.

w Michel Déville, Rosalinde Damamme novel Sur la Terre Comme au Ciel by Rene Belletto d Michel Déville ph Martial Thury ad Philippe Combastel ed Raymonde Guyot

☆ Michel Piccoli, Nicole Garcia, Anemone, Christophe Malavoy, Richard Bohringer, Anaïs Jeanneret, Jean-Claude Jay

Death in Brunswick ★★

Australia 1990 109m Eastmancolor
Meridian/Film Victoria/Australian Film Finance Corp (Timothy White)

The new cook in a sleazy night-club accidentally kills his drunken assistant and asks an old friend to help him get rid of the body.

Witty black comedy of losers adrift in a world they cannot control.

w John Ruane, Boyd Oxlade novel Boyd Oxlade d John Ruane ph Ellery Ryan m Philip Judd pd Chris Kennedy ed Neil Thumpston

☆ Sam Neill, Zoe Carides, John Clarke, Yvonne Lawley, Deborah Kennedy

'An unusual, intelligent black comedy. Some will find the film outrageous, but word-of-mouth should give the pic legs on the international àrt-house circuit.' – Variety

Death in Venice ★★★★

Italy 1971 128m Technicolor
Panavision
Warner/Alfa (Mario Gallo)

original title: Morte a Venezia

In a lush Venetian hotel one summer in the early years of the century, a middle-aged German composer on holiday falls for the charms of a silent young boy, and stays in the city too long to escape the approaching plague.

Bogarde's appearance was based on Gustav Mahler, whose behaviour had helped inspire the novella. His part was a gruelling one, almost silent and requiring everything to be expressed by the eyes. Mahler's music adds a depth to this extended fable, enriched by moments of great beauty and directorial style.

w Luchino Visconti, Nicola Badalucco novel Thomas Mann d Luchino Visconti ph Pasquale de Santis m Gustav Mahler md Franco Mannino ad Ferdinando Scarfiotti ed Ruggero Mastroianni

☆ Dirk Bogarde (Gustav Von Aschenbach), Bjorn Andresen (Tadzio), Silvana Mangano (Tadzio's Mother), Marisa Berenson (Frau Von Aschenbach), Mark Burns (Alfred)

'Maybe a story as elusive as Death in Venice simply can't be filmed. Visconti has made a brave attempt, always sensitive to the original; but it's finally not quite the same thing.' – David Wilson, MFB

'Camp and miscalculated from start to finish ... a prime contender for the title Most Overrated Film of All Time.' – Time Out, 1985

costumes (Piero Tosi)

Pasquale de Santis; Ferdinando Scarfiotti

Death is My Trade ★★

West Germany 1977 145m colour
Contemporary/WDR/Iduna (Fred Ilgner)
original title: Aus Einem Deutschen Leben

A working class man rises through the Nazi hierarchy to become commandant at Auschwitz.

Dispassionate and chilling account of the banality of evil.

wd Theodor Kotulla novel Robert Merle ph Dieter Naujeck m Eberhard Weber ad Wolfgang Schunke ed Wolfgang Richter

☆ Gotz George, Kai Taschner, Elisabeth Schwartz, Kurt Hubner, Hans Korte, Sigurd Fitzek, Peter Franke, Wilfried Elste, Matthias Fuchs

Death Japanese Style ★★

Japan 1984 124m colour/bw Yashushi Tamaoki, Yutaka Okada original title: Ososhiki
aka: The Funeral

An actress arranges the three-day wake and funeral of her father.

Witty and well-observed account of domestic dramas.

wd Juzo Itami ph Yonezo Yuasa ad Hiroshi Tokuda ed Akira Suzuki

☆ Nobuko Miyamoto, Tsutomu Yamazaki, Kin Sugai, Shuji Otaki, Ichiro Zaitsu

The Death Kiss

US 1932 74m bw
KBS/World Wide

During the making of a film an actor is murdered.

Promising murder mystery which becomes more and more muddled as it progresses; it wasn't helped by advertising suggesting that Lugosi was again playing a vampire instead of a red herring.

w Barry Barringer, Gordon Kahn novel Madelon St Dennis d Edwin L. Marin

☆ David Manners, Adrienne Ames, Bela Lugosi, John Wray, Vince Barnett, Edward Van Sloan

Death Line

GB 1972 87m Technicolor
Rank/Jay Kanter-Alan Ladd Jnr (Paul Maslansky)
aka: Raw Meat

Police investigating missing persons at a London underground station discover the existence of cannibals living in abandoned tunnels.

Tightly constructed thriller, unpleasant but effective, and revelling in violence and decaying flesh.

w Ceri Jones story Gary Sherman d Gary Sherman ph Alex Thomson m Jeremy Rose ad Denis Gordon-Orr ed Geoffrey Foot sp John Horton

☆ Donald Pleasence, Christopher Lee, Norman Rossington, David Ladd, Sharon Gurney, Hugh Armstrong, Clive Swift, James Cossins

'The film, a coherent whole in which the parts inter-relate suggestively rather than schematically, and rich in mythological overtones, represents one of the most remarkable debuts of recent years.' – Robin Wood, MFB

'Man's Deadliest Invention Is About To Show Its Metal.'
'In subterranean level 10 of the Chaank Corporation Building there are 23.2 billion dollars of bonds ... And in vault No. 10...'

Death Machine ★

US 1994 111m Eastmancolor
Entertainment/JVC Victor/Fugitive (Dominic Anciano)

After he is fired, a hi-tech armament company's mad scientist sets the Warbeast, an unstoppable killer robot, after his former boss and a gang of activists, who are trapped in the headquarters building.
Knowing, blackly humorous, extremely gory science-fiction thriller that borrows from Blade Runner, Robocop and Terminator, among others, but does so with more style than might have been expected.
wd Stephen Norrington ph John de Borman m Crispin Merrell pd Chris Edwards ed Paul Endacott sp Peter Hutchinson; make-up: Dave Elsey, Creature FX; animatronics: Nik Williams, Animated Extras ☆ Brad Dourif, Ely Pouget, William Hootkins, John Sharian, Martin McDougall, Andreas Wisniewski, Richard Brake
'Great fun.' – Film Review
† The film features characters called John Carpenter, Sam Raimi and Scott Ridley, and the credits include, after a long list of Special Thanks, the line 'No Thanks to They Know Who They Are'.

Death of a Bureaucrat ★★

Cuba 1966 84m bw ICAIC
original title: La muerte de un burocrata

When the widow of a stonemason discovers that to obtain her state pension she needs his work card, which has been buried with him, her nephew decides to take action.
Witty and irreverent satire at the expense of all bureaucracies and jobsworths, directed with a light hand and in a style that owes much to silent comedy.
w Alfredo L. del Cueto, Ramón F. Suárez, Tomás Guitiérrez Alea story Tomás Gutiérrez Alea d Tomás Gutiérrez Alea ph Ramón F. Suárez m Leo Brower md Manuel Duchesne Cuzán ad Luis Márquez ed Mario González
☆ Salvador Wood, Silvia Planas, Manuel Estanillo, Gaspar de Santelices, Carlos Ruiz de la Tejera
† The film is dedicated to 'Luis Buñuel, Oliver Hardy, Stan Laurel, Ingmar Bergman, Harold Lloyd, Akira Kurosawa, Orson Wells [sic], Juan Carlos Tabio, Elia Kazan, Buster Keaton, Jean Vigo, Marilyn Monroe and all those who, in one way or another, have taken part in the film industry since the days of Lumière.'

Death of a Cyclist ★

Spain/Italy 1955 85m bw Guion-Suevia/Trionfalcine original title: Muerte de un Ciclista

An accident – a cyclist is knocked down and killed by an adulterous couple – tragically affects the lives of many people.
Rather like a politically conscious version of An Inspector Calls, this mannered and unemotional film was most interesting because of its almost Hollywoodian self-assurance.
wd Juan Antonio Bardem story Luis de Igoa ph Alfredo Fraile m Isrido Maiztegui ☆ Lucia Bose, Alberto Closas, Otello Toso, Carlos Casaravilla
'I can remember no other film which succeeds without either jealousy or absurdity in presenting a serious convincing picture of sophisticated European society.' – Dilys Powell

'Is it love or guilt that's making you marry me after all these years?'

Death of a Gunfighter ★

US 1969 100m Technicolor
Universal (Richard E. Lyons)

An unpopular marshal refuses to resign, and the situation leads to gunplay.
Downcast character Western set in the early years of the century.
w Joseph Calvelli d Robert Totten, Don Siegel ph Andrew Jackson m Oliver Nelson ☆ Richard Widmark, Lena Horne, John Saxon, Carroll O'Connor, Larry Gates, Kent Smith

'A salesman's got to dream – it comes with the territory!'
'One mistake – seen by his son – unleashes with overwhelming power the great drama of our day!'

Death of a Salesman ★★★

US 1951 112m bw
Columbia (Stanley Kramer)

An ageing travelling salesman recognizes the emptiness of his life and commits suicide.
A very acceptable screen version of a milestone play which has become an American classic; stage conventions and tricks are cleverly adapted to cinematic use, especially when the hero walks from the present into the past and back again.
w Stanley Roberts play Arthur Miller d Laslo Benedek ph Franz Planer m Alex North md Morris Stoloff pd Rudolph Sternad ad Cary Odell ed William Lyon, Harry Gerstad
☆ Fredric March (Willy Loman), Kevin McCarthy (Biff), Cameron Mitchell (Happy), Mildred Dunnock (Linda Loman), Howard Smith (Charley), Royal Beal (Ben), Jesse White (Stanley)
MRS LOMAN: 'Attention must finally be paid to such a man. He's not to be allowed to fall into his grave like an old dog.'
WILLY LOMAN: 'A salesman is somebody way up there in the blue, riding on a smile and a shoeshine...'
'Its time shifts with light, which were poetic in the theatre, seemed shabby in a medium that can dissolve time and space so easily.' – Stanley Kauffmann
Franz Planer; Alex North; Fredric March; Kevin McCarthy; Mildred Dunnock

Death of a Scoundrel ★

US 1956 119m bw
RKO/Charles Martin

A Czech in New York becomes rich by fraud.
Unconvincing but intermittently entertaining melodrama, a vehicle for a male Bette Davis.
wd Charles Martin ph James Wong Howe m Max Steiner
☆ George Sanders, Yvonne de Carlo, Coleen Gray, Victor Jory, Zsa Zsa Gabor, Nancy Gates, John Hoyt, Tom Conway
'Vague moralizing and some attempts at social comment scarcely enliven this protracted study in megalomania.' – MFB

Death of a Soldier

Australia 1986 93m colour Panavision
Suatu/Scotti

The story of Edward J. Leonski, a psychopathic GI hanged in 1942 for the murders of three women.
Case history, most interesting for its re-creation of a period.
w William Nagle d Philippe Mora ph Louis Irving ad Geoff Richardson
☆ James Coburn, Reb Brown, Bill Hunter, Maurie Fields, Michael Pate, Terence Donovan

The Death of Mario Ricci ★

Switzerland/France/West Germany 1983
101m Eastmancolor
Pegase/TSR/Swanie/FR3/Tele München

A Swiss TV journalist arrives in a remote village to record an interview with a malnutrition expert, and finds himself in the middle of a mystery about the death of an Italian immigrant worker.
A rather uncontrolled drama which begins by suggesting Bad Day at Black Rock but becomes less interesting as it proceeds.
w Claude Goretta, Georges Haldas d Claude Goretta ph Hans Liechti m Arie Dzierlatka
☆ Gian-Maria Volonte, Magali Noel, Mimsy Farmer, Heinz Bennent, Jean-Michael Dupuis

The Death of Mr. Lazarescu ★★ (9)

Romania 2005 154m
Tartan/Mandragora (Bobby Paunescu, Anca Puiu)

Romanian theatrical title: Moartea Domnului Lazarescu

An old man calls the ambulance service to complain about a headache. He is shuttled between hospitals, and his condition gradually deteriorates.
An appalling, though darkly funny story about the hellishness of health service bureaucracies and the indifference of staff contrasted with the life-or-death condition of one patient. Engaging and eloquent.
w Cristi Puiu, Razvan Radulescu d Cristi Puiu ph Oleg Mutu m/ly Andreea Paduraru ad Cristina Barbu ed Dana Bunescu
☆ Ioan Fiscuteanu (Dante Lazarescu), Luminita Gheorghiu (Mioara), Doru Ana (Sandu Sterian)
'For all its terrible matter-of-factness, (it) produces tumultuous feelings of amazement and revolt.' – David Denby, New Yorker
'I suspect medical professionals would see much they recognise in this movie.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

Death on the Diamond

US 1934 69m bw
MGM

Murder during a baseball game.
The story isn't much, so the picture's appeal depends on one's addiction to baseball.
w Harvey Thew, Joseph Sherman, Ralph Spence, Cortland Fitzsimmons d Edward Sedgwick ☆ Robert Young, Madge Evans, Nat Pendleton, Ted Healy, C. Henry Gordon, Paul Kelly, Edward Brophy, Mickey Rooney, David Landau
'Due to plot, miscasting and some minor league technical preparation, it was two strikes to the bad before the cameras started to grind.' – Variety

Death on the Nile ★

GB 1978 140m Technicolor
EMI (John Brabourne, Richard Goodwin)

Hercule Poirot solves the mystery of who killed the spoilt heiress on a steamer cruising down the Nile.
A pleasant thirties atmosphere and the travel poster backgrounds are the chief assets of this rather hesitant whodunnit which plays fair enough with the audience but gives its popular cast too little to do, while its constant repetitions of the crime become rather ghoulish. On the whole, though, a very passable representation of an old-fashioned genre, and a few points up on Murder on the Orient Express.
w Anthony Shaffer novel Agatha Christie d John Guillermin ph Jack Cardiff m Nino Rota pd Peter Murton ed Malcolm Cooke
☆ Peter Ustinov, Bette Davis, Mia Farrow, Angela Lansbury, Jane Birkin, David Niven, George Kennedy, Jack Warden, Simon MacCorkindale, Lois Chiles, Jon Finch, Maggie Smith, Olivia Hussey, Harry Andrews, I. S. Johar
costumes (Anthony Powell)

'These 8 women are about to meet 1 diabolical man!'

Death Proof ★

US 2007 111m
Momentum/Dimension Films/A Band Apart/Rodriguez International Pictures/Troublemaker Studios (Quentin Tarantino, Erica Steinberg, Elizabeth Avellan, Robert Rodriguez)

In Texas, three women go out on the town, unaware they are being stalked by a scarred stuntman named Mike who uses his car as a murderous weapon. Months later in Tennessee, Mike tries his lethal game on four other women, two of them in the stunt business. But they decide to wreak their revenge.
There's always something watchable in every Quentin Tarantino film. In this case it's the sight of stuntwoman Zoe Bell straddling the bonnet of her car in a thrilling high-speed case, and a terrific performance by an under-used Kurt Russell as the homicidal Mike. In the film's funniest moment, Russell stares into the camera and winks with a broad smile – thus making the audience complicit with his evil deeds. Still, it's hard not to feel Tarantino has lost the edge and verve that once made him such a cool, compelling talent. Death Proof is an homage to cheap, trashy 1970s exploitation films like the original Gone in 60 Seconds and Dirty Mary, Crazy Larry (both q.v.). But films of that type, appropriately, were nasty, short and brutish – they never overstayed their welcome. Tarantino has padded out his flick with interminable, rambling speeches between the groups of women. It's hard to recall, but snappy, smart dialogue was once his calling card. Another tic of Tarantino's that has become insufferable is his habit of ramming his taste down audiences' throats with gratuitous name-checks – a specific mention of the car in Vanishing Point, or a Joe Tex record on the chili parlour jukebox. It makes him a control freak, unwilling to allow us independent opinions. Overall, Death Proof is a bore.
wd Quentin Tarantino ph Quentin Tarantino pd Steve Joyner, Caylah Eddlebute ed Sally Menke sp Greg Nicotero
☆ Kurt Russell (Stuntman Mike), Rosario Dawson (Abernathy), Zoe Bell (Herself), Tracie Thoms (Kim), Rose McGowan (Pam), Sydney Tamila Poitier (DJ Jungle Julia), Jordan Ladd (Shanna), Vanessa Ferlito (Arlene), Mary Elizabeth Winstead (Lee), Omar Doom (Nate), Eli Roth (Dov), Quentin Tarantino (Chili Parlour proprietor), Michael Parks (Texas Ranger Earl McGraw)
'The movie won't do much for anyone who doesn't have an academic or fanboy absorption in junk.' – David Denby, New Yorker

'Long-winded and juvenile.' – Mick LaSalle, San Francisco Chronicle

† In the US, Death Proof was part of Grindhouse, a two-in-one homage to 1970s exploitation movies, along with Robert Rodriguez's Planet Terror. The two films were separated by trailers for spoof movies. In the UK, the two films were released separately; Tarantino added to the length of Death Proof for its individual release.

Death Race 2000 ★

US 1975 79m colour
New World (Roger Corman)

In the year 2000, the world's most popular sport involves motor racers who compete for the highest total of human casualties.

Cheaply made macabre satire, quite well enough made to please addicts of the blackest of black comedy.

w Robert Thom, Charles Griffith, Ib Melchior d Paul Bartel ph Tak Fujimoto m Paul Chihara

☆ David Carradine, Simone Griffeth, Sylvester Stallone, Mary Woronov

'The script is hardly Swiftian and therefore treads a thin delicate line between mockery and exploitation.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

Death Rides a Horse

Italy 1967 115m Technicolor Techniscope
PEC (Alfonso Sansone, Henryk Chroscicki)

original title: Da Uomo a Uomo

After his family is massacred, a young gunfighter tracks down the killers with the aid of a bandit who has his own reasons for seeking revenge.

Spaghetti Western that sticks close to the usual formula of over-dramatic gunfights.

w Luciano Vincenzoni, Giulio Petroni d Giulio Petroni ph Carlo Carlini m Ennio Morricone ad Franco Bottari, Rosa Sansone ed Eraldo Da Roma

☆ Lee Van Cleef, John Phillip Law, Anthony Dawson (Antonio Margheriti), Mario Brega, Luigi Pistilli, Jose Torres, Carlo Cassola

† The plot was used again in 1971 as the basis of Viva Django.

Death Ship

Canada 1980 91m CFI color
Astral Bellevue Pathé/Bloodstar

Survivors of a shipwreck take refuge on a mysterious empty ship which sets about killing them one by one.

Yes, that's the synopsis, in the wake of Killdozer and The Car, and this film is stupider than either.

w John Robins d Alvin Rakoff

☆ George Kennedy, Richard Crenna, Nick Mancuso, Sally Ann Howes, Kate Reid

'No woman ever loved such a man! The whole world waited while he made love!'

Death Takes a Holiday ★

US 1934 78m bw
Paramount (E. Lloyd Sheldon)

In the form of a mysterious prince, Death visits an Italian noble family to see why men fear him so.

A somewhat pretentious classic from a popular play of the twenties; interesting handling and performances, but a slow pace by modern standards.

w Maxwell Anderson, Gladys Lehman, Walter Ferris plays Maxwell Anderson and Alberto Casella d Mitchell Leisen ph Charles Lang m Bernhard Kaun, Sigmund Krumgold ad Ernst Fegte

☆ Fredric March, Evelyn Venable, Sir Guy Standing, Katherine Alexander, Gail Patrick, Helen Westley, Kathleen Howard, Henry Travers, Kent Taylor

'Highly fantastic, but well done ... likely to have greater appeal among the intelligentsia.' – Variety

† It was remade in 1998 as Meet Joe Black (qv).

Death Trap

US 1976 89m colour
Mars (Mohammed Rustam)

video title: Eaten Alive

The proprietor of a motel on the edge of a swamp is a maniac who murders his guests and feeds them to his pet crocodile.

Pretty sick rip-off of Psycho, with no holds barred; a typical and regrettable example of the so-called Gothic horrors of the independent American cinema in the late seventies.

w Alvin L. Fast, Mardi Rustam d Tobe Hooper ph Jack Beckett m Tobe Hooper, Wayne Bell

☆ Neville Brand, Mel Ferrer, Carolyn Jones, Marilyn Burns, William Finley, Stuart Whitman

Death Trap: see Deathtrap (1982)

'Not even a scream escapes!'

Death Valley

US 1981 88m Technicolor
Universal (Elliott Kastner)

A boy on vacation in Arizona finds himself being chased by a murderer.

Tedious shocker with little in the way of scenic background to relieve the unpleasant monotony.

w Richard Rothstein d Dick Richards ph Stephen H. Burum m Dana Kaproff ed Joel Cox

☆ Paul Le Mat, Catherine Hicks, Stephen McHattie, A. Wilford Brimley, Edward Herrmann

Death Vengeance: see Fighting Back

Death Warrant

US 1990 89m DeLuxe
UIP/MGM/Pathé (Mark DiSalle)

A Canadian Mounted Policeman goes undercover to discover who is responsible for a series of prison murders.

An implausible thriller, given little sense of reality but affording opportunities, readily taken, for violence.

w David S. Goyer d Deran Sarafian ph Russell Carpenter m Gary Chang pd Curtis Schnell ed G. Gregg McLaughlin, John A. Barton

☆ Jean-Claude Van Damme, Robert Guillaume, Cynthia Gibb, George Dickerson, Art LaFleur, Patrick Kilpatrick, Joshua Miller

'Unusually sadistic even by genre standards, this well-made exploitation yarn unravels under the weight of its dim-witted carnage.' – Variety

'It began with a rape. It ended with a massacre'

Death Weekend

Canada 1976 94m Eastmancolor Panavision
Reitman/Dunning/Link (Ivan Reitman)

Four louts take revenge on a lady driver by following her to a secluded country house.

Hoary shocker chiefly concerned with rape, the threat of rape, and various unpleasant methods of murder.

wd William Fruet ph Robert Saad ad Roy Forge Smith ed Jean Lafleur, Debbie Karjala

☆ Brenda Vaccaro, Don Stroud, Chuck Shamata

'Exploitation of the emptiest and most blatant kind.' – MFB

'Vigilante, city style ... judge, jury and executioner!'

Death Wish ★

US 1974 94m Technicolor
Paramount/Dino de Laurentiis (Hal Landers, Bobby Roberts, Michael Winner)

When his wife dies and his daughter becomes a vegetable after an assault by muggers, a New York businessman takes the law into his own hands.

After a highly unpleasant and sensational opening, this curious and controversial film settles down into what amounts to black comedy, with the audience well on the vigilante's side. It's not very good, but it keeps one watching.

w Wendell Mayes novel Brian Garfield d Michael Winner ph Arthur J. Ornitz m Herbie Hancock

☆ Charles Bronson, Hope Lange, Vincent Gardenia, Stuart Margolin, Steven Keats, William Redfield

'This urban version of Walking Tall transcends its violence to satisfy every base instinct that "we liberals" are heir to.' – Judith Crist

Death Wish 2

US 1981 95m colour
Golan-Globus/Landers-Roberts

His maid gang-raped and killed, his handicapped daughter driven to her death, Paul Kersey resumes his stalking of urban thugs.

A badly made exercise in the exploitation of the most repellent aspects of violence, without the first film's saving grace of slickness and humour.

w David Engelbach d Michael Winner ph Richard L. Kline, Tom Del Ruth m Jimmy Page

☆ Charles Bronson, Jill Ireland, Vincent Gardenia, J. D. Cannon, Anthony Franciosa

'Bad art is one thing, but Death Wish II is ludicrous.' – Variety

'The sort of sequel which makes you realize that the original wasn't half so bad as you thought.' – Margaret Hinxman, Daily Mail

'It doesn't contain an ounce of life. It slinks onto the screen and squirms for a while, and is over.' – Roger Ebert

Death Wish 3

US 1985 90m colour
Cannon (Menahem Golan, Yoram Globus)

Paul Kersey, the urban vigilante, eliminates a gang of thugs terrorizing an apartment block.

The killing sprees have become routine, and there's nothing else of interest in this boring sequel to a sequel.

w Michael Edmonds d Michael Winner ph John Stanier m Jimmy Page pd Peter Mullins ed Arnold Crust

☆ Charles Bronson, Deborah Raffin, Ed Lauter, Martin Balsam, Gavan O'Herlihy

Death Wish 4: The Crackdown

US 1987 99m colour
Cannon (Pancho Kohner)

The ageing vigilante attacks drug dealers in Los Angeles.

Repetitious violence, with little narrative, other than villains being set up so that they can be mown down.

w Gail Morgan Hickman d J. Lee-Thompson ph Gideon Porath m Paul McCallum, Valentine McCallum, John Bisharat ad Whitney Brooke Wheeler ed Peter Lee Thompson

☆ Charles Bronson, Kay Lenz, John P. Ryan, Perry Lopez, Soon-Teck Oh, George Dickerson, Dana Barron, Jesse Dabson

'The Vigilante Is Back...'

Death Wish 5: The Face of Death

US 1993 90m colour
21st Century (Damian Lee)

A university professor seeks revenge after his girlfriend is first disfigured and then killed by her former lover, a gangster.

A rerun of the original movie, adding little that is new and nothing that is interesting.

wd Allan A. Goldstein ph Curtis Petersen m Terry Plumeri pd Csaba A. Kertesz ed Patrick Rand

☆ Charles Bronson, Lesley-Anne Down, Michael Parks, Saul Rubinek, Kenneth Welsh

'Comes off as a flat-footed, by-the-numbers programmer that, judging from what's on-screen, failed to spark much enthusiasm among the people who made it.' – Variety

† The film was released direct to video in Britain.

Deathcheaters

Australia 1976 96m colour
Australian Film Commission/Roadshow/D. L. Taffner/Trenchard Productions (Brian Trenchard Smith)

Two Vietnam veterans turned stuntmen are hired to infiltrate a Filipino fortress guarded by 150 men.

Jocular romp that provides an excuse for a succession of low-cost stunts, from car crashes to hang gliding.

w Michael Cove story Brian Trenchard Smith d Brian Trenchard Smith ph John Seale m Peter Martin ad Darrell Lass ed Ron Williams

☆ John Hargreaves, Grant Page, Margaret Gerard, Noel Ferrier, Judith Woodroffe

The Deathmaster

US 1973 88m DeLuxe
RF World Entertainment/AIP

California surfers cheerfully adopt a local mystic, not knowing that he is a vampire.

Modestly budgeted teenage screamer, competently made but of interest only to avid bibliographers of Count Dracula.

w R. L. Grove d Ray Danton

☆ Robert Quarry, Brenda Dickson, Bill Ewing, John Fiedler

Deathsport

US 1978 83m Metrocolor
New World (Roger Corman)

A popular game of the future involves gladiators willing to lose their lives against lethal motorcyclists.

Low-budget shocker for teenagers, by Rollerball out of Death Race. Of no possible interest except as exploitation.

w Henry Suso, Donald Stewart d Henry

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Suso, Allan Arkush ph Gary Graver m Andrew Stein
☆ David Carradine, Claudia Jennings, Richard Lynch, William Smithers

Deathstalker

Argentina 1984 80m colour
New World (James Sbardellati)

original title: El Cazador de la Muerte
A muscular hero battles against an evil wizard.
Low-budget, low-intelligence sword and sorcery, lacking any imagination, but offering a plethora of female nudity. It surprisingly spawned several sequels.
w Howard R. Cohen d John Watson (James Sbardellati) ph Leonardo Rodriguez Solis m Oscar Cardozo Ocampo ad Emilio Basaldua ed John Adams, Silvia Ripoli
☆ Richard Hill, Barbi Benton, Richard Brooker, Victor Bo, Lana Clarkson, Bernard Erhard

Deathstalker 2

US 1987 77m colour
New Horizons (Frank Isaac)

aka: Deathstalker 2: Duel of the Titans
Deathstalker goes to the aid of an exiled princess who has been robbed of her throne.
Sword-and-sorcery action played for laughs, which makes it no more entertaining.
w Neil Ruttenberg, R. J. Robertson d Jim Wynorski ph Leonard Solis m Oscar Cardozo Campo, Christopher Young ad Marta Albert ed Steve Barnett
☆ John Terlesky, Monique Gabrielle, John Lazar, Toni Naples, Maria Socas, Queen Kong

Deathstalker and the Warriors from Hell

US 1989 86m colour
Concorde/New Horizons/Triana (Alfonso Corona, Antonio de Noriega)

aka: Deathstalker III
The outlaw Deathstalker honours the wish of a dying princess to search for a fabled city made of precious jewels and metals.
Tongue-in-cheek sword and sorcery, workmanlike but unimaginative and generally tedious.
w Howard Cohen d Alfonso Corona ph Xavier Cruz m Israel Torres, Alejandro Rulfo ad Francisco Magallon ed Ernesto Guillen
☆ John Allen Nelson, Carla Herd, Terri Treas, Thom Christopher, Aaron Hernan, Roger Cudney, Claudia Inchaurregui † Deathstalker IV: Match of the Titans, produced, written and directed by Howard Cohen, followed in 1989.

Deathtrap ★

US 1982 116m Technicolor
Warner/LAH (Burtt Harris)

A playwright past his best conceives a plan to murder an upcoming rival and steal his script.
This thriller on the lines of Sleuth was enjoyable enough on stage, but on the screen, despite pretensions to style, it takes far too long to unravel its very few twists, the last of which is badly fumbled.
w Jay Presson Allen play Ira Levin d Sidney Lumet ph Andrzej Bartkowiak m Johnny Mandel pd Tony Walton
☆ Michael Caine, Christopher Reeve, Dyan Cannon, Irene Worth, Henry Jones
'It plays absolutely fair, more or less, and yet fools us every time, more or less.' – Roger Ebert

Deathwatch ★★

France/West Germany 1980 128m Fujicolour Panavision
Contemporary/Quartet (Gabriel Boustiani, Janine Rubeiz)

In the future, a TV documentary producer has a cameraman, who has the apparatus implanted in his brain, follow every moment in the life of a dying woman.
Grim fable of media manipulation and sensationalist pressures on popular entertainment that retains its resonance.
w Bertrand Tavernier, David Rayfiel novel The Continuous Katherine Mortenhoe by David Compton d Bertrand Tavernier ph Pierre-William Glenn m Antoine Duhamel ad Tony Pratt ed Armand Psenay, Michael Ellis ☆ Romy Schneider, Harvey Keitel, Harry Dean Stanton, Max von Sydow, Therese Liotard

Deathwatch

GB/Germany 2002 94m colour
Pathé/OdysseyApollo/Media/F&ME (Sam Taylor, Mike Downey, Frank Huebner)
In the First World War, British soldiers take refuge in an abandoned German trench occupied by supernatural forces.
Atmospheric low-budget horror that gets bogged down in its muddy location and fails to develop satisfactorily.
wd Michael J. Bassett ph Hubert Taczanowski m Curt Cress, Chris Weller pd Aleksandar Denic ed Anne Sopel
☆ Jamie Bell (Charlie Shakespeare), Ruaidhri Conroy (Chevasse), Laurence Fox (Capt. Jennings), Torben Liebrecht (Friedrich), Dean Lennox Kelly (McNess), Kris Marshall (Starinski), Hans Matheson (Hawkstone), Hugh O'Conor (Bradford), Matthew Rhys ('Doc' Fairweather), Andy Serkis (Quinn), Hugo Speer (Sgt Tate)
'As so often, a dull script lets it down. Simply picking off the cast one by one doesn't mean the plot is progressing satisfactorily.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian † Other movies with a similar theme include Castle Keep, 1969, The Keep, 1983, and The Bunker, 2000.

'Some debts can never be paid'

The Debt Collector ★★

GB 1999 110m Eastmancolor
Film4/GFF/Dragon (Graham Broadbent, Damian Jones)

A bitter policeman is determined that an artist and writer shall not live down his violent past as a loan shark and murderer.
Violent , intensely-acted melodrama of hatred, rivalry and obsession that also casts an ironic sidelight on the current cult of the gangster as celebrity.
wd Anthony Neilson ph Dick Pope m Adrian Johnston pd Mark Geraghty ed John Wilson
☆ Billy Connolly (Dryden), Ken Stott (Keltie), Francesca Annis (Val), Iain Robertson (Flipper), Annette Crosbie (Lana), Alastair Galbraith (Colouhdun)
'Hardly a note rings false in this tightly paced, scorching thriller.' – Marianne Gray, Film Review
'Degenerate, disgusting, and ... deliciously funny!'

Decadence

GB/Germany 1993 108m colour
Mayfair/Vendetta (Lance W. Reynolds, Christoph Meyer-Weil)

A newly rich, upwardly mobile couple indulge in affairs: the husband with an upper-class woman, the wife with an investigator she has hired to spy on her husband.
An intensely theatrical work transfers unsucessfully to film, with Berkoff playing a philandering husband and a private eye who mixes sex and business, and Collins as both a wealthy and a nouveau-riche woman; its stylized, over-the-top acting seems merely grotesque on the big screen and its satire on the get-rich-quick decade of the 80s is without bite.
wd Steven Berkoff ph Denis Lenoir m Stewart Copeland pd Yolanda Sonnabend, Simon Holland ed John Wilson
☆ Steven Berkoff, Joan Collins, Christopher Biggins, Michael Winner, Marc Sinden
'A ripe, belching, heaving, power-drill satire of 1980s Thatcherite Britain that's as full of excesses as the passé targets it parodies.' – Variety
'This offers very little to keep you glued to your seat for what is, in reality, two rather uncomfortable hours.' – Kim Newman, Empire

The Decameron ★

Italy/France/W. Germany 1971 111m colour
UA/PEA/Artemis (Franco Rossellini)

original title: Il Decamerone
Eight of the bawdier stories from Boccaccio's cycle.
The first of Pasolini's excursions into folk-tales, emphasizing their earthiness and sexuality.
wd Pier Paolo Pasolini book The Decameron by Giovanni Boccaccio ph Tonino delli Colli m Ennio Morricone, Pier Paolo Pasolini pd Dante Ferretti ed Nino Baragli, Tatiana Morigi ☆ Franco Citti, Ninetto Davoli, Angela Luce, Patrizia Capparelli, Pier Paolo Pasolini, Jovan Jovanovic, Gianni Rizzo
'A film which finds comedy and beauty in all aspects of human vitality.' – MFB
† It was followed by similar adaptations of The Canterbury Tales and Arabian Nights (qqv).

Decameron Nights

GB 1952 94m Technicolor
Film Locations (M. J. Frankovich)
Young Boccaccio entertains a glamorous widow and her three guests with stories.
Feeble costume charade with all the cuckolding off-screen: insipid and artificial.
w George Oppenheimer d Hugo Fregonese ph Guy Green m Antony Hopkins ☆ Louis Jourdan, Joan Fontaine, Binnie Barnes, Joan Collins, Godfrey Tearle, Eliot Makeham, Noel Purcell
'The sort of hybrid international production of which experience has made one mistrustful.' – Gavin Lambert

Deceived

US 1991 108m Eastmancolor
Warner/Touchstone/Silver Screen Partners IV (Michael Finnell, Wendy Dozoretz, Ellen Collett)

A happily married New York art dealer discovers that her husband is not the person he claims to be.
An interesting premise is ignored in preference to an increasingly predictable narrative.
w Mary Agnes Donoghue, Derek Saunders d Damian Harris ph Jack N. Green m Thomas Newman pd Andrew McAlpine ed Neil Travis, Lisa M. Citron
☆ Goldie Hawn, John Heard, Ashley Peldon, Robin Bartlett, Tom Irwin, Amy Wright, Jan Rubes, Kate Reid
'A visually interesting but essentially made-to-order thriller.' – Sight and Sound

Deceiver: see Liar

The Deceivers

GB/India 1988 112m colour
Merchant-Ivory/Michael White/Cinecom/Film Four (Ismail Merchant, Tim Van Rellim)

An English army officer serving in India in the 1820s infiltrates the cult of Thuggee, a secret society of murderers.
Muddled melodrama that fails to carry any conviction.
w Michael Hirst novel John Masters d Nicholas Meyer ph Walter Lassally m John Scott pd Ken Adam ed Richard Trevor ☆ Pierce Brosnan, Saeed Jaffrey, Shashi Kapoor, Helena Michell, Keith Michell, David Robb

'Two men loved her ... she loved them both'

December Bride ★

GB 1990 90m colour
BFI/Film Four/CTE/British Screen/Little Bird (Jonathan Cavendish)

A servant girl with an illegitimate daughter defies local and religious feeling when she refuses to marry either of the two brothers who might be the father.
Engaging drama of individual struggle.
w David Rudkin novel Sam Hanna Bell d Thaddeus O'Sullivan ph Bruno de Keyzer m Jurgen Knieper pd Adrian Smith ed Rodney Holland
☆ Donal McCann, Saskia Reeves, Ciaran Hinds, Patrick Malahide, Brenda Bruce, Michael McKnight, Geoffrey Golden, Dervla Kirwan

Deception: see Reindeer Games

Deception ★★

US 1947 112m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

A European cellist returning to America after the war finds that his former girlfriend has a rich and jealous lover.
Downcast melodrama made when its star was beginning to slide; today it seems irresistible bosh with a background of classical music, done with intermittent style especially by Claude Rains as the egomaniac lover.
w John Collier play Monsieur Lamberthier by Louis Verneuil d Irving Rapper ph Ernest Haller m Erich Wolfgang Korngold ☆ Bette Davis, Claude Rains, Paul Henreid, John Abbott, Benson Fong
'It's like grand opera, only the people are thinner ... I wouldn't have missed it for the world.' – Cecelia Ager
'Exquisitely foolish: a camp classic.' – New Yorker, 1977
† Previously filmed in 1929 as Jealousy, with Fredric March and Jeanne Eagels.

Decision Against Time: see The Man in the Sky

Decision at Sundown

US 1957 77m Technicolor
Columbia (Harry Joe Brown)

A cowboy tracks down the badman who has seduced his wife.
Routine small-town Western, efficiently done.
w Charles Lang Jnr d Budd Boetticher
ph Burnett Guffey m Heinz Roemheld
☆ Randolph Scott, John Carroll, Karen Steele, Valerie French, Noah Beery Jnr, Andrew Duggan

Decision before Dawn ★

US 1951 119m bw
TCF (Anatole Litvak, Frank McCarthy)

In 1944, anti-Nazi German POWs are parachuted into Germany to obtain information.
Meticulous, well made but unexciting spy story which seldom comes vividly to life.
w Peter Viertel novel Call It Treason by George Howe d Anatole Litvak ph Franz Planer m Franz Waxman ed Dorothy Spencer
☆ Oskar Werner, Richard Basehart, Gary Merrill, Hildegarde Neff, Dominique Blanchar, Helene Thimig, O. E. Hasse, Hans Christian Blech
♗ best picture; editing

'There glows the neighbourhood.'

Deck the Halls

US 2006 92m
TCF/New Regency Pictures/Corduroy Films (Michael Costigan, Arnon Milchan, John Whitesell)

Neighbours come to blows at Christmas when one adorns his house with a lavish lights display.
Feeble, mean-spirited comedy that celebrates anti-social behaviour and tasteless excess.
w Matt Corman, Chris Ord, Don Rhymer
d John Whitesell ph Mark Irwin
m George S. Clinton pd Bill Brzeski ad Dan Hermansen ed Paul Hirsch
☆ Danny DeVito (Buddy Hall), Matthew Broderick (Steve Finch), Kristin Davis (Kelly Finch), Kristin Chenoweth (Tia Hall), Alia Shawkat (Madison Finch), Dylan Blue (Carter Finch)
'Coal in the stockings all around.' – Brian Lowry, Variety
'I literally didn't count a single laugh in the whole aimless schlep.' – Stephen Hunter, Washington Post
† Danny DeVito made headlines while promoting the film by appearing on Rosie O'Donnell's chat show, seemingly the worse for drink.

The Decks Ran Red

US 1958 84m bw
MGM/Andrew and Virginia Stone

Unscrupulous sailors plan to murder the entire crew of a freighter and claim the salvage money.
Solidly crafted but basically uninteresting melodrama.
w Andrew and Virginia Stone d Andrew Stone ph Meredith M. Nicholson
☆ James Mason, Broderick Crawford, Dorothy Dandridge, Stuart Whitman

Decline and Fall

GB 1968 113m DeLuxe
TCF/Ivan Foxwell
aka: Decline and Fall of a Birdwatcher

An innocent, accident-prone Oxford undergraduate is expelled and after various adventures in high and low society is convicted as a white slaver.
Flabby, doomed attempt to film a satirical classic which lives only on the printed page. Odd moments amuse.
w Ivan Foxwell novel Evelyn Waugh
d John Krish ph Desmond Dickinson
m Ron Goodwin
☆ Robin Phillips, Donald Wolfit, Genevieve Page, Robert Harris, Leo McKern, Colin Blakely, Felix Aylmer, Donald Sinden, Griffith Jones
'The British Graduate.' – New Yorker
'Literate, lavishly furnished, tastefully faithful.' – Observer

Decline and Fall of a Birdwatcher: see Decline and Fall

Decline of the American Empire ★★★

Canada 1986 101m colour
Malofilm/National Film Board Of Canada (Rene Malo, Roger Frappier)

original title: Le Déclin de l'Empire Américain

A group of intellectuals discuss their attitudes to gender, sex and love.
Witty, perceptive conversation piece that won the Film Critics' award at the Cannes Film Festival in 1986.
wd Denys Arcand ph Guy Dufaux md François Dompierre, based on themes by Handel ad Gaudeline Sauriol
ed Monique Forcier
☆ Dorothée Berryman (Lòuise), Louise Portal (Diane), Pierre Curzi (Pierre), Rémy Girard (Remy), Yves Jacques (Claude), Genevieve Rioux (Danielle), Daniel Briere (Alain), Gabriel Arcand (Mario)
'Arcand isn't out to expose these people as spiritually empty; he's trying to present a truthful look at how they live. There's nothing weighty in his approach; it's a lovely, very unassuming picture, yet there is enough drama so that by the end a subtle shift in all the relationships is necessary.' – New Yorker
† In 2003, Arcand's film The Barbarian Invasions (qv) dealt with many of the same group 18 years on.
♗ foreign film

The Decline of Western Civilization ★

US 1981 100m colour
Nu-Image (Penelope Spheeris)

A documentary of punk rock in Los Angeles in the late 70s, with disenchanted and alienated teenagers both as performers and audience.
Quirky and fascinating study of some of the unlovelier aspects of youthful rebellion; it makes an interesting companion piece to the director's first feature film, Suburbia.
d Penelope Spheeris ph Steve Conant, Bill Muerer, Penelope Spheeris m Fear, Black Flag, Germs, X, Alice Bag Band, The Circle Jerks, Catholic Discipline ed Charles Mullin, Peter Wiehl, David Colburn

The Decline of Western Civilization Part II: The Metal Years ★

US 1988 90m colour
New Line (Jonathan Dayton, Valerie Faris)

Documentary on the bands and personalities of heavy metal rock.
Lively documentary of one of the noisier forms of popular entertainment, including interviews with some of its wilder practitioners.
d Penelope Spheeris ph Jeff Zimmerman, Julio Macat ed Earl Ghaffari ☆ Aerosmith, Alice Cooper, Kiss, Ozzy Osborne, Megadeath

'Harry Block Wrote A Bestseller About His Friends. Now, His Best Friends Are About To Become His Worst Enemies.'

Deconstructing Harry ★★ ⑦

US 1997 96m DuArt
Fine Line (Jean Doumanian)

A writer, who makes use of the lives of his friends and family in his novels, goes to a ceremony in his honour at his old school.
Witty, discursive comedy, shuttling between the realities of a novelist's life and the fictions he makes from them; it has some excellent jokes and moments of hilarious farce, but there is no centre to hold it all together.
wd Woody Allen ph Carlo Di Palma
pd Santo Loquasto ed Susan E. Morse
☆ Woody Allen, Caroline Aaron, Kirstie Alley, Bob Balaban, Richard Benjamin, Eric Bogosian, Billy Crystal, Judy Davis, Hazelle Goodman, Mariel Hemingway, Amy Irving, Julie Kavner, Julia Louis-Dreyfus, Tobey Maguire, Demi Moore and also Elisabeth Shue, Stanley Tucci, Robin Williams
'Abrasive, complex, lacerating and self-revelatory. It's also very funny, most of the time.' – David Strattan, Variety
♗ Woody Allen (script)

Decoy

US 1947 76m bw
Monogram

The girlfriend of an executed gangster tries to get her hands on his buried loot.
Surprisingly tough little co-feature of its day; even more surprisingly, the leading lady is British.
w Nedrick Young d Jack Bernhard
☆ Jean Gillie, Edward Norris, Herbert Rudley, Robert Armstrong

Decoy: see Mystery Submarine (1962)

Dédée: see Dédée d'Anvers

Dédée d'Anvers ★

France 1948 95m bw
Sacha Gordine (André Paulvé)
aka: Woman of Antwerp
aka: Dédée

A dockside prostitute falls for a sailor and arouses the jealousy of her protector.
Seamy low life melodrama, presented con brio, but rather like a tenth copy of Quai des Brumes.
w Yves Allégret, Jacques Sigurd d Yves Allégret ph Jean Bourgoin m Jacques Besse
☆ Simone Signoret, Marcel Pagliero, Bernard Blier, Marcel Dalio, Jane Marken

The Deep

US 1977 124m Metrocolor Panavision
Columbia/EMI/Casablanca (Peter Guber)

Underwater treasure seekers off Bermuda clash with black villains seeking a lost consignment of morphine.
An expensive action picture which is singularly lacking in action and even in plot, but oozes with brutality and overdoes the splendours of submarine life, forty per cent of it taking place under water.
w Peter Benchley, Tracy Keenan Wynn novel Peter Benchley d Peter Yates ph Christopher Challis, Al Giddings, Stan Waterman m John Barry pd Tony Masters ☆ Jacqueline Bisset, Robert Shaw, Nick Nolte, Lou Gossett, Eli Wallach
'The ultimate disco experience ... it dances on the spot for two hours, taking voodoo, buried treasure, morphine, violence and sea monsters in its stride.' – Time Out
'Peter Yates has knocked himself out doing masterly underwater action sequences in the service of a woefully crummy book.' – Russell Davies, Observer

Deep Blue ★★

GB/Germany 2003 90m colour
BBC/Greenlight (Alix Tidmarsh, Sophokles Tasioulis)

Documentary of undersea life, using material shot for the BBC TV series The Blue Planet.
Fascinating glimpse into an environment unknown to most people, who rarely penetrate below the surface; apart from some moments with polar bears and penguins, it concentrates on the strange, beautiful and deadly creatures to be found in the world's oceans.
w Alastair Fothergill, Andy Byatt, Tim Ecott
d Alastair Fothergill, Andy Byatt ph Doug Allan, Peter Scoones, Rick Rosenthal
m George Fenton ed Martin Elsbury
☆ Michael Gambon (narrator)
'Jaw-dropping, sumptuous visuals, a lush George Fenton score, state-of-the-art technology and some of the oddest creatures ever seen without recourse to artificial stimulants.' – Jonathan Holland, Variety

The Deep Blue Sea ★

GB 1955 99m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
TCF/London Films (Anatole Litvak)

A judge's wife attempts suicide when jilted by her ex-RAF lover.
Undistinguished adaptation of a very good play, hampered by wide screen and muddy colour, helped by thoughtful performances.
w Terence Rattigan play Terence Rattigan
d Anatole Litvak ph Jack Hildyard
m Malcolm Arnold
☆ Vivien Leigh, Kenneth More, Eric Portman, Emlyn Williams, Moira Lister, Arthur Hill, Dandy Nichols, Jimmy Hanley, Miriam Karlin

Deep Blue Sea

US 1999 105m Technicolor Super 35
Warner/Village Roadshow/Groucho III (Alan Riche, Tony Ludwig, Akiva Goldsman)

Sharks with enhanced intelligence threaten the staff of an underwater research facility.
Basically a B movie on steroids, this delivers all the expected, and more than familiar, thrills and spills, but lacks surprise.
w Duncan Kennedy, Donna Powers, Wayne Powers d Renny Harlin ph Stephen Windon m Trevor Rabin pd William Sandell, Joseph Bennett ed Frank J. Urioste, Derek G. Brechin, Dallas S. Puett sp ILM; Hammerhead
☆ Thomas Jane (Carter Blake), Saffron Burrows (Dr Susan McAlester), Samuel L. Jackson (Russell Franklin), Jacqueline McKenzie (Janice Higgins), Michael Rapaport (Tom Scoggins), Stellan Skarsgard (Jim Whitlock), LL Cool J (Preacher), Aida Turturro (Brenda Kerns)
'Leave your brain at the popcorn concession stand and you'll just cope with this ridiculous but intermittently pleasurable waterlogged action thriller.' – Charles Gant, Heat

Deep Breath: see Le Souffle

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'He'd be the perfect criminal if he wasn't the perfect cop.'

Deep Cover ★★

US 1992 112m DeLuxe
First Independent/Image Organisation (Pierre David)

A cop finds himself in trouble when he is recruited to infiltrate the operation of a Los Angeles drug dealer with powerful South American connections.
Vigorous, intelligent thriller that offers more complexity than most of its type.
w Michael Tolkin, Henry Bean d Bill Duke ph Bojan Bazelli m Michel Colombier pd Pam Warner ed John Carter
☆ Larry Fishburne, Jeff Goldblum, Victoria Dillard, Charles Martin Smith, Gregory Sierra, Clarence Williams III, Sydney Lassick

'Deeply cynical, almost despairing second feature from Bill Duke features enough promotable hard action, rough violence and bad attitude to make a small spring stash.' – Variety

'A formulaic police thriller with a hip-hop musical tail that constantly wags the cinematic dog.' – Philip French, Observer

Deep Crimson ★★

Mexico/France/Spain 1996 115m colour
Metro/Tartan/Ivania/MCINE/MK2/Wanda (Miguel Necoechea, Pablo Barbachano)

original title: Profundo Carmesi
aka: Carmin Profond

In Mexico in the late 40s, a fat nurse and a con man join forces to cheat lonely widows of their money.
Slick, slightly camp, deeply romantic account of a couple of ruthless serial killers.
w Paz Alicia Garciadiego d Arturo Ripstein ph Guillermo Granillo m David Mansfield ad Mónica Chirinos, Patricia Nava ed Rafael Castanedo
☆ Daniel Gimenez Cacho, Regina Orozco, Marisa Paredes, Veronica Merchant, Julieta Egurrola, Rosa Furman

'It's not a comfortable watch, but it is a compelling one.' – Kim Newman, Empire

† The same true story was also the basis of The Honeymoon Killers (qv), directed by Leonard Kastle, to whom this film is dedicated.

Deep End ★

West Germany/USA 1970 88m Eastmancolor
Maran/Kettledrum/Bavaria Atelier (Judd Bernard)

Sexual problems of two young people on the staff of a London municipal bathhouse.
Interestingly made but rather dreary and vaguely symbolic modern fable.
w Jerzy Skolimowski, Jerzy Gruza, Boleslaw Sulik d Jerzy Skolimowski ph Charly Steinberger m Cat Stevens
☆ Jane Asher, John Moulder-Brown, Diana Dors, Karl Michael Vogler, Christopher Sandford

'A study in the growth of obsession that is both funny and frighteningly exact.' – Nigel Andrews, MFB

The Deep End ★

US 2001 99m Foto-Kem Panavision
TCF/i5 (Scott McGehee, David Siegel)

A mother covers up a murder that she believes was committed by her gay teenage son.
Cool thriller that is better on the domestic detail of everyday life than on the messy details of blackmail and death.
wd Scott McGehee, David Siegel novel The Blank Wall by Elizabeth Sanxay Holding ph Giles Nuttgens m Peter Nashel pd Kelly McGehee ed Lauren Zuckerman ☆ Tilda Swinton (Margaret Hall), Goran Visnjic (Alek Spera), Jonathan Tucker (Beau Hal), Raymond Barry (Carlie Nagle), Josh Lucas (Darby Reese), Peter Donat (Jack Hall), Tamara Hope (Paige Hall), Jordan Dorrance (Dylan Hall)

'An absorbing, beautifully made melodrama that succeeds on formal levels more than it does with suspense or emotion.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

† Elizabeth Sanxay Holding's novel was also the basis for Max Ophuls's 1949 movie The Reckless Moment.

The Deep End of the Ocean ★★

US 1999 105m Technicolor
Columbia/Mandalay/Via Rosa (Kate Guinzberg, Steve Nicolaides)

A family struggles to survive the sudden disappearance of their three-year-old son.
Engrossing domestic drama exploring the meaning of family values which is elevated out of the ordinary by its central performances.
w Stephen Schiff novel Jacquelyn Mitchard d Ulu Grosbard ph Stephen Goldblatt m Elmer Bernstein pd Dan Davis ed John Bloom
☆ Michelle Pfeiffer (Beth Cappadora), Treat Williams (Pat Cappadora), Whoopi Goldberg (Candy Bliss), Jonathan Jackson (Vincent Cappadora), Ryan Merriman (Sam), John Kapelos (George Karras), Michael McElroy (Ben Cappadora), Cory Buck (Vincent Cappadora, aged 7), Alexa Vega (Kerry Cappadora), Michael McGrady (Jimmy Daugherty), Brenda Strong (Ellen), Rose Gregorio (Rosie)

'Restrained and unsentimental, this astute drama deals thoughtfully with the chasm between real and idealized family lives.' – Janet Maslin, New York Times

'Oceans Rise. Cities Fall. Hope Survives.'

Deep Impact ★

US 1998 125m DeLuxe 'Scope
Paramount/DreamWorks (Richard D. Zanuck, David Brown)

When a huge asteroid is spotted on a collision course for Earth, astronauts are sent to try to destroy it while contigency plans are made to save the lives of a few.
Something of a feel-bad disaster movie, in which the world is almost destroyed, while the audience is slowly drowned in the sticky syrup of sentimentality. What is truly striking is the poverty of imagination: the end of all life is a theme worth more than the trivial psycho-dramas on display.
w Bruce Joel Rubin, Michael Tolkin
d Mimi Leder ph Dietrich Lohmann
m James Horner pd Leslie Dilley ed David Rosenbloom sp Industrial Light and Magic ☆ Robert Duvall, Téa Leoni, Elijah Wood, Vanessa Redgrave, Maximilian Schell, Morgan Freeman, James Cromwell, Ron Eldard, Jon Favreau

'This devastating, deadly-serious glimpse at the emotional impact of Earth's possible destruction is a bold experiment, superbly realized – a gripping, thoughtful big-budget Summer movie about real people.' – Jason Caro, Film Review

'Spectacular enough in its cataclysmic scenes of the planet being devastated by an unstoppable fireball, but proves far from thrilling in the down time spent with a largely dull assortment of troubled human beings.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Deep in My Heart ★

US 1954 132m Eastmancolor
MGM (Roger Edens)

Sigmund Romberg, a composer-waiter in New York, is helped by writer Dorothy Donnelly and showman Florenz Ziegfeld to become a famous writer of musicals.
Standard fictionalized biopic with plenty of good turns and a sharper script than usual.
w Leonard Spigelgass d Stanley Donen ph George Folsey m Sigmund Romberg ch Eugene Loring ad Cedric Gibbons, Edward Carfagno
☆ José Ferrer (Sigmund Romberg), Merle Oberon (Dorothy Donnelly), Paul Henreid (Florenz Ziegfeld), Walter Pidgeon (J.J. Shubert), Helen Traubel (Anna Mueller), Doe Avedon (Lillian Ziegfeld), Tamara Toumanova (Gaby Deslys), Paul Stewart, Isobel Elsom, David Burns, Jim Backus and also Gene Kelly, Fred Kelly, Rosemary Clooney, Jane Powell, Ann Miller, Cyd Charisse, James Mitchell, Howard Keel, Tony Martin, Joan Weldon

Deep in the Woods: see Promenons-Nous Dans Les Bois

'When was the last time you were really scared!!!?'
'You will never forget it!!!'

Deep Red ★★

Italy 1975 120m Eastmancolor 'Scope
Rizzoli Film/SEDA Spettacoli/Salvatore Argento

original title: Profondo Rosso
aka: The Hatchet Murders

A jazz pianist who witnesses a horrific murder obsessively and ineffectually tracks down the killer.
Slick, stylish, decadent, suspenseful thriller, with a disquieting atmosphere that continually puts its audience, like its victims, off-balance. Hemmings's character owes much to his role in Antonioni's Blow Up.
w Dario Argento, Bernardino Zapponi
d Dario Argento ph Luigi Kuveiller
m Giorgio Gaslini, Goblin ad Giuseppe Bassan ed Franco Fraticelli sp Germano Nobile, Carlo Rambaldi
☆ David Hemmings, Daria Nicolodi, Gabriele Lavia, Macha Meril, Eros Pagni, Giuliana Calandra, Glauco Mauri, Clara Calamai

'An Argento movie to treasure.' – The Dark Side

'A director of incomparable incompetence.' – Vincent Canby, New York Times

† The current British video release is of the subtitled original version. The film has also been released in an inferior dubbed version cut to 98m, which robs it of much of its narrative structure. The shorter version has been available on video.

Deep Rising

US 1998 106m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Hollywood Pictures (Laurence Mark, John Baldecchi)

Pirates rescue a few survivors from a luxury liner that has been attacked by a gigantic octopus-like creature.
Glossy monster movie, with most of the budget going on special effects; the script appears to have been cobbled together after a hasty viewing of 50s horror movies.
wd Stephen Sommers ph Howard Atherton m Jerry Goldsmith pd Holger Gross ed Bob Ducsay, John Wright
sp creature design: Rob Bottin
☆ Treat Williams, Famke Janssen, Anthony Heald, Kevin J. O'Connor, Wes Studi, Derrick O'Connor, Jason Flemying, Djimon Hounsou, Cliff Curtis, Clifton Powell

'An old-fashioned B movie with A-budget effects, but the quality sheen can't disguise the cheap-thrills hokum.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

The Deep Six

US 1958 110m Warnercolor
Jaguar (Martin Rackin)

A Quaker is unhappy at being drafted into the navy, but after initial unpopularity becomes a hero.
An ageing star contends with many hazards: slipshod production, poor colour, a dull script, and an unplayable part.
w John Twist, Martin Rackin, Harry Brown novel Martin Dibner d Rudolph Maté ph John Seitz m David Buttolph
☆ Alan Ladd, William Bendix, Efrem Zimbalist Jnr, Dianne Foster, Keenan Wynn, James Whitmore, Joey Bishop, Jeanette Nolan

Deep Valley

US 1947 104m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

The daughter of a poor California farmer falls for a convict on a work gang.
Downright peculiar melodrama, a cross between Tobacco Road and Cold Comfort Farm, with touches of High Sierra. For collectors.
w Salka Viertel, Stephen Morehouse Avery novel Dan Totheroh d Jean Negulesco ph Ted McCord m Max Steiner
☆ Ida Lupino, Dane Clark, Wayne Morris, Henry Hull, Fay Bainter, Willard Robertson

Deep Water ★

UK 2006 92m Colour/bw
Pathe/APT/Stir Fried/Darlow Smithson (Al Morrow, Jonny Persey, John Smithson)

An account of Donald Crowhurst's attempt to win a non-stop, round-the-world sailing race in 1968, which ended in his death.
Sombre but intriguing story of bravado and deception that cost one man his life.
d Louise Osmond, Jerry Rothwell ph Nina Kellgren m Molly Nyman, Harry Escott
pd Jane Linz Roberts ed Ben Lester
☆ Clare Crowhurst, Simon Crowhurst, Robin Knox-Johnston, Simon Russell Beale (Voice of Donald Crowhurst), Jean Badin (Voice of Bernard Moitessier)

Deep Waters

US 1948 85m bw
TCF

A problem orphan boy is content when adopted by a lobster fisherman.
Forgettable family film, smoothly directed and photographed.
w Richard Murphy d Henry King
ph Joseph LaShelle m Cyril Mockridge
☆ Jean Peters, Dana Andrews, Dean Stockwell, Cesar Romero, Anne Revere

'Not All Aliens Come From Space. Save Your Last Breath...To Scream.'

Deepstar Six ★

US 1989 100m Technicolor
Tri-Star (Sean S. Cunningham, Patrick Markey)

Underwater workers blow a hole in the sea-floor that releases a monster from the depths.
Modest, moderately suspenseful thriller with an excess of gore.
w Lewis Abernathy, Geoff Miller d Sean S. Cunningham ph Mac Ahlberg m Harry

Manfredini pd John Reinhart ed David Handman
☆ Taurean Blacque, Nancy Everhard, Greg Evigan, Miguel Ferrer, Matt McCoy, Nia Peeples, Cindy Pickett, Marius Weyers

The Deer Hunter ★

US 1978 182m Technicolor Panavision
Universal/EMI (Barry Spikings, Michael Deeley, Michael Cimino, John Peverall)

Three friends from a small Pennsylvania town go to fight in Vietnam.
The three-hour running time is taken up with crosscutting of a wedding, a deer hunt and a game of Russian roulette. Presumably the audience has to guess the point, if any; meanwhile it may be repelled by this long and savage if frequently engrossing film.
w Deric Washburn story Michael Cimino, Louis Garfinkle, Quinn K. Redeker and Deric Washburn d Michael Cimino
ph Vilmos Zsigmond m Stanley Myers ed Peter Zinner
☆ Robert De Niro, John Cazale, John Savage, Christopher Walken, Meryl Streep
'A hollow spectacle, less about war than its effect on a community, full of specious analogies, incoherent sentimentality and belief in its own self-importance.' – Time Out best picture; direction; Christopher Walken; Peter Zinner; sound (Richard Portman, William L. McCaughey, Aaron Rochin, C. Darin Knight)
Deric Washburn; Vilmos Zsigmond; Robert De Niro; Meryl Streep
Vilmos Zsigmond

Def by Temptation

US 1990 95m Technicolor
BFI/Troma/Orpheus/Bonded Filmworks (James Bond III)

A young black man, intent on becoming a preacher, meets a woman possessed by a demon.
Slow-moving, low-budget occult thriller, more concerned with male/female relationships than horror, and showing promise of better movies to come from its first-time writer-director.
wd James Bond III ph Ernest Dickerson m Paul Laurence pd David Carrington ed Li-Shin Yu sp Rob Benevides
☆ James Bond III, Kadeem Hardison, Bill Nunn, Samuel L. Jackson, Minnie Gentry, Rony Clanton, Melba Moore, Stephen Van Cleef
'An instant addition to the canon of so-bad-it's-good classics and, inadvertently, a fascinating glimpse into the contradictions of contemporary American black culture.' – John Lyttle, Independent
'Sharp, funny and borderline creepy socio-sexual horror story.' – Kim Newman, Sight and Sound

Def Jam's How to Be a Player: see How to Be a Player

Defcon-4

Canada 1984 90m colour
New World/Salter Street (B. A. Gillian, Maura O'Connell, Paul Donovan)

aka: Ground Zero
Astronauts from an orbiting defence system return to Earth after a nuclear war to discover that savage tribes are fighting for control of the world.
Post-apocalyptic science-fiction of a familiar kind, but done with a certain unlovely intensity
wd Paul Donovan ph Doug Connell, Les Krizsan m Chris Young ad J. W. Walsh, Emanuel Jannasch ed Todd Ramsay
☆ Lenore Zann, Maury Chaykin, Kate Lynch, Tim Choate, Kevin King, John Walsch, Jeff Pustil, Donna King

The Defector

France/West Germany 1966 101m Eastmancolor
PECF/Rhein Main (Raoul Lévy)
original title: L'Espion

An American physicist in East Germany gets involved in the spy game.
Disenchanted espionage 'realism', not very well styled and hampered by a star at the end of his tether.
w Robert Guenette, Raoul Lévy novel The Spy by Paul Thomas d Raoul Lévy
ph Raoul Coutard m Serge Gainsbourg
☆ Montgomery Clift, Hardy Kruger, Macha Meril, Roddy McDowall, David Opatoshu, Christine Delaroche, Jean-Luc Godard
'All that we're finally left with is the cliché, a relatively new one, along with the triple-viced hero, that spying is not a nice profession but the good guys have to go in and win for our team. Well, East, West, or Western, what this country needs, moviewise, is a good cliché-breaker – and hang the expense.' – Judith Crist

Defence of the Realm ★★

GB 1985 96m colour
(Rank) Enigma/NFFC (David Puttnam) (Linda Miles)

A journalist tries to check the relationship between an MP and a Russian agent.
Efficient political melodrama, basically too old-fashioned to start a cult.
w Martin Stellman d David Drury
ph Roger Deakins m Richard Hartley
pd Roger Murray-Leach ed Michael Bradsell ☆ Gabriel Byrne, Greta Scacchi, Denholm Elliott, Ian Bannen, Fulton Mackay, Bill Paterson best supporting actor, Denholm Elliott

Defenceless

US 1991 104m colour
New Visions (Renee Missel, David Bombyk)

A female attorney is hired to defend the wife of her lover, who is accused of his murder.
Moderately engaging thriller, in which the acting is better than the plot.
w James Hicks story James Hicks, Jeff Burkhart d Martin Campbell ph Phil Meheux m Curt Sobel pd Curtis A. Schnell ed Lou Lombardo, Chris Wimble
☆ Barbara Hershey, Sam Shepard, Mary Beth Hurt, J. T. Walsh, Kellie Overbey, Sheree North, Randy Brooks
'Effective (if somewhat predictable) thriller ... Tense and engrossing.' – Sight and Sound
'A trite whodunnit dressed up with some good performances and an unusually emotional finale.' – Empire
† The film was released direct to video in Britain.

'The First True Story Of What Happens After You Die.'

Defending Your Life ★★

US 1991 111m Technicolor
Warner/Geffen (Michael Grillo)

Killed in a car crash, an advertising executive finds himself in Judgement City where he must defend what he did with his life in a trial to decide his ultimate fate.
Enjoyable comedy of modern manners, less concerned with the afterlife than with the here-and-now.
wd Albert Brooks ph Allen Daviau
m Michael Gore pd Ida Random
ed David Finfer, Spencer Gross
☆ Albert Brooks, Meryl Streep, Rip Torn, Lee Grant, Buck Henry, Michael Durrell, James Eckhouse, Gary Beach, Julie Cobb
'Original in concept, funny in spasms and pretty good about the American propensity to examine themselves in such minute detail that Judgement Day is likely to seem like just another spell on the analyst's couch.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Defiance

US 1980 102m Movielab
AIP

A young seaman staying in New York fights back against the power of an urban gang.
Belated and unnecessary addition to the gang cycle; violent nonsense.
w Thomas Michael Donnelly d John Flynn ph Ric Waite m Dominic Frontiere
pd Bill Malley ed David Finfer
☆ Jan Michael Vincent, Theresa Saldana, Danny Lopez, Rudy Ramos, Lenny Montana, Art Carney

The Defiant Ones ★★★

US 1958 96m bw
UA/Stanley Kramer

A black and a white convict escape from a chain gang, still linked together but hating each other.
Schematic melodrama with a moral, impeccably done and with good performances.
w Nathan E. Douglas (Nedrick Young), Harold Jacob Smith d Stanley Kramer ph Sam Leavitt m Ernest Gold
ed Frederic Knudtson
☆ Tony Curtis, Sidney Poitier, Theodore Bikel, Charles McGraw, Lon Chaney Jnr, King Donovan, Claude Akins, Lawrence Dobkin, Whit Bissell, Carl 'Alfalfa' Switzer, Cara Williams
'Probably Kramer's best picture. The subject matter is relatively simple, though "powerful"; the action is exciting; the acting is good. But the singleness of purpose behind it all is a little offensive.' – Pauline Kael
† Nathan E. Douglas was a pseudonym for the blacklisted writer Nedrick Young.
Nathan E. Douglas, Harold Jacob Smith; Sam Leavitt picture; Stanley Kramer; Tony Curtis; Sidney Poitier; Theodore Bikel; Cara Williams; editing Sidney Poitier

Le Défroqué ★

France 1953 111m bw
SFC/SNEG

A defrocked priest performs a gallant action which persuades an acquaintance to become a priest himself and try to draw his friend back into the fold.
Curious but holding moral melodrama embellished by good acting.
w Leo Joannon, Denys de la Patellière
d Leo Joannon ph Nicolas Torporkoff
m Jean-Jacques Grunenwald
☆ Pierre Fresnay, Pierre Trabaud, Nicole Stéphane, Marcelle Geniat, Guy Decomble, Leo Joannon, René Blancard

Déjà Vu

GB 1985 90m colour
Cannon (Michael Kagan)

Lovers discover that they are reincarnations of a couple who perished 50 years ago in a fire.
Muddling, over-talkative supernatural thriller with dollops of sex.
w Ezra D. Rappaport, Anthony Richmond book Trevor Meldal-Johnsen d Anthony Richmond ph David Holmes m Pino Donaggio pd Tony Wollard ed Richard Trevor ☆ Jaclyn Smith (Maggie Rogers/Brooke Ashley), Nigel Terry (Gregory Thomas/Michael Richardson), Claire Bloom (Eleanor Harvey), Shelley Winters (Olga Nabokov)

'Sometimes your head has to listen to your heart.'

Déjà Vu

US 1997 115m DeLuxe
UIP/Rainbow/Revere/Jagtoria (John Goldstone)

A chance encounter leads to an American woman abandoning her fiancé for a new lover.
An involved and rarely believable tale of passion, in the style of a superior home movie; it may be enjoyed by those who believe that passion excuses bad behaviour.
w Henry Jaglom, Victoria Foyt d Henry Jaglom ph Hanania Baer m Gaili Schoen
pd Helen Scott ed Henry Jaglom
☆ Stephen Dillane, Victoria Foyt, Vanessa Redgrave, Glynis Barber, Michael Brandon, Vernon Dobtcheff, Graydon Gould, Noel Harrison, Rachel Kempson, Aviva Marks, Anna Massey
'Ludicrously contrived and monumentally indulgent.' – Guardian

'If you thought it was just a trick of the mind, prepare yourself for the truth.'

Déjà Vu (6)

US/UK 2006 126m
Buena Vista/Touchstone Pictures/Jerry Bruckheimer Films/Scott Free Productions (Jerry Bruckheimer)

A US federal agent uses time-travel technology to avert a ferry bombing that has already happened.
Slick thriller put across with enough professionalism and style to excuse its preposterous scenario.
w Bill Marsilii, Terry Rossio d Tony Scott ph Paul Cameron m Harry Gregson-Williams pd Chris Seagers ad Scott Plauche ed Jason Hellman, Chris Lebenzon
☆ Denzel Washington (Doug Carlin), Val Kilmer (Andrew Pryzwarra), Paula Patton (Claire Kuchever), Jim Caviezel (Carroll Oerstadt), Bruce Greenwood (Jack McCready), Adam Goldberg (Denny)
DOUG: "What if you had to tell someone the most important thing in the world, but you knew they'd never believe you?"
'Scott whips the action into a taut, tasty lather.' – David Ansen, Newsweek † Filming in New Orleans was delayed by Hurricane Katrina.

Déjeuner sur l'Herbe: see Lunch on the Grass

Delbaran ★★

Iran/Japan 2001 97m colour
ICA/Office Kitano/Bandai VisualFilm-e-Aval/T-Mark (Abolfazl Jalili, Shozo Ichiyama)

A young, orphaned Afghan refugee tries to survive by working in a remote Iranian roadside café.
Moving account of a boy forced to live on his wits in a hostile world, told with great humanity and visual directness.
wd Abolfazl Jalili story Reza Saberi
ph Mohammad Ahmadi ed Abolfazl Jalili

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

☆ Kaim Alizadeh, Rahmatollah Ebrahimi, Hossein Hashemian, Ahmad Mahdavi

'Full of bizarre, often mysterious incidents, cruelty, kindness and wry humour.' – Philip French, Observer

'A comedy with the works!'

The Deli

US 1997 96m colour
Golden Monkey (Sylvia Caminer)

Facing financial ruin, a delicatessen owner risks everything by frantic gambling, while customers come and go.

Amiable, ramshackle comedy with little narrative but a succession of quirky characters to entertain in one way or another.

w John Dorrian, John Gallagher d John Gallagher ph Robert Lechterman m Ernie Mannix pd Lisa Frantz ed Sue Blainey

☆ Mike Starr (Johnny), Matt Keeslar (Andy), Judith Malina (Mrs Amico), Brian Vincent (Pinky), Ice T (Phil the Meat Man), Michael Imperioli (Matty), David Johansen (Cabbie), Heather Matarazzo (Sabrina), Debi Mazur (Teresa), Jerry Stiller (Petey Cheesecake), Frank Vincent (Tommy Tomatoes), Burt Young (J. C.)

'On this deli's menu, there's way too much ham.' – Janet Maslin, New York Times

A Delicate Balance ★

US 1975 134m colour
American Express/Ely Landau/Cinevision

A quarrelsome Connecticut family is dominated by an ageing matriarch, and tensions mount to a climax of fear and threats.

Honourable but slightly boring film version of an essentially theatrical play: the acting is the thing.

w Edward Albee play Edward Albee
d Tony Richardson ph David Watkin
m none

☆ Katharine Hepburn, Paul Scofield, Joseph Cotten, Lee Remick, Kate Reid, Betsy Blair

The Delicate Delinquent

US 1956 101m bw Vistavision
Paramount/Jerry Lewis

A New York policeman tries to make friends with an eccentric youth who mixes with thugs; the boy decides to train as a policeman.

Jerry Lewis's first film without Dean Martin: a sobering experience combining zany comedy, sentiment, pathos and social comment. The mixture fails to rise.

wd Don McGuire ph Haskell Boggs
m Buddy Bregman

☆ Jerry Lewis, Darren McGavin, Martha Hyer, Robert Ivers, Horace McMahon Delicatessen ★★★

France 1990 99m colour
Electric/Constellation/UGC/Hachette Première (Claudie Ossard)

In a decaying city of the future, a butcher, who flourishes by killing his workers and selling their flesh, is attacked by underground vegetarian terrorists.

A gruesome theme given exuberant, witty, cartoon-like treatment.

wd Jean-Pierre Jeunet, Marc Caro
ph Darius Khondji m Carlos D'Alessio
ad Marc Caro ed Hervé Schneid

☆ Dominique Pinon (Louison), Marie-Laure Dougnac (Julie Clapet), Jean-Claude Dreyfus (The Butcher), Karin Viard (Miss Plusse), Ticky Holgado (Mr. Tapioca), Anne-Marie Pisani (Mrs. Tapioca), Jacques Mathou (Roger Kube)

'Beautifully textured, cleverly scripted and eerily shot ... a zany little film that should get terrific word of mouth.' – Variety

'An impressive achievement and extremely funny.' – Philip French, Observer

Delicious

US 1931 106m bw
Fox

An Irish girl in New York falls for a rich man.

Early musical, very thin, but an agreeable museum piece for collectors.

w Guy Bolton, Sonya Levien d David Butler ph Ernest Palmer m/ly George and Ira Gershwin

☆ Janet Gaynor, Charles Farrell, El Brendel, Lawrence O'Sullivan, Virginia Cherrill, Mischa Auer

'Cream puffs, applesauce, and plenty of nuts ... should do the team's business on its name strength.' – Variety

Delightfully Dangerous

US 1945 93m bw
UA (Charles R. Rogers)

A straitlaced girl discovers that her eldest sister is a burlesque dancer.

Mild family comedy with music.

w Walter de Leon, Arthur Phillips
d Arthur Lubin

☆ Jane Powell, Constance Moore, Ralph Bellamy, Arthur Treacher

The Delinquents

Australia 1989 101m colour
Warner/Village Roadshow (Alex Cutler, Michael Wilcox)

Two teenagers ignore adult disapproval and fall in love.

Tiresome account of adolescent angst.

w Mac Gudgeon, Clayton Frohman novel Criena Rohan d Chris Thomson
ph Andrew Lesnie m Miles Goodman
pd Laurence Eastwood ed John Scott

☆ Kylie Minogue, Charlie Schlatter, Angela Punch McGregor, Bruno Lawrence, Todd Boyce, Desiree Smith, Melissa Jaffer

'What did happen on the Cahulawassee River?'

Deliverance ★★★★

US 1972 109m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Elmer Enterprises (John Boorman)

Four men spend a holiday weekend canoeing down a dangerous river, but find that the real danger to their lives comes from themselves and other humans.

Vigorous, meaningful, almost apocalyptic vision of man's inhumanity, disguised as a thrilling adult adventure.

w James Dickey novel James Dickey
d John Boorman ph Vilmos Zsigmond
m Eric Weissberg ad Fred Harpman
ed Tom Priestley

☆ Burt Reynolds (Lewis), Jon Voight (Ed), Ned Beatty (Bobby), Ronny Cox (Drew), James Dickey (Sheriff Bullard), Billy McKinney (Mountain Man)

'There is fundamentally no view of the material, just a lot of painful grasping and groping.' – Stanley Kauffmann

'A simple, brutally physical movie.' – Michael Atkinson, Movieline

best picture; John Boorman

Dellamorte Dellamore: see Cemetery Man

'The distance between two men is ... The Delta.'

The Delta ★

US 1996 85m colour
Charlie Guidance (Margot Bridger)

In Memphis, a male prostitute, a Vietnamese immigrant of mixed race, involves a white, middle-class teenager in his seedy world of hustling for a living.

A gritty, documentary-style drama of disillusionment and alienated youth that just about overcomes its cheap production values.

wd Ira Sachs ph Benjamin P. Speth
m Michael Rohatyn pd Bernhard Blythe
ed Alfonso Goncalves

☆ Shayne Gray, Thang Chan, Rachel Zan Huss

'Confronts issues of race and sexuality with a frankness rarely seen in the cinema, marrying a minimalist, almost intrusive, style to a naturalistic dialogue.' – James Mottram, Film Review

Delta Force

US 1986 129m colour
Cannon (Menahem Golan)

A TWA plane is hijacked in Athens and rescued by an elite force.

What starts more or less as a recapitulation of fact turns at the half-way point into macho fantasy. Oddly enough, the paying customers rejected the mix.

w James Bruner, Menahem Golan
d Menahem Golan ph David Gurfinkel
m Alan Silvestri pd Luciano Spadoni
ed Alain Jakubowicz cos Tamy Mor

☆ Chuck Norris (Major Scott McKay), Lee Marvin (Col Nick Alexander), Martin Balsam (Ben Kaplan), Joey Bishop (Harry Goldman), Shelley Winters (Edie Kaplan), Robert Forster (Abdul), Lainie Kazan (Sylvia Goldman), George Kennedy (Father O'Malley), Hanna Schygulla (Ingrid), Susan Strasberg (Debra Levine), Bo Svenson (Capt Campbell), Robert Vaughn (Gen Woolbridge), Kim Delaney (Sister Mary)

'An exercise in wish fulfilment ... it's easy to get off on all this, as millions surely will, so long as you are willing to put your brain in hibernation for more than two hours.' – Variety

Delta Force 2: Operation Stranglehold

US 1990 111m colour
UIP/Cannon (Yoram Globus, Christopher Pearce)

US commandos go into action against a South American drug baron.

Ridiculous action film with a superhuman hero and a high body-count.

w Lee Reynolds d Aaron Norris ph João Fernandes m Frederic Talgorn pd Ladislav Wilheim ed Michael J. Duthie, Daniel Candib cos Kady Dover

☆ Chuck Norris (Col Scott McCoy), Billy Drago (Ramon Cota), John P. Ryan (Gen Taylor), Richard Jaeckel (John Page), Begonia Plaza (Quinquina), Paul Perri (Major Bobby Chavez), Hector Mercado (Miguel), Mark Margolis (Gen Olmedo)

'A new generation of action-adventure excitement!'

Delta Force 3: The Killing Game

US 1991 97m Agfacolor
Global (Christopher Pearce, Boaz Davidson)

US and Russian special units combine to snatch an Arab terrorist who has planted an atom bomb in an American city.

Standard bang-bang action, with the usual gun fights and explosions, though it does occasionally work up a modicum of suspense.

w Boaz Davidson, Greg Latter d Sam Firstenberg ph Avi Karpik m Robert Thomas Mein pd Luciano Spadoni ed Michael Duthie

☆ Nick Cassavetes (Charlie), Eric Douglas (Sam), Mike Norris (Greg), Matthew Penn (Richard), John Ryan (Sergei), Hanna Azulai-Haspari (Irenia), Sandy Ward (General Wilson), Candice Brecker (Wendy Jackson), Jonathan Cherchi (Kadal), Dan Turgeman (Anwar Hussein)

'When A Hollywood Cop Teams Up With A Detective From The Swamps Of New Orleans . All Hell Is About To Break Loose.'

Delta Heat

US 1992 91m colour
Harkham/Karen/Sawmill Entertainment (Richard L. Albert, Rudy Cohen)

A Los Angeles detective goes to New Orleans to track down the killer of his partner with the help of a one-armed renegade ex-cop.

Energetic and occasionally amusing thriller providing some engaging, if mindless, entertainment.

w Sam A. Scribner d Michael Fischa ph Avi Karpik m Christopher Tyng, Rockin' Dopsie pd Don Day ed Robert Edwards, Robert Gordon

☆ Anthony Edwards, Lance Henriksen, Betsy Russell, Linda Doná, Rod Masterson, John 'Spud' McConnell, Clyde R. Jones

'Nothing special, but not an ordeal.' – Empire

Delta of Venus

US 1994 100m Foto-Kem
New Line/Alliance/Evzen Kolar

After an unhappy love affair, an American woman, who has come to Paris to write in 1940, begins to invent erotic stories for a private collector.

Trivial soft-core porn from a director whose notion of sophistication is accompanying sexual activity with classical music.

w Elisa Rothstein, Louisianna Knop novel Anaïs Nin d Zalman King ph Eagle Egilsson m George S. Clinton pd Zdenek Flemming ed James Gavin Bedford, Marc Grossman

☆ Audie England, Costas Mandylor, Eric Da Silva, Marek Vasut, Zette, Emma Louise Moore, Raven Snow, Rory Campbell

† The film was made in Prague.

'Love and murder. The first time is always the hardest.'

Delusion ★

US 1991 100m CFI color
Cineville/Seth M. Willenson (Daniel Hassid)

aka: Mirage

An ambitious businessman, driving to Reno with $240,000 stolen from his employers, picks up a psychotic hitman and his girlfriend along the way.

Deft thriller, a little short on narrative twists, but filled with some enjoyably quirky characters.

w Carl Colpaert, Kurt Voss d Carl Colpaert ph Geza Sinkovics m Barry Adamson pd Ildiko Toth ed Mark Allan Kaplan

☆ Jim Metzler, Jennifer Rubin, Kyle Secor, Tracey Walter, Robert Costanzo, Jerry Orbach

Demasiado Miedo a la Vida, O Plaff: see Plaff! Or Too Afraid Of Life

Dementia 13 ★

US/Eire 1963 81m bw
Filmgroup/AIP (Roger Corman)

GB title: The Haunted and the Hunted

An axe murderer attacks members of a noble Irish family at their lonely castle.
Nastily effective macabre piece with interesting credits.
wd Francis Ford Coppola ph Charles Hannawalt m Ronald Stein ☆ Luana Anders, William Campbell, Bart Patton, Mary Mitchell, Patrick Magee, Eithne Dunn

Demetrius and the Gladiators ★★

US 1954 101m Technicolor Cinemascope
TCF (Frank Ross)

A Greek slave who keeps Christ's robe after the crucifixion is sentenced to be one of Caligula's gladiators and becomes involved in Messalina's wiles.
Lively, efficient sequel to The Robe, with emphasis less on religiosity than on the brutality of the arena and our hero's sexual temptations and near-escapes. Good Hollywood hokum.
w Philip Dunne d Delmer Daves ph Milton Krasner m Franz Waxman ed Dorothy Spencer, Robert Fritch
☆ Victor Mature (Demetrius), Susan Hayward (Messalina), Michael Rennie (Peter), Debra Paget, Anne Bancroft, Jay Robinson (Caligula), Barry Jones, William Marshall, Richard Egan, Ernest Borgnine
'An energetic attempt to fling the mantle of sanctity over several more millions of the entertainment dollar.' – The Times

The Demi-Paradise ★

GB 1943 114m bw
Two Cities (Anatole de Grunwald)

US title: Adventure for Two
In 1939, a Russian inventor is sent to observe the British way of life.
Pleasant, aimless little satirical comedy in which this blessed plot seems to be peopled entirely by eccentrics.
w Anatole de Grunwald d Anthony Asquith ph Bernard Knowles m Nicholas Brodszky
☆ Laurence Olivier, Penelope Dudley Ward, Margaret Rutherford, Leslie Henson, Marjorie Fielding, Felix Aylmer, Guy Middleton, Michael Shepley, George Thorpe, Edie Martin, Muriel Aked, Joyce Grenfell
'A backhanded way of showing us poor juvenile-minded cinemagoers that the England of Mr Punch and Mrs Malaprop lives forever.' – Richard Winnington

Demobbed

GB 1944 96m bw
Butcher/Mancunian (F. W. Baker, John E. Blakeley)

Four incompetent ex-servicemen prevent a crooked manager from robbing a factory.
A rudimentary comedy from one of Britain's regional film companies that retains a slight interest by showcasing the performances of once popular variety theatre and radio performers.
w Roney Parsons, Anthony Toner d John E. Blakeley ph Geoffrey Faithfull, G. Gibbs md Percival Mackey ad Jim Carter ed Ted Richards
☆ Norman Evans, Nat Jackley, Dan Young, Betty Jumel, Webster Booth, Anne Ziegler, Tony Dalton, James Plant

The Democratic Terrorist ★

Sweden/Norway 1992 98m colour
Sonet (Hans Iveberg)
original title: Den Demokratiske Terroristen

Carl Hamilton, a left-wing, CIA-trained Swedish naval officer, goes undercover in Hamburg to infiltrate a terrorist group.
A tough, and ultimately tense, thriller featuring Sweden's answer to James Bond, only bleaker, more brutal (and probably more realistic), and with less sex; Skarsgard makes a somewhat glum hero.
w Hans Iveberg novel Jan Guillou d Pelle Berglund ph Erling Thurmann-Andersen m Björn J:son Lindh ad Rainer Schaper ed Sylvia Ingmarsson, Christin Loman
☆ Stellan Skarsgard, Katja Flint, Burkhard Driest, Heikko Deutschmann, Karl Heinz Maslo, Susanne Lothar, May Buchgraber

Les Demoiselles de Rochefort: see The Young Girls of Rochefort

Demolition Man ★★

US 1993 115m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Silver Pictures (Joel Silver, Michael Levy, Howard Kazanjian)

In the non-violent, politically correct world of the 21st century, a violent criminal from the 1990s escapes after being thawed out from his cryo-prison – and his arch-enemy, a cop framed on a murder charge, is brought back to life to catch him.
An exciting adventure, clever and violent, that has fun at the expense of a sanitized future, complete with the President Schwarzenegger Memorial Library, and also indulges in self-parody without compromising the action.
w Daniel Waters, Robert Reneau, Peter M. Lenkov d Marco Brambilla ph Alex Thomson m Elliot Goldenthal pd David L. Snyder ed Stuart Baird
☆ Sylvester Stallone, Wesley Snipes, Sandra Bullock, Nigel Hawthorne, Benjamin Bratt, Bob Gunton, Denis Leary
'A noisy, soulless, self-conscious pastiche that mixes elements of sci-fi, action-adventure and romance, then pours on a layer of comedy replete with Hollywood in-jokes.' – Variety
'Decently constructed, almost witty at times and a genuine attempt to make an action thriller that's halfway intelligent.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

The Demolitionist

US 1995 93m CFI color
A-Pix/Planet/Le Monde (Donald P. Borchers)

After she is killed by a violent criminal, an undercover cop is brought back to life as an unstoppable crime fighter.
Cheap and nasty exploitation flick; it borrows heavily from Robocop, but never rises above the level of sadistic and unoriginal trash.
w Brian DiMuccio, Dino Vindeni story Robert Kurtzman, Anne Kurtzman
d Robert Kurtzman ph Marcus Hahn m Shawn Patterson pd Charley Cabrera ed Paolo Mazzucato sp John Hartigan, KNB EFX, Flash Film Works
☆ Nicole Eggert, Richard Grieco, Bruce Abbott, Susan Tyrrell, Peter Jason, Heather Langenkamp, Jack Nance, Tom Savini, Bruce Campbell (uncredited)

Demon: see God Told Me To

Demon: see Yasha (1985)

Demon Seed

US 1977 95m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM (Herb Jaffe)

A scientist invents too perfect a computer: it locks up his wife, rapes her, and incubates a child...
Science fiction at the end of its tether, all very smart and self-conscious, but at this length very tasteless. Hitchcock would have got it into a television half-hour.
w Robert Jaffe, Roger O. Hirson novel Dean R. Koontz d Donald Cammell ph Bill Butler m Jerry Fielding pd Edward Carfagno
☆ Julie Christie, Fritz Weaver, Gerrit Graham, Berry Kroeger, Lisa Lu

Demonlover

France/Japan/Mexico/US 2002 130m colour Panavision
Elizabeth Films/M6 Films/Citizen (Edouard Weil, Xavier Giannoli)

Two rival corporations resort to dirty tricks in their efforts to obtain Japanese 3D pornographic software.
Chill, tedious and heavyhanded thriller, which was presumably intended as a satire on the preoccupations of cyberspace as much as on the behaviour of corrupt companies.
wd Olivier Assayas ph Denis Lenoir
m Sonic Youth pd François-Renaud Labarthe ed Luc Barnier ☆ Connie Nielsen (Diane de Monx), Charles Berling (Herve Le Millinec), Chloe Sevigny (Elise Lipsky), Gina Gershon (Elaine Si Gibril), Jean-Baptiste Malartre (Henri-Pierre Volf), Dominique Reymond (Karen)
'Flatulent, conceited and very, very confusing.' – Guardian
'Difficult, challenging, and troubling art film' – Premiere

The Demons (dubbed)

Portugal/France 1972 116m
Eastmancolor Techniscope
Interfilme/Comptoir (Victor de Costa)

original title: Os Demonios
Two nuns, the daughters of a witch burned at the stake, revenge their mother's death.
Bizarre and low-budget horror, exploiting sex and violence.
w Jesús Franco novel David Kuhne (Jesús Franco) d Clifford Brown (Jesús Franco)
ph Raoul Artigot m Jean-Bernard Raiteux
☆ Anne Libert, Britt Nichols, Doris Thomas, John Foster, Howard Vernon, Karin Field, Alberto Dalbes
† The film was cut to 97m for its British release.

Demons

Italy 1985 89m colour
Dacfilm (Dario Argento)

original title: Demoni
Members of an audience watching a horror movie about demons ravaging the world are themselves transformed into murderous monsters.
Gore-filled horror, derivative of modern American zombie movies.
w Lamberto Bava, Dario Argento, Dardano Sacchetti, Franco Ferrini d Lamberto Bava ☆ Urbano Barberini, Natasha Harvey, Karl Zinny, Fiore Argento, Paolo Cozzo, Fabiola Toledo

Demons 2

Italy 1987 91m colour
Avatar (Dario Argento)

original title: Demoni 2
The occupants of an apartment block, watching a TV documentary about demons, are turned into rampaging monsters.
A sequel that repeats, with a slight twist, the events of the original, and also its gore-filled content, with less effect.
w Lamberto Bava, Dario Argento, Franco Ferrini, Dardano Sacchetti d Lamberto Bava ph Gianlorenzo Battaglia pd Davide Bassan ed Franco Fraticelli, Pietro Bozza
☆ David Knight, Nancy Brilli, Coralina Cataldi Tassoni, Bobby Rhodes, Asia Argento, Virginia Bryant

'The Demon Is Loose Again... And No One Is Safe!'

Demons of the Mind

GB 1972 89m Technicolor
Hammer (Frank Godwin)

aka: Black Evil
aka: Nightmare of Terror; Blood Will Have Blood
Crazed by the suicide of his wife, a Victorian aristocrat believes that his children are possessed by evil.
Lurid psychological thriller, with a rather better cast than it deserves.
w Christopher Wicking d Peter Sykes
ph Arthur Grant m Harry Robinson ad Michael Stringer ed Chris Barnes
☆ Paul Jones, Patrick Magee, Gillian Hills, Robert Hardy, Michael Hordern, Yvonne Mitchell, Shane Briant, Kenneth J. Warren, Thomas Heathcote

Demons of the Swamp: see Attack of the Giant Leeches

Den Goda Viljan: see The Best Intentions

Den Sedmy – Osma Noc: see Seventh Day, Eighth Night

Denise Calls Up

US 1995 80m colour
Artificial Eye/Off the Hook/Davis/Skyline/Dark Matter (J. Todd Harris)

A pregnant woman phones the man who provided the sperm for her baby.
A clever notion, of a group of people who fail to meet face to face but are linked by the technology of telephone and e-mail, is here stretched well beyond its limits, so that it fails to communicate much at all.
wd Hal Salwen ph Michael Mayers
pd Susan Bolles ed Gary Sharfin
☆ Tim Daly, Caroleen Feeney, Dan Gunther, Dana Wheeler Nicholson, Liev Schreiber, Aida Turturro, Alanna Ubach
'Alas, with only one idea, the film soon has nowhere to go, and the cast, each acting in isolation with only a telephone to talk to, cannot give depth to the characters.' – George Perry

Dennis the Menace

US 1993 96m Technicolor
Warner (John Hughes, Richard Vane)

GB title: Dennis
A mischievous six-year-old boy makes his neighbours' life a misery.
Dull and saccharine comedy, indulging in the broadest slapstick and with Matthau going through his grumpiest grimaces.
w John Hughes, based on characters created by Hank Ketchum d Nick Castle
ph Thomas Ackerman m Jerry Goldsmith
pd James Bissell ed Alan Heim
☆ Walter Matthau, Mason Gamble, Joan Plowright, Christopher Lloyd, Lea Thompson, Robert Stanton, Amy Sakasitz, Kellen Hathaway, Paul Winfield
'Very young children may find the numbskull, by-the-numbers gags here amusing, but teens will consider this kids' stuff and adults will be pained.' – Variety

La Dentellière: see The Lacemaker

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

The Dentist ★★

US 1932 19m bw
Paramount/Sennett

Classic star short with W. C. Fields working up briskly to a dentist sketch in which he deals summarily with a variety of patients.
d Leslie Pearce

The Dentist

US 1996 89m colour
Trimark (Pierre David)

A marital break-up propels a dentist into madness and some unconventional surgery.
Macabre and gory horror that plays expertly on a common phobia.
w Dennis Paoli, Stuart Gordon, Charles Finch d Brian Yuzna ph Levie Isaacks m Alan Howarth pd William V. Ryder ed Christopher Roth
☆ Corbin Bernsen, Linda Hoffman, Molly Hagen, Michael Stadvec, Ken Foree, Tony Noakes, Patty Toy

'Sweet Dreams.'

The Dentist 2

US 1998 94m colour
Trimark (Pierre David)

Escaping from a mental institution, a mad dentist settles down in a small town and gets to work on the locals.
An unsettling, unpleasant sequel that extracts more gruesome horror from teeth.
w Dennis Paoli, Stuart Gordon, Charles Finch d Brian Yuzna ph Levie Isaacks m Alan Howarth pd William B. Ryder ed Christopher Roth sp make-up fx: Anthony C. Ferrante
☆ Corbin Bernsen, Jillian McWhirter, Linda Hoffman, Jeff Douchette, Suzanne Wright, Jim Antonio

'How this mild-mannered and softly spoken filmmaker handles the material puts him head and shoulders above almost everybody working in the field today, from the past-it Argento to the unfulfilled Anthony Hickox.' – Martyn Carroll, Dark Side

Dentist in the Chair

GB 1960 88m bw
Briand (Bertram Ostrer)

Students at a dental college discover that the instruments they have sold to their colleagues were stolen and try to recover them with the aid of a burglar.
Routine and dispiriting farce, much in the manner of the Carry On and Doctor series.
w Val Guest, Bob Monkhouse, George Wadmore novel Matthew Finch d Don Chaffey ph Reginald Wyer m Ken Jones ad Bill Andrews ed Bill Lenny
☆ Bob Monkhouse, Peggy Cummins, Kenneth Connor, Eric Barker, Ronnie Stevens, Vincent Ball, Eleanor Summerfield, Reginald Beckwith, Stuart Saunders
† It was followed by a less amusing sequel, Dentist on the Job, directed by C. M. Pennington-Richards in 1961.

Dentist on the Job

GB 1961 88m bw
Bertram Ostrer

US title: Get On with It!
Two incompetent, freshly graduated dentists are hired to promote a new toothpaste and decide to create their own superior brand.
Tired slapstick comedy that will not raise many smiles.
w Hazel Adair, Hugh Woodhouse, Bob Monkhouse d C. M. Pennington-Richards ph Stephen Dade m Ken Jones ad Tony Masters ed Bill Lenny ☆ Bob Monkhouse, Kenneth Connor, Shirley Eaton, Eric Barker, Richard Wattis, Ronnie Stevens, Reginald Beckwith, Charles Hawtrey, Graham Stark, Jeremy Hawk

Denver and Rio Grande

US 1952 89m Technicolor
Nat Holt/Paramount

Railroad companies compete to lay track through a narrow gorge.
Adequate Western thick ear.
w Frank Gruber d Byron Haskin
☆ Edmond O'Brien, Sterling Hayden, Dean Jagger, Laura Elliott, ZaSu Pitts, Lyle Bettger, J. Carrol Naish

'Lies. Betrayal. Sacrifice. How far will you take it?'

The Departed ★★★ (9)

US/Hong Kong 2006 151m
Entertainment/Plan B/Initial/Vertigo/Media Asia (Graham King, Brad Pitt, Brad Grey)

A young criminal is ordered by a Boston mobster to operate undercover within the State police, while a young cop infiltrates the mobster's gang.
Martin Scorsese has made half a dozen films superior to this, but finally he has his Oscar and the American Academy's voters have spared their own blushes. In truth, The Departed is well worth the plaudits: a terrific crime thriller with a relentless, deft plot that grips from start to finish. It takes as its source the 2003 Hong Kong thriller Infernal Affairs (qv) and vastly improves it, clarifying the complex story and adding light and shade to leading characters. Scorsese has also teased superlative work from his actors: di Caprio and Damon have never been better, Mark Wahlberg is a genuine surprise in what could have been a subdued role, and Nicholson's stagy, profanely funny mobster Frank Costello marks the finest work from this towering actor in many years. Some superbly staged set-pieces add to the film's visceral appeal; it's simultaneously a hoot and kick in the stomach.
w William Monahan film Infernal Affairs by Alan Mak, Felix Chong, screenwriters d Martin Scorsese ph Michael Ballhaus m Howard Shore pd Kristi Zea ad Terri Carriker-Thayer, Nick Lundy ed Thelma Schoonmaker
☆ Leonardo di Caprio (William 'Billy' Costigan Jr.), Matt Damon (Colin Sullivan), Jack Nicholson (Frank Costello), Mark Wahlberg (Staff Sergeant Dignam), Martin Sheen (Captain Queenan), Ray Winstone (Mr. French), Vera Farmiga (Madolyn), Alec Baldwin (Ellerby)

'Scorsese's most purely enjoyable movie in years. But it's not for the faint of heart. It's rude, bleak, violent and defiantly un-PC.' – David Ansen, Newsweek

'A picture of grand gestures and subtle intricacies, a movie that, even at more than two hours long, feels miraculously lean. It's a smart shot of lucid storytelling.' – Stephanie Zacharek, salon.com

'The storytelling here is a model of smooth precision.' – Tom Charity, CNN.com picture; directing; editing; adapted screenplay; supporting actor (Mark Wahlberg)

Deported

US 1950 88m bw
Universal-International

A gangster is sent back to his native Italy and tries to smuggle in his stolen money, but is finally redeemed.
Slightly unusual from this studio at this time, but not very interesting.
w Robert Buckner d Robert Siodmak
☆ Jeff Chandler, Marta Toren, Claude Dauphin, Marina Berti, Richard Rober

The Depraved

GB 1957 63m bw
The Danzigers

An American officer helps his beloved kill her unattractive husband.
Shades of Double Indemnity, but only shades.
w Brian Clemens d Paul Dickson
☆ Anne Heywood, Robert Arden, Carroll Levis, Basil Dignam

Depuis Qu'Otar Est Parti: see Since Otar Left...

Der Wald vor Lauter Bäumen: see The Forest for the Trees

'They Never Saw It Coming.'

Derailed (4)

GB/US 2005 107m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Patalex V/Lorenzo di Bonaventura Pictures

An adulterous couple are blackmailed by a brutal thief.
Heavy-handed and implausible psychological thriller with a predictable twist and gratuitous violence.
w Stuart Beattie novel James Siegel d Mikael Hafstrom ph Peter Biziou m Edward Shearmur pd Andrew Laws ed Peter Boyle
☆ Clive Owen (Charles Schine), Jennifer Aniston (Lucinda Harris), Vincent Cassel (LaRoche), Melissa George (Deanna Schine), Giancarlo Esposito (Det Church), David Morrissey (Sam Griffin), Tom Conti (Elliot Firth)

'Stay home.' – Peter Rainber, Christian Science Monitor

Derailroaded ★ (7)

USA 2005 86m
Plexifilm/Ubin Twinz (Jeremy Lubin)

The story of Larry 'Wild Man' Fischer, a street busker and paranoid schizophrenic, discovered and recorded by Frank Zappa, then championed by disc-jockey John Peel.
Compassionate study of a doomed, complex, depressive artist, whose childlike songs, delivered in a broken voice, nevertheless have an odd charm.
d Josh Rubin ph Bryan Newman ed Howard Leder
☆ Larry 'Wild Man' Fischer (Himself), Frank Zappa (Himself), Solomon Burke (Himself), Captain Beefheart (Himself)

Derby Day

GB 1952 84m bw
British Lion/Wilcox-Neagle (Maurice Cowan)
US title: Four Against Fate

Intercut comic and melodramatic stories of four people who go to the Derby.
Quietly efficient, class-conscious entertainment on the lines of Friday the 13th and The Bridge of San Luis Rey. No surprises, but plenty of familiar faces.
w John Baines, Monckton Hoffe, Alan Melville d Herbert Wilcox ph Max Greene m Anthony Collins
☆ Anna Neagle, Michael Wilding, Googie Withers, Gordon Harker, John McCallum, Peter Graves, Suzanne Cloutier, Gladys Henson, Ralph Reader, Alfie Bass, Edwin Styles, Nigel Stock

'Excessive loyalty to a formula has produced far from happy results.' – Penelope Houston, MFB

Derelict

US 1930 73m bw
Paramount

Two sea dogs battle over a ship and a girl.
Well-filmed melodrama, with plenty of location work.
w Max Marcin, William Slavens McNutt, Grover Jones d Rowland V. Lee ☆ George Bancroft, William Boyd, Jessie Royce Landis, Donald Stuart

'One of the best sea pictures filmed ... a cinch for the deluxers.' – Variety

Le Dernier Combat: see The Last Battle

Le Dernier Milliardaire ★

France 1934 100m bw
Pathé-Natan

The queen of a small principality invites a financial wizard to pay court to her daughter. The girl elopes with a bandleader, the financier is engaged to the queen, and is then revealed as a sham.
Rather too determined to be satirical, this comedy sadly lacks the pace and flair of the director's best work but there are several sequences of interest.
wd René Clair ph Rudolph Maté, Louis Née m Maurice Jaubert
☆ Max Dearly, Renée Saint-Cyr, Marthe Mellot, Raymond Cordy

'This film is so unpopular here that the crowd is rioting against it nightly – partly because they think it's rotten and partly because they don't like the way it kids the State ... despite flop here, American specialized houses should do well with it.' – Variety, Paris

Le Dernier Tournant ★

France 1939 90m bw
Lux

A woman persuades the man she seduces to help her murder her husband.
Interesting, but not remarkable, French version of The Postman Always Rings Twice.
w Charles Spaak, Henry Torres novel James M. Cain d Pierre Chénal ☆ Fernand Gravet, Corinne Luchaire, Michel Simon, Marcel Vallée, Florence Marly

'Class B at best.' – Variety

Les Dernières Vacances ★

France 1947 95m bw
Pathé

During a country house holiday in the twenties, the last before the house is sold, old friends conduct amorous intrigues, and so do their teenage progeny.
A moderately charming little fable making a rather obscure social point.
w R. Breuil, Roger Leenhardt d Roger Leenhardt ph Philippe Agostini ☆ Berthe Bovy, Renée Devillers, Pierre Dux, Jean d'Yd, Odile Versois, Michel François

Derrière la Façade ★

France 1939 90m bw
Filmsonor

A judge, his son, a soldier and a prostitute are involved in a night of attempted and actual murders.
Complex puzzle drama which made its mark.
d Yves Mirade, Georges Lacombe
☆ Lucien Baroux, Jacques Baumer, Jules Berry, Gaby Morlay, Michel Simon, Betty Stockfeld, Erich von Stroheim, Carette, André Lafaur

Dersu Uzala ★

USSR/Japan 1975 140m colour Sovscope 70
Mosfilm/Toho

A Russian surveyor mapping Siberian wastes becomes friendly with a wily Mongolian hunter.
Magnificent vistas punctuate an essentially plodding propaganda piece which does not rank with its director's best work.
w Yuri Nagibin, Akira Kurosawa d Akira Kurosawa
☆ Maxim Munzuk, Juri Solomine
♟ best foreign film

Desert Attack: see Ice Cold in Alex

Desert Bloom

US 1985 104m Metrocolor
Columbia/Carson/Delphi IV (Michael Hausman)

In 1950 Las Vegas, an ex-GI runs a gas station, illtreats his stepdaughters and falls for his sister-in-law.
Why do paying customers need to know all this? A downbeat enterprise which never got released.
wd Eugene Corr story Linda Remy
ph Reynaldo Villalobos m Brad Fiedel
☆ Jon Voight, JoBeth Williams, Ellen Barkin, Allen Garfield, Annabeth Gish

'Viewers looking for sensitive, discreetly handled fare will be amply rewarded.' – Variety

The Desert Fox ★★

US 1951 88m bw
TCF (Nunnally Johnson)

GB title: Rommel, Desert Fox

Rommel returns, disillusioned, to Hitler's Germany after his North African defeat, and is involved in the July plot.
Vivid but scrappy account of the last years of a contemporary hero. At the time it seemed to show a new immediacy in film-making, and was probably the first film to use an action sequence to arrest attention before the credit titles.
w Nunnally Johnson book Rommel by Desmond Young d Henry Hathaway
ph Norbert Brodine m Daniele Amfitheatrof ad Lyle Wheeler, Maurice Ransford ed James B. Clark
☆ James Mason (Rommel), Jessica Tandy (Frau Rommel), Cedric Hardwicke (Dr Karl Strolin), Luther Adler (Hitler), Everett Sloane (General Bergdorf), Leo G. Carroll (Field Marshall Von Rundstedt), George Macready (General Fritz Bayerlein), Richard Boone (Aldinger), Eduard Franz (Colonel Von Stauffenberg), Desmond Young (himself)

'Two men wanted her love – the third wanted her life!'

Desert Fury

US 1947 96m Technicolor
Paramount (Hal B. Wallis)

Against advice, a girl is attracted to a neurotic gambler who may have murdered his first wife.
Muddled melodrama slightly helped by Arizona colour settings; unconvincing characters mouth unspeakable lines in an airless tedium.
w Robert Rossen novel Desert Town by Ramona Stewart d Lewis Allen ph Charles Lang, Edward Cronjager m Miklos Rozsa ☆ Lizabeth Scott, Wendell Corey, Burt Lancaster, John Hodiak, Mary Astor, Kristine Miller

'The only fury I could sense was in my corner of the balcony.' – C. A. Lejeune

The Desert Hawk

US 1950 77m Technicolor
Universal-International

Against an Arabian Nights background, a cheerful outlaw abducts a princess.
Tolerable cloak-and-sandal action comedy.
w Aubrey Wisberg, Jack Pollexfen, Gerald Drayson Adams d Frederick de Cordova ☆ Richard Greene, Yvonne de Carlo, Jackie Gleason, George Macready, Rock Hudson, Carl Esmond

Desert Hearts

US 1985 91m colour
Desert Heart Productions (Donna Deitch)

A would-be divorcée in Reno becomes a lesbian.
A fairly accessible piece of special pleading, nicely made and good to look at.
w Natalie Cooper novel Desert of the Heart by Jane Rule d Donna Deitch ph Robert Elswit m various pd Jeannine Oppewall ed Robert Estrin
☆ Helen Shaver, Patricia Charbonneau, Audra Lindley, Andra Akers

'Left for dead. Burning for revenge.'

Desert Heat

US 1999 96m colour
Long Road/KPI (Evzen Kolar, Lawrence Levy, Jean-Claude Van Damme)

aka: Inferno
aka: Coyote Moon

Left for dead by a vicious gang, a loner takes his revenge.
Cheap and not very cheerful variation on Yojimbo. Amid the dozen or so killings, there's a dash of Native American mysticism and comedy relief from a bunch of eccentric old men.
w Tom O'Rourke d Danny Mulroon
ph Ross A. Maehl m Bill Conti
pd Michael Novotny ed J. Douglas Seelig
☆ Jean-Claude Van Damme (Eddie Lomax), Pat Morita (Jubal Early), Danny Trejo (Johnny), Gabrielle Fitzpatrick (Rhonda), Larry Drake (Ramsey Hogan), Vincent Schiavelli (Mr Singh), David 'Shark' Fralick (Matt Hogan), Silas Weir Mitchell (Jesse Hogan), Jaime Pressly (Dottie)
† It was released direct to video.

'An Assassin Accepts An Impossible Mission... To Save A Young Boy'

Desert Law

Italy 1990 155m Eastmancolor
Titanus/Reteitalia/International Dean Film (Rossella Angeletti, David Pash)

A New York businesswoman hires an ex-CIA agent to rescue her son, who has been kidnapped by his Arab grandfather to become the future leader of a tribe of desert warriors.
Glossy and competent thriller, most likely to appeal to 10-year-olds who can identify with the central character of a young boy.
w Adriano Bolzoni, Sergio Donati, Luigi Montefiori d Duccio Tessari ph Giorgio Di Battista m Ennio Morricone
pd Luciano Sagoni ed Maria Morra
☆ Rutger Hauer, Carol Alt, Omar Sharif, Elliott Gould, Kabir Bedi, Brett Halsey, Peter Sands

'The Legion's my life. A girl doesn't fit into it. Especially a girl like you!'

Desert Legion

US 1953 86m Technicolor
Universal (Ted Richmond)

A Foreign Legion captain rids a lost city of menacing bandits.
Schoolboy stuff, impudent in its silly story and its unconvincing Shangri-La, but quite entertaining for those prepared to let their hair down.
w Irving Wallace, Lewis Meltzer d Joseph Pevney ph John Seitz m Frank Skinner ☆ Alan Ladd, Richard Conte, Arlene Dahl, Akim Tamiroff, Leon Askin

Desert Mice

GB 1959 83m bw
Artna/Welbeck/Sydney Box (Michael Relph, Basil Dearden)

Adventures of a concert party sent to entertain the troops in North Africa during World War II.
A most promising idea is wasted on a singularly unfunny script which leaves its actors all at sea.
w David Climie d Michael Relph ph Ken Hodges m Philip Green pd Peter Froud ed Reginald Beck
☆ Alfred Marks, Sid James, Patricia Bredin, Dick Bentley, Dora Bryan, Irene Handl, Kenneth Fortescue, Reginald Beckwith, Joan Benham, Marius Goring

Desert Passage

US 1952 60m bw
RKO (Herman Schlom)

A paroled bank robber hires a stagecoach owner to take him over the border with his recovered loot, while being chased by five other crooks.
Slow-moving Western, made near the end of Holt's long career; he seems as tired as his audience is likely to feel.
w Norman Houston d Lesley Selander
ph J. Roy Hunt m Paul Sawtell ad Albert D'Agostino, Feild Gray ed Paul Weatherwax
☆ Tim Holt, Richard Martin, Joan Dixon, Walter Reed, Dorothy Patrick, John Dehner, Clayton Moore, Denver Pyle

Desert Patrol: see Sea of Sand

The Desert Rats ★

US 1953 88m bw
TCF (Robert L. Jacks)

An English captain commands an Australian detachment in the siege of Tobruk, and survives an encounter with Rommel.
Actioner made to cash in on the success of The Desert Fox (qv). Stars and battle scenes survive a studio look.
w Richard Murphy d Robert Wise
ph Lucien Ballard m Leigh Harline md Nathaniel Finston ad Lyle Wheeler, Addison Hehr ed Barbara McLean
☆ James Mason (Rommel), Richard Burton (Captain MacRoberts), Robert Newton (Bartlett), Robert Douglas (General), Torin Thatcher (Barney), Chips Rafferty (Smith), Charles Tingwell (Lt Carstairs), Charles Davis (Pete)
♟ Richard Murphy

The Desert Song

US 1929 106m bw (Technicolor sequences)
Warner

A romantic figure leads North African natives against evil Arabs.
Primitive sound version of the highly successful 1926 operetta.
w Harvey Gates play Otto Harbach, Laurence Schwab, Frank Mandel d Roy del Ruth ph Barney McGill m/ly Sigmund Romberg, Oscar Hammerstein II
☆ John Boles, Carlotta King, Louise Fazenda, Johnny Arthur, Edward Martindel, Jack Pratt

The Desert Song

US 1943 96m Technicolor
Warner (Robert Florey)

A mysterious figure recruits followers to take action against the Nazis.
Mundane version of the Romberg operetta, updated to provide light-hearted propaganda.
w Robert Buckner play Otto Harbach, Laurence Schwab, Frank Mandel d Robert Florey ph Bert Glennon m Heinz Roemheld m/ly Sigmund Romberg, Oscar Hammerstein II, Otto Harbach
☆ Dennis Morgan, Irene Manning, Bruce Cabot, Lynne Overman, Gene Lockhart, Victor Francen, Faye Emerson, Curt Bois, Jack La Rue, Marcel Dalio, Nestor Paiva, Gerald Mohr

'The Best Loved Of All Musical Adventures!'

The Desert Song

US 1953 110m Technicolor
Warner (Rudi Fehr)

The Red Shadow leads the Riffs against evil Arabs.
Well staged straight version of the musical, with full score.
w Roland Kibbee play Otto Harbach, Laurence Schwab, Frank Mandel d H. Bruce Humberstone ph Robert Burks m/ly Sigmund Romberg, Oscar Hammerstein II, Otto Harbach md Max Steiner
☆ Gordon MacRae, Kathryn Grayson, Steve Cochran, Raymond Massey, Dick Wesson, Allyn McLerie, Ray Collins, Paul Picerni, William Conrad
♫ The Riff Song; Romance; The Desert Song; Gay Parisienne; Azuri's Dance; One Flower Grows Alone in Your Garden; One Alone; Love Live the Night

Desert Tanks: see The Battle of El Alamein

The Desert Trail

US 1935 54m bw
Lone Star (Paul Malvern)

A cowboy and a womanizing gambler hunt down the man who framed them for the murder of a rodeo owner in Rattlesnake Gulch.
Sub-standard semi-comic Western.
w Lindsley Parsons d Cullen Lewis
ph Archie Stout ed Carl Pierson
☆ John Wayne, Mary Kornman, Paul Fix, Eddy Chandler, Carmen LaRoux, Lafe McKee, Al Ferguson, Henry Hall

Desert Victory ★★★

GB 1943 60m bw
Ministry of Information/British Army Film Unit

Montgomery's army chases the Nazis through Tripoli.
Classic war documentary.
w anonymous d Roy Boulting, David MacDonald m William Alwyn ed A. Best, F. Clarke narrator James Langdale Hodson

'The greatest battle film of the war ... it puts the audience right in the middle ... Americans who see this film will be anxiously waiting for the next – and a US equivalent.' – Variety
'A first rate work of art.' – Time
'The finest factual film ever made.' – Daily Telegraph
'Profoundly moving, and fierce in its impact upon imagination, eye and ear.' – Scotsman
† A few shots were reconstructed in the studio.
♟ documentary feature

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♟ Academy Award · ♟ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

The Deserted Station ★

Iran 2002 88m colour
Soda/Farabi Cinema Foundation (Hossein Zandbaf)

original title: Istgah-e Matrouk

A photographer and his wife are stuck in an isolated village when their car breaks down.

A small-scale and engaging film concerned with urban and rural attitudes and the fate of children, both unborn and those neglected through their parents' struggle for survival.

w Kambozia Partovi story Abbas Kiarostami d Alireza Raisian ph Mohammad Aladpoush m Peyman Yazdanian pd Mohsen Shah Ebrahimi ed Hossein Zandbaf

☆ Leila Hatami (The Wife), Nezam Manouchehri (The Husband), Mehran Rajabi (Feizollah), Mahmoud Pak Neeyat (The Guard)

'Bluntly heart-tugging city-mouse, country-mouse fable.' – New York Times

The Deserter

Italy/Yugoslavia/USA 1970 99m Technicolor Panavision
Dino de Laurentiis/Jadran/Heritage (Norman Baer, Ralph Serpe)

original title: La Spina Dorsale del Diavolo

In the South-west in 1886, a cavalry captain tracks down the Apaches who tortured his wife to death.

Brutal revenge Western, as muddled as its international credits would suggest.

w Clair Huffaker d Burt Kennedy ph Aldo Tonti m Piero Piccione pd Mario Chiari

☆ Bekim Fehmiu, John Huston, Richard Crenna, Chuck Connors, Ricardo Montalban, Ian Bannen, Brandon de Wilde, Slim Pickens, Albert Salmi, Woody Strode, Patrick Wayne, Fausto Tozzi

Il Deserto Rosso: see The Red Desert

'Three people who loved each other very much!'

Design for Living ★★

US 1933 88m bw
Paramount (Ernst Lubitsch)

Two friends love and are loved by the same worldly woman, and they set up house together.

Elegant but miscast version of a scintillating play, with all the sex and the sting removed (at the insistence of the Legion of Decency, then coming into power). Ben Hecht claimed to have removed all but one line of Coward's dialogue: 'For the good of our immortal souls!'

w Ben Hecht play Noël Coward d Ernst Lubitsch ph Victor Milner m Nathaniel Finston ad Hans Dreier

☆ Gary Cooper, Fredric March, Miriam Hopkins, Edward Everett Horton, Franklin Pangborn, Isabel Jewell

'Can't miss because it holds plenty ... an improvement on the original.' – Variety

'A delightfully smart, crisp piece of entertainment, cleverly conceived and delightfully executed.' – New York American

'A partial cleansing for the screen of a stage story notorious for its wealth and variety of moral code infractions.' – Martin Quigley

Design for Lust: see Confessions of a Sex Maniac

Design for Scandal

US 1941 85m bw
MGM

A reporter is assigned by his boss to get a lady judge disbarred.

Mechanical star comedy.

w Lionel Houser d Norman Taurog

☆ Rosalind Russell, Walter Pidgeon, Edward Arnold, Guy Kibbee, Lee Bowman

The Designated Mourner ★ (5)

GB 1997 94m colour
First Look/Greenpoint/BBC (Donna Grey, David Hare)

Living under a repressive regime, a man, his wife and her father, a poet whose political views are not liked, discuss their relationships.

No attempt has been made to open up this stage play, which mainly consists of static monologues, and it does not transfer easily to the screen, though it will reward patient audiences.

w Wallace Shawn play Wallace Shawn d David Hare ph Oliver Stapleton m Richard Hartley pd Bob Crowley ed George Akers

☆ Mike Nichols, Miranda Richardson, David de Keyser

'Insidiously superb.' – Stanley Kauffmann, New Republic

Designing Woman ★

US 1957 118m Metrocolor Cinemascope
MGM (Dore Schary)

A sports reporter marries a dress designer and finds that their common interests are few.

Lumbering comedy which aims for sophistication but settles for farce: tolerable for star watchers who have dined well.

w George Wells d Vincente Minnelli ph John Alton m André Previn

☆ Gregory Peck, Lauren Bacall, Dolores Gray, Sam Levene, Tom Helmore, Mickey Shaughnessy, Jesse White, Chuck Connors, Jack Cole

♟ George Wells

Desire ★★

US 1936 89m bw
Paramount (Ernst Lubitsch)

In Spain, an American car designer falls for a glamorous jewel thief.

Romantic comedy which the producer should have worked on longer: it begins brilliantly and keeps its style, but the pace and wit ebb away.

w Edwin Justus Mayer, Waldemar Young, Samuel Hoffenstein, from a German film Die schönen Tage von Aranjuez play Hans Szekely, R. A. Stemmle d Frank Borzage ph Charles Lang, Victor Milner m Frederick Hollander ad Hans Dreier, Robert Usher

☆ Marlene Dietrich, Gary Cooper, John Halliday, William Frawley, Ernest Cossart, Akim Tamiroff, Alan Mowbray, Zeffie Tilbury

'It sparkles and twinkles ... one of the most engaging pictures of the season.' – Frank S. Nugent, New York Times

'A sure, beautifully written piece about the usual Lubitsch trifles, about crooks and fake countesses breathless before the dawn of romance.' – Alistair Cooke

'Brilliant treatment, superb staging and inspiring acting. Irresistible entertainment.' – CEA Film Report

Desire in the Dust

US 1960 102m bw Cinemascope
TCF/Associated Producers (William F. Claxton)

A wealthy Southern aristocrat is involved in a fatal car crash and persuades a young farmhand to take the blame.

Derivative hothouse drama, a little better than its title, with a cast breathing heavily in imitation of refugees from Tennessee Williams or William Faulkner.

w Charles Lang novel Harry Whittington d William F. Claxton ph Lucien Ballard m Paul Dunlap

☆ Raymond Burr, Martha Hyer, Joan Bennett, Ken Scott, Brett Halsey, Anne Helm, Jack Ging, Edward Binns

Desire Me

US 1947 91m bw
MGM (Arthur Hornblow Jnr)

The wife of a Normandy villager hears that he has died in a concentration camp. She marries the bearer of the news, who turns out to be a psychotic who has left her husband for dead ... but he is not.

Dreary drama, troubled during production and offering little for the actors to chew on.

w Marguerite Roberts, Zoë Akins, Casey Robinson novel Leonhard Frank d not credited, but mostly by George Cukor, Mervyn Le Roy, Jack Conway ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Herbert Stothart

☆ Greer Garson, Robert Mitchum, Richard Hart, George Zucco, Morris Ankrum

'The supporting cast includes a number of characters who give the appearance of having come out of a dusty cupboard marked "French Types – Assorted".' – MFB

† Robert Montgomery shot a few scenes before bowing out to be replaced by Richard Hart.

Desire under the Elms

US 1958 111m bw Vistavision
Paramount (Don Hartman)

A New England farmer brings home a young bride and causes friction with his son.

This bid for culture turns out like a hoary and very slow melodrama, not exactly risible but annoying because it teeters between several styles.

w Irwin Shaw play Eugene O'Neill d Delbert Mann ph Daniel L. Fapp m Elmer Bernstein

☆ Sophia Loren, Burl Ives, Anthony Perkins, Frank Overton, Pernell Roberts, Anne Seymour

'The film is consistently and unhappily out of its depth.' – Penelope Houston

'A challenging and inspiring picture.' – News of the World

♟ Daniel L. Fapp

'Their story is not in the history books. It has never been seen on the screen – until now!'

Desirée

US 1954 110m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Julian Blaustein)

Fictionalized biopic of one of Napoleon's mistresses.

Heavy-going costume piece, with all contributors distinctly uncomfortable.

w Daniel Taradash novel Annemarie Selinko d Henry Koster ph Milton Krasner m Alex North ad Lyle Wheeler, Leland Fuller

☆ Jean Simmons, Marlon Brando, Merle Oberon, Michael Rennie, Cameron Mitchell, Elizabeth Sellars, Cathleen Nesbitt, Isobel Elsom

♟ art direction

Desk Set ★★

US 1957 103m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
TCF (Henry Ephron)

GB title: His Other Woman

Ladies in a broadcasting company's reference section are appalled when an electronics expert is sent to improve their performance.

Thin comedy, altered from a Broadway success; patchy as a whole, but with several splendid dialogue scenes for the principals.

w Phoebe and Henry Ephron play William Marchant d Walter Lang ph Leon Shamroy m Cyril Mockridge

☆ Spencer Tracy, Katharine Hepburn, Joan Blondell, Gig Young, Dina Merrill, Neva Patterson

'They lope through this trifling charade like a couple of oldtimers who enjoy reminiscing with simple routines.' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times

Despair ★

West Germany/France 1978 119m Eastmancolor
NF Geria/Bavaria/SFP (Peter Märthesheimer)

West German title: Eine Reise ins Licht

In 1930 Berlin, a Russian immigrant businessman leads a fantasy life which drives him to murder and insanity.

Filmed in English, this curious cross between Lolita and Repulsion found surprisingly little critical favour, considering its participants.

w Tom Stoppard novel Vladimir Nabokov d Rainer Werner Fassbinder ph Michael Ballhaus m Peer Raben pd Rolf Zehetbauer

☆ Dirk Bogarde, Andrea Ferreol, Volker Spengler, Klaus Löwitsch, Bernhard Wicki

'It begins magnificently, remains sporadically brilliant throughout, but grows heavier and heavier until it finally sinks into inertia.' – Tom Milne, MFB

'He came back to settle the score with someone. Anyone. Everyone.'

Desperado

US 1995 105m Technicolor
Columbia/Los Hooligans (Bill Borden, Robert Rodriguez)

A man carrying a guitar case full of weapons walks into a small Mexican town and starts shooting.

This is more or less an expensive remake of El Mariachi, and a disappointing one in its failure to develop the original in any significant way; it is one long gun battle, filmed in a style that owes much to the balletic tradition of John Woo and other Hong Kong film-makers.

wd Robert Rodriguez ph Guillermo Navarro m Los Lobos pd Cecilia Montiel ed Robert Rodriguez

☆ Antonio Banderas, Salma Hayek, Joaquin de Almeida, Cheech Marin, Steve Buscemi, Carlos Gomez, Quentin Tarantino, Tito Larriva, Carlos Gallardo

'A film so insanely unambitious, so childishly unheeding of the normal rigours of film-making, it's almost cheering. It's got the crazed, obsessive squint of one of Roy Lichtenstein's immaculate dot paintings of a single explosion – it's pop art Peckinpah.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times

† Its DVD release also includes its low-budget predeccessor El Mariachi (qv).

Desperadoes

US 1943 85m Technicolor
Columbia (Harry Joe Brown)

A gunman rides into town to cause trouble, but finds romance and renews an old friendship.

Lively star Western of its day.

w Max Brand, Robert Carson d Charles Vidor ph George Meehan m John Leipold md M. W. Stoloff ad Lionel Banks, Perry Smith ed Gene Havlik cos Travilla ☆ Randolph Scott, Glenn Ford, Evelyn Keyes, Edgar Buchanan, Claire Trevor, Guinn Williams

† This was Columbia's first film in colour.

'Hang on to your money, your woman, and your life!'

The Desperados
US 1968 90m Technicolor
Columbia/Meadway (Irving Allen)

After the Civil War, a fanatic 'parson' leads a tribe of violent outlaws including his three sons.
Rough-and-tumble Western in the modern savage manner; made in Spain.
w Walter Brough d Henry Levin ph Sam Leavitt m David Whitaker
☆ Vince Edwards, Jack Palance, George Maharis, Neville Brand, Sylvia Syms, Christian Roberts, Kate O'Mara, Kenneth Cope, John Paul Desperate ★

US 1947 73m bw
RKO (Michel Kraike)

A trucker becomes innocently involved in a robbery and goes on the run.
Lively second feature from the studio's best period, with plenty of burgeoning talent.
w Harry Essex, Martin Rackin story Dorothy Atlas, Marston Mann
d Anthony Mann ph George E. Diskant
m Paul Sawtell
☆ Steve Brodie, Audrey Long, Raymond Burr, Jason Robards Snr, Douglas Fowley, William Challee, Ilka Gruning
'Amazingly watchable within its formulary limits.' – Tom Milne, MFB, 1982

Desperate Characters ★
US 1971 106m colour
ITC/TDJ (Frank D. Gilroy)

Residents of New York's east side find the rigours of life hard to take.
Curious but interesting suburban drama, a kind of deglamorized and updated City for Conquest.
wd Frank D. Gilroy novel Paula Fox
ph Urs Furrer m Lee Konitz, Ron Carter, Jim Hall ☆ Shirley MacLaine, Gerald S. O'Loughlin, Kenneth Mars, Sada Thompson, Jack Somack
'The most blistering indictment of New York City since Midnight Cowboy.' – Rex Reed
'A film of authenticity, of delicately realized intangibles.' – Stanley Kauffmann

The Desperate Hours ★
US 1955 112m bw Vistavision
Paramount (William Wyler)

Three escaped convicts take over a suburban house but are finally outwitted by the family.
Ponderous treatment of an over-familiar situation with only the acting and an 'A' picture look to save it.
w Joseph Hayes play Joseph Hayes novel Joseph Hayes d William Wyler
ph Lee Garmes m Gail Kubik
☆ Fredric March, Humphrey Bogart, Martha Scott, Arthur Kennedy, Gig Young, Dewey Martin, Mary Murphy, Robert Middleton, Richard Eyer
'A solid, deliberate and long-drawn-out exercise in the mechanics of suspense.' – Penelope Houston † Bogart's role had been played on stage by Paul Newman. March's role had been offered to Spencer Tracy, but he wouldn't take second billing.

Desperate Hours
US 1990 105m Technicolor
TCF/Dino de Laurentiis (Michael Cimino)

An armed robber on the run with two friends takes a family hostage.
A failure, even by the ponderous standards of the 1955 version of Hayes' novel.
w Lawrence Konner, Mark Rosenthal, Joseph Hayes novel Joseph Hayes
d Michael Cimino ph Doug Milsome
m David Mansfield pd Victoria Paul ed Peter Hunt
☆ Mickey Rourke, Anthony Hopkins, Mimi Rogers, Lindsay Crouse, Kelly Lynch, Elias Koteas, David Morse, Shawnee Smith
'A coldly mechanical and uninvolving remake.' – Variety

Desperate Journey ★★
US 1942 109m bw
Warner (Hal B. Wallis)

Three POWs in Nazi Germany fight their way back to freedom.
When you pit Errol Flynn against the Nazis, there's no doubt who wins; and the last line is 'Now for Australia and a crack at those Japs!' Exhilarating adventure for the totally uncritical; professional standards high.
w Arthur Horman d Raoul Walsh ph Bert Glennon m Max Steiner
☆ Errol Flynn, Alan Hale, Ronald Reagan, Nancy Coleman, Raymond Massey, Arthur Kennedy, Ronald Sinclair, Albert Basserman, Sig Rumann, Ilka Gruning, Pat O'Moore
'Yarn is an extreme strain on anyone's credulity, and yet it's so exciting that the preposterousness of it all is only something to be thought about on the way home from the theatre.' – Variety
'A 1942 treatment of The Three Musketeers, packed with action, shorn of romance, and utilizing the Third Reich for terrain. Folks who sacrifice reason for fast action and the joy of seeing Nazis foiled, will find it entirely gratifying.' – New York Times

Desperate Living
US 1977 95m colour
New Line/Charm City (John Waters)

A paranoid housewife kills her husband with the aid of her maid and flees to a community of murderers and degenerates.
A typical Waters work, concerned with obesity, transvestism, transsexuality and nudity. It also features bad acting, uninspired direction, unimaginative camera-work and adolescent notions of what is shocking.
wd John Waters ph Thomas Loizeaux
m Chris Lobinger ad Vincent Peranio
ed Charles Roggero ☆ Mink Stole, Susan Lowe, Edith Massey, Mary Vivian Pearce, Jean Hill

'Detective Frank Connor is forced to choose between the badge he wears and the son he loves ... no contest.'

Desperate Measures
US 1998 100m Technicolor
Entertainment/Mandalay (Barbet Schroeder, Susan Hoffman, Gary Foster, Lee Rich)

A policeman is desperate to keep alive a violent escaped criminal because he needs him as a bone-marrow donor for his dying son.
Risible action movie, in which two uninteresting characters interminably stalk one another.
w David Klass d Barbet Schroeder
ph Luciano Tavoli m Trevor Jones
pd Geoffrey Kirkland ed Lee Percy ☆ Michael Keaton, Andy Garcia, Brian Cox, Marcia Gay Harden, Erik King, Efrain Figueroa, Joseph Cross
'As hackneyed and instantly forgettable as its title.' – Variety

Desperate Moment
GB 1953 88m bw
GFD/Fanfare (George H. Brown)

In Poland, a man imprisoned for murder finds he didn't do it, escapes, and tracks down the real criminal, his best friend.
Cliché-ridden melodrama climaxing in a car chase; poor in all departments.
w Patrick Kirwan, George H. Brown novel Martha Albrand d Compton Bennett ph C. M. Pennington-Richards
m Ronald Binge
☆ Dirk Bogarde, Mai Zetterling, Philip Friend, Albert Lieven, Carl Jaffe, Gerard Heinz Desperate Remedies ★

New Zealand 1993 93m colour
Electric/NFU Studios/NZ on Air/New Zealand Film Commission/James Wallace

In the 19th century, a bisexual wealthy woman finds herself involved in deceit and murder when she attempts to buy a husband for her sex- and drug-addicted sister.
A swooning parody of period romances, deliberately larger than life (more, in fact, similar to an Imitation of Life*) and over-elaborate in its approach to costume and plot, enjoyable if you're in the mood for tongue-in-cheek melodrama.*
wd Stewart Main, Peter Wells ph Leon Narbey m Peter Scholes pd Michael Kane
ed David Coulson
☆ Jennifer Ward-Lealand, Kevin Smith, Lisa Chappell, Cliff Curtis, Michael Hurst, Kiri Mills, Bridget Armstrong, Timothy Raby
'An extravagant, opulent and mostly enjoyable exercise in high camp (or low kitsch).' – Variety
'The cumulative effect is to make costume melodrama's classic preoccupations with strict social hierarchy and sexual propriety seem hilariously gratuitous, irrational and redundant.' – Claire Monk, Sight and Sound

Desperate Siege: see Rawhide

Desperately Seeking Susan ★
US 1985 104m DeLuxe
Orion/Sarah Pillsbury, Midge Sanford

A bored housewife causes confusion and mayhem when out of curiosity she tracks down what's behind some intriguing ads in the personal column.
Mildly diverting romantic mystery which could have been both funnier and more thrilling.
w Leona Barish d Susan Seidelman
ph Edward Lachman m Thomas Newman
pd Santo Loquasto ed Andrew Mondshein
☆ Rosanna Arquette, Madonna, Aidan Quinn, Mark Blum, Robert Joy
'Simply easy entertainment, with a lively cast caught up in a silly situation.' – Variety
Rosanna Arquette

'Roaring across the land of Marco Polo and Genghis Khan come Uncle Sam's sailors on camels!'

Destination Gobi ★
US 1953 90m Technicolor
TCF (Stanley Rubin)

American sailors get Mongol help against the Japanese in the Gobi desert.
A curious war adventure, a kind of camel opera, apparently based on fact; mildly enjoyable, though the outlandish is gradually replaced by the predictable.
w Everett Freeman d Robert Wise
ph Charles G. Clarke m Sol Kaplan
☆ Richard Widmark, Don Taylor, Casey Adams, Murvyn Vye, Darryl Hickman, Martin Milner, Ross Bagdasarian, Rodolfo Acosta

Destination Moon ★
US 1950 91m Technicolor
Universal/George Pal

An American inventor gets private backing to build a rocket so that the US can reach the moon before the Russians.
Semi-documentary prophecy with impressive gadgetry encased in a tedious and totally unsurprising script.
w Rip Van Ronkel, Robert Heinlein, James O'Hanlon d Irving Pichel ph Lionel Lindon m Leith Stevens
☆ Warner Anderson, John Archer, Tom Powers, Dick Wesson
'Heavy-handed, unimaginative and very badly acted.' – MFB

Destination Tokyo ★
US 1943 135m bw
Warner (Jerry Wald)

A US submarine is sent into Tokyo harbour.
Solid, well acted war suspenser, but overlong.
w Delmer Daves, Albert Maltz story Steve Fisher d Delmer Daves ph Bert Glennon
m Franz Waxman
☆ Cary Grant, John Garfield, Alan Hale, John Ridgely, Dane Clark, Warner Anderson, William Prince, Robert Hutton, Tom Tully, Peter Whitney, Faye Emerson, John Forsythe
'We don't say it is credible; we don't even suggest that it makes sense. But it does make a pippin of a picture from a purely melodramatic point of view.' - Bosley Crowther
'Even moviegoers who have developed a serious allergy for service pictures should find it high among the superior films of the war.' – Newsweek
Steve Fisher

Destination Unknown
US 1933 69m bw
Universal

Bootleggers, in a crippled ship with a mutinous crew, are saved by a mysterious stranger.
Curious melodrama which turns halfway through into The Passing of the Third Floor Back.
w Tom Buckingham d Tay Garnett
ph Edward Snyder ed Milton Carruth
☆ Pat O'Brien, Ralph Bellamy, Alan Hale, Russell Hopton, Tom Brown, Betty Compson, Noel Madison
'Good sea melodrama ruined by change of intent.' – Variety

Destinées: see Love, Soldiers and Women

Les Destineés Sentimentales ★
France/Switzerland 2000 180m colour
Pathé/Arena/TF1/CAB (Bruno Pesery)

A former Protestant minister divorces his wife, falls in love, and runs a porcelain factory.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

An old-fashioned period romance covering the first thirty years or so of the 20th century; it does not justify its inordinate length.
w Olivier Assayas, Jacques Fieschi novel Jacques Chardonne d Olivier Assayas ph Eric Gautier m Guillaume Lekeu pd Katia Wyszkop ed Luc Barnier cos Anais Romand
☆ Emmanuelle Béart (Pauline), Charles Berling (Jean Barnery), Isabelle Huppert (Nathalie), Olivier Perrier (Philippe Pommerel), Dominique Reymond (Julie Desca), André Marcon (Paul Desca), Alexandra London (Louise Desca), Julie Depardieu (Marcelle)

'The appeal of the sunny landscapes and elegant costumes wears diaphanously thin, exposing us to the full brunt of the script's monotony.' – Edward Porter, Sunday Times

Destiny ★

Germany 1921 100m approx bw silent
Decla-Bioscop
original title: Der Müde Tod
In the 19th century a young woman tries to save her lover from the presence of Death, who shows her that whatever she does it is inevitable.
A solemn fantasy on the lines of Appointment in Samarra, the framing story being more effective than the 'illustrations'.
w Thea von Harbou, Fritz Lang d Fritz Lang ph Fritz Arno Wagner, Erich Nitschmann, Hermann Saalfrank
☆ Lil Dagover, Rudolf Klein-Rogge, Bernhard Götzke, Walter Janssen

Destiny ★

US 1944 65m bw
Universal (Roy William Neill)
An escaped convict on the run finds refuge with a blind girl on a lonely farm.
Curious second feature, interesting because it began as a story eliminated from Flesh and Fantasy (qv); extra footage was added to bring it up to the required length. The original footage is mainly the nightmare suffered by the girl. Curtis died in the original, but survives here.
w Roy Chanslor (F and F Ernest Pascal) d Reginald Le Borg (F and F Julien Duvivier) ph George Robinson (F and F Paul Ivano) m Frank Skinner ☆ Gloria Jean, Alan Curtis, Frank Craven, Grace McDonald

Destiny of a Man ★★

USSR 1959 98m bw
Sovexportfilm/Mosfilm (G. Kuznetsov) original title: Sudba Cheloveka
During World War II a Russian is captured by Nazis but escapes and returns home only to find his family dead.
Strikingly styled sob story whose very glumness prevented it from being hailed as a masterpiece; in technique however it is in the best Russian tradition.
w Y. Lukin, F. Shakhmagonov story Mikhail Sholokhov d Sergei Bondarchuk ph Vladimir Monakhov m V. Basnov
☆ Sergei Bondarchuk, Zinaida Kirienko, Pavlik Boriskin

'Of all Soviet post-war films, this will be looked on as the greatest and most original work of the period.' – MFB

'The craziest, wackiest journey you'll ever take!'
'A romantic adventure of mystical proportion.'

Destiny Turns on the Radio

US 1995 101m CFI color
Entertainment/Savoy (Gloria Zimmerman)
A bank robber gets out of jail and goes to a Las Vegas motel to find his partner and the loot, but discovers that the money has been stolen by a mysterious stranger.
Oddball movie that obstinately refuses to come to life; it just lies there, leaving its cast and director stranded.
w Robert Ramsey, Matthew Stone d Jack Baran ph James L. Carter m Steve Soles pd Jean-Philippe Carp ed Raul Davalos
☆ James LeGros, Dylan McDermott, Quentin Tarantino, Nancy Travis, James Belushi, Janet Carroll, David Cross, Bobcat Goldthwait

'The plot is incomprehensible and the dialogue cheapjack. This piece of cod-pulp fiction is neither credible nor incredible. It's just dull.'– Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'The intended tone of romantic, magical comedy is spectacularly misjudged.' – Independent

Destiny's Son ★★

Japan 1962 71m Daieicolor
DaieiScope
Daiei
original title: Kiru
Leaving his clan after avenging his adopted father's death, the son of a tragic couple becomes a wandering samurai and, finally, bodyguard to a minister at a time of social unrest.
An aesthetic treat that, beautifully photographed, tells its story mainly through images; its ending, though, may be difficult for a Western audience to appreciate.
w Kaneto Shindo novel Renzaburo Shibata d Kenji Misumi ph Shozo Honda m Ichiro Saito ad Akira Naito ed Kanji Suganuma
☆ Raizo Ichikawa (Shingo), Shigeru Amachi, Mayumi Nagina, Jun-ichiro Narita, Masayo Banri

Destricted

US 2006 116m
Revolver/Palomar/Katapult (Neville Wakefield, Mel Apace, Andrew Hale)
Seven filmmakers illuminate their personal meeting points between art and sexuality.
An art installation more than a movie. Only Larry Clark's narrative-structured Impaled episode emerges as anything other than a pretentious wallow in hardcore imagery.
wd Matthew Barney (Hoist), Richard Prince (House Call), Sam Taylor-Wood (Death Valley) d Marina Abramovic (Balkan Erotic Epic), Marco Brambilla (Sync), Larry Clark (Impaled), Gaspar Noe (We Fk Alone) ph Aleksandar Ilic (Balkan Erotic Epic), Seamus McGarvey (Death Valley), Peter Strietmann (Hoist), Eric Volke (Impaled) m Jonathan Bepler (Hoist), Andrew Hale & Matmos (Death Valley), Richard Prince (House Call) pd Matthew D. Ryle ed Alex Blatt, Marco Brambilla, Akiko Iwakawa-Grieve, Michael D. Thompson sp Gabe Bartalos (Hoist), Ljubomir Simic (Balkan Erotic Epic)
☆ August, Jasmine Byrne, Dillan Lauren, Sativa Rose, Angela Stone, Nancy Vee

'Does try to say something about the mainstreaming of pornography.' – Peter Bradshaw, The Guardian

† The film's producers call it 'a platform for all forms of uncensored artistic expression.'

'What nation will survive?'

Destroy all Monsters

Japan 1968 89m colour
Tohoscope
Toho/AIP
Moon invaders gain control of Godzilla and his friends.
Typically inept Japanese monster rally full of men in rubber suits.
w Kaoru Mabuchi d Inoshiro Honda ph Taiichi Kankura m Akira Ifukube ☆ Akira Kubo, Jun Tazaki, Kyoko Ai

'Her only rival is his ship!'

Destroyer

US 1943 99m bw
Columbia (Louis F. Edelmann)
An old sea dog talks himself into a job on a World War II destroyer but works his men too hard.
Flat propaganda piece, not too well made.
w Frank Wead, Lewis Meltzer, Borden Chase d William A. Seiter ph Franz Planer m Anthony Collins
☆ Edward G. Robinson, Glenn Ford, Marguerite Chapman, Edgar Buchanan, Leo Gorcey, Regis Toomey, Ed Brophy

The Destructors: see The Marseilles Contract

Destry ★

US 1954 95m Technicolor
U-I (Stanley Rubin)
Almost scene-for-scene remake of Destry Rides Again (qv), in which a peaceable sheriff tames a tough town.
Well enough made and tolerably acted, but it doesn't have the sparkle, despite employing the same director.
w Edmund H. North, D. D. Beauchamp d George Marshall ph George Robinson m Joseph Gershenson ed Ted J. Kent ☆ Audie Murphy, Mari Blanchard, Lyle Bettger, Thomas Mitchell, Edgar Buchanan, Wallace Ford, Lori Nelson, Alan Hale Jnr, Mary Wickes

'The impression is of a school revival of the original production.' – MFB

'They make the fighting sinful west blaze into action before your eyes!'

Destry Rides Again ★★★★

US 1939 94m bw
Universal (Joe Pasternak)
A mild-mannered sheriff finally gets mad at local corruption and straps on his guns.
Classic Western which manages to encompass suspense, comedy, romance, tenderness, vivid characterization, horseplay, songs and standard Western excitements, without moving for more than a moment from a studio main street set. It starts with a sign reading 'Welcome to Bottleneck' and an outburst of gunfire; it ends with tragedy followed by a running joke. Hollywood expertise at its very best.
w Felix Jackson, Gertrude Purcell, Henry Myers novel Max Brand d George Marshall ph Hal Mohr m Frank Skinner m/ly Frederick Hollander, Frank Loesser md Charles Previn ad Jack Otterson ed Milton Carruth cos Vera West
☆ James Stewart (Tom Destry), Marlene Dietrich (Frenchy), Brian Donlevy (Kent), Charles Winninger ("Wash" Dimsdale), Samuel S. Hinds (Judge Slade), Mischa Auer (Boris Callahan), Irene Hervey (Janice Tyndall), Jack Carson (Jack Tyndall), Una Merkel (Lily Belle Callahan), Allen Jenkins (Bugs Watson), Warren Hymer (Gyp Watson), Billy Gilbert (Loupqerou)

'Makes the b.o. grade in a big way ... just plain, good entertainment.' – Variety
'I think it was Lord Beaverbrook who said that Marlene Dietrich standing on a bar in black net stockings, belting out See What the Boys in the Back Room Will Have, was a greater work of art than the Venus de Milo.' – Richard Roud

† An early sound version in 1932 starred Tom Mix; Frenchie (1950) was a slight variation. See also Destry.

Det Regnar Pa Var Kärlek: see It Rains on Our Love

The Detective: see Father Brown (1954)

The Detective ★★

US 1968 114m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Arcola/Millfield (Aaron Rosenberg)
A New York police detective fights crime and corruption.
Determinedly sleazy and 'frank' cop stuff, quite arrestingly narrated and with something to say about police methods. Good violent entertainment, with just a shade too many homosexuals and nymphomaniacs for balance.
w Abby Mann novel Roderick Thorp d Gordon Douglas ph Joseph Biroc m Jerry Goldsmith
☆ Frank Sinatra, Lee Remick, Jacqueline Bisset, Ralph Meeker, Jack Klugman, Horace MacMahon, Lloyd Bochner, William Windom, Tony Musante, Al Freeman Jnr, Robert Duvall

'It vacillates uncertainly between murder mystery, political allegory, and a psychological study of the hero.' – Jan Dawson

Detective ★

France 1985 98m colour
Sara/JLG
Four groups of people find their paths intersecting in a Paris hotel while the hotel detective tries to solve a murder.
Eccentric Grand Hotel*-style compendium with many baffling asides presumably attributable to the director. One suspects that the audience is expected to be a detective too.*
w Alain Sarde, Philippe Setbon, Anne-Marie Mieville, Jean-Luc Godard d Jean-Luc Godard
☆ Claude Brasseur, Nathalie Baye, Johnny Hallyday, Laurent Terzieff, Jean-Pierre Léaud, Alain Cuny

'A man whose wife was more woman than angel!'

Detective Story ★★

US 1951 103m bw
Paramount (William Wyler)
A day in a New York precinct police station, during which a detective of almost pathological righteousness discovers a stain on his family and himself becomes a victim of violence.
Clever, fluent transcription of a Broadway play with some of the pretensions of Greek tragedy; it could have been the negation of cinema, but professional handling makes it the essence of it.
w Philip Yordan, Robert Wyler play Sidney Kingsley d William Wyler ph Lee Garmes
☆ Kirk Douglas, Eleanor Parker, William Bendix, Cathy O'Donnell, George Macready, Horace MacMahon, Gladys George, Joseph Wiseman, Lee Grant, Gerald Mohr, Frank Faylen, Luis Van Rooten

'The admirably directed interaction of movement and talk all over the big room is what gives the thing its satisfying

texture.' – Richard Mallett, Punch
† No music was used.
Philip Yordan, Robert Wyler; William Wyler; Eleanor Parker; Lee Grant

Determination of Death
US 2001 100m colour
WIN/Papazian Hirsch (Skip Beaudine)
Insurance investigators suspect a woman of killing her abusive husband.
Dull thriller that lacks plausibility in its many narrative twists.
w Sharon Barry McTigue, James G. Hirsch d Michael Miller ph Geoffrey Schaaf m Dana Kaproff pd Peter Wooley ed Daniel Cahn
☆ Veronica Hamel (Virginia Halloran), Marc Singer (Reese Williams), Michele Greene (Katie Williams), John Ratzenberger (Charlie Halloran), William Katt (John Logan), Alice Hirson (Edith), Bradford English (Col Black), George Dzundza (Mac)

'Suspense As Startling As A Strangled Scream!' Detour ★
US 1945 68m bw
PRC (Leon Fromkess)
On his way to Hollywood to meet a girlfriend, a night-club pianist assumes the identity of a dead man.
A minor cult movie with as much doomladen dialogue and film noir angles as could be shovelled into a Poverty Row 'B' at the time. On the whole, less than meets the eye.
w Martin Goldsmith d Edgar G. Ulmer ph Benjamin H. Kline m Leo Erdody
☆ Tom Neal, Ann Savage, Claudia Drake, Edmund MacDonald, Tim Ryan

'Kiss the rules goodbye.'
Detroit Rock City
US 1999 95m DeLuxe Super 35
Entertainment/New Line/Takoma/Base-12/Kissnation (Gene Simmons, Barry Levine, Kathleen Haase)
In the late 70s, four highschool students overcome numerous problems in order to see their favourite rock group Kiss give a concert in Detroit.
Sex, drugs and rock are all mixed together in a slight drama that is only likely to be enjoyed by Kiss's fans.
w Carl V. Dupré d Adam Rifkin ph John R. Leonetti m J. Peter Robinson ed Mark Goldblatt
☆ Edward Furlong (Hawk), Giuseppe Andrews (Lex), James DeBello (Trip), Sam Huntington (Jeremiah 'Jam' Bruce), Gene Simmons (Himself), Paul Stanley (Himself), Ace Frehley (Himself), Peter Criss (Himself), Melanie Lynskey (Beth Bumsteen), Nick Scotti (Kenny), Shannon Tweed (Amanda Finch)
'Cruel, fast-paced, slapstick fun with an ace rock soundtrack.' – Andrew Collins, Empire

'He's not very good-looking. But when the lights go out... he's still not very good-looking.'
Deuce Bigalow: Male Gigolo
US 1999 88m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Happy Madison/Out of the Blue (Sid Ganis, Barry Bernardi)
After he trashes a gigolo's expensive aquarium, a dim-witted fish fancier is forced to become a 'man-whore', servicing unattractive women.
With Adam Sandler among the executive producers, no one should be surprised that this is a gross, no-brow comedy lacking wit and sense, consisting merely of a series of crudely-done gags on bodily functions.
w Harris Goldberg, Rob Schneider d Mike Mitchell ph Peter Lyons Collister m Teddy Castellucci pd Alan Au ed George Bowers, Lawrence Jordan
☆ Rob Schneider (Deuce Bigalow), William Forsythe (Det Chuck Fowler), Eddie Griffin (T.J. Hicks), Arija Bareikis (Kate), Oded Fehr (Antoine Laconte), Gail O'Grady (Claire), Richard Riehle (Bob Bigalow), Jacqueline Obradors (Elaine Fowler)
'The pic is a sign that the Sandler comedy empire is expanding and reaching new depths of pure gross-out stupidity.' – Robert Koehler, Variety

Deus e o Diabo na Terra do Sol: see Black God, White Devil

Les Deux Anglaises et le Continent: see Anne and Muriel

Deux ou trois choses que je sais d'elle: see Two or Three Things I Know about Her

'A grand saga of timeless love'
Devdas ★
India 2002 182m colour 'scope
Eros/Mega Bollywood (Bharat Shah)
A London-educated lawyer turns to drink when his wealthy family stop him marrying the woman he loves.
Lavishly over-the-top Bollywood epic that overwhelms its classic love story with silks and satins.
w Prakash Kapadia, Sanjay Leela Bhansali novel Sarat Chandra Chattopadhye d Sanjay Leela Bhansali ph Binod Pradhan m Monty m/ly Ismail Darbar, Birju Maharaj, Nusrat Badr, Sameer ch Birju Maharaj, Saroj Khan, Vaibhavi Merchant, Pappu-Mallu pd Nitin Chandrakant Desai ed Bela Segal cos Abu Jani, Sandeep Khosla, Neeta Lulla, Reza Shariffi ☆ Shah Rukh Khan (Devdas Mukherjee), Madhuri Dixit (Chandramukhi), Aishwarya Rai (Parvati), Jackie Shroff (Chunnilal), Kiron Kher (Sumitra), Smita Jayakar (Kaushalya), Vijayendra Ghatge (Bhuvan Choudhry), Ananya Khare (Kumud)
'Tthe glitz, glamour and slightly tacky luxury on display almost strangles the life out of its relatively simple story.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Devi ★
India 1960 93m bw
Satyajit Ray Productions
aka: The Goddess
While his son is away at university, a farmer persuades his daughter-in-law that she is a goddess, and the events which follow, including the death of her son, are too much for her reason.
A curious, 'foreign' story which does not have the usual Ray tempo or feeling for character, but wins one's attention by its very strangeness.
wd Satyajit Ray story Prabhat Kumar Mukherjee ph Subrata Mitra m Ali Akbar Khan ad Bansi Chandragupta ed Dulal Dutta
☆ Chhabi Biswas, Sharmila Tagore, Soumitra Chatterjee, Karuna Banerjee

The Devil and Daniel Webster: see All That Money Can Buy

The Devil and Max Devlin
US 1981 95m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Jerome Courtland)
An unscrupulous apartment manager is knocked down by a bus. Finding himself in hell, he is offered freedom if he can buy three young souls within two months.
Frowsty Freudian comedy, a very unhappy indication of the depths to which Disney productions have sunk since Walt's death. To carry this kind of thing off requires a hundred times more style than is evidenced here.
w Mary Rodgers d Steven Hilliard Stern ph Howard Schwartz m Buddy Baker ☆ Elliott Gould, Bill Cosby, Susan Anspach, Adam Rich, Charles Shamata, Ronnie Schell

The Devil and Miss Jones ★★
US 1941 97m bw
RKO/Frank Ross, Norman Krasna
A millionaire masquerades as a clerk in his own department store to investigate worker complaints.
Attractive comedy with elements of the crazy thirties and the more socially conscious forties.
w Norman Krasna d Sam Wood ph Harry Stradling m Roy Webb
☆ Jean Arthur, Charles Coburn, Robert Cummings, Spring Byington, S. Z. Sakall, William Demarest
Norman Krasna; Charles Coburn

'Greatest Thrill Ever Screened!'
'Her sin – their death?'
Devil and the Deep ★
US 1932 73m bw
Paramount (Emmanuel Cohen)
A submarine commander goes mad with jealousy of his faithless wife.
A turgid melodrama notable for its stars.
w Benn Levy d Marion Gering ph Charles Lang ☆ Tallulah Bankhead, Charles Laughton, Gary Cooper, Cary Grant, Paul Porcasi
'Of femme interest despite lukewarm performance of Tallulah Bankhead ... a fair commercial release.' – Variety

The Devil and the Nun ★
Poland 1960 108m bw
Kadr
original title: Matka Joanna od Aniolow
aka: Mother Joan of the Angels
In a 17th-century convent nuns are possessed by devils. A priest who tries to help is burned at the stake; another becomes possessed himself.
Reasonably dispassionate and fairly stylized version of the same facts that were treated so hysterically by Ken Russell in The Devils.
w Tadeusz Konwicki, Jerzy Kawalerowicz novel Jaroslav Iwaszkiewicz d Jerzy Kawalerowicz ph Jerzy Wojcik m Adam Walacinski
☆ Lucyna Winnicka, Mieczyslaw Voit, Anna Ciepielewska

The Devil at Four o'Clock
US 1961 126m Eastmancolor
Columbia/Leroy/Kohlmar (Fred Kohlmar)
A drunken missionary and three convicts save a colony of leper children from a South Seas volcano.
Muddled adventure melodrama with a downbeat ending long delayed.
w Liam O'Brien novel Max Catto d Mervyn Le Roy ph Joseph Biroc m George Duning
☆ Spencer Tracy, Frank Sinatra, Kerwin Mathews, Jean-Pierre Aumont, Grégoire Aslan, Alexander Scourby, Barbara Luna

The Devil Bat
US 1941 70m bw
PRC
A crazed scientist trains bats to kill at the scent of a certain perfume.
Horror comic hokum from the bottom of the barrel.
w John Neville d Jean Yarbrough
☆ Bela Lugosi, Suzanne Kaaren, Dave O'Brien
† The DVD release also included Scared to Death (qv).

Devil Bat's Daughter
US 1946 67m bw
PRC
A girl who thinks she is the daughter of a vampire consults a psychiatrist, who encourages her to murder his wife.
Tolerable, potboiling shocker.
w Griffin Jay story Frank Wisbar, Ernst Jaeger d Frank Wisbar
☆ Rosemary La Planche, John James, Michael Hale, Nolan Leary

The Devil Came from Akasava
West Germany 1970 85m colour
CCC Films/Fenix Films (Karl-Heinz Mannchen)
Rival groups attempt to control a stone with mystic powers.
Nonsensical adventure, barely competent in all departments.
w Paul Andre, Lladislas Fedor d Jess Frank (Jesús Franco) ph Manuel Merino m Manfred Hubler, Siegfried Schwab
☆ Fred Williams, Susann Korda, Horst Tappert, Ewa Stroemberg, Siefried Schurenberg, Walter Rilla, Paul Muller

The Devil Commands ★
US 1941 65m bw
Columbia (Wallace MacDonald)
An electrical scientist tries to communicate with his dead wife through a medium.
Modestly effective horror thriller, though rather too deliberately paced.
w Robert D. Andrews, Milton Gunzberg story The Edge of Running Water by William Sloane d Edward Dmytryk ph Allan G. Siegler md Morris Stoloff ☆ Boris Karloff, Richard Fiske, Amanda Duff, Anne Revere, Ralph Penney Devil Dogs of the Air ★

US 1935 86m bw
Warner (Lou Edelman)
Rivalry and romance in the Marine Flying Corps.
Standard, lively vehicle for Cagney and O'Brien, with excellent stunt flying sequences.
w Malcolm Stuart Boylan, Earl Baldwin novel John Monk Saunders d Lloyd Bacon ph Arthur Edeson md Leo F. Forbstein
☆ James Cagney, Pat O'Brien, Margaret Lindsay, Frank McHugh, Helen Lowell, John Arledge, Robert Barrat, Russell Hicks, Ward Bond
'Exhibs should have no squawks and may even cheer if they put a little steam behind their selling.' – Variety
'A loud and roughneck screen comedy, both amusing and exciting.' – André Sennwald

'What Is The Strange Terrifying Evil Secret Of The Dummy ... and why is it locked in a cage every night?'
'Can You Keep The Secret Of The Most Diabolical Ending Ever Filmed?'
Devil Doll
GB 1963 70m bw
Galaworld/Gordon (Lindsay Shonteff)
A hypnotist and ventriloquist uses his doll, containing the trapped soul of a human, to carry out his evil purposes.
Competent but uninspired thriller, too silly to be effective and too obviously indebted to the much superior Dead of Night (qv).

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

w George Barclay (Ronald Kinnoch), Lance Z. Hargreaves (Charles Vetter) story Frederick Escreet Smith d Lindsay Shonteff ph Gerald Gibbs ad Stan Shields ed Ernest Bullingham
☆ William Sylvester, Bryant Halliday, Yvonne Romain, Sandra Dorne, Nora Nicholson, Alan Gifford, Karel Stepanek, Francis de Wolff

'Earth menaced by fantastic powers!'

Devil Girl from Mars

GB 1954 76m bw
Edward J. and Harry Lee Danziger

A female Martian is sent to Earth to bring back a stock of men for breeding purposes.
Absurd attempt to cash in on the then new space fiction craze. The budget matches the imagination.
w John C. Maher, James Eastwood
d David MacDonald ph Jack Cox
m Edwin Astley
☆ Patricia Laffan, Hugh McDermott, Joseph Tomelty, Adrienne Corri, Peter Reynolds, Hazel Court, John Laurie, Sophie Stewart

'There is really no fault in this film that one would like to see eliminated. Everything, in its way, is quite perfect.' – Gavin Lambert, Sight and Sound

'Private detective Easy Rawlins has been caught on the wrong side of the most dangerous secret in town.'

Devil in a Blue Dress ★★

US 1995 102m Technicolor
TriStar/Clinica Estetico/Mundy Lane (Jesse Beaton, Gary Goetzman)

In Los Angeles in the late 40s, private eye Easy Rawlins is hired to find a missing woman.
Deft and engrossing thriller of corrupt politics and racial and sexual tensions, well acted, and directed with economy and style.
wd Carl Franklin novel Walter Mosley
ph Tak Fujimoto m Elmer Bernstein
pd Gary Frutkoff ed Carole Kravetz
☆ Denzel Washington, Tom Sizemore, Jennifer Beals, Don Cheadle, Maury Chaykin, Terry Kinney, Mel Winkler, Albert Hall

'The most enjoyable private-eye film in a long time: a modest, skillful, unfussy genre film that tells an exciting story and lets its more serious concerns remain just below the surface.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker

Devil in the Flesh: see Le Diable au Corps

Devil in the Flesh

US 1998 99m colour
Le Monde/Prostar/Unapix (Kurt Anderson, Richard Brandes)

A unbalanced teenage girl develops an obsessive crush on one of her teachers.
Mundane thriller with nothing to distinguish from similar run-other-mill movies offering a modicum of sex and violence.
w Steve Cohen, Robert McCall, Kelly Carlin-McCall, Michael Michand story Kurt Anderson, Richard Brandes
d Steve Cohen ph Joseph Montgomery
m Michael Burns, Steve Gurevitch
pd Radha Mehta ed Michael Thibault
☆ Rose McGowan (Debbie Strand), Alex McArthur (Peter Rinaldi), Peg Shirley (Fiona Long), J.C. Brandy (Janie Magray), Phil Morris (Det Joe Rosales), Robert Silver (Det Phil Archer), Sherrie Rose (Marilyn)
† Its narrative was recycled in a sequel in 2000, under the title Teacher's Pet (qv).

Devil in the Flesh 2: see Teacher's Pet (2000)

The Devil Is a Sissy

US 1936 92m bw
MGM (Frank Davis)
aka: The Devil Takes the Count

The young son of divorcing parents gets into bad company.
Adequate juvenile melodrama.
w John Lee Mahin, Richard Schayer, Rowland Brown d W. S. Van Dyke ph Harold Rosson, George Schneiderman
m Herbert Stothart
☆ Freddie Bartholomew, Jackie Cooper, Mickey Rooney, Ian Hunter, Peggy Conklin, Katherine Alexander, Gene Lockhart, Dorothy Peterson

'Men are my slaves – and glad to be!'

The Devil Is a Woman ★

US 1935 82m bw
Paramount

In Seville in the 1890s, a femme fatale has several admirers.
The last Dietrich vehicle to be directed by von Sternberg, and rather splendid in its highly decorative and uncommercial way; a treat for addicts.
w John Dos Passos, S. K. Winston novel La Femme et le Pantin by Pierre Louÿs d Josef von Sternberg ph Josef von Sternberg, Lucien Ballard m from Rimsky-Korsakov ad Hans Dreier
☆ Marlene Dietrich, Lionel Atwill, Cesar Romero, Edward Everett Horton, Alison Skipworth, Don Alvarado, Morgan Wallace, Tempe Piggott

'A somewhat monotonous picture ... sophisticated audiences are its best bet.' – Variety
'One of the most sophisticated films ever produced in America.' – André Sennwald, New York Times
'Light and shadow are splashed liberally around over the white-painted sets; cafés, tobacco factories, stairs and balconies are decorated with every conceivable device and camera-level.' – Peter John Dyer, 1964
'A clever, perversely dehumanized picture said to be one of von Sternberg's favourites.' – New Yorker, 1977

The Devil Is Driving

US 1937 69m bw
Columbia

An attorney protects a friend's son from a drunk driving charge, but finally indicts himself for perjury.
Standard moral melodrama with the star in good form.
w Jo Milward, Richard Blake d Harry Lachman
☆ Richard Dix, Joan Perry, Nana Bryant, Frank C. Wilson, Ian Wolfe, Elisha Cook Jnr, Henry Kolker, Ann Rutherford, Walter Kingsford

'Carries a good deal of punch, but not enough to lug it above the moderate biz bracket.' – Variety

The Devil Makes Three

US 1952 90m bw
MGM (Richard Goldstone)

An American intelligence officer in post-war Germany becomes involved with neo-Nazis.
A curious break from dancing for Gene Kelly, this obscurely titled thriller has little to commend it but authentic locations.
w Jerry Davis story Lawrence Bachmann
d Andrew Marton ph Vaclav Vich
m Rudolph G. Kopp
☆ Gene Kelly, Pier Angeli, Richard Rober, Richard Egan, Claus Clausen

The Devil Never Sleeps: see Satan Never Sleeps

Devil on Horseback

GB 1954 89m bw
Group 3 (John Grierson, Isobel Pargiter)

A teenage jockey gets to the top the hard way.
Highly resistible compendium of racetrack clichés and sentiment, not at all what one expected from Group 3.
w Neil Paterson, Montagu Slater d Cyril Frankel ph Denny Densham m Malcolm Arnold ☆ Googie Withers, John McCallum, Jeremy Spenser, Meredith Edwards, Liam Redmond, Sam Kydd

The Devil, Probably ★

France 1977 95m Eastmancolor
Sunchold/GMF (Stéphane Tchalgadchieff)

original title: Le Diable, Probablement
A young Parisian goes to the devil and arranges to have himself shot.
A despairing vision of an arid world, seen through unpleasant details of city life. A fascinating but enervated film very typical of its director.
wd Robert Bresson ph Pasqualino de Santis
m Philippe Sarde pd Eric Simon
☆ Antoine Monnier, Tina Irissari, Henri de Maublanc

The Devil Rides Out ★

GB 1968 95m Technicolor
Warner/Hammer (Anthony Nelson-Keys)

US title: The Devil's Bride
The Duc de Richleau rescues a friend from a group of Satanists.
Rather stodgy adaptation of a frightening novel; moments of suspense.
w Richard Matheson novel Dennis Wheatley d Terence Fisher ph Arthur Grant m James Bernard ad Bernard Robinson ed James Needs, Spencer Reeve ☆ Christopher Lee, Charles Gray, Leon Greene, Patrick Mower, Gwen Ffrangcon-Davies

Devil Ship Pirates

GB 1964 96m Technicolor
Hammerscope
ABP/Hammer (Anthony Nelson-Keys)

At the time of the Armada, Spanish privateers terrorize a Cornish seaside village.
Lacklustre pirate yarn with not much action and some elements of Hammer horror.
w Jimmy Sangster d Don Sharp
ph Michael Reed m Gary Hughes ad Bernard Robinson, Don Mingaye
ed James Needs
☆ Christopher Lee, John Cairney, Barry Warren, Ernest Clark, Andrew Keir, Duncan Lamont

The Devil Takes the Count: see The Devil Is a Sissy

The Devil Thumbs a Ride

US 1947 63m bw
RKO

A commercial traveller gives a lift to a man who turns out to be wanted for murder.
Predictable suspenser without much entertainment value.
wd Felix Feist
☆ Ted North, Lawrence Tierney, Nan Leslie

The Devil to Pay ★

US 1930 72m bw
Samuel Goldwyn

The prodigal son of a snooty English family returns to cheer them all up.
Agreeably lighthearted star comedy in the drawing-room tradition.
w Frederick Lonsdale d George Fitzmaurice ph Gregg Toland, George Barnes m Alfred Newman
☆ Ronald Colman, Loretta Young, Myrna Loy, Frederick Kerr

'Snappy British comedy that should please everywhere ... a set-up for femmes.' – Variety
'Six reels of Mr Colman being charming ... a polished, tasteful and entirely likeable screen comedy.' – New York Herald Tribune

'Hell on heels.'

The Devil Wears Prada ★★ (7)

US 2006 109m
TCF/Fox 2000/Wendy Fineman (Wendy Fineman)

A dowdy, brainy young woman gets a job in a cut-throat world as assistant to a New York fashion magazine's tyrannical editor.
Meryl Streep utterly dominates as the imperious editor Miranda. The plot is cursory: can Anne Hathaway's unfashionable Andrea survive in this viper's nest, where Miranda's assistants typically quit in tears? But the fun lies with Streep, silver-haired, pale of skin, uttering crushing one-liners in a whispered, fatigued voice. None of this is exactly profound, certainly no more so than the dictates of the fashion industry. But it's shrewd, witty entertainment.
w Aline Brosh McKenna novel Lauren Weisberger d David Frankel ph Florian Ballhaus m Theodore Shapiro pd Jess Gonchor ad Tom Warren, Anne Seibel ed Mark Livolsi
☆ Meryl Streep (Miranda Priestly), Anne Hathaway (Andy Sachs), Emily Blunt (Emily), Stanley Tucci (Nigel), Simon Baker (Christian Thompson)
MIRANDA: 'By all means move at a glacial pace. You know how that thrills me.'

'It wants to hitch a free ride on all the high-speed excitement of the wicked fashion biz – before finally growing up and deciding it's way too superficial.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
Actress (Meryl Streep); costume design (Patricia Field)

The Devil with Hitler

US 1942 44m bw
Hal Roach

Hell's board of directors want to sack Satan and bring in Hitler.
Somewhat infantile war farce, one of this producer's very few successful medium-length 'screenliners'.
w Cortland FitzSimmons, Al Martin
d Gordon Douglas
☆ Alan Mowbray, Bobby Watson, George E. Stone, Joe Devlin
† The Hays Office gave special permission, in a just cause, for the use of the word 'Hell'.

Devil within Her (dubbed)

Italy 1974 109m Technicolor
UA/AR Cinematografica (Ovisio Assonitis, Giorgio C. Rossi)

original title: Chi Sei?
US title: Beyond the Door
The Devil gives a black magician ten days to obtain the unborn child of his former mistress.
An unoriginal and unexciting variation on The Exorcist, repeating to lesser effect that film's tricks.
w Sonia Molteni, Antonio Troisio, Giorgio Marini, Aldo Crudo, Robert D'Ettore Piazzoli d Oliver Hellman ph Robert D'Ettore Piazzoli m Franco Micalizzi ad Piero Filippone, Franco Pellecchia Velchi ed Angelo Curi

☆ Juliet Mills, Richard Johnson, Gabriele Lavia, Barbara Fiorini, David Colin Jnr, Joan Acti

'A disastrous foray into the fashionable area of demonic possession, unencumbered with any trace of subtlety or conviction.' – Verina Glaessner

† Three years later, another Italian horror movie Shock (qv) was renamed Beyond the Door II for the US market. It is not a sequel, though the cast includes David Colin Jnr as a possessed boy.

The Devil within Her: see I Don't Want to Be Born (1975)

Devil-Doll ★★

US 1936 79m bw
MGM (E. J. Mannix)

A refugee from Devil's Island disguises himself as an old lady who sells human dolls which murder those responsible for his imprisonment.

Interesting rather than exciting tall tale with a Paris backdrop; despite impressive moments it does not quite have the right frisson.

w Tod Browning, Garrett Fort, Erich von Stroheim, Guy Endore novel Burn Witch Burn by A. A. Merritt d Tod Browning ph Leonard Smith m Franz Waxman ad Cedric Gibbons

☆ Lionel Barrymore, Maureen O'Sullivan, Frank Lawton, Henry B. Walthall, Rafaela Ottiano, Grace Ford, Arthur Hohl

'Grotesque, slightly horrible and consistently interesting.' – Frank Nugent, New York Times

'Hell holds no surprises ... for them!'

The Devils ★★★

GB 1970 111m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Russo (Robert H. Solo, Ken Russell)

An account of the apparent demoniacal possession of the 17th-century nuns of Loudun, climaxing in the burning of their priest as a sorcerer.

Hysterical subject-matter gets an appropriately over-the-top treatment, with worm-eaten skulls, masturbating nuns and gibbering courtiers. It is a devastating study of sexual repression and erotic fantasy within a small, enclosed society, of superstition run rampant.

wd Ken Russell play John Whiting book The Devils of Loudun by Aldous Huxley ph David Watkin m Peter Maxwell Davies ad Robert Cartwright

☆ Vanessa Redgrave, Oliver Reed, Dudley Sutton, Max Adrian, Gemma Jones, Murray Melvin, Michael Gothard, Graham Armitage

'Ken Russell doesn't report hysteria, he markets it.' – New Yorker, 1976

'Russell's swirling multi-colored puddle ... made me glad that both Huxley and Whiting are dead, so that they are spared this farrago of witless exhibitionism.' – Stanley Kauffmann

'A garish glossary of sado-masochism ... a taste for visual sensation that makes scene after scene look like the masturbatory fantasies of a Roman Catholic boyhood.' – Alexander Walker

'A degenerate and despicable piece of art.' – Charles Champlin, Los Angeles Times

The Devil's 8

US 1968 98m Pathécolor
AIP/Burt Topper

A federal agent on the trail of a moonshine gang recruits a gang of hardened convicts and arranges for them to escape.

The Dirty Dozen all over again, and not good.

w James Gordon White, Willard Huyck, John Milius d Burt Topper ph Richard C. Glouner m Mike Curb

☆ Christopher George, Ralph Meeker, Fabian, Tom Nardini, Leslie Parrish, Ross Hagen

The Devil's Advocate

West Germany 1977 109m colour
Geria (Lutz Hengst)

A dying priest is summoned to Rome to investigate the cult of a dead partisan nominated for sainthood.

Well-meaning but rather tepid and inconclusive adaptation of a bestseller which presumably made its points more firmly.

w Morris West novel Morris West d Guy Green ph Billy Williams m Bert Grund

☆ John Mills, Stéphane Audran, Jason Miller, Timothy West, Patrick Mower, Paola Pitagora, Daniel Massey, Leigh Lawson, Raf Vallone, Jack Hedley

'Evil Has Its Winning Ways.'

Devil's Advocate

US 1997 144m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (Arnon Milchan, Arnold Kopelson, Anne Kopelson)

A successful young lawyer is tempted to join a big New York firm that is run by the Devil.

A perfunctory thriller that seems mainly designed to provide Al Pacino with an opportunity to overact, which he accepts with relish.

w Jonathan Lemkin, Tony Gilroy novel Andrew Neiderman d Taylor Hackford ph Andrzej Bartkowiak m James Newton Howard pd Bruno Rubeo ed Mark Warner

☆ Keanu Reeves, Al Pacino, Charlize Theron, Jeffrey Jones, Judith Ivey, Connie Neilsen, Craig T. Nelson, Delroy Lindo (uncredited)

'A fairly entertaining supernatural potboiler that finally bubbles over with a nearly operatic sense of absurdity and excess.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

The Devil's Backbone: see El Espinazo del Diablo

Devil's Bait

GB 1959 58m bw
Rank/Independent Artists

A baker accidentally bakes a loaf containing poison.

B-feature thriller of minimal interest.

w Peter Johnson, Diana K. Watson d Peter Graham Scott ph Michael Reed m William Alwyn md Muir Mathieson ad Eric Saw ed John Trumper

☆ Geoffrey Keen, Jane Hylton, Gordon Jackson, Rupert Davies, Dermot Kelly

The Devil's Bride: see The Devil Rides Out

The Devil's Brigade

US 1968 132m DeLuxe Panavision
UA/David L. Wolper

For combat in Norway and Italy during World War II a US officer assembles a platoon of thugs and misfits to work with crack Canadian commandos.

Flagrant but routine imitation of The Dirty Dozen, quite undistinguished.

w William Roberts book Robert H. Adleman, George Walton d Andrew V. McLaglen ph William Clothier m Alex North

☆ William Holden, Cliff Robertson, Vince Edwards, Andrew Prine, Claude Akins, Carroll O'Connor, Richard Jaeckel

'After nearly three decades of World War II films, it is hardly surprising that Hollywood is beginning to suffer from combat fatigue.' – Time

The Devil's Brother: see Fra Diavolo

'Fighting like jungle beasts for the love of one woman!'

Devil's Canyon

US 1953 92m Technicolor Natural Vision 3-D
RKO/Edmund Grainger

Life in a notorious Arizona prison in the 1880s; a marshal is unjustly convicted but wins his pardon.

Fairly brutal Western, quite unmemorable.

w Frederick Hazlitt Brennan, Harry Essex story Bennett R. Cohen, Norton S. Parker d Alfred Werker ph Nicholas Musuraca m Daniele Amfitheatrof md Constantin Bakaleinikoff ad Albert S. D'Agostino, Jack Okey ed Gene Palmer

☆ Dale Robertson (Billy Reynolds), Virginia Mayo (Abby Nixon), Stephen McNally (Jesse Gorman), Arthur Hunnicutt (Frank Taggert), Robert Keith (Steve Morgan), Jay C. Flippen (Captain Wells), Whit Bissell (Virgil), William Phillips (Red), Morris Ankrum (Sheriff), George J. Lewis (Colonel Gomez)

The Devil's Disciple ★

GB 1959 82m bw
UA/Hecht-Hill-Lancaster/Brynaprod (Harold Hecht)

In 1777 an American ne'er-do-well almost allows himself to be hanged by the British in mistake for a rebel pastor.

Star-studded but indifferently staged adaptation of a minor Shavian frolic. Patchy, with good moments.

w John Dighton, Roland Kibbee play Bernard Shaw d Guy Hamilton ph Jack Hildyard m Richard Rodney Bennett ad Terence Verity, Edward Carere

☆ Burt Lancaster, Kirk Douglas, Laurence Olivier (General Burgoyne), Eva Le Gallienne, Janette Scott, Harry Andrews, Basil Sidney, George Rose, Neil McCallum, David Horne, Mervyn Johns

Devil's Doorway

US 1950 84m bw
MGM (Nicholas Nayfack)

A Shoshone Indian fights valiantly in the Civil War but on his return to Wyoming finds himself hated and threatened by his former colleagues.

Dull pro-Indian Western with a most unsuitable star.

w Guy Trosper d Anthony Mann ph John Alton m Daniele Amfitheatrof

☆ Robert Taylor, Louis Calhern, Paula Raymond, Marshall Thompson, James Mitchell, Edgar Buchanan, Rhys Williams, Spring Byington

The Devil's Envoys: see Les Visiteurs du Soir

The Devil's Eye ★

Sweden 1960 90m bw
Svensk Filmindustri

An old proverb says that a woman's chastity is a stye in the devil's eye. So when Satan has a sore eye he comes down to earth to put things right.

Surprisingly shoddily-made comedy with just a few of the sharpnesses of technique and mystifications of plot which one had come to expect from this maestro.

wd Ingmar Bergman ph Gunnar Fischer m Domenico Scarlatti

☆ Jarl Kulle, Bibi Andersson, Nils Poppe, Stig Järrel, Gunnar Björnstrand

The Devil's General

West Germany 1955 121m bw
Ryal (Gyula Trebitsch)

In 1941 a German air ace becomes estranged from the high command and is tortured by the Gestapo. On release he helps a Jewish couple ...

Heavy-going melodrama which nevertheless paints a convincing picture of Berlin during the war.

w George Hurdalek, Helmut Kautner play Carl Zuckmayer d Helmut Kautner ph Albert Benitz

☆ Curt Jurgens, Victor de Kowa, Karl John, Eva-Ingeborg Scholz

The Devil's Hairpin

US 1957 83m Technicolor Vistavision
Paramount/Cornel Wilde

A former motor racing champion makes a comeback, and redeems his past boorish behaviour.

Efficient routine melodramatics with good action sequences.

w James Edmiston, Cornel Wilde d Cornel Wilde ph Daniel Fapp m Van Cleave

☆ Cornel Wilde, Jean Wallace, Arthur Franz, Mary Astor, Paul Fix

The Devil's Impostor: see Pope Joan

Devil's Island ★

US 1939 63m bw
Warner (Bryan Foy)

A surgeon is sent to Devil's Island for aiding an escaped convict.

Sharply-made exposé of the notorious French penal colony; commendable pace and vigour all round.

w Kenneth Gamet, Don Ryan story The Return of Doctor X by Anthony Coldeway, Raymond L. Schrock d William Clemens ph George Barnes ed Frank Magee

☆ Boris Karloff, James Stephenson, Nedda Harrigan, Adia Kuznetzoff, Robert Warwick, Pedro de Cordoba

'It is being touted as an "uncensored" version. But there is nothing in it that could startle a well-protected child of seven or give pause even to a censor.' – Variety

Devil's Island ★★

Iceland/Norway/Germany/Denmark 1996 103m colour Theatrical Experience/IFC/Zentropa (Fridrik Thor Fridricksson, Egil ödergaard, Peter Rommel)
original title: Djöflaeyjan

In Iceland in the 50s, a man returns from America to live with his poverty-stricken family in an abandoned US military barracks.

Engaging, episodic domestic drama, an effective mix of comedy and tragedy, among society's misfits.

w Einar Kárason d Fridrik Thor Fridriksson ph Ari Kristinsson m Hilmar örn Hilmarsson pd Arni Páll Jóhansson ed Steingrimur Karlsson, Skule Eriksen

☆ Baltasar Kormakur, Sveinn Geirsson, Gisli Halldorsson, Sigurveig Jonsdottir, Halldora Geirhardsdottir

The Devil's Kiss (dubbed)

Spain/Andorra 1974 104m colour
Andros original title: La Perversa Caricia De Satan

With the aid of a telepath, a woman uses occult powers to seek revenge on those who wronged her and caused the death of her husband.

Dull horror movie, taken at a plodding pace;

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

the music, dialogue, and acting are its true terrors.
wd Georges Gigo (Jorge Luis Gigo) ph Julio Peréz de Rozas m Albert Argudo
ed Albert Gasset Nicolau
☆ Silvia Solar, Oliver Matthau (Olivier Mathot), Evelyne Scott, Daniel Martin, Jose Nieto, Ronnie Harp, Wendy Asher

The Devil's Nightmare
Belgium/France 1971 95m colour
Delfino/Cetelci
original title: La Plus Longue Nuit du Diable
Seven stranded travellers take shelter in a mansion occupied by a cursed family.
Predictable horror in which one murder follows another, whenever one of the seven deadly sins is committed; the overemphatic direction kills any suspense.
w Jean Brismée, Charles Lecocq, Patrice Rhomm, André Hunnebelle d Jean Brismée ph André Goeffers
☆ Erika Blanc, Jean Servais, Jacques Monseau, Lucien Raimbourg, Daniel Emilfork, Ivana Novak, Shirley Corrigan

Devils of Darkness
GB 1964 90m Eastmancolor
Planet (Tom Blakeley)
A writer discovers that mysterious deaths in Brittany are caused by Count Sinistre and his gypsy bride, vampires who are protected by the locals.
Lacklustre low-budget horror, given a modern setting apart from its prologue; the script pits English rectitude against French perversity.
w Lyn Fairhurst d Lance Comfort ph Reg Wyer m Bernie Fenton ad John St John Earl ed John Trumper
☆ William Sylvester, Hubert Noel, Carole Gray, Tracy Reed, Diana Decker, Rona Anderson, Eddie Byrne, Gerard Heinz, Peter Illing, Brian Oulton
'Flat direction and cheap sets and camerawork make this one of the least atmospheric British horror movies of all time.' – The Dark Side

The Devil's Own: see The Witches (1966)

'One man trapped by destiny, and another bound by duty. They're about to discover what they're willing to live, to fight, and to die for.'

The Devil's Own ③
US 1997 110m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia (Lawrence Gordon, Robert F. Colesberry)
An IRA hitman goes to America to buy missiles and lodges with a New York cop who hates violence.
Dull glamorization of thuggery and male bonding.
w David Aaron Cohen, Vincent Patrick, Kevin Jarre d Alan J. Pakula ph Gordon Willis m James Horner pd Jane Musky ed Tom Rolf, Dennis Virkler
☆ Harrison Ford, Brad Pitt, Margaret Colin, Ruben Blades, Treat Williams, George Hearn, Mitchell Ryan, Natascha McElhone
'From the opening caterwauling ... you can tell this film is going to be rubbish, and it is.' – Andrew Harrison, Neon
† The film cost some $95m and grossed around $42.9m in the US.

The Devil's Playground
US 1946 66m bw
UA/Hopalong Cassidy (Lewis J. Rachmil)
Hoppy and his friends save a girl and stolen gold from a crooked judge and his gang.
Pleasant 'B' Western that mixes comedy and action to amiable effect.
w Ted Wilson d George Archainbaud
ph Mack Stengler m David Chudnow
ad Harvey T. Gillett ed Fred W. Berger
☆ William Boyd, Andy Clyde, Rand Brooks, Elaine Riley, Robert Elliott, Joseph J. Greene, Francis McDonald, Ned Young

The Devil's Playground ★
Australia 1976 107m Eastmancolor
The Feature Film House (Fred Schepisi)
Tensions between masters and boys in a Catholic seminary in the fifties.
Well made but rather dislikeable intrusion into Mr Perrin and Mr Traill country with the addition of modern frankness.
wd Fred Schepisi ph Ian Baker m Bruce Smeaton
☆ Arthur Dignam, Nick Tate, Simon Burke, Charles McCallum, John Frawley

'Heaven help us all when'

The Devil's Rain
US 1975 86m colour Todd-AO 35
Rank/Sandy Howard (James V. Cullen, Michael S. Glick)
Witchcraft in the modern west causes victims to melt; the son of one of them takes arms against the leading Satanist.
Interestingly cast example of the low-budget seventies exploitation picture, with more nastiness than logic.
w Gabe Essoe, James Ashton, Gerald Hopman d Robert Fuest ph Alex Phillips Jnr m Al de Lory
☆ Ernest Borgnine, Ida Lupino, Eddie Albert, William Shatner, Keenan Wynn, Tom Skerritt

The Devil's Wanton ★
Sweden 1949 80m bw Terrafilm original title: Fängelse
aka: Prison
Film-makers discuss some rather unpleasant projects but put them aside as unsatisfactory.
A bit of a Scandinavian wallow, with heavy expressionism and low-life themes.
wd Ingmar Bergman ph Göran Strindberg m Erland von Koch
☆ Doris Svedlund, Birger Malmsten, Eva Henning, Hasse Ekman
'It employs all the paraphernalia associated with Scandinavian angst.' – John Gillett, MFB

The Devil's Widow: see Tam-Lin

Devlin
US 1992 106m colour
Viacom (Paula de Oliviera, Craig Roessler)
A cop fights back when he discovers he is being framed for the murder of his brother-in-law, a leading politician.
An unoriginal movie that is acted and directed with enough pace and energy to make it enjoyable.
w David Taylor novel Roderick Thorp d Rick Rosenthal ph Neil Roach m John Altman pd Barbara Dunphy ed Tony Gibbs
☆ Bryan Brown, Roma Downey, Lloyd Bridges, Whip Hubley, Lawrence Dane, Lisa Eichhorn, Carole Shelley, Jan Rubes, Frances Fisher
'A slick thriller that really does thrill.' – Alan Frank, Movies

'It tells ALL about those Brontë sisters! ... They didn't dare call it love – they tried to call it devotion!'

Devotion ★★
US 1946 107m bw
Warner (Robert Buckner)
A highly romanticized account of the lives of the Brontë sisters and their brother Branwell.
An enjoyable bad example of a big-budget Hollywood production which tampers with things it cannot understand, in this case life in a Yorkshire parsonage in Victorian times. An excuse is found to give the curate an Austrian accent to fit the available actor, but this and other faux pas are atoned for by the vividness of Emily's recurrent dream of death as a silhouetted man on horseback. In general, an interesting period piece in more senses than one.
w Keith Winter d Curtis Bernhardt ph Ernest Haller m Erich Wolfgang Korngold
☆ Ida Lupino (Emily), Olivia de Havilland (Charlotte), Nancy Coleman (Anne), Arthur Kennedy (Branwell), Montagu Love (Revd Brontë), Paul Henreid (Revd Nicholls), Ethel Griffies (Aunt Branwell), Sydney Greenstreet (Thackeray), Eily Malyon, Forrester Harvey, Victor Francen
'I found it painless. It never got nearer to the subject than names and consequently didn't hurt. But I would like to know who was devoted to whom and why.' – Richard Winnington
† More items from the extraordinary publicity campaign devised by Warner for this placid Victorian romance:
Emily: she ruled in that strange quiet house! None could resist the force of her will!
The man in black (i.e. the Revd Nicholls): he fled from her demands into her sister's arms!
Charlotte: the sweetness of love and the meaning of torment – she learned them both together!
The 'friend' – the furious fat man (i.e. William Makepeace Thackeray): they couldn't fool him – they couldn't trust him!
Dialogue includes the celebrated exchange between two celebrated London literary figures:
Dickens: 'Morning, Thackeray.'
Thackeray: 'Morning, Dickens.'
†† Made in 1943, but not released until later.

Dharmaga Tongjoguro Kan Kkadalgun?: see Why Did Bodhi-Dharma Leave for the East?

El Dia de la Bestia: see The Day of the Beast

Le Diable au Corps ★
France 1946 110m bw
Transcontinental
US title: Devil in the Flesh
When her husband is away at war, a young married woman falls for a college student with tragic consequences.
A love story of World War I; a great commercial success, but tending to be slow and dreary.
w Jean Aurenche, Pierre Bost
novel Raymond Radiguet d Claude Autant-Lara ph Michel Kelber m René Cloërec pd Max Douy ed Madeleine Gug ☆ Micheline Presle, Gérard Philipe, Jean Debucourt, Denise Grey, Jacques Tati

Le Diable, Probablement: see The Devil, Probably

Diabolique: see Les Diaboliques

Diabolique
US 1996 107m Technicolor
Warner/Morgan Creek/Marvin Worth/ABC (Marvin Worth, James G. Robinson)
The wife and mistress of an unpleasant schoolmaster conspire to murder him, with unexpected results.
An appalling remake of Henri-Georges Clouzot's masterly Les Diaboliques; it is boring, badly made and miserably acted.
w Don Roos novel Celle qui n'était plus by Pierre Boileau and Thomas Narcejec
d Jeremiah Chechik ph Peter James m Randy Edelman pd Leslie Dilley
ed Carol Littleton
☆ Sharon Stone, Isabelle Adjani, Chazz Palminteri, Kathy Bates, Spalding Gray, Shirley Knight, Allen Garfield
'As mouldy as anything ever laid before an audience.' – Tom Hutchinson, Film Review
'While the original grabbed you by the synapses and shook hard, this amounts to watchable nonsense enacted by unbelievable people in a preposterous scenario.' – Ian Nathan, Empire
'The filmmakers have turned silk into a sow's ear, giving people new reason to fear Hollywood remakes of quality foreign films.' – Variety

Les Diaboliques ★★★
France 1954 114m bw
Filmsonor (Henri-Georges Clouzot)
aka: Diabolique
GB title: The Fiends
A sadistic headmaster's wife and mistress conspire to murder him; but his body disappears and evidence of his presence haunts them.
Highly influential, suspenseful and scary thriller with a much-copied twist typical of its authors. Slow to start and shabby-looking as befits its grubby school setting, it gathers momentum with the murder and turns the screw with fine professionalism.
w Henri-Georges Clouzot, G. Geronimi novel The Woman Who Was by Pierre Boileau and Thomas Narcejac d Henri-Georges Clouzot ph Armand Thirard
m Georges Van Parys ad Leon Barsacq
ed Madeleine Gug
☆ Simone Signoret (Nicole Horner), Vera Clouzot (Christina Delasalle), Charles Vanel (Inspector Fichet), Paul Meurisse (Michel Delasalle)
'Scary, but so calculatedly sensational that it's rather revolting.' – New Yorker, 1978
'It depends very much on the intimate details of the seedy fourth-rate school, with its inadequate education and uneatable food, its general smell of unwashed children, hatred and petty perversions.' – Basil Wright, 1972
† Remade in 1976 as a TV movie, Reflections of Murder.

Diagnosis: Murder
GB 1974 90m Eastmancolor
Silhouette (Patrick Dromgoole, Peter Miller)
A psychiatrist's wife disappears, and the police suspect her husband.
Well-upholstered but sadly old-fashioned domestic crime thriller; one is vaguely surprised to see it in colour, having seen it so often in black-and-white.
w Philip Levene d Sidney Hayers ph Bob Edwards m Laurie Johnson ed David Williams
☆ Jon Finch (Inspector Lomax), Judy Geeson (Helen), Christopher Lee (Dr Stephen Hayward), Tony Beckley (Sgt Green), Dilys Hamlett (Julia Hayward), Jane

Merrow (Mary Dawson), Colin Jeavons (Bob Dawson)

'If a woman answers...hang on for dear life!'

Dial M For Murder ★★

US 1954 105m Warnercolor 3-D
Warner (Alfred Hitchcock)

An ageing tennis champion tries to arrange the death of his wife so that he will inherit, but his complex plan goes wrong.
Hitchcock did not try very hard to adapt this highly commercial play for the cinema, nor did he exploit the possibilities of 3-D. But for a one-room film with a not very exciting cast the film holds its grip pretty well.
w Frederick Knott play Frederick Knott d Alfred Hitchcock ph Robert Burks
m Dimitri Tiomkin md Ray Heindorf
ad Edward Carrere ed Rudi Fehr
☆ Ray Milland (Tony Wendice), John Williams (Chief Inspector Hubbard), Grace Kelly (Margot Wendice), Robert Cummings (Mark Halliday), Anthony Dawson (Capt Swan Lesgate), Patrick Allen (Pearson), George Leigh (Williams), Leo Britt (narrator)

'All this is related with Hitchcock's ghoulish chic but everyone in it seems to be walking around with tired blood.' – Pauline Kael, 1968

† Although shot in 3-D, it was never released in that form.

Diameter of the Bomb ★ ④

UK/Canada 2005 86m
Lionsgate/Rainmaker/National Film Board of Canada/UK Film Council/BBC (Claude Bonin, Paul Goldin, Georgina Townsley)

Analysis of a 2002 suicide bombing on a Jerusalem bus that killed 20 people.
Sober, thoughtful – and so even-handed that relatives of the bomber have their say on camera as well as bereaved families of the innocents. But the thrust of the argument is somewhat muddled.
d Steven Silver, Andrew Quigley ph Noel Smart m Christian Henson ed Andrew Quigley

Diamond Head

US 1962 107m Eastmancolor
Panavision
Columbia (Jerry Bresler)

A domineering Hawaiian landowner almost ruins the lives of his family.
Predictable, heavy-going transcription of a bestseller.
w Marguerite Roberts novel Peter Gilman d Guy Green ph Sam Leavitt m Johnny Williams
☆ Charlton Heston, Yvette Mimieux, George Chakiris, France Nuyen, James Darren, Aline MacMahon, Elizabeth Allen, Richard Loo

Diamond Horseshoe

US 1945 104m Technicolor
TCF (William Perlberg)

aka: Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe
A night-club singer gives up her career for a medical student.
Lavish but humourless star vehicle with standard numbers.
wd George Seaton play The Barker by Kenyon Nicholson ph Ernest Palmer m/ly Mack Gordon, Harry Warren
☆ Betty Grable, Dick Haymes, William Gaxton, Phil Silvers, Beatrice Kay, Carmen Cavallero, Margaret Dumont

Diamond Jim ★

US 1935 93m bw
Universal (Edmund Grainger)

A fantasia on the life of the 1890s millionaire who sailed pretty close to the wind in business, adored Lillian Russell, and developed a gargantuan appetite.
Cheerful period comedy drama with plenty of gusto.
w Preston Sturges d A. Edward Sutherland ph George Robinson m Ferde Grofe, Franz Waxman ☆ Edward Arnold, Jean Arthur, Binnie Barnes, Cesar Romero, Eric Blore

'Good picture and title. Lacks real pull names.' – Variety

The Diamond Mercenaries

Switzerland/Ireland/South Africa 1975
101m colour
Michelangelo (Nat Wachsberger)
aka: Killer Force

A patrol guard joins a group of mercenaries to steal diamonds from a mine where there is a ruthless head of security.
Muddled and routine action movie which lacks a clear focus.
w Michael Winder, Gerald Sanford, Val Guest d Val Guest ph David Millin m Georges Garvarentz ad Peter Church ed Bill Butler
☆ Peter Fonda, Telly Savalas, Hugh O'Brian, Christopher Lee, Maud Adams, O. J. Simpson, Ian Yule

'Disappointingly fails to gel.' – MFB

Diamond Skulls

GB 1989 87m Technicolor
Virgin Vision/Working Title/British Screen/Channel 4 (Tim Bevan)

US title: Dark Obsession
An aristocrat kills a woman in a hit-and-run accident and lets his friend take the blame.
Confused melodrama of sex and the old boy network that seems uncertain of what kind of film it wants to be.
w Tim Rose Price d Nick Broomfield ph Michael Coulter m Hans Zimmer pd Jocelyn James ed Rodney Holland
☆ Gabriel Byrne, Amanda Donohoe, Michael Hordern, Judy Parfitt, Douglas Hodge, Sadie Frost, Matthew Marsh, Ian Carmichael

'All in all, a promising portrait of aristocratic thuggery in changing times, yet ultimately too diffuse to deliver its punch with the force it needs.' – Julian Petley, MFB

Diamonds

US 1975 108m Eastmancolor
Avco Embassy/AmeriEuro (Menahem Golan)

A London diamond merchant sets himself up to be robbed so that he can blackmail the culprits into a raid on the Tel Aviv diamond repository.
Cheerful but unremarkable caper movie with an upbeat ending.
w David Paulsen, Menahem Golan
d Menahem Golan ph Adam Greenberg
m Roy Budd
☆ Robert Shaw, Richard Roundtree, Barbara Seagull, Shelley Winters

Diamonds Are Forever ★

GB 1971 120m Technicolor Panavision
UA/Eon/Danjaq (Harry Saltzman, Albert R. Broccoli)

Seeking a diamond smuggler, James Bond has adventures in Amsterdam, a Los Angeles crematorium, various Las Vegas gambling parlours, and a secret installation in the desert.
Campy, rather vicious addition to a well-worn cycle, with an element of nastiness which big-budget stunts cannot conceal. Panavision does not help, and Connery's return to the role is disappointing.
w Richard Maibaum, Tom Mankiewicz novel Ian Fleming d Guy Hamilton ph Ted Moore m John Barry pd Ken Adam ☆ Sean Connery, Jill St John, Charles Gray, Lana Wood, Jimmy Dean, Bruce Cabot, Bernard Lee, Lois Maxwell

'It has been claimed that the plot is impossible to describe, but I think I could if I wanted to. I can't think why anyone would want to, though.' – Roger Ebert

Diamonds for Breakfast

GB 1968 102m Eastmancolor
Paramount/Bridge Films (Carlo Ponti, Pierre Rouve)

An impoverished Russian aristocrat decides to retrieve from a museum the crown jewels of his ancestors, and seduces seven female accomplices.
Yawning caper yarn embellished with sex and slapstick.
w N. F. Simpson, Pierre Rouve, Ronald Harwood d Christopher Morahan ph Gerry Turpin m Norman Kay
☆ Marcello Mastroianni, Rita Tushingham, Elaine Taylor, Warren Mitchell, Nora Nicholson, Bill Fraser, Leonard Rossiter

Diane

US 1956 110m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
MGM (Edwin H. Knopf)

Diane de Poitiers becomes a consultant to the king and falls in love with his son.
Solidly boring slice of Hollywood history, with all concerned out of their depth.
w Christopher Isherwood d David Miller ph Robert Planck m Miklos Rozsa ☆ Lana Turner, Roger Moore, Cedric Hardwicke, Pedro Armendariz, Marisa Pavan

Diary for My Children ★★★

Hungary 1982 107m bw
Artificial Eye/Mafilm/Hungarofilm original title: Napló Gyermekeimnek

An orphan, returning to Budapest in 1947, recalls her happy childhood while dealing with a less enjoyable present.
Three generations of a family encapsulate the modern history of Hungary in a gripping film. Withheld from the West for two years, it won a special jury prize at the Cannes Film Festival in 1984.
w Márta Mészáros, Balàzs Fakan, András Szeredás d Márta Mészáros ph Miklós Jancsó Jnr m Zsolt Döme ed Eva Karmento
☆ Zsuzsa Czinkóczi (Juli), Anna Polony (Magda), Jan Nowicki (Janos/Juli's Father), Mari Szémes (Grandma), Pàl Zolnay (Grandpa)

Diary for My Father and Mother ★★

Hungary 1990 93m colour/bw Budapest Film Studio/Hungarofilm original title: Napló Apámnak Anyámnak

In 1956, a woman film-maker returns to Budapest from Moscow at a time of recrimination and betrayal, just after the Russians crush the Hungarian revolution.
Moving and emotional finale to an impressive, semi-autobiographical trilogy, tracing Hungary's changing fortunes through the experience of one woman; even if more recent events have made it seem like ancient history, it retains its power and interest through its emphasis on individual lives and feelings, though it will be most enjoyed by those familiar with the earlier films in the sequence.
w Márta Mészáros, Éva Pataki d Márta Mészáros ph Nyika Jancsó m Zsolt Döme ed Éva Kármentö
☆ Zsuzsa Czinkóczi, Jan Nowicki, Anna Polony, Mari Töröcsik, Ildiko Bánsági

Diary for My Loves ★★

Hungary 1987 130m bw
Artificial Eye/Mafilm/Hungarofilm/Magyar Film/Zespoly Filmowe original title: Napló Szerelmeimnek

An eighteen-year-old Hungarian girl goes to Moscow to become a film-maker and to search for her father.
Absorbing sequel to Diary for my Children, tracing the end of Stalinism.
w Márta Mészáros, Éva Pataki d Márta Mészáros ph Nyika Jancsó pd Éva Martin ed Éva Kármentö
☆ Zsuzsa Czinkóczi, Anna Polony, Jan Nowicki, Irina Kouberskaya, László Szabó, Pál Zolnay, Adél Kováts, Erzsébet Kútvölgyi

A Diary for Timothy ★★★

GB 1945 40m bw
Basil Wright/Crown Film Unit

A baby is born as the war ends, and the narrator ponders its future.
Brilliant sentimental documentary, a summing up of the aims and feelings of Britain at the time.
w E. M. Forster d Humphrey Jennings narrator Michael Redgrave

Diary of a Bride: see I, Jane Doe

The Diary of a Chambermaid ★

US 1946 86m bw
Benedict Bogeaus (Burgess Meredith, Paulette Goddard)

A 19th-century serving girl causes sexual frustration and other troubles in two households.
Hollywood notables were all at sea in this wholly artificial and unpersuasive adaptation of a minor classic.
w Burgess Meredith novel Octave Mirbeau d Jean Renoir ph Lucien Andriot m Michel Michelet pd Eugene Lourié
☆ Paulette Goddard, Burgess Meredith, Hurd Hatfield, Francis Lederer, Judith Anderson, Florence Bates, Irene Ryan, Reginald Owen, Almira Sessions

'I do not mean to disparage Renoir's direction of the piece; erratic and with a curious element of flippancy and even vulgarity at the start, it advances with the melodramatic development of the plot to a fine climax of excitement, movement, terror. But the theme is incurably novelettish.' – Dilys Powell

The Diary of a Chambermaid ★

France/Italy 1964 98m bw Franscope
Speva/Ciné Alliance/Filmsonor/Dear (Serge Silberman, Michel Sabra)

original title: Le Journal d'une Femme de Chambre
A new maid disrupts the lives of a middle-class family.
Interesting but not especially successful Buñuel version: the subject is certainly up his street, but the novel seems to restrict him and the visual quality is unattractive.
w Luis Buñuel, Jean-Claude Carrière
d Luis Buñuel ph Roger Fellous m none
☆ Jeanne Moreau, Georges Géret, Michel Piccoli, Françoise Lugagne

'The film remains notable but

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

inconclusive: a half-Buñuel.' – Dilys Powell

Diary of a Cloistered Nun: see Story of a Cloistered Nun

The Diary of a Country Priest ★★★★

France 1950 120m bw
Union Générale Cinématographique (Léon Carré)

original title: Journal d'un Curé de Campagne

A lonely young priest fails to make much impression in his first parish; and, falling ill, he dies alone.

Striking, bleak, slow and austere, with little dialogue but considerable visual beauty; a very typical work of its director.

wd Robert Bresson novel Georges Bernanos ph L. Burel m Jean-Jacques Grunenwald ad Pierre Charbonnier ed Paulette Robert

☆ Claude Laydu (Priest of Ambricourt), Jean Riveyre (Count), Armand Guibert (Priest of Torcy), Nicole Ladmiral (Chantal)

'Nothing personal, purely business.'

Diary of a Hitman

US 1992 91m Technicolor
Vision International/Continental (Amin Q. Chaudhri)

A hired killer begins to have doubts when a husband pays him to murder his wife and baby.

A wordy, claustrophobic thriller that betrays its stage origins and strains credulity.

w Kenneth Pressman play Insider's Price by Kenneth Pressman d Roy London ph Yuri Sokol m Michel Colombier pd Stephen Hendrickson ed Brian Smedley-Aston

☆ Forest Whitaker, John Bedford-Lloyd, James Belushi, Seymour Cassel, Lois Chiles, Lewis Smith, Sharon Stone, Sherilyn Fenn

Diary of a Lost Girl ★★

Germany 1929 110m approx bw silent
G. W. Pabst Film

original title: Tagebuch einer Verlorenen

A rich man's daughter is seduced, has an illegitimate child, is placed in a house of correction and finds herself later in a brothel.

Heavily Germanic Road to Ruin, superbly mounted in best cinematic style, with several memorable sequences. Heavily mutilated by censors; according to the screenwriter the film ends just after the middle of his script.

w Rudolf Leonhardt novel Margaret Böhme d G. W. Pabst ph Sepp Allgeier

☆ Louise Brooks, Fritz Rasp, Josef Ravensky

† A previous version had been made in 1918, written and directed by Richard Oswald.

Diary of a Mad Housewife ★★

US 1970 95m Technicolor
Universal/Frank Perry

The bored and repressed wife of a lawyer tries an affair, walks out on her husband, and opts for group therapy.

An agreeably mordant view of the contemporary American scene, with good dialogue and performances, but the little bits of satire do not really add up to a satisfactory film.

w Eleanor Perry novel Sue Kaufman d Frank Perry ph Gerald Hirschfeld

☆ Carrie Snodgress, Richard Benjamin, Frank Langella, Lorraine Cullen, Frannie Michel

'A prototypical contemporary American artifact ... all its assorted talents and technological smartness are turned to the varnishing of mediocrity.' – Stanley Kauffmann

Carrie Snodgress

Diary of a Madman

US 1962 96m Technicolor
UA/Admiral (Robert E. Kent)

A murderer explains to a magistrate that he was possessed by an evil spirit.

Ponderous transcription of Maupassant stories with a few moments of horror.

w Robert E. Kent d Reginald Le Borg ph Ellis W. Carter m Richard La Salle ad Daniel Haller

☆ Vincent Price, Nancy Kovack, Chris Warfield, Stephen Roberts

The Diary of a Married Woman

Germany 1953 83m bw Magna

original title: Tagebuch einer Verliebten

A wife divorces her adulterous husband, but their small son brings them together again.

One long Hollywood cliché, assembled with some spirit; notable only as one of the rare post-war German films to get distribution in English-speaking countries.

w Emil Burri, Johann Mario Simmel d Josef von Baky ph Oskar Snirch m Alois Melichar

☆ Maria Schell, O. W. Fischer, Franco Andrei

Diary of a Shinjuku Thief ★

Japan 1969 94m bw/Eastmancolor
Sozosha (Masayuki Nakajima)

original title: Shinjuku Dorobo Nikki

A minor theft in a bookstore brings a young man in contact with a mysterious girl who leads him into various sexual experiments.

Inexplicable but quite fascinating piece of oriental mystification in which sex equates to some extent with revolution.

w Tsutomu Tamura and others d Nagisa Oshima ph Yasuhiro Yamaguchi m none

☆ Tadanori Yokoo, Rie Yokoyama, Moichi Tanabe

The Diary of Anne Frank ★★

US 1959 170m bw Cinemascope
TCF/George Stevens

In 1942, a Jewish family hides from the Nazis in an Amsterdam attic; just before the war ends, they are betrayed and sent to concentration camps.

Based on the diaries of a girl who died at Bergen-Belsen, this solemn adaptation is elephantine in its length, its ponderousness and its use of Cinemascope when the atmosphere is supposed to be claustrophobic.

w Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett from their play based on Anne Frank's diaries d George Stevens ph William C. Mellor m Alfred Newman ad Lyle R. Wheeler, George W. Davis

☆ Millie Perkins, Joseph Schildkraut, Shelley Winters, Ed Wynn, Richard Beymer, Gusti Huber, Lou Jacobi, Diane Baker

William C. Mellor; Shelley Winters; art direction best picture; George Stevens; Alfred Newman; Ed Wynn

The Diary of Lady M

Switzerland/Belgium/Spain/France 1993 112m colour
Filmograph/Nomad/Messidor/Lazennec (Alain Tanner, Jacques de Clercq, Dimitri de Clercq, Gerardo Herrero, Marta Esteban, Christophe Rossignon)

original title: Le Journal de Lady M

A Parisian singer begins a passionate affair with a Spanish painter and, discovering that he is married, invites his wife and family to join them.

Supposedly based on the star's diaries, this is a throwback to the sad sex films of the 60s, a drearily egocentric, uninteresting drama.

w Myriam Mézières d Alain Tanner ph Denis Jutzeler m Arie Dzierlatka ad Jordi Canora, Alain Chennaux ed Monica Goux

☆ Myriam Mézières, Juanjo Puligcorbé, Félicité Wouassi, Antoine Basler, Makeda, Marie Peyrucq-Yamou, Gladys Gambie

'A preposterously clichéd, would-be (but not-at-all) titillating film that charts the sad decline of Alain Tanner ... I started noting down the worst lines but soon gave up; I was transcribing the script.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent

'Pic's extremely frank sex scenes have a shocking realism and seem a natural outgrowth of Mézières' honesty in recounting her feelings. A scene in which Lady M shaves her pubic hair and dances for her lover clothed only in a long, dangling earring must set some kind of art-film precedent.' – Variety

The Diary of Major Thompson

France 1955 83m bw
SNE Gaumont/Paul Wagner

original title: Les Carnets de Major Thompson
US title: The French They Are a Funny Race

An Englishman married to a Frenchwoman keeps notes on the French way of life.

Tatty filming of a mildly amusing book; it falls away into a number of badly-timed and presented gags, and one can't believe that its creator was once the top comedy genius of Hollywood.

wd Preston Sturges ph Maurice Barry, Christian Matras m Georges Van Parys

☆ Jack Buchanan, Martine Carol, Noel-Noel, Genevieve Brunet

'Even allowing for the appalling editing and the frequently incomprehensible dubbed soundtrack, there is little evidence to suggest that this film could ever have been anything but a shambles.' – Peter John Dyer, MFB

Il Diavolo e il Morto: see Lisa and The Devil

Dice Rules

US 1991 83m Foto-Kem
Seven Arts/Fleebin Dabble (Fred Silverstein)

A 20-minute short on the emergence of the comedian is followed by footage of a concert performance in Madison Square Gardens.

Like strychnine, an acquired and less than enjoyable taste.

w Lenny Shulman, Andrew Dice Clay d Jay Dubin ph Michael Negrin ed Mitchell Sinoway

☆ Andrew Dice Clay, Eddie Griffin, Sylvia Harman, Lee Lawrence, Noodles Levenstein, Maria Parkinson

'A pretty accurate snapshot of the comedian's standup act – crude, sexist, racist, homophobic and designed to shock.' – Variety

'A humorous look at man's greatest asset ... and liability.'

Dick ★

US 1990 13m bw
Island (Jo Menell)

Documentary in which photographs of multifarious flaccid male organs are flashed on screen to the accompaniment of women's voices answering such questions as 'Would you want one?'

Amusing novelty, although one that was denied a television showing in Britain.

d Jo Menell, B. Moel ph Paul Latoures m John Cale

'Menell's liberating, wholly unprurient film should put an end to Freud's theory of penis envy.' – Philip French, Observer

'He was tricky. They were better.'

Dick ★

US 1999 95m Technicolor
Columbia/Phoenix/Pacific Western (Gale Anne Hurd)

Two vapid teenage girls became inadvertently involved in exposing President Richard Nixon's cover-up of the break-in at the Watergate building in Washington.

Genial, fitfully amusing comedy of innocent bunglers helping to change the course of history; there are some good jokes at the expense of politicians and journalists.

w Andrew Fleming, Sheryl Longin d Andrew Fleming ph Alexander Gruszynski m John Debney pd Barbara Dunphy ed Mia Goldman cos Deborah Everton

☆ Kirsten Dunst (Betsy Jobs), Michelle Williams (Arlene Lorenzo), Dan Hedaya (Dick), Jim Breuer (John Dean), Will Ferrell (Bob Woodward), Dave Foley (Bob Haldeman), Teri Garr (Helen Lorenzo), Ana Gasteyer (Rose Mary Woods), Bruce McCulloch (Carl Bernstein), Ted McGinley (Roderick), Ryan Reynolds (Chip), Saul Rubinek (Henry Kissinger), Harry Shearer (G. Gordon Liddy), G.D. Spradlin (Ben Bradlee)

'This audaciously imaginative political comedy will have Watergate buffs in particular and baby boomers in general laughing loud and long.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Dick Barton

The radio detective was created by Edward J. Mason in the mid-forties, and three rough-and-ready film versions were subsequently made by Hammer/Exclusive. They were Dick Barton Special Agent (1948); Dick Barton Strikes Back (1949); and Dick Barton at Bay (1950); all with Don Stannard.

Critical comment would be irrelevant.

Dick Tracy

US 1945 61m bw
RKO (Herman Schlom)

GB title: Splitface

The jut-jawed detective routs a disfigured criminal named Splitface.

Vigorous second feature from the comic strip.

w Eric Taylor comic strip Chester Gould d William Berke ph Frank Redman m Roy Webb

☆ Morgan Conway, Jane Greer, Mike Mazurki, Anne Jeffreys, Lyle Latell, Joseph Crehan, Trevor Bardette

† Sequels: Dick Tracy vs Cueball (1946) with Morgan Conway, d John Rawlins; Dick Tracy Meets Gruesome (1947) with Ralph Byrd, Boris Karloff, d John Rawlins; Dick Tracy's Dilemma (1947), with Ralph Byrd, d John Rawlins.

†† There had been several Republic serials featuring Tracy, and in the fifties a cartoon series appeared.

Dick Tracy

US 1990 103m Technicolor
Touchstone/Silver Screen Partners IV (Warren Beatty)

Detective Dick Tracy tangles with a master criminal.

A limp narrative is bolstered by a lavish and stylized production design, using comic-book primary colours, and by the careful re-creation of the bizarre appearance of the gangsters from the original newspaper strip-cartoon.

w Jim Cash, Jack Epps Jnr comic strip Chester Gould d Warren Beatty ph Vittorio Storaro m Danny Elfman m/ly Stephen Sondheim pd Richard Sylbert ad Harold Michelson ed Richard Marks sp character make-up by John Caglione Jnr, Doug Drexler

☆ Warren Beatty, Charlie Korsmo, Glenne Headly, Madonna, Al Pacino, Dustin Hoffman, William Forsythe, Charles Durning, Mandy Patinkin, Paul Sorvino, R. G. Armstrong, Dick Van Dyke

'This is no ready-to-wear movie; it's the work of a cinematic couturier. Take it for what it is: a simple gift, consummately wrapped.' – David Ansen, Newsweek

'A charming and beautifully designed work of American popular art.' – David Denby, New York Magazine

'A grand exercise in cinema imagination and wit for their own sake.' – Vincent Canby, New York Times

'A major disappointment.' – Variety

best art direction; best song 'Sooner or Later'; best make-up

Al Pacino; Vittorio Storaro; best costume design; best sound

Richard Sylbert

Dick Tracy Meets Gruesome

US 1947 65m bw
RKO (Herman Schlom)

Tracy tracks down a criminal who robs a bank with the aid of a paralysing gas.

Effective little thriller, once you accept the implausibilities of the plot.

w Robertson White, Eric Taylor story William H. Graffis, Robert E. Kent cartoon strip Chester Gould d John Rawlins ph Frank Redman m Paul Sawtell md C. Bakaleinikoff ad Albert S. D'Agostino, Walter E. Keller ed Elmo Williams

☆ Boris Karloff, Ralph Byrd, Anne Gwynne, Edward Ashley, June Clayworth, Lyle Latell, Skelton Knaggs, Lex Barker

'Employs almost serial-type action ... with surprisingly good results.' – Variety

† The script's in-joke: one cop says of Gruesome, the character played by Karloff, 'He's weird. I tell you that if I didn't know better I swear we were doing business with Boris Karloff.'

Dick Tracy vs Cueball

US 1946 62m bw
RKO (Herman Schlom)

Dick Tracy solves the murder of a diamond dealer by a bald-headed crook.

Occasionally entertaining 'B' feature with a few colourful characters to compensate for Conway's blandness, though Tracy's detective skills seem limited to tailing suspects and arriving at the scene a few minutes after a crime has been committed.

w Dane Lussier, Robert E. Kent story Luci Ward cartoon strip Chester Gould d Gordon M. Douglas ph George E. Diskant m Phil Ohman md C. Bakaleinikoff ad Albert S. D'Agostino, Lucius O. Croxton ed Philip Martin Jnr

☆ Morgan Conway, Anne Jeffreys, Lyle Latell, Rita Corday, Ian Keith, Dick Wessel

Dick Tracy's Dilemma

US 1947 60m bw
RKO (Herman Schlom)

Dick Tracy investigates a murder at a fur warehouse and uncovers an insurance scam.

Enjoyable little thriller, with quirkier characters than are usually found in such low-budget excursions.

w Robert Stephen Brode cartoon strip Chester Gould d John Rawlins ph Frank Redman m Paul Sawtell md C. Bakaleinikoff ad Albert S. D'Agostino, Lucius O. Croxton ed Marvin Coil

☆ Ralph Byrd, Lyle Latell, Kay Christopher, Jack Lambert, Ian Keith, Bernadene Hayes, Jimmy Conlin, William B. Davidson, Tony Barrett, Richard Powers

Dick Turpin

GB 1933 79m bw
Stoll-Stafford (Clyde Cook)

Highwayman Dick Turpin rides to York is to prevent an enforced marriage.

Mild British costume piece which sent its star to Hollywood.

w Victor Kendall novel Rookwood by Harrison Ainsworth d Victor Hanbury, John Stafford ph Desmond Dickinson ad Wilfred Arnold

☆ Victor McLaglen, Jane Carr, Frank Vosper, James Finlayson, Gillian Lind

Dick Turpin's Ride: see The Lady and the Bandit

'50 million people used to watch him on TV. Now he washes their cars.'

Dickie Roberts: Former Child Star

US 2003 99m DeLuxe
UIP/Happy Madison (Adam Sandler, Jack Giarraputo)

A former child star hires a suburban foster family so that he can experience the upbringing he missed out on and then make a comeback.

Dire slapstick comedy of infantile regression.

w Fred Wolf, David Spade d Sam Weisman ph Thomas E. Ackerman m Christophe Beck, Waddy Wachtel pd Dina Lipton ed Roger Bondelli

☆ David Spade (Dickie Roberts), Mary McCormack (Grace Finney), Jon Lovitz (Sidney), Craig Bierko (George Finney), Jenna Boyd (Sally Finney), Scott Tessa (Sam Finney), Alyssa Milano (Cyndi), Doris Roberts (Peggy)

'If this is family fun, I'm a banana.' – James Christopher, Times

'About as funny as being given a lift by a suicide bomber on his way to work.' – Philip French, Observer

Did You Hear the One about the Traveling Saleslady?

US 1967 96m Techniscope
Universal (Si Rose)

In a Kansas town in 1910 an eccentric saleslady offers pianolas which tend to go berserk.

Cornbelt comedy vehicle for an unappealing star.

w John Fenton Murray d Don Weis ph Bud Thackery m Vic Mizzy

☆ Phyllis Diller, Bob Denver, Joe Flynn, Jeanette Nolan

Die Another Day

GB/US 2002 133m colour Panavision
TCF/OdysseyApollo/Media/F&ME (Sam Taylor, Mike Downey, Frank Huebner)

Disgraced after being imprisoned by the North Koreans, James Bond determines to clear his name and discover who betrayed him.

Bond's adventures have grown more risible with the years and this, which has him driving around an ice-palace in an invisible car, is more ridiculous than any that have gone before; Brosnan carries it off with suave charm, with some sex appeal added by Halle Berry.

w Neal Purvis, Robert Wade d Lee Tamahori ph David Tattersall m David Arnold pd Peter Lamont ed Christian Wagner cos Lindy Hemming

☆ Pierce Brosnan (James Bond), Halle Berry (Jinx), Toby Stephens (Gustav Graves), Rosamund Pike (Miranda Frost), Rick Yune (Zao), Judi Dench (M), John Cleese (Q), Michael Madsen (Falco), Samantha Bond (Moneypenny)

'As strong on action as it is weak on the interpersonal stuff. If Bond can get a new car for each episode, how about some new pickup lines?' – Jami Bernard, New York Daily News

'Flat, distressingly witless – To put it bluntly – the thrill is gone. Nobody did it better. But that was then.' – David Ansen, Newsweek

† The film took $161m at the US box-office, and $57m in the United Kingdom.

Die! Die! My Darling: see Fanatic

'40 Stories Of Sheer Adventure!'

Die Hard

US 1988 132m DeLuxe Panavision
Fox/Gordon Company/Silver Pictures (Lawrence Gordon, Joel Silver)

A cop battles with terrorists who have taken over the skyscraper where his wife is among the hostages.

Powerful, suspenseful action movie, with splendid special effects, although it goes on rather too long.

w Jeb Stuart, Steven E. de Souza novel Nothing Lasts Forever by Roderick Thorp d John McTiernan ph Jan de Bont m Michael Kamen pd Jackson DeGovia ed Frank J. Urioste, John F. Link

☆ Bruce Willis, Bonnie Bedelia, Reginald VelJohnson, Paul Gleason, De'Voreaux White, William Atherton, Hart Bochner, James Shigeta, Alan Rickman, Alexander Godunov

Die Hard 2

US 1990 124m DeLuxe Panavision
Fox/Gordon Co./Silver Pictures (Lawrence Gordon, Joel Silver, Charles Gordon)

A cop, going to meet his wife at an airport, discovers that terrorists have taken it over.

Frenetically unsubtle, and very bloody, action movie.

w Steven E. de Souza, Doug Richardson novel 58 Minutes by Walter Wager d Renny Harlin ph Oliver Wood m Michael Kamen pd John Vallone ad Christiaan Wagener ed Stuart Baird, Robert A. Ferretti

☆ Bruce Willis, Bonnie Bedelia, William Atherton, Reginald VelJohnson, Franco Nero, William Sadler, John Amos, Dennis Franz, Art Evans, Fred Dalton Thompson

† The film was advertised with the title Die Hard 2: Die Harder.

'Yippee Ki Yay Mo: John – 6:27'

Die Hard 4.0

US/UK 2007 128m
TCF/Dune Entertainment/Ingenious (Michael Fottrell)

US theatrical title: Live Free or Die Hard

Old school detective John McClane, now in his 50s, is assigned to foil criminal computer hackers intent on destroying the entire US economy.

Bruce Willis dons McClane's grubby vest once more for yet another bout of explosions, destruction, fighting bad guys, dodging bullets and general mayhem. It's not unentertaining, but after four outings, the time has surely come to lay this franchise to rest.

w Mark Bomback d Len Wiseman ph Simon Duggan m Marco Beltrami pd Patrick Tatopoulos ad Beat Frutiger, James Hegedus ed Nicolas de Toth

☆ Bruce Willis (John McClane), Justin Long (Matt Farrell), Timothy Olyphant (Thomas Gabriel), Cliff Curtis (Bowman), Maggie Q (Mai), Mary Elizabeth Winstead (Lucy)

'Bruce Willis, grim-visaged and follically challenged, resembles a 10-minute egg deployed to save America.' – Nigel Andrews, Financial Times

'Willis does OK for a middle aged guy, but as another famous die-hard once said, a man's got to know his limitations.' – Anthony Quinn, Independent

† The phrase 'John 6:27' in the publicity tagline is not biblical, but a reference to the film's hero and the date of its US release: 27 June.

'It's Boomtime In The Big Apple.'

Die Hard with a Vengeance

US 1995 128m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Cinergi (Michael Tadross, John McTiernan)

A mad bomber plays explosive games with a New York detective and his black aide.

A sequel that abandons the formula of a lone cop battling against overwhelming odds in an isolated situation, substituting something closer to the Lethal Weapon films, with an edgy, racially tinged relationship at its centre, a convoluted, confusing, schematic narrative, and lots of big bangs.

w Jonathan Hensleigh d John McTiernan ph Peter Menzies m Michael Kamen pd Jackson DeGovia ed John Wright

☆ Bruce Willis, Jeremy Irons, Samuel L. Jackson, Graham Greene, Colleen Camp, Larry Bryggman, Sam Phillips

'After a frenetic, razzley-dazzley first half hour, the film quickly fizzles into formula ... with a vengeance.' – Andy Webster, Premiere

† The film took more than $353m at the box-office worldwide.

Die Laughing

US 1980 108m Technicolor
Orion/Warner (Jon Peters)

After the murder of a nuclear scientist, a young musician who knows too much is chased by the murderers and the FBI.

Witless black comedy rehash of The 39 Steps.

w Jerry Segal, Robby Benson, Scott Parker d Jeff Werner ph David Myers m Craig Safan pd James H. Spencer ed Neil Travis

☆ Robby Benson, Linda Grovenor, Charles Durning, Elsa Lanchester, Bud Cort

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'Face the ultimate in diabolism!'

Die, Monster, Die!

US/GB 1965 102m colour
AIP/Alta Vista (Pat Green)

An American visits an old university friend in England to discover that her father, a wheelchair-bound scientist, has been conducting dangerous experiments with a radioactive meteorite.
Atmospheric horror set in an old dark house, though it does not stray far from the usual conventions of the genre.
w Jerry Sohl story The Color out of Space by H.P. Lovecraft d Daniel Haller ph Paul Beeson m Don Banks ed Alfred Cox
☆ Boris Karloff (Stephen Rheinhart), Nick Adams (Nahum Witley), Suzan Farmer (Susan Witley), Freda Jackson (Letitia Witley), Terence De Marney (Merwyn), Patrick Magee (Dr Henderson)

Dieu A Besoin des Hommes ★

France 1950 100m bw Transcontinental (Paul Graetz) aka: Isle of Sinners
aka: God Needs Men

The priest of a Breton island leaves in horror at the sinfulness of his flock, and the fisherfolk appoint one of their number as priest.
Cold, gloomy, rather pointless fable, often a pleasure to look at.
w Jean Aurenche, Pierre Bost novel Un Recteur de l'Ile de Sein by H. Quefflec d Jean Delannoy ph Robert Le Fèbvre m René Cloërc
☆ Pierre Fresnay, Madeleine Robinson, Daniel Gélin, Andrée Clément, Sylvie, Jean Brochard

Dixue Shuang Xiong: see The Killer

'He's not half the man she used to be.'

Different for Girls ★

GB 1996 97m colour
NTFC/X Pictures/BBC (John Chapman)

A motorcycle courier falls in love with a schoolboy friend who has changed sex.
A heady and gritty mix of transsexual romance, police corruption and social comment, it at least ventures into new territory.
w Tony Marchant d Richard Spence ph Sean Van Hales m Stephen Warbeck pd Grenville Horner ed David Gamble
☆ Rupert Graves, Steven MacKintosh, Saskia Reeves, Neil Dudgeon, Charlotte Coleman, Miriam Margolyes, Ian Dury
'One of the best British films of the decade.' – Andy Medhurst, Sight and Sound
'Would be infinitely more likeable if it wasn't for some irritatingly unreal plot development.' – Rob Driscoll, Empire

A Different Story

US 1978 106m CFI color
Avco/Alan Belkin

A homosexual falls in love with a lesbian.
One supposes it had to come, but one doesn't really have to watch it.
w Henry Olek d Paul Aaron ph Philip Lathrop m David Frank ☆ Perry King, Meg Foster, Valerie Curtin, Peter Donat
'There's something in A Different Story to turn off audiences of every sexual persuasion – and movie lovers most of all.' – Richard Schickel, Time

La Diga sul Pacifico: see This Angry Age

Digby: the Biggest Dog in the World

GB 1973 88m Technicolor
TCF/Walter Shenson

An old English sheepdog accidentally eats a chemical intended to increase the size of vegetables...
Nice to see this kind of gimmick used for comedy instead of horror, but the result is rather tame and old-fashioned, though for several years it made a pleasant television offering for Christmas.
w Michael Pertwee story Charles Isaacs book Hazel by Ted Key d Joe McGrath ph Harry Waxman m Edwin T. Astley ad Maurice Fowler ed Jim Connock sp Tom Howard
☆ Jim Dale (Jeff Eldon), Spike Milligan (Dr Harz), Angela Douglas (Janine), Milo O'Shea (Dr Jameson), Dinsdale Landen (Col Masters), Garfield Morgan (Rogerson), Victor Spinetti (Professor Ribart), Bob Todd (The Great Manzini), John Bluthal (Jerry), Norman Rossington (Tom), Richard Beaumont (Billy White), Harry Towb (Ringmaster), Kenneth J. Warren (General Frank), Victor Maddern (Dogs' Home Manager)

Digging to China

US 1998 98m colour
Moonstone/David/Ministry of Film (Alan Mruvka, Marilyn Vance, John Davis, J. Todd Harris)

In the 60s, a mentally retarded man forms a friendship with an unhappy young girl whose mother runs a rural motel.
Soft-centred character study that skims the surface of things.
w Karen Janszen d Timothy Hutton ph Jorgen Persson m Cynthia Miller pd Robert de Vico ed Dana Congdon, Alain Jakubowicz
☆ Kevin Bacon, Mary Stuart Masterson, Cathy Moriarty, Evan Rachel Wood, Marian Seldes
'Will ultimately move only those inclined to cry on cue.' – Variety

Diggstown ★

US 1992 98m DeLuxe
UIP/MGM/Electric (Robert Schaffel)

GB title: Midnight Sting

Two con men journey to a town noted for unofficial prize fights and take a $1 million bet that their boxer can beat 10 local fighters in a period of 24 hours.
Enjoyable enough caper, though it risks monotony with its repeated fights; it flopped at the box-office.
w Steven McKay novel The Diggstown Ringers by Leonard Wise d Michael Ritchie ph Gerry Fisher m James Newton Howard pd Steve Hendrickson ed Don Zimmerman
☆ James Woods, Louis Gossett Jnr, Bruce Dern, Oliver Platt, Heather Graham, Randall 'Tex' Cobb, Thomas Wilson Brown, Duane Davis, Willie Green
'This crowd-pleaser mixes it up with boxing, revenge and salty one-liners that should satisfy audiences.' – Variety

Digimon: The Movie

Japan 2000 88m DeLuxe
TCF/Saban/Toei Animation (Terry-Lei O'Malley, Hiromi Seki)

Children become keepers of digital monsters who exist within computers.
A movie cobbled together from three Japanese shorts, which accounts for a disjointed narrative, though all suffer from lurid, rudimentary animation.
w Reiko Yoshida English adaptation Jeff Nimoy, Bob Buchholz d Mamoru Hosoda, Shigeyasu Yamauchi ph Shigeru Ando m Udi Harpaz, Amotz Plessner ed Douglas Purgason, Gary A. Friedman ☆ voices of: Lara Jill Miller, Joshua Seth, Colleen O'Shaughnessy, Philece Sampler, Bob Glouberman, Mona Marshall, Michael Lindsay
'These imports sound like adverts rather than children's entertainment.' – Rupert Laight, Film Review

Dilemma

GB 1962 90m bw
Bryanston/ACT (Ted Lloyd)

On returning home from school, a teacher finds his wife missing and a dying man in his bathroom.
An interesting concept, of a man being continually interrupted as he tries to get rid of a corpse, that is given lacklustre treatment; it might have worked better as a black comedy.
wd Peter Maxwell story Pip and Janet Baker ph Gerald Moss ad Wilfred Arnold ed Tom Simpson
☆ Peter Halliday, Ingrid Hafner, Patricia Burke, Joan Heath, Patrick Jordan, Barbara Lott, William Sherwood

'His Story Is Written In Bullets, Blood And Blondes!'

Dillinger ★

US 1945 70m bw
Monogram (Frank and Maurice King)

The life of American public enemy number one who was shot by the police in 1934.
Slick, speedy gangster thriller, possibly the most tolerable movie to come from this low-budget studio.
w Philip Yordan d Max Nosseck ph Jackson Rose m Dimitri Tiomkin
☆ Lawrence Tierney, Edmund Lowe, Anne Jeffreys
Philip Yordan

Dillinger ★

US 1973 107m Movielab
AIP (Buzz Feitshans)

Violence-soaked version, with black comedy touches, of the last year of Dillinger's life.
Not badly done, with a style reminiscent of Bonnie and Clyde.
wd John Milius ph Jules Brenner m Barry Devorzon ad Trevor Williams ed Fred R. Feitshans Jnr
☆ Warren Oates (John Dillinger), Ben Johnson (Melvin Purvis), Michelle Phillips, Cloris Leachman, Harry Dean Stanton, Richard Dreyfuss

Dim Sum: a Little Bit of Heart ★

US 1985 89m colour
CIM (Tom Sternberg, Wayne Wang, Danny Yung)

Convinced that she will soon die, a Chinese widow living in San Francisco tries to persuade her daughter to marry.
Domestic drama full of a gentle, rambling charm.
w Terrel Seltzer d Wayne Wang ph Michael Chin m Todd Boekelheide ad Danny Yung ed Ralph Wikke
☆ Lauren Chew, Kim Chew, Victor Wong, Ida F. O. Chung, Cora Miao, John Nishio

Un Dimanche à la Campagne: see Sunday in the Country

Dimension 5

US 1966 88m colour
United Pictures Corporation

CIA agents use a time converter to jump ahead three weeks and prevent the Chinese from bombing Los Angeles.
Silly spy fantasy with inadequate effects.
w Arthur C. Pierce d Franklin Adreon
☆ Jeffrey Hunter, France Nuyen, Harold Sakata, Donald Woods

Dimples ★★

US 1936 82m bw
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck, Nunnally Johnson)

In the New York Bowery in pre-Civil War days, a child and her reprobate grandfather win the hearts of high society.
Excellent Temple vehicle with good period flavour.
w Arthur Sheekman, Nat Perrin d William A. Seiter ph Bert Glennon m Louis Silvers m/ly Jimmy McHugh, Ted Koehler
☆ Shirley Temple, Frank Morgan, Helen Westley, Berton Churchill, Robert Kent, Delma Byron, Astrid Allwyn

'What they wanted most wasn't on the menu'

Diner ★★★

US 1982 110m Technicolor
MGM/SLM (Jerry Weintraub)

In 1959 Baltimore, college students congregate at their old meeting place and find themselves more occupied by adult problems than of yore.
Generally amusing group character study, an awkward attempt to divine the meaning of life through the accumulation of detail. A little masterpiece of observation, for those with ears to hear.
wd Barry Levinson ph Peter Sova m Bruce Brody, Ivan Kral pd Leon Harris ad Leon Harris ed Stu Linder
☆ Steve Guttenberg (Edward "Eddie" Simmons), Daniel Stern (Laurence "Shrevie" Schreiber), Mickey Rourke (Robert "Boogie" Shefteil), Kevin Bacon (Timothy Fenwick, Jr.), Timothy Daly (William "Billy" Howard), Ellen Barkin (Beth), Paul Reiser (Modell), Kathryn Dowling (Barbara), Michael Tucker (Bagel), Jessica James (Mrs. Simmons)
'A terrific movie – a gentle, lyrical, magically funny portrait of the games young men play to keep from growing up, and of the oddly childish society that encourages them.' – Stephen Schiff original screenplay

Le Diner de Cons ★★

France 1998 80m colour Technovision
Pathé/Gaumont/Efve/TFI (Alain Poiré)

aka: The Dinner Game

A publisher attends a weekly dinner to which he and his friends invite the most boring people they encounter; but he becomes incapacitated and is trapped in his flat with a man who makes models of buildings out of matchsticks.
Enjoyable, expertly constructed, cruel farce of misunderstandings in which a sophisticated man's life is unravelled by a well-meaning fool.
wd Francis Veber play Francis Veber ph Luciano Tovoli m Vladimir Cosma ad Hugues Tissandier ed Georges Klotz
☆ Jacques Villeret (François Pignon), Thierry Lhermitte (Pierre Brochant), Francis Huster (Leblanc), Alexandra Vandernoot (Christine), Daniel Prévost (Cheval), Catherine Frot (Marlène), Edgar Givry (Cordier), Christian Pereira (Sorbier)

'Veber delivers a marvellously wrought plot at exactly the length it can sustain, and manages consistently to pull out situations that provoke laughter and astonishment.' – Kim Newman, Empire

Dingaka

South Africa 1965 97m Technicolor Cinemascope
Embassy (Jamie Uys)

Tribal antagonisms cause a simple native to seek revenge in the city.

Unconvincing and now very dated melodrama with rather too much local colour.

wd Jamie Uys ph Manie Botha m Bertha Egnos, Eddie Domingo, Basil Gray

☆ Ken Gampu, Stanley Baker, Juliet Prowse, Siegfried Mynhardt, Paul Makgoba Dinner at Eight ★★★

US 1933 113m bw
MGM (David O. Selznick)

Guests at a society dinner party all find themselves in dramatic circumstances.

Artificial but compelling pattern play from a Broadway success.

w Frances Marion, Herman J. Mankiewicz play George S. Kaufman, Edna Ferber d George Cukor ph William Daniels m William Axt ad Hobe Irwin, Fredric Hope ed Ben Lewis

☆ Marie Dressler (Carlotta Vance), John Barrymore (Larry Renault), Lionel Barrymore (Oliver Jordan), Billie Burke (Mrs. Oliver Jordan), Wallace Beery (Dan Packard), Jean Harlow (Kitty Packard), Lee Tracy (Max Kane), Edmund Lowe (Dr. Wayne Talbot), Madge Evans (Mrs. Wayne Talbot), Jean Hersholt (Joe Stengel), Karen Morley (Mrs. Wayne Talbot), Louise Closser Hale (Hattie Loomis), Phillips Holmes (Ernest DeGraff), May Robson (Mrs. Wendel), Grant Mitchell (Ed Loomis) and also Elizabeth Patterson

KITTY (JEAN HARLOW): 'You know, I read a book the other day. It's all about civilization or something – a nutty kind of a book. Do you know that the guy said machinery is going to take the place of every profession?'

CARLOTTA (MARIE DRESSLER): 'Oh, my dear. That's something you need never worry about!'

'Marquee speaks for itself. It spells money, and couldn't very well be otherwise.' – Variety

Dinner at the Ritz

GB 1937 77m bw
New World (Robert T. Kane)

A French girl exposes swindlers who faked her father's suicide.

Once-diverting comedy melodrama with an international cast.

w Roland Pertwee, Romney Brent d Harold Schuster ph Philip Tannura m Lee Sims ad Frank Wells ed James B. Clark

☆ Annabella, Paul Lukas, David Niven, Romney Brent, Stewart Rome, Francis L. Sullivan, Nora Swinburne, Frederick Leister

'Slow and shoddily made British product.' – Variety

'It moves with old world decorum and occasional touches of gout.' – New York Times

'Revenge is a dish best served cold.'

Dinner Rush ★★

US 2000 98m Technicolor
Pathé/Giraldi Suarez Digiaimo/Dinner Rush (Lou DiGiaimo, Patti Greaney)

On the night an influential food critic comes to dine, a restaurant manager is faced by gangsters who want to take over the place, a rebellious chef and a awkward waitress.

Enjoyable movie which uses food as an indicator of changing tastes and moral values, though everyone here gets their just desserts.

w Brian Kalata, Rick Shaughnessy d Bob Giraldi ph Tim Ives m Alexander Lasarenko pd Andrew Bernard ed Allyson C. Johnson

☆ Danny Aiello (Louis Cropa), Edoardo Ballerini (Udo), Vivian Wu (Nicole), Michael McGlone (Carmen), Kirk Acevedo (Duncan), Sandra Bernhard (Jennifer Freely), John Corbett (Ken), Jamie Harris (Sean), Summer Phoenix (Marti), Polly Draper (Natalie), Mark Margolis (Fitzgerald)

'A mouth-watering display of talent, technique and patience.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

'The body and soul story of youth with a chip on its shoulder!'

Dino

US 1957 93m bw
AA/Bernice Block

A juvenile delinquent released from prison has trouble reforming.

Adequately made social drama with good credentials.

w Reginald Rose play Reginald Rose d Thomas Carr ph Wilfrid M. Cline m Gerald Fried ad David Milton ed William Austin

☆ Sal Mineo (Dino), Brian Keith (Sheridan), Susan Kohner (Shirley), Frank Faylen (Mandel), Joe DeSantis (Mr Minetta), Penny Santon (Mrs Minetta)

Dinosaur ★

US 2000 82m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Pam Marsden)

An orphaned iguanadon is adopted by lemurs and helps save other dinosaurs after a meteorite destroys their habitat.

Superb and often breath-taking hyper-realistic computer animation is thrown away on an unexciting, over-familiar narrative told in crass dialogue.

w John Harrison, Robert Nelson Jacobs screenplay Walon Green d Ralph Zondag, Eric Leighton ph Steven Douglas Smith, Dave Hardberger m James Newton Howard pd Walter P. Martishius ed H. Lee Peterson

☆ voices of: D.B. Sweeney (Aladar), Alfre Woodard (Plio), Ossie Davis (Zini), Hayden Panettiere (Suri), Samuel E. Wright (Kron), Julianna Margulies (Neera), Peter Siragusa (Bruton), Joan Plowright (Baylene), Della Reese (Eema)

'Beneath its talk of high tech triumphs, this is just a mediocre dinosaur cartoon that took four years to make–and five minutes to forget.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times

† The film cost $127m to make, and took $318m at the box office worldwide.

Dinosaurus!

US 1960 85m DeLuxe Cinemascope
Jack H. Harris, Irvin S. Yeaworth Jnr

Workers on a tropical island bring up from the seabed a frozen Neanderthal man and two dinosaurs, who promptly thaw out.

Risible monster movie with effects that are more comic than horrific.

w Dan E. Weisburd, Jean Yeaworth d Irvin S. Yeaworth Jnr ph Stanley Cortez m Ronald Stein ad Jack Senter ed John A. Bushelman sp Tim Baar, Wah Chang, Gene Warren

☆ Ward Ramsey, Paul Lukather, Kristina Hanson, Alan Roberts, Gregg Martell

The Dion Brothers: see The Gravy Train

Diplomaniacs

US 1933 59m bw
RKO

Two halfwits are offered a fortune to go to Geneva and make the peace delegates stop fighting.

Fatuous comedy which never gets going.

w Joseph Mankiewicz, Henry Meyers d William Seiter ph Edward Cronjager m Max Steiner ch Larry Ceballos ad Van Nest Polglase, Al Herman ed William Hamilton

☆ Bert Wheeler, Robert Woolsey, Hugh Herbert, Marjorie White, Phyllis Barry, Louis Calhern

'A baddie; rhymed dialogue no help for inane plot.' – Variety

The Diplomatic Corpse

GB 1958 65m bw
Rank/ACT Films (Francis Searle)

A crime reporter, investigating the identity of a corpse found in the Thames, uncovers a drug-smuggling ring.

Programme filler of a thriller, involving a great deal of talk and not much action.

w Sidney Nelson, Maurice Harrison d Montgomery Tully ph Philip Grindrod ad Joseph Bato ed James Connock

☆ Robin Bailey, Susan Shaw, Liam Redmond, Harry Fowler, André Mikhelson, Bill Shine, Charles Farrell

Diplomatic Courier ★

US 1952 98m bw
TCF (Casey Robinson)

American and Russian agents clash on a train between Salzburg and Trieste; an unexpected master spy is revealed after several chases.

Lively cold war intrigue, well produced and played with relish.

w Casey Robinson, Liam O'Brien novel Sinister Errand by Peter Cheyney d Henry Hathaway ph Lucien Ballard m Sol Kaplan md Lionel Newman

☆ Tyrone Power, Patricia Neal, Stephen McNally, Hildegarde Neff, Karl Malden, James Millican, Herbert Berghof

'A reversion to the oldest tradition of spy fiction.' – Penelope Houston

Dirigible ★

US 1931 102m bw
Columbia

The story of an airship disaster.

Economical epic with a few Capra touches.

w Jo Swerling, Dorothy Howell story Frank 'Spig' Wead d Frank Capra ph Joe Wilbur, Elmer Dyer, Joseph Walker

☆ Jack Holt, Fay Wray, Ralph Graves, Hobart Bosworth, Roscoe Karns

'Plenty of everything expected in a flying film spectacle.' – Variety

The Dirt Bike Kid

US 1985 90m colour
Cinema/Concorde (Julie Corman)

A boy acquires a motor-bike with magical powers and defeats the plans of a wicked banker.

Trivial and predictable film, intended for a childish audience.

w Lewis Colick, David Brandes d Hoite C. Caston ph Daniel Lacambre m Bill Bowersock ad Betty Block ed Jeff Freeman

☆ Peter Billingsley (Jack Simmons), Stuart Pankin (Mr Hodgkins), Anne Bloom (Janet Simmons), Patrick Collins (Mike), Sage Parker (Miss Clavell), Chad Sheets (Bo), Daniel Breen (Flaherty)

'Have The Time Of Your Life.'

Dirty Dancing ★

US 1987 97m colour
Vestron (Linda Gottlieb)

In 1963, kids go dance crazy at a borscht belt resort.

Mildly agreeable variant on Saturday Night Fever, almost equally successful at the box-office.

w Eleanor Bergstein d Emile Ardolino ph Jeff Jur m John Morris pd David Chapman ed Peter C. Frank

☆ Jennifer Grey, Patrick Swayze, Jerry Orbach, Cynthia Rhodes, Jack Weston

♪ song 'I've Had the Time of My Life' (Franke Previte, John DeNicola, Donald Markowitz)

Dirty Dingus Magee

US 1970 91m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM (Burt Kennedy)

A likeable Western outlaw crosses swords with an old enemy.

Fair burlesque Western often stooping to vulgarity.

w Tom Waldman, Frank Waldman, Joseph Heller novel David Markson d Burt Kennedy ph Harry Stradling m Jeff Alexander

☆ Frank Sinatra, George Kennedy, Anne Jackson, Lois Nettleton, Jack Elam, John Dehner, Henry Jones, Harry Carey Jnr, Paul Fix

'Skittish burlesque, scripted in the brash and undisciplined style of a TV show heavily reliant on the Carry On brand of humour.' – David McGillivray

'Damn them or praise them – you'll never forget them!'

The Dirty Dozen ★★

US/Spain 1967 150m Metrocolor 70mm
MGM/Kenneth Hyman

In 1944, twelve convicts serving life sentences are recruited for a commando suicide mission.

Professional, commercial but unlikeable slice of wartime thick ear; pretensions about capital punishment are jettisoned early on in favour of frequent and violent bloodshed. Much imitated, e.g. by The Devil's Brigade, A Reason to Live, a Reason to Die, etc.

w Nunnally Johnson, Lukas Heller novel E. M. Nathanson d Robert Aldrich ph Edward Scaife m Frank de Vol

☆ Lee Marvin, Ernest Borgnine, Robert Ryan, Charles Bronson, Jim Brown, John Cassavetes, George Kennedy, Richard Jaeckel, Trini Lopez, Telly Savalas, Ralph Meeker, Clint Walker, Robert Webber, Donald Sutherland

'The sort of war film that is often piously called an anti-war film. Why? It is about as anti-war as, say, disgusting food is anti-pig swill.' – Penelope Gilliatt, New Yorker

♙ John Cassavetes

Dirty Hands: see Les Mains Sales

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♟ Academy Award · ♙ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'You don't assign him to murder cases – you just turn him loose!'

Dirty Harry ★★★

US 1971 103m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Malpaso (Don Siegel)

A violently inclined San Francisco police inspector is the only cop who can bring to book a mad sniper. When the man is released through lack of evidence, he takes private revenge.

A savage cop show which became a cult and led to a spate of dirty cop movies, including four sequels, Magnum Force, The Enforcer, Sudden Impact and The Dead Pool (qqv). Well done for those who can take it.

w Harry Julian Fink, Rita M. Fink, Dean Riesner d Don Siegel ph Bruce Surtees m Lalo Schifrin ad Dale Hennesy ed Carl Pingitore

☆ Clint Eastwood (Harry Callahan), Harry Guardino (Lt Bressler), Reni Santoni (Chico), John Vernon (The Mayor), Andy Robinson (Killer), John Larch (Chief), John Mitchum (De Georgio), Mae Mercer (Mrs Russell)

HARRY CALLAHAN (CLINT EASTWOOD): 'I know what you're thinking, punk. You're thinking, "Did he fire six shots or only five?" Now, to tell you the truth I've forgotten myself in all this excitement. But being this is a .44 Magnum, the most powerful handgun in the world, and will blow your head clean off, you've gotta ask yourself a question, "Do I feel lucky?" Well, do ya, punk?'

† Frank Sinatra was originally cast in the lead; after he withdrew, the script was rewritten for Clint Eastwood.

Dirty Little Billy

US 1972 92m Eastmancolor
Columbia/WRG/Dragoti (Jack L. Warner)

The violent young life of Billy the Kid.

Squalid little Western with few attractive aspects except that it presents its hero as the mentally retarded delinquent which history says he was.

w Charles Moss, Stan Dragoti d Stan Dragoti ph Ralph Woolsey m Sascha Burland

☆ Michael J. Pollard, Lee Purcell, Richard Evans, Charles Aidman

'The gap between its ostensible aims and its manner of realizing them continually leaves the film bogged down in its own scrupulously realistic mud.' – Tony Rayns

Dirty Mary, Crazy Larry

US 1974 92m DeLuxe
Academy Pictures Corporation (Norman T. Herman)

Two racing drivers and a kooky groupie rob a supermarket and almost elude their police pursuers.

Elaborately stunted chase film, agreeable enough to watch if the characters were not so disagreeable.

w Leigh Chapman, Antonio Santean novel The Chase by Richard Unekis d John Hough ph Mike Margulies m Jimmie Haskell

☆ Peter Fonda, Susan George, Adam Roarke, Vic Morrow, Kenneth Tobey, Roddy McDowall, Eugene Daniels

'The film's general delight in destruction and despoliation makes one wonder if it is the cinema that reflects the ugliness of modern society or the ugliness of modern society that reflects trends in the cinema.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

Dirty Money (dubbed) ★

France/Italy 1972 98m Eastmancolor
Columbia-Warner/Corona/Oceania/Euro (Robert Dorfmann)

original title: Un Flic

While investigating a drug-running operation, a police inspector solves a robbery and discovers that his mistress is double-crossing him.

Glum investigation of betrayal in which atmosphere is all, but not enough to sustain interest.

wd Jean-Pierre Melville ph Walter Wottitz m Michel Colombier pd Théo Muerisse ed Patricia Renaut

☆ Alain Delon, Catherine Deneuve, Richard Crenna, Riccardo Cucciolla, Michael Conrad, André Pousse

'It is curiously fitting that Melville's last feature should reaffirm the genre's hardiest conventions in a context of disenchantment and failure; and happy that this final, equivocal embrace of the genre should be distinguished by the director's most adventurous experiments with form.' – Tony Rayns, MFB

Dirty Pretty Things ★★

GB 2002 94m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Miramax/BBC/Celador (Tracey Seaward, Robert Jones)

In a seedy London hotel, two illegal immigrants discover that the place is a front for criminal activities.

Engrossing movie that marries a dark thriller to some uncomfortable insights into the underside of London life.

w Steven Knight d Stephen Frears ph Chris Menges m Nathan Larson pd Hugo Luczyc-Wyhowski ed Mick Audsley

☆ Chiwetel Ejiofor (Okwe), Audrey Tautou (Senay), Sergi Lopez (Sneaky), Sophie Okonedo (Juliette), Benedict Wong (Guo Yi), Sotigui Kouyate (Shinti), Abi Gouhad (Shinti's son), Jean-Philippe Ecoffey (Jean Luc)

'An intelligent and extremely well-made romantic drama.' – David Stratton, Variety

'A gently entertaining crowd-pleaser.' – Jonathan Romney, Independent

Steven Knight

Dirty Rotten Scoundrels

US 1988 110m DeLuxe
Rank/Orion (Bernard Williams)

Two con men compete in a contest of skills.

Heavy-handed remake of Ralph Levy's Bedtime Story, made in 1964.

w Dale Launer, Stanley Shapiro, Paul Henning d Frank Oz ph Michael Ballhaus m Miles Goodman pd Roy Walker ed Stephen A. Rotter, William Scharf

☆ Steve Martin, Michael Caine, Glenne Headly, Anton Rodgers, Barbara Harris, Ian McDiarmid, Dana Ivey, Meagen Fay, Frances Conroy, Nicole Calfan

'Four nutters. Six countries. Seven deadly sins. A world of pain.'

Dirty Sanchez: The Movie

UK 2006 100m
Pathe/MTV Films Europe/Vertigo Films (Bobby Allen, Rupert Preston)

Four Welshmen travel around the world staging reckless stunts loosely based on the Seven Deadly Sins.

A dispiriting TV spin-off whose mean-spirited humour is predicated on sadism and an obsession with bodily fluids.

TV series d Jim Hickey ph Martin J. Roach ed James Herbert TV series

☆ Lee Dainton (Himself), Dan Joyce (Himself), Mike 'Pancho' Locke (Himself), Mathew Pritchard (Himself), Myke Hawke Pierce (Himself), Howard Marks (Devil)

'Like Jackass, but without the charm.' – Leslie Felperin, Variety

Dirty Weekend

GB 1993 103m colour
UIP/Scimitar (Michael Winner, Robert Earl)

A woman, harassed by a succession of lecherous males, decides to kill them.

A sleazy little tale of a female vigilante, directed and acted in a perfunctory, over-emphatic manner.

w Michael Winner, Helen Zahavi novel Helen Zahavi d Michael Winner ph Alan Jones m David Fanshawe pd Crispian Sallis ed Arnold Crust

☆ Lia Williams, Rufus Sewell, Michael Cule, David McCallum, Christopher Ryan, Sean Pertwee, Ian Richardson

'Michael Winner aims low and half misses.' – Variety

'The film is uniquely awful ... sheer murder to watch.' – Nick James, Sight and Sound

Dirty Work ★★★★

US 1933 20m bw
Hal Roach

Chimney sweeps cause havoc in the house of an eccentric scientist.

Hilarious star comedy with splendid timing and comedy touches.

w H. M. Walker d Lloyd French ph Kenneth Peach ed Bert Jordan

☆ Laurel and Hardy, Lucien Littlefield, Sam Adams

Dirty Work

GB 1934 78m bw
Gaumont (Michael Balcon)

Shop assistants pose as crooks in order to catch thieves.

Rather thin Ben Travers farce with some authentic moments.

w Ben Travers play Ben Travers d Tom Walls ph Phil Tannura md Louis Levy ad Alfred Junge ed Alfred Roome

☆ Ralph Lynn, Gordon Harker, Robertson Hare, Lillian Bond, Basil Sydney, Cecil Parker, Margaretta Scott, Gordon James, Peter Gawthorne

The Disappearance

GB/Canada 1977 102m Eastmancolor
Trofar/Tiberius (David Hemmings)

An international hit man finds that his wife has disappeared.

Confusing and pretentious thriller which spends more time on introspection than action and ends up not satisfying anybody.

w Paul Mayersberg novel Echoes of Celandine by Derek Marlowe d Stuart Cooper ph John Alcott m Robert Farnon

☆ Donald Sutherland, Francine Racette, David Hemmings, John Hurt, David Warner, Peter Bowles, Virginia McKenna, Christopher Plummer

The Disappearance of Finbar

Ireland/GB/Sweden/France 1997 102m colour
Film Four/Pandora/First City/Samson/Victoria (Bertil Ohlsson, Martin Bruce-Clayton)

A detective and his best friend go looking for an unsettled Irish teenager who disappears from his home.

An aimless road movie that gets lost in Scandinavia.

w Dermot Bolger, Sue Clayton novel The Disappearance of Rory Brophy by Carl Lombard d Sue Clayton ph Eduardo Serra m Davy Spillane ad Ned McLoughlin, Connor Devlin, Bengt Froderberg ed J. Patrick Duffner, Alan Strachan

☆ Jonathan Rhys Meyers (credited as Rhys-Myers), Luke Griffin, Fanny Risberg, Lorraine Pilkington, Eleanor Methven, Sean Lawlor, Sean McGinley

'Ambitious and sloppy, yet occasionally likeable, cross-European fable.' – Caroline Westbrook, Empire

'The Movie Hollywood Doesn't Want You To See.'

Disappearance of Kevin Johnson ★

US 1995 106m Foto-Kem
Bedford/Makani Kai/Wobblyscope (Scott Richard Wolf)

A British documentary team, who are making a feature on expatriates in Hollywood, investigate the disappearance of a missing producer on the brink of the big time.

An amusing look at the seedier side of the dream factory, done in the muck-raking style of the sleazier television documentaries.

wd Francis Megahy ph John C. Newby m John Coda ad Sandy Grass ed Hudson Legrand

☆ Alexander Folk, Bridget Baiss, Carl Sundstrom, Michael Brandon, Keely Sims, Hector Elias, Pierce Brosnan (himself), James Coburn (himself), Dudley Moore (himself)

'This exercise in witty Hollywood-bashing is subtler than most.' – Kim Newman

Disbarred

US 1938 58m bw
Paramount

A lady lawyer is paid by a crime czar to defend a gangster.

Slick mini-melo of the kind at which this studio excelled at the time.

w Lillie Hayward, Robert Presnell d Robert Florey

☆ Otto Kruger, Gail Patrick, Robert Preston, Sidney Toler, Charles D. Brown

'Moderately entertaining drama; nicely fills the lower brackets.' – Variety

'Sex is power.'

Disclosure ★

US 1994 127m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Baltimore/Constant c (Barry Levinson, Michael Crichton)

A female executive in a computer company accuses a male colleague of sexual harassment after he rejects her advances.

Entertaining nonsense, abandoning all pretence to be ostensibly exploring matters of social concern in favour of sensationalism and the trappings of a computer thriller; it is a movie of virtual unreality.

w Paul Attanasio novel Michael Crichton d Barry Levinson ph Anthony Pierce-Roberts m Ennio Morricone pd Neil Spisak ed Stu Linder sp visual effects: Industrial Light and Magic

☆ Michael Douglas, Demi Moore, Donald Sutherland, Caroline Goodall, Dylan Baker, Roma Maffia, Dennis Miller, Allan Rich

'This is the kind of well-made and highly professional entertainment which relies as much on techno-babble, a virtual reality encounter between the two principals and screens which tell you how to run your lives than on the moral dilemma.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'If the viewer can get past the stupidity of Disclosure's plot and casting, the movie isn't all that bad.' – Joe Queenan

'90 Minutes You Will Never Forget.'

Disco Pigs

GB/Ireland 2000 93m colour
Entertainment/Renaissance/IFB/Temple (Ed Guiney)

Two teenagers, close friends from birth, turn to violence when others try to separate them.

Melodramatic drama of an intense relationship, so claustrophobic that it leaves no room for an audience.

w Enda Walsh play Enda Walsh d Kirsten Sheridan ph Igor Jadue-Lillo m Gavin Friday, Maurice Seezer pd Zoe MacLeod ed Ben Yeates

☆ Elaine Cassidy (Sinead, 'Runt'), Cillian Murphy (Darren, 'Pig'), Geraldine O'Rawe (Runt's Mam), Eleanor Methven (Pig's Mam), Brian O'Byrne (Runt's Dad), Darren Healy (Marky), Tara Lynne O'Neill (Mags), Michael Rawley (Foxy)

'An extremely ugly experience indeed.' – James Mottram, Film Review

The Discreet Charm of the Bourgeoisie ★★★★

France/Spain/Italy 1972 105m
Eastmancolor
Greenwich (Serge Silberman)

original title: Le Charme Discret de la Bourgeoisie

The efforts of a group of friends to dine together are continually frustrated.

A frequently hilarious, sometimes savage surrealist fable which makes all its points beautifully and then goes on twenty minutes too long. The performances are a joy.

w Luis Buñuel, Jean-Claude Carrière d Luis Buñuel ph Edmond Richard ad Pierre Guffroy ed Hélène Plemiannikov

☆ Fernando Rey (Don Raphael, Ambassador of Miranda), Delphine Seyrig (Simone Thevenot), Stéphane Audran (Alice Senechal), Bulle Ogier (Florence), Jean-Pierre Cassel (Henri Senechal), Paul Frankeur (Francois Thevenot), Julien Bertheau (Bishop Dufour)

'A perfect synthesis of surreal wit and blistering social assault.' – Jan Dawson, MFB

'Extraordinarily funny and brilliantly acted.' – Vincent Canby, New York Times

best foreign film
Luis Buñuel, Jean-Claude Carrière (script)
Stéphane Audran; script

The Disembodied

US 1957 73m bw
Allied Artists

In the tropics, a doctor's wife is really a voodoo queen who is trying to kill him by supernatural means.

Verbose rubbish with more yawns than thrills.

w Jack Townley d Walter Grauman

☆ Allison Hayes, Paul Burke, John Wengraf

'As Neil Armstrong set foot on the moon, our only link was a satellite dish in rural Australia with a few bugs. (And a few hundred sheep.)'

The Dish ★★

Australia 2000 100m colour
Icon/Working Dog/Dish (Santo Cilauro, Tom Gleisner, Jane Kennedy, Rob Sitch)

A power cut threatens the success of a team of Australian engineers, working under NASA supervision, who have been assigned to track Apollo II and relay to the world TV pictures of the first lunar landing.

Engaging small-scale comedy that casts a gently ironic eye on history and those who make it.

w Santo Cilauro, Tom Gleisner, Jane Kennedy, Rob Sitch d Rob Sitch ph Graeme Wood m Edmund Choi, Jane Kennedy pd Carrie Kennedy ed Jill Bilcock

☆ Sam Neill (Cliff Buxton), Kevin Harrington (Ross 'Mitch' Mitchell), Tom Long (Glenn Latham), Patrick Warburton (Al Burnett), Genevieve Mooy (May McIntyre), Tayler Kane (Rudi Kellerman), Bille Brown (Prime Minister), Roy Billing (Mayor Bob McIntyre)

'A feel-good comic ensembler that's hard to resist.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety

Dishonored ★★

US 1931 91m bw
Paramount

An officer's widow turned streetwalker is hired by the German government as a spy.

Rather gloomy melodrama which helped to establish its star as a top American attraction; but the heavy hand of her Svengali, von Sternberg, was already evident.

w Daniel N. Rubin story Josef von Sternberg d Josef von Sternberg ph Lee Garmes m Karl Hajos

☆ Marlene Dietrich, Victor McLaglen, Lew Cody, Gustav von Seyffertitz, Warner Oland, Barry Norton, Wilfred Lucas

'Miss Dietrich rises above her director ... should make the money grade of an A1 draw talker.' – Variety

'The most exciting movie I have seen in several months ... yet I hope I may die young if I ever again have to listen to a manuscript so full of recusant, stilted, outmoded theatrical mouthings.' – Pare Lorentz

'The whole film has a kind of magnificent grandeur embellished, of course, by its shining central performance.' – John Gillett, 1964

'She insulted her soul!'

Dishonored Lady

US 1947 85m bw
Mars Film (Hedy Lamarr)

A girl with a past is cleared of a murder charge by her psychiatrist.

Melodramatic showpiece designed for herself by a glamorous star; OK for the silly season.

w Edmund H. North play Edward Sheldon, Margaret Ayer Barnes d Robert Stevenson ph Lucien Andriot m Carmen Dragon

☆ Hedy Lamarr, John Loder, Dennis O'Keefe, Paul Cavanagh, William Lundigan, Natalie Schafer, Morris Carnovsky

Dishonour Bright ★

GB 1936 82m bw
GFD/Cecil (Herman Fellner, Max Schach)

An ageing playboy is blackmailed about a past affair.

Interesting semi-smart comedy of the period, tailored for its star.

w Ben Travers d Tom Walls ph Phil Tannura

☆ Tom Walls, Eugene Pallette, Betty Stockfeld, Diana Churchill, Arthur Wontner, Cecil Parker, George Sanders, Henry Oscar, Basil Radford

Disney's First Kid: see First Kid

'Nobody ever grows up quite like they imagined.'

Disney's The Kid

US 2000 104m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/Junction (Jon Turteltaub, Christina Steinberg, Hunt Lowry)

A middle-aged image consultant meets himself at the age of 8: each decides the other needs a make-over.

Lacklustre comedy of time-travel that hardly tries to get the most out of an intriguing concept; it is content to settle for dewy-eyed nostalgia.

w Audrey Wells d Jon Turteltaub ph Peter Menzies Jnr m Marc Shaiman pd Garreth Stover ed Peter Honess, David Rennie sp James E. Price; Secret Lab

☆ Bruce Willis (Russ Duritz), Spencer Breslin (Rusty Duritz), Emily Mortimer (Amy), Lily Tomlin (Janet), Chi McBride (Kenny), Jean Smart (Deirdre Lafever), Dana Ivey (Dr Alexander), Daniel von Bargen (Sam Duritz), Stanley Anderson (Bob Riley), Susan Dalian (Giselle)

'Insufferably cloying and sickly sweet for anyone with the least intolerance to "find the inner child" saccharinity.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'Has a pleasant, unforced air, aided by the professionalism of the actors.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

Disorderly Conduct

US 1932 82m bw
Fox

A cop turns crook after being demoted.

Heavy-going melodrama apparently intended as a tribute to the New York police.

w William Anthony McGuire d John W. Considine Jnr

☆ Spencer Tracy, Sally Eilers, El Brendel, Dickie Moore, Ralph Bellamy, Ralph Morgan, Alan Dinehart

'Good entertainment ... mother-love sentiment with some kid atmosphere.' – Variety

The Disorderly Orderly

US 1964 89m Technicolor
Paramount/York (Paul Jones)

A hospital orderly creates havoc by his inefficiency and his sympathy for other people's predicaments.

Spasmodic farce with far too much pathos between its highlights.

wd Frank Tashlin ph W. Wallace Kelley m Joseph Lilley

☆ Jerry Lewis, Glenda Farrell, Everett Sloane, Kathleen Freeman, Karen Sharpe, Susan Oliver, Alice Pearce

Disorganized Crime

US 1989 98m Metrocolor
Touchstone/Silver Screen Partners IV (Lynn Bigelow)

A gang of incompetent crooks await the arrival of their leader, who has escaped from prison, so that they can attempt the perfect bank robbery.

Dull and uninteresting crime caper with stereotyped characters that flopped at the box-office.

wd Jim Kouf ph Ron Garcia m David Newman pd Waldemar Kalinowski ed Frank Morriss, Dallas Puett

☆ Hoyt Axton, Corbin Bernsen, Ruben Blades, Fred Gwynne, Ed O'Neill, Lou Diamond Phillips, Daniel Roebuck, William Russ

Les Disparus de St Agil ★

France 1938 95m bw
Vog Films

Students disappear in a school whose headmaster is a forger and murderer.

Curious black comedy: a half-success.

w J. H. Blanchon novel Pierre Véry d Christian-Jaque

☆ Michel Simon, Erich von Stroheim, Aimé Clariond, Armand Bernard

A Dispatch from Reuters ★★

US 1940 90m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

GB title: This Man Reuter

The story of the man who provided Europe's first news service.

Acceptable if slightly dull addition to Warner's prestige biopics; well made and acted.

w Milton Krims d William Dieterle ph James Wong Howe m Max Steiner

☆ Edward G. Robinson, Edna Best, Eddie Albert, Albert Basserman, Gene Lockhart, Otto Kruger, Montagu Love, Nigel Bruce, James Stephenson

Disputed Passage ★

US 1939 90m bw
Paramount (Harlan Thompson)

A young scientist who wants to marry meets resistance from his mentor.

Adequate screen version of a bestseller.

w Anthony Veiller, Sheridan Gibney novel Lloyd C. Douglas d Frank Borzage ph William C. Mellor m Frederick Hollander, James Leopold

☆ Dorothy Lamour, John Howard, Akim Tamiroff, Judith Barrett, William Collier Snr, Victor Varconi, Keye Luke, Elizabeth Risdon

'Fine drama of medical science: a top-of-the-bill attraction.' – Variety

'I should describe the flavour as a rather nauseating blend of iodine and glucose.' – Graham Greene

'It dwarfs the stage!'

Disraeli ★

US 1929 89m bw
Warner

Fictionalized episodes in the life of the Victorian statesman, including his activities as a matchmaker.

Very early star talkie, of primarily archival interest; Arliss had appeared in a silent version in 1921.

w Julien Josephson play Louis N. Parker d Alfred E. Green ph Lee Garmes md Louis Silvers

☆ George Arliss, Joan Bennett, Florence Arliss, Anthony Bushell, David Torrence, Ivan Simpson, Doris Lloyd

'Those seeking a fuller assessment of the man and his work would have been better off in a library.' – Clive Hirschhorn, 1982

George Arliss
best picture; Julian Josephson

Distant: see Uzak

'The rescue ... the throbbing jungle drums ... the man-devouring marsh wilderness aflame with unseen menace!'

Distant Drums

US 1951 101m Technicolor
United States Pictures (Milton Sperling)

In 1840 Florida, an army officer rescues prisoners from an Indian fort and decimates the Seminoles who threaten their return journey.

Overlong action saga, with dull stretches

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

compensated by a dominating star and some lively incident.
w Niven Busch, Martin Rackin d Raoul Walsh ph Sid Hickox m Max Steiner
☆ Gary Cooper, Mari Aldon, Richard Webb, Ray Teal, Arthur Hunnicutt, Robert Barrat

'Don't look for surprises. Mr Cooper is kept steady and laconic throughout, the action is serio-comic, and the pace is conventionally maintained.' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times

Distant Thunder ★★★

India 1973 100m colour
Balaka (Sarbani Bhattacharya)

original title: Asani Sanket

In 1943 a Brahmin teacher-priest and his wife experience in their small village the beginnings of a famine in Bengal.
A potent account of the breakdown of traditional values under the pressure of terrible events.
wd Satyajit Ray novel Bibhutibhusan Banerjee ph Soumendu Ray m Satyajit Ray ad Asok Bose ed Dulal Dutta
☆ Soumitra Chatterjee (Gangacharan Chakravarti), Babita (Ananga), Ramesh Mukherjee (Biswas), Chitra Banerjee (Moti), Gobinda Chakravarti (Dinabandhu), Sandhya Roy (Chutki)

'I don't know when I've been so moved by a picture that I knew was riddled with flaws. It must be that Ray's vision comes out of so much hurt and guilt and love that the feeling pours over all the cracks in Distant Thunder and fills them up.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

† It won the Golden Bear award for Best Film at the Berlin Film Festival in 1973.

Distant Thunder

US/Canada 1988 114m Technicolor
Paramount (Robert Schaffel)

A Vietnam veteran who, after his wartime experiences, lives on the fringes of society renews contact with the 18-year-old son he abandoned years before.
Soft-centred drama of male bonding through violence which might have been made for television; it is small in scale and scope, despite its melodramatic climax.
w Robert Stitzel, Deedee Wehle d Rick Rosenthal ph Ralf Bode m Maurice Jarre ed Dennis Virkler
☆ John Lithgow, Ralph Macchio, Kerrie Keane, Reb Brown, Janet Margolin, Denis Arndt, Jamey Sheridan, Tom Bower

A Distant Trumpet

US 1964 116m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (William H. Wright)

The new commander of a cavalry outpost tightens up discipline, which serves him well when Indian trouble erupts.
Moderate Western, quite well staged but with a second team cast.
w John Twist novel Paul Horgan d Raoul Walsh ph William Clothier m Max Steiner ☆ Troy Donahue, Suzanne Pleshette, James Gregory, Diane McBain, William Reynolds, Claude Akins, Kent Smith, Judson Pratt

Distant Voices, Still Lives ★

GB 1988 84m colour
BFI/Film Four International (Colin MacCabe)

Working-class family life in Liverpool in the 40s and 50s.
Low-budget labour of love filmed at intervals over two years, succeeding through close, unsentimental observation and excellent performances by a cast of unknowns.
wd Terence Davies ph William Diver, Patrick Duval pd Miki van Zwanenberg ☆ Freda Dowie, Pete Postlethwaite, Angela Walsh

'While its pacing and structure may exasperate some, should envelop receptive audiences with its special magic.' – Variety

The Distinguished Gentleman ★

US 1992 112m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Hollywood Pictures (Leonard Goldberg, Michael Peyser)

A con man decides that the best place for his talents is in government.
Enjoyable, broad comedy, which gives Murphy a good opportunity to display his fast-talking talents.
w Marty Kaplan d Jonathan Lynn ph Gabriel Beristain m Randy Edelman pd Leslie Dilley ed Tony Lombardo, Barry B. Leirer
☆ Eddie Murphy, Lane Smith, Sheryl Lee Ralph, Joe Don Baker, Victoria Rowell, Grant Shaud, Kevin McCarthy

'A lazily slung together collection of clichés, mixing diet politics with laughter-free comedy.' – Kim Newman, Empire

District 13: see Banlieue 13

'Welcome to District 13. Welcome to the future.'

District 13 ★ (8)

France 2004 84m
Momentum/EuropaCorp/TF1 Films/Canal Plus

French title: Banlieue 13

In a lawless, politically restless Paris ghetto, a young ex-gang member teams up with a police officer to destroy the neutron bomb that threatens the neighbourhood.
A naïve, preposterous plot, but that misses the point. The highlights here are the two phenomenally athletic heroes in stunning free-running sequences – off balconies, along rooftops and between dizzyingly high buildings. The exhilaration trumps a lack of logic. For action fans rather than connoisseurs of political drama, it's a guilty pleasure.
w Luc Besson, Bibi Naceri d Pierre Morel ph Manuel Teran m Da Octopuss pd Hugues Tissandier ad Vraciu Eduard Daniel ed Frederic Thoraval ☆ Cyril Raffaelli (Damien), David Belle (Leito), Larbi Naceri (Taha), Dany Verissimo (Lola), Francois Chattot (Kruger)

Disturbing Behavior

US 1998 84m DeLuxe
MGM/Village Roadshow/Hoyts/Beacon Communications (Armyan Bernstein, Jon Shestack)

A new high-school student discovers something odd about the school's athletic élite, who are able to get away with murder.
A somewhat dumb variation on The Stepford Wives (qv), played as a comedy and designed for a teenage audience.
w Scott Rosenberg d David Nutter ph John S. Bartley m Mark Snow pd Nelson Coates ed Randy Jon Morgan
☆ James Marsden (Steve Clark), Katie Holmes (Rachel Wagner), Nick Stahl (Gavin Strick), Steve Railsback (Officer Cox), Bruce Greenwood (Dr. Caldicott), William Sadler (Dorain Newberry), Chad E. Donella (U.V.), Ethan Embry (Allen Clark), Katherine Isabelle (Lindsay Clark)

'Brisk, slick, sloppily plotted, cliché-ridden script pic won't win many critical allies.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety

Ditte, Child of Man ★

Denmark 1946 106m bw
Nordisk

original title: Ditte Menneskebarn

An unmarried mother abandons her daughter, who grows up to be a servant and to be seduced in her turn.
Impressive, doom-laden Scandinavian saga, highly thought of on its release.
wd Astrid and Bjarne Henning-Jensen novel Martin Andersen ph Werner Jenssen m Herman Koppel
☆ Tove Maes, Rasmus Ottesen, Karen Poulsen

Ditte Menneskebarn: see Ditte, Child of Man

Diva ★

France 1981 117m Eastmancolor
Galaxie/Greenwich/Antenne 2 (Irene Silberman)

A black prima donna in Paris becomes accidentally involved in drug smuggling and murder.
A curious hybrid of violence and surrealism which doesn't seem to know what effect it's aiming at, or at least doesn't let the viewer in on the secret, being content to entertain in a flashy and sometimes shocking way.
w Jean-Jacques Beineix, Jean Van Hamme novel Delacorta d Jean-Jacques Beineix ph Philippe Rousselot m Vladimir Cosma pd Hilton McConnico
☆ Frederic Andrei, Roland Bertin, Richard Bohringer, Wilhelmenia Wiggins Fernandez, Jean-Jacques Moreau, Chantal Deruaz

'It's a mixture of style and chic hanky-panky, but it's genuinely sparkling.' – New Yorker

The Dive

GB/Norway 1989 95m colour
Filmeffekt/Millennium/British Screen (Dag Alveberg, Patrick Cassavetti)

Deep-sea divers are trapped underwater while attempting to repair a pipeline.
Standard rescue melodrama, more lethargically directed than most.
w Leidulv Risan, Carlos Wiggen d Tristan de Vere Cole ph Harald Paalgard m Geir Bihren, Bent Aserud pd Jarle Blesvik ed Russell Lloyd ☆ Bjîrn Sundquist, Frank Grimes, Eindride Eidsvold, Marika Lagercrantz, Nils Ole Oftebro, Michael Kitchen, Sverre Anker Ousdal

Dive Bomber ★

US 1941 133m Technicolor
Warner (Hal B. Wallis)

Aviation scientists work to eliminate pilot blackout.
Somewhat rarefied propaganda piece with too many reels of romantic banter but tense climactic scenes and good star performances.
w Frank 'Spig' Wead, Robert Buckner d Michael Curtiz ph Bert Glennon, Winton C. Hoch m Max Steiner md Leo F. Forbstein
☆ Errol Flynn, Fred MacMurray, Ralph Bellamy, Alexis Smith, Regis Toomey, Robert Armstrong, Allen Jenkins, Craig Stevens, Moroni Olsen, Gig Young, William Hopper, Charles Drake, Russell Hicks, Addison Richards, Ann Doran and also Herbert Anderson
Bert Glennon, Winton C. Hoch

The Divided Heart ★★

GB 1954 89m bw
Ealing (Michael Truman)

A boy believed to be a war orphan is lovingly brought up by foster parents; then his real mother turns up and wants him back.
Effective 'woman's picture' set in Europe and giving a genuine sense of post-war feelings and problems.
w Jack Whittingham d Charles Crichton ph Otto Heller m Georges Auric
☆ Cornell Borchers, Yvonne Mitchell, Armin Dahlen, Alexander Knox, Geoffrey Keen, Michel Ray, Liam Redmond, Eddie Byrne
Yvonne Mitchell; Cornell Borchers

'In a war-torn village, one couple makes the ultimate sacrifice to save another.'

Divided We Fall ★★

Czech Republic 2000 123m colour
Total HelpArt THA/Czech TV (Ondrej Trojan, Pavel Borovan)

aka: Musime si Pomàhat

During the Nazi occupation of Czechoslovakia, a couple risk their lives to shelter a Jewish friend.
Deft black tragi-comedy of ordinary people in extraordinary times, and the compromises life forces upon them.
w Petr Jarchovsky novel Petr Jarchovsky d Jan Hrebejk ph Jan Malir m Alec Brezina ad Milan Bycek ed Vladimir Barak
☆ Boleslav Polivka (Josef Cizek), Csongor Kassai (David Wiener), Jaroslav Dusek (Horst Prohaska), Anna Siskova (Marie Cizkova), Jiri Pecha (Frantisek Simacek), Martin Huba (Dr Kepk), Simona Stasova (Libuse Simackova)

'Pervaded with humor that serves not to sentimentalize or sugarcoat the monstrosity of Naziism, but to explain it. The filmmakers explore not only the banality of evil, but also the banality of goodness, and the ridiculousness, as well as the tragedy, of their collision.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

The Dividing Line: see The Lawless

Divine Intervention ★★ (7)

France/Morocco/Germany 2002 92m colour
Artificial Eye/Ognon/Arte France/Gimages/Soread 2M/Lichtblick (Humbert Balsan)

Three moments in the life of Palestinian lovers, divided by a checkpoint: in Nazareth, an old man behaves badly to his neighbours; the lovers meet under the eyes of Israeli soldiers and defeat them with fantasies; the man and his mother watch a pressure cooker reach danger point.
Humour as a response to despair informs this sad and witty film that regards the present as without hope of change, finding consolation in surreal moments, as a red balloon adorned with the face of Yasir Arafat soaring above Jerusalem.
wd Elia Suleiman ph Marc-Andre Batigne ad Miguel Markin, Denis Renault, Samir Sruji ed Veronique Lange ☆ Elia Suleiman (ES), Manal Khader (The woman), Nayef Fahoum Daher (Father), George Ibrahim (Santa Claus), Georges Khleifi (Collaborator), Avi Kleinberger (Officer)

'A cure for nagging ethnic generalities. This Palestinian sort-of-comedy has a sly wit that amuses and disturbs in equal, salubrious measure.' – Richard Corliss, Time

The Divine Lady ★

US 1929 100m bw
Warner

The adventures of Emma, Lady Hamilton.
Historical charade which titillated at the time.

w Agnes Christine Johnston, Forrest Halsey
d Frank Lloyd ph John Seitz
☆ Corinne Griffith, Victor Varconi, H. B. Warner, Montagu Love, Marie Dressler
Frank Lloyd
John Seitz; Corinne Griffith

Divine Madness

US 1980 93m Technicolor Panavision
Ladd Company/Warner

A record of a Bette Midler concert performance. 'Since this is the time capsule version of my show, I may as well do everything I know.'
It certainly isn't a movie.
d Michael Ritchie ph William A. Fraker

'Mothers. Daughters. The neverending story of good vs evil.'

Divine Secrets of the Ya-Ya Sisterhood

US 2002 116m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Gaylord/All Girl (Bonnie Bruckheimer, Hunt Lowry)

Childhood friends of a heavy-drinking, pill-popping mother attempt to reconcile her with her daughter, an outspoken writer.
Talky chick-flick of a generational clash that quickly palls, mainly because it resembles no known reality.
wd Callie Khouri adaptation Mark Andrus novels Divine Secrets of the Ya-Ya Sisterhood; Little Altars Everywhere by Rebecca Wells ph John Bailey m T Bone Burnett, David Mansfield pd David J. Bomba ed Andrew Marcus cos Gary Jones
☆ Sandra Bullock (Sidda), Ellen Burstyn (Vivi), Fionnula Flanagan (Teensy), James Garner (Shep Walker), Cherry Jones (Buggy), Ashley Judd (Younger Vivi), Shirley Knight (Necie), Angus MacFadyen (Connor), Maggie Smith (Caro)
'There must be a reason that the sort of comic caricatures of Southern womanhood as displayed here have weathered the test of time, so there may be kernels of truth buried behind all the studied glances, poses and play-acting' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'Why do gifted actresses appear in such slop?' – Roger Ebert

The Divine Woman ★

US 1927 95m approx (24 fps) bw silent
MGM

The loves of Sarah Bernhardt.
Garbo's first star role; a typical Hollywood melodramatization of facts.
w Dorothy Farnum play Starlight by Gladys Unger d Victor Sjostrom ☆ Greta Garbo, Lars Hanson, Lowell Sherman, John Mack Brown, Polly Moran

Divorce

US 1945 71m bw
Monogram/Jeffrey Bernerd/Kay Francis

A much-married woman tries to break up another happy family.
This somewhat elementary tract was the star's first independent production, and not a success.
w Sidney Sutherland, Harvey Gates
d William Nigh
☆ Kay Francis, Bruce Cabot, Helen Mack, Jonathan Hale, Jerome Cowan
'A lacklustre script grooves it for the duals.' – Variety

'Everything sounds sexier in French.'

Le Divorce

US/GB 2003 117m colour Panavision
TCF/Merchant Ivory/Radar (Ismail Merchant, Michael Schiffer)

Two American half-sisters in Paris lead tangled love lives: one is pregnant and deserted by her husband, the other begins an affair with an older man.
Dull adaptation of a waspish novel about the perfidious French.
w Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, James Ivory novel Diane Johnson d James Ivory ph Pierre Lhomme m Richard Robbins
pd Frederic Benard ed John David Allen
☆ Kate Hudson (Isabel Walker), Naomi Watts (Roxeanne de Persand), Jean-Marc Barr (Maitre Bertram), Leslie Caron (Suzanne de Persand), Stockard Channing (Margreeve Walker), Glenn Close (Olivia Pace), Romain Duris (Yves), Stephen Fry (Piers Janely), Thierry Lhermitte (Edgar Cosset), Matthew Modine (Tellman), Bebe Neuwirth (Julia Manchevering), Sam Waterston (Chester Walker)
'A contrived and anaemic exercise in bad manners.' – James Christopher, Times

'In America the ring costs two dollars to put on – and a fortune to take off!'

Divorce American Style ★★

US 1967 109m Technicolor
Columbia/Tandem (Norman Lear)

Well-heeled Los Angeles suburbanites toy with divorce but eventually resume their domestic bickering.
Rather arid and patchy but often sharply sardonic comedy about a society in which people can't afford to divorce.
w Norman Lear d Bud Yorkin ph Conrad Hall m David Grusin pd Edward Stephenson
☆ Dick Van Dyke, Debbie Reynolds, Jean Simmons, Jason Robards Jnr, Van Johnson, Joe Flynn, Shelley Berman, Martin Gabel, Lee Grant, Tom Bosley, Dick Gautier
Norman Lear

'A delightfully daring plan to give marriage a surprise ending!'

Divorce Italian Style ★★

Italy 1961 108m bw
Lux/Vides/Galatea (Franco Cristaldi)

original title: Divorzio all'Italiana

A Sicilian nobleman explains how, wishing to be rid of his wife, he arranged for her to be seduced and later shot by a jealous lover.
Sardonic, stylized comedy which, rather in the manner of Kind Hearts and Coronets, manages while retailing a black comedy plot to satirize Italian manners and institutions.
w Ennio de Concini, Pietro Germi, Alfredo Gianetti d Pietro Germi ph Leonida Barboni m Carlo Rustichelli ☆ Marcello Mastroianni, Daniela Rocca, Stefania Sandrelli, Leopoldo Trieste script
Pietro Germi; Marcello Mastroianni
Marcello Mastroianni

The Divorce of Lady X ★★

GB 1938 92m Technicolor
London Films (Alexander Korda)

A nobleman's daughter wins a barrister by posing as a divorce client.
Pleasing comedy with high production standards of its time, deftly performed by a distinguished cast.
w Lajos Biro, Arthur Wimperis, Ian Dalrymple play Counsel's Opinion by Gilbert Wakefield d Tim Whelan
ph Harry Stradling m Miklos Rozsa ad Lazare Meerson, Paul Sheriff
ed William Hornbeck
☆ Laurence Olivier, Merle Oberon, Binnie Barnes, Ralph Richardson, Morton Selten, J. H. Roberts

'Her sin was no greater than his, but she was a woman! If the world permits the husband to philander – why not the wife?'

The Divorcee ★

US 1930 83m bw
MGM (Robert Z. Leonard)

Would-be liberal young marrieds divorce when she puts up with his affairs but he can't tolerate hers. She falls in love with another married man but sends him back to his wife.
Rather wan illustration of the double standard which was being much discussed in society at the time.
w John Meehan, Nick Grinde, Zelda Sears novel Ex-Wife by Ursula Parrott d Robert Z. Leonard ph Norbert Brodine ad Cedric Gibbons ☆ Norma Shearer, Chester Morris, Conrad Nagel, Robert Montgomery, Florence Eldridge
'Shearer's specialty was sexy suffering in satin gowns by Adrian; here, she almost seems to want to abandon herself to naughtiness, but one line after another stops her.' – Pauline Kael, 70s
Norma Shearer
best picture; Robert Z. Leonard; John Meehan, Nick Grinde, Zelda Sears

Divorcing Jack ★★

GB/France 1998 100m Rank Colour
BBC/Winchester/Scala (Robert Cooper)

In an independent Northern Ireland, a journalist goes on the run after being framed for a murder, and is hunted by Loyalists and the IRA.
Tense, tough thriller that thumbs its nose at gunmen of all persuasions, served up with some wit and a gun-toting stripper-nun.
w Colin Bateman novel Colin Bateman
d David Caffrey ph James Welland
m Adrian Johnston pd Claire Kenny
ed Nick Moore
☆ David Thewlis, Rachel Griffiths, Robert Lindsay, Jason Isaacs, Laura Fraser, Richard Gant, Bronagh Gallagher
'An out-and-out chase movie, stuffed with visual gags and boasting a fine comedy script which bends the ear with delight.' – Jake Hamilton, Empire

Divorzio all'Italiana: see Divorce Italian Style

Dixiana

US 1930 100m bw (Technicolor sequences)
RKO

A Dutchman from Pennsylvania tries to run a plantation in Louisiana.
Lavish but utterly witless musical comedy which just lies there and dies there.
wd Luther Reed play Ann Caldwell
☆ Bebe Daniels, Bert Wheeler, Robert Woolsey, Everett Marshall, Joseph Cawthorn, Jobyna Howland, Dorothy Lee, Bill Robinson
'Not much but bigness for exploiting.' – Variety

Dixie ★

US 1943 90m Technicolor
Paramount (Paul Jones)

The life of old-time minstrel man Dan Emmett.
Lighter-than-air fictionalized biography with pleasing mid-19th-century settings.
w Karl Tunberg, Darrell Ware d A. Edward Sutherland ph William C. Mellor
m Robert Emmett Dolan m/ly Johnny Burke, Jimmy Van Heusen ☆ Bing Crosby, Dorothy Lamour, Marjorie Reynolds, Lynne Overman, Eddie Foy Jnr, Billy de Wolfe, Raymond Walburn, Grant Mitchell

Django ★★

Italy/Spain 1966 95m colour
BRC/Tecisa (Manolo Bolognini)

A gunfighter who carries a machine-gun in a coffin rids a town of its gangs of Mexican bandits and the Ku Klux Klan.
One of the earliest, most notorious and influential of spaghetti Westerns, marked by a high level of violence but nevertheless watchable for its operatic style.
w Sergio Corbucci, Bruno Corbucci, Franco Rossetti, José G. Naesso, Piero Vivarelli
d Sergio Corbucci ph Enzo Barboni
m Luis Enrique Bacalov
☆ Franco Nero, Eduardo Fajardo, Loredana Nusciak, José Bodalo, Angel Alvarez
'After Leone, Corbucci was the genius of the spaghettis.' – Empire

Django against Sartana (dubbed)

Italy 1970 90m Telecolor
P.A.C./B.C.R. (Roberto Bessi)
original title: Django Sfida Sartana

Django avenges the death of his brother, hanged for a crime he did not commit.
Mundane spaghetti Western, a sequel lacking the excesses of the original and content to provide the minimum in interest or excitement.
wd William Redford (Pasquale Squitieri)
ph Eugenio Bentivoglio m Piero Umiliani
☆ George Ardisson, Tony Kendall, José Torres, Bernard Faber, Adler Gray, John Alvar

Django, Kill! (dubbed)

Italy/Spain 1967 120m colour
Techniscope
GIA/Hispamer (Alex J. Rascal) original title: Sei Sei Vivo, Spara!
aka: If You Live Shoot!

A vengeful gunman, who was among Mexicans double-crossed and shot down by American bandits, tracks the gang to a town controlled by Zorro, a homosexual bandit, and his followers.
Sprawling, decadent spaghetti Western in a rococo style, given over to brutal deaths; it is not often screened uncut.
w Franco Arcalli, Giulio Questi, Benedetto Benedetti idea Ma del Carmen, M. Roman d Giulio Questi ph Franco delli Colli
m Ivan Vandor ed Franco Arcalli
☆ Tomas Milian, Marilu Tolo, Piero Lulli, Milo Quesada, Roberto Camardiel, Patrizia Valturri, Raymond Lovelock
† The film exists in several other, shorter versions, cut for reasons of violence or length.

Django Sfida Sartana: see Django against Sartana

Django Spara per Primo

Italy 1966 95m Technicolor
Techniscope
Gala/Fida (Edmondo Amati)
aka: He Who Shoots First

Django is framed for a bank robbery by the man who murdered his father.
Tedious re-run of the usual theme of vengeance, done without style or originality.
w Sandro Continenza, Massimiliano Capriccoli, Florenzo Carpi, Vincenzo

Flamini, Alberto de Martino d Alberto de Martino ph Ricardo Pallottini m Bruno Nicolai ad Pier Vittorio Marchi ed Otello Colangeli

☆ Glenn Saxon, Fernando Sancho, Evelyn Stewart (Ida Galli), Nando Gazzolo, Lee Burton (Guido Lollobrigida)

'A lifeless Italian Western ... plods wearily through the required rituals.' – MFB

En Djunselsaga: see The Flute and the Arrow

Dnevnoy Dozor: Mel Sudbi: see Day Watch

Do I Love You?

GB 2003 74m colour
Valiant Doll (Lisa Gornick)

A serious-minded woman in a lesbian relationship begins to question her sexual identity.

A would-be witty look at relationships, close in tone to a Woody Allen movie but without the one-liners.

wd Lisa Gornick ph Inge Blackman, Michael Needham, Heidi Martin ed Maya T. Harris, Diarmid Scrimshaw

☆ Lisa Gornick (Marina), Raquel Cassidy (Romy), Ruth Posner (Paula), Brendan Gregory (Stefan), Sarah Patterson (Louise), Kamal Sylvester (Greg)

'It doesn't really work, largely due to long stretches of clunky dialogue' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

† The film is said to have been made for £1,000.

The Do It Yourself Cartoon Kit ★★

GB 1961 6m Eastmancolor
Biographic

A commercial for the kit in question, poking fun at all comers in a Monty Pythonish way.

Great stuff for those who like zany humour well controlled.

w Colin Pearson d Bob Godfrey

'What should a girl do when opportunity knocks ... twice?'

Do Not Disturb

US 1965 102m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF/Melcher/Arcola (Aaron Rosenberg, Martin Melcher)

An American wool executive is posted to London; his dizzy wife makes him jealous by flirting with a French antique dealer.

Silly farce which paints a lunatic picture of English and French life but occasionally raises a wild laugh or two. Thin script and production.

w Milt Rosen, Richard Breen play William Fairchild d Ralph Levy ph Leon Shamroy m Lionel Newman

☆ Doris Day, Rod Taylor, Sergio Fantoni, Reginald Gardiner, Hermione Baddeley, Leon Askin

Do the Right Thing ★★★

US 1989 120m colour
UIP/Forty Acres And A Mule Filmworks/Spike Lee

A white pizza parlour owner in a black neighbourhood sparks off a riot.

Complex, witty, street-wise and passionate film about racism.

w Spike Lee d Spike Lee ph Ernest Dickerson m Bill Lee pd Wynn Thomas ed Barry Alexander Brown

☆ Danny Aiello (Sal), Ossie Davis (Da Mayor), Ruby Dee (Mother Sister), Richard Edson (Vito), Giancarlo Esposito (Buggin Out), Spike Lee (Mookie), Bill Nunn (Radio Raheem), John Turturro (Pino), John Savage (Clifton), Rosie Perez (Tina)

'A very unusual movie experience – two hours of bombardment with New York-style stimuli.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker

† The Region 1 two-disc DVD set from Criterion includes commentary by Spike Lee, Ernest Dickerson, Wynn Thomas and Joie Lee.

♗ best original screenplay; Danny Aiello

Do You Like Women?

France/Italy 1964 100m bw CinemaScope
Francoriz/Number One/Federiz (Pierre Kalfon) original title: Aimez-Vous Les Femmes?

Secret rival sects of woman-eaters cause an outbreak of murders in Paris.

Bizarre black comedy that doesn't quite work but provides ghoulish fun along the way.

w Roman Polanski, Gérard Brach novel Georges Bardawil d Jean Léon ph Sacha Vierny m Ward Swingle

☆ Sophie Daumier, Guy Bédos, Edwige Feuillère, Grégoire Aslan, Roger Blin

'It has the provoking quality of a carefully-prepared firework display which, due to faulty timing or bad connections, is never actually ignited.' – MFB

Do You Love Me?

US 1946 91m Technicolor
TCF (George Jessel)

The lady dean of a music school gets herself glamorized.

Thin, mildly agreeable but forgettable musical.

w Robert Ellis, Helen Logan d Gregory Ratoff ph Edward Cronjager
m/ly various

☆ Maureen O'Hara, Dick Haymes, Harry James and his Orchestra, Reginald Gardiner, Richard Gaines, Stanley Prager

'Written for errand boys and nursemaids, junior clerks and typists.' – James Agate, Tatler

The Doberman Gang

US 1972 87m Eastmancolor
Fox-Rank/Rosamond (David Chudnow)

After his accomplices bungle a robbery, a crook trains six Dobermans to rob a bank.

The dogs run away with the picture, but invention and budget are both on too tight a leash to offer much more than the equivalent of an over-long pet-food commercial.

w Louis Garfinkle, Frank Ray Perilli d Byron Ross Chudnow ph Robert Caramico m Bradford Craig, Alan Silvestri ad Budd Costello ed Herman Freedman

☆ Byron Mabe, Hal Reed, Julie Parrish, Simmy Bow, Jojo D'Amore

'The film hovers uncertainly between straight thriller and comedy.' – MFB

† It was followed by two sequels with similar plots, The Daring Dobermans, 1973, and the bigger-budget The Amazing Dobermans, 1976 (qv), in which the dogs were on the side of the law.

Dobermann ★

France 1997 103m colour 'Scope
Polygram/Noé/La Chauve Souris/Tawak/Canal+/France 3/Comstock (Frederique Dumas, Eric Neve)

A violent bank-robber, his deaf girlfriend and psychotic gang are hunted down by a brutal and sadistic cop.

Frenetic, black thriller, a fast-moving romp in the manner of an exuberant comic strip; its style almost compensates for its unremitting violence.

w Joel Houssin novels Joel Houssin d Jan Kounen ph Michel Amathieu
m Schyzomaniac pd Michel Barthelemy ed Benedicte Brunet sp Mac Guff Ligne

☆ Vincent Cassel, Monica Belluci, Tcheky Karyo, Antoine Basler, Dominique Bettenfeld, Chick Ortéga, Stephane Metzger

'Ultraviolent, sexist, scatological and drug-drenched... Astoundingly high-voltage entertainment.' – Stephen O'Shea, Variety

Doc ★

US 1971 96m DeLuxe
UA/Frank Perry

Doc Holliday goes to Tombstone to die of TB, but is drawn into the feud between the Clantons and his friend Wyatt Earp, whose motives are not of the highest.

A somewhat glum debunking of the west's most heroic myth, backing dour character study with grubby pictures. The result lacks excitement but maintains interest.

w Pete Hamill d Frank Perry ph Gerald Hirschfeld m Jimmy Webb

☆ Stacy Keach (Doc), Harris Yulin (Earp), Faye Dunaway (Kate Elder), Mike Witney, Denver John Collins, Dan Greenberg

'The physical realism that Doc is at pains to establish becomes simply a convention of its own.' – Richard Combs

Doc Hollywood ★

US 1991 103m Technicolor
Warner (Susan Solt, Deborah D. Johnson)

On the way to a new job as a plastic surgeon in Hollywood, a young doctor crashes his car in a small town and is sentenced to work at the local hospital.

Amiable, inoffensive comedy in a familiar vein.

w Jeffrey Price, Peter S. Seaman, Daniel Pyne novel What? ... Dead Again by Neil B. Shulman d Michael Caton-Jones ph Michael Chapman m Carter Burwell pd Lawrence Miller ed Gregg London

☆ Michael J. Fox, Julie Warner, Barnard Hughes, Woody Harrelson, David Ogden Stiers, Frances Sternhagen, George Hamilton, Bridget Fonda, Mel Winkler, Helen Martin, Roberts Blossom

'This serving of recycled Capracorn has no real taste of its own, but, in its mildness and predictability, offers the reassurance of a fast-food or motel chain.' – Variety

'Have no fear, Doc Savage is here!'

Doc Savage, Man of Bronze

US 1975 100m Technicolor
Warner (George Pal)

A thirties superman and his assistants the Amazing Five fly to South America to avenge the death of Doc's father.

Stolid, humourless adaptation from a comic strip, totally lacking in the necessary panache.

w George Pal, Joe Morhaim stories Kenneth Robeson d Michael Anderson ph Fred Koenekamp m John Philip Sousa

☆ Ron Ely, Paul Gleason, Bill Lucking, Michael Miller, Eldon Quick

'A slick, ultra-self-conscious camp that denies the material its self-respect.' – Colin Pahlow

'Nothing in this unfortunate enterprise is likely to please anyone: former Savage fans will be enraged, newcomers bored, and children will probably feel superior to the whole mess...' – New Yorker

The Dock Brief

GB 1962 88m bw
MGM/Dimitri de Grunwald

US title: Trial and Error

An incompetent barrister defends his client on a murder charge. The client is found guilty but the sentence is quashed on the grounds of inadequate defence.

Flat filming of a TV play which was a minor milestone; the film is twice the length and half as funny, and both stars quickly become tiresome.

w John Mortimer, Pierre Rouve play John Mortimer d James Hill ph Ted Scaife m Ron Grainer

☆ Peter Sellers, Richard Attenborough, Beryl Reid, David Lodge, Frank Pettingell

Docks of New York ★★

US 1928 80m (24 fps) bw silent
Paramount

A stoker marries a girl he has saved from suicide. Further unfortunate incidents result in his going to prison, but she waits for him.

Glum melodrama chiefly remarkable for its sets and lighting, reminiscent of the later Quai des Brumes.

w Jules Furthman story The Dock Walloper by John Monk Saunders d Josef von Sternberg ph Harold Rosson ad Hans Dreier

☆ George Bancroft, Betty Compson, Olga Baclanova, Clyde Cook, Gustav von Seyffertitz

'One comes away with the memory of a film impregnated with a life whose essential is in its energy and force.' – Louis Chavance

Docks of New York

US 1945 61m bw
Pathé/Monogram/Banner (Sam Katzman, Jack Dietz)

Mugs and Glimpy become involved in espionage and skulduggery when they try to help two refugees, who turn out to be European royalty being hunted by secret foreign agents.

Average programmer, broadly acted and with a patriotic propaganda message. It was one of the last films in the East Side Kids series (qv).

w Harvey Gates d Wallace Fox ph Ira Morgan md Edward Kay ed William Austin

☆ Leo Gorcey (Mugs), Huntz Hall (Glimpy), Billy Benedict (Skinny), Gloria Pope, Carlyle Blackwell Jnr, Betty Blythe, Cyrus Kendall, George Meeker

The Doctor ★★

US 1991 125m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Silver Screen Partners IV (Laura Ziskin)

A repressed surgeon alters his attitudes after he becomes a cancer patient at his own hospital.

Well-made drama of personal redemption.

w Robert Caswell book A Taste of My Own Medicine by Ed Rosenbaum d Randa Haines ph John Seale m Michael Convertino pd Ken Adam ed Bruce Green, Lisa Fruchtman

☆ William Hurt, Christine Lahti, Elizabeth Perkins, Mandy Patinkin, Adam Arkin, Charlie Korsmo, Wendy Crewson, Bill Macy

'Grapples powerfully with themes seldom faced in today's escapist marketplace: mortality, compassion, social responsibility.' – Variety

The Doctor and the Debutante: see Dr Kildare's Victory

The Doctor and the Devils

GB 1985 93m Rank Colour Panavision
Brooksfilm (Jonathan Sanger)

In the late 18th century an Edinburgh surgeon starts to pay for bodies as specimens, and doesn't ask their provenance.

Yet another version (see The Body Snatcher, The Flesh and the Fiends, Burke and Hare) of the tale of Dr Knox, and this time a pretty poor one, justified by the use of Dylan Thomas's script.
w Ronald Harwood, from Dylan Thomas d Freddie Francis ph Gerry Turpin, Norman Warwick m John Morris pd Robert Laing
☆ Timothy Dalton, Jonathan Pryce, Twiggy, Julian Sands, Lewis Fiander, Stephen Rea
'Unrelentingly serious treatment of a gruesome subject is unlikely to attract many warm bodies to the box office.' – Variety

The Doctor and the Girl
US 1949 98m bw
MGM (Pandro S. Berman)
A young doctor renounces specialization to help the poor.
Antediluvian medical romance full of the nicest people. Technically very competent.
w Theodore Reeves, from 'a literary work' by Maxene Van Der Meersch d Curtis Bernhardt ph Robert Planck m R. G. Kopp
☆ Glenn Ford, Charles Coburn, Gloria de Haven, Janet Leigh, Bruce Bennett, Warner Anderson

Doctor at Large
GB 1957 104m Eastmancolor
Rank (Betty E. Box)
Simon Sparrow tries two country practices, but returns at last to St Swithin's.
Hit-or-miss medical comedy with honours about even.
w Nicholas Phipps novel Richard Gordon d Ralph Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Bruce Montgomery
☆ Dirk Bogarde, Muriel Pavlow, James Robertson Justice, Donald Sinden, Shirley Eaton, Derek Farr, Michael Medwin, Edward Chapman, Barbara Murray, Gladys Henson, Lionel Jeffries, A. E. Matthews, Athene Seyler, George Coulouris

Doctor at Sea ★
GB 1955 93m Technicolor VistaVision
Rank/Group Films (Betty E. Box)
Simon Sparrow becomes medical officer on a cargo steamer.
Reasonably lively comedy of errors with nice seascapes and predictable jokes.
w Nicholas Phipps, Jack Davies d Ralph Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Bruce Montgomery
☆ Dirk Bogarde, Brigitte Bardot, Brenda de Banzie, James Robertson Justice, Maurice Denham, Michael Medwin, Hubert Gregg, Raymond Huntley, Geoffrey Keen, George Coulouris, Jill Adams, James Kenney
'Brisk professional humour has given way to the more elementary business of traditional British farce.' – Penelope Houston, MFB

Doctor Blood's Coffin
GB 1960 92m Eastmancolor
UA/Caralan (George Fowler)
A disbarred doctor sets up in a Cornish tin mine and begins to emulate Dr Frankenstein.
Lurid horror piece which makes no sort of sense.
w Jerry Juran, James Kelly, Peter Miller d Sidney J. Furie ph Stephen Dade m Buxton Orr ☆ Kieron Moore, Hazel Court, Ian Hunter, Gerald C. Lawson, Kenneth J. Warren, Fred Johnson
'It lacks style, suspense and imagination and will scarcely satisfy even the most naive necrophiliac.' – MFB

Dr Christian
Following the success of THE COUNTRY DOCTOR (qv), a rival studio (RKO) made a series of second features about a fictional country doctor, the rights to Dr Dafoe's life story being unavailable. Jean Hersholt again played the leading role and the films were immensely popular in small towns. A TV series followed in the fifties, starring Macdonald Carey.
1939 Meet Dr Christian
1940 The Courageous Dr Christian, Dr Christian Meets the Women, Remedy for Riches
1941 Melody for Three, They Meet Again

Dr Crippen ★
GB 1962 98m bw
ABP/John Clein
A quiet doctor murders his wife and elopes with a typist.
Straightforward account of a famous and rather unsurprising Edwardian murder case; well enough made but with no special raison d'être.
w Leigh Vance d Robert Lynn ph Nicolas Roeg m Kenneth Jones
☆ Donald Pleasence, Coral Browne, Samantha Eggar, Donald Wolfit

'Diabolical dictator ... devastating discoverer of the most frightening invention in the history of civilized man!'
'The picture made behind locked doors!'

Dr Cyclops ★
US 1940 76m Technicolor
Paramount (Merian C. Cooper)
Jungle travellers are captured and miniaturized by a mad scientist.
Splendid special effects and an appropriately sombre atmosphere are hampered by a slow-paced narrative in this minor horror classic.
w Tom Kilpatrick d Ernest Schoedsack ph Henry Sharp, Winton Hoch m Ernst Toch, Gerard Carbonara, Albert Hay Malotte
☆ Albert Dekker, Janice Logan, Victor Kilian, Thomas Coley, Charles Halton

Doctor Death: Seeker of Souls
US 1973 89m Movielab
Fox-Rank/Freedom Arts (Eddie Saeta)
Doctor Death, who has the power to pass his and others' souls into the bodies of those he kills, attempts to re-animate a woman at the request of her grieving husband.
Bizarre low-budget horror which, judging from a brief turn by one of the Three Stooges, is presumably meant to amuse, though, seeing its general ineptitude, it is hard to be sure.
w Sal Ponti d Eddie Saeta ph Kent Wakeford, Emil Oster m Richard LaSalle ad Ed Graves ed Tony DiMarco
☆ John Considine, Barry Coe, Cheryl Miller, Stewart Moss, Leon Askin, Jo Morrow, Moe Howard
'The spectator who brings a properly black frame of mind to it may well be entertained.' – Jonathan Rosenbaum, MFB

Dr Dolittle
US 1967 152m DeLuxe Todd-AO
TCF/APJAC (Arthur P. Jacobs)
In a Victorian English village, Dr Dolittle is a veterinary surgeon who talks to his patients; escaping from a lunatic asylum, he travels with friends to the South Seas in search of the Great Pink Sea Snail.
Lumpish family spectacular with no imagination whatever, further handicapped by charmless performances and unsingable songs.
novels Hugh Lofting d Richard Fleischer ph Robert Surtees md Lionel Newman, Alex Courage pd Mario Chiari w/ songs Leslie Bricusse
☆ Rex Harrison, Anthony Newley, Samantha Eggar, Richard Attenborough, William Dix, Peter Bull
♪ song 'Talk to the Animals'; special effects (L. B. Abbott)
♙ best picture; Robert Surtees; Lionel Newman, Alex Courage; Leslie Bricusse (m)

'He doesn't just talk to the animals!'

Dr Dolittle
US 1998 85m DeLuxe
TCF (John Davis, Joseph M. Singer, David T. Friendly)
A doctor who can talk to animals is put in an asylum by jealous colleagues.
The second unsuccessful attempt to make a movie of Hugh Lofting's creation; this time, there's talking animatronic animals and crude jokes, but it lacks charm.
w Nat Mauldin, Larry Levin stories Hugh Lofting d Betty Thomas ph Russell Boyd m Richard Gibbs pd William Elliott ed Peter Teschner sp animatronics: Jim Henson's Creature Shop
☆ Eddie Murphy, Ossie Davis, Oliver Platt, Peter Boyle, Richard Schiff, Kristen Wilson, Jeffrey Tambor, Kyla Pratt, Raven-Symoné, Steven Gilborn and also the voices of: Norm Macdonald, Albert Brooks, Chris Rock, Reni Santoni, John Leguizamo, Julie Kavner, Garry Shandling
'This is as self-conscious and iconoclastic as story-telling gets. What kids will make of it, is anyone's guess.' – Charlotte O'Sullivan, Sight and Sound
'Slim on story and rife with scatological jokes, the film may strike a chord with pre-teens but misses for an older crowd despite some nifty effects and broad humor.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

'The doctor is in again.'

Dr Dolittle 2
US 2001 87m DeLuxe
TCF (John Davis)
Dr Dolittle is asked by forest animals to save their environment from destruction by a timber company.
Amiable, light-weight entertainment for the undemanding, with Murphy in relaxed and mellow mode.
w Larry Levin stories Hugh Lofting d Steve Carr ph Daryn Okada m David Newman pd William Sandell ed Craig P. Herring sp Rhythm & Hues
☆ Eddie Murphy (Dr Dolittle), Kristen Wilson (Lisa Dolittle), Jeffrey Jones (Joseph Potter), Kevin Pollak (Jack Riley), Raven-Symone (Charisse Dolittle), Kyla Pratt (Maya Dolittle), Lil' Zane (Eric Wilson), voices of: Steve Zahn (Archie), Norm Macdonald (Lucky), Lisa Kudrow (Ava), Jacob Vargas (Pepito), Michael Epps (Sonny), Michael Rapaport (Joey the Raccoon), Isaac Hayes (Possum), Richard C. Sarafian (God Beaver)
'Abounds in funny business that auds of all ages can enjoy.' – Variety

Dr Ehrlich's Magic Bullet ★★★
US 1940 103m bw
Warner (Wolfgang Reinhardt)
aka: The Story of Dr Ehrlich's Magic Bullet
A German scientist develops a cure for venereal disease.
Excellent period biopic: absorbing, convincing and extremely well put together.
w John Huston, Heinz Herald, Norman Burnside d William Dieterle ph James Wong Howe m Max Steiner
☆ Edward G. Robinson, Ruth Gordon, Otto Kruger, Donald Crisp, Maria Ouspenskaya, Montagu Love, Sig Rumann, Donald Meek, Henry O'Neill, Albert Basserman, Edward Norris, Harry Davenport, Louis Calhern, Louis Jean Heydt
'A superb motion picture.' – Pare Lorentz
♙ John Huston, Heinz Herald, Norman Burnside

Dr Faustus
GB 1967 93m Technicolor
Columbia/Oxford University Screen Productions/ Nassau Films/Venfilms (Richard Burton, Richard McWhorter)
A medieval scholar conjures up Mephistopheles and offers his soul in exchange for a life of voluptuousness.
Marlowe's play has been adapted and 'improved', and there is some good handling of the poetry, but the production is flat, dingy and uninspired, as well as ludicrous when Miss Taylor makes her silent appearances.
w Nevill Coghill play Christopher Marlowe d Richard Burton, Nevill Coghill ph Gabor Pogany m Mario Nascimbene pd John DeCuir
☆ Richard Burton, Andreas Teuber, Ian Marter, Elizabeth Donovan, Elizabeth Taylor (Helen of Troy)
'It is of an awfulness that bends the mind. The whole enterprise has the immense vulgarity of a collaboration in which academe would sell its soul for a taste of the glamour of Hollywood, and the stars are only too happy to appear a while in academe.' – John Simon
'It turns out to be the story of a man who sold his soul for Elizabeth Taylor.' – Judith Crist

Doctor from Seven Dials: see Corridors of Blood

'A new prescription for terror.'

Dr Giggles
US 1992 95m DeLuxe Super 35
Universal (Stuart M. Besser)
A mad doctor takes his revenge on those who lynched his equally murderous father.
Predictably grisly horror played for laughs.
w Manny Coto, Graeme Whifler d Manny Coto ph Robert Draper m Brian May pd Bill Malley ed Debra Neil sp Phil Cory Special EFX, Digital Fantasy
☆ Larry Drake, Holly Marie Combs, Cliff de Young, Glenn Quinn, Keith Diamond, Richard Bradford, Michelle Johnson
'Picture is aimed at the low end of the shock audience.' – Variety
'A piece of excrement.' – Nigel Floyd
'What this project really needs is major script surgery.' – The Dark Side

Dr Gillespie's Criminal Case
US 1943 89m bw
MGM
GB title: Crazy to Kill
The elderly doctor solves a murder for which an innocent man is in prison.

Skilled programme filler with beloved characters.
w Martin Berkeley, Harry Ruskin, Lawrence Bachmann d Willis Goldbeck ☆ Lionel Barrymore, Margaret O'Brien, Donna Reed, Van Johnson, Keye Luke, Marilyn Maxwell
† See also Dr Kildare.

Dr Gillespie's New Assistant

US 1942 88m bw
MGM

Shorn of young Dr Kildare, Gillespie chooses a new support from three interns, and meanwhile concentrates on an amnesia case.
Slick series entry which played widely as top of the bill.
w Willis Goldbeck, Harry Ruskin, Lawrence Bachmann d Willis Goldbeck ☆ Lionel Barrymore, Van Johnson, Keye Luke, Richard Quine, Susan Peters
† See also Dr Kildare.

Dr Goldfoot and the Bikini Machine

US 1965 90m Pathécolor Panavision
AIP (Anthony Carras)

Dr G. makes girl robots programmed to lure wealthy men into their clutches.
Way-out farce for the jaded end of the teenage market; a few lively touches and a climactic chase partly atone for the general tastelessness.
w Elwood Ullman, Robert Kaufman d Norman Taurog ph Sam Leavitt m Les Baxter ad Daniel Haller
☆ Vincent Price, Fred Clark, Frankie Avalon, Dwayne Hickman, Susan Hart, Jack Mullaney

'Meet the girls with the thermo-nuclear navels! The most titillating time bombs you've ever been tempted to trigger!'

Dr Goldfoot and the Girl Bombs

US/Italy 1966 86m colour
AIP

The evil mastermind teams up with Red China to cause trouble between Russia and the USA.
Inane teenage nonsense, almost enough to make one swear off movies.
w Louis M. Heyward, Robert Kaufman d Mario Bava
☆ Vincent Price, Fabian Forte, Franco Franchi, Laura Antonelli

Dr Heckyl and Mr Hype

US 1980 99m Metrocolor
Golan-Globus

An ugly scientist is transformed into a handsome young sadist.
Would-be comic variation on a well-worn theme; the level of comedy is indicated by the title.
wd Charles B. Griffith
☆ Oliver Reed, Sunny Johnson, Mel Wells, Maia Danziger

Doctor in Clover

GB 1966 101m Eastmancolor
Rank/Betty E. Box-Ralph Thomas

Grimsdyke goes back to his old hospital for a refresher course and finds a rejuvenating drug useful in his philandering.
Depressing mixture of smut and slapstick.
w Jack Davies novel Richard Gordon d Ralph Thomas ph Ernest Steward m John Scott
☆ Leslie Phillips, James Robertson Justice, Shirley Anne Field, Joan Sims, John Fraser, Arthur Haynes, Fenella Fielding, Noel Purcell, Jeremy Lloyd, Eric Barker, Terry Scott, Alfie Bass
'Everything is reduced to clichés and stereotypes.' – Ken Russell

Doctor in Distress

GB 1963 102m Eastmancolor
Rank/Betty E. Box-Ralph Thomas

Simon Sparrow goes back to work for Sir Lancelot Spratt and finds his old mentor in love.
Tedious flummery whose characters fail to perform with the old pizazz.
w Nicholas Phipps, Ronald Scott Thorn d Ralph Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Norrie Paramor
☆ Dirk Bogarde, James Robertson Justice, Mylene Demongeot, Samantha Eggar, Barbara Murray, Donald Houston, Jessie Evans, Ann Lynn, Leo McKern, Dennis Price

Doctor in Love

GB 1960 97m Eastmancolor
Rank/Betty E. Box-Ralph Thomas

Dr Burke and Dr Hare have various adventures, mostly amorous, in city and country practices.
Virtually plotless collection of weak sketches based on schoolboy smut.
w Nicholas Phipps novel Richard Gordon d Ralph Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Bruce Montgomery
☆ Michael Craig, Leslie Phillips, James Robertson Justice, Virginia Maskell, Nicholas Phipps, Reginald Beckwith, Joan Sims, Liz Fraser, Ambrosine Philpotts, Irene Handl

Doctor in the House ★★

GB 1954 91m Eastmancolor
Rank (Betty E. Box)

Amorous and other misadventures of medical students at St Swithin's Hospital.
A comedy with much to answer for: several sequels and an apparently endless TV series. The original is not bad, as the students, though plainly over age, constitute a formidable mass of British talent at its peak.
w Nicholas Phipps novel Richard Gordon
d Ralph Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Bruce Montgomery ☆ Dirk Bogarde, Kenneth More, Donald Sinden, Donald Houston, Kay Kendall, Muriel Pavlow, James Robertson Justice, Geoffrey Keen
'Works its way with determined high spirits through the repertoire of medical student jokes.' – MFB
'An uproarious, devil-may-care, almost wholly ruthless picture.' – Dilys Powell † Sequels, of increasing inanity and decreasing connection with the original characters, were: Doctor at Sea, Doctor at Large, Doctor in Love, Doctor in Distress, Doctor in Clover and Doctor in Trouble. Carry on Doctor and Carry on Again Doctor were horses of a different colour.
BAFTA Kenneth More

Doctor in the Village ★

Holland 1958 92m bw Nationale Filmproductie Maatschappij (Bobby Roosenboom)
original title: Dorp aan de Rivier

Stories are recalled of an eccentric but respected country doctor at the turn of the century.
Tragi-comic incidents in the vein of Pagnol, a little too rich in farce and melodrama to be convincingly human.
w Hugo Claus novel Antoon Coolen d Fons Rademakers ph Eduard J. R. van der Enden m Jurriaan Andriessen
☆ Max Croiset, Mary Dresselhuys, Bernhard Droog, Jan Teulings
'Scenes which should have had disturbing power crowd one upon another with an almost repellent relish which falls over into parody.' – Peter John Dyer, MFB

Doctor in Trouble

GB 1970 90m Technicolor
Rank/Betty E. Box

Dr Burke inadvertently becomes a stowaway on an Atlantic cruise.
Witless tailpiece to the Doctor saga, like a half-hearted wrapping-up of discarded jokes from the other episodes.
w Jack Davies novel Doctor on Toast by Richard Gordon d Ralph Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Eric Rogers
☆ Leslie Phillips, Harry Secombe, Angela Scoular, Irene Handl, Robert Morley, Simon Dee, Freddie Jones, James Robertson Justice, Joan Sims, John Le Mesurier, Fred Emney
'The cinematic equivalent of an end-of-the-pier summer show.' – Films and Filming

Doctor Jack ★

US 1922 72m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Pathé/Rolin

A quack country doctor does more good than the licensed medicos.
Pleasing but not hilariously funny star vehicle.
w Sam Taylor, Jean Havez d Fred Newmeyer
☆ Harold Lloyd, Mildred Davis, John Prince, Eric Mayne

'The greatest drama of dual identity ever written!'

Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde ★★

US 1921 63m (24 fps) bw silent
Paramount Artcraft

A respected London physician experiments with a drug which separates out the evil part of his soul.
A lively star vehicle which renewed John Barrymore's popularity with film audiences. Some scenes still grip, and Barrymore accomplished some transformations in full view of the camera, by facial contortions.
w Clara S. Beranger novel Robert Louis Stevenson d John S. Robertson
☆ John Barrymore, Nita Naldi, Martha Mansfield, Louis Wolheim

'Strange desires! Loves and hates and secret yearnings ... hidden in the shadows of a man's mind!'

Doctor Jekyll and Mr Hyde ★★★★

US 1931 98m bw
Paramount (Rouben Mamoulian)

A Victorian research chemist finds a formula which separates the good and evil in his soul; when the latter predominates, he becomes a rampaging monster.
The most exciting and cinematic version by far of the famous horror story; the make-up is slightly over the top, but the gas-lit London settings, the pace, the performances and clever camera and sound tricks make it a film to enjoy over and over again. Subjective camera is used at the beginning, and for the first transformation the actor wore various layers of make-up which were sensitive to different colour filters and thus produced instant change.
w Samuel Hoffenstein, Percy Heath novel Robert Louis Stevenson d Rouben Mamoulian ph Karl Struss ad Hans Dreier ed William Shea ☆ Fredric March (Dr. Henry Jekyll/Mr. Hyde), Miriam Hopkins (Ivy Pearson), Rose Hobart (Muriel Carew), Holmes Herbert (Dr. Lanyon), Halliwell Hobbes (Brig-Gen. Carew), Edgar Norton (Poole)
'Promises abundant shocks and returns now that the fan public is horror conscious. Probably loses something on popular appeal by highbrow treatment.' – Variety
'As a work of cinematic imagination this film is difficult to fault.' – John Baxter, 1968
† The screenplay with 1,400 frame blow-ups was published in 1976 in the Film Classics Library (editor Richard J. Anobile).
†† The film was subsequently edited down to 80m.
Academy Award Fredric March
Academy Award nomination Samuel Hoffenstein, Percy Heath; Karl Struss

'A romantic gentleman by day – a love-mad beast at night!'

Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde ★★

US 1941 122m bw
MGM (Victor Saville, Victor Fleming)

Curiously misconceived, stately, badly cast version with elaborate production including Freudian dream sequences.
Always worth watching, but not a success.
w John Lee Mahin d Victor Fleming ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Franz Waxman ed Harold F. Kress
☆ Spencer Tracy, Ingrid Bergman, Lana Turner, Ian Hunter, C. Aubrey Smith, Donald Crisp, Sara Allgood
'Not so much evil incarnate as ham rampant ... more ludicrous than dreadful.' – New York Times
† Other versions: The Two Faces of Dr Jekyll (1960), I Monster (1970). Variations: Daughter of Dr Jekyll (1957), Abbott and Costello Meet Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde (1954), Son of Dr Jekyll (1951), The Ugly Duckling (1960), House of Dracula (1945), The Nutty Professor (1963), Dr Jekyll and Sister Hyde (1971).
Academy Award Joseph Ruttenberg; Franz Waxman; Harold F. Kress

Dr Jekyll and Ms Hyde

US 1995 89m Technicolor
Rank/Rastar/Savoy/Leider-Shapiro

An under-achieving chemist experiments on a formula he finds in his grandfather's scientific journals, which turns him into an ambitious, seductive woman.
A concept that first surfaced in Hammer's Dr Jekyll and Sister Hyde; time has not lent it any enchantment, even when it is played for laughs as it is here – unfortunately few are forthcoming.
w Tim John, Oliver Butcher, William Davies, William Osborne story David F. Price d David F. Price ph Tom Priestley m Mark McKenzie pd Gregory Melton ed Tony Lombardo sp make-up: Kevin Yagher; visual effects: Dream Quest Images
☆ Sean Young, Tim Daly, Lysette Anthony, Stephen Tobolowsky, Harvey Fierstein, Polly Bergen, Stephen Shellen
'A typical thesaurus includes some 350 synonyms for the word bad – an alarming number of which apply to this thoroughly misbegotten outing.' – Premiere
'The film is littered with embarrassingly ham-fisted farce.' – Kim Newman, Sight and Sound

Dr Jekyll and Sister Hyde

GB 1971 97m Technicolor
MGM-EMI/Hammer (Albert Fennell, Brian Clemens)

A twist: Jekyll now turns into a young and beautiful woman, and kills prostitutes so that he can continue his research.
Half-successful attempt to link the legend with Jack the Ripper, killed by gore and overlength.
w Brian Clemens d Roy Ward Baker
ph Norman Warwick m David Whitaker
pd Robert Jones ed James Needs
☆ Ralph Bates, Martine Beswick, Gerald Sim, Lewis Fiander, Dorothy Alison

Dr Kildare

This long-running screen hero was a young intern at Blair Hospital, under the cranky tutelage of old Dr Gillespie. Created by Max Brand in a series of novels, he first appeared on the screen in a 1937 Paramount double-biller called INTERNS CAN'T TAKE MONEY, played by Joel McCrea with Barbara Stanwyck, no less, providing the love interest. Kildare came up against gangsters; Gillespie did not appear. MGM then took over the property and went to town with it, making fifteen films in ten years. They were as follows:
1938 Young Dr Kildare
1939 Calling Dr Kildare, The Secret of Dr Kildare
1940 Dr Kildare's Strange Case (qv), Dr Kildare Goes Home (qv), Dr Kildare's Crisis (qv)
1941 The People vs Dr Kildare
1942 Dr Kildare's Wedding Day (qv)
1942 Dr Kildare's Victory (qv), Calling Dr Gillespie, Dr Gillespie's New Assistant (qv)
1943 Dr Gillespie's Criminal Case (qv)
1944 Three Men in White, Between Two Women
1947 Dark Delusion (qv)
Lew Ayres played Kildare, but in 1942 declared himself a conscientious objector and was dropped. The emphasis shifted to Gillespie, played by Lionel Barrymore from a wheelchair, and he proceeded to deal with a whole series of interns. The films were well enough made on medium budgets; nine were directed by Harold S. Bucquet and the last five by Willis Goldbeck, one by W. S. Van Dyke. In 1961 a TV series began with Richard Chamberlain and Raymond Massey, and ran for seven years.

Dr Kildare Goes Home

US 1940 79m bw
MGM

Young Dr Kildare temporarily deserts Blair Hospital to help his father establish a small-town clinic.
Rather below par episode with obvious outcome.
w Willis Goldbeck, Harry Ruskin d Harold S. Bucquet
☆ Lew Ayres, Lionel Barrymore, Laraine Day, Samuel S. Hinds, Gene Lockhart

Dr Kildare's Crisis

US 1940 75m bw
MGM

Dr Kildare's fiancée may have epilepsy in the family.
The series at its peak.
w Willis Goldbeck, Harry Ruskin d Harold S. Bucquet
☆ Lew Ayres, Lionel Barrymore, Robert Young, Laraine Day, Nat Pendleton, Marie Blake

Dr Kildare's Strange Case

US 1940 77m bw
MGM

The young doctor cures a mental patient by the newest methods.
Crisp series episode.
w Willis Goldbeck, Harry Ruskin d Harold S. Bucquet
☆ Lew Ayres, Lionel Barrymore, Laraine Day, Shepperd Strudwick, Samuel S. Hinds

Dr Kildare's Victory

US 1942 92m bw
MGM
GB title: The Doctor and the Débutante

Back at Blair, Dr Kildare fights ambulance zoning regulations.
Rather heavy-going episode, its star's last before becoming a conscientious objector and leaving Hollywood for the duration.
w Harry Ruskin, Willis Goldbeck d W. S. Van Dyke
☆ Lew Ayres, Lionel Barrymore, Ann Ayars, Robert Sterling

Dr Kildare's Wedding Day

US 1941 83m bw
MGM
GB title: Mary Names the Day

Dr Kildare's fiancée is killed in a road accident.
Rather deliberately downbeat episode, well enough assembled.
w Lawrence Bachmann, Ormond Ruthven d Harold S. Bucquet
☆ Lew Ayres, Lionel Barrymore, Laraine Day, Red Skelton, Nils Asther

Dr Knock

France 1936 74m bw
Pathé-Natan

A sly young doctor takes over a country practice and turns the townsfolk into hypochondriacs.
Amusing version of a modern French comedy classic.
w Jules Romains play Jules Romains
d Louis Jouvet, Roger Goupillières
☆ Louis Jouvet, Palau, Le Vigan, Moor, Alexandre Rignault

'Once under way it scoots along like a Bermuda sloop, and holds right till the surprise fadeout.' – Variety

'Death is the ultimate vacation.'

Dr M

West Germany/France/Italy 1989 116m colour
Hobo/NEF/Ellepi Film/Clea Productions (Ingrid Windisch)

US title: Camp Extinction

A doctor indoctrinates holidaymakers with the desire to commit suicide.
Limp thriller.
w Sollace Mitchell story Thomas Bauermeister d Claude Chabrol ph Jean Rabier m Paul Hindemith pd Wolfgang Hundhammer, Dante Ferretti ed Monique Fardoulis
☆ Alan Bates, Jennifer Beals, Jan Niklas, Hanns Zischler, Benoit Regent, William Berger, Alexander Radszun, Peter Fitz, Daniela Poggi

Doctor Mabuse the Gambler ★★★

Germany 1922 101m (24 fps) bw silent
UFA (Erich Pommer)

original title: Doktor Mabuse, der Spieler

A criminal mastermind uses hypnotism and blackmail in his efforts to obtain world domination, but when finally cornered is discovered to be a raving maniac.
A real wallow in German post-war depression and melodrama, in the form of a Fu Manchu/Moriarty type thriller. Fascinating scene by scene, but by now a slightly tiresome whole.
w Thea von Harbou, Fritz Lang novel Norbert Jacques d Fritz Lang
ph Carl Hoffman ad Otto Hunte, Stahl-Urach, Erich Kettelhut, Karl Vollbrecht ☆ Rudolf Klein-Rogge (Dr. Mabuse), Alfred Abel (Graf Told), Gertrude Welcker (Graefin Told), Lil Dagover, Paul Richter (Edgar Hull)
† Originally issued in Germany in two parts, Der Grosse Spieler and Inferno, adding up to a much longer running time.
†† See sequels, The Testament of Dr Mabuse and The Thousand Eyes of Dr Mabuse.

Dr Monica

US 1934 80m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

A lady doctor allows her husband to fall for another woman.
Heavy-handed 'woman's picture' which did well at the time.
w Charles Kenyon play Marja Morozowicz d William Keighley ☆ Kay Francis, Warren William, Jean Muir, Verree Teasdale, Philip Reed, Emma Dunn

Doctor No ★★★

GB 1962 111m Technicolor
UA/Eon (Harry Saltzman, Albert R. Broccoli)

A British secret service agent foils a master criminal operating in the West Indies.
First of the phenomenally successful James Bond movies, mixing sex, violence and campy humour against expensive sets and exotic locales. Toned down from the original novels, they expressed a number of sixties attitudes, and proved unstoppable box-office attractions for more than forty years. The first was, if not quite the best, reasonably representative of the series.
w Richard Maibaum, Johanna Harwood, Berkely Mather novel Ian Fleming
d Terence Young ph Ted Moore m Monty Norman ad Syd Cain ed Peter Hunt
☆ Sean Connery (James Bond), Ursula Andress (Honey), Jack Lord (Felix Leiter), Joseph Wiseman (Dr. No), John Kitzmiller (Quarrel), Bernard Lee ("M"), Lois Maxwell (Miss Moneypenny), Zena Marshall (Miss Taro), Eunice Gayson (Sylvia), Anthony Dawson (Prof. Dent)
† The subsequent titles, all qv, were From Russia with Love (1963), Goldfinger (1964), Thunderball (1965), You Only Live Twice (1967), On Her Majesty's Secret Service (1969), Diamonds Are Forever (1971), Live and Let Die (1973), The Man with the Golden Gun (1974), The Spy Who Loved Me (1977), Moonraker (1979), For Your Eyes Only (1981), Octopussy (1983), A View To A Kill (1985), The Living Daylights (1987), Licence To Kill (1989), Golden Eye (1995), Tomorrow Never Dies (1997), The World is Not Enough (1999), Die Another Day (2002). Never Say Never Again (1984) was not part of the series, though it brought back Sean Connery as Bond. Casino Royale (1967) was a Bond spoof made by other hands.

Dr Petiot

France 1990 102m colour/bw
Electric/MS/Sara/Cine 5 (Alain Sarde, Philippe Chapelier-Dehesdin)

In wartime Paris, a doctor who claims to help Jews to escape the Nazis kills them instead.
An unflinching examination of a serial killer, filmed in the style of an old-fashioned horror movie.
w Dominique Garnier, Christian de Chalonge d Christian de Chalonge ph Patrick Blossier m Michel Portal
ad Yves Brover ed Anita Fernandez
☆ Michel Serrault, Pierre Romans, Zbigniew Horoks, Berangere Bonvoisin, Aurore Prieto, André Chaumeau, Axel Bogousslavski

'The sting's in the tale!'

Dr Phibes Rises Again ★

GB 1972 89m DeLuxe
AIP (Richard Dalton)

The immortal Phibes and his wife rise from the dead to seek an Egyptian elixir of life, and cross swords with a satanic Egyptologist.
Uncertainly paced but generally zippy comic strip for adults, with all concerned entering gleefully into the evil spirit of the thing. See prequel, The Abominable Dr Phibes.
w Robert Fuest, Robert Blees d Robert Fuest ph Alex Thomson m John Gale
ad Brian Eatwell
☆ Vincent Price, Robert Quarry, Valli Kemp, Fiona Lewis, Peter Cushing, Beryl Reid, Terry-Thomas, Hugh Griffith, Peter Jeffrey, Gerald Sim, John Thaw, John Cater, Lewis Fiander

'It's refreshing to find a sequel which is better than its prototype.' – Philip Strick, MFB

Dr Renault's Secret

US 1942 58m bw
TCF

A scientist turns an ape into a semi-human, which runs amok.
Fairly well done horror support.
w William Bruckner, Robert F. Metzler d Harry Lachman
☆ George Zucco, J. Carrol Naish, John Shepperd, Lynne Roberts

Dr Rhythm ★

US 1938 80m bw
Paramount

A veterinary surgeon goes into show business.
Easy-going star musical with pleasant songs.
w Jo Swerling, Richard Connell story O. Henry d Frank Tuttle ☆ Bing Crosby, Beatrice Lillie, Mary Carlisle, Andy Devine, Laura Hope Crews, Rufe Davis

'You'd better watch out!'

Dr Seuss' How the Grinch Stole Christmas ★

US 2000 105m CFI
Universal/Imagine (Brian Grazer, Ron Howard)

aka: The Grinch

A hairy Christmas-hating creature steals all the presents from Whoville before he learns the error of his ways with the help of a small girl.
A singularly charmless variation on A Christmas Carol, with a great deal of dull material added to bulk out Seuss' slim book; it, however, found an appreciative mass audience.
w Jeffrey Price, Peter S. Seaman book Dr Seuss d Ron Howard ph Don Peterman m James Horner pd Michael Corenblith ed Dan Hanley, Mike Hill sp makeup fx: Rick Baker, Gail Ryan cos Rita Ryack
☆ Jim Carrey (Grinch), Jeffrey Tambor (May Who), Christine Baranski (Martha May Whovier), Bill Irwin (Lou Lou Who), Molly Shannon (Betty Lou Who), Taylor Momsen (Cindy Lou Who), Clint Howard (Whobris), Kelley (Max the Dog), Frank Welker (Voice of Max the Dog), Anthony Hopkins (Narrator)

'The movie is so clogged with kooky gadgetry and special effects and glitter and goo that watching it feels like being gridlocked at Toys 'R' Us during the Christmas rush.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

'A sweet and simple tale gone enormously sour. Shrill, strenuous and entirely without charm, Ron Howard's attempt at a Christmas classic is an elaborately wrapped empty box that will fool many people into buying it.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

† It was the most successful film at the US box office in 2000, taking more than $253m.

make-up (Rick Baker, Gail Ryan) art direction (Michael Corenblith, Merideth Boswell); Rita Ryack

make-up

'Don't mess with the hat.'

Dr Seuss' The Cat in the Hat ②

US 2003 82m Technicolor
Universal/DreamWorks/Imagine (Brian Grazer)

A six-feet tall cat helps two children learn a few lessons in life.

One of which ought to be to stay away from overwrought movie adaptations of Dr Seuss's slim books.

w Alec Berg, David Mandel, Jeff Schaffer book Dr Seuss d Bo Welch ph Emmanuel Lubezki m David Newman m/ly Marc Shaiman, Scott Wittman pd Alex McDowell ed Don Zimmerman

☆ Mike Myers (The Cat), Alec Baldwin (Quinn), Kelly Preston (Mom), Dakota Fanning (Sally), Spencer Breslin (Conrad), Amy Hill (Mrs Kwan), Sean Hayes (Mr Humberfloob/The Fish)

'An abomination, impure and simple.' – Joe Morgenstern, Wall Street Journal

† It took more than $100m at the US box-office.

Doctor Sleep: see Close Your Eyes

'Armed with a doctor's kit, he fought a thousand killers!'

Dr Socrates ★

US 1935 70m bw
Warner (Robert Lord)

A small-town doctor is forced to help wounded gangsters, and becomes involved.

Good star melodrama.

w Robert Lord novel W. R. Burnett d William Dieterle ph Tony Gaudio md Leo F. Forbstein

☆ Paul Muni, Ann Dvorak, Barton MacLane, Robert Barrat, John Eldredge, Hobart Cavanaugh, Mayo Methot, Samuel S. Hinds, Henry O'Neill

'Arriving at the tail end of the G-man and gangster cycle, Dr Socrates is a graceful valedictory.' – Variety

'Rapid, strong and exciting.' – Sunday Times

† Remade as King of the Underworld and Bullet Scars.

'The hot line suspense comedy!'

Dr Strangelove; or, How I Learned to Stop Worrying and Love the Bomb ★★★★

GB 1963 93m bw
Columbia/Stanley Kubrick (Victor Lyndon)

A mad USAF general launches a nuclear attack on Russia, and when recall attempts fail, and retaliation is inevitable, all concerned sit back to await the destruction of the world.

Black comedy resolving itself into a series of sketches, with the star playing three parts (for no good reason): the US president, an RAF captain, and a mad German-American scientist. Historically an important film in its timing, its nightmares being those of the early sixties, artistically it clogs its imperishable moments by untidy narrative.

w Stanley Kubrick, Terry Southern, Peter George novel Red Alert by Peter George d Stanley Kubrick ph Gilbert Taylor m Laurie Johnson ad Ken Adam ed Anthony Harvey

☆ Peter Sellers (Lionel Mandrake/Merkin Muffley/Dr. Strangelove), George C. Scott (Gen. "Buck" Turgidson), Peter Bull (Ambassador de Sadesky), Sterling Hayden (Gen. Jack D. Ripper), Keenan Wynn (Col. "Bat" Guano), Slim Pickens (Maj. T.J. "King" Kong), James Earl Jones (Lt. Lothar Zogg), Tracy Reed (Miss Scott)

GENERAL (GEORGE C. SCOTT): 'I don't say we wouldn't get our hair mussed, but I do say no more than ten to twenty million people killed.'

RIPPER (STERLING HAYDEN): 'War is too important to be left to politicians. They have neither the time, the training or the inclination for strategic thought. I can no longer sit back and allow Communist infiltration, Communist subversion and the international Communist conspiracy to sap and impurify all of our precious bodily fluids.'

'Scarcely a picture of relentless originality; seldom have we seen so much made over so little.' – Joan Didion

'The double-face of the story – serious events broken up into farcical incidents – is expressed in double-face acting of a high order.' – Dilys Powell

'Irreverent to the point of savagery; it is funny and it is engrossing. And it's heady stuff for moviegoers, for Kubrick, boy genius that he is, assumes that we're grown-up enough to share his bitter laughter.' – Judith Crist † Fail Safe (qv), which took the same theme more seriously, was released almost simultaneously.

†† The Regions 1 and 2 DVD release includes a documentary and a split-screen interview with Peter Sellers and George C. Scott.

best picture; script; Stanley Kubrick (as director); Peter Sellers best picture; best British film; Ken Adam

Dr Syn ★

GB 1937 80m bw
Gaumont (Michael Balcon)

The vicar of Dymchurch in 1780 is really a pirate believed dead.

This now obscure, lively pirate yarn was its star's last film.

w Michael Hogan, Roger Burford novel Russell Thorndike d Roy William Neill ph Jack Cox md Louis Levy ad Vetchinsky ed R. E. Dearing, Alfred Roome

☆ George Arliss, Margaret Lockwood, John Loder, Roy Emerton, Graham Moffatt, Frederick Burtwell, Meinhart Maur, George Merritt

'With Arliss in the name part it doesn't ring true.' – Variety

Dr Syn Alias the Scarecrow

GB 1963 98m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Bill Anderson)

The vicar of Dymchurch is really a smuggler who manages to outwit a rascally general and save a prisoner from Dover Castle.

Oddly released the same year as another version of the story, Captain Clegg, this rather set-bound adventure yarn turns its hero into a Robin Hood figure. It was originally made to be shown in three parts on American TV.

w Robert Westerby novel Christopher Syn by Russell Thorndike, William Buchanan d James Neilson ph Paul Beeson m Gerard Schurmann

☆ Patrick McGoohan, George Cole, Tony Britton, Geoffrey Keen, Kay Walsh, Patrick Wymark, Alan Dobie, Eric Pohlmann, Michael Hordern

Dr T and the Women

US 2000 122m DeLuxe Panavision
Columbia TriStar/Sandcastle 5 (Robert Altman, James McLindon)

A popular gynaecologist to Dallas's upper crust has problems with his patients, daughters and wife.

Rambling social comedy that lacks any particular point.

w Anne Rapp d Robert Altman ph Jan Kiesser m Lyle Lovett pd Stephen Altman ed Geraldine Peroni

☆ Richard Gere (Dr Sullivan Travis), Helen Hunt (Bree), Farrah Fawcett (Kate), Laura Dern (Peggy), Shelley Long (Carolyn), Tara Reid (Connie), Kate Hudson (Dee Dee), Liv Tyler (Marilyn), Robert Hays (Harlan), Matt Malloy (Bill), Andy Richter (Eli)

'Altman orchestrates Dr T's odyssey with the precision, heart and lively wit of a virtuoso.' – Peter Travers, Rolling Stone

The Doctor Takes a Wife ★

US 1940 89m bw
Columbia (William Perlberg)

A young doctor has to pretend to be the husband of a socialite.

Typical high life comedy of its period, quite brisk and diverting.

w George Seaton, Ken Englund d Alexander Hall ph Sid Hickox m Frederick Hollander md Morris Stoloff

☆ Loretta Young, Ray Milland, Edmund Gwenn, Reginald Gardiner, Gail Patrick, Frank Sully, George Metaxa, Charles Halton, Chester Clute

Dr Terror's House of Horrors

GB 1965 98m Technicolor Techniscope
Amicus (Milton Subotsky, Max J. Rosenberg)

An eccentric, who turns out to be Death himself, tells the fortunes of five men in a railway carriage.

One of the first Amicus horror compendiums and a weak one, not helped by wide screen, a couple of naïve scripts and ho-hum acting. The book-ends are quite pleasant, though.

w Milton Subotsky d Freddie Francis ph Alan Hume m Elisabeth Lutyens, Tubby Hayes ad Bill Constable ed Thelma Connell sp Ted Samuels

☆ Peter Cushing, Ursula Howells, Max Adrian, Roy Castle, Alan Freeman, Bernard Lee, Jeremy Kemp, Kenny Lynch, Christopher Lee, Michael Gough, Donald Sutherland

† Later collections from the same stable include Torture Garden, Tales from the Crypt, Vault of Horror and Asylum.

Dr Who and the Daleks

GB 1965 83m Techniscope
British Lion/Regal/Aaru (Milton Subotsky, Max J. Rosenberg)

Three children and their grandfather accidentally start his time machine and are whisked away to a planet where villainous robots rule.

Junior science fiction from the BBC series. Limply put together, and only for indulgent children.

w Milton Subotsky d Gordon Flemyng ph John Wilcox m Malcolm Lockyer

☆ Peter Cushing, Roy Castle, Jennie Linden, Roberta Tovey, Barrie Ingham

† A sequel, no better, emerged in 1966: Daleks: Invasion Earth 2150 AD, with similar credits except that Bernard Cribbins instead of Roy Castle provided comic relief.

'A full moon was his signal to kill!'

Doctor X ★★

US 1932 82m Technicolor
Warner (Hal Wallis)

A reporter investigates a series of moon murders and narrows his search to one of several doctors at a medical college.

Fascinating, German-inspired, overblown and generally enjoyable horror mystery whose armless villain commits murders by growing limbs from 'synthetic flesh'.

w Earl Baldwin, Robert Tasker play Howard W. Comstock, Allen C. Miller d Michael Curtiz ph Richard Towers md Leo Forbstein

☆ Lee Tracy, Lionel Atwill, Preston Foster, Fay Wray, George Rosener, Mae Busch, Arthur Edmund Carewe, John Wray

'The settings, lighting and final battle with the man-monster are quite stunning.' – NFT, 1974

'It almost makes Frankenstein seem tame and friendly.' – New York Times

Doctor You've Got to be Kidding

US 1967 93m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Trident (Douglas Laurence)

A girl arrives at a maternity hospital chased by three prospective husbands.

Wild and wacky farce which leaves little impression.

w Phillip Shuken novel Patte Wheat Mahan d Peter Tewkesbury ph Fred Koenekamp m Kenyon Hopkins

☆ Sandra Dee, George Hamilton, Celeste Holm, Bill Bixby, Dwayne Hickman, Dick Kallman, Mort Sahl, Allen Jenkins

'A love caught in the fire of revolution!'

Doctor Zhivago ★★★

US 1965 192m Metrocolor Panavision 70
MGM/David Lean/Carlo Ponti

A Moscow doctor is caught up in World War I, exiled for writing poetry, forced into partisan service and separated from his only love.

Beautifully photographed and meticulously directed, this complex epic has been so reduced from the original novel that many parts of the script simply do not make any kind of sense. What remains is a collection of expensive set-pieces, great for looking if not listening.

w Robert Bolt novel Boris Pasternak d David Lean ph Frederick A. Young m Maurice Jarre pd John Box ad Gil Parrondo, Terence Marsh ed Norman Savage

☆ Omar Sharif (Yuri Zhivago), Julie Christie (Larissa "Lara" Guishar), Rod Steiger (Viktor Komarovsky), Alec Guinness (Yevgrav Zhivago), Rita Tushingham (The Girl), Ralph Richardson (Alexander Gromeko), Tom Courtenay (Pasha Antipov/Strelnikoff), Geraldine Chaplin (Tonya Gromeko), Siobhan McKenna (Anna Gromeko), Noel Willman (Razin), Geoffrey Keen (Prof. Boris Kurt), Adrienne Corri (Amelia Guishar)

'A long haul along the road of synthetic lyricism.' – MFB
'David Lean's Doctor Zhivago does for snow what his Lawrence of Arabia did for sand.' – John Simon
'It isn't shoddy (except for the music); it isn't soap opera; it's stately, respectable, and dead. Neither the contemplative Zhivago nor the flow of events is intelligible, and what is worse, they seem unrelated to each other.' – Pauline Kael
Robert Bolt; Frederick A. Young; Maurice Jarre best picture; David Lean; Tom Courtenay

A Doctor's Diary

US 1937 77m bw
Paramount
The resident physician of a privately-endowed hospital is impatient with the niceties of procedure.
Unsurprising medical drama which adequately filled half a bill.
w Sam Ornitz, Joseph Anthony d Charles Vidor ☆ George Bancroft, John Trent, Helen Burgess, Ruth Coleman, Charles Waldron, Ra Hould, Sidney Blackmer
'Packs enough drama to hold attention.' – Variety

The Doctor's Dilemma ★

GB 1958 99m Metrocolor
MGM/Anatole de Grunwald
Eminent Harley Street surgeons debate the case of a devoted wife and her tubercular artist husband.
Well acted but curiously muffled filming of Shaw's Edwardian play about ethics and human values.
w Anatole de Grunwald play Bernard Shaw d Anthony Asquith ph Robert Krasker m Joseph Kosma ad Paul Sheriff
☆ Leslie Caron, Dirk Bogarde, John Robinson, Alastair Sim, Felix Aylmer, Robert Morley, Michael Gwynn, Maureen Delany, Alec McCowen

Doctors' Wives

US 1970 102m Eastmancolor
Columbia/M. J. Frankovich
When Dr Dellman shoots his unfaithful wife, his colleagues reconsider their sex lives.
Adult soap opera from talents who at other times have found better things to do. In the sensational circumstances, two sanguinary operation sequences are tastelessly irrelevant.
w Daniel Taradash novel Frank G. Slaughter d George Schaefer ph Charles B. Lang m Elmer Bernstein
☆ Richard Crenna, Janice Rule, Gene Hackman, John Colicos, Dyan Cannon, Diana Sands, Rachel Roberts, Carroll O'Connor, Cara Williams, Ralph Bellamy, Richard Anderson
'Crisis follows hard on crisis to breathlessly ludicrous effect.' – Tom Milne

Dodes'ka-den ★★

Japan 1970 140m Eastmancolor
Essential Cinema/Yonki-No-Kai/Toho (Akira Kurosawa, Keisuke Kinoshita, Kon Ichikawa, Masaki Kobayashi)
In a shanty town on the outskirts of Tokyo, a group of down-and-outs go about the daily business of surviving.
Fascinating, detailed portrait of ordinary and eccentric lives in the lower depths.
w Akira Kurosawa, Hideo Orguni, Shinobu Hashimoto novel Kisetsu No Nai Machi by Shugoro Yamamoto d Akira Kurosawa ph Takao Saito, Yasumichi Fukusawa m Toru Takemitsu ad Yoshiro Muraki, Shinobu Muraki ed Reiko Keneko
☆ Yoshitaka Zushi, Kin Sugai, Kaou Kato, Junzaburo Ban, Kiyoko Tange, Michiko Hino, Tatsuhei Shimokawa
Foreign language film

'West of Chicago there was no law! West of Dodge City there was no God!'

Dodge City ★★★

US 1939 104m Technicolor
Warner (Robert Lord)
An ex-soldier and trail boss helps clean up the west's great railroad terminus.
Standard, satisfying big-scale Western with all clichés intact and very enjoyable, as is the soft, rich early colour. The story is plainly inspired by the exploits of Wyatt Earp.
w Robert Buckner d Michael Curtiz ph Sol Polito, Ray Rennahan m Max Steiner ad Ted Smith ed George Amy ☆ Errol Flynn (Wade Hatton), Olivia de Havilland (Abbie Irving), Ann Sheridan (Ruby Gilman), Bruce Cabot (Jeff Surrett), Alan Hale (Algernon "Rusty" Hart), Frank McHugh (Joe Clemens), John Litel (Matt Cole), Victor Jory (Yancy, Surrett's Henchman), William Lundigan (Lee Irving), Henry Travers (Dr. Irving), Henry O'Neill (Col. Dodge), Guinn Williams (Tex Baird), Gloria Holden (Mrs. Cole)
'A lusty Western, packed with action, including some of the dandiest mêlée stuff screened.' – Variety
'It looks programmed and underpopulated, though in an elegantly stylized way.' – New Yorker, 1980

'Grab life by the ball.'

Dodgeball: A True Underdog Story ★

US/Germany 2004 92m DeLuxe
TCF/Red Hour (Ben Stiller, Stuart Cornfield)
The owner of a rundown gym gets together a team of misfits to challenge his successful, upmarket rival in a dodgeball competition.
Fitfully amusing broad farce that aims low and hits its target.
wd Rawson Marshall Thurber ph Jerzy Zielinksi m Theodore Shapiro pd Maher Ahmad ed Alan Baumgarten
☆ Vince Vaughn (Peter La Fleur), Christine Taylor (Kate Veatch), Ben Stiller (White Goodman), Rip Torn (Patches O'Houlihan), Justin Long (Justin), Stephen Root (Gordon), Joel David Moore (Owen), Missi Pyle (Fran), Lance Armstrong (Himself), Chuck Norris (Himself), William Shatner (Dodgeball Chancellor), David Hasselhoff (German Coach)
'Gleefully commingles slapstick and scatology, satire and sentiment, in a free-wheeling farce aimed at making auds laugh until they're thoroughly ashamed of themselves.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

Dodsworth ★★★

US 1936 101m bw
Samuel Goldwyn
An American businessman takes his wife on a tour of Europe, and their lives are changed.
Satisfying, well-acted drama from a bestselling novel; production values high.
w Sidney Howard novel Sinclair Lewis d William Wyler ph Rudolph Maté m Alfred Newman ad Richard Day ed Daniel Mandell
☆ Walter Huston (Sam Dodsworth), Mary Astor (Edith Cortright), Ruth Chatterton (Fran Dodsworth), David Niven (Capt. Lockert), Paul Lukas (Arnold Iselin), Gregory Gaye (Kurt von Obersdorf), Maria Ouspenskaya (Baroness von Obersdorf), Odette Myrtil (Mme. Renee de Penable), Spring Byington (Matey Pearson), John Payne (Harry Howard)
'No one, I think, will fail to enjoy it, in spite of its too limited and personal plot, the sense it leaves behind of a very expensive, very contemporary, Bond Street vacuum flask.' – Graham Greene
'William Wyler has had the skill to execute it in cinematic terms, and a gifted cast has been able to bring the whole alive to our complete satisfaction.' – New York Times
'A smoothly flowing narrative of substantial interest, well-defined performances and good talk.' – New York Times
'An offering of dignity and compelling power to provide you with a treat you can rarely experience in a picture house.' – Hollywood Spectator
Richard Day
best picture; Sidney Howard; William Wyler; Walter Huston; Maria Ouspenskaya

The Does: see Les Biches

Dog Day Afternoon ★★★

US 1975 130m Technicolor
Warner/AEC (Martin Bregman, Martin Elfand)
Two incompetent robbers are cornered in a Brooklyn bank.
Recreation of a tragi-comic episode from the newspaper headlines; for half its length a fascinating and acutely observed film which then bogs itself down in a surplus of talk and excessive sentiment about homosexuality.
w Frank Pierson book Patrick Mann d Sidney Lumet ph Victor J. Kemper m none ad Douglas Higgins ed Dede Allen
☆ Al Pacino (Sonny Wortzik), John Cazale (Sal), Charles Durning (Det. Sgt. Moretti), Sully Boyar (Mulvaney), James Broderick (Sheldon), Chris Sarandon (Leon)
'There is plenty of Lumet's vital best here in a film that at least glancingly captures the increasingly garish pathology of our urban life.' – Jack Kroll
'Scattered moments of wry humour, sudden pathos and correct observation.' – John Simon
'The mask of frenetic cliché doesn't spoil moments of pure reporting on people in extremity.' – New Yorker
'A long and wearying case history of the beaten, sobbing, despairing and ultimately powerless anti-hero.' – Karyn Kay, Jump Cut
'Full of galvanic mirth rooted in human desperation.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News
'Brisk, humorous and alive with urban energies and angers fretting through the 92 degree heat.' – Sight and Sound
Frank Pierson
best picture; Sidney Lumet; Al Pacino; Chris Sarandon Al Pacino

Dog Days ★★

Austria/Germany 2001 121m colour
Metro Tartan/Allegro (Helmut Grasser, Philippe Bober)
original title: Hundstage
In the summer heat, the middle-class residents of a suburb of Vienna lead bleak lives.
The first feature of a director known for his documentaries, this turns an unblinking eye on discontented people: there are joyless couplings, ritualistic and obsessive behaviour, brutality and sadness. Occasionally humour breaks through, but it is of a melancholy kind. It is a film not easy to forget, nor to watch.
w Ulrich Seidl, Veronika Franz d Ulrich Seidl ph Wolfgang Thaler pd Andreas Donhauser, Renate Martin ed Andrea Wagner, Christof Schertenlieb
☆ Maria Hofstatter (Hitchhiker), Christine Jirku (Teacher), Victor Hennemann (Teacher), Georg Friedrich (Lucky), Alfred Mrva (Alarm Man), Erich Finsches (Old Man), Gerti Lehner (Housekeeper), Franziska Weiss (Klaudia)
'Treats the chemistry of human relationships like a cancer, an enormous growth that, unchecked, leads to disease.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times
'Vibrantly inventive, aesthetically rigorous, sardonic and occasionally quite brilliant.' – Deborah Young, Variety

Dog Eat Dog

GB/Germany 2000 94m colour
Film4/Senator/Tiger Aspect/Shoma (Dalziel Douglas)
Four penniless would-be London DJs try various ways to raise money, but only displease a local gangster.
Hapless, episodic, small-minded caper of petty criminals.
w Moody Shoaibi, Mark Tonderai d Moody Shoaibi ph John Daly m Mark Hinton Stewart pd Greg Shaw ed Luke Dunkley
☆ Mark Tonderai (Rooster), Nathan Constance (Jess), David Oyelowo (C. J.), Crunski (Changarcy), Alan Davies (Phil), Melanie Blatt (Kelly), Gary Kemp (Jesus), Steve Toussaint (Darcy)
'An obnoxious sub-Guy Ritchie caper entirely made up of foul language and loutish doings.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

A Dog of Flanders

US 1959 97m DeLuxe
Cinemascope
TCF/Associated Producers (Robert B Radnitz)
A small boy wants to be an artist; when he runs away in frustration, his shaggy dog, formerly a stray, leads his family to him.
Old-fashioned tear-jerker for well-brought-up children, previously filmed as a silent; quite accomplished in presentation.
w Ted Sherdeman novel Ouida d James B. Clark ph Otto Heller m Paul Sawtell, Bert Shefter
☆ David Ladd, Donald Crisp, Theodore Bikel, Max Croiset, Monique Ahrens

Dog Soldiers: see Who'll Stop the Rain?

'Six Soldiers. Full Moon. No chance.'

Dog Soldiers

GB/Luxembourg 2002 104m
Pathé/Kismet/Noel Gay Motion Picture Co/Victor Film/Carousel (Christopher Figg, Tom Reeve, David Allen)
In the Scottish Highlands, an army patrol on a training mission is besieged by werewolves.
Bloody, visceral horror movie that plays like a low-budget, less inventive version of John Carpenter's Assault on Precinct 13.
wd Neil Marshall ph Sam McCurdy m Mark Thomas pd Simon Bowles ed Neil Marshall sp Bob Keen, Image Effects
☆ Sean Pertwee (Sgt Harry Wells), Kevin McKidd (Rfn Lawrence Cooper), Emma Cleasby (Megan), Liam Cunningham (Capt. Richard Ryan), Darren Morfitt (Rfn Phil Witherspoon), Chris Robson (Rfn Joe Kirkley), Leslie Simpson (Terry Milburn),

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Thomas Lockyer (Corp. Bruce Campbell)
'An unashamedly cheesy, high-octane werewolf movie that remains true to its B-movie inspiration.' – Derek Elley, Variety

'Get "touched" by an angel.'

Dogma ★★

US 1999 135m DeLuxe Panavision
Miramax/View Askew (Scott Mosier)

Two fallen angels plan to take advantage of a theological loophole to re-enter heaven by passing through the entrance to a New Jersey cathedral, an act that will bring the world to an end.
A bizarre comedy that is on the side of the angels (the heavenly host, that is). In part an attack on the dumbing down of religious faith, it is also a hodge-podge of cinematic genres and styles, taking in road and chase movies, surreal and comic encounters, and theological musings.
wd Kevin Smith ph Robert Yeoman m Howard Shore pd Robert 'Ratface' Holtzman ed Kevin Smith, Scott Mosier sp Bellissimo, Belardinelli Effects; Vincent Guastini; Station X Studios
☆ Ben Affleck (Bartleby), Matt Damon (Loki), Linda Fiorentino (Bethany), Salma Hayek (Serendipity), Jason Lee (Azrael), Jason Mewes (Jay), Alan Rickman (Metatron), Chris Rock (Rufus), George Carlin (Cardinal Glick), Bud Cort (John Doe Jersey), Alanis Morissette (God), Kevin Smith (Silent Bob), Janeane Garofalo (Clinic girl)
'Mr Smith enjoys shock value, but this time he makes it mercilessly funny and places it in the context of an obviously devout, enlightened parable.' – Janet Maslin, New York Times
† The film caused controversy among Catholic organisations, as a result of which Miramax sold the film to distributor Lion's Gate.

Dogpound Shuffle

Canada 1974 97m Eastmancolor
Elliott Kastner/Bulldog

aka: Spot
An old Irish hobo lives on the earnings of his dancing dog.
Dog-eared 'family film' which didn't seem to entertain many families.
wd Jeffrey Bloom
☆ Ron Moody, David Soul, Ray Stricklyn

Dogs In Space ★

Australia 1986 108m colour Panavision
Recorded Releasing/Skouras/Atlantic (Glenys Rowe)

Punks and hippies gather in a squat in Melbourne in the late 1970s.
Episodic, rambling film with a raucous rock soundtrack, but with an engaging affection for its lost tribe of teenagers.
wd Richard Lowenstein ph Andrew de Groot m Iggy Pop, Dogs In Space and others ad Jody Borland ed Jill Bilcock
☆ Michael Hutchence, Saskia Post, Nique Needles, Deanna Bond, Tony Helou, Chris Haywood, Peter Walsh, Laura Swanson

A Dog's Life ★

US 1918 30m approx bw silent
First National/Charles Chaplin

A tramp and a stray mongrel help each other towards a happy ending.
Threatening sentiment is kept at bay by amusing sight gags in this pleasing star featurette.
wd Charles Chaplin ph Rollie Totheroh
☆ Charles Chaplin, Edna Purviance, Chuck Riesner, Henry Bergman, Albert Austin, Scraps

A Dog's Life: see Mondo Cane (1961)

The Dogs of War

GB 1980 118m Technicolor
UA/Silverwold (Larry De Waay)

A disenchanted mercenary becomes involved in a plot to take over an impoverished West African state.
Tough but seemingly dated modern irony, somewhat lacking in action and surprise.
w Gary DeVore, George Malko novel Frederick Forsyth d John Irvin ph Jack Cardiff m Geoffrey Burgon
pd Peter Mullins ed Antony Gibbs
☆ Christopher Walken, Tom Berenger, Colin Blakely, Hugh Millais, Paul Freeman, Robert Urquhart

Dogtown and Z-Boys ★

US 2001 90m bw/colour
Columbia Tri-Star/Vans Off the Wall/Agi Orsi

Documentary on a group of working-class Los Angeles skateboarders who revolutionised the sport in the mid-1970s by introducing surfboarding techniques.
Intermittently interesting hagiography of a group of youthful slackers who gained fame and, in some cases, wealth by their aggressive athleticism.
w Stacy Peralta, Craig Stecyk d Stacy Peralta ph Peter Pilafian pd C. R. Stecyk ed Paul Crowder ☆ Sean Penn (Narrator)
'Loopy, spacey, hugely endearing and exciting documentary.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
† It was followed by Lords of Dogtown, a feature film on the same subject.

'A quiet little town not far from here.'

Dogville ★★★ (5)

Denmark/Sweden/France/GB/Germany/Finland/Italy/Netherlands 2003 178m colour
Icon/Zentropa/Isabella/Something Else/Memfis/Trollhattan/Pain Unlimited/Sigma/Zoma/Slot Machine/Liberator2

In the 1930s, a fugitive from gangsters is first sheltered by the inhabitants of a small town and later abused, as the risk of protecting her increases.
Among the most controversial films of recent times and one that requires patience, though that is eventually rewarded. Acted as if in a rehearsal on a soundstage where streets or buildings are indicated by lines of white paint – a method that emphasises the gap between public and private behaviour – it is a provocative revenge drama of disturbing power.
d Lars von Trier ph Anthony Dod Mantle
pd Peter Grant ed Molly Malene Stensgaard
☆ Nicole Kidman (Grace), Harriet Anderson (Gloria), Lauren Bacall (Ma Ginger), Jean-Marc Barr (The Man With the Big Hat), Paul Bettany (Tom Edison), Blair Brown (Mrs Henson), James Caan (The Big Man), Patricia Clarkson (Vera), Jeremy Davies (Bill Henson), Ben Gazzara (Jack McKay), Philip Baker Hall (Tom Edison Snr), Udo Kier (The Man in the Coat), Chloe Sevigny (Liz Henson), Stellan Skarsgard (Chuck), John Hurt (Narrator)
'Pedantic, obtuse, and unwatchable.' – David Denby, New Yorker
'While you watch the movie, it can seem ridiculously long-winded. But once it's over, its characters' miserable faces remain etched in your memory, and its cynical message lingers.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times
'Ludicrous, arrogant, pretentious and naive. But Dogville is also boldly conceived, genuinely risky and disturbing.' – Philip French, Observer
'This galvanizing cinematic work is also gorgeous, experimental, alive with a Scandinavian strain of chutzpah, and artistically elegant.' – Lisa Schwarzbaum

'He had to get in, to get even.'

Doing Hard Time

US 2004 100m bw/colour
Preston Picture Co (Preston A. Whitmore II, Tony Jacobs)

A father beats up a cop so that he can go to prison to kill those responsible for his young son's accidental death in a gangland gun-battle.
Tough, violent prison drama that manages to add a few twists to the familiar clichés of the genre; it would have been a better movie if it had lost its sentimental coda.
wd Preston A. Whitmore II ph Patrice Lucien Cochet m Robert Duncan
ad Yvette Taylor ed Frances S. DeLoach
☆ Boris Kodjoe (Michael), Michael K. Williams (Curtis Craig), Sticky Fingaz (Eddie Mathematic), Reagan Gomez-Preston (Rayvon Jones), Jazsmin Lewis (Robin), William L. Johnson (Clever), Giancarlo Esposito (Capt Pierce), Marcello Thedford (Toure Smalls)

Doing Time: see Porridge

Doktor Mabuse, der Spieler: see Doctor Mabuse

La Dolce Vita ★★★

Italy/France 1960 173m bw
Totalscope
Riama/Pathé Consortium (Giuseppe Amato)

aka: The Sweet Life
A journalist mixes in modern Roman high society and is alternately bewitched and sickened by what he sees.
Episodic satirical melodrama, a marathon self-indulgent wallow with a wagging finger never far away. Full of choice moments such as a statue of Christ being flown by helicopter over the city.
w Federico Fellini, Tullio Pinelli, Ennio Flaiano, Brunello Rondi d Federico Fellini
ph Otello Martelli m Nino Rota ad Piero Gherardi ed Leo Catozzo ☆ Marcello Mastroianni, Anita Ekberg, Anouk Aimée, Alain Cuny, Yvonne Furneaux, Magali Noel, Nadia Gray, Lex Barker
'Its personification of various familiar symbols – love, death, purity, sin, reason and so on – never succeeds in reflecting human values or creating intellectual excitement ... Its actual significance rests in the way its (albeit specious) social attack has stirred the imagination of other Italian film-makers, as well as public interest in their work.' – Robert Vas, MFB
'An awesome picture, licentious in content but moral and vastly sophisticated in its attitude and what it says.' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times
'One of the few films that one feels can be seen with increasing enjoyment a second or third time.' – Paul V. Backley, New York Herald Tribune
script; Federico Fellini

Doll Face

US 1945 80m bw
TCF (Bryan Foy)
GB title: Come Back to Me
A burlesque queen goes to Broadway.
Lower case musical of minimal interest.
w Leonard Praskins d Lewis Seiler
ph Joseph LaShelle m/ly Harold Adamson, Jimmy McHugh
☆ Vivian Blaine, Dennis O'Keefe, Carmen Miranda, Perry Como, Martha Stewart, Michael Dunne, Reed Hadley, George E. Stone, Donald McBride, Edgar Norton

The Doll Squad

US 1973 101m Eastmancolor
Nationwide/Feature-Faire (Ted V. Mikels)
A female team of CIA agents track down the man who sabotaged an American space project.
Badly made, poorly scripted and acted comedy thriller.
w Jack Richesin, Pam Eddy, Ted V. Mikels
d Ted V. Mikels ph Anthony Salinas
m Nicholas Carras pd Mike McCloskey
ed Ted V. Mikels
☆ Michael Ansara, Francine York, Anthony Eisley, John Carter, Rafael Campos, William Bagdad, Lillian Garrett
'The endless running, jumping and kicks-to-the-groin stunts of this bevy of Emma Peels are conceived and executed with about as much conviction as knockabout comedy.' – David Pirie, MFB

Dollar

Sweden 1938 80m bw
Svensk Filmindustri

An American millionairess upsets the lives of three married couples.
A sour and brittle little comedy of romantic misunderstandings.
w Stina Bergman play Hjalmar Bergman
d Gustaf Molander ph Åke Dahlquist
☆ Ingrid Bergman, Georg Rydeberg, Tutta Rolfe, Kotti Chave, Birgit Tengroth, Håkan Westergren, Edvin Adolphson, Elsa Burnett

The Dollar Bottom

GB 1981 33m Eastmancolor
Rocking Horse Films/Paramount

A sharp-witted public schoolboy sells his friends insurance against being beaten.
Ingenious but thinly acted short, with the added hazard of impenetrable accents.
w Shane Connaughton story James Kennaway d Roger Christian ☆ Rikki Fulton, Robert Urquhart, Jonathan McNeil

Dollars ★

US 1971 120m Technicolor
Columbia/M. J. Frankovich

GB title: The Heist
An American security expert installs an electronic system in a Hamburg bank which he plans to rob himself.
Overlong caper comedy-drama which is quite good to watch when it starts moving, though the quick cutting, short takes and deliberately obscure narrative leave one breathless.
wd Richard Brooks ph Petrus Schloemp
m Quincy Jones
☆ Warren Beatty, Goldie Hawn, Gert Frobe, Robert Webber, Scott Brady, Arthur Brauss
'An essay in virtuoso film construction .. rather as if one were watching a perfect machine in full throttle but with nowhere to go.' – John Gillett

Dolls

US 1986 77m colour
Empire Pictures/Taryn Productions (Brian Yuzna)

On a dark and stormy night, stranded travellers take refuge in an old house inhabited by an elderly couple and their killer dolls.

Risible, low-budget horror with more clichés than corpses.
w Ed Naha d Stuart Gordon ph Mac Ahlberg m Fuzzbee Morse, Victor Spiegel pd Giovanni Natalucci ed Lee Percy ☆ Stephen Lee, Guy Rolfe, Hilary Mason, Ian Patrick Williams, Carolyn Purdy-Gordon, Cassie Stuart, Bunty Bailey, Carrie Lorraine

Dolls ★★

Japan 2002 113m colour
Artificial Eye/Bandai Visual/Tokyo FM/TV Tokyo/Office Kitano (Masayuki Mori, Takio Yoshida)
original title: Dooruzu
A bunraku puppet show leads to three stories: a young executive walks around Japan attached by a ribbon to his silent girlfriend, who went mad after he jilted her; an old man returns to the park where, when he was young, the woman he abandoned brought him lunch, to discover that she still continues with the ritual; a pop singer becomes a recluse after she is disfigured in a crash and meets her greatest fan, who blinded himself when she retired.
Ravishingly beautiful, slow-moving movie of a trio of enigmatic stories, set against the four seasons, that suggests we are puppets, manipulated by forces that we cannot control.
wd Takeshi Kitano ph Katsumi Yanagijima m Joe Hisaishi pd Norihiro Isoda ed Kitano cos Yohji Yamamoto ☆ Miho Kanno (Sawako), Hidetoshi Nishijima (Matsumoto), Tatsuya Mihashi (Hiro), Chieko Matsubara (Woman in the park), Kyoko Fukada (Haruna), Tsutomu Takeshige (Nukui)
'Fans of The Matrix are likely to find it about as exciting as watching buds blossom in spring.' – Philip French, Observer
'The work of a notorious hard man indulging in the aesthetic values and sentimentalism of a teenage girl.' – Jonathan Romney, Sight and Sound

A Doll's House ★

GB 1973 95m Eastmancolor
Elkins/Freeward (Hillard Elkins)
A wife begins to resist her husband's will. Ibsen's feminist play was always good value; set in Norway in the 1890s, it was taken up eighty years later as a precursor of women's lib, which accounts for two film versions in one year.
This one is simply staged and well performed, but suffers from a bad translation.
w Christopher Hampton play Henrik Ibsen d Patrick Garland ph Arthur Ibbetson m John Barry
☆ Claire Bloom, Anthony Hopkins, Ralph Richardson, Denholm Elliott, Anna Massey, Edith Evans

A Doll's House

GB/France 1973 106m Eastmancolor
World Film Services/Les Films de la Boétie (Joseph Losey)
Opened out but less effective version of the above, with too much solemnity and the central part miscast.
w David Mercer play Henrik Ibsen d Joseph Losey ph Gerry Fisher m Michel Legrand
☆ Jane Fonda, David Warner, Trevor Howard, Edward Fox, Delphine Seyrig, Anna Wing

The Dolly Sisters ★★

US 1945 114m Technicolor
TCF (George Jessel)
The lives of a Hungarian sister act in American vaudeville.
Fictionalized biographical musical, only fair in the script department but glittering to look at in superb colour, and enriched by splendid production values. Undoubtedly among the best of its kind.
w John Larkin, Marian Spitzer d Irving Cummings ph Ernest Palmer m/ly various md Alfred Newman, Charles Henderson ch Seymour Felix ad Lyle Wheeler, Leland Fuller
☆ Betty Grable, June Haver, John Payne, S. Z. Sakall, Reginald Gardiner, Frank Latimore, Gene Sheldon, Sig Rumann, Trudy Marshall
♫ song 'I Can't Begin to Tell You' (m James Monaco, ly Mack Gordon)

'They Were Separated By A Death ... And Reunited By A Murder.'

Dolores Claiborne ★★

US 1995 131m Technicolor Panavision
Rank/Castle Rock (Taylor Hackford, Charles Mulvehill)
When an elderly woman dies, her housekeeper, who had earlier been acquitted of killing her husband, is arrested for her murder, an event that brings home her estranged daughter, whom she has not seen for 15 years.
Effective melodrama with feminist overtones: all the women are abused or misunderstood, all the men are abusers; what saves it from too much over-simplification is the revelation of the reasons for the edgy relationship between mother and daughter.
w Tony Gilroy novel Stephen King d Taylor Hackford ph Gabriel Beristain m Danny Elfman pd Bruno Rubeo ed Mark Warner
☆ Kathy Bates (Dolores Claiborne), Jennifer Jason Leigh (Selena St George), Judy Parfitt (Vera Donovan), Christopher Plummer (Det. John Mackey), David Strathairn (Joe St George), Eric Bogosian (Peter), John C. Reilly (Frank Stamshaw), Bob Gunton (Mr Pease)
'Highly engrossing psychological study that manages to be both raw and finally tender in its treatment.' – Lizzie Franke
'The sensible formality of Taylor Hackford's direction has the effect of cooling the film's narrative frenzies and helping the actors dig some simple, truthful stuff out of the hubbub.' – Richard Schickel, Time

Dom Za Vesanje: see Time Of the Gypsies

Domani è Troppo Tardi

Italy 1950 101m bw
Rizzoli (Giuseppe Amato)
GB title: Tomorrow Is Too Late
Inquisitive pupils and repressive teachers at a co-educational school almost cause a tragedy.
Possibly well intentioned, but in effect an old-fashioned melodrama which works well enough on its level.
w Alfred Machard, Leonide Moguy d Leonide Moguy ph Mario Craveri, Renato del Frate m Alessandro Cicognini
☆ Vittorio de Sica, Lois Maxwell, Gabrielle Dorziat, Anna Maria Pierangeli, Gino Leurini

Domenica d'Agosto ★★

Italy 1950 75m bw
Colonna (Sergio Amidei)
GB title: Sunday in August
Various Romans enjoy Sunday by the sea at Ostia.
Fragmented comedy-drama which succeeds in being charming throughout, every detail being freshly observed through an inquisitive eye.
w Franco Brusati, Luciano Emmer, Giulio Macchi, Cesare Zavattini d Luciano Emmer ph Domenico Scala, Leonida Barboni, Ubaldo Marelli m Roman Vlad ed Jolanda Benvenuti
☆ Anna Baldini, Franco Interlenghi, Elvy Lissiak, Massimo Serato, Marcello Mastroianni, Corrado Verga

'He will do anything to protect his family.'

Domestic Disturbance

US 2001 90m DeLuxe 'Scope
Paramount (Donald De Line, Jonathan D Krane)
A twelve year-old boy realises that his new stepfather is a sadist, but only his father will believe him.
Uninteresting family drama involving a set of cardboard characters.
w Lewis Colick d Harold Becker ph Michael Seresin m Mark Mancina pd Clay A. Griffith ed Peter Honess
☆ John Travolta (Frank Morrison), Vince Vaughn (Rick Barnes), Teri Polo (Susan), Matt O'Leary (Danny Morrison), Ruben Santiago-Hudson (Sgt Edgar Stevens), Susan Floyd (Diane), Angelica Torn (Patty), Steve Buscemi (Ray Coleman)
'An engaging if predictable thriller.' – Observer
'A low-end example of family imperilment hokum.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Domicile Conjugal: see Bed and Board

The Dominant Sex

GB 1937 71m bw
BIP (Walter Mycroft)
A woman demands the right to her own individuality after marriage.
Tepid comedy drama from a popular stage play.
w Vina de Vesci, John Fernald play Michael Egan d Herbert Brenon ph J. J. Cox, Roy Clark ad Cedric Dawe
☆ Phillips Holmes, Diana Churchill, Carol Goodner, Romney Brent, Hugh Miller, Billy Milton

Dominick and Eugene: see Nicky and Gino

Dominion: Prequel to the Exorcist

US 2005 115m colour
Warner/Morgan Creek (James G. Robinson)
aka: Exorcist: The Prequel
A former Catholic priest regains his faith through tackling possession by the devil in East Africa.
Psychological horror with a ponderously serious approach to its subject matter.
w William Wisher, Caleb Carr d Paul Schrader ph Vittorio Storaro m Trevor Rabin, Angelo Badalamenti, Dog Fashion Disco pd John Graysmark ed Tim Silano
☆ Stellan Skarsgard (Father Lankester Merrin), Gabriel Mann (Father Francis), Rachel Lesno (Clara Bellar), Billy Crawford (Cheche), Julian Wadham (Major Granville), Andrew French (Chuma)
'The movie equivalent of retrieving the eggshells, coffee grounds and banana peels from the trash and presenting them as art.' – New York Times
† This version was originally rejected by the producers, who then hired Renny Harlin to re-direct it; the result was released as Exorcist: The Beginning (qv).

Dominion Tank Police Acts I & II (dubbed)

Japan 1989 80m colour
Masamune Shirow/Hakusensha/Agent 21/Toshiba Video (Ritsuko Kakita, Kazuhiko Inomata, Tomaki Harada)
A girl who joins the Tank Police in its fight against crime accidentally destroys a large tank and builds a smaller, cute one.
Japanese animated comic-book fare, revealing a debt to American strip cartoons, done with less violence and more humour than usual. The story, such as it is, is continued in Dominion Tank Police Acts III & IV.
w Kouichi Mashimo story Masamune Shirow d Kouichi Mashimo ad Matsuharu Miyamae
☆ Featuring the voices of Toni Barry, Stephen Graf, Sean Barrett, Jesse Vogel, Bill Armstrong, John Bull, Marc Smith
† The film was released direct to video.

Dominion Tank Police Acts III & IV (dubbed)

Japan 1989 70m colour
Masamune Shirow/Hakusensha/Agent 21/Toshiba Video (Kazuhiko Inomata, Tomaki Harada)
An android criminal and his two cat-like female accomplices who steal a priceless painting and kidnap a policewoman are hunted down by the Tank Police and a private security organization.
Bizarre animated movie, mixing comedy, violence, science fiction and mysticism in a manner that is unlikely to engage the interest of occidental audiences, despite its slick, cartoon-like style.
w Dai Kohno story Masamune Shirow d Takaaki Ishiyama ph Kazushi Torigoe m Brown Eyes ad Osamu Honda
☆ Featuring the voices of Toni Barry, Stephen Graf, Sean Barrett, Jesse Vogel, Bill Armstrong, John Bull, Marc Smith, Alison Dowling, Garrick Hagon
† The film was released direct to video.

'Dominique will make you shriek!'

Dominique

GB 1978 100m colour
Grand Prize/Melvin Simon (Milton Subotsky, Andrew Donally)
A woman who was convinced that her husband was deliberately driving her mad is found dead, and buried, but seemingly returns...
The old Diabolique syndrome revamped in a very parsimonious production with little to hold the interest.
w Edward and Valerie Abraham novel What Beckoning Ghost by Harold Lawlor d Michael Anderson ph Ted Moore m David Whitaker
☆ Cliff Robertson, Jean Simmons, Jenny Agutter, Simon Ward, Ron Moody, Judy Geeson, Michael Jayston, Flora Robson, David Tomlinson, Jack Warner

'I Am a Bounty Hunter.'

Domino ③

US 2005 128m DeLuxe
Entertainment/New Line (Tony Scott, Samuel Hadida)
A English film star's daughter becomes a bounty hunter in America.
Based on the life of Domino Harvey, a thriller with big guns and an unconvincing

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

performance in the title role from Keira Knightley.
w Richard Kelly d Tony Scott ph Daniel Mindel m Harry Gregson-Williams pd Chris Seagers ed William Goldenberg ☆ Keira Knightley (Domino Harvey), Mickey Rourke (Ed Mosbey), Edgar Ramirez (Choco), Christopher Walken (Mark Heiss), Mena Suvari (Kimmie), Jacqueline Bisset (Sophie Wynn), Lucy Liu (Taryn Miles), Delroy Lindo (Claremont Williams III), Rizwan Abbasi (Alf)
'So over-plotted that it's borderline incomprehensible.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angles Times
'The movie is trash shot to look like art imitating trash.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

The Domino Killings: see The Domino Principle

'Trust no one. No one!'

The Domino Principle

US 1977 100m CFI color
Associated General Films (Lew Grade, Martin Starger)

GB title: The Domino Killings
A murderer is offered his freedom if he will assassinate a national figure.
Fashionable, complex and rather boring political thriller.
w Adam Kennedy novel Adam Kennedy d Stanley Kramer ph Fred Koenekamp, Ernest Laszlo m Billy Goldenberg
☆ Gene Hackman, Richard Widmark, Candice Bergen, Mickey Rooney, Edward Albert, Eli Wallach, Ken Swofford, Neva Patterson
'Terrible movies tend to start with a preposterous premise and then laboriously work their way to an impossible conclusion. This one however starts with an arrant impossibility and works its way to whatever lies beyond and below that.' – John Simon

Don Camillo e l'Onorevolo Peppone: see Don Camillo's Last Round

Don Camillo's Last Round ★

Italy 1955 98m bw Rizzoli
original title: Don Camillo e l'Onorevole Peppone
The village Catholic priest tries to stop the re-election of the communist mayor.
Pleasant third collection of encounters with familiar characters.
w Giovanni Guareschi and others books Giovanni Guareschi d Carmine Gallone ph Anchise Brizzi m Alessandro Cicognini ☆ Fernandel, Gino Cervi, Claude Silvain, Leda Gloria
'The episodic narrative is full of mildly amusing incident.' – MFB

Don Giovanni

France/Italy/Germany 1979 184m colour
Gaumont-Opera-Camera One (Michel Seydoux)

Grandiose but artistically somewhat hesitant version of Mozart's opera; little here for film buffs.
d Joseph Losey ph Gerry Fisher ad Alexander Trauner cinematic conception Rolf Lieberman
☆ Ruggero Raimondi, John Macurdy, Edda Moser, Kiri Te Kanawa

The Don Is Dead

US 1973 117m Technicolor
Universal/Hal B. Wallis (Paul Nathan)

Cross and double cross among Mafia families.
A failed attempt to cash in on The Godfather, this endless melodrama is boringly violent and totally predictable.
w Marvin H. Albert novel Marvin H. Albert d Richard Fleischer ph Richard H. Kline m Jerry Goldsmith
☆ Anthony Quinn, Frederic Forrest, Robert Forster, Al Lettieri, Angel Tompkins, Charles Cioffi

Don Juan ★★

US 1926 126m bw
Warner

Exploits of the famous lover and adventurer at Lucretia Borgia's court.
Lithe swashbuckler in the best silent tradition, but with a synchronized score (by William Axt) which made it a sensation and led directly to the talkie revolution.
w Bess Meredyth d Alan Crosland ph Byron Haskin
☆ John Barrymore, Mary Astor, Warner Oland, Estelle Taylor, Myrna Loy, Phyllis Haver, Willard Louis, Montagu Love

'The story of a man who thought he was the greatest lover in the world ... and the people who tried to cure him of it!'

Don Juan de Marco ★

US 1995 90m colour
Entertainment/New Line/American Zoetrope (Francis Ford Coppola, Fred Fuchs, Patrick Palmer)

A young man wearing a mask and cape who claims to be a legendary lover is examined by a psychiatrist.
A dashingly romantic, modern-day variation on the old swashbuckling movies, enabling audiences to enjoy the fantasy while it is being explained away.
wd Jeremy Leven ph Ralf Bode m Michael Kamen pd Sharon Seymour ed Tony Gibbs
☆ Marlon Brando, Johnny Depp, Faye Dunaway, Geraldine Pailhas, Bob Dishy, Rachel Ticotin, Talisa Soto, Richard Sarafian
'Great Lover spoof is a long-winded bore.'– Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard
'Romantic without being super-sweet and avoids the heaviness of most Hollywood attempts to spring a tear.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
♫ song 'Have You Ever Really Loved A Woman' (m/ly Michael Kamen, Bryan Adams, Robert John Lange)

Don Juan Quilligan

US 1945 76m bw
TCF

A would-be romantic bargee becomes engaged to two girls simultaneously, one on each side of the Hudson.
Thin comedy of bigamy, similar to The Captain's Paradise, which came later.
w Arthur Kober, Frank Gabrielson d Frank Tuttle
☆ William Bendix, Phil Silvers, Joan Blondell, Mary Treen, Anne Revere, George Macready

'The finest adventure tale ever screened!'

Don Q Son of Zorro ★

US 1925 170m (16 fps) bw silent
United Artists

Further adventures in the manner of the star's 1920 hit (see The Mark of Zorro).
w Jack Cunningham novel K. and H. Prichard d Donald Crisp ph Henry Sharp ☆ Douglas Fairbanks, Mary Astor, Donald Crisp, Jack McDonald, Jean Hersholt

Don Quixote ★

France 1933 82m bw
Vandor/Nelson/Wester

An adequate potted version starring Fedor Chaliapin and in the English version George Robey (French version: Dorville).
w Paul Morand, Alexandre Arnoux, from Cervantes d G. W. Pabst ph Nikolas Farkas, Paul Portier m Jacques Ibert ad Andrei Andreiev
'Strictly for the arty clientele ... for general consumption tedious and dull. Americans in general may feel that the story scarcely rates retelling.' – Variety

Don Quixote ★★

USSR 1957 105m Agfacolor Sovscope
Lenfilm

An extremely handsome version with a commanding star performance.
w E. Schwarz d Grigori Kozintsev ph Andrei Moskvin, Apollinari Dudko m Kara-Karayev ad Yevgeny Yenei
☆ Nikolai Cherkassov, Yuri Tolubyev
† Other versions came from France in 1902 and 1908, Italy in 1910, France in 1911, USA in 1915, Britain in 1923, Denmark in 1926, Spain in 1947, Britain in 1972, and Britain (ballet version with Nureyev) in 1975.

Dona Flor and Her Two Husbands

Brazil 1976 110m Eastmancolor
Carnaval (Luis Carlos Barreto)

A young widow remarries, and has to share her bed with her late husband's ghost.
Semi-pornographic comedy which achieved some fashionable success.
wd Bruno Barreto novel Jorge Amado ph Maurito Salles m Chico Buarque de Holanda ☆ Sonia Braga, Jose Wilker, Mauro Mendonca

Dona Herlinda and Her Son ★

Mexico 1986 90m colour
Clasa Films Mondiales (Manuel Barbachano Ponce)
original title: Doña Herlinda y Su Hijo
A mother insists that her homosexual son, a doctor, get married, whereupon he sets up home with his wife and boyfriend.
An amusing comedy of manners, on how to remain gay in a masculine society.
wd Jaime Humberto Hermosillo ph Miguel Erhenberg ed Luis Kelly ☆ Arturo Meza, Marco Antonio Treviño, Leticia Lupercio, Guadalupe Del Toro, Angelica Guerrero, Donato Casteñeda, Guillermina Alba

Donald Cammell's Wild Side ★

US 2000 DeLuxe
Nu Image (Elie Cohn, John Langley)

A bank executive who moonlights as a prostitute becomes involved with a millionaire money launderer and his wife.
Oblique, melodramatic tale of homoerotic intrigue and betrayal among crazed individuals, in which normality never intrudes; Walken gives one of his notably eccentric, over-the-edge performances.
w Donald Cammell, China Kong d Donald Cammell ph Sead Mutarevic m Ryuichi Sakamoto pd Claire Bowin ed Frank Mazzola cos Alison Hirsch
☆ Christopher Walken (Bruno Buckingham), Joan Chen (Virginia Chow), Steven Bauer (Tony), Anne Heche (Alex Lee), Allen Garfield (Dan Rackman), Adam Novack (Lyle Litvak), Zion (Hiro Sakamoto), Richard Palmer (Cop Driver), Randy Crowder (Federal Agent), Marcus Aurelius (James Reed), Lewis Arquette (The Chief)
'An extraordinary piece of work.' – Sight and Sound
† The film exists in two versions. It was originally released direct to video in 1995 in a version cut by the producers and repudiated by Donald Cammell. After Cammell's suicide, editor Frank Mazzola recreated the film's original cut, which ran for 20 minutes longer and was first shown in British cinemas in 2000. This director's cut was produced by Hamish McAlpine and Nick Jones.
†† The original score by Jon Hassell and Jaimie Muhoberac was replaced by a new score by Sakamoto for the director's cut.

Dondi

US 1960 80m bw
Allied Artists

GIs in Italy adopt an orphan boy, who stows away to be with them in America.
Glutinous, sentimental comedy-drama.
w Albert Zugsmith, Gus Edson, from a comic strip d Albert Zugsmith
☆ David Janssen, Patti Page, Walter Winchell, Mickey Shaughnessy, Robert Strauss, Arnold Stang, Gale Gordon

Dongchun De Rizi: see The Days

La Donna del Fiume: see Woman of the River

Donna Donna

Holland 1987 90m colour
Movies Film (Chris Brouwer, Haig Balian)

Distressed by his inability to attract a girlfriend, a bright but inept student falls in love with a girl on a poster.
A small-scale, lackadaisical comedy, amiable enough in its casual way.
w Luc Van Beek d Hans Van Beek, Luc Van Beek ph Peter de Bont m Bert Hermelink ad Harry Ammerlaan ed Wim Louwrier
☆ René Van 'Thof, Simone Walraven, Glenn Durfort, Guusje Van Tilborgh, Bridget George, Joke Tjalsma, Lou Landré, Heleen Van Meurs

'1978. The US Government Waged A War Against Organised Crime. One Man Was Left Behind The Lines.'

Donnie Brasco ★★★ (8)

US 1997 126m Technicolor Panavision
Entertainment/Mandalay/Baltimore (Mark Johnson, Barry Levinson, Louis DiGiaimo, Gail Mutrux)

After he successfully infiltrates the Mafia, an undercover agent for the FBI finds himself torn between duty and friendship for the gangster who vouched for him.
A mob movie, based on a true story, that takes an almost academic interest in the rituals and manners of its denizens, concerned less with their actions than their characters, which gives it an effectively tragic intensity as two different sets of loyalties collide.
w Paul Attanasio book Joseph D. Pistone with Richard Woodley d Mike Newell ph Peter Sova m Patrick Doyle pd Donald Graham Burt ad Jefferson Sage ed Jon Gregory
☆ Al Pacino (Lefty Ruggiero), Johnny Depp (Donnie Brasco/Joe Pistone), Michael Madsen (Sonny Black), Bruno Kirby (Nicky), James Russo (Paulie), Anne Heche (Maggie Pistone), Zeljko Ivanek (Tim Curley), Gerry Becker (Dean Blandford), Zach Grenier (Dr. Berger)
'One of the best gangster movies you'll see this year, bursting with tension and filled with rewarding moments.' – John Patterson, Neon

Paul Attanasio

'Dark, Darkest, Darko'

Donnie Darko ★★★

US 2001 113m DeLuxe Panavision
Metrodome/Pandora/Flower (Sean McKittrick, Nancy Juvonen, Adam Fields)

In the late 1980s, a troubled teenage boy, who is prone to sleepwalking, is visited by a large rabbit, who tells him that the world is soon going to end.

An engaging, darkly comic look at growing up in suburbia; lurid and deliberately confusing in its circular narrative, it is also bracingly original.

wd Richard Kelly ph Steven Poster m Michael Andrews pd Alexander Hammond ed Sam Bauer, Eric Strand

☆ Jake Gyllenhaal (Donnie Darko), Jena Malone (Gretchen Ross), Drew Barrymore (Karen Pomeroy), James Duval (Frank), Maggie Gyllenhaal (Elizabeth Darko), Mary McDonnell (Rose Darko), Holmes Osborne (Eddie Darko), Katharine Ross (Dr Lillian Thurman), Patrick Swayze (Jim Cunningham), Noah Wyle (Dr Monnitoff)

'What a refreshingly different, distinctive piece of work it is.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'Kelly is unable to give the movie the kind of pacing that would make us laugh and shock us simultaneously, because he's too infatuated with an aura of hand-me-down gloom.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

† A director's cut, running at 134m, was released in 2004.

The Donor

Canada 1994 94m colour
MCEG Sterling (Damian Lee)

A stuntman spends the night with an attractive woman and wakes up to find that he is missing a kidney.

Part action film, part psychological thriller: neither works – the action sequences include a bicycle chase, and script and acting aren't up to emotional depth.

w Neal Dobrofsky, Tippi Dobrofsky d Damian Lee ph Gerald R. Goozee m Ronald J. Weiss pd John Gillespie ed David Ransley

☆ Jeff Wincott, Michelle Johnson, Gordon Thomson, Richard Zeppieri, Joseph Scorsiani, Amanda Tapping, Geza Kovacs

Donovan's Brain ★

US 1953 81m bw
UA/Dowling (Tom Gries)

An unscrupulous tycoon is fatally injured, but his brain is kept alive by a surgeon who finds himself dominated by it.

Modest competence marks this version of a much filmed novel, with quiet suspense and a firm central performance.

wd Felix Feist novel Curt Siodmak ph Joseph Biroc m Eddie Dunstedter

☆ Lew Ayres, Gene Evans, Nancy Davis, Steve Brodie, Lisa K. Howard

† It was a remake of The Lady and the Monster (qv).

Donovan's Reef

US 1963 108m Technicolor
Paramount (John Ford)

War veterans settle down on a South Sea island; when the daughter of one of them comes to visit, his reputation must be protected.

Good-humoured but finally enervating mixture of rough-house and slapstick, with the appearance of an old friends' benefit and the director in familiar sub-standard form.

w Frank Nugent, James Edward Grant d John Ford ph William H. Clothier m Cyril Mockridge

☆ John Wayne, Lee Marvin, Jack Warden, Elizabeth Allen, Dorothy Lamour, Cesar Romero, Mike Mazurki

Don's Party ★

Australia 1976 90m Eastmancolor
Miracle/Double Head/AFC (Philip Adams)

In suburban Sydney, a political celebration party turns into a pretence of wife-swapping.

Fairly acute observation of middle-class antipodean mores, interrupted with predictable bouts of antipodean crudeness.

w David Williamson play David Williamson d Bruce Beresford

☆ Ray Barrett, Clare Binney, Pat Bishop, Graeme Blundell, John Hargreaves

Don't Be a Menace to South Central While Drinking Your Juice in the Hood

US 1996 88m DeLuxe
Miramax/Island/Ivory Way (Keenen Ivory Wayans, Eric L. Gold)

A son moves in with his irresponsible father and gun-toting cousin.

Broad-humoured satire that sends up socially conscious movies of black experience; the jokes are usually coarse and sometimes funny.

w Shawn Wayans, Marlon Wayans, Phil Beauman d Paris Barclay ph Russ Brandt m John Barnes pd Aaron Osborne ed William Young

☆ Shawn Wayans, Marlon Wayans, Tracey Cherelle Jones, Chris Spencer, Suli McCullough, Darrell Heath, Keenen Ivory Wayans

'Full of obvious spoofery and funnier in the concept than in execution.' – Variety

Don't Bother to Knock ★

US 1952 76m bw
TCF (Julian Blaustein)

A deranged girl gets a baby-sitting job in a hotel and terrifies all concerned by threatening to kill her charge.

Curious vehicle for the emergent Monroe, who is not up to it, as who would be? Technical credits par, but entertainment value small.

w Daniel Taradash novel Charlotte Armstrong d Roy Baker ph Lucien Ballard m Lionel Newman

☆ Marilyn Monroe, Richard Widmark, Anne Bancroft, Donna Corcoran, Jeanne Cagney, Lurene Tuttle, Jim Backus, Elisha Cook Jnr

Don't Bother to Knock

GB 1961 89m Technicolor
Cinemascope
ABP/Haileywood (Frank Godwin)

US title: Why Bother to Knock

A Casanova travel agent gives each of his girlfriends a key to his Edinburgh flat.

Poorly developed and self-conscious sex farce.

w Denis Cannan, Frederic Gotfurt, Frederic Raphael novel Clifford Hanley d Cyril Frankel ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Elisabeth Lutyens

☆ Richard Todd, Judith Anderson, Elke Sommer, June Thorburn, Nicole Maurey, Rik Battaglia, Eleanor Summerfield, John Le Mesurier

Don't Come Knocking ④

Germany/France/UK/US 2005 111m
Panavision
Columbia TriStar/HanWay/Reverse Angle/Arte France) (Peter Schwarzkopff)

A veteran star of western movies walks abruptly off a film set and goes looking for his estranged family.

A 'neo-western' film of high-flown pretensions with little new to say: America is vast, people get separated from each other and lose their way in life. Its washed-up hero is dull, and the story finally falls apart.

w Sam Shepard d Wim Wenders ph Franz Lustig m T-Bone Burnett pd Nathan Amondson ad William Budge, Nicole Loebart ed Peter Przygodda, Oli Weiss

☆ Sam Shepard (Howard Spence), Jessica Lange (Doreen), Tim Roth (Sutter), Eva Marie Saint (Howard's mother), Gabriel Mann (Earl), Fairuza Balk (Amber), Sarah Polley (Sky)

'A monumentally boring and conceited film.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Don't Drink the Water

US 1969 100m Berkeley-Pathé
Avco Embassy (Jack Rollins, Charles H. Joffe)

Americans, visiting Europe for the first time, are stranded in Bulgaria, where they are mistaken for spies and forced to take refuge in the American embassy staffed by incompetents.

Frenetic and stagey version of the play, with broad acting that diminishes what is left of the comedy.

w R. S. Allen, Harvey Bullock play Woody Allen d Howard Morris ph Harvey Genkins m Pat Williams ad Robert Gundlach ed Ralph Rosenblum

☆ Jackie Gleason, Estelle Parsons, Ted Bessell, Joan Delaney, Michael Constantine, Howard St John, Danny Meehan

Don't Ever Leave Me

GB 1949 85m bw
Triton/Rank

A kidnapped teenager falls for her abductor. No Orchids for Miss Blandish played as a family comedy; quite unmemorable.

w Robert Westerby novel The Wide Guy by Anthony Armstrong d Arthur Crabtree

☆ Jimmy Hanley, Petula Clark, Edward Rigby, Hugh Sinclair, Linden Travers, Anthony Newley

Don't Get Me Started

GB/Germany 1994 76m colour
BFI/TiMe Medienvertreibs/Skyline (Steve Clark-Hall)

A murderer who has got away with his crime finds the strain of giving up smoking too much for him.

A strange, unenthralling thriller that suggests repression is bad for you; it certainly doesn't do much for the film.

wd Arthur Ellis ph Gil Taylor m Roger Bolton pd Caroline Amies ed Mike Bradsell

☆ Trevor Eve, Steve Waddington, Marion Bailey, Ralph Brown, Marcia Warren, Alan David, Patrick O'Connell, Lorna Heilbron

'A neat idea on paper that doesn't survive its journey to the screen.' – Variety

† It was first shown at Cannes in 1993 under the title Psychotherapy in a version that ran for 98m. It was withdrawn, re-cut, and some additional scenes added, under the direction of Paul Cowan and Martin Walsh.

Don't Give Up the Ship

US 1959 89m bw
Hal Wallis (Paramount)

A dim-witted naval lieutenant is accused of stealing a destroyer.

Feeble American service farce.

w Herbert Baker, Edmund Beloin, Henry Garson d Norman Taurog ph Haskell Boggs

☆ Jerry Lewis, Dina Merrill, Diana Spencer, Mickey Shaughnessy, Robert Middleton, Gale Gordon

Don't Go Breaking My Heart

GB 1998 94m colour
Polygram/Bill Kenright

As the result of a hypnotic suggestion going wrong, a widow with teenage children falls for an American sports therapist.

Dire romantic comedy; it is slick and glossy, and also clumsy and dull.

w Geoff Morrow d Willi Patterson ph Vernon Lawton m Rolfe Kent pd Tony Noble ed Peter Beston

☆ Anthony Edwards, Jenny Seagrove, Charles Dance, Jane Leeves, Tom Conti, Linford Christie (himself), Ben Reynolds, Ace Ryan, Amanda Holden

'One of those little British films that is so mind-bogglingly bad you will weep with boredom and frustration and beg for mercy – and that's even before the opening credits are over.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times

Don't Go in the House

US 1980 90m DeLuxe
Film Ventures/Turbine (Ellen Hammill)

In revenge for being burned as a child, a mother-dominated man incinerates women to whom he is attracted.

Extraordinarily unpleasant horror movie, influenced for the bad by Psycho.

w Joseph Ellison, Ellen Hammill, Joseph R. Masefield d Joseph Ellison ph Oliver Wood m Richard Einhorn ad Sarah Wood ed Jane Kurson

☆ Dan Grimaldi, Robert Osth, Ruth Dardick, Charles Bonet, Bill Ricci, Dennis M. Hunter

Don't Go Near the Water ★

US 1957 107m Metrocolor
Cinemascope
MGM/Avon (Lawrence Weingarten)

The US Navy sets up a public relations unit on a South Pacific island.

Loosely cemented service farce full of fumbling lieutenants and bumbling commanders, a more light-hearted M*A*S*H. Boring romantic interludes separate some very funny farcical sequences.

w Dorothy Kingsley, George Wells novel William Brinkley d Charles Walters ph Robert Bronner m Bronislau Kaper

☆ Glenn Ford, Fred Clark, Gia Scala, Romney Brent, Mickey Shaughnessy, Earl Holliman, Anne Francis, Keenan Wynn, Eva Gabor, Russ Tamblyn, Jeff Richards, Mary Wickes

'Drop everything! And see the cheekiest comedy of the year!'

Don't Just Lie There, Say Something!

GB 1973 91m Eastmancolor
Comocroft/Rank

By a strange chapter of accidents, a politician finds himself in bed with his under-secretary and a lady not his wife.

Stupefying from-the-stalls rendering of a successful stage farce; in this form it simply doesn't work.
w Michael Pertwee play Michael Pertwee d Bob Kellett ph Jack Atcheler m Peter Greenwell ed Al Gell
☆ Brian Rix, Leslie Phillips, Joan Sims, Joanna Lumley, Derek Royle, Peter Bland

Don't Just Stand There
US 1967 99m Techniscope
Universal (Stan Margulies)
A mild-mannered watch smuggler gets himself involved with kidnapping, murder, and finishing a sex novel.
Frantic but ineffective farce which keeps on the move but does not arrive anywhere.
w Charles Williams novel The Wrong Venus by Charles Williams d Ron Winston ph Milton Krasner m Nick Perito
☆ Mary Tyler Moore, Robert Wagner, Barbara Rhoades, Glynis Johns, Harvey Korman
'Paris locations might have helped, but we're stuck with the San Fernando Valley.' – Robert Windeler

'The Kings of Rock are rollin' back to the screen in their biggest!'

Don't Knock the Rock ★
US 1956 84m bw
Columbia/Clover (Sam Katzman)
A singer returns to his home town to show adults that rock is harmless fun.
Cheap exploitation movie, most notable for Little Richard's performances of 'Long Tall Sally', 'Rip It Up' and 'Tutti Frutti'.
w Robert E. Kent, James B. Gordon d Fred F. Sears ph Benjamin H. Kline ad Paul Palmentola ed Edwin Bryant, Paul Borofsky
☆ Alan Dale, Alan Freed, Bill Haley and the Comets, Jimmy Ballard, Little Richard, the Treniers, Dave Appell and his Applejacks

Don't Look Now ★★★★
GB 1973 110m Technicolor
BL/Casey/Eldorado (Peter Katz)
After the death of their small daughter, the Baxters meet in Venice two old sisters who claim mediumistic connection with the dead girl. The husband scorns the idea, but repeatedly sees a little red-coated figure in shadowy passages by the canals. Then he confronts it...
A macabre short story has become a puzzling piece of high cinema art full of vague suggestions and unexplored avenues. Whatever its overall deficiencies, it is too brilliant in surface detail to be dismissed. Depressingly but fascinatingly set in wintry Venice, it has to be seen to be appreciated.
w Allan Scott, Chris Bryant story Daphne du Maurier d Nicolas Roeg ph Anthony Richmond m Pino Donaggio ad Giovanni Soccol ed Graeme Clifford ☆ Donald Sutherland (John Baxter), Julie Christie (Laura Baxter), Hilary Mason (Heather), Clelia Matania (Wendy), Massimo Serrato (Bishop)
'The fanciest, most carefully assembled enigma yet seen on the screen.' – New Yorker
'A powerful and dazzling visual texture.' – Penelope Houston
Anthony Richmond

Don't Look Now ... We're Being Shot At! ★
France 1966 130m Eastmancolor Panavision
Les Films Corona (Robert Dorfmann) original title: La Grande Vadrouille
During World War II three members of a British bomber crew bale out over Paris and make a frantic escape to the free zone by means of various wild disguises.
Freewheeling star farce, a shade lacking in control, but with some funny sequences.
wd Gérard Oury ph Claude Renoir m Georges Auric
☆ Terry-Thomas, Bourvil, Louis de Funès, Claudio Brook, Mike Marshall
'Both the sight gags and the characters evoke pale echoes of Laurel and Hardy, but it is not familiarity that breeds contempt here so much as the debasement of the familiar.' – MFB

Don't Lose Your Head: see Carry On – Don't Lose Your Head

Don't Make Waves
US 1967 97m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Filmways (John Calley, Martin Ransohoff)
A swimming-pool salesman attempts to get his own back on an impulsive young woman who has wrecked his car.
Malibu beach farce for immature adults, made by professionals helpless in the face of a weak script, but boasting a funny climax with a house teetering on the edge of a cliff.
w Ira Wallach, George Kirgo novel Muscle Beach by Ira Wallach d Alexander Mackendrick ph Philip Lathrop m Vic Mizzy
☆ Tony Curtis, Claudia Cardinale, Robert Webber, Joanna Barnes, Sharon Tate, Jim Backus, Mort Sahl

Don't Move
Italy/Spain/GB 2004 122m colour
Dogwoof/Cattleya/Medusa (iccardo Tozzi, Giovanni Stabilini, Marco Chimenz) original title: Non Ti Muovere
As his critically-ill daughter has brain surgery, an Italian surgeon recalls the poor Albanian girl with whom he fell desperately in love.
An intensely emotional wallow, a melodramatic narrative of mad desire, abortions, childbirth and death that goes over the top from the opening moments and stays there for the remainder of the film.
w Sergio Castellitto, Margaret Mazzantini novel Margaret Mazzantini d Sergio Castellitto ph Gianfilippo Corticelli m Lucio Godoy pd Francesco Frigeri ed Patrizio Marone
☆ Sergio Castellitto (Timoteo), Penelope Cruz (Italia), Claudia Gerini (Else), Angela Finocchiaro (Ada), Marco Giallini (Manlio), Pietro De Silva (Alfredo), Elena Perino (Angela)
'A wild movie, deeply dislikable, lacking moral seriousness, devoid of humour and taking place for the most part in torrential rain.' – Philip French, Observer
'Movies as strong and provocative as this one are a special pleasure.' – Joe Morgenstern, Wall Street Journal

Don't Move, Die and Rise Again!: see Zamri, Umri, Voskresni!

Don't Open the Window: see The Living Dead at the Manchester Morgue

Don't Open till Christmas
GB 1983 86m colour
21st Century
A maniac goes about killing Father Christmases.
Tawdry horror film of marginal interest because of subject and cast.
w Derek Ford, Al McGoohan d Edmund Purdom
☆ Edmund Purdom, Alan Lake, Gerry Sundquist, Belinda Mayne, Mark Jones

Don't Panic, Chaps!
GB 1959 85m bw
Columbia/Hammer/ACT (Teddy Baird)
British and German units are sent to set up observation posts on the same Adriatic island, and agree to sit out the war in comfort.
An ingenious idea is ill-served by a poorly written script and a rather bored cast.
w Jack Davies story Michael Corston, Ronald Holroyd d George Pollock ph Arthur Graham m Philip Green ad Scott MacGregor ed Harry Aldous
☆ Dennis Price, George Cole, Thorley Walters, Harry Fowler, Nicholas Phipps, Percy Herbert, Nadja Regin

'The fun never sets on the British Empire!'

Don't Raise the Bridge, Lower the River
GB 1967 100m Technicolor
Columbia/Walter Shenson
An American turns his English wife's home into a discotheque.
Dreary comedy apparently intent on proving that its star can be just as unfunny abroad as at home.
w Max Wilk d Jerry Paris ph Otto Heller m David Whitaker
☆ Jerry Lewis, Terry-Thomas, Jacqueline Pearce, Bernard Cribbins, Patricia Routledge, Nicholas Parsons, Michael Bates

'...I'll never tell.'

Don't Say a Word
US/Australia 2001 113m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Regency/Village Roadshow/NPV/Further (Arnon Milchan, Arnold Kopelson, Anne Kopelson)
Ruthless criminals give a psychiatrist eight hours to save his young daughter's life by uncovering a secret locked in the mind of a mental patient.
Slick, unpleasant thriller that sacrifices logic for suspense.
w Anthony Peckham, Patrick Smith Kelly novel Andrew Klavan d Gary Fleder ph Amir Mokri m Mark Isham pd Nelson Coates ed William Steinkamp, Armen Minasian cos Ellen Mirojnick
☆ Michael Douglas (Dr Nathan Conrad), Sean Bean (Patrick B. Koster), Brittany Murphy (Elisabeth Burrows), Skye McCole Bartusiak (Jessie Conrad), Guy Torry (Martin J. Dolen), Jennifer Esposito (Detective Sandra Cassidy), Shawn Doyle (Russel Maddox), Victor Argo (Sydney Simon), Famke Janssen (Aggie Conrad), Oliver Platt (Dr Louis Sachs)
'Smart, stylish and, most important, satisfying.' – Kevin Thomas, Los Angeles Times
'It's hard to care about characters who make cardboard look complex and multifaceted.' – Jay Carr, Boston Globe

Don't Take it to Heart ★
GB 1944 90m bw
GFD/Two Cities (Sydney Box)
A genial castle ghost is unleashed by a bomb and affects the love affair of a researcher with the daughter of the house.
Amiably lunatic British-upper-class extravaganza with eccentric characters and some felicitous moments.
wd Jeffrey Dell ph Eric Cross m Mischa Spoliansky
☆ Richard Greene, Edward Rigby, Patricia Medina, Alfred Drayton, Richard Bird, Wylie Watson, Moore Marriott, Brefni O'Rorke, Amy Veness, Claude Dampier, Joan Hickson, Joyce Barbour, Ronald Squire, Ernest Thesiger
'A cheerful and rewarding entertainment.' – Richard Mallett, Punch
'Not funny accidental but funny deliberate, and nine times out of ten the joke comes off.' – Observer

Don't Talk to Strange Men
GB 1962 65m bw
British Lion-Bryanston/Derick Williams
A girl begins a romance via a telephone call-box with a man she has never met.
Undramatic little warning to the young about the dangers of accepting lifts from strange men.
w uncredited story Gwen Cherrell d Pat Jackson ph Stephen Dade ad Brian Herbert ed Helen Wiggins
☆ Christina Gregg, Cyril Raymond, Gillian Lind, Conrad Phillips, Janina Faye, Dandy Nichols, Gwen Nelson

Don't Tell Her It's Me
US 1990 102m CFI color
Rank/Sovereign (George Braunstein, Ron Hamady)
A romantic novelist persuades her wimpish brother, who is recovering from radiation treatment, to pretend to be a biker in order to get a girlfriend.
Trivial, depressingly unsubtle comedy with matching performances.
w Sarah Bird novel The Boyfriend School by Sarah Bird d Malcolm Mowbray ph Reed Smoot m Michael Gore pd Linda Pearl, Daryl Kerrigan ed Marshall Harvey ☆ Shelley Long, Steve Guttenberg, Jami Gertz, Kyle MacLachlan, Madchen Amick, Kevin Scannell
'Takes the germ of an amusing notion about the division between realistic and fantastic romantic hero and hammers it painfully into the ground.' – Kim Newman, Sight and Sound
'Grotesquely unfunny comedy.' – Variety

Don't Tell Mom the Babysitter's Dead
US 1991 105m DeLuxe
Warner/HBO/Cinema Plus/Outlaw/Mercury/Douglas (Robert Newmyer, Brian Reilly, Jeffrey Silver)
A young girl supports her siblings while their mother is away on holiday.
Lamentably silly comedy.
w Neil Landau, Tara Ison d Stephen Herek ph Tim Suhrstedt m David Newman, Brian Nazarian pd Stephen Marsh ed Larry Bock
☆ Christina Applegate, Joanna Cassidy, John Getz, Josh Charles, Keith Coogan, Concetta Tomei, David Duchovny, Kimmy Robertson

Don't Trust Your Husband
US 1948 90m bw
James Nasser/United Artists
An executive conceals from his wife the sex of the client with whom he has to spend a lot of time.
Ho-hum comedy with a laborious plotline and a flagging cast.
w Lou Breslow, Joseph Hoffman d Lloyd Bacon
☆ Fred MacMurray, Madeleine Carroll, Charles Rogers

'Things Are About To Get Hairy.'

Doogal

US/GB/France 2006 80m colour
Pathé/Weinstein/UKFC/Pricel/France 2/Canal+/Film Action SPZ/bolex brothers (Claude Gorsky, Laurent Rodon, Pascal Rodon)

Four friends foil an evil wizard's plans to find three magic diamonds so that he can freeze the sun.

A revised version for American audiences of The Magic Roundabout that adds pop references to a dreadful script as well as featuring a farting moose; all in all, one of the least appealing animated films of the century.

w Paul Bassett Davies, Tad Safran, Raoff Sanoussi, Stephane Sanoussi, Butch Hartman characters Serge Danot, Martine Danot d Jean Duval, Frank Passingham, Dave Borthwick m Mark Thomas, James L. Venable ad Lilian Fuentefria ed Mathieu Morfin

☆ voices of: Judi Dench (Narrator), Daniel Tay (Doogal), Jimmy Fallon (Dylan), Whoopi Goldberg (Ermintrude), Ian McKellen (Zebedee), William H. Macy (Brian), Jon Stewart (Zeebad), Kylie Minogue (Florence), Chevy Chase (Train), Kevin Smith (Moose)

'Strictly for the small-fry set, lacking the visual style, wit or imagination necessary to entice adult viewers.' – Fred Scheck, Hollywood Reporter

† It was a re-written and -voiced version of the movie The Magic Roundabout (qv) for US release.

The Doolins of Oklahoma

US 1949 90m bw
Columbia (Harry Joe Brown)

GB title: The Great Manhunt

When his old gang claims his return to lawlessness, Bill Doolin walks into the sheriff's guns rather than cause his wife unhappiness.

Moderate Western with an unusually less-than-sympathetic role for its star.

w Kenneth Gamet d Gordon Douglas ph George Lawton m Paul Sawtell, George Duning

☆ Randolph Scott, George Macready, Louise Allbritton, John Ireland, Noah Beery Jnr, Dona Drake

'Hell Breaks Loose.'

Doom

GB/Czech Republic/Germany/US 2005 105m Technicolor Super 35
Universal (Lorenzo di Bonaventura, John Wells)

In 2026, a rapid response unit is sent to Mars to deal with an outbreak in an experimental laboratory where scientists are being transformed into flesh-eating monsters.

Based on the first-person shooter video game, this long battle in gloomy tunnels plays like a low-budget, less intense version of James Cameron's Aliens.

w David Callaham, Wesley Strick d Andrzej Bartkowiak ph Tony Pierce-Roberts m Clint Mansell pd Stephen Scott ed Derek G. Brechin sp Stan Winston Studios

☆ Karl Urban (John Grimm), Rosamund Pike (Samantha Grimm), DeObia Oparei (Destroyer), Ben Daniels (Goat), Raz Adoti (Duke), Richard Brake (Portman), Dexter Fletcher (Pinky), The Rock (Sarge)

'Plays like a mutant cross between a biotech thriller and a zombie movie, with all the alien autopsies, blood-gushing protuberances and meaningless scientific jargon that come with the territory.' – Justin Chang, Variety

The Doom Generation

US/France 1995 83m colour
Metro Tartan/Union Générale/Teen Angst/Desperate/Blurco/Why Not (Andresa Sperling, Gregg Araki)

A young drifter involves two teenagers in sex, robbery and murder.

Randomly violent road movie, which seems to be deliberately devoid of meaning.

wd Gregg Araki ph Jim Fealy pd Therese Deprez ed Gregg Araki

☆ James Duval, Rose McGowan, Johnathon Schaech, Cress Williams, Skinny Puppy, Parker Posey, Heidi Fleiss

'A stunning film with superlative production values ... pic is bold not only in its art design, but also in its narrative and tone, a mixture of satire and horror.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety

Doomed: see Ikiru

The Doomed Battalion ★

US/Germany 1932 74m bw
Universal

Austrians fight Italians high in the Alps.

Interesting but not very effective attempt to internationalize a German 'bergfilm'.

w Luis Trenker, Carl Harth d Cyril Gardner ph Sepp Allgeier m Giuseppe Becce ad Walter R. Koessler ed Clarence Kolster

☆ Luis Trenker, Tala Birell, Victor Varconi, Albert Conti, C. Henry Gordon, Gibson Gowland, Henry Armetta, Gustav von Seyffertitz

'Beaucoup snow and ice stuff for hot weather appeal ... capable of sustaining bally.' – Variety

Doomed Cargo: see Seven Sinners

Doomed to Die: see Mr Wong

Doomsday Man

US 1998 89m CFI
G&G/Downhome/Symphony/WIN (Sam L. Grogg)

A scientist, who is concerned about military research into biological weapons, steals a virulent killer virus and goes on the run.

Predictable, uninteresting low-budget thriller that exploits its serious subject matter for trivial purposes.

w Andrew Stein d William R. Greenblatt ph Alton Chewning m Billy Lincoln, John Nau pd Dan Hall ed Sherwood Jones

☆ Esai Morales (Mike), Yancy Butler (Kate), James Marshall (Dr Tom Banks), Renee Allman (Jill), Randell Haynes (Lyons), Barry Bell (Prentiss), Todd Sandler (Carter), Rhoda Griffis (Mrs Prentiss), Adoley Odunton (Sharon), Gina Stewart (Dolores), Roy Lind (Dr Reinhardt), Jill Galloway (Melissa)

Doomwatch

GB 1972 92m colour
Tigon (Tony Tenser)

An investigator of coastal pollution discovers a village in which dumped chemicals have given all the inhabitants a distorting disease called acromegaly.

An unsatisfactory horror film is drawn from a moderately serious TV series about ecology.

w Clive Exton d Peter Sasdy ph Kenneth Talbot m John Scott

☆ Ian Bannen, Judy Geeson, John Paul, Simon Oates, George Sanders, Percy Herbert, Geoffrey Keen, Joseph O'Conor

'The most dangerous secrets are the ones we're afraid to tell ourselves.'

The Door in the Floor ★ 6

US 2004 Technicolor
Focus/Revere/This Is That (Ted Hope, Anne Carey, Michael Corrente)

A 17-year-old boy working as an assistant to a writer begins an affair with his wife, who is still mourning the death of her two sons.

Understated drama of adultery and middle-aged angst, well enough done without being very engaging.

wd Tod Williams novel A Widow for One Year by John Irving ph Terry Stacey m Marcelo Zarvos pd Therese DePrez ed Affonso Goncalves

☆ Jeff Bridges (Ted Cole), Kim Basinger (Marion Cole), Jon Foster (Eddie O'Hare), Mimi Rogers (Evelyn Vaughn), Elle Fanning (Ruth Cole), Bijou Philips (Alice)

'Intelligent, impeccably acted, unsentimental drama whose adult themes should resonate strongly with critics and discerning audiences, women in particular.' – David Rooney, Variety

The Door in the Wall ★

GB 1956 29m Technicolor Vistavision
AB Pathé/BFI/Lawrie (Howard Thomas)

A man is obsessed by a childhood dream of a green door which leads into a beautiful garden.

The story is chosen to experiment with Dynamic Frame, a system in which the picture changes shape and size according to the subject matter. In this case the results are entertaining enough.

wd Glenn H. Alvey Jnr ph Jo Jago m James Bernard

☆ Stephen Murray, Ian Hunter

The Door with Seven Locks

GB 1940 89m bw
Rialto (John Argyle)

US title: Chamber of Horrors

A mad doctor abducts an heiress in the hope of gaining her wealth.

Old-fashioned barnstormer, ineptly made.

w Norman Lee, John Argyle, Gilbert Gunn novel Edgar Wallace d Norman Lee ph Desmond Dickinson

☆ Leslie Banks, Lilli Palmer, Romilly Lunge, Gina Malo, Richard Bird, David Horne, Cathleen Nesbitt

'The Ceremony Is About To Begin.'

The Doors ★★

US 1991 134m DeLuxe Panavision
Guild/Carolco/Imagine (Bill Graham, Sasha Harari, A. Kitman Ho)

A film school drop-out and poet becomes a drug-abusing, self-destructive rock star.

Despite the title, the focus of this grandiose biopic is The Doors' singer Jim Morrison. Fans will enjoy it most; others are likely to find it noisy, overlong and over-busy.

w J. Randal Johnson, Oliver Stone d Oliver Stone ph Robert Richardson m The Doors pd Barbara Ling ed David Brenner, Joe Hutshing

☆ Val Kilmer, Frank Whaley, Kevin Dillon, Meg Ryan, Kyle MacLachlan, Billy Idol, Dennis Burkley, Josh Evans, Michael Madsen, Michael Wincott, Kathleen Quinlan

'It is folly to lavish $40 million (that's $10 million a Door!) and 2hr 15 min. of your time on a proposition – some guys can't handle fame – that was evident two decades ago. Maybe it was fun to bathe in decadence back then. But this is no time to wallow in that mire.' – Richard Corliss, Time

Doorway to Hell

US 1930 79m approx bw
Warner

GB title: A Handful of Clouds

A young gangster tries to go straight but is driven back into crime.

Vividly written but dramatically evasive crime-does-not-pay story, trying to eat its cake and have it.

w George Rosener story A Handful of Clouds by Rowland Brown d Archie Mayo ph Barney McGill md Leo Forbstein

☆ Lew Ayres, Charles Judels, James Cagney, Dorothy Matthews, Leon Janney, Robert Elliott

'Swell gang picture, handled so as to just slip by the censors.' – Variety

ℒ original story

Dop Bey Kuan Wan: see One Armed Boxer

Dopo Mezzanotte: see After Midnight

Doppelganger: see Journey to the Far Side of the Sun

Doro No Kawa: see Muddy River

Dorp aan de Rivier: see Doctor in the Village

Dosshouse ★

GB 1933 53m bw
MGM/Sound City (John Baxter)

An escaped convict is captured by a reporter and detective posing as tramps.

Low-budget featurette which deserves a footnote in film history for its social consciousness, rare at the time, especially in the dosshouse scenes.

w Herbert Ayres d John Baxter ph George Stretton md Colin Wark ad D. W. L. Daniels ed R. Gardener, R. Swan

☆ Frank Cellier, Arnold Bell, Herbert Franklyn, J. Hubert Leslie

Dou San: see God of Gamblers

The Double: see Kagemusha

Double Bunk

GB 1960 92m bw
British Lion/Bryanston (George H. Brown)

Newlyweds live in an old houseboat.

Thin comedy which turns out not to be leakproof.

wd C. M. Pennington-Richards ph Stephen Dade m Stanley Black

☆ Ian Carmichael, Janette Scott, Liz Frazer, Sid James, Dennis Price, Reginald Beckwith, Irene Handl, Noel Purcell, Naunton Wayne

Double Confession

GB 1950 85m bw
ABP/Harry Reynolds

At a seaside resort, a man finds his wife dead and tries to frame her lover, but becomes confused with two real murderers with a different purpose.

Confused and unlikely melodrama which signally lacks the ancient mariner's eye.

w William Templeton novel All on a Summer's Day by John Garden d Ken Annakin ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Benjamin Frankel

☆ Derek Farr, Peter Lorre, William Hartnell, Joan Hopkins, Naunton Wayne, Ronald Howard, Kathleen Harrison, Leslie Dwyer, Edward Rigby

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Double Deal

Australia 1981 90m colour Panavision Rychemond Film Productions (Brian Kavanagh, Lynn Barker)

A wealthy businessman plans an elaborate scheme to rid himself of his disenchanted wife.

Silly thriller in the style of Sleuth.

wd Brian Kavanagh ph Ross Berryman m Bruce Smeaton ad Jill Eden ed Tim Lewis

☆ Louis Jourdan, Angela Punch McGregor, Diane Craig, Warwick Comber, Peter Cummins, Bruce Spence, June Jago, Kerry Walker

'Frankenstein, Dracula and other screen monsters pale by comparison with this fiendish, decadent woman!'

Double Door

US 1934 75m bw

Paramount

A selfish, wealthy Fifth Avenue spinster takes a dislike to her brother's girlfriend and locks her up in a vault.

Silly, rather boring melodrama which may have worked on the stage but did not take to the screen.

w Gladys Lehman, Jack Cunningham play Elizabeth McFadden d Charles Vidor

☆ Mary Morris (the American one), Evelyn Venable, Kent Taylor, Sir Guy Standing, Anne Revere, Colin Tapley, Halliwell Hobbes

'Not likely to get anywhere at the b.o ... dull, drab and incredible.' – Variety

Double Dragon

US 1994 95m CFI color

Gramercy/Imperial Entertainment/Scanbox/Greenleaf (Sunil R. Shah, Ash R. Shah, Alan Schechter, Jan Hamsher, Don Murphy)

In the future, when Los Angeles has been reduced to rubble by an earthquake, two brothers fight an evil ruler who wants to control the world.

Martial arts mayhem based on a successful video game, consisting only of endless noisy fights.

w Michael Davis, Peter Gould d James Yukich ph Gary Kibbe m Jay Ferguson pd Mayne Berke ed Florent Retz

☆ Robert Patrick, Mark Dacascos, Scott Wolf, Kristina Malandro Wagner, Julia Nickson, Alyssa Milano

'Even kids won't get much of a kick out of this high-energy, low-IQ futuristic slugfest.' – Brian Lowry, Variety

Double Dynamite

US 1951 80m bw

RKO (Irving Cummings Jnr)

aka: It's Only Money

A bank teller wins a fortune at the race track but is afraid his winnings will be thought the proceeds of a bank robbery.

Insultingly mild comedy, nearly saved by a few quips from Groucho.

w Melville Shavelson, Harry Crane, Leo Rosten d Irving Cummings ph Robert de Grasse m Leigh Harline

☆ Frank Sinatra, Jane Russell, Groucho Marx, Don McGuire, Howard Freeman

† Made in 1948.

'What Starts With A Kiss Will End With A Killing...'

Double Exposure

US 1993 93m CFI color

New Age/Falcon Arts & Entertainment/Joey Walker (Joanne Watkins)

A jealous husband, who suspects his wife of having an affair, hires a private detective with troubles of his own to investigate.

Exceedingly dull and trivial thriller, acted and directed without conviction.

w Claudia Hoover, Bridget Hoffman story Christine Colfer d Claudia Hoover ph John Connor m Paolo Rustichelli pd Tim Keating ed Tom Meshelski

☆ Ron Perlman, Ian Buchanan, Jennifer Gatti, Dedee Pfeiffer, William R. Moses, James McEachin, Bridget Hoffman

Double Harness

US 1933 70m bw

RKO

A girl sets out to trick a rich man into marriage.

Mildly amusing comedy which in its time was considered risqué.

w Jane Murfin play Edward Montgomery d John Cromwell

☆ Ann Harding, William Powell, Henry Stephenson, Lillian Bond, Reginald Owen, George Meeker, Kay Hammond

'Managed with such reticence that at no time is there a note of offence ... this class actress again triumphs over her surroundings, and the picture will please her large following.' – Variety

'Twin brothers torn apart by violence. On a mission of revenge. One packs a punch. One packs a piece. Together they deliver...'

Double Impact

US 1991 109m DeLuxe

Columbia TriStar/Stone Group (Ashok Amritaj, Jean-Claude Van Damme)

Twin brothers, separated when young, get together when grown up to avenge their parents' murder by gangsters.

Two Van Dammes for the price of one merely doubles the incoherence of this otherwise ordinary martial arts movie.

w Sheldon Lettich, Jean-Claude Van Damme story Sheldon Lettich, Jean-Claude Van Damme, Steve Meerson, Peter Krikes d Sheldon Lettich ph Richard Kline m Arthur Kempel pd John Jay Moore ed Mark Conte, Brent White

☆ Jean-Claude Van Damme, Geoffrey Lewis, Alan Scarfe, Alonna Shaw, Cory Everson, Philip Can Yan Kin, Bolo Yeung, Sarah-Jane Varley

'Turns on a typically lame revenge plot while dragging out unimaginatively shot action sequences until no one will give a good Van Damme. Tedious story-telling should mute the pic's b.o. impact.' – Variety

'You can't kiss away a murder!'

Double Indemnity ★★★★

US 1944 107m bw

Paramount (Joseph Sistrom)

An insurance agent connives with the glamorous wife of a client to kill her husband and collect.

Archetypal film noir of the forties, brilliantly filmed and incisively written, perfectly capturing the decayed Los Angeles atmosphere of a Chandler novel but using a simpler story and more substantial characters. The hero/villain was almost a new concept.

w Billy Wilder, Raymond Chandler novel James M. Cain d Billy Wilder ph John Seitz m Miklos Rozsa ad Hans Dreier, Hal Pereira ed Doane Harrison

☆ Fred MacMurray (Walter Neff), Barbara Stanwyck (Phyllis Dietrichson), Edward G. Robinson (Barton Keyes), Tom Powers (Mr. Dietrichson), Porter Hall (Mr. Jackson), Jean Heather (Lola Dietrichson), Byron Barr (Nino Zachette), Richard Gaines (Mr. Norton)

'The sort of film which revives a critic from the depressive effects of bright epics about the big soul of America or the suffering soul of Europe and gives him a new lease of faith.' – Richard Winnington

'The most pared-down and purposeful film ever made by Billy Wilder.' – John Coleman, 1966

'Profoundly, intensely entertaining.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

'One of the highest summits of film noir ... without a single trace of pity or love.' – Charles Higham, 1971

best picture; script, direction; John Seitz; Miklos Rozsa; Barbara Stanwyck; sound recording (Loren L. Ryder)

Double Indemnity: see The River's Edge (1956)

'Murder Isn't Always A Crime.'

Double Jeopardy

US 1999 105m DeLuxe Panavision

Paramount (Leonard Goldberg)

Sentenced to prison for killing her husband, a wife discovers he framed her and that, when she gets out, she can kill him with impunity because she cannot be tried twice for the same offence.

Idiotically implausible thriller; if you can accept its premise, there are mild pleasures to be had.

w David Weisberg, Douglas S. Cook d Bruce Beresford ph Peter James m Normand Corbeil pd Howard Cummings ed Mark Warner

☆ Tommy Lee Jones (Travis Lehman), Ashley Judd (Libby Parsons), Bruce Greenwood (Nick Parsons), Annabeth Gish (Angie), Roma Maffia (Margaret Skolowski), Davenia McFadden (Evelyn Lake), Jay Brazeau (Bobby), Gillian Barber (Rebecca Tingely), Benjamin Weir (Matty Parsons, age 4), Spencer Treat Clark (Matty Parsons, age 11)

'It will hold your attention, but it does nothing to win your admiration.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times

† The film was a hit, taking more than $100m at the US box-office.

'This woman inspired him – this woman feared him!'

A Double Life ★★

US 1947 103m bw

Universal/Kanin Productions (Michael Kanin)

An actor playing Othello is obsessed by the role and murders a woman he imagines to be Desdemona.

An old theatrical chestnut (cf Men Are Not Gods*) is decked out with smartish backstage dialogue but despite a pleasant star performance remains unrewarding if taxing, and the entertainment value of the piece is on the thin side considering the mighty talents involved.*

w Ruth Gordon, Garson Kanin d George Cukor ph Milton Krasner m Miklos Rozsa

☆ Ronald Colman, Shelley Winters, Signe Hasso, Edmond O'Brien, Millard Mitchell

'As a piece of film story-telling it is generally skilled. Yet the central situation is artificial.' – Dilys Powell

Miklos Rozsa; Ronald Colman

Ruth Gordon, Garson Kanin; George Cukor

The Double Life of Véronique ★★

France/Poland 1991 98m colour

Gala/Sidéral/Canal Plus/TOR/Norsk Film (Leonardo de la Fuente)

original title: La Double Vie de Véronique

Two young women, one Polish, the other French, seem to share a single existence.

A complex, finely acted and directed puzzle of a film, but one that grips the attention throughout.

w Krzysztof Kieślowski, Krzysztof Piesiewicz d Krzysztof Kieślowski ph Slawomir Idziak m Zbigniew Preisner pd Patrice Mercier, Halina Dobrowolska ed Jacques Witta

☆ Irène Jacob, Halina Gryglaszewska, Kalina Jedrusik, Aleksander Bardini, Wladyslaw Kowalski, Jerzy Gudejko

'Despite pic's many-splendoured outbursts of filmic creativity and intense emotion, final result remains a head-scratching cipher with blurred edges.' – Variety

The Double Man ★

GB 1967 105m Technicolor

Warner/Hal E. Chester

A CIA agent investigates the death of his son on a Swiss skiing holiday and finds the murder was a lure to get him there so that an enemy lookalike can substitute for him.

Rather ruthless but good-looking and generally watchable spy melodrama.

w Frank Tarloff, Alfred Hayes novel Henry S. Maxfield d Franklin Schaffner ph Denys Coop m Ernie Freeman

☆ Yul Brynner, Clive Revill, Anton Diffring, Britt Ekland, Moira Lister

The Double McGuffin

US 1979 100m colour

Mulberry Square/Joe Camp

Kids turn into amateur detectives when they find that a visiting foreign leader is to be assassinated.

Barely tolerable lightweight mystery for an audience which probably doesn't exist.

wd Joe Camp ph Don Reddy m Euel Box pd Harland Wright

☆ Ernest Borgnine, George Kennedy, Elke Sommer, Rod Browning

Double Negative

Canada 1980 96m colour

Quadrant

A photo journalist tries to find the murderer of his wife, and discovers he's an amnesiac and did it himself.

Ho-hum mystery thriller centring on an ancient wheeze; treatment resolutely plodding.

w Thomas Hedley Jnr, Janis Allen, Charles Dennis novel The Three Roads by Ross Macdonald d George Bloomfield

☆ Michael Sarrazin, Susan Clark, Anthony Perkins, Howard Duff, Kate Reid

Double or Nothing

US 1937 90m bw

Paramount

Inheritors under a trick will must double their bequests or lose them.

Flat comedy with music; none of the elements are really up to scratch.

w Charles Lederer and others d Theodore Reed ☆ Bing Crosby, Martha Raye, Andy Devine, William Frawley, Mary Carlisle, Benny Baker
'Due for big openings and tapering-off business. Will squeeze through.' – Variety

'Shinjo Ten No Amijima'
Double Suicide ★★★
Japan 1969 104m bw
Toho/Hyogensha/ATG
In 18th-century Osaka, a married paper merchant and the courtesan he loves realise that they can only be together in death. After they run away together, he kills her and hangs himself.
Fascinating and tragic drama of frustrated love that uses the conventions of bunraku theatre, with black-clad puppeteers involved in the action. The effect is theatrical and also suggests that its protagonists are manipulated by forces beyond their control.
w Taeko Tomioka, Toru Takemitsu, Masahiro Shinoda puppet play Monzaemon Chikamatsu d Masahiro Shinoda ph Toichiro Narushima m Toru Takemitsu ad Kiyoshi Awazu ☆ Kichiemon Nakamura (Jihei), Shima Iwashita (Koharu/Osan), Hosei Kamatsu (Tahei), Yusuke Takita (Magoemon), Kamatari Fujiwara (Yamatoya Owner), Yoshi Kato (Gosaemon), Shizue Kawarazaki (Osan's Mother), Tokie Hidari (Osugi)

Double Team
US 1997 91m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/Mandalay/Moshe Diamant/One Story
A top agent who wants to quit the game discovers that his wife and unborn child are threatened by the terrorist he failed to kill.
Frenetic action movie that throws in everything but the towel and the kitchen sink.
w Don Jacoby, Paul Mones d Tsui Hark ph Peter Pau m Gary Chang pd Marek Dobrowolski ed Bill Pankow
☆ Jean-Claude Van Damme, Dennis Rodman, Mickey Rourke, Paul Freeman, Natacha Lindinger, Valeria Cavalli, Jay Benedict, Rob Diem 'Action-packed, often campy and colorful amusement park of a movie.' – Variety

Double Wedding
US 1937 87m bw
MGM (Joseph L. Mankiewicz)
A bohemian artist makes a play for the lady of his choice by romancing her sister.
Zany star comedy which doesn't quite come off.
w Jo Swerling play Great Love by Ferenc Molnar d Richard Thorpe ph William Daniels m Edward Ward
☆ William Powell, Myrna Loy, John Beal, Florence Rice, Jessie Ralph, Edgar Kennedy, Sidney Toler, Barnett Parker, Katherine Alexander, Donald Meek
'OK for topflight business ... would be funnier if it were shorter.' – Variety

Double Whammy
US/Germany 2001 100m Technicolor
Winchester/Myriad/Gold Circle/Lemon Sky/Apostle (Marcus Viscidi, Jim Serpico, David Kronemyer, Larry Katz)
A disgraced New York cop manages to redeem himself with the aid of a glamorous chiropractor.
Slight comedy that staggers from one unlikely contrivance to another.
wd Tom DiCillo ph Robert Yeoman m Jim Farmer pd Michael Shaw ed Camilla Toniolo
☆ Denis Leary (Ray Pluto), Elizabeth Hurley (Dr Ann Beamer), Steve Buscemi (Jerry Cubbins), Luis Guzman (Juan Benitez), Victor Argo (Lt Spigot), Donald Faison (Cletis)
'A skimpy affair clumsily held together by obtrusive devices' – Philip French, Observer

Double Whoopee ★★
US 1928 20m bw silent
Hal Roach
Incompetent doormen at a swank hotel cause havoc.
Simple-minded but pleasing star farce.
w Leo McCarey, H. M. Walker d Lewis R. Foster ph George Stevens, Jack Roach ed Richard Currier
☆ Laurel and Hardy, Jean Harlow, Charlie Hall

Double X
GB 1991 97m Technicolor
Feature/String of Pearls (Shani S. Grewal)
A reformed safebreaker asks a former Chicago cop-turned-hitman to help him rescue his kidnapped daughter from a vicious gangleader.
Dismal thriller, with a dreary plot and uninspired direction and acting, which suggests that the British film industry is bent on committing ritual suicide.
wd Shani S. Grewal story Vengeance by David Fleming ph Dominique Grosz m Raf Ravenscroft pd Colin Pocock ed Michael Johns ☆ Simon Ward, William Katt, Norman Wisdom, Bernard Hill, Gemma Craven, Leon Herbert, Derren Nesbitt, Vladek Sheybal, Chloe Annett
'An inept low-budget suspenser. Reliable cast is double-crossed by a laughable script and clumsy helming. Result, which hardly cuts it even as a TV pic, should expire fast.' – Variety

Doubting Thomas
US 1935 78m bw
Fox
Small-town 'society' puts on an amateur show.
Slight but attractive star vehicle.
w William Conselman, Bartlett Cormack novel The Torch Bearers by George Kelly d David Butler ☆ Will Rogers, Billie Burke, Alison Skipworth, Sterling Holloway, Andrew Tombes, Gail Patrick
'There is one thing that Rogers knows, and that is how to get laughs with any sort of a situation, and he didn't learn that just from reading the papers.' – Variety

Douce ★
France 1943 106m bw
Société Parisienne de l'Industrie Cinématographique
In 1887 Paris a sheltered young rich girl falls for a steward and encounters family opposition.
A charming old-fashioned story which provides a well-taken opportunity for a portrait of the old bourgeoisie.
w Jean Aurenche, Pierre Bost d Claude Autant-Lara ph Gaston Thonnart m René Cloërc ☆ Odette Joyeux, Jean Debucourt, Marguerite Moreno, Roger Pigaut, Madeleine Robinson
'Direction and camerawork constantly reveal touches of felicity.' – MFB

Doucement Les Basses: see Take It Easy

Doughboys ★
US 1930 80m approx bw
MGM/Buster Keaton (Lawrence Weingarten)
GB title: Forward March
A young eccentric joins the army.
Simple-minded farce with a few good routines for the star.
w Richard Schayer d Edward Sedgwick ph Leonard Smith ☆ Buster Keaton, Sally Eilers, Cliff Edwards, Edward Brophy
'Keaton's first talker is comedy with a kick.' – Variety

The Doughgirls ★
US 1944 102m bw
Warner (Mark Hellinger)
In a crowded wartime Washington hotel, a honeymoon is frustrated by constant interruption, not to mention the discovery that the wedding was not legal.
Frantic farce, generally well adapted, and certainly played with gusto.
w James V. Kern, Sam Hellman play Joseph Fields d James V. Kern ph Ernest Haller m Adolph Deutsch
☆ Alexis Smith, Jane Wyman, Jack Carson, Ann Sheridan, Irene Manning, Eve Arden, Charlie Ruggles, John Alexander, John Ridgely, Craig Stevens, Alan Mowbray, Donald MacBride
'There's nothing so good in it that you must attend, just as there is nothing bad enough to keep you away.' – Archer Winsten

Doug's 1st Movie
US 1999 77m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/Jumbo (Jim Jenkins, David Campbell, Melanie Grisanti, Jack Spillum)
Schoolfriends discover a monster, created from pollutants, in their local lake.
A spinoff from a long-running US TVseries, this is a leisurely, adequately animated movie of minimal appeal.
w Ken Scarborough characters created by Jim Jenkins d Maurice Joyce m Mark Watters ed Alysha Nadine Cohen, Christopher K. Gee
☆ Featuring voices: Thomas McHugh, Fred Newman, Chris Phillips, Constance Shulman, Frank Welker, Doug Preis, Guy Hadley
'I can't believe kids will tolerate this boring ET/Free Willy knock-off.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

The Dove ★
US 1968 15m bw
Coe/Davis Ltd
Back in the countryside of his childhood, a Nobel prize winner recalls the events of a summer...
Elaborate Ingmar Bergman spoof complete with sub-titles and pidgin Swedish. Hilarious at the time for those who had just seen Wild Strawberries.
w Sidney Davis d George Coe, Anthony Lover ph Anthony Lover
☆ David Zirlin, George Coe, Pamela Burrell, Madeline Kahn

The Dove ★
US 1974 104m Technicolor Panavision
St George Productions (Gregory Peck)
Yachtsman Robin Lee Graham makes a five-year voyage around the world.
Bland, rather stolid adventure story for boatniks, based on real incidents; good to look at.
w Peter Beagle, Adam Kennedy book Robin Lee Graham, Derek Gill d Charles Jarrott ph Sven Nykvist m John Barry
☆ Joseph Bottoms, Deborah Raffin, John McLiam, Dabney Coleman
'Postcard views flick by to the strains of a saccharine score.' – David McGillivray

The Dover Road: see Where Sinners Meet

Down among the Sheltering Palms
US 1952 86m Technicolor
TCF (Fred Kohlmar)
An American army unit takes over a South Sea island, but fraternization is forbidden.
Tolerable comedy-musical with familiar jokes and situations.
w Claude Binyon, Albert Lewin, Burt Styler d Edmund Goulding ph Leon Shamroy m Leigh Harline m/ly Harold Arlen, Ralph Blane
☆ William Lundigan, Jane Greer, Mitzi Gaynor, David Wayne, Gloria de Haven, Gene Lockhart, Jack Paar, Billy Gilbert

Down among the Z Men
GB 1952 71m bw
New Realm (E. J. Fancey)
US title: Stand Easy
A detective turned soldier keeps an atomic formula out of enemy hands.
A missed opportunity to transfer the appeal of The Goons from their successful radio show to the screen; it was not helped by the conventional script, the dancing girls and Secombe's straight role.
w Jimmy Grafton, Francis Charles d Maclean Rogers ph Geoffrey Faithfull m Jack Jordan ed Peter Mayhew
☆ Peter Sellers, Michael Bentine, Harry Secombe, Spike Milligan, Carole Carr, Andrew Timothy, Graham Stark, Miriam Karlin, Eunice Gayson, The Television Toppers

Down and Out in Beverly Hills ★
US 1985 97m Technicolor
Touchstone (Paul Mazursky)
A wandering con artist is taken in by an insecure Beverly Hills family.
Somewhat bumbling but sporadically effective rehash of Renoir's Boudu Sauvé des Eaux (qv), with a few modern jabs and effectively eccentric performances.
w Paul Mazursky, Leon Capetanos play René Fauchois d Paul Mazursky ph Donald McAlpine m Andy Summers pd Pato Guzman
☆ Nick Nolte, Richard Dreyfuss, Bette Midler, Little Richard, Tracy Nelson, Elizabeth Pena
'What makes this picture so enjoyable is not the exaggerations of its narrative but the richness of its texture. Every inch of every frame is utilized. While, in the foreground, the actors are doing or saying one thing, behind them a television screen is telling us something else. The audience is completely embroiled in every incident.' – Quentin Crisp

Down Argentine Way ★
US 1940 94m Technicolor
TCF (Harry Joe Brown)
A wealthy American girl falls in love with an Argentinian horse-breeder.
A very moderate musical which happened to bring both Grable and Miranda to star stature and set Fox off on their successful run of forties extravaganzas, reasonably pleasant to look at but empty-headed.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

w Karl Tunberg, Darrell Ware d Irving Cummings ph Ray Rennahan, Leon Shamroy m/ly Harry Warren, Mack Gordon ad Richard Day, Joseph C. Wright
☆ Betty Grable, Carmen Miranda, Don Ameche, Charlotte Greenwood, J. Carrol Naish, Henry Stephenson, Leonid Kinskey, The Nicholas Brothers
'I dislike Technicolor in which all pinks resemble raspberry sauce, reds turn to sealing wax, blues shriek of the washtub, and yellows become suet pudding.' – James Agate
'So outrageous – that it's hard to believe it isn't at least partly intentional – but why would anybody make this picture on purpose.' – New Yorker, 1976
♫ Ray Rennahan, Leon Shamroy; title song (m Harry Warren, ly Mack Gordon); art direction

'It's not where you start - It's where you start again.'

Down by Law ★
US 1986 107m bw
Island Pictures/Black Snake/Grokenburger Films (Alan Kleinberg)
A disc jockey and a pimp, framed for crimes they did not commit, escape from jail with an Italian who has a minimal grasp of English.
Engaging lowlife comedy.
wd Jim Jarmusch ph Robby Müller m John Lurie, Tom Waits ed Melody London
☆ Tom Waits, John Lurie, Roberto Benigni, Ellen Barkin, Billie Neal, Rockets Redglare, Vernel Bagneris, Nicoletta Braschi

Down from the Mountain ★★
US 2000 94m FotoKem
Momentum/Pennebaker Hegedus/Mike Zoss (Bob Neuwirth, Frazer Pennebaker)
Documentary of the rehearsals and performance in Nashville, Tennessee, of a concert by some of the singers and musicians involved in the soundtrack of the Coen brothers' film O Brother, Where Art Thou?
Enjoyable account of the country musicians whose soundtrack album became an enormous hit: highlights include the veteran Ralph Stanley, one of the last performances by singer-songwriter and fiddle-player John Hartford, who died soon after, and the gospel singing of the Fairfield Four.
d Nick Doob, Chris Hegedus, D. A. Pennebaker ph Joan Churchill, Jim Desmond, Doob, Chris Hegedus, Bob Neuwirth, Jehane Noujaim, D.A. Pennebaker, John Paul Pennebaker md T-Bone Burnett ed Nick Doob, D. A. Pennebaker
☆ John Hartford, Dr Ralph Stanley, Fairfield Four, Emmylou Harris, The Cox Family, Chris Thomas King, Alison Kraus and Union Station, Colin Linden, The Nashville Bluegrass Band, The Peasall Sisters, Gillian Welch, Ethan Coen, Joel Coen, T-Bone Burnett, Tim Blake Nelson
'Brings us close to some likeable, gifted people and the roots of their music in poverty, religion and social isolation.' – Philip French, Observer

Down in the Valley ★ ④
US 2005 125m DeLuxe Panavision
Icon/Element (Holly Wiersma, Adam Rosenfelt, Edward Norton)
In Los Angeles' San Fernando Valley, a garage worker and would-be cowboy begins an affair with a sheriff's rebellious and naive 18-year-old step-daughter.
There are deliberate echoes of Taxi Driver here, but it moves away from themes of urban anomie to concern itself with a displaced fantasist and the effects of the movies of Howard Hawks and John Ford in conjuring a dangerous American myth of the wild West.
wd David Jacobson ph Enrique Chediak m Peter Salett pd Franco-Giacomo Carbone ed Lynzee Klingman, Michael Hofacre
☆ Edward Norton (Harlan), Evan Rachel Wood (Tobe), David Morse (Wade), Rory Culkin (Lonnie), John Diehl (Steve), Bruce Dern (Charlie), Geoffrey Lewis (Sheridan)
'Yields a complex consideration of the cowboy as nonconformist archetype and the enduring appeal of the gunslinger fantasy in an age when the wide-open spaces of the West have been eaten away by strip malls and tract-house developments.' – Scott Foundas, Variety
'Never has the term "American Independent" so obviously been code for "wholly miserable experience"' – Empire

Down Memory Lane ★
US 1949 70m bw
Aubrey Schenck
A kaleidoscope of Mack Sennett comedy shorts, linked by Steve Allen as a disc jockey. Much Bing Crosby; Fields in The Dentist; an appearance by Sennett himself.
d Phil Karlson

Down Periscope
US 1996 93m DeLuxe
TCF (Robert Lawrence)
A submarine commander is given a broken-down ship, crewed by misfits, with which to prove his abilities.
Low comedy that sends up submarine movies, but sinks under the weight of some leaden jokes.
w Hugh Wilson, Andrew Kurtzman, Eliot Wald d David S. Ward ph Victor Hammer m Randy Edelman, Mark McKenzie pd Michael Corenblith ed William Anderson, Armen Minasian
☆ Kelsey Grammer, Lauren Holly, Rob Schneider, Harry Dean Stanton, Bruce Dern, William H. Macy, Ken Hudson Campbell, Rip Torn
'A curiously sterile effort which, although by no means unwatchable, still manages to reinvent good old-fashioned bland.' – Bob McCabe, Empire

Down Three Dark Streets ★
US 1954 85m bw
UA/Edward Small (Arthur Gardner, Jules V. Levy)
An FBI agent is shot on duty, and his friend avenges him in the course of clearing up three cases in which he was involved.
Competent, enjoyable police film with three cases for the price of one.
w The Gordons, Bernard C. Schoenfeld book Case File FBI by the Gordons d Arnold Laven ph Joseph Biroc m Paul Sawtell
☆ Broderick Crawford, Ruth Roman, Martha Hyer, Marisa Pavan, Casey Adams, Kenneth Tobey
† One of the first collaborations of the prolific production company Laven-Gardner-Levy.

Down to Earth
US 1932 79m bw
Nouveau riche Americans return from Europe and find themselves misfits at home.
Thin sequel to They Had to See Paris.
w Edwin Burke story Homer Croy
d David Butler
☆ Will Rogers, Dorothy Jordan, Irene Rich, Matty Kemp, Mary Carlisle
'Will need support ... the least powerful in draw of all Rogers' pictures.' – Variety

Down to Earth ★
US 1947 101m Technicolor
Columbia (Don Hartman)
The muse Terpsichore comes down to help a Broadway producer fix a new show in which she is featured.
Pleasant but undistinguished musical fantasy, a sequel to Here Comes Mr Jordan. The heavenly sequences promise more amusement than they produce.
w Edwin Blum, Don Hartman
d Alexander Hall ph Rudolph Maté
m Heinz Roemheld
☆ Rita Hayworth, Larry Parks, Roland Culver (Mr Jordan), Edward Everett Horton, Marc Platt, James Gleason
'Just the film to make the spectator forget the troubles of life.' – MFB
'Celestial whimsy musical, with arch acting and a dull score.' – New Yorker, 1977
† Rita Hayworth's singing was dubbed by Anita Ellis.

'A story of premature reincarnation.'

Down to Earth
US 2001
Paramount/Village Roadshow/NPV/Alphaville 3 Arts (Sean Daniel, Michael Rotenberg, James Jacks)
A black unsuccessful standup comedian arrives in heaven too soon, and is sent back to occupy the body of a murder victim, a rich and elderly white man.
Feeble comedy that wastes Rock's talents and does not compare to the two earlier versions of the same story; it lacks finesse and style.
w Chris Rock, Lance Crouther, Ali LeRoi, Louis CK screenplay Heaven Can Wait by Elaine May, Warren Beatty play Halfway to Heaven by Harry Segall d Chris Weitz, Paul Weitz
☆ Chris Rock (Lance Barton), Regina King (Sontee), Chazz Palminteri (King), Eugene Levy (Keyes), Frankie Faison (Whitney Daniels), Mark Addy (Cisco), Greg Germann (Sklar), Jennifer Coolidge (Mrs Wellington), Wanda Sykes (Wanda), John Cho (Phil Quon)
'Disappointingly poor.' – Empire
† Harry Segall's play was first filmed in 1941 as Here Comes Mr Jordan, starring Robert Montgomery; Warren Beatty starred in a remake Heaven Can Wait in 1978.

Down to the Sea in Ships ★
US 1948 120m bw
TCF (Elmer Clifton)
An old whaling skipper wants his grandson to follow in his footsteps.
Seagoing spectacle with strong characters; all concerned show Hollywood in its most professional form, but the film somehow fails to catch the imagination or live in the memory.
w John Lee Mahin, Sy Bartlett d Henry Hathaway ph Joe MacDonald m Alfred Newman
☆ Lionel Barrymore, Dean Stockwell, Richard Widmark, Cecil Kellaway, Gene Lockhart
'There's no great amount of originality in the script... but when the film sweeps out to sea, it becomes fairly lively.' – John McCarten, New Yorker

Down to You
US 2000 92m colour
Miramax/Open City (Jason Kliot, Joana Vicente)
Two high-school students fall in love.
Teen soap opera that follows the usual formula, gaining a little interest from the charm of its protagonists.
wd Kris Isacsson ph Robert Yeoman m Edmund Choi pd Kevin Thompson ed Stephen A. Rotter cos Michael Clancy
☆ Freddie Prinze Jnr (Al Connelly), Julia Stiles (Imogen), Selma Blair (Cyrus), Shawn Hatosy (Eddie Hicks), Zak Orth (Monk Jablonski), Jim Morrison (Ashton Kutcher), Rosario Dawson (Lana), Henry Winkler (Chef Ray), Lucie Arnaz (Judy Connelly)
'The latest addition to the teen-pic boom has all the elements in place to please its target demo and leave most everyone else underwhelmed.' – Brendan Kelly, Variety

Down Went McGinty: see The Great McGinty

'The ultimate catch has met his match.'

Down with Love ★
US 2003 94m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Fox 2000/Regency (Bruce Cohen, Dan Jinks)
In the early 60s, a womanising journalist bets that he can bed the author of a bestselling book about the arrival of a new kind of independent woman.
A throwback to the kind of innocent romantic movies that teamed Rock Hudson and Doris Day; this comes out as a pale carbon copy.
w Eve Ahlert, Dennis Drake d Peyton Reed ph Jeff Cronenweth m Marc Shaiman pd Andrew Laws ed Larry Bock cos Daniel Orlandi
☆ Renée Zellweger (Barbara Novak), Ewan McGregor (Catcher Block), Sarah Paulson (Vicki Hiller), David Hyde Pierce (Peter McMannus), Rachel Dratch (Gladys), Jack Plotnick (Maurice), Tony Randall (Theodore Banner)
'In spite of all the manic high jinks, the laughter here arises not from confusion and hysteria, but from complacency, which is not as funny.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times
'Made by people with a genuine love for the entertainment they're bringing back to life. You'd have to be a real prude not to go for it.' – Shawn Levy, Oregonian

'April 1945, a nation awaits its...'

Downfall ★★★★
Germany/Austria/Italy 2004 155m
Momentum/Constantin Film/Bernd Eichinger original title: Der Untergang
An old woman recalls her youthful time as Hitler's secretary during his last ten days before he committed suicide in his Berlin bunker as the city fell to the Russian army.
A superb study of the collapse of an individual and an ideology, with fine performances, notably from Bruno Ganz as Hitler, visibly shrinking and shaking as he contemplates the end of the Third Reich, and alternating between despair and madness as he orders non-existent troops into battle.
w Bernd Eichinger book Inside Hitler's

Bunker: The Last Days of the Third Reich by Joachim Fest book Until the Final Hour: Hitler's Last Secretary by Traudl Junge, Melissa Mueller. d Oliver Hirschbiegel ph Rainer Klausmann m Stephan Zacharias pd Bernd Lepel ed Hans Funck

☆ Bruno Ganz (Adolf Hitler), Alexandra Maria Lara (Traudl Junge), Corinna Harfouch (Magda Goebbels), Ulrich Matthes (Joseph Goebbels), Juliane Koehler (Eva Braun), Heino Ferch (Albert Speer), Christian Berkel (Dr Schenck), Matthias Habich (Werner Haase), Thomas Kretschmann (Hermann Fegelein)

'In every aspect, his film is superbly made.' – Stanley Kauffmann, New Republic

'Solid history, fine cinema. Downfall is gripping, moving, and, in the end, profoundly horrifying.' – Kim Newman, Empire

'As a piece of acting, Ganz's work is not just astounding, it's actually rather moving. But I have doubts about the way his virtuosity has been put to use.' – David Denby, New Yorker

foreign film

Downhill

GB 1927 80m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Gainsborough (Michael Balcon)
US title: When Boys Leave Home

A sixth-form schoolboy, accused of theft, is expelled and goes to the bad in Marseilles before being found innocent.

Absurd novelette with only marginal glimpses of the director's emerging talent.

w Eliot Stannard play David Lestrange (Ivor Novello, Constance Collier) d Alfred Hitchcock ph Claude McDonnell ed Ivor Montagu

☆ Ivor Novello, Ben Webster, Robin Irvine, Sybil Rhoda, Lilian Braithwaite, Isabel Jeans, Ian Hunter

FAMOUS LINE: 'Does this mean, sir, that I shall not be able to play for the Old Boys?'

Downhill Racer ★

US 1969 101m Technicolor
Paramount/Wildwood (Richard Gregson)

An ambitious American skier gains a place on the team competing in Europe.

Virtually plotless, casually assembled study of a man and a sport, good to look at, often exciting, but just as frequently irritating in its throwaway style.

w James Salter novel Oakley Hall d Michael Ritchie ph Brian Probyn m Kenyon Hopkins

☆ Robert Redford, Gene Hackman, Camilla Sparv, Joe Jay Jalbert, Timothy Kirk, Dabney Coleman

Robert Redford

Downstairs

US 1932 77m bw
MGM

A villainous chauffeur blackmails the other servants.

Failed attempt by a falling star to do something different.

w Melville Baker, Lenore Coffee story John Gilbert d Monta Bell

☆ John Gilbert, Virginia Bruce, Paul Lukas, Hedda Hopper, Reginald Owen, Olga Baclanova

'Next Time Take The Stairs.'

Downtime ★★

GB/France 1997 91m colour
Film Four/Scala/Channel 4/Arts Council/Moving Image/Pandora (Richard Johns)

A former police psychologist is trapped in a lift in a gang-ridden tower block on a run-down housing estate with the suicidal woman he fancies, her young son and an epileptic old man.

A low-budget thriller grounded in a slum-ridden social reality which delivers on downbeat suspense, apart from its unconvincing ending.

w Caspar Berry d Bharat Nalluri ph Tony Imi m Simon Boswell pd Chris Townsend ed Les Healey

☆ Paul McGann, Susan Lynch, Tom Georgeson, David Roper, Denise Bryson, Adam Johnston, David Horsefield, Stephen Graham, Birdy Sweeney

'It's a game try with some splendid moments.' – Variety

Downtown

US 1990 96m DeLuxe
TCF (Charles H. Maguire)

An idealistic young white cop is transferred from a genteel suburb to a tough black inner-city neighbourhood.

Unarresting buddy movie that is an uneasy mix of broad comedy, violence and far too many narrative clichés.

w Nat Mauldin d Richard Benjamin ph Richard H. Kline m Alan Silvestri pd Charles Rosen ed Jacqueline Cambas, Brian Chambers

☆ Anthony Edwards, Forest Whitaker, Penelope Ann Miller, Joe Pantoliano, David Clennon, Art Evans

Drachenfutter: see Dragon's Food

'The strangest love a woman has ever known ... a livid face bent over her in the ghostly mist!'

Dracula ★★★

US 1931 84m bw
Universal (Carl Laemmle Jnr)

A Transylvanian vampire count gets his come-uppance in Yorkshire.

A film which has much to answer for. It started its star and its studio off on horror careers, and it launched innumerable sequels (see below). In itself, after two eerie reels, it becomes a pedantic and slow transcription of a stage adaptation, and its climax takes place offscreen; but for all kinds of reasons it remains full of interest.

w Garrett Fort play Hamilton Deane, John Balderston novel Bram Stoker d Tod Browning ph Karl Freund m Tchaikovsky ad Charles D. Hall ed Milton Carruth, Maurice Pivar

☆ Bela Lugosi (Count Dracula), Helen Chandler (Mina Seward), David Manners (Jonathan Harker), Dwight Frye (Renfield), Edward Van Sloan (Dr. Van Helsing)

'Must have caused much uncertainty as to the femme fan reaction ... as it turns out the signs are that the woman's angle is all right and that sets the picture for better than average money ... it comes out as a sublimated ghost story related with all surface seriousness and above all with a remarkably effective background of creepy atmosphere.' – Variety

'A too literal adaptation of the play (not the book) results in a plodding, talkative development, with much of the vital action taking place off-screen.' – William K. Everson

'The mistiest parts are the best; when the lights go up the interest goes down.' – Ivan Butler

'It'll chill you and fill you with fears. You'll find it creepy and cruel and crazed.' – New York Daily Mirror

† Later advertising variations concentrated on the horror element: 'In all the annals of living horror one name stands out as the epitome of evil! So evil, so fantastic, so degrading you'll wonder if it isn't all a nightmare! Innocent girls lured to a fate truly worse than death!

†† Lugosi was not the first choice for the role of the Count. Ian Keith and William Powell were strongly favoured.

††† Sequels include Dracula's Daughter (qv), Son of Dracula (qv); the later Hammer sequence consists of Dracula (see below), Brides of Dracula (qv), Dracula Prince of Darkness (qv), Dracula Has Risen From the Grave (qv), Taste the Blood of Dracula (qv), Scars of Dracula (qv), Dracula AD 1972 (qv), The Satanic Rites of Dracula (qv). Other associated films in which the Count or a disciple appears include (all qv) Return of the Vampire (1944), House of Frankenstein (1945), House of Dracula (1945), Abbott and Costello Meet Frankenstein (1948), The Return of Dracula (1958), Kiss of the Vampire (1963), The Fearless Vampire Killers (1967), Count Yorga Vampire (1969), Countess Dracula (1970), Vampire Circus (1970), The House of Dark Shadows (1970), Vampire Lovers (1971), Blacula (1972), Dracula (1974), Martin (1978), Dracula (1979), Salem's Lot (1979), Nosferatu The Vampyre (1979), The Hunger (1983), The Lost Boys (1987), Bram Stoker's Dracula (1992). Minor potboilers are legion.

'Who will be his bride tonight?'

Dracula ★★★

GB 1958 82m Technicolor
Rank/Hammer (Anthony Hinds)

US title: Horror of Dracula

A remake of the 1931 film.

Commendably brief in comparison with the later Hammer films, this was perhaps the best horror piece they turned out as well as the most faithful to its original. Decor and colour were well used, and the leading performances are striking.

w Jimmy Sangster novel Bram Stoker d Terence Fisher ph Jack Asher m James Bernard ad Bernard Robinson ed James Needs, Bill Lenny

☆ Peter Cushing (Van Helsing), Christopher Lee (Dracula), Melissa Stribling (Mina Holmwood), Carol Marsh (Lucy), Michael Gough (Arthur Holmwood), John Van Eyssen (Jonathan Harker), Valerie Gaunt (Vampire Woman), Miles Malleson (Marx, the Undertaker)

Dracula

Italy 1974 93m colour
Andrew Braunsberg

aka: Andy Warhol's Dracula
aka: Blood for Dracula

In this sick and gory version, Dracula becomes ill if he feasts on anything but pure virgin's blood. The hero saves the heroine in the predictable way.

Not for the squeamish.

wd Paul Morrissey

☆ Udo Kier, Arno Juerging, Vittorio de Sica, Maxime McEmory, Joe Dallesandro

Dracula ★

GB 1979 112m Technicolor Panavision
Universal/Mirisch (Marvin Mirisch/Tom Pevsner)

A lush, expensive and romantic version which presents the count as a matinée idol and spends too much time on the romantic scenes to distract attention from an old old story.

w W. D. Richter d John Badham ph Gilbert Taylor m John Williams pd Peter Murton

☆ Frank Langella, Laurence Olivier, Donald Pleasence, Kate Nelligan, Trevor Eve

'A triumphantly lurid creation that seems bound to be either under-valued for its circus effects or over-valued for the stylishness with which it steers between the reefs of camp and theatrical indulgence.' – Richard Combs, MFB

Dracula: see Bram Stoker's Dracula (1992)

'The most seductive evil of all time has now been unleashed in ours.'

Dracula 2000

US 2000 98m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Dimension/Neo Art & Logic (W K Border, Joel Soisson)

GB title: Dracula 2001

After Dracula is released when his coffin is stolen and opened, a centenarian Van Helsing follows his old adversary to New Orleans to save his estranged daughter from the vampire's clutches.

Despite being given the blessing of Wes Craven, this is just another vampire movie, even though it manages to identify Dracula with Judas Iscariot.

w Joel Soisson d Patrick Lussier ph Peter Pau m Marco Beltrami pd Carol Spier ed Patrick Lussier, Peter Devaney Flanagan cos Denise Cronenberg

☆ Christopher Plummer (Van Helsing), Gerard Butler (Dracula), Jonny Lee Miller (Simon), Justine Waddell (Mary), Jennifer Esposito (Solina), Omar Epps (Marcus), Colleen Ann Fitzpatrick (Lucy), Sean Patrick Harris (Trick), Danny Masterson (Nightshade), Lochlyn Munro (Eddie), Tig Fong (Dax), Jeri Ryan (Valerie Sharp)

'Thudding, suspense-free montage of unshocking shock effects and more severed heads than toppled during the French Revolution.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

Dracula 2001: see Dracula 2000

Dracula 71: see Bram Stoker's Count Dracula

'The Count is back, with an eye for London's hot pants, and a taste for everything!'

Dracula AD 1972

GB 1972 95m Eastmancolor
Warner/Hammer (Josephine Douglas)

Dracula reappears among Chelsea teenagers practising black magic.

Depressed attempt to update a myth; the link with modern sin makes it seem not only tarnished but tasteless, and the film itself is lamentably short on excitement.

w Don Houghton d Alan Gibson ph Richard Bush m Michael Vickers pd Don Mingaye ed James Needs

☆ Peter Cushing, Christopher Lee, Stephanie Beacham, Michael Coles, Christopher Neame, William Ellis

Dracula contra Frankenstein: see Dracula – Prisoner of Frankenstein

'You'll die laughing. Then you'll rise from the dead and laugh once more.'

Dracula: Dead and Loving It

US 1995 90m Technicolor
Polygram/Castle Rock/Gaumont/Brooksfilms (Mel Brooks)

Dracula comes to London to seek fresh blood.
A feeble comedy, poking fun at British repression while sticking surprisingly closely to the plot of the original novel.
w Mel Brooks, Rudy de Luca, Steve Haberman d Mel Brooks ph Michael D. O'Shea m Hummie Mann pd Roy Forge Smith ed Adam Weiss
☆ Leslie Nielsen, Peter MacNicol, Steven Weber, Amy Yasbeck, Lysette Anthony, Harvey Korman, Mel Brooks, Anne Bancroft, Clive Revill
'As thin as bat wing.' – Sunday Times

'You just can't keep a good man down!'

Dracula Has Risen from the Grave

GB 1968 92m Technicolor
Hammer (Aida Young)

Dracula again terrorizes the village in the shadow of his castle, and is routed by a bishop.
Tedious, confined and repetitive shocker with little conventional action and an unusual emphasis on sex.
w John Elder (Anthony Hinds) d Freddie Francis ph Arthur Grant m James Bernard ad Bernard Robinson ed James Needs, Spencer Reeve ☆ Christopher Lee, Rupert Davies, Veronica Carlson, Barbara Ewing, Barry Andrews, Ewan Hooper
'A bloody bore.' – Judith Crist

Dracula is Alive and Well and Living in London: see The Satanic Rites of Dracula

Dracula, Pages from a Virgin's Diary ★★ (7)

Canada 2002 75m bw/colour
Vonnie Von Helmut Film/Mark Goddin/Guy Maddin

In England in the 1890s, Dracula arrives to seduce willing maidens.
Although his film is based on a production by the Royal Winnipeg Ballet, Maddin is less interested in dance than in style and in the way ballet shares a means of expressing emotion with silent cinema.
wd Guy Maddin ballet Mark Goddin ph Paul Suderman pd Deanne Rohde ed Deco Dawson
☆ Zhang Wei-Qiang (Dracula), Tora Birtwhistle (Lucy), David Moroni (Von Helsing), Cindy Marie Small (Mina), Johnny Wright (Jonathan)
'Guy Maddin is a scholar, poet, prankster, and ferociously devoted classicist who likes to resurrect dead cinemas and deader directors and make them vital all over again.' – Wesley Morris, Boston Globe
'This arty approach may dismay hard-core horror fans, but it captures the dark grace of the original with wit and style.' – Patrick Peters, Empire

Dracula Prince of Darkness

GB 1966 90m Techniscope
Warner/Hammer/Seven Arts (Anthony Nelson-Keys)

Stranded travellers are made welcome at the late count's castle by his sinister butler, who proceeds to use the blood of one of them to revivify his master.
Ingenious rehash of incidents from the original story, largely dissipated by poor colour and unsuitable wide screen.
w John Sansom story John Elder d Terence Fisher ph Michael Reed m James Bernard pd Bernard Robinson ed James Needs, Chris Barnes
☆ Christopher Lee, Philip Latham, Barbara Shelley, Thorley Walters, Andrew Keir, Francis Matthews, Suzan Farmer, Charles Tingwell
'Run-of-the-coffin stuff ... only for ardent fang-and-cross fans.' – Judith Crist

Dracula – Prisoner of Frankenstein (dubbed)

Spain/France 1972 90m Telecolor 'Scope
Interfilme/Fenix/Prodif ETS original title: Dracula contra Frankenstein
aka: The Screaming Dead

Frankenstein revives Dracula in order to create an army of vampires to take over the world.
Horrendous not for its subject matter but for its total incompetence, including an incoherent narrative and a directorial style that consists of meaningless zooms and out-of-focus close-ups. An ailing Price plays Frankenstein as a somnambulistic zombie and the acting honours go to a rubber bat.
w Jess Franco, Paul D'Ales d Jess Franco (Jesús Franco) ph José Climent m Bruno Nicolai ed R. Aventer
☆ Howard Vernon (Mario Lippert), Dennis Price, Genevieve Deloir, Josiane Gilbert, Albert D'Albes, Mary Francis

Dracula versus Frankenstein

(dubbed)

Spain/West Germany/Italy 1971 87m Eastmancolor Totalvision
Monarch/Eichberg/International Jaguar/Jaime Prades
aka: El Hombre que Vino de Ummo

Aliens attempt to conquer Earth by reviving Dracula, Frankenstein's monster, the Mummy and a werewolf.
Dire mix of horror and science fiction, cheaply and unimaginatively made.
w Jacinto Molina Alvarez d Tulio Demicheli ph Godofredo Pachecho m Franco Salina ad Adolfo Cofiño ed Emilio Rodriguez sp Antonio Molna
☆ Michael Rennie, Karin Dor, Craig Hill, Patty Sheppard, Paul Naschi
'The film's sole claim on anyone's attention is the unabashed sadism of several sequences ... As for the English title, Dracula and Frankenstein are never in the same shot together, let alone in conflict.' – Tony Rayns

'More sensational than her unforgettable father!'

Dracula's Daughter ★★

US 1936 70m bw
Universal (E. M. Asher)

The daughter of the old count follows his remains to London.
Lively sequel which develops in the manner of a Sherlock Holmes story.
w Garrett Fort d Lambert Hillyer ph George Robinson m Heinz Roemheld ad Albert S. D'Agostino ed Milton Carruth
☆ Otto Kruger, Marguerite Churchill, Edward Van Sloan, Gloria Holden, Irving Pichel, Nan Grey, Hedda Hopper, Gilbert Emery, Claud Allister, E. E. Clive, Halliwell Hobbes, Billy Bevan

'There's more to the legend than meets the throat!'

Dracula's Dog

US 1977 88m DeLuxe
Vic (Albert Band, Frank Ray Perelli)

GB title: Zoltan, Hound of Dracula

The resurrected servant of Dracula tries to use his vampire dog to create a new master.
Ingenious but unattractive addition to the saga, with dogs as chief villains; the style varies between spoof and rather nasty horror.
w Frank Ray Perelli d Albert Band ph Bruce Logan m Andrew Belling ☆ José Ferrer, Reggie Nalder, Michael Pataki, Jan Shutan

Draegerman Courage

US 1937 59m bw
Warner

Problems of a Nova Scotian gold mine cave-in.
Adequate action fare inspired by a real event. (Draegermen are burrowers.)
w Anthony Coldeway d Louis King
☆ Jean Muir, Barton MacLane, Henry O'Neill, Robert Barrat. Addison Richards, Gordon Oliver
'Vivid and often thrilling.' – Variety

Dragao da Maldade contra o Santo Guerreiro: see Antonio das Mortes

The Dragnet ★

US 1928 77m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Paramount

When his buddy is killed, a detective resigns from the force and takes to the bottle.
Obviously interesting sequel to Underworld. It can't be evaluated because no print is known to exist.
w Jules and Charles Furthman story Night Stick by Oliver H. P. Garrett d Josef von Sternberg ph Harold Rosson ad Hans Dreier
☆ George Bancroft, Evelyn Brent, William Powell, Fred Kohler, Francis McDonald, Leslie Fenton

Dragnet ★

US 1954 93m Warnercolor
Mark VII (Stanley Meyer)

Sgt Joe Friday solves the murder of an ex-convict.
Moderately interesting but overlong attempt to transfer television techniques to the big screen; laconic dialogue, question and answer, cheap sets, close-ups and convenient Los Angeles locations.
w Richard Breen d Jack Webb ph Edward Colman m Walter Schumann ☆ Jack Webb, Ben Alexander, Richard Boone, Stacy Harris, Ann Robinson, Virginia Gregg

Dragnet

US 1987 106m DeLuxe
Universal/Applied Action/Bernie Brillstein

The nephew of Sgt Joe Friday gets involved in a murder case.
Overlong parody with some obvious amusements before the whole thing becomes tiresome.
w Dan Aykroyd, Alan Zweibel, Tom Mankiewicz d Tom Mankiewicz ph Matthew F. Leonetti m Ira Newborn pd Robert F. Boyle
☆ Dan Aykroyd, Tom Hanks, Christopher Plummer, Harry Morgan, Alexandra Paul, Elizabeth Ashley, Dabney Coleman

Dragon Seed ★

US 1944 144m bw
MGM (Pandro S. Berman)

Chinese peasants fight the Japanese.
Ill-advised attempt to follow the success of The Good Earth; badly cast actors mouth propaganda lines in a mechanical script which provokes more boredom and unintentional laughter than sympathy.
w Marguerite Roberts, Jane Murfin novel Pearl S. Buck d Jack Conway, Harold S. Bucquet ph Sidney Wagner m Herbert Stothart
☆ Katharine Hepburn, Walter Huston, Turhan Bey, Aline MacMahon, Akim Tamiroff, Hurd Hatfield, Frances Rafferty, Agnes Moorehead, Henry Travers, J. Carrol Naish
'A kind of slant-eyed North Star. Often awkward and pretentious, it nevertheless has moments of moral and dramatic grandeur.' – Time
'A fine film in anybody's sweepstakes. It'll wow 'em at the box office.' – Variety (It didn't.)
Sidney Wagner; Aline MacMahon

'The Mystery. The Life. The Love. The Legend.'

Dragon: The Bruce Lee Story ★

US 1993 120m DeLuxe Panavision
Universal (Raffaella de Laurentiis)

A boy who trains in martial arts grows up to become a star of kung-fu movies, haunted by a vision of a dragon representing his inner fears, and dies young.
Enjoyable, if unenlightening, biopic of Bruce Lee that does little to explain why he became the genre's most famous performer, but notable for starring an interesting actor, the unrelated Jason Scott Lee.
w Edward Khmara, John Raffo, Rob Cohen book Bruce Lee: The Man Only I Knew by Linda Lee Cadwell d Rob Cohen ph David Eggby m Randy Edelman pd Robert Ziembicki ed Peter Amundson
☆ Jason Scott Lee, Lauren Holly, Robert Wagner, Michael Learned, Nancy Kwan, Kay Tong Lim, Ric Young, John Cheung
'Seemingly contrary elements and styles nonetheless mesh into an entertaining whole and the result provides extremely touching and haunting material.' – Variety
'It's less about daring deeds than about Lee's triumph over adversity.' – Vincent Canby, New York Times
'Cheerful, downmarket hagiography.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
† See also Bruce Lee: The Man, the Myth.

Dragonflies ★

Norway 2002 109m colour
4½ Motlys/Finalcut (Sigve Endresen)

original title: Øyenstikker

A couple's rural idyll is broken when an old friend, and former cell-mate, of the husband comes to stay.
Atmospheric, enigmatic drama in which much is left unspoken.
w Marius Holst, Nikolaj Frobenius story Ingvar Ambjornsen d Marius Holst ph John Christian Rosenlund m Magne Furuholmen, Kjetil Bjerkestrand ad Lotta Wallin ed Sophie Hesselberg ☆ Maria Bonnevie (Maria), Kim Bodnia (Eddie), Mikael Persbrandt (Kullmann), Tord Peterson (Sven)
'It seems as long as a Nordic winter night, is less lucid than a Nordic summer's day and is none too convincing.' – Philip French, Observer

Dragonfly: see One Summer Love

'When someone you love dies... are they gone forever?'

Dragonfly

US 2002 103m DeLuxe Panavision
Universal/Spyglass/Gran Via/Shady Acres (Mark Johnson, Tom Shadyac, Roger Birnbaum, Gary Barber)

In Chicago, a doctor becomes convinced that his dead wife is trying to send him a message through patients who have had a near-death experience.
Limp, lugubrious movie of mourning and loss that provides Costner with the opportunity, quickly seized, to look soulful.
w David Seltzer, Brandon Camp, Mike Thompson d Tom Shadyac ph Dean Semler m John Debney pd Linda DeScenna ed Don Zimmerman cos Judy Ruskin Howell
☆ Kevin Costner (Joe Darrow), Joe Morton (Hugh Campbell), Ron Rifkin (Charlie Dickinson), Linda Hunt (Sister Madeline), Susanna Thompson (Emily Darrow), Jacob Vargas (Pilot), Kathy Bates (Miriam Belmont), Robert Bailey Jnr (Jeffrey Reardon)

'It is impossible to find the film anything but appalling, shamelessly manipulative and contrived, and totally lacking in conviction. It is high grade Hollywood hokum.' – Kevin Thomas, Los Angeles Times

Dragonheart ★

US 1996 103m DeLuxe Panavision
UIP/Universal (Raffaella de Laurentiis)

In the late 900s, a knight forms an alliance with the last dragon to rid Britain of a tyrant.
A thin medieval fantasy saved from mediocrity by its splendid dragon, voiced by Connery.
w Charles Edward Pogue d Rob Cohen ph David Eggby m Randy Edelman pd Benjamin Fernandez ed Peter Amundson sp Industrial Light and Magic; Tippett Studio
☆ Dennis Quaid, Sean Connery (voice), David Thewlis, Pete Postlethwaite, Dina Meyer, Jason Isaacs, Julie Christie, John Gielgud (voice)

'A blunted sword-and-sorcery fantasy which never gets it together.' – Tom Hutchinson, Film Review
♘ visual effects

Dragon's Food ★★

West Germany 1987 75m bw
Novoskop Film Jan Schutte/Probst Film (Eric Nellessen) original title: Drachenfutter
aka: Spicy Rice

A Pakistani and a Chinese immigrant struggle to open their own restaurant in Hamburg.
The dialogue mixes half-a-dozen languages, but succeeds in communicating its message of lives wasted by prejudice and intolerance.
w Jan Schutte, Thomas Strittmatter d Jan Schütte ph Lutz Konermann m Claus Bantzer ed Andreas Schreitmiller
☆ Bhaskar, Ric Young, Buddy Uzzaman, Wolf-Dieter Springer, Ulrich Wildgruber

Dragons Forever (dubbed)

Japan 1988 90m colour
Golden Harvest (Leonard K. C. Ho)

A lawyer discovers, when he falls in love, that he is on the wrong side in a case involving pollution and drug-dealing.
Comic martial arts adventure with romantic overtones and spectacular combat, for the undemanding.
w Szeto Cheuk-Hon story Gordon Chan, Leung Yiu Ming d Samo Hung ph Jimmy Leung, Cheung Yiu Tso m James Wong pd Oliver Wong ed Peter Cheung, Josephy Chiang ☆ Jackie Chan, Samo Hung, Yuen Biao, Deannie Yip, Pauline Yeung, Crystal Kwok

'Only sorcery can destroy it!'

Dragonslayer

US 1981 110m Metrocolor Panavision
Walt Disney/Paramount (Howard W. Koch, Hal Barwood)

A sorcerer's apprentice uses his master's magic amulet to ward off various dangers.
Heavy-going sword-and-sorcery fable, not helped at all by slow plotting and dark photography. The dragons, however, are genuinely fierce.
w Hal Barwood, Matthew Robbins d Matthew Robbins ph Derek Vanlint m Alex North pd Elliot Scott sp Thomas Smith
☆ Peter MacNicol, Caitlin Clarke, Ralph Richardson, John Hallam, Peter Eyre, Albert Salmi

'Verges on the nasty for the nippers; sails too close to déjà vu for fantasy fans.' – Time Out ♘ Alex North; visual effects (Dennis Muren and others)

Dragonwyck ★

US 1946 103m bw
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)

In the 1840s a farmer's daughter marries her rich cousin, not knowing that he has poisoned his first wife.
Good-looking but rather tedious romance of the Jane Eyre/Rebecca school: tyrannical recluse, mystery upstairs, spooky house, etc. Heavy going.
wd Joseph L. Mankiewicz novel Anya Seton ph Arthur Miller m Alfred Newman ☆ Gene Tierney, Vincent Price, Glenn Langan, Walter Huston, Anne Revere, Spring Byington, Henry Morgan, Jessica Tandy Dragoon Wells Massacre ★

US 1957 88m DeLuxe CinemaScope
Allied Artists (Lindsley Parsons)

A group of travellers are stranded in hostile Indian territory.
Moderately suspenseful Western on a familiar theme.
w Warren Douglas story Oliver Drake d Harold Schuster ph William Clothier m Paul Dunlap ed Maurice Wright
☆ Barry Sullivan, Dennis O'Keefe, Mona Freeman, Katy Jurado, Sebastian Cabot, Jack Elam

'Car crazy, speed crazy, boy crazy!'

Dragstrip Girl

US 1957 69m bw
AIP/Golden State (Alex Gordon)

Two young hot-rodders are rivals for a new girl in town.
Stalled low-budget drive-in movie, requiring minimal attention from its audience.
w Lou Rusoff d Edward L. Cahn ph Frederick E. West m Ronald Stein ad Don Ament ed Ronald Sinclair
☆ Fay Spain, Steve Terrell, John Ashley, Frank Gorshin, Russ Bender, Tommy Ivo

Drake of England

GB 1935 104m bw
BIP (Walter C. Mycroft)
US title: Drake the Pirate
US title: Elizabeth of England

Sir Francis Drake is knighted by Queen Elizabeth for his seafaring exploits, and defeats the Spanish Armada.
Stiffly moving historical pageant; you can smell the mothballs.
w Clifford Grey, Akos Tolney, Marjorie Deans, Norman Watson play Drake by Louis N. Parker d Arthur Woods ph Claude Friese-Greene, Ronald Neame, Jack Parker m G. H. Clutsam ad Duncan Sutherland, Clarence Elder ed E. B. Jarvis
☆ Matheson Lang, Athene Seyler, Jane Baxter, Donald Wolfit, Henry Mollison, George Merritt, Amy Veness, Sam Livesey, Ben Webster

Drake the Pirate: see Drake of England

A Drama of Jealousy: see Jealousy Italian Style

'Yearning Youth – Behind the Scenes of a Parisian Dramatic School.'

Dramatic School ★

US 1938 80m bw
MGM (Mervyn Le Roy)

Young actresses compete for success.
Another, less lively, Stage Door; tolerable but not exciting.
w Ernst Vajda, Mary McCall Jnr play School of Drama by Hans Szekely, Zoltan Egyed d Robert B. Sinclair Jnr ph William Daniels m Franz Waxman
☆ Luise Rainer, Paulette Goddard, Alan Marshal, Lana Turner, Anthony Allan (later John Hubbard), Henry Stephenson, Genevieve Tobin, Gale Sondergaard, Melville Cooper, Erik Rhodes, Ann Rutherford, Margaret Dumont, Virginia Grey, Hans Conried

'A disappointing effort which arouses little interest in its unfolding.' – Variety

Dramma della Gelosia – Tutti i Particolari in Cronaca: see Jealousy Italian Style

Drango

US 1957 92m bw
UA/Hall Bartlett

After the Civil War, a Union Army officer is assigned to bring law and order to a Georgia community.
Eccentric, downbeat semi-Western with aspirations to be some kind of film noir; does not come off.
w Hall Bartlett d Hall Bartlett, Jules Bricken ph James Wong Howe m Elmer Bernstein
☆ Jeff Chandler, Ronald Howard, Joanne Dru, Julie London, Donald Crisp, John Lupton, Morris Ankrum

The Draughtsman's Contract ★★

GB 1982 108m colour
BFI/Channel 4 (David Payne)

In 1694 a young draughtsman receives a curious commission from a country gentlewoman, his rewards to include bed and bawd.
Pleasantly unusual, stylized puzzle film which involves both sex and murder while maintaining a detached attitude to both. The period costumes help to give it an air of fantasy which was presumably intended.
wd Peter Greenaway ph Curtis Clark m Michael Nyman ed John Wilson
☆ Anthony Higgins, Janet Suzman, Anne Louise Lambert, Neil Cunningham, Hugh Fraser, Dave Hill

'Mannered and idiosyncratic, the speeches are so arch and twitty that they seem to be pitched higher than a dog whistle.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker
'Perhaps the four-hour version which may one day become available is clearer if not more concise.' – Guardian
'Best enjoyed as a sly piece of double bluff, a puzzle without a solution, an avant garde hoax in the spirit of Dada and the surrealists.' – Observer

Dream Demon

GB 1988 89m colour
Palace (Paul Webster)

A woman begins to have horrific nightmares before her marriage to a hero of the Falklands War.
A moderately effective psychological thriller, though over-reliant on shock effects.
w Harley Cokliss, Christopher Wicking d Harley Cokliss ph Ian Wilson m Bill Nelson pd Hugo Luczyc-Wyhowski ed Ian Crafford, David Martin ☆ Jemma Redgrave, Jimmy Nail, Timothy Spall, Kathleen Wilhoite, Annabelle Lanyon, Susan Fleetwood, Nickolas Grace

'One of this, or any year's, worst ... proof of the low levels the genre can sink to.' – Stefan Jaworzyn, Shock Xpress

Dream Girl

US 1947 86m bw
Paramount (P. J. Wolfson)

A girl revels in her own romantic dreams, one of which nearly comes true.
Potentially pleasant comedy about a female Walter Mitty does not work because the director has run out of ideas, the star is miscast and Hollywood has insisted on making the girl rich to begin with, which robs the dreams of any point.
w Arthur Sheekman play Elmer Rice d Mitchell Leisen ph Daniel L. Fapp m Victor Young ☆ Betty Hutton, Macdonald Carey, Walter Abel, Patric Knowles, Virginia Field, Peggy Wood, Lowell Gilmore

Dream Lover

US 1986 104m Technicolor
MGM-UA/Alan J. Pakula, Jon Boorstin

A dream researcher is assigned to the case of a girl who has fatally stabbed an intruder.
Flabby and overlong case history with no very interesting conclusion.
w Jon Boorstin d Alan J. Pakula ph Sven Nykvist m Michael Small ☆ Kristy McNichol, Ben Masters, Paul Shenar, John McMartin, Gayle Hunnicutt, Justin Deas

Dream Lover

US 1994 103m DeLuxe
Rank/Polygram/Propaganda/Nicita/Lloyd/Edward R. Pressman (Sigurjon Sighvatsson, Wallis Nicita, Lauren Lloyd)

An architect begins to suspect that his model wife is not who she claims to be.
An uninvolving drama of identity, exploring interesting territory but making no new discoveries.
wd Nicholas Kazan ph Jean-Yves Escoffier m Christopher Young pd Richard Hoover ed Jill Savitt, Susan Crutcher
☆ James Spader, Mädchen Amick, Bess Armstrong, Larry Miller, Frederic Lehne, William Shockley

'Looks more like the thing you might get out of the video store but would balk at

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA paying for in the cinema. It's a bit basic really, playing one tune over and over again.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Dream Machine

US 1991 86m Hawk
DM (Lyman Dayton)

A college student is given a Porsche by a wealthy, vengeful wife; unknown to either, her philandering husband's body is hidden in its boot, and his murderer wants it back.
Inane wish-fulfilment for teenage drivers: a love story about a boy and his car, though a comedy thriller was intended.
w Eric Hendershot d Lyman Dayton ph T. C. Christenson m Lex de Azevedo pd Michael C. Ayers ed Steve Johnson
☆ Corey Haim, Evan Richards, Jeremy Slate, Randall England, Tracy Fraim, Brittney Lewis, Susan Seaforth Hayes

The Dream of a Rarebit Fiend ★

US 1906 4m (24 fps) bw silent
Early trick film depicting a nightmare resulting from overeating.
w Winsor McCay d Edwin S. Porter

A Dream of Kings

US 1969 110m Technicolor
National General (Jules Schermer)

Episodes in the life of an improvident, lusty, poetical Chicago Greek with a dying son.
The part screamed for Anthony Quinn and got him, with the result that it has all been seen before, too frequently. Well made, with strong appeal to Chicago Greeks.
w Harry Mark Petrakis, Ian Hunter novel Harry Mark Petrakis d Daniel Mann ph Richard H. Kline m Alex North
☆ Anthony Quinn, Irene Papas, Inger Stevens, Sam Levene, Val Avery, Tamara Daykarhanova

A Dream of Life: see Life Begins

The Dream of Light: see The Quince Tree Sun

The Dream of Olwen: see While I Live

A Dream of Passion

Greece 1978 110m Eastmancolor
Branfilm/Melinafilm (Jules Dassin)

A woman who, Medea-like, has killed her children is drawn into an eccentric relationship with an actress playing Medea on the stage.
Weird and ineffective character drama which badly needs discipline.
wd Jules Dassin ph George Arvanitis m Ionnis Markopoulos ☆ Melina Mercouri, Ellen Burstyn, Andreas Voutsinas, Despo Diamantidou

Dream Street ★

US 1921 89m (24 fps) bw silent
D. W. Griffith Inc

Three Limehouse folk, torn between good and evil, act out their dreams.
Trilogy of moral tales, fancifully and often charmingly assembled by the master director who often reminds one of a Victorian lace maker.
wd D. W. Griffith stories Thomas Burke ph Henrik Sartov
☆ Carol Dempster, Ralph Graves, Charles Emmett Mack, Edward Peil, Tyrone Power Snr, W. J. Ferguson

The Dream Team ★

US 1989 113m DeLuxe Panavision
UIP/Imagine Entertainment (Christopher W. Knight)

On a day trip to New York, four inmates of a psychiatric hospital foil a murder plot.
Enjoyable sentimental comedy that avoids most of the pitfalls of its subject matter.
w Jon Connolly, David Loucka d Howard Zieff ph Adam Holender m David McHugh pd Todd Hallowell ad Christopher Nowak ed C. Timothy O'Meara
☆ Michael Keaton, Christopher Lloyd, Peter Boyle, Stephen Furst, Dennis Boutsikaris, Lorraine Bracco, Milo O'Shea, Philip Bosco, James Remar
'Sharp and punchily acted.' – John Pym, MFB

Dream Wife

US 1953 99m bw
MGM (Dore Schary)

An executive leaves his ambitious wife for a sheik's daughter schooled in the art of pleasing men, but naturally finds drawbacks.
Very moderate comedy with strained situations and few laughs. The stars work hard.
w Sidney Sheldon, Herbert Baker, Alfred L. Levitt d Sidney Sheldon ph Milton Krasner m Conrad Salinger
☆ Cary Grant, Deborah Kerr, Walter Pidgeon, Betta St John, Eduard Franz, Buddy Baer, Les Tremayne

Dream with the Fishes ★

US 1997 97m Foto-Kem
Columbia TriStar/3 Ring Circus (Johnny Wow, Mitchell Stein)

A terminally ill man offers to help a would-be suicide kill himself in return for financing some of his fantasies, which include nude bowling and public drug-taking.
Sometimes engaging, somewhat schematic celebration of life that harks back to the style of 70s movies.
wd Finn Taylor ph Barry Stone m Tito Larriva pd Justin McCartney ed Nick LeCompte
☆ David Arquette, Brad Hunt, Kathryn Erbe, Cathy Moriarty, J. E. Freeman, Allyce Beasley 'Refreshing, unexpectedly profound comedy.' – Variety

Dreamboat ★

US 1952 83m bw
TCF (Sol C. Siegel)

A romantic star of the silent film era is embarrassed when his old movies turn up on television.
Hollywood rather blunderingly makes fun of its arch enemy in this sometimes sprightly but often disappointing comedy which should have been a bull's-eye.
wd Claude Binyon ph Milton Krasner m Cyril Mockridge
☆ Clifton Webb, Ginger Rogers, Anne Francis, Jeffrey Hunter, Elsa Lanchester, Fred Clark, Ray Collins, Paul Harvey
'A merry comedy filled with uproarious laughter from beginning to end.' – Hollywood Reporter

'Four friends hung a dreamcatcher in their cabin. It's about to catch something it cannot stop.'

Dreamcatcher ②

US/Australia 2003 131m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Castle Rock/Village Roadshow/NPV (Lawrence Kasdan, Charles Okun)

Four friends, who share a gift for telepathic communication, find something nasty in their cabin in the woods.
Grossly flatulent horror about an alien invasion disguised as an irritable bowel attack.
w William Goldman, Lawrence Kasdan novel Stephen King d Lawrence Kasdan ph John Seale m James Newton Howard pd Jon Hutman ed Carol Littleton, Raul Davalos sp Industrial Light & Magic ☆ Morgan Freeman (Col Abraham Curtis), Thomas Jane (Dr Henry Devlin), Jason Lee (Beaver), Damian Lewis (Jonesy), Timothy Olyphant (Pete), Tom Sizemore (Owen Underhill), Donnie Wahlberg (Duddits), Michael O'Neill (General Mathison)
'As bloody as an abattoir, as emetic as a dozen bad oysters.' – Philip French, Observer
'An unholy mess, a miserably organized and redundant collection of arbitrary scares and thrills without a unifying visual or poetic idea.' – David Denby, New Yorker

Dreamchild ★★

GB 1985 94m Technicolor
Thorn EMI/PFH (Rick McCallum, Kenith Trodd)

Travelling to New York for the centenary of Lewis Carroll's birth, Alice Hargreaves, the original of his Alice, remembers her relationship with him.
Complex and intriguing drama of a woman coming to terms with her past and present.
w Dennis Potter d Gavin Millar ph Billy Williams m Stanley Myers pd Roger Hall ed Angus Newton sp Jim Henson's Creature Shop
☆ Coral Browne, Peter Gallagher, Ian Holm, Jane Asher, Nicola Cowper, Caris Corfman, Amelia Shankley
'Not a movie for a wide audience: it simply isn't conceived in the broad narrative patterns that please most moviegoers. Yet it's very enjoyable; it has a twinkling subtext, and in some scenes it achieves levels of feeling that the new mainstream films don't get near.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker
'Ambitious but unsatisfying and gimmicky.' – Variety

Dreamer

US 1979 86m Eastmancolor
TCF (Michael Lobell)

A young man dreams of becoming a professional bowling champion.
Faced with the impossible task of making tenpin bowling visually or dramatically interesting, the makers focus instead on a stormy romance and a sentimental relationship with an elderly mentor; they are no more effective in gaining an audience's attention.
w James Proctor, Harry Bischof d Noel Nosseck ph Bruce Surtees m Bill Conti ad Archie Sharp ed Fred Chulack
☆ Tim Matheson, Susan Blakely, Jack Warden

The Dreamers ★ ⑥

France/Italy/GB 2003 115m colour
TCF/Fox Searchlight/Hanway/Recorded Picture/Peninsula/Fiction (Jeremy Thomas)

In Paris in May, 1968, a naive American student becomes involved with film-obsessed French twins.
Set against the background of the riots that shook France, this intimate drama of a ménage a trois conjures the heady atmosphere of the times and a move from adolescent self-absorption to political action.
w Gilbert Adair novel The Holy Innocents by Gilbert Adair d Bernardo Bertolucci ph Fabio Cianchetti pd Jean Rabasse ed Jacopo Quadri cos Louise Stjernsward
☆ Michael Pitt (Matthew), Eva Green (Isabelle), Louis Garrel (Theo), Robin Renucci (Father), Anna Chancellor (Mother), Florian Cadiou (Patrick)
'Dispassionate, curiously lifeless, lacking the energy of either youthful commitment or a deeply engaged re-examination of the past.' – Richard Schickel, Time

'Fame comes and goes, stars rise and fall, but dreams live forever.'

Dreamgirls ★ ⑧

US 2006 130m
TCF/DreamWorks/Paramount/Laurence Mark (Laurence Mark)

In the early 1960s, a female soul trio negotiate the pitfalls of fame, going mainstream, and internal squabbling.
A disappointment, arousing the suspicion that the awards bestowed on this film were given out of sentiment rather than logic. Its first half-hour is a fine, exciting, zestful evocation of rough-and ready soul revues, the breeding ground for groups like the fictional Dreams. But then the story, effectively a rehash of the Supremes being moulded for crossover superstardom by their Svengaliesque manager Berry Gordy, sags alarmingly. The songs simply do not pass muster; even the most feted one, the anthemic And I'm Telling You I'm Not Going, is so overwrought that it virtually sits up and begs for an ovation. The rest, fatally, would never have survived Gordy's rigorous quality control at Motown, and one recalls that the stage musical of Dreamgirls never made it to the West End. The story cries out for Deena, its Diana Ross surrogate, to become a shrewish diva, but Beyonce Knowles, who plays her, lacks the requisite acting range. Jamie Foxx, as the Dreams' manipulative manager, is a one-note baddie – a disservice to Gordy's genius. It's left to Eddie Murphy, as an odd but charismatic mix between James Brown and Marvin Gaye, and Jennifer Hudson as the spurned Effie, to supply some dramatic heft. But their efforts are not enough.
wd Bill Condon stage musical Tom Eyen, Henry Krieger ph Tobias Schliessler m Henry Krieger m/ly Tom Eyen md Stephen Trask ch Fatima Robinson, AJ Jones pd John Myhre ed Virginia Katz
☆ Jamie Foxx (Curtis Taylor, Jr.), Beyonce Knowles (Deena Jones), Eddie Murphy (James 'Thunder' Early), Danny Glover (Marty Madison), Jennifer Hudson (Effie White), Anika Noni Rose (Lorrell Robinson), Hinton Battle (Wayne)
'A glossy, gleaming Cadillac of a film, with a vintage rhythm-and-blues engine tuned to perfection. The cast is dressed to kill.' – James Christopher, Times
'The problem with Dreamgirls – and it is not a small one – lies in those songs, which are not just lyrically and musically pedestrian, but historically and idiomatically disastrous.' – A.O. Scott, New York Times
Supporting actress (Jennifer Hudson); sound mixing (Michael Minkler, Bob Beemer, Willie D. Burton) Supporting actor (Eddie Murphy); art direction (John Myhre); costume design (Sharen Davis); original song (three nominations, for Listen, Love You I Do and Patience).

Supporting actress (Jennifer Hudson)

Dreaming
GB 1944 78m bw
Ealing
A soldier on leave gets a bump on the head, and dreams ...
Rather elementary series of sketches with a few good laughs and interesting guest appearances.
w Bud Flanagan, Reginald Purdell d John Baxter ☆ Flanagan and Allen, Hazel Court, Dick Francis, Philip Wade, Teddy Brown, Reginald Foort, Gordon Richards, Alfredo Campoli

Dreaming Lips ★
GB 1936 94m bw
Trafalgar (Max Schach, Paul Czinner)
The wife of an invalid musician has an affair with another man and commits suicide.
Standard star fare, possibly Miss Bergner's most notable film, also available in a German version.
w Margaret Kennedy, Lady Cynthia Asquith, Carl Mayer play Melo by Henry Bernstein d Paul Czinner, Lee Garmes ph Roy Clark m William Walton ad Andrei Andreiev, Tom Morahan ed David Lean ☆ Elisabeth Bergner, Romney Brent, Raymond Massey, Joyce Bland, Sydney Fairbrother, Felix Aylmer, Donald Calthrop
'In many respects one of the finest productions ever made in England ... made in Hollywood, the story would be whitewashed and much of its strength weakened.' – Variety

'Even with her eyes wide open, she never stopped...'

Dreaming of Joseph Lees
US/GB 1999 92m Technicolor
TCF/Midsummer/IoMFC (Chris Milburn)
In Somerset in the 1950s, a young woman is obsessed by her one-legged cousin.
Unhappy, underwritten rural melodrama that fails to sustain its attempt at a romantic tragedy.
w Catherine Linstrum d Eric Styles ph Jimmy Dibling m Zbigniew Preisner pd Humphrey Jaeger ed Caroline Limmer cos Maggie Chappelhow ☆ Samantha Morton (Eva), Lee Ross (Harry), Rupert Graves (Joseph Lees), Holly Aird (Maria), Miriam Margolyes (Signora Caldoni), Frank Finlay (Eva's father), Nick Woodeson (Mr Dian), Lauren Richardson (Janie), Felix Billson (Robert)
'A humourless symphony of false notes.' – Philip French, Observer

The Dreamlife of Angels ★★★
France 1998 113m colour
Bagheera/Diaphana/France3 (François Marquis) original title: La Vie Rêvée des Anges
Two young women, trying to survive in Lille, form an uneasy friendship with each other and with two bouncers at rock concerts.
Engrossing and frequently surprising narrative of French working-class life, with two protagonists with contrasting personalities: one happy to take life as it comes, the other striving for material success.
w Erick Zonca, Roger Bohbot d Erick Zonca ph Agnes Godard m Yann Thiersen pd Jimmy Vánsteenkiste ad Jimmy Vansteenkiste ed Yannick Kergoat ☆ Elodie Bouchez (Isa), Natacha Regnier (Marie), Gregoire Colin (Chriss), Jo Prestia (Fredo), Patrick Mercado (Charly)
'A passionate and unpretentious gem.' – Film Review
† In France, it won the Prix Méliès as the best French film of the year. Elodie Bouchez and Natacha Regnier were joint winners of the best actress award at the 1998 Cannes Film Festival.

Dreams That Money Can Buy *
US 1946 81m Technicolor
Art of the Century (Hans Richter, Peggy Guggenheim, Kenneth MacPherson)
A young itinerant sells dreams to people who need them.
Semi-underground surrealist film, momentarily of interest, but disjointed and with no real apparent purpose.
wd Hans Richter ph Arnold Eagle md Louis Applebaum
'Arch, snobbish and sycophantic, about as genuinely experimental as a Chemcraft set.' – James Agee
† The individual dreams are Max Ernst, Man Ray, Fernand Leger, Marcel Duchamp and Alexander Calder as well as Richter.

Dreamscape
US 1984 99m CFI color
Thorn-EMI/Zuplein-Curtis/Bella (Bruce Cohn Curtis)
Experiments prove that it is possible for a dreamer to enter the dreams of others, and a subject finds himself being used for a plot against the president of the US.
Complex fantasy melodrama with a cold war basis; neither exciting nor praiseworthy.
w David Loughery, Joseph Ruben, Chuck Russell d Joseph Ruben ph Brian Tufano, Kevin Kutchaver m Maurice Jarre ad Jeff Stags ed Richard Halsey
☆ Dennis Quaid, Max von Sydow, Christopher Plummer, Eddie Albert, Kate Capshaw

Drei von der Tankstelle ★
Germany 1930 80m bw
UFA
Three penniless young men find happiness as petrol station attendants.
Light-hearted operetta of the Depression era, well received at the time.
w Franz Schultz, Paul Frank d William Thiele ph Franz Planer m Werner Heymann ☆ Willy Fritsch, Lilian Harvey, Oskar Karlweis, Heinz Ruhmann, Olga Tchekhova
'When leaving this charming talker operetta, one feels in good humour, humming the catchy hits of its talented composer ... constant laughter and enthusiasm.' – Variety † Remade 1955 by Hans Wolff, with a cast still led by Willy Fritsch.

Die Dreigroschenoper **
Germany 1931 114m bw
Warner/Tobis/Nero
US title: The Threepenny Opera
In turn-of-the-century London, Mack the Knife marries the daughter of the beggar king and runs into trouble.
Heavy-footed but interesting updating of The Beggar's Opera, with splendid sets.
w Bela Balazs, Leo Lania, Ladislas Vajda play Bertolt Brecht d G. W. Pabst ph Fritz Arno Wagner m Kurt Weill ad Andrei Andreiev
☆ Lotte Lenya, Rudolf Forster, Fritz Rasp, Caroline Neher, Reinhold Schunzel, Valeska Gert, Vladimir Sokoloff
† Brecht disliked the film and sued the makers, but lost.
†† A French version was also released under the title L'Opéra de Quat'sous, with Albert Préjean.

Dressage (dubbed)
France 1985 90m Eastmancolor
Samourai
A woman sets out to corrupt her father's 17-year-old daughter while her friend attempts to ruin a would-be politician by seducing him and his son.
Glossy soft-core porn, slickly done but uninteresting.
w Jean-Philippe Berger, J. C. Roy d Pierre B. Reinhard ph Denis Lenoir m Philippe Brejean ad Jean-Claude Roy ☆ Véronique Catanzaro, Patrick Guillemin, Marc Henry, Henri-Jacques Huet, André Nader, Sylvie Novak, Katya Strambi, Cornélia Wilms

Dressed to Kill
US 1946 72m bw
Universal (Roy William Neil)
aka: Sherlock Holmes: Dressed to Kill
Sherlock Holmes pits his wits against a murderous gang searching for the location of printing plates stolen from the Bank of England.
Unremarkable end to an enjoyable series, with some barely adequate performances, apart from the central duo of Rathbone and Bruce.
w Frank Gruber, Leonard Lee d Roy William Neill ph Maury Gertsman m Milton Rosen ad Jack Otterson, Martin Obzina ed Saul A. Goodkind
☆ Basil Rathbone, Nigel Bruce, Patricia Morison, Edmund Breon, Frederick Worlock, Carl Harbord, Mary Gordon, Anita Glyn

'Every nightmare has a beginning. This one never ends!'

Dressed to Kill ★★
US 1980 105m Technicolor Panavision
Filmways/Samuel Z. Arkoff/Cinema 77 (George Litto)
A sexually disturbed matron under analysis is murdered by a transvestite slasher, who then goes after a witness.
Occasionally brilliant, generally nasty suspenser clearly derived from many viewings of Psycho. Certainly not for the squeamish.
wd Brian de Palma ph Ralf Bode m Pino Donaggio pd Gary Weist ed Gerald Greenberg ☆ Michael Caine, Angie Dickinson, Nancy Allen, Keith Gordon, Dennis Franz
'De Palma goes right for the audience jugular ... it fully milks the boundaries of its "R" rating.' – Variety
'By casting a halo of excitement around killing, a glow of degradation around living, and linking the two in a queasy, guilty partnership, de Palma is asking us to celebrate the joys of barbarism in a world already drunk on rape, torture, murder and war.' – Sunday Times
'De Palma earns the title of master, all right ... but Hitch remains the grand master.' – Roger Ebert

The Dresser ★★★
GB 1983 118m colour
Columbia/Goldcrest/World Film Services (Peter Yates)
An exhausted Shakespearean actor-manager has a wild last day on tour, comforted and restrained by his homosexual dresser.
A strained film, but a valuable record of a play based on the touring career of Donald Wolfit, whose dresser the author was.
w Ronald Harwood play Ronald Harwood d Peter Yates ph Kelvin Pike m James Horner pd Stephen Grimes ad Colin Grimes ed Ray Lovejoy
☆ Albert Finney (Sir), Tom Courtenay (Norman), Edward Fox (Oxenby), Zena Walker (Her Ladyship), Eileen Atkins (Madge), Michael Gough (Frank Carrington), Betty Marsden (Violet Manning), Lockwood West (Geoffrey Thornton)
'The best sort of drama, fascinating us on the surface with colour and humour and esoteric detail, and then revealing the truth underneath.' – Roger Ebert
'It is not an American picture; it is not like 42nd Street. It is British and therefore tells a tale not of effortless overnight success but of day by day humiliation and defeat ... It is utterly joyless. I can only claim that it tells its grim tale with sparks of humor and in merciless detail.' – Quentin Crisp best picture; Tom Courtenay; Albert Finney; Peter Yates as director; Ronald Harwood (adaptation)

The Dressmaker ★
GB 1988 91m colour
Rank/Film Four International/British Screen (Ronald Shedlo)
Tensions arise in wartime within a puritanical working-class family with the arrival of American GIs.
Well acted, but depressing.
w John McGrath novel Beryl Bainbridge d Jim O'Brien ph Michael Coulter m George Fenton pd Caroline Amies ed William Diver
☆ Joan Plowright, Billie Whitelaw, Jane Horrocks, Tim Ransom, Peter Postlethwaite, Pippa Hinchley, Rosemary Martin, Tony Haygarth
'A masterpiece of minimalist compression.' – Hal Hinson, Washington Post

Dreyfus ★
GB 1931 80m bw
BIP (F. W. Kraemer)
US title: The Dreyfus Case
In 1894 France, a Jewish officer is accused of spying.
Primitive version of a much-filmed story (cf The Life of Emile Zola, I Accuse*).*
w Reginald Berkeley, Walter C. Mycroft play The Dreyfus Case by Hans Rehfisch, Wilhelm Herzog d F. W. Kraemer, Milton Rosmer ph Willy Minterstein ed Langford Reed, Betty Spiers
☆ Cedric Hardwicke (Captain Alfred Dreyfus), George Merritt (Emile Zola), Charles Carson (Colonel Picquart), Sam Livesey (Labori), Garry Marsh (Major Esterhazy), Randle Ayrton (President of Court Martial), George Zucco
'A picture of the documentary class, well out of the ordinary.' – Variety

Drifters ★
GB 1929 40m approx bw
Empire Marketing Board (John Grierson)
A documentary of the North Sea fishing fleet.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

A highly influential documentary, made at a time when British films were totally unrealistic and studio-bound. Unfortunately it now seems extremely dull.
wd John Grierson ph Basil Emmott ed John Grierson

Drifting Clouds ★★

Finland 1996 93m Eastmancolor
Metro/Tartan/Sputnik Oy/YLE TV-1/Pandora/Pyramide (Aki Kaurismäki)

original title: Kauas Pilvet Karkaavat
A tram-driver and his wife, a head waiter, face difficulties when they lose their jobs and decide to try to open their own restaurant.
A bleakly humorous account of domestic difficulties with, for a change, a feel-good ending; it all has an inconsequential charm.
wd Aki Kaurismäki ph Timo Salminen ad Markku Pätilä, Jukka Salmi ed Aki Kaurismäki ☆ Kati Outinen, Kari Väänänen, Elina Salo, Sakari Kuosmanen, Matti Onnismaa, Markku Peltola
'There are small quirky pleasures to cherish from this warm, comical and optimistic tribute to the human spirit.' – Caroline Rees, Empire
† The film is dedicated to Matti Pellonpää, an actor who died in 1995 and appeared in many of Kaurismäki's movies; he appears here as the child in a photograph.

Driftwood

US 1947 90m bw
Republic
An orphan is adopted by a kindly doctor.
Lavender-scented family yarn with pleasant backgrounds and expert performances.
w Mary Loos, Richard Sale d Allan Dwan ph John Alton m Nathan Scott ☆ Natalie Wood, Ruth Warrick, Walter Brennan, Dean Jagger, Charlotte Greenwood

'An erotic dream of obsession.'

Driftwood

Ireland/GB 1996 100m Technicolor
Blue Dolphin/Goldcrest/Deadwood/Setanta (Mary Breen-Farrelly)

A French sculptor discovers an injured man on a remote beach in Ireland and takes him home to keep.
A cliché-ridden situation and a script that is beyond redemption.
w Richard M. N. Waring d Ronan O'Leary ph Billy Williams m John Cameron pd Tim Hutchinson ed Malcolm Cooke
☆ James Spader, Anne Brochet, Barry McGovern, Anna Massey, Aiden Grenell, Kevin McHugh
'Banal and dreary.' – Sight and Sound

'The blood runs in rivers, and the drill keeps tearing through flesh and bone.'

The Driller Killer

US 1979 85m colour
Navaron (Rochelle Weisberg)
A disturbed artist murders vagrants with an electric drill.
Gruesome movie of frustration and sordid city life; it was among the first so-called 'video nasties' to be banned in Britain, until its re-release in 1999.
w Nicholas St John, Louis Mascolo d Abel Ferrara ph Ken Kelsch m Joseph Delia ad Louis Mascolo ed Orlando Gallini, Bonnie Constant, Michael Constant, Jimmy Laine (Abel Ferrara) sp David Smith
☆ Jimmy Laine (Abel Ferrara), Carolyn Marz, Baybi Day, Harry Schultz, Alan Wynroth, Maria Helhoski, Bob DeFrank
'Ferrara's films may be rough, but there's no denying the cheapskate proficiency with which he puts them together, or the painful accuracy of his probing for the unhealthy nerve.' – Kim Newman, MFB

Drink, Drank, Drunk

Hong Kong/China 2005 101m colour
Milkyway/Film Unlimited/Shan Xi (Samson Ng, Mandy Law, Li Shuihe)

original title: Chin Bui Bat Chui
The alcoholic chef of a French restaurant becomes a partner with a girl who promotes beer and never becomes intoxicated.
A broad and sometimes crude comedy, stuffed with jokes about drunkenness and eating unfamiliar food, that will be a taste few outside Asia will wish to acquire.
w Derek Yee, Jessica Fong d Derek Yee ph Horace Wong m Peter Kam ad Ben Luk ed Kwong Chi-leung
☆ Daniel Wu (Michael), Miriam Yeung (Fung Siu-min), Alex Fong (Brother 9), Renee Dai (Rene), Hu Jing (Kit), Ella Koon (Yan Loh)
'A lightly intoxicating pleasure, despite its routine script.' – Derek Elley, Variety

Drive

US/Japan 1997 99m CFI Super 35
Overseas/Neo

A Chinese man, who has been fitted with a bio-mechanical device that increases his physical abilities, is hunted by gangsters after he flees to the US.
Frenetic, stunt-crammed, tongue-in-cheek, over-the-top martial arts thriller with an invincible hero and gun-toting bad guys who couldn't hit a barn door at three paces; it is the sort of film where a gang of killers burst through the windows of a nightclub on motorbikes, while firing automatic weapons, in order to take out one man.
w Scott Phillips d Steve Wang ph Michael G. Wojciechowski m Walter Werzowa pd Terrence Foster ed Ivan Ladizinsky
☆ Mark Dacascos, Kadeem Hardison, John Pyper-Ferguson, Brittany Murphy, Tracey Walter, James Shigeta, Masaya Kato

'She needed the money – and I needed her!'

Drive a Crooked Road

US 1954 82m bw
Columbia (Jonie Taps)
A garage mechanic falls in with bank robbers.
Terse crime melodrama, quite watchable.
w Blake Edwards d Richard Quine ph Charles Lawton Jnr md Ross di Maggio ☆ Mickey Rooney, Kevin McCarthy, Dianne Foster

Drive He Said

US 1970 90m colour
Columbia/Drive Productions/BBS (Steve Blauner)
An easygoing college basketball star is helped by an eccentric rebel to ensure his own unfitness for military service. Both run into trouble.
Flabby celebration of against-the-government attitudes, expressed partly through sex and bad language. Defiantly hard to like.
w Jeremy Larner, Jack Nicholson d Jack Nicholson ph Bill Butler m David Shire ☆ Michael Margotta, William Tepper, Bruce Dern, Karen Black, Robert Towne, Henry Jaglom

'They got dumped. They needed dates. They got more than they bargained for.'

Drive Me Crazy

US 1999 91m DeLuxe
TCF (Amy Robinson)

A popular girl grooms a scruffy, carefree boy, who lives next door, so that he can get together again with his estranged girlfriend.
Limp teenaged romantic comedy that lacks any sense of reality or fun.
w Rob Thomas novel How I Created My Perfect Prom Date by Todd Strasser d John Schultz ph Kees Van Oostrum m Greg Kendall pd Aaron Osborne ed John Pace cos Genevieve Tyrrell
☆ Melissa Joan Hart (Nicole Maris), Adrian Grenier (Chase Hammond), Susan May Pratt (Alicia), Kris Park (Ray Neeley), Mark Webber (Dave), Ali Larter (Dulcie), Stephen Collins (Mr Maris), Gabriel Carpenter (Brad), Mark Metcalf (Mr Rope), William Converse-Roberts (Mr Hammond), Faye Grant (Mrs Maris)
'Sloppy and dull in equal measures.' – Variety

Drive-in

US 1976 96m Technicolor
Columbia (George Litto)

In Texas, various illicit activities find their climax at a drive-in movie.
Mild sex-and-destruction comedy which raises few laughs and makes little sense.
w Bob Peete d Rod Amateau ph Robert Jessup m various ☆ Lisa Lemole, Glenn Morshower, Gary Cavagnaro, Billy Milliken, Lee Newsome, Regan Kee

'Welcome to The Human Race'

Driven

US 2001 117m DeLuxe Panavision
Warner/Franchise (Elie Samaha, Sylvester Stallone, Renny Harlin)

A veteran sports car driver helps turn a young hotshot into a winner.
Noisy, messy movie about sleek, fast cars and very dull people.
w Sylvester Stallone story Jan Skrentny, Neal Tabachnick d Renny Harlin ph Mauro Fiore m BT pd Charles Wood ed Stuart Levy, Steve Gilson
☆ Sylvester Stallone (Joe Tanto), Burt Reynolds (Carl Henry), Kip Pardue (Jimmy Bly), Stacy Edwards (Lucretia Clans), Til Schweiger (Beau Brandenburg), Gina Gershon (Cathy Moreno), Estella Warren (Sophia Simone), Cristian de la Fuente (Memo Heguy), Brent Briscoe (Crusher), Robert Sean Leonard (DeMille Bly)
'A movie about Americans oblivious to the rest of the world, looking only inwards, at themselves, their macho culture and their can-do competence, and finding the prospect good, arrogantly self-satisfying and uncritical.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard
'A movie by, for and about the Attention Deficit Disordered.' – Roger Ebert

'To break the driver, the cop was willing to break the law.'

The Driver ★★★★

US 1978 91m DeLuxe
TCF/EMI/Lawrence Gordon

A detective determines to catch an old enemy, a getaway driver.
Deft and clever thriller that has been stripped of all redundancies and reduced to its core, of two obsessional men on different sides of the law locked in deadly conflict. It is a simple, spare story of bleak lives, brilliantly told.
wd Walter Hill ph Philip Lathrop m Michael Small pd Harry Horner ad David M. Haber ed Tina Hirsch, Robert K. Lambert
☆ Ryan O'Neal (The Driver), Bruce Dern (The Detective), Isabelle Adjani (The Player), Ronee Blakley (The Connection)
'Comic book cops and robbers existentialism.' – Pauline Kael
'Because of the quiet and mysterious mood of this picture, it has a pretentious quality to it.' – Variety

Driving Force

Australia/US/Philippines 1989 90m colour
J & M/Eastern (Howard Grigsby, Rod Confesor)

In a future post-industrial world, an honest trucker battles with a violent gang of scavengers.
Incoherent action film that fails in its recreation of a believable future (although virtually all goods are recycled or secondhand, petrol is plentiful), and is not helped by having an uncharismatic star.
w Patrick Edgeworth d A. J. Prowse ph Kevan Lind, Richard Michalak m Paul Schutze pd Toto Castillo ed Tony Paterson
☆ Sam Jones, Catherine Bach, Don Swayze, Gerald Gordon, Angel Cook, Renata Scott, Robert Marius, Billy Blanks

'All Ben wanted was a job. All Evie wanted was a friend.'

Driving Lessons ★ (6)

UK/USA 2005 98m
Tartan/UK FILM Council/Content Films (Julia Chasman)

Teenage boy takes job as assistant to elderly eccentric actress.
Rites-of-passage story set in north London suburbia, with a foul-mouthed, boozy grande dame of the stage (Walters) offering life lessons on a road trip to the deadpan Grint, making a promising departure from the Harry Potter series. Linney has a nice turn as his overbearing mother. Amiable and surprisingly moving.
wd Jeremy Brock ph David Katznelson m John Renbourn, Clive Carroll pd Amanda McArthur ad John Reid ed Trevor Waite ☆ Julie Walters (Evie), Rupert Grint (Ben), Laura Linney (Laura), Nicholas Farrell (Robert)
'A great turn from Julie Walters, and a likable film.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Driving Me Crazy: see Dutch

Driving Miss Daisy ★

US 1989 99m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Zanuck Company/Richard Zanuck, Lili Fini Zanuck

A elderly rich Jewish widow at first resists, and then succumbs to, the obsequious attentions of her black chauffeur.
Old-fashioned and charming, but slight to the point of inconsequentiality.
w Alfred Uhry play Alfred Uhry d Bruce Beresford ph Peter James m Hans Zimmer pd Bruno Rubeo ed Mark Warner ☆ Morgan Freeman, Jessica Tandy, Dan Aykroyd, Patti LuPone best picture; best makeup; Alfred Uhry; Jessica Tandy

Morgan Freeman; Dan Aykroyd; best art direction; best costume design
Jessica Tandy

Le Droit d'Aimer: see Brainwashed

Drôle de Drame ★

France 1936 100m approx bw aka: Bizarre, Bizarre (84m American version)
A complicated chain of bizarre events is set in motion when a botanist pretends not to be a detective story writer, a bishop tries to be a detective, and a murderer seeks revenge for libel.
A curious satirical comedy which is never quite as funny as it seems about to be, but should be seen for its downright peculiar London sets and its array of actors in top form.
w Jacques Prévert novel The Lunatic at Large by J. Storer Clouston d Marcel Carné ph Eugene Schufftan m Maurice Jaubert pd Alexandre Trauner
☆ Françoise Rosay, Michel Simon, Louis Jouvet, Jean-Louis Barrault, Jean-Pierre Aumont
'Art theatres and foreign-language houses will do fair business.' – Variety
'No one with any taste for nonsense should miss it.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

Drôle de Felix ★ 4

France 2000 colour
Arte France/Pyramide/Pelleas (Philippe Martin)
aka: The Adventures of Felix
A gay man hitch-hikes from Dieppe to Marseilles in search of the father he has never met.
Charming road movie about a cheerful man encountering vivid characters on his travels.
wd Olivier Ducastel, Jacques Martineau ph Matthieu Poirot-Delpech ad Louis Soubrier ed Sabine Mamou ☆ Sami Bouajila (Felix), Patachou (Mathilde Firmin), Ariane Ascaride (Isabelle), Pierre-Loup Rajot (Daniel), Charly Sergue (Jules), Maurice Benichou (Fisherman)
'Sufficiently aimless to make moviegoers wish he had taken the train.' – Frank Scheck, Hollywood Reporter
'It imagines a world in which gay men aren't marginalized, and everyone's better, sweeter nature is set free.' – Edward Guthmann, San Francisco Chronicle

Drôle d'endroit pour une Rencontre ★

France 1988 98m colour
Artificial Eye/Hachette/A2/DD/Deneuve/Orly/Editions Sidonie (Patrick Bordier)
GB title: A Strange Place to Meet
A doctor falls in love with an abandoned wife, who is waiting for her husband to return.
An unconvincing romance, full of longueurs.
w François Dupreyron, Dominique Faysse d François Dupreyron ph Charlie Van Damme ad Carlos Conti ed Françoise Collin ☆ Catherine Deneuve, Gérard Depardieu, André Wilms, Nathalie Cardone, Jean-Pierre Sentier, Alain Rimoux, Vincent Martin

Drop Dead Darling

GB 1966 100m Technicolor Panavision
Seven Arts (Ken Hughes)
US title: Arrivederci Baby
A con man who marries and murders rich women meets a con lady with similar intentions.
Loud, restless black comedy which squanders its moments of genuine inventiveness among scenes of shouting, confusion and action for action's sake.
wd Ken Hughes story The Careful Man by Richard Deming ph Denys Coop
m Dennis Farnon
☆ Tony Curtis, Rosanna Schiaffino, Lionel Jeffries, Zsa Zsa Gabor, Nancy Kwan, Fenella Fielding, Anna Quayle, Warren Mitchell, Mischa Auer

'He creates the havoc. She takes the blame.'

Drop Dead Fred

US 1991 99m colour
Rank/Working Title/Polygram (Paul Webster)
A young woman in difficulties is revisited by her imaginary, destructive childhood friend.
Singularly tasteless comedy, lacking any vestige of wit or even humour.
w Carlos Davis, Anthony Fingleton story Elizabeth Livingston d Ate de Jong ph Peter Deming m Randy Edelman pd Joseph T. Garrity ed Marshall Harvey ☆ Phoebe Cates, Rik Mayall, Marsha Mason, Tim Matheson, Bridget Fonda, Carrie Fisher, Keith Charles, Ashley Peldon, Daniel Gerroll
'Harvey reimagined for the Beetlejuice generation, with strident gags standing in for magic and relentless obviousness overriding the disturbing ambiguity that might have made the film work.' – Kim Newman, Sight and Sound
'This celebration of mental retardation is where the nadirs of two current Hollywood cycles – the regression to childhood/life swap movie and the ghost/revenant picture – intersect.' – Philip French, Observer

'If Looks Could Kill...'
'The Battle Between The Good And The Bad Is About To Get Ugly.'

Drop Dead Gorgeous

US/Germany 1999 98m DeLuxe
New Line/Capella/KC Medien (Gavin Pallone, Judy Hofflund)
A documentary film crew follow the events leading up to a beauty contest, which the town's wealthiest woman is determined that her daughter will win.
Heavy-handed satire on small town life and the beauty business; the narrative becomes too contrived to provide much satisfaction.
w Lona Williams d Michael Patrick Jann ph Michael Spiller m Mark Mothersbaugh pd Ruth Ammon ed David Codron, Janice Hampton
☆ Kirsten Dunst (Amber Atkins), Ellen Barkin (Annette Atkins), Allison Janney (Loretta), Denise Richards (Becky Leeman), Kirstie Alley (Gladys Leeman), Sam McMurray (Lester Leeman), Amy Adams (Leslie Miller), Tara Redepenning (Molly Howard), Shannon Nelson (Tess Weinhaus), Sarah Stewart (Jenelle Betz), Michael McShane (Harold Vilmes)
'Crude mockery that thinks it's satire.' – Lisa Schwarzman, Entertainment Weekly

Drop Squad

US 1994 86m colour
Universal/Gramercy/40 Acres & A Mule (Shelby Stone, Butch Robinson)
A group of black vigilantes – Deprogramming and Restoration of Pride – kidnap people to bring them back to a sense of community.
A satire aimed at those who forget their roots and adopt attitudes that destroy ethnic communities, but one that is too slapdash and crude to convince.
w David C. Johnson, Butch Robinson story David Taylor d D. Clark Johnson ph Ken Kelsch m Michael Bearden pd Ina Mayhew ed Kevin Lee ☆ Eriq LaSalle, Vondie Curtis-Hall, Ving Rhames, Kasi Lemmons, Leonard Thomas, Vanessa Williams, Nicole Powell, Eric A. Payne, Spike Lee

'Something Dangerous Is In The Air.'

Drop Zone

US 1994 101m DeLuxe Panavision
UIP/Nicita/Lloyd
A discredited US marshal goes undercover to expose a gang of skydiving crooks who killed his brother, kidnapped his prisoner and escaped from a 747 jet in mid-flight.
A stunt-driven thriller, in which breathtaking aerial acrobatics do not make up for the absence of a suspenseful narrative.
w Peter Barsocchini, John Bishop, Tony Griffin, Guy Manos d John Badham ph Roy H. Wagner m Hans Zimmer pd Joe Alves ed Frank Morriss
☆ Wesley Snipes, Gary Busey, Yancy Butler, Michael Jeter, Corin Nemec, Kyle Secor, Luca Bercovici, Grace Zabriskie
'Little more than a by-the-numbers programmer, reasonably diverting and briskly paced but thinly written and utterly predictable.' – Variety
'Skydiving may be spectacular, but one hopes its participants are less rip-roaringly boorish than they appear in Drop Zone. I kept hoping their parachutes wouldn't open.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Drowning by Numbers ★★

GB 1988 119m Kodak Color
Film Four International/Elsevier Vendex
Three women (all with the same name) murder their respective husbands with the collusion of the local coroner.
Cynical black comedy, beautifully played and more accessible than this director's earlier work, although with some obscure formalism.
wd Peter Greenaway ph Sacha Vierny m Michael Nyman pd Ben Van Os, Jan Roelfs
☆ Bernard Hill, Joan Plowright, Juliet Stevenson, Joely Richardson, Jason Edwards

The Drowning Pool

US 1975 108m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Coleytown (Lawrence Turman, David Foster)
Private eye Lew Harper goes to New Orleans to investigate an anonymous letter which ends in murder.
Dreary sequel to Harper (qv), full of boring characters uninventively deployed.
w Tracy Keenan Wynn, Lorenzo Semple Jnr, Walter Hill novel John Ross MacDonald
d Stuart Rosenberg ph Gordon Willis m Michael Small ☆ Paul Newman (Lew Harper), Joanne Woodward (Iris Devereaux), Coral Browne, Anthony Franciosa (Chief Broussard), Murray Hamilton (J. J. Kilbourne), Gail Strickland (Mavis Kilbourne), Linda Hayes (Gretchen), Richard Jaeckel, Melanie Griffith (Schulyer Devereaux)
'The impenetrable mystery is not particularly gripping; and the general air of pointlessness is only intensified by the sudden rush of clarifications at the end.' – Tom Milne
'It recycles every private eye cliché known to civilized man as it crawls through Louisiana talking all the way.' – Paul D. Zimmermann
'All the clichés of cheapjack TV private eye capers have been added to MacDonald's book; whatever separates him from the paperback hacks has been deleted.' – Judith Crist

Drugstore Cowboy ★★

US 1989 100m colour
Avenue Pictures (Nick Wechsler, Karen Murphy)
A drug-addict, his wife and two friends travel across America, robbing drug-stores to support their habit.
Low-key, effective melodrama with an unconvincing ending.
w Gus Van Sant, Daniel Yost novel James Fogle d Gus Van Sant ph Robert Yeoman m Elliot Goldenthal pd David Brisbin ed Curtiss Clayton ☆ Matt Dillon, Kelly Lynch, James Remar, James Le Gros, Heather Graham, William S. Burroughs
'A rather thoughtless and unenlightening film about drug addiction.' – MFB

The Drum ★

GB 1938 96m Technicolor
UA/London Films (Alexander Korda)
US title: Drums
The British army helps an Indian prince to resist his usurping uncle.
Reasonably entertaining story of the Raj, with adequate excitement after a meandering start.
w Lajos Biro, Arthur Wimperis, Patrick Kirwan, Hugh Gray novel A. E. W. Mason d Zoltan Korda ph Georges Périnal, Osmond Borradaile m John Greenwood, Miklos Rozsa ad Vincent Korda ed William Hornbeck, Henry Cornelius ☆ Sabu, Roger Livesey, Raymond Massey, Valerie Hobson, Desmond Tester, David Tree, Francis L. Sullivan, Roy Emerton, Edward Lexy
'Looks like a 100% commercial bet.' – Variety

Drum

US 1976 100m Metrocolor Panavision
Dino de Laurentiis (Ralph Serpe)
In 1860 New Orleans, a bordello house slave faces all manner of sexual predators.
Tediously single-minded sequel to the appalling Mandingo.
w Norman Wexler novel Kyle Onstott d Steve Carver ph Lucien Ballard m Charles Smalls
☆ Warren Oates, Ken Norton, Isela Vega, Yaphet Kotto, John Colicos, Royal Dano
'Shamelessly it exploits the factors which explain the success of the prototype: a feeble pretence at outraged historical exposé of the abuses of the slave trade provides the excuse for an orgy of wish dreams, of sadism, flagellation, domination, sexuality of all tastes, popular fantasies of negro potency.' – David Robinson, The Times

Drum Beat

US 1954 111m Warnercolor CinemaScope
Jaguar (no producer credited)
An Indian fighter sets out to make peace with a renegade.
Long, dull Western, stolid all round.
wd Delmer Daves ph J. Peverell Marley m Victor Young ed Clarence Kolster ☆ Alan Ladd, Audrey Dalton, Marisa Pavan, Robert Keith, Rodolfo Acosta,

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Charles Bronson, Warner Anderson, Elisha Cook Jnr, Anthony Caruso

Drum Crazy: see The Gene Krupa Story

Drums: see The Drum

Drums Across the River

US 1954 78m Technicolor
Universal-International (Melville Tucker)

A young Westerner who hates Indians finally helps them to overthrow a white crook.
Slick little Western with almost every familiar ingredient.
w John K. Butler, Lawrence Roman
d Nathan Juran ph Harold Lipstein
m Joseph Gershenson
☆ Audie Murphy, Walter Brennan, Lyle Bettger, Lisa Gaye, Hugh O'Brian, Jay Silverheels, Emile Meyer

Drums Along the Amazon: see Angel on the Amazon

Drums Along the Mohawk ★★

US 1939 103m Technicolor
TCF (Raymond Griffith)

Colonists survive Indian attacks in upstate New York during the Revolutionary War.
Patchy, likeable period adventure story with domestic and farming interludes; in its way a key film in the director's canon.
w Lamar Trotti, Sonya Levien novel Walter Edmonds d John Ford ph Bert Glennon, Ray Rennahan m Alfred Newman
☆ Claudette Colbert, Henry Fonda, Edna May Oliver, Eddie Collins, John Carradine, Dorris Bowdon, Jessie Ralph, Arthur Shields, Robert Lowery, Roger Imhof, Ward Bond
'Outdoor spec, a top-bracketer, though not in the smash division.' – Variety
'No one appears to know why the picture is being made, or what its point is, exactly.' – Pauline Kael, 70s
Edna May Oliver

Drums in the Deep South

US 1951 87m Supercinecolor
RKO/King Brothers

A Confederate officer finds himself fighting a lonely battle with his best friend from West Point.
Barely stimulating semi-Western in appalling colour.
w Philip Yordan, Sidney Harmon
d William Cameron Menzies pd William Cameron Menzies
☆ James Craig, Barbara Payton, Guy Madison, Barton MacLane, Craig Stevens, Tom Fadden, Taylor Holmes

Drums of Fu Manchu ★

US 1940 bw serial: 15 eps
Republic

The Yellow Peril seeks the long-lost sceptre of Genghis Khan, which will allow him to rule the eastern hordes.
Spirited rendering of an ideal serial theme.
d William Witney, John English
☆ Henry Brandon, William Royle, Robert Kellard, Gloria Franklin, Olaf Hytten, Luana Walters, Dwight Frye

'A volcano erupts! A hurricane strikes! A man ... a woman ... discover passion in each other's arms!'

Drums of Tahiti

US 1953 73m Technicolor 3D
Columbia (Sam Katzman)

In 1877 an American helps the queen of Tahiti, who doesn't want to become a French possession.
Cheapskate potboiler with an extended volcanic climax (courtesy of older, better movies).
w Douglas Heyes, Robert E. Kent
d William Castle
☆ Dennis O'Keefe, Patricia Medina, Francis L. Sullivan, Sylvia Lewis

Drunk on Women and Poetry: see Chihwaseon

Drunken Angel ★★

Japan 1948 102m bw
Toho

original title: Yoidore Tenshi

A gruff, hot-tempered, alcoholic doctor befriends a young gangster who is dying of tuberculosis.
Moving drama of sacrifice and redemption, filmed in an understated, realistic style.
w Keinosuke Uekusa, Akira Kurosawa
d Akira Kurosawa ph Takeo Ito m Fumio Hayasaka ☆ Takashi Shimura, Toshiro Mifune, Reizaburo Yamamoto, Chieko Nakakita, Michiyo Kogure

Dry Rot

GB 1956 87m bw
Romulus (Jack Clayton)

Three bookmakers plot to make a fortune by substituting a doped horse for the favourite.
Flat filming of a long-running theatrical farce.
w John Chapman play John Chapman
d Maurice Elvey ph Arthur Grant
m Peter Akister
☆ Ronald Shiner, Brian Rix, Sid James, Michael Shepley, Joan Haythorne, Joan Sims, Heather Sears, Lee Patterson, Peggy Mount

A Dry White Season ★

US 1989 107m DeLuxe
UIP/MGM/Star Partners II (Paula Weinstein)

A white South African is transformed into a radical after investigating the death of his gardener at the hands of the police.
Filmed with a passion that does not always communicate to the audience.
w Colin Welland, Euzhan Palcy novel André Brink d Euzhan Palcy ph Kelvin Pike, Pierre William Glenn pd John Fenner ed Sam O'Steen, Glenn Cunningham
☆ Donald Sutherland, Janet Suzman, Zakes Mokae, Jurgen Prochnow, Susan Sarandon, Marlon Brando, Winston Ntshona, Thoko Ntshinga, Leonard Maguire
Marlon Brando

Du Barry, Woman of Passion

US 1930 88m bw
United Artists (Talmadge)

Incidents in the life of the mistress of Louis XV.
Tedious early talkie which marked the virtual end of its star's career.
play David Belasco d Sam Taylor
ph Oliver T. Marsh
☆ Norma Talmadge, William Farnum, Hobart Bosworth, Conrad Nagel, Alison Skipworth
'Wholly unimpressive ... nix for kids and the sticks.' – Variety

Du Rififi chez les Hommes: see Rififi

Du Skal Aere Din Hustru: see Master of the House

Dual Alibi

GB 1947 81m bw
British National (Louis H. Jackson)

Twin trapezists fall out over a lottery ticket and a worthless woman, but later extract a unique revenge.
Sprightly circus melodrama, shot on a shoestring.
w Alfred Travers, Stephen Clarkson
d Alfred Travers ph James Wilson
m Hans May ad R. Holmes-Paul
ed Monica Kimick
☆ Herbert Lom (Jules and Georges de Lisles), Phyllis Dixey (Penny), Ronald Frankau (Vincent Barney), Terence de Marney (Mike Bergen), Abraham Sofaer (French Judge), Eugene Deckers (French Ring Master), Harold Berens (Ali), Sebastian Cabot (Loterry Official)

Dubarry Was a Lady

US 1943 101m Technicolor
MGM (Arthur Freed)

A New Yorker imagines himself back at the court of Louis XIV.
Dull, stiff adaptation of a Broadway musical comedy, with changed songs.
w Irving Brecher book B. G. de Sylva, Herbert Fields d Roy del Ruth ph Karl Freund m/ly Cole Porter md George Stoll
☆ Gene Kelly, Lucille Ball, Red Skelton, Virginia O'Brien, Zero Mostel, Rags Ragland, Tommy Dorsey and his Orchestra

'If the rustlers didn't get you ... the hustlers did!'

The Duchess and the Dirtwater Fox

US 1976 104m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF (Melvin Frank)

A Barbary Coast con man and a saloon singer have various hectic adventures.
Wild and woolly spoof Western which fires off aimlessly in a variety of styles and becomes merely tiresome despite good scenes.
w Melvin Frank, Barry Sandler d Melvin Frank ph Joseph Biroc m Charles Fox
☆ George Segal, Goldie Hawn, Conrad Janis, Thayer David, Roy Jenson, Bob Hoy, Bennie Dobbins
'The classic Western has now been shot to death by Sam Peckinpah, laughed to death by Mel Brooks and pondered to death by Arthur Penn, and Frank is like a scavenger picking up stray relics from its body.' – Newsweek
'The relentless vulgarity of the enterprise suggests that Mr Frank, having been so long constrained by the Hollywood Production Code when churning out vehicles for Bob Hope and Danny Kaye, is still making up for lost time.' – Philip French

The Duchess of Idaho

US 1950 98m Technicolor
MGM (Joe Pasternak)

Romantic misunderstandings among candidates for Miss Idaho Potato.
Lightweight musical, quite pleasant if routine, with guest spots.
w Dorothy Cooper, Jerry Davis d Robert Z. Leonard ph Charles Schoenbaum md Georgie Stoll
☆ Esther Williams, Van Johnson, John Lund, Paula Raymond, Clinton Sundberg, Eleanor Powell, Lena Horne, Red Skelton

'Adulthood is a moving target.'

Duck Season ★★

Mexico 2004 85m bw
Warner/Cinepantera/Lulu (Christian Valdelievre)

original title: Temporada De Patos

Two 16-year-old boys while away a Sunday with the aid of a cake-baking girl from next door and some video games.
Desultory, gentle, unassuming comedy of adolescence, which goes nowhere in particular but provides incidental pleasures.
wd Fernando Eimbcke ph Alexis Zabé
m Liquits, m/ly Alejandro Rosso pd Diana Quiroz ed Mariana Rodríguez ☆ Enrique Arreola (Ulises), Diego Cataño (Moko), Daniel Miranda (Flama), Danny Perea (Rita)
'Sly, droll fun, this unexpectedly fine first feature... creeps to life slowly.' – Manhola Dargis, New York Times

Duck Soup ★★★★

US 1933 68m bw
Paramount

An incompetent becomes President of Fredonia and wages war on its scheming neighbour.
The satirical aspects of this film are fascinating but appear to have been unintentional. Never mind, it's also the most satisfying and undiluted Marx Brothers romp, albeit the one without instrumental interludes. It does include the lemonade stall, the mirror sequence, and an endless array of one-liners and comedy choruses.
w Bert Kalmar, Harry Ruby, Arthur Sheekman, Nat Perrin d Leo McCarey ph Henry Sharp m/ly Bert Kalmar, Harry Ruby ad Hans Dreier, Wiard Ihnen
ed LeRoy Stone
☆ Groucho Marx (Rufus T. Firefly), Chico Marx (Chicolini), Harpo Marx (Pinky), Zeppo Marx (Bob Roland), Margaret Dumont (Mrs Teasdale), Louis Calhern (Ambassador Trentino), Edgar Kennedy (Lemonade man), Raquel Torres (Vera Marcal)
'Practically everybody wants a good laugh right now, and this should make practically everybody laugh.' – Variety
'So much preliminary dialogue is necessary that it seems years before Groucho comes on at all; and waiting for Groucho is agony.' – E. V. Lucas, Punch
'The most perfect of all Marxist masterpieces.' – Time Out, 1984
† The Region 2 DVD release is part of a four disc set, The Marx Brothers Collection ♫ Hail. Hail Freedonia; His Excellency is Due; Just Wait 'til I Get Through With It; Freedonia's Going to War.

Duck, You Sucker: see A Fistful of Dynamite

'After a night they can't remember, comes a day they'll never forget.'

Dude, Where's My Car?

US 2000 83m DeLuxe
TCF (Wayne Rice, Broderick Johnson, Andrew Kusove, Gil Netter)

Two young men wake up unable to remember where they parked their car, which is also a topic of interest for their girlfriends, some odd aliens and members of a strange cult.
Adolescent comedy that ambles along at a low level of bewilderment at the adult world.
w Philip Stark d Danny Leiner ph Robert Stevens m Dave Kitay pd Charles Breen
ed Kimberly Ray
☆ Ashton Kutcher (Jesse), Seann William

Scott (Chester), Kristy Swanson (Christie Boner), Jennifer Garner (Wanda), Marla Sokoloff (Wilma), David Herman (Nelson), Christian Middelthon (Nordic Dude No 1), David W. Bannick (Nordic Dude No 2), Charlie O'Connell (Tommy), Teressa Tunney (Tania)

'Aimed squarely at adolescents who might find Bill & Ted's Excellent Adventure too intellectually taxing.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

'A surprisingly sweet, mild-mannered movie for a teenage comedy spoof, and that's not a good thing.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

Dudes

US 1987 90m colour
Recorded Releasing/New Century/Vista (Herbert Jaffe, Miguel Tejada Flores)

Three punk rockers, on their way to California, fall foul of a gang of murderous rednecks.

Haphazard, absurdist account of a violent culture clash.

w John Randall Johnson d Penelope Spheeris ph Robert Richardson m Charles Bernstein pd Robert Ziembicki ed Andy Horvitch

☆ Jon Cryer, Daniel Roebuck, Flea, Catherine Mary Stewart, Lee Ving

Dudley Do-Right

US 1999 77m DeLuxe
Universal (John Davis, Joseph M. Singer, J. Todd Harris)

An inept Royal Canadian Mountie and his clever horse attempt to deal with a bad man who starts a gold rush in order to grow rich.

This live-action version of a 60s TV cartoon gives Fraser a chance to reprise his George of the Jungle act as a good-natured idiot; it provides some mild amusement.

wd Hugh Wilson based on characters developed by Jay Ward ph Donald E. Thorin m Steve Dorff ch Adam Shankman pd Bob Ziembicki ed Don Brochu

☆ Brendan Fraser (Dudley Do-Right), Sarah Jessica Parker (Nell Fenwick), Alfred Molina (Snidely Whiplash), Eric Idle (The Prospector), Robert Prosky (Inspector Fenwick), Alex Rocco (The Chief), Corey Burton (The Voice of the Announcer), Jack Kehler (Howard), Louis Mustillo (Standing Room Only), Regis Philbin (Regis), Kathie Lee Gifford (Kathie Lee)

'A silly bit of tiptop tomfoolery with cross-generational appeal.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

Due Soldi di Speranza ★

Italy 1952 98m bw
Universalcine (Sandro Ghenzi)
GB title: Two Pennyworth of Hope

Demobilized after World War II, Antonio finds life in his native village hard to take.

Neo-realist comedy-melodrama full of gesticulating rustics; good for those who like this sort of thing.

w Renato Castellani, Titina de Filippo d Renato Castellani ph Arturo Gallea m Alessandro Cicognini

☆ Vincenzo Musolino, Maria Fiore, Filumena Russo, Luigi Astarita

Le Due Vite di Mattia Pascal: see The Two Lives of Mattia Pascal

Duel ★

US 1971 90m colour
Universal (George Eckstein)

A travelling salesman discovers that the driver of the petrol tanker following him is determined to kill him.

Tense, suspenseful drama that made Spielberg's name as a bright young director.

w Richard Matheson story Richard Matheson d Steven Spielberg

☆ Dennis Weaver, Jacqueline Scott, Eddie Firestone, Lou Frizzell

† Made for television, the film received a UK release in 1972, but was not seen in American cinemas until 1983.

Duel at Diablo ★

US 1966 103m DeLuxe
UA/Nelson/Engel/Cherokee/Rainbow/Brien

White and black man fight together as Apaches attack.

Well-paced, old-fashioned, shoot-'em-up star Western.

w Marvin H. Albert, Michel M. Grilikhes d Ralph Nelson ph Charles F. Wheeler m Neal Hefti

☆ Sidney Poitier, James Garner, Bibi Andersson, Bill Travers, William Redfield, John Hoyt, John Hubbard

Duel at Ganryu Island: see Samurai III: Duel at Ganryu Island

Duel at Ichijoji Temple: see Samurai II: Duel at Ichijoji Temple

Duel at Silver Creek

US 1952 77m Technicolor
U-I (Leonard Goldstein)

An honest man is murdered by claim jumpers, and the Silver Kid is suspected.

Modest, efficient Western.

w Gerald Drayson Adams, Joseph Hoffman d Don Siegel ph Irving Glassberg m Hans Salter

☆ Audie Murphy, Stephen McNally, Faith Domergue, Susan Cabot, Gerald Mohr, Eugene Iglesias, Lee Marvin, Walter Sande

Duel at the Rio Grande: see The Mark of Zorro (1963)

Duel in the Jungle

GB 1954 101m Technicolor
ABP/Marcel Hellman

An African explorer intends to defraud an insurance company and sets traps for the investigator who pursues him.

Lackadaisical romp in the studio jungle, none of it with much style or film sense.

w Sam Marx, T. J. Morrison d George Marshall ph Erwin Hillier m Mischa Spoliansky

☆ Dana Andrews, Jeanne Crain, David Farrar, Patrick Barr

Duel in the Sun ★★

US 1946 138m Technicolor
David O. Selznick

A half-breed girl causes trouble between two brothers.

Massive Western, dominated and fragmented by its producer, who bought the best talent and proceeded to interfere with it, so that while individual scenes are marvellous, the narrative has little flow. The final gory shoot-up between two lovers was much discussed at the time.

w David O. Selznick, Oliver H. P. Garrett novel Niven Busch d King Vidor (and others) ph Lee Garmes, Harold Rosson, Ray Rennahan m Dimitri Tiomkin pd J. McMillan Johnson ad James Basevi second unit B. Reeves Eason, Otto Brower

☆ Jennifer Jones, Joseph Cotten, Gregory Peck, Lionel Barrymore, Lillian Gish, Walter Huston, Herbert Marshall, Charles Bickford, Tilly Losch, Joan Tetzel, Harry Carey, Otto Kruger, Sidney Blackmer

'A knowing blend of oats and aphrodisiac.' – Time

'Cornographic is a word that might have been coined for it.' – Daily Mail

'As sexual melodrama with a spectacular background it is in its way remarkable.' – New Statesman

'A razzmatazz of thunderous naïvety simmering into a kind of majestic dottiness.' – Basil Wright, 1972

'A lavish, sensual spectacle, so heightened it becomes a cartoon of passion.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

† The uncredited directors included Josef von Sternberg, William Dieterle, B. Reeves Eason, and Selznick himself.

Jennifer Jones; Lillian Gish

Duelist ④

South Korea 2005 108m
Contender/Production M/Wellmade Entertainment (Lee Myung-se)

Korean theatrical title: Hyung Sa

A hard-boiled detective and his young female colleague investigate a flood of counterfeit money that causes spiralling inflation.

Frustratingly, there is virtually no plot, simply a series of well-staged martial arts duels. Good-looking but unsatisfying.

w Lee Myung-se, Lee Haekyung comic book Hyung Sa by Bang Hak-ki d Lee Myung-se ph Ki S. Hwang m Jo Seong-woo pd Lee Myung-se ad Lee Hyung-ju, Cho Geun-hyun ed Ko Im-pyo

☆ Ha Ji-Won (Detective Namsoon), Ahn Sung-Ki (Detective Ahn), Gang Dong-won (Gu Jang-gon)

The Duellists ★

GB 1977 101m colour
Scott Free/NFFC/David Puttnam

In the early 1800s, two Hussar Officers challenge each other to a series of duels; after sixteen years an ironic truce is called.

A singularly pointless anecdote; its main virtue is that it is coldly attractive to look at.

w Gerald Vaughan-Hughes story The Point of Honour by Joseph Conrad d Ridley Scott ph Frank Tidy m Howard Blake pd Peter J. Hampton

☆ Keith Carradine, Harvey Keitel, Albert Finney, Edward Fox, Cristina Raines, Tom Conti, Robert Stephens, John McEnery

Duet for One

GB 1987 107m Rank Colour
Cannon (Menahem Golan, Yoram Globus)

A leading lady violinist contracts multiple sclerosis.

Lamentable opening out of a two-character play, all gloom and doom and overstatement.

w Tom Kempinski, Jeremy Lipp, Andrei Konchalovsky play Tom Kempinski d Andrei Konchalovsky ph Alex Thomson pd John Graysmark ed Henry Richardson

☆ Julie Andrews, Alan Bates, Max von Sydow, Rupert Everett, Margaret Courtenay

'Six lost souls in search of a little harmony.'

Duets

US 2000 112m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Hollywood/Seven Arts/Beacon (Kevin Jones, Bruce Paltrow, John Byrum)

Three couples travel to a karaoke contest in Omaha, Nebraska.

Rambling, bland road movie with a few effective moments.

w John Byrum d Bruce Paltrow ph Paul Sarossy m David Newman pd Sharon Seymour ed Jerry Greenberg cos Mary Claire Hannan

☆ Maria Bello (Suzi Loomis), Andre Braugher (Reggie Kane), Paul Giamatti (Todd Woods), Huey Lewis (Ricky Dean), Gwyneth Paltrow (Liv), Scott Speedman (Billy), Marian Seldes (Harriet Gahagan), Kiersten Warren (Candy Woods), Angie Phillips (Arlene), Angie Dickinson (Blair)

'Empty is how this well-meaning little film feels in the end.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'Some helpful hints for those who are very rich, very beautiful, very hip, elaborately oversexed, tuned in, turned on and bored to death!'

Duffy

GB 1968 101m Technicolor
Columbia/Martin Manulis

Two half-brothers plan to rob their millionaire father.

Would-be with-it caper film, all flashy fragments and pop art, like sitting through a feature-length commercial. Exasperating.

w Donald Cammell, Harry Joe Brown Jnr d Robert Parrish ph Otto Heller m Ernie Freeman

☆ James Coburn, James Mason, James Fox, Susannah York, John Alderton, Guy Deghy, Tutte Lemkow, Carl Duering, Marne Maitland

Duffy's Tavern

US 1945 97m bw
Paramount (Danny Dare)

The owner of a bar is helped by Hollywood stars.

Flat comedy based on a radio show and not helped by dismal guest star appearances.

w Melvin Frank, Norman Panama d Hal Walker ph Lionel Lindon m Robert Emmett Dolan

☆ Ed Gardner, Victor Moore, Marjorie Reynolds, Barry Sullivani, Bob Hope, Bing Crosby, Betty Hutton, Alan Ladd, Dorothy Lamour, Veronica Lake, William Bendix, Joan Caulfield

'Two thousand men and a girl!'

The Duke of West Point ★

US 1938 112m bw
Edward Small

An extrovert army cadet finds the going tough.

Dated romantic flagwaver which pleased at the time.

w George Bruce d Alfred E. Green ph Robert Planck

☆ Louis Hayward, Joan Fontaine, Tom Brown, Richard Carlson, Alan Curtis, Don Barry, Gaylord Pendleton, Jed Prouty, Marjorie Gateson

'Fairly good entertainment. Much human interest, but the comedy relief is rather light.' – Variety

The Duke Wore Jeans

GB 1958 89m bw
Insignia (Peter Rogers)

An aristocrat persuades his Cockney double to woo a princess on his behalf.

Moderately lively comedy with songs, tailored for Britain's new musical star.

w Norman Hudis story Lionel Bart, Michael Pratt d Gerald Thomas ph Otto Heller m Bruce Montgomery

☆ Tommy Steele, June Laverick, Michael Medwin, Alan Wheatley, Eric Pohlmann

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'Cousins. Outlaws. Thrillbillies.'

The Dukes of Hazzard

US/Australia 2005 104m Technicolor
Warner/Village Roadshow (Bill Gerber)

Two dim-witted cousins and their fast car thwart a big landowner's plans to strip-mine the county.

Direly frantic comedy, based on, and indistinguishable from, the old and equally tedious TV sitcom.

w John O'Brien characters created by Gy Waldron d Jay Chandrasekhar ph Lawrence Sher m Nathan Barr pd Jon Gary Steele ed Lee Haxall, Myron Kerstein

☆ Johnny Knoxville (Luke Duke), Seann William Scott (Bo Duke), Jessica Simpson (Daisy Duke), Burt Reynolds (Boss Hogg), Joe Don Baker (Gov. Jim Applewhite), Willie Nelson (Uncle Jesse), Lynda Carter (Pauline)

'Do American film-execs think that there are so few stories left to tell that they have to revive such anodyne schedule-fillers?' – Sukhdev Sandhu, Daily Telegraph

'A ghastly nightmare: a catwalk of threadbare nostalgia, expensive crashes and craven greed.' – James Christopher, Times

† The TV sitcom ran from 1979-1985.

Dulcima

GB 1971 98m Technicolor
EMI (Basil Rayburn)

A farmer's daughter reluctantly moves in with a persistent, lecherous old miser.

Weird sex melodrama from Cold Comfort Farm country, more risible than interesting.

wd Frank Nesbitt story H. E. Bates ph Tony Imi m Johnny Douglas ad Ray Sim

☆ John Mills, Carol White, Stuart Wilson, Bernard Lee, Dudley Foster

Dulcimer Street: see London Belongs to Me

'Some friendships are wilder than others.'

Duma ★★ (8)

US 2005 101m Technicolor
Warner/Gaylord (John Wells, Hunt Lowry, E.K. Claybourne)

A young boy living in South Africa adopts an orphaned cheetah.

Delightful, beautifully photographed account that takes an unsentimental view of the natural, and human, world.

w Karen Janszen, Mark St. Germain, Carol Flint book How It Was with Dooms by Carol Cawthra Hopcraft, Xan Hopcraft d Carroll Ballard ph Werner Maritz m John Debney, George Acogny pd Johnny Breedt ed T.M. Christopher

☆ Alexander Michaletos (Xan), Eamonn Walker (Rip), Campbell Scott (Peter), Hope Davis (Kristin)

'Connects you to the beauteous inner calm of the wild, even if audiences today are looking for a lot less calm.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

'For Harry And Lloyd Every Day Is A No-Brainer.'

Dumb & Dumber

US 1994 106m Film House colour
First Independent/New Line/MPCA (Charles B. Wessler, Brad Krevoy, Steve Stabler)

A dim-witted chauffeur travels across America with his dimmer-witted friend in order to return a briefcase to someone who does not want it back.

In comparison with Jerry Lewis, the comedian he most resembles, there is something sweetly innocent about the personality of the relentlessly mugging Jim Carrey, which can wear down resistance to what is no more than a succession of bad jokes on such matters as farting. It makes the most basic Carry On movie look sophisticated and was among the most successful releases of the year.

w Peter Farrelly, Bennett Yellin, Bobby Farrelly d Peter Farrelly ph Mark Irwin m Todd Rundgren pd Sidney Bartholomew Jnr ed Christopher Greenbury

☆ Jim Carrey, Jeff Daniels, Lauren Holly, Karen Duffy, Teri Garr, Mike Starr, Charles Rocket, Victoria Rowell

'D and D – in comparison with which Jim Carrey's other pictures look as if they were scripted by Oscar Wilde – makes you laugh out loud for almost its entire running time.' – Richard Schickel, Time

'A flat-out celebration of stupidity, bodily functions and pratfalls ... ideal fare for those who want to laugh themselves sick' – Variety

'Before the first movie, there was high school. They missed the bus.'

Dumb and Dumberer: When Harry Met Lloyd

US/Germany 2003 85m DeLuxe
Entertainment/Brad Krevoy/Charles B. Wessler/Steve Stabler/Burg/Koules/Dakota

Two teenage schoolboys join a class of misfits and expose their principal as a crook.

Third division remake of Dumb and Dumber with more jokes about bodily functions than you can flush away.

w Robert Brener, Troy Miller d Troy Miller ph Anthony Richmond m Eban Schletter pd Paul Huggins ed Lawrence Jordan

☆ Eric Christian Olsen (Lloyd Christmas), Derek Richardson (Harry Dunne), Rachel Nichols (Jessica), Cheri Oteri (Mrs Heller), Luis Guzman (Ray), Elden Henson (Turk), Mimi Rogers (Mrs Dunne), Eugene Levy (Principal Collins)

'Merely disgusting as it piles up jokes involving various bodily discharges and the unpleasant things that can be done with them.' – David Kehr, New York Times

'Perhaps merely pathetically infantile rather than actively offensive.' – Mark Kermode, Observer

Dumbo ★★★

US 1941 64m Technicolor
Walt Disney

A baby circus elephant finds that his big ears have a use after all.

Delightful cartoon feature notable for set-pieces such as the drunken nightmare and the crows' song.

w Joe Grant, Dick Huemer story Helen Aberson, Harold Pearl d Ben Sharpsteen m Frank Churchill, Oliver Wallace

☆ Featuring the voices of Sterling Holloway, Edward Brophy, Verna Felton, Herman Bing, Cliff Edwards

'See the most genial, the most endearing, the most completely precious cartoon feature film ever to emerge from the magical brushes of Walt Disney's wonder-working artists!' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times

♪ music

♪ song, 'Baby Mine' (m Frank Churchill, ly Ned Washington)

The Dummy Talks

GB 1943 85m bw
British National

A ventriloquist turns to blackmail and is murdered backstage.

Curious, oddly cast murder mystery, not unentertaining at the time.

w Michael Barringer d Oswald Mitchell

☆ Jack Warner, Claude Hulbert, Beryl Orde, G. H. Mulcaster, Ivy Benson, Manning Whiley

Dumplings ★ (2)

Hong Kong 2004 91m
Tartan/Applause Pictures (Peter Chan Ho-Sun)

Cantonese theatrical title: Gaau Ji Mandarin theatrical title: Jiaozi

An abortionist sells homemade dumplings made out of foetus flesh to rich women wanting anti-ageing miracles.

Expanded version of an episode from the Three Extremes trilogy. More refined and intelligent than its gruesome concept suggests, a simple morality tale shines through the low-key grossness.

w Lilian Lee d Fruit Chan ph Christopher Doyle m Kwong Wing Chan pd Chung Man Yee ad Pater Wong ed Fruit Chan, Ki-hop Chan, Sam-Fat Chin

☆ Miriam Yeung (Li Qing), Ling Bai (Mei), Tony Leung Ka Fai (Mr Lee), Meme Tian (Connie), Miki Yeung (Kate), Pauline Lau (Masseuse)

'Not even Chris Doyle's eye-catching cinematography can make the gynophobic nastiness palatable.' – Mark Kermode, Observer

Dune

US 1984 140m Technicolor Todd-AO
Dino de Laurentiis (Raffaella de Laurentiis)

Armies from several planets descend on another which has valuable spice guarded by monster worms.

A basically simple space fiction plot is immensely complicated by a welter of characters who are not properly introduced and who indeed are mostly irrelevant. The result, which cost nearly 50 million dollars, is inaudible, invisible (because of dim lighting) and unentertaining: a disaster of the very first order.

wd David Lynch novel Frank Herbert ph Freddie Francis m Toto pd Anthony Masters ed Antony Gibbs

☆ Francesca Annis, Jose Ferrer, Sian Phillips, Brad Dourif, Dean Stockwell, Freddie Jones, Linda Hunt, Kenneth McMillan, Richard Jordan, Kyle MacLachlan, Silvana Mangano, Jurgen Prochnow, Max Von Sydow, Sting

'Huge, hollow, imaginative and cold.' – Variety

'This movie is a real mess, an incomprehensible, ugly, unstructured, pointless excursion into the murkier realms of one of the most confusing screenplays of all time.' – Roger Ebert

'This is no game.'

Dungeons and Dragons

US 2000 108m DeLuxe
Entertainment/New Line/Sweetpea (Courtney Solomon, Kia Jam, Tom Hammel)

In a medieval world, a thief becomes a hero in a battle between his empress and a wicked wizard to control the world.

Based on the popular role-playing game, this is risible sword and sorcery, with cheap and lurid effects, hammy role-playing from its cast, and, on the few occasions it can be heard, corny dialogue.

w Topper Lilien, Carroll Cartwright d Courtney Solomon ph Doug Milsome m Justin Caine Burnett pd Bryce Perrin ed Caroline Ross cos Barbara Lane

☆ Justin Whalin (Ridley Freeborn), Marlon Wayans (Snails), Zoe McLellan (Marina Pretensa), Thora Birch (Empress Savina), Bruce Payne (Damodar), Jeremy Irons (Profion), Kristen Wilson (Norda), Richard O'Brien (Xilus), Tom Baker (Halvarth)

'Stunningly bad sci-fi/fantasy hokum.' – Variety

Dunkirk ★★

GB 1958 135m bw
MGM/Ealing (Michael Balcon)

In 1940 on the Normandy beaches, a small group gets detached from the main force.

Sober, small-scale approach to an epic subject; interesting but not inspiring, with performances to match.

w W. P. Lipscomb, David Divine d Leslie Norman ph Paul Beeson m Malcolm Arnold

☆ John Mills, Richard Attenborough, Bernard Lee, Robert Urquhart, Ray Jackson Dunston Checks In ★

Canada 1996 88m DeLuxe
TCF (Joe Wizan, Todd Black)

An aristocratic hotel burglar has an unusual accomplice: an orang-utan, who prefers the company of the manager's two young sons.

Enjoyable, smartly written farce that also charms; the laughs keep coming.

w John Hopkins, Bruce Graham d Ken Kwapis ph Peter Collister m Miles Goodman pd Rusty Smith ed Jon Poll

☆ Jason Alexander, Faye Dunaway, Eric Lloyd, Rupert Everett, Graham Sack, Paul Reubens, Glenn Shadix, Sam

'It all works very smoothly, mostly because the sight gags are just predictable enough for comfort, and partly because of a cast who gamely suffer simian-inflicted indignities.' – Guardian

'Men invoke its horror! Women invite its shame!'

The Dunwich Horror ★

US 1970 90m Movielab
AIP (Roger Corman, Jack Bohrer)

A young warlock plans to use his girlfriend in a fertility rite.

Bookish horror story, quite well done against a village background.

w Curtis Lee Hanson, Henry Rosenbaum, Ronald Silkosky story H. P. Lovecraft d Daniel Haller ph Richard C. Glouner m Les Baxter

☆ Dean Stockwell, Sandra Dee, Ed Begley, Sam Jaffe, Lloyd Bochner

'A bit psychedelic in places, but with a real feeling for sinister rites and strange manifestations.' – Sight and Sound

Duoluo Tianshi: see Fallen Angels

Duped Till Doomsday ★

East Germany 1957 97m bw
DEFA (Adolf Fischer)

original title: Betrogen bis zum Jungsten Tag

Three Nazi NCOs go to the bad.

Propagandist anti-Nazi war melodrama, very well made in parts.

w Kurt Bortfeldt novel Kameraden by Franz Fuhmann d Kurt Jung-Alsen ph Walter Fehdmer

☆ Wolfgang Kieling, Rudolph Ulrich, Hans-Joachim Martens

'Alex and Nancy finally found their dream home...And then they moved in.'

Duplex

US 2003 89m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Red Hour/Flower (Ben Stiller, Stuart

Cornfeld, Jeremy Kramer, Nancy Juvonen, Drew Barrymore)

GB title: Our House

After they move into their new New York apartment, a young couple discover that their sitting tenant is determined to wreck their lives.

An often cruel comedy that is unable to sustain the joke.

w Larry Doyle d Danny DeVito ph Anastas N. Michos m David Newman pd Robin Standefer ed Lynzee Klingman

☆ Ben Stiller (Alex), Drew Barrymore (Nancy), Eileen Essell (Mrs Connelly), Harvey Fierstein (Kenneth), Justin Theroux (Coop), Robert Wisdom (Officer Dan), James Remar (Chick), Swoosie Kurtz (Jean)

'Refreshingly mean-spirited gothic real estate comedy.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

Dust

Belgium/France 1985 87m Fujicolour
Mans/Daska/Flach/FR3

On an isolated South African farm, a girl murders her adulterous father.

Doomladen saga redeemed by strong pictorial style.

wd Marion Hansel novel In the Heart of the Country by J. M. Coetzee

☆ Jane Birkin, Trevor Howard, John Matshikiza

Dust ★

GB/Germany/Italy/Macedonia 2001 124m colour
Pathé/History/Dreams/ena/Fandango/Shadow/Film Council/BSkyB/British Screen (Chris Auty, Vesna Jovanoska, Domenico Procacci)

In an Manhattan apartment an old woman holds a burglar at gunpoint while she tells him how her father and his brother left the American west to fight in Macedonia.

Good-looking, bloody, dramatically incoherent movie that is unduly influenced by Sergio Leone and Sam Peckinpah, reproducing all their faults and none of their virtues.

wd Milcho Manchevski ph Barry Ackroyd m Kiril Dzajkovski pd David Munns ed Nic Gaster

☆ Joseph Fiennes (Elijah), David Wenham (Luke), Adrian Lester (Edge), Anne Brochet (Lilith), Nikolina Kujaca (Neda), Rosemary Murphy (Angela)

'Very tiresome, overblown piece of machismo.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Dust Be My Destiny ★

US 1939 88m bw
Warner (Lou Edelman)

A young misfit tries to find himself in the country.

Dated but well made social melodrama.

w Robert Rossen story Jerome Odlum d Lewis Seiler ph James Wong Howe m Max Steiner

☆ John Garfield, Priscilla Lane, Alan Hale, Frank McHugh, John Litel, Charles Grapewin, Billy Halop, Bobby Jordan, Stanley Ridges

'Strong programmer, though overlong and episodic.' – Variety

'You can tell from the title that John Garfield has his usual part – the angry, bitter, tough poor young man with slight persecution mania.' – Richard Mallett, Punch † Remade 1942 as I Was Framed, with Michael Ames.

Dust Devil: The Final Cut

GB 1992 103m Technicolor
Polygram/Palace/Film Four/Richard Stanley

An alien, which has to kill in order to return to its own world, journeys to a ghost town, where he is attracted by two people with a death-wish: a battered wife fleeing her husband and a black cop who has lost his wife and son.

Confused science-fiction thriller that never quite comes to life; whatever message the director is striving to impart, it remains obscure.

wd Richard Stanley ph Steven Chivers m Simon Boswell pd Joseph Bennett ed Derek Trigg, Paul Carlin sp The Dream Machine, Rick Cresswell

☆ Robert Burke, Chelsea Field, Zakes Mokae, John Matshikiza, Marianne Sagebrecht, William Hootkins, Rufus Swart

'Overflowing with ideas, visual invention and genre references but saddled by a weak, unfocused script.' – Variety

'In any of its several versions, this is a considerable and remarkable film.' – Kim Newman

† The film exists in several versions. The above is the director's preferred version, which he restored with his own money. A shorter version, cut by its American distributor, was released in Europe under the title Demonica. The US version of the film was re-dubbed and had a new voice-over added.

Dust in the Wind ★

Taiwan 1987 100m colour
ICA/Central Motion Picture (Ling Deng Fei, Xu Guo Liang)

original title: Lien-lien feng-ch'en

Instead of going to high school, a youth leaves his mining village to seek work in the big city, where his girlfriend joins him.

A leisurely, intermittently insightful examination of the tensions and pleasures of family life and the problems of surviving without much education in an unsympathetic urban environment.

w Wu Nien-jen, Chu Tien-wen d Hou Hsiao-hsien ph Li Ping-pin pd Zhao Qi Bin

☆ Wang Ching-Wen, Hsing Shu-fen, Ch'en Shu-fang, Li Tien-lu

'The Competition Will Kill You.'

Dusting Cliff 7

US 1996 88m colour
Silvertime (Leman Cetiner, Axel Munch)

video title: Last Assassins

After her daughter is taken hostage, a former CIA hitwoman is forced to help an old colleague steal a hidden arsenal of nuclear weapons.

A by-the-numbers action movie with lots of big explosions and gunfights; nothing out of the ordinary.

w Jim Menza, William H. Molina, Charles Philip Moore, Justin J. Stanley d William H. Molina ph William H. Molina m David Wurst, Eric Wurst ed William H. Molina

☆ Lance Henriksen (Roger McBride), Nancy Allen (Anne Bishop), Scott Lincoln (Brock Daniels), Dean Scofield (Mitch Stevens), Ashley Buccile (Carrie Bishop), Floyd 'Red Crow' Westerman (Indian Bob), Zahn McClarnon (Indian Louis), Shashawnee Hall (Wayne)

Dusty

Australia 1982 85m colour
Panavision
Kestrel Films/Dusty Productions (Gil Brealey)

An old shepherd takes to the bush to save his half-wild dog from being shot by sheep farmers.

Sentimental tale with pleasant landscape photography.

w Sonia Berg novel Frank Dalby Davison d John Richardson ph Alex McPhee m Frank Strangio pd Robbie Perkins ad Ivana Perkins ed David Greig

☆ Bill Kerr, Noel Trevarthen, Carol Burns, John Stanton, Nicholas Holland

Dusty Ermine

GB 1938 74m bw
Julius Hagen/Twickenham

US title: Hideout in the Alps

Scotland Yard chases counterfeiters to Switzerland, and the hunt ends in a ski chase.

Modestly effective melodrama with dated romantic leads.

w Paul Hervey Fox play Neil Grant d Bernard Vorhaus

☆ Jane Baxter, Anthony Bushell, Ronald Squire, Margaret Rutherford, Athole Stewart, Katie Johnson, Austin Trevor, Felix Aylmer

'The humour is of the British kind – not too hilarious but still tickling.' – Variety

Dutch

US 1991 107m DeLuxe
TCF (John Hughes, Richard Vane)

GB title: Driving Me Crazy

An arrogant and snobbish twelve-year-old boy is reformed by his divorced mother's working-class boyfriend.

Inert comedy of class warfare, part of the cycle of buddy-buddy movies in which antagonists at the beginning become friends by the end.

w John Hughes d Peter Faiman ph Charles Minsky m Alan Silvestri pd Stan Jolley ed Paul Hirsch, Adam Bernardi

☆ Ed O'Neill, Ethan Randall, Christopher McDonald, Ari Meyers, E. G. Daily, L. Scott Caldwell, Kathleen Freeman

Dutchman ★

GB 1966 56m bw
Gene Persson

On a New York subway train a woman humiliates a black man and finally knifes him.

An allegory for addicts who can ferret out the meaning; on the surface, vaguely Pinterish and mainly boring.

w LeRoi Jones play LeRoi Jones d Anthony Harvey ph Gerry Turpin m John Barry

☆ Shirley Knight, Al Freeman Jnr

D'Ye Ken John Peel?

GB 1935 81m bw
AP&D/Twickenham (Julius Hagen)

US title: Captain Moonlight

In the early 1800s, an army officer prevents a villain from marrying the girl he loves.

A muddled melodrama of highwaymen and skulduggery with musical interludes; it provided

Stanley Holloway with an opportunity to perform one of his best-known monologues, 'Sam, Pick Up Thy Musket', and also contains the English equivalent of cavalry riding to the rescue with a charge of fox-hunters.

w H. Fowler Mear story Charles Cullum d Henry Edwards ph Sydney Blythe, William Luff m W. L. Trytel ad James A. Carter ed Jack Harris, Lister Laurence

☆ John Garrick, Winifred Shotter, Stanley Holloway, John Stuart, Leslie Perrins, Mary Lawson, Charles Carson

'Just when she'd given up on love, she fell for a guy who'd given up on life.'

Dying Young

US 1991 111m
TCF/Fogwood (Sally Field, Kevin McCormick)

A man suffering from leukaemia falls in love with the nurse he hires to look after him.

Inane romance, meandering and glossily sentimental, and coming to the conclusion that death is nothing to worry about if you've Julia Roberts by your side.

w Richard Friedenberg novel Marti Leimbach d Joel Schumacher ph Juan Ruiz Anchia m James Newton Howard ad Guy J. Comtois, Richard Johnson ed Robert Brown, Jim Prior

☆ Julia Roberts, Campbell Scott, Vincent D'Onofrio, Colleen Dewhurst, David Selby, Ellen Burstyn, Dion Anderson, George Martin

'Starpower should carry this rather thin and maudlin weeper through some heated weeks, but the only real legs likely to be shown are those amply exposed by the femme lead.' – Variety

Dynamite ★★

US 1929 129m bw
MGM (Cecil B. de Mille)

In order to gain an inheritance, a socialite marries a man about to be executed ... but he is reprieved.

Dated but still dynamic social melodrama of the early talkie period.

w Jeanie Macpherson d Cecil B. de Mille ph Peverell Marley m Herbert Stothart ad Mitchell Leisen

☆ Kay Johnson, Charles Bickford, Conrad Nagel, Julia Faye, Joel McCrea

'A pot-pourri of all previous de Mille efforts crammed into one picture.' – Variety

'Exuberant, wonderfully vigorous, the film skilfully evokes the look and character of the Jazz Age.' – Charles Higham

'An astonishing mixture, with artificiality vying with realism and comedy hanging on the heels of grim melodrama.' – Mordaunt Hall, New York Times

Mitchell Leisen

Dynamite Man from Glory Jail: see Fools Parade

Dyrygent: see The Conductor

E la Nave Va: see And the Ship Sails On

'Swallow your fear.'

EMR

GB 2005 87m colour
Dogwoof/Cottonopolis (George Calil, James Erskine, John Lentaigne, Danny McCullough)

An epileptic, hypochondriac loner believes he is the victim of a conspiracy, or he may be having hallucinations.
Low budget paranoid thriller that leads the audience down confusing blind alleys before it ends nowhere very interesting.
wd James Erskine, Danny McCullough
ph John Halliday m Stuart Hancock
pd Jill McGraw ed Steve Parkinson, Robin Peters, Ian Davies
☆ Adam Leese (Adam Jones), Whitney Cummings (Lily), Guy Henry (Head Agent), George Calil (Agent 6), Tom Hardy (Henry), Jemma Walker (Tracey)

...E Poi Lo Chiamarono Il Magnifico: see Man of the East

E.T. The Extra-Terrestrial ★★★★

US 1982 115m DeLuxe
Universal (Steven Spielberg, Kathleen Kennedy)

When an alien spacecraft is disturbed in a Los Angeles suburb, one of its crew members is left behind and befriended by a small boy.
Stupefyingly successful box-office fairy tale by the current wonder kid Spielberg, taken to the world's heart because he dares to make films without sex, violence or bad language. This one could hardly be simpler, but it works; and the ailing cinema would love to know how to repeat the trick several times a year.
w Melissa Mathison d Steven Spielberg ph Allen Daviau m John Williams
pd James D. Bissell ed Carol Littleton
sp Creator of E.T.: Carlo Rambaldi
☆ Dee Wallace (Mary), Henry Thomas (Elliott), Peter Coyote (Keys), Robert MacNaughton (Michael), Drew Barrymore (Gertie), K. C. Martel (Greg), Sean Frye (Steve), Tom Howell (Tyler)

'The most moving science-fiction movie ever made on earth.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker
'E.T. is the closest film to my own sensibilities, my own fantasies, my own heart.' – Steven Spielberg

† The movie was reissued in 2002 with its special effects enhanced, and walkie-talkies substituted for the FBI agents' guns. One line of dialogue was also changed in the Halloween scene. Spielberg explained, 'There's no reason why the word terrorist belongs in a film like ET, and we were being glib in the early 80s with Mary saying, "You will not go out dressed as a terrorist."' Now she says, "You will not go out dressed as a hippy."'
†† A Region 1 two-disc DVD release includes the 1982 and the 2002 versions, and has an introduction by Spielberg.

John Williams; visual effects (Carlo Rambaldi, Dennis Murren, Kenneth F. Smith); sound (Buzz Knudson, Robert Glass, Don Digirolamo, Gene Cantamessa); sound effects editing (Charles L. Campbell, Ben Burtt) picture; Steven Spielberg; Melissa Matheson; Allen Daviau; Carol Littleton John Williams

E Tornato Sabata ... Hai Chiuso un'Altra Volta: see Return of Sabata

Each Dawn I Die ★

US 1939 84m bw
Warner (David Lewis)
original title: Killer Meets Killer

A crusading reporter is framed for manslaughter and becomes a hardened prisoner.
Efficient, vigorous yet slightly disappointing star vehicle; the talents are in the right background, but the script is wobbly.
w Norman Reilly Raine, Warren Duff, Charles Perry novel Jerome Odlum
d William Keighley ph Arthur Edeson
m Max Steiner ad William Cameron Menzies
☆ James Cagney, George Raft, Jane Bryan, George Bancroft, Maxie Rosenbloom, Stanley Ridges, Alan Baxter, Victor Jory

'Rich in horror and brutality.' – New York Sunday Mirror
'In addition to its crackling screenplay, it is made memorable by the easy mastery of its two principals.' – Time
'Towards the end of the thirties Warners' underworld pictures began to get hazy and high-minded, and in this one the pre-Second World War spiritual irradiation blurs the conventions of the prison genre.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

The Eagle ★★

US 1925 80m approx (24 fps) bw
silent
United Artists/Joseph M. Schenck

A Cossack lieutenant turns masked outlaw when his father's lands are annexed.
Enjoyable romp in the wake of Robin Hood, the Scarlet Pimpernel and Zorro; the eye-flashing star is somewhere near his best.
w Hans Kraly story Dubrowsky by Alexander Pushkin d Clarence Brown
ph George Barnes
☆ Rudolph Valentino, Vilma Banky, Louise Dresser

The Eagle and the Hawk ★★

US 1933 72m bw
Paramount

In 1918 France, two American army flyers dislike each other but come together before the death of one of them.
Dawn Patrol melodrama, well done with unusually vivid dialogue and acting.
w Bogart Rogers, Seton I. Miller story John Monk Saunders d Stuart Walker ph Harry Fischbeck ☆ Fredric March, Cary Grant, Carole Lombard, Sir Guy Standing, Jack Oakie, Forrester Harvey

'Will make good with those it attracts, but is handicapped by the mass of earlier flight pictures.' – Variety

The Eagle and the Hawk

US 1949 86m bw
(Paramount)

During the Mexican wars, a US government agent tracks down a traitor who is supplying arms to the rebel Juarez.
Stolid adventure yarn, energetically played.
w Geoffrey Homes, Lewis R. Foster
d Lewis R. Foster ph James Wong Howe
m David Chudnow
☆ John Payne, Dennis O'Keefe, Rhonda Fleming, Thomas Gomez, Fred Clark, Frank Faylen, Eduardo Noriega

The Eagle Has Landed ★

GB 1976 135m Eastmancolor
Panavision
ITC/Associated General (Jack Wiener, David Niven Jnr)

During World War II, enemy aliens infiltrate an English village in the hope of killing Churchill.
Elaborately plotted but uninvolving spy melodrama, lethargically directed, muddily coloured and too concerned to create some good Germans.
w Tom Mankiewicz novel Jack Higgins
d John Sturges ph Anthony Richmond
m Lalo Schifrin
☆ Michael Caine, Donald Sutherland, Robert Duvall, Jenny Agutter, Donald Pleasence, Anthony Quayle, Jean Marsh, Sven-Bertil Taube, John Standing, Judy Geeson, Larry Hagman, Maurice Roeves

Eagle Squadron

US 1942 102m bw
Universal (Walter Wanger)

During World War II, American flyers join the RAF.
Studio-bound air epic, leavened with conventional romance but little humour or sympathy.
w Norman Reilly Raine story C. S. Forester d Arthur Lubin ph Stanley Cortez
m Frank Skinner
☆ Robert Stack, Diana Barrymore, John Loder, Eddie Albert, Nigel Bruce, Leif Erickson, Edgar Barrier, Jon Hall, Evelyn Ankers, Isobel Elsom, Alan Hale Jnr, Don Porter, Frederick Worlock, Gladys Cooper

Eagle's Wing

GB 1979 111m Eastmancolor
Panavision
Rank/Peter Shaw (Ben Arbeid)

A Comanche chief pursues a white man who has stolen a prize Indian horse.
Would-be poetic Western which emerges as very pretty but stultifyingly dull; an odd thing indeed to come from a moribund British studio.
w John Briley d Anthony Harvey ph Billy Williams m Marc Wilkinson pd Herbert Westbrook
☆ Martin Sheen, Sam Waterston, Harvey Keitel, Stephane Audran, John Castle

The Ear ★

Czechoslovakia 1970 93m bw
Barrandov (Erich Svabik, Jan Prochazka)
original title: Ucho

An unhappily married couple return to their bugged home from an official reception, at which the husband, a government minister, has discovered that he is to be purged.
A skilled but claustrophobic domestic and political drama, which is partly filmed in semi-darkness to emphasize its atmosphere of betrayal, guilt and general malaise; though when characters emerge into the light it is for a sinister purpose.
w Jan Prochazka, Karel Kachyna d Karel Kachyna ph Joseph Illik m Svatopluk Havelka ed Stansikav Petrek
☆ Jirina Bohdalova, Radoslav Brzobohaty, Gustav Opecensky, Miroslav Holub, Lubor Tokos, Borivoj Navratil, Jiri Cisler
† Russian authorities suppressed the film for 20 years.

The Earl of Chicago ★

US 1939 87m bw
MGM (Victor Saville)

An American gangster accedes to an English earldom but is tried for murder.
Unusual but unsatisfactory comedy-drama which rambles to a dismal conclusion but has entertaining passages.
w Lesser Samuels novel Brock Williams
d Richard Thorpe ph Ray June m Werner Heymann
☆ Robert Montgomery, Edward Arnold, Reginald Owen, Edmund Gwenn
† This had been planned as a British production, but the war intervened.

The Early Bird

GB 1965 98m Eastmancolor
Rank/Hugh Stewart

A milkman gets involved in an inter-company war.
Star farcical comedy; not the worst of Wisdom, but overlong and mainly uninventive.
w Jack Davies, Norman Wisdom, Eddie Leslie, Henry Blyth d Robert Asher ph Jack Asher m Ron Goodwin
☆ Norman Wisdom, Edward Chapman, Jerry Desmonde, Paddie O'Neil, Bryan Pringle, Richard Vernon, John Le Mesurier, Peter Jeffrey

Early Frost

Australia 1982 90m colour
Filmco (David Hannay)

A private investigator discovers that a series of apparently accidental deaths are the work of a serial killer who hates mothers.
A psychological horror story that tries hard to scare, but becomes more ludicrous the longer it lasts.

w Terry O'Connor d uncredited
ph David Eggby m Mike Harvey ad Bob Hilditch ed Tim Street ☆ Diana McLean, Jon Blake, Jan Kingsbury, Kit Taylor, David Franklin, Joanne Samuel, Danny Adcock, Daniel Cumerford, Guy Doleman

Early Spring ★

Japan 1956 108m bw
Shochiku
original title: Soshun
The marriage of an office worker breaks down when he begins an affair with a typist.
A slight, unengaging tale of the dreariness of domestic and office life.
w Kogo Noda, Yasujiro Ozu d Yasujiro Ozu ph Yuharu Atsuta m Kojun Saito ad Tatsuo Hamada ed Yoshiyasu Hamamura
☆ Chikage Awajima, Ryo Ikebe, Keiko Kishi, Teiji Takahashi, Chishu Ryu, So Yamamura, Haruko Sugimura, Takako Fujino

Early Summer ★★★

Japan 1951 125m bw
Shochiku
original title: Bakushu
A family breaks up when the daughter rejects the man chosen as her husband and marries someone else.
A complex, compassionate, beautifully observed study of family tensions, traced over three generations living together.
w Kogo Noda, Yasujiro Ozu d Yasujiro Ozu ph Yuharu Atsuta m Senji Ito ad Toshio Hamada ed Yoshiyasu Hamamura
☆ Setsuko Hara (Noriko), Chishu Ryu (Koichi), Chikage Awajima (Aya Tamura), Kuniko Miyake (Fumiko), Ichiro Sugai (Shukichi), Chieko Higashiyama (Shige), Haruko Sugimura (Tami Yabe)

Early to Bed

US 1928 20m bw silent
Hal Roach
Stan becomes Ollie's butler but rebels when his friend's fortune goes to his head.
One of the most untypical and seldom seen of the stars' comedies, with both prankishly out of character. On its own account however it is mainly very funny.
w H. M. Walker d Emmett Flynn
ph George Stevens ed Richard Currier
☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy

The Earrings of Madame De...: see Madame De...

Earth ★★★

USSR 1930 63m approx (24 fps) bw silent VUFKU
original title: Zemlya
Trouble results in a Ukrainian village when a landowner refuses to hand over his land for a collective farm.
The melodramatic little plot takes second place to lyrical sequences of rustic beauty, illustrating life, love and death in the countryside.
wd Alexander Dovzhenko ph Danylo Demutsky ad Basil Krichevski
ed Alexander Dovzhenko
☆ Semyon Svashenko (Basil), Stephan Shkurat (Opanas), Mikola Nademsky (Grandfather Simon), Yelena Maximova (Basil's Fiancee)
'Stories in themselves do not interest me. I choose them in order to get the greatest expression of essential social forms.' – Dovzhenko
'A picture for filmgoers who are prepared to take their cinema as seriously as Tolstoy took the novel.' – James Agate

Earth ★★

Canada 1999 colour 106
Pathé/Cracking the Earth (Deepa Mehta, Anne Masson)
In Lahore in 1947 at the time of independence, a young Parsee girl watches the end of friendships between Muslims and Hindus who are companions of her ayah when it is known that the city will become part of Pakistan.
A narrative with a tragic dimension, with events recalled by a woman whose life was changed by her uncomprehending actions as a child; it gains immeasurably from its limited, personal perspective on a national cataclysm.
wd Deepa Mehta book Cracking India by Bapsi Sidhwa ph Giles Nuttgens m A.R. Rahman pd Aradhana Seth ed Barry Farrell
☆ Maia Sethna (Lenny Sethna), Nandita Das (Shanta, the Ayah), Kitu Gidwani (Bunty Sethna), Arif Zakaria (Rustom Sethna), Eric Peterson (Mr Rogers), Kulbhushan Kharbanda (Imam Din), Pavan Malhotra (Butcher), Sunil Mehra (Toto Ramji)
'Has a universal message, which is that when a mob forms in the name of a religion, its first casualty is usually the teaching of the religion.' – Roger Ebert
† The movie followed on from Fire (qv) and was followed by Water (qv) in dealing with various aspects of Indian life and history.

Earth Girls Are Easy

US 1988 100m colour Panavision
Fox/De Laurentiis/Kestrel Films (Tony Garnett)
Three aliens crashland on Earth and learn to enjoy disco dancing.
Ineffectual teenage musical.
w Julie Brown, Charlie Coffey, Terrence E. McNally d Julien Temple ph Oliver Stapleton md Nile Rodgers pd Dennis Gassner ed Richard Halsey
☆ Geena Davis, Jeff Goldblum, Jim Carrey, Damon Wayans, Julie Brown, Michael McKean, Charles Rocket, Larry Linville, Rick Overton

'Warning! Take Cover! Flying Saucers Invade Our Planet! Washington, London, Paris, Moscow Fight Back!'

Earth vs the Flying Saucers

US 1956 83m bw
Columbia (Charles H. Schneer)
Saucermen from another planet try to disintegrate the Earth.
Elementary science fiction with special effects in a similar if enthusiastic vein.
w George Worthing Yates, Raymond T. Marcus (Bernard Gordon) story Curt Siodmak book Flying Saucers from Outer Space by Major Donald E. Keyhoe d Fred F. Sears ph Fred Jackman Jnr md Mischa Bakaleinikoff ad Paul Palmentola ed Danny Landres sp Ray Harryhausen
☆ Hugh Marlowe (Dt Russell Marvin), Joan Taylor (Carol Marvin), Donald Curtis (Major Huglin), Morris Ankrum (Brig General John Hanley)
'Embellished with a liberal sprinkling of the pseudo-scientific dialogue characteristic of such offerings, some impressive special effects, spots of actionful stock footage and the usual minor note of romance.' – Boxoffice
† Screenwriter Gordon used a pseudonym because he was blacklisted at the time.

Earth vs The Spider

US 1958 72m bw
AIP (Bert I. Gordon)
A seemingly dead giant spider is brought back to life by the playing of a high-school rock 'n' roll group.
Ineffably silly horror movie with poor special effects.
w Laszlo Gorog, George Worthing Yates story Bert I. Gordon d Bert I. Gordon ph Jack Marta m Albert Glasser ad Walter Keller ed Ronald Sinclair
sp Bert I. Gordon
☆ Ed Kemmer, June Kenney, Gene Persson

'When The Big One Finally Hits L.A.'

Earthquake ★

US 1974 123m Technicolor Panavision
Universal/Jennings Lang/Mark Robson
Various personal stories intertwine in a Los Angeles earthquake.
Dreary drama with very variable special effects, gimmicked up by Sensurround. A box-office bonanza.
w George Fox, Mario Puzo d Mark Robson ph Philip Lathrop m John Williams pd Alexander Golitzen, E. Preston Ames ed Dorothy Spencer
sp Albert Whitlock, Frank Brendel, Glen Robinson
☆ Charlton Heston (Graff), Ava Gardner (Remy), Lorne Greene (Royce), Marjoe Gortner (Jody), Barry Sullivan (Stockle), George Kennedy (Slade), Richard Roundtree (Miles), Geneviève Bujold (Denise), Walter Matuschanskayasky (Walter Matthau) (Drunk), Lloyd Nolan (Dr Vance), Victoria Principal
'The picture is swell, but it isn't a cheat. It's an entertaining marathon of Grade A destruction effects, with B-picture stock characters spinning through it.' – Pauline Kael
sound; visual effects
Philip Lathrop; Alexander Golitzen, E. Preston Ames; Dorothy Spencer

Earthworm Tractors

US 1936 69m bw
Warner
GB title: A Natural Born Salesman
A salesman whose fiancée wants him to think big turns to tractors.
One of the star's livelier comedies.
w Richard Macaulay, Joe Traub, Hugh Cummings d Ray Enright
☆ Joe E. Brown, June Travis, Guy Kibbee, Dick Foran

'The frank fearless drama of a woman who sinned!'

The Easiest Way

US 1931 86m bw
MGM
A hard-working slum girl falls into the lap of luxury but her easy virtue finally causes her to be rejected.
Familiar moral melodrama which got past the Hays Office only after some heavy deletions.
w Edith Ellis play Eugene Walter d Jack Conway ph John Mescall
☆ Constance Bennett, Robert Montgomery, Adolphe Menjou, Anita Page, Marjorie Rambeau, J. Farrell MacDonald, Clark Gable, Clara Blandick
'Gilded wickedness played by flawless cast: will entice.' – Variety

East End Chant: see Limehouse Blues

'A Comedy Of Families, A Chip Shop... And A Very Randy Dog.'

East is East ★★★

GB 1999 96m DeLuxe
FilmFour/Assassin/BBC (Leslee Udwin)
The children of a strict Pakistani father, who is married to an Englishwoman, rebel when he arranges marriages for them.
Often broad but always enjoyable comedy that, for all its use of stereotypical characters and situations, manages to be truthful about family relationships.
w Ayub Khan-Din play Ayub Khan-Din
d Damien O'Donnell ph Brian Tufano
m Deborah Mollison pd Tom Conroy ad Henry Harris ed Michael Parker
☆ Om Puri (George Khan), Linda Bassett (Ella Khan), Jordan Routledge (Sajid Khan), Archie Panjabi (Meenah Khan), Emil Marwa (Maneer Khan), Chris Bisson (Saleem Khan), Jimi Mistry (Tariq Khan), Raji James (Abdul Khan), Ian Aspinall (Nazir Khan), Lesley Nicol (Auntie Annie), Gary Damer (Earnest Moorhouse), John Bardon (Mr. Moorhouse), Emma Rydal (Stella Moorhouse), Ruth Jones (Peggy)
† It is the most successful fully-funded British film so far.
British film

East L.A.: see My Family

East Lynne

US 1931 102m bw
Fox
A Victorian lady is unjustly divorced by her husband, and later loses both her lover and her sight.
Much caricatured melodrama, here presented in stolidly acceptable form.
w Bradley King, Tom Barry novel Mrs Henry Wood d Frank Lloyd ph John Seitz m Richard Fall
☆ Ann Harding, Clive Brook, O. P. Heggie, Conrad Nagel, Cecilia Loftus, Beryl Mercer, Flora Sheffield
'A lavish production, some corking direction, and the elemental appeal of all dramatic hokum.' – Variety † Previous versions had been made by Fox, in 1916 with Theda Bara and in 1925 with Alma Rubens.
best picture

'Of what a boy did ... what a girl did ... of ecstasy and revenge!'
'The most shocking revenge a girl ever let one brother take on another!'

East of Eden ★★★

US 1955 115m Warnercolor
Cinemascope
Warner (Elia Kazan)
In a California farming valley in 1917 a wild adolescent rebels against his stern father and discovers that his mother, believed dead, runs a nearby brothel.
Kazan brilliantly uses CinemaScope to portray the vast, lush landscapes and moody interiors, and coaxes rousing performances from his cast, including James Dean in his first film role as a rebellious teenager.
w Paul Osborn novel John Steinbeck
d Elia Kazan ph Ted McCord m Leonard Rosenman ad James Basevi, Malcolm Bert ed Owen Marks
☆ Raymond Massey (Adam Trask), James

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Dean (Cal Trask), Julie Harris (Abra), Dick Davalos (Aron Trask), Jo Van Fleet (Kate), Burl Ives (Sam), Albert Dekker (Will)
'The first distinguished production in Cinemascope.' – Eugene Archer
Jo Van Fleet
Paul Osborn; Elia Kazan; James Dean

East of Elephant Rock
GB 1976 92m colour
Boyd's Company/Kendon (Don Boyd)
In 1948 Malaya a womanizing civil servant is shot by his jealous mistress.
Style-less and quite uncredited re-hash of The Letter, striving vainly to recreate the spirit of Somerset Maugham.
wd Don Boyd ph Keith Goddard m Peter Skellern ☆ Judi Bowker, Jeremy Kemp, John Hurt, Christopher Cazenove, Anton Rodgers, Vajira, Tariq Yunus
'Punishingly inept in every department.' – David Badder, MFB

East of Java: see South Sea Sinner (1949)

East of Shanghai: see Rich and Strange

East of Sumatra ★
US 1953 82m Technicolor
U-I (Albert J. Cohen)
A mining engineer has trouble with the ruthless chief of a Pacific island.
A good example of routine Hollywood hokum, efficiently staged and acted.
w Frank Gill Jnr novel Louis L'Amour d Budd Boetticher ph Clifford Stine md Joseph Gershenson
☆ Jeff Chandler, Anthony Quinn, Marilyn Maxwell, John Sutton

East of the Rising Sun: see Malaya

The East Side Kids
US 1940 62m bw
Monogram (Sam Katzman)
Street kids reform after helping to catch counterfeiters.
See entry for The Dead End Kids; this is the first attempt at a splinter group, and one that did not suggest longevity.
Later, the East Side Kids were boosted by the addition of members of the original Dead End Kids, Leo Gorcey and Bobby Jordan, soon followed by Huntz Hall and Gabriel Dell. They made the following movies before the group was re-formed as The Bowery Boys (qv):
1940 Boys of the City, That Gang of Mine
1941 Pride of the Bowery, Spooks Run Wild
1942 Mr Wise Guy, Let's Get Tough!, Smart Alecks, 'Neath Brooklyn Bridge
1943 Kid Dynamite, Clancy Street Boys (qv), Ghosts on the Loose, Mr Muggs Steps Out, Million Dollar Kid
1944 Follow the Leader, Block Busters (qv), Bowery Champs
1945 Docks of New York, Mr Muggs Rides Again, Come Out Fighting (qv)
w Robert Lively d Bob Hill
☆ Leon Ames, Dave O'Brien, Joyce Bryant, Harris Burger, Frankie Burke, Donald Haines, David Durand, Hally Chester (later Hal E. Chester, producer)
'An absurdly poor picture that will command little interest even from the vast army of Dead End Kids devotees.' – Variety

East Side West Side ★
US 1949 108m bw
MGM (Voldemar Veltuguin)
A New York businessman is torn between his wife and another woman.
High-class soap opera with all the production stops pulled out; generally well acted and reasonably entertaining.
w Isobel Lennart novel Marcia Davenport d Mervyn Le Roy ph Charles Rosher m Miklos Rozsa
☆ James Mason, Barbara Stanwyck, Van Heflin, Ava Gardner, Gale Sondergaard, Cyd Charisse, Nancy Davis, William Conrad
'No company is quite so adept as MGM at presenting basically uninteresting material with such style, and such a strong cast, that it cannot fail to entertain.' – Penelope Houston

East-West ★
France/Russia/Bulgaria/Spain 1999 125m colour
Gala/UGC/France3/NVC/Mate (Yves Marmion) original title: Est-Ouest
In 1946, A Russian doctor and his French wife and son are enticed back to the Soviet Union, where their marriage begins to suffer.
A romantic melodrama, set against the repressions of Stalinism, that comes to life only fitfully.
w Sergei Bodrov, Rustam Ibragimbekov, Louis Gardel, Regis Wargnier d Regis Wargnier ph Laurent Dailland m Patrick Doyle ad Vladimir Svetozarov, Alexei Levchenko ed Herve Schneid cos Pierre-Guillaume Sciama, Dominique Dalmasso
☆ Sandrine Bonnaire (Marie), Oleg Menhikov (Alexei Golovin), Catherine Deneuve (Gabrielle Develay), Sergei Bodrov Jnr (Sasha), Ruben Tapiero (Seryozha, age 7), Erwan Baynaud (Seryozha, age 14), Grigori Manukov (Pirogov), Tatyana Dogilova (Olga), Bogdan Stupka (Colonel Boyko), Meglena Karalambova (Nina Fyodorovna)
'Pitched unashamedly as a broad-brushstroke historical melodrama. But the historical part of the equation is underdeveloped.' – Michael Witt, Sight and Sound
foreign-language film

Easter Parade ★★
US 1948 109m Technicolor
MGM (Arthur Freed)
A song and dance man quarrels with one partner but finds another.
A musical which exists only in its numbers, which are many but variable. All in all, an agreeable lightweight entertainment without the style to put it in the top class.
w Sidney Sheldon, Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett d Charles Walters ph Harry Stradling m/ly Irving Berlin md Roger Edens, Johnny Green
☆ Fred Astaire, Judy Garland, Ann Miller, Peter Lawford, Clinton Sundberg, Jules Munshin
'The important thing is that Fred Astaire is back, with Irving Berlin calling the tunes.' – Newsweek † Fred Astaire was actually second choice, replacing Gene Kelly who damaged an ankle.
♫ 'Happy Easter'; 'Drum Crazy'; 'It Only Happens When I Dance With You'; 'A Fella with an Umbrella'; 'I Love a Piano'; 'When the Midnight Choo-Choo Leaves for Alabam'; 'Steppin' Out With My Baby'; 'A Couple of Swells'; 'Easter Parade'
Roger Edens, Johnny Green

Easy Come, Easy Go
US 1966 97m Technicolor
Paramount/Wallis-Hazen
A frogman tries to salvage a treasure from a wreck off the California coast.
Empty-headed star vehicle, almost indistinguishable from many of the others.
w Allan Weiss, Anthony Lawrence d John Rich ph William Margulies m Joseph J. Lilley
☆ Elvis Presley, Dodie Marshall, Pat Priest, Pat Harrington, Skip Ward, Frank McHugh, Elsa Lanchester

'Where there's smoke, there must be somebody smoking!'

Easy Living ★★
US 1937 91m bw
Paramount (Arthur Hornblow Jnr)
A fur coat is thrown out of a window and lands on a typist...
Amusing romantic comedy with farcical trimmings; it now stands among the semi-classic crazy comedies of the thirties.
w Preston Sturges d Mitchell Leisen ph Ted Tetzlaff md Boris Morros
☆ Jean Arthur, Ray Milland, Edward Arnold, Luis Alberni, Mary Nash, Franklin Pangborn, William Demarest, Andrew Tombes
'Slapstick farce which does not fulfil the box office possibilities of its stars.' – Variety
'Secretaries, millionaires, jokes, sight gags, furies, attacks of cool sense – there are always three things going on at once.' – New Yorker, 1977

Easy Living
US 1949 77m bw
RKO (Robert Sparks)
An ageing football star wants to retire but has to satisfy the living standards of his ambitious wife.
Dim drama.
w Charles Schnee story Education of the Heart by Irwin Shaw d Jacques Tourneur ph Harry J. Wild m Roy Webb
☆ Victor Mature, Lucille Ball, Lizabeth Scott, Sonny Tufts, Lloyd Nolan, Paul Stewart, Jack Paar, Jeff Donnell

Easy Money
GB 1948 93m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (A. Frank Bundy)
Four people win big prizes on the football pools.
Short story compendium; very average.
w Muriel and Sydney Box play Arnold Ridley d Bernard Knowles ph Jack Asher m Temple Abady ad George Provis, Cedric Dawe ed Vladimir Sagovsky
☆ Edward Rigby, Greta Gynt, Dennis Price, Jack Warner, Mervyn Johns, Petula Clark, Marjorie Fielding, Bill Owen, Raymond Lovell, David Tomlinson, Guy Rolfe

Easy Money
US 1983 100m bw
Orion
A baby photographer is left a fortune provided that he totally reforms.
Overlong and increasingly feeble comedy with a star who quickly outstays his welcome.
w Rodney Dangerfield, Michael Endler, P. J. O'Rourke, Dennis Blair d James Signorelli ☆ Rodney Dangerfield, Joe Pesci, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Candy Azzara, Val Avery

'A man went looking for America and couldn't find it anywhere!'

Easy Rider ★★★★
US 1969 94m Technicolor
Columbia/Pando/Raybert (Peter Fonda)
Two drop-outs ride across America on motorcycles.
Happening to please hippies and motor-cycle enthusiasts as well as amateur politicians, this oddball melodrama drew freakishly large audiences throughout the world and was much imitated though never equalled in its casual effectiveness.
w Peter Fonda, Dennis Hopper, Terry Southern d Dennis Hopper ph Laszlo Kovacs m various recordings ad Jerry Kay ed Donn Cambern ☆ Peter Fonda (Captain America/Wyatt), Dennis Hopper (Billy), Jack Nicholson (George Hanson), Antonio Mendoza (Jesus), Phil Spector (Connection), Robert Walker (Jack)
'Cinéma-vérité in allegory terms.' – Peter Fonda
'Ninety-four minutes of what it is like to swing, to watch, to be fond, to hold opinions and to get killed in America at this moment.' – Penelope Gilliatt † Both the Regions 1 and 2 DVD releases include a commentary by Dennis Hopper.
script; Jack Nicholson

Easy Street ★★★★
US 1917 22m approx bw silent
Mutual/Charles Chaplin
In a slum street, a tramp is reformed by a dewy-eyed missionary, becomes a policeman, and tames the local bully.
Quintessential Chaplin, combining sentimentality and social comment with hilarious slapstick.
wd Charles Chaplin ph William C. Foster, Rollie Totheroh
☆ Charles Chaplin, Edna Purviance, Albert Austin, Eric Campbell
† The film is available as part a Region 1 seven-disc set, Charlie Chaplin Short Comedy Classics, and as a Region 2 compilation DVD, Charlie Chaplin - The Mutual Films Vol. 1.

Easy to Love
US 1953 96m Technicolor
MGM (Joe Pasternak)
The romances of an aqua-queen in Florida's Cypress Gardens.
Thin, humourless and forgettable musical vehicle sustained by spectacular water ballets.
w Laslo Vadnay, William Roberts
d Charles Walters ph Ray June md Lennie Hayton, George Stoll ch Busby Berkeley ☆ Esther Williams, Tony Martin, Van Johnson, John Bromfield, Carroll Baker

Easy to Wed ★
US 1946 110m Technicolor
MGM (Jack Cummings)
A socialite threatens a newspaper with libel; he postpones his own wedding and sets a friend to compromise her.
Bright but tasteless remake of Libelled Lady, with a second team cast trying hard.
w Dorothy Kingsley, Maurine Watkins, Howard Emmett Rogers, George Oppenheimer d Edward Buzzell ph Harry Stradling m Johnny Green
☆ Van Johnson, Esther Williams, Lucille Ball, Keenan Wynn, Cecil Kellaway, Carlos Ramirez, Ben Blue, Ethel Smith

Easy Virtue

GB 1927 73m (24 fps) bw silent
Gainsborough (Michael Balcon)

A drunkard's wife falls for a young man who kills himself. Her past then prevents her attempts to lead a respectable life.
Vapid social melodrama with minimal points of interest despite its credits.
w Eliot Stannard play Noël Coward
d Alfred Hitchcock ph Claude McDonnell ed Ivor Montagu ☆ Isabel Jeans, Franklin Dyall, Eric Bransby Williams, Ian Hunter, Violet Farebrother, Robin Irvine

The Easy Way: see Room for One More

'A Taste Of Life In America.'

Eat a Bowl of Tea ★★

US 1989 104m DeLuxe Panavision
Artificial Eye/American Playhouse Theatre (Tom Sternberg)

A young Chinese-American brings back to New York a Chinese-born bride, but finds that family pressures to produce children make him impotent.
Sharply observed, witty domestic drama, set in the 1940s when Chinese immigrants were first allowed to bring their wives to America.
w Judith Rascoe novel Louis Chu
d Wayne Wang ph Amir Mokri m Mark Adler pd Bob Ziembicki ed Richard Candib ☆ Cora Miao, Russell Wong, Victor Wong, Lau Siu Ming, Eric Tsang Chi Wai

'An engaging and welcome picture. Good-humoured, sincere, it is nothing more than it modestly aspires to be.' – MFB

'A comedy with taste.'

Eat and Run

US 1985 86m colour
New World (Jack Briggs)

A cop investigates when an obese alien lands on earth and begins to eat Italians.
A send-up of science-fiction and police movies, but done with little style and overusing its one joke – a voice-over narration spoken out loud by the characters.
w Stan Hart, Christopher Hart
d Christopher Hart ph Dyanna Taylor m Scott Harper pd Robert Kracik, Anne C. Patterson ed Pamela Scott Arnold
☆ Ron Silver, Sharon Schlarth, R. L. Ryan, John J. Fleming, Derek Murcott, Robert Silver
† The British video release runs for 80m.

'A comedy to arouse your appetite.'

Eat Drink Man Woman ★★

Taiwan 1994 124m DuArt
Buena Vista/Central Motion Picture/Good Machine/Ang Lee (Li-Kong Hsu)

original title: Yinshi Nan Nu
A widowed chef who has lost his sense of taste recovers it once he gets his three daughters off his hands.
Gentle comedy of food and family life, reasserting primary needs over more ephemeral desires.
w Hui-Ling Wang, Ang Lee, James Schamus
d Ang Lee ph Jong Lin m Mader pd Fu-Hsiung Lee ed Tim Squyres ☆ Sihung Lung, Kuei-Mei Yang, Chien-Lien Wu, Yu-Wen Wang, Winston Chao, Ah-Leh Gua, Sylvia Chang, Lester Chen

'The movie is more likeable than memorable; you come out running for the nearest restaurant.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker

'A feel-good movie, to be sure – but is that a stigma when so many young film-makers seem hell-bent on making us feel bad?' – Sheila Johnston, Independent
Best Foreign Film

Eat the Peach ★

Eire 1986 95m Technicolor
Strongbow/Film Four International (David Collins)

Out-of-work Irish devise a mad scheme to construct a motorcycle Wall of Death.
Fairly amusing comedy, like an Irish version of an Ealing movie.
w Peter Ormrod, John Kelleher d Peter Ormrod ph Arthur Wooster m Donal Lummy
☆ Stephen Brennan, Eamon Morrissey, Catherine Byrne, Niall Toibin, Joe Lynch, Tony Doyle

Eaten Alive: see Death Trap

Eating Raoul ★

US 1982 83m Pacific Color
Bartel Film (Anne Kimmel)

A restaurateur kills a drunken swinger, and finds that he has a profitable sideline on his hands...
Black comedy with insufficient humour to offset tastelessness.
w Richard Blackburn, Paul Bartel d Paul Bartel ph Gary Thieltges m Arlon Ober
☆ Paul Bartel, Mary Woronov, Robert Beltran, Susan Saiger, Richard Blackburn

'I wanted to make a film about two greedy, uptight people who are at the same time not so unlike you and me and Nancy and Ronnie, to keep it funny and yet communicate something about the psychology and perversity of these values ... My movie touches on many things: the perversion of middle class values, the resurgence of Nixonism, machismo versus WASP fastidiousness, film noir...' – Paul Bartel

L'Eau Froide

France 1994 92m colour
Ima/La Sept/Arte/SPF (Georges Benayoun, Paul Rozenberg)
aka: Cold Water

On the outskirts of Paris in the early 70s, two unhappy teenagers seek solace with each other after abrasive confrontations with parents and teachers.
A muted study in alienation and misery, much of it shot with a handheld camera to provide a sense of immediacy and intimacy; adult sympathies may be moderated by its youthful delight in unmotivated delinquency.
wd Olivier Assayas ph Denis Lenoir
ad Gilbert Gagneux ed Luc Barnier
☆ Virginie Ledoyen, Cyprien Fouquet, Laszlo Szabo, Jean-Pierre Darroussin, Dominique Faysse, Smail Mekki, Jackie Berroyer

'Delivers a sustained emotional pummeling, underscored by a steady whisper of despair.' – David Rooney, Variety

'The story of a man who thought he was God!'

Ebb Tide ★★

US 1937 92m Technicolor
Paramount (Lucien Hubbard)

Sailors are stranded with a dangerous fanatic on a South Sea island.
Interesting adaptation of Stevenson, notable both for its early colour and its genuinely sour, anti-romantic mood, almost unique for Hollywood in this period.
w Bertram Millhauser novel R. L. Stevenson, Lloyd Osbourne d James Hogan ph Leo Tover m Victor Young ☆ Ray Milland, Frances Farmer, Oscar Homolka, Barry Fitzgerald, Lloyd Nolan

'More pretentious as to production than dramatically. Does not suggest big b.o.' – Variety † Remade 1946 as Adventure Island.

Ebbtide

Australia 1994 90m colour
Ambroco/Genesis (Craig Lahiff, Paul Davies, Helen Leake)

A lawyer, who takes over the clients of his dead partner, finds himself mixed up in murder when he investigates a case involving toxic waste.
Glossy, melodramatic and implausible thriller, with rather too much time spent on shots of Hamlin staring moodily into the far distance.
w Robert Ellis, Peter Goldsworthy, Warwick Hind idea Craig Lahiff, Helen Leake
d Craig Lahiff ph Steve Arnold m Peter Best pd Ross Major ed Peter Carrodus
☆ Harry Hamlin, Judy McIntosh, John Waters, Susan Lyons, John Gregg, Frankie J. Holden

Ebirah, Horror of the Deep

Japan 1966 85m Eastmancolor
Tohoscope
Toho (Tomoyuki Tanaka)

Scientists creating nuclear weapons on an island guarded by a giant lobster are foiled with the aid of Godzilla.
The usual hokum, enlivened by fight sequences that have Godzilla heading rocks with the aplomb of a football striker, and a giant moth that looks as if it has been made from an old carpet.
w Shinichi Sekizawa d Jun Fukuda
ph Kazuo Yamada ad Takeo Kita sp Eiji Tsuburaya ☆ Akira Takarada, Kumi Mizuno, Akihiko Hirata, Jun Tazaki, Hideo Sunazuka, Chotaro Togin, Toru Watanabe

Echo Park ★

Austria 1985 92m colour
Sasha Wein/Walter Shenson

In a rundown area of Los Angeles, three unsuccessful youngsters await the big break.
Vaguely entertaining slice-of-life drama with good observational touches.
w Michael Ventura d Robert Dornhelm
ph Karl Kofler m David Rickets
☆ Susan Dey, Thomas Hulce, Michael Bowen, Christopher Walker

Echo Park L.A. ★

US 2006 90m
Metrodome/Kitchen Sink/Boyias/Koulakis/Clements/Raccah (Anne Clements)

US theatrical title: Quinceanera
In Los Angeles, a Mexican-American girl finds she is pregnant on the eve of her 15th birthday and is banished from her home.
Sweet-natured and well-observed film, but somewhat lacking in ambition. It doesn't help that the central character, around whom the story revolves, takes time to emerge – and when she does, she's far from compelling.
wd Richard Glatzer, Wash Westmoreland
ph Eric Steelberg m Micko, Victor Bock ch Marlene Flamenco pd Denise Hudson, Joshua Markowitz ed Robin Katz, Clay Zimmerman ☆ Emily Rios (Magdalena), Jesse Garcia (Carlos), Chalo Gonzalez (Uncle Tomas), Alicia Sixtos (Eileen)

'Saucy, rowdy, heartfelt and terribly sweet movie.' – Ella Taylor, Village Voice
† The film won both the Grand Jury prize and the audience award at the 2006 Sundance festival.

Echoes of a Summer

US/Canada 1975 98m Eastmancolor
Beata/Castle/Astral/Bryanston (Robert L. Joseph)

An 11-year-old girl dying of heart disease spends her last summer with her parents on holiday in a Nova Scotian village.
Excruciating.
w Robert L. Joseph d Don Taylor ph John Coquillon m Terry James ☆ Jodie Foster, Richard Harris, Lois Nettleton, Geraldine Fitzgerald, William Windom, Brad Savage

'The only honest thing about this movie is its desire to make a buck.' – Frank Rich, New York Post

The Eclipse ★★★

Italy/France 1962 125m bw
Interopa-Cineriz/Paris Film (Robert and Raymond Hakim)

original title: L'Eclisse
A young Roman woman breaks off one affair and begins another.
A portrait in depth, rather tiresomely long and with at least one totally irrelevant stock-market sequence; but superbly done for connoisseurs.
wd Michelangelo Antonioni, Tonino Guerra, Elio Bartolini, Ottiero Ottieri ph Gianni di Venanzo m Giovanni Fusco ad Piero Poletto ed Eraldo Da Roma
☆ Monica Vitti (Vittoria), Alain Delon (Piero), Francisco Rabal (Riccardo)

'The first time I saw the film I thought it magnificent but chill, played glitteringly ... At a second visit the passion breaks through.' – Dilys Powell

Eclipse ★

Canada/Germany 1994 95m colour/bw
Pagemedia/Fire Dog/Time Medienvertieb (Camelia Frieberg, Jeremy Podeswa)

As a solar eclipse approaches in Toronto, ten people are linked through their various sexual encounters.
A stylish exercise in voyeurism and abortive relationships, in which pleasure is swiftly followed by disillusionment.
wd Jeremy Podeswa ph Miroslaw Baszak
m Ernie Tollar ad Tamara Deverell
ed Susan Maggi
☆ Von Flores, John Gilbert, Pascale Montpetit, Manuel Aranguiz, Maria Del Mar, Greg Ellwand, Matthew Ferguson, Earl Pastko, Daniel MacIvor, Kirsten Johnson

'Don't go near this film. It's about as interesting as watching a sunbather peel.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times
'Powerful blend of casual sex, eye-catching, arty camera work and witty, sophisticated dialogue.' – Variety

L'Eclisse: see The Eclipse

L'école Buissonière ★

France 1948 89m bw
UGC/CGCF

US title: I Have a New Master
At a provincial village school, a new teacher introduces new methods and takes a while to win over the locals.
Rustic comedy-drama of a kind the French do well.
w Jean-Paul Le Chanois, Elise Freinet
d Jean-Paul Le Chanois ph Marc Fossard, Maurice Pecqueux, André Dumaître
m Joseph Kosma
☆ Bernard Blier, Juliette Fabre, Edouard Delmont

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

L'école des Facteurs ★★

France 1947 14m bw
Cady (Fred Orain)

A village postman puts into practice what he has learned at training school.
Amusing short, full of a humane humour, which was to blossom a year later into the wonderful Jour de Fête.
wd Jacques Tati m Jean Yatove ed Marcel Moreau ☆ Jacques Tati, Paul Demange
† It was released on video together with Cours du Soir and Soigne Ton Gauche as Tati Shorts.

Ecologia del Delitto: see A Bay of Blood

Ecstasy: see Extase

Ed

US 1996 94m DeLuxe
Universal/Longview (Rosalie Swedlin)

An unsuccessful baseball player discovers a chimpanzee with a talent for the game.
A sporting comedy so thin that the most human and engaging character is an animatronic ape.
w David Mickey Evans d Bill Couturie
ph Alan Caso m Stephen D. Endelman
pd Curtis A. Schnell ed Robert K. Lambert
☆ Matt LeBlanc, Jayne Brook, Bill Cobbs, Jack Warden, Doren Fein, Patrick Kerr, Charlie Schlatter
'Almost painfully modest in its ambition and accomplishment, this slow-pitch offering might tolerably amuse the under-10 crowd, but will prove borderline intolerable for everyone else.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'Before Dahmer, Before Gacy There Was Ed.'

Ed Gein

US 2001 89m FotoKem
Metro Tartan/Tartan (Hamish McAlpine, Michael Muscal)

Biopic of the Wisconsin grave-robber and murderer, whose life was the inspiration for Psycho.
Fact may be stranger than fiction; here it is less enthralling than what Hitchock and others created. The understated approach to real-life horrors may be laudable, but it fails to grip.
w Stephen Johnston d Chuck Parello
ph Vanja Cernjul m Robert McNaughton
pd Mark Harper ed Elena Maganini
sp Perpetual Motion Pictures
☆ Steve Railsback (Ed Gein), Carrie Snodgress (Augusta Gein), Sally Champlin (Mary), Carol Mansell (Colette), Nancy Linehan Charles (Eleanor), Pat Skipper (Sheriff Jim Stillwell), Travis McKenna (Ronnie), Craig Zimmerman (Pete)
'A disappointingly mild re-creation of true events.' – Variety

Ed Wood ★★

US 1994 124m bw
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Denise di Novi, Tim Burton)

Biopic of the film director who has become posthumously notorious for writing and directing some of the worst movies ever made (most of which, ironically, are now available on video and laser disc).
A delightful, charming, straight-faced account of a hopelessly obsessive film-maker and transvestite, which turns his ineffectual life and career into some sort of triumphant celebration of the American dream, making a success of failure; its appeal, though, may be limited to those who have experienced Wood's films.
w Scott Alexander, Larry Karaszewski book Nightmare of Ecstasy: The Life and Art of Edward D. Wood by Rudolph Grey d Tim Burton ph Stefan Czapsky m Howard Shore pd Tom Duffield ed Chris Lebenzon ☆ Johnny Depp (Ed Wood), Martin Landau (Bela Lugosi), Sarah Jessica Parker, Patricia Arquette, Jeffrey Jones, Vincent D'Onofrio (Orson Welles), Bill Murray, Lisa Marie, George 'The Animal' Steele, G. D. Spradlin
'There's a strong whiff of pointlessness to the whole enterprise.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker
'Wood was an obsessive without taste, an artist without art, and Burton, forgoing irony, celebrates the innocence, the energy, the perfection of ineptitude.' – New York
† Edward D. Wood Jnr (1922–1978) is best known for making Plan 9 from Outer Space (qv). His other films include Bride of the Monster, Glen or Glenda? and Night of the Ghouls (qqv).
Martin Landau; make-up (Rick Baker, Ve Neill, Yolanda Toussieng)

Las Edades de Lulu: see The Ages of Lulu

'The Newest Coach In The NBA Has Got The Knicks Right Where She Wants Them.'

Eddie

US 1996 100m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Hollywood (David Permut, Mark Burg)

A female baseball fan is made coach of the New York Knicks by the team's new owner.
Dumb comedy of minor interest, and one that fails to exploit its central fantasy.
w Jon Connolly, David Loucka, Eric Champnella, Keith Mitchell, Steve Zacharias, Jeff Buhai d Steve Rash
ph Victor Kemper m Stanley Clarke
pd Dan Davis ed Richard Halsey
☆ Whoopi Goldberg, Frank Langella, Dennis Farina, Richard Jenkins, Lisa Ann Walter, John Benjamin Hickey 'Especially uninspired.' – Variety

Eddie and the Cruisers

US 1983 95m Technicolor
Embassy/Aurora (Joseph Brooks, Robert K. Lifton)

A high-school teacher recalls his days as a member of a 60s rock group, prompted by a journalist investigating the suicide of its charismatic lead singer.
A dully nostalgic drama, interspersed with some energetic rock and hampered by a convoluted narrative that leads nowhere; it toys with themes of change and decay but fails to develop them.
w Martin Davidson, Arlene Davidson novel P. F. Kluge d Martin Davidson
ph Fred Murphy m John Cafferty
ad Gary Weist ed Priscilla Nedd
☆ Tom Berenger, Michael Paré, Joe Pantoliano, Matthew Laurance, Helen Schneider, David Wilson, Michael Antunes, Ellen Barkin
† It was followed by an even less successful sequel in 1989, Eddie and the Cruisers II: Eddie Lives, directed by Jean-Claude Lord, with Michael Paré reprising his role as Eddie.

'It's big and bright as those banjo eyes!'

The Eddie Cantor Story

US 1953 116m Technicolor
Warner (Sidney Skolsky)

After a tough childhood on New York's east side, Israel Iskowitz becomes a famous entertainer.
Deliberately patterned after the success of The Jolson Story, this is an unhappy example of how close are success and failure; the elements are the same, but this film suffers from unsure timing, lack of humour, rather apologetic numbers, a really dismal script and a caricature performance in the lead.
w Jerome Weidman, Ted Sherdeman, Sidney Skolsky d Alfred E. Green ph Edwin DuPar m/ly various md Ray Heindorf ch Le Roy Prinz ☆ Keefe Brasselle, Marilyn Erskine, Aline MacMahon, Arthur Franz, Alex Gerry, Gerald Mohr, William Forrest (Florenz Ziegfeld), Will Rogers Jnr (Will Rogers), Eddie Cantor
'When I saw the rushes, I realized there was something wrong. When I read the reviews, I knew what it was: everything.' – Keefe Brasselle
'If that's my life, I didn't live.' – Eddie Cantor
† Eddie Cantor sings the songs off screen.

Eddie Holm's Second Life ★★

Denmark 1985 95m colour
Scenograf (Poul Arnt Thomsen)
original title: Eddie Holms Andet Liv

A suicidal musician is taken back through his life to discover what drove him to end it.
Witty, black comedy of love, death and family life.
w Bjarne Henriksen, Gert Henriksen
d Esben Hùilund Carlsen ph Ole Schultz
m Bo Lykke Jürgensen ed Jette Allarp
☆ Kristian Halken, Pernille Hansen, Lisbet Lundquist, Claus Nissen, Holger Boland, Karen Marie Lowert, Frederik Esbensen

Eddie Macon's Run

US 1983 95m Technicolor
Universal/Martin Bregman (Louis A. Stroller)

A man innocently convicted escapes and hotfoots it back home.
Old-style chase film marred by passages of sex and crude backwoods violence.
wd Jeff Kanew novel James McLendon
ph James A. Contner m Norton Buffalo
ed Jeff Kanew
☆ John Schneider, Kirk Douglas, Lee Purcell, Leah Ayres

The Eddy Duchin Story

US 1956 123m Technicolor
Cinemascope
Columbia (Jonie Taps, Jerry Wald)

The success story of a pianist who died of leukemia.
Predictable, glossy, sentimental musical biopic.
w Samuel Taylor story Leo Katcher
d George Sidney ph Harry Stradling
m George Duning piano Carmen Cavallero
☆ Tyrone Power, Kim Novak, Victoria Shaw, James Whitmore, Shepperd Strudwick, Frieda Inescort, Gloria Holden, Larry Keating
Leo Katcher; Harry Stradling; George Duning

Eden Valley

GB 1994 95m colour
Amber/Channel 4/NDR/Northern Arts

A youth, arrested for theft, is given six months to redeem himself, and goes to stay with his father on some isolated fields where he breeds trotting horses.
An austere slice-of-life drama, closer to the British documentary traditions than to normal features; the narrative ends at the point where it begins to get interesting.
☆ Brian Hogg, Darren Bell, Mike Elliott, Jimmy Killeen, Wayne Buck, Kevin Buck, Rose Laidler, Brian Laidler
'The major investment here has been made in terms of time and energy rather than money and the dividend – a self-contained, distinctive film which eschews clichés and sentimentality – pays off.' – Jo Comino, Sight and Sound † Amber Films is a collective and does not provide individual production credits. Its team was: Richard Grassick, Ellen Hare, Sirkka Lisa Konttinen, Murray Martin, Pat McCarthy, Lorna Powell, Pete Roberts.

Edes Emma, Draga Böbe – Vazlatok, Aktok: see Dear Emma, Sweet Böbe

Edgar Wallace

Between 1960 and 1966 no fewer than 46 second features emerged from Jack Greenwood's production unit at the London suburban studios of Merton Park, under the Edgar Wallace banner and prefaced by a sinister revolving bust of the author (though few had very much to do with his original stories).

All maintained a better standard than any other crime second features of the period, and a few were seized on with delight by the critics. They were subsequently popular on television, though the Independent Broadcasting Authority banned repeats on the grounds that they were without merit. In this complete list, details are given for the more interesting items:
The Clue of the Twisted Candle
A Marriage of Convenience
The Man Who Was Nobody
The Clue of the New Pin*, w Philip Mackie, d Allan Davis, with Paul Daneman, Bernard Archard Partners in Crime
The Fourth Square
The Man at the Carlton Tower
The Clue of the Silver Key
Attempt to Kill
The Sinister Man*, w Philip Mackie , d Clive Donner, with Patrick Allen, John Bentley
Never Back Losers
Man Detained Ricochet
The Double
The Rivals
To Have and to Hold
The Partner
Five to One
Accidental Death
We Shall See
Downfall
The Verdict
Who Was Maddox?*, w Roger Marshall , d Geoffrey Nethercott, with Bernard Lee, Finlay Currie
Act of Murder*, w Lewis Davidson , d Alan Bridges, with John Carson, Anthony Bate Face of a Stranger
Never Mention Murder*, w Robert Banks Stewart , d John Nelson Burton, with Maxine Audley, Dudley Foster
The Main Chance
Game for Three Losers
Dead Man's Chest
Change Partners
Strangler's Web*, w George Baxt , d John Moxey, with Griffith Jones, Gerald Harper

Backfire
Candidate for Murder*, w Lukas Heller , d David Villers, with Michael Gough, John Justin Flat Two
The Share-Out
Number Six
Time to Remember
Playback*, w Robert Banks Stewart , d Quentin Lawrence, with Barry Foster, Dinsdale Landen, Margit Saad
Solo for Sparrow
Locker 69
Death Trap
The Set-Up
On the Run
The £20,000 Kiss
Incident at Midnight
Return to Sender

'They were fighting over a woman until the plane went down. Now, their only chance for survival is each other.'

The Edge ★ (7)

US 1997 117m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF (Art Linson)

When their plane crashes, a billionaire and a fashion photographer, whom he suspects of lusting after his wife, a fashion model, are stranded in an Alaskan wilderness inhabited by a ferocious bear.
Enjoyable hokum amidst splendid scenery, concentrating on the battle for supremacy between two very different men.
w David Mamet d Lee Tamahori ph Donald M. McAlpine m Jerry Goldsmith pd Wolf Kroeger ed Neil Travis
☆ Anthony Hopkins, Alec Baldwin, Elle Macpherson, Harold Perrineau, L. Q. Jones, Kathleen Wilhoite

'A tense, pleasurably visceral battle-of-wits thriller played out against a spectacular wilderness background.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Edge of Darkness ★

US 1943 124m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

Norwegian village patriots resist the Nazis.
High-intentioned, ambitiously cast but ultimately bathetic resistance melodrama, high principled down to its tragic finale but compromised by backlot shooting and the presence of Errol Flynn.
w Robert Rossen d Lewis Milestone ph Sid Hickox m Franz Waxman
☆ Errol Flynn, Ann Sheridan, Walter Huston, Judith Anderson, Ruth Gordon, Nancy Coleman, Helmut Dantine, Morris Carnovsky, Charles Dingle, John Beal, Richard Fraser, Helene Thimig

'It is not a tea party. It is an icy shower turned loose on audiences in the hope of driving home what this war is about.' – Motion Picture Herald

Edge of Divorce: see Background

Edge of Doom

US 1950 97m bw
Samuel Goldwyn
GB title: Stronger than Fear

A desperate youth kills a priest and struggles with his conscience.
A sanctimonious weirdie, extremely odd coming from this producer, and unhappily re-edited before release. Someone was interested enough to want to make it, but it seems to have been killed by the cast and the front office.
w Philip Yordan novel Leo Brady d Mark Robson ph Harry Stradling m Hugo Friedhofer
☆ Dana Andrews, Farley Granger, Joan Evans, Robert Keith, Paul Stewart, Mala Powers, Adele Jergens, Harold Vermilyea, Mabel Paige

Edge of Eternity ★

US 1959 80m Technicolor Cinemascope
Columbia/Thunderbird (Kendrick Sweet)

A Grand Canyon sheriff traces three murders to an ownership struggle over a disused mine.
Routine but suspenseful thriller with splendid locations.
w Knut Swenson, Richard Collins d Don Siegel ph Burnett Guffey m Daniele Amfitheatrof ☆ Cornel Wilde, Victoria Shaw, Edgar Buchanan, Mickey Shaughnessy, Jack Elam

Edge of Honor ★

US 1991 92m Western Cine colour
Merit Badge/Guerilla Film Unit (Jay B. Davis, Peter Garrity, David O'Malley)

Scouts are attacked by a gang of ruthless arms smugglers after they discover a cache of weapons hidden in a forest.
A violent but effective action adventure intended for a teenage audience.
w Mark Rosenbaum, Michael Spence, David O'Malley d Michael Spence ph Billy Dickson m William Stromberg pd Charles Armstrong ed Ellen Keneshea
☆ Corey Feldman, Meredith Salenger, Scott Reeves, Ken Jenkins, Don Swayze, Christopher Neame

'A great action movie with a gung-ho performance by Don Swayze.' – Sight and Sound

Edge of Sanity

GB 1988 90m Eastmancolor
Palace/Allied Vision (Edward Simons, Harry Alan Towers)

Dr Jekyll, under the influence of drugs, becomes Jack the Ripper.
Dire variation on Robert Louis Stevenson's classic.
w J. P. Felix, Ron Raley d Gérard Kikoine ph Tony Spratling m Frederic Talgorn pd Jean Charles Dedieu ed Malcolm Cooke
☆ Anthony Perkins, Glynis Barber, Sarah Maur-Thorp, David Lodge, Ben Cole, Ray Jewers, Jill Melford

Edge of Seventeen

US 1998 100m colour
Blue Streak/Luna (David Moreton, Todd Stephens)

In the mid-1980s in small-town Ohio, a 17-year-old teenager, who wants to be thought of as cute, comes out as gay and experiences the pleasure and pains of his sexual encounters.
Slight and occasionally insightful look at an American teenager, confused over life and his sexuality, with an emphasis on pop nostalgia.
w Todd Stephens d David Moreton ph Gina DeGirolamo m Tom Bailey pd Ivor Stilin ed Tal Ben-David ☆ Chris Stafford (Eric), Tina Holmes (Maggie), Andersen Gabrych (Rod), Stephanie McVay (Mom), Lea DeLaria (Angie), John Eby (Dad)

'The insecurities and turbulent desires of adolescence have rarely been portrayed more faithfully on screen.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

Edge of the City ★★

US 1957 85m bw
MGM/Jonathan (David Susskind, Jim di Ganci)
GB title: A Man is Ten Feet Tall

Racial tensions lead to tragedy in the railroad yards of New York's waterfront.
Tense, brutal melodrama, which has historical interest as an effective opening-up in cinematic terms of a TV play, in its imitation of On the Waterfront, and in its rebel hero and relaxed black friend.
w Robert Alan Aurthur play Robert Alan Aurthur d Martin Ritt ph Joseph Brun m Leonard Rosenman
☆ Sidney Poitier, John Cassavetes, Jack Warden, Kathleen Maguire, Ruby Dee, Robert Simon, Ruth White

The Edge of the Horizon ★

France/Portugal/Spain 1993 90m colour
Films do Princípe Real/CTN/Origen (António da Cunha Telles) original title: Le Fil de l'Horizon

A Lisbon mortuary worker is puzzled to discover that the body of a murdered 25-year-old man resembles him as he was 30 years ago.
Intriguing, slow-paced psychological and philosophical mystery, heavily reliant on the melancholy charm of Brasseur's performance as a man who feels he should not be alive.
w Christopher Frank, Jean Nachbaur novel Il Filo dell'Orizonte by Antonio Tabucchi d Fernando Lopes ph Javier Aguirresarobe m Zbigniew Preisner ad Jasmim de Matos ed Jacques Witta ☆ Claude Brasseur, Andrea Ferreol, Antonio Valero, Ana Padrão, Miguel Guilherme

Edge of the World ★★

GB 1937 80m bw
GFD/Rock (Joe Rock)

Life, love and death on Foula, a remote Shetland island.
Rare for its time, a vigorous location drama in the Flaherty tradition; sometimes naïve, usually exhilarating.
wd Michael Powell ph Ernest Palmer, Monty Berman, Skeets Kelly m Lambert Williamson ed Derek Twist ☆ Niall MacGinnis, Belle Chrystal, John Laurie, Finlay Currie, Eric Berry

'Scant of plot and unlikely to be hailed by the public at large.' – Variety

'In this city, only the cops are above the law.'

Edison

US/Canada 2005 93m colour
Millennium/VIP Medienfonds 3/Nu Image/Rising Star (Randall Emmett, George Furla)

A callow investigative reporter on a community weekly exposes corruption and killings in the city's elite police force.
Would-be tough thriller that lacks all credibility in its melodramatic and heated approach, which is as over-emphatic as its score.
wd David Burke ph Francis Kenny m Machine Head pd Katterina Keith ed Casey O. Rohrs, Tirsa Hackshaw
☆ Morgan Freeman (Ashford), Kevin Spacey (Wallace), Justin Timberlake (Pollack), LL Cool J (Deed), Dylan McDermott (Lazerov), John Heard (Tilman), Cary Elwes (Reigert), Piper Perabo (Willow)

'Despite all the star wattage, this is one dim bulb of a B-movie.' – Hollywood Reporter

† The film cost $37m and, after its premiere at the Toronto Film Festival in 2005, has yet to have a cinema release in the US.

'The love of a woman ... the courage of a fighting America ... lifted him from obscurity to thrilling fame!'

Edison the Man ★★

US 1940 107m bw
MGM (John W. Considine Jnr)

Edison struggles for years in poverty before becoming famous as the inventor of the electric light bulb.
Standard, well-made biopic following on from Young Tom Edison; reasonably absorbing, but slightly suspect in its facts.
w Dore Schary, Talbot Jennings, Bradbury Foote, Hugo Butler d Clarence Brown ph Harold Rosson m Herbert Stothart
☆ Spencer Tracy, Rita Johnson, Lynne Overman, Charles Coburn, Gene Lockhart, Henry Travers, Felix Bressart
Dore Schary, Hugo Butler (original story)

Edith and Marcel ★

France 1984 140m Eastmancolor
Gala/Cannon/Film 13/Parafrance/Miramax (Tania Zazulinsky)

Two French idols indulge in a tragic love affair.
Effective biopic based on the affair between singer Edith Piaf and boxer Marcel Cerdan.
wd Claude Lelouch ph Jean Boffety m Francis Lai ed Hugues Darmois
☆ Evelyne Bouix, Jacques Villeret, Francis Huster, Jean-Claude Brialy, Jean Bouise, Charles Gérard, Marcel Cerdan Jnr

'If anything can go wrong, it will – and at the worst possible time.'

Edmond ★ (5)

US/UK 2006 82m
Tartan/120dB/Tartan Films/Code Entertainment/Dog Pond/ Pretty Dangerous/The Hecht Company/Red Hen/Fully Loaded/Catfish/Muse/Neverland

Warned by a tarot card read that he is 'not where he belongs,' a weary white-collar worker travels into the city, encounters hookers, card sharps, pimps, and murders a young woman.
A gradual but logical descent into an urban hell for a downtrodden executive, mistakenly convinced by racist and sexual myths and struggling to fight back. The dialogue has the hallmark rhythms of David Mamet's faux-realist writing, as does Edmond's increasing rage against the world. An unpleasant story, skilfully told, with Macy plausibly hapless in the title role.
w David Mamet play David Mamet d Stuart Gordon ph Denis Maloney m Bobby Johnston pd Alan E. Muraoka ed Andy Horvitch
☆ William H. Macy (Edmond Burke), Julia Stiles (Glenna), Rebecca Pidgeon (Edmond's wife), Mena Suvari (Whore), Joe Mantegna (Man in bar), Denise Richards (B-Girl)

'For hard-core David Mamet fans only.' – Kirk Honeycutt, Hollywood Reporter

Edogawa Rampo Ryoukikan: Yaneura No Sanposha: see The Watcher in the Attic

Edouard et Caroline ★★

France 1951 99m bw
UGC/CICC

A young pianist and his wife quarrel while preparing for an important recital.
Gay, slight, charming comedy, a two-hander taking place within the course of a few hours.

w Annette Wademant, Jacques Becker d Jacques Becker ph Robert Le Fèbvre m Jean-Jacques Grunenwald
☆ Daniel Gélin, Anne Vernon, Jacques François, William Tubbs, Jean Galland, Elina Labourdette, Betty Stockfeld
'It lifts its weighty trivialities into a world of enchantment.' – Sunday Times

Ed's Next Move

US 1996 88m DeLuxe
Orion/Ed's Films (Sally Roy)

A young, socially inept scientist moves from Wisconsin to New York and falls in love with a singer.
Slight romantic comedy that tries too hard to charm; it most resembles a situation comedy stretched slowly beyond its limits.
wd John Walsh ph Peter Nelson m Benny Golson pd Kristin Vallow ed Pamela Martin ☆ Matt Ross, Callie Thorne, Kevin Carroll, Ramsey Faragallah, Nina Sheveleva
'A delightful, sweet first film.' – Variety

'The Story Of A Nobody Everybody Is Watching!'

EdTV ★

US 1999 122m DeLuxe
Universal/Imagine (Brian Grazer, Ron Howard)

A video-store clerk becomes a star when his life is shown on cable television 24 hours a day.
Mildly amusing comedy about modern-day celebrity and the public fascination with people who are famous for being famous.
w Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel screenplay Louis XIX: Roi des ondes by Emile Gaudreault, Sylvie Bouchard d Ron Howard ph John Schwartzman m Randy Edelman pd Michael Corenblith ed Mike Hill, Dan Hanley ☆ Matthew McConaughey, Jenna Elfman, Woody Harrelson, Ellen DeGeneres, Sally Kirkland, Martin Landau, Rob Reiner, Dennis Hopper, Elizabeth Hurley, Clint Howard
'Good humored, deceptively easygoing satire.' – Janet Maslin, New York Times

Educating Rita ★

GB 1983 110m Technicolor
Rank/Acorn (Lewis Gilbert)

A cheerful young hairdresser improves her knowledge of English Literature by enrolling on an Open University course.
Rather dismal, thinly characterized and ill-lit variation on Pygmalion, with endless talk leading nowhere (it was originally a two-character play). Due to its Liverpudlian modishness it achieved surprising box-office success.
w Willy Russell play Willy Russell d Lewis Gilbert ph Frank Watts m David Hentschel
☆ Michael Caine, Julie Walters, Michael Williams, Maureen Lipman
'If only I'd been able to believe they were actually reading the books, everything else would have fallen into place.' – Roger Ebert
Michael Caine; Julie Walters; Willy Russell best picture; Michael Caine; Julie Walters

The Edukators ★

Germany/Austria 2004 130m colour
UGC/Y3/Coop99 (Hans Weingartner, Antonin Svoboda)
original title: Die Fetten Jahre Sind Vorbei

Three young political activitists, who break into the homes of the rich and rearrange their furniture as a warning of troubles to come, kidnap a businessman after he recognises one of them.
Engaging in a superficial way, a loquacious examination of revolutionary ideals past and present is embedded in an uninvolving love triangle together with a modicum of suspense.
w Katharina Held, Hans Weingartner d Hans Weingartner ph Matthias Schellenberg, Daniela Knapp m Andreas Wodraschke pd Christian M. Goldbeck ed Dirk Oetelshoven, Andreas Wodraschke
☆ Daniel Bruhl (Jan), Julia Jentsch (Jule), Stipe Erceg (Peter), Burghart Klaussner (Hardenberg)
'Ambling drama shows an exasperating lack of economy and a weakness for diatribe dialogue, but becomes progressively more involving after a laborious start.' – David Rooney, Variety

Edvard Munch ★

Norway/Sweden 1976 215m colour
New Yorker/SR

The life of the 19th-century Norwegian expressionist painter.
A yawn for the majority but a delight for connoisseurs of a certain kind; with a wholly non-professional cast.
wd Peter Watkins
☆ Geir Westby, Gro Fraas, Johan Halsborg, Lotte Teig

'A Classic Tale of Sex, Revenge, and Love.'

Edward II ★★

GB 1991 90m colour
Palace/Edward II/Working Title/British Screen/BBC (Steve Clark-Hall, Antony Root)

Edward II's love for Piers Gaveston leads to his downfall.
An explicitly homosexual reworking of Marlowe's play, done in modern dress and given a contemporary twist.
w Derek Jarman, Stephen McBride, Ken Butler play Christopher Marlowe d Derek Jarman ph Ian Wilson m Simon Fisher Turner pd Christopher Hobbs ed George Akers
☆ Steven Waddington, Kevin Collins, Andrew Tiernan, John Lynch, Dudley Sutton, Tilda Swinton, Jerome Flynn, Jody Graber, Nigel Terry, Annie Lennox
'Provocative and challenging ... likely will be the director's most commercial production to date.' – Variety
'Through the miracle of cinema, two sensibilities and centuries become wondrously fused. Bold, passionate and savagely beautiful.' – Geoff Brown, The Times

Edward My Son

GB 1949 112m bw
MGM (Edwin H. Knopf)

A rich, unscrupulous man remembers the people he has made unhappy, and the son to whom he never behaved as a father should.
Unsatisfactory, rather ugly-looking adaptation of a gripping piece of theatre, with casting and direction remarkably uncertain from such professionals.
w Donald Ogden Stewart play Robert Morley d George Cukor ph F. A. Young m John Wooldridge, Malcolm Sargent
☆ Spencer Tracy, Deborah Kerr, Ian Hunter, James Donald, Leueen McGrath, Mervyn Johns Deborah Kerr

Edward Scissorhands ★★

US 1990 98m colour
Fox (Denise de Novi, Tim Burton)

A boy with artificial hands upsets the community in which he lives.
Bizarre fairy-tale with a good deal of charm.
w Caroline Thompson story Tim Burton d Tim Burton ph Stefan Czapsky m Danny Elfman pd Bo Welch ad Tom Duffield ed Richard Halsey
☆ Johnny Depp, Winona Ryder, Dianne Wiest, Anthony Michael Hall, Alan Arkin, Kathy Baker, Robert Oliver, Conchata Ferrell, Vincent Price
'A delightful and delicate comic fable.' – Variety best makeup
Bo Welch

The Eel ★★

Japan 1996 117m colour
Artificial Eye/KSS/Eisei Gekijo/Groove/Shochiku (Hisa Iino)

When he is released from prison, an introverted wife-murderer opens a barber's shop and takes an unstable woman as his assistant.
Enigmatic, though simple-seeming, drama of a man coming to terms with himself and his actions; the narrative takes on a dream-like quality.
w Motofumi Tomikawa, Daisuke Tengan, Shohei Imamura story Glittering in the Dark by Akira Yoshimura d Shohei Imamura ph Shigeru Komatsubara m Shinichiro Ikebe pd Hisao Inagaki ed Hajime Okayasu
☆ Koji Yakusho, Misa Shimizu, Fujio Tsuneta, Mitsuko Baisho, Makoto Sato, Akira Emoto, Sho Aihara, Ken Kobayashi, Sabu Kawahara, Etsuko Ichihara
'What starts out as intriguing turns into simply baffling.' – Empire
'It's too early to be sure whether The Eel is a great Imamura film or merely a good one.' – Tony Rayns, Sight and Sound
† The film won the Palme d'Or at the 1997 Cannes Film Festival.

The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man-in-the-Moon Marigolds

US 1972 101m DeLuxe
Newman-Foreman (Paul Newman)

A slatternly middle-aged woman dreams of better times for herself and her children.
Well-written but essentially banal and pretentious domestic drama, the kind of film that only gets made when powerful stars see in it a juicy role.
w Alvin Sargent play Paul Zindel d Paul Newman ph Adam Holender m Maurice Jarre
☆ Joanne Woodward, Nell Potts, Roberta Wallach, Judith Lowry

Effi Briest ★

West Germany 1974 140m bw
Tango Film (Rainer Werner Fassbinder)

original title: Fontane Effi Briest

A teenage girl is married to a rich baron, but fails to understand what is expected of her.
Overlong but often fascinating picture of a vanished society in which not the slightest weakening of structure is permitted.
wd Rainer Werner Fassbinder novel Theodor Fontane ph Jürgen Jürges, Dietrich Lohmann m from Saint-Saëns ☆ Hanna Schygulla, Wolfgang Schenck, Ulli Lommel, Karl-Heinz Böhm, Ursula Strätz
'Beautiful. It renders the book as fully and texturally as could be possible in 140 minutes, and it's a work, in and of itself, intrinsically cinematic.' – Stanley Kauffmann

The Efficiency Expert: see Spotswood

L'Effrontée: see The Impudent Girl

Effroyables Jardins: see Strange Gardens

Les garés: see Strayed

The Egg and I

US 1947 104m bw
U-I (Chester Erskine)

A city couple try to become gentleman farmers.
Mild, pleasant comedy notable chiefly for introducing a hillbilly couple, Ma and Pa Kettle, who went on, in the personae of Main and Kilbride, to make several later features. (See under Kettles.)
w Chester Erskine, Fred Finklehoffe novel Betty Macdonald d Chester Erskine ph Milton Krasner m Frank Skinner ☆ Claudette Colbert, Fred MacMurray, Marjorie Main, Percy Kilbride, Louise Allbritton, Richard Long, Billy House, Ida Moore, Donald MacBride
'Marjorie Main, in an occasional fit of fine, wild comedy, picks the show up and brandishes it as if she were wringing its neck. I wish to God she had.' – James Agee
Marjorie Main

Egon Schiele: Excess and Punishment (dubbed)

Austria/Germany/France 1980 90m colour
Gamma/Stand'Art/Cineproduction/Profinanz/Jadran/V-Film/Dieter Geissler

original title: Egon Schiele: Exzess und Bestrafung

In prison awaiting trial for corrupting a minor, an artist recalls his past, while his model attempts to obtain his release.
Uninvolving biopic of the Austrian Expressionist artist Egon Schiele (1890–1918), which gives the impression that he never painted anything other than naked women.
w Herbert Vesely, Leo Tichat d Herbert Vesely ph Rudolf Blahaček m Brian Eno, Anton von Webern, Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy
☆ Mathieu Carrière, Jane Birkin, Nina Fallenstein, Kristina Van Eyck, Marcel Ophuls
† The British video release runs for 81m.

Egymásra Nézve: see Another Way

'10,965 pyramids! 5,337 dancing girls! One million swaying bulrushes! 802 sacred bulls!'

The Egyptian ★

US 1954 140m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)

In ancient Egypt an abandoned baby grows up to be physician to the pharaoh.
More risible than reasonable, sounding more like a parody than the real thing, this pretentious epic from a bestseller flounders helplessly between its highlights but has moments of good humour and makes an excellent example of the pictures they don't make 'em like any more.
w Philip Dunne, Casey Robinson novel Mika Waltari d Michael Curtiz ph Leon Shamroy m Bernard Herrmann, Alfred Newman ad Lyle Wheeler, George W. Davis

☆ Edmund Purdom, Victor Mature, Peter Ustinov, Bella Darvi, Gene Tierney, Michael Wilding, Jean Simmons, Judith Evelyn, Henry Daniell, John Carradine, Carl Benton Reid

'The novel ... supplied the reader with enough occurrences and customs of Akhnaton's time ... to hide some of the more obvious contrivances of the story. The film does not do this.' – Carolyn Harrow, Films in Review

Leon Shamroy

Die Ehe der Maria Braun: see The Marriage of Maria Braun

Ehi, Amico ... C'è Sabata, Hai Chiuso: see Sabata

The Eiger Sanction ★

US 1975 125m Technicolor Panavision
Universal/Malpaso (Jennings Lang)

An art teacher returns to the CIA as an exterminator, and finds himself in a party climbing the Eiger.

Silly spy melodrama with some breathtaking mountain sequences.

w Warren B. Murphy, Hal Dresner, Rod Whitaker novel Trevanian d Clint Eastwood ph Frank Stanley, John Cleare, Jeff Schoolfield, Peter Pilafian, Pete White m John Williams

☆ Clint Eastwood, George Kennedy, Vonetta McGee, Jack Cassidy, Heidi Bruhl, Thayer David

'All the villains have been constructed from prefabricated Bond models.' – Richard Combs

'You can't prepare for where the truth will take you.'

8mm

US 1999 119m Technicolor Super 35
Columbia (Gavin Polone, Judy Hofflund, Joel Schumacher)

A wealthy widow discovers among her dead husband's possessions a videocassette showing the apparent murder of a teenage girl, and hires an investigator to find out the girl's identity.

A gloating, exploitative thriller about pornography in Los Angeles; it develops a hectoring tone that cannot be justified by script, direction or acting.

w Andrew Kevin Walker d Joel Schumacher ph Robert Elswit m Mychael Danna pd Gary Wissner ed Mark Stevens

☆ Nicolas Cage, Joaquin Phoenix, James Gandolfini, Peter Stormare, Anthony Heald, Chris Bauer, Catherine Keener, Myra Carter, Amy Morton

'Loathsome crap ... Coming generations of late-night video hounds may recognize it, along with Oliver Stone's The Doors, as one of the most unintentionally hilarious attempts at serious filmmaking in cinema history.' – Andrew O'Hehir, Salon

'Delves into the perverse underworld of the pornography business, shocking audiences with the realization that sex and violence can be so dull.' – Janet Maslin, New York Times

Eight and a Half ★★★★

Italy 1963 138m bw
Cineriz (Angelo Rizzoli)

original title: Otto e Mezzo

A successful film director on the verge of a nervous breakdown has conflicting fantasies about his life.

A Fellini self-portrait in which anything goes. It's a coruscating, melancholy, self-reflecting spectacle of a man beginning to be at his wit's end.

w Federico Fellini, Ennio Flaiano, Tullio Pinelli, Brunello Rondi d Federico Fellini ph Gianni di Venanzo m Nino Rota ad Piero Gherardi ed Leo Catozzo

☆ Marcello Mastroianni (Guido Anselmi), Claudia Cardinale (Claudia), Anouk Aimée (Luisa Anselmi), Sandra Milo (Carla), Rossella Falk (Rossella), Barbara Steele (Gloria Morin), Madeleine Lebeau (French Actress)

'The whole may add up to a magnificent folly, but it is too singular, too candid, too vividly and insistently alive to be judged as being in any way diminishing.' – Peter John Dyer, MFB

'Fellini's intellectualizing is not even like dogs dancing; it is not done well, nor does it surprise us that it is done at all. It merely palls on us, and finally appals us.' – John Simon

'A de luxe glorification of creative crisis, visually arresting but in some essential way conventional-minded.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

† A Region 1 two-disc set includes a commentary by Gideon Bachmann and professor of film Antonio Monda, two documentaries and interviews with Sandra Milo, Lina Wertmuller and Vittorio Storaro.

best foreign film; Piero Gherardi (cos) Federico Fellini (as director); script; Piero Gherardi (art direction)

'When sexual desire becomes an obsession, it's every man for himself'

Eight and a Half Women ★ ④

Netherlands/GB/Luxembourg/Germany 1999
121m colour
Pathé/Woodline/Movie Masters/Continent (Kees Kasander)

A wealthy English businessman, mourning the death of his wife, goes with his son on a voyage of sexual discovery in Kyoto and Geneva.

A stylised and visually and verbally witty movie, in which women become toys for two rich men to play with; sexual relationships are reduced to commodities to be bargained over and paid for.

wd Peter Greenaway ph Sacha Vierny, Reinier Van Brummelen pd Wilbert Van Dorp, Emi Wada ed Elmer Leupen

☆ John Standing, Matthew Delamerie, Vivian Wu, Shizuka Inoh, Barbara Sarafian, Kirina Mano, Toni Collette, Amanda Plummer, Natacha Amal, Manna Fujiwara, Polly Walker

'I was left to conclude that what Greenaway is really expressing is the shame of a filmmaker who longs, in his guilty heart, to make a dirty movie, and who must then kill that impulse by cold-showering his audience into an unholy stupor.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

'The Most Amazing Story Of Survival, Friendship, And Adventure Ever Told.'

Eight Below ★ ⑥

Germany/US 2005 120m
Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney

Explorers set out to rescue a team of sled dogs that they were forced to leave to fend for themselves for several months at the South Pole.

Rousing old-fashioned adventure with scene-stealing animals.

w David DiGilio film Nankyoku Monogatari by Toshiro Ishido, Koreyoshi Kurhara, Tatsuo Nogami, Kan Saji d Frank Marshall ph Don Burgess m Mark Isham pd John Willett ed Christopher Rouse

☆ Paul Walker (Jerry Shepherd), Bruce Greenwood (Dr Davis McClaren), Moon Bloodgood (Katie), Jason Briggs (Charlie Cooper), Gerard Plunkett (Dr Andy Harrison), August Schellenberg (Mindo)

'An easy watch, thanks to the splendors of frosty scenery and furry canines.' – Variety

Eight Crazy Nights: see Adam Sandler's Eight Crazy Nights

8 Femmes: see 8 Women

'A Mindless Comedy.'

8 Heads in a Duffell Bag

US 1997 95m DeLuxe
Rank/Orion (Brad Krevoy, Steve Stabler, John Bertolli)

A gangster attempts to find his bag, containing the heads of his boss's enemies, after it is mixed up with one belonging to a medical student.

Gruesome and tasteless comedy that hasn't even the saving grace of being amusing.

wd Tom Schulman ph Adam Holender m Andrew Gross pd Paul Peters ed David Holden

☆ Joe Pesci, Kristy Swanson, David Spade, George Hamilton, Dyan Cannon, Andy Comeau, Todd Luiso

'A charmless mess.' – Richard Williams, Guardian

'About as funny as being a guest at the St Valentine's Day Massacre.' – Philip French, Observer

'Do you hate spiders? Do you really hate spiders? Well they don't like you either.'

Eight Legged Freaks ★

US 2002 99m Technicolor
Warner/Village Roadshow/NPV/Electric Entertainment (Dean Devlin, Bruce Berman)

Contaminated by biochemical waste, giant spiders threaten an isolated Arizona mining town.

Slickly made, old-fashioned exploitation movie with a leavening of humour.

w Jesse Alexander, Ellory Elkayem, Randy Kornfield d Ellory Elkayem ph John Bartley m John Ottman pd Charles Breen ed David J. Siegel sp Karen E. Goulekas, Thomas Dadras; CFX

☆ David Arquette (Chris), Kari Wuhrer (Sam), Scott Terra (Mike), Scarlett Johansson (Ashley), Doug E. Doug (Harlan), Rick Overton (Deputy Pete), Leon Rippy (Wade)

'Instantly disposable, artistically worthless, expertly crafted trash.' – Christopher Tookey, Daily Mail

'Just what the average 12-year-old boy wants from for his multiplex dollars.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety

Eight Men Out ★★★

US 1988 119m colour
Rank/Orion (Sarah Pillsbury, Midge Sandford)

In 1919 members of the great Chicago White Sox baseball team take bribes to lose the World Series.

Absorbing drama, excellently filmed, with good ensemble acting.

w John Sayles book Eliot Asinof d John Sayles ph Robert Richardson m Mason Daring pd Nora Chavooshian ed John Tintori

☆ John Cusack (Buck Weaver), Clifton James (Charles Comiskey), Michael Lerner (Arnold Rothstein), Christopher Lloyd (Bill Burns), John Mahoney (Kid Gleason), Charlie Sheen (Hap Felsch), David Strathairn (Eddie Cicotte), D. B. Sweeney ('Shoeless' Joe Jackson)

'Every moment is another chance.'

8 Mile ★★ ⑦

US/Germany 2002 110m DeLuxe
Universal/Imagine (Brian Grazer, Curtis Hanson, Jimmy Iovine)

A poor white boy overcomes obstacles and gains respect by winning a rap contest.

Successful attempt to make a rapper into a movie star with a gritty, semi-autobiographical drama; in the process, though, Eminem has been tamed.

w Scott Silver d Curtis Hanson ph Rodrigo Prieto m Eminem pd Philip Messina ed Jay Rabinowitz, Craig Kitson

☆ Eminem (Jimmy Smith Jnr), Kim Basinger (Stephanie), Brittany Murphy (Alex), Mekhi Phifer (Future), Evan Jones (Cheddar Bob), Omar Benson Miller (Sol George)

'The rough power, as well as the humor and sensitivity, of pop phenom Eminem is delivered intact.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'Because it rejects easy victories, this may be one of the few inspirational movies that could actually inspire someone, somewhere, sometime.' – Richard Shickel, Time

song 'Lose Yourself' (m Eminem, Jeff Bass, Luis Resto l Eminem)

8 Million Ways to Die

US 1986 115m bw
Tri-Star/PSO (Steve Roth)

An alcoholic ex-cop tries to discover the killer of a prostitute who had asked him to protect her.

Dreary thriller of redemption from the low life; its pace is numbingly slow, despite the insistent score trying to impose a faster rhythm.

w Oliver Stone, David Lee Henry novel Lawrence Block d Hal Ashby ph Stephen H. Burum m James Newton Howard pd Michael Haller ed Stuart Pappé, Robert Lawrence

☆ Jeff Bridges, Rosanna Arquette, Alexandra Paul, Andy Garcia, Randy Brooks

Eight O'Clock Walk

GB 1953 87m bw
British Lion/George King

A young barrister proves a taxi driver innocent of murder.

Minor-league courtroom stuff, an adequate time-passer.

w Katherine Strueby, Guy Morgan story Jack Roffey, Gordon Harbord d Lance Comfort ph Brendan Stafford m George Melachrino

☆ Richard Attenborough, Derek Farr, Cathy O'Donnell, Ian Hunter, Maurice Denham, Bruce Seton, Harry Welchman

Eight on the Lam

US 1966 107m DeLuxe
United Artists/Hope Enterprises (Bill Lawrence)

GB title: Eight on the Run

A bank teller is suspected of embezzlement and goes on the run with his seven children.

Feeble comedy punctuated by even feebler chases; the star had lost his comic character.

w Albert E. Lewin, Burt Styler, Bob Fisher, Arthur Marx d George Marshall ph Alan Stensvold m George Romanis

☆ Bob Hope, Phyllis Diller, Jonathan Winters, Shirley Eaton, Jill St John

Eight on the Run: see Eight on the Lam

'The sport made him a Legend. His heart made him a Hero.'

8 Seconds

US 1994 105m Film House colour
First Independent/New Line/Jersey Films (Michael Shamberg)

The former world bull-riding champion wins back his title and his wife after losing both to booze.
Based on the life of Lane Frost, this is a mundane biopic of limited interest.
w Monte Merrick d John G. Avildsen ph Victor Hammer m Bill Conti pd William J. Cassidy ed J. Douglas Seelig
☆ Luke Perry, Stephen Baldwin, James Rebhorn, Red Mitchell, Ronnie Claire Edwards, Linden Ashby, Cynthia Geary, Carrie Snodgress

'Never more than occasionally diverting, and in spite of some spirited playing is strictly for Luke Perry fans and rodeo nuts.' – Anwar Brett, Film Review

8 Women ★★

France 2001 colour
UGC/Fidelite/France 2/Mars (Olivier Delbosc, Marc Missonnier)

original title: 8 Femmes
In a house cut off by a snow storm, a man's family try to discover which of them was responsible for his death.
Highly artificial, witty, enjoyable pastiche of a country house murder mystery, with bravura performances from its stellar cast, representing four generations of French acting, who burst into song at unexpected moments.
w François Ozon, Marina de Van play Robert Thomas d François Ozon ph Jeanne Lapoirie m Krishna Levy pd Arnaud de Moleron ed Laurence Bawedin ☆ Catherine Deneuve (Gaby), Isabelle Huppert (Augustine), Emmanuelle Béart (Louise), Fanny Ardant (Pierrette), Virginie Ledoyen (Suzon), Danielle Darrieux (Mamy), Ludivine Sagnier (Catherine), Firmine Richard (Mme Chanel)

'Indefensible, cynical, even grotesque; it is also pure – that is to say innocent and uncorrupted – fun.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

1871

GB 1989 100m Metrocolor
ICA/Looseyard/Film Four/La Sept/Palawood/Animatografo (Stewart Richards)

An Irish rebel, in love with an actress-cum-prostitute whom he is forced to share with an English aristocrat and spy, takes part in the doomed Paris Commune of 1871.
Blinkered and fussy look at a failed revolution.
w Terry James, James Leahy, Ken McMullen d Ken McMullen ph Elso Roque m Barrie Guard pd Paul Cheetham ed William Diver
☆ Roshan Seth, John Lynch, Timothy Spall, Alexandre de Sousa, Ian McNeice, Alan Braine, Maria João Toscano, Maria de Medeiros, Ana Padrao, Jacqueline Dankworth

'Another melancholy example of rigid radicalism lacking mainstream and popular sophistication.' – Raymond Durgnat, Sight and Sound

'Has all the elements of terrific television: romance, revolution, murder, a good cast and top-notch production values.' – Variety

18 Again!

US 1988 100m DeLuxe
Entertainment/New World (Walter Coblenz)

After a car crash, the mind of an 81-year-old grandfather is switched into the body of his 18-year-old grandson.
Feeblest of the body-swap cycle of films, with little to entertain.
w Josh Goldstein, Jonathan Prince d Paul Flaherty ph Stephen M. Katz m Billy Goldenberg pd Dena Roth ed Danford B. Greene
☆ George Burns, Charlie Schlatter, Tony Roberts, Anita Morris, Miriam Flynn, Jennifer Runyon, Red Buttons

'The Crow Flies. The Clock Strikes. And the Devil is Due.'

The Eighteenth Angel

US 1997 85m DeLuxe
Rysher (William Hart, Douglas Curtis)

An Italian sect of devil worshippers, who need eighteen beautiful women to help bring about the return of Satan, make as their final choice the daughter of an American academic.
Supernatural thriller that, with its subpolot of genetic experiments, attempts to be topical but fails to rise above mediocrity.
w David Seltzer d William Bindley ph Thomas E. Ackerman m Starr Parodi, Jeff Eden Fair pd Stefano Maria Ortolani ed William Hoy sp visual fx: Jon Townley cos Ornella Campanale
☆ Christopher McDonald (Hugh Stanton), Rachael Leigh Cook (Lucy Stanton), Stanley Tucci (Todd Stanton), Wendy Crewson (Nora Stanton), Maximilian Schell (Father Simeon), Cosimo Fusco (Florian)

The Eighth Day ★ (2)

France 1996 114m colour
Polygram/Pan-Européene/Home Made/TF1/RTL/TVI/Working Title/DA (Philippe Godeau)

original title: Le Huitième Jour
A salesman befriends a young runaway with Down's syndrome.
Accomplished and sentimental comedy, with an unpleasant shock ending, of one man's redemption, in which emotional manipulation predominates.
wd Jaco Van Dormael ph Walther Van Ende m Pierre Van Dormael ad Hubert Pouille ed Susana Rossberg
☆ Daniel Auteuil, Pascal Duquenne, Miou-Miou, Isabelle Sadoyan, Henri Garcin, Michele Maes

'The result is a European film aiming at sophistication that becomes more and more like a Hollywood epic about idiots savants.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

† Daniel Auteuil and Pascal Duquenne shared the best actor award at the 1996 Cannes Film Festival.

84 Charing Cross Road ★★

GB 1986 97m Rank Colour
Columbia/Brooksfilm (Geoffrey Helman)

A New York woman conducts a long correspondence with an antiquarian bookseller in London.
Pleasant picturization of a now famous book which had already been seen on TV and stage.
w Hugh Whitemore book Helene Hanff d David Jones ph Brian West m George Fenton pd Eileen Diss, Edward Pisoni
☆ Anne Bancroft, Anthony Hopkins, Judi Dench, Maurice Denham, Jean de Baer, Eleanor David Ⓑ Anne Bancroft

84 Charlie Mopic ★

US 1989 95m colour
Charlie Mopic Company (Michael Nolin)

An army cameraman and an inexperienced officer accompany a reconnaissance patrol in Vietnam.
A documentary-style account of war as it affects the individual, as seen from the subjective viewpoint of the cameraman.
wd Patrick Duncan ph Alan Casco m Donovan ad Douglas Dick ed Stephen Purvis
☆ Jonathan Emerson, Nicholas Cascone, Jason Tomlins, Christopher Burgard, Glenn Morshower, Richard Brooks, Byron Thames

80,000 Suspects ★

GB 1963 113m bw Cinemascope
Rank/Val Guest

A smallpox epidemic terrorizes the city of Bath.
Predictable melodrama which adequately passes the time.
wd Val Guest novel The Pillars of Midnight by Elleston Trevor ph Arthur Grant m Stanley Black ad Geoffrey Tozer ed Bill Lenny ☆ Claire Bloom, Richard Johnson, Yolande Donlan, Cyril Cusack, Michael Goodliffe, Mervyn Johns, Kay Walsh, Basil Dignam, Ray Barrett

Einmal Ku'damm und Zurück: see Girl In a Boot

Él ★★

Mexico 1952 91m bw
Nacional Film (Oscar Dancigers)
aka: This Strange Passion
aka: Torments

A middle-aged aristocrat marries a beautiful young girl and falls victim to insane jealousy.
A tragi-comic case history with chilling and memorable details; not one of its director's great works, but an engaging minor one.
w Luis Buñuel, Luis Alcoriza novel Pensamientos by Mercedes Pinto d Luis Buñuel ph Gabriel Figueroa m Luis Hernandez Breton
☆ Arturo de Cordova, Delia Garces, Luis Beristain, Aurora Walker

El Chucho, Quién Sabe?: see A Bullet for the General

El Cid ★

US/Spain 1961 184m Super Technirama
Samuel Bronston

A legendary 11th-century hero drives the Moors from Spain.
Endless glum epic with splendid action sequences as befits the high budget.
w Fredric M. Frank, Philip Yordan, Ben Barzman d Anthony Mann ph Robert Krasker m Miklos Rozsa
☆ Charlton Heston, Sophia Loren, Raf Vallone, Genevieve Page, John Fraser, Gary Raymond, Herbert Lom, Hurd Hatfield, Massimo Serato, Andrew Cruickshank, Michael Hordern, Douglas Wilmer, Frank Thring

'A Lone Ranger liberation tale.' – Judith Crist

† Ben Barzman, a screenwriter who was blacklisted in the 50s, had his name restored to the credits in 1999.
♫ Miklos Rozsa; song 'The Falcon and the Dove' (m Miklos Rozsa, ly Paul Francis Webster)

El Condor

US 1970 102m Technicolor
National General/Carthay Continental (André de Toth)

An escaped convict and a con man seek a fortune in gold believed to be hidden in a fortress in the Mexican desert.
Blood and guts Western with few moments of interest.
w Larry Cohen, Steven Carabatsos d John Guillermin ph Henri Persin m Maurice Jarre
☆ Jim Brown, Lee Van Cleef, Patrick O'Neal, Marianna Hill, Iron Eyes Cody, Elisha Cook Jnr

'The kind of fun you can find at your friendly neighbourhood abattoir.' – Judith Crist, 1977

'The big one with the big two!'

El Dorado ★

US 1967 126m Technicolor
Paramount/Laurel (Howard Hawks)

A gunfighter and a drunken sheriff tackle a villainous cattle baron.
Easy-going, semi-somnolent, generally likeable but disappointing Western ... an old man's movie all round.
w Leigh Brackett novel The Stars in Their Courses by Harry Joe Brown d Howard Hawks ph Harold Rosson m Nelson Riddle ad Hal Pereira, Carl Anderson ed John Woodcock
☆ John Wayne (Cole Thornton), Robert Mitchum (Sheriff J. B. Harrah), James Caan (Mississippi), Charlene Holt (Maudie), Michele Carey (Josephine MacDonald), Ed Asner (Bart Jason), Arthur Hunnicutt (Bull), R. G. Armstrong (Kevin MacDonald), Paul Fix (Dr Miller), Christopher George (Nelse McLeod)

'A rumbustious lament for the good days of the bad old west.' – Tom Milne
'A claustrophobic, careless and cliché-ridden thing, wavering constantly between campy self-deprecation and pretentious pomposity.' – Richard Schickel
'Wayne and Mitchum, parodying themselves while looking exhausted.' – Pauline Kael, 70s
'The Son of Rio Bravo Rides Again.' – Leigh Brackett

† Harry Joe Brown wanted his novel removed from the credits because the film bore little resemblance to his book.

El Dorado ★

France/Spain 1988 123m colour
'Scope
Palace/Iberoamericana/Chrysalide/UGC-Top1/FR3/Canal Plus (Victor Albarran)

Conquistadores set out from Peru to find El Dorado, the fabled land of gold.
Ambitious but flawed epic, handicapped by its ponderous approach.
d Carlos Saura ph Teo Escamilla md Alejandro Masso ad Terry Pritchard ed Pedro del Rey
☆ Omero Antonutti, Eusebio Poncela, Lambert Wilson, Gabriela Roel, Jose Sancho, Feodor Atkine, Patxi Bisquert, Francisco Algora, Francisco Merino

El Greco

Italy/France 1964 94m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
(TCF) Artistiche Internazionale/Arco-Films du Siècle (Alfredo Bini, Mel Ferrer)

In the 16th century, a Greek-Italian painter finds favour in Spain and falls in love with an aristocratic girl.

Heavily embellished history with a few good scenes.

w Guy Elmes, Massimo Franciosa, Luigi Magni, Luciano Salce d Luciano Salce ph Leonida Barboni m Ennio Morricone

☆ Mel Ferrer, Rosanna Schiaffino, Adolfo Celi, Angel Aranda

El Mariachi ★★

US 1992 81m Technicolor
Columbia/Los Hooligans (Robert Rodriguez, Carlos Gallardo)

In a small Mexican town a wandering musician with his guitar-case is mistaken for a hitman.

Witty, visually inventive low-budget thriller, cleverly taking apart the conventions of Westerns and reassembling them in a quirky and individual way.

wd Robert Rodriguez ph Robert Rodriguez m Marc Trujillo, Alvaro Rodriguez, Chris Knudson, Cecilio Rodriguez, Eric Guthrie ed Robert Rodriguez

☆ Carlos Gallardo, Consuelo Gómez, Reinol Martinez, Peter Marquardt, Jaime de Hoyos, Ramiro Gómez, Jesus Lopez, Luis Baro

'Uses a broad genre to make subtle points: about change and tradition, about Mexicans and Chicanos with separate values and voices. Despite its superficial sense of low-budget genre-as-usual, this project offers something truly new for American film.' – Sight and Sound

'Has an exhilarating rawness that works for, rather than against it, its kinetic pacing, visceral editing and bravura camerawork revealing the presence of a director with unbridled visual panache. A minor masterpiece.' – Empire

† The film, by a 24-year-old director born in Texas, is said to have cost $7,000 (coming in $2,000 under budget) to shoot in 14 days and became the cheapest movie to be given international distribution by Columbia. He was signed to remake the film with a budget of $6m.

†† It was released on DVD together with its bigger budget remake Desperado (qv).

El Paso

US 1949 92m Cinecolor
Paramount/Pine-Thomas

After the civil war, a young lawyer brings a corrupt township to its senses by learning to outshoot the badmen.

Lively, fairly tough Western with all the familiar ingredients.

wd Lewis R. Foster ph Ellis Carter m Darrell Calker

☆ John Payne, Gail Russell, Dick Foran, Sterling Hayden, George 'Gabby' Hayes

El Topo ★

Mexico 1971 124m Eastmancolor
Producciones Panic

An evil gunfighter rides through the old west and has various encounters, after which he sets himself on fire.

Curious, perverse, powerful surrealist allegory which takes in the life of Christ and the fate of man among some exceedingly unpleasant violence. A treat for connoisseurs of the unpleasantly absurd.

ph Raphael Corkidi md Nacho Mendez ed Lilia Lupercio wd/m/ad Alejandro Jodorowsky

☆ Alejandro Jodorowsky (El Topo), Brontis Jodorowsky (Brontis as a child), Mara Lorenzio (Mara), David Silva (The Colonel), Paula Roma (Woman in Black), Hector Martinez (First Master), Juan José Gurrola (Second Master), Victor Fosado (Third Master), Agustin Izunza (Fourth Master), Robert John (Brontis as a man)

'Reading. Writing. Revenge.'

Election ★★★

US 1999 103m DeLuxe Super 35
Paramount/MTV/Bonafide (Albert Berger, Ron Yerxa, David Gale, Keith Samples)

The star pupil at a Midwest high school is determined to become president of the student government; a disgruntled teacher is determined that she should fail.

Witty, inventive satire that, although given a high-school setting, makes telling points about the politics and underhand methods involved in all kinds of power struggles.

w Alexander Payne, Jim Taylor novel Tom Perrotta d Alexander Payne ph James Glennon m Rolfe Kent pd Jane Ann Stewart ed Kevin Tent

☆ Matthew Broderick (Jim McAllister), Reese Witherspoon (Tracy Flick), Chris Klein (Paul Metzler), Jessica Campbell (Tammy Metzler), Mark Harelik (Dave Novotny), Phil Reeves (Walt Hendricks), Molly Hagan (Diane McAllister), Delaney Driscoll (Linda Novotny), Colleen Camp (Judith R. Flick)

'If Billy Wilder had been assigned to make a teen comedy, he might well have come up with a film as sour and witty as this.' – Geoffrey Macnab, Sight and Sound

'Pertinent, fiendishly funny... A modern classic.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

♗ script (Alexander Payne, Jim Taylor)

'He's a good cop on a big bike on a bad road!'

Electra Glide in Blue ★

US 1973 113m DeLuxe Panavision
UA/James William Guercio/Rupert Hitzig

A small-town motor-cycle cop becomes disillusioned.

Agreeable desert melodrama in the wake of Easy Rider, freshly observed with mordant humour, marred by a fashionable downbeat ending.

w Robert Boris ph Conrad Hall m James William Guercio d/m James William Guercio

☆ Robert Blake, Billy Green Bush, Mitch Ryan, Jeannine Riley, Elisha Cook Jnr, Royal Dano

'The most unusual triangle in the history of love. A boy, a girl, and a computer.'

Electric Dreams

GB 1984 112m Metrocolor
Virgin/MGM-UA (Rusty Lemorande, Larry de Waay)

A computer becomes jealous of its owner's love affair.

Gruesomely extended revue sketch which totally fails to develop its characters and offers instead a very sparing amount of cleverness.

w Rusty Lemorande d Steve Barron ph Alex Thomson m Giorgio Moroder pd Richard MacDonald

☆ Lenny von Dohlen, Virginia Madsen, Maxwell Caulfield, Bud Cort, Don Fellows

The Electric Horseman ★

†† US 1979 120m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/Universal (Ray Stark/Wildwood)

A horseman advertising breakfast cereal in Las Vegas suddenly tires of it all and heads for the wilderness.

Pretty but slightly sheepish moral saga with too much technique for its own good.

w Robert Garland d Sydney Pollack ph Owen Roizman m Dave Grusin pd Stephen Grimes

☆ Robert Redford, Jane Fonda, Valerie Perrine, Willie Nelson, John Saxon, Nicolas Coster

'Overlong, talky and diffused.' – Variety

The Electric Man: see Man Made Monster

Electric Moon

GB 1991 103m Technicolor
Winstone/Grapevine Media/Channel 4/Times Television (Sundeep Singh Bedi)

Rivalry between an Indian hotelier, a former Maharajah, and the director of the national park in which the hotel is situated causes problems for a group of Western tourists.

Uncertain comedy that mocks the expectations and preconceptions of tourists in India.

w Arundhati Roy d Pradip Krishen ph Giles Nuttgens m Basaya Khan, Zakab Khan, Deepak Castelino, Sanjee Saith pd Arundhati Roy ed Pradip Krishen

☆ Roshan Seth, Naseeruddin Shah, Leela Naidu, Gerson Da Cunha, Raghubir Yadav, Alice Spivak, Frances Helm, James Fleet, Francesca Brill

'Loses its shine early on. This amiable, good-humored satire on cultural stereotypes on both sides of the Indian tourist fence is too low-voltage to create much of a theatrical buzz.' – Variety

'Looks can kill'

Elektra

US 2005 96m DeLuxe
TCF/Regency/Marvel (Arnon Milchan, Gary Foster, Avi Arad)

A female assassin decides to join the forces of good in the battle with evil.

Tedious comic-book nonsense that takes itself far too seriously for its own good.

w Zak Penn, Stuart Zicherman, Raven Metzner Marvel character Frank Miller d Rob Bowman ph Bill Roe m Christophe Beck pd Graeme Murray ed Kevin Stitt

☆ Jennifer Garner (Elektra), Terence Stamp (Stick), Kirsten Prout (Abby), Goran Visnjic (Mark), Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa (Roshi), Will Yun Lee (Kirigi)

'Devotees of awful filmmaking can't go wrong with this one.' – Michael Wilmington, Chicago Tribune

'Breathlessly boring.' – Peter Travers, Rolling Stone

† It cost around $40m and took some $25m at the US box office.

Element of Crime

Denmark 1984 104m Eastmancolor
Per Holst (Lars von Trier)

original title: Forbrydelsens Element

In Cairo, a retired policeman recalls how he tried to think himself into the mind of a killer while investigating the murders of young girls.

Bizarre English language film noir from a Danish director, which may account for its incomprehensible narrative, with Elphick moodily wandering in the wet around an apparantly war-ravaged Europe.

w Niels Vørsel, Lars von Trier (English translation by William Quarshie, Steven Wakelam d Lars von Trier ph Tom Elling m Henrik Blichmann, Mogens Dam, Bo Holten pd Peter Høimark ed Tomas Gislason

☆ Michael Elphick (Fisher), Esmond Knight (Osborne), Kim (MeMe Lai), Jerold Wells (Kramer), Ahmed El Shenawi (Therapist), Astrid Henning-Jensen (House Keeper), Jànos Herskó (Coroner), Lars von Trier (Schmuck of Ages)

Elementary School ★★

Czechoslovakia 1991 97m colour
Barrandov (Jaromir Lukas) original title: Obecna Skola

Episodes in the life of a 10-year-old boy at home and with his unruly school-friends, just after the end of the Second World War.

A gently comic, nostalgic, semi-autobiographical movie; it has a quiet charm, enhanced by its romantic visual style.

w Zdenek Sverak d Jan Sverak ph F. A. Brabec m Jiri Traxler ad Vladimir Labsky, Gabriella Kubenove ed Alois Fisarek

☆ Jan Triska, Rudolf Hrusinsky, Zdenek Sverak, Libuse Safrankova, Vaclav Jakoubek, Daniela Kolarova, Boleslav Polivka, Petr Cepek

♗ foreign-language film

Eleni

US 1985 117m colour
CBS/Vanoff/Pick/Gage

A journalist back in Greece investigates his mother's death in the civil war of the late 1940s.

Deadeningly boring true life drama with flashbacks which fail to communicate the author's sense of revenge.

w Steve Tesich book Nicholas Gage d Peter Yates ph Billy Williams m Bruce Smeaton pd Roy Walker ed Ray Lovejoy

☆ Kate Nelligan, John Malkovich, Linda Hunt, Oliver Cotton, Ronald Pickup, Rosalie Crutchley

'As lofty in ambition as it is deficient in accomplishment.' – Variety

Elenya ★

GB 1992 82m colour
Frankfurter Film/S4C/BFI/Ffilmian/ZDF (Heidi Ulmke)

An elderly woman remembers how, as a young girl living in Wales in 1940, she tried to hide and care for a German pilot she discovered wounded in a wood.

Pleasant low-budget feature, but lacking in any particular individuality or originality.

wd Steve Gough ph Patrick Duval m Simon Fisher Turner pd Hayden Pearce ed Alan Smithee

☆ Margaret John, Pascale Delafouge Jones, Seirol Tomos, Sue Jones Davies, Iago Wynn Jones, Lilo Milward, Catrin Llwyd, Edward Elwyn Jones, Ioan Meredith, Klaus Behrendt

'Very quiet, acutely sensitive in some areas and a debut from which much could spring.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'An ordinary high school day. Except that it's not.'

Elephant ★★

US 2003 81m FotoKem
Optimum/Meno/Blue Relief (Dany Wolf)

Two high school students carry out a massacre of their fellow pupils and teachers in a modern school in Portland, Oregon

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♗ Academy Award · ♗ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Cool, understated drama, based on the Columbine high school killings, that eschews explanation, providing instead a multi-layered account of the bustle and small events of a typical school day that suddenly turned unaccountably evil.
wd Gus Van Sant ph Harris Savides
ad Benjamin Hayden ed Gus Van Sant
☆ Alex Frost (Alex), Eric Deulen (Eric), John Robinson (John McFarland), Elias McConnell (Elias), Jordan Taylor (Jordan), Carrie Finklea (Carrie), Nicole George (Nicole), Brittany Mountain (Brittany)
'To make a film about something like the Columbine student shootings incident and provide no insight or enlightenment would seem to be pointless at best and irresponsible at worst, and that is what Gus Van Sant has done.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'A work of astonishing, understated power.' – Kevin O'Sullivan, Daily Mirror
'A technical tour de force, a formal masterpiece. It is hypnotic in the way it draws us into the action' – Philip French, Observer
'A braggart piece of empty exhibitionism.' – Stanley Kauffmann, New Republic
† The film won the Palme D'Or at the Cannes Film Festival in 2003, and Gus Van Sant won the award for best director.

The Elephant and the Bicycle ★★

Cuba 1995 85m colour/bw ICAIC/Channel 4 (Rafael Rey) original title: El Elefante y la Bicicleta
In 1925, a former prisoner returns to his island village with a movie projector and a film of Robin Hood which, as the villagers watch it every night, becomes a film about their own oppression by the local landowner.
A charming, sophisticated fable of the transforming power of art, or the ability of people to read into it what they want; in one witty scene, the villagers, in critical mode, debate whether cinema should be escapist or reflect reality – this manages to do both.
w Eliseo Alberto Diego, Juan Carlos Tabío d Juan Carlos Tabío, Rapi Diego ph Julio Valdes m Jose Vitier ad Onelio Larralde ed Lina Baniela ☆ Luis Alberto Garcia, Lilian Vega, Martha Farre, Raul Pomares, Daisy Granados, Adolfo Llaurado, Patricio Wood, Fidelio Torres

Elephant Boy ★★

GB 1937 91m bw
London Films (Alexander Korda)
In India, a boy elephant keeper helps government conservationists.
Documentary drama which seemed fresh and extraordinary at the time, has dated badly since, but did make an international star of Sabu.
w John Collier, Akos Tolnay, Marcia de Sylva novel Toomai of the Elephants by Rudyard Kipling d Robert Flaherty, Zoltan Korda ph Osmond Borradaile m John Greenwood ed William Hornbeck, Charles Crichton ☆ Sabu, Walter Hudd, Allan Jeayes, W. E. Holloway, Wilfrid Hyde-White
'Should draw anywhere in the world.' – Variety
'This is a fractured film, its skeleton is awry, its bones stick out through the skin.' – Richard Griffith, 1941
'It has gone the way of Man of Aran: enormous advance publicity, director out of touch with the press for months, rumours of great epics sealed in tins, and then the disappointing diminutive achievement.' – Graham Greene

Un Eléphant ça Trompe Enormément: see Pardon Mon Affaire

Elephant Gun: see Nor the Moon by Night

'It's not what you say, it's how you say it!'

Elephant Juice

GB/US 1999 86m Technicolor Panavision
Miramax/Film4/HAL (Sheila Fraser Milne)
After agreeing to help find a partner for their single friend, three couples find their own relationships are less permanent than they thought.
This take on the love-lives of Londoners old enough to know better is both dull and empty of emotion.
w Amy Jenkins d Sam Miller ph Adrian Wild m Tim Atack pd Grant Hicks
ed Elen Pierce Lewis cos Jill Taylor ☆ Emmanuelle Béart (Jules), Sean Gallagher (Billy), Daniel Lapaine (Will), Daniela Nardini (Daphne), Mark Strong (Frank), Kimberly Williams (Dodie), Lennie James (Graham), Lee Williams (George)
'But for the odd cuss word and fleeting flash of breast, they might have had a neat coffee commercial on their hands.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'As phony as a three-dollar bill — and about as worthless.' – Derek Elley, Variety

The Elephant Man ★★★

US 1980 124m bw Panavision
EMI/Brooksfilms (Stuart Cornfeld)
In 1884 London, a penniless man deformed by a rare illness is rescued by a doctor from a fairground freak show, and becomes a member of fashionable society.
A curious story which happens to be true; the film sets its scene superbly, has splendid performances and a fascinating make-up. Yet it fails to move quite as it should, perhaps because the central figure is treated as a horrific come-on, like the hunchback of Notre Dame.
w Christopher de Vore, Eric Bergren, David Lynch, from various memoirs d David Lynch ph Freddie Francis m John Morris pd Stuart Craig ad Robert Cartwright ed Anne V. Coates
☆ Anthony Hopkins (Dr. Frederick Treves), John Hurt (John Merrick), John Gielgud (Carr Gomm), Anne Bancroft (Mrs. Kendal), Freddie Jones (Bytes), Wendy Hiller (Mothershead), Michael Elphick (Night Porter), Hannah Gordon (Mrs. Treves)
'If there's a wrong note in this unique movie – in performance, production design, cinematography or anywhere else – I must have missed it.' – Paul Taylor, Time Out
'In an age of horror movies this is a film which takes the material of horror and translates it into loving kindness.' – Dilys Powell, Punch
§ best film; screenplay; David Lynch; editing (Anne V. Coates); art direction (Stuart Craig, Bob Cartwright, Hugh Scaife); John Morris; costume design (Patricia Norris); John Hurt
BAFTA best film; production design; John Hurt

'One man claimed the land. Two men claimed the woman who lived there.'

Elephant Walk ★

US 1954 103m Technicolor Paramount (Irving Asher)
The owner of a Ceylon tea plantation takes back an English wife who finds the atmosphere strange and turns to a friendly overseer for comfort.
Echoes of Jane Eyre and Rebecca, with stampeding elephants instead of a mad or dead wife.
w John Lee Mahin novel Robert Standish d William Dieterle ph Loyal Griggs m Franz Waxman
☆ Elizabeth Taylor, Peter Finch, Dana Andrews, Abraham Sofaer
'The climactic elephant stampede's a rouser – if you're still awake.' – Judith Crist

Elephants Never Forget: see Zenobia

11' 09" 01 September 11 ★★

France/Iran/Egypt/Bosnia-Herzegovina/Burkina Faso/GB/Mexico/Israel//India/US/Japan 2002 134m colour
Artificial Eye/StudioCanal
Short films by 11 international directors inspired by the terrorist destruction of the World Trade Centre on 11 September 2001. Each film is 9 minutes, 11 seconds and one frame long.
A mixed bag of reactions, ranging from the self-indulgent to the moving. The most effective are Samira Makhmalbaf's, showing an Afghan teacher trying to explain the tragedy to a class of uncomprehending children while their elders build shelters from clay bricks to protect themselves from American bombers, Amos Gitai's account of a TV journalist outraged that her account of a bombing in Tel Aviv has been upstaged, and Ken Loach's remembrance, by a Chilean writer, of September 11, 1973, when a CIA-backed coup overthrew the democractically elected government of Chile, replacing it with a military dictatorship.
Episode 1 wd Samira Makhmalbaf with Maryam Karimi
Episode 2 w Pierre Uytterhoeven, Claude Lelouch d Claude Lelouch with Emmanuelle Laborit, Jerome Horry
Episode 3 wd Youssef Chahine with Nour el-Cherif, Ahmed Seif Eldine
Episode 4 wd Danis Tanovic with Dzana Pinjo, Aleksandar Seksan
Episode 5 wd Idrissa Ouedraogo with Lionel Zizreel Guire, Rene Aime Bassinga
Episode 6 w Paul Laverty, Ken Loach, Vladimir Vega d Ken Loach with Vladimir Vega
Episode 7 wd Alejandro Gonzalez Inarritu
Episode 8 w Amos Gitai, Marie-Jose Sanselme d Amos Gitai with Keren Mor, Liron Levo
Episode 9 w Sabrina Dhawan d Mira Nair with Tanvi Azmi, Kapil Bawa
Episode 10 wd Sean Penn with Ernest Borgnine
Episode 11 w Daisuke Tengan d Shohei Imamura with Tomorowo Taguchi, Kumiko Aso, Akira Emoto
'A bold attempt to define the terrorist attack as a global event, and a global tragedy.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'Fate can change in seconds.'

11.14 ⑦

USA/Canada 2003 86m
Lionsgate UK/Media 8 Entertainment/Firm Films (Beau Flynn, John Morrissey)
Successive flashbacks reveal the truth behind two simultaneous fatal road accidents in a small US town.
Over-plotted, deliberately intricate story that might have benefited from being told more simply. As it is, it just disappears up its own loose ends.
wd Greg Marcks ph Shane Hurlbut
m Clint Mansell pd Devorah Herbert
ed Dan Lebental, Richard Nord
☆ Rachael Leigh Cook (Cheri), Barbara Hershey (Norma), Patrick Swayze (Frank), Hilary Swank (Buzzy), Ben Foster (Eddie), Colin Hanks (Mark), Henry Thomas (Jack)

Eleven Harrowhouse ★

GB 1974 108m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Harrowhouse (Elliott Kastner)
An American diamond merchant is robbed of a valuable jewel, and finds himself in the middle of an ingenious plot.
Amusing caper story marred by sudden changes of mood.
w Jeffrey Bloom novel Gerald A. Browne d Aram Avakian ph Arthur Ibbetson
m Michael J. Lewis
☆ Charles Grodin, James Mason, Trevor Howard, John Gielgud, Candice Bergen, Peter Vaughan, Helen Cherry, Jack Watson, Jack Watling
'This lackadaisical caper comedy is inoffensive, but the comic ideas don't build or erupt, and since the director fails to get any suspense going, it becomes a bumbling and stupid romp.' – Pauline Kael

'This holiday, discover your inner elf.'

Elf ⑤

US/Germany 2003 97m DeLuxe
Entertainment/New Line/A Guy Walks into a Bar/Munich Carlyle (Jon Berg, Todd Komarnicki, Shauna Robertson)
An elf discovers that he is a human and leaves Santa's workshop to go to Manhattan to find his real father.
A silly comedy about an innocent abroad; its success will depend on whether you find Ferrell funny or, simply, worringly odd.
w David Berenbaum d Jon Favreau ph Greg Gardiner m John Debney
pd Rusty Smith ed Dan Lebental
☆ Will Ferrell (Buddy), James Caan (Walter), Bob Newhart (Papa Elf), Edward Asner (Santa), Mary Steenbergen (Emily), Zooey Deschanel (Joive), Daniel Tay (Michael)
'This is one of those rare Christmas comedies that has a heart, a brain and a wicked sense of humor.' – Chicago Sun-Times
'I was looking forward to something a tad more satirical than this Hallmark card of a movie, which plugs innocence and goodness like they're going out of style.' – Peter Rainer, New York
† The movie, which cost some $30m, took more than $173m at the US box office.

Elinor Norton

US 1935 71m bw
Fox
A wife has a jealous husband and a South American lover.
Underwritten triangle drama which never comes to boiling point.
w Rose Franken, Philip Klein novel The State versus Elinor Norton by Mary Roberts Rinehart d Hamilton McFadden
☆ Claire Trevor, Gilbert Roland, Hugh Williams, Henrietta Crosman, Norman Foster
'No cast for b.o. and results look mild.' – Variety

Elisa ★

France 1994 114m colour
Gala/Christian Fechner/Solo/TF1 (Henri Brichetti)

A street-smart teenager, whose mother committed suicide when she was a baby, blames the father who abandoned them for the tragedy and sets out to find him.
A vehicle designed to establish Paradis as film star as well as a singer, in which it succeeds: she is convincing as an amoral flirt, and more interesting than the film itself.
w Jean Becker, Fabrice Carazo d Jean Becker ph Etienne Becker m Zbigniew Preisner ad Thérèse Ripaux ed Jacques Witta
☆ Vanessa Paradis, Gérard Depardieu, Clothilde Courau, Sekkou Sall, Florence Thomassin

'A subtly structured, often whimsical personal odyssey.' – Empire

† The title is taken from a song by Serge Gainsbourg, to whom the film is dedicated.

Eliza Fraser

Australia 1976 127m colour
Hexagon (Tim Burstall)

A shipwrecked couple have to live with Aborigines; later she becomes a fairground attraction.
Would-be bawdy historical romp on the lines of Tom Jones; it seldom works.
w David Williamson d Tim Burstall
☆ Susannah York, Trevor Howard, Noel Ferrier, John Waters, Charles Tingwell

'Declared Illegitimate Aged 3. Tried For Treason Aged 21. Crowned Queen Aged 25.'
'Absolute Power Demands Absolute Loyalty.'

Elizabeth ★★★

GB 1998 121m colour
Polygram/Channel 4/Working Title (Alison Owen, Eric Fellner, Tim Bevan)

Amid plots and counter-plots, the hatred of her Catholic sister, Queen Mary, and the loss of her lover, Elizabeth survives to become absolute ruler of England.
Fast-moving drama which, while it rearranges historical events, seems accurate in spirit to the political upheavals of the time; against the background of religious persecution and overweening ambitions, it charts Elizabeth's emotional life, as she moves from frightened and passionate girl to a frightening and passionless queen.
w Michael Hirst d Shekhar Kapur ph Remi Adefarasin m David Hirschfelder pd John Myhre ad Lucy Richardson ed Jill Bilcock
☆ Cate Blanchett (Elizabeth I), Geoffrey Rush (Sir Francis Walsingham), Christopher Eccleston (Duke of Norfolk), Joseph Fiennes (Robert Dudley, Earl of Leicester), Richard Attenborough (Sir William Cecil), Fanny Ardant (Mary of Guise), Kathy Burke (Queen Mary Tudor), Eric Cantona (Monsieur de Foix), James Frain (Alvaro de la Quadra), Vincent Cassel (Duc d'Anjou), Daniel Craig (John Ballard), John Gielgud (The Pope), Angus Deayton (Waad, Chancellor of the Exchequer), Edward Hardwicke (Earl of Arundel), Terence Rigby (Bishop Gardiner)

'The very model of a successful historical drama – imposingly beautiful, persuasively resonant, unfailingly entertaining. – Richard Williams, Guardian

'A horror film masquerading as a historical pageant.' – David Denby, New Yorker

Jenny Shircore (make-up) best picture; Cate Blanchett; Remi Adefarasin; David Hirschfelder; John Myhre; Alexandre Byrne (costumes) best British film; Cate Blanchett; Remi Adefarasin; David Hirschfelder; Jenny Shircore (make-up)

Elizabeth and Essex: see The Private Lives of Elizabeth and Essex

Elizabeth of England: see Drake of England

Elizabeth the Queen: see The Private Lives of Elizabeth and Essex

'It's a heck of a place to find yourself'

Elizabethtown ④

US 2005 138m DeLuxe
Paramount/Vinyl (Tom Cruise, Paula Wagner, Cameron Crowe)

Returning home for his father's funeral in Kentucky, a shoe designer falls for a perky air hostess..
A cringe-making romantic drama of love and death, full of empty gestures and windy speeches.
wd Cameron Crowe ph John Toll m Nancy Wilson pd Clay A. Griffith ed David Moritz cos Nancy Steiner
☆ Orlando Bloom (Drew Baylor), Kirsten Dunst (Claire Colburn), Susan Sarandon (Hollie Baylor), Judy Greer (Heather Baylor), Jessica Biel (Ellen Kishmore), Alec Baldwin (Phil)

'An unending nightmare of life-affirming laughter and tears, evidently conceived by someone with a sketchy idea of how carbon-based lifeforms behave.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'A saga of static set pieces and strenuously clever notions, this is a fiasco of a film if ever there was one.' – Joe Morgenstern, Wall Street Journal

Ella Cinders ★★

US 1926 83m approx bw silent
First National

A servant girl wins a trip to Hollywood.
Famous and still pleasing comedy from the comic strip Cinderella in the Movies.
w Frank Griffin, Mervyn Le Roy d Alfred E. Green ph Arthur Martinelli ☆ Colleen Moore, Lloyd Hughes, Vera Lewis, Doris Baker

'Get enchanted.'

Ella Enchanted

US/GB/Ireland 2004 96m colour
Buena Vista/Miramax (Jane Startz)

A girl tries to rid herself of a fairy gift, given her at birth, to obey others, which nearly causes her to kill the prince she loves.
A movie aimed at young girls, who may enjoy the fairy-land atmosphere and the discovery that life there, with its medieval shopping malls, resembles their own; the movie won't do much for anyone else.
w Laurie Craig, Karen McCullah, Kirsten Smith, Jennifer Heath, Michelle J. WolffLutz, novel Gail Carson Levine d Tommy O'Haver ph John de Borman m Shaun Davey pd Norman Garwood ed Masahiro Hirakubo
☆ Anne Hathaway (Ella of Frell), Hugh Dancy (Prince Charmont), Cary Elwes (Sir Edgar), Vivica A. Fox (Lucinda Perriweather), Joanna Lumley (Dame Olga), Minnie Driver (Mandy), Patrick Bergin (Sir Peter), Jimi Mistry (Benny), Eric Idle (Narrator)

'Seems squarely aimed at 12-year-old girls, or, I don't know, maybe 8-year-old girls.' – Glenn Kenny, Premiere

Ellen: see The Second Woman

Ellery Queen

The debonair detective created by Manfred B. Lee and Frederic Dannay was seen in several unremarkable second features, usually with his secretary Nikki and his police inspector father. The first two were made for Republic, the rest for Columbia.
1935 The Spanish Cape Mystery with Donald Cook
1936 The Mandarin Mystery (Eddie Quillan)
1940 Ellery Queen Master Detective (Ralph Bellamy)
1941 Ellery Queen's Penthouse Mystery, Ellery Queen and the Perfect Crime, Ellery Queen and the Murder Ring (all Bellamy)
1942 A Close Call for Ellery Queen, A Desperate Chance for Ellery Queen, Enemy Agents Meet Ellery Queen (all William Gargan)
In 1971 Peter Lawford starred in a TV pilot, Don't Look Behind You, and in 1975 a one-season series starred Jim Hutton. The books, pseudonymously authored by Ellery Queen, were far more popular than any of the movies.

Ellery Queen, Master Detective

US 1940 66m bw
Columbia

Searching for the missing daughter of a dying health food tycoon, Ellery Queen finds the wrong girl and solves the mystery of a murder in a locked room.
A slow-moving mystery, bland and uninteresting, with a great deal of talk and very little action, being mainly confined to a couple of interior sets.
w Eric Taylor story Ellery Queen d Kurt Neumann ph James S. Brown Jnr m Lee Zahler ed Dwight Caldwell
☆ Ralph Bellamy (Ellery Queen), Margaret Lindsay (Nikki Porter), Charley Grapewin, James Burke, Michael Whalen

Elles n'oublient pas: see Love in the Strangest Way

'What happens when you become the person you pretend to be?'

Ellie Parker ⑤

USA 2005 95m
ICA Projects/TLA Releasing/Dream Entertainment (Scott Coffey, Naomi Watts)

Aspiring L.A. actress dashes between auditions and grapples with precarious love life in her quest for stardom.
Low-budget digital movie, hand-held and shot shakily, was developed from 16-minute short. Watts does her best as the struggling Ellie, but she's a whiny character, self-obsessed and pathetic in her pursuit of fame. Few revelations here, then.
wd Scott Coffey ph Scott Coffey, Blair Mastbaum m Neil Jackson ed Matt Chesse, Catherine Hollander ☆ Naomi Watts (Ellie Parker), Rebecca Rigg (Sam), Scott Coffey (Chris), Chevy Chase (Dennis Swartzbaum), Mark Pellegrino (Justin)

'There's the germ of a comic idea here, but most of the movie consists of acting-exercise skits that ramble on till they croak.' – Jami Bernard, New York Daily News

'They're packed and ready for the greatest adventure of their lives. All they have to do is get out of the house.'

Elling ★★ ⑦

Norway 2001 84m colour
UIP/Maipo (Dag Alveberg)

Two psychiatric patients are discharged and given a state-funded apartment to see whether they can cope on their own.
Touching, funny comedy of two sweet-natured misfits attempting to deal with the everday activities of life.
w Axel Hellstenius novel Ingvar Ambjornsen d Petter Naess ph Svein Krovel m Lars Lillo Stenberg ad Haralds Egede Nissen ed Inge-Lise Langfeldt ☆ Per Christian Ellefsen (Elling), Sven Nordin (Kjell Bjarne), Per Christensen (Alfons Jorgensen), Jorgen Langhelle (Frank Asli), Marit Pia Jacobsen (Reidun Nordsletten)

'There is a little of all of us in their awkwardness, fears and neuroses, and we root for their success in the mundane as if they were ascending Everest.' – Jack Matthews, New York Daily News

'From a book that shook a nation with its sledgehammer theme ... From a Nobel Prize-winning author ... comes the raging story of the man who used the Holy Bible and broke every rule in it!'

Elmer Gantry ★★

US 1960 146m Eastmancolor
UA/Bernard Smith

The exploits of an American evangelist in the twenties.
Mainly gripping but overlong exposé of commercialized small-town religion.
wd Richard Brooks novel Sinclair Lewis ph John Alton m André Previn ad Edward Carrere
☆ Burt Lancaster, Jean Simmons, Arthur Kennedy, Shirley Jones, Dean Jagger, Edward Andrews, Patti Page, John McIntire
Richard Brooks (as writer); Burt Lancaster; Shirley Jones best picture; André Previn

Elmer the Great

US 1933 74m bw
Warner (Ray Griffith)

A country hick turns out to be a great baseball hitter.
Best and most farcical version of a play also filmed in 1929 as Fast Company and in 1939 as The Cowboy Quarterback.
w Tom Geraghty play Ring Lardner, George M. Cohan d Mervyn Le Roy ☆ Joe E. Brown, Patricia Ellis, Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd, Sterling Holloway, Emma Dunn, Douglass Dumbrille, Jessie Ralph, J. Carrol Naish

Elmore Leonard's Gold Coast

US 1997 105m DuArt
Paramount/Chanticleer/Mancat/Richard Maynard

In Florida, a petty crook falls for the widow of a Mafia boss, who is being threatened by a hired killer.
Tart, spare thriller, slickly made but underpowered.
w Harley Peyton novel Elmore Leonard d Peter Weller ph Jacek Laskus m Peter Harris pd Maria Caso ed Dean Goodhill
☆ David Caruso, Marg Helgenberger, Jeff Kober, Barry Primus, Wanda de Jesus, Richard Bradford, Rafael Baez, Melissa Raven

† The film was made for cable television.

Éloge De L'Amour

France/Switzerland 2001 98m bw/colour
Optimum/Peripheria

US title: In Praise of Love

After his leading actress dies, the author of a work on the subject of love realises he had met her two years before, in discussions about a Hollywood movie of the French resistance.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆Cast in approximate order of importance · †Points of interest · ♫Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

There are welcome flashes of the Godard of the 60s here, but you have to sit through a great deal of sloganeering and windy philosophising first.
wd Jean-Luc Godard ph Christophe Pollock, Julien Hirsch ed Raphaele Urtin
☆ Bruno Putzulu (Edgar), Cecile Camp (Elle), Jean Davy (Grandfather), Françoise Verney (Grandmother), Audrey Klebaner (Eglantine), Jeremy Lippman (Perceval), Claude Baigneres (Mr Rosenthal)
'His work over the past 30 years has been incoherent, self-indulgent and barely watchable and Éloge De L'Amour is no exception.' – Philip French, Observer

Elsker Dig For Evigt: see Open Hearts

Elstree Calling ★

GB 1930 95m bw/Pathécolour
Wardour/BIP (John Maxwell)
A film studio mounts a television show.
Slender excuse for an all-star revue which luckily preserves much light entertainment talent of the time.
w Adrian Brunel, Walter C. Mycroft, Val Valentine d Adrian Brunel, Alfred Hitchcock, Jack Hulbert, André Charlot, Paul Murray ph Claude Friese-Greene m Reg Casson, Vivian Ellis, Chick Endor, Ivor Novello, Jack Strachey ed Emile de Ruelle, A. C. Hammond
☆ Tommy Handley, Jack Hulbert, Cicely Courtneidge, Will Fyffe, Lily Morris, Teddy Brown, Anna May Wong, Gordon Harker, Donald Calthrop, John Longden, Jameson Thomas, Bobbie Comber

The Elstree Story ★

GB 1952 61m bw
ABPC (Gilbert Gunn)
A compilation drawn from 25 years of filmmaking at Elstree Studios.
Highlights include Hitchcock's Number Seventeen; The White Sheik; Piccadilly; Bulldog Drummond; Arms and the Man; The Informer; Blossom Time; and Poison Pen. Commentary and presentation are adequate.
d Gilbert Gunn m Philip Green

The Elusive Pimpernel ★

GB 1950 109m Technicolor
BL/London Films (Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger)
US title: The Fighting Pimpernel
A foppish 18th-century London dandy is actually the hero who rescues French aristocrats from the guillotine.
Expensive remake of The Scarlet Pimpernel which fails to please, apparently because the talents were not congenial to the subject. Interesting detail, though.
wd Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger novel Baroness Orczy ph Christopher Challis m Brian Easdale pd Hein Heckroth ed Reginald Mills
☆ David Niven (Sir Percy Blakeney), Margaret Leighton (Lady Blakeney), Cyril Cusack (Chauvelin), Jack Hawkins (Prince of Wales), David Hutcheson (Lord Anthony Dewhurst), Robert Coote (Sir Andrew ffoulkes), Arlette Marchall (Countess de Tournai), Gérard Nery (Philippe de Tournai), Danielle Godet (Suzanne), Edmond Audran (Armand St. Juste), Charles Victor (Colonel Winterbotham), Eugene Deckers (Captain Merières), David Oxley (Captain Duroc), Patrick Macnee (Hon John Bristow), Terence Alexander (Duke of Dorset)
'The quality of excitement which should carry the film is quite lost. The Elusive Pimpernel is highly – often too highly – coloured, and has an artificiality quite different in character from that of the original.' – Penelope Houston
'I never thought I should feel inclined to leave a Powell and Pressburger film before the end; but I did here.' – Richard Mallett, Punch
'Niven plays the Scarlet Pimpernel with the sheepish lack of enthusiasm of a tone deaf man called upon to sing solo in church. His companions lumber through their parts like schoolboys about to go down with mumps.' – Daily Express

Elvira Madigan ★

Sweden 1967 95m Eastmancolor
Europa Film (Waldemar Bergendahl)
A married army officer runs off with a tightrope dancer; when they run out of money they live in the woods and finally commit suicide rather than part.
A simple Victorian romantic idyll, based on a true incident; a director's and photographer's piece which entrances the eyes and ears while starving the mind.
ph Jörgen Persson m Mozart wd/ed Bo Widerberg
☆ Thommy Berggren, Pia Degermark

Elvira, Mistress of the Dark

US 1988 96m CFI color
Entertainment/New World/NBC/Queen B (Eric Gardner, Mark Pierson)
The hostess of a TV horror show discovers that she has magic powers.
Camp nonsense, limply performed.
w Sam Egan, John Paragon, Cassandra Peterson d James Signorelli ph Hanania Baer m James Campbell pd John DeCuir Jnr ed Battle Davis
☆ Cassandra Peterson, W. Morgan Sheppard, Daniel Greene, Susan Kellermann, Jeff Conaway, Edie McClurg, Kurt Fuller, Pat Crawford Brown

Elvis! Elvis!

Sweden 1977 100m colour
Moviemakers/SF1/SR-TV2 (Bert Sundberg)
A sensitive seven-year-old boy tries to cope with a mother obsessed by Elvis Presley.
Unimaginative family drama.
w Maria Gripe, Kay Pollak novel Maria Gripe d Kay Pollak ph Mikael Salomon m Ralph Lundsten ed Lasse Lundberg
☆ Lele Dorazio, Lena-Pia Bernhardsson, Fred Gunnarsson, Elisaveta, Allan Adwall

The Embalmer ★

Italy 2002 101m Technicolor 'scope
Fandango (Domenico Procacci)
original title: L'Imbalsamatore
A predatory dwarfish taxidermist becomes infatuated with a handsome young man and invites him to become his assistant.
Strange homoerotic drama of seduction that takes an unexpected turn.
w Ugo Chiti, Matteo Garrone, Massimo Gaudioso d Matteo Garrone ph Marco Onorato m Banda Osiris ad Paolo Bonfini ed Marco Spoletini ☆ Ernesto Mahieux (Peppino), Valerio Foglia Manzillo (Valerio), Elisabetta Rocchetti (Deborah), Lina Bernardi (Deborah's mother), Pietro Biondi (Deborah's father), Bernardino Terracciano (Boss), Marcella Granito (Manuela)

Embassy ★

US 1972 90m colour
Hemdale/Triad/Weaver (Mel Ferrer)
At the US Embassy in Beirut, a Soviet official seeking asylum is in danger from a KGB killer.
Goodish suspenser with reasonably literate dialogue and several Hitchcockian sequences.
w William Fairchild d Gordon Hessler
ph Raoul Coutard m Jonathan Hodge
☆ Richard Roundtree, Chuck Connors, Max von Sydow, Broderick Crawford, Ray Milland

'From a Foetus... To a woman in Days!'

Embryo

US 1976 104m colour
Cine Artists/Sandy Howard (Arnold H. Orgolini, Anita Doohan) aka: Created to Kill
A researcher experiments on foetuses with growth hormones, and lives to regret it.
Rather unpleasant mixture of science fiction and old-fashioned horror; slickness can't conceal a total lack of taste.
w Anita Doohan, Jack W. Thomas d Ralph Nelson ph Fred Koenekamp m Gil Mellé pd Joseph Alves Jnr ed John A. Martinelli ☆ Rock Hudson (Dr Paul Holliston), Diane Ladd (Martha), Barbara Carrera (Victoria), Roddy McDowall (Riley), Anne Schedeen (Helen), John Elerick (Gordon)

The Emerald Forest ★★

GB 1985 113m Technicolor Panavision
Embassy/John Boorman
An American engineer sets off to find his lost son in the jungles of Brazil.
Heavy-going, dazzling to look at, finally uncomforting dalliance with themes originally explored in Tarzan the Ape Man, e.g. would man do better to return to nature?
w Rospo Pallenberg d John Boorman
ph Philippe Rousselot m Junior Homrich, Brian Gascoyne pd Simon Holland ☆ Powers Boothe, Meg Foster, Charley Boorman
'Begins as a breathtaking fable and ends as a routine action movie. Somewhere along the way, there was a failure of the imagination.' – Roger Ebert

The Emigrants ★

Sweden 1970 191m Technicolor
Svensk Filmindustri (Bengt Forslund) original title: Utvandrarna
A family of farmers leaves famine-stricken 19th-century Sweden for America, and builds a homestead in Minnesota.
Solemn, forceful, overlong epic which while full of trial and tribulation is sufficiently well made to cast a hypnotic spell and was a major hit among Swedish-Americans.
w Jan Troell, Bengt Forslund novels Vilhelm Moberg m Erik Nordgren
ed Jan Troell d/ph/ed Jan Troell
☆ Max von Sydow, Liv Ullmann, Eddie Axberg, Svenolof Bern
'A Fordian canvas without the Fordian warmth.' – Sight and Sound
† A sequel, The New Land, shortly appeared, and this was also the title of a short-lived TV series on the subject.
Ⓐ best picture; best foreign film; Jan Troell (direction and script); Liv Ullmann

Emil and the Detectives ★

Germany 1931 80m bw
UFA
City children discover and chase a crook, who is finally arrested.
A pleasing fable for children which has survived several subsequent versions; the original is probably the best.
w Billy Wilder novel Erich Kästner
d Gerhard Lamprecht ph Werner Brandes
m Allan Grey
☆ Fritz Rasp, Kathe Haack
† Other versions: Britain 1935, directed by Milton Rosmer, with George Hayes; West Germany 1954, directed by R. A. Stemmle, with Kurt Meisel; US 1964 (Walt Disney), directed by Peter Tewkesbury, with Walter Slezak.

Emile

Canada/GB 2003 91m colour
Raven West/Meltemi/BV/Redbus/Seville (Jacquelyn Renner, Carl Bessai)
After a successful career in England, a guilt-ridden Canadian scientist returns to Vancouver to accept an honorary degree and face the family he betrayed.
Stifling family drama that is so restrained, and over-insistent on flashbacks in its telling, that it fails to engage fully with an audience.
wd Carl Bessai ph Carl Bessai m Vince Mai pd Dina Zecchel ed Julian Clarke
☆ Ian McKellen (Emile), Deborah Kara Unger (Nadia/Nadia's Mother), Theo Crane (Maria/Nadia (10 years old)), Chris William Martin (Carl), Tygh Runyan (Freddy)
'Bergman's Wild Strawberries served on a bed of maple leaves, and an unappetising dessert it is.' – Philip French, Observer

Emma ★

US 1932 73m bw
MGM
A servant marries into the family.
Predictably cosy family drama tailored for its star.
w Frances Marion, Leonard Praskins, Zelda Sears d Clarence Brown ph Oliver T. Marsh
☆ Marie Dressler, Richard Cromwell, Jean Hersholt, Myrna Loy, John Miljan, Purnell E. Pratt
'A hoke story saved by the star.' – Variety
Ⓐ Marie Dressler

'A new comedy from Jane Austen's timeless classic.'

Emma ★

GB/US 1996 120m Eastmancolor
Buena Vista/Matchmaker/Miramax/Haft (Patrick Cassavetti, Steven Haft)
A rich young woman's matchmaking goes amiss, but she finds happiness where she least expects it.
Pleasant but stolid adaptation that skates lightly over the moral concerns of the original.
wd Douglas McGrath novel Jane Austen
ph Ian Wilson m Rachel Portman
pd Michael Howells ed Lesley Walker
☆ Gwyneth Paltrow, Toni Collette, Jeremy Northam, Alan Cumming, Ewan McGregor, Greta Scacchi, Juliet Stevenson, Polly Walker, Sophie Thompson, Phyllida Law
'Jane Austen cooked up a full-banquet romantic comedy in her happiest, best-known masterpiece; writer-director Douglas McGrath offers a light, sunny, American-style tea party.' – Lisa Schwarzbaum, Entertainment Weekly
'Pretty and pleasing, but there are less patronising ways of spending your time.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times
Ⓐ Rachel Portman
Ⓐ Ruth Myers (costumes)

Emmanuelle

France 1974 94m Eastmancolor
Trinacra/Orphée (Yves Rousset-Rouard)

The bored bride of a French Embassy official in Siam is initiated by well-meaning friends into various forms of sexual activity.
Not much sexier than a Sunday colour supplement, this fashionable piece of suberoticism took off like a bomb and spawned half-a-dozen so-called sequels. Future students may well wonder why.
w Jean-Louis Richard novel Emmanuelle Arsan d Just Jaeckin ph Richard Suzuki, Marie Saunier m Pierre Bachelet
☆ Sylvia Kristel, Marika Green, Daniel Sarky, Alain Cuny

'Much hazy, soft-focus coupling in downtown Bangkok.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

Emma's War

Australia 1985 96m colour
Curzon/Belinon (Clytie Jessop, Andrena Finlay)

In the 40s, a 14-year-old girl befriends a runaway conscientious objector, after her mother takes her away from the dangers of wartime Sydney to live in a cottage in the mountains.
Mundane domestic drama of life's little disappointments.
w Peter Smalley, Clytie Jessop d Clytie Jessop ph Tom Cowan m John Williams ad Jane Norris ed Sonia Hofmann
☆ Lee Remick, Miranda Otto, Mark Lee, Terence Donovan, Donal Gibson

L'Emmerdeur ★★

France/Italy 1973 84m Eastmancolor
Miracle/Les Films Ariane/Mondex/OPIC (George Dancigers)
aka: A Pain in the A–

A hit-man, waiting in a Paris hotel to kill a witness, befriends a suicidal husband and is unable to get rid of him.
Amusing character comedy of a strong, silent man and a chattering weakling.
w Edouard Molinaro, Francis Veber play Le Contrat by Francis Veber d Edouard Molinaro ph Raoul Coutard m Jacques Brel, François Gabuber ad Jacques Brizzio ed Robert Isnardon, Monique Isnardon
☆ Lino Ventura, Jacques Brel, Caroline Cellier, Nino Castelnuovo, Jean-Pierre Darras, André Vallardy

'A black comedy par excellence. All that really need be said about it is that it begins well, sustains its chosen mood efficiently, builds to a satisfying climax and is in other words a delight from start to finish.' – David McGillivray, Films and Filming
† The film was remade by Billy Wilder as Buddy Buddy.

The Emperor and the Assassin ★

China/Japan/France 1999 162m colour
Canal+/Pricel/Shin/NDF/New Wave/CFC (Chen Kaige, Shirley Kao, Satoru Iseki)

original title: Jing Ke Ci Qin Wang

In 229 BC, a Chinese king's attempt to unite all of the country's kingdoms under his rule is opposed by his concubine after he seizes her homeland.
An epic of the violent emergence of the first Emperor of China, with some spectacular battle scenes; but the narrative gets bogged down in detail.
w Chen Kaige, Wang Peigong d Chen Kaige ph Zhao Fei m Zhao Jiping pd Tu Juhua, Lin Qi ed Zhou Xinxia cos Mo Xiaomin, Huang Qiuping martial arts d Liu Jiacheng ☆ Gong Li (Lady Zhao), Zhang Fengyi (Jing Ke), Li Xuejian (Ying Zheng, King of Qin), Sun Zhou (Dan, Prince of Yan), Wang Zhiwen (Marquis Changxin), Chen Kaige (Lu Buwei), Lu Xiaohe (General Fan Yuqi), Gu Yongfei (Queen Mother), Ding Haifeng (Qin Wuyang), Zhao Benshan (Gao Jianli), Pan Changjiang (Prison official), Zhou Xun (Blind Girl)

'A string of striking set pieces hung on a dramatically shaky clothesline.' – Derek Elley, Variety

The Emperor Jones ★

US 1933 72m bw
UA

A train porter becomes king of the Haitian jungle.
Stagey transcript of a stagey play, with acting of some interest at the time.
w DuBose Heyward play Eugene O'Neill d Dudley Murphy ph Ernest Haller m Frank Tours ☆ Paul Robeson, Dudley Digges, Frank Wilson

'For the classes rather than the masses, and questionable commercially.' – Variety

Emperor of the North: see Emperor of the North Pole

Emperor of the North Pole ★

US 1973 119m DeLuxe
TCF/Inter Hemisphere (Robert Aldrich)

GB title: Emperor of the North

In 1933 Oregon, freeloading hobos are brutally attacked by a sadistic train guard.
Unlikely melodrama with vicious but exhilarating high spots separating acres of verbiage.
w Christopher Knopf d Robert Aldrich ph Joseph Biroc m Frank de Vol
☆ Lee Marvin, Ernest Borgnine, Keith Carradine, Charles Tyner, Malcolm Atterbury, Elisha Cook Jnr

'It's hard, contrived, pointless in its thesis, repulsive in its people, and it's singularly joyless and contemptible in its glorification of the bum and freeloader.' – Judith Crist

'The biggest thing that ever happened to Bing – or to you!'

The Emperor Waltz

US 1948 106m Technicolor
Paramount (Charles Brackett)

In 1901 Austria, a countess falls for an American phonograph salesman.
Thin to the point of emaciation, this witless comedy with music, dully set-bound, proved its director's strangest and most unsatisfactory choice.
w Charles Brackett, Billy Wilder d Billy Wilder ph George Barnes m Victor Young m/ly Johnny Burke, Jimmy Van Heusen ad Hans Dreier, Franz Bachelin
☆ Bing Crosby, Joan Fontaine, Roland Culver, Lucile Watson, Richard Haydn, Harold Vermilyea, Sig Rumann, Julia Dean ♪ Victor Young

The Emperor's Candlesticks ★

US 1937 89m bw
MGM (John Considine Jnr)

In old Russia, spies on opposite sides fall in love.
Lavish romantic comedy drama, generally well handled; superior Hollywood moonshine.
w Monckton Hoffe, Herman J. Mankiewicz, Harold Goldman novel Baroness Orczy d George Fitzmaurice ph Harold Rosson m Franz Waxman
☆ William Powell, Luise Rainer, Maureen O'Sullivan, Robert Young, Frank Morgan, Douglass Dumbrille

'It's about international spies in evening dress during that long ago period when Russia had a Czar, Vienna was the scene of brilliant valasques, and the favour of royalty was something to get excited over ... it's acted with unusual seriousness midst settings of unusual extravagance.' – Variety

The Emperor's New Clothes ★ (6)

GB/Italy/Germany 2001 106m
Technicolor
Pathé/FilmFour/Redwave/Mikado/Senator (Uberto Pasolini)

After a lookalike takes his place, Napoleon escapes from St Helena and returns to Paris, where he eventually settles for a quiet life.
Genial comedy that never quite conquers; it loses its nerve too soon and declines into sentimental domesticity.
w Kevin Molony, Alan Taylor, Herbie Wave novel The Death of Napoleon by Simon Leys d Alan Taylor ph Alessio Gelsini Torresi m Rachel Portman pd Andrea Crisant ed Masahiro Hirakubo
☆ Ian Holm (Napoleon Bonaparte/Eugene Lenormand), Iben Hjelje (Pumpkin), Tim McInnerny (Dr Lambert), Tom Watson (Gerard), Nigel Terry (Montholon), Hugh Bonneville (Bertrand), Murray Melvin (Antommarchi), Eddie Marsan (Marchand), Clive Russell (Bommel)

'A surprisingly sweet and gentle comedy.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

The Emperor's New Groove ★★

US 2000 79m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Randy Fullmer)

A selfish Inca emperor, who is turned into a llama by his evil advisor, tries to regain his humanity and his throne with the aid of a friendly peasant.
Genial slapstick comedy, closer in spirit and style to Chuck Jones's cartoons than Disney's other recent features, but none the worse for that.
w David Reynolds story Chris Williams, Mark Dindal original story Roger Allers, Matthew Jacobs d Mark Dindal m John Debney, Sting, David Hartley pd Paul Felix ed Pamela Ziegenhagen-Shefland
☆ voices of: David Spade (Kuzco/Kuzco Llama), John Goodman (Pacha), Eartha Kitt (Yzma), Patrick Warburton (Kronk), Wendie Malick (Chica), Kellyann Kelso (Chaca), Eli Russell Linnetz (Tipo)

'A funny, breezy romp.' – Time
† In its four years of development, the movie went from a serious spectacular musical to a comedy. Along the way, six songs were dropped.
♪ song 'My Funny Friend and Me' (m/l Sting, David Hartley)

'Two worlds collide.'

Empire

US 2002 95m colour
Universal (Daniel Bigel, Michael Mailer)

A successful South Bronx drug dealer attempts to become a legitimate businessman Familiar tale of the downside of the American dream, directed in an overly fussy manner.
wd Franc. Reyes ph Kramer Morgenthau m Ruben Blades pd Ted Glass ed Peter C. Frank ☆ John Leguizamo (Victor), Peter Sarsgaard (Jack), Denise Richards (Trish), Vincent Laresca (Jimmy), Delilah Cotto (Carmen), Sonia Braga (Iris), Isabella Rossellini (La Colombiana)

'Serves a reheated notion on a creaky TV tray: the ethnic hero who loses track of himself once he leaves the old neighborhood behind.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

L'Empire des Sens: see Ai No Corrida

Empire of Passion: see Ai No Borei

'For they shall inherit the earth... sooner than you think!'

Empire of the Ants

US 1977 89m Movielab
AIP/Cinema 77 (Bert I. Gordon)

Giant ants menace a stretch of the Florida coast.
A long way behind Them, but as exploitation it could be worse.
w Jack Turley story H. G. Wells d Bert I. Gordon ph Reginald Morris m Dana Kaproff
☆ Joan Collins, Robert Lansing, John David Carson, Albert Salmi, Jacqueline Scott

Empire of the Passions: see Ai No Corrida

Empire of the Sun ★★★

US 1987 152m Technicolor
Robert Shapiro/Amblin (Steven Spielberg, Kathleen Kennedy, Frank Marshall)

Semi-autobiographical story of an 11-year-old English boy learning to grow up in a Japanese internment camp during World War II.
Intelligent and thought-provoking movie about the loss of childhood innocence through the horrors of war. Bale, as the boy, gives an extraordinarily believable performance
w Tom Stoppard novel J. G. Ballard d Steven Spielberg ph Allen Daviau m John Williams pd Norman Reynolds ad Charles Bishop, Maurice Fowler, Fred Hole, Norman Dorme, Huang Qia Gui ed Michael Kahn
☆ Christian Bale (Jim Graham), John Malkovich (Basie), Miranda Richardson (Mrs. Victor), Nigel Havers (Dr. Rawlins), Joe Pantoliano (Frank Demerest)

'A masterpiece of popular cinema.' – MFB
♪ Allen Daviau; editing; Norman Reynolds; John Williams; costumes (Bob Ringwood); sound
Allen Daviau; John Williams

'Selling records but not selling out.'

Empire Records

US 1995 91m colour Super 35
Warner/New Regency (Tony Ludwig, Alan Riche, Michael Nathanson, Arnon Milchan)

A day in the life of the staff of a record shop as they fight off an attempt to buy the business.
Drearily inane comedy, with uncertain performers enunciating unspeakable dialogue to an overpowering soundtrack.
w Carol Heikkinen d Allan Moyle ph Walt Lloyd m Mitchell Leib pd Peter Jamison ed Michael Chandler
☆ Anthony LaPaglia, Liv Tyler, Johnny Whitworth, Rory Cochrane, Renée Zellweger, Robin Tunney, Ethan Randall, Maxwell Caulfield, Debi Mazar

'A soundtrack in search of a movie.' – Variety

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Empire State

GB 1987 104m colour
Miracle/Virgin (Norma Heyman)

An American gangster tries to infiltrate London's East End.
Over-the-top melodrama with an irritating pictorial style.
w Ron Peck, Mark Ayres d Ron Peck ph Tony Imi m Steve Parsons pd Adrian Smith ed Chris Kelly ☆ Cathryn Harrison, Jason Hoganson, Elizabeth Hickling, Jamie Foreman, Martin Landau, Ray McAnally

The Empire Strikes Back: see Star Wars: Episode V – The Empire Strikes Back

L'Emploi du Temps ★★

France 2001 134m colour
Artificial Eye/Haut et Court/Arte France/Havas/Rhones-Alpes Cinema (Caroline Benjo)

aka: Time Out
When he loses his job, a professional man is unable to tell his family the truth and pretends he is still employed.
Engrossing study of a man whose job is his identity; when it ceases to exist he re-invents himself.
w Robin Campillo, Laurent Cantet
d Laurent Cantet ph Pierre Milon
m Jocelyn Pook ad Romain Denis
ed Robin Campillo
☆ Aurelien Recoing (Vincent), Karin Viard (Muriel), Serge Livrozet (Jean-Michel), Jean-Pierre Mangeot (Vincent's father), Monique Mangeot (Vincent's mother), Nicolas Kalsch (Julien)
'Suspense can spring from action: here it's generated by inaction. And Hitchcock couldn't do it better.' – Alexander Walker
'Like an Ingmar Bergman film with the loss of religious faith replaced with a sort of socioeconomic nebulousness.' – David Edelstein, Slate

Employee of the Month ②

USA 2006 108m
Lionsgate UK/Lionsgate/Tapestry (Andrew Panay, Peter Abrams, Robert L. Levy, Joe Simpson, Barry Katz, Brian Volk-Weiss)

Two young shelf-stackers in a huge US supermarket fight for the favours of a new female employee, who seems to prefer over-achievers.
Contrived, tiresome love triangle, with a slacker and an unctuous workaholic competing for the pneumatic Jessica Simpson. A sprinkling of comic moments, but the check-out can't come soon enough.
w Don Calame, Chris Conroy, Greg Coolidge d Greg Coolidge ph Anthony B. Richmond m John Swihart pd Jon Gary Steele ed Kimberley Ray, Tom Lewis ☆ Dane Cook (Zack), Jessica Simpson (Amy), Dax Shepard (Vince), Andy Dick (Lon)
'Lumpen American comedy.....unpleasant, mirthless.' – Philip French, Observer

Employees' Entrance ★

US 1933 75m bw
Warner

A ruthless department store manager gets his come-uppance.
Smart comedy-melodrama with solidly familiar cast.
w Robert Presnell play David Boehm d Roy del Ruth
☆ Warren William, Loretta Young, Alice White, Wallace Ford, Allen Jenkins, Marjorie Gateson
'Here's one that calls for preferred dating ... plenty to sell for the mobs.' – Variety

The Empty Beach

Australia 1985 100m Eastmancolor
Jethro (John Edwards, Timothy Read)

A private eye searches around Bondi Beach for a businessman who went missing in mysterious circumstances two years earlier.
A conventional and, for the most part, unsurprising thriller with the occasional witty line of dialogue; its hero is beaten up so often that it is clear he is in the wrong business.
w Keith Dewhurst novel Peter Corris
d Chris Thomson ph John Seale
m Martin Armiger, Red Symons
pd Lawrence Eastwood ed Lindsay Frazer
☆ Bryan Brown, Anna Maria Monticelli, Ray Barrett, John Wood, Belinda Giblin, Peter Collingwood, Nick Tate, Kerry Mack

The Empty Canvas

Italy/France 1964 118m bw
CC Champion/Concordia (Joseph E. Levine, Carlo Ponti)

original title: La Noia
A young painter, obsessed by his own spiritual emptiness, becomes paranoically jealous of his promiscuous young mistress.
An extraordinarily boring film version of a novel which needed Buñuel, if anybody, to handle it.
w Tonino Guerra, Ugo Liberatore, Damiano Damiani novel Alberto Moravia
d Damiano Damiani ph Roberto Gerardi
m Luis Enriquez Bacalov
☆ Horst Buchholz, Catherine Spaak, Bette Davis, Isa Miranda, Lea Padovani

The Empty Table

Japan 1985 142m colour
Electric Pictures/Marugen Building Group/Haiyuza Film/Herald Ace (Ginichi Kishimoto, Kyoto Oshima)

original title: Shokutaku No Nai Ie
A family disintegrates when the eldest son is arrested for terrorism.
Slow and ponderous, without much to interest a Western audience.
wd Masaki Kobayashi story Fumiko Enji ph Kozo Okazaki md Toru Takemitsu
pd Shigemasha Toda ed Nobuo Ogawa
☆ Tatsuya Nakadai, Mayumi Ogawa, Kie Nakaj, Kiichi Nakai, Takeyuki Takemoto, Shima Iwashita

En Attendant Le Deluge: see After We're Gone

En Cas de Malheur ★

France/Italy 1958 120m bw
Iena/UCIL/Incom

aka: Love Is My Profession
A wealthy, middle-aged lawyer leaves his wife for a worthless young wanton whom he is defending on a robbery charge.
Good solid melodrama with excellent credits: it caught all concerned on top form and had international success, but the theme is not in itself very interesting.
w Jean Aurenche, Pierre Bost
novel Georges Simenon d Claude Autant-Lara ph Jacques Natteau m René Cloërc ☆ Jean Gabin, Edwige Feuillère, Brigitte Bardot, Franco Interlenghi

En Compagnie de Max Linder: see Laugh with Max Linder

En Effeuillant la Marguerite: see Plucking the Daisy

En Face

France 1999 90m colour
Cinemane/M6 (Guillaume Godard, Patrick Gouyou Beauchamps, Thierry Peronne, Claude Carrere)

aka: Facing
aka: Across the Road
Life takes a sinister turn when a happily married young couple unexpectedly inherit a large house, on condition that they continue to employ the housekeeper.
Creepy psychological thriller finally overcome by its own absurdities.
w Valérie Guignabodet d Mathias Ledoux
ph Stéphane Leparc m Gekko pd Jean-Jacques Gernolle ed Jean-Pierre Baiesi ☆ Jean-Hugues Anglade (Jean Dorset), Clotilde Courau (Michelle Dorset), Christine Boisson (Clemence Richbourg), José Garcia (Hugo), Jean Benguigui (Henri de Villard), Emmanuel Salinger (Inspector Ruault), Laurence Février (Ghislaine de Villard)
'A tasty treat for the thriller lover.' – Variety

En Plein Coeur ★

France 1998 101m colour Panavision
Pathé/Légende/France2 (Alain Goldman)

aka: In All Innocence
A lawyer, who has made it to the top of his profession, leaves his wife for a young girl who is accused of armed robbery.
Enjoyably old-fashioned melodrama of a man's humiliation at the hands of a street-smart petty thief.
w Roselyne Bosch novel En Cas de Malheur by Georges Simenon d Pierre Jolivet ph Pascal Ridao m Serge Perathoner, Jannick Top pd Thierry Flamand ed Yves Deschamps cos Valerie Pozzo di Borgo
☆ Gerard Lanvin (Michel), Virginie Ledoyen (Cecile), Carole Bouquet (Viviane), Guillaume Canet (Vincent), Aurélie Vérillon (Samira), Denis Podalydes (Martorel), Jean-Pierre Lorit (Antoine)
† Simenon's novel was first filmed in 1958 by Claude Autant-Lara as Love Is My Profession/En Cas de Malheur (qv) with Jean Gabin, Edwige Feuillère and Brigitte Bardot.

En Rade ★

France 1927 60m approx bw silent
Neofilm

A Marseilles docker dreams of escaping his pent-in existence and fleeing with his mistress to the South Seas.
More realistic than Pagnol's Marius trilogy, which used the same setting, this remains an interesting slice of romantic realism, with good attention to detail.
w Alberto Cavalcanti, Claude Heymann
d Alberto Cavalcanti ph Jimmy Rogers, A. Fairli, P. Enberg
☆ Catherine Hessling, Philippe Heriat, Georges Charlia

Enchanted April

US 1935 66m bw
RKO

A woman becomes lonely when her husband turns into a successful novelist.
Thin marital comedy-drama for fans of the star.
w Samuel Hoffenstein, Ray Harris novel Elizabeth von Arnim d Harry Beaumont ☆ Ann Harding, Frank Morgan, Katharine Alexander, Reginald Owen, Jane Baxter, Jessie Ralph
'Very British in background and proceeding at all times with a lifted eyebrow.' – Variety

'Escaping From Winter In London, They Planned A Holiday In Paradise ... Everything Was Going Perfectly, Until The Men Arrived.'

Enchanted April

GB 1991 99m colour
Curzon/Miramax/BBC/Greenpoint (Ann Scott)

In the 1920s four Englishwomen, bored with their lives, take a holiday in Italy.
Stilted period movie that is pretty to look at but has little to engage the mind.
w Peter Barnes novel Elizabeth von Arnim
d Mike Newell ph Rex Maidment
m Richard Rodney Bennett pd Malcolm Thornton ed Dick Allen ☆ Miranda Richardson, Josie Lawrence, Polly Walker, Joan Plowright, Alfred Molina, Michael Kitchen, Jim Broadbent
'A slim comedy of manners about Brits discovering their emotions in Italy ... Strong cast's reliable playing is undercut by a script that dawdles over well-trod territory.' – Variety
'Crude, fussy, bland stuff gauged to please American anglophiles who watch Masterpiece Theatre.' – Philip French, Observer
Joan Plowright; Peter Barnes; costumes (Sheena Napier)

The Enchanted Cottage ★

US 1945 92m bw
RKO (Harriet Parsons)

A plain girl and a disfigured man are beautiful to each other.
Wartime updating of a sentimental old play; insufficiently well considered to be more than tolerable.
w De Witt Bodeen, Herman J. Mankiewicz play Sir Arthur Wing Pinero d John Cromwell ph Ted Tetzlaff m Roy Webb ad Albert D'Agostino, Carroll Clark ed Joseph Noriega
☆ Dorothy McGuire, Robert Young, Herbert Marshall, Mildred Natwick, Spring Byington, Hillary Brooke
'A silly film with considerable charm. It will be liked by millions, who are fully aware of its silliness while being captivated by its charm. It will be liked for the best of reasons; because it is based on a solid and humane truth.' – C. A. Lejeune
† A silent version in 1924 starred Richard Barthelmess and May McAvoy.
Roy Webb

The Enchanted Forest ★

US 1945 77m Cinecolor
PRC

Old John the Hermit talks to trees and animals, and rescues a lost child.
Surprising piece of Victorian whimsy, remarkably effective in its unambitious way, especially as a product of this studio. The best known example of Cinecolor.
w Robert Lee Johnson, John Le Bar, Lou Brock d Lew Landers ph Marcel Le Picard
m Alfred Hay Malotte
☆ Harry Davenport, Edmund Lowe, Brenda Joyce, Billy Severn

Enchantment ★

US 1948 101m bw
Samuel Goldwyn

A London house tells the story of three generations.
Yes, a house tells the story, and the leading characters are called Rollo and Lark, but this is a very appealing piece of period romantic nonsense, with the highest possible gloss upon it.

w John Patrick novel A Fugue in Time by Rumer Godden d Irving Reis ph Gregg Toland m Hugo Friedhofer ed Daniel Mandell
☆ David Niven, Teresa Wright, Evelyn Keyes, Farley Granger, Jayne Meadows, Leo G. Carroll
'Deliberate in pace, and artfully contrived as an emotional holiday, yet genuinely moving on its own terms.' – Newsweek
'Genuinely moving on its own terms, produced with a careful good taste that should disarm the critics of lachryma and old lace.' – Newsweek

Encino Man

US 1992 88m Technicolor
Warner/Hollywood Pictures/Touchwood Pacific Partners 1 (George Zaloom)
GB title: California Man
Two high-school students revive a frozen prehistoric youth who quickly adapts to the prevailing life-style.
A depressing youth comedy, though those with a Neanderthal sense of humour may be amused.
w Shawn Schepps story George Zaloom, Shawn Schepps d Les Mayfield ph Robert Brickmann m J. Peter Robinson pd James Allen ed Eric Sears, Jonathan Siegel
☆ Sean Astin, Brendan Fraser, Pauly Shore, Megan Ward, Robin Tunney, Michael DeLuise, Patrick Van Horn, Dalton James, Rick Ducommun
'Mindless would-be comedy ... insulting even within its own no-effort parameters.' – Variety
'Less funny than your own funeral.' – Washington Post

Encore ★

GB 1951 88m bw
GFD/Two Cities (Antony Darnborough)
Three more Somerset Maugham short stories introduced by the author.
The final follow-up to the success of Quartet and Trio; television playlets quickly made this kind of short story seem old-fashioned, but the standard here was high.
w T. E. B. Clarke, Arthur Macrae, Eric Ambler stories The Ant and the Grasshopper by Somerset Maugham d Pat Jackson, Anthony Pelissier, Harold French ph Desmond Dickinson m Richard Addinsell
☆ Nigel Patrick, Roland Culver, Kay Walsh, Noel Purcell, Ronald Squire, John Laurie, Glynis Johns, Terence Morgan, David Hutcheson

Encounter: see Stranger On the Prowl

Encounter at Raven's Gate

Australia 1989 93m colour J-D-C Scope
Castle Premier/Hemdale/FGH/International Film Management (Rolf de Heer, Marc Rosenberg)
A strange scientist appears to orchestrate a series of bizarre happenings at an isolated farming community.
Low budget science fiction non-thriller that rarely explains what is happening but staggers from one spooky event to the next.
w Rolf de Heer, Marc Rosenberg screenplay James Michael Vernon d Rolf de Heer ph Richard Michalak m Graham Tardif, Roman Kronen pd Judith Russell ed Suresh Ayyar
☆ Steven Vidler, Celine Griffin, Ritchie Singer, Vince Gil, Saturday Rosenberg, Max Cullen, Terry Camilleri

'A comedy for you and your next of kin!'

The End

US 1978 100m DeLuxe
UA/Lawrence Gordon (Hank Moonjean)
A selfish man finds he is dying and unsuccessfully tries to change what remains of his life.
Presumably intended as an ironic black comedy, this comes over as tasteless ham; nobody involved, least of all the director-star, has any idea how to handle it.
w Jerry Belson d Burt Reynolds
ph Bobby Byrne m Paul Williams pd Jan Scott ☆ Burt Reynolds, Dom DeLuise, Sally Field, Strother Martin, David Steinberg, Joanne Woodward, Norman Fell, Myrna Loy, Pat O'Brien, Robby Benson, Carl Reiner

End as a Man: see The Strange One

The End of August ★

US 1981 107m Metrocolor
Sewanee (Martin Jurow)
In 1900, a bored young wife takes a lover beneath her station.
Unexpectedly nostalgic wallow in days gone by, the background detail seeming more important than the personal story, and certainly very good to look at.
w Eula Seaton, Leon Heller novel The Awakening by Kate Chopin d Bob Graham
ph Robert Elswit m Shirley Walker
pd Warren Jacobson, Erin Jo Jurow
☆ Sally Sharp, Lilia Skala, David Marshall Grant, Kathleen Widdoes, Paul Roebling, Paul Shenar
'Reminiscent of nothing so much as the turning of pages in a family album.' – Jo Imeson, MFB

End of Days

US 1999 120m DeLuxe Panavision
Universal/Beacon (Armyan Bernstein, Bill Borden)
In the final moments before the new millennium, an alcoholic ex-cop must prevent Satan from impregnating a young woman and bringing about the end of days, as foretold in the Book of Revelation.
As pumped-up as its hero, this is a riotous, over-the-top mish-mash of religiosity and shock effects, like The Omen on steroids.
w Andrew W. Marlowe d Peter Hyams
ph Peter Hyams m John Debney
pd Richard Holland ed Steve Kemper sp creature fx: Stan Winston; makeup fx: Kurtzman, Nicotero & Berger EFX Group
☆ Arnold Schwarzenegger (Jericho Cane), Gabriel Byrne (The Man), Kevin Pollak (Chicago), Robin Tunney (Christine York), CCH Pounder (Detective Margie Francis), Rod Steiger (Father Kovak), Derrick O'Connor (Thomas Aquinas), Miriam Margolyes (Mabel), Udo Kier (Head Priest), Victor Varnado (Albino)
'Pointlessly nasty would-be thriller. The material is so derivative that it amounts to a tag sale of used parts from better apocalyptic movies.' – Janet Maslin, New York Times
'Dreadful enough to make most viewers consider gouging out their eyes in order to avoid seeing a second time the spectacle of the world's most wooden actor pretending to undergo a spiritual crisis.' – Mark Kermode, Sight and Sound
'A fun, all-out action movie with a sexy millennial edge.' – Bob McCabe, Empire

The End of St Petersburg ★★

USSR 1927 110m approx bw silent
Mezhrabpom-Russ
original title: Konyets Sankt-Peterburga
A peasant comes to live in St Petersburg in 1914, understands the workers' problems, and joins in the revolution.
Exhilarating propaganda, reprehensible but superbly conceived, with an especially rousing climax.
w Nathan Zarkhi d V. I. Pudovkin
ph Anatoli Golovnya, K. Vents ad S. Kozlovsky
☆ Ivan Chuvelov, Vera Baranovskaya, A. P. Christiakov
† The film was officially commissioned as part of the 10th anniversary celebrations.

The End of the Affair

GB 1954 106m bw
Columbia/Coronado (David Lewis)
In wartime London, a repressed wife has an affair with a writer but develops religious guilt which leads indirectly to her death.
Glum sinning in Greeneland; over-ambitious, miscast, and poor-looking.
w Lenore Coffee novel Graham Greene
d Edward Dmytryk ph Wilkie Cooper
m Benjamin Frankel
☆ Deborah Kerr, Van Johnson, Peter Cushing, John Mills, Stephen Murray, Nora Swinburne, Charles Goldner

'The end was just the beginning'

The End of the Affair ★

GB 1999 109m Technicolor
Columbia (Stephen Woolley, Neil Jordan)
In 1946, a writer tries to understand why his wartime affair with a married woman came to a sudden end.
On one level, this is an effective movie of love among the emotionally repressed; but the changes made to Greene's novel negate its original purpose, in demonstrating the power and purpose of religious faith.
wd Neil Jordan novel Graham Greene
ph Roger Pratt m Michael Nyman
pd Anthony Pratt ed Tony Lawson
☆ Ralph Fiennes (Maurice Bendrix), Julianne Moore (Sarah Miles), Stephen Rea (Henry Miles), Ian Hart (Mr Parkis), Samuel Bould (Lance Parkis), Jason Isaacs (Father Smythe), James Bolam (Mr Savage), Deborah Findlay (Miss Smythe)
'An awkward, edgy, tormented novel has been upholstered for comfort.' – Philip Kemp, Sight and Sound
'A movie to make you think and to feel and to live another life for nearly two hours alongside as compelling, flawed and real a group of characters as any movie can offer.' – Anwar Brett, Film Review
Julianne Moore; Roger Pratt
Neil Jordan (screenplay)

End of the Game ★

US/West Germany 1976 104m colour
TCF/Maximilian Schell
A retiring police inspector intensifies his vendetta against the crooked industrialist who thirty years earlier killed the woman they both loved.
Chess-like revenge melodrama very typical of its author, with no light relief and a few existentialist touches added for general confusion. Well made and sometimes fascinating, but finally annoying.
w Maximilian Schell, Friedrich Dürrenmatt novel The Judge and his Hangman by Friedrich Dürrenmatt d Maximilian Schell
ph Ennio Guarnieri, Klaus Koenig, Roberto Gerardi ☆ Jon Voight, Robert Shaw, Martin Ritt, Jacqueline Bisset
'A more addled, overreaching, misjudged, ill-made, wasteful, posturizing, uninteresting and tedious little epic has not toddled into town in years.' – Charles Champlin, Los Angeles Times

'It was a time when anything seemed possible–even miracles.'

The End of the Golden Weather

New Zealand 1992 103m colour
Blue Dolphin/South Pacific/New Zealand Film Commission/TV New Zealand (Christina Milligan, Ian Mune)
During a summer holiday a lonely boy becomes friendly with a retarded youth with Olympic ambitions.
A slight and uninvolving movie of the dawning of maturity.
w Ian Mune, Bruce Mason play Bruce Mason d Ian Mune ph Alun Bollinger
m Stephen McCurdy pd Ron Highfield
ed Michael Horton
☆ Stephen Fulford, Stephen Papps, Paul Gittins, Gabrielle Hammond, David Taylor, Alexandra Marshall
'An intimate and gentle coming-of-age comedy drama.' – Variety

End of the Rainbow: see Northwest Outpost

The End of the River ★

GB 1947 83m bw
GFD/The Archers (Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger)
A South American Indian boy flees to the outside world and finds life in the city as dangerous as in the jungle.
Strange but oddly impressive departure for British film-makers at this time. A commercial and critical disaster.
w Wolfgang Wilhelm novel Desmond Holdridge d Derek Twist ph Christopher Challis m Lambert Williamson ad Fred Pusey ed Brereton Porter
☆ Sabu (Manoel), Esmond Knight (Dantos), Bibi Ferreira (Teresa), Robert Douglas (Jones), Antoinette Cellier (Conceicao), Raymond Lovell (Porpino), Torin Thatcher (Lisboa), James Hayter (Chico), Orlando Martins (Harrigan), Maurice Denham (Defending Counsel), Alan Wheatley (Irygoyen), Charles Hawtrey (Raphael)

The End of the Road ★

GB 1954 77m bw
Group Three (Alfred Shaughnessy)
A retired engineer becomes frustrated by idleness, and his family contemplate sending him to an old people's home.
Reasonably absorbing study of old age, suffering from a contrived end.
w James Forsyth, Geoffrey Orme d Wolf Rilla ph Arthur Grant m John Addison ☆ Finlay Currie, Duncan Lamont, Naomi Chance, David Hannaford

End of the Road ★

US 1970 110m Eastmancolor
Contemporary/Allied Artists (Stephen F. Kesten, Terry Southern)
Released from a sanitarium, a teacher takes a job at a local university and impregnates a professor's wife.
Determinedly offbeat, intermittently

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

successful movie that was very much of its time, with the mad being regarded as truly sane.
w Aram Avakian, Dennis McGuire, Terry Southern novel John Barth d Aram Avakian ph Gordon Willis m Teo Macero pd John K. Wright ed Robert Q. Lovett
☆ Stacy Keach, Harris Yulin, Dorothy Tristan, James Earl Jones, Grayson Hall, Ray Brock, James Coco
'The cinematography by Gordon Willis is often beautiful, the optical effects are sometimes elegant, and the sets and details are often remarkably fine, but the absurdist point of view has too self-congratulatory a tone.' – Pauline Kael

End of the World ★

France 1930 105m bw
Ecran d'Art (Abel Gance) original title: La Fin du Monde
Social and economic panic is caused when a comet is about to hit the Earth.
Massive attempt by Gance to rival his Napoleon in scope. Made in German, French and English, it cost a phenomenal sum which it never regained; Gance found work hard to get in future, especially since he set himself up as a prophet.
wd Abel Gance
☆ Abel Gance, Colette Darfeuil, Sylvia Grenade, Victor Francen
'A megalomaniac's effort turned out without consideration for financial results, and containing a strange mixture of crazy stuff, with successfully directed spectacular sequences.' – Variety
† The full title is The End of the World as Seen, Heard and Rendered by Abel Gance.

The End of the World (in our usual bed in a night full of rain)

Italy 1978 104m colour
Gil Shiva/Liberty/Warner
aka: Night Full of Rain
An American lady photographer has a bumpy romance with an Italian communist journalist with expensive tastes.
Pretentious talk-piece which slowly gets nowhere.
wd Lina Wertmüller
☆ Candice Bergen, Giancarlo Giannini

'Nothing Lasts Forever'

The End of Violence ★ ③

US/Germany/France 1997 122m DeLuxe
Otto Nemenz Cameras
Artificial Eye/CiBy 2000/Road Movies/Kintop (Deepak Nayar, Wim Wenders, Nicholas Klein)
A Hollywood producer of violent action movies goes into hiding after being kidnapped and nearly killed by incompetent hitmen.
A stylish, enigmatic, paranoid thriller that touches on themes of movie violence and real-life surveillance without being particularly illuminating about either.
w Nicholas Klein d Wim Wenders ph Pascal Rabaud m Ry Cooder pd Patricia Norris ed Peter Przygodda
☆ Bill Pullman, Andie MacDowell, Gabriel Byrne, Loren Dean, Traci Lind, Daniel Benzali, K. Todd Freeman, Pruitt Taylor Vince, Peter Horton, Udo Kier, Samuel Fuller
'A cool, contemplative consideration of a hot contemporary topic.' – Variety

Endangered Species

US 1982 97m Metrocolor
MGM/Alive Enterprises (Carolyn Pfeiffer)
Citizens of a small Wyoming town discover that their cattle are being systematically murdered.
Curious melodrama which never really explains itself but seems to be carrying a message about chemical warfare. With a proper ending it could have been a good suspenser.
w Alan Rudolph, John Binder story Judson Klinger, Richard Woods d Alan Rudolph ph Paul Lohmann m Gary Wright pd Trevor Williams
☆ Robert Urich, JoBeth Williams, Paul Dooley, Hoyt Axton, Peter Coyote

'It's not over ... it's not over!'

Endless Love

US 1981 110m Technicolor
Polygram (Keith Barish)
A high school student's love for a 15-year-old girl is thwarted by circumstance and accident.
Overheated melodrama with unbelievable and unlikeable characters. Why this director should choose to make it is mysterious.
w Judith Rascoe novel Scott Spencer d Franco Zeffirelli ph David Watkin m Jonathan Tunick pd Ed Wittstein
☆ Brooke Shields, Martin Hewitt, Shirley Knight, Don Murray, Richard Kiley, Beatrice Straight
♪ title song (m/ly Lionel Richie)

Endless Night ★

GB 1971 99m Eastmancolor
BL/EMI (Leslie Gilliat)
An American girl buys an English stately home and marries a chauffeur, but is later frightened to death.
Bumpy British thriller, structurally weak and peopled by the dullest conceivable characters, but with watchably scary sequences.
wd Sidney Gilliat novel Agatha Christie ph Harry Waxman m Bernard Herrmann ☆ Hayley Mills, Hywel Bennett, George Sanders, Britt Ekland, Per Oscarsson, Lois Maxwell

The Endless Summer

US 1966 95m Technicolor
Bruce Brown Films/Columbia
A study of surfing round the world.
A documentary which became a cult for those influenced by this Californian obsession; smashing photography hardly atones for an approach so naïve as to become fatuous.
wd/ph/ed Bruce Brown

'When Was The Last Time You Stood Up And Cheered At A Movie?'

Endurance ★

US 1998 83m DeLuxe Super 35
Buena Vista/Hollywood/La Junta/Film Four/Helkon (Edward R. Pressman, Terrence Malick, Max Palevsky)
A biopic of the Ethiopian long distance runner Haile Gebrselassie.
Framed by his winning performance over 10,000 metres at the 1996 Olympics, Haile Gebrselassie's life is told in flashback in a mix of documentary and dramatic re-creation, revealing him as a natural athlete who has rarely stopped running and has managed to outpace the poverty in which he began.
wd Leslie Woodhead ph Ivan Strasburg m John Powell ed Saar Klein, Oral Norrie Ottey ☆ Haile Gebrselassie (Himself), Shawananness Gebrselassie (Haile's Mother), Yonas Zergaw (Young Haile), Tedesse Haile (Young Haile's Father), Gebrselassie Bekele (Himself), Alem Tellahun (Herself)
'Its mixture of biographical hype and social studies quickly curdles.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times
† The producers signed up eight runners in the 10,000 metres at the Atlanta Olympics so that they could make a documentary about the winner.

'An extraordinary event brought them together. A deadly obsession will tear them apart.'

Enduring Love ★★

GB/US 2004 97m DeLuxe Panavision
Pathé/Paramount Classics/UKFC/Film4/Inside Track/Free Range (Kevin Loader)
After both are involved in an accident that resulted in another's death, a lonely misfit tries relentlessly to involve himself in the life of a busy academic.
Creepy tale of an odd love triangle, in which an outsider's obsession causes a couple's relationship to disintegrate through guilt and the odd chance that has thrown them together. Michell directs this study of the unpredictability of love with understanding and encourages effective performances from an excellent cast.
w Joe Penhall novel Ian McEwan d Roger Michell ph Haris Zambarloukos m Jeremy Sams pd John-Paul Kelly ed Nicolas Gaster
☆ Daniel Craig (Joe Rose), Rhys Ifans (Jed), Samantha Morton (Claire), Bill Nighy (Robin), Susan Lynch (Rachel), Helen McCrory (Mrs Logan), Andrew Lincoln (TV Producer), Corin Redgrave (Professor)
'The slightly hateful portrait of a smooth London couple whose smug lives are punctured by one surreal incident and a crazy stranger, is as fresh on screen as it is on McEwan's page.' – James Christopher, Times

Enemies, a Love Story ★

US 1989 120m colour
Fox/Morgan Creek Productions (Paul Mazursky)
The life of a Jew who survived the concentration camps becomes tragically entangled with that of three women: his first wife, whom he thought was dead, his second wife and his mistress.
Rushed in its telling, despite its length, and lacking in conviction.
w Roger L. Simon, Paul Mazursky novel Isaac Bashevis Singer d Paul Mazursky ph Fred Murphy m Maurice Jarre pd Pato Guzman ed Stuart Pappe
☆ Anjelica Huston, Ron Silver, Lena Olin, Margaret Sophie Stein, Judith Malina, Alan King, Rita Karin, Phil Leeds
♪ Anjelica Huston, Lena Olin; screenplay

Enemies of the Public: see Public Enemy

Enemy Agent: see British Intelligence (1940)

'A battle between two nations became a conflict between two men.'

Enemy at the Gates ★

Germany/GB/Ireland/US 2001 131m DeLuxe Panavision
Pathé/Mandalay/KC Medien/MP Film/DOS/Swanford/Little Bird
At the siege of Stalingrad, a duel develops between two snipers, one a Russian worker, the other a German aristocrat.
Muddled war movie with some effective moments, but suffering fatally from hackneyed dialogue and miscasting.
w Alain Godard, Jean-Jacques Annaud d Jean-Jacques Annaud ph Robert Fraisse m James Horner pd Wolf Kroeger ed Noelle Boisson, Humphrey Dixon
☆ Jude Law (Vassili Zaitsev), Joseph Fiennes (Danilov), Rachel Weisz (Tania), Bob Hoskins (Krushchev), Ed Harris (Major Koenig), Ron Perlman (Kulikov), Gabriel Marshall-Thomson (Sasha), Eva Mattes (Mrs Filipov)
'Any flaws in execution pale against those moments when the film brings history to vital life.' – Peter Travers, Rolling Stone

The Enemy Below ★

US 1957 98m Technicolor Cinemascope
TCF (Dick Powell)
During World War II an American destroyer in the South Atlantic is involved in a cat-and-mouse operation with a U-boat.
Well-staged, unsurprising naval thriller with good pace and a pat let's-not-be-nasty-to-each-other ending.
w Wendell Mayes novel Commander D. A. Rayner d Dick Powell ph Harold Rosson m Leigh Harline
☆ Robert Mitchum, Curt Jurgens, Theodore Bikel, David Hedison

Enemy from Space: see Quatermass II

Enemy Mine

US 1985 108m DeLuxe Amiflex Widescreen
Kings Road/TCF (Stephen Friedman)
A space pilot goes down on Dracon and makes friends with his lizard-like captor.
All talk and little action, this is a way-out piece of do-goodery which tests the patience.
w Edward Khmara story Barry Longyear d Wolfgang Petersen ph Tony Imi m Maurice Jarre pd Rolf Zehetbauer ed Hannes Nikel
☆ Dennis Quaid, Lou Gossett Jnr, Brion James, Richard Marcus, Carolyn McCormick

An Enemy of the People ★

US 1977 103m Metrocolor
First Artists (George Schaefer)
A small-town doctor discovers that for commercial reasons his colleagues propose to conceal the fact that the local spa is contaminated by tannery waste.
Ibsen's plot is well intentioned but well worn – it more or less served as the starting point for Jaws – so in any modern version the acting is all. Here it isn't enough, though the star so badly wanted to do it that arguments and sulks kept him off the screen for three years.
w Alexander Jacobs play Arthur Miller's version of the play by Henrik Ibsen d George Schaefer ph Paul Lohmann m Leonard Rosenman
☆ Steve McQueen, Charles Durning, Bibi Andersson, Eric Christmas, Richard Bradford, Richard A. Dysart
'The main thing I was shooting for was not to make bucks but to have something I could believe in.' – Steve McQueen

An Enemy of the People ★

India 1989 100m Eastmancolor
Contemporary/Electric/National Film Development Corp of India (Anil Gupta) original title: Ganashatru
A doctor encounters local hostility when he complains of polluted water supplies.
Less than successful transfer of Ibsen's play to modern-day India, in a studio-bound production.
wd Satyajit Ray play Henrik Ibsen

ph Barun Raha m Satyajit Ray ad Ashok Bose ed Dulal Dutta ☆ Soumitra Chatterjee, Dhritiman Chatterjee, Ruma Guhathakurta, Mamata Shankar, Dipankar Dey, Subhendu Chatterjee

Enemy of the State

US 1998 127m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Scott Free (Don Simpson/Jerry Bruckheimer)

Government agents target a lawyer who inadvertently has incriminating evidence against them.
Energetic, paranoid thriller preoccupied with surveillance methods; its narrative becomes increasingly implausible and substitutes speed for sense.
w David Marconi d Tony Scott ph Dan Mindel m Trevor Rabin, Harry Gregson-Williams pd Benjamin Fernandez ed Chris Lebenzon
☆ Will Smith, Gene Hackman, Jon Voight, Lisa Bonet, Regina King, Stuart Wilson, Tom Sizemore, Loren Dean, Barry Pepper, Ian Hurt, Jake Busey, Scott Caan, Jason Lee, Gabriel Byrne, James Le Gros

'The movie goes like the wind, but it's more a technological exercise than anything else.' – David Denby, New Yorker

L'Enfance Nue

**

France 1968 80m colour
Stephan Films (Mag Bodard, François Truffaut, Claude Berri, Jo and Samy Siritzky) aka: Naked Childhood
US title: Me

Rejected by his foster parents because of his difficult behaviour, a 10-year-old boy finds temporary refuge with an elderly couple.
A restrained, unsentimental account of a troubled and troublesome childhood, shot in a naturalistic style with a non-professional cast.
w Maurice Pialat, Arlette Langmann d Maurice Pialat ph Claude Beausoleil m Wagner
☆ Michel Tarrazon, Rene Thierry, Marie-Louis Thierry, Henri Puff, Maurice Coussoneau, Marie Marc, Michel Soulé

L'Enfant Sauvage

*

France 1970 84m bw
UA/Films du Carrosse (Marcel Berbert)

US title: The Wild Child

In 1797, a scientist tames and studies a young boy who has mysteriously been living wild in the forest.
Slightly flat but generally interesting reconstruction of a true event, the same one which subsequently inspired TV projects such as Stalk the Wild Child and Lucan.
w François Truffaut, Jean Gruault d François Truffaut ph Nestor Almendros m Vivaldi ☆ Jean-Pierre Cargol, François Truffaut, Jean Dasté, Françoise Seigner

Les Enfants du Marais

***

France 1998 110m colour Panavision
UGC/Fechner/France2/Rhone-Alpes/KJB (Jean-Claude Bourlat)

GB title: Children of the Marshland

An old woman remembers life when she was young in the 1930s, living in a hut on the marshes in rural France.
Charming, nostalgic recreation of a vanished rural life, and the enjoyment of friendship and simple pleasures, tinged with a sense of melancholy and loss.
w Sebastian Japrisot novel Georges Montforez d Jean Becker ph Jean-Marie Dreujou m Pierre Bachelet ad Therese Ripaud ed Jacques Witta cos Sylvie de Segonzac
☆ Jacques Villeret (Riton), Jacques Gamblin (Garris), Andre Dussollier (Amedee), Michel Serrault (Pepé), Isabelle Carré (Marie), Eric Cantona (Jo Sardi)

'The values celebrated seem stale and contrived rather than warm and vibrant.' – Ginette Vincendeau, Sight and Sound

Les Enfants du Paradis

****

France 1945 195m bw
Pathe (Fred Orain, Raymond Borderic)

US title: Children of Paradise

In the 'theatre street' of Paris in the 1840s, a mime falls in love with the elusive Garance, but her problems with other men keep them apart.
A magnificent evocation of a place and a period, this thoroughly enjoyable epic melodrama is flawed only by its lack of human warmth and of a real theme. It remains nevertheless one of the cinema's most memorable films.
w Jacques Prévert d Marcel Carné ph Roger Hubert m Maurice Thiriet, Joseph Kosma, G. Mouque ad Alexandre Trauner, Léon Barsacq, Raymond Gabutti ed Henri Rust, Madeleine Bonin cos Mayo ☆ Arletty, Jean-Louis Barrault, Pierre Brasseur, Marcel Herrand, Maria Casarès, Louis Salou, Pierre Renoir, Gaston Modot, Jane Marken

'A magnificent scenario ... Prévert is as adept with wit as with poignancy ... I don't believe a finer group of actors was ever assembled on film' – John Simon
'Few achievements in the world of cinema can equal it.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

† A Region 1 two-disc set includes commentaries by film scholars Brian Stonehill and Charles Affron,.
Jacques Prévert

Les Enfants Terribles

*

France 1950 100m bw Jean-Pierre Melville

aka: The Strange Ones

The hothouse relationship of an adolescent brother and sister leads to tragedy.
Rough-edged, stage-bound but occasionally quite powerful exploration into familiar Cocteau territory.
wd Jean-Pierre Melville novel Jean Cocteau ph Henri Decaë m Bach, Vivaldi md Paul Bonneau ad Mathys ed Monique Bonnot
☆ Nicole Stéphane (Elisabeth), Edouard Dermithe (Paul), Renée Cosima (Dargelos/Agathe), Jacques Bernard (Gerard), Roger Gaillard (Gerard's uncle), Melvyn Martin (Michael)

'Gripping, dream-like attraction.' – Variety

L'Enfer: see Hell

L'Enfer

**

France 1993 100m Eastmancolor
Mayfair/MK2/CED/France 3/Cinemanuel/Canal (Marin Karmitz)

aka: Torment

A hotelier becomes insanely jealous of his wife and imagines that she is having affairs with locals and the guests.
Chilling study of a disintegrating marriage, and a husband's descent into a mad hell of his own making, though the ambiguous ending is not entirely satisfactory.
w Henri-Georges Clouzot, Jose-Andre Lacour, Claude Chabrol d Claude Chabrol ph Bernard Zitzermann m Matthieu Chabrol ad Emile Ghigo ed Monique Fardoulis ☆ Emmanuelle Béart, François Cluzet, Nathalie Cardone, André Wilms, Marc Lavoine, Christiane Minazzoli, Dora Doll, Mario David, Jean-Pierre Cassel

'Under the film's sunny surface and vacational locations this is a winter's tale about the long autumn of love that has a casebook darkness to it.' – Tom Hutchinson, Film Review

† Director Henri-Georges Clouzot began making the film from his script in 1964, with Romy Schneider and Serge Reggiani, but had to stop when Reggiani became ill. He was rehearsing with a new star, Jean-Louis Trintignant, when he suffered a heart attack and had to abandon the production; he never tried again, despite living for another 13 years.

'The first story of the double-fisted DA who tore apart the evil dynasty that peddled murder for a price!'

The Enforcer

***

US 1950 87m bw
United States Pictures/Warner (Milton Sperling)

GB title: Murder, Inc

A crusading District Attorney tracks down the leader of a gang which murders for profit.
Extremely suspenseful and well-characterized police yarn based on fact. One of the very best of its kind.
w Martin Rackin d Bretaigne Windust ph Robert Burks m David Buttolph ad Charles H. Clarke ed Fred Allen
☆ Humphrey Bogart (Martin Ferguson), Everett Sloane (Albert Mendoza), Zero Mostel (Big Babe Lazich), Ted de Corsia (Joseph Rico), Roy Roberts (Capt. Frank Nelson), King Donovan (Sgt. Whitlow)

'A tough, very slickly-made thriller with a host of fine character parts.' – NFT, 1969
'Absorbing and exciting, with little of the violence that so often disfigures films of this kind.' – Richard Mallett, Punch
'The first fifteen minutes is as powerful and rapid a sketch of tension as I can recall for seasons. The last fifteen might make Hitch weep with envy.' – Observer † Raoul Walsh directed much of the film, uncredited.

The Enforcer

US 1976 96m DeLuxe Panavision
Warner/Malpaso (Robert Daley)

Brutal Inspector Callahan of the San Francisco police redeems himself by rounding up a group of psychopathic hoodlums.
Dirty Harry, phase three: for hardened veterans only.
w Stirling Silliphant, Dean Riesner d James Fargo ph Richard Glouner m Jerry Fielding ☆ Clint Eastwood, Tyne Daly, Harry Guardino, Bradford Dillman, John Mitchum, DeVeren Bookwalter, John Crawford

'A new low in mindless violence is reached in this film, which is so bad it would be funny if it were not for the gut-thumping killings from beginning to end.' – William F. Fore, Film Information

'An Undercover Agent With Fists Of Fury!'

The Enforcer (dubbed)

Hong Kong 1995 100m colour
Dimension/Win's Entertainment (Wong Jing, Tiffeny Chen)

original title: Gei Ba Ba De Xin
aka: Jet Li's The Enforcer

An undercover Beijing cop leaves his sick wife and young son to go to Hong Kong to infiltrate the gang of the local crime boss.
A film that is unlikely to appeal greatly to Li's action fans: the emphasis of a familiar, though confusing, narrative is on a sentimental family drama.
w Sandy Shaw story Wong Jing d Corey Yuen (Yeun Kwai) ph Tom Lau m Nicholas Rivera, Chow Kam-Cheung ad Ben Lau ed Angie Lin
☆ Jet Li (Kung Wei), Anita Mui (Inspector Fong), Xie Miao (Kung Ku), Yu Rong-Guang, Ko Shou-Lian, Damien Lau, Low Hou-Kang, Lo Hen-Chow

The Engagement

*

GB 1970 44m Technicolor
Memorial (David Barber)

A young executive spends a devastating afternoon trying to borrow money to pay for an engagement ring which cost more than he expected.
Brisk little comedy which doesn't wear out its welcome.
w Tom Stoppard d Paul Joyce ph Tony Spratling m John Dankworth
☆ David Warner, Michael Bates, George Innes, Juliet Harmer, Paul Curran, Barbara Couper, Peter Copley

England Made Me

***

GB 1972 100m Eastmancolor Panavision
Hemdale/Atlantic (Jack Levin)

In 1935 a sponging Englishman becomes involved through his sister with a German financier.
Somewhat altered from the novel, this unusual film remains a lively, intelligent character melodrama.
w Desmond Cory, Peter Duffell novel Graham Greene d Peter Duffell ph Ray Parslow m John Scott ad Peter Young ed Malcolm Cooke
☆ Peter Finch (Eric Krogh), Michael York (Anthony Farrant), Hildegarde Neil (Kate Farrant), Michael Hordern (F. Minty), Joss Ackland (Haller)

'In memory, love lies forever.'

The English Patient

**

US 1996 162m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Tiger Moth/Miramax (Saul Zaentz)

Tended by a devoted nurse in a deserted Italian villa at the end of the Second World War, a dying Austrian count recalls his doomed affair with the English wife of a colleague.
Those who believe that love excuses any behaviour will succumb to this glossy romance, made on an epic scale and in that Hollywood tradition where heroes emerge from a three-day walk across the desert looking slightly tousled, and derelict pianos remain miraculously in tune; others, despite the skills on display, may find its celebration of betrayal less entrancing.
wd Anthony Minghella novel Michael Ondaatje ph John Seale m Gabriel Yared pd Stuart Craig ed Walter Murch
☆ Ralph Fiennes, Juliette Binoche, Willem Dafoe, Kristin Scott-Thomas, Naveen Andrews, Colin Firth, Julian Wadham, Jürgen Prochnow

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆Cast in approximate order of importance · †Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'A respectable, intelligent, but less-than-stirring adaptation of an imposingly dense and layered novel.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'A tour de force so haunting that other films can't exorcise the memory of its radiant cast, exquisite craftsmanship or complex system of metaphors.' – Rita Kempley, Washington Post

† Juliette Binoche won the best actress award for her performance at the Berlin Film Festival in 1997.

Best picture; Anthony Minghella (as director); Juliette Binoche; John Seale; Walter Murch; Gabriel Yared; Ann Roth (costumes); Stuart Craig; sound

Kristin Scott-Thomas; Ralph Fiennes; Anthony Minghella (as adaptor)

Best film; Anthony Minghella (best adapted screenplay); Juliette Binoche; John Seale; Gabriel Yared; Walter Murch

English without Tears ★

GB 1944 89m bw
GFD/Two Cities (Anatole de Grunwald, Sydney Box)
US title: Her Man Gilbey

During World War II a rich ATS girl falls for her butler who has become a lieutenant.

Wispy satirical comedy with amusing moments, chiefly interesting for the pre-war League of Nations sequences.

w Terence Rattigan, Anatole de Grunwald d Harold French ph Bernard Knowles

☆ Lilli Palmer, Michael Wilding, Margaret Rutherford, Penelope Dudley Ward, Albert Lieven, Roland Culver, Peggy Cummins

The Englishman Who Went Up a Hill But Came Down a Mountain ★

GB 1995 99m colour Panavision
Buena Vista/Parallax (Sarah Curtis)

In 1917, two English surveyors working in a Welsh village discover that the highest local point cannot be classified as a mountain because it is 16 feet short of the necessary 1,000 feet; the outraged villagers decide to make good the discrepancy.

Amiable comedy in a quaintly English tradition, with shrewd rural characters outwitting smarter urban outsiders; inevitably, it suggests Ealing comedies, but the best of those avoided period settings.

wd Christopher Monger story Ifor David Monger, Ivor Monger ph Vernon Layton m Stephen Endelman pd Charles Garrad ed David Martin

☆ Hugh Grant, Tara Fitzgerald, Colm Meaney, Ian McNeice, Ian Hart, Kenneth Griffith, Tudor Vaughn, Hugh Vaughn

'Certainly a charming piece of work, a film that fits in tidily with our pseuding national cinema.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

Enid Is Sleeping

US 1989 102m DeLuxe
First Independent/Vestron/Davis (John A. Davis, Howard Malin)

GB title: Over Her Dead Body

Having accidentally killed her sister, who discovered her in bed with her husband, a woman tries to dispose of the body without arousing suspicion.

Unoriginal attempt at a black comedy, lacking wit and timing; Hitchcock did it far better with The Trouble With Harry.

w Maurice Phillips, A. J. Tipping, James Whaley d Maurice Phillips ph Affonso Beato m Craig Safan pd Paul Peters ed Malcolm Campbell

☆ Elizabeth Perkins, Judge Reinhold, Jeffrey Jones, Rhea Perlman, Michael J. Pollard, Brion James, Charles Tyner

'Neither farcical enough nor sufficiently outrageous to justify the sterling efforts of the cast to inject some much-needed energy into the flatly directed scenes.' – Nigel Floyd, Sight and Sound

Enigma

GB/France 1982 101m colour
Embassy/Filmcrest/Peter Shaw

An East German refugee is recruited by the CIA to return to East Berlin.

Threadbare spy stuff with an indecipherable plot.

w John Briley novel Michael Barak d Jeannot Szwarc ph Jean-Louis Picavet m Marc Wilkinson

☆ Martin Sheen, Brigitte Fossey, Sam Neill, Derek Jacobi, Michel Lonsdale, Frank Finlay, Michael Williams, Warren Clarke

'Well made but insufficiently exciting.' – Variety

'The mystery is why they bothered.' – Guardian

'Crack the Code.'

Enigma

GB/US/Netherlands/Germany 2001 118m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Intermedia/Senator/Meespierson/Jagged Films/Broadway (Lorne Michaels, Mick Jagger)

In 1943, at the headquarters of British intelligence, a mathematician tries to break a new German code while searching for his missing lover.

Stolidly old-fashioned movie, in the style of Second World War propaganda films, that segues into an even more old-fashioned spy yarn of derring-do.

w Tom Stoppard d Michael Apted ph Seamus McGarvey m John Barry pd John Beard ed Rick Shaine cos Shirley Russell

☆ Dougray Scott (Tom Jericho), Kate Winslet (Hester Wallace), Saffron Burrows (Claire Romilly), Jeremy Northam (Wigram), Nikolaj Coster Waldau (Puck), Tom Hollander (Logie), Corin Redgrave (Admiral Trowbridge), Matthew MacFadyen (Cave), Robert Pugh (Skynner)

'It's an impatient film-goer who won't be hooked by the tale of deception, treachery and double (or treble) dealing.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

'A flat, plodding picture...the movie is a muddle.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

The Enigma of Kaspar Hauser ★★★★

West Germany 1974 110m colour
Contemporary/Zud Deutscher Rudfunk/Werner Herzog

original title: Jeder für sich und Gott gegen alle aka: The Mystery of Kaspar Hauser; Every Man for Himself and God against All

In the 1820s, a 16-year-old boy, who has spent his life isolated from others, is found abandoned in the town square of Nuremberg.

Based on a true story, a disturbing and affecting account of an untouched mind confronting humanity at its best and worst and exposing the limitations of society's response, with a fiercely convincing performance in the title role.

wd Werner Herzog ph Jörg Schmidt-Reitwein m Pachelbel, Albinoni and others ad Henning V. Gierke ed Beate Mainka-Jellinghaus

☆ Bruno S. (Kaspar Hauser), Walter Ladengast (Daumer), Brigitte Mira (Kathe), Willy Semmelrogge (Circus Director), Gloria Dör (Madame Hiltel), Volker Prechtel (Hiltel), Hans Musaus (Unknown Man)

'A double fable, intermingling the stultifying effects of bourgeois society and the cruelty of a demonic universe.' – Pauline Kael

'Herzog's direction is not free of the hallmarks of contemporary German film-making, an estheticism, a slow pace, an arrogance toward dramatic concept that almost supply an imaginary soundtrack accompanying the picture saying: "You can see that this film was made by an intellectual, can't you?"' – Stanley Kauffmann

† The film was awarded the Special Jury Prize at the Cannes Film Festival in 1975.

†† The Region 1 DVD includes commentary by Werner Herzog and Norman Hill.

L'Ennui ★★

France 1998 122m colour
Artificial Eye/Gemini/Ima (Paulo Branco)

A depressed philosopher, who has eschewed love in order to finish writing a book, begins an affair with a young girl who bores, but obsesses, him.

Intriguing drama of two people who can only communicate in bed, of an intellectual almost destroyed by his jealousy and desire for a sensual, unthinking woman.

w Laurence Ferreira Barbosa, Cédric Kahn novel Alberto Moravia d Cédric Kahn ph Pascal Marti pd François Abelanet ed Yann Dedet cos Françoise Clavet

☆ Charles Berling (Martin), Sophie Guillemin (Cécilia), Arielle Dombasle (Sophie), Robert Kramer (Meyers), Alice Grey (Cécilia's Mother), Maurice Antoni (Cécilia's Father), Tom Ouedraogo (Momo)

'This devastating film goes as far as a movie ever has in exploring the kind of eroticized panic that can explode into violence.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

'Everyone has a limit.'

Enough

US 2002 115m DeLuxe Panavision
Columbia/Irwin Winkler, Rob Cowan

A woman goes on the run from her abusive husband and learns to stand up for herself.

Contrived and tacky domestic drama of a familiar kind that is always predictable and never interesting.

w Nicholas Kazan d Michael Apted ph Rogier Stoffers m David Arnold pd Doug Kraner ed Rick Shaine

☆ Jennifer Lopez (Slim), Billy Campbell (Mitch), Juliette Lewis (Ginny), Dan Futterman (Joe), Fred Ward (Jupiter), Bill Cobbs (Jim Toller), Tessa Allen (Gracie), Noah Wyle (Robbie)

'The latest model in the recent spate of underwhelming female star vehicles.' – Robert Koehler, Variety

'Clumsy, obvious, preposterous, the movie will likely set the cause of woman warriors back decades.' – Peter Rainer, New York

'It's Just Business'

Enron: The Smartest Guys in the Room ★★★

US 2005 113m colour
HDNet (Alex Gibney, Jason Kliot, Susan Motamed)

Documentary on the scandalous collapse of Enron, which at one time was America's seventh largest company, and the overreaching executives responsible.

Engrossing account of the unacceptable face of capitalism, detailing the financial dealings that, driven by corporate greed, led to the company's inflated share price and subsequent ruination.

wd Alex Gibney ph Maryse Alberti m Matt Hauser ed Alison Elwood

☆ Peter Coyote (Narrator)

'By turns amazing, amusing and appalling.' – Variety

'This is not a political documentary. It is a crime story. No matter what your politics, Enron: The Smartest Guys in the Room will make you mad.' – Roger Ebert

documentary

Ensayo de un Crimen: see The Criminal Life of Archibaldo de la Cruz

Ensign Pulver

US 1964 104m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (Joshua Logan)

Further naval misadventures of the character from Mr Roberts.

Threadbare naval comedy with every expected cliché.

w Joshua Logan, Peter S. Feibleman play Joshua Logan, Thomas Heggen d Joshua Logan ph Charles Lawton m George Duning

☆ Robert Walker, Burl Ives, Walter Matthau, Tommy Sands, Millie Perkins, Kay Medford, Larry Hagman, James Farentino, James Coco, Al Freeman Jnr

Entebbe: Operation Thunderbolt: see Operation Thunderbolt

Enter Laughing ★

US 1966 111m Technicolor
Columbia/Acre/Sajo (Carl Reiner, Joseph Stein)

In New York in the thirties, a young man about to train as a pharmacist decides to become an actor instead.

Strident Jewish comedy based on the writer-director's own youthful experiences, which might have been more effectively strained by another hand. The talent is there, though.

w Joseph Stein, Carl Reiner play Carl Reiner d Carl Reiner ph Joseph Biroc m Quincy Jones

☆ Reni Santoni, José Ferrer, Shelley Winters, Elaine May, Jack Gilford, Janet Margolin, David Opatoshu, Michael J. Pollard, Rob Reiner

Enter the Dragon ★

US/Hong Kong 1973 99m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Concord (Fred Weintraub, Paul Heller)

A master of martial arts is enlisted by British intelligence to stop opium smuggling.

The first Hollywood-based Kung Fu actioner; not bad, on the lines of a more violent James Bond.

w Michael Allin d Robert Clouse ph Gilbert Hubbs m Lalo Schifrin

☆ Bruce Lee, John Saxon, Shih Kien, Jim Kelly, Bob Wall

'A good-natured example of the pleasures of schlock art.' – Pauline Kael

The Entertainer ★

GB 1960 96m bw
BL/Bryanston/Woodfall/Holly (John Croydon)

A faded seaside comedian reflects on his failure as an entertainer and as a man.
Even with Olivier repeating his stage triumph, or perhaps because of it, this tragi-comedy remains defiantly theatrical and does not take wing on film.
w John Osborne, Nigel Kneale play John Osborne d Tony Richardson ph Oswald Morris m John Addison ☆ Laurence Olivier, Joan Plowright, Brenda de Banzie, Roger Livesey, Alan Bates, Shirley Anne Field, Albert Finney, Thora Hird, Daniel Massey
'No amount of deafening sound effects and speciously busy cutting can remove one's feeling that behind this distracting façade of heightened realism lurks a basic lack of confidence.' – Peter John Dyer
† A 1975 version for television starred Jack Lemmon.
Laurence Olivier

Entertaining Angels: The Dorothy Day Story

US 1996 111m DeLuxe
Warner/Paulist (Ellwood E. Kieser)

A left-wing journalist and intellectual becomes a Catholic, founds the crusading The Catholic Worker newspaper and establishes soup kitchens and shelters for the homeless.
A bland biopic about an interesting woman, short on conflict, but big on uplift.
w John Wells d Michael Ray Rhodes ph Michael Fash m Bill Conti, Ashley Irwin ed George Folsey Jnr, Geoffrey Rowland ☆ Moira Kelly, Heather Graham, Melinda Dillon, Martin Sheen, Lenny von Dohlen, Paul Lieber, Boyd Kestner, James Lancaster, Brian Keith
'A stultifying bore.' – Film Review
† The film's production company is a branch of the Paulist Fathers, 'dedicated to the communication of spiritual values through modern media'.

Entertaining Mr Sloane ★

GB 1969 94m Technicolor
Pathé/Canterbury (Douglas Kentish)

A lodger attracts the amorous attention of both the middle-aged daughter and older son of the house.
A Gothic tour de force of bad taste which worked better on the stage but has its moments.
w Clive Exton play Joe Orton d Douglas Hickox ph Wolfgang Suschitzky m Georgie Fame ☆ Beryl Reid, Harry Andrews, Peter McEnery, Alan Webb
'What works as an offbeat comedy in the theatre fails to grip in the cinema where the darkness is made light. The direction becomes as brash as the dayglo colours of Beryl Reid's see-through mini-dress.' – Ken Russell, Fire over England

The Entity

US 1981 125m Technicolor Panavision
TCF/Pelleport Investors/American Cinema (Harold Schneider)

A young mother is attacked and raped by an invisible entity which may come from her own id.
Unpleasant nonsense, way overlong but with the occasional well-staged scene for those who can stay the course.
w Frank DeFelitta novel Frank DeFelitta d Sidney J. Furie ph Stephen H. Burum m Charles Bernstein pd Charles Rosen ed Frank J. Urioste
☆ Barbara Hershey, Ron Silver, David Labiosa, George Coe, Jacqueline Brookes Entr'acte ★★

France 1924 20m approx bw silent
Ballets Suédois

Various eccentric characters become involved in a crazy chase.
Hilarious nonsense short, devised originally to be shown between the acts of a Dadaist ballet. Very clearly the start of a famous directorial career.
w Francis Picabia ph J. Berliet d/ed René Clair ☆ Jean Borlin, Inge Fries, Francis Picabia, Man Ray, Georges Auric, Marcel Achard, Marcel Duchamp

'The trap is set.'

Entrapment ★

US/Germany 1999 110m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/New Regency/Fountainbridge (Michael Hertzberg, Sean Connery, Rhonda Tollefson)

A female insurance investigator sets a trap for the world's greatest thief by asking him to steal a Chinese mask worth millions.
A thriller-cum-romantic-comedy with the emphasis on glamour; it has little else to offer.
w Ron Bass, William Broyles d Jon Amiel ph Phil Meheux m Christopher Young pd Norman Garwood ed Terry Rawlings
☆ Sean Connery (Robert 'Mac' MacDougal), Catherine Zeta-Jones (Virginia 'Gin' Baker), Ving Rhames (Thibadeaux), Will Patton (Hector Cruz), Maury Chaykin (Conrad Greene), Kevin McNally (Haas), Terry O'Neill (Quin), David Yip (Chief of Police)
'No need to believe the outlandish details of the story; there's enough verve and charisma to the stars to make the escapade easy on the eyes.' – Janet Maslin, New York Times
'Preposterous whimsy that sort of gets by thanks to lustrous settings, slick production values and, especially, its ultra-attractive stars.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Entre Nous: see Coup de Foudre

Entre Onze Heures et Minuit ★

France 1948 103m bw
Francinex (Jacques Roitfeld)

A police detective solves his case by impersonating one of the victims.
Twisty, elaborate murder mystery, very competently performed but a little overlong.
w Henri Decoin, Marcel Rivet novel Le Sosie de la Morgue by Claude Luxel d Henri Decoin ph Nicolas Hayer m Henri Saguet
☆ Louis Jouvet, Madeleine Robinson, Robert Arnoux, Gisèle Casadesus

Entre Tinieblas: see Dark Habits

Entrée des Artistes ★

France 1938 100m bw
Regina

Jealousies among the students at the Paris Conservatory lead to murder.
Predictable but well-made audience pleaser.
w Henri Jeanson, André Cayatte d Marc Allégret
☆ Louis Jouvet, Odette Joyeux, Claude Dauphin, Janine Darcy, Carette, Dalio, Sylvie

'Success didn't go to his head, it went to his neighbor.'

Envy

US 2004 99m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/DreamWorks/Castle Rock/Baltimore/Spring Creek Pictures (Barry Levinson, Paula Weinstein)

A man begins to envy the success of his best friend and former workmate who becomes a multi-millionaire by inventing a spray to make dog poo disappear..
Misfiring movie in need of comic invention; its tone veers between slapstick and sinister.
w Steve Adams d Barry Levinson ph Tim Maurice Jones m Mark Mothersbaugh pd Victor Kempster ed Stu Linder, Blair Daily
☆ Ben Stiller (Tim Dingman), Jack Black (Nick Vanderpark), Rachel Weisz (Debbie Dingman), Amy Poehler (Natalie Vanderpark), Christopher Walken (J-Man)
'Ultimately more amusing than hilarious, and sometimes less than that.' – J. Hoberman, Village Voice

'We know it's big. We measured.'

Epic Movie

US 2007 85m
TCF/New Regency/Schiff (Paul Schiff)

Spoof of films, not all of them epic.
Dismally unfunny, to the point of being rancid.
wd Jason Friedberg, Aaron Seltzer ph Shawn Maurer m Edward Shearmur pd Wiliam Elliott ad Daniel A. Lomino ed Peck Prior ☆ Kal Penn (Edward), Adam Campbell (Peter), Jayma Mays (Lucy), Faune Chambers (Susan)

Equilibrium

US 2002 107m colour
Momentum/Blue Tulip (Jan De Bont, Lucas Foster)

In a future totalitarian state, where the population takes emotion-suppressing drugs, an enforcer turns against the system.
Risible science-fiction that borrows from classic works without understanding them and substitutes sentimentality for sense; the frequent fights look like rehearsals from The Matrix.
wd Kurt Wimmer ph Dion Beebe m Klaus Bedelt pd Wolf Kroeger ed Tom Rolfe, William Yeh
☆ Christian Bale (John Preston), Emily Watson (Mary O'Brian), Taye Diggs (Brandt), Angus MacFayden (Dupont), Sean Bean (Partridge), Matthew Harbour (Robbie Preston), William Fichtner (Jurgen)
'The fight scenes are technically impressive, but as for the rest: you may find yourself heading for the perfect equilibrium of sleep.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'Like a remake of "1984" by someone who's seen "The Matrix" 25 times while eating Twinkies and doing methamphetamines.' – Stephen Hunter, Washington Post

'Everyone Has A Dark Side. Henry's About To Meet His.'

Equinox ★

US 1992 110m colour Panavision
Metro Tartan/SC Entertainment (David Blocker)

A shy and timid garage mechanic discovers that he has a twin brother who is a killer.
Quirky, stylized but insubstantial tale of people damaged by, or fearful of, life; but it cannot bear as much weight as its director intended.
wd Alan Rudolph ph Elliot Davis m Rachmaninov and others pd Steven Legler ed Michael Ruscio
☆ Matthew Modine, Lara Flynn Boyle, Marisa Tomei, Fred Ward, Tyra Ferrell, Kevin J. O'Connor, Tate Donovan, Lori Singer, M. Emmet Walsh, Gailard Sartain
'A film which needs several viewings to be appreciated. Although the battle between dark and light is obvious, the finer touches are buried in a visual tapestry to be discovered by the devoted (perhaps obsessive) viewer.' – Sight and Sound

Equinox Flower ★★★

Japan 1958 120m Agfacolor
Shochiku

original title: Higanbana

A liberal-minded father turns conservative when his eldest daughter rejects an arranged marriage in favour of choosing a husband for herself.
Ozu's first colour film is another account of the generation gap; in a subtle comedy of manners, middle-aged parents find it difficult to accept the values of their children and fathers discover that they have lost their authority.
w Kogo Noda, Yasujiro Ozu novel Ton Satomi d Yasujiro Ozu ph Yuharu Atsuta m Kojun Saito ad Tatsuo Hamada ed Yoshiyashu Hamamura
☆ Shin Saburi (Wataru Hirayama), Kinuyo Tanaka (Kiyoko), Ineko Arima (Setsuko Hirayama), Keiji Sada (Masahiko Taniguchi), Teiji Takahashi (Shotaru Kondo), Miyuki Kuwano (Hisako Hirayama), Chishu Ryu (Shukichi Mikami)

L'Equipage ★

France 1935 107m bw
Pathé Natan

A World War I flyer finds that the love of his life is the wife of his colleague.
Tense romantic drama with aerial sequences, subsequently remade in Hollywood as The Woman I Love.
story Joseph Kessel d Anatole Litvak
☆ Charles Vanel, Jean-Pierre Aumont, Annabella
'A gripping human story, beautifully told.' – Variety

Equus ★

GB 1977 137m colour
UA/Winkast (Denis Holt)

A middle-aged psychiatrist tries to find out why a 17-year-old boy blinded six horses.
Overlong film version of a play which was a succès d'estime; it makes the fatal mistake of showing the tragic events realistically instead of stylistically as was done on the stage, and as a study in abnormal psychology it is scarcely gripping or revealing.
w Peter Shaffer play Peter Shaffer d Sidney Lumet ph Oswald Morris m Richard Rodney Bennett pd Tony Walton
☆ Richard Burton, Peter Firth, Colin Blakely, Joan Plowright, Harry Andrews, Eileen Atkins, Jenny Agutter, Kate Reid
'It sets Peter Shaffer's worst ideas on a pedestal.' – Pauline Kael
Peter Shaffer; Richard Burton; Peter Firth
Jenny Agutter

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'You are stronger than you realize. Wiser than you know. What was once your life is now your legend.'

Eragon ★ (3)

US/UK 2006 104m
TCF/Fox 2000 Pictures/Davis Entertainment/Ingenious (John Davis, Wyck Godfrey)

When a farm boy finds a stolen dragon egg, he stumbles upon an ancient legacy, and takes up the mantle of the legendary Dragon Riders, forced into extinction by an evil king.

A Tolkeinesque sword-and-sorcery saga without an original idea and little imagination, as evidenced by its entire ripped-off Star Wars plot.

w Peter Buchman novel Christopher Paolini d Stefen Fangmeier ph Hugh Johnson m Patrick Doyle pd Wolf Kroeger ad Michael Diner, Jonathan Hely-Hutchinson, Stuart Kearns, Tibor Lazar, Stuart Rose ed Roger Barton, Masahiro Hirakubo, Chris Lebenzon sp Gerd Feuchter

☆ Ed Speleers (Eragon), Jeremy Irons (Brom), Sienna Guillory (Anya), Robert Carlyle (Durza), John Malkovich (Galbatorix), Djimon Hounsou (Ajihad), Joss Stone (Angela)

'Dull and derivative.' – Philip French, Observer

'He will erase your past to protect your future.'

Eraser

US 1996 115m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (Arnold Kopelson, Anne Kopelson)

An agent for the Federal Witness Protection Program discovers that he can trust no one.

Predictable recycling of the themes of modern paranoid thrillers, punctuated by the furious sound of monstrous gun battles.

w Tony Puryear, Walon Green d Chuck Russell ph Adam Greenberg m Alan Silvestri pd Bill Kenney ed Michael Tronick

☆ Arnold Schwarzenegger, James Caan, Vanessa Williams, James Coburn, Robert Pastorelli, James Cromwell, Andy Romano, Danny Nucci

'If Mission: Impossible failed to make any sense to you, you could look on Eraser as the world's fastest remake, since its plot, its characters and its big set pieces are exactly the same.' – Mark Steyn, Spectator

'Filmgoers may feel that they've been there, seen that: fans will still flock.' – Alexander Walker

† It was a box-office success in 1996, grossing around $234m worldwide.

sound effects editing

Eraserhead

US 1976 89m bw
David Lynch

A nondescript man has a number of increasingly nightmarish experiences including becoming pregnant and being consumed by a planet.

Tediously elongated piece of schlock surrealism. At least Buñuel and Dali didn't take so long about their nonsense.

wd David Lynch ph David Elmes, Herbert Cardwell

☆ John Nance, Charlotte Stewart, Allen Joseph

'A compulsive hybrid mix of punk surrealism and B picture.' – Time Out

Erbin des Dracula: see Vampyros Lesbos

Ercole e la Regina di Lidia: see Hercules Unchained

L'Erdita Ferramonti: see The Inheritance

Erendira ★

France/Mexico/Germany 1982 105m colour
Les Films du Triangle/A2/Cine Qua Non/Atlas Saskia Film (Alain Queffelean)

An intolerant woman tries to restore the family fortune by prostituting her young granddaughter after she accidentally burns down their home.

Bizarre, surrealist fable of thwarted love and domination.

w Gabriel García Marquez d Ruy Guerra ph Denys Clerval m Maurice Lecoeur pd Pierre Cadiou ed Kenout Peltier

☆ Irene Papas, Claudia Ohana, Michel Lonsdale, Oliver Wehe, Rufus, Blanca Guerra, Ernesto Gomez Cruz

Eres Mi Héroe: see You're My Hero

Erik the Viking

GB 1989 108m Technicolor
UIP/Erik The Viking Productions/Prominent Features/AB Svensk Filmindustri (Terry Glinwood)

A Viking sails on an expedition to wake the Gods.

Uneasy mix of fantasy and humour.

wd Terry Jones novel Terry Jones ph Ian Wilson m Neil Innes pd John Beard ed George Akers

☆ Tim Robbins, Mickey Rooney, Eartha Kitt, Terry Jones, Imogen Stubbs, John Cleese, Tsutomu Sekine, Anthony Sher, Gary Cady, Charles McKeown, Tim McInnerny, John Gordon Sinclair

'A thunderous, unfunny jumble.' – MFB

'She brought a small town to its feet and a huge corporation to its knees.'

Erin Brockovich ★★★

US 2000 131m CFI
Columbia TriStar/Universal/Jersey (Danny DeVito, Michael Shamberg, Stacey Sher)

A working-class mother, who talks her way into a job in a law firm, organises a winning investigation into industrial pollution that has devastated a community.

Unexpectedly lively and amusing movie of a heartening true story, one that gives Julia Roberts her best and most convincing role so far, as a feisty but vulnerable mother who refuses to be intimidated by anyone.

w Susannah Grant d Steven Soderbergh ph Ed Lachman m Thomas Newman pd Phil Messina ad Christa Munro ed Anne V. Coates cos Jeffrey Kurland

☆ Julia Roberts (Erin Brockovich), Albert Finney (Ed Masry), Aaron Eckhart (George), Marg Helgenberger (Donna Jensen), Cherry Jones (Pamela Duncan), Veanne Cox (Theresa Dallavale), Conchata Ferrell (Brenda), Tracey Walter (Charles Embry), Peter Coyote (Kurt Potter), Scotty Leavenworth (Matthew), Gemmenne De la Pena (Katie), Jamie Harrold (Scott)

'A movie that is both intensely funny and emotionally satisfying.' – Ian Nathan, Empire

'An exhilarating tale about a woman discovering her full potential and running with it.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety † Erin Brockovich herself appears briefly as a waitress in a coffee shop.

Julia Roberts

picture; Steven Soderbergh; Susannah Grant; Albert Finney

Julia Roberts

Ermo ★★★

China/Hong Kong 1994 98m colour
ICA/Ocean/Shanghai Studio (Jimmy Tan, Chen Kunming)

A wife with an elderly and impotent husband works hard in order to buy a big-screen television set to impress the neighbours.

Biting comedy of village and peasant life, which also asks some tough questions on what gives meaning and purpose to a person's existence.

w Lang Yun story Xu Baoqi d Zhou Xiaowen ph Lu Gengxin m Zhoi Xiaowen ad Zhang Daqian ed Zhong Furong

☆ Ailiya (Ermo), Liu Peiqi (Xiazi, Blindman), Ge Zhijun (Village Chief, Ermo's Husband), Zhang Haiyan (Fatwoman, Xiazi's Wife), Zan Zhenguo (Huzi, Ermo's Son)

'A lively, constantly diverting film: it has amusing, colourful characters, a generous dash of humour and not a jot of sentimentality.' – Independent

Ernest Rides Again

US 1994 92m CFI color
Emsell (Stacy Williams)

Ernest discovers that a cannon contains the British Crown Jewels.

There are few experiences more depressing than attempting to sit through an Ernest movie: it's not just that the jokes are poor, the comic timing is off and its hero has all the charm of an over-ripe skunk; it is just the pervasive feeling that no one is having fun, on either side of the camera.

w John Cherry, William M. Akers d John Cherry ph David Geddes m Bruce Arntson ed Craig Bassett

☆ Jim Varney, Ron James, Linda Kash, Tom Butler, Xuke Ernsberger, Jeff Pillars

Ernest Saves Christmas

US 1988 91m Metrocolor
Warner/Touchstone/Silver Screen Partners III (Stacy Williams, Doug Claybourne)

Santa Claus goes to America to find someone to take over his job.

Inept and witless from start to finish.

w B. Kline, Ed Turner d John Cherry ph Peter Stein m Mark Snow ad Ian Thomas ed Sharyn L. Ross

☆ Jim Varney, Douglas Seale, Oliver Clark, Noelle Parker, Gailard Sartain, Billie Bird, Bill Byrge, Robert Lesser, Key Howard

L'Eroe di Babylon: see The Hero of Babylon

Eroica ★

Poland 1957 83m bw
Kadr
aka: Heroism

Two ironic episodes of war; in the 1944 Warsaw uprising and in a POW camp.

Nicely-judged little stories with a sting.

w Jerzy Stefan Stawinski novels Jerzy Stefan Stawinski d Andrzej Munk ph Jerzy Wojcik m Jan Krenz

☆ Barbara Polomska, L. Niemszyk, Edward Dziewonski, K. Rudzki, Roman Klosowski, Josef Nowak

The Erotic Dreams of Cleopatra (dubbed)

Italy/France 1983 85m colour
2T/Naja (Victor Beniard)

Cleopatra, a captive in Rome, becomes caught up in the power struggle to control the Empire.

An oddity: a risible, would-be erotic exploitation movie that opens with a quote from Cicero, followed by the assassination of Julius Caesar in a thick fog (a dream by Cleopatra) and then departs from known history with its cast simultaneously engaging in energetic couplings and banal political discussions.

w Rino di Silvestro d Cesar Todd ph Giovanni Bergamini m Romuald ad Mario Ambrosino ed Adriano Tagliavia

☆ Marcella Petrelli, Rita Silva, Jacques Stany, Andrea Coppola, Maurizio Faraoni

Erotikon ★

Sweden 1920 85m approx bw silent
Svensk Filmindustri

When a professor discovers that his wife is unfaithful, he consoles himself with his young niece.

Sophisticated comedy drama filled with material which might later have appealed to Lubitsch; a little faded now, but it still has charm.

w Gustav Molander, Mauritz Stiller play Franz Herzeg d Mauritz Stiller ph Henrik Jaenzon

☆ Lars Hanson, Karin Molander, Tora Teje, Anders de Wahl

Erotikon ★

Czechoslovakia 1929 85m approx bw silent
Gem Film

A stationmaster's daughter takes a rich lover.

Atmospheric little sex drama which sufficiently justified its title to be a big international success.

wd Gustav Machaty ph Vaclav Vich

☆ Ita Rina, Karel Schleichert, Olaf Fjord, Theo Pistek

Errance

France 2003 95m colour
Tartan/Morgane/Arte France/Wild Bunch/StudioCanal/Damien Odoul/Gérard Lacroix

The marital tribulations from the late 60s to early 70s of a drunken, embittered veteran of the Algerian war and petty crook, his wife and young son.

Intense but uninvolving drama of characters who are often hysterical for no discernable reason.

wd Damien Odoul ph Pascale Granel m Mahler et al ad Michel Vandestien ed Gwénola Heaulme

☆ Laetitia Casta (Lou), Benoit Magimel (Jacques), Mattéo Tardito (César), Yann Goven (Johnny)

'Elliptical to the point of downright obscurity.' – Observer

The Errand Boy

US 1961 92m bw
Paramount/Jerry Lewis (Ernest D. Glucksman)

A dimwit paperhanger causes havoc in a Hollywood studio but is eventually signed up as a comic to rival Jerry Lewis.

Feeble comedy with the star at his self-satisfied worst.

wd Jerry Lewis ph W. Wallace Kelley m Walter Scharf

☆ Jerry Lewis, Brian Donlevy, Sig Rumann, Fritz Feld, Isobel Elsom, Iris Adrian

Es Geschah am 20 Juli: see Jackboot Mutiny

Escapade

US 1935 87m bw
MGM (Bernard Hyman)
Affairs of a Viennese artist.
Turgid romantic drama copied from the more successful German film Maskerade.
w Herman J. Mankiewicz original Walter Reisch d Robert Z. Leonard ph Ernest Haller m Bronislau Kaper, Walter Jurmann
☆ William Powell, Luise Rainer, Virginia Bruce, Mady Christians, Reginald Owen, Frank Morgan, Laura Hope Crews, Henry Travers
'A triumph of studio slickness.' – Variety

Escapade: see Robinson Crusoeland (1950)

Escapade ★

GB 1955 87m bw
Pinnacle (Daniel Angel)
Parents row with a headmaster when their three sons steal an aeroplane, but all is well when it turns out that they are on a peace mission.
Whimsical comedy-drama with a rather foolish point; the cast however can hardly fail to provide entertaining moments.
w Gilbert Holland (Donald Ogden Stewart) play Roger MacDougall d Philip Leacock ph Eric Cross m Bruce Montgomery
☆ John Mills, Alastair Sim, Yvonne Mitchell, Colin Gordon, Marie Lohr
† Stewart used his father's name as screenwriter because he was blacklisted at the time.

Escapade in Florence

US 1962 80m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Bill Anderson)
Two American students in Florence uncover art thefts.
Cheerful adventure for children, well enough produced on location, but quite unmemorable.
w Maurice Tombragel novel The Golden Doors by Edward Fenton d Steve Previn ph Kurt Grigoleit m Buddy Baker
☆ Ivan Desny, Tommy Kirk, Annette Funicello, Nino Castelnuovo

Escapade in Japan

US 1957 93m Technirama
RKO (Arthur Lubin)
An American boy survives a plane crash in Tokyo and the crisis reunites his parents.
Nicely photographed travelogue with a thread of plot; pleasant but hardly sustaining.
w Winston Miller d Arthur Lubin
ph William Snyder m Max Steiner
☆ Cameron Mitchell, Teresa Wright, Jon Prevost, Philip Ober

'There is a love from which no man can escape!'

Escape ★★

US 1940 104m bw
MGM (Lawrence Weingarten)
reissue title: When the Door Opened
An American gets his mother out of a Nazi concentration camp before World War II.
Ingenious but somewhat slow-moving melodrama with an exciting climax and good production values.
w Arch Oboler, Marguerite Roberts novel Ethel Vance d Mervyn Le Roy ph Robert Planck m Franz Waxman
☆ Norma Shearer, Robert Taylor, Conrad Veidt, Nazimova, Felix Bressart, Albert Basserman, Philip Dorn, Bonita Granville
'It takes an hour to get started and makes just another feeble fable from headlines.' – Otis Ferguson
'Far and away the most dramatic and hair-raising picture yet made on the sinister subject of persecution in a totalitarian land.' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times
'One of the most poignant dramatic films of the year.' – Modern Screen
'The director takes forever to set up the manoeuvres, and the villain is so much more attractive than the hero that the whole thing turns into a feeble, overproduced joke.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

'Some men are born to imperilled adventure! Some women are drawn to the most dangerous of loves!'

Escape

GB 1948 79m bw
TCF (William Perlberg)
A former RAF squadron leader, who feels he has been wrongly convicted of manslaughter, escapes from prison.
Wholly artificial, predictable and uninteresting remake of a 1930 version of Galsworthy's play.
w Philip Dunne d Joseph L. Mankiewicz
ph Frederick A. Young m William Alwyn
ad Vetchinsky ed Alan L. Jaggs
☆ Rex Harrison (Matthew Denant), Peggy Cummins (Dora Winton), William Hartnell (Inspector Harris), Norman Wooland (Parson), Jill Esmond (Grace Winton)

The Escape Artist ★

US 1982 93m Technicolor
Zoetrope Studios (Doug Claybourne, Buck Houghton)
A young boy justifies his descent from 'the world's greatest escape artist'.
Curiously unfulfilled fable, too vague to satisfy the family audience it seems to aim at, but with pleasant moments.
w Melissa Mathison, Stephen Zito. novel David Wagoner d Caleb Deschanel ph Stephen H. Burum m Georges Delerue
pd Dean Tavoularis
☆ Griffin O'Neal, Raul Julia, Teri Garr, Joan Hackett, Gabriel Dell, Desi Arnaz

Escape from Alcatraz ★

US 1979 112m DeLuxe
Paramount/Malpaso (Don Siegel)
The allegedly true story of a 1960 escape from the prison on a rock in San Francisco Bay.
A dour, terse, depressing prison movie which makes an uncomfortable star vehicle and not very much of an entertainment, but does preserve a certain integrity right to its ambiguous ending.
w Richard Tuggle book J. Campbell Bruce d Don Siegel ph Bruce Surtees m Jerry Fielding pd Allen Smith ☆ Clint Eastwood, Patrick McGoohan, Roberts Blossom, Jack Thibeau, Larry Hankin
'An almost entirely interior film masquerading as an exterior one.' – Tom Milne, MFB

Escape from East Berlin

Germany/US 1962 94m bw
MGM/Walter Wood/Hans Albin
aka: Tunnel 28
An East German chauffeur is persuaded to help an escape attempt by digging and tunnelling under the Berlin Wall.
Cheerless escape melodrama, thinly based on fact but without much suspense.
w Gabrielle Upton, Peter Berneis, Millard Lampell d Robert Siodmak ph Georg Krause m Hans-Martin Majewski
☆ Don Murray, Christine Kaufmann, Werner Klemperer, Ingrid van Bergen Escape from Fort Bravo ★

US 1953 98m Anscocolor
MGM (Nicholas Nayfack)
A girl helps her Confederate lover to escape from a Yankee fort in Arizona; the commander then tries to save them from Indians.
Grade A Western, effectively shot in Death Valley.
w Frank Fenton d John Sturges
ph Robert Surtees m Jeff Alexander ☆ William Holden, Eleanor Parker, John Forsythe, William Demarest

'Snake is Back.'

Escape from L.A.

US 1996 100m DeLuxe Panavision
Paramount/Rysher (Kurt Russell, Debra Hill)
aka: John Carpenter's Escape from L.A.
In 2013, an outlaw is sent to the island of Los Angeles to eliminate the President's daughter, who has stolen a device to shut down the world's power sources and joined a revolution against her father's right-wing government.
No more than a weary rehash of Carpenter's Escape from New York; the plot has aged in the 15-year gap between the two movies, and one might have hoped that its star and director would have moved on to something less stale.
w John Carpenter, Debra Hill, Kurt Russell
d John Carpenter ph Gary B. Kibbe
m Shirley Walker, John Carpenter
pd Lawrence G. Paull ed Edward Warschilka
☆ Kurt Russell, Stacy Keach, Steve Buscemi, Peter Fonda, George Corraface, Valeria Golino, Pam Grier, Michelle Forbes, Cliff Robertson
'Easily the crappiest-looking, cheesiest FX-toting, shoddiest excuse for a $50 million action epic ever foisted on unsuspecting audiences.' – Guardian
† The film took $25m at the US box-office.

Escape from New York ★

US 1981 99m Metrocolor Panavision
Avco Embassy/International Film Investors/Goldcrest (Larry Franco, Debra Hill)
In 1997 the whole of Manhattan Island has become a vast security prison; a president has to bale out over it and is taken hostage.
Inventive but too complex melodrama with unattractive detail; its director's biggest production but not his most rewarding.
w John Carpenter, Nick Castle d John Carpenter ph Jim Lucas m John Carpenter pd Joe Alves
☆ Kurt Russell, Lee Van Cleef, Ernest Borgnine, Donald Pleasence, Isaac Hayes, Season Hubley, Adrienne Barbeau, Harry Dean Stanton

Escape from the Dark

GB 1976 104m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Ron Miller)
US title: The Littlest Horse Thieves
In 1909 Yorkshire, two boys save pit ponies from the slaughterhouse.
Efficient family fare with plenty of suspense and good character cameos.
w Rosemary Anne Sisson d Charles Jarrott
ph Paul Beeson m Ron Goodwin
☆ Alastair Sim, Peter Barkworth, Maurice Colbourne, Susan Tebbs, Geraldine McEwan, Prunella Scales, Leslie Sands, Joe Gladwin

'A New Generation Of Incredible Apes In The Most Exciting Suspense Film Of Them All.'

Escape from the Planet of the Apes

US 1971 97m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/APJAC (Arthur P. Jacobs, Frank Capra Jnr)
Three educated apes travel back from the disaster-strewn future to warn mankind of what lies ahead. Mankind naturally misunderstands.
Predictable third in the series, with infantile humour alternating with a downbeat trend.
w Paul Dehn d Don Taylor ph Joseph Biroc m Jerry Goldsmith
☆ Roddy McDowall, Kim Hunter, Bradford Dillman, Ricardo Montalban, Natalie Trundy, Eric Braeden, William Windom, Sal Mineo † See also Planet of the Apes.

Escape from Zahrain

US 1961 93m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount (Ronald Neame)
Prisoners escape across the desert from an oil sheikdom.
Slow, boring adventure film; good to look at, with James Mason unbilled in a tiny part.
w Robin Estridge d Ronald Neame
ph Ellsworth Fredricks m Lyn Murray
☆ Yul Brynner, Sal Mineo, Madlyn Rhue, Jack Warden, Jay Novello

Escape If You Can: see St Benny the Dip

Escape in the Desert

US 1945 81m bw
Warner (Alex Gottlieb)
An American flyer outwits renegade Nazis.
Oddball remake of The Petrified Forest, with Nazis sitting in for gangsters. Of no interest in itself.
w Thomas Job play Robert E. Sherwood
d Edward A. Blatt ph Robert Burks
m Adolph Deutsch
☆ Philip Dorn, Helmut Dantine, Alan Hale, Jean Sullivan, Irene Manning, Samuel S. Hinds

Escape Me Never ★

GB 1935 95m bw
B and D (Herbert Wilcox)
The mother of an illegitimate baby marries a composer who loves someone else.
Archetypal romantic weepie which was probably the star's most memorable and likeable performance.
w Carl Zuckerman, Robert Cullen play Margaret Kennedy d Paul Czinner ph Georges Périnal m William Walton ch Frederick Ashton ad Wilfred Arnold, Andre Andrejew ed Merrill G. White, David Lean ☆ Elisabeth Bergner (Gemma Jones), Hugh Sinclair (Sebastian Sanger), Griffith Jones (Caryl Sanger), Penelope Dudley Ward (Fenella McClean), Irene Vanbrugh (Mrs McClean), Leon Quartermaine (Mr McClean), Lyn Harding (Heinrich)
'Story stirs audience resentment, yet its able presentation commands attention.' – Variety
'That it is a thoroughly British film is proved by the fact that among the staff one can see names like Andrejiev, Allgeier and Strassner, that the principal actress is German, and the producer is German too.' – James Agate
Elisabeth Bergner

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Escape Me Never

US 1947 104m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

A composer marries a widow and her child, but falls for another woman.
Muddled remake of the 1935 movie of Margaret Kennedy's play, with shifted emphasis; it is so ill-conceived it's like watching through frosted glass.
w Thomas Williamson novel Margaret Kennedy d Peter Godfrey ph Sol Polito m Erich Wolfgang Korngold ad Carl Weyl ed Clarence Kolster
☆ Errol Flynn (Sebastian Dubrok), Ida Lupino (Gemma Smith), Eleanor Parker (Fionella MacLean), Gig Young (Caryl Dubrok), Reginald Denny (Mr MacLean), Isobel Elsom (Mrs MacLean), Albert Basserman (Heinrich), Ludwig Stossel (Mr Steinach), Helene Thimig (Landlady)

The Escape of Mechagodzilla: see Monsters from an Unknown Planet

Escape of the Amethyst: see Yangtse Incident

Escape to Athena

GB 1979 117m Eastmancolor Panavision
ITC/Pimlico (David Niven Jnr, Jack Wiener)

Prisoners-of-war on a Greek island during World War II recruit the aid of their sympathetic camp commandant in harassing the SS.
Expensive but not very involving thick ear, hampered by tediously typecast actors and an uninventive script.
w Edward Anhalt, Richard S. Lochte d George Pan Cosmatos ph Gil Taylor m Lalo Schifrin
☆ Roger Moore, David Niven, Elliott Gould, Sonny Bono, Telly Savalas, Claudia Cardinale, Stefanie Powers, Richard Roundtree, Anthony Valentine

'Performing as though they had met up by chance on holiday ... the clutch of box office stars do what they can in a situation where they are the stand-ins and the stuntmen (especially the motorcyclists) dominate the screen.' – Martyn Auty, MFB

Escape to Burma

US 1955 88m Technicolor Superscope
Benedict Bogeaus

An adventurer suspected of murder hides out on the tea plantation of an indomitable American woman.
Far Eastern hokum in which the heroine has a way with elephants.
w Talbot Jennings, Herbert Donovan d Allan Dwan ph John Alton m Louis Forbes
☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Robert Ryan, David Farrar, Murvyn Vye, Reginald Denny

Escape to Danger

GB 1943 92m bw
RKO (William Sistrom)

A British schoolmistress becomes a spy.
Adequate propaganda hokum.
w Wolfgang Wilhelm, Jack Whittingham d Lance Comfort ph Max Greene m William Alwyn
☆ Eric Portman, Ann Dvorak, Karel Stepanek, Ronald Ward, Ronald Adam, Lily Kann, David Peel, Felix Aylmer, A. E. Matthews

Escape to Glory

US 1940 74m bw
Columbia (Sam Bischoff)
aka: Submarine Zone

A merchant ship with a variety of passengers is stalked by a Nazi submarine.
Minor Grand Hotel afloat: quite brisk and watchable.
w P. J. Wolfson d John Brahm ph Franz Planer
☆ Pat O'Brien, Constance Bennett, John Halliday, Alan Baxter, Melville Cooper, Edgar Buchanan, Marjorie Gateson

Escape to Happiness: see Intermezzo

Escape to Victory: see Victory

Escape to Witch Mountain ★

US 1974 97m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Jerome Courtland)

Two mysterious orphan children have extraordinary powers, are chased by a scheming millionaire, and prove to come from another planet.
Mildly ingenious story frittered away by poor scripting and special effects. A stimulating change in children's films, however.
w Robert Malcolm Young novel Alexander Key d John Hough ph Frank Phillips m Johnny Mandel sp Art Cruickshank, Danny Lee ☆ Ray Milland, Donald Pleasence, Eddie Albert, Kim Richards, Ike Eisenmann, Walter Barnes, Reta Shaw, Denver Pyle

Escapement

GB 1957 72m bw
Anglo Amalgamated/Merton Park Studios (Alec C. Snowden)

An insurance investigator traces some mysterious deaths in France to a health clinic where doctors are experimenting with mind-altering techniques.
Efficient and slightly unconventional low-budget thriller.
w Charles Eric Maine, J. Maclaren-Ross d Montgomery Tully ph Bert Mason, Teddy Catford m Soundrama md Richard Taylor ad Wilfred Arnold ed Geoffrey Muller
☆ Rod Cameron, Mary Murphy, Meredith Edwards, Peter Illing, Carl Jaffé, Kay Callard, Carl Duering, Roberta Huby

The Escort: see La Scorta

'I'll be your friend. I'll be your lover, but it's strictly by the hour.'

The Escort

France/GB 1999 106m colour
Pathé/Renn/France3 (Claude Berri)

original title: Mauvaise Passe

After leaving his job and family and coming to London to write a novel, a Parisian professor becomes a successful gigolo.
Glum and faintly ridiculous drama of a writer in search of a subject; an audience needs to share the director's belief that French lovers are irresistible.
wd Michel Blanc idea Hanif Kureishi additional script work Nick Love ph Barry Ackroyd m Barry Adamson pd Gary Williamson ed Maryline Monthieux cos Ralph Holes
☆ Daniel Auteuil (Pierre), Stuart Townsend (Tom), Liza Walker (Kim), Noah Taylor (Gem), Frances Barber (Jessica), Claire Skinner (Patricia), Béatrice Agenin (Catherine), Keith Allen (Jessica's husband), Ben Wishaw (Jay), Amanda Ryan (Ann), Peter Mullan (Patricia's husband)

'Like watching a high-brow version of Jackie Collins's The Stud, only it's not as good... Pay not to see it.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times

Escort Girls

GB 1974 95m Eastmancolor
Variety/Donwin (Donovan Winter)

Six stories of encounters between clients and escorts hired for the night from an agency, which frequently end in rape or seduction.
Glossily made but empty sexploitation movie, hampered by a script that never deviates from the obvious.
wd Donovan Winter ph Gus Coma, Austin Parkinson ed Donovan Winter
☆ David Dixon, Maria O'Brien, Marika Mann, Gil Barber, Helen Christie, Richard Wren

Escort West

US 1958 75m bw Cinemascope
Batjac/Romina/UA

An ex-Confederate soldier helps the survivors of a Union wagon train attack.
Watchable lower-berth Western.
w Leo Gordon, Fred Hartsook d Francis D. Lyon ph William H. Clothier m Henry Vars ☆ Victor Mature, Elaine Stewart, Faith Domergue, Noah Beery Jnr, Rex Ingram, John Hubbard

Eskimo ★

US 1933 120m bw
MGM

The life of an Eskimo hunter and his family.
Curious fated attempt by a major studio to do a northern version of the successful White Shadows in the South Seas. Despite a melodramatic plot and gripping documentary sequences, the locale chilled audiences to the marrow.
w John Lee Mahin, Peter Freuchen d W. S. Van Dyke ed Conrad Nervig ☆ Mala, Peter Freuchen

'Igloo whoopee variations not sufficiently hotcha to spell b.o.' – Variety

editing

'The living will always be more dangerous than the dead.'

El Espinazo del Diablo ★★

Spain/Mexico 2001 108m colour
Optimum/El Deseo/Tequila GangAnhelo/Sogepaq/ Canal+ (Agustin Almodovar, Bertha Navarro)

aka: The Devil's Backbone

After his father has been killed in the Republican cause during the Spanish Civil War, a boy is sent to an isolated orphanage haunted by the ghost of a murdered child.
Elegant, chilling tale of greed and repression that also serves as a political allegory of the times.
w Guillermo del Toro, Antonio Trashorras, David Munoz d Guillermo del Toro ph Guillermo Navarro m Javier Navarrete ad Cesar Macarron ed Luis de la Madrid
☆ Marisa Paredes (Carmen), Eduardo Noriega (Jacinto), Federico Luppi (Casares), Fernando Tielve (Carlos), Irene Visedo (Conchita), Inigo Garces (Jaime)

'For the most part, creepy, meaty, crafty and fun.' – Shawn Levy, Oregonian
'Provokes your screams and shudders, but he also earns your tears.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

L'Espion: see The Defector

Les Espions

France 1957 136m bw
Cinedis (L. de Mazure)

aka: The Spies

Spies from all sides converge on a psychiatric clinic where an atomic scientist is being hidden.
Unsatisfactory thriller with some aims to be both a whimsy and a parable. Not one of its director's successes.
w Henri-Georges Clouzot, Gerome Geronomi d Henri-Georges Clouzot ph Christian Matras m Georges Auric
☆ Martita Hunt, Peter Ustinov, Sam Jaffe, Vera Clouzot, Gabrielle Dorziat, Curt Jurgens, Gerard Sety, O. E. Hasse

El Espiritu de la Colmene: see The Spirit of the Beehive

Espoir ★

France/Spain 1938 73m bw Cornignion/Moligniec aka: Days of Hope
aka: Man's Hope

Events of the Spanish Civil War, recreated by surviving combatants.
Anti-fascist propaganda which seems a good deal less inspiring than on its first release, but has some vivid cinematic ideas.
wd André Malraux ph Louis Page m Darius Milhaud ☆ Mejuto, Nicolas Rodriguez, Jose Lado

Esprit d'Amour

Hong Kong 1983 100m colour
Cinema City (Dean Shek, Raymond Wong)

A hen-pecked insurance investigator is haunted by the spirit of a young girl who died in an accidental fall.
Insubstantial and heavy-handed comedy, though attractive to look at.
w Ko Chi Sum, Lo Kin, Raymond Fung story Raymond Wong d Ringo L. T. Lam m Tang Siu Lam pd Nansun Shi, Raymond Fung ed Tony Chow
☆ Alan Tam, Cecilia Chan, Ni Shu Chun

'If You Know What Happened... You'd Better Keep Your Mouth Shut.'

Essex Boys

GB 2000 102m Technicolor
Pathé/Granada (Jeff Pope)

A taxi driver becomes involved with rival gangs of drug dealers and pushers.
Violent gangster movie, in part based on a actual murder of three men, found shot dead in a car in an Essex wood in 1995, but otherwise a familiar fantasy of betrayal and revenge among thugs.
w Jeff Pope, Terry Winsor d Terry Winsor ph John Daly m Colin Towns pd Chris Edwards ed Edward Mansell cos Sarah Lubel
☆ Sean Bean (Jason Locke), Alex Kingston (Lisa Locke), Charlie Creed-Miles (Billy Reynolds), Tom Wilkinson (John Dyke), Larry Lamb (Peter Chase), Michael McKell (Wayne Lovell), Billy Murray (Perry Elley), Amelia Lowdell (Nicole), Holly Davidson (Suzy Welch), Terence Rigby (Henry Hobbs)

'Just another disappointing British film.' – Jo Berry, Empire
'A movie of quiet menace with a definite character of its own.' – Derek Elley, Variety

'And it was written – gather together all the fair young virgins unto the palace – and let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen.'

Esther and the King

US 1960 109m Technicolor Cinemascope
TCF/Galatea (Raoul Walsh)

A Persian king selects a new bride who helps defend him from his enemies.
Tedious biblical hokum with a muddled script and the usual co-production deficiencies.

w Raoul Walsh, Michael Elkins d Raoul Walsh ph Mario Bava m Francesco Lavagnino, Roberto Nicolosi
☆ Richard Egan, Joan Collins, Denis O'Dea, Sergio Fantoni, Rik Battaglia

Esther Kahn

GB/France 2000 163m colour
Winchester/Why Not/France2/France 3/Zephyr/Arts Council of England/BSkyB/British Screen (Alain Sarde)

In Victorian London, a young working-class Jewish girl overcomes personal tragedy to become a great actress.
Unsatisfactory, badly-scripted movie about theatre: it fails on the most basic level, with the cast's uniformly poor performances.
w Arnaud Desplechin, Emmanuel Bourdieu story Arthur Symons d Arnaud Desplechin ph Eric Gautier m Howard Shore pd Jon Henson ed Herve de Luze
☆ Summer Phoenix (Esther Kahn), Ian Holm (Nathan Quellen), Philippe Haygard (Fabrice Desplechin), Frances Barber (Rivka Kahn), Laszlo Szabo (Ytzhok Kahn), Emmanuelle Devos (Sylvia l'Italienne), Akbar Kurtha (Samuel Kahn), Claudia Solti (Mina Kahn), Kika Markham (Trish), Anton Lesser (Sean)

'A very long, very unsuccessful two hours and 40 minutes in the cinema.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Esther Waters

GB 1947 108m bw
GFD/Wessex (Ian Dalrymple)

In the 1870s, a maid is seduced by a squire but insists on bringing up her child without help.
Faded costumer with tentative performances and little else to recommend it.
w Michael Gordon, William Rose, Gerard Tyrrell novel George Moore d Ian Dalrymple, Peter Proud ph C. M. Pennington-Richards, H. E. Fowle m Gordon Jacob ☆ Kathleen Ryan, Dirk Bogarde, Cyril Cusack, Ivor Barnard, Fay Compton, Mary Clare, Morland Graham

Et Dieu Créa la Femme: see And God Created Woman

Et Mourir de Plaisir: see Blood and Roses

L'Eté Meurtrier: see One Deadly Summer

The Eternal Sea

US 1955 96m bw
Republic (John H. Auer)

The career of an aircraft carrier captain in World War II and Korea.
Solemn biopic of John Hoskins: competent but quite uninspired.
w Allen Rivkin d John H. Auer ph John L. Russell Jnr m Elmer Bernstein ☆ Sterling Hayden, Alexis Smith, Dean Jagger, Virginia Grey

'They can erase someone from your mind. Getting them out of your heart is another story.'

Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind

★ (8)

US 2004 108m DeLuxe
Momentum/Anonymous Content/This is that (Steve Golin, Anthony Bregman)

A man, who discovers that his former lover has had all memory of their romance erased from her memory, decides to do the same and regrets it.
Another film with a beginning, middle and end, though not necessarily in that order; indeed, the beginning is the end. It is too fussy in its writing and direction to maintain interest in its shifting narrative.
w Charlie Kaufman d Michel Gondry ph Ellen Kuras m Jon Brion pd Dan Leigh ed Valdis Oskarsdottir
☆ Jim Carrey (Joel Barish), Kate Winslet (Clementine Kruczynski), Kirsten Dunst (Mary), Mark Ruffalo (Stan), Elijah Wood (Patrick), Tom Wilkinson (Dr Howard Mierzwiak), Jane Adams (Carrie), David Cross (Rob)

'The film equivalent of a Philip K. Dick Hallmark card.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times
'There is little charm in the coupling and almost no erotic intimacy, just a series of nerve-racking conversational collisions.' – Andrew Sarris, New York Observer
'Gondry's virtuosity lifts the film far past science fiction into cinematic efflorescence. He shows us, more seductively than other directors have done, how freehand use of film can capture the flashes in our minds that slip between words.' – Stanley Kauffmann, New Republic
'On the eighth viewing, say, the damn thing might even make sense.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker

screenplay
Kate Winslet

Eternally Yours

★

US 1939 95m bw
Walter Wanger

A magician's wife thinks he is too interested in his tricks.
Slightly scatty romantic comedy, amiable if not quite good enough to stand the test of time, but with a great cast.
w Gene Towne, Graham Baker d Tay Garnett ph Merritt Gerstad m Werner Janssen
☆ Loretta Young, David Niven, Broderick Crawford, Hugh Herbert, Billie Burke, C. Aubrey Smith, Raymond Walburn, ZaSu Pitts, Virginia Field, Eve Arden, Herman the Rabbit

'Will have to depend on the name power to get it by.' – Variety
'An amusing and irresponsible picture, though on the whole more irresponsible than amusing.' – New York Times

Werner Janssen

L'Eternel Retour: see Love Eternal

Eternity and a Day

★★

Greece/France/Italy 1998 134m colour
Theo Angelopoulos/Greek Film Centre/ERT/Paradis/La Sept/Intermedias (Theo Angelopoulos, Eric Heumann, Giorgio Silvagni, Amedeo Pagani)

original title: Mia Eoniotita Ke Mia Mera

A dying Greek writer ponders on the past while attempting to return an Albanian boy to his homeland.
Lyrical, elegiac meditation on the purpose of life; a slow-moving, deeply felt journey into the soul of man.
w Theo Angelopoulos, Tonino Guerra, Petros Markaris, Giorgio Silvagni d Theo Angelopoulos ph Giorgos Arvanitis, Andreas Sinani m Eleni Karaindrou pd Giorgos Patsos, Giorgos Ziakas ed Yannis Tsitsopoulos ☆ Bruno Ganz, Isabelle Renauld, Achileas Skevis, Despina Bebedeli, Iris Chatziantoniou, Helene Gerasimidiou, Fabrizio Bentivoglio, Vassilis Siemenis

'Give it time and Theo Angelopolous's sedate but eloquent tone-poem will reward your patience.' – Nigel Cliff, The Times

† The film won the Palme d'Or at the Cannes Film Festival in 1998.

Ethan Frome

US 1993 99m DuArt
American Playhouse/Richard Price/BBC (Stan Wlodkowski)

The new minister in a small and repressive Massachusetts community hires a crippled farmer to be his driver and discovers the story of love and hate that lies behind the man's injury.
A somewhat inert version of a rural tragedy, a grim tale of requited love, though it is strikingly photographed.
w Richard Nelson novel Edith Wharton d John Madden ph Bobby Bukowski m Rachel Portman pd Andrew Jackness ed Katherine Wenning
☆ Liam Neeson, Patricia Arquette, Joan Allen, Tate Donovan, Katharine Houghton, Stephen Mendillo

'Careful, literary, restrained, nicely acted and more than a bit dry.' – Variety

L'étoile du Nord

★

France 1982 124m Fujicolour
Gala/Sara Films/Antenne 2 (Alain Sarde)

A lodger entrances his landlady with stories of his Egyptian adventures, neglecting to mention his involvement in a murder there.
Two well-dovetailed performances lift this odd little thriller above the ordinary.
w Jean Aurenche, Michel Grisolia, Pierre Granier-Deferre novel Le Locataire by Georges Simenon d Pierre Granier-Deferre ph Pierre-William Glenn m Philippe Sarde ad Dominique André ed Jean Revel
☆ Simone Signoret, Philippe Noiret, Fanny Cottençon, Julie Jezequel, Liliana Gerace, Gamil Ratib

Être et Avoir

★★★ (8)

France 2002 colour
Metro Tartan/Maia/Arte France/Films d'Ici/Centre National de Documentation Pedagogique (Gilles Sandoz)

aka: To Be and To Have

A year in the life of a one-room school in rural France.
Exemplary documentary, full of a quiet charm and unobtrusive observation that make it a gentle delight.
d Nicolas Philibert ph Nicolas Philibert, Katell Djian, Laurent Didier, Hugues Gemignani m Philippe Hersant ed Nicolas Philibert
☆ Georges Lopez, Alize, Axel, Guillaume

'It is, simply and stirringly, a kind of beau ideal of education, a vision of how the process can work at its best.' – Joe Morgenstern, Wall Street Journal
'Its patient accumulation of detail is breathtaking.' – Anthony Quinn, Independent

Ett Hal i mitt Hjarta: see A Hole in My Heart

'One Woman. Four Sons. Three Fathers. No one said love was simple.'

Eu Tu Eles

★

Brazil/US/Portugal 2000 106m colour
Columbia TriStar/Conspiracao (Leonardo M. De Barros, Pedro B. De Hollanda, Andrucha Waddington, Favio R. Tambelinni)

aka: Me You Them

A pregnant and abandoned bride marries an elderly, miserly bachelor, and also takes in two other lovers, producing a child by each of them.
A repetitious, intermittently enjoyable comedy of rural life, apparently based on a true story.
w Elena Soarez d Andrucha Waddington ph Breno Silveira m Gilberto Gil ad Toni Vanzolini ed Vicente Kubrusly
☆ Regina Case (Darlene), Lima Duarte (Osias), Stenio Garcia (Zezinho), Luis Carlos Vasconcelos (Ciro), Nilda Spencer (Raquel)

'An unexpected delight, a film that weds the humor and magic of a folk tale with a very modern feel for the psychological dynamics between men and women.' – A. O. Scott, New York times

Eureka

GB/USA 1982 129m Technicolor
MGM/UA/RPC/JF (Jeremy Thomas)

An immensely rich gold striker becomes a recluse and is murdered by Mafia hoods.
Unpleasant in detail and obscure in meaning, this is the sort of film of which the fact that it was financed at all is the most interesting thing about it.
w Paul Mayersberg book Who Killed Sir Harry Oakes? by Marshall Houts d Nicolas Roeg ph Alex Thomson m Stanley Myers pd Michael Seymour
☆ Gene Hackman, Theresa Russell, Rutger Hauer, Jane Lapotaire, Mickey Rourke, Ed Lauter

'A Roeg elephant film.' – Variety
'Between them Roeg and Mayersberg have worked an astonishing alchemy through which an abstraction of the basic patterns of human intercourse is rendered wholly concrete. Embodying Vico's cyclical theory of history, it expounds the despair of humanity's vicious circle from ecstasy to agony, as the impulse to love and possession leads inevitably to loss and destruction.' – Tom Milne, Monthly Film Bulletin
'I've a feeling it will become a cult movie, but no one will convince me that it isn't just the poshest kind of tosh.' – Margaret Hinxman, Daily Mail

Eureka

★

Japan/France 2000 218m bw/colour
Panavision
Artificial Eye/Dentsu/Imagica/Suncent/Tokyo Theaters (Takenori Sento)

The three survivors of a bus hijacking try to come to terms with their traumatic experience.
A remarkable minimalist movie, filmed in scpia-toned black annd white, that has as its protagonists two virtually mute teenagers and a monosyllabic bus driver. Its emphasis on the ordinary holds the attention for much of its great length, until it loses its way in a subplot about a serial killer.
wd Shinji Aoyama ph Masaki Tamra m Isao Yamada, Shinji Aoyama pd Takeshi Shimizu ed Shinji Aoyama ☆ Koji Yakusho (Makoto Sawai), Aoi Miyazaki (Kozue Tamara), Masaru Miyazaki (Naoki Tamura), Yohichiroh Saitoh (Akihiko), Ken Mitsuishi (Shigeo), Go Riju (Hijacker), Yutaka Matsushige (Matsuoka), Sansei Shiomi (Yoshiyuki Sawai)

'A mysterious and sometimes maddening movie. Some spectators may find it too slow and ambiguous. But others will hail Aoyama's intelligent examination of the interplay between kinship and friendship.' – David Sterritt, Christian Science Monitor
'This allegory of modern anomie turns ludicrously pretentious. In pursuing its

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

aesthetic agenda so single-mindedly, the movie leaves the characters behind in the muck.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

Eureka Stockade

GB 1948 103m bw
Ealing (Leslie Norman)
US title: Massacre Hill

In 1854, Australian gold miners revolt against a harsh governor.
Unconvincingly made historical actioner from Ealing's antipodean period.
w Harry Watt, Walter Greenwood, Ralph Smart d Harry Watt ph Gerald Heath m John Greenwood ☆ Chips Rafferty, Jane Barrett, Gordon Jackson, Jack Lambert, Peter Illing, Ralph Truman, Peter Finch

Europa ★★

Denmark 1991 114m bw/colour
'Scope
Electric/Nordisk/Eurimages (Peter Aalbaek Jensen, Bo Christensen)

US title: Zentropa

In Germany in 1945, an idealistic young American finds work as a sleeping-car attendant and falls in love with a Nazi sympathizer.
Witty and exuberant tragi-comedy of the clash between New World innocence and European sophistication.
w Lars von Trier, Niels Vîrsel, Tomas Gislason d Lars von Trier ph Henning Bendtsen, Jean-Paul Meurisse, Edward Klosinsky m Joakim Holbek pd Henning Bahs ed Herve Schneid
☆ Jean-Marc Barr, Barbara Sukowa, Udo Kier, Ernst-Hugo Järegård, Erik Mîrk, Jîrgen Reenberg, Henning Jensen, Eddie Constantine, Max von Sydow (narrator)

Europa 51 ★

Italy 1952 110m bw
Ponti/de Laurentiis

An American society woman living in Rome seeks vainly for truth in the chaotic post-war world and is committed to an asylum by her husband.
A despairing, ironic comment on a period which unfortunately does not convince on the personal level.
w Roberto Rossellini and others d Roberto Rossellini ph Aldo Tonti m Renzo Rossellini
☆ Ingrid Bergman, Alexander Knox, Ettore Giannini, Giulietta Masina

Europa Europa ★★

France/Germany 1991 110m
Eastmancolor
Les Films du Losange/CCC Filmkunst/Perspektywa (Margaret Menegoz, Artur Brauner)

A young Polish Jew, captured by the Germans, pretends to be a loyal Nazi in order to stay alive.
A fascinating true story with the qualities of a thriller, filmed with sensitivity.
wd Agnieszka Holland book Salomon Perel ph Jacek Petrycki m Zbigniew Priesner pd Allan Starski ed Ewa Smal
☆ Marco Hofschneider, Julie Delpy, André Wilms, Aschley Wanninger, Hanns Zischler, Klaus Kowatsch, Hanna Labornaska
'Filled with suspense and touches of humour, pic brings a fresh approach to familiar themes and should find an appreciative arthouse audience in many parts of the world.' – Variety † Controversy erupted over the German committee's failure to nominate the film for an Oscar for best foreign film. Most leading German directors signed a letter protesting about its decision.
Agnieszka Holland (screenplay adaptation)

European Nights ★

France/Italy 1959 79m Technicolor
Avers Film (Fabio Jegher)

A collection of cabaret acts from various European cities are seen in live performances.
A film of some historical interest, showing the sort of entertainment that once flourished in big cities. The highlight is the immaculate magic of Channing Pollock, effortlessly producing doves out of thin air. Also on show are The Platters, Italian singer-songwriter Domenico Modugno, French ventriloquist Robert Lamouret, and some lesser acts, such as Belgium's junior xylophone champion and Colin Hicks (Tommy Steele's less successful brother).
w Ennio de Concini, Gualtiero Jacopetti, Richard Wadleigh d Alessandro Blasetti ph Gabor Pogany m Carlo Savina ad Flavio Mogherini ed Mario Serandrei
☆ Carmen Sevilla, Henry Salvador, Domenico Modugno, The Platters, Channing Pollock, Robert Lamouret, Colin Hicks, The Rastellis, Le Charley Ballet, Ukrainian Orlyck Dance Group, Eddie Gray, The Three Monarchs

The Europeans ★

GB 1979 83m colour
Merchant Ivory (Ismail Merchant)

In 1850, a European baroness arrives in Boston in search of a husband.
Charming if rather tentative period mood piece, probably the most professional and judicious of all the overpraised Merchant Ivory offerings.
w Ruth Prawer Jhabvala novel Henry James d James Ivory ph Larry Pizer m Richard Robbins ad Jeremiah Rusconi
☆ Lee Remick, Robin Ellis, Tim Woodward, Wesley Addy, Lisa Eichhorn
'A film of astonishing delicacy and richness in which the tiniest gesture or intonation reverberates with a world of meanings.' – Tom Milne, MFB

'No actual Europeans were harmed in the making of this film.'

EuroTrip

US 2004 90m Technicolor
DreamWorks/Montecito Picture Co (Daniel Goldberg, Jackie Marcus, Alec Berg, David Mandel)

Dumped by his girlfriend, an American high school graduate heads for Germany to meet his email friend who, he discovers, is a pretty girl.
Crass, crude comedy of no perceptible interest.
w Alec Berg, David Mandel, Jeff Schaffer d Jeff Schaffer ph David Egby m James L. Venable pd Allan Starski ed Roger Bondelli
☆ Scott Mechlowicz (Scott Thomas), Michelle Trachtenberg (Jenny), Jacob Pitts (Cooper Harris), Travis Webster (Jamie), Jessica Boehrs (Mieke), Lucy Lawless (Madame Vandersexxx), Vinnie Jones (Mad Maynard), Matt Damon (Donny)
'Promising young cast flounders amid comic material that's staler than week-old bread.' – Scott Foundas, Variety
'Depressingly dreadful.' – Observer

Eva

France/Italy 1962 135m bw
Paris/Interopa (Robert and Raymond Hakim)

A raw Welsh novelist in Venice is humiliated by a money-loving Frenchwoman who erotically ensnares him.
Foolish story of a femme fatale; elegantly Freudian at moments, it long outstays its welcome.
w Hugo Butler, Evan Jones novel James Hadley Chase d Joseph Losey ph Gianni di Venanzo m Michel Legrand
☆ Stanley Baker, Jeanne Moreau, Virna Lisi, James Villiers
'They don't hardly make 'em like Joseph Losey's Eva anymore, not even in Hollywood, not since Elinor Glyn passed from the script scene and Theda Bara quit as head vamp.' – Judith Crist

Eve Knew Her Apples

US 1945 64m bw
Wallace McDonald/Columbia

A radio singer sets off incognito for a vacation.
Mild musical support whose plot owes something to It Happened One Night.
w E. Edwin Moran d Will Jason
☆ Ann Miller, William Wright, Robert Williams, Ray Walker

The Eve of St Mark

US 1944 95m bw
TCF (William Perlberg)

A small-town boy goes to war and his sweetheart waits for him.
Poetic propaganda based on a sticky play which however had a tragic ending that the film eschews. Smartly made is all one can say.
w George Seaton play Maxwell Anderson d John M. Stahl ph Joseph LaShelle m Cyril Mockridge
☆ William Eythe, Anne Baxter, Michael O'Shea, Vincent Price, Ruth Nelson, Ray Collins, Stanley Prager, Henry Morgan

Eve Wants to Sleep ★

Poland 1957 98m bw
Film Polski (Wislaw Mincer)

An innocent country girl arrives in a city overrun by subversives.
Curious yet sympathetic black farce, like a cross between Hellzapoppin and M. One on its own.
wd Tadeusz Chmielewski ph Stefan Matyjaskiewicz m Henryk Czyz
☆ Barbara Kwiatkowska, Stanislaw Mikulski, Ludwik Benoit

Evel Knievel

US 1971 90m Metrocolor
(MGM) Fanfare (George Hamilton)

Episodes from the life of a motor-cycle stuntman.
Mildly entertaining ragbag of action sequences and fragments of philosophy which might have been more tolerable had EK played himself.
w Alan Caillou, John Milius d Marvin Chomsky ph David Walsh m Pat Williams
☆ George Hamilton, Sue Lyon, Bert Freed, Rod Cameron

'The story of a father's love that changed a nation.'

Evelyn ★

Ireland/GB 2002 95m colour
Panavision
Pathé/First Look/Cinerenta/Irish DreamTime (Pierce Brosnan, Beau St. Clair, Michael Ohoven)

In Dublin in the 1950s, a house-painter fights to regain custody of his three young children after they are taken away from him when his wife leaves him.
Based on a true story that brought an alteration to Irish law, this small-scale domestic drama is sweet enough to rot the teeth and is played for more than it's worth by its cast.
w Paul Pender d Bruce Beresford ph Andre Fleuren m Stephen Endelman pd John Stoddart ed Humphrey Dixon
☆ Pierce Brosnan (Desmond Doyle), Aidan Quinn (Nick Barron), Julianna Margulies (Bernadette Beattie), Stephen Rea (Michael Beattie), Sophie Vavasseur (Evelyn Doyle), Alan Bates (Tom Connolly)
'Slight and dogged; its surprises are likable but minor.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times
'We are deep in the land of OT – Oirish Twaddle – where the pipes trill plaintively, the fiddles weep in sympathy, and no opportunity is missed to milk pathos from the soulful looks of cute moppet Evelyn and her daft but loveable Da.' – Anthony Quinn, Independent

Evelyn Prentice

US 1934 80m bw
MGM (John W. Considine Jnr)

The wife of a criminal lawyer has an affair with a man who blackmails her.
Moderate domestic-cum-courtroom melodrama, heavily reliant on its popular stars.
w Lenore Coffee novel W. E. Woodward d William K. Howard ph Charles G. Clarke md Oscar Radin
☆ Myrna Loy, William Powell, Una Merkel, Harvey Stephens, Isabel Jewell, Rosalind Russell, Henry Wadsworth, Edward Brophy
'Uneven film but extra heavy cast and strong femme sob yarn will put it in the money class.' – Variety

'There have been many great drivers, but only one great passenger.'

Even Cowgirls Get the Blues

US 1993 96m Alpha Cine
Rank/New Line/Fourth Vision (Laurie Parker)

The adventures of the world's greatest hitchhiker, a woman with large thumbs and a penchant for dressing as a cowgirl.
A cult novel of the 70s fails to become a cult film of the 90s; the world has moved on and stranded its characters in some whimsical no-man's land.
wd Gus Van Sant novel Tom Robbins ph John Campbell, Eric Alan Edwards m k. d. lang, Ben Mink pd Missy Stewart ed Curtiss Clayton ☆ Uma Thurman, Lorraine Bracco, Angie Dickinson, Noriyuki 'Pat' Morita, Keanu Reeves, John Hurt, Rain Phoenix, Roseanne Arnold, Ed Begley Jnr, Crispin Glover, Buck Henry, Carol Kane, Sean Young
'Result is at best amusing; at worst, uninvolving, often confusing and sometimes a little boring.' – Variety
'A mess, but a fitfully interesting one.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent

Even Dwarfs Started Small

West Germany 1970 96m bw Werner Herzog

original title: Auch Zwerge Haben Klein Angefangen

Dwarfs in a prison settlement on a volcanic island stage an unsuccessful revolt.
Bizarre and off-putting movie that attempts to say something about the human condition but muddles its message.

wd Werner Herzog ph Thomas Mauch m Florian Fricke ed Beate Mainka-Jellinghaus ☆ Helmut Doring, Paul Glauer, Gisela Hertwig, Hertel Minkner, Gertraud Piccini, Marianne Saar, Brigitte Saar
'There is little arresting in the visual images and the determined obliqueness of treatment is finally unsatisfying.' – Films and Filming

Evening Dress: see Tenue de Soirée

'A story about friends, family and other natural disasters.'

The Evening Star

US 1996 128m DeLuxe
Paramount/Rysher (David Kirkpatrick, Polly Platt, Keith Samples)

In the 80s, a grandmother tries to cope with the lives and loves of her three adult grandchildren.
Routine soap opera, which lacks the spice of the first instalment, though the actors are again encouraged to go over the top in their performances.
wd Robert Harling novel Larry McMurtry ph Don Burgess m William Ross pd Bruno Rubeo ed Priscilla Nedd-Friendly, David Moritz
☆ Shirley MacLaine, Bill Paxton, Juliette Lewis, Miranda Richardson, Ben Johnson, Scott Wolf, George Newbern, Marion Ross, Mackenzie Astin, Donald Moffat, Jack Nicholson
'A vastly disappointing sequel to a superlative original.' – Variety
† It is a sequel to Terms of Endearment (qv).

Evenings

Netherlands 1989 126m colour
Concorde/Praxino (René Solleveld, Peter Weijdeveld)
original title: De Avonden

In 1946 in Amsterdam a young man, unhappy at home and work, contemplates his unsatisfactory life before deciding to write about it.
Tiresome account of an obsessive adolescent's refusal to grow up.
w Jean Ummels, Rudolf van den Berg novel Gerard Reve d Rudolf van den Berg ph Willy Stassen m Bob Zimmerman ad Freek Bissiot ed Maria Steenburgen ☆ Thom Hoffman, Rijk de Gooijer, Viviane de Muynck, Sylvia de Leur, Leen Jongewaard, Kees Coolen Pierre Bokma, Eljer Pelgrom, Jobet Schnibbe, Gija Scholten-van Aschat

Evensong ★

GB 1934 84m bw
Gaumont (Michael Balcon)

At the turn of the century, an Austrian prima donna gives up her career for love.
Well-made romantic drama of its type, notable as the best of its star's few films.
w Edward Knoblock, Dorothy Farnum play Beverley Nichols, Edward Knoblock novel Beverley Nichols d Victor Saville ph Max Greene m/ly Mischa Spoliansky, Edward Knoblock ad Alfred Junge ed Otto Ludwig ☆ Evelyn Laye, Fritz Kortner, Carl Esmond, Alice Delysia, Emlyn Williams, Muriel Aked
'A highly absorbing and intelligently produced musical ... looks like money.' – Variety

'Infinite Space. Infinite Terror.'

Event Horizon

US 1997 95m Rank Colour Panavision
Paramount/Golar/Impact (Lawrence Gordon, Lloyd Levin, Jeremy Bolt)

In 2047, the crew of a spaceship, who go to the rescue of an apparently lifeless experimental ship, experience terrible hallucinations.
Creepy horror movie in outer space that delivers the requisite shocks; a little less predictability would have been welcome, though.
w Philip Eisner d Paul Anderson ph Adrian Biddle m Michael Kamen pd Joseph Bennett ed Martin Hunter
☆ Laurence Fishburne, Sam Neill, Kathleen Quinlan, Joely Richardson, Richard T. Jones, Jack Noseworthy, Jason Isaacs, Sean Pertwee
'A muddled and curiously uninvolving sci-fi horror show.' – Joe Leydon, Variety
'Essentially The Old Dark House in outer space.' – George Perry

'Desire. Defy. Escape.'

Ever After: A Cinderella Story*

US 1998 122m Technicolor Panavision
TCF (Mireille Soria, Tracey Trench)

A prince falls in love with a beautiful girl who disguises her true identity.
A swooningly romantic version of Cinderella, done as a period drama.
w Susannah Grant, Andy Tennant, Rick Parks d Andy Tennant ph Andrew Dunn m George Fenton pd Michael Howells ed Roger Bondelli
☆ Drew Barrymore, Anjelica Huston, Dougray Scott, Patrick Godfrey, Megan Dodds, Melanie Lynskey, Jeanne Moreau, Timothy West, Judy Parfitt, Jeroen Krabbe
'A rather pompous, overlong, only thinly charming love story.' – Ian Nathan, Empire

'She'd say yes, but she no's him too well!'

Ever Since Eve

US 1937 80m bw
Warner (Earl Baldwin)

A publisher falls for a pretty girl, not realizing that she is his own plain secretary in disguise.
Silly romantic comedy which sadly lacks wit, style and believability.
w Lawrence Riley, Earl Baldwin, Lillie Hayward d Lloyd Bacon ph George Barnes m Heinz Roemheld
☆ Marion Davies, Robert Montgomery, Frank McHugh, Patsy Kelly, Louise Fazenda, Barton MacLane, Mary Treen
'A highly incredible script, and badly handled ... it just doesn't jell.' – Variety
† It was Marion Davies's last film.

Ever Since Venus

US 1944 74m bw
Columbia

The inventors of a new lipstick formula can't get production facilities.
Modestly effective wartime comedy with good talent not ill-used.
w Arthur Dreifuss, McElbert Moore d Arthur Dreifuss
☆ Hugh Herbert, Billy Gilbert, Ina Ray Hutton, Glenda Farrell, Ann Savage, Ross Hunter, Alan Mowbray, Fritz Feld, Thurston Hall, Marjorie Gateson Evergreen ★★

GB 1934 90m bw
Gaumont (Michael Balcon)

A star's daughter takes her mother's place, with romantic complications.
Pleasant musical with more wit and style than might be expected.
w Emlyn Williams, Marjorie Gaffney play Ever Green by Benn W. Levy d Victor Saville ph Glen Mac Williams m/ly Rodgers and Hart ('Dancing on the Ceiling', 'Dear Dear'); all other songs Harry Woods md Louis Levy ad Alfred Junge, Peter Proud ed Ian Dalrymple
☆ Jessie Matthews, Sonnie Hale, Betty Balfour, Barry Mackay, Ivor McLaren, Hartley Power

An Everlasting Piece ★

US 2000 103m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/DreamWorks/Bayahibe/Baltimore/Spring Creek (Mark Johnson, Louis DiGiaimo, Jerome O'Connor, Barry Levinson, Paula Weinstein)

In Belfast in the 1980s, a Protestant and a Catholic team up to sell toupees to the locals.
Tart little comedy that throws an ironic sidelight on the sectarian problems in Northern Ireland.
w Barry McEvoy d Barry Levinson ph Seamus Deasy m Hans Zimmer pd Nathan Crowley ed Stu Linder
☆ Barry McEvoy (Colm), Brian F. O'Byrne (George), Anna Friel (Bronagh), Colum Convey (IRA Man), Billy Connolly (Scalper), Pauline McLynn (Gerty), Ruth McCabe (Mrs O'Neill), Laurence Kinlan (Mickey), Des McAleer (Mr Black)
'Great fun, since it is heartless, cheekier by far than non-Irish film-makers would risk even in these low-intensity times, and shows everyone in a cold North light.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard
† The film took $75,000 at the US box office.
†† Producer Jerome O'Connor accused DreamWorks of failing to give the film proper distribution because the studio did not wish to upset the British.

Eversmile New Jersey

US/Argentina 1989 103m Technicolor
J&M Entertainment/Los Films del Camino (Oscar Kramer)

A cavity-obsessed Irish dentist travelling around Patagonia acquires a female assistant en route.
An extraordinarily dreary attempt at a comic road movie, impossible to enjoy without anaesthetic.
w Jorge Goldenberg, Roberto Scheuer, Carlos Sorin d Carlos Sorin ph Esteban Courtalon m Steve Levine ad Coca Oderigo, Maria Julia Bertotto ed Bryan Oates
☆ Daniel Day-Lewis, Mirjana Jokovic, Gabriela Acher, Julio de Grazia, Ignacio Quiros

Every Day's a Holiday ★

US 1937 79m bw
Paramount (Emmanuel Cohen)

A confidence girl in the old Bowery sells Brooklyn Bridge to suckers.
The most satisfactory example of post-Legion of Decency Mae West, the smut being replaced by a lively cast of comedians.
w Mae West d A. Edward Sutherland ph Karl Struss m/ly various ad Wiard Ihnen
☆ Mae West, Edmund Lowe, Charles Butterworth, Charles Winninger, Walter Catlett, Lloyd Nolan, Herman Bing, Roger Imhof, Chester Conklin
'A lively, innocuously bawdy, and rowdy entertainment.' – Variety
Wiard Ihnen

'When the dreamers meet the screamers it's the swingin'est hit that ever swung!'

Every Day's a Holiday

GB 1964 94m Technicolor Techniscope
Grand National (Maurice J. Wilson, Ronald J. Kahn)
US title: Seaside Swingers

Young people who want a showbusiness career take jobs at a holiday camp so that they can enter a talent competition.
Lively lightweight 'teen musical of the time, featuring some briefly successful groups and singers; it must be one of the last movies to feature a performer in blackface, when John Leyton imitates Nat 'King' Cole.
w Anthony Marriott, Jeri Matos, James Hill d James Hill ph Nicolas Roeg m Tony Osborne ch Gillian Lynne ad Edward Carrick ed Tristam Cones
☆ John Leyton (Gerry), Michael Sarne (Tim), Ron Moody (Professor), Liz Fraser (Miss Slightly), Grazina Frame (Christina), Susan Baker (Susan), Jennifer Baker (Jennifer), Nicholas Parsons (Julian Goddard), Michael Ripper (Mr Pulman), Hazel Hughes (Mrs Barrington de Witt), Richard O'Sullivan (Jimmy), Charles Lloyd Pack (Mr Close), Freddie and the Dreamers, The Mojos, The Leroys

Every Girl Should Be Married

US 1948 84m bw
RKO (Don Hartman, Dore Schary)

A determined girl sets her cap at a bachelor pediatrician.
Woefully thin star comedy with few laughs.
w Stephen Morehouse Avery, Don Hartman d Don Hartman ph George E. Diskant m Leigh Harline ☆ Cary Grant, Betsy Drake, Franchot Tone, Diana Lynn, Alan Mowbray, Elizabeth Risdon, Richard Gaines
'In the past, Cary Grant has shown a talent for quietly underplaying comedy. In this picture, he has trouble finding comedy to play.' – Time

Every Home Should Have One

GB 1970 94m Eastmancolor
British Lion/Example (Ned Sherrin)

An advertising man goes berserk when he tries to think up an erotic way of selling porridge.
Tiresomely frenetic star comedy with the emphasis on smut.
w Marty Feldman, Barry Took, Denis Norden d James Clark ph Ken Hodges m John Cameron
☆ Marty Feldman, Shelley Berman, Judy Cornwell, Julie Ege, Patrick Cargill, Jack Watson, Patience Collier, Penelope Keith, Dinsdale Landen

Every Little Crook and Nanny

US 1972 92m Metrocolor
MGM (Leonard J. Ackerman)

A Mafia chief finds his child's new nanny has a grudge against him.
Sporadically amusing farce.
w Cy Howard, Jonathan Axelrod, Robert Klane d Cy Howard ph Philip Lathrop m Fred Karlin
☆ Victor Mature, Lynn Redgrave, Paul Sand, Maggie Blye, Austin Pendleton, John Astin, Dom DeLuise

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Every Man for Himself: see Sauve Qui Peut (La Vie)

Every Man for Himself and God against All: see The Enigma of Kasper Hauser

Every Minute Counts: see Count the Hours

Every Night at Eight
US 1935 80m bw
Paramount (Walter Wanger)
Three sisters become a successful radio singing team.
Forgettable comedy musical with a mildly interesting cast.
w Gene Towne, Graham Baker d Raoul Walsh ph James Van Trees m/ly Dorothy Fields, Jimmy McHugh ☆ George Raft, Alice Faye, Frances Langford, Patsy Kelly, The Radio Rogues, Walter Catlett, Herman Bing
'Looks like another case of missed opportunity ... a routine show world romance.' – Variety

Every Other Inch a Lady: see Dancing Co-Ed

Every Saturday Night: see The Jones Family

Every Second Counts: see Les Assassins du Dimanche

Every Time We Say Goodbye
US 1986 95m colour
Tri-Star (Jacob Kotzky, Sharon Harel)
In 1942 Jerusalem, an American pilot falls for a Sephardic Jewish girl.
Patchy and spasmodically developed story of love across the cultures: TV movie stuff.
w Moshe Mizrahi, Rachel Fabien, Leah Appet d Moshe Mizrahi ph Giuseppe Lanci m Philippe Sarde ad Micky Zahar ed Mark Burns
☆ Tom Hanks, Cristina Marsillach, Benedict Taylor, Anat Atzmon

Every Which Way but Loose
US 1978 114m DeLuxe
Warner/Malpaso (Robert Daley)
A Los Angeles trucker wins an orang-utan in a prize fight and becomes involved in sundry brawls and chases.
Easy-going, shambling star vehicle which was liked by nobody but the public.
w Jeremy Joe Kronsberg d James Fargo ph Rexford Metz md Steve Dorff ☆ Clint Eastwood, Sondra Locke, Ruth Gordon, Geoffrey Lewis, Walter Barnes
† The 1980 sequel, almost indistinguishable, was Any Which Way You Can (qv).

Every Woman's Man: see The Prizefighter and the Lady

Everybody Does It
US 1949 98m bw
TCF (Nunnally Johnson)
A stage-struck wife is chagrined to see her dull husband accidentally become an opera singer.
Very mild remake of Wife, Husband and Friend; everyone tries to be zany, but the result is often just silly.
w Nunnally Johnson story James M. Cain d Edmund Goulding ph Joseph LaShelle md Alfred Newman
☆ Paul Douglas, Celeste Holm, Linda Darnell, Charles Coburn, Millard Mitchell, Lucile Watson, John Hoyt, George Tobias, Leon Belasco
'For sheer momentary enjoyment it would be hard to beat.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

Everybody Sing ★
US 1937 80m bw
MGM (Harry Rapf)
An eccentric theatrical family is upstaged by its servants, who put on a Broadway show.
Agreeably zany comedy with music.
w Florence Ryerson, Edgar Allan Woolf d Edwin L. Marin ph Joseph L. Ruttenberg m William Axt ☆ Allan Jones, Fanny Brice, Judy Garland, Reginald Owen, Billie Burke, Lynne Carver, Monty Woolley, Reginald Gardiner, Henry Armetta
'Excellent film musical with fresh ideas and a corking cast ... for the top spots.' – Variety ♫ 'Swing Mister Mendelssohn'; 'The One I Love'; 'Cosi Cosa'; 'I'm Gonna Pack My Bag'; 'The Show Must Go On'; 'Why? Beacause'; 'Ever Since the World Began'; 'Shall I Sing a Melody?'

Everybody Wins
GB 1990 97m DuArt
Virgin/Recorded Picture Company (Jeremy Thomas)
A private eye is seduced by the unstable woman who has hired him to clear a youth of a murder charge.
Old-fashioned, unsubtle and wordy exploration of small-town corruption.
w Arthur Miller d Karel Reisz ph Ian Baker m Leon Redbone pd Peter Larkin ed John Bloom
☆ Debra Winger, Nick Nolte, Will Patton, Judith Ivey, Jack Warden, Kathleen Wilhoite, Frank Converse
'For a brief period in the late sixties and early seventies, moviegoers seemed willing to be guided through a movie by their intuition and imagination; if this slyly funny movie about the spread of corruption had been released then, it might have been considered a minor classic.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

Everybody's All-American: see When I Fall In Love

Everybody's Cheering: see Take Me Out to the Ball Game

Everybody's Fine: see Stanno Tutti Bene

Everyone Says I Love You ★★ ⑦
US 1996 101m DuArt
Sweetland/Jean Doumanian (Robert Greenhut)
A teenager observes the year-long romantic entanglements of her mother, her divorced father, and her half-brothers and -sisters.
A slightly sour romantic comedy, and a musical for people who don't like musicals, with its cast warbling and dancing in an amateurish manner; it has a certain charm, though, even if the old songs deserve better.
wd Woody Allen ph Carlo Di Palma m Dick Hyman ch Graciela Daniele pd Santo Loquasto ed Susan E. Morse
☆ Woody Allen, Alan Alda, Drew Barrymore, Goldie Hawn, Julia Roberts, Tim Roth, Lukas Haas, Gaby Hoffman, Edward Norton, Natalie Portman, David Ogden Stiers, Natasha Lyonne
'A cinematic oxymoron – complex, bold and audacious and simultaneously simple, guileless and sublime.' – Leonard Klady, Variety
'Perhaps it isn't only the musical that is a highly artificial form, but Allen's particular blend of romanticism, therapy, middlebrow comedy and undemanding art film.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

Everything But the Truth
US 1956 83m Technicolor
U-I (Howard Christie)
A small boy embarrasses his family by telling the truth at all times.
Dum-dum formula comedy made with jaded professionalism.
w Herb Meadow d Jerry Hopper ph Maury Gertsman m Milton Rosen
☆ Maureen O'Hara, John Forsythe, Tim Hovey, Frank Faylen, Barry Atwater

Everything Happens at Night
US 1939 77m bw
TCF (Harry Joe Brown)
Two reporters fall for the daughter of a Nobel Peace Prize winner on the run from the Gestapo.
The star's sixth American film plays down the music and skating in favour of rather jaded spy comedy. Modest entertainment.
w Art Arthur, Robert Harari d Irving Cummings ph Edward Cronjager m various ☆ Sonja Henie, Ray Milland, Robert Cummings, Maurice Moscovich, Leonid Kinskey, Alan Dinehart, Fritz Feld, Victor Varconi
'At no time does very much happen that is of interest.' – Variety

Everything I Have Is Yours
US 1952 92m Technicolor
MGM (George Wells)
A song and dance team is disrupted when the wife decides to become a mother.
Uninventive but lively musical vehicle for the Champions.
w George Wells d Robert Z. Leonard ph William V. Skall md David Rose ch Nick Castle, Gower Champion
☆ Marge and Gower Champion, Dennis O'Keefe, Eduard Franz

'Leave Normal Behind.'

Everything is Illuminated ★ ⑤
US 2005 106m Technicolor
Warner/Big Beach (Marc Turtletaub, Peter Saraf)
A New York Jewish writer travels to Eastern Europe to find the woman who saved his grandfather from a Nazi massacre.
Tame adaptation of a much wilder novel that offers whimsical entertainment.
wd Liev Schreiber novel Jonathan Safran Foer ph Matthew Libatique m Paul Canteloni pd Mark Geraghty ed Craig McKay, Andrew Marcus ☆ Elijah Wood (Jonathan Safran Foer), Eugene Hutz (Alex), Boris Leskin (Grandfather), Laryssa Lauret (Lista)
'This often vivid movie, though it doesn't quite attain its highest intentions, is well worth seeing. And thinking about.' – Richard Schickrl, Time

Everything Is Rhythm
GB 1936 73m bw
Joe Rock
A dance band leader wins a European princess.
Modest programme filler remarkable only for its record of a top band of its time.
w Syd Courtenay, Jack Byrd, Stanley Haynes story Tom Geraghty d Alfred Goulding ph Ernest Palmer ad A. L. Mazzei, George Provis
☆ Harry Roy and his Band, Princess Pearl, Ivor Moreton, Dave Kaye

Everything Put Together ★★
US 2000 85m FotoKem
ICA/Furst
A young wife tries to come to terms with the unexpected death of her newborn baby.
A difficult film to watch, given its subject matter and the director's intensely focused approach that is sometimes closer to a horror movie in its sense of dread and alienation than the usual domesticated drama; but it is rewarding if you can bear it.
w Adam Forgash, Catherine Lloyd Burns, Marc Forster d Marc Forster ph Roberto Schaefer m Thomas Koppel pd Paul Jackson ed Matt Chessé
☆ Radha Mitchell (Angie), Megan Mullally (Barbie), Justin Louis (Russ), Catherine Lloyd Burns (Judith), Alan Ruck (Kessel), Michele Hicks (April), Matt Malloy (Dr Reiner)
'Finely acted expressionistic critique of the suburban baby culture and its joys, fears and fetishes.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

Everything You Always Wanted to Know about Sex ★
US 1972 87m DeLuxe
UA (Charles H. Joffe)
Seven sketches on sexual themes.
Dishevelled revue with a reasonable number of laughs for broadminded audiences.
wd Woody Allen book Dr David Reuben ph David M. Walsh m Mundell Lowe pd Dale Hennesy
☆ Woody Allen, Lynn Redgrave, Anthony Quayle, John Carradine, Lou Jacobi, Louise Lasser, Tony Randall, Burt Reynolds, Gene Wilder

Everything's Ducky
US 1961 81m bw
Barboo/Columbia
Two naval ratings adopt a talking duck.
Anything-goes service farce, with material below the standard of the talent available.
w John Fenton Murray, Benedict Freedman d Don Taylor ph Carl Guthrie m Bernard Green ☆ Mickey Rooney, Buddy Hackett, Jackie Cooper, Joanie Summers, Roland Winters

'The secrets that hold us together can also tear us apart.'

Eve's Bayou ★★ ⑦
US 1997 108m colour
Alliance/Trimark (Caldecot Chubb, Samuel L. Jackson)
In the early 60s, a 10-year-old girl with psychic powers vows to kill her philandering father for sexually assaulting her sister.
A family saga seen through the distancing eyes of a child; it is an intriguing story of shifting memories and blame, as the truth of situations changes.
wd Kasi Lemmons ph Amy Vincent m Terence Blanchard pd Jeff Howard ed Terilyn A. Shropshire ☆ Jurnee Smollett, Megan Good, Samuel L. Jackson, Lynn Whitfield, Debi Morgan, Jake Smollett, Diahann Carroll, Ethel Ayler, Vondie Curtis Hall
'If it's not nominated for Academy Awards then the Academy is not paying attention.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

The Evictors
US 1979 92m Movielab Panavision
AIP (Charles B. Pierce)
Axe murders abound when a young couple move into an old house with a history.
Old-hat horror, out of Psycho and The Amityville Horror: strictly for drive-ins.

w Charles B. Pierce, Gary Rusoff, Paul Fisk
d Charles B. Pierce ph Chuck Bryant
m Jaime Mendoza-Nava ed Shirak Khojayan
☆ Michael Parks, Jessica Harper, Vic Morrow, Sue Ane Langdon

The Evil

US 1978 89m Movielab
New World/Rangoon (Ed Carlin)

A psychologist takes a team to investigate a haunted house, and is soon sorry he meddled.
Another variation on the theme of The Haunting and The Legend of Hell House; more this time on the horror comic level, but reasonably effective.
w Donald G. Thompson d Gus Trikonis ph Mario Di Leo m Johnny Harris
☆ Richard Crenna, Joanna Pettet, Andrew Prine, Cassie Yates, Victor Buono, Lynne Moody

'A bloody close encounter.'

Evil Aliens

GB 2004 92m colour
Content/Falcon Media (Tim Dennison)

A tabloid TV crew investigates a woman who claims to have been impregnated by aliens.
Jokey, gory low-budget horror that will appeal to aficionados of the genre but to few others.
wd Jake West ph Jim Solan m Richard Wells pd Neil Jenkins ed Jake West sp Llyr Williams; makeup f/x: Life Creations;
☆ Emily Booth (Michelle Fox), Samuel Butler (Ricky), Jennifer Evans (Cat Williams), Jamie Honeybourne (Gavin Gorman), Peter McNeil O'Connor (Jack), Nick Smithers (Bruce)

'A film about outer-space zombies that was quite possibly made by outer-space zombies.' – Xan Brooks, Guardian

'A Hero Born In The Midst Of Swords and Sabres'

The Evil Cult

Hong Kong 1993 103m colour
Golden Harvest (Jimmy Heung, Jet Li)

original title: Yi Tian Tu Long Ji Zhi Mo Jiao Jiao Zhu
aka: Kung Fu Cult Master; Lord of the Wu Tang

During a war between martial arts sects for the possession of two golden swords, a weakling learns a secret form of kung fu so that he avenge the deaths of his mother and father.
Epic fantasy in which the participants, who include a Dracula-like King of Green Bat, whizz through the air in flowing false beards, eyebrows and wigs, using supernatural powers; enjoyable nonsense for fans, though even they may find the narrative confusing.
wd Wong Jing fight choreographer Sammo Hung ☆ Jet Li (Mo Kei), Chingmy Yau (Lord of the Wu Tang), Sammo Hung (Chang San Fung), Ngai Sing (Ching-su), Cheung Man (Yin Tin To), Richard Ng (King of Green Bat), Gigi Lai (Chow Chi Yu), Ka-Yan Leung (Sung Yuen Kin)

'The Ultimate Experience In Gruelling Terror.'

The Evil Dead

US 1983 85m DuArt
Palace/Renaissance (Robert G. Tapert)

Five youngsters in a remote cabin find an old book which helps them summon up dormant demons from a nearby forest.
Semi-professional horror rubbish, blown up from 16mm and looking it. When released in England, it was prosecuted as unsuitable for public showing and gained a cult following. It was released on video in a cut version.
wd Sam M. Raimi ph Tim Philo m Joe LoDuca ed Edna Ruth Paul ☆ Bruce Campbell, Ellen Sandweiss, Betsy Baker, Hal Delrich

'The ne plus ultra of low-budget gore and shock effects.' – Variety † Originally made in 1980, but not released publically for 3 years.

Evil Dead 2: Dead by Dawn

US 1987 85m Technicolor
Renaissance/De Laurentiis (Robert G. Tapert)

Trapped in a lonely cabin, a couple fight off ferocious hordes of the spirits of the dead.
Fast-moving horror movie with flashy camerawork and an exuberant taste in sick jokes.
w Sam Raimi, Scott Spiegel d Sam Raimi ph Peter Deming m Joseph LoDuca ad Philip Duffin, Randy Bennett ed Kaye Davis sp make-up: Mark Shostrom
☆ Bruce Campbell, Sarah Berry, Dan Hicks, Kassie Wesley, Theodore Raimi, Denise Bixler

'More an absurdist comedy than a horror film.' – Variety

† It was followed by a sequel, Army of Darkness (qv).

Evil Ed (dubbed) ★

Sweden 1995 90m colour/bw
Evil Ed Productions (Göran Lundström)

A mild-mannered film editor becomes increasingly deranged after he goes to work in his studio's splatter-and-gore department to remove excessive violence from the company's movies.
Exuberant, over-the-top satire of bloody horror flicks, done with some wit; but the lashings of gore overwhelm whatever serious intentions may have been lurking beneath its surface.
w Anders Jacobsson, Göran Lundström, Christer Ohlsson d Anders Jacobsson ph Anders Jacobsson m Henriksson & Lindh ed Anders Jacobsson
☆ Johan Rudebeck, Per Löfberg, Olof Rhodin, Camela Leierth, Gert Fylking, Cecilia Ljung

Evil Fingers: see The Fifth Cord

'The monster's back and no one can stop him!'

The Evil of Frankenstein

GB 1964 94m Eastmancolor
Rank/Hammer (Anthony Hinds)

Frankenstein returns to his derelict castle and finds the Monster preserved in a glacier.
For their third Frankenstein film Hammer made a distribution deal with Universal and thus for the first time were able to use fragments of the old plots as well as something approximating to the Karloff make-up. Production and writing, however, are sadly dispirited except when relying on sadism.
w John Elder (Anthony Hinds) d Freddie Francis ph John Wilcox m Don Banks ad Don Mongaye ed James Needs
☆ Peter Cushing (Baron Frankenstein), Peter Woodthorpe (Zoltan), Sandor Eles (Hans), Kiwi Kingston (The Monster), Duncan Lamont (Chief of Police), Katy Wild, David Hutcheson

Evil Senses (dubbed)

Italy 1986 90m colour
DMV/Globe/Dania/Filmes International/National Cinematografica (Pietro Innocenzi)

A hitman on the run from other killers takes refuge in a high-class brothel and begins an obsessive relationship with a mysterious part-time prostitute.
Glossy but unremarkable thriller, with a flimsy plot and some ludicrous sexual interludes.
w Gianfranco Clerici, Gabriele Lavia, Vincenzo Mannino, Dardano Sacchetti d Gabriele Lavia ph Mario Vulpiani m Fabio Frizzi ad Giovanni Agostinucci ed Daniele Alabiso
☆ Monica Guerritore, Gabriele Lavia, Mimsy Farmer, Lewis Eduard Ciannelli, Dario Mazzoli, Gioia Maria Scola, Jean René Masrevery, Ragnhild Aslaksen

'Sleekly shot, and has enough narrative twists to maintain a modicum of interest despite the risibly melodramatic sex scenes.' – Sight and Sound

The Evil that Men Do

US 1984 90m CFI color
ITC/Capricorn/Zuleika Farms (Pancho Kohner)

A professional killer is asked to eliminate a sadistic political torturer in Guatemala.
More than usually turgid and unpleasant vehicle for a star who is now too old for this kind of thing.
w David Lee Henry, John Crowther novel R. Lance Hill d J. Lee-Thompson ph Javier Ruvalcaba Cruz m Ken Thorne ☆ Charles Bronson, Theresa Saldana, Joseph Maher, José Ferrer, René Enriquez, John Glover, Raymond St Jacques

Evil under the Sun

GB 1982 117m Technicolor Panavision
EMI/Mersham/Titan (John Brabourne, Richard Goodwin)

Hercule Poirot solves the murder of a film star on an Adriatic holiday island.
Very competent but somehow too bland package in the Agatha Christie series, not quite so lively as Death on the Nile.
w Anthony Shaffer novel Agatha Christie d Guy Hamilton ph Christopher Challis m Cole Porter pd Elliot Scott
☆ Peter Ustinov, James Mason, Diana Rigg, Maggie Smith, Colin Blakely, Jane Birkin, Nicholas Clay, Roddy McDowall, Sylvia Miles, Denis Quilley

'They have swapped elegant English menace for a splurge of theatrical camp.' – Time Out

'Temperance beverage Noël Coward.' – Sunday Times

Evil Woman: see Saving Silverman

Evils of Chinatown: see Confessions of an Opium Eater

Evita ★ (4)

US 1996 134m Eastmancolor
Entertainment/Cinergi/Robert Stigwood/Dirty Hands (Alan Parker, Andrew G. Vajna, Robert Stigwood)

The progress to fame and political power of Eva Duarte, who rises from poverty to become a model, film actress and wife of the president of Argentina.
Epic version of the stage musical with a star performance in the title role, and providing some sweep and power, while still retaining the clumsy narrative and uninteresting music of the original.
w Alan Parker, Oliver Stone musical Andrew Lloyd Webber, Tim Rice
d Alan Parker ph Darius Khondji
m/ly Andrew Lloyd Webber, Tim Rice md John Mauceri ch Vincent Paterson
pd Brian Morris ed Gerry Hambling
☆ Madonna, Antonio Banderas, Jonathan Pryce, Jimmy Nail, Victoria Sus, Julian Littman, Olga Merediz

'No effort or expense has been spared in transforming the stage musical into a Hollywood spectacular. As such, the film is, as the hype would have it, a triumph. The problems start, however, as soon as one has lost interest in the sumptuous clothes, virtuoso tango-dancing and necrophiliac display. There is very little dramatic tension.' – Linda Holt, TLS

† The film was one of the few to be subtitled in non-English speaking countries. Even such musicals as The Sound of Music have been dubbed in the past for most Spanish- and Italian-speaking countries.

song 'You Must Love Me' (m Andrew Lloyd-Webber, ly Tim Rice)

Darius Khondji; Brian Morris; Gerry Hambling; sound

'Have a nice end of the world.'

Evolution

US 2001 102m Technicolor
Columbia/Montecito (Ivan Reitman, Daniel Goldberg, Joe Medjuck)

Two incompetent scientists investigate a meteor that contains rapidly-evolving, hostile alien life.
Enjoyable enough romp with juvenile jokes, though it finally mutates into a advertisement for anti-dandruff shampoo; only Hollywood could regard that as progress.
w David Diamond, David Weissman, Don Jakoby d Ivan Reitman ph Michael Chapman m John Powell pd J. Michael Riva ed Sheldon Kahn, Wendy Greene Bricmont sp Phil Tippett cos Aggie Guerard Rodgers
☆ David Duchovny (Dr Ira Krane), Orlando Jones (Harry Block), Seann William Scott (Wayne), Julianne Moore (Allison), Ted Levine (Gen Woodman), Ethan Suplee (Deke), Katharine Towne (Nadine), Dan Aykroyd (Governor Lewis)

'A consistently amusing action romp that easily passes muster as a summertime diversion.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Ex-Flame

US 1930 68m bw
Liberty

A modernized version of East Lynne.
With so many American accents attached to the British peerage, this is mainly for laughs – unintentional ones.
wd Victor Halperin
☆ Neil Hamilton, Marian Nixon, Norman Kerry, Roland Drew, Snub Pollard

'Old-fashioned mush stuff for the woman.' – Variety

'We don't dare tell you how daring it is!'

Ex-Lady ★

US 1933 70m bw
Warner

A lady artist has ultra-modern views on sex and marriage, but turns conventional when she falls in love.
Mildly shocking in its day, this romantic drama was one of the contributing factors to the onslaught of the Legion of Decency which transformed Hollywood output in the following year.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

w David Boehm story Edith Fitzgerald, Robert Riskin d Robert Florey ☆ Bette Davis, Gene Raymond, Frank McHugh, Monroe Owsley, Claire Dodd † Previously filmed in 1931 as Illicit.

The Ex-Mrs Bradford ★

US 1936 87m bw
RKO (Edward Kaufman)

A doctor's scatty ex-wife involves him in solving a murder plot.
Amusing crime comedy, just a little way behind The Thin Man.
w Anthony Veiller, James Edward Grant d Stephen Roberts ph J. Roy Hunt m Roy Webb
☆ William Powell, Jean Arthur, James Gleason, Eric Blore, Robert Armstrong, Lila Lee, Grant Mitchell, Ralph Morgan

'Forged by a god! Foretold by a wizard! Found by a king!'
'No mortal could possess it! No kingdom could command it!'

Excalibur ★

US 1981 140m Technicolor
Warner/Orion (John Boorman)

The story of King Arthur, Merlin, Uther Pendragon, the Holy Grail and the Lady of the Lake.
Curiously pointless retelling of a legend with unexplained flashes of realism and bouts of gore alternating with romance and modern wisecracks. Of mainly visual interest.
w Rospo Pallenberg, John Boorman d John Boorman ph Alex Thomson m Trevor Jones pd Anthony Pratt ed John Merritt
☆ Nigel Terry, Helen Mirren, Nicol Williamson, Nicholas Clay, Cherie Lunghi, Paul Geoffrey, Liam Neeson, Patrick Stewart
'Left entirely to his own devices, Boorman seems to run in self-defeating circles.' – Richard Combs, MFB
'It tries overhard to be simultaneously critical and credulous, magical and earthy, inspiring and entertaining.' – Sunday Times
'A record of the comings and goings of arbitrary, inconsistent, shadowy figures who are not heroes but simply giants run amok.' – Roger Ebert
♙ Alex Thomson

Excess Baggage ④

US 1997 98m Technicolor
Columbia/First Kiss (Bill Borden, Carolyn Kessler)

A bored rich girl who fakes her own kidnapping becomes involved with a car thief, who is being hunted by crooked debt-collectors.
Trivial comedy that is about nothing in particular, and has no particular place to go.
w Max D. Adams, Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais d Marco Brambilla ph Jean Yves Escoffier m John Lurie pd Missy Stewart ed Stephen Rivkin
☆ Alicia Silverstone, Benicio del Toro, Christopher Walken, Jack Thompson, Harry Connick Jnr, Nicholas Turturro, Michael Bowen, Sally Kirkland
'A film so airy that viewers will forget about it even while they're watching it.' – Timothy M. Gray, Variety

Excessive Force

US 1993 90m DeLuxe
New Line/3 Arts/Ian Page (Oscar L. Costo, Thomas Ian Griffith, Erwin Stoff)

A maverick Chicago cop finds himself framed for the murder of a gangster.
Excessively violent, cliché-ridden movie with no redeeming qualities.
w Thomas Ian Griffith d Jon Hess ph Donald M. Morgan m Charles Bernstein pd Michael Z. Hanan ed Alan Baumgarten
☆ Thomas Ian Griffith (Terry McCain), Lance Henriksen (Devlin), Tom Hodges (Dylan), James Earl Jones (Jake), Charlotte Lewis (Anna Gilmour), Tony Todd (Frankie Hawkins), Burt Young (Sal DiMarco), Earl Brown (Vinnie DiMarco)
'The only surprising thing about this by-the-numbers effort is the talent squandered in supporting roles.' – Joe Leydon, Variety
† It was followed in 1995 by Excessive Force 2: Force on Force, an equally violent but otherwise unconnected film set in Los Angeles.

'Racket rule sweeps midwest city!'

Exclusive

US 1937 76m bw
Paramount

Journalist sacrifices himself for daughter whose views he despises.
Solid newspaper drama jinxed by the excellent tragic performance of a star too long regarded as a comedian.
w John C. Moffitt, Sidney Salkow, Rian James d Alexander Hall
☆ Charles Ruggles, Fred MacMurray, Frances Farmer, Lloyd Nolan
'Hokey newspaper-gangster yarn of old-fashioned meller calibre.' – Variety
'In the tough race it falls behind – it can't make the 1937 speed in murder, and the result, like lavender, is not unagreeable.' – Graham Greene

Excuse My Dust ★

US 1951 82m Technicolor
MGM (Jack Cummings)

The inventor of a horseless carriage loves the daughter of a livery stable owner.
Innocuous small-town 1890s comedy with a race climax. Quite pleasant.
w George Wells d Roy Rowland ph Alfred Gilks m Arthur Schwartz ☆ Red Skelton, Sally Forrest, Macdonald Carey, William Demarest

'Every day he loves, somebody else dies!'

The Executioner ★

GB 1970 107m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/Ameran (Charles H. Schneer)

A British spy suspects a colleague of being a double agent.
Dour espionage thriller with a reasonably holding narrative and predictable performances.
w Jack Pulman d Sam Wanamaker ph Denys Coop m Ron Goodwin
☆ George Peppard, Nigel Patrick, Joan Collins, Judy Geeson, Oscar Homolka, Charles Gray, Keith Michell, George Baker, Alexander Scourby, Peter Bull, Ernest Clark, Peter Dyneley
'Does not escape from the well-worn shallow groove in which the contemporary spy film is in danger of becoming stuck.' – Russell Campbell

Executioner of Venice

Italy 1963 90m colour
Liber (Ottavio Poggi)
original title: Il Boia di Venezia

On the day of his marriage the son of the Doge of Venice discovers that his true father was a pirate and is arrested for treason on the orders of the power-hungry Grand Inquisitor.
Standard swashbuckler with glossy production values.
d Luigi Capuano ph Alvardo Mancori ed Antonietta Zita ☆ Lex Barker, Guy Madison, Alessandro Panaro, Alberto Farnese, Mario Petri, Giulio Marchetti

'Assassination Conspiracy? The Possibility Is Frightening.'

Executive Action ★

US 1973 91m colour
EA Enterprises/Wakefield Orloff (Edward Lewis)

An imaginative version of the facts behind the 1963 assassination of President Kennedy.
Interesting but rather messy mixture of fact and fiction; makes one sit up while it's unreeling.
w Dalton Trumbo story Mark Lane, Donald Freed d David Miller ph Robert Steadman m Randy Edelman ☆ Burt Lancaster, Robert Ryan, Will Geer, Gilbert Green, John Anderson
'A dodo bird of a movie, the winner of the Tora Tora Tora prize.' – Variety

Executive Decision

US 1996 132m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Silver Pictures (Joel Silver)

An élite team of commandos goes into action when Islamic militants, carrying a nerve gas that could kill everyone in Washington, hijack an aeroplane and demand a $50m ransom.
This is everything you would expect from a movie produced by Joel Silver: glossy, loud, fast and empty, but at least Steven Seagal disappears halfway through the action.
w Jim Thomas, John Thomas d Stuart Baird ph Alex Thomson m Jerry Goldsmith pd Terence Marsh ed Dallas Pruitt, Frank J. Urioste, Stuart Baird
☆ Kurt Russell (David Grant), Halle Berry (Jean), John Leguizamo (Rat), Steven Seagal (Lt Col Austin Travis), Oliver Platt (Cahill), Joe Morton, David Suchet (Nagi Hassan), B. D. Wong, Len Cariou, Whip Hubley, J. T. Walsh
'The acting is all first base, the script a laughable stream of gung ho-isms, the action merely solid and the effects indifferent. Yet, you still stroll out with a grin a mile wide.' – Ian Nathan

'High up in the skyscraper beauty and power clash in conflict!'

Executive Suite ★★

US 1954 104m bw
MGM (John Houseman)

When the president of a big company dies, the boardroom sees a battle for control.
First of the boardroom films of the fifties, a calculatedly commercial mixture of business ethics and domestic asides, with an all-star cast working up effective tensions.
w Ernest Lehman novel Cameron Hawley d Robert Wise ph George Folsey m none ad Cedric Gibbons, Edward Carfagno
☆ Fredric March, William Holden, June Allyson, Barbara Stanwyck, Walter Pidgeon, Shelley Winters, Paul Douglas, Louis Calhern, Dean Jagger, Nina Foch, Tim Considine
'Not a classic, not a milestone in movie making, but it does suggest a standard of product that could bring back to the box office those vast audiences long alienated by trivia.' – Arthur Knight
'The only trouble with all these people is that they are strictly two-dimensional. They give no substantial illusion of significance, emotion or warmth.' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times
† A TV series followed in 1976.
♙ George Folsey; Nina Foch; art direction

The Exile ★

US 1948 90m bw
U-I (Douglas Fairbanks Jnr)

The man who is to return to the English throne as Charles II hides in Holland, receives his friends and despatches his enemies.
Curious, talkative swashbuckler with only a few moments of action; the available talents are simply not used, though the director imposes a nice pictorial style.
w Douglas Fairbanks Jnr novel His Majesty the King by Cosmo Hamilton d Max Ophüls ph Franz Planer m Frank Skinner ad Hilyard Brown, Bernard Herzbrun ed Ted J. Kent
☆ Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Maria Montez, Paula Corday, Henry Daniell, Nigel Bruce, Robert Coote
† Originally released in sepia.

'Brotherhood, honour, loyalty, assassination – which one is the strongest?'

Exiled ⑥

Hong Kong 2006 110m
Optimum/Media Asia/Milky Way Image (John Chong, Johnnie To) original title: Fong Juk

Five hit-men, friends from childhood, converge on Macau with a variety of murderous agendas.
The story doesn't add up to much more than a series of gun-blazing showdowns, but they're choreographed entertainingly with wit and flair.
w Kam-Yuen Szeto, Tin-Shing Yip d Johnnie To ph Siu-keung Cheng m Dave Klotz, Guy Zerafa pd Tony Yu ed David Richardson
☆ Anthony Wong (Blaze), Francis Ng (Tai), Roy Cheung (Cat), Lam Suet (Fat), Nick Cheung (Wo)

Exiles ★★

France/Japan 2004 104m colour
Swipe/Pyramide/Princes Films (Tony Gatlif)

original title: Exils

A French man and woman journey to Algeria, a country their parents abandoned in search of a better life.
Enjoyable, exuberant road movie of a couple's return to their roots, providing an oblique insight into immigrant experience and expectations.
wd Tony Gatlif ph Celine Bozon m Tony Gatlif, Delphine Mantoulet pd Brigitte Brassart ed Monique Dartonne ☆ Romain Duris (Zano), Lubna Azabal (Naima), Leila Makhlouf (Leila), Habib Cheik (Habib), Zouhir Gacem (Said)
'Terrific journey of self-discovery, a return to roots and a venture into the soul.' – Duane Byrge, Hollywood Reporter
† The film won Gatlif the best director award at the Cannes Film Festival in 2004.

'Play It. Live It. Kill For It.'
'Plug Into The Most Dangerous Fantasy Ever Created.'

eXistenZ ★

US 1999 97m DeLuxe
Miramax/Alliance Atlantis/Serendipity Point/Natural
Nylon (Robert Lantos, Andras Hamori, David Cronenberg)

A leading video-game designer, demonstrating her latest creation, is threatened with death by a group who object to artificial realities.

The problem here is that the video game is one that you can imagine only Cronenberg wanting to play, and underneath the hi-tech trimmings, which look like leftovers from his Naked Lunch, are themes on the relativity of truth that were handled rather better by Pirandello 70 years ago; but perhaps that is to take the movie more seriously than was intended.
wd David Cronenberg ph Peter Suschitzky m Howard Shore pd Carol Spier ed Ronald Sanders sp Jim Isaac ☆ Jennifer Jason Leigh, Jude Law, Willem Dafoe, Ian Holm, Don McKellar, Callum Keith Rennie, Sarah Polley, Christopher Eccleston

'Unquestionably Cronenberg Lite, but there is plenty of fun to be had from the absurdities and convoluted plotting, and a solid cast lends stature to the far-fetched fantasies.' – David Stratton, Variety

Exit Smiling **

US 1926 71m (24 fps) bw silent
MGM (Sam Taylor)
The worst actress in a stock company saves the show.
Amusing comedy for a star who never quite made it in films: this is the best of her vehicles.
w Sam Taylor, Tim Whelan play Marc Connelly d Sam Taylor ph André Barlatier ☆ Beatrice Lillie, Jack Pickford, Harry Myers, Doris Lloyd, DeWitt Jennings, Louise Lorraine, Franklin Pangborn

Exit to Eden

US 1994 113m Technicolor
Guild/Savoy (Alex Rose, Garry Marshall)
Undercover detectives track a diamond smuggler to a holiday island devoted to gratifying sado-masochistic sexual fantasies.
Drear, unbelievably bad comedy; the actors seem embarrassed, as well they might, and the director is obviously uncomfortable with any fantasy more explicit than his Pretty Woman.
w Deborah Amelon, Bob Brunner novel Anne Rice d Garry Marshall ph Theo Van de Sande m Patrick Doyle pd Peter Jamison ed David Finfer
☆ Dana Delany, Paul Mercurio, Rosie O'Donnell, Dan Aykroyd, Hector Elizondo, Stuart Wilson, Iman

'The film is awful.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
'It has the sophistication of an adolescent bathroom joke indifferently told.' – Variety

'What Can Two Men Do Against A Gang Of Crooked Cops? Whatever It Takes.'
'This Is Gonna Hurt.'

Exit Wounds

US 2001 103m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Village Roadshow/NPV/Silver Pictures (Joel Silver, Dan Cracchiolo)
In Detroit, a maverick cop cleans up corruption in the force.
Routine, utterly forgettable action movie with a ponderous star.
w Ed Horowitz, Richard D'Ovidio novel John Westermann d Andrzej Bartkowiak ph Glen Macpherson m Jeff Rona, Damon 'Grease' Blackman pd Paul Denham Austerberry ed Derek G. Brechin
☆ Steven Seagal (Orin Boyd), DMX (Latrell Walker), Isaiah Washington (George Clark), Anthony Anderson (T.K.), Michael Jai White (Strutt), Bill Duke (Hinges), Jill Hennessy (Mulcahy), Tom Arnold (Henry Wayne), Bruce McGill (Daniels), David Vadim (Montini), Eva Mendes (Trish)

'Seeing Steven Seagal in "Exit Wounds," his first bigscreen actioner in a few years, makes one wonder how he ever managed to be regarded as anything resembling a movie star.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Exodus *

US 1960 220m Technicolor Super Panavision 70
UA/Carlyle/Alpha (Otto Preminger)
The early years of the state of Israel, seen through various eyes.
Heavy-going modern epic, toned down from a passionate novel.
w Dalton Trumbo novel Leon Uris d Otto Preminger ph Sam Leavitt m Ernest Gold
☆ Paul Newman, Eva Marie Saint, Ralph Richardson, Peter Lawford, Lee J. Cobb, Sal Mineo, John Derek, Hugh Griffith, Gregory Ratoff, Felix Aylmer, David Opatoshu, Jill Haworth, Alexandra Stewart, Martin Benson, Martin Miller

'Professionalism is not enough – after three and a half hours the approach seems more exhausting than exhaustive.' – Penelope Houston

† Jewish comedian Mort Sahl, invited by the director to a preview, is said to have stood up after three hours and said: 'Otto – let my people go!'
Ernest Gold
Sam Leavitt; Sal Mineo

'What happened to Emily?'

The Exorcism of Emily Rose ④

US 2005 119m colour
Screen Gems/Lakeshore/Firm Films (Tom Rosenberg, Gary Lucchesi)
A priest is charged with negligent homicide after a 19-year-old girl dies following his exorcism of her.
Courtroom drama mixed with standard horror movie moments that comes down on the side of a belief in demonic possession.
w Paul Harris Boardman, Scott Derrickson d Scott Derrickson ph Tom Stern m Christopher Young pd David Brisbin ed Jeff Betancourt
☆ Laura Linney (Erin Bruner), Tom Wilkinson (Father Richard Moore), Campbell Scott (Ethan Thomas), Jennifer Carpenter (Emily Rose), Colm Feore (Karl Gunderson), Mary Beth Hurt (Judge Brewster), Henry Czerny (Dr Briggs)

'While not especially good – judged strictly on its cinematic merits, it ranges from O.K. to god-awful – it is still a fascinating cultural document in the age of intelligent design.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

The Exorcist *

US 1973 122m Metrocolor
Warner/Hoya (William Peter Blatty)
A small girl is unaccountably possessed by the devil and turned into a repellent monster who causes several violent deaths before she is cured.
Spectacularly ludicrous mishmash with uncomfortable attention to physical detail and no talent for narrative or verisimilitude. Its sensational aspects, together with a sudden worldwide need for the supernatural, assured its enormous commercial success.
w William Peter Blatty novel William Peter Blatty d William Friedkin ph Owen Roizman m Jack Nitzsche pd Bill Malley ed Jordan Leandopoulos, Evan Lottman, Norman Gay, Bud Smith
☆ Ellen Burstyn, Max von Sydow, Jason Miller, Linda Blair, Lee J. Cobb, Kitty Winn, Jack MacGowran

'No more nor less than a blood and thunder horror movie, foundering heavily on the rocks of pretension.' – Tom Milne
'The Exorcist makes no sense, [but] if you want to be shaken, it will scare the hell out of you.' – Stanley Kauffmann
'It exploits the subject of diabolic possession without telling you anything about it ... just a stylistic exercise.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News
'There is a little exposition, some philosophy and theology, a quiet interlude, and then pandemonium reigns: rooms shake, heads turn full circle on bodies, wounds fester, vomit spews forth in bilious clouds besmirching a saintly priest, a possessed adolescent girl masturbates bloodily on a crucifix as she barks blasphemies and obscenities, and hoary demons freeze the soul.' – Les Keyser, Hollywood in the Seventies
'I know how to do it. I just throw everything at the audience and give them a real thrill. That's what they want. They don't want to go into a theater and treat it like a book. They don't even read books!' – William Peter Blatty
'This one was scheduled for 105 days. It wound up 200 days. We were plagued by strange and sinister things from the beginning.' – William Peter Blatty
'...raw and painful experience. Are people so numb that they need movies of this intensity in order to feel anything at all?' – Roger Ebert

† Published 1974: The Story Behind the Exorcist by Peter Travers and Stephanie Reiff; 1999, The Exorcist: Out of the Shadows, The Full Story Of The Film by Bob McCabe.
William Peter Blatty; sound (Robert Knudson, Chris Newman) best picture; William Friedkin; Owen Roizman; Ellen Burstyn; Jason Miller; Linda Blair; Bill Malley; editing

'It's four years later. What does she remember?'

Exorcist II: The Heretic

US 1977 117m Technicolor
Warner (Richard Lederer, John Boorman)
Father Lamont, investigating the case related in The Exorcist, finds that the evil in Regan, apparently exorcized, is only dormant.
